("ListCo"), a Delaware corporation and wholly-owned subsidiary of ARYA, Aja Merger Sub 1, a Cayman Islands exempted company and wholly-owned subsidiary of ListCo ("ARYA Merger Sub"), Aja Merger Sub 2, Inc., a Delaware corporation and wholly-owned subsidiary of ListCo ("Company Merger Sub"), and Adagio Medical, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("Legacy Adagio", the "Predecessor"), consummated the business combination (the "Business Combination") pursuant to the terms of the Business Combination Agreement, dated February 13, 2024, by and among the foregoing parties, as amended by the Consent and Amendment No. 1 to Business Combination Agreement, dated as of June 25, 2024, by and between ARYA and Adagio (the "Business Combination Agreement"). Pursuant to the Business Combination Agreement, on the Closing Date, (i) ARYA Merger Sub merged with and into ARYA (the "ARYA Merger") and Company Merger Sub merged with and into Legacy Adagio (the "Adagio Merger" and, together with the ARYA Merger, the "Mergers"), with ARYA and Legacy Adagio surviving the Mergers and, after giving effect to such Mergers, each of ARYA and Legacy Adagio becoming a wholly owned subsidiary of ListCo (the time that the ARYA Merger becomes effective being referred to as the "ARYA Merger Effective Time," the time that the Adagio Merger becomes effective being referred to as the "Adagio Merger Effective Time," the time after which both Mergers become effective being referred to as the "Closing," and the date on which the Closing occurs being referred to as the "Closing Date"), (ii) ListCo filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware an amended and restated certificate of incorporation of ListCo, and the board of directors of ListCo approved and adopt amended and restated bylaws of ListCo, and (iii) ListCo changed its name to Adagio Medical Holdings, Inc. Refer to Note 3- Forward Merger for details of the Business Combination. The Company's Common Stock (as defined below) began trading on August 1, 2024, under the symbol ADGM on the Nasdaq Capital Market (NASDAQ: ADGM). Liquidity and Going Concern The accompanying condensed consolidated financial statements have been prepared on a basis that assumes the Company will continue as a going concern. The Company has limited revenue and has experienced recurring operating losses and negative cash flows from operations since its inception and anticipates that it will continue to do so for at least the next several years. As of September 30, 2024, the Successor reported cash and cash equivalents of $28.3 million, and an accumulated deficit of $13.2 million. For the period from July 31, 2024 to September 30, 2024 (Successor), from January 1, 2024 to July 30, 2024 (Predecessor), and the nine months ended September 30, 2023 (Predecessor), net income (loss) was $3.6 million, $(21.3) million, and $(28.0) million, respectively. The net cash used in operating activities was $6.4 million, $16.0 million, and $18.6 million, respectively. Management does not believe the Company's current cash and cash equivalents are sufficient to fund operations for at least the next 12 months from the issuance date of the condensed consolidated financial statements. Management believes that this raises substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. Management intends to mitigate the conditions and events that raise substantial doubt about its ability to continue as a going concern entity by (i) negotiate other cash equity or debt financing in the short-term, (ii) continue to pursue the necessary regulatory approvals to launch commercially in the U.S. market, and (iii) execute cost-cutting measures to manage cash burn. However, there can be no assurances that the current plans will generate any liquidity to the Company or be available on terms acceptable to the Company. If the Company is unable to maintain sufficient financial resources, its business, financial condition, and results of operations will be materially and adversely affected. The Company may be required to delay, limit, reduce or terminate its product discovery and development activities or future commercialization efforts. The accompanying condensed consolidated financial statements have been prepared assuming that the Company will continue as a going concern and do not include adjustments that might result from the outcome of this uncertainty. This basis of accounting contemplates the recovery of the Company's assets and the satisfaction of liabilities in the normal course of business. Strategic Realignment of Resources and Corporate Restructuring On December 1, 2023, Legacy Adagio approved a strategic realignment of resources and corporate restructuring (the "RIF") designed to reallocate capital, conformant to its business focus for the next two years. As part of the RIF, Legacy Adagio initiated a reduction in its workforce of 20 employees, representing approximately 19% of Legacy Adagio's employees, which was completed on December 15, 2023. Legacy Adagio made no payment for severance or related benefit costs. Legacy Adagio made no payment of retention bonuses. 28300000-1320000003600000-6400000-16000000-18600000200.1900 Note 2 - Summary of Significant Accounting Policies Basis of Presentation The condensed consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("U.S. GAAP"). Any reference in these notes to applicable guidance is meant to refer to the authoritative United States generally accepted accounting principles as found in the Accounting Standards Codification ("ASC") and Accounting Standards Update ("ASU") of the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB"). As a result of the Business Combination, for accounting purposes, ListCo is the acquirer and Legacy Adagio is the accounting acquiree and predecessor. The financial statement presentation includes the financial statements of Legacy Adagio as "Predecessor" for the periods prior to the Closing Date (the "Predecessor Period(s)"), and of the Company as "Successor" for the periods after the Closing Date (the "Successor Period(s)"), including the consolidation of Legacy Adagio and ARYA. The Successor Period includes the Company's results of operations and cash flows for the period from July 31, 2024 through September 30, 2024. As a result of the application of the acquisition method of accounting as of the Closing Date of the Business Combination, the accompanying consolidated financial statements include a black line division that indicates that the Predecessor and Successor reporting entities shown are presented on a different basis and are therefore, not comparable. Unaudited Interim Financial Information The accompanying interim condensed consolidated balance sheet as of September 30, 2024, the condensed consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive income (loss) and the condensed consolidated statements of convertible preferred stock and stockholders' equity (deficit), for the periods from July 1, 2024 to July 30, 2024 (Predecessor), July 31, 2024 to September 30, 2024 (Successor), January 1, 2024 to July 30, 2024 (Predecessor), July 31, 2024 to September 30, 2024 (Successor) and the three and nine months ended September 30, 2023 (Predecessor), and the condensed consolidated statements of cash flows for the periods from January 1, 2024 to July 30, 2024 (Predecessor), July 31, 2024 to September 30, 2024 (Successor), and nine months ended September 30, 2023 (Predecessor), and the related footnote disclosures are unaudited. These unaudited interim financial statements have been prepared in accordance with U.S. GAAP and, in management's opinion, reflect all adjustments which only include normal recurring adjustments necessary for the fair presentation of the Company's financial position as of September 30, 2024 (Successor)

and its results of operations and comprehensive income (loss) for the periods from July 1, 2024 to July 30, 2024 (Predecessor), July 31, 2024 to September 30, 2024 (Successor), January 1, 2024 to July 30, 2024 (Predecessor), July 31, 2024 to September 30, 2024 (Successor), and the three and nine months ended September 30, 2023 (Predecessor), and cash flows for the periods from January 1, 2024 to July 30, 2024 (Predecessor), July 31, 2024 to September 30, 2024 (Successor), and nine months ended September 30, 2023 (Predecessor). The results for the periods from July 1, 2024 to July 30, 2024 (Predecessor), July 31, 2024 to September 30, 2024 (Successor), January 1, 2024 to July 30, 2024 (Predecessor) and July 31, 2024 to September 30, 2024 (Successor) are not necessarily indicative of the results to be expected for the year ending December 31, 2024, or any other interim period. Emerging Growth Company Status The Company is an "emerging growth company," as defined in Section 2(a) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, (the "Securities Act"), as modified by the Jumpstart our Business Startups Act of 2012 (the "JOBS Act"). Section 102(b)(1) of the JOBS Act exempts emerging growth companies from being required to comply with new or revised financial accounting standards until private companies (that is, those that have not had a Securities Act registration statement declared effective or do not have a class of securities registered under the Exchange Act) are required to comply with the new or revised financial accounting standards. The JOBS Act provides that a company can elect to opt out of the extended transition period and comply with the requirements that apply to non-emerging growth companies but any such election to opt out is irrevocable. The Company has elected not to opt out of such extended transition period which means that when an accounting standard is issued or revised and it has different application dates for public or private companies, the Company, as an emerging growth company, can adopt the new standard at the time private companies adopt the new or revised standard. Principles of Consolidation The condensed consolidated financial statements include the accounts of Adagio Medical Holdings, Inc., and its wholly owned subsidiaries. All intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation. Use of Estimates and Assumptions The preparation of the condensed consolidated financial statements in conformity with U.S. GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, revenue, expenses and disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities. These estimates and assumptions are based on current facts, historical experience and various other factors believed to be reasonable under the circumstances, the results of which form the basis for making judgments about the carrying values of assets and liabilities and the recording of revenue and expenses that are not readily apparent from other sources. Actual results could differ from those estimates. Segments Operating segments are defined as components of an entity for which separate financial information is available and that is regularly reviewed by the Chief Operating Decision Maker ("CODM") in deciding how to allocate resources to an individual segment and in assessing performance. The Company's CODM is its Chief Executive Officer. The Company has determined that it operates as one reportable segment, as the CODM reviews financial information presented on a consolidated basis for purposes of making operating decisions, allocating resources, and evaluating financial performance. Cash and Cash Equivalents The Company considers all highly liquid investments with maturities of three months or less from the date of purchase, including its money market account, to be cash equivalents. All of the Company's cash equivalents have liquid markets. Cash deposits held in accounts at each United States financial institution are insured up to $0.25 million by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation ("FDIC"). Cash deposits held in accounts at each European Union financial institution are insured up to €0.1 million by the Deposit Guarantee Scheme. The Company maintains its cash in bank deposit accounts that, at times, may exceed the stated insured limits. Any loss incurred or lack of access to uninsured funds could have a significant adverse impact on the Company's financial condition, results of operations and cash flows. Management does not expect any losses on such accounts. Concentrations of Credit Risk and Off-Balance Sheet Risk Financial instruments that potentially subject the Company to credit risk consist principally of cash and cash equivalents. The Company deposits its cash and cash equivalents with major financial institutions; however, at times, deposits may exceed the amount of insurance provided. The Company has not experienced any losses on its deposits since inception. Revenue Recognition The Company generates product revenue primarily from the sale of cryoablation catheters, stylets, esophageal warming balloons, and other accessories (collectively, the "Consumables") used with the Company's cryoablation consoles ("Consoles"). The Company sells its products directly to hospitals and medical centers. To a lesser extent, the Company also generates lease revenue from the implied rental of Consoles loaned to customers at no charge. The Company accounts for revenue earned from contracts with customers under ASC 606, Revenue from Contracts with Customers ("ASC 606"). The core principle of ASC 606 is that a company should recognize revenue to depict the transfer of promised goods or services to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration to which the company expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods or services. The Company recognizes revenue from sales to customers applying the following five steps: <table style="border-collapse:collapse;font-family:'Times New Roman','Times','serif';font-size:10pt;margin-bottom:12pt;margin-top:0pt;table-layout:fixed;width:100%;border:0pt;"><tr><td style="font-family:'Times New Roman','Times','serif';font-size:9pt;text-align:center;vertical-align:text-top;white-space:nowrap;width:36pt;padding:0pt;">●</td><td style="padding:0pt;">Step 1: Identify the contract with the customer.</td></tr></table><table style="border-collapse:collapse;font-family:'Times New Roman','Times','serif';font-size:10pt;margin-bottom:12pt;margin-top:0pt;table-layout:fixed;width:100%;border:0pt;"><tr><td style="font-family:'Times New Roman','Times','serif';font-size:9pt;text-align:center;vertical-align:text-top;white-space:nowrap;width:36pt;padding:0pt;">●</td><td style="padding:0pt;">Step 2: Identify the performance obligations in the contract.</td></tr></table><table style="border-collapse:collapse;font-family:'Times New Roman','Times','serif';font-size:10pt;margin-bottom:12pt;margin-top:0pt;table-layout:fixed;width:100%;border:0pt;"><tr><td style="font-family:'Times New Roman','Times','serif';font-size:9pt;text-align:center;vertical-align:text-top;white-space:nowrap;width:36pt;padding:0pt;">●</td><td style="padding:0pt;">Step 3: Determine the transaction price.</td></tr></table><table style="border-collapse:collapse;font-family:'Times New Roman','Times','serif';font-size:10pt;margin-bottom:12pt;margin-top:0pt;table-layout:fixed;width:100%;border:0pt;"><tr><td style="font-family:'Times New Roman','Times','serif';font-size:9pt;text-align:center;vertical-align:text-top;white-space:nowrap;width:36pt;padding:0pt;">●</td><td style="padding:0pt;">Step 4: Allocate the transaction price to the performance obligations in the contract.</td></tr></table><table style="border-collapse:collapse;font-family:'Times New Roman','Times','serif';font-size:10pt;margin-bottom:0pt;margin-top:0pt;table-layout:fixed;width:100%;border:0pt;"><tr><td style="font-family:'Times New Roman','Times','serif';font-size:9pt;text-align:center;vertical-align:text-top;white-space:nowrap;width:36pt;padding:0pt;">●</td><td style="padding:0pt;">Step 5: Recognize revenue when, or as, the company satisfies a performance obligation.</td></tr></table> The Company's customer contracts generally have performance obligations that contain deliverables consisting of the Consumables and may also include Consoles loaned to customers. The Company evaluates each promise within a multiple-performance obligation arrangement to determine whether it represents a distinct performance obligation. The primary performance obligations in the Company's customer arrangements from which it derives revenue is the sale of the Consumables. When the Company loans the Console to the customer, it retains title to the Console at all times and does not require minimum purchase commitments from the customer related to any Consumables. In such cases, the Company invoices the customer for the Consumables based on customer orders received. Over time, the Company expects to recover the cost of the loaned Console through the customer's continued purchasing and use of additional Consumables. For these reasons, the Company has determined that part of the arrangement consideration for the Consumables is an implied rental payment for use of the Console. Therefore, the Company allocates the arrangement consideration between the lease components (i.e., the Console) and non-lease components (i.e., the Consumables) based on the relative estimated standalone selling price of each distinct performance obligation consistent with ASC 842, Leases and ASC 606. Revenue allocated to the lease components was not material for the periods from January 1, 2024 to July 30, 2024 (Predecessor), from July 31, 2024 to September 30, 2024 (Successor) and the nine months ended September 30, 2023 (Predecessor). Revenue from sales to customers of the Consumables is classified as revenue in the Company's condensed consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive income (loss). The delivery of the Consumables are performance obligations satisfied at a point in time, when the control of the goods is transferred to the customer (i.e., FOB Shipping Point). Revenue is recognized when control is transferred to the customer in an amount that reflects the consideration the Company expects to be entitled to in exchange for the product. Other Revenue Considerations Revenue is reported net of sales tax. The Company has made the accounting policy election not to recognize a separate performance obligation for the shipment of products to the customer but to account for it as fulfillment cost. The Company's contracts primarily include fixed consideration. The Company only includes estimated variable amounts in the transaction price to the extent it is probable that a significant reversal of cumulative revenue recognized will not occur when the uncertainty associated with the variable consideration is resolved. Customers are generally required to pay within 30 days. Any incremental costs to obtain contracts are recorded as selling, general and administrative expense as incurred due to the short duration of the Company's contracts. The Company does not assess whether promised goods or services are performance obligations if they are deemed immaterial in the context of the contract with the customer. Additionally, the Company does not assess whether a contract has a significant financing component if the expectation at contract inception is that the period between payment by the customer and the transfer of the promised goods or services to the customer will be one year or less. For the periods from January 1, 2024 to July 30, 2024 (Predecessor), from July 31, 2024 to September 30, 2024 (Successor), and nine months ended September 30, 2023 (Predecessor), revenue was generated only from European markets. Inventory Inventory consists of raw materials, work-in-process, and finished products and is valued at the lower of cost or net realizable value. The method by which that amounts are removed from the inventory is first-in first-out ("FIFO"). Cost may include materials, labor, and manufacturing overhead. The carrying value of inventory is reviewed for potential impairment whenever indicators suggest that the cost of inventory exceeds the carrying value and management adjusts the inventory to its net realizable value. The Company also periodically evaluates inventory for estimated losses from excess quantities and obsolescence and writes down the cost of inventory to net realizable value at the time such determinations are made. Net realizable value is determined using the estimated selling price, in the ordinary course of business, less estimated costs to complete and dispose. Inventory used in research and development activities is expensed when incurred. Property and Equipment Property and equipment are recorded at cost, less accumulated depreciation. Depreciation and amortization are provided using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the related assets, generally three to five years, or, in the case of leasehold improvements, over the remaining life of the lease term. Specifically, Consoles had a five-year useful life as of December 31, 2023, and effective on January 1, 2024, the useful life of Consoles was changed to three years to better reflect the estimated periods during which these Consoles will remain in service. The impact of the change in the estimated useful life of Consoles is not material to the Predecessor Periods or Successor Periods, nor to the future remaining life of the Consoles. Property and equipment include equipment that is loaned to customers and located at customer premises. The Company retains ownership of the equipment held for evaluation by customers and has the right to remove the equipment if it is not being utilized according to expectations. Intangible Assets Intangible assets with finite useful lives are amortized on a straight-line basis over their estimated useful lives. In determining the estimated useful lives of definite-lived intangibles, the Company considers the nature, competitive position, life cycle position and expected future operating cash flows of the acquired asset, as well as its commitment to support these assets through continued investment and legal infringement protection. Indefinite-lived intangible assets consist of In-Process Research and Development ("IPR&D"). Intangible assets with indefinite lives are tested for impairment if impairment indicators arise and, at a minimum, annually. However, an entity is permitted to first assess qualitative factors to determine if a quantitative impairment test is necessary. Further testing is only required if the entity determines, based on the qualitative assessment, that it is more likely than not that an indefinite-lived intangible asset's fair value is less than its carrying amount. Otherwise, no further impairment testing is required. The indefinite-lived intangible asset impairment test consists of a one-step analysis that compares the fair value of the intangible asset with its carrying amount. If the carrying amount of an intangible asset exceeds its fair value, an impairment loss is recognized in an amount equal to that excess. No impairment charges were recorded in the period from July 31, 2024 to September 30, 2024 (Successor). Legacy Adagio does not have material intangible assets. Goodwill In accordance with ASC 350, Intangibles – Goodwill and Other, the Company tests goodwill for impairment at the reporting unit level. The Company has one reporting unit for the goodwill impairment testing purposes. Goodwill is tested for impairment on an annual basis in the fourth quarter, or more frequently if events or changes in circumstances indicate the carrying value of goodwill may not be recoverable (a "triggering event"). On the occurrence of a triggering event, an entity has the option to first assess qualitative factors to determine whether a quantitative impairment test is necessary. If it is more likely than not that goodwill is impaired, the fair value of the reporting unit (the Company) is compared with its carrying value. An impairment charge is recognized for the amount by which the carrying amount exceeds the fair value, provided, the loss recognized cannot exceed the total amount of goodwill. No goodwill impairment charges were recorded in the period from July 31, 2024 to September 30, 2024 (Successor). Legacy Adagio does not have goodwill. Concentrations The Company had three suppliers each exceed 10.0% of total accounts payable as of September 30, 2024 (Successor), representing 74.5% of accounts payable. As of December 31, 2023 (Predecessor), Legacy Adagio has three suppliers each exceed 10.0% of total accounts payable, representing 71.6% of accounts payable. The Company's five and ten largest suppliers accounted for approximately 59.8% and 80.8%, respectively, of the Company's expenditures for the periods from January 1, 2024 to July 30, 2024 (Predecessor) and July 31, 2024 to September 30, 2024 (Successor). Legacy Adagio's five and ten largest suppliers accounted for approximately 39.4% and 50.5%, respectively, of Legacy Adagio's expenditures for the nine months ended September 30, 2023 (Predecessor). Impairment of Long-Lived Assets The Company reviews long-lived assets, including property and equipment and finite-lived intangible assets, for impairment annually or whenever events or changes in business circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of the assets may not be fully recoverable. An impairment loss is recognized when the asset's carrying value exceeds the total undiscounted cash flows expected from its use and eventual disposition. The amount of the impairment loss is determined as the excess of the carrying value of the asset over its fair value. For the periods from January 1, 2024 to July 30, 2024 (Predecessor), from July 31, 2024 to September 30, 2024 (Successor), and the nine months ended September 2023 (Predecessor), the Company determined that there was no impairment of long-lived assets. Foreign Currency Translation and Transactions The assets, liabilities, and results of operations of Adagio Medical GmbH are recorded using the Euro as the designated functional currency, which is the currency of the primary economic environment in which Adagio Medical GmbH operates. Consequently, transactions in currencies other than Euro are measured and recorded in Euro. Upon consolidation with the Company, its assets and liabilities are translated to U.S. Dollars at currency exchange rates as of the condensed consolidated balance sheet date and its revenues and expenses are translated at the weighted-average currency exchange rates during the applicable reporting periods. Translation adjustments resulting from the process of translating this entity's financial statements are reported in accumulated other comprehensive income (loss) in the condensed consolidated balance sheets and foreign currency translation adjustment in the condensed consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive income (loss). Leases The Company accounts for its lease property under ASC 842. Under this guidance, arrangements meeting the definition of a lease are classified as operating or financing leases, and are recorded on the condensed consolidated balance sheets as both a right-of-use asset and a lease liability, calculated by discounting fixed lease payments over the lease term at the rate implicit in the lease or the Company's incremental borrowing rate, which is the rate for collateralized borrowings based on the current economic environment, current borrowings, value of leases, currency in which the lease obligation is satisfied, rate sensitivity, lease term and materiality. Lease liabilities are increased by interest and reduced by payments each period, and the right-of-use asset is amortized over the lease term. For operating leases, interest on the lease liability and the amortization of the right-of-use asset results in straight-line rent expense over the lease term. Variable lease expenses are recorded when incurred. The Company determines whether a contract is or contains a lease at the inception of the contract. A contract will be deemed to be or contain a lease if the contract conveys the right to control and direct the use of identified property, plant, or equipment for a period of time in exchange for consideration. The Company generally must also have the right to obtain substantially all of the economic benefits from the use of the property, plant, and equipment. The Company uses the implicit rate in the lease agreement, when readily available, or its incremental borrowing rate as the basis to calculate the present value of future lease payments at lease commencement. The incremental borrowing rate represents the rate the Company would have to pay to borrow funds on a collateralize basis over a similar term and in a similar economic environment. In calculating the right-of-use asset and lease liability, the Company elected to combine lease and non-lease components for its real estate leases. The Company adopted the policy election to exclude short-term leases having initial terms of twelve months from the initial recognition provisions of ASC 842. Refer to Note 11- Operating Leases for additional details. The Company's implied rental agreements for its consoles qualify as operating leases and as such, revenue is recognized in accordance with ASC 842, Leases and ASC 606, Revenue from Contracts with Customers. Revenue allocated to the lease components were not significant for the periods from January 1, 2024 to July 30, 2024 (Predecessor), from July 31, 2024 to September 30, 2024 (Successor), and nine months ended September 30, 2023 (Predecessor). Cost of Revenue Cost of revenue includes raw materials, direct labor, manufacturing overhead, shipping and receiving costs and other less significant indirect costs related to the production of the Company's products. Cost of revenue also includes the depreciation expense of Consoles loaned to the customers. Research and Development Research and development expenses consist primarily of salaries, consulting fees, and employee-related costs (including stock-based compensation) for personnel directly engaged in research and development activities, clinical trial expenses, equipment costs, material costs, allocated rent and facilities costs, and depreciation. Research and development expenses relating to possible future products are expensed as incurred. The Company also accrues and expenses costs for activities associated with clinical trials performed by third parties as incurred. Selling, General and Administrative Selling, general and administrative expenses consist primarily of salaries, and employee-related costs (including stock-based compensation) for personnel in executive, finance and other administrative functions, allocated rent and facilities costs, legal fees relating to intellectual property and corporate matters, professional fees for accounting and consulting services, marketing costs and insurance costs. The Company expenses all selling, general, and administrative costs as incurred. The incurred transaction costs are recorded in selling, general, and administrative costs. Accrued Transaction Costs (Predecessor) In connection with the Business Combination, Legacy Adagio accrued transaction costs, consisting primarily of legal, accounting and other professional fees, which were incurred and expensed, but not yet paid. The accrued expenses as of December 31, 2023 (Predecessor) are recorded in accrued transaction costs on the condensed consolidated balance sheets. Fair Value Measurements Fair value measurements are based on the premise that fair value is an exit price representing the amount that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants. As such, fair value is a market-based measurement that should be determined based on assumptions that market participants would use in pricing an asset or liability. As a basis for considering such assumptions, the following three-tier fair value hierarchy is used in determining the inputs for measuring fair value: <table style="border-collapse:collapse;font-family:'Times New Roman','Times','serif';font-size:10pt;margin-bottom:0pt;margin-top:0pt;table-layout:fixed;width:100%;border:0pt;"><tr><td style="width:18pt;"></td><td style="font-family:'Times New Roman','Times','serif';font-size:10pt;vertical-align:text-top;white-space:nowrap;width:18pt;padding:0pt;">●</td><td style="padding:0pt;">Level 1-Quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.</td></tr></table> <table style="border-collapse:collapse;font-family:'Times New Roman','Times','serif';font-size:10pt;margin-bottom:12pt;margin-top:0pt;table-layout:fixed;width:100%;border:0pt;"><tr><td style="width:18pt;"></td><td style="font-family:'Times New Roman','Times','serif';font-size:10pt;vertical-align:text-top;white-space:nowrap;width:18pt;padding:0pt;">●</td><td style="padding:0pt;">Level 2-Observable inputs other than Level 1 prices for similar assets or liabilities that are directly or indirectly observable in the marketplace.</td></tr></table><table style="border-collapse:collapse;font-family:'Times New Roman','Times','serif';font-size:10pt;margin-bottom:0pt;margin-top:0pt;table-layout:fixed;width:100%;border:0pt;"><tr><td style="width:18pt;"></td><td style="font-family:'Times New Roman','Times','serif';font-size:10pt;vertical-align:text-top;white-space:nowrap;width:18pt;padding:0pt;">●</td><td style="padding:0pt;">Level 3-Unobservable inputs which are supported by little or no market activity and consist of financial instruments valued using pricing models, discounted cash flow methodologies or similar technigues, as well as instruments for which the determination of fair value requires significant judgment or estimation.</td></tr></table> Financial instruments measured at fair value are classified in their entirety based on the lowest level of input that is significant to the fair value measurement. Management's assessment of the significance of a particular input to the fair value measurement in its entirety requires judgment and considers factors specific to the asset or liability. The use of different assumptions and/or estimation methodologies may have a material effect on estimated fair values. Accordingly, the fair value estimates disclosed, or initial amounts recorded may not be indicative of the amount that the Company or holders of the instruments could realize in a current market exchange. The fair value of the convertible notes payable and warrant liabilities may be impacted by certain unobservable inputs, most significantly with regard to discount rates, expected volatility and historical and projected performance. Significant changes to these inputs in isolation could result in a significantly different fair value measurement. Fair Value Option for Convertible Notes As permitted under ASC 825, Financial Instruments ("ASC 825"), Legacy Adagio elected the fair value option to account for the convertible promissory notes issued in October 2022 (the "October 2022 Convertible Notes"), April 2023 (the "April 2023 Convertible Notes"), November 2023 (the "November 2023 Convertible Notes"), February 2024 (the "February 2024 Convertible Notes", "2024 Bridge Financing Notes"), May 2024 (the "May 2024 Convertible Notes"), June 2024 (the "June 2024 Convertible Notes"), and July 2024 (the "July 2024 Convertible Notes") (collectively, "Legacy Adagio Convertible Notes"), and the Company elected the fair value option to account for the Convertible Securities Notes (as defined below), in order to measure those liabilities at amounts that more accurately reflect the current economic environment in which the Legacy Adagio and the Company operated. The convertible promissory notes mentioned above were recorded at fair value at issuance and subsequently were remeasured to fair value at the end of each reporting period. The change in fair value of the convertible promissory notes, excluding amounts related to interest, is recorded in "Convertible notes fair value adjustment", while amounts related to interest are recorded as interest expense in the consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive income (loss). As a result of applying the fair value option, direct costs and fees related to the issuance of the convertible promissory notes were expensed as incurred (i.e., not recognized as deferred costs). Refer to Note 4- Fair Value Measurements for further detail. Warrants The Company has Convert Warrants (as defined below) issued along with the Convertible Securities Notes, and PIPE Pre-funded Warrants (as defined below) issued in PIPE Financing (as defined below), which are classified as liabilities. The Company also has PIPE Base Warrants (as defined below) issued in PIPE Financing, which is classified as equity. Legacy Adagio has certain common stock warrants ("SVB Warrants") issued along with the SVB Term Loan (as defined below) and pre-funded warrants to purchase Series E preferred stock ("Series E Pre-funded Warrants"), which were both classified as liabilities. The Company and Legacy Adagio determine the classification of warrants based on an assessment of the warrant's specific terms and applicable authoritative guidance in ASC 480 and ASC 815. The assessment considers whether the warrants are freestanding financial instruments and meet all of the requirements for equity classification, including whether the warrants are indexed to the Company's own shares of common stock, among other conditions for equity classification. This assessment is conducted at the time of warrant issuance and as of each subsequent quarterly period end date while the warrants are outstanding. For issued or modified warrants that meet all of the criteria for equity classification, the warrants are required to be recorded as a component of additional paid-in capital at the time of issuance. For issued or modified warrants that do not meet all the criteria for equity classification, the warrants are required to be recorded at their initial fair value on the date of issuance, and each balance sheet date thereafter until settlement. Changes in the estimated fair value of the liability-classified warrants are recognized in warrant liabilities fair value adjustment in the condensed consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive income (loss). The classification of derivative instruments, including whether such instruments should be recorded as liabilities or as equity, is reassessed at the end of each reporting period. Equity instruments that are initially classified as equity that become subject to reclassification are reclassified to a liability at the fair value of the instrument on the reclassification date. Derivative instrument liabilities are classified in the condensed consolidated balance sheets as current or non-current based on whether or not net-cash settlement of the derivative instrument could be required within twelve months of the condensed consolidated balance sheet date. See Note 10- Warrants for additional information related to the warrants. Term Loan (Predecessor) The Company accounts for the Predecessor term loan at residual value on the date of issuance. The expected life of the term loan is the contractual term ending on the maturity date. The Company classifies the term loan as current liabilities within twelve months of the maturity date or when otherwise due. Interest expense is recognized in the condensed consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive income (loss) over the contractual term of the loan. See Note 9- Debt for additional information related to the term loan. Convertible Preferred Stock (Predecessor) The Company records the Legacy Adagio convertible preferred stock at fair value on the dates of issuance, net of issuance costs. Upon the occurrence of certain events that are outside the Legacy Adagio's control, including a deemed liquidation event, holders of the convertible preferred stock can cause redemption for cash. Each share of preferred stock would automatically be converted into shares of Legacy Adagio common stock at the then effective conversion rate immediately upon the earlier of (i) the election of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of preferred stock, voting as a separate class on an as-converted to common stock basis, or (ii) the closing of the sale of the Legacy Adagio's common stock in a firm commitment, underwritten public offering registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, with aggregate offering proceeds to Legacy Adagio (before deduction for underwriters' discounts and expenses relating to the issuance) of at least $75.0 million and a public offering price per share equal to at least $67.83 (subject to adjustments for stock dividends, splits, combinations and similar events). As the Legacy Adagio preferred stock is considered to be contingently redeemable, the Legacy Adagio preferred stock has been classified outside of permanent equity.

style="font-family:'Times New Roman','Times','serif';font-size:10pt;margin:0pt 0pt 12pt 0pt;">Stock-Based Compensation The Company recognizes compensation expense for all stock-based awards issued to employees and non-employees based on the estimated grant-date fair value, which is recognized as expense on a straight-line basis over the requisite service period. The Company has elected to recognize forfeitures as they occur. The fair value of stock options is determined using the Black-Scholes option-pricing model. The determination of fair value for stock-based awards on the date of grant using an option-pricing model requires management to make certain assumptions including expected volatility, expected term, risk-free interest rate and expected dividends in addition to the Company's common stock valuation. Refer to Note 14- Stock-Based Compensation. Due to the absence of an active market for Legacy Adagio common stock, the Company utilized methodologies, approaches, and assumptions consistent with the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants Audit and Accounting Practice Aid Series: Valuation of Privately Held Company Equity Securities Issued as Compensation to estimate the fair value of Legacy Adagio common stock. In determining the exercise prices for options granted, the Company considered the fair value of the common stock as of the grant date. The fair value of the common stock is determined based upon a variety of factors, including the Company's financial position, historical performance and operating results, the Company's stage of development, the progress of the Company's research and development programs, the prices at which the Company sold its convertible preferred stock, the superior rights, preferences and privileges of the Company's convertible preferred stock relative to its common stock, external market conditions affecting the medical technologies industry, the lack of marketability of the Legacy Adagio common stock, prospects of a transaction and market performance of peer companies. Significant changes to the key assumptions underlying the factors used could result in different fair values of Legacy Adagio at each valuation date. Income Taxes Income taxes are recorded in accordance with ASC 740, Income Taxes ("ASC 740"), which provides for deferred taxes using an asset and liability approach. The Company recognizes deferred tax assets and liabilities for the expected future tax consequences of events that have been included in the condensed consolidated financial statements. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are determined based on the difference between the condensed consolidated financial statement and tax bases of assets and liabilities using enacted tax rates in effect for the year in which the differences are expected to reverse and include Net Operating Loss ("NOL") carryforwards and Research and Development ("R&D") tax credit carryforwards. Valuation allowances are provided if, based upon the weight of available evidence, it is more likely than not that some or all of the deferred tax assets will not be realized. The Company accounts for uncertain tax positions in accordance with the provisions of ASC 740. When uncertain tax positions exist, the Company recognizes the tax benefit of tax positions to the extent that the benefit would more likely than not be realized assuming examination by the taxing authority. The determination as to whether the tax benefit will more likely than not be realized is based upon the technical merits of the tax position as well as consideration of the available facts and circumstances. ASU 2019-12, Simplifying the Accounting for Income Taxes was adopted in the first quarter of 2021 and the Company has recorded franchise taxes not based on income outside of income tax expense. The Company's practice is to recognize interest and/or penalties related to income tax matters in income tax expense. The Company had no accrual for interest and penalties on its condensed consolidated balance sheets and has not recognized interest and/or penalties in the condensed consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive income (loss) for the periods from January 1, 2024 to July 30, 2024 (Predecessor), July 31, 2024 to September 30, 2024 (Successor), and the nine months ended September 30, 2023 (Predecessor), respectively. To date, there have been no interest or penalties charged in relation to the unrecognized tax benefits. Refer to Note 16- Income Taxes for additional details. Basis of Presentation The condensed consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("U.S. GAAP"). Any reference in these notes to applicable guidance is meant to refer to the authoritative United States generally accepted accounting principles as found in the Accounting Standards Codification ("ASC") and Accounting Standards Update ("ASU") of the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB"). As a result of the Business Combination, for accounting purposes, ListCo is the acquirer and Legacy Adagio is the accounting acquiree and predecessor. The financial statement presentation includes the financial statements of Legacy Adagio as "Predecessor" for the periods prior to the Closing Date (the "Predecessor Period(s)"), and of the Company as "Successor" for the periods after the Closing Date (the "Successor Period(s)"), including the consolidation of Legacy Adagio and ARYA. The Successor Period includes the Company's results of operations and cash flows for the period from July 31, 2024 through September 30, 2024. As a result of the application of the acquisition method of accounting as of the Closing Date of the Business Combination, the accompanying consolidated financial statements include a black line division that indicates that the Predecessor and Successor reporting entities shown are presented on a different basis and are therefore, not comparable. Unaudited Interim Financial Information The accompanying interim condensed consolidated balance sheet as of September 30, 2024, the condensed consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive income (loss) and the condensed consolidated statements of convertible preferred stock and stockholders' equity (deficit), for the periods from July 1, 2024 to July 30, 2024 (Predecessor), July 31, 2024 to September 30, 2024 (Successor), January 1, 2024 to July 30, 2024 (Predecessor), July 31, 2024 to September 30, 2024 (Successor) and the three and nine months ended September 30, 2023 (Predecessor), and the condensed consolidated statements of cash flows for the periods from January 1, 2024 to July 30, 2024 (Predecessor), July 31, 2024 to September 30, 2024 (Successor), and nine months ended September 30, 2023 (Predecessor), and the related footnote disclosures are unaudited. These unaudited interim financial statements have been prepared in accordance with U.S. GAAP and, in management's opinion, reflect all adjustments which only include normal recurring adjustments necessary for the fair presentation of the Company's financial position as of September 30, 2024 (Successor) and its results of operations and comprehensive income (loss) for the periods from July 1, 2024 to July 30, 2024 (Predecessor), July 31, 2024 to September 30, 2024 (Successor), January 1, 2024 to July 30, 2024 (Predecessor), July 31, 2024 to September 30, 2024 (Successor), and the three and nine months ended September 30, 2023 (Predecessor), and cash flows for the periods from January 1, 2024 to July 30, 2024 (Predecessor), July 31, 2024 to September 30, 2024 (Successor), and nine months ended September 30, 2023 (Predecessor). The results for the periods from July 1, 2024 to July 30, 2024 (Predecessor), July 31, 2024 to September 30, 2024 (Successor), January 1, 2024 to July 30, 2024 (Predecessor) and July 31, 2024 to September 30, 2024 (Successor) are not necessarily indicative of the results to be expected for the year ending December 31, 2024, or any other interim period. Emerging Growth Company Status The Company is an "emerging growth company," as defined in Section 2(a) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, (the "Securities Act"), as modified by the Jumpstart our Business Startups Act of 2012 (the "JOBS Act"). Section 102(b)(1) of the JOBS Act exempts emerging growth companies from being required to comply with new or revised financial accounting standards until private companies (that is, those that have not had a Securities Act registration statement declared effective or do not have a class of securities registered under the Exchange Act) are required to comply with the new or revised financial accounting standards. The JOBS Act provides that a company can elect to opt out of the extended transition period and comply with the requirements that apply to non-emerging growth companies but any such election to opt out is irrevocable. The Company has elected not to opt out of such extended transition period which means that when an accounting standard is issued or revised and it has different application dates for public or private companies, the Company, as an emerging growth company, can adopt the new standard at the time private companies adopt the new or revised standard. Principles of Consolidation The condensed consolidated financial statements include the accounts of Adagio Medical Holdings, Inc., and its wholly owned subsidiaries. All intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation. Use of Estimates and Assumptions The preparation of the condensed consolidated financial statements in conformity with U.S. GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, revenue, expenses and disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities. These estimates and assumptions are based on current facts, historical experience and various other factors believed to be reasonable under the circumstances, the results of which form the basis for making judgments about the carrying values of assets and liabilities and the recording of revenue and expenses that are not readily apparent from other sources. Actual results could differ from those estimates. Segments Operating segments are defined as components of an entity for which separate financial information is available and that is regularly reviewed by the Chief Operating Decision Maker (“CODM”) in deciding how to allocate resources to an individual segment and in assessing performance. The Company’s CODM is its Chief Executive Officer. The Company has determined that it operates as one reportable segment, as the CODM reviews financial information presented on a consolidated basis for purposes of making operating decisions, allocating resources, and evaluating financial performance. 1 Cash and Cash Equivalents The Company considers all highly liquid investments with maturities of three months or less from the date of purchase, including its money market account, to be cash equivalents. All of the Company’s cash equivalents have liquid markets. Cash deposits held in accounts at each United States financial institution are insured up to $0.25 million by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (“FDIC”). Cash deposits held in accounts at each European Union financial institution are insured up to €0.1 million by the Deposit Guarantee Scheme. The Company maintains its cash in bank deposit accounts that, at times, may exceed the stated insured limits. Any loss incurred or lack of access to uninsured funds could have a significant adverse impact on the Company’s financial condition, results of operations and cash flows. Management does not expect any losses on such accounts. Concentrations of Credit Risk and Off-Balance Sheet Risk Revenue Recognition The Company generates product revenue primarily from the sale of cryoablation catheters, stylets, esophageal warming balloons, and other accessories (collectively, the “Consumables”) used with the Company’s cryoablation consoles (“Consoles”). The Company sells its products directly to hospitals and medical centers. To a lesser extent, the Company also generates lease revenue from the implied rental of Consoles loaned to customers at no charge. The Company accounts for revenue earned from contracts with customers under ASC 606, Revenue from Contracts with Customers (“ASC 606”). The core principle of ASC 606 is that a company should recognize revenue to depict the transfer of promised goods or services to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration to which the company expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods or services. The Company recognizes revenue from sales to customers applying the following five steps: <table style="border-collapse:collapse;font-family:'Times New Roman','Times','serif';font-size:10pt;margin-bottom:12pt;margin-top:0pt;table-layout:fixed;width:100%;border:0pt;"><tr><td style="font-family:'Times New Roman','Times','serif';font-size:9pt;text-align:center;vertical-align:text-top;white-space:nowrap;width:36pt;padding:0pt;">●</td><td style="padding:0pt;">Step 1: Identify the contract with the customer.</td></tr></table><table style="border-collapse:collapse;font-family:'Times New Roman','Times','serif';font-size:10pt;margin-bottom:12pt;margin-top:0pt;table-layout:fixed;width:100%;border:0pt;"><tr><td style="font-family:'Times New Roman','Times','serif';font-size:9pt;text-align:center;vertical-align:text-top;white-space:nowrap;width:36pt;padding:0pt;">●</td><td style="padding:0pt;">Step 2: Identify the performance obligations in the contract.</td></tr></table><table style="border-collapse:collapse;font-family:'Times New Roman','Times','serif';font-size:10pt;margin-bottom:12pt;margin-top:0pt;table-layout:fixed;width:100%;border:0pt;"><tr><td style="font-family:'Times New Roman','Times','serif';font-size:9pt;text-align:center;vertical-align:text-top;white-space:nowrap;width:36pt;padding:0pt;">●</td><td style="padding:0pt;">Step 3: Determine the transaction price.</td></tr></table><table style="border-collapse:collapse;font-family:'Times New Roman','Times','serif';font-size:10pt;margin-bottom:12pt;margin-top:0pt;table-layout:fixed;width:100%;border:0pt;"><tr><td style="font-family:'Times New Roman','Times','serif';font-size:9pt;text-align:center;vertical-align:text-top;white-space:nowrap;width:36pt;padding:0pt;">●</td><td style="padding:0pt;">Step 4: Allocate the transaction price to the performance obligations in the contract.</td></tr></table><table style="border-collapse:collapse;font-family:'Times New Roman','Times','serif';font-size:10pt;margin-bottom:0pt;margin-top:0pt;table-layout:fixed;width:100%;border:0pt;"><tr><td style="font-family:'Times New Roman','Times','serif';font-size:9pt;text-align:center;vertical-align:text-top;white-space:nowrap;width:36pt;padding:0pt;">●</td><td style="padding:0pt;">Step 5: Recognize revenue when, or as, the company satisfies a performance obligation.</td></tr></table> The Company’s customer contracts generally have performance obligations that contain deliverables consisting of the Consumables and may also include Consoles loaned to customers. The Company evaluates each promise within a multiple-performance obligation arrangement to determine whether it represents a distinct performance obligation. The primary performance obligations in the Company’s customer arrangements from which it derives revenue is the sale of the Consumables. When the Company loans the Console to the customer, it retains title to the Console at all times and does not require minimum purchase commitments from the customer related to any Consumables. In such cases, the Company invoices the customer for the Consumables based on customer orders received. Over time, the Company expects to recover the cost of the loaned Console through the customer’s continued purchasing and use of additional Consumables. For these reasons, the Company has determined that part of the arrangement consideration for the Consumables is an implied rental payment for use of the Console. Therefore, the Company allocates the arrangement consideration between the lease components (i.e., the Console) and non-lease components (i.e., the Consumables) based on the relative estimated standalone selling price of each distinct performance obligation consistent with ASC 842, Leases and ASC 606. Revenue allocated to the lease components was not material for the periods from January 1, 2024 to July 30, 2024 (Predecessor), from July 31, 2024 to September 30, 2024 (Successor) and the nine months ended September 30, 2023 (Predecessor). Revenue from sales to customers of the Consumables is classified as revenue in the Company’s condensed consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive income (loss). The delivery of the Consumables are performance obligations satisfied at a point in time, when the control of the goods is transferred to the customer (i.e., FOB Shipping Point). Revenue is recognized when control is transferred to the customer in an amount that reflects the consideration the Company expects to be entitled to in exchange for the product. Other

*Revenue Considerations Revenue is reported net of sales tax. The Company has made the accounting policy election not to recognize a separate performance obligation for the shipment of products to the customer but to account for it as fulfillment cost. The Company's contracts primarily include fixed consideration. The Company only includes estimated variable amounts in the transaction price to the extent it is probable that a significant reversal of cumulative revenue recognized will not occur when the uncertainty associated with the variable consideration is resolved. Customers are generally required to pay within 30 days. Any incremental costs to obtain contracts are recorded as selling, general and administrative expense as incurred due to the short duration of the Company's contracts. The Company does not assess whether promised goods or services are performance obligations if they are deemed immaterial in the context of the contract with the customer. Additionally, the Company does not assess whether a contract has a significant financing component if the expectation at contract inception is that the period between payment by the customer and the transfer of the promised goods or services to the customer will be one year or less. For the periods from January 1, 2024 to July 30, 2024 (Predecessor), from July 31, 2024 to September 30, 2024 (Successor), and nine months ended September 30, 2023 (Predecessor), revenue was generated only from European markets. Inventory Inventory consists of raw materials, work-in-process, and finished products and is valued at the lower of cost or net realizable value. The method by which that amounts are removed from the inventory is first-in first-out ("FIFO"). Cost may include materials, labor, and manufacturing overhead. The carrying value of inventory is reviewed for potential impairment whenever indicators suggest that the cost of inventory exceeds the carrying value and management adjusts the inventory to its net realizable value. The Company also periodically evaluates inventory for estimated losses from excess quantities and obsolescence and writes down the cost of inventory to net realizable value at the time such determinations are made. Net realizable value is determined using the estimated selling price, in the ordinary course of business, less estimated costs to complete and dispose. Inventory used in research and development activities is expensed when incurred. Property and Equipment Property and equipment are recorded at cost, less accumulated depreciation. Depreciation and amortization are provided using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the related assets, generally three to five years, or, in the case of leasehold improvements, over the remaining life of the lease term. Specifically, Consoles had a five-year useful life as of December 31, 2023, and effective on January 1, 2024, the useful life of Consoles was changed to three years to better reflect the estimated periods during which these Consoles will remain in service. The impact of the change in the estimated useful life of Consoles is not material to the Predecessor Periods or Successor Periods, nor to the future remaining life of the Consoles. Property and equipment include equipment that is loaned to customers and located at customer premises. The Company retains ownership of the equipment held for evaluation by customers and has the right to remove the equipment if it is not being utilized according to expectations. P5YP5YP3Y Intangible Assets Intangible assets with finite useful lives are amortized on a straight-line basis over their estimated useful lives. In determining the estimated useful lives of definite-lived intangibles, the Company considers the nature, competitive position, life cycle position and expected future operating cash flows of the acquired asset, as well as its commitment to support these assets through continued investment and legal infringement protection. Indefinite-lived intangible assets consist of In-Process Research and Development ("IPR&D"). Intangible assets with indefinite lives are tested for impairment if impairment indicators arise and, at a minimum, annually. However, an entity is permitted to first assess qualitative factors to determine if a quantitative impairment test is necessary. Further testing is only required if the entity determines, based on the qualitative assessment, that it is more likely than not that an indefinite-lived intangible asset's fair value is less than its carrying amount. Otherwise, no further impairment testing is required. The indefinite-lived intangible asset impairment test consists of a one-step analysis that compares the fair value of the intangible asset with its carrying amount. If the carrying amount of an intangible asset exceeds its fair value, an impairment loss is recognized in an amount equal to that excess. No impairment charges were recorded in the period from July 31, 2024 to September 30, 2024 (Successor). Legacy Adagio does not have material intangible assets. 0 Goodwill In accordance with ASC 350, Intangibles – Goodwill and Other, the Company tests goodwill for impairment at the reporting unit level. The Company has one reporting unit for the goodwill impairment testing purposes. Goodwill is tested for impairment on an annual basis in the fourth quarter, or more frequently if events or changes in circumstances indicate the carrying value of goodwill may not be recoverable (a "triggering event"). On the occurrence of a triggering event, an entity has the option to first assess qualitative factors to determine whether a quantitative impairment test is necessary. If it is more likely than not that goodwill is impaired, the fair value of the reporting unit (the Company) is compared with its carrying value. An impairment charge is recognized for the amount by which the carrying amount exceeds the fair value, provided, the loss recognized cannot exceed the total amount of goodwill. No goodwill impairment charges were recorded in the period from July 31, 2024 to September 30, 2024 (Successor). Legacy Adagio does not have goodwill. 0 Concentrations The Company had three suppliers each exceed 10.0% of total accounts payable as of September 30, 2024 (Successor), representing 74.5% of accounts payable. As of December 31, 2023 (Predecessor), Legacy Adagio has three suppliers each exceed 10.0% of total accounts payable, representing 71.6% of accounts payable. The Company's five and ten largest suppliers accounted for approximately 59.8% and 80.8%, respectively, of the Company's expenditures for the periods from January 1, 2024 to July 30, 2024 (Predecessor) and July 31, 2024 to September 30, 2024 (Successor). Legacy Adagio's five and ten largest suppliers accounted for approximately 39.4% and 50.5%, respectively, of Legacy Adagio's expenditures for the nine months ended September 30, 2023 (Predecessor).
30.74530.7165555101010100.5980.5980.5980.5980.8080.8080.8080.8085100.3940.505 Impairment of Long-Lived Assets The Company reviews long-lived assets, including property and equipment and finite-lived intangible assets, for impairment annually or whenever events or changes in business circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of the assets may not be fully recoverable. An impairment loss is recognized when the asset's carrying value exceeds the total undiscounted cash flows expected from its use and eventual disposition. The amount of the impairment loss is determined as the excess of the carrying value of the asset over its fair value. For the periods from January 1, 2024 to July 30, 2024 (Predecessor), from July 31, 2024 to September 30, 2024 (Successor), and the nine months ended September 2023 (Predecessor), the Company determined that there was no impairment of long-lived assets. 0000 Foreign Currency Translation and Transactions The assets, liabilities, and results of operations of Adagio Medical GmbH are recorded using the Euro as the designated functional currency, which is the currency of the primary economic environment in which Adagio Medical GmbH operates. Consequently, transactions in currencies other than Euro are measured and recorded in Euro. Upon consolidation with the Company, its assets and liabilities are translated to U.S. Dollars at currency exchange rates as of the condensed consolidated balance sheet date and its revenues and expenses are translated at the weighted-average currency exchange rates during the applicable reporting periods. Translation adjustments resulting from the process of translating this entity's financial statements are reported in accumulated other comprehensive income (loss) in the condensed consolidated balance sheets and foreign currency translation adjustment in the condensed consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive income (loss). Leases The Company accounts for its lease property under ASC 842. Under this guidance, arrangements meeting the definition of a lease are classified as operating or financing leases, and are recorded on the condensed consolidated balance sheets as both a right-of-use asset and a lease liability, calculated by discounting fixed lease payments over the lease term at the rate implicit in the lease or the Company's incremental borrowing rate, which is the rate for collateralized borrowings based on the current economic environment, current borrowings, value of leases, currency in which the lease obligation is satisfied, rate sensitivity, lease term and materiality. Lease liabilities are increased by interest and reduced by payments each period, and the right-of-use asset is amortized over the lease term. For operating leases, interest on the lease liability and the amortization of the right-of-use asset results in straight-line rent expense over the lease term. Variable lease expenses are recorded when incurred. The Company determines whether a contract is or contains a lease at the inception of the contract. A contract will be deemed to be or contain a lease if the contract conveys the right to control and direct the use of identified property, plant, or equipment for a period of time in exchange for consideration. The Company generally must also have the right to obtain substantially all of the economic benefits from the use of the property, plant, and equipment. The Company uses the implicit rate in the lease agreement, when readily available, or its incremental borrowing rate as the basis to calculate the present value of future lease payments at lease commencement. The incremental borrowing rate represents the rate the Company would have to pay to borrow funds on a collateralize basis over a similar term and in a similar economic environment. In calculating the right-of-use asset and lease liability, the Company elected to combine lease and non-lease components for its real estate leases. The Company adopted the policy election to exclude short-term leases having initial terms of twelve months from the initial recognition provisions of ASC 842. Refer to Note 11- Operating Leases for additional details. The Company's implied rental agreements for its consoles qualify as operating leases and as such, revenue is recognized in accordance with ASC 842, Leases and ASC 606, Revenue from Contracts with Customers. Revenue allocated to the lease components were not significant for the periods from January 1, 2024 to July 30, 2024 (Predecessor), from July 31, 2024 to September 30, 2024 (Successor), and nine months ended September 30, 2023 (Predecessor). Cost of Revenue Cost of revenue includes raw materials, direct labor, manufacturing overhead, shipping and receiving costs and other less significant indirect costs related to the production of the Company's products. Cost of revenue also includes the depreciation expense of Consoles loaned to the customers. Research and Development Research and development expenses consist primarily of salaries, consulting fees, and employee-related costs (including stock-based compensation) for personnel directly engaged in research and development activities, clinical trial expenses, equipment costs, material costs, allocated rent and facilities costs, and depreciation. Research and development expenses relating to possible future products are expensed as incurred. The Company also accrues and expenses costs for activities associated with clinical trials performed by third parties as incurred. Selling, General and Administrative Selling, general and administrative expenses consist primarily of salaries, and employee-related costs (including stock-based compensation) for personnel in executive, finance and other administrative functions, allocated rent and facilities costs, legal fees relating to intellectual property and corporate matters, professional fees for accounting and consulting services, marketing costs and insurance costs. The Company expenses all selling, general, and administrative costs as incurred. The incurred transaction costs are recorded in selling, general, and administrative costs. Accrued Transaction Costs (Predecessor) In connection with the Business Combination, Legacy Adagio accrued transaction costs, consisting primarily of legal, accounting and other professional fees, which were incurred and expensed, but not yet paid. The accrued expenses as of December 31, 2023 (Predecessor) are recorded in accrued transaction costs on the condensed consolidated balance sheets. Fair Value Measurements Fair value measurements are based on the premise that fair value is an exit price representing the amount that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants. As such, fair value is a market-based measurement that should be determined based on assumptions that market participants would use in pricing an asset or liability. As a basis for considering such assumptions, the following three-tier fair value hierarchy is used in determining the inputs for measuring fair value: <table style="border-collapse:collapse;font-family:'Times New Roman','Times','serif';font-size:10pt;margin-bottom:0pt;margin-top:0pt;table-layout:fixed;width:100%;border:0pt;"><tr><td style="width:18pt;"></td><td style="font-family:'Times New Roman','Times','serif';font-size:10pt;vertical-align:text-top;white-space:nowrap;width:18pt;padding:0pt;">●</td><td style="padding:0pt;">Level 1-Quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.</td></tr></table> <table style="border-collapse:collapse;font-family:'Times New Roman','Times','serif';font-size:10pt;margin-bottom:12pt;margin-top:0pt;table-layout:fixed;width:100%;border:0pt;"><tr><td style="width:18pt;"></td><td style="font-family:'Times New Roman','Times','serif';font-size:10pt;vertical-align:text-top;white-space:nowrap;width:18pt;padding:0pt;">●</td><td style="padding:0pt;">Level 2-Observable inputs other than Level 1 prices for similar assets or liabilities that are directly or indirectly observable in the marketplace.</td></tr></table><table style="border-collapse:collapse;font-family:'Times New Roman','Times','serif';font-size:10pt;margin-bottom:0pt;margin-top:0pt;table-layout:fixed;width:100%;border:0pt;"><tr><td style="width:18pt;"></td><td style="font-family:'Times New Roman','Times','serif';font-size:10pt;vertical-align:text-top;white-space:nowrap;width:18pt;padding:0pt;">●</td><td style="padding:0pt;">Level 3-Unobservable inputs which are supported by little or no market activity and consist of financial instruments valued using pricing models, discounted cash flow methodologies or similar techniques, as well as instruments for which the determination of fair value requires significant judgment or estimation.</td></tr></table> Financial instruments measured at fair value are classified in their entirety based on the lowest level of input that is significant to the fair value measurement. Management's assessment of the significance of a particular input to the fair value measurement in its entirety requires judgment and considers factors specific to the asset or liability. The use of different assumptions and/or estimation methodologies may have a material effect on estimated fair values. Accordingly, the fair value estimates disclosed, or initial amounts recorded may not be indicative of the amount that the Company or holders of the instruments could realize in a current market exchange. The fair value of the convertible notes payable and warrant liabilities may be impacted by certain unobservable inputs, most significantly with regard to discount rates, expected volatility and historical and projected performance. Significant changes to these inputs in isolation could result in a significantly different fair value measurement. Fair Value Option for Convertible Notes As permitted under ASC 825, Financial Instruments ("ASC 825"), Legacy Adagio elected the fair value option to account for the convertible promissory notes issued in October 2022 (the "October 2022 Convertible Notes"), April 2023 (the "April 2023 Convertible Notes"), November 2023 (the "November 2023 Convertible Notes"), February 2024 (the "February 2024 Convertible Notes", "2024 Bridge Financing Notes"), May 2024 (the "May 2024 Convertible Notes"), June 2024 (the "June 2024 Convertible Notes"), and July 2024 (the "July 2024 Convertible Notes") (collectively, "Legacy Adagio Convertible Notes"), and the Company elected the fair value option to account for the Convertible Securities Notes (as defined below), in order to measure those liabilities at amounts that more accurately reflect the current economic environment in which the Legacy Adagio and the Company operated. The convertible promissory notes mentioned above were recorded at fair value at issuance and subsequently were remeasured to fair value at the end of each reporting period. The change in fair value of the convertible promissory notes, excluding amounts related to interest, is recorded in "Convertible notes fair value adjustment", while amounts related to interest are recorded as interest expense in the consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive income (loss). As a result of applying the fair value option, direct costs and fees related to the issuance of the convertible promissory notes were expensed as incurred (i.e., not recognized as deferred costs). Refer to Note 4- Fair Value Measurements for further detail. Warrants The Company has Convert Warrants (as defined below) issued along with the Convertible Securities Notes, and PIPE Pre-funded Warrants (as defined below) issued in PIPE Financing (as defined below), which are classified as liabilities. The Company also has PIPE Base Warrants (as defined below) issued in PIPE Financing, which is classified as equity. Legacy Adagio has certain common stock warrants ("SVB Warrants") issued along with the SVB Term Loan (as defined below) and pre-funded warrants to purchase Series E preferred stock ("Series E Pre-funded Warrants"), which were both classified as liabilities. The Company and Legacy Adagio determine the classification of warrants based on an assessment of the warrant's specific terms and applicable authoritative guidance in ASC 480 and ASC 815. The assessment considers whether the warrants are freestanding financial instruments and meet all of the requirements for equity classification, including whether the warrants are indexed to the Company's own shares of common stock, among other conditions for equity classification. This assessment is conducted at the time of warrant issuance and as of each subsequent quarterly period end date while the warrants are outstanding. For issued or modified warrants that meet all of the criteria for equity classification, the warrants are required to be recorded as a component of additional paid-in capital at the time of issuance. For issued or modified warrants that do not meet all the criteria for equity classification, the warrants are required to be recorded at their initial fair value on the date of issuance, and each balance sheet date thereafter until settlement. Changes in the estimated fair value of the liability-classified warrants are recognized in warrant liabilities fair value adjustment in the condensed consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive income (loss). The classification of derivative instruments, including whether such instruments should be recorded as liabilities or as equity, is reassessed at the end of each reporting period. Equity instruments that are initially classified as equity that become subject to reclassification are reclassified to a liability at the fair value of the instrument on the reclassification date. Derivative instrument liabilities are classified in the condensed consolidated balance sheets as current or non-current based on whether or not net-cash settlement of the derivative instrument could be required within twelve months of the condensed consolidated balance sheet date. See Note 10- Warrants for additional information related to the warrants. Term Loan (Predecessor) The Company accounts for the Predecessor term loan at residual value on the date of issuance. The expected life of the term loan is the contractual term ending on the maturity date. The Company classifies the term loan as current liabilities within twelve months of the maturity date or when otherwise due. Interest expense is recognized in the condensed consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive income (loss) over the contractual term of the loan. See Note 9- Debt for additional information related to the term loan. Convertible Preferred Stock (Predecessor) The Company records the Legacy Adagio convertible preferred stock at fair value on the dates of issuance, net of issuance costs. Upon the occurrence of certain events that are outside the Legacy Adagio's control, including a deemed liquidation event, holders of the convertible preferred stock can cause redemption for cash. Each share of preferred stock would automatically be converted into shares of Legacy Adagio common stock at the then effective conversion rate immediately upon the earlier of (i) the election of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of preferred stock, voting as a separate class on an as-converted to common stock basis, or (ii) the closing of the sale of the Legacy Adagio's common stock in a firm commitment, underwritten public offering registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, with aggregate offering proceeds to Legacy Adagio (before deduction for underwriters' discounts and expenses relating to the issuance) of at least $75.0 million and a public offering price per share equal to at least $67.83 (subject to adjustments for stock dividends, splits, combinations and similar events). 7500000067.83 Stock-Based Compensation The Company recognizes compensation expense for all stock-based awards issued to employees and non-employees based on the estimated grant-date fair value, which is recognized as expense on a straight-line basis over the requisite service period. The Company has elected to recognize forfeitures as they occur. The fair value of stock options is determined using the Black-Scholes option-pricing model. The determination of fair value for stock-based awards on the date of grant using an option-pricing model requires management to make certain assumptions including expected volatility, expected term, risk-free interest rate and expected dividends in addition to the Company's common stock valuation. Refer to Note 14- Stock-Based Compensation. Due to the absence of an active market for Legacy Adagio common stock, the Company utilized methodologies, approaches, and assumptions consistent with the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants Audit and Accounting Practice Aid Series: Valuation of Privately Held Company Equity Securities Issued as Compensation to estimate the fair value of Legacy Adagio common stock. In determining the exercise prices for options granted, the Company considered the fair value of the common stock as of the grant date. The fair value of the common stock is determined based upon a variety of factors, including the Company's financial position, historical performance and operating results, the Company's stage of development, the progress of the Company's research and development programs, the prices at which the Company sold its convertible preferred stock, the superior rights, preferences and privileges of the Company's convertible preferred stock relative to its common stock, external market conditions affecting the medical technologies industry, the lack of marketability of the Legacy Adagio common stock, prospects of a transaction and market performance of peer companies. Significant changes to the key assumptions underlying the factors used could result in different fair values of Legacy Adagio at each valuation date. Income Taxes Income taxes are recorded in accordance with ASC 740, Income Taxes ("ASC 740"), which provides for deferred taxes using an asset and liability approach. The

Company recognizes deferred tax assets and liabilities for the expected future tax consequences of events that have been included in the condensed consolidated financial statements. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are determined based on the difference between the condensed consolidated financial statement and tax bases of assets and liabilities using enacted tax rates in effect for the year in which the differences are expected to reverse and include Net Operating Loss ("NOL") carryforwards and Research and Development ("R&D") tax credit carryforwards. Valuation allowances are provided if, based upon the weight of available evidence, it is more likely than not that some or all of the deferred tax assets will not be realized. The Company accounts for uncertain tax positions in accordance with the provisions of ASC 740. When uncertain tax positions exist, the Company recognizes the tax benefit of tax positions to the extent that the benefit would more likely than not be realized assuming examination by the taxing authority. The determination as to whether the tax benefit will more likely than not be realized is based upon the technical merits of the tax position as well as consideration of the available facts and circumstances. ASU 2019-12, Simplifying the Accounting for Income Taxes was adopted in the first quarter of 2021 and the Company has recorded franchise taxes not based on income outside of income tax expense. The Company's practice is to recognize interest and/or penalties related to income tax matters in income tax expense. The Company had no accrual for interest and penalties on its condensed consolidated balance sheets and has not recognized interest and/or penalties in the condensed consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive income (loss) for the periods from January 1, 2024 to July 30, 2024 (Predecessor), July 31, 2024 to September 30, 2024 (Successor), and the nine months ended September 30, 2023 (Predecessor), respectively. To date, there have been no interest or penalties charged in relation to the unrecognized tax benefits. Refer to Note 16- Income Taxes for additional details. 00000000000 Note 3 – Forward Merger On February 13, 2024, ARYA, ListCo, ARYA Merger Sub, and Company Merger Sub, entered into a Business Combination Agreement, which was amended by the Consent and Amendment No. 1 to the Business Combination Agreement, dated as of June 25, 2024. Prior to the annual general meeting, holders of 2,707,555 shares of ARYA's redeemable Class A ordinary shares exercised their right to redeem such shares for cash at a redemption price of approximately $11.56 per share, for an aggregate redemption amount of approximately $31.3 million. In June 2024, ListCo and ARYA entered into additional Subscription Agreements (the "June Subscription Agreements" and, together with the Initial Subscription Agreements, the "Subscription Agreements") with certain additional investors, (the "June PIPE Investors", and together with the Initial Other PIPE Investors, the "Other PIPE Investors", and the Other PIPE Investors, together with the Perceptive PIPE Investor, the "PIPE Investors"). Pursuant to the subscription agreements, the PIPE Investors have committed financing valued at $64.5 million (the "PIPE Financing"). The PIPE Financing included: (i)Commitments by certain Other PIPE Investors to purchase $2.5 million in Class A shares of ARYA in the open market and not to redeem such shares before the Closing, resulting in the issuance of 355,457 shares of Company's Common Stock and 299,902 warrants exercisable for shares of the Company's Common Stock (the "Base Warrants"). (ii)Commitments by certain Other PIPE Investors that were shareholders of ARYA to not to redeem 247,700 Class A shares of ARYA, resulting in the issuance of 405,772 shares of Company's Common Stock and 343,756 Base Warrants. (iii)Agreements to purchase 1,036,666 shares of Company's Common Stock, 1,440,000 Base Warrants, and 670,000 PIPE Pre-funded Warrants for a cash investment of $12 million in the Company. (iv)Contribution of total $29.5 million in April 2023 Convertible Notes, November 2023 Convertible Notes, May 2024 Convertible Notes, June 2024 Convertible Notes, and July 2024 convertible Notes (collectively, "Bridge Financing Notes"), and accrued interest of $1.7 million by the Perceptive PIPE Investor. (v)An additional cash investment of $15.9 million by the Perceptive PIPE Investor. In return for the investment specified in (iv) and (v) above, the Perceptive PIPE Investor received 6,622,959 shares of Company's Common Stock and 5,445,069 Base Warrants. Further, in connection with the execution of the Business Combination Agreement, certain investors ("Convert Investors") executed a securities purchase agreement, dated February 13, 2024, with ListCo (the "Convertible Security Subscription Agreement"), pursuant to which ListCo issued on the Closing Date to the Convert Investors $20.0 million of 13% senior secured convertible notes (the "Convertible Securities Notes"), which will be convertible into shares of the Company's Common Stock at a conversion price of $10.00 per share, subject to adjustment, and 1,500,000 warrants (the "Convert Warrants"), each Convert Warrant being exercisable on a cashless basis or for cash at a price of $24.00 per share, subject to adjustment. Such $20.0 million of financing in the form of Convertible Securities Notes includes the conversion of the 2024 Bridge Financing Notes into Convertible Securities Notes and Convert Warrants at Closing, as further described in Note 9- Debt. Acquisition Method of Accounting The Business Combination has been accounted for as a forward-merger in accordance with U.S. GAAP. Under this method of accounting, ListCo has been treated as the "accounting acquirer" and Legacy Adagio as the "accounting acquiree" for financial reporting purposes. Accordingly, for accounting purposes, the Business Combination has been accounted for using the acquisition method of accounting. The acquisition method of accounting is based on ASC 805 and uses the fair value concepts defined in ASC 820. ASC 805 requires, among other things, that assets acquired and liabilities assumed be recognized at their fair values as of the acquisition date, with limited exceptions per ASC 805-20-30-12 through 30-23. As such, under the acquisition method of accounting, ListCo's assets and liabilities retain their carrying amounts, and the assets and liabilities of Legacy Adagio, including any intangible assets recognized in connection with the Business Combination, are recorded at their fair values as of the acquisition date, except as otherwise required. The excess of the purchase price over the estimated fair values of net assets acquired is recorded as goodwill. Under the acquisition method of accounting, ListCo was considered to be the accounting acquirer based on the terms of the Business Combination. Upon consummation of the Business Combination, the cash on hand resulted in the equity at risk being considered insufficient for Legacy Adagio to finance its activities without additional subordinated financial support. Therefore, Legacy Adagio was considered a Variable Interest Entity ("VIE") and the primary beneficiary of Legacy Adagio was treated as the accounting acquirer. ListCo is the primary beneficiary of Legacy Adagio. ListCo will hold 100% of the voting rights of Legacy Adagio and will control the Board of Directors of Legacy Adagio. Therefore, ListCo will have the sole power to control the significant activities that will impact Legacy Adagio's economic performance. ListCo's equity interest in Legacy Adagio will result in the right to receive benefits and the obligation to absorb the losses of Legacy Adagio that could be significant to ListCo. The acquired intangible assets consist of developed technology and IPR&D, which were valued at $26.2 million at the Closing using the cost approach. This approach considers an asset’s replacement cost (direct and indirect) adjusted, where applicable, for obsolescence to estimate the replacement cost of the asset’s current service potential (i.e., remaining useful life and cash-flow generating capacity). Obsolescence for an acquired intangible asset may include functional (technological) obsolescence and economic (external) obsolescence. The Company has determined the estimated useful life of 5 years for developed technology based on consideration of the economic benefit of the asset. Refer to Note 7- Goodwill and Intangible Assets for details. In connection with the Business Combination, the transactions that occurred concurrently with the Closing Date of the Business Combination were reflected “on the line”. “On the line” describes those transactions triggered by the consummation of the Business Combination that are not recognized in the consolidated financial statements of the Predecessor nor the Successor as they are not directly attributable to either period but instead were contingent on the Business Combination. The number of shares of common stock issued and amounts recorded on the line within stockholders’ equity (deficit) are reflected below to arrive at the opening consolidated balance sheet of the Successor. <table style="border-collapse:collapse;font-size:16pt;height:max-content;padding-left:0pt;padding-right:0pt;table-layout:auto;width:100%;"><tr><td style="vertical-align:bottom;width:56.66%;margin:0pt;padding:0pt;"> </td><td style="vertical-align:bottom;width:1.38%;margin:0pt;padding:0pt;">   </td><td style="vertical-align:bottom;width:9.63%;border-bottom:1px solid #000000;margin:0pt;padding:0pt;"> Number of

The recorded carrying amounts of cash and equivalents, accounts receivable and accounts payable approximates fair value due to their short-term nature. The convertible notes, common stock warrant liabilities, and pre-funded warrant liabilities are carried at fair value. Assets and liabilities recognized at fair value on a recurring basis in the condensed consolidated balance sheets consists of cash equivalents, common stock warrant liabilities, pre-funded warrant liabilities, and convertible notes payables. These items are categorized based upon the level of judgment associated with the inputs used to measure their fair values. Fair value is defined as the price that would be received from selling an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. Refer to Note 9- Debt for details. The Company measures Legacy Adagio Convertible Notes at fair value based on significant inputs not observable in the market, which caused them to be classified as Level 3 measurements within the fair value hierarchy. In determining the fair value of the Legacy Adagio Convertible Notes as of December 31, 2023, the Company applied the probability-weighted expected return method ("PWERM"). The PWERM determines the value of an instrument based upon an analysis of future values for the potential instrument payouts under different future outcomes. The instrument value is based upon the present value of the probability of each future outcome becoming available to the instrument holders, and the rights of each security. The Company calculated the estimated fair value of convertible promissory notes as of December 31, 2023 using the following assumptions: . <table style="border-collapse:collapse;font-size:16pt;height:max-content;padding-left:0pt;padding-right:0pt;width:100%;"><tr style="height:1pt;"><td style="vertical-align:bottom;width:49.91%;margin:0pt;padding:0pt;"> . </td><td style="vertical-align:top;width:1.91%;margin:0pt;padding:0pt;"> . </td><td style="vertical-align:middle;width:9.91%;margin:0pt;padding:0pt;"> . </td><td style="vertical-align:top;width:2.19%;margin:0pt;padding:0pt;"> . </td><td style="vertical-align:middle;width:9.91%;margin:0pt;padding:0pt;"> . </td><td style="vertical-align:top;width:1.91%;margin:0pt;padding:0pt;"> . </td><td style="vertical-align:middle;width:9.91%;margin:0pt;padding:0pt;"> <p style="font-

Warrant Liabilities (Predecessor) i.Series E Pre-funded Warrants On June 25, 2024, the Legacy Adagio issued to certain investor the Series E Pre-funded Warrants to purchase the Legacy Adagio’s Series

E Preferred Stock, in exchange of the investor's existing holding of Series E Preferred Stock. The exercise price of the pre-funded warrants is $0.001 per warrant share. The Company measured the pre-funded warrants at fair value based on the indicated fair value of Series E Preferred Stock, which is not observable in the market. The measurement caused the pre-funded warrant to be classified as Level 3 measurements within the fair value hierarchy. Changes in the fair value of the pre-funded warrants were recognized as warrant liabilities fair value adjustment within the condensed consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive income (loss). Refer to Note 10-Warrants for additional information. The fair value of the Series E Pre-funded Warrants is based on the fair value of the Series E Preferred Stock minus the exercise price. As of June 30, 2024, the Company estimated the fair value of the Series E Preferred Stock by applying a conversion factor of 1.08 to the indicated fair value of Legacy Adagio common stock. As of July 31, 2024 prior to the Closing, the Company estimated the fair value of Series E Pre-funded Warrants based on the observed closing stock price of ARYA as of July 31, 2024 multiplied by the actual number of shares that the Series E Pre-funded Warrants converted into. The estimated fair value of the Series E Pre-funded Warrants as of June 30, 2024 and July 31, 2024 prior to the Closing is $0.3 million and $0.2 million, respectively. The change in fair value for the period from July 1, 2024 to July 30, 2024 (Predecessor) is $0.1 million. Upon the consummation of the Business Combination, the Series E Pre-funded Warrants were automatically cancelled and extinguished and converted into shares of the Company's Common Stock based on the exchange ratio set forth in the Business Combination Agreement. ii.SVB Warrants On February 3, 2023, in conjunction with the Loan and Security Agreement ("LSA") with Silicon Valley Bank ("SVB Term Loan"), Legacy Adagio issued Initial Warrants to purchase shares of common stock of the Company, and a contingent right to obtain an additional share of the common stock upon the non-occurrence of the Interest Only Milestone (as defined below). The Company measured SVB Warrants at fair value based on significant inputs not observable in the market, which caused them to be classified as Level 3 measurements within the fair value hierarchy. Changes in the fair value of the common stock warrants related to updated assumptions and estimates were recognized as warrant liabilities fair value adjustment within the condensed consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive income (loss). The SVB Warrants were not material as of December 31, 2023 (Predecessor) and there were no material changes in fair value for the periods from July 1, 2024 to July 30, 2024 (Predecessor), January 1, 2024 to July 30, 2024 (Predecessor), and the three and nine months ended September 30, 2023 (Predecessor). The SVB Warrants were terminated prior to the consummation of the Business Combination as the fair market value of Legacy Adagio common stock is lower than the warrant exercise price before the Closing. Refer to Note 10- Warrants for additional information. Warrant Liabilities (Successor) i.Convert Warrants On July 31, 2024, the Company issued 1,500,000 Convert Warrants in connection with the issuance of the $20.0 million Convertible Securities Notes. Refer to Note 10- Warrants for additional information. As set forth in the agreement of the Convertible Securities Notes, the Convert Warrants are exercisable on a cashless basis or on a gross basis for one share of the Company's Common Stock at $24.0 per share, subject to adjustments. The Company may be required to cash settle the Convert Warrants when it fails to timely deliver shares to the holder who exercises the Convert Warrants or upon the occurrence of a fundamental transaction. It is determined that the Convert Warrants do not meet the equity classification requirements under ASC 815 as the Covert Warrants may require cash settlement outside of the Company's control upon a failure of timely delivery of shares or a fundamental transaction, and therefore the Convert Warrants are accounted for as derivative liabilities, and measured at fair value both initially and subsequently with changes in fair value recognized as warrant liabilities fair value adjustment within the condensed consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive income (loss).The Convert Warrants are classified as Level 3 measurements within the fair value hierarchy. On the Closing Date, the $7.0 million of February 2024 Convertible Notes were converted into $7.0 million Convertible Securities Notes and 525,000 Convert Warrants. SVB Term Loan (Predecessor) On February 3, 2023, Legacy Adagio entered into an agreement to obtain an initial term loan advance of $3.0 million and a right to issue a subsequent term loan advance of $2.0 million pursuant to the LSA. The loans mature on January 1, 2025 and Legacy Adagio must make monthly payments at a floating rate per annum equal to the greater of (1) seven percent (7.0%) and (2) the market prime rate plus one and one half of one percent (1.5%). In connection with the issuance of the SVB Term Loan, Legacy Adagio issued liability - classified warrants with a fair value of $28.5 thousand to purchase 32,720 shares of common stock of Legacy Adagio ("Initial Warrants"), and a contingent right, with a fair value of $7.1 thousand, to obtain an additional 16,360 shares of the common stock ("Additional Warrants") upon the nonoccurrence of the Interest Only Milestone. The Interest Only Milestone ("Milestone") refers to a specific condition that is met on or before April 30, 2023. To satisfy this Milestone, Legacy Adagio must ensure that no event of default has occurred. If this condition is met, Legacy Adagio must provide SVB (i) the intent for the sale of all capital stock of Legacy Adagio, or (ii) an executed term sheet for a priced equity financing of at least $40.0 million from the sale of Legacy Adagio's capital stock. The initial recognition of the warrant liabilities and the contingent right resulted in a discount of $35.6 thousand to the SVB Term Loan. The discount is being amortized to interest expense over the term of the LSA. As of December 31, 2023, the outstanding principal of SVB Term Loan was $1.9 million and the unamortized debt discount was $19.4 thousand. For the periods from July 1, 2024 to July 30, 2024 (Predecessor), from January 1, 2024 to July 30, 2024 (Predecessor), and the three and nine months ended September 30, 2023 (Predecessor), Legacy Adagio has recognized the interest expense was $9.0 thousand, $87.3 thousand, $66.5 thousand, and $0.2 million, respectively. Prior to the Closing, the existing SVB Term Loan of Legacy Adagio has a net balance of $1.0 million, including $1.0 million of principal and accrued interest, and an unamortized debt discount of $9.7 thousand. The unpaid principal and accrued interest were carried as assumed liabilities to the Company and paid at the Closing. Convertible Securities Notes (Successor) In connection with the execution of the Business Combination Agreement, Convert Investors executed the Convertible Security Subscription Agreement dated February 13, 2024, which was amended on June 20, 2024, with ListCo. In accordance with the agreement, ListCo issued on the Closing Date to the Convert Investors $20.0 million of Convertible Securities Notes and 1,500,000 Convert Warrants. The total of $20.0 million Convertible Securities Notes will be convertible into shares of the Company's Common Stock at a conversion price of $10.00 per share, subject to adjustment per the terms of the agreement. In the event of default, the Company may irrevocably elect in the event of default notice to permit the holder to effect alternate conversion, for which the conversion calculation and price are specified in the agreement. The total of 1,500,000 Convert Warrants, each of which will be exercisable on a cashless basis or for one share of the Company's Common Stock at $24.00 per share, subject to adjustment. The Convertible Securities Notes have a maturity of three years and nine months after the Closing and interest will be payable in cash or compound as additional principal outstanding which accrues on a quarterly basis. The conversion of the February 2024 Convertible Notes was carried out on the same terms as the other Convert Investors executing the Convertible Security Subscription Agreement. For the periods from July 31, 2024 to September 30, 2024 (Successor), the Company has recognized interest expense of $0.4 million. The Additional Warrants are subject to the same terms as the Initial Warrants (collectively "SVB Warrants"). The exercise price of the SVB Warrants is $7.97 per share. The warrants are fully exercisable and will expire on February 3, 2033. The SVB Warrants were terminated prior to the consummation of the Business Combination as the fair market value of Legacy Adagio common stock is lower than the exercise price of the SVB Warrants before the Closing. Series E Pre-funded Warrants (Predecessor) On June 25, 2024, in conjunction with the Series E Preferred Stock exchange agreement (refer to Note 13-Mezzanine Equity and Stockholders' Equity (Deficit)), Legacy Adagio issued to a certain investor 207,902 shares of pre-funded warrants to purchase 207,902 shares of Series E Preferred Stock, in exchange of the investor's existing holding of 207,902 shares of Series E Preferred Stock. The exercise price of the pre-funded warrants is $0.001 per share. The pre-funded warrants are exercisable, at the option of the holder, on any day on or after the issuance date, in whole or in part. As an alternative to immediate cash payment, the investor may elect to exercise the pre-funded warrant through a cashless exercise. Upon the consummation of the Business Combination, the 207,902 Series E Pre-funded Warrants were converted in exchange for 34,680 shares of the Company's Common Stock. Convert Warrants (Successor) As mentioned in Note 9– Debt, the Company issued $20.0 million of Convertible Securities Notes and 1,500,000 Convert Warrants at the Closing. Each of the Convert Warrants is exercisable on a cashless basis or for one share of the Company's Common Stock at an exercise price of $24.00 per share, subject to adjustment. The Convert Warrants expire on the seventh anniversary from the issuance date. PIPE Pre-funded Warrants (Successor) The Company issued 670,000 PIPE Pre-funded Warrants, along with 681,111 shares of the Company's Common Shares and 1,140,000 Base Warrants to certain Other PIPE Investor in exchange for cash proceeds of $9.5 million in PIPE Financing. As set forth in the agreement of the PIPE Pre-Funded Warrants, the PIPE Pre-Funded Warrants are exercisable on a cashless basis or on a gross basis for one share of the Company's Common Stock at an exercise price of $0.01 per share, subject to adjustments. The Company may be required to cash settle the PIPE Pre-funded Warrants when it fails to timely deliver shares to the holder who exercises the PIPE Pre-funded Warrants or upon the occurrence of a fundamental transaction. The PIPE Pre-funded Warrants expires when it is exercised in full. PIPE Base Warrants (Successor) On the Closing Date, the Company issued 3,540,000 Base Warrants along with 4,372,607 shares of the Company's Common Shares to settle the outstanding principal and accrued interest of the Bridge Financing Notes. The Company also issued 3,345,069 Base Warrants along with 3,287,018 shares of the Company's Common Stock and 670,000 PIPE Pre-Funded Warrants to PIPE Investors for cash proceeds received in PIPE Financing. Further, in* connection with the non-redemption agreements entered with certain Other PIPE Investors holding 468,941 shares of ARYA's Class A ordinary shares, the Company issued 643,658 units of Base Warrants along with 761,229 shares of the Company's Common stock in exchange for the non-redeemable 468,941 shares of ARYA's Class A ordinary shares. The Base Warrants can be exercised to the Company's Common Stock at any time during the period from the issuance date to the expiration date which is the fifth anniversary from the date of issuance. The warrants can be exercised on a gross or net basis at an exercise price of $10 per share. The Base Warrants were fair valued at $2.41 per unit on the date of issuance based on the assumptions including (i) the value of the Company's Common Stock is $6.64 per share; (ii) a risk-free rate at 3.93%; (iii) zero dividend yield; (iv) the common stock volatility at 84.0% and a volatility haircut of 10%; (v) the remaining term is five years. According to the ASC 815, it is determined that the Base Warrants associated with the PIPE Financing are indexed to the Company's Common Stock under and are accounted for as equity, which is initially measured at fair value. The Base Warrants are classified as equity in the financial statements because they meet the ASC 815-40 indexation guidance. Specifically, 1) the Base Warrants can be exercised at any time during the exercise period without contingencies; 2) the Base Warrants can be settled in a fixed number of shares upon exercise with any adjustments, such as antidilution and alternative issuance adjustments, consistent with ASC 815 guidance, which does not preclude equity classification. Additionally, the Company has sufficient authorized shares available to settle the Base Warrants, and all the adjustments are in the control of the Company, further supporting the equity classification. 32720163607.972079022079022079020.00120790234680200000001500000246700006811111140000950000000.0135400004372style="font-family:'Times New Roman','Times','serif';font-size:10pt;margin:0pt 0pt 12pt 0pt;">Note 11 - Operating Leases The Company leases distribution and research and development facilities as well as sub-leases office and manufacturing space from third parties and related parties (refer to Note 17- Related Party Transactions) under its operating leases. The leases have expirations ranging from March 2024 to June 2026, some of which include rent escalations or an option to extend the lease for up to three years per renewal. The exercise of lease renewal options is at the sole discretion of the Company. Where leases contain an option to renew, any period beyond the option date is only included as part of the lease term if the Company is reasonably certain to exercise the option. As of September 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, the Company does not have any finance or short-term leases and has not entered into leases which have not yet commenced that would entitle the Company to significant rights or create additional obligations during the periods as of September 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023. The following table summarizes quantitative information of the Company's operating leases for the periods from January 1, 2024 to July 30, 2024 (Predecessor), from July 31, 2024 to September 30, 2024 (Successor), and the nine months ended September 30, 2023 (Predecessor): <table style="border-collapse:collapse;font-size:16pt;height:max-content;padding-left:0pt;padding-right:0pt;width:100%;"><tr style="height:1pt;"><td style="vertical-align:middle;width:54.35%;margin:0pt;padding:0pt;"> </td><td style="vertical-align:middle;width:2.21%;margin:0pt;padding:0pt;"> </td><td style="vertical-align:middle;width:1.11%;margin:0pt;padding:0pt;"> </td><td style="vertical-align:middle;width:11.13%;margin:0pt;padding:0pt;"> </td><td style="vertical-align:top;width:2.22%;margin:0pt;padding:0pt;"> </td><td style="vertical-align:middle;width:1.12%;margin:0pt;padding:0pt;"> </td><td style="vertical-align:middle;width:11.13%;margin:0pt;padding:0pt;"> </td><td style="vertical-align:top;width:2.22%;margin:0pt;padding:0pt;"> </td><td style="vertical-align:middle;width:1.12%;margin:0pt;padding:0pt;"> </td><td style="vertical-align:middle;width:11.13%;margin:0pt;padding:0pt;"> </td><td style="vertical-align:top;width:2.22%;margin:0pt;padding:0pt;"> </td></tr><tr><td style="vertical-align:middle;width:54.35%;margin:0pt;padding:0pt;"> </td><td style="vertical-align:bottom;width:2.21%;margin:0pt;padding:0pt;"> </td><td colspan="8" style="vertical-align:bottom;width:41.21%;border-bottom:1px solid #000000;margin:0pt;padding:0pt;"> Nine months ended September 30, </td><td style="vertical-align:top;width:2.22%;border-bottom:1px solid #000000;margin:0pt;padding:0pt;"> </td></tr><tr><td style="vertical-align:middle;width:54.35%;margin:0pt;padding:0pt;"> </td><td style="vertical-align:middle;width:2.21%;margin:0pt;padding:0pt;"> </td><td colspan="5" style="vertical-align:middle;width:26.73%;border-bottom:1px solid #000000;border-top:1px solid #000000;margin:0pt;padding:0pt;"> 2024 </td><td style="vertical-align:top;width:2.22%;border-top:1px solid #000000;margin:0pt;padding:0pt;"> </td><td colspan="2" style="vertical-align:middle;width:12.25%;border-bottom:1px solid #000000;border-top:1px solid #000000;margin:0pt;padding:0pt;"> 2023 </td><td style="vertical-align:top;width:2.22%;border-bottom:1px solid #000000;border-top:1px solid #000000;margin:0pt;padding:0pt;"> </td></tr><tr><td style="vertical-align:middle;width:54.35%;margin:0pt;padding:0pt;"> </td><td style="vertical-align:middle;width:2.21%;margin:0pt;padding:0pt;"> </td><td colspan="2" style="vertical-align:middle;width:12.25%;border-bottom:1px solid #000000;border-top:1px solid #000000;margin:0pt;padding:0pt;"> Predecessor </td><td style="vertical-align:top;width:2.22%;border-top:1px solid #000000;margin:0pt;padding:0pt;"><p style="font-family:'Times New

- Commitments and Contingencies Litigation The Company is not currently party to any legal proceedings. At each reporting date, the Company evaluates whether or not a potential loss amount or a potential range of loss is probable and reasonably estimable under the provisions of the authoritative guidance that addresses accounting for contingencies. The Company expenses as incurred the costs related to such legal proceedings, if any. Note 13 - Mezzanine Equity and Stockholders' Equity (Deficit) Authorized Shares (Predecessor) The Legacy Adagio's Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation authorize the issuance of two classes of stock designated as common and preferred stock, each having a par value of $0.001 per share. The number of shares authorized as of July 30, 2024 is 11,534,892 consisting of 6,594,946 shares of common stock and 4,939,946 shares of preferred stock, designated as Series A, Series B, Series C, Series D, and Series E preferred stock in the amounts included in the table below. Convertible Preferred Stock (Predecessor) Legacy Adagio classifies convertible preferred stock as temporary equity on the accompanying condensed consolidated balance sheets, as all such preferred stock is redeemable either at the option of the holder or upon an event outside the control of Legacy Adagio. The requirements of a deemed liquidation event, as defined within its amended and restated certificate of incorporation filed in November 2020, are not entirely within Legacy Adagio's control. In the event of such a deemed liquidation event, the proceeds from the event are distributed in accordance with the liquidation preferences, provided that the holders of preferred stock have not converted their shares into common stock. Legacy Adagio records the issuance of preferred stock at the issuance price less related issuance costs. Legacy Adagio has not adjusted the carrying value of outstanding preferred stock to its liquidation preference because a deemed liquidation event is not probable of occurring as of the end of the reporting period. During the periods from January 1, 2024 to July 30, 2024 (Predecessor), the following transactions have been executed: •On June 25, 2024, 207,902 shares of Series E Preferred Stock were extinguished and exchanged for 207,902 shares of pre-funded warrants to purchase Series E Preferred Stock. See Note 10-*

*Warrants for additional information regarding the Series E Pre-funded Warrants. The difference between the carrying value of the extinguished Series E Preferred Stock and the fair value of the issued Series E Pre-funded Warrants is recorded in additional paid-in capital. On the Closing Date, the Legacy Adagio's 4,732,044 convertible preferred stocks were converted into shares of Legacy Adagio common stock on a one-to-one basis prior to Adagio Merger Effective Time and then converted into 789,337 shares of the Company's Common Stock and additional paid in capital at the Closing based on the exchange ratio set forth in the Business Combination Agreement. There were no preferred stock transactions during the year ended December 31, 2023 (Predecessor). The relative rights, terms, privileges, and restrictions granted to or imposed upon preferred stockholders are described below: Preferred Stock - Dividends Prior and in preference to any declaration or payment of any dividends to the holders of common stock, the holders of preferred stock shall be entitled to receive dividends out of any assets legally available therefor, at the rate of eight percent (8%) of the original issue price per share per annum. The original issue price of Series A, Series B, Series C, Series D, and Series E is $9.23, $13.04, $16.30, $20.16, and $22.61, respectively. The dividends shall not be cumulative. In the event that the dividend amount declared by the Board of Directors of Legacy Adagio is insufficient to permit payment of the full aforesaid dividends, such dividends will be paid ratably to each holder of preferred stock in proportion to the dividend amounts to which each holder of preferred stock is entitled. After payment of the full amount of the aforesaid dividends, any additional dividends declared shall be distributed to the holder of common stock and preferred stock in proportion to the number of shares of common stock that would be held by such holder on an as-converted to common stock basis. No dividends on preferred stock or common stock have been declared by the Board of Directors as of December 31, 2023 (Predecessor) or as of the Closing date. Liquidation Preference In the event of liquidation of Legacy Adagio, including a merger, acquisition, or sale of all or substantially all the assets of Legacy Adagio, holders of preferred stock are entitled to receive an amount equal to the original issue price of each share of preferred stock held plus any dividends declared but not yet paid, prior to any distribution of assets or surplus funds of Legacy Adagio to common stock shareholders. After payment has been made to the holders of the preferred stock of the full amounts to which they are entitled as noted above, the remaining assets would be distributed among the holders of the common stock pro rata based on the number of shares of common stock held by each holder. If, at the time of liquidation, the assets are insufficient to permit full payment of the liquidation preferences of the series listed in the order above, the assets must be distributed ratably among the holders of the series in proportion to the full preferential amount each such holder is otherwise entitled to receive in respect to such shares. Voting Rights So long as the shares of preferred stock that are convertible into at least 1,000,000 shares of common stock (subject to appropriate adjustment in the event of any stock dividends, stock split, combination or other similar recapitalization with respect to the common stock) are issued and outstanding, the holders of preferred stock, voting as a separate class on an as-converted to common stock basis, shall have the right to elect four members of the Board of Directors of Legacy Adagio. The holders of common stock, voting as a separate class, shall have the right to elect one member of the Board of Directors. The remaining directors shall be elected by the holders of the common stock and the preferred stock, voting together as a single class on an as-converted to common stock basis. On all other matters, the holders of the preferred stock shall have full voting rights and powers equal to the voting rights and powers of the holders of common stock. Fractional votes by the holders of preferred stock shall not be permitted and any fractional voting rights shall be rounded to the nearest whole number. Conversion Rights Each share of preferred stock shall be convertible, at the option of the holder, into shares of common stock without the payment of any additional consideration. The preferred stock shall be convertible into the number of fully paid and nonassessable shares of common stock which results from dividing the conversion price per share in effect for the preferred stock at the time of conversion into the per share conversion value. The initial per share conversion price of Series A, Series B, Series C, Series D, and Series E is $9.23, $13.04, $16.30, $20.16, and $22.61, respectively. The initial conversion price is subject to adjustment for antidilution provisions, as defined. The per share conversion value of Series A, Series B, Series C, Series D, and Series E is $9.23, $13.04, $16.30, $20.16, and $22.61, respectively. Each share of preferred stock shall automatically be converted into shares of common stock at the then effective conversion rate immediately upon the earlier of (i) the election of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of preferred stock, voting as a separate class on an as-converted to common stock basis, or (ii) the closing of the sale of the Legacy Adagio common stock in a firm commitment, underwritten public offering registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, with aggregate offering proceeds to Legacy Adagio (before deduction for underwriters' discounts and expenses relating to the issuance) of at least $75 million and a public offering price per share equal to at least $67.83 (subject to adjustments for stock dividends, splits, combinations and similar events). Protective Provisions So long as there are at least 1,000,000 shares of preferred stock outstanding, Legacy Adagio shall not (by merger, reclassification, amendment or otherwise), without first obtaining the approval of the holders of at least seventy percent (70%) of the then outstanding shares of preferred stock, voting separately as a class, to, among other things: (i) amend the certificate of incorporation or bylaws; (ii) adversely alter or change the rights, preferences or privileges of the preferred stock; (iii) increase or decrease the aggregate number of authorized shares of any class of the capital stock of Legacy Adagio. So long as shares of Series E preferred stock that are convertible into at least 500,000 shares of common stock (subject to appropriate adjustment in the event of any stock dividend, stock split, combination or other similar recapitalization with respect to the common stock) are issued and outstanding, Legacy Adagio shall not directly or indirectly (by merger, reclassification, amendment or otherwise), without first obtaining the approval of the holders of at least a majority of the voting power of the then outstanding shares of Series E preferred stock, voting separately as a class, to, among other things: (i) amend, alter, repeal or waive any provision of the certificate of incorporation or bylaws of Legacy Adagio in a manner that adversely affects the holders of the Series E preferred stock in a manner different from any other series of preferred stock; (ii) create or authorize the creation of or issue any other security convertible into to exercisable for any equity security having rights, preferences or privileges senior to the Series E preferred stock; (iii) increase or decrease the authorized number of shares of Series E preferred stock. Common Stock (Predecessor) Each share of common stock is entitled to one vote. As of December 31, 2023 (Predecessor), Legacy Adagio authorized to issue up to 6,594,946 of common stock at a par value of $0.001 per share out of which 786,510 shares issued and 779,908 shares outstanding. On the Closing Date, as explained in Note 3- Forward Merger, each share of Legacy Adagio issued and outstanding prior to the Closing Date was converted into the Company's Common Stock based on exchange ratio set forth in the Business Combination Agreement. Common Stock (Successor) As of September 30, 2024 (Successor), the Company's certificate of incorporation, as amended and restated, authorized the Company to issue up to 210,000,000 of common stock at a par value of $0.0001 per share, and 20,000,000 shares of preferred stock, par value $0.0001 per share. As of September 30, 2024 (Successor), 14,535,136 shares were issued and outstanding, including 1,147,500 Sponsor Earnout (as defined below). In September 2024, the Company issued 1,147,500 shares of the Company's Common Stock (such issuance, the "Sponsor Earnout") to the AYRA Sponsor under the Sponsor Letter Agreement dated February 13, 2024 ("the Sponsor Letter Agreement"). Pursuant to the agreement, the Sponsor Earnout shall be unvested and vests upon the earlier of: i) During the period from the effective time to the 10th anniversary of the Closing Date (the "Earn-Out Period"), the stock price of the Company's Common Stock equals to or exceeds $24.00 per share (the "Trigger Price") for any 20 trading days within any 30 trading day period from and after the Closing Date (the "Earn-Out Target"), and ii) immediately prior to the consummation of a company sale during the Earn-Out Period. As of the reporting date, the vesting of the Sponsor Earnout was not considered probable. According to ASC 815, it is determined that the Sponsor Earnout is indexed to the Company's Common Stock and classified as equity and is initially measured at fair value and not subsequently remeasured. The Sponsor Earnout vests when the Company's stock price meets a stated price or there is a company sale during the earnout period. Upon meeting either vesting condition, the same number of the Company's Common Stock would be issued and no longer subject to forfeiture or cancellation. The Sponsor Earnout meets the ASC 815-40 indexation guidance. Specifically, the stated stock price and company sale, as the exercise contingencies, do not preclude equity indexation and there is no variability in the number of shares issuable under the Sponsor Earnout. Additionally, the Sponsor Earnout at the issuance meets the ASC 815-40 equity classification criterion as the Company has sufficient authorized shares available to settle the Sponsor Earnout and all the antidilution adjustments are in the control of the Company. The holders of the Company's Common Stock are entitled to receive dividends whenever funds are legally available, when and if declared by the Company's Board of Directors. As of September 30, 2024 (Successor), no cash dividend has been declared to date. Each share of the Company's Common Stock is entitled to one vote. Below table summarizes the number of shares of common stock outstanding immediately following the Closing: <table style="border-collapse:collapse;font-size:16pt;height:max-content;margin-left:auto;margin-right:auto;padding-left:0pt;padding-right:0pt;width:100%;"><tr style="height:1pt;"><td style="vertical-align:bottom;white-space:nowrap;width:81.98%;margin:0pt;padding:0pt;"> </td><td style="vertical-align:bottom;white-space:nowrap;width:2.01%;margin:0pt;padding:0pt;"> </td><td style="vertical-align:bottom;white-space:nowrap;width:16%;margin:0pt;padding:0pt;"> </td></tr><tr><td style="vertical-align:bottom;white-space:nowrap;width:81.98%;margin:0pt;padding:0pt;"> </td><td style="vertical-align:bottom;white-space:nowrap;width:2.01%;margin:0pt;padding:0pt;"> </td><td style="vertical-align:bottom;white-space:nowrap;width:16%;border-bottom:1px solid #000000;margin:0pt;padding:0pt;"><p style="font-family:'Times New

The maximum number of shares that can be granted under the 2012 Plan cannot exceed 1,255,000 shares. The 2012 Plan had a maximum 10-year term and as such, terminated in January 2022. 2022 Stock Incentive Plan In April 2022, the Legacy Adagio’s Board approved, in conjunction with the termination of the 2012 Plan, the 2022 Stock Incentive Plan (the “2022 Plan”), permitting ISOs and NSOs to employees, directors and consultants. The maximum number of shares granted under the 2022 Plan cannot exceed 203,855 plus any shares subject to stock options granted under the 2012 Plan that expired or were otherwise terminated without having been exercised in full, were forfeited, or were repurchased by the Company. The 2022 Plan is intended as the successor to and continuation of the 2012 Plan (thereafter both the 2012 and 2022 Plans are referred to as the “Stock Incentive Plan”). The Stock Incentive Plan provides a means whereby participants may purchase shares of common stock pursuant to ISOs or NSOs and such persons may be granted shares of common stock for consideration consisting of cash and/or past services rendered to or on behalf of Legacy Adagio. ISOs may only be granted to employees. NSOs and stock purchase rights may be granted to employees and consultants. Generally, options awards only have service conditions that need to be met for the awards to vest, with the exception of grants to two non-employees that had performance obligations that were deemed to be immaterial. The stock options generally vest over four years and have a ten-year contractual term. The fair value of each employee and non-employee stock option grant is estimated on the date of grant using the Black-Scholes option pricing model. As Legacy Adagio lacks company-specific historical and implied volatility information required for valuation, Legacy Adagio estimates its expected stock volatility based on the historical volatility of a publicly traded set of peer companies. Due to the lack of historical exercise history, the expected life term of ISOs that were granted after 2013 was determined using the “simplified method” provided by the Securities and Exchange Commission in Staff Accounting Bulletins Number 107 and 110. The expected life term of NSOs is determined either by using the “simplified method,” or by calculating the time to expiry from the grant date. The risk-free interest rate is determined by reference to the U.S. Treasury yield curve in effect at the time of grant for time periods approximately equal to the expected term of the award. Expected dividend yield is zero as Legacy Adagio has never paid nor does it expect to pay any cash dividend in the near future. The following table summarizes stock option activity during the periods from January 1, 2024 to July 30, 2024 (Predecessor): <p style="font-family:'Times New Roman','Times','serif';font-

Certain stock option grants under the Stock Incentive Plan allow the recipient to exercise the options prior to the options becoming fully vested. Under the Stock Incentive Plan, the Company retains the right to repurchase common shares that have been issued upon early exercise of options at the original issue price. Cash received for the early exercise of unvested stock options is initially recorded as a liability. At each reporting date, the vested shares are released to equity. The fair value of awards vested was $0.3 million during the periods from January 1, 2024 to July 30, 2024 (Predecessor). As of July 30, 2024 prior to the Closing (Predecessor), the total unrecognized compensation cost of $0.4 million was accelerated at the Closing, which was recognized and expensed in accordance with the terms of the 2012 Stock Incentive Plan and the 2022 Stock Incentive Plan. Upon the consummation of the Business Combination, 45,544 In-the-Money Adagio Options were canceled and extinguished in exchange for 7,587 options to purchase the Company's Common Stock. Successor Periods 2024 Equity Incentive Plan The Board of Directors of the Company adopted the 2024 Equity Incentive Plan on July 26, 2024. The purpose of the plan is to promote the success and enhance the value of the Company by linking the individual interests of the members of the Board, Employees, and Consultants to those of Company stockholders and by providing such individuals with an incentive for outstanding performance to generate superior returns to Company stockholders. The 2024 Equity Incentive Plan authorizes the issuance of up to 4,472,593 shares of the Company's Common Stock, plus an annual increase on the first day of each year beginning in 2025 and ending in (and including) 2034 equal to the lesser of (A) five percent (5%) of the shares of Common Stock outstanding on a fully diluted basis on the last day of the immediately preceding fiscal year and (B) such smaller number of shares of Company's Common Stock as determined by the Board or the compensation committee thereof. The Company may grant an option, a stock appreciation right, a restricted stock award, a restricted stock unit award, a performance stock award, a performance stock unit award, or other stock- or cash-based award, or a dividend equivalent award, which may be awarded or granted under the Plan. The awards can be issued to any person who is an employee, a consultant, or a non-employee director. The Company has not granted any awards under this plan as of September 30, 2024. 2024 Key Employee Equity Incentive Plan The Board of Directors of the Company adopted the 2024 Key Employee Equity Incentive Plan on July 26, 2024. The purpose of the Plan is to promote the success and enhance the value of the Company by linking the individual interests of key employees of the Company to those of Company stockholders and by providing such individuals with an incentive for outstanding performance to generate superior returns to Company stockholders. The 2024 Key Employee Equity Incentive Plan authorizes the issuance of up to 3,354,444 shares of the Company's Common Stock. The Company may grant option, a stock appreciation right, a restricted stock award, a restricted stock unit award, a performance stock award, a performance stock unit award, other stock- or cash-based award, or a dividend equivalent award, which may be awarded or granted under the plan. The awards can only be issued to certain individuals as identified in the plan who are an employee, a consultant, or a non-employee director. The Company has not granted any awards under this plan as of September 30, 2024. 2024 Employee Stock Purchase Plan The Board of Directors of the Company adopted the 2024 Equity Incentive Plan on July 26, 2024. The 2024 Employee Stock Purchase Plan provides a means by which eligible employees of the Company and certain designated related corporations may be given an opportunity to purchase shares of the Company's Common Stock. The plan permits the Company to grant a series of purchase rights to eligible employees under an Employee Stock Purchase Plan. The 2024 Employee Stock Purchase Plan authorizes the issuance of up to 441,293 shares of the Company's Common Stock, plus an annual increase on the first day of each year beginning in 2025 and ending in (and including) 2034 equal to one percent (1%) of the share of common stock outstanding on a fully diluted basis on the last day of the immediately preceding fiscal year, provided that the Board or its compensation committee may reduce the amount of the increase in any particular year. (“EPS”) Predecessor Basic net loss per common share is computed by dividing net loss attributable to common stockholders by the weighted-average number of shares of common stock outstanding for the period. Diluted net loss per common share excludes the potential impact of the Company’s convertible preferred stock, common stock warrants, and common stock options because the Company’s net losses would cause such shares to be anti-dilutive. Therefore, as the Company recorded net losses in the periods presented, basic and diluted net loss per common share are the same. . <table style="border-collapse:collapse;font-size:16pt;height:max-content;margin-left:auto;margin-right:auto;padding-left:0pt;padding-right:0pt;width:100%;"><tr style="height:1pt;"><td style="vertical-align:bottom;width:52%;margin:0pt;padding:0pt;"> . </td><td style="vertical-align:top;width:2%;margin:0pt;padding:0pt;"> . </td><td style="vertical-align:middle;width:1%;margin:0pt;padding:0pt;"> . </td><td style="vertical-align:middle;width:9%;margin:0pt;padding:0pt;"> . </td><td style="vertical-align:top;width:2%;margin:0pt;padding:0pt;"> . </td><td style="vertical-align:middle;width:1%;margin:0pt;padding:0pt;"> <p style="font-

The Company considered (i) the Convertible Securities Notes and (ii) the earnout shares subject to vesting conditions to be participating securities as they participate in any distributions declared by the Company. The Company's Base Warrants and Convert Warrants are considered as non-participating securities, as the holders are not entitled to any shareholder right prior to the exercise of the Base Warrants and the Convert Warrants. As of the reporting date, none of the Base Warrants or the Convert Warrants were* exercised to receive the Company's Common Stock. Under the two-class method, undistributed earnings allocated to these participating securities were subtracted from net income in determining net income attributable to common stockholders. Net income attributable to common stockholders was not allocated to Convertible Securities Notes as the holders of Convertible Securities Notes did not have a contractual obligation to share in income. Further, Basic EPS under the two-class method includes the impact of the Company's PIPE Pre-funded Warrants as the PIPE Pre-funded Warrants are exercisable for only $0.01 per share (i.e., de minimis cash consideration) without an expiration date and not subject to exercise contingencies. The Company discloses the Diluted EPS under the if-converted method as such diluted EPS is lower than the diluted EPS calculated under the two-class method. The Earn-out shares subject to vesting conditions are not considered in the denominator for the calculation of diluted EPS as the vesting conditions for the Earn-out shares were not met during the successor reporting period. The following table sets forth the computation of basic earnings per share attributable to common stockholders and the participating securities for the periods presented (in thousands, except share and per share data): Basic EPS: <table style="border-collapse:collapse;font-size:16pt;height:max-content;margin-left:auto;margin-right:auto;padding-left:0pt;padding-right:0pt;width:100%;"><tr style="height:1pt;"><td style="vertical-align:bottom;width:61%;margin:0pt;padding:0pt;"> </td><td style="vertical-align:top;width:2%;margin:0pt;padding:0pt;"> </td><td style="vertical-align:bottom;width:1%;margin:0pt;padding:0pt;"> </td><td style="vertical-align:middle;width:10%;margin:0pt;padding:0pt;"> </td><td style="vertical-align:middle;width:2%;margin:0pt;padding:0pt;"> </td><td style="vertical-align:bottom;width:1%;margin:0pt;padding:0pt;"> </td><td style="vertical-align:middle;width:10%;margin:0pt;padding:0pt;"> </td><td style="vertical-align:middle;width:2%;margin:0pt;padding:0pt;"> </td><td style="vertical-align:bottom;width:1%;margin:0pt;padding:0pt;"> </td><td style="vertical-align:middle;width:10%;margin:0pt;padding:0pt;"> </td></tr><tr><td style="vertical-align:bottom;width:61%;margin:0pt;padding:0pt;"> </td><td style="vertical-align:bottom;width:2%;margin:0pt;padding:0pt;"> </td><td colspan="8" style="vertical-align:bottom;width:37%;border-bottom:1px solid #000000;margin:0pt;padding:0pt;"> July 31, 2024 to September 30, 2024 (Successor) </td></tr><tr><td style="vertical-align:bottom;width:61%;border-bottom:1px solid #000000;margin:0pt;padding:0pt;"> (amounts in thousands, except the per share information) </td><td style="vertical-align:bottom;width:2%;margin:0pt;padding:0pt;"> </td><td colspan="2" style="vertical-align:bottom;width:11%;border-bottom:1px solid #000000;border-top:1px solid #000000;margin:0pt;padding:0pt;"> Common 752872715000001147500758710183814 Note 16 - Income Taxes The Company accounts for income taxes in accordance with ASC 740. Under the provisions of ASC 740, management is required to evaluate whether a valuation allowance should be established against its deferred tax assets. The Company currently has a full valuation allowance against our deferred tax assets. As of each reporting date, the Company's management considers new evidence, both positive and negative, that could impact management's view with regard to future realization of deferred tax assets. For the periods from January 1, 2024 to July 30, 2024 (Predecessor) and July 31, 2024 to September 30, 2024 (Successor), there was no material change from fiscal year ended December 31, 2023 (Predecessor) in the amount of the Company's deferred tax assets that are not considered to be more likely than not to be realized in future years. For the periods from January 1, 2024 to July 30, 2024 (Predecessor) and July 31, 2024 to September 30, 2024 (Successor), the effective tax rate for the Company's operations was 0.0%. The effective tax rate differed from the U.S. federal statutory rate primarily due to state income taxes, losses from the German subsidiary that is subject to different effective tax rates, stock-based compensation, fair value adjustments for convertible notes and warrant liabilities, and a change in the valuation allowance that offset the tax benefit on the current period pre-tax loss. For the nine months ended September 30, 2023 (Predecessor), the effective tax rate for the Company's operations was 0.0%.The effective tax rate differed from the U.S. federal statutory rate primarily due to state income taxes, losses from the German subsidiary that is subject to different effective tax rates, stock-based compensation and a change in the valuation allowance that offset the tax benefit on the current period pre-tax loss. The Company is subject to U.S. federal income tax as well as income tax of foreign and state tax jurisdictions. The tax years 2019-2023 remain open to examination by the major taxing jurisdictions to which the Company is subject, except the Internal Revenue Service for which the tax years 2020-2023 remain open.

* 00000 Note 17 - Related Party Transactions Shared Services Agreement During the periods from January 1, 2024 to July 30, 2024 (Predecessor), from July 31, 2024 to September 30, 2024 (Successor), from July 1, 2024 to July 30, 2024 (Predecessor), and the three and nine months ended September 30, 2023 (Predecessor), the Company incurred $0.9 million, $0.2 million, $0.1 million, $0.4 million and $1.0 million, respectively, for finance and accounting services and other general and administrative support services ("Shared Services Agreement") to Fjord Ventures ("Fjord"), a company owned and operated by the Company's CEO. The transactions are recorded as selling, general and administrative expenses on the condensed consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive income (loss). Laguna Hills Sublease (Predecessor) In addition to the Shared Services Agreement, Legacy Adagio also sub-leases approximately 4,992 square feet of office and manufacturing space in Laguna Hills, California from Fjord. On March 31, 2024, the sub-lease with Fjord is expired. During the periods from January 1, 2024 to July 30, 2024 (Predecessor), and the three and nine months ended September 30, 2023, Legacy Adagio incurred $25.5 thousand, $25.5 thousand, $76.4 thousand of lease expense, respectively, under the sub-lease agreement. Refer to Note 11- Operating Leases for further detail. October 2022 Convertible Notes (Predecessor) On October 27, 2022, Legacy Adagio issued a $0.5 million convertible promissory note to Fjordinvest, LLC ("Fjordinvest"), a company owned and operated by the Legacy Adagio's CEO. On April 4, 2023, November 28, 2023 and February 13, 2024, the October 2022 Convertible Notes were amended. Refer to Note 9-Debt for additional information regarding the October 2022 Convertible Notes. Convertible Securities Notes (Successor) In connection with the Business Combination and the Convertible Securities Notes agreement, the Company issued a $7.0 million Convertible Securities Notes to Perceptive PIPE Investor, the controlling party of the Company, in exchange for Perceptive PIPE Investor's investment in Legacy Adagio in the form of the February 2024 Convertible Notes. Refer to Note 9-Debt for additional information regarding the Convertible Securities Notes. PIPE Financing (Successor) In connection with the Business Combination and the PIPE Financing, the Company issued 4,372,607 shares of the Company's Common Stock and 3,540,000 Base Warrants to Perceptive PIPE Investor, the controlling party of the Company, in exchange for Perceptive PIPE Investor's investment in Legacy Adagio in the form of Bridge Financing Notes. Refer to Note 9- Debt for additional information regarding the Convertible Securities Notes. Further, in connection with the PIPE Financing, the Company issued 2,250,352 shares of the Company's Common Stock and 1,905,069 Base Warrants to Perceptive PIPE Investor, the controlling party of the Company, in exchange for Perceptive PIPE Investor's additional cash investment of approximately $15.9 million in the Company. -*

During this period, the Company did not identify any subsequent events that would have required adjustment in the condensed consolidated financial statements. 500050000.0001100010-5000-500005000-5000-500011-5000-500000110000-5000-5000100-5000-5000-500050000000 Note 1 — Description of Organization and Business Operations Aja HoldCo, Inc. (the "Company") is a Delaware corporation, formed by Arya Sciences Acquisition Corp IV (the "Parent") on December 19, 2023 (inception). The Company has* adopted a fiscal year-end of December 31. The Company was formed to be the surviving company in connection with a contemplated business combination between the Parent and Adagio (as defined below) (see Note 3). The Company has no prior operating activities. Going Concern The Parent has until July 2, 2024 to complete its initial business combination (or up to March 2, 2025 if all additional monthly extensions are exercised by ARYA Sciences Holdings IV (the "Sponsor") and subsequently approved by the board of directors of the Parent pursuant to Parent's amended and restated memorandum and articles of association, as amended). If the Parent is unable to complete the initial business combination by July 2, 2024 (or up to March 2, 2025 if all additional monthly extensions are exercised by the Sponsor and subsequently approved by the board of directors of the Parent), the Parent must cease all operations and dissolve and liquidate under Cayman Islands law. The financial statements have been prepared assuming that the Company will continue as a going concern. If the Parent is unable to raise additional funds to alleviate liquidity needs as well as complete a business combination by July 2, 2024 (or up to March 2, 2025 if all additional monthly extensions are exercised by the Sponsor and subsequently approved by the board of directors of the Parent), then the Company will cease all operations except for the purpose of liquidating. The liquidity condition and date for mandatory liquidation and subsequent dissolution raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. The financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of these uncertainties. Note 2 — Summary of Significant Accounting Policies Basis of Presentation The financial statements are presented in U.S. dollars in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("U.S. GAAP") and pursuant to the rules and regulations of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"). Emerging Growth Company The Company is an "emerging growth company," as defined in Section 2(a) of the Securities Act, as modified by the Jumpstart Our Business Startups Act of 2012 (the "JOBS Act"), and it may take advantage of certain exemptions from various reporting requirements that are applicable to other public companies that are not emerging growth companies including, but not limited to, not being required to comply with the independent registered public accounting firm attestation requirements of Section 404 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, reduced disclosure obligations regarding executive compensation in its periodic reports and proxy statements, and exemptions from the requirements of holding a nonbinding advisory vote on executive compensation and shareholder approval of any golden parachute payments not previously approved. Further, Section 102(b)(1) of the JOBS Act exempts emerging growth companies from being required to comply with new or revised financial accounting standards until private companies (that is, those that have not had a Securities Act registration statement declared effective or do not have a class of securities registered under the Exchange Act) are required to comply with the new or revised financial accounting standards. The JOBS Act provides that an emerging growth company can elect to opt out of the extended transition period and comply with the requirements that apply to non-emerging growth companies but any such election to opt out is irrevocable. The Company has elected not to opt out of such extended transition period, which means that when a standard is issued or revised and it has different application dates for public or private companies, the Company, as an emerging growth company, can adopt the new or revised standard at the time private companies adopt the new or revised standard. This may make comparison of the Company's financial statements with another public company which is neither an emerging growth company nor an emerging growth company which has opted out of using the extended transition period difficult or impossible because of the potential differences in accounting standards used. Use of Estimates The preparation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. GAAP requires the Company's management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities and expenses and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements. Actual results could differ from those estimates. Financial Instruments The fair value of the Company's assets and liabilities, which qualify as financial instruments under the FASB ASC Topic 820, "Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures," approximates the carrying amounts represented in the balance sheets. Income Taxes The Company complies with the accounting and reporting requirements of ASC 740, "Income Taxes," ("ASC 740") which requires an asset and liability approach to financial accounting and reporting for income taxes. Deferred income tax assets and liabilities are computed for differences between the financial statement and tax bases of assets and liabilities that will result in future taxable or deductible amounts, based on enacted tax laws and rates applicable to the periods in which the differences are expected to affect taxable income. Valuation allowances are established, when necessary, to reduce deferred tax assets to the amount expected to be realized. ASC 740 prescribes a recognition threshold and a measurement attribute for the financial statement recognition and measurement of tax positions taken or expected to be taken in a tax return. For those benefits to be recognized, a tax position must be more likely than not to be sustained upon examination by taxing authorities. There were no unrecognized tax benefits as of December 31, 2023. The Company recognizes accrued interest and penalties related to unrecognized tax benefits as income tax expense. No amounts were accrued for the payment of interest and immaterial amounts were accrued for the payment of penalties for the period from December 19, 2023 to December 31, 2023. The Company is currently not aware of any issues under review that could result in significant payments, accruals, or material deviation from its position. The Company is subject to income tax examinations by major taxing authorities since inception. Net Loss Per Common Stock Net loss per common share is computed by dividing net loss by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding for the period. At December 31, 2023 the Company did not have any dilutive securities and other contracts that could, potentially, be exercised or converted into common stock and then shares in the earnings of the Company. As a result, diluted loss per common stock is the same as basic loss per common stock for the period presented. Recent Accounting Standards The Company's management does not believe there are any recently issued, but not yet effective, accounting pronouncement if currently adopted would have a material effect on the Company's financial statements. Basis of Presentation The financial statements are presented in U.S. dollars in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("U.S. GAAP") and pursuant to the rules and regulations of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"). For those benefits to be recognized, a tax position must be more likely than not to be sustained upon examination by taxing authorities. There were no unrecognized tax benefits as of December 31, 2023. The Company recognizes accrued interest and penalties related to unrecognized tax benefits as income tax expense. No amounts were accrued for the payment of interest and immaterial amounts were accrued for the payment of penalties for the period from December 19, 2023 to December 31, 2023. The Company is currently not aware of any issues under review that could result in significant payments, accruals, or material deviation from its position. The Company is subject to income tax examinations by major taxing authorities since inception. 00 Net Loss Per Common Stock Net loss per common share is computed by dividing net loss by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding for the period. At December 31, 2023 the Company did not have any dilutive securities and other contracts that could, potentially, be exercised or converted into common stock and then shares in the earnings of the Company. As a result, diluted loss per common stock is the same as basic loss per common stock for the period presented. Recent Accounting Standards The Company's management does not believe there are any recently issued, but not yet effective, accounting pronouncement if currently adopted would have a material effect on the Company's financial statements. Note 3 — Stockholder's Deficit Common Stock - The Company is authorized to issue 1,000 shares of common stock, par value of $0.0001 per share (the "Common Stock"). As of December 31, 2023, there was 1 share of Common Stock issued and outstanding. 10000.000111 Note 4 — Subsequent Events The Company evaluated subsequent events and transactions that occurred after the balance sheet date up to June 25, 2024, the financial statements were available to be issued and has concluded that, other than the events described below, all such events that would require recognition or disclosure have been recognized or disclosed. Business Combination Agreement On February 13, 2024, the Parent, the Company, Aja Merger Sub 1, a Cayman Islands exempted company ("ARYA Merger Sub"), Aja Merger Sub 2, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("Adagio Merger Sub"), and Adagio Medical, Inc. ("Adagio") entered into a business combination agreement (the "Business Combination Agreement"), in connection with a proposed business combination (the "Proposed Adagio Business Combination"), which contains certain customary representations, warranties, and covenants by the parties thereto. As further described in the Business Combination Agreement, the closing of the Proposed Adagio Business Combination (the "Closing" and the date on which the Closing occurs, the "Closing Date") is subject to certain customary conditions and risks. "New Adagio" refers to the Company after giving effect to the Business Combination. The Business Combination Agreement provides, among other things, for the consummation of the following transactions: <table style="border-collapse:collapse;font-family:'Times New Roman','Times','serif';font-size:10pt;margin-bottom:12pt;margin-top:0pt;table-layout:fixed;width:100%;border:0pt;"><tr><td style="width:18pt;"></td><td style="font-family:'Times New Roman','Times','serif';font-size:10pt;vertical-align:text-top;white-space:nowrap;width:18pt;padding:0pt;">1.</td><td style="padding:0pt;">ARYA Merger Sub will merge with and into the Parent (the "ARYA Merger") and Adagio Merger Sub will merge with and into Adagio (the "Adagio Merger" and, together with the ARYA Merger, the "Mergers"), with the Parent and Adagio surviving the Mergers and, after giving effect to such Mergers, each of the Parent and Adagio becoming a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company, on the terms and subject to the conditions in the Business Combination Agreement; </td></tr></table><table style="border-collapse:collapse;font-family:'Times New Roman','Times','serif';font-size:10pt;margin-bottom:12pt;margin-top:0pt;table-layout:fixed;width:100%;border:0pt;"><tr><td style="width:18pt;"></td><td style="font-family:'Times New Roman','Times','serif';font-size:10pt;vertical-align:text-top;white-space:nowrap;width:18pt;padding:0pt;">2.</td><td style="padding:0pt;">(i) each issued and outstanding Class A ordinary share, par value $0.0001 per share, of the Parent (the "Class A ordinary shares") will be automatically cancelled, extinguished and converted into the right to receive one share of common stock, par value $0.0001 per share, of New Adagio (the "New Adagio Common Stock") and (ii) each issued and outstanding Class B ordinary share, par value $0.0001 per share, of the Parent (the "Class B ordinary shares") will be automatically cancelled, extinguished and converted into the right to receive <span

Additionally, on June 24, 2024, the Company and the Parent entered into an amendment to the Subscription Agreement (as defined below) with the Perceptive PIPE Investor (as defined below), pursuant to which the May 2024 Notes (as defined below), any Additional Convertible Notes (as defined below) that the Perceptive PIPE Investor may elect to subject to its Subscription Agreement and any interest that has been accruing and will remain unpaid thereon prior to Closing will be contributed to the Company at Closing. For additional information, please see "—PIPE Financing (Private Placement)" below. On June 25, 2024, the Parent and Adagio entered into the Consent and Amendment No. 1 to the Business Combination Agreement (the "BCA Amendment"). The BCA Amendment relates to an adjustment of the pre-Closing ownership of one of the stockholders of Adagio, a change to the post-Closing name of the Company and changes to the terms of the post-Closing Key Employee Incentive Plan and HoldCo Incentive Equity Plan of the Company. PIPE Financing (Private Placement) In connection with the execution of the Business Combination Agreement, the Company and the Parent entered into Subscription Agreements (as may be amended, supplemented or otherwise modified from time to time, the "Initial Subscription Agreements") with the Perceptive PIPE Investor and certain other investors (the "Initial Other PIPE Investors," and, together with the Perceptive PIPE Investor, the "Initial PIPE Investors"). In June 2024, ListCo and ARYA entered into additional Subscription Agreements (as may be amended, supplemented or otherwise modified from time to time, the "June Subscription Agreements" and, together with the Initial Subscription Agreements, the "Subscription Agreements") with certain additional investors (the "June PIPE Investors" and, together with the Initial Other PIPE Investors, the "Other PIPE Investors," and the Other PIPE Investors, together with the Perceptive PIPE Investor, the "PIPE Investors"). Pursuant to the Subscription Agreements, the PIPE Investors have committed financing valued at approximately $53,000,000 (the "PIPE Financing"). The PIPE Financing is comprised of: (i) commitments by certain investors to subscribe for and purchase Class A ordinary shares in the open market for $2,500,000 and not to redeem such shares prior to the Closing Date (valued as of June 18, 2024 at approximately $2,529,830 based on an approximate redemption value of $11.47 per Class A ordinary share on June 18, 2024), which will result in the issuance of approximately 355,459 shares of New Adagio Common Stock and approximately 299,904 warrants exercisable for shares of New Adagio Common Stock at $10.00 per share, subject to adjustment (the "Base Warrants") (including the Class A ordinary shares purchased by such Other PIPE Investors and that such Other PIPE Investors agreed not to redeem and that will convert into shares of New Adagio Common Stock at Closing in connection with the Business Combination); (ii) commitments by certain investors that are shareholders of ARYA not to redeem approximately 247,700 Class A ordinary shares (valued as of June 18, 2024 at approximately $2,842,454 based on an approximate redemption value of $11.47 per Class A ordinary share on June 18, 2024), which will result in the issuance of approximately 403,114 shares of New Adagio Common Stock and approximately 341,098 Base Warrants (including the Class A ordinary shares that such Other PIPE Investors agreed not to redeem and that will convert into shares of New Adagio Common Stock at Closing in connection with the Business Combination); (iii) agreements to subscribe for and purchase at Closing approximately 1,706,666 shares of New Adagio Common Stock and approximately 1,440,000 Base Warrants for an aggregate purchase price of approximately $12,000,000; (iv) the contribution of (a) the $15,000,000 convertible promissory notes of Adagio, which the Perceptive PIPE Investor purchased from Adagio pursuant to that certain Note Purchase Agreement, dated as of April 4, 2023 (the "April 2023 Notes"), (b) the $8,000,000 convertible promissory notes of Adagio, which the Perceptive PIPE Investor purchased from Adagio pursuant to that certain Note Purchase Agreement, dated as of November 28, 2023 (the "November 2023 Notes"), (c) the $3,000,000 convertible promissory notes of Adagio, which the Perceptive PIPE Investor purchased from Adagio pursuant to that certain Note Purchase Agreement, dated as of May 21, 2024 (the "May 2024 Notes"), (d) any additional convertible promissory notes that Adagio may issue to the Perceptive PIPE Investor prior to the Closing Date to fund ongoing working capital requirements of Adagio prior to the Closing Date and that the Perceptive PIPE Investor may elect prior to the Closing Date to subject to its Subscription Agreement (such additional convertible promissory notes of Adagio, the "Additional Convertible Notes," and, together with the April 2023 Notes, the November 2023 Notes and the May 2024 Notes, the "Bridge Financing Notes") to the Company and any interest that has been accruing and will remain unpaid thereon prior to Closing pursuant to the terms of the Subscription Agreement executed by the Perceptive PIPE Investor; and (v) an additional cash investment by the Perceptive PIPE Investor of approximately $8,070,575 (which amount may be reduced by up to approximately $1,070,575 subject to Additional Financing (as defined below) being raised prior to Closing). In respect of its Subscription Agreement described in (iv) and (v) in the foregoing, the Perceptive PIPE Investor will be issued approximately 5,012,817 shares of New Adagio Common Stock and approximately 4,088,470 Base Warrants. As provided for in the Subscription Agreements, the number of shares of New Adagio Common Stock and Base Warrants issuable to the PIPE Investors will depend on the redemption value of the Class A ordinary shares at Closing, the average per share price of the Class A ordinary shares purchased by certain PIPE Investors in the open market and the amount of interest on the Bridge Financing Notes that will have accrued and be unpaid at Closing and be contributed to ListCo in exchange for shares of New Adagio Common Stock and PIPE Warrants. Further, under the Subscription Agreement executed by the Perceptive PIPE Investor, as amended, the Perceptive PIPE Investor may subject Additional Convertible Notes to its Subscription Agreement, which will result in the issuance of additional shares of New Adagio Common Stock and PIPE Warrants at the same issuance rate at which shares of New Adagio Common Stock and PIPE Warrants will be issued to the Perceptive PIPE Investor based on the contribution of the existing $26,000,000 of Bridge Financing Notes to ListCo (including any interest that has been accruing and will remain unpaid thereon prior to Closing), as described in the foregoing. Such New Adagio Common Stock and PIPE Warrant issuance rate for Additional Convertible Notes that the Perceptive PIPE Investor may subject to its Subscription Agreement is equal to approximately 0.12 shares of New Adagio Common Stock and 0.12 PIPE Warrants per U.S. Dollar loaned by the Perceptive PIPE Investor to Adagio under an Additional Convertible Note. The shares of New Adagio Common Stock and PIPE Warrants to be issued pursuant to the Subscription Agreements have not been registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"), and will be issued in reliance upon the exemption provided in Section 4(a)(2) of the Securities Act. ListCo will grant the PIPE Investors certain registration rights in connection with the PIPE Financing. The PIPE Financing is contingent upon, among other things, the substantially concurrent closing of the Business Combination. Convertible Security Financing (Private Placement) In connection with the execution of the Business Combination Agreement, certain investors, including the Perceptive PIPE Investor (the "Convert Investors"), executed a securities purchase agreement, dated February 13, 2024, with the Company (such agreement and any assignment agreement thereunder in connection with any Additional Financing, the "Convertible Security Subscription Agreement"), pursuant to which the Company issued on the Closing Date to the Convert Investors $20,000,000 aggregate principal amount of 13% senior secured convertible notes (the "New Adagio Convertible Notes"), which will be convertible into shares of New Adagio Common Stock at a conversion price of $10.00 per share, subject to adjustment (the "Conversion Shares"), and 1,500,000 warrants (the "Convert Warrants"), which will be exercisable on a cashless basis or for cash at a price of $24.00 per share, subject to adjustment (the "Base Convert Financing"), and will expire on the seventh anniversary of the Closing. Such $20,000,000 investment in New Adagio Convertible Notes includes the conversion of the 2024 Bridge Financing Notes (as defined below) into New Adagio Convertible Notes and Convert Warrants at Closing, subject in each case to Additional Financing being raised prior to Closing, as further described below. The New Adagio Convertible Notes will have a maturity of 3 years and nine months after Closing and interest will be payable in cash or compound as additional principal outstanding. As described above, in connection with the execution of the Convertible Security Subscription Agreement, the Perceptive PIPE Investor also purchased a $7,000,000 convertible promissory note of Adagio (the "2024 Bridge Financing Notes") pursuant to a note purchase agreement, dated February 13, 2024, by and among the Perceptive PIPE Investor, Adagio and the Company (the "2024 Bridge Financing Notes Subscription Agreement"). On the Closing Date, pursuant to the terms of the 2024 Bridge Financing Notes and the 2024 Bridge Financing Note Subscription Agreement, the 2024 Bridge Financing Notes will convert into $7,000,000 of New Adagio Convertible Notes and 525,000 Convert Warrants on the same terms as the other Convert Investors executing the Convertible Security Subscription Agreement (the conversion of the 2024 Bridge Financing Notes held by the Perceptive PIPE Investor into New Adagio Convertible Notes and Convert Warrants and the purchase of New Adagio Convertible Notes and Convert Warrants by the other Convert Investors in the Base Convert Financing, the "Convertible Security Financing"). Subject to the Parent and New Adagio receiving any new financing or commitment for financing (any such financing, an "Additional Financing"), whether in the form of equity, debt or convertible debt, before the Closing Date, the Perceptive PIPE Investor may request that, on the Closing Date, the 2024 Bridge Financing Note is repaid with the funds raised in connection with such Additional Financing instead of such 2024 Bridge Financing Note converting into New Adagio Convertible Notes and Convert Warrants. The New Adagio Convertible Notes and the Convert Warrants issuable in connection with the Convertible Security Financing have not been registered under the Securities Act and will be issued in reliance upon the exemption provided in Section 4(a)(2) of the Securities Act. The Company will grant the Convert Investors certain registration rights in connection with the Convertible Security Financing. The Convertible Security Financing is contingent upon, among other things, the substantially concurrent Closing. As set forth in the Convertible security Subscription Agreement, the closing of $7,500,000 of financing by a Convert Investor is conditioned on New Adagio having a certain amount of available cash on the Closing Date. Pursuant to the terms of the Convertible Security Subscription Agreement, on the Closing Date, the Company, certain of its subsidiaries (other than Adagio Medical GmbH, a company organized under the laws of Germany and an excluded subsidiary thereunder) (the "Subsidiaries") and the collateral agent (the "Collateral Agent") on behalf of the Convert Investors, will enter into a security and pledge agreement (the "Convert Security Document"), pursuant to which the Company and the Subsidiaries will (i) pledge the equity interests in the Subsidiaries to the Collateral Agent, (ii) pledge all of their respective promissory notes, securities and other instruments evidencing indebtedness to the Collateral Agent, and (iii) grant to the Collateral Agent a security interest in and lien on all of their respective personal property and assets, including, among other items, all of their deposit accounts, chattel paper, documents, equipment, general intangibles, instruments and inventory, and all proceeds therefrom, in each case subject to customary exceptions, all as set forth in the form of the Convert Security Document. Additionally, pursuant to the terms of the Convertible Security Subscription Agreement, on the Closing Date, the Subsidiaries will deliver a guaranty (the "Convert Guaranty") to the Collateral Agent pursuant to which the Subsidiaries will, jointly and severally, guarantee the Company's obligation to repay the New Adagio Convertible Notes and all other obligations of the Company under the Convertible Security Subscription Agreement and the New Adagio Convertible Notes and other related transaction documents, as set forth in the form of the Convert Guaranty. Any additional subsidiaries of the Company formed or acquired after the closing date will be required to join the Convert Guaranty as additional guarantors. Convert Registration Rights Agreement The Conversion Shares, the Convert Warrants, the Convert Warrant Shares, the New Adagio Convertible Notes and any capital stock of the Company issued or issuable with respect to the Conversion Shares, have not been registered under the Securities Act. In connection with the Convertible Security Subscription Agreement, the Company and the Convert Investors agreed to enter into a Registration Rights Agreement (the "Convert Registration Rights Agreement"), pursuant to which the Company will be required to file a registration statement on Form S-3 or, if not available, Form S-1 (the "Convert Registration Statement") with the SEC to register for resale all of the Registrable Securities (as defined in the Convert Registration Rights Agreement), including the Conversion Shares, the Convert Warrant Shares and any shares issuable with respect to the New Adagio Convertible Notes, as soon as practicable, but in no event later than 45 days after the Closing Date. In the event that the number of shares registered for resale under the Convert Registration Statement is insufficient to cover all of the Registrable Securities, the Company will amend the Registration Statement or file with the SEC a new registration statement to cover at least the Required Registration Amount (as defined in the Convert Registration Rights Agreement) as of the trading day immediately preceding the date of the filing of such amendment or new registration statement, as soon as practicable, but in any event not later than 15 days after the necessity therefor arises. If the Company fails to file the Convert Registration Statement when required, fails to obtain effectiveness by SEC when required or fails to maintain the effectiveness of the Convert Registration Statement pursuant to the Convert Registration Rights Agreement, then as partial relief for the damages to any holder by reason of any such delay in or reduction of, its ability to sell the underlying shares of New Adagio Common Stock, the Company will be required to pay each holder of Registrable Securities relating to such Convert Registration Statement an amount equal to one percent of such Convert Investor's original principal amount according to the timelines laid out in the Convert Registration Rights Agreement. The Convert Registration Rights Agreement also provides the parties with "piggy-back" registration rights, subject to certain requirements and customary conditions. Investor Rights Agreement Concurrently with the execution of the Business Combination Agreement, the Company, the Parent, the Perceptive PIPE Investor, the Sponsor and the other shareholders of Class B ordinary shares (the "Other Class B Shareholders") and certain Adagio stockholders entered into an investor rights agreement (the "Investor Rights Agreement") pursuant to which, among other things, the Perceptive PIPE Investor, the Sponsor, the Other Class B Shareholders, certain Adagio stockholders and investors in the Convertible Security Financing will be granted certain customary registration rights. Further, subject to customary exceptions set forth in the Investor Rights Agreement, the shares of New Adagio Common Stock beneficially owned or owned of record by the Sponsor, the Perceptive PIPE Investor, certain officers and directors of the Parent and New Adagio (including any shares of New Adagio Common Stock issued pursuant to the Business Combination Agreement or the PIPE Financing) will be subject to a lock-up period beginning on the Closing Date until the date that is the earlier of (i) 365 days following the Closing Date (or six months after the Closing Date, in the case of Olav Bergheim, John Dahldorf, Hakon Bergheim, Todd Wider, Michael Henderson and Leslie Trigg) or (ii) the first date subsequent to the Closing Date with respect to which the closing price of the shares of New Adagio Common Stock equals or exceeds $12.00 per share for any 20 trading days within any 30-trading day period commencing at least 150 days after the Closing Date. Pursuant to the terms of the Investor Rights Agreement, the Company will be obligated to file a registration statement to register the resale of certain shares of New Adagio Common Stock within 45 days after the Closing, and the Company is required at all times to maintain the effectiveness of such resale registration statement for the benefit of the holders party to the agreement. In addition, pursuant to the terms of the Investor Rights Agreement and subject to certain requirements and customary conditions, the certain Adagio stockholders, the Perceptive PIPE Investor and the Sponsor (including the Permitted Transferees (as defined therein) of the Perceptive PIPE Investor and the Sponsor) may demand at any time or from time to time, that the Company file a registration statement on Form S-3 (or on Form S-1 if Form S-3 is not available) to register the securities of the Company held by such holders. The Investor Rights Agreement will also provide holders party thereto with "piggy-back" registration rights, subject to certain requirements and customary conditions. The Registration and Shareholder Rights Agreement, dated March 2, 2021, by and among the Parent, the Sponsor and the other parties thereto will be terminated in connection with the consummation of the Business Combination and replaced by the Investor Rights Agreement. 0.000110.00010.000111000000114750024P20DP30D0.010.00105300000025000002529830 11.473554592999041024770028424 5
