Disclaimer

This presentation contains and related discussions may contain "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of U.S. federal securities laws. Forward-looking statements include information concerning possible or assumed future results of operations, Rocket Companies, Inc.'s (the "Company") business plans and strategies, the Company's ability to cross-sell and up-sell the Company's products, the Company's proposed acquisitions of Redfin Corporation and Mr. Cooper Group Inc., and expansion into new markets. You can identify forward-looking statements by the use of words such as "may," "might," "will," "should," "could," "would," "expect," "plan," "anticipate," "believe," "estimate," "project," "predict," "intend," "future," "potential," "suggest," "target," "forecast," "continue," and, in each case, their negative or other various or comparable expressions. Forward-looking statements are not historical facts, and are based upon management's current expectations, beliefs, estimates and projections, and various assumptions, many of which are inherently uncertain and beyond the Company's control. Such expectations, beliefs, estimates and projections are expressed in good faith and management believes there is a reasonable basis for them. However, there can be no assurance that management's expectations, beliefs, estimates and projections will be achieved, and actual results may differ materially from what is expressed in or indicated by the forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements are subject to risks and uncertainties that could cause actual performance or results to differ materially from those expressed in the forward-looking statements, including: changing economic conditions, changing real estate market conditions, changes in U.S. monetary policies that affect interest rates, changing regulations, new interpretations of existing laws, and difficulties and delays in obtaining or maintaining required licenses or approvals; the Company's ability to adapt and to implement technological changes; the Company's ability to retain customers for a long period of time; the Company's ability to comply with evolving laws, regulation and industry standards addressing information and technology networks, privacy and data security; the Company's ability to protect its products and services from potential cyberattacks and other data and security breaches; the Company's reliance on its loan funding facilities to fund mortgage loans and otherwise operate its business; and other risks, uncertainties and factors detailed in the Annual Report on Form 10-K, Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q, and Current Reports on Form 8-K, and other filings with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") by the Company. Forward-looking statements speak only as of the date the statements are made. The Company assumes no obligation to update forward-looking statements to reflect actual results, subsequent events or circumstances or other changes affecting forward-looking information except to the extent required by applicable securities laws.

This presentation also contains references to financial measures that are not based on accounting principles generally accepted in the United States, or non-GAAP financial measures. We define "Adjusted revenue" as total revenues net of the change in fair value of mortgage servicing rights ("MSRs") due to valuation assumptions (net of hedges). We define "Adjusted net income (loss)" as tax-effected net income (loss) before share-based compensation expense, the change in fair value of MSRs due to valuation assumptions (net of hedges), acquisition-related expenses, the change in Tax receivable agreement liability and the tax effects of those adjustments as applicable. We define "Adjusted EBITDA" as net income (loss) before interest and amortization expense on non-funding debt, (benefit from) provision for income taxes, depreciation and amortization, share-based compensation expense, change in fair value of MSRs due to valuation assumptions (net of hedges), acquisition-related expenses and the change in Tax receivable agreement liability. The non-GAAP measures used by the Company may differ from the non-GAAP financials measures used by other companies. Refer to the Appendix section for definitions of these measures and reconciliations to the most comparable generally acceptable accounting principles in the United States ("GAAP") measures.

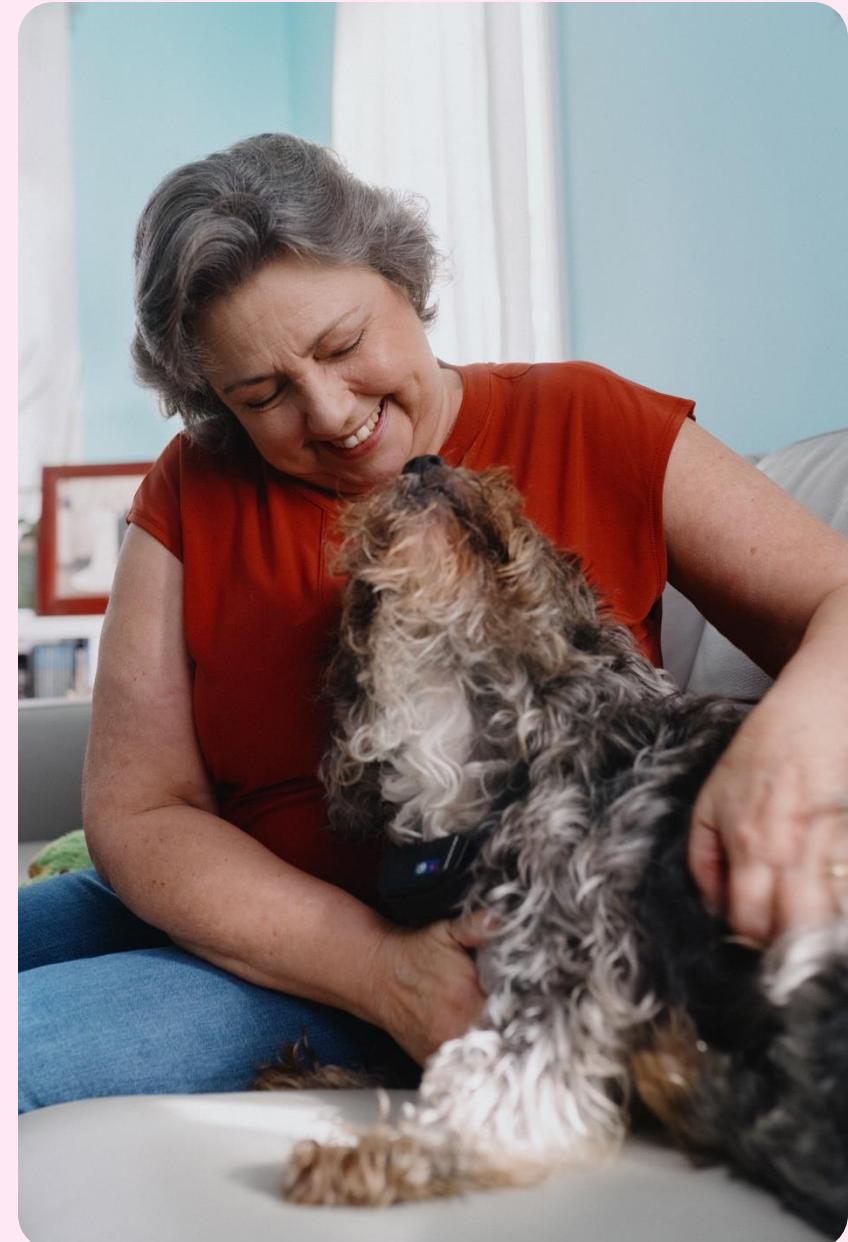

This presentation also contains estimates, targets and other information concerning our industry, including production capacity, market position, market size, and growth rates of the markets in which we participate, which are based on industry or other third-party publications and reports and management's good faith estimates, which are derived from internal data and the aforementioned independent sources. Such information reflects estimates and assumptions made by our management with respect to future events. Although we believe such estimates and assumptions to be reasonable, future events are difficult to predict and subject to change based on factors that may be beyond our control. This information was developed by our management solely using the information available to our management at the time of this presentation. Although we believe the sources used to prepare this information are reliable, we have not independently verified the information therein, nor have we ascertained the underlying economic assumptions relied upon therein. As a result of the foregoing, our actual results could be different from the estimates, targets and other information set forth in this presentation and such information cannot be considered a guarantee of future operating results and should not be relied upon as such.

The information contained in this presentation does not purport to be accurate or complete and is subject to change. Actual characteristics and performance may differ from the assumptions used in preparing these materials. Changes in assumptions may have a material impact on the information set forth in this presentation. In preparing this presentation, we have relied upon and assumed, without independent verification, the accuracy and completeness of all information available from public sources. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, no audit or review has been undertaken by an independent third party of the financial assumptions, data, results, calculations and forecasts from public sources contained, presented or referred to in this document. This presentation shall not constitute an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to buy these securities, nor shall there be any sale of these securities in any state or jurisdiction in which such offer, solicitation or sale would be unlawful prior to registration or qualification under the securities laws of any such state or jurisdiction.

Strong liquidity position

1. In June 2025, the Company issued $2.0 billion of 6.125% senior notes due 2030 and $2.0 billion of 6.375% senior notes due 2033. Rocket intends to use the proceeds from the debt offering, on the closing date for the Mr. Cooper acquisition, to redeem Nationstar Mortgage Holding Inc.'s ("NMH"), a subsidiary of Mr. Cooper, senior notes due 2026, 2027 and 2028, and pay fees and expenses related to the offering and redemption. At the Company's discretion, it may also redeem, purchase and/or amend NMH's senior notes due 2029, 2030, 2031 and 2032, and pay associated expenses, as well as repay secured debt of Rocket and its subsidiaries (including Redfin, Mr. Cooper and their subsidiaries).

1) On 6/30/25, Rocket Companies announced the closing of an internal reorganization ("Up-C Collapse"), whereby shareholders of RHI (Rocket's former controlling shareholder) received newly issued Class L shares, equivalent to one Class L share for each Class D share held by RHI. Class L shares will be entitled to one vote per share, provided that at any time that the aggregate voting power of Class L shares would be equal to or greater than 79% of the total voting power of Rocket's outstanding stock, the number of votes per share of each Class L share will be reduced such that the aggregate voting power of all Class L shares equal to 79%. Figures presented incorporate transaction adjustments.

Note: Total outstanding shares, as of 2024 10K filing, excludes RSUs, PSUs and stock options.

Certain figures throughout this document may not foot due to rounding.

(1) For financial outlook information, the Company is not providing a quantitative reconciliation of the non-GAAP measures in this table to the most directly comparable GAAP measure because the GAAP measure cannot be reliably estimated and the reconciliation cannot be performed without unreasonable effort due to their dependence on future uncertainties and adjusting items that the Company cannot reasonably predict at this time but which may be material.

(2) This outlook incorporates a full quarter of consolidated financial results from Redfin Corporation.

2. Reflects changes in market interest rates and assumptions, including discount rates and prepayment speeds, gains or losses on sales of MSRs during the period and the effects of contractual prepayment protection associated with sales or purchases of MSRs.

3. Reflects legal accrual reversal related to a specific legal matter recorded as an adjustment in 2021.

4. Reflects changes in estimates of tax rates and other variables of the Tax receivable agreement liability.

5. Includes non-recurring expenses related to the pending acquisitions and the Up-C collapse.

1. Reflects net income (loss) to Class A common shares from pro forma exchange and conversion of corresponding shares of our Class D common shares held by non-controlling interest holders during the periods ended. Class D common shares were exchanged and retired on June 30, 2025, the date the Up-C Collapse was effectuated.

2. Rocket Companies is subject to U.S. Federal income taxes, in addition to state, local and Canadian taxes with respect to its allocable share of any net taxable income or loss of Holdings. The adjustment to the (provision for) benefit from income tax reflects the difference between (a) the income tax computed using the effective tax rates below applied to the income (loss) before income taxes assuming Rocket Companies, Inc. owns 100% of the non-voting common interest units of Holdings and (b) the (benefit from) provision for income taxes.

3. Reflects changes in market interest rates and assumptions, including discount rates and prepayment speeds, gains or losses on sales of MSRs during the period and the effects of contractual prepayment protection associated with sales or purchases of MSRs.

4. Reflects litigation accrual reversal related to a specific legal matter recorded as an adjustment in 2021.

5. Reflects changes in estimates of tax rates and other variables of the Tax receivable agreement liability.

6. Includes non-recurring expenses related to the pending acquisitions and the Up-C collapse.

7. Tax impact of adjustments gives effect to the income tax related to share-based compensation expense, change in fair value of MSRs due to valuation assumptions (net of hedges), litigation accrual reversal, career transition program and the change in Tax receivable agreement liability at the effective tax rates for each period.

8. Represents tax benefits due to the amortization of intangible assets and other tax attributes resulting from the purchase of Holdings units, net of payment obligations under Tax Receivable agreement.

Endnotes

(2) "Adjusted EBITDA Margin" calculated as Adjusted EBITDA divided by Adjusted Revenue. "Adjusted Net Income Margin" calculated as Adjusted Net Income divided by Adjusted Revenue. We define "Adjusted revenue" as total revenues net of the change in fair value of mortgage servicing rights ("MSRs") due to valuation assumptions (net of hedges). We define "Adjusted net income" as tax-effected net income (loss) before share-based compensation expense, the change in fair value of MSRs due to valuation assumptions (net of hedges), acquisition-related expenses, the change in Tax receivable agreement liability and the tax effects of those adjustments as applicable. We define "Adjusted EBITDA" as net income (loss) before interest and amortization expense on non-funding debt, (benefit from) provision for income taxes, depreciation and amortization, share-based compensation expense, change in fair value of MSRs due to valuation assumptions (net of hedges), acquisition-related expenses and the change in Tax receivable agreement liability.. These non-GAAP financial measures are in addition to, not a substitute for or superior to, measures of financial performance prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States.

(3) We define "net client retention rate" as the number of clients that were active at the beginning of a period and which remain active at the end of the period, divided by the number of clients that were active at the beginning of the period. This metric excludes clients whose loans were sold during the period as well as clients to whom we did not actively market to due to contractual prohibitions or other business reasons. We define "active" as those clients who do not pay-off their mortgage with us and originate a new mortgage with another lender during the period.
