(NASDAQ: VMAR) ("Vision Marine" or the "Company"), a leader in high-voltage electric marine propulsion systems, today announced the acquisition of Nautical Ventures Group, Inc. ("Nautical Ventures"), a Florida-based recreational boat dealership, marina, and service provider. Recently named the 2024 Boating Industry "Dealer of the Year", Nautical Ventures is widely recognized as one of the top boat dealership networks in the United States and is notably the number one Axopar dealership globally. Â This acquisition marks the formation of North America's first electric boat propulsion and boat dealership company, combining Vision Marine's proprietary E-Motion, high-voltage electric powertrain with Nautical Ventures' retail footprint, multi-brand boat inventory, and full-service infrastructure. Â This acquisition marks a pivotal step in Vision Marine's strategy to scale and compete at the highest level of the global boating industry," said Alexandre Mongeon, CEO of Vision Marine. "The market is entering a new phase—one defined by innovation in propulsion, increasing demand for integrated solutions, and rising expectations from both OEMs and consumers. By joining forces with Nautical Ventures, we gain immediate access to a proven retail and service network, allowing us to accelerate the rollout of next-generation marine technology. Nautical Ventures' founder & CEO Roger Moore has been a mentor and friend for over a decade, and I am honored to carry forward this shared vision under one banner." Â Â Â Roger Moore added: "Nautical Ventures has always focused on bringing the best products and experiences to boaters. Our partnership with Vision Marine allows us to stay true to that mission while expanding what's possible. Electric propulsion is no longer a future concept—it's here, and it's ready." Â Nautical Ventures operates nine high-volume retail locations across Florida, including two flagship waterfront showrooms, providing Vision Marine with direct access to one of the most concentrated and active recreational boating markets in the world. The dealership offers a wide portfolio of prestigious marine brands including Axopar, Beneteau, Brabus, Edgewater, Flite, Highfield, Hobie, Mercury, NorthStar, Seabob, Smokercraft, Suzuki, Tohatsu, Wellcraft, and Yamaha, serving a diverse customer base from high-performance boaters to luxury yacht owners and international resort fleets. Â Â Â Transaction Highlights: A New Powerhouse in Boating Â —Turnkey Electric Boating Platform Â Vision Marine now offers a complete electric boating solution encompassing propulsion system design and manufacturing, boat integration, showroom sales, convenient sea trial access, professional installation, and comprehensive long-term service and maintenance. Â —Direct-to-Consumer Expansion Â With the addition of Nautical Ventures' premium dealer network, Vision Marine is positioned to directly sell and install its E-Motion, high-voltage systems across a wide range of globally recognized boat platforms—both those already integrated through the Company's 22 completed HV deployments and additional leading brands offered through Nautical Ventures' retail portfolio. Â —Immediate Market Penetration Â Nautical Ventures' six locations across Florida's most active boating markets provide Vision Marine with direct exposure to tens of thousands of marine consumers annually. Their strong presence at major U.S. boat shows further enhances brand visibility and creates high-impact opportunities for customer engagement, product demonstration, and electric adoption. Â —Diversified Revenue Streams Â In addition to Vision Marine's existing consumer sales generated through production agreements with OEM partners, the acquisition adds high-margin dealership sales, rentals, parts, and aftermarket services—broadening the Company's revenue mix. Â —

Foundation for Scaled Growth – The combined entity is now positioned to execute a nationwide rollout of integrated electric boats and services across both consumer and OEM channels. – With the global electric boat market projected to exceed USD $2.5 billion by 2030, and an anticipated compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of over 18%, Vision Marine is now strategically positioned to lead this rapidly growing segment with a high-performance propulsion platform and direct market access through established retail and service infrastructure. – Integration of Nautical Ventures’ operations is already underway. – – – The transaction was funded through a combination of cash, a seller’s note and up to 255,102 shares of Vision Marine’s common stock. – –ThinkEquity acted as an advisor to Vision Marine in connection with the acquisition. – About Vision Marine Technologies Inc.
