Long-term Debt and Credit AgreementsLong Term DebtSenior NotesOn May 21, 2024, Garrett Motion Holdings Inc. and Garrett LX I S.Å.r.l. (the "Issuers"), wholly owned subsidiaries of the Company, completed an offering of $800 million in aggregate principal amount of 7.75% Senior Unsecured Notes due 2032 (the "2032 Senior Notes"). The 2032 Senior Notes mature on May 31, 2032. The Company incurred $12 million of debt issuance costs, which have been capitalized and will be amortized on a straight-line basis. The 2032 Senior Notes are guaranteed by the Company and each of the Company's wholly owned subsidiaries that guarantee obligations under the existing Credit Agreement (as defined below), subject to certain exceptions. The proceeds from the sale of the 2032 Senior Notes, together with cash on hand, were used to repay approximately $800A million of term loan indebtedness, as described below, and to pay related fees and expenses. Term Loans On April 30, 2021, the Company entered into a credit agreement (as amended from time to time, the "Credit Agreement") with JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. as administrative agent. The Credit Agreement provided for the following long-term senior secured financing (collectively, the "Term Loan Facilities"):Å€€2021 Dollar Term Facility: a seven-year secured first-lien U.S. Dollar term loan facility for $715A million;Å€€2023 Dollar Term Facility: a five-year secured first-lien U.S. Dollar term loan facility for $500A million; andÅ€Euro Term Facility: a seven-year secured first-lien Euro term loan facility for Å,~450A million.In the nine months ended SeptemberÅ 30, 2024, we made early debt repayments totaling $985 million on our Euro Term Facility and our 2023 Dollar Term Facility. Both term loans were fully repaid as of SeptemberÅ 30, 2024. The early repayments resulted in incremental amortization of debt issuance costs of $27 million, included within Interest expense in the Consolidated Interim Statement of Operations. On May 21, 2024, in addition to the above transactions, the Company entered into Amendment No. 4 (the "Fourth Amendment") and Amendment No. 5 (the "Fifth Amendment" and, together with the Fourth Amendment, the "Amendments") to the Credit Agreement (as amended by the Amendments, the "Amended Credit Agreement"). The Fourth Amendment (i) removed the credit spread adjustment with respect to certain US dollar denominated term loan borrowings that are Term Benchmark Loans (as defined in the Amended Credit Agreement) and (ii) reduced the Applicable Rate (as defined in the Amended Credit Agreement) on certain US dollar denominated term loans to 2.75% for Term Benchmark Loans and 1.75% for ABR Loans (as defined in the Amended Credit Agreement).The Fifth Amendment increased the amount of revolving loan commitments available to the Company under the Credit Agreement by $30 million ("Incremental Revolving Commitment") to an aggregate amount of $600 million, as discussed below. The Incremental Revolving Commitment has the same terms and is subject to the same conditions applicable to revolving loans generally under the Amended Credit Agreement.The principal outstanding and carrying amounts of our long-term debt as of SeptemberÅ 30, 2024 and DecemberÅ 31, 2023 are as follows:15A Due Å Interest Rate September 30,2024December 31,20232021 Dollar Term Facility4/30/2028SOFPR plus 275 bps Å693A Å699A 2023 Dollar Term Facility4/30/2028SOFPR plus 450 bpsÅ€ Å 500A Euro Term Facility4/30/2028EURIBOR plus 350 bps Å€ Å 497A 2032 Senior Notes 5/31/20327.75%800A Å€ Å Other2A Å€ Å Total principal outstanding1,495A 1,696A Less: unamortized deferred financing costs(24)(46)Less: current portion of long-term debt(7)(7)Total long-term debt$1,464A Å1,643A Revolving Facility and Letters of CreditThe Amended Credit Agreement also provides for a senior secured first-lien revolving credit facility providing for multi-currency revolving loans (the Å€Revolving FacilityÅ€). The Revolving Facility matures on April 30, 2028 and has a maximum borrowing amount available of $600 million.Under the Revolving Facility, the Company may use up to $125 million for the issuance of letters of credit to its subsidiaries. Letters of credit are available for issuance under the Amended Credit Agreement on terms and conditions customary for financings of this kind, which issuances reduce availability under the Revolving Facility. As of SeptemberÅ 30, 2024, the Company had no loans outstanding under the Revolving Facility, no outstanding letters of credit, and available borrowing capacity of $600 million.Separate from the Revolving Facility, the Company has a bilateral letter of credit facility in the amount of $15 million, which matures on April 30, 2026. As of SeptemberÅ 30, 2024, the Company had $12 million utilized and $3 million of remaining available capacity under such facility.Minimum scheduled principal repayments of long-term debt as of SeptemberÅ 30, 2024 are as follow:September 30,2024(Dollars in millions)2024$2A 20257A 20267A 20277A 2028672A Thereafter800A Total debt payments$1,495A Interest Rates and FeesThe 2032 Senior Notes bear interest at a rate of 7.75% per annum. Interest on the 2032 Senior Notes is payable semi-annually in arrears on May 31 and November 30 of each year, commencing on November 30, 2024. The 2021 Dollar Term Facility is subject to an interest rate, at our option, of either (a) an alternate base rate (Å€ÅBRÅ€) (which shall not be less than 1.50%) or (b) an adjusted SOFR rate (Å€ÅeSOFRÅ€) (which shall not be less than 0.50%), in each case, plus an applicable margin equal to 2.75% in the case of SOFR loans and 1.75% in the case of ABR loans. The Revolving Facility is subject to an interest rate comprised of an applicable benchmark rate as provided under the Credit Agreement (which shall not be less than 1.00% if such benchmark is the ABR rate and not less than 0.00% in the case of other applicable benchmark rates) that is selected based on the currency in which borrowings are outstanding thereunder, in each case, plus an applicable margin that may vary based on our leverage ratio. 16In addition to paying interest on outstanding borrowings under the Revolving Facility, we are also required to pay a quarterly commitment fee based on the average daily unused portion of the Revolving Facility during such quarter, which is determined by our leverage ratio and ranges from 0.25% to 0.50% per annum.Certain Covenants2032 Senior NotesThe 2032 Senior Notes contain certain covenants that limit the ability of the Company and its restricted subsidiaries to incur certain additional debt, incur certain liens securing debt, pay certain dividends or make other restricted payments, make certain investments, make certain asset sales, and enter into certain transactions with affiliates. These covenants are subject to a number of exceptions, limitations, and qualifications as set forth in the 2032 Senior Notes indenture. Additionally, the indenture contains certain change of control provisions that, under certain conditions, would require the Company to make an offer to repurchase all of the outstanding 2032 Senior Notes at a price equal to 101% of the aggregate principal amount, plus accrued and unpaid interest. The indenture also contains customary events of default.Term LoansThe Amended Credit Agreement contains certain affirmative and negative covenants customary for financings of this type. The Revolving Facility also contains a financial covenant requiring the maintenance of a consolidated total leverage ratio of not greater than 4.7 times as of the end of each fiscal quarter if, on the last day of any such fiscal quarter, the aggregate amount of loans and letters of credit (excluding backstopped or cash collateralized letters of credit and other letters of credit with an aggregate face amount not exceeding $30A million) outstanding under the Revolving Facility exceeds 35% of the aggregate commitments in effect thereunder on such date. As of SeptemberÅ 30, 2024, the Company was in compliance with all covenants under the 2032 Senior Notes indenture and Amended Credit Agreement.Note 15. EquityPreferred StockOn April 12, 2023, the Company entered into separate definitive agreements with each of Centerbridge Partners, L.P. and funds managed by Oaktree Capital Management, L.P. to effect a series of integrated transactions (collectively, the Å€TransactionÅ€) designed to simplify the CompanyÅ€™s capital structure by converting all outstanding Series A Preferred Stock into a single class of Common Stock, subject to certain conditions.On June 6, 2023, the Company completed all steps of the Transaction and had no remaining shares of Series A Preferred Stock outstanding as of that date. Please refer to Note 21, Equity, to the Consolidated Financial Statements for the year ended December 31, 2023 included in our 2023 Form 10-K.Treasury StockTreasury stock represents shares of the Company's Common Stock that have been issued and subsequently repurchased by the Company or withheld to satisfy withholding tax obligations in connection with equity award vestings, and that have not been retired or cancelled. The Company accounts for treasury stock under the cost method and includes treasury stock as a component of Equity (Deficit) on the Consolidated Interim Balance Sheet. The Company accounts for the reissuance of treasury stock using the average cost method. The Company did not reissue or retire any shares of treasury stock during the three and nine months ended SeptemberÅ 30, 2024. Share Repurchase ProgramOn February 12, 2024, the Board of Directors authorized a $350A million share repurchase program valid until December 31, 2024. The Company may repurchase shares from time to time under the program through various methods, including in open market transactions, block trades, privately negotiated transactions, and otherwise. The timing, as well as the number and value of shares repurchased under the program, will depend on a variety of factors. The Company is not obligated to purchase any shares under the repurchase program, and the program may be suspended, modified, or discontinued at any time without prior notice. During the nine months ended SeptemberÅ 30, 2024, the Company repurchased $226 million of Common Stock, and had $124 million remaining under the share repurchase program. The repurchased shares are held as treasury stock. 17Note 16. Financial Instruments and Fair Value MeasuresOur credit, market, and foreign currency risk management policies are described in Note 19, Financial Instruments and Fair Value Measures, to the Consolidated Financial Statements for the year ended DecemberÅ 31, 2023 included in our 2023 Form 10-K. As of SeptemberÅ 30, 2024 and DecemberÅ 31, 2023, we had contracts with aggregate gross notional amounts of $790 million and $1,171 million, respectively, to hedge foreign currencies, principally the U.S. Dollar, Swiss Franc, British Pound, Euro, Chinese Yuan, Japanese Yen, Mexican Peso, New Romanian Lei, Czech Koruna, Australian Dollar, and Korean Won.Fair Value of Financial InstrumentsThe FASBÅ€™s accounting guidance defines fair value as the price that would be received to sell an asset or liability to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date (exit price). Financial and nonfinancial assets and liabilities are classified in their entirety based on the lowest level of input that is significant to the fair value measurement. The following table sets forth the CompanyÅ€™s financial assets and liabilities that were accounted for at fair value on a recurring basis as of SeptemberÅ 30, 2024 and DecemberÅ 31, 2023:Fair ValueNotional AmountsAssetsLiabilitiesSeptember 30,2024DecemberÅ 31, 2023September 30,2024DecemberÅ 31, 2023September 30,2024DecemberÅ 31, 2023Designated instruments:Designated forward currency exchange contracts$369A Å456A Å3A Å11A (a)10A Å6A (c)Designated cross-currency swaps1,515A 1,015A 24A 37A (b)24A 17A (d)Designated interest-rate swapsÅ€ Å 200A Å€ Å 1A Å€ Å Å€ Å Å€ Å Total designated instruments1,884A 1,671A 27A 48A 34A 23A Undesignated instruments:Undesignated interest rate swaps502A 917A 13A 46A (b)3A 3A (d)Undesignated forward currency exchange contracts421A 715A 1A 1A (a)2A 6A (c)Total undesignated instruments923A 1,632A 14A 47A 5A 9A Total designated and undesignated instruments$2,807A Å3,303A Å41A Å95A Å39A Å32A (a) Recorded within Other current assets(b) Recorded within Other assets(c) Recorded within Accrued liabilities(d) Recorded within Other liabilitiesCash Flow HedgesDuring 2023, the Company entered into float-to-fixed interest rate swap contracts with an aggregate notional amount of $200 million and maturities in July 2024 and October 2024. The Company also entered into a float-to-fixed cross-currency swap contract comprised of an amortizing swap with an aggregate notional amount of Å,~280 million ($300 million) and notional exchanges in June 2026, June 2027, and June 2028. The interest rate swap and cross-currency swap contracts were early settled in 2024, resulting in net gains of $18A million recorded to Interest expense and a $4A million loss recorded to Non-operating expense in the Consolidated Interim Statement of Operations. The Company also has outstanding forward currency exchange contracts with maturities up to 18 months and an aggregate notional amount of $369 million and $456 million as of SeptemberÅ 30, 2024 and DecemberÅ 31, 2023, respectively. These forward currency exchange contracts have been designated as cash flow hedges to mitigate foreign currency exposures primarily on our inventory purchases and manufacturing costs. The gains and losses on the forward currency exchange contracts are recorded in Accumulated Other Comprehensive Income ("AOCI") and reclassified to Cost 18of goods sold in the Consolidated Interim Statement of Operations when the underlying transactions are recognized in earnings.In order to mitigate foreign currency risk on its 2032 Senior Notes, the Company entered into fixed-to-fixed cross-currency swap contracts with an aggregate notional amount of Å,~507 million ($550 million) and notional exchanges in May 2027, May 2028, May 2029, and May 2030. Changes in the fair value of the cross-currency swap contracts are recognized in AOCI and reclassified to Non-operating (income) expense in the Consolidated Interim Statement of Operations, based upon changes in the spot rate remeasurement of the underlying debt. The net interest settlements on the cross-currency swap contracts are recorded in Interest expense in the Consolidated Interim Statements of Operations.All of the Company's cash flow hedges are assessed as highly effective. For the three months ended SeptemberÅ 30, 2024 and 2023, the Company recorded a gain of $4 million, net of tax, and a loss of $2 million, net of tax, respectively, in Other comprehensive income. For the nine months ended SeptemberÅ 30, 2024 and 2023, the Company recorded a gain of $5 million, net of tax, and a loss of $3 million, net of tax, respectively, in Other comprehensive income.Net Investment HedgesThe Company has designated cross-currency swaps with aggregate notional amounts of Å,~858A million ($965 million) and Å,~615 million ($715 million) as of SeptemberÅ 30, 2024 and DecemberÅ 31, 2023, respectively, as net investment hedges of its Euro-denominated operations. In April 2024, the Company re-coupeden the cross-currency swap contracts and received a cash settlement of $13 million. The fair values of the net investment hedges were net assets of $10 million and $37 million as of SeptemberÅ 30, 2024 and DecemberÅ 31, 2023, respectively. Our Consolidated Interim Statements of Comprehensive Income include Changes in fair value of net investment hedges, net of tax, of a $31 million loss and a $20 million gain for the three months ended SeptemberÅ 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively, and of a $4 million loss and a $18 million gain for the nine months ended SeptemberÅ 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively. No ineffectiveness has been recorded on the net investment hedges.Non-Designated DerivativesAs of SeptemberÅ 30, 2024 and DecemberÅ 31, 2023, the Company has outstanding float-to-fixed interest rate swap contracts with an aggregate notional amount of Å,~450 million ($502 million) and Å,~830 million ($917 million), respectively, and maturities of October 2024, April 2025, April 2026, April 2027, and April 2028. Changes in the fair value of the undesignated interest rate swap contracts are recorded in Interest expense in the Consolidated Interim Statements of Operations. For the three months ended SeptemberÅ 30, 2024 and 2023, the Company recorded losses of $9 million and $5 million, net of tax, respectively, in Non-

We are located in North America. Our sales decreased by $30 million or 6% (including an unfavorable impact of $7 million or 1% due to foreign currency translation), primarily driven by construction and agriculture industry softness due to high interest rates and lower crop prices, partially offset by sustained demand in the on-highway industry, especially in China, with natural gas programs applications. Aftermarket sales increased by $8 million or 2% (including an unfavorable impact of $1 million or 1% due to foreign currency translation), primarily due to favorable aftermarket conditions and continued high demand for replacement parts in Europe, China, and North America, partially offset by softer sales in other Asian countries.

For the three months ended September 30, 2024, cost of goods sold decreased by $124 million, primarily driven by $113 million of lower sales volumes, $16 million of commodity, transportation, and energy deflation, and $38 million of productivity, net of labor inflation. These decreases were partially offset by $32 million of unfavorable product mix, $6 million of higher R&D costs, reflecting Garrett's continued investment in new technologies, and $5 million from foreign currency impacts. For the nine months ended September 30, 2024, gross profit decreased by $10 million, primarily driven by $46 million of lower sales volumes, $13 million from commodity deflation impacts on pricing, net of inflation pass-through, $6 million of higher R&D costs, and $4 million from foreign currency impacts. These decreases were partially offset by $16 million of commodity, transportation, and energy deflation, $33 million of productivity, net of labor inflation, and $10 million of favorable product mix.

The selling, general and administrative expenses for the three months ended September 30, 2024 decreased by $6 million compared with the prior year, mainly driven by $5 million of lower professional service and legal fees, $2 million of lower bad debt expense and $2 million of lower IT-related costs. These decreases were partially offset by $2 million of higher repositioning costs and $1 million of unfavorable foreign exchange impact.

SG&A expenses for the nine months ended September 30, 2024 were consistent with the prior year. Year over year variances are primarily related to $5 million of higher stock-based compensation expense and $2 million of higher repositioning costs. These increases were offset by $6 million of lower professional service and legal fees and $2 million of lower IT-related costs.

SG&A expenses also increased due to $1 million of unfavorable exchange impact. Interest Expense

Interest expense decreased by $11 million compared to the prior year, primarily driven by $10 million lower of debt issuance cost amortization and $9 million of lower interest expense due to a different notional amount of debt outstanding during the period. In addition, we recorded $4 million of gains on our interest derivatives in the current year, in comparison to $7 million of gains in the prior year. We also recognized $9 million of marked-to-market remeasurement losses during the three months ended September 30, 2024 on our undesignated interest rate swap contracts, in comparison to $5 million of marked-to-market remeasurement losses in the prior year. For the nine months ended September 30, 2024, interest expense increased by $26 million compared to the prior year, primarily driven by $17 million of higher accelerated debt issuance cost amortization, and $10 million of higher interest expense related to our 2032 Senior Notes partially offset by lower interest expense related to our 2023 Dollar Term Facility. In addition, we recorded $23 million of gains, net of settlements of $18 million, on our interest derivatives in the current year, in comparison to $18 million of gains in the prior year. We also recognized $33 million of marked-to-market remeasurement losses during the nine months ended September 30, 2024 on our undesignated interest rate swap contracts, in comparison to $12 million of marked-to-market remeasurement losses in the prior year. Non-operating income was $(7) million versus $2 million in the prior year, primarily driven by lower equity income due to the sale of an equity interest in an unconsolidated joint venture. For the nine months ended September 30, 2024, we had non-operating income of $7 million versus an expense of $3 million in the prior year, primarily driven by foreign exchange transactional gains, partially offset by $2 million of lower equity income due to the sale of an equity interest in an unconsolidated joint venture.

The effective tax rates for the three months ended September 30, 2024 and 2023 were 31.6% and 18.6%, respectively. The effective tax rates for the nine months ended September 30, 2024 and 2023 were 25.4% and 25.1%, respectively. The change in the effective tax rate for the three months ended September 30, 2024 compared to the prior period is primarily related to global mix of earnings, partially offset by adjustments to tax reserves due to expiration of statute of limitations. The change in the effective tax rate for the nine months ended September 30, 2024 compared to the prior period is primarily related to global mix of earnings and tax expense related to the sale of an equity interest in an unconsolidated joint venture, partially offset by reversal of tax reserves and lower non-deductible transaction costs.

In January 2019, the Organization for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD) announced further work in continuation of its Base Erosion and Profit Shifting project, focusing on two pillars. Pillar One provides a framework for the reallocation of certain residual profits of multinational enterprises to market jurisdictions where goods or services are used or consumed. Pillar Two consists of two interrelated rules referred to as Global Anti-Base Erosion (GloBE) Rules, which operate to impose a minimum tax rate of 15% calculated on a jurisdictional basis. On December 20, 2021, the OECD published GloBE model rules and released multiple rounds of commentary on those rules over the subsequent months. More than 135 OECD member countries have agreed to the key parameters of the model rules, which allow those OECD member countries to begin implementing the GloBE rules in a manner consistent with the agreement reached. The rules were adopted by a number of countries, with an effective date for fiscal years beginning after December 31, 2023. We do not expect that Pillar One will have an impact on our operations or effective tax rate. Based on currently enacted legislation, we do not expect Pillar Two to have a material impact to our 2024 effective tax rate. However, further enactment of legislation by countries in which we do business could have an impact on our 2024 effective tax rate. The effective tax rate can vary from quarter to quarter due to changes in the Company's global mix of earnings, the resolution of income tax audits, changes in tax laws (including updated guidance on U.S. tax reform), deductions related to employee share-based payments, internal restructurings, and pension mark-to-market adjustments.

Net income for the three months ended September 30, 2024 decreased by $5 million compared with the prior year, primarily due to $10 million of decreased gross profit and $11 million of higher tax expense. These decreases were partially offset by $11 million of lower interest expense and $6 million of lower SG&A expense. Net income for the nine months ended September 30, 2024 decreased by $27 million compared with the prior year, primarily due to $44 million of decreased gross profit and $26 million of higher interest expense. These decreases were partially offset by a $27 million gain on the sale of an equity interest in an unconsolidated joint venture, $10 million of higher non-operating income, and $8 million of lower tax expense.

Non-GAAP Measures

It is management's intent to provide non-GAAP financial information to supplement the understanding of our business operations and performance, and it should be considered by the reader in addition to, but not instead of, the financial statements prepared in accordance with GAAP. Each non-GAAP financial measure is presented along with the most directly comparable GAAP measure so as not to imply that more emphasis should be placed on the non-GAAP measure. The non-GAAP financial information presented may be determined or calculated differently by other companies and may not be comparable to other similarly titled measures used by other companies. Additionally, the non-GAAP financial measures have limitations as analytical tools and should not be considered in isolation from, or as a substitute for, an analysis of the Company's operating results as reported under GAAP. EBITDA and Adjusted EBITDA

We evaluate performance on the basis of EBITDA and Adjusted EBITDA. We define EBITDA as our net income calculated in accordance with U.S. GAAP, plus the sum of interest expense, net of interest income, tax expense and depreciation. We define Adjusted EBITDA as EBITDA, plus the sum of stock compensation expense, repositioning costs, foreign exchange (gain) loss on debt net of related hedging gains, discounting costs on factoring, gain on sale of equity investment, acquisition and divestiture expenses, other non-operating income, capital structure transformation expenses, debt refinancing and redemption costs, net reorganization items and loss on extinguishment of debt (if any). Adjusted EBITDA now also adjusts for acquisition and divestiture expenses, and debt refinancing and redemption costs, but no adjustments were made to the prior period as there were no similar adjustments in the prior periods. We believe that EBITDA and Adjusted EBITDA are important indicators of operating performance and provide useful information for investors because:

- Earnings Before Interest and Taxes (EBIT) and Adjusted EBITDA exclude the effects of income taxes, as well as the effects of financing and investing activities by eliminating the effects of interest and depreciation expenses and therefore more closely measure our operational performance;
- certain adjustment items, while periodically affecting our results, may vary significantly from period to period and have disproportionate effect in a given period, which affects the comparability of our results. In addition, our management may use Adjusted EBITDA in setting performance incentive targets to align performance measurement with operational performance.

The following table reconciles Net income under GAAP to EBITDA and Adjusted EBITDA:

À Cash provided by operating activities decreased by $53 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2024 versus the prior year. The decrease was primarily driven by a decrease of $37 million in net income, excluding the effects of non-cash items, as well as $11 million of unfavorable impacts from changes in other assets and liabilities and $5 million of unfavorable impacts from working capital changes.Cash flow from investing activities increased by $49 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2024 versus the prior year, mainly due to $46 million of proceeds from the sale of equity interest in an unconsolidated joint venture and a $15 million increase in proceeds on our cross currency swap contracts which have been designated as net investment hedges of our Euro-denominated operations. This was partially offset by $12 million of increased expenditures for property, plant and equipment.Cash used for financing activities was $439.4 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2024 compared with $366.4 million in the prior year. During 2024, we made an aggregate of $991 million in debt repayments on our term loan facilities. We also made payments of $226 million for Common Stock repurchases, $7 million for debt issuance costs and $9 million for other financing activities. These payments were partially offset by proceeds of $794 million, net of deferred financing costs, from the issuance of our 2032 Senior Notes. 34In comparison, cash used for financing activities for the nine months ended September 30, 2023 was primarily driven by payments of $605 million in aggregate to holders of the Series A Preferred Stock related to the Transaction, including conversion of the Series A Preferred Stock, and $42 million for dividends declared on our Series A Preferred Stock. We also made payments of $178 million for the repurchase of Common Stock under our share repurchase program and debt repayments of $205 million including a $200 million early debt repayment on the 2023 Dollar Term Facility and quarterly payments for our 2021 Dollar Term Facility. These uses of cash were partially offset by proceeds of $667 million from the 2023 Dollar Term Facility net of debt financing costs. Off-Balance Sheet ArrangementsWe do not engage in any off-balance sheet financial arrangements that have or are reasonably likely to have a material current or future effect on our financial condition, changes in financial condition, revenues or expenses, results of operations, liquidity, capital expenditures, or capital resources. Critical Accounting Policies The preparation of our Consolidated Interim Financial Statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles is based on the selection and application of accounting policies that require us to make significant estimates and assumptions about the effects of matters that are inherently uncertain. Actual results could differ from our estimates and assumptions, and any such differences could be material to our financial statements. Our critical accounting policies are summarized in the

Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market RisksA September 30, 2024, the net fair value of all financial instruments with exposure to currency risk was a $8 million liability. The potential loss or gain in fair value for such financial instruments from a hypothetical 10% adverse or favorable change in quoted currency exchange rates would be $213 million and $(187) million, respectively, at September 30, 2024 exchange rates. The model assumes a parallel shift in currency exchange rates; however, currency exchange rates rarely move in the same direction. The assumption that currency exchange rates change in a parallel fashion may overstate the impact of changing currency exchange rates on assets and liabilities denominated in currencies other than the U.S. dollar.There have been no other material changes to the Company's quantitative and qualitative disclosures about interest rate or commodity price risks as disclosed in Part II, Item 7A, Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risks, in our 2023 Form 10-K.Item 4. Controls and ProceduresIn designing and evaluating our disclosure controls and procedures, management recognizes that any controls and procedures, no matter how well designed and operated, can provide only reasonable assurance of achieving the desired control objectives. In addition, the design of disclosure controls and procedures must reflect the fact that there are resource constraints and that management is required to apply judgment in evaluating the benefits of possible controls and procedures relative to their costs. Our management, with the participation of our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, conducted an evaluation of our disclosure controls and procedures, as such term is defined under Rule 13a-15(e) promulgated under the Exchange Act. Based on management's evaluation, our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer concluded that our disclosure controls and procedures were effective at the reasonable assurance level as of September 30, 2024. There were no changes in our internal control over financial reporting (as defined in Rules 13a-15(f) and 15d-15(f) under the Exchange Act) that occurred during the quarter ended September 30, 2024 that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting.37PART II

À OTHER INFORMATION

À Item 1. Legal ProceedingsWe are involved in various lawsuits, claims and proceedings incident to the operation of our businesses, including those pertaining to product liability, product safety, environmental, safety and health, intellectual property, employment, commercial and contractual matters and various other matters. Although the outcome of any such lawsuit, claim or proceeding cannot be predicted with certainty and some may be disposed of unfavorably to us, we do not currently believe that such lawsuits, claims or proceedings will have a material adverse effect on our financial position, results of operations or cash flows. We accrue for potential liabilities in a manner consistent with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States. Accordingly, we accrue for a liability when it is probable that a liability has been incurred and the amount of the liability is reasonably estimable.For additional information regarding our legal proceedings, see the discussion under Note 19, Commitments and Contingencies of the Notes to the Consolidated Interim Financial Statements, which is incorporated by reference into this Part II, Item 1.

À Item 1A. Risk FactorsThere have been no material changes to the risks described under "Risk Factors" in our 2023 Form 10-K. In addition to the other information set forth in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q, you should carefully consider the factors discussed under

À Risk Factors

À in our 2023 Form 10-K. These factors could materially adversely affect our business, financial condition, or results of operations, and could cause our actual results to differ materially from our historical results or the results contemplated by any forward-looking statements contained in this report. Item 2. Unregistered Sales of Equity Securities and Use of ProceedsOn February 15, 2024, the Company announced that the Board of Directors had authorized a $350 million share repurchase program valid from February 13, 2024 until December 31, 2024. The Company may repurchase shares from time to time under the program through various methods, including in open market transactions, block trades, privately negotiated transactions, and otherwise. The timing, as well as the number and value of shares repurchased under the program, will depend on a variety of factors. The Company is not obligated to purchase any shares under the repurchase program, and the program may be suspended, modified, or discontinued at any time without prior notice. The following table summarizes our share repurchase activity for the three months ended September 30, 2024 and additional information regarding our share repurchase program:PeriodTotal Number of Common Shares Purchased (1)Average Price Paid per ShareTotal Number of Shares Purchased as Part of Publicly Announced Plan or ProgramApproximate Dollar Value of Shares that May Yet Be Purchased Under the Plan or ProgramJuly 1, 2024 - July 31, 20242,946,890$ 9.03$ 2,946,890$ 149,003,868August 1, 2024 - August 31, 20241,495,122$ 8.18$ 1,495,122$ 136,767,452September 1, 2024 - September 30, 20241,544,534$ 8.02$ 1,544,534$ 124,377,974Total5,986,546$ 8.56$ 5,986,546$ 124,377,974 (1) Excludes shares withheld to satisfy tax withholding obligations in connection with equity award vestings. Organization, Consolidation and Presentation of Financial Statements [Abstract]

Background and Basis of Presentation

Note 1. Background and Basis of Presentation

Background

Garrett Motion Inc. (the “Company” or “Garrett”) is a cutting-edge technology leader delivering differentiated solutions for emission reduction and energy efficiency. We design, manufacture, and sell highly engineered turbocharging, air and fluid compression, and high-speed electric motor technologies to original equipment manufacturers (“OEMs”) and distributors within the mobility and industrial space. We have significant expertise in delivering products at scale for internal combustion engines using gasoline, diesel, natural gas, and hydrogen, as well as for zero emission technologies using hydrogen fuel cell systems, both for mobility and industrial use. As our customers continue to progress on electrification, we are applying our technological pillars to develop highly engineered E-Powertrain and E-Cooling compressor products to support their ambition. These products are key enablers for fuel economy, energy efficiency, thermal management, and compliance with emissions standards and overall greenhouse gas and other emission reduction targets.

Basis of Presentation

The accompanying unaudited Consolidated Interim Financial Statements have been prepared in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission applicable to interim financial statements. While these statements reflect all normal recurring adjustments that are, in the opinion of management, necessary for fair presentation of the results of the interim period, they do not include all of the information and footnotes required by United States generally accepted accounting principles (“GAAP”) for complete financial statements. The unaudited Consolidated Interim Financial Statements should therefore be read in conjunction with the Consolidated Financial Statements and accompanying notes for the year ended December 31, 2023 included in our Annual Report on Form 10-K, as filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on February 15, 2024 (our “2023 Form 10-K”). The results of operations for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2024 and cash flows for the nine months ended September 30, 2024 should not necessarily be taken as indicative of the entire year. All amounts presented are in millions, except per share amounts.

We report our quarterly financial information using a calendar convention: the first, second, and third quarters are consistently reported as ending on March 31, June 30 and September 30. It has been our practice to establish actual quarterly closing dates using a predetermined fiscal calendar, which requires our businesses to close their books on a Saturday to minimize the potentially disruptive effects of quarterly closing on our business processes. For differences in actual closing dates that are material to year-over-year comparisons of quarterly or year-to-date results, such differences have been adjusted for the three months ended September 30, 2024. Our actual closing date for the three months ended September 30, 2024 was September 28, 2024. There was no difference in actual closing date for the three months ended September 30, 2023.

We evaluate segment reporting in accordance with ASC 280, Segment Reporting. We concluded that Garrett operates in a single operating segment and a single reportable segment based on the operating results available and evaluated regularly by the chief operating decision maker (“CODM”), which is our Chief Executive Officer, to make decisions about resource allocation and performance assessment. The CODM makes operational performance assessments and resource allocation decisions on a consolidated basis, inclusive of all of the Company’s products across channels and geographies.

The preparation of the financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Management bases these estimates on assumptions that it believes to be reasonable under the circumstances. Actual results could differ from the original estimates, requiring adjustments to these balances in future periods.

Summary of Significant Accounting Policies Accounting Policies [Abstract]

Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

9 Months Ended Sep. 30, 2024

Note 2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

The accounting policies of the Company are set forth in Note 3 to the Consolidated Financial Statements for the year ended December 31, 2023 included in our 2023 Form 10-K.

Accounting Standards Issued But Not Yet Adopted

In November 2023, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (“FASB”) issued accounting standards update (“ASU”) 2023-07, Segment Reporting (Topic 280): Improvements to Reportable Segment Disclosures. The amendments in this update require companies with a single reportable segment to provide all existing segment disclosures, as well as requires incremental segment information to be disclosed. The guidance is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2023 on a retrospective basis, and interim periods within fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2024. The Company is currently evaluating the guidance to determine the impact on its disclosures.

In December 2023, the FASB issued ASU 2023-09, Income Taxes (Topic 740): Improvements to Income Tax Disclosures. The amendments in this update increase the transparency around income tax information through improvements to disclosures primarily related to the rate reconciliation and income taxes paid information. The guidance is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2024 on a prospective basis. Early adoption is permitted. The Company is currently evaluating the guidance to determine the impact on its disclosures.

There are no other recently issued, but not yet adopted, accounting pronouncements that are expected to have a material impact on the Company’s Consolidated Interim Financial Statements and related disclosures.

Note 4. Research, Development and Engineering

Garrett conducts research, development, and engineering (“RD&E”) activities, which consist primarily of the development of new products and product applications. RD&E costs are charged to expense as incurred unless the Company has a contractual guarantee for reimbursement from the customer. Customer reimbursements are netted against gross RD&E expenditures as they are considered a recovery of cost. Such costs are included in Cost of goods sold as follows:

Engineering-related expenses, net of customer (reimbursements) ⁽¹⁾	(6)	(3)	(10)	(8)
	$ 43	$ 39	$ 128	$ 120

(1) Engineering-related expenses include customer reimbursements of $17 million and $10 million for the three months ended September 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively, and $41 million and $34 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively. Certain engineering expenses related to long-term supply arrangements are capitalized when defined criteria, such as the existence of a contractual guarantee for reimbursement, are met. As of September 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, $30 million and $12 million, respectively, of such contractually reimbursable costs were capitalized. These amounts are recorded within Other current assets in the Consolidated Interim Balance Sheet.

The effective tax rates for the three months ended September 30, 2024 and 2023 were 31.6% and 18.6%, respectively. The effective tax rates for the nine months ended September 30, 2024 and 2023 were 25.4% and 25.1%, respectively.

The change in the effective tax rate for the three months ended September 30, 2024 compared to the prior period is primarily related to global mix of earnings, partially offset by adjustments to tax reserves due to expiration of statute of limitations.

The change in the effective tax rate for the nine months ended September 30, 2024 compared to the prior period is primarily related to global mix of earnings and tax expense related to the sale of an equity interest in an unconsolidated joint venture, partially offset by reversal of tax reserves and lower non-deductible transaction costs.

The effective tax rate for the three months ended September 30, 2024 was higher than the U.S. federal statutory rate of 21% primarily because of U.S. taxes on international operations and withholding taxes, partially offset by adjustments to tax reserves due to expiration of statute of limitations, lower taxes on non-U.S. earnings, and global research and development benefits. The effective tax rate for the nine months ended September 30, 2024 was higher than the U.S. federal statutory rate of 21% primarily because of U.S. taxes on international operations, withholding taxes, and tax expense related to the sale of an equity interest in an unconsolidated joint venture, partially offset by reversal of tax reserves, lower taxes on non-U.S. earnings, and global research and development benefits.

Note 7. Factoring and Notes Receivable

The Company enters into arrangements with financial institutions to sell eligible trade receivables. The receivables are sold without recourse and the Company accounts for these arrangements as true sales. The Company also receives guaranteed bank notes without recourse, in settlement of accounts receivables, primarily in the Asia Pacific region. The Company can hold the bank notes until maturity, exchange them with suppliers to settle liabilities, or sell them to third-party financial institutions in exchange for cash. Bank notes sold to third-party financial institutions without recourse are likewise accounted for as true sales.

The Company has supplier financing arrangements with two third-party financial institutions under which certain suppliers may factor their receivables from Garrett. The Company also enters into arrangements with banking institutions to issue bankers acceptance drafts in settlement of accounts payables, primarily in the Asia Pacific region. The bankers acceptance drafts, or guaranteed bank notes, have a contractual maturity of six months or less, and may be held by suppliers until maturity, transferred to their suppliers, or discounted with financial institutions in exchange for cash. The supplier financing obligations and guaranteed bank notes outstanding are recorded within Accounts payable in our Consolidated Interim Balance Sheet.

Note 14. Long-term Debt and Credit Agreements

Long Term Debt

Senior Notes

On May 21, 2024, Garrett Motion Holdings Inc. and Garrett LX I S.à.r.l. (the "Issuers"), wholly owned subsidiaries of the Company, completed an offering of $800 million in aggregate principal amount of 7.75% Senior Unsecured Notes due 2032 (the "2032 Senior Notes"). The 2032 Senior Notes mature on May 31, 2032. The Company incurred $12 million of debt issuance costs, which have been capitalized and will be amortized on a straight-line basis.

The 2032 Senior Notes are guaranteed by the Company and each of the Company's wholly owned subsidiaries that guarantee obligations under the existing Credit Agreement (as defined below), subject to certain exceptions. The proceeds from the sale of the 2032 Senior Notes, together with cash on hand, were used to repay approximately $800 million of term loan indebtedness, as described below, and to pay related fees and expenses.

Term Loans

On April 30, 2021, the Company entered into a credit agreement (as amended from time to time, the "Credit Agreement") with JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. as administrative agent. The Credit Agreement provided for the following long-term senior secured financing (collectively, the "Term Loan Facilities"):

- 2021 Dollar Term Facility: a seven-year secured first-lien U.S. Dollar term loan facility for $715 million;
- 2023 Dollar Term Facility: a five-year secured first-lien U.S. Dollar term loan facility for $500 million; and
- Euro Term Facility: a seven-year secured first-lien Euro term loan facility for €450 million.

In the nine months ended September 30, 2024, we made early debt repayments totaling $985 million on our Euro Term Facility and our 2023 Dollar Term Facility. Both term loans were fully repaid as of September 30, 2024. The early repayments resulted in incremental amortization of debt issuance costs of $27 million, included within Interest expense in the Consolidated Interim Statement of Operations.

On May 21, 2024, in addition to the above transactions, the Company entered into Amendment No. 4 (the "Fourth Amendment") and Amendment No. 5 (the "Fifth Amendment" and, together with the Fourth Amendment, the "Amendments") to the Credit Agreement (as amended by the Amendments, the "Amended Credit Agreement"). The Fourth Amendment (i) removed the credit spread adjustment with respect to certain US dollar denominated term loan borrowings that are Term Benchmark Loans (as defined in the Amended Credit Agreement) and (ii) reduced the Applicable Rate (as defined in the Amended Credit Agreement) on certain US dollar denominated term loans to 2.75% for Term Benchmark Loans and 1.75% for ABR Loans (as defined in the Amended Credit Agreement).

The Fifth Amendment increased the amount of revolving loan commitments available to the Company under the Credit Agreement by $30 million ("Incremental Revolving Commitment") to an aggregate amount of $600 million, as discussed below. The Incremental Revolving Commitment has the same terms and is subject to the same conditions applicable to revolving loans generally under the Amended Credit Agreement.

The principal outstanding and carrying amounts of our long-term debt as of September 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023 are as follows:

	Due	Interest Rate	September 30, 2024	December 31, 2023
2021 Dollar Term Facility	4/30/2028	SOFR plus 275 bps	$ 693	$ 699
2023 Dollar Term Facility	4/30/2028	SOFR plus 450 bps	—	500
Euro Term Facility	4/30/2028	EURIBOR plus 350 bps	—	497
2032 Senior Notes	5/31/2032	7.75%	800	—
Other			2	—
Total principal outstanding			1,495	1,696
Less: unamortized deferred financing costs			(24)	(46)
Less: current portion of long-term debt			(7)	(7)
Total long-term debt			$ 1,464	$ 1,643

Revolving Facility and Letters of Credit

The Amended Credit Agreement also provides for a senior secured first-lien revolving credit facility providing for multi-currency revolving loans (the "Revolving Facility"). The Revolving Facility matures on April 30, 2028 and has a maximum borrowing amount available of $600 million.

Under the Revolving Facility, the Company may use up to $125 million for the issuance of letters of credit to its subsidiaries. Letters of credit are available for issuance under the Amended Credit Agreement on terms and conditions customary for financings of this kind, which issuances reduce availability under the Revolving Facility. As of September 30, 2024, the Company had no loans outstanding under the Revolving Facility, no outstanding letters of credit, and available borrowing capacity of $600 million.

Separate from the Revolving Facility, the Company has a bilateral letter of credit facility in the amount of $15 million, which matures on April 30, 2026. As of September 30, 2024, the Company had $12 million utilized and $3 million of remaining available capacity under such facility.

Minimum scheduled principal repayments of long-term debt as of September 30, 2024 are as follow:

	September 30, 2024
	(Dollars in millions)
2024	$ 2
2025	7
2026	7
2027	7
2028	672
Thereafter	800
Total debt payments	$ 1,495

Interest Rates and Fees

The 2032 Senior Notes bear interest at a rate of 7.75% per annum. Interest on the 2032 Senior Notes is payable semi-annually in arrears on May 31 and November 30 of each year, commencing on November 30, 2024.

The 2021 Dollar Term Facility is subject to an interest rate, at our option, of either (a) an alternate base rate ("ABR") (which shall not be less than 1.50%) or (b) an adjusted SOFR rate ("SOFR") (which shall not be less than 0.50%), in each case, plus an applicable margin equal to 2.75% in the case of SOFR loans and 1.75% in the case of ABR loans.

The Revolving Facility is subject to an interest rate comprised of an applicable benchmark rate as provided under the Credit Agreement (which shall not be less than 1.00% if such benchmark is the ABR rate and not less than 0.00% in the case of other applicable benchmark rates) that is selected based on the currency in which borrowings are outstanding thereunder, in each case, plus an applicable margin that may vary based on our leverage ratio.

In addition to paying interest on outstanding borrowings under the Revolving Facility, we are also required to pay a quarterly commitment fee based on the average daily unused portion of the Revolving Facility during such quarter, which is determined by our leverage ratio and ranges from 0.25% to 0.50% per annum.

Certain Covenants

2032 Senior Notes

The 2032 Senior Notes contain certain covenants that limit the ability of the Company and its restricted subsidiaries to incur certain additional debt, incur certain liens securing debt, pay certain dividends or make other restricted payments, make certain investments, make certain asset sales, and enter into certain transactions with affiliates. These covenants are subject to a number of exceptions, limitations, and qualifications as set forth in the 2032 Senior Notes indenture. Additionally, the indenture contains certain change of control provisions that, under certain conditions, would require the Company to make an offer to repurchase all of the outstanding 2032 Senior Notes at a price equal to 101% of the aggregate principal amount, plus accrued and unpaid interest. The indenture also contains customary events of default.

Term Loans

The Amended Credit Agreement contains certain affirmative and negative covenants customary for financings of this type. The Revolving Facility also contains a financial covenant requiring the maintenance of a consolidated total leverage ratio of not greater than 4.7 times as of the end of each fiscal quarter if, on the last day of any such fiscal quarter, the aggregate amount of loans and letters of credit (excluding backstopped or cash collateralized letters of credit and other letters of credit with an aggregate face amount not exceeding $30 million) outstanding under the Revolving Facility exceeds 35% of the aggregate commitments in effect thereunder on such date.

As of September 30, 2024, the Company was in compliance with all covenants under the 2032 Senior Notes indenture and Amended Credit Agreement.

Preferred Stock

On April 12, 2023, the Company entered into separate definitive agreements with each of Centerbridge Partners, L.P. and funds managed by Oaktree Capital Management, L.P. to effect a series of integrated transactions (collectively, the "Transaction") designed to simplify the Company's capital structure by converting all outstanding Series A Preferred Stock into a single class of Common Stock, subject to certain conditions.

On June 6, 2023, the Company completed all steps of the Transaction and had no remaining shares of Series A Preferred Stock outstanding as of that date. Please refer to Note 21, Equity, to the Consolidated Financial Statements for the year ended December 31, 2023 included in our 2023 Form 10-K.

Treasury Stock

Treasury stock represents shares of the Company's Common Stock that have been issued and subsequently repurchased by the Company or withheld to satisfy withholding tax obligations in connection with equity award vestings, and that have not been retired or cancelled. The Company accounts for treasury stock under the cost method and includes treasury stock as a component of Equity (Deficit) on the Consolidated Interim Balance Sheet. The Company accounts for the reissuance of treasury stock using the average cost method. The Company did not reissue or retire any shares of treasury stock during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2024.

Share Repurchase Program

On February 12, 2024, the Board of Directors authorized a $350 million share repurchase program valid until December 31, 2024. The Company may repurchase shares from time to time under the program through various methods, including in open market transactions, block trades, privately negotiated transactions, and otherwise. The timing, as well as the number and value of shares repurchased under the program, will depend on a variety of factors. The Company is not obligated to purchase any shares under the repurchase program, and the program may be suspended, modified, or discontinued at any time without prior notice. During the nine months ended September 30, 2024, the Company repurchased $226 million of Common Stock, and had $124 million remaining under the share repurchase program. The repurchased shares are held as treasury stock.

Note 16. Financial Instruments and Fair Value Measures

Our credit, market, and foreign currency risk management policies are described in Note 19, Financial Instruments and Fair Value Measures, to the Consolidated Financial Statements for the year ended December 31, 2023 included in our 2023 Form 10-K. As of September 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, we had contracts with aggregate gross notional amounts of $790 million and $1,171 million, respectively, to hedge foreign currencies, principally the U.S. Dollar, Swiss Franc, British Pound, Euro, Chinese Yuan, Japanese Yen, Mexican Peso, New Romanian Leu, Czech Koruna, Australian Dollar, and Korean Won.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The FASB's accounting guidance defines fair value as the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date (exit price). Financial and nonfinancial assets and liabilities are classified in their entirety based on the lowest level of input that is significant to the fair value measurement. The following table sets forth the Company's financial assets and liabilities that were accounted for at fair value on a recurring basis as of September 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023:

	Notional Amounts		Fair Value
			Assets		Liabilities
	September 30, 2024	December 31, 2023	September 30, 2024	December 31, 2023	September 30, 2024	December 31, 2023

Cash Flow Hedges

During 2023, the Company entered into float-to-fixed interest rate swap contracts with an aggregate notional amount of $200 million and maturities in July 2024 and October 2024. The Company also entered into a float-to-fixed cross-currency swap contract comprised of an amortizing swap with an aggregate notional amount of €280 million ($300 million) and notional exchanges in June 2026, June 2027, and June 2028. The interest rate swap and cross-currency swap contracts were early settled in 2024, resulting in net gains of $18 million recorded to Interest expense and a $4 million loss recorded to Non-operating expense in the Consolidated Interim Statement of Operations.

The Company also has outstanding forward currency exchange contracts with maturities up to 18 months and an aggregate notional amount of $369 million and $456 million as of September 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, respectively. These forward currency exchange contracts have been designated as cash flow hedges to mitigate foreign currency exposures primarily on our inventory purchases and manufacturing costs. The gains and losses on the forward currency exchange contracts are recorded in Accumulated Other Comprehensive Income ("AOCI") and reclassified to Cost of goods sold in the Consolidated Interim Statement of Operations when the underlying transactions are recognized in earnings.

In order to mitigate foreign currency risk on its 2032 Senior Notes, the Company entered into fixed-to-fixed cross-currency swap contracts with an aggregate notional amount of €507 million ($550 million) and notional exchanges in May 2027, May 2028, May 2029, and May 2030. Changes in the fair value of the cross-currency swap contracts are recognized in AOCI and reclassified to Non-operating (income) expense in the Consolidated Interim Statement of Operations, based upon changes in the spot rate remeasurement of the underlying debt. The net interest settlements on the cross-currency swap contracts are recorded in Interest expense in the Consolidated Interim Statements of Operations.

All of the Company's cash flow hedges are assessed as highly effective. For the three months ended September 30, 2024 and 2023, the Company recorded a gain of $4 million, net of tax, and a loss of $2 million, net of tax, respectively, in Other comprehensive income. For the nine months ended September 30, 2024 and 2023, the Company recorded a gain of $5 million, net of tax, and a loss of $3 million, net of tax, respectively, in Other comprehensive income.

Net Investment Hedges

The Company has designated cross-currency swaps with aggregate notional amounts of €858 million ($965 million) and €615 million ($715 million) as of September 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, respectively, as net investment hedges of its Euro-denominated operations. In April 2024, the Company re-coupled the cross-currency swap contracts and received a cash settlement of $13 million. The fair values of the net investment hedges were net assets of $10 million and $37 million as of September 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, respectively. Our Consolidated Interim Statements of Comprehensive Income include Changes in fair value of net investment hedges, net of tax, of a $31 million loss and a $20 million gain for the three months ended September 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively, and of a $4 million loss and a $18 million gain for the nine months ended September 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively. No ineffectiveness has been recorded on the net investment hedges.

Non-Designated Derivatives

As of September 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, the Company has outstanding float-to-fixed interest rate swap contracts with an aggregate notional amount of €450 million ($502 million) and €830 million ($917 million), respectively, and maturities of October 2024, April 2025, April 2026, April 2027, and April 2028. Changes in the fair value of the undesignated interest rate swap contracts are recorded in Interest expense in the Consolidated Interim Statements of Operations. For the three months ended September 30, 2024 and 2023, the Company recorded losses of $9 million and $5 million, net of tax, respectively, in Non-operating (income) expense. For the nine months ended September 30, 2024 and 2023, the Company recorded losses of $33 million and $11 million, respectively, in Non-operating (income) expense.

The Company also has outstanding forward currency exchange contracts with maturities generally up to 3 months and an aggregate notional amount of $421 million and $715 million as of September 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, respectively. These derivatives are not designated as hedging instruments and are adjusted to fair value through Non-operating (income) expense in the Consolidated Interim Statements of Operations. For the three months ended September 30, 2024 and 2023, the Company recorded a loss of $5 million, net of tax, and a gain of $4 million, respectively, in Interest expense. For the nine months ended September 30, 2024 and 2023, the Company recorded a gain of $4 million, net of tax, and a loss of $1 million, respectively, in Interest Expense.

Fair Value Measurement

The foreign currency exchange, interest rate swap and cross-currency swap contracts are valued using market observable inputs. As such, these derivative instruments are classified within Level 2. The assumptions used in measuring the fair value of the cross-currency swap are considered Level 2 inputs, which are based upon market-observable interest rate curves, cross-currency basis curves, credit default swap curves, and foreign exchange rates.

The carrying value of Cash, cash equivalents, and restricted cash, Account receivables and Notes and Other receivables contained in the Consolidated Interim Balance Sheet approximates fair value.

The following table sets forth the Company’s financial assets and liabilities that were not carried at fair value:

	September 30, 2024		December 31, 2023
	Carrying Value	Fair Value	Carrying Value	Fair Value
	(Dollars in millions)
Term Loan Facilities	$ 680	$ 694	$ 1,650	$ 1,692
2032 Senior Notes	789	818	—	—

The Company determined the fair value of its Term Loan Facilities and related current maturities utilizing transactions in the listed markets for similar liabilities. As such, the fair value of the Term Loan Facilities and related current maturities is considered Level 2. The fair value of the 2032 Senior Notes was determined using quoted prices from daily exchange traded markets and is classified as a Level 1 measurement.

Note 18. Earnings Per Share

For the three and nine months ended September 30, 2024, as well as the three months ended September 30, 2023, basic earnings per share ("EPS") is computed using the weighted-average number of common shares outstanding during the period.

For the nine months ended September 30, 2023, basic earnings per share was calculated using the two-class method because our Series A Preferred Stock was considered a participating security prior to its conversion into Common Stock and cancellation pursuant to the Transaction. The two-class method requires an allocation of earnings to all securities that participate in dividends with common shares, which included our Series A Preferred Stock, to the extent that each such security may share in the entity’s earnings. Basic earnings per share are then calculated by dividing undistributed earnings allocated to common stock by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding for the period.

Diluted earnings per share for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2024, as well as the three months ended September 30, 2023, is calculated based on the weighted-average number of common shares outstanding for the period plus the dilutive effect of common stock equivalents using the treasury stock method. Diluted earnings per share for the nine months ended September 30, 2023 is calculated using the more dilutive of the two-class or if-converted methods. The two-class method uses net income available to common shareholders and assumes conversion of all potential shares other than the participating securities. The if-converted method uses net income and assumes conversion of all potential shares including the participating securities.

The details of the EPS calculations for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2024 and 2023 are as follows:

	Three Months Ended September 30,		Nine Months Ended September 30,
	2024	2023	2024	2023
	(Dollars in millions except per share)
Basic earnings per share:
Net income	$ 52	$ 57	$ 182	$ 209
Less: preferred stock dividend	—	—	—	(80)
Less: preferred stock deemed dividends	—	—	—	(232)
Net income (loss) available to common shareholders	$ 52	$ 57	$ 182	$ (103)
Weighted average common shares outstanding - Basic	217,283,749	250,888,716	226,057,803	141,745,701
EPS - Basic	$ 0.24	$ 0.23	$ 0.80	$ (0.73)
Diluted earnings per share:
Method used:	Two-class
Weighted average common shares outstanding - Basic	217,283,749	250,888,716	226,057,803	141,745,701
Dilutive effect of unvested RSUs and other contingently issuable shares	1,119,932	1,493,003	1,591,944	—
Weighted average common shares outstanding - Diluted	218,403,681	252,381,719	227,649,747	141,745,701
EPS - Diluted	$ 0.24	$ 0.23	$ 0.80	$ (0.73)

For the periods where a net loss attributable to common shareholders is present, dilutive securities have been excluded from the calculation of diluted net loss per share attributable to common stockholders as including them would have been anti-dilutive. For the nine months ended September 30, 2023, the weighted-average number of unvested RSUs and other contingently issuable shares excluded from the computations was 1,349,442 shares.

Note 19. Commitments and Contingencies

Securities Litigation

In 2020, various securities class action complaints were filed against Garrett Motion Inc. and certain current and former Garrett officers and directors in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York asserting claims under Section 10(b) and 20(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, for alleged securities fraud and control person liability. In March 2022, the trial court dismissed with prejudice the claims against certain of the defendants, and in March 2023, the trial court dismissed with prejudice all remaining claims. In April 2023, the plaintiffs appealed the trial court’s decision to the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit. In April 2024, the Second Circuit affirmed dismissal of the claims, and the deadline for further appeals has passed.

Brazilian Tax Matter

In September 2020, the Brazilian tax authorities issued an infraction notice against Garrett Motion Industria Automotiva Brasil Ltda, challenging the use of certain tax credits (“Beflex Credits”) between January 2017 and February 2020. The infraction notice results in a loss contingency that may or may not ultimately be incurred by the Company. The estimated total amount of the contingency as of September 30, 2024 was $24 million, including penalties and interest. The Company believes, based on management’s assessment and the advice of external legal counsel, that it has meritorious arguments in connection with the infraction notice and any liability for the infraction notice is currently not probable. Accordingly, no accrual is required at this time.

Warranties and Guarantees

In the normal course of business, we issue product warranties and product performance guarantees. We accrue for the estimated cost of product warranties and performance guarantees based on contract terms and historical experience at the time of sale to the customer. Adjustments to initial obligations for warranties and guarantees are made as changes to the obligations become reasonably estimable. Product warranties and product performance guarantees are included in Accrued liabilities and Other liabilities. The following table summarizes information concerning our recorded obligations for product warranties and product performance guarantees.

	Three Months Ended September 30,			Nine Months Ended September 30,

Warranty and product performance guarantees at end of period	$	25	$	26	$	26

Other Commitments and Contingencies

We are subject to other lawsuits, investigations, and disputes arising out of the conduct of our business, including matters relating to commercial transactions, government contracts, product liability, prior acquisitions and divestitures, employee benefit plans, intellectual property, and environmental, health and safety matters. We recognize a liability for any contingency that is probable of occurring and reasonably estimable. We continually assess the likelihood of adverse judgments of outcomes in these matters, as well as potential ranges of possible losses (taking into consideration any insurance recoveries), based on a careful analysis of each matter with the assistance of outside legal counsel and, if applicable, other experts.

Note 20. Pension Benefits

We sponsor several funded U.S. and non-U.S. defined benefit pension plans. Significant plans outside the U.S. are in Switzerland and Ireland. Other pension plans outside the U.S. are not material to the Company, either individually or in the aggregate.

Our general funding policy for qualified defined benefit pension plans is to contribute amounts at least sufficient to satisfy regulatory funding standards. We are not required to make any contributions to our U.S. pension plan in 2024. We expect to make contributions of cash and/or marketable securities of approximately $7 million to our non-U.S. pension plans to satisfy regulatory funding standards in 2024, of which $5 million has been contributed as of September 30, 2024.

Net periodic benefit costs for our significant defined benefit plans include the following components:

	Three Months Ended September 30,				Nine Months Ended September 30,
	U.S. Plans		Non-U.S. Plan		U.S. Plans		Non-U.S. Plan
	2024	2023	2024	2023	2024	2023	2024	2023
	(Dollars in millions)
Service cost	$	—	$	—	$	2	$	1
Interest cost		2		2		1		6
Expected return on plan assets		(2)		(2)		(2)		(6)
Amortization of prior service (credit)		—		—		—		(1)
Total	$	—	$	—	$	1	$	—

For both our U.S. and non-U.S. defined benefit pension plans, we estimate the service and interest cost components of net periodic benefit (income) cost by utilizing a full yield curve approach in the estimation of these cost components by applying the specific spot rates along the yield curve used in the determination of the pension benefit obligation to their underlying projected cash flows. This approach provides a more precise measurement of service and interest costs by improving the correlation between projected cash flows and their corresponding spot rates.

On April 3, 2024, the Company divested its equity interest in an unconsolidated joint venture for approximately $58 million, subject to customary debt and working capital adjustments. We received cash consideration on the divestiture date of $46 million, with an additional $7 million to be received in two equal installments due twelve months and thirty-six months from the divestiture date. A pre-tax gain of $27 million was recognized related to this divestiture, including $5 million of cumulative translation losses reclassified from AOCI to Net income. Transaction fees of $1 million were incurred in connection with the divestiture and are included in Selling, general, and administrative expenses in our Consolidated Interim Statement of Operations.

Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (Policies)
[Accounting Policies \[Abstract\]](#)

Basis of Presentation

9 Months Ended
Sep. 30, 2024

Basis of Presentation

The accompanying unaudited Consolidated Interim Financial Statements have been prepared in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission applicable to interim financial statements. While these statements reflect all normal recurring adjustments that are, in the opinion of management, necessary for fair presentation of the results of the interim period, they do not include all of the information and footnotes required by United States generally accepted accounting principles (“GAAP”) for complete financial statements. The unaudited Consolidated Interim Financial Statements should therefore be read in conjunction with the Consolidated Financial Statements and accompanying notes for the year ended December 31, 2023 included in our Annual Report on Form 10-K, as filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on February 15, 2024 (our “2023 Form 10-K”). The results of operations for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2024 and cash flows for the nine months ended September 30, 2024 should not necessarily be taken as indicative of the entire year. All amounts presented are in millions, except per share amounts.

We report our quarterly financial information using a calendar convention: the first, second, and third quarters are consistently reported as ending on March 31, June 30 and September 30. It has been our practice to establish actual quarterly closing dates using a predetermined fiscal calendar, which requires our businesses to close their books on a Saturday to minimize the potentially disruptive effects of quarterly closing on our business processes. For differences in actual closing dates that are material to year-over-year comparisons of quarterly or year-to-date results, such differences have been adjusted for the three months ended September 30, 2024. Our actual closing date for the three months ended September 30, 2024 was September 28, 2024. There was no difference in actual closing date for the three months ended September 30, 2023.

We evaluate segment reporting in accordance with ASC 280, Segment Reporting. We concluded that Garrett operates in a single operating segment and a single reportable segment based on the operating results available and evaluated regularly by the chief operating decision maker (“CODM”), which is our Chief Executive Officer, to make decisions about resource allocation and performance assessment. The CODM makes operational performance assessments and resource allocation decisions on a consolidated basis, inclusive of all of the Company’s products across channels and geographies.

The preparation of the financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Management bases these estimates on assumptions that it believes to be reasonable under the circumstances. Actual results could differ from the original estimates, requiring adjustments to these balances in future periods.

Accounting Standards Issued But Not Yet Adopted

In November 2023, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (“FASB”) issued accounting standards update (“ASU”) 2023-07, Segment Reporting (Topic 280): Improvements to Reportable Segment Disclosures. The amendments in this update require companies with a single reportable segment to provide all existing segment disclosures, as well as requires incremental segment information to be disclosed. The guidance is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2023 on a retrospective basis, and interim periods within fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2024. The Company is currently evaluating the guidance to determine the impact on its disclosures.

In December 2023, the FASB issued ASU 2023-09, Income Taxes (Topic 740): Improvements to Income Tax Disclosures. The amendments in this update increase the transparency around income tax information through improvements to disclosures primarily related to the rate reconciliation and income taxes paid information. The guidance is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2024 on a prospective basis. Early adoption is permitted. The Company is currently evaluating the guidance to determine the impact on its disclosures.

There are no other recently issued, but not yet adopted, accounting pronouncements that are expected to have a material impact on the Company’s Consolidated Interim Financial Statements and related disclosures.

should not necessarily be taken as indicative of the entire year. All amounts presented are in millions, except per share amounts.

We report our quarterly financial information using a calendar convention: the first, second, and third quarters are consistently reported as ending on March 31, June 30 and September 30. It has been our practice to establish actual quarterly closing dates using a predetermined fiscal calendar, which requires our businesses to close their books on a Saturday to minimize the potentially disruptive effects of quarterly closing on our business processes. For differences in actual closing dates that are material to year-over-year comparisons of quarterly or year-to-date results, such differences have been adjusted for the three months ended September 30, 2024. Our actual closing date for the three months ended September 30, 2024 was September 28, 2024. There was no difference in actual closing date for the three months ended September 30, 2023.

We evaluate segment reporting in accordance with ASC 280,

Segment Reporting

We concluded that Garrett operates in a single operating segment and a single reportable segment based on the operating results available and evaluated regularly by the chief operating decision maker ("CODM"), which is our Chief Executive Officer, to make decisions about resource allocation and performance assessment. The CODM makes operational performance assessments and resource allocation decisions on a consolidated basis, inclusive of all of the Company's products across channels and geographies.

The preparation of the financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Management bases these estimates on assumptions that it believes to be reasonable under the circumstances. Actual results could differ from the original estimates, requiring adjustments to these balances in future periods.

Basis of Presentation

The accompanying unaudited Consolidated Interim Financial Statements have been prepared in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission applicable to interim financial statements. While these statements reflect all normal recurring adjustments that are, in the opinion of management, necessary for fair presentation of the results of the interim period, they do not include all of the information and footnotes required by United States generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP") for complete financial statements. The unaudited Consolidated Interim Financial Statements should therefore be read in conjunction with the Consolidated Financial Statements and accompanying notes for the year ended December 31, 2023 included in our Annual Report on Form 10-K, as filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on February 15, 2024 (our "2023 Form 10-K"). The results of operations for the

We report our quarterly financial information using a calendar convention: the first, second, and third quarters are consistently reported as ending on March 31, June 30 and September 30. It has been our practice to establish actual quarterly closing dates using a predetermined fiscal calendar, which requires our businesses to close their books on a Saturday to minimize the potentially disruptive effects of quarterly closing on our business processes. For differences in actual closing dates that are material to year-over-year comparisons of quarterly or year-to-date results, such differences have been adjusted for the three months ended September 30, 2024. Our actual closing date for the three months ended September 30, 2024 was September 28, 2024. There was no difference in actual closing date for the three months ended September 30, 2023.

We evaluate segment reporting in accordance with ASC 280, Segment Reporting. We concluded that Garrett operates in a single operating segment and a single reportable segment based on the operating results available and evaluated regularly by the chief operating decision maker ("CODM"), which is our Chief Executive Officer, to make decisions about resource allocation and performance assessment. The CODM makes operational performance assessments and resource allocation decisions on a consolidated basis, inclusive of all of the Company's products across channels and geographies.

The preparation of the financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Management bases these estimates on assumptions that it believes to be reasonable under the circumstances. Actual results could differ from the original estimates, requiring adjustments to these balances in future periods.

Note 2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

The accounting policies of the Company are set forth in Note 3 to the Consolidated Financial Statements for the year ended December 31, 2023 included in our 2023 Form 10-K.

Accounting Standards Issued But Not Yet Adopted

In November 2023, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued accounting standards update ("ASU") 2023-07, Segment Reporting (Topic 280): Improvements to Reportable Segment Disclosures. The amendments in this update require companies with a single reportable segment to provide all existing segment disclosures, as well as requires incremental segment information to be disclosed. The guidance is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2023 on a retrospective basis, and interim periods within fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2024. The Company is currently evaluating the guidance to determine the impact on its disclosures.

In December 2023, the FASB issued ASU 2023-09, Income Taxes (Topic 740): Improvements to Income Tax Disclosures. The amendments in this update increase the transparency around income tax information through improvements to disclosures primarily related to the rate reconciliation and income taxes paid information. The guidance is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2024 on a prospective basis. Early adoption is permitted. The Company is currently evaluating the guidance to determine the impact on its disclosures.

There are no other recently issued, but not yet adopted, accounting pronouncements that are expected to have a material impact on the Company's Consolidated Interim Financial Statements and related disclosures.

The Company also receives guaranteed bank notes without recourse, in settlement of accounts receivables, primarily in the Asia Pacific region. The Company can hold the bank notes until maturity, exchange them with suppliers to settle liabilities, or sell them to third-party financial institutions in exchange for cash. Bank notes sold to third-party financial institutions without recourse are likewise accounted for as true sales.<table style="border-collapse:collapse;display:inline-table;margin-bottom:5pt;vertical-align:top;width:100.000%"><tr><td style="width:1.0%"></td><td style="width:41.930%"></td><td style="width:0.1%"></td><td style="width:1.0%"></td><td style="width:12.687%"></td><td style="width:0.1%"></td><td style="width:0.1%"></td><td style="width:0.1%"></td><td style="width:0.406%"></td><td style="width:0.1%"></td><td style="width:1.0%"></td><td style="width:12.687%"></td><td style="width:0.1%"></td><td style="width:0.1%"></td><td style="width:0.1%"></td><td style="width:0.406%"></td><td style="width:0.1%"></td><td style="width:1.0%"></td><td style="width:12.687%"></td><td style="width:0.1%"></td><td style="width:0.1%"></td><td style="width:0.1%"></td><td style="width:0.406%"></td><td style="width:0.1%"></td><td style="width:1.0%"></td><td style="width:12.691%"></td><td style="width:0.1%"></td></tr></table><td colspan="3" style="padding:0 1pt"></td><td colspan="9" style="background-color:#ffffff;padding:2px 1pt;text-align:center;vertical-align:bottom">Three Months Ended September 30,</td><td colspan="3" style="background-color:#ffffff;padding:0 1pt"></td><td colspan="9" style="background-color:#ffffff;padding:2px 1pt;text-align:center;vertical-align:bottom">Nine Months Ended September 30,</td></tr><tr><td colspan="3" style="border-top:0.75pt solid #000000;padding:2px 1pt;text-align:center;vertical-align:bottom">2024</td><td colspan="3" style="border-top:0.75pt solid #000000;padding:0 1pt"></td><td colspan="3" style="border-bottom:0.75pt solid #000000;border-top:0.75pt solid #000000;padding:2px 1pt;text-align:center;vertical-align:bottom">2023</td><td colspan="3" style="padding:0 1pt"></td><td colspan="3" style="border-bottom:0.75pt solid #000000;border-top:0.75pt solid #000000;padding:2px 1pt;text-align:center;vertical-align:bottom">2024</td><td colspan="3" style="border-top:0.75pt solid #000000;padding:0 1pt"></td><td colspan="3" style="border-bottom:0.75pt solid #000000;border-top:0.75pt solid #000000;padding:2px 1pt;text-align:center;vertical-align:bottom">2023</td></tr></table><tr><td colspan="3" style="padding:0 1pt"></td><td colspan="21" style="border-top:0.75pt solid #000000;padding:2px 1pt;text-align:center;vertical-align:bottom">(Dollars in millions)</td></tr><tr><td colspan="3" style="background-color:#cfff0f;padding:2px 1pt 2px 7pt;text-align:left;text-indent:4.5pt;vertical-align:top">Eligible receivables sold without recourse</td><td style="background-color:#cfff0f;padding:2px 0 2px 1pt;text-align:left;vertical-align:bottom">$</td><td colspan="2" style="background-color:#cfff0f;padding:2px 7pt 2px 0;text-align:right;vertical-align:bottom">140</td><td colspan="3" style="background-color:#cfff0f;padding:0 1pt"></td><td style="background-color:#cfff0f;padding:2px 0 2px 1pt;text-align:left;vertical-align:bottom">$</td><td colspan="2" style="background-color:#cfff0f;padding:2px 7pt 2px 0;text-align:right;vertical-align:bottom">140</td></tr></table>

Note 10. Supplier Financing

The Company has supplier financing arrangements with two third-party financial institutions under which certain suppliers may factor their receivables from Garrett. The Company also enters into arrangements with banking institutions to issue bankers acceptance drafts in settlement of accounts payables, primarily in the Asia Pacific region. The bankers acceptance drafts, or guaranteed bank notes, have a contractual maturity of six months or less, and may be held by suppliers until maturity, transferred to their suppliers, or discounted with financial institutions in exchange for cash. The supplier financing obligations and guaranteed bank notes outstanding are recorded within Accounts payable in our Consolidated Interim Balance Sheet.

Facility

• a five-year secured first-lien U.S. Dollar term loan facility for $500 million;

Euro Term Facility

a seven-year secured first-lien Euro term loan facility for €450 million.

In the nine months ended September 30, 2024, we made early debt repayments totaling $985 million on our Euro Term Facility and our 2023 Dollar Term Facility. Both term loans were fully repaid as of September 30, 2024. The early repayments resulted in incremental amortization of debt issuance costs of $27 million, included within Interest expense in the Consolidated Interim Statement of Operations.

On May 21, 2024, in addition to the above transactions, the Company entered into Amendment No. 4 (the "Fourth Amendment") and Amendment No. 5 (the "Fifth Amendment" and, together with the Fourth Amendment, the "Amendments") to the Credit Agreement (as amended by the Amendments, the "Amended Credit Agreement"). The Fourth Amendment (i) removed the credit spread adjustment with respect to certain US dollar denominated term loan borrowings that are Term Benchmark Loans (as defined in the Amended Credit Agreement) and (ii) reduced the Applicable Rate (as defined in the Amended Credit Agreement) on certain US dollar denominated term loans to 2.75% for Term Benchmark Loans and 1.75% for ABR Loans (as defined in the Amended Credit Agreement).

The Fifth Amendment increased the amount of revolving loan commitments available to the Company under the Credit Agreement by $30 million ("Incremental Revolving Commitment") to an aggregate amount of $600 million, as discussed below. The Incremental Revolving Commitment has the same terms and is subject to the same conditions applicable to revolving loans generally under the Amended Credit Agreement.

The principal outstanding and carrying amounts of our long-term debt as of September 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023 are as follows:

	September 30, 2024	December 31, 2023

Revolving Facility and Letters of Credit

The Amended Credit Agreement also provides for a senior secured first-lien revolving credit facility providing for multi-currency revolving loans (the "Revolving Facility"). The Revolving Facility matures on April 30, 2028 and has a maximum borrowing amount available of $600 million.

Under the Revolving Facility, the Company may use up to $125 million for the issuance of letters of credit to its subsidiaries. Letters of credit are available for issuance under the Amended Credit Agreement on terms and conditions customary for financings of this kind, which issuances reduce availability under the Revolving Facility. As of September 30, 2024, the Company had no loans outstanding under the Revolving Facility, no outstanding letters of credit, and available borrowing capacity of $600 million.

Separate from the Revolving Facility, the Company has a bilateral letter of credit facility in the amount of $15 million, which matures on April 30, 2026. As of September 30, 2024, the Company had $12 million utilized and $3 million of remaining available capacity under such facility.

Minimum scheduled principal repayments of long-term debt as of September 30, 2024 are as follow:

Year	2024	2025	2026	2027	2028

Note 15. Equity

Preferred Stock

On April 12, 2023, the Company entered into separate definitive agreements with each of Centerbridge Partners, L.P. and funds managed by Oaktree Capital Management, L.P. to effect a series of integrated transactions (collectively, the “Transaction”) designed to simplify the Company’s capital structure by converting all outstanding Series A Preferred Stock into a single class of Common Stock, subject to certain conditions.

On June 6, 2023, the Company completed all steps of the Transaction and had no remaining shares of Series A Preferred Stock outstanding as of that date. Please refer to Note 21,

Equity

Treasury Stock

Treasury stock represents shares of the Company’s Common Stock that have been issued and subsequently repurchased by the Company or withheld to satisfy withholding tax obligations in connection with equity award vestings, and that have not been retired or cancelled. The Company accounts for treasury stock under the cost method and includes treasury stock as a component of Equity (Deficit) on the Consolidated Interim Balance Sheet. The Company accounts for the reissuance of treasury stock using the average cost method. The Company did not reissue or retire any shares of treasury stock during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2024.

Share Repurchase Program

On February 12, 2024, the Board of Directors authorized a $350 million share repurchase program valid until December 31, 2024. The Company may repurchase shares from time to time under the program through various methods, including in open market transactions, block trades, privately negotiated transactions, and otherwise. The timing, as well as the number and value of shares repurchased under the program, will depend on a variety of factors. The Company is not obligated to purchase any shares under the repurchase program, and the program may be suspended, modified, or discontinued at any time without prior notice. During the nine months ended September 30, 2024, the Company repurchased $226 million of Common Stock, and had $124 million remaining under the share repurchase program. The repurchased shares are held as treasury stock.350000000226000000124000000

Note 16. Financial Instruments and Fair Value Measures

Our credit, market, and foreign currency risk management policies are described in Note 19,

Financial Instruments and Fair Value Measures to the Consolidated Financial Statements for the year ended December 31, 2023 included in our 2023 Form 10-K. As of September 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, we had contracts with aggregate gross notional amounts of $790 million and $1,171 million, respectively, to hedge foreign currencies, principally the U.S. Dollar, Swiss Franc, British Pound, Euro, Chinese Yuan, Japanese Yen, Mexican Peso, New Romanian Leu, Czech Koruna, Australian Dollar, and Korean Won.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The FASB's accounting guidance defines fair value as the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date (exit price). Financial and nonfinancial assets and liabilities are classified in their entirety based on the lowest level of input that is significant to the fair value measurement. The following table sets forth the Company's financial assets and liabilities that were accounted for at fair value on a recurring basis as of September 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023:

Cash Flow Hedges

The Company also has outstanding forward currency exchange contracts with maturities up to 18 months and an aggregate notional amount of $369 million and $456 million as of September 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, respectively. These forward currency exchange contracts have been designated as cash flow hedges to mitigate foreign currency exposures primarily on our inventory purchases and manufacturing costs. The gains and losses on the forward currency exchange contracts are recorded in Accumulated Other Comprehensive Income ("AOCI") and reclassified to Cost of goods sold in the Consolidated Interim Statement of Operations when the underlying transactions are recognized in earnings.

In order to mitigate foreign currency risk on its 2032 Senior Notes, the Company entered into fixed-to-fixed cross-currency swap contracts with an aggregate notional amount of €507 million ($550 million) and notional exchanges in May 2027, May 2028, May 2029, and May 2030. Changes in the fair value of the cross-currency swap contracts are recognized in AOCI and reclassified to Non-operating (income) expense in the Consolidated Interim Statement of Operations, based upon changes in the spot rate remeasurement of the underlying debt. The net interest settlements on the cross-currency swap contracts are recorded in Interest expense in the Consolidated Interim Statements of Operations.

All of the Company's cash flow hedges are assessed as highly effective. For the three months ended September 30, 2024 and 2023, the Company recorded a gain of $4 million, net of tax, and a loss of $2 million, net of tax, respectively, in Other comprehensive income. For the nine months ended September 30, 2024 and 2023, the Company recorded a gain of $5 million, net of tax, and a loss of $3 million, net of tax, respectively, in Other comprehensive income.

Net Investment Hedges

The Company has designated cross-currency swaps with aggregate notional amounts of €858 million ($965 million) and €615 million ($715 million) as of September 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, respectively, as net investment hedges of its Euro-denominated operations. In April 2024, the Company re-coupled the cross-currency swap contracts and received a cash settlement of $13 million. The fair values of the net investment hedges were net assets of $10 million and $37 million as of September 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, respectively. Our Consolidated Interim Statements of Comprehensive Income include Changes in fair value of net investment hedges, net of tax, of a $31 million loss and a $20 million gain for the three months ended September 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively, and of a $4 million loss and a $18 million gain for the nine months ended September 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively. No ineffectiveness has been recorded on the net investment hedges.

Non-Designated Derivatives

As of September 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, the Company has outstanding float-to-fixed interest rate swap contracts with an aggregate notional amount of €450 million ($502 million) and €830 million ($917 million), respectively, and maturities of October 2024, April 2025, April 2026, April 2027, and April 2028. Changes in the fair value of the undesignated interest rate swap contracts are recorded in Interest expense in the Consolidated Interim Statements of Operations. For the three months ended September 30, 2024 and 2023, the Company recorded losses of $9 million and $5 million, net of tax, respectively, in Non-operating (income) expense. For the nine months ended September 30, 2024 and 2023, the Company recorded losses of $33 million and $11 million, respectively, in Non-operating (income) expense.

The Company also has outstanding forward currency exchange contracts with maturities generally up to 3 months and an aggregate notional amount of $421 million and $715 million as of September 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, respectively. These derivatives are not designated as hedging instruments and are adjusted to fair value through Non-operating (income) expense in the Consolidated Interim Statements of Operations. For the three months ended September 30, 2024 and 2023, the Company recorded gains of $1 million and $1 million, net of tax, respectively, in Other comprehensive income. For the nine months ended September 30, 2024 and 2023, the Company recorded gains of $3 million and $1 million, net of tax, respectively, in Other comprehensive income.

Note 18. Earnings Per Share

For the three and nine months ended September 30, 2024, as well as the three months ended September 30, 2023, basic earnings per share ("EPS") is computed using the weighted-average number of common shares outstanding during the period.

Diluted earnings per share for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2024, as well as the three months ended September 30, 2023, is calculated based on the weighted-average number of common shares outstanding for the period plus the dilutive effect of common stock equivalents using the treasury stock method. Diluted earnings per share for the nine months ended September 30, 2023 is calculated using the more dilutive of the two-class or if-converted methods. The two-class method uses net income available to common shareholders and assumes conversion of all potential shares other than the participating securities. The if-converted method uses net income and assumes conversion of all potential
