COMPANY PRESENTATION - AUGUST 2025

FORWARD LOOKING STATEMENTS

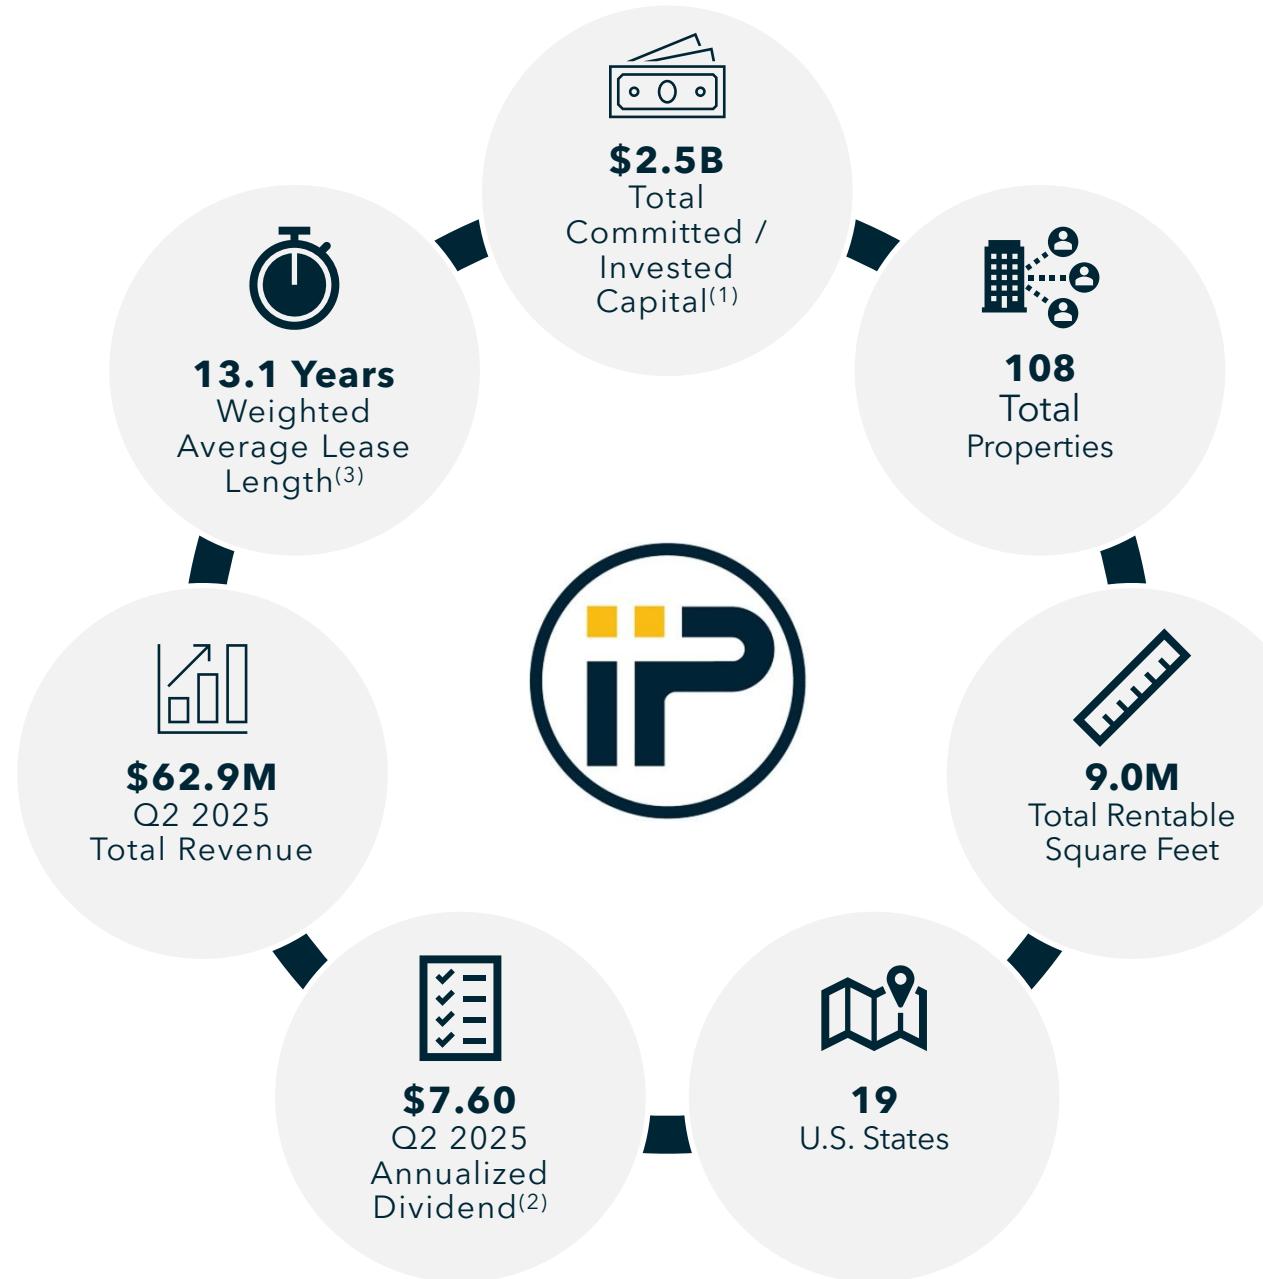

This presentation and our associated comments includes "forward-looking statements" (within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended) that are subject to risks and uncertainties. In particular, statements pertaining to our capital resources, portfolio performance and results of operations contain forward-looking statements. Likewise, our statements regarding anticipated funds from operations and anticipated market and regulatory conditions, our strategic direction, our dividend rate and policy, demographics, results of operations, plans and objectives are forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements involve numerous risks and uncertainties, and you should not rely on them as predictions of future events. Forward-looking statements depend on assumptions, data or methods which may be incorrect or imprecise, and we may not be able to realize them. We do not guarantee that the transactions and events described will happen as described (or that they will happen at all). You can identify forward-looking statements by the use of forward-looking terminology such as "believes", "expects", "may", "will", "should", "seeks", "approximately", "intends", "plans", "estimates" or "anticipates" or the negative of these words and phrases or similar words or phrases. You can also identify forward-looking statements by discussions of strategy, plans or intentions. The following factors, among others, could cause actual results and future events to differ materially from those set forth or contemplated in the forward-looking statements: rates of default on leases for our assets; our ability to re-lease properties upon tenant defaults or lease terminations for the rent we currently receive, or at all; concentration of our portfolio of assets and limited number of tenants; the estimated growth in and evolving market dynamics of the regulated cannabis market; the demand for regulated cannabis facilities; decreased economic activity due to fluctuations in trade policies, tariffs and related government actions; inflation dynamics; our ability to improve our internal control over financial reporting, including our inability to remediate an identified material weakness, and the costs and the time associated with such efforts; the impact of pandemics on us, our business, our tenants, or the economy generally; war and other hostilities, including the conflicts in Ukraine and Israel; our business and investment strategy; our projected operating results; actions and initiatives of the U.S. or state governments and changes to government policies and the execution and impact of these actions, initiatives and policies, including the fact that cannabis remains illegal under federal law; availability of suitable investment opportunities in the regulated cannabis industry; our understanding of our competition and our potential tenants' alternative financing sources; the expected medical-use or adult-use cannabis legalization in certain states; shifts in public opinion regarding regulated cannabis; the potential impact on us from litigation matters, including rising liability and insurance costs; the additional risks that may be associated with certain of our tenants cultivating, processing and/or dispensing adult-use cannabis in our facilities; the state of the U.S. economy generally or in specific geographic areas; economic trends and economic recoveries; our ability to access equity or debt capital; financing rates for our target assets; our level of indebtedness, which could reduce funds available for other business purposes and reduce our operational flexibility; covenants in our debt instruments, which may limit our flexibility and adversely affect our financial condition; our ability to maintain our investment grade credit rating; changes in the values of our assets; our expected portfolio of assets; our expected investments; interest rate mismatches between our assets and our borrowings used to fund such investments; changes in interest rates and the market value of our assets; the degree to which any interest rate or other hedging strategies may or may not protect us from interest rate volatility; the impact of and changes in governmental regulations, tax law and rates, accounting guidance and similar matters; how and when any forward equity sales may settle; our ability to maintain our qualification as a real estate investment trust for U.S. federal income tax purposes; our ability to maintain our exemption from registration under the Investment Company Act of 1940; availability of qualified personnel; and market trends in our industry, interest rates, real estate values, the securities markets or the general economy.

The risks included here are not exhaustive, and additional factors could adversely affect our business and financial performance. In addition, we discussed a number of material risks in our most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K and subsequent Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q. Those risks continue to be relevant to our performance and financial condition. Moreover, we operate in a very competitive and rapidly changing environment. New risk factors emerge from time to time and it is not possible for management to predict all such risk factors, nor can it assess the impact of all such risk factors on our business or the extent to which any factor, or combination of factors, may cause actual results to differ materially from those contained in any forward-looking statements. Any forward-looking statement made by us speaks only of the date on which we make it. We undertake no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise, except as may be required by law. Stockholders and investors are cautioned not to unduly rely on such forward-looking statements when evaluating the information presented in our filings and reports.

This presentation includes certain non-GAAP financial measures. These non-GAAP measures are presented for supplemental information and should not be considered a substitute for financial information presented in accordance with GAAP. A reconciliation of these non-GAAP measures to the most directly comparable GAAP measures is set forth in the Appendix to this presentation.

Market and industry data are included in this presentation. We have obtained substantially all of this information from internal studies, public filings, other independent published industry sources and market studies prepared by third parties. We believe these internal studies, public filings, other independent published industry sources and market studies prepared by third parties are reliable. However, this information may prove to be inaccurate. No representation or warranty is made as to the accuracy of such information. All amounts shown in this presentation are unaudited. This is not an offer to sell or solicitation to buy securities of Innovative Industrial Properties, Inc. Any offers to sell or solicitations to buy securities of Innovative Industrial Properties, Inc. shall be made only by means of a prospectus approved for that purpose.

WHY IIPR WAS FORMED

Operators' Outsized Need for Capital

U.S. cannabis operators have an outsized need for capital to fund growth

Large and Growing Industry

Regulated cannabis sales estimated to grow to $44 billion by 2029, 40% more than 2024 estimated regulated sales of $31 billion⁽¹⁾

Founded in 2016 to Support the Growth and Capital Needs of the Regulated Cannabis Industry

First and only publicly traded company on the NYSE (NYSE: IIPR) to provide real estate capital to address the specific needs of cannabis facility operators

Operators' Limited Access to Financing

Due to federal prohibition and being a nascent industry, U.S. cannabis operators were historically required to fund growth through highly dilutive forms of capital absent other forms of financing

Specialized Real Estate

U.S. cannabis operators require mission critical facilities with specialized buildouts to optimize environment and conform to licensing and zoning requirements

Rapid Adoption of State Legalization

As of June 2025, 42 states and Washington, D.C. have legalized cannabis for medical-use, and 24 states and Washington, D.C. have legalized cannabis for adult-use⁽²⁾

LICENSING, ZONING & REGULATORY DYNAMICS

IIPR has built a strong competitive advantage through its scale, industry network and long-term industry experience

Licensing

- A regulated cannabis operator must obtain proper licensing from the state for the facility
- Licensing driven by state specific program requirements, including costs and applicant requirements for licensing, identification of specific real estate for license approval
- In many states, a highly competitive process

Zoning

- Limited opportunities for locating regulated cannabis facilities based on zoning and permitting requirements imposed at county and city levels, including community support
- Extensive negotiations with local governments for permitting and approvals

Regulatory

- Highly regulated at the state and local levels, including extensive security, fire protection, seed to sale tracking, testing, and other requirements
- Periodic inspections by local fire and safety officials and cannabis authorities to ensure compliance

(1) Amount reflects the $3.9 million disposition-contingent lease termination fee received concurrently with the sale of a property in Los Angeles, California, net of the loss on sale of real estate of $3.4 million.

(2) Amount reflects the non-refundable interest paid on the seller-financed note issued to us by the buyer in connection with our disposition of a portfolio of four properties in southern California previously leased to affiliates of Medical Investor Holdings, which is recognized as a deposit liability and is included in other liabilities in our consolidated balance sheet as of December 31, 2023 and 2024, as the transaction did not qualify for recognition as a completed sale.

(3) Amount reflects the non-refundable lease payments received on two sales-type leases which are recognized as a deposit liability starting on January 1, 2024, and is included in other liabilities in our consolidated balance sheet as of December 31, 2024, as the transaction did not qualify for recognition as a completed sale. Prior to the lease modifications on January 1, 2024, which extended the initial lease terms, the leases were classified as operating leases and the lease payments received were recognized as rental revenue and therefore, included in net income attributable to common stockholders.
