These unaudited consolidated financial statements have been prepared according to the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and, therefore, certain information and footnote disclosures normally included in financial statements prepared in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP) have been omitted.The Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements appearing in 1st Source Corporationâ€™s Annual Report on FormÂ 10-K (2023 Annual Report), which include descriptions of significant accounting policies, should be read in conjunction with these interim financial statements. The Consolidated Statement of Financial Condition at DecemberÂ 31, 2023, has been derived from the audited financial statements at that date, but does not include all of the information and footnotes required by GAAP for complete financial statements. Certain amounts in the prior period consolidated financial statements have been reclassified to conform to the current period presentation.Use of Estimates in the Preparation of Financial Statements â€“ Financial statements prepared in accordance with GAAP require the Company to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of income and expense during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.Loans and Leases â€“ Loans are stated at the principal amount outstanding, net of unamortized deferred loan origination fees and costs and net of unearned income. Interest income is accrued as earned based on unpaid principal balances. Origination fees and direct loan and lease origination costs are deferred, and the net amount amortized to interest income over the estimated life of the related loan or lease. Loan commitment fees are deferred and amortized into other income over the commitment period.Direct financing leases are carried at the aggregate of lease payments plus estimated residual value of the leased property, net of unamortized deferred lease origination fees and costs and unearned income. Only those costs incurred as a direct result of closing a lease transaction are capitalized and all other initial direct costs are expensed immediately. Interest income on direct financing leases is recognized over the term of the lease to achieve a constant periodic rate of return on the outstanding investment.Accrued interest is included in Accrued Income and Other Assets on the Consolidated Statements of Financial Condition and is excluded from the calculation of the allowance for credit losses. The accrual of interest on loans and leases is discontinued when a loan or lease becomes contractually delinquent for 90 days, or when an individual analysis of a borrowerâ€™s credit worthiness indicates a credit should be placed on nonperforming status, except for residential mortgage loans and consumer loans that are well secured and in the process of collection. Residential mortgage loans are placed on nonaccrual at the time the loan is placed in foreclosure. When interest accruals are discontinued, interest credited to income in the current year is reversed and interest accrued in the prior year is charged to the allowance for loan and lease losses. However, in some cases, the Company may elect to continue the accrual of interest when the net realizable value of collateral is sufficient to cover the principal and accrued interest. When a loan or lease is classified as nonaccrual and the future collectability of the recorded loan or lease balance is doubtful, collections on interest and principal are applied as a reduction to principal outstanding. Loans are returned to accrual status when all principal and interest amounts contractually due are brought current and future payments are reasonably assured, which is typically evidenced by a sustained repayment performance of at least six months.Occasionally, the Company modifies loans and leases to borrowers in financial distress (typically denoted by internal credit quality graded â€œsubstandardâ€ or worse) by providing term extensions, other-than-insignificant payment delays, or interest rate reductions. In some cases, a combination of modifications are made to the same loan or lease. These modifications typically result from the Companyâ€™s loss mitigation activities. If the Company determines that the value of the modified loan is less than the recorded investment in the loan (net of previous charge-offs, deferred loan fees or costs and unamortized premium or discount), impairment is recognized through an allowance for loan and lease losses estimate or a charge-off to the allowance for loan and lease losses.8Table of ContentsNote 2 â€“ Recent Accounting PronouncementsIncome Taxes: In December 2023, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued Accounting Standards Update (ASU) No. 2023-09 â€œIncome Taxes (Topic 740): Improvements to Income Tax Disclosures.â€ Among other things, these amendments require that public business entities on an annual basis (1) disclose specific categories in the rate reconciliation and (2) provide additional information for reconciling items that meet a quantitative threshold (if the effect of those reconciling items is equal to or greater than five percent of the amount computed by multiplying pretax income (loss) by the applicable statutory income tax rate.) The amendments also require that all entities disclose on an annual basis the following information about income taxes paid: (1) the amount of income taxes paid (net of refunds received) disaggregated by federal, state, and foreign taxes and (2) the amount of income taxes paid (net of refunds received) disaggregated by individual jurisdictions in which income taxes paid (net of refunds received) is equal to or greater than five percent of total income taxes paid (net of refunds received.) This guidance is effective for public business entities for annual periods beginning after December 15, 2024. Early adoption is permitted for annual financial statements that have not yet been issued or made available for issuance. The amendments should be applied on a prospective basis although retrospective application is permitted. The Company continues to assess ASU 2023-09 and its impact on its accounting and disclosures.Segment Reporting: In November 2023, the FASB issued ASU 2023-07 â€œSegment Reporting (Topic 280): Improvements to Reportable Segment Disclosures.â€ These amendments require, among other things, that a public entity that has a single reportable segment provide all the disclosures required by the amendments in this ASU and all existing segment disclosures in Topic 208. The ASU is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2023, and interim periods within fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2024. Early adoption is permitted. A public entity should apply the amendments retrospectively to all periods presented in the financial statements. The Company continues to assess ASU 2023-09 and its impact on its accounting and disclosures.Note 3 â€“ Investment Securities Available-For-SaleThe following table shows investment securities available-for-sale.(DollarsÂ inÂ thousands)Amortized CostGross UnrealizedÂ GainsGross UnrealizedÂ LossesFairÂ ValueSeptember 30, 2024Â Â Â Â U.S. Treasury and Federal agencies securities$853,103Â $626Â $(30,362)$823,367Â U.S. States and political subdivisions securities86,250Â 372Â (3,573)83,049Â Mortgage-backed securities â€“ Federal agencies717,345Â 2,037Â (62,837)656,545Â Corporate debt securitiesâ€“Â â€“Â â€“Â â€“Â Foreign government and other securities500Â â€“Â â€“Â 500Â Total debt securities available-for-sale$1,657,198Â $3,035Â $(96,772)$1,563,461Â December 31, 2023Â Â Â Â U.S. Treasury and Federal agencies securities$979,530Â $178Â $(56,842)$922,866Â U.S. States and political subdivisions securities97,522Â 508Â (5,466)92,564Â Mortgage-backed securities â€“ Federal agencies676,257Â 476Â (78,481)598,252Â Corporate debt securities8,448Â â€“Â (119)8,329Â Foreign government and other securities600Â â€“Â (11)589Â Total debt securities available-for-sale$1,762,357Â $1,162Â $(140,919)$1,622,600Â Amortized cost excludes accrued interest receivable which is included in Accrued Income and Other Assets on the Consolidated Statements of Financial Condition. The Company uses two methods to assess credit risk: loan or lease credit quality grades and credit risk classifications. The purpose of the loan or lease credit quality grade is to document the degree of risk associated with individual credits, as well as inform management of the degree of risk in the portfolio taken as a whole. Credit risk classifications are used to categorize loans by degree of risk and to designate individual or committee approval authorities for higher risk credits at the time of origination. Credit risk classifications include categories for: Acceptable, Marginal, Special Attention, Special Risk, Restricted by Policy, Regulated and Prohibited by Law.10Table of ContentsAll loans and leases, except residential real estate loansâ€š home equity loans, and consumer loans, are assigned credit quality grades on a scale from 1 to 12, with grade 1 representing superior credit quality. The criteria used to assign grades to extensions of credit that exhibit potential problems or well-defined weaknesses are primarily based upon the degree of risk and the likelihood of orderly repayment, and their effect on the Companyâ€™s safety and soundness. Loans or leases graded 7 or weaker are considered â€œespecial attentionâ€ credits and, as such, relationships in excess of $250,000 are reviewed quarterly as part of managementâ€™s evaluation of the appropriateness of the allowance for loan and lease losses. Grade 7 credits are defined as â€œwatchâ€ and contain greater than average credit risk and are monitored to limit the exposure to increased risk; grade 8 credits are â€œspecial mentionâ€ and, following regulatory guidelines, are defined as having potential weaknesses that deserve managementâ€™s close attention. Credits that exhibit well-defined weaknesses and a distinct possibility of loss are considered â€œclassifiedâ€ and are graded 9 through 12 corresponding to the regulatory definitions of â€œsubstandardâ€ (grades 9 and 10) and the more severe â€œdoubtfulâ€ (grade 11) and â€œlossâ€ (grade 12). For residential real estate and home equity and consumer loans, credit quality is based on the aging status of the loan and by payment activity. Nonperforming loans are those loans which are on nonaccrual status or are 90 days or more past due.Below is a summary of the Companyâ€™s loan and lease portfolio segments and a discussion of the risk characteristics relevant to each portfolio segment.Commercial and agricultural â€“ loans are to entities within the Companyâ€™s local market communities. Loans are for business or agri-business purposes and include working capital lines of credit secured by accounts receivable and inventory that are generally renewable annually and term loans secured by equipment with amortizations based on the expected life of the underlying collateral, generally three to seven years. These loans are typically further supported by personal guarantees. Commercial exposure is to a wide range of industries and services. Risks in this sector are also varied and are most impacted by general economic conditions. Risk mitigants include appropriate underwriting and monitoring and, when appropriate, government guarantees, including SBA and FSA.Renewable energy â€“ loans are for the purpose of financing solar related projects and may include construction draw notes, operating loans, letters of credit and may entail a tax equity structure. Collateral in a multi-state area includes tangible assets of the borrower, assignment of intangible assets including power purchase agreements, and pledges of permits and licenses. Financing is provided to qualified borrowers throughout the continental United States with an emphasis on the region east of the Rocky Mountains.Auto and light truck â€“ loans are secured by vehicles and borrowers are nationwide. The portfolio predominantly consists of loans to borrowers in the auto rental and commercial auto leasing industries. Borrowers in the auto rental segment are primarily independent auto rental entities with on-airport and off-airport locations, and some insurance replacement business. Loan amortizations are relatively short, generally eighteen months, but up to four years. Auto leasing customers lease to businesses and the Company takes assignment of the lease stream and places its lien on the vehicles. Terms are generally longer than the auto rental sector, three to seven years and match the underlying leases. Risks in both these segments include economic risks and collateral risks, principally used vehicle values.Medium and heavy duty truck â€“ loans and full-service truck leases are secured by heavy-duty trucks, commonly Class 8 trucks, and are generally personally guaranteed. In addition to economic risks, collateral risk is significant. Financing is generally at full cost, plus additional expenditures to get the vehicle operational, such as taxes, insurance and fees. It takes three to four years of debt amortization to reach an equity position in the collateral.Aircraft â€“ loans are to domestic and foreign borrowers with the domestic segment further divided into two pools: 1) personal and business use, and 2) dealers and operators. The Companyâ€™s focus for the foreign sector is Latin America, principally Mexico and Brazil. Loans are primarily secured by new and used business jets and helicopters, with appropriate advances, amortizations of ten to fifteen years, and are generally guaranteed by individuals. The most significant risk in the Aircraft portfolio is collateral risk - volatility in underlying values and maintenance concerns. The portfolio is subject to national and global economic risks.Construction equipment â€“ loans are to borrowers throughout the country secured by specific equipment. The borrowers include highway and road builders, asphalt producers and pavers, suppliers of aggregate products, site developers, frac sand operations, general construction equipment dealers and operators, and crane rental entities. Generally, loans include personal guarantees. The construction equipment industry is heavily dependent on both the U.S. and global economy. Market growth is reliant on investments from public and private sectors into urbanization and infrastructure projects.Commercial real estate â€“ loans are generally to entities within the local market communities served by the Company with advances generally within regulatory guidelines. Historically, the Companyâ€™s exposure to commercial real estate has been primarily to the less risky owner-occupied segment. The non-owner-occupied segment accounts for less than half of the commercial real estate portfolio and includes hotels, apartment complexes and warehousing facilities. There is limited exposure to construction loans. Many commercial real estate loans carry personal guarantees. Additional risks in the commercial real estate portfolio stem from geographical concentration in northern Indiana and southwest Michigan and general economic conditions.11Table of ContentsResidential real estate and home equity â€“ loans predominantly include one-to-four family mortgages to borrowers in the Companyâ€™s local market communities and are appropriately underwritten and secured by residential real estate.Consumer â€“ loans are to individuals in the Companyâ€™s local markets and auto loans are generally secured by personal vehicles and appropriately underwritten.The following table shows the amortized cost of loans and leases, segregated by portfolio segment, credit quality rating and year of origination as of SeptemberÂ 30, 2024, and gross charge-offs for the nine months ended SeptemberÂ 30, 2024.Term Loans and Leases by Origination Year(Dollars in thousands)20242023202220212020PriorRevolving LoansRevolving Loans Converted to TermTotalCommercial and agriculturalGrades 1-6$86,204Â $124,539Â $73,638Â $50,359Â $28,475Â $21,606Â $301,330Â $â€”Â $686,151Â Grades 7-12113Â 4,495Â 7,771Â 4,042Â 222Â 2,430Â 17,952Â â€”Â 37,025Â Total commercial and agricultural86,317Â 129,034Â 81,409Â 54,401Â 28,697Â 24,036Â 319,282Â â€”Â 723,176Â Current period gross charge-offsâ€”Â 210Â 62Â 542Â â€”Â â€”Â 8,301Â â€”Â 9,115Â Renewable energyGrades 1-663,584Â 216,738Â 22,414Â 72,933Â 24,038Â 80,240Â â€”Â â€”Â 479,947Â Grades 7-12â€”Â â€”Â â€”Â â€”Â â€”Â â€”Â â€”Â â€”Â â€”Â Total renewable energy63,584Â 216,738Â 22,414Â 72,933Â 24,038Â 80,240Â â€”Â â€”Â 479,947Â Current period gross charge-offsâ€”Â â€”Â â€”Â â€”Â â€”Â â€”Â â€”Â â€”Â â€”Â Auto and light truckGrades 1-6361,444Â 347,812Â 131,622Â 32,423Â 12,750Â 8,592Â â€”Â â€”Â 894,643Â Grades 7-1217,721Â 32,572Â 2,374Â 172Â 1,504Â 487Â â€”Â â€”Â 54,830Â Total auto and light truck379,165Â 380,384Â 133,996Â 32,595Â 14,254Â 9,079Â â€”Â â€”Â 949,473Â Current period gross charge-offsâ€”Â 144Â 167Â 6Â â€”Â 1Â â€”Â â€”Â 318Â Medium and heavy duty truckGrades 1-665,957Â 77,979Â 88,191Â 30,056Â 14,240Â 7,823Â â€”Â â€”Â 284,246Â Grades 7-12209Â 2,526Â 9,052Â 1,322Â 214Â 244Â â€”Â 1,395Â 14,962Â Total medium and heavy duty truck66,166Â 80,505Â 97,243Â 31,378Â 14,454Â 8,067Â â€”Â 1,395Â 299,208Â Current period gross charge-offsâ€”Â â€”Â â€”Â â€”Â â€”Â â€”Â â€”Â â€”Â â€”Â AircraftGrades 1-6226,280Â 201,007Â 306,783Â 162,390Â 95,957Â 38,786Â 7,642Â â€”Â 1,038,845Â Grades 7-122,882Â 7,786Â 10,727Â 1,874Â 3,687Â â€”Â â€”Â â€”Â 26,956Â Total aircraft229,162Â 208,793Â 317,510Â 164,264Â 99,644Â 38,786Â 7,642Â â€”Â 1,065,801Â Current period gross charge-offsâ€”Â â€”Â â€”Â 15Â â€”Â 53Â â€”Â â€”Â 68Â Construction equipmentGrades 1-6337,390Â 358,746Â 233,124Â 83,327Â 40,519Â 17,548Â 22,126Â 3,098Â 1,095,878Â Grades 7-123,006Â 12,092Â 15,075Â 2,114Â 13,202Â â€”Â â€”Â â€”Â 45,489Â Total construction equipment340,396Â 370,838Â 248,199Â 85,441Â 53,721Â 17,548Â 22,126Â 3,098Â 1,141,367Â Current period gross charge-offsâ€”Â 89Â 369Â 140Â â€”Â â€”Â â€”Â â€”Â 598Â Commercial real estateGrades 1-6149,116Â 336,622Â 239,491Â 132,654Â 87,077Â 191,618Â 273Â â€”Â 1,136,851Â Grades 7-12145Â 9,920Â 3,751Â 3,226Â 422Â 2,508Â â€”Â â€”Â 19,972Â Total commercial real estate149,261Â 346,542Â 243,242Â 135,880Â 87,499Â 194,126Â 273Â â€”Â 1,156,823Â Current period gross charge-offsâ€”Â â€”Â â€”Â â€”Â â€”Â â€”Â â€”Â â€”Â â€”Â Residential real estate and home equityPerforming67,011Â 72,045Â 96,185Â 82,969Â 81,111Â 89,044Â 167,587Â 6,348Â 662,300Â Nonperformingâ€”Â 145Â 390Â 86Â 95Â 789Â 658Â 118Â 2,281Â Total residential real estate and home equity67,011Â 72,190Â 96,575Â 83,055Â 81,206Â 89,833Â 168,245Â 6,466Â 664,581Â Current period gross charge-offsâ€”Â 3Â â€”Â â€”Â â€”Â â€”Â 10Â â€”Â 13Â ConsumerPerforming36,364Â 37,515Â 32,886Â 12,141Â 3,029Â 1,321Â 11,738Â â€”Â 134,994Â Nonperforming21Â 316Â 262Â 72Â 37Â 22Â â€”Â

Therefore, the amortized cost of the loan is reduced by the uncollectible amount and the allowance for loan and lease losses is adjusted by the same amount. Note 5 â€” Allowance for Credit LossesAllowance for Loan and Lease LossesThe allowance for credit losses is established for current expected credit losses on the Companyâ€™s loan and lease portfolios utilizing guidance in Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) Topic 326. The determination of the allowance requires significant judgment to estimate credit losses measured on a collective pool basis when similar risk characteristics exist, and for loans evaluated individually. In determining the allowance, the Company estimates expected future losses for the loanâ€™s entire contractual term adjusted for expected payments when appropriate. The allowance estimate considers relevant available information, from internal and external sources, relating to the historical loss experience, current conditions, and reasonable and supportable forecasts for the Companyâ€™s outstanding loan and lease balances. The allowance is an estimation that reflects managementâ€™s evaluation of expected losses related to the Companyâ€™s financial assets measured at amortized cost. To ensure the allowance is maintained at an adequate level, a detailed analysis is performed on a quarterly basis and an appropriate provision is made to adjust the allowance.The Company categorizes its loan portfolios into nine segments based on similar risk characteristics. Loans within each segment are collectively evaluated using either: 1) a cohort cumulative loss rate methodology (â€œcohortâ€) or, 2) the probability of default (â€œPDâ€)/loss given default (â€œLGDâ€) methodology (PD/LGD).The following table shows the changes in the allowance for loan and lease losses, segregated by portfolio segment, for the three months ended SeptemberÂ 30, 2024 and 2023.16Table of Contents(DollarsÂ inÂ thousands)CommercialÂ andagriculturalRenewable energyAuto andlightÂ truckMediumÂ andheavyÂ dutyÂ truckAircraftConstructionequipmentCommercialrealÂ estateResidentialrealÂ estateand homeequityConsumerTotalSeptember 30, 2024Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Balance, beginning of period$18,637Â $7,653Â $17,726Â $9,221Â $35,166Â $26,944Â $24,847Â $7,792Â $2,081Â $150,067Â Charge-offs2,004Â â€”Â 302Â â€”Â â€”Â â€”Â â€”Â â€”Â 323Â 2,629Â Recoveries217Â â€”Â 719Â â€”Â 214Â 28Â 538Â 2Â 60Â 1,778Â Net charge-offs (recoveries)1,787Â â€”Â (417)â€”Â (214)(28)(538)(2)263Â 851Â Provision (recovery of provision)2,812Â 304Â (188)(559)332Â 1,051Â (1,118)43Â 431Â 3,108Â Balance, end of period$19,662Â $7,957Â $17,955Â $8,662Â $35,712Â $28,023Â $24,267Â $7,837Â $2,249Â $152,324Â September 30, 2023Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Balance, beginning of period$16,637Â $6,308Â $17,173Â $7,556Â $40,571Â $26,105Â $20,356Â $6,767Â $2,069Â $143,542Â Charge-offs2,261Â â€”Â 189Â â€”Â â€”Â â€”Â â€”Â â€”Â 45Â 283Â 2,778Â Recoveries20Â â€”Â 1,825Â â€”Â 243Â 284Â â€”Â 1Â 78Â 2,451Â Net charge-offs (recoveries)2,241Â â€”Â (1,636)â€”Â (243)(284)â€”Â 44Â 205Â 327Â Provision (recovery of provision)573Â (203)(2,471)155Â (354)506Â 2,288Â 168Â 197Â 859Â Balance, end of period$14,969Â $6,105Â $16,338Â $7,711Â $40,460Â $26,895Â $22,644Â $6,891Â $2,061Â $144,074Â The following table shows the changes in the allowance for loan and lease losses, segregated by portfolio segment, for the nine months ended SeptemberÂ 30, 2024 and 2023.(DollarsÂ inÂ thousands)CommercialÂ andagriculturalRenewable energyAuto andlightÂ truckMediumandheavyÂ dutytruckAircraftConstructionequipmentCommercialrealÂ estateResidentialrealÂ estateand homeequityConsumerTotalSeptember 30, 2024Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Balance, beginning of period$17,385Â $6,610Â $16,858Â $8,965Â $37,653Â $26,510Â $23,690Â $7,698Â $2,183Â $147,552Â Charge-offs9,115Â â€”Â 318Â â€”Â 68Â 598Â â€”Â 13Â 935Â 11,047Â Recoveries356Â â€”Â 2,281Â â€”Â 1,063Â 1,434Â 722Â 24Â 180Â 6,060Â Net charge-offs (recoveries)8,759Â â€”Â (1,963)â€”Â (995)(836)(722)(11)755Â 4,987Â Provision (recovery of provision)11,036Â 1,347Â (866)(303)(2,936)677Â (145)128Â 821Â 9,759Â Balance, end of period$19,662Â $7,957Â $17,955Â $8,662Â $35,712Â $28,023Â $24,267Â $7,837Â $2,249Â $152,324Â September 30, 2023Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Balance, beginning of period$14,635Â $7,217Â $18,634Â $7,566Â $41,093Â $24,039Â $17,431Â $6,478Â $2,175Â $139,268Â Charge-offs2,833Â â€”Â 301Â â€”Â â€”Â 45Â 218Â 55Â 879Â 4,331Â Recoveries209Â â€”Â 3,414Â â€”Â 746Â 291Â 6Â 327Â 189Â 5,182Â Net charge-offs (recoveries)2,624Â â€”Â (3,113)â€”Â (746)(246)212Â (272)690Â (851)Provision (recovery of provision)2,958Â (1,112)(5,409)145Â (1,379)2,610Â 5,425Â 141Â 576Â 3,955Â Balance, end of period$14,969Â $6,105Â $16,338Â $7,711Â $40,460Â $26,895Â $22,644Â $6,891Â $2,061Â $144,074Â The higher allowance for credit losses during the current quarter reflects an increase in special attention outstandings which carry higher reserves, the impact of a change in quantitative assumptions regarding the treatment of renewals for loans in special attention which increased historical loss rates primarily in the commercial and agricultural and construction equipment portfolios, and modest net credit losses during the period. The previous quarterâ€™s forecast adjustment was increased slightly as a mixed overall outlook and softening economic conditions are anticipated during the two-year time horizon. The Company remains cautious on the forward outlook and its forecast adjustment represents fragile growth expectations during the forecast period. Ongoing risks include heightened geopolitical instability, tightened credit conditions, increasing consumer stressors, a softening labor market, and elevated inflation and interest rates. Credit quality metrics reflect higher special attention outstandings during the current quarter, with modest levels of non-performing and delinquency that are trending higher. The Company reported modest net losses during the current quarter, reporting credit losses in the commercial and agricultural and consumer portfolios, partially offset by recoveries in the auto and light truck, commercial real estate, and aircraft portfolios.Commercial and agricultural â€” the increase in the allowance in the current quarter was principally due to higher loss rates from the aforementioned change in quantitative assumptions regarding renewals of special attention loans along with slightly higher loan balances during the period. Also, the portfolio has experienced higher credit losses in recent quarters.Renewable energy â€” the allowance increased due to higher loan balances. Credit quality remains stable.Auto and light truck â€” the allowance increased during the current quarter due to increased special attention loan balances which carry higher reserves, largely offset by a decrease in loan balances during the period.Medium and heavy duty truck â€” the allowance decreased due to lower loan balances. The near-term industry outlook remains weak due to overcapacity in the segment which has negatively pressured freight rates.17Table of ContentsAircraft â€” the allowance increased during the current quarter as the higher reserved foreign segment of the portfolio experienced increased loan volumes. The Company has historically carried a higher allowance in this portfolio due to risk volatility.Construction equipment â€” the allowance increased due to loan growth, higher loss rates from the aforementioned change in quantitative assumptions regarding renewals of special attention loans, and higher specific impairments in the portfolio.Commercial real estate â€” the allowance decreased due to lower loan balances. Higher interest rates and shifting demand dynamics have impacted commercial real estate. The majority of the Companyâ€™s real estate exposure is owner-occupied, and exposure to non-owner-occupied office property is minimal.Residential real estate and home equity â€” the allowance increased slightly due to modest loan growth.Consumer â€” the allowance increased slightly due to the addition of a qualitative factor which addresses the trend of modestly higher delinquency and non-performing rates in the portfolio, offsetting a slight decrease in loan balances.Economic OutlookAs of SeptemberÂ 30, 2024, the most significant economic factors impacting the Companyâ€™s loan portfolios are a fragile domestic growth outlook, impacted by elevated inflation and interest rates, along with broadening foreign conflicts and increasing geopolitical instability. The labor market has shown signs of softening and questions surrounding the timing and velocity of future interest rate cuts persist. The Company remains concerned about the impact of tighter credit conditions on the economy and the effect that may have on future economic growth. Consumer stressors are increasing, and the Company remains concerned about small businesses and their ability to control expenses and compete for labor, while absorbing the impact of higher interest rates and higher cost of capital. Asset valuations which collateralize loans, particularly in the auto and light truck and medium and heavy duty portfolios, are softening. Tightened lending conditions and the higher-rate environment are impacting commercial real estate activity. The forecast considers global and domestic economic impacts from these factors, as well as other key economic factors, such as changes in gross domestic product and unemployment which may impact the Companyâ€™s clients. The Companyâ€™s assumption is that economic growth will be somewhat tepid during the forecast period over the next two years, with inflation slowly moving back towards the 2% Federal Reserve target rate, resulting in an adverse impact on the loan and lease portfolio.As a result of geopolitical risks and economic uncertainty, the Companyâ€™s future loss estimates may vary considerably from the SeptemberÂ 30, 2024 assumptions.Liability for Credit Losses on Unfunded Loan CommitmentsThe liability for credit losses inherent in unfunded loan commitments is included in Accrued Expenses and Other Liabilities on the Consolidated Statements of Financial Condition. The Company allocates a portion of the total proceeds of a mortgage loan to servicing rights based on the relative fair value. The unpaid principal balance of residential mortgage loans serviced for third parties was $785.43 million and $806.05 million at SeptemberÂ 30, 2024 and DecemberÂ 31, 2023, respectively.Mortgage servicing rights (MSRs) are evaluated for impairment at each reporting date. For purposes of impairment measurement, MSRs are stratified based on the predominant risk characteristics of the underlying servicing, principally by loan type. If temporary impairment exists within a tranche, a valuation allowance is established through a charge to income equal to the amount by which the carrying value exceeds the fair value. If it is later determined all or a portion of the temporary impairment no longer exists for a particular tranche, the valuation allowance is reduced through a recovery of income.The following table shows changes in the carrying value of MSRs and the associated valuation allowance.Three Months EndedSeptember 30,Nine Months EndedSeptember 30,(DollarsÂ inÂ thousands)20242023202420232Mortgage servicing rights:Â Â Â Â Balance at beginning of period$3,567Â $3,874Â $3,670Â $4,137Â Additions130Â 119Â 396Â 291Â Amortization(207)(217)(576)(652)Carrying value before valuation allowance at end of period3,490Â 3,776Â 3,490Â 3,776Â Valuation allowance:Â Â Â Â Balance at beginning of periodâ€”Â â€”Â â€”Â â€”Â Impairment recoveriesâ€”Â â€”Â â€”Â â€”Â Balance at end of periodâ€”Â $â€”Â $â€”Â $â€”Â Net carrying value of mortgage servicing rights at end of period$3,490Â $3,776Â $3,490Â $3,776Â Fair value of mortgage servicing rights at end of period$7,842Â $8,029Â $7,842Â $8,029Â At SeptemberÂ 30, 2024 and 2023, the fair value of MSRs exceeded the carrying value reported in the Consolidated Statements of Financial Condition by $4.35 million and $4.25 million, respectively. This difference represents increases in the fair value of certain MSRs that could not be recorded above cost basis.Mortgage loan contractual servicing fees, including late fees and ancillary income, were $0.63 million and $0.63 million for the three months ended September 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively. Mortgage loan contractual servicing fees, including late fees and ancillary income, were $1.80 million and $1.92 million for the nine months ended SeptemberÂ 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively. Mortgage loan contractual servicing fees are included in Mortgage Banking on the Consolidated Statements of Income.19Table of ContentsNote 8 â€” Commitments and Financial Instruments with Off-Balance-Sheet RiskFinancial Instruments with Off-Balance-Sheet Risk â€” 1st Source and its subsidiaries are parties to financial instruments with off-balance-sheet risk in the normal course of business. These off-balance-sheet financial instruments include commitments to originate and sell loans and standby letters of credit. The instruments involve, to varying degrees, elements of credit and interest rate risk in excess of the amount recognized in the Consolidated Statements of Financial Condition. The following table shows financial instruments whose contract amounts represent credit risk.(Dollars in thousands)September 30,2024December 31,2023Amounts of commitments:Loan commitments to extend credit$1,361,575Â $1,454,506Â Standby letters of credit$22,209Â $17,287Â Commercial and similar letters of credit$â€”Â $7,047Â The exposure to credit loss in the event of nonperformance by the other party to the financial instruments for loan commitments and standby letters of credit is represented by the dollar amount of those instruments. The Company uses the same credit policies and collateral requirements in making commitments and conditional obligations as it does for on-balance-sheet instruments.The Company grants mortgage loan commitments to borrowers, subject to normal loan underwriting standards. The interest rate risk associated with these loan commitments is managed by entering into contracts for future deliveries of loans. Loan commitments generally have fixed expiration dates or other termination clauses and may require payment of a fee. Since many of the commitments are expected to expire without being drawn upon, the total commitment amounts do not necessarily represent future cash requirements.Standby letters of credit are conditional commitments that guarantee the performance of a client to a third party. The credit risk involved in and collateral obtained when issuing standby letters of credit is essentially the same as that involved in extending loan commitments to clients. Standby letters of credit generally have terms ranging from two months to one year.Commercial letters of credit are issued specifically to facilitate commerce and typically result in the commitment being drawn on when the underlying transaction is consummated between the customer and the third party. Commercial letters of credit generally have terms ranging from two months to six months.Note 9 â€” Derivative Financial InstrumentsCommitments to originate residential mortgage loans held for sale and forward commitments to sell residential mortgage loans are considered derivative instruments. See Note 8 for further information.The Company has certain interest rate derivative positions that are not designated as hedging instruments. Derivative assets and liabilities are recorded at fair value on the Consolidated Statements of Financial Condition and do not take into account the effects of master netting agreements. Master netting agreements allow the Company to settle all derivative contracts held with a single counterparty on a net basis, and to offset net derivative positions with related collateral, where applicable. These derivative positions relate to transactions in which the Company enters into an interest rate swap with a client while at the same time entering into an offsetting interest rate swap with another financial institution. In connection with each transaction, the Company agrees to pay interest to the client on a notional amount at a variable interest rate and receive interest from the client on the same notional amount at a fixed interest rate. At the same time, the Company agrees to pay another financial institution the same fixed interest rate on the same notional amount and receive the same variable interest rate on the same notional amount. The transaction allows the client to effectively convert a variable rate loan to a fixed rate. Because the terms of the swaps with the customers and the other financial institutions offset each other, with the only difference being counterparty credit risk, changes in the fair value of the underlying derivative contracts are not materially different and do not significantly impact the Companyâ€™s results of operations.20Table of ContentsThe following table shows the amounts of non-hedging derivative financial instruments.Â Â AssetÂ derivativesLiabilityÂ derivatives(DollarsÂ inÂ thousands)Notional or contractual amountStatement of Financial Condition classificationFair valueStatement of Financial Condition classificationFair valueSeptember 30, 2024Â Â Â Â Â Interest rate swap contracts$1,081,092Â Other assets$20,064Â Other liabilities$20,433Â Loan commitments5,817Â Mortgages

The Companyâ€™s investments in VIEs are primarily related to investments promoting affordable housing, community development and renewable energy sources. Some of these tax-advantaged investments support the Companyâ€™s regulatory compliance with the Community Reinvestment Act. The Companyâ€™s investments in these entities generate a return primarily through the realization of federal and state income tax credits and other tax benefits, such as tax deductions from operating losses of the investments, over specified time periods. These tax credits are recognized as a reduction of tax expense or, for investments qualifying as investment tax credits, as a reduction to the related investment asset. The Company recognized federal and state income tax credits related to its affordable housing and community development tax-advantaged investments in tax expense of $0.80 million and $0.66 million for the three months ended September 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively, and $2.39 million and $1.99 million for the nine months ended SeptemberÂ 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively. The Company also recognized $1.34 million and $0.57 million of investment tax credits for the three months ended September 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively, and $12.13 million and $25.02 million for the nine months ended SeptemberÂ 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively.The Company is not required to consolidate VIEs in which it has concluded it does not have a controlling financial interest, and thus is not the primary beneficiary. In such cases, the Company does not have both the power to direct the entitiesâ€™ most significant activities and the obligation to absorb losses or the right to receive benefits that could potentially be significant to the VIEs. As a limited partner in these operating partnerships, the Company is allocated credits and deductions associated with the underlying properties. The Company has determined that it is not the primary beneficiary of these investments because the general partners have the power to direct activities that most significantly influence the economic performance of their respective partnerships.22Table of ContentsThe Companyâ€™s investments in these unconsolidated VIEs are carried in Other Assets on the Consolidated Statements of Financial Condition. The Companyâ€™s unfunded capital and other commitments related to these unconsolidated VIEs are generally carried in Other Liabilities on the Consolidated Statements of Financial Condition. The Companyâ€™s maximum exposure to loss from these unconsolidated VIEs includes the investment recorded on the Consolidated Statements of Financial Condition, net of unfunded capital commitments, and previously recorded tax credits which remain subject to recapture by taxing authorities based on compliance features required to be met at the project level. While the Company believes potential losses from these investments are remote, the maximum exposure was determined by assuming a scenario where the community-based business projects, housing projects, and renewable energy projects completely fail and do not meet certain taxing authority compliance requirements, resulting in recapture of the related tax credits.The following table provides a summary of investments in affordable housing, community development, and renewable energy VIEs that the Company has not consolidated.(DollarsÂ inÂ thousands)September 30, 2024December 31, 2023Investment carrying amount$70,889Â $79,228Â Unfunded capital and other commitments62,260Â 80,719Â Maximum exposure to loss71,686Â 59,649Â The Company is required to consolidate VIEs in which it has concluded it has significant involvement and the ability to direct the activities that impact the entityâ€™s economic performance. The Company is the managing general partner of entities in which it shares interest in tax-advantaged investments with a third party. At SeptemberÂ 30, 2024, and DecemberÂ 31, 2023, approximately $78.77 million and $87.37 million, respectively, of the Companyâ€™s assets and $0.00 million and $0.00 million, respectively, of its liabilities included on the Consolidated Statements of Financial Condition were related to tax-advantaged investment VIEs which the Company has consolidated. The assets of the consolidated VIEs are reported in Other Assets, the liabilities are reported in Other Liabilities, and the non-controlling interest is reported in Equity on the Consolidated Statements of Financial Condition. The assets of a particular VIE are the primary source of funds to settle its obligations. The creditors of the VIE do not have recourse to the general credit of the Company. The Companyâ€™s exposure to the consolidated VIE is generally limited to the carrying value of its variable interest plus any related tax credits previously recognized.Additionally, the Company sponsors one trust, 1st Source Master Trust (Capital Trust), of which 100% of the common equity is owned by the Company. The Capital Trust was formed in 2007 for the purpose of issuing corporation-obligated mandatorily redeemable capital securities (the capital securities) to third-party investors and investing the proceeds from the sale of the capital securities solely in junior subordinated debenture securities of the Company (the subordinated notes). The subordinated notes held by the Capital Trust are the sole assets of the Capital Trust. The Capital Trust qualifies as a variable interest entity for which the Company is not the primary beneficiary and is therefore reported in the financial statements as an unconsolidated subsidiary. The junior subordinated debentures are reflected as subordinated notes on the Consolidated Statements of Financial Condition with the corresponding interest distributions reflected as Interest Expense on the Consolidated Statements of Income. The common shares issued by the Capital Trust are included in Other Assets on the Consolidated Statements of Financial Condition.Distributions on the capital securities issued by the Capital Trust are payable quarterly at a rate per annum equal to the interest rate being earned by the Capital Trust on the subordinated notes held by the Capital Trust. The capital securities are subject to mandatory redemption, in whole or in part, upon repayment of the subordinated notes. The Company has entered into agreements which, taken collectively, fully and unconditionally guarantee the capital securities subject to the terms of each of the guarantees. The capital securities held by the Capital Trust qualify as Tier 1 capital under Federal Reserve Board guidelines.The following table shows subordinated notes at SeptemberÂ 30, 2024.(DollarsÂ inÂ thousands)Amount of Subordinated NotesInterest RateMaturity DateJuneÂ 2007 issuance (1)$41,238Â 7.22Â %6/15/2037AugustÂ 2007 issuance (2)17,526Â 6.69Â %9/15/2037Total$58,764Â Â Â (1) Fixed rate through life of debt.(2) 3-Month Term SOFR + the 3-Month tenor spread adjustment + 1.48% through remaining life of debt.23Table of ContentsNote 11 â€” Earnings Per ShareEarnings per common share is computed using the two-class method. Basic earnings per common share is computed by dividing net income available to common shareholders by the weighted-average number of common shares outstanding during the applicable period, excluding outstanding participating securities. Participating securities include non-vested restricted stock awards. Non-vested restricted stock awards are considered participating securities to the extent the holders of these securities receive non-forfeitable dividends at the same rate as holders of common stock. Diluted earnings per common share is computed using the weighted-average number of shares determined for the basic earnings per common share computation plus the dilutive effect of stock compensation using the treasury stock method.Stock options, where the exercise price was greater than the average market price of the common shares, were excluded from the computation of diluted earnings per common share because the result would have been antidilutive. There were no stock options outstanding as of SeptemberÂ 30, 2024 and 2023. These plans include three executive stock award plans, the Executive Incentive Plan (EIP), the Restricted Stock Award Plan (RSAP), the Strategic Deployment Incentive Plan (SDP); and the Employee Stock Purchase Plan (ESPP). The 2011 Stock Option Plan was approved by the shareholders on AprilÂ 21, 2011, but the Company had not made any grants through SeptemberÂ 30, 2024.Stock-based compensation expense for all stock-based compensation awards granted is based on the grant-date fair value. For all awards except stock option awards, the grant date fair value is either the fair market value per share or book value per share (corresponding to the type of stock awarded) as of the grant date. For stock option awards, the grant date fair value is estimated using the Black-Scholes option pricing model. For all awards, the Company recognizes these compensation costs on a straight-line basis over the requisite service period of the award, for which the Company uses the related vesting term. Total fair value of options vested and expensed was zero for the nine months ended SeptemberÂ 30, 2024 and 2023. As of SeptemberÂ 30, 2024 and 2023 there were no outstanding stock options. There were no stock options exercised during the nine months ended SeptemberÂ 30, 2024 and 2023. All shares issued in connection with stock option exercises are issued from available treasury stock.As of SeptemberÂ 30, 2024, there was $11.34 million of total unrecognized compensation cost related to non-vested share-based compensation arrangements. That cost is expected to be recognized over a weighted-average period of 3.31 years.24Table of ContentsNote 13 â€” Accumulated Other Comprehensive LossThe following table presents reclassifications out of accumulated other comprehensive income (loss) related to unrealized gains and losses on available-for-sale securities.Â Three Months Ended September 30,Nine Months Ended September 30,Affected Line Item in the Consolidated Statements of Income(DollarsÂ inÂ thousands)2024202320242023Realized losses included in net income$â€”Â $â€”Â $â€”Â $(44)Losses on investment securities available-for-saleÂ â€”Â â€”Â â€”Â (44)Income before income taxesTax effectâ€”Â â€”Â â€”Â 10Â Income tax expenseNet of tax$â€”Â $â€”Â $â€”Â $(34)Net incomeÂ Note 14 â€” Income TaxesThe total amount of unrecognized tax benefits that would affect the effective tax rate if recognized was zero at SeptemberÂ 30, 2024 and DecemberÂ 31, 2023. The Company does not anticipate a significant change in the amount of uncertain tax positions within the next 12 months.Note 15 â€” Fair Value MeasurementsThe Company records certain assets and liabilities at fair value. Fair value is defined as the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. Fair value measurements are also utilized to determine the initial value of certain assets and liabilities, to perform impairment assessments, and for disclosure purposes. The Company uses quoted market prices and observable inputs to the maximum extent possible when measuring fair value. In the absence of quoted market prices, various valuation techniques are utilized to measure fair value. When possible, observable market data for identical or similar financial instruments is used in the valuation. When market data is not available, fair value is determined using valuation models that incorporate managementâ€™s estimates of the assumptions a market participant would use in pricing the asset or liability.Fair value measurements are classified within one of three levels based on the observability of the inputs used to determine fair value, as follows:â€¢Level 1 â€” The valuation is based on quoted prices in active markets for identical instruments.â€¢Level 2 â€” The valuation is based on observable inputs such as quoted prices for similar instruments in active markets, quoted prices for identical or similar instruments in markets that are not active, and model-based valuation techniques for which all significant assumptions are observable in the market.â€¢Level 3 â€” The valuation is based on unobservable inputs that are supported by minimal or no market activity and that are significant to the fair value of the instrument. Level 3 valuations are typically performed using pricing models, discounted cash flow methodologies, or similar techniques that incorporate managementâ€™s own estimates of assumptions that market participants would use in pricing the instrument, or valuations that require significant management judgment or estimation.A financial instrumentâ€™s level within the fair value hierarchy is based on the lowest level of input that is significant to the fair value measurement.The Company elected fair value accounting for mortgages held for sale and for its best-efforts forward sales commitments. The Company economically hedges its mortgages held for sale at the time the interest rate locks are issued to the customers. The Company believes the election for mortgages held for sale will reduce certain timing differences and better match changes in the value of these assets with changes in the value of derivatives or best-best efforts forward sales commitments. At SeptemberÂ 30, 2024 and DecemberÂ 31, 2023, all mortgages held for sale were carried at fair value.25Table of ContentsThe following table shows the differences between the fair value carrying amount of mortgages held for sale measured at fair value and the aggregate unpaid principal amount the Company is contractually entitled to receive at maturity.

Prices supplied by the independent pricing agent, as well as their pricing methodologies and assumptions, are reviewed by the Company for reasonableness and to ensure such prices are aligned with market levels. In general, the Companyâ€™s investment securities do not possess a complex structure that could introduce greater valuation risk. The portfolio mainly consists of traditional investments including U.S. Treasury and Federal agencies securities, Federal agency mortgage pass-through securities, and general obligation and revenue municipal bonds. Pricing for such instruments is fairly generic and is easily obtained. On a quarterly basis, prices supplied by the pricing agent are validated by comparison to prices obtained from other third-party sources for a material portion of the portfolio.The valuation policy and procedures for Level 3 fair value measurements of available-for-sale debt securities are decided through collaboration between management of the Corporate Accounting and Funds Management departments. The changes in fair value measurement for Level 3 securities are analyzed on a periodic basis under a collaborative framework with the aforementioned departments. The methodology and variables used for input are derived from the combination of observable and unobservable inputs. The unobservable inputs are determined through internal assumptions that may vary from period to period due to external factors, such as market movement and credit rating adjustments.Both the market and income valuation approaches are implemented using the following types of inputs:â€¢U.S. treasuries are priced using the market approach and utilizing live data feeds from active market exchanges for identical securities.â€¢Government-sponsored agency debt securities and corporate bonds are primarily priced using available market information through processes such as benchmark curves, market valuations of like securities, sector groupings and matrix pricing.â€¢Other government-sponsored agency securities, mortgage-backed securities and some of the actively traded REMICs and CMOs, are primarily priced using available market information including benchmark yields, prepayment speeds, spreads and volatility of similar securities.â€¢State and political subdivisions are largely grouped by characteristics, i.e., geographical data and source of revenue in trade dissemination systems. Since some securities are not traded daily and due to other grouping limitations, active market quotes are often obtained using benchmarking for like securities. Local direct placement municipal securities, with very little market activity, are priced using an appropriate market yield curve, which includes a credit spread assumption.Mortgages held for sale and the related loan commitments and forward contracts (hedges) are valued by a third-party pricing agent. Prices supplied by the independent pricing agent, as well as their pricing methodologies, are reviewed by the Company for reasonableness and to ensure such prices are aligned with market values. On a quarterly basis, prices supplied by the pricing agent are validated by comparison to the prices obtained from other third-party sources.26Table of ContentsInterest rate swap positions, both assets and liabilities, are valued by a third-party pricing agent using an income approach and utilizing models that use as their basis readily observable market parameters. This valuation process considers various factors including interest rate yield curves, time value and volatility factors. Validation of third-party agent valuations is accomplished by comparing those values to the Companyâ€™s swap counterparty valuations. Management believes an adjustment is required to â€œmid-marketâ€ valuations for derivatives tied to its performing loan portfolio to recognize the imprecision and related exposure inherent in the process of estimating expected credit losses as well as velocity of deterioration evident with systemic risks embedded in these portfolios. Any change in the mid-market derivative valuation adjustment will be recognized immediately through the Consolidated Statements of Income.The following table shows the balance of assets and liabilities measured at fair value on a recurring basis.(DollarsÂ inÂ thousands)LevelÂ 1LevelÂ 2LevelÂ 3TotalSeptember 30, 2024Â Â Â Â Assets:Â Â Â Â Investment securities available-for-sale:Â Â Â Â U.S. Treasury and Federal agencies securities$479,400Â $343,967Â â€”Â $823,367Â U.S. States and political subdivisions securitiesâ€”Â 81,991Â 1,058Â 83,049Â Mortgage-backed securities â€” Federal agenciesâ€”Â 656,545Â â€”Â 656,545Â Corporate debt securitiesâ€”Â â€”Â â€”Â â€”Â Foreign government and other securitiesâ€”Â 500Â â€”Â 500Â Total debt securities available-for-sale479,400Â 1,083,003Â 1,058Â 1,563,461Â Mortgages held for saleâ€”Â 3,690Â â€”Â 3,690Â Accrued income and other assets (interest rate swap agreements)â€”Â 20,064Â â€”Â 20,064Â Total$479,400Â $1,106,757Â $1,058Â $1,587,215Â Liabilities:Â Â Â Â Â Accrued expenses and other liabilities (interest rate swap agreements)$â€”Â $20,433Â $â€”Â $20,433Â Total$â€”Â $20,433Â $â€”Â $20,433Â December 31, 2023Â Â Â Â Assets:Â Â Â Â Investment securities available-for-sale:Â Â Â Â U.S. Treasury and Federal agencies securities$541,461Â $381,405Â $â€”Â $922,866Â U.S. States and political subdivisions securitiesâ€”Â 91,403Â 1,161Â 92,564Â Mortgage-backed securities â€” Federal agenciesâ€”Â 598,252Â â€”Â 598,252Â Corporate debt securitiesâ€”Â 8,329Â â€”Â 8,329Â Foreign government and other securitiesâ€”Â 589Â â€”Â 589Â Total debt securities available-for-sale541,461Â 1,079,978Â 1,161Â 1,622,600Â Mortgages held for saleâ€”Â 1,442Â â€”Â 1,442Â Accrued income and other assets (interest rate swap agreements)â€”Â 22,704Â â€”Â 22,704Â Total$541,461Â $1,104,124Â $1,161Â $1,646,746Â Liabilities:Â Â Â Â Â Accrued expenses and other liabilities (interest rate swap agreements)$â€”Â $23,140Â $â€”Â $23,140Â Total$â€”Â $23,140Â $â€”Â $23,140Â 27Table of ContentsThe following table shows changes in Level 3 assets measured at fair value on a recurring basis for the quarter ended SeptemberÂ 30, 2024 and 2023.(DollarsÂ inÂ thousands)U.S.Â StatesÂ andpoliticalsubdivisionssecuritiesBeginning balance July 1, 2024$1,037Â Total gains or losses (realized/unrealized):Â Included in earningsâ€”Â Included in other comprehensive income (loss)21Â Purchasesâ€”Â Issuancesâ€”Â Salesâ€”Â Settlementsâ€”Â Maturitiesâ€”Â Transfers into Level 3â€”Â Transfers out of Level 3â€”Â Ending balance September 30, 2024$1,058Â Beginning balance July 1, 2023$4,249Â Total gains or losses (realized/unrealized):Â Included in earningsâ€”Â Included in other comprehensive income (loss) (26)Purchasesâ€”Â Issuancesâ€”Â Salesâ€”Â Settlementsâ€”Â Maturities(85)Transfers into Level 3â€”Â Transfers out of Level 3â€”Â Ending balance September 30, 2023$4,138Â There were no gains or losses for the period included in earnings attributable to the change in unrealized gains or losses relating to assets still held at SeptemberÂ 30, 2024 or 2023.The following table shows the valuation methodology and unobservable inputs for Level 3 assets measured at fair value on a recurring basis.(DollarsÂ inÂ thousands)FairÂ ValueValuation MethodologyUnobservableÂ InputsRangeÂ ofÂ InputsWeighted AverageSeptember 30, 2024Â Â Â Â Debt securities available-for saleÂ Â Â Â Direct placement municipal securities$1,058Â Discounted cash flowsCredit spread assumption3.41% - 4.25%3.68Â %December 31, 2023Â Â Â Â Debt securities available-for saleÂ Â Â Â Direct placement municipal securities$1,161Â Discounted cash flowsCredit spread assumption0.31% - 5.28%4.28Â %Financial Instruments on Non-recurring Basis:The Company may be required, from time to time, to measure certain other financial assets at fair value on a non-recurring basis in accordance with GAAP. These adjustments to fair value usually result from application of lower of cost or market accounting or impairment charges of individual assets.28Table of ContentsThe Credit Policy Committee (CPC), a management committee, is responsible for overseeing the valuation processes and procedures for Level 3 measurements of impaired loans, other real estate and repossessions. The CPC reviews these assets on a quarterly basis to determine the accuracy of the observable inputs, generally third-party appraisals, auction values, values derived from trade publications and data submitted by the borrower, and the appropriateness of the unobservable inputs, generally discounts due to current market conditions and collection issues. The CPC establishes discounts based on asset type and valuation source; deviations from the standard are documented. The discounts are reviewed periodically, annually at a minimum, to determine they remain appropriate. Consideration is given to current trends in market values for the asset categories and gains and losses on sales of similar assets. The Loan and Funds Management Committee of the Board of Directors is responsible for overseeing the CPC.Discounts vary depending on the nature of the assets and the source of value. Aircraft are generally valued using quarterly trade publications adjusted for engine time, condition, maintenance programs, discounted by 10%. Likewise, autos are valued using current auction values, discounted by 10%; medium and heavy duty trucks are valued using trade publications and auction values, discounted by 15%. Construction equipment is generally valued using trade publications and auction values, discounted by 20%. Real estate is valued based on appraisals or evaluations, discounted by 20% with higher discounts for property in poor condition or property with characteristics which may make it more difficult to market. Commercial loans subject to borrowing base certificates are generally discounted by 20% for receivables and 40% - 75% for inventory with higher discounts when monthly borrowing base certificates are not required or received.Collateral-dependent impaired loans and related write-downs are based on the fair value of the underlying collateral if repayment is expected solely from the collateral. Collateral values are reviewed quarterly and estimated using customized discounting criteria, appraisals and dealer and trade magazine quotes which are used in a market valuation approach. In accordance with fair value measurements, only impaired loans for which an allowance for loan loss has been established based on the fair value of collateral require classification in the fair value hierarchy. As a result, only a portion of the Companyâ€™s impaired loans are classified in the fair value hierarchy.The Company has established MSRs valuation policies and procedures based on industry standards and to ensure valuation methodologies are consistent and verifiable. MSRs and related adjustments to fair value result from application of lower of cost or fair value accounting. For purposes of impairment, MSRs are stratified based on the predominant risk characteristics of the underlying servicing, principally by loan type. The fair value of each tranche of the servicing portfolio is estimated by calculating the present value of estimated future net servicing cash flows, taking into consideration actual and expected mortgage loan prepayment rates, discount rates, servicing costs, and other economic factors. Prepayment rates and discount rates are derived through a third-party pricing agent. Changes in the most significant inputs, including prepayment rates and discount rates, are compared to the changes in the fair value measurements and appropriate resolution is made. A fair value analysis is also obtained from an independent third-party agent and compared to the internal valuation for reasonableness. MSRs do not trade in an active, open market with readily observable prices and though sales of MSRs do occur, precise terms and conditions typically are not readily available, and the characteristics of the Companyâ€™s servicing portfolio may differ from those of any servicing portfolios that do trade.Other real estate is based on the fair value of the underlying collateral less expected selling costs. Collateral values are estimated primarily using appraisals and reflect a market value approach. Fair values are reviewed quarterly, and new appraisals are obtained annually. Repossessions are similarly valued.For assets measured at fair value on a nonrecurring basis, the following represents impairment charges (recoveries) recognized on these assets during the quarter ended SeptemberÂ 30, 2024: collateral-dependent impaired loans - $2.30 million; mortgage servicing rights - $0.00 million; repossessions - $0.01 million; and other real estate - $0.00 million.29Table of ContentsThe following table shows the carrying value of assets measured at fair value on a non-recurring basis.(DollarsÂ inÂ thousands)LevelÂ 1LevelÂ 2LevelÂ 3TotalSeptember 30, 2024Â Â Â Â Collateral-dependent impaired loans$â€”Â $â€”Â $15,666Â $15,666Â Accrued income and other assets (mortgage servicing rights)â€”Â â€”Â 3,490Â 3,490Â Accrued income and other assets (repossessions)â€”Â â€”Â 109Â 109Â Total$â€”Â $â€”Â $19,265Â $19,265Â December 31, 2023Â Â Â Â Collateral-dependent impaired loans$â€”Â $â€”Â $6,289Â $6,289Â Accrued income and other assets (mortgage servicing rights)â€”Â â€”Â 3,670Â 3,670Â Accrued income and other assets (repossessions)â€”Â â€”Â 705Â 705Â Total$â€”Â $â€”Â $10,664Â $10,664Â The following table below shows the valuation methodology and unobservable inputs for Level 3 assets and liabilities measured at fair value on a non-recurring basis.(DollarsÂ inÂ thousands)CarryingÂ ValueFairÂ ValueValuationÂ MethodologyUnobservableÂ InputsRangeÂ ofÂ InputsWeighted AverageSeptember 30, 2024Â Â Â Â Collateral-dependent impaired loans$15,666Â $15,666Â Collateral based measurements including appraisals, trade publications, and auction valuesDiscount for lack of marketability and current conditions20% - These estimates are subjective in nature and require considerable judgment to interpret market data. Accordingly, the estimates presented herein are not necessarily indicative of the amounts the Company could realize in a current market exchange, nor are they intended to represent the fair value of the Company as a whole. The use of different market assumptions and/or estimation methodologies may have a material effect on the estimated fair value amounts. The fair value estimates presented herein are based on pertinent information available to management as of the respective balance sheet date. Although the Company is not aware of any factors that would significantly affect the estimated fair value amounts, such amounts have not been comprehensively revalued since the presentation dates, and therefore, estimates of fair value after the balance sheet date may differ significantly from the amounts presented herein.31Table of ContentsOther significant assets, such as premises and equipment, other assets, and liabilities not defined as financial instruments, are not included in the above disclosures. Also, the fair value estimates for deposits do not include the benefit that results from the low-cost funding provided by the deposit liabilities compared to the cost of borrowing funds in the market.ITEM 2.MANAGEMENTâ€™S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OFFINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONSThe following managementâ€™s discussion and analysis is presented to provide information concerning 1st Source Corporation and its subsidiariesâ€™ (collectively referred to as â€œthe Companyâ€, â€œweâ€, and â€œourâ€) financial condition as of SeptemberÂ 30, 2024, as compared to DecemberÂ 31, 2023, and the results of operations for the three and nine months ended SeptemberÂ 30, 2024 and 2023. Readers are advised that various important factors could cause our actual results or circumstances for future periods to differ materially from those anticipated or projected in such forward-looking statements. Such factors include, but are not limited to, changes in law, regulations or GAAP; our competitive position within the markets we serve; increasing consolidation within the banking industry; unforeseen changes in interest rates; unforeseen changes in loan prepayment assumptions; unforeseen downturns in or major events affecting the local, regional or national economies or the industries in which we have credit concentrations; potential impacts of epidemics, pandemics or other infectious disease outbreaks; and other matters discussed in our filings with the SEC, including our Annual Report on FormÂ 10-KÂ for 2023, which filings are available from the SEC. We undertake no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements.FINANCIAL CONDITIONOur total assets at SeptemberÂ 30, 2024 were $8.76 billion, an increase of $35.99 million or 0.41% from DecemberÂ 31, 2023. Total investment securities available-for-sale were $1.56 billion, a decrease of $59.14 million or 3.64% from DecemberÂ 31, 2023. The largest contributor to the decrease in investment securities available-for-sale was expected redemptions, which were used to fund loan growth and pay down borrowings. Federal funds sold and interest bearing deposits with other banks were $69.46 million, an increase of $17.27 million or 33.08% from DecemberÂ 31, 2023. The increase in federal funds sold and interest bearing deposits with other banks was due to higher interest bearing deposits at other banks.Total loans and leases were $6.62 billion, an increase of $97.60 million or 1.50% from DecemberÂ 31, 2023. The largest contributors to the increase in loans and leases was growth in the renewable energy, construction equipment, commercial real estate and residential real estate and home equity portfolios, offset by decreases in the commercial and agricultural, auto and light truck, medium and heavy duty truck, and aircraft portfolios. Our foreign loan and lease balances, all denominated in U.S. dollars were $304.00 million and $302.41 million as of SeptemberÂ 30, 2024 and DecemberÂ 31, 2023, respectively. Foreign loans and leases are in aircraft financing. Loan and lease balances to borrowers in Brazil and Mexico were $132.57 million and $137.72 million as of SeptemberÂ 30, 2024, respectively, compared to $119.38 million and $147.61 million as of DecemberÂ 31, 2023, respectively. As of SeptemberÂ 30, 2024 and DecemberÂ 31, 2023, there was not a significant concentration in any other country.Equipment owned under operating leases was $13.01 million, a decrease of $7.36 million, or 36.11% compared to DecemberÂ 31, 2023. The largest contributors to the decrease in equipment owned under operating leases was reduced leasing volume primarily due to a change in customer preferences and continued competitive pricing pressure for new business.Total deposits were $7.13 billion, an increase of $87.36 million or 1.24% from the end of 2023. The largest contributors to the increase in total deposits was higher time, savings, and interest-bearing public fund deposits offset by lower brokered time deposits, consumer and business interest-bearing demand deposits and noninterest-bearing demand deposits. Rate competition for deposits persisted during the third quarter across our footprint from various sources, including traditional bank and credit union competitors, money market funds, bond markets, and other non-bank alternatives. 32Table of ContentsShort-term borrowings were $165.68 million, a decrease of $146.68 million or 46.96% from DecemberÂ 31, 2023, due primarily to pay downs of short-term FHLB borrowings offset by an increase in repurchase agreements. Long-term debt and mandatorily redeemable securities were $39.22 million, a decrease of $8.69 million or 18.14% from DecemberÂ 31, 2023, due primarily to maturities of long-term FHLB borrowings. Accrued expenses and other liabilities were $199.14 million, a decrease of $2.94 million or 1.46% from DecemberÂ 31, 2023, mainly due to decreased unfunded partnership commitments, offset by increased accrued interest payable.The following table shows accrued income and other assets.(DollarsÂ inÂ thousands)September 30,2024December 31,2023Accrued income and other assets:Â Â Bank owned life insurance cash surrender value$85,977Â $84,414Â Operating lease right of use assets21,840Â 21,692Â Accrued interest receivable30,721Â 30,232Â Mortgage servicing rights3,490Â 3,670Â Repossessions109Â 705Â Partnership investments carrying amount149,655Â 166,596Â Deferred tax assets52,973Â 64,255Â All other assets49,940Â 56,215Â Total accrued income and other assets$394,705Â $427,779Â The largest contributors to the decrease in accrued income and other assets from DecemberÂ 31, 2023, were decreases in partnership investments, the fair value of interest rate swap contracts with customers, accounts receivable and deferred tax assets, offset by increased bank owned life insurance cash surrender value during the period.CAPITALAs of SeptemberÂ 30, 2024, total shareholdersâ€™ equity was $1.10 billion, up $114.69 million, or 11.59% from the $989.57 million at DecemberÂ 31, 2023. In addition to net income of $101.19 million, other significant changes in shareholdersâ€™ equity during the first nine months of 2024 included $25.54 million of dividends paid. The accumulated other comprehensive loss component of shareholdersâ€™ equity decreased to $71.23 million at SeptemberÂ 30, 2024, compared to $106.32 million at DecemberÂ 31, 2023, due to changes in market conditions on our available-for-sale investment portfolio. Our shareholdersâ€™ equity-to-assets ratio was 12.60% as of SeptemberÂ 30, 2024, compared to 11.34% at DecemberÂ 31, 2023. Book value per common share increased to $45.05 at SeptemberÂ 30, 2024, from $40.50 at DecemberÂ 31, 2023, primarily due to increased retained earnings and decreased accumulated other comprehensive losses.We declared and paid cash dividends per common share of $0.36 during the third quarter of 2024. The trailing four quarters dividend payout ratio, representing cash dividends per common share divided by diluted earnings per common share, was 26.34%. The dividend payout is continually reviewed by management and the Board of Directors subject to the Companyâ€™s capital and dividend policy.The banking regulators have established guidelines for leverage capital requirements, expressed in terms of Tier 1 or core capital as a percentage of average assets, to measure the soundness of a financial institution. Total net available liquidity was $3.38 billion at SeptemberÂ 30, 2024, which accounted for approximately 51% of total deposits net of brokered and listing services certificates of deposit.Our loan to asset ratio was 75.49% at SeptemberÂ 30, 2024 compared to 74.69% at DecemberÂ 31, 2023 and 74.53% at SeptemberÂ 30, 2023. Cash and cash equivalents totaled $169.36 million at SeptemberÂ 30, 2024 compared to $129.67 million at DecemberÂ 31, 2023 and $111.14 million at SeptemberÂ 30, 2023. The increase in cash and cash equivalents was primarily due to an increase in core deposits and the expected redemptions of investment securities available-for-sale. At SeptemberÂ 30, 2024, the Consolidated Statements of Financial Condition was rate sensitive by $496.59 million more liabilities than assets scheduled to reprice within one year, or approximately 0.89%. Management believes that the present funding sources provide adequate liquidity to meet our cash flow needs.34Table of ContentsUnder Indiana law governing the collateralization of public fund deposits, the Indiana Board of Depositories determines which financial institutions are required to pledge collateral based on the strength of their financial ratings. We have been informed that no collateral is required for our public fund deposits. However, the Board of Depositories could alter this requirement in the future and adversely impact our liquidity. Our potential liquidity exposure if we must pledge collateral is approximately $1.24 billion.RESULTS OF OPERATIONSNet income available to common shareholders for the three and nine month periods ended SeptemberÂ 30, 2024 was $34.94 million and $101.19 million compared to $32.94 million and $96.50 million for the same periods in 2023. Diluted net income per common share was $1.41 and $4.09 for the three and nine month periods ended SeptemberÂ 30, 2024, compared to $1.32 and $3.87 earned for the same periods in 2023. Return on average common shareholdersâ€™ equity was 13.02% for the nine months ended SeptemberÂ 30, 2024, compared to 14.04% in 2023. The return on total average assets was 1.55% for the nine months ended SeptemberÂ 30, 2024, compared to 1.54% in 2023. Net income increased for the nine months ended SeptemberÂ 30, 2024, compared to the first nine months of 2023. Net interest income increased and noninterest expense decreased offset by an increase in the provision for credit losses and a decrease in noninterest income. Details of the changes in the various components of net income are discussed further below.35Table of ContentsNET INTEREST INCOMEThe following tables provide an analysis of net interest income and illustrates the interest income earned and interest expense charged for each major component of interest earning assets and interest bearing liabilities. Yields/rates are computed on a tax-equivalent basis, using a 21% rate. The net interest margin on a fully taxable-equivalent basis was 3.64% for the three months ended SeptemberÂ 30, 2024, compared to 3.46% for the three months ended SeptemberÂ 30, 2023.During the three month period ended SeptemberÂ 30, 2024, average earning assets increased $309.76 million, up 3.89% over the comparable period in 2023. Average interest-bearing liabilities increased $240.11 million or 4.31%. The yield on average earning assets increased 57 basis points to 5.93% from 5.36% at SeptemberÂ 30, 2023, primarily due to higher rates on loans and leases and higher balances of other investments, which include federal funds sold, time deposits with other banks, Federal Reserve Bank excess balances, Federal Reserve Bank and Federal Home Loan Bank (FHLB) stock and commercial paper. Total cost of average interest-bearing liabilities increased 56 basis points to 3.27% from 2.71% as a result of higher rates on interest-bearing deposits and a rise in imputed interest on mandatorily redeemable securities. The result to the tax-equivalent net interest margin, or the ratio of tax-equivalent net interest income to average earning assets, was an increase of 18 basis points.36Table of ContentsThe largest contributors to the improved yield on average earning assets for the three months ended SeptemberÂ 30, 2024, compared to the three months ended SeptemberÂ 30, 2023, was an increase in yields on loans and leases and higher balances of other investments, primarily excess reserves held at the Federal Reserve Bank. The yield on loans and leases grew 57 basis points, mainly from rising interest rates. Average loans and leases increased $359.79 million or 5.76%, primarily in the commercial real estate, renewable energy, construction equipment, auto and light truck, and residential real estate portfolios. Net interest recoveries positively contributed four basis points to the yield on average loans and leases during the quarter and four basis points to the average loans and leases yield during the prior year third quarter. Average investment securities decreased $106.69 million or 6.48%, primarily due to the use of proceeds from matured securities to fund loan growth. Average other investments, primarily held at the Federal Reserve Bank, increased $56.07 million or 81.76%.Average interest-bearing deposits increased $287.03 million, or 5.47% for the third quarter of 2024 over the same period in 2023 primarily in savings, time, and interest-bearing public fund deposits. The effective rate on average interest-bearing deposits increased 55 basis points to 3.15% from 2.60%, in line with the competitive rate environment. Average noninterest-bearing deposits declined $102.71 million or 6.03% for the third quarter of 2024 over the same period in 2023, largely due to greater utilization of excess funds by our business customers, and a heightened rate sensitivity in our customer base given the overall level of market yields.Average short-term borrowings decreased $39.52 million or 18.44% for the third quarter of 2024 compared to the same period in 2023. Interest on short-term borrowings decreased 52 basis points due to lower short-term FHLB borrowings and utilization of the Federal Reserveâ€™s Bank Term Funding Program. Interest on subordinated notes decreased two basis points during the third quarter of 2024 from the same period a year ago due to a slight variable rate decrease on one tranche. Average long-term debt and mandatorily redeemable securities balances decreased $7.40 million or 15.91%, primarily from the maturity of long-term debt. Interest on long-term debt and mandatorily redeemable securities increased 1,006 basis points during the third quarter of 2024 from the same period in 2023, primarily due to higher imputed interest on mandatorily redeemable securities from a larger increase in book value per share during the quarter compared to the previous yearâ€™s third quarter. Mandatorily redeemable securities are issued under the terms of one of our executive incentive compensation plans and are settled based on book value per share with changes from the previous reporting date recorded as interest expense.37Table of ContentsNine Months EndedSeptember 30, 2024September 30, 2023(Dollars in thousands)AverageBalanceInterest Income/ExpenseYield/RateAverageBalanceInterest Income/ExpenseYield/RateASSETSInvestment securities available-for-sale:Taxable$1,537,066Â $18,099Â 1.57Â %$1,657,241Â $18,512Â 1.49Â %Tax exempt(1)30,057Â 962Â 4.28Â %46,385Â 1,413Â 4.07Â %Mortgages held for sale3,257Â 162Â 6.64Â %2,489Â 114Â 6.12Â %Loans and leases, net of unearned discount(1)6,572,108Â 337,580Â 6.86Â %6,141,849Â 280,374Â 6.10Â %Other investments110,580Â 4,500Â 5.44Â %69,799Â 2,498Â 4.78Â %Total earning assets(1)8,253,068Â 361,303Â 5.85Â %7,917,763Â 302,911Â 5.11Â %Cash and due from banks62,277Â 70,288Â Â Â Allowance for loan and lease losses(150,127)(143,545)Â Â Other assets545,805Â 523,548Â Â Â Total assets$8,711,023Â $8,368,054Â Â Â LIABILITIES AND SHAREHOLDERSâ€™ EQUITYÂ Â Â Interest-bearing deposits$5,511,116Â $126,621Â 3.07Â %$5,143,493Â $84,538Â 2.20Â %Short-term borrowings:Securities sold under agreements to repurchase57,934Â 366Â 0.84Â %87,909Â 107Â 0.16Â %Other short-term borrowings168,234Â 6,403Â 5.08Â %133,965Â 5,047Â 5.04Â %Subordinated notes58,764Â 3,176Â 7.22Â %58,764Â 3,108Â 7.07Â %Long-term debt and mandatorily redeemable securities41,633Â 2,850Â 9.14Â %46,174Â 2,219Â 6.43Â %Total interest-bearing liabilities5,837,681Â 139,416Â 3.19Â %5,470,305Â 95,019Â 2.32Â %Noninterest-bearing deposits1,598,711Â Â Â 1,776,202Â Â Â Other liabilities163,091Â Â Â 143,086Â Â Â Shareholdersâ€™ equity1,037,809Â Â Â 919,182Â Â Â Noncontrolling interests73,731Â 59,279Â Total liabilities and equity$8,711,023Â Â Â $8,368,054Â Â Â Less: Fully tax-equivalent adjustments(436)(575)Net interest income/margin (GAAP-derived)(1)Â $221,451Â 3.58Â %Â $207,317Â 3.50Â %Fully tax-equivalent adjustments436Â 575Â Net interest income/margin - FTE(1)Â $221,887Â 3.59Â %Â $207,892Â 3.51Â %(1) See â€œReconciliation of Non-GAAP Financial Measuresâ€ at the end of this section for additional information on this performance measure/ratio.Nine Months Ended SeptemberÂ 30, 2024 compared to the Nine Months Ended SeptemberÂ 30, 2023 The taxable-equivalent net interest income for the nine months ended SeptemberÂ 30, 2024, was $221.89 million, an increase of 6.73% over the same period in 2023. The net interest margin on a fully taxable-equivalent basis was 3.59% for the nine months ended SeptemberÂ 30, 2024, compared to 3.51% for the same period in 2023. During the nine month period ended SeptemberÂ 30, 2024, average earning assets increased $335.31 million, up 4.23% over the comparable period in 2023. Average interest-bearing liabilities increased $367.38 million or 6.72%. The yield on average earning assets increased 74 basis points to 5.85% from 5.11% primarily due to higher rates on loans and leases and higher balances of other investments, which include federal funds sold, time deposits with other banks, Federal Reserve Bank excess balances, Federal Reserve Bank and Federal Home Loan Bank (FHLB) stock and commercial paper. Total cost of average interest-bearing liabilities increased 87 basis points to 3.19% from 2.32%, as a result of repricing of interest-bearing deposits and higher other short-term borrowings balances, which is predominately short-term FHLB borrowings and Federal Reserve Bank Term Funding Program borrowings. The result to the net interest margin, or the ratio of net interest income to average earning assets, was a net eight basis point improvement.The largest contributor to the improved yield on average earning assets for the nine months ended SeptemberÂ 30, 2024, compared to the nine months ended SeptemberÂ 30, 2023, was an increase in

yields on net loans and leases of 76 basis points primarily due to market conditions. Average loans and leases increased $430.26 million, up 7.01%. Net interest recoveries positively contributed five basis points to the yield on average loans and leases during the first nine months of 2024 and two basis points during the first nine months of 2023. Average mortgages held for sale increased $0.77 million or 30.86%. Average investment securities decreased $136.50 million or 8.01%, which represents the use of proceeds from the maturity of securities to fund loan growth. Average other investments, primarily held at the Federal Reserve Bank, increased $40.78 million or 58.43%.38Table of ContentsAverage interest-bearing deposits increased $367.62 million or 7.15% for the first nine months of 2024 over the same period in 2023, primarily due to increased time deposits, brokered deposits, savings account balances and interest-bearing public fund deposits. The effective rate on average interest-bearing deposits increased 87 basis points to 3.07% from 2.20%, mainly from rate competition in the market. Average noninterest-bearing deposits declined $177.49 million or 9.99% for the first nine months of 2024, over the same period in 2023, primarily due to persistent rate competition for deposits and greater utilization of excess funds by our business customers.Average short-term borrowings increased $4.29 million or 1.94% for the first nine months of 2024 compared to the same period in 2023. Interest on short-term borrowings increased 89 basis points due to higher Federal Reserve Bank Term Funding Program borrowings and lower securities sold under agreements to repurchase balances. Interest on subordinated notes increased 15 basis points due to a variable rate increase on one tranche. Average long-term debt and mandatorily redeemable securities balances decreased $4.54 million or 9.83%. Interest on long-term debt and mandatorily redeemable securities increased 271 basis points due to higher imputed interest on mandatorily redeemable securities from an increase in book value per share during 2024 compared to the previous year. Mandatorily redeemable securities are issued under the terms of one of our executive incentive compensation plans and are settled based on book value per share with changes from the previous reporting date recorded as interest expense.Reconciliation of Non-GAAP Financial MeasuresThe accounting and reporting policies of 1st Source conform to generally accepted accounting principles (â€œGAAPâ€) in the United States and prevailing practices in the banking industry. However, certain non-GAAP performance measures are used by management to evaluate and measure the Companyâ€™s performance. These include taxable-equivalent net interest income (including its individual components) and net interest margin (including its individual components). Management believes that these measures provide users of the Companyâ€™s financial information a more meaningful view of the performance of the interest-earning assets and interest-bearing liabilities.Management reviews yields on certain asset categories and the net interest margin of the Company and its banking subsidiaries on a fully taxable-equivalent (â€œFTEâ€) basis. In this non-GAAP presentation, net interest income is adjusted to reflect tax-exempt interest income on an equivalent before-tax basis. This measure ensures comparability of net interest income arising from both taxable and tax-exempt sources.Three Months EndedNine Months EndedSeptember 30,June 30,September 30,September 30,September 30,(Dollars in thousands)20242024202320242023Calculation of Net Interest Margin(A)Interest income (GAAP)$123,230Â $121,169Â $107,326Â $360,867Â $302,336Â Fully tax-equivalent adjustments:(B)- Loans and leases79Â 79Â 92Â 239Â 293Â (C)- Tax-exempt investment securities65Â 65Â 78Â 197Â 282Â (D)Interest income - FTE (A+B+C)123,374Â 121,313Â 107,496Â 361,303Â 302,911Â (E)Interest expense (GAAP)47,744Â 47,119Â 38,090Â 139,416Â 95,019Â (F)Net interest income (GAAP) (Aâ€“E)75,486Â 74,050Â 69,236Â 221,451Â 207,317Â (G)Net interest income - FTE (Dâ€“E)75,630Â 74,194Â 69,406Â 221,887Â 207,892Â (H)Annualization factor3.978Â 4.022Â 3.967Â 1.336Â 1.337Â (I)Total earning assets$8,273,301Â $8,303,518Â $7,963,537Â $8,253,068Â $7,917,763Â Net interest margin (GAAP-derived) (F*H)/I3.63Â %3.59Â %3.45Â %3.58Â %3.50Â %Net interest margin - FTE (G*H)/I3.64Â %3.59Â %3.46Â %3.59Â %3.51Â %PROVISION AND ALLOWANCE FOR CREDIT LOSSESThe provision for credit losses for the three and nine months ended SeptemberÂ 30, 2024, was $3.11 million and $9.76 million compared to $0.86 million and $3.96 million during the three and nine months ended SeptemberÂ 30, 2023. Net charge-offs of $0.85 million or 0.05% of average loans and leases were recorded for the third quarter of 2024, compared to net charge-offs of $0.33 million or 0.02% of average loans and leases for the same quarter a year ago. Year-to-date net charge-offs of $4.99 million or 0.10% of average loans and leases have been recorded in 2024, compared to net recoveries of $0.85 million or 0.02% of average loans and leases through SeptemberÂ 30, 2023. Net charge-offs recognized in 2024 are principally concentrated in the commercial and agricultural portfolio.39Table of ContentsThe provision for credit losses for the three months ended SeptemberÂ 30, 2024, was driven by a change in quantitative assumptions regarding the treatment of renewals for loans in special attention which increased historical loss rates primarily in the commercial and agricultural and construction equipment portfolios, a slight increase in the forecast adjustment due to a mixed forward economic outlook, and an increase in special attention outstandings which carry higher reserves, most notably in the auto and light truck and commercial and agricultural portfolios. Risks include a fragile domestic GDP outlook, heightened geopolitical instability, tightened credit conditions, a softening labor market, and continued elevated levels of inflation and interest rates. We remain concerned about the potential risks in our small business portfolio, as liquidity provided by government programs afforded to our lending clients dissipates. Clients in our auto and light truck portfolio are experiencing softening rental rates and pockets of excess fleet inventory. Consumers remain under stress and economic imbalances are prevalent as rising consumer costs have tended to outpace income growth. Impairment reserves for assets individually evaluated total $1.55 million this quarter, consisting of accounts in our construction equipment and commercial and agricultural portfolios.We continually evaluate risks which may impact our loan portfolios. Such risks include a cautious economic outlook and increased uncertainty fueled by widening conflicts around the world, and the Federal Reserveâ€™s challenge of maintaining full employment, while balancing inflation and interest rate concerns in the effort to maintain overall economic stability. The possibility for economic disruption remains a concern, as geopolitical events and fragile growth prospects raise the potential for adverse impacts in the domestic and global economies. Higher interest rates apply downward pressure to asset values which collateralize our loans. Credit market conditions remain tightened. The growth outlook in the U.S. is mixed, and is susceptible to disruption caused by global conflicts and an environment of heightened instability. The upcoming domestic election presents additional uncertainty while highlighting increasing division within the electorate and uncompromising political partisanship. Political discord is also an ever-present threat in our Latin American markets. Corruption scandals persist and U.S. border concerns are heightened. Globally, there is an ever-present threat of terrorism.Our aircraft portfolio exhibits collateral concentration and contains $304 million of foreign exposure at September 30, 2024, the majority of which is in Mexico and Brazil. We review political and economic data for these countries on a regular basis to assess the impact the environment may have on our customers. Historically, we have experienced volatile and unanticipated losses in both the foreign and domestic segments of our aircraft portfolios. Losses have been primarily attributable to unexpected declines in the value of specific aircraft collateral at a time when the borrower is experiencing financial difficulties. We review and assess aircraft values on an ongoing basis and use a tiered approach to establish advance rates and amortization schedules to limit collateral exposure. We continually monitor individual customer performance and assess risks in the overall portfolio.On SeptemberÂ 30, 2024, 30 day and over loan and lease delinquency as a percentage of loan and lease balances was 0.31%, compared to 0.10% on SeptemberÂ 30, 2023. The allowance for loan and lease losses as a percentage of loans and leases outstanding at the end of the period was 2.30% compared to 2.27% one year ago. A summary of loan and lease loss experience during the three and nine months ended SeptemberÂ 30, 2024 and 2023 is located in Note 5 of the Consolidated Financial Statements.NONPERFORMING ASSETSThe following table shows nonperforming assets.(DollarsÂ inÂ thousands)September 30,2024December 31,2023September 30,2023Loans and leases past due 90 days or more$100Â $149Â $154Â Nonaccrual loans and leases30,678Â 23,381Â 16,617Â Other real estateâ€”Â â€”Â 117Â Repossessions109Â 705Â 233Â Total nonperforming assets$30,887Â $24,235Â $17,121Â Nonperforming assets to loans and leases, net of unearned discount0.47Â %0.37Â %0.27Â %Nonperforming assets totaled $30.89 million at SeptemberÂ 30, 2024, an increase of 27.45% from the $24.24 million reported at DecemberÂ 31, 2023, and a 80.40% increase from the $17.12 million reported at SeptemberÂ 30, 2023. The increase in nonperforming assets during the first nine months of 2024 was related to higher nonaccrual loans and leases. The increase in nonperforming assets at SeptemberÂ 30, 2024 from SeptemberÂ 30, 2023, was also related to an increase in nonaccrual loans and leases. There were no properties held in other real estate at SeptemberÂ 30, 2024.The increase in nonaccrual loans and leases at SeptemberÂ 30, 2024 from DecemberÂ 31, 2023, was predominantly in our construction equipment portfolio offset by lower balances in our commercial and agricultural portfolio due to charge-off activity during the year. A summary of nonaccrual loans and leases and past due aging for the period ended SeptemberÂ 30, 2024, and DecemberÂ 31, 2023, is located in Note 4 of the Consolidated Financial Statements.40Table of ContentsRepossessions consisted of a few loans in the construction equipment and consumer portfolios at SeptemberÂ 30, 2024. At the time of repossession, the recorded amount of the loan or lease is written down to the fair value of the equipment or vehicle by a charge to the allowance for loan and lease losses or other income, if a positive adjustment, unless the equipment is in the process of immediate sale. Trust and wealth advisory fees are largely based the number and size of client relationships and the market value of assets under management. The market value of trust assets under management at SeptemberÂ 30, 2024, DecemberÂ 31, 2023, and SeptemberÂ 30, 2023, was $6.03 billion, $5.46 billion, and $4.96 billion, respectively. Positive equity market returns during the first nine months of 2024 resulted in an increase in assets under management.Service charges on deposit accounts was relatively flat during the three months ended September 30, 2024, but increased for the nine months ended SeptemberÂ 30, 2024, over the comparable periods in 2023. The increase for the first nine months of 2024 primarily reflects a higher volume of business deposit account and consumer non-sufficient fund and overdraft fees.Debit card income increased during the three months ended SeptemberÂ 30, 2024, but decreased for the first nine months of 2024 compared to the same periods a year ago. The increase during the third quarter was due to an overall increase in client transactions. The primary driver of the decrease for the nine months ending September 30, 2024 was related to shifts in both client transaction behavior and the networks over which those merchants are routing transactions.41Table of ContentsMortgage banking income increased during the three and nine months ended SeptemberÂ 30, 2024, compared to the same periods in 2023. The increase was primarily a result of higher production and margins on loans originated for the secondary market.Insurance commissions declined during the three and nine months ended SeptemberÂ 30, 2024, compared to the same periods a year ago. The decrease was mainly due to decreased contingent commissions received.Equipment rental income decreased for the three and nine months ended SeptemberÂ 30, 2024, over the comparable periods in 2023. The decline was the result of a reduction in the average equipment rental portfolio by 42.4% over the same period a year ago, due to changing customer preferences and competitive pricing pressures for new business.There were no losses on available-for-sale investment securities during the nine months ended SeptemberÂ 30, 2024.Other income decreased for the three and nine months ended SeptemberÂ 30, 2024, compared to the comparable periods in 2023. The decrease was primarily the result of decreased partnership investment gains on sale of renewable energy tax equity investments, customer interest rate swap fees, and a decline in bank owned life insurance policy claims recognized offset by a rise in brokerage commissions and fees.NONINTEREST EXPENSEThe following table shows the details of noninterest expense.Three Months EndedSeptember 30,Nine Months EndedSeptember 30,(DollarsÂ inÂ thousands)20242023$ Change% Change20242023$ Change% ChangeNoninterest expense:Â Â Â Â Salaries and employee benefits$31,274Â $28,866Â $2,408Â 8.34Â %$90,084Â $85,699Â $4,385Â 5.12Â %Net occupancy3,011Â 2,867Â 144Â 5.02Â %8,915Â 8,165Â 750Â 9.19Â %Furniture and equipment1,496Â 1,217Â 279Â 22.93Â %3,910Â 3,938Â (28)(0.71)%Data processing7,002Â 6,289Â 713Â 11.34Â %20,214Â 18,714Â 1,500Â 8.02Â %Depreciation â€“ leased equipment907Â 1,672Â (765)(45.75)%3,194Â 5,570Â (2,376)(42.66)%Professional fees1,928Â 1,763Â 165Â 9.36Â %4,986Â 4,149Â 837Â 20.17Â %FDIC and other insurance1,423Â 1,598Â (175)(10.95)%4,707Â 4,302Â 405Â 9.41Â %Business development and marketing1,671Â 1,201Â 470Â 39.13Â %5,441Â 4,822Â 619Â 12.84Â %Other731Â 4,693Â (3,962)(84.42)%7,069Â 13,393Â (6,324)(47.22)%Total noninterest expense$49,443Â $50,166Â $(723)(1.44)%$148,520Â $148,752Â $(232)(0.16)%Salaries and employee benefits increased during the three and nine months ended SeptemberÂ 30, 2024, compared to the same periods in 2023. Higher base salaries were a result of normal merit increases, wage inflation, as well as a higher headcount due to fewer open positions compared to the previous year. Additionally, increases in incentive compensation were offset by a reduction in group insurance claims.Net occupancy expense increased during the three and nine months ended SeptemberÂ 30, 2024, compared to the same periods in 2023. The increase for both periods was primarily due to increased premises expenses and higher rent. Furniture and equipment expenses, including depreciation, increased during the third quarter of 2024, and were relatively flat during the nine months ended SeptemberÂ 30, 2024, compared to the same periods a year ago. The increase in the quarter was primarily due to increased equipment repairs and purchases of furniture and equipment.Data processing expense grew during the three and nine months ended SeptemberÂ 30, 2024, compared to the same periods a year ago due primarily to higher computer processing charges and software maintenance expense on technology projects.Depreciation on leased equipment decreased for the three and nine months ended SeptemberÂ 30, 2024, compared to the same periods in 2023. Depreciation on leased equipment correlates with the decrease in equipment rental income.Professional fees were higher during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2024, compared to the same periods a year ago. The increase was primarily due to a $1.08 million reversal of accrued legal fees in the first quarter of 2023, as well as an increase in audit and examination fees and professional consulting fees during the year.FDIC and other insurance was lower during the third quarter of 2024, and was higher during the nine months ended SeptemberÂ 30, 2024, compared to the same periods in 2023. The decrease for the quarter was the result of lower blanket bond insurance premiums due to a more cost effective policy renewal during the quarter. The increase for the first nine months of 2024 was mainly due to higher blanket bond insurance premiums as compared to the prior year. 42Table of ContentsBusiness development and marketing expense was higher during the third quarter and first nine months of 2024 compared to the same periods a year ago. The increases during the year were related to an increase in business meals, entertainment, travel opportunities, and marketing promotions.Other expenses were lower during the three and nine months ended SeptemberÂ 30, 2024, compared to the same periods in 2023. The decreases were primarily the result of a reduction in the provision for unfunded loan commitments, gains related to the sale of fixed assets, lower printing and postage costs, reduced data communication line charges, and a reduction in employment and relocation costs.INCOME TAXESThe provision for income taxes for the three and nine month periods ended SeptemberÂ 30, 2024 was $10.47 million and $29.82 million compared to $9.73 million and $28.64 million for the same periods in 2023. The effective tax rate was 23.07% and 22.80% for the quarters ended SeptemberÂ 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively and 22.76% and 22.88% for the nine months ended September 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively. The increase in the quarterly effective tax rate was due to higher permanent book and tax differences in relationship to pretax income in 2024 compared to 2023.ITEM 3.QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISKThere have been no material changes in market risks faced by 1st Source since DecemberÂ 31, 2023. This Executive Incentive Plan (the â€œPlanâ€) is intended to promote the interests of 1st Source Corporation, an Indiana corporation (â€œ1st Sourceâ€ or the â€œCorporationâ€) and its shareholders by attracting and motivating educated, self-disciplined and professional managers, and by providing an incentive to induce continued future employment of certain key employees of the Corporation and certain key employees of one or more Subsidiaries of the Corporation. For the purposes of this Plan, the term â€œSubsidiaryâ€ shall mean a corporation or corporations of which the Corporation owns, directly or indirectly, a majority of the outstanding voting stock.2.Â Â Â Â ADOPTION AND ADMINISTRATION OF THE PLAN. The Plan became effective as of January 1, 1982. The Plan shall be administered by the Executive Compensation and Human Resources Committee of the Board of Directors of the Corporation (the â€œCommitteeâ€). The Committee shall interpret, implement, and administer the Plan and, to the extent and the manner contemplated herein, it shall exercise the discretion granted to it as to the determination of who shall participate in the Plan, the terms and conditions under which key employees may participate or continue participating in the Plan, the size and terms of awards to each Participant (as defined below), and the time when such awards shall be granted to each Participant. Any action taken by the Committee with respect to the implementation, interpretation or administration of the Plan shall be final, conclusive and binding on the Corporation and each Participant.3.Â Â Â Â STOCK SUBJECT TO THE PLAN. The Committee may issue under this Plan not more than 0.60% in any one calendar year of the common stock of the Corporation outstanding at the beginning of such year. Such common stock is herein sometimes referred to either as â€œbook value sharesâ€ or as â€œmarket value shares.â€ The distribution of shares pursuant to this Plan may be made either from authorized and unissued shares or from Treasury shares, as determined by the Committee. All shares issued in accordance with the Plan shall be fully paid and non-assessable shares and free from preemptive rights.4.Â Â Â Â ELIGIBILITY. The Committee shall designate from time to time, those key employees who serve in management of the Corporation or any of its subsidiaries as the Chief Executive Officer may recommend, and the Committee deems appropriate. The key employees who shall be eligible to receive an award under the Plan shall be selected because of their management responsibility and the long-term impact their management has on the overall performance of the Corporation or because of their inclusion in one of the Corporationâ€™s sales and service incentive plans. The Committee shall make its selections of management participants from among the Chief Executive Officer and the candidates recommended by the Chief Executive Officer and shall determine their partnership percentage and salary level for purposes of the Plan. In making its decisions, the Committee shall consider, among other items, the position and responsibility of the Participant, the value of the future service to be performed, the compensation of the Participant, the actual earnings performance of the Corporation and the allocation proposed by the Chief Executive Officer. Management shall forthwith advise each employee selected to participate in an award by written notice. Each employee who shall be the subject of an award shall be designated as a â€œParticipant.â€ All awards under the Plan shall require a satisfactory performance evaluation.Page 1 of 115.Â Â Â Â ANNUAL AWARD. The Committee shall establish the amount of the annual award or awards to be granted to each Participant. These awards will be granted for attainment of annual, calendar year, goals. Any annual awards made to Participants under the Plan will be performance-based compensation to the maximum extent possible subject to the attainment of pre-established objective performance goals established by the Committee.(a)Â Â Â Â The Corporation may provide two annual awards up to a maximum amount as determined by the Committee: (i) an amount payable in cash and earned immediately, and (ii) an amount equal to a full or partial match of the cash award in book value or market value shares of common stock. At the end of the performance period the Committee shall determine (i) the amount of cash earned, which shall be paid in a lump sum after the end of the performance period and (ii) the type of shares (i.e. book value shares or market shares) and the number of shares. These shares of stock are fixed at a maximum amount and will be subject to a substantial risk of forfeiture over the succeeding five (5) years based on the achievement of future performance metrics and the employee remaining with the Corporation, as described in Section 8 as the â€œForfeiture Periodâ€. The total value of cash and stock as of the end of each performance period shall not exceed $1 million. The total annual awards paid in a single calendar year to a single Participant made in cash and in shares shall not exceed $3 million in the aggregate. The book value shares will be restricted as described in paragraph 8 and 9 below.(b)Â Â Â Â Each Participant under the Plan (except for Participants under separate sales and service incentive plans discussed in section (f) below) is assigned a â€œpartnership levelâ€ percentage as of the date of grant that is the starting point for determining his or her annual cash award. Partnership levels are stated as a percentage of the Participantâ€™s salary range midpoint or base salary as assigned by the Committee as of the date of grant for purposes of computing the cash award. The â€œBase Bonusâ€ for each Participant is equal to the Participantâ€™s assigned salary range midpoint or base salary multiplied by the assigned partnership share percentage.(c)Â Â Â Â If the Committee determines it appropriate at the date of grant of an award, the Base Bonus may be further adjusted up or down by the â€œCompany Performance Factor.â€ The Company Performance Factor is 2.5 times the percentage by which actual net income for the year exceeded (or missed) budgeted net income or such other net income target selected by the Committee at the beginning of the year with a maximum upward adjustment of 25%. As long as such adjustments do not result in the award failing to be qualified performance based compensation under Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code, the Committee is authorized to make adjustments from reported net income in its discretion for purposes of determining the Company Performance Factor to account for extraordinary impacts positive or negative that were not in control of nor could be foreseen by the Participants or that were caused by actions undertaken for the long-term benefit of the shareholders and that are not considered â€œnormal operating activitiesâ€ and the sources of such adjustments may include one or more of the following not included in the budget or other net income target: (i) results of acquisition, divestiture or restructuring activities; (ii) investment securities gains or losses; (iii) tax planning activities; (iv) new regulatory costs; (v) tax law or regulatory changes; (vi) changes in generally accepted accounting principles or the Companyâ€™s interpretation or implementation of these; or (vii) significant national and/or international events significantly affecting the Companyâ€™s reported net income.Page 2 of 11(d)Â Â Â Â For each Participant, the Base Bonus opportunity after adjustment for the Company Performance Factor is multiplied by 300% for each goal to calculate the maximum award and then the maximum award may be adjusted down to a minimum of 0% for each goal based upon the Participantâ€™s performance against a set of corporate, group, division, unit and individual Participant performance goals established at the beginning of the fiscal year with such award levels generally being targeted at 150% for staff employees and 200% for those line managers with primary responsibility for revenues and/or credit.(e)Â Â Â Â After applying the Company Performance Factor in (c) above the Base Bonus opportunity will be adjusted for each Participant as described in (d) above based on one or more of the following criteria at the corporate, group, division, unit or individual Participant level: (i) net income; (ii) return on assets; (iii) exceed median return on assets results for selected peer group; (iv) return on common equity; (v) revenues, net interest margin, pricing, and/or fees; (vi) expense to revenue ratio and/or expenses; (vii) growth in average assets, loans or core deposits; (viii) average 30-day delinquency ratio; (ix) year-end nonperforming assets and/or monthly average nonperforming assets; (x) net charge offs and other credit-related losses to average loans, leases, repossessed assets and other real estate; (xi) net growth in primary relationships or other strategic growth metrics; (xii) deposit mix or noninterest-bearing deposit growth; (xiii) assets under management and/or investment performance; and (xii) other performance goals.(f)Â Â Â Â The Corporation may also provide the annual awards described in (a) above to Participants whose awards are calculated pursuant to other sales incentive programs, investment management programs, operational risk management programs, or other programs established by the Corporation and determined by the Committee.(g)Â Â Â Â The stock portion of the awards shall be made in whole book value shares or whole market value shares only. No fractional shares shall be awarded.(h)Â Â Â Â Except as otherwise determined by the Committee, if the Participantâ€™s employment ends prior to the payment of the cash portion of the annual award, the entire annual award shall be forfeited, void and of no further force and effect.6.Â Â Â Â LONG-TERM AWARD.(a)Â Â Â Â The Corporation may also provide for a long-term award from time to time for selected Participants as designated by the Committee. These awards will be granted for attainment of longer-term goals, usually for three (3) years or longer. Such awards will consist of two distinct parts: (i) an amount payable in cash and earned immediately; and (ii) an amount in market value shares of common stock. At the end of the performance period the Committee shall determine (i) the amount of cash earned, which shall be paid in a lump sum after the end of the performance period and (ii) the number of shares. These shares of stock are fixed at a maximum amount and will be subject to a substantial risk of forfeiture over the succeeding five (5) years based on the Participant remaining with the Corporation and the Corporation continuing to have positive net income calculated as of the end of each calendar year, as described in Section 8 as the Forfeiture Period. The total value of cash and stock as of the end of each performance period shall not exceed $1 million. Total long-term awards paid in a single calendar year to a single Participant made in cash and in shares shall not exceed $3 million in the aggregate.Page 3 of 11(b)Â Â Â Â The Committee assigns a set of weighted long-term goals at the start of each long-term award period. For each goal Company performance is scored at 50% for minimum, 100% for target and 200% for maximum.(c)Â Â Â Â The Committee also assigns each Participant a â€œpartnership levelâ€ for long-term award purposes as of the date of grant.(d)Â Â Â Â The long-term awards then are calculated based upon a pre-determined mathematical formula that multiplies the Companyâ€™s weighted performance relative to its long-term goals by the Participantâ€™s partnership level and then by the Participantâ€™s average annual incentive award under the Plan over the long-term award period.(e)Â Â Â Â Long-term cash awards made to Participants under the Plan will be performance-based compensation subject to the attainment of pre-established objective performance goals, based on one or more of the following criteria: (i) return on assets; (ii) expense to revenue ratio; (iii) net interest margin; (iv) net charge offs and other credit-related losses to average loans, leases, repossessed assets and other real estate; (v) average and/or period-end nonperforming assets; (vi) sales volume and/or pricing; (vii) fee income; (viii) average and/or period-end loans, deposits, or other volumes outstanding; and (ix) net new primary relationships.(f)Â Â Â Â The stock portion of the awards shall be made in whole market value shares only. No fractional shares shall be awarded.(g)Â Â Â Â Except as otherwise determined by the Committee, if the Participantâ€™s employment ends prior to the payment of the cash portion of the long-term award, the entire long-term award shall be forfeited, void and of no further force and effect.7.Â Â Â Â ACTION REQUIRED OF PARTICIPANTS.(a)Â Â Â Â Within 30 days from the date of such written notice of a Participantâ€™s initial award under the Plan, the Participant shall notify the Committee, in writing, of acceptance of the award and the terms thereof, applicable to the initial award and to all subsequent awards accepted under the Plan, which notice shall be deemed delivered for all purposes under this Plan when personally delivered or mailed to Chief Financial Officer, 1st Source Corporation, P.O. Box 1602, South Bend, Indiana 46634 by postpaid certified United States mail. In addition, commencing with awards made in 2017 for 2016 performance, each new or existing Participant who has not already signed and delivered to the Corporation the Corporationâ€™s standard form of Confidentiality and Non-Solicitation Agreement shall, before receipt of any initial or further awards under the Plan, be required to do so as a condition for continued participation and receipt of awards under the Plan.(b)Â Â Â Â The Corporation may require that, in allocating shares, the Participant agree with, and represent to, the Corporation that Participant is acquiring such shares for the purpose of investment and with no present intention to transfer, sell or otherwise dispose of such shares except such transfer by a legal representative as shall be required by will or the laws of any jurisdiction in winding up the estate of any Participant. Such shares shall be transferable thereafter only if the proposed transfer shall be permissible pursuant to this Plan and if, in the opinion of counsel (who shall be satisfactory to Corporation), such transfer shall at such time be in compliance with applicable securities law.Page 4 of 118.Â Â Â Â RESTRICTIONS. By accepting the award of shares under this Plan, Participant agrees and consents to the following additional restrictions:(a)Â Â Â Â All shares are subject to forfeiture and shall be retained by Corporation. A notice of the shares awarded to a Participant shall be delivered by the Corporation to a Participant on or after the date of issuance. Such Participant thereupon shall be a shareholder with respect to all of the shares represented by such certificate or certificates and shall have all rights of a shareholder with respect to all such shares, including the right to vote such shares and receive all dividends and other distributions, subject to termination upon the occurrence of an Act of Forfeiture as set forth in the Plan. The certificates for such shares shall be either imprinted or stamped with a legend to the effect that the shares represented thereby may not be sold, exchanged, transferred, pledged, hypothecated (except to issuer), assigned, conveyed, or otherwise voluntarily or involuntarily disposed of except in accordance with this Plan (any such disposition being automatically an Act of Forfeiture) by the holder thereof until such time as the restrictions provided for herein lapse.(b)Â Â Â Â If new or additional or different shares or securities are distributed with respect to shares of common stock of the Corporation as the result of a stock split, stock dividend, combination of shares or other change involving 1st Source securities, or exchange for other securities, or reclassification, reorganization, merger, consolidation, recapitalization or otherwise, the Participant shall, as the owner of book value or market value shares subject to terms and restrictions hereunder, be entitled to such new or additional or different shares of stock or securities subject to such terms, conditions and restrictions as existed on the originally awarded shares.(1)Â Â Â Â In the case of such a stock split, stock dividend, combination or other change involving 1st Source securities, exchange for other 1st Source securities, reclassification, recapitalization, or other like event involving the distribution of 1st Source securities, the certificate or certificates for, or other evidences of, such new or additional or different book value or market value shares or securities shall be appropriately imprinted with the legend provided in paragraph 8(a) of this Plan and all provisions of this Plan relating to restrictions to such new or additional or different book value or market value shares or securities to the extent applicable to the shares with respect to which they were distributed; provided, further, that if the Participant shall receive rights, warrants or fractional interests in respect of any of such shares, such rights or warrants and such fractional interests shall be received by the Participant subject to all of the remaining restrictions herein set forth. All such additional book value or market value shares, rights or other securities shall be retained in safekeeping by the Corporation for the account of the Participant.Page 5 of 11(2)Â Â Â Â In the case of such an exchange for securities of an issuer other than 1st Source, or such a reorganization, merger, consolidation, or other like event involving the distribution of securities of an issuer other than 1st Source, which will result in a change of control of 1st Source, (i) all awarded book value shares shall be converted to market value shares, (ii) all awarded shares subject to forfeiture under this Plan shall no longer be subject to forfeiture, and (iii) all restrictions on shares of stock theretofore awarded hereunder shall terminate (including the restrictions at paragraphs 7, 8 and 9 hereof and except for those imposed by applicable securities laws). The foregoing sentence shall be effective immediately prior to such distribution or exchange. The Committee shall have full and sole discretion to determine whether a change in control of 1st Source will occur for these purposes, but in the absence of a contrary finding by the Committee, the acquisition by any person or group of persons, other than 1st Source, of beneficial ownership of 50.01% or more of the then outstanding shares (as determined pursuant to Treasury Reg. Â§ 1.409A-3(i)(5)(vi)) of 1st Source common stock shall be deemed to be a change of control.(c)Â Â Â Â The term â€œRestricted Periodâ€ with respect to any book value shares awarded to a Participant under this Plan shall mean that period commencing with the date of issuance of such shares and ending on the date at which all such shares have been purchased from Participant by Corporation or exchanged by the Participant for market value shares as provided herein.(d)Â Â Â Â The term â€œForfeiture Periodâ€ with respect to any award of shares issued to a Participant under this Plan shall mean a period commencing on the date of grant of such shares to the Participant and ending over a five (5) year period thereafter. The Forfeiture Period shall terminate at an equal and proportionate rate for each year in which:(1)Â Â Â Â the Participant served continuously as an employee, for the full year, however continuous employment shall not be required if it ended because the Participant died, became totally disabled or retired at his/her normal retirement age or thereafter while an employee, and during which,(2)Â Â Â Â for annual award shares only (whether book value or market value shares), the Corporation achieved the requisite annual net income, ROA, ROE or other performance goal or goals established in advance by the Committee in connection with the applicable award; and(3)Â Â Â Â for long term award shares only, the Corporation achieved positive net income at the end of the calendar year during the Forfeiture Period.(e)Â Â Â Â The â€œnormal retirement ageâ€ means age 65 unless changed by the Committee. Alternatively, a Participant who is age 60 or older will be treated as attaining normal retirement age if they have completed either: (i) 15 years of participation in the Plan or (ii) 20 years of service with the Corporation, and, in either case, have provided notice of their upcoming retirement at least 150 days beforehand so the Corporation can plan in advance for succession and transition of clients in the most effective way.Page 6 of 11 (f)Â Â Â Â However, the Committee may also authorize a â€œnormalâ€ retirement at an earlier age for a Participant if it determines that such action is in the best interests of the Corporation and is otherwise warranted based upon extreme hardship or other special or extraordinary circumstances and such circumstances be limited to career ending events where the Participant is unable to work effectively or properly carry out his or her assigned duties, or other extremely unlikely occurrences which prevents the Participant from continuing to serve. This decision is at the sole discretion of the Committee and is to be extremely limited.(g)Â Â Â Â With respect to annual award shares only, for any year in which the Corporationâ€™s performance is equal to or has exceeded the requisite cumulative goals established for the accumulated years subsequent to the date of the award, all risk of forfeiture is removed for those shares which were not released in that year or any prior year in which the Corporation failed to meet the required annual or cumulative goals.(h)Â Â Â Â The Committee generally may not change or adjust upward the number of shares determined as of the end of the applicable performance period, however, the Committee may reduce the number of shares, down to zero, in such circumstances as are set forth herein or otherwise determined by the Committee in its discretion. In addition, there may be circumstances in which the annual net income growth, EPS growth, ROA, ROE or other performance goal or goals established by the Committee for annual award shares become unattainable or otherwise unreasonable during the Forfeiture Period. In such situations, and upon an explicit determination that (i) unfavorable market conditions or external events have demonstrably rendered such performance goals unattainable, unreasonable or adverse, and (ii) the Corporationâ€™s relative financial performance under the current conditions or since such event remains in the top quartile of the Corporationâ€™s peers with regard to ROA, nonperforming assets, net charge-offs, or other performance indicators, the Committee may take such other action as the Committee deems appropriate with respect to an award as long as such action does not increase the award. Such other action includes, without limitation, extending the forfeiture period or adjusting the performance goals for the forfeiture period to fairly compensate the Participants for their performance during the calendar years for which such annual awards were made. Relative performance in the top quartile of peers in the face of unfavorable market conditions or external events is an indicator that financial performance goals were achieved in prior years without sacrificing the management of the risks of unfavorable market conditions or external events. The Committeeâ€™s authorization to make adjustments under these circumstances is intended to recognize and encourage continuing good stewardship of the Corporation as reflected by high quality financial performance and strong risk management for the long-term benefit of its shareholders.(i)Â Â Â Â For all purposes of this Plan, an Act of Forfeiture shall be deemed to be any one of the following:(1)Â Â Â Â The voluntary or involuntary termination of the employment of a Participant during the Forfeiture Period, other than by death, disability or normal retirement, orPage 7 of 11(2)Â Â Â Â The employment or engagement part or full time or in any consulting or advisory capacity of a Participant by a competitor of the Corporation or any Subsidiary at any time after termination of Participantâ€™s employment due to disability or normal retirement unless, upon written request from the Participant, the Committee determines in its sole discretion that such engagement does not increase strategic or other risks to the Corporation or any Subsidiary, or(3)Â Â Â Â The attempted sale, exchange, transfer, pledge, hypothecation, assignment, conveyance or other voluntary or involuntary disposition of any of the unearned stock all of which is hereby expressly prohibited by this Plan, or(4)Â Â Â Â The election by the Participant to be taxed in the year of receipt of an award of stock under Section 83(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 as amended, or(5)Â Â Â Â Termination of the five (5) year Forfeiture Period for annual award shares if the Corporation fails to achieve the requisite annual net income, ROA, ROE or other performance goal or goals established in advance by the Committee in connection with the applicable award with respect to any portion of the unearned stock, if the Committee does not determine otherwise as discussed in subparagraph 8(g) above, or(6)Â Â Â Â Termination of the five (5) year Forfeiture Period for long term award shares only if the Corporation fails to achieve positive net income during each year.(j)Â Â Â Â Upon the occurrence of an Act of Forfeiture relating to a Participant, the right, title and interest of all remaining unearned stock of Corporation held by such Participant shall be automatically forfeited and terminated for all purposes.(k)Â Â Â Â The right, title and interest of any transferee of any shares acquired from a Participant under this Plan by will or by laws of descent and distribution will and shall be subject to all of the terms and conditions of the Plan, including but without limitation, the restrictions on transfer and the provisions relating to forfeiture.(l)Â Â Â Â The book value shares may only be sold to the Corporation under the terms of this Plan except as provided in subparagraphs 8(b)(2) and 8(b)(3) above. 1st Source may, in addition to any other purchases required by this Plan, upon request of a Participant, purchase earned book value stock from the Participant prior to death, disability, retirement, or other termination of employment. Any such purchase is limited to 50% of the Participantâ€™s shares of earned book value stock which, at the time of purchase, have been earned book value stock for at least seven years. Such a purchase is permitted only upon approval of the Committee and only for the following reasons: (1) purchase of the Participantâ€™s principal residence or a second home, (2) payment of tuition or related educational expenses for the Participant, the Participantâ€™s spouse, or a dependent and (3) financial hardship. The Committee will have sole discretion to determine whether the enumerated criteria are being satisfied in any purchase. Any transfer or purported transfer made by a Participant at any time, except at the times and in the manner expressly authorized, shall be null and void and the Corporation shall not be obligated to recognize nor to give effect to such transfer on its books or records nor to recognize the person or persons to whom such purported transfer has been made as the legal beneficial holder of such shares.Page 8 of 11(m)Â Â Â Â The Committee may impose such other restrictions on any shares awarded to a Participant pursuant to this Plan as it may deem advisable, including without limitation, restrictions under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, under the requirements of any stock exchange upon which such shares or shares of the same class are then listed, and under any blue-sky or securities laws applicable to such shares.9.Â Â Â Â MANDATORY RESALE OF BOOK VALUE STOCK.(a)Â Â Â Â If the Participant is employed at the time of his death, total disability, or normal retirement, Participant or his/her personal representative must sell his/her earned book value stock back to the Corporation.(1)Â Â Â Â Twenty percent (20%) of the purchase price will be paid each year thereafter, beginning on the first anniversary of the date of such death, total disability, or retirement.(2)Â Â Â Â The purchase price for any year shall be the book value at the close of the most recent year ended prior to the date of such death, total disability or retirement.(3)Â Â Â Â The amount of the purchase price shall bear interest at the percentage determined by 1st Source Corporationâ€™s(i)Â Â Â Â Dividends for the most recently completed calendar year divided by(ii)Â Â Â Â The ending market value for the most recently completed calendar year, (iii)Â Â Â Â adjusted annually on the anniversary date of the note documenting the sale agreement.(4)Â Â Â Â At the date of such retirement or total disability, Participant may elect to delay the sale of all book value stock for a period of up to five (5) years from the date of retirement or total disability under the sale terms above. The purchase price for any delayed sale shall be the book value at the close of the most recent year ended prior to the end of the delayed period.(5)Â Â Â Â The Corporation may elect to pay the purchase price through an exchange of all book value stock for market value stock of equal value. Such election must be made for all book value shares earned at time of such retirement or disability in accordance with the requirements established by the Committee. The Corporation may take into account the request of the Participant to be paid in either cash or market value stock.(6)Â Â Â Â As any unearned book value stock at date of such retirement is earned thereafter, it shall be sold to, or exchanged with, the Corporation consistent with the Corporationâ€™s election in the immediately preceding subparagraph, and otherwise subject to the terms above.Page 9 of 11(b)Â Â Â Â Upon termination of employment by voluntary act of Participant or by act of Corporation, except death or disability or normal retirement, all of such Participantâ€™s earned book value stock must be sold to Corporation.(1)Â Â Â Â The price to be paid by Corporation shall be the lower of (a) book value at the close of the most recent year ended prior to the date of departure, or (b) book value at the close of the year of departure. Book value shall be determined by the Committee as described in paragraph 10 below.(2)Â Â Â Â Installments of ten percent (10%) of the purchase price of the shares shall be paid to the Participant each year, without interest.(c)Â Â Â Â If the Committee in its sole discretion determines in any case that lump sum payment instead of installment payment as required by paragraph 9(a) or (b) would be desirable (whether for financial reasons, administrative ease, or otherwise) due to the size of the required installment payments, the Committee may order without consent of the Participant such lump sum payment be made in lieu of payment in installments. Such a lump sum payment shall be in an amount equal to the present value of the installment payments which would have otherwise been paid discounted at the current long-term â€œapplicable federal rate.â€10.Â Â Â Â MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.(a)Â Â Â Â Expense. All expenses and costs in connection with the administration of the Plan shall be borne by the Corporation.(b)Â Â Â Â No Prior Rights of Offer. Nothing in the Plan shall be deemed to give any officer or employee of the Corporation or his or its legal representatives or assigns or any other person or entity claiming under or through any Participant any contractual or other right to participate in the benefits of the Plan.(c)Â Â Â Â Indemnification of the Committee. In addition to such other rights or indemnification as they may have, the members of the Committee shall be indemnified by the Corporation against all costs and expenses reasonably incurred by them or any of them in connection with any action, suit or proceeding to which they or any of them may be a party by reason of any action taken or failure to act under or in connection with the Plan or any award granted thereof and against all amounts paid by them in settlement thereof (provided such settlement is approved by legal counsel selected by the Corporation) or paid by them in satisfaction of a judgment in any such action, suit or proceedings, the person desiring indemnification shall give the Corporation an opportunity, at its own expense, to handle and defend the same.(d)Â Â Â Â Liability of Corporation. The liability of the Corporation under this Plan or any award of shares made hereunder is limited to the obligation set forth with respect to such award, and nothing herein contained shall be construed to impose any liability on the Corporation in favor of any Participant with respect to any loss, cost or expense which a Participant may incur in connection with or arising out of any transaction in connection therewith.Page 10 of 11(e)Â Â Â Â No Agreement to Employ. Nothing in the Plan shall be construed to constitute or be evidence of an agreement or understanding expressed or implied on the part of the Corporation or any Subsidiary to employ or retain any Participant to whom any shares have been awarded for any specified period of time or times.(f)Â Â Â Â Book value. Book value under this Plan shall be determined in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, as published in the Corporationâ€™s Annual Report.(g)Â Â Â Â Market value. Market value under this Plan shall mean the closing price of a share of common stock, as reported by NASDAQ, or by any other exchange upon which the shares may be traded, for the day on which the value is to be determined or if that day is not a stock trading day, then on the last preceding trading day. (h)Â Â Â Â Overstated Financial Results or Other Metrics, Fraud, Malfeasance or Purposeful Misstatement. In addition to any terms as the Committee may determine, all awards under the Plan are subject to the Corporationâ€™s Clawback Policy which provides for potential forfeiture and/or recovery by the Corporation of (i) excess awards received by any Participant upon a determination that the awards were based upon financial results or other metrics that were misstated or otherwise inaccurate, either for business units of the Corporation or the Corporation as a whole, and (ii) all such awards received by any Participant upon a determination that the Participant had responsibilities for the accounting that led to the misstatement or inaccuracy, or committed fraud or other malfeasance while employed by the Corporation.(i)Â Â Â Â Requirements of Internal Revenue Section Code 162(m). Notwithstanding any other provision of the Plan, the Committee may impose such conditions on any award as may be required to satisfy the requirements of Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code (or any successor or similar rule relating thereto) to the extent desired by the Committee and whether awards are qualified performance based compensation under Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be at the sole discretion of the Committee.(j)Â Â Â Â Tax Withholding. The Corporation will have the right to withhold from the payment of any Award the amount of any federal, state or local taxes which the Corporation is required to withhold.11.Â Â Â Â AMENDMENT AND TERMINATION OF THE PLAN. The Board of Directors, acting through the Committee, may amend, suspend or terminate the Plan, any portion thereof at any time, consistent with applicable law, regulation and listing rules, but it may not adversely affect the rights of any participant with respect to an award already earned. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any material amendments (as defined under the NASDAQ Listing Rules) of the EIP Plan will require shareholder approval.12.Â Â Â Â POWERS OF EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION AND HUMAN RESOURCES COMMITTEE. The Committee shall have the authority to make all interpretations of this plan in its sole discretion. It shall make all administrative rules and other determinations and shall rule upon all questions and requests with respect to the Plan.Page 11 of 11 EX-31.1 3 ex311093024.htm EX-31.1 DocumentExhibit 31.1CERTIFICATIONI, Christopher J. In order to issue trust preferred securities, a sponsor forms a trust by investing a nominal amount of cash to purchase all of the voting common stock of the trust. The trust issues nonvoting, mandatorily redeemable preferred securities to outside investors in exchange for cash. The proceeds received from the issuance of the preferred securities, together with the cash received for issuing the common stock to the sponsor, is then loaned to the sponsor in exchange for a note which has the same terms as the trust preferred securities. Trust preferred securities possesses characteristics of both equity and debt issues and are generally issued by bank holding companies. + ReferencesReference 1: http://www.xbrl.org/2009/role/commonPracticeRef -Topic 942 -SubTopic 220 -Name Accounting Standards Codification -Section S99 -Paragraph 1 -Subparagraph (SX 210.9-04(9)) -Publisher FASB -URI https://asc.fasb.org/1943274/2147478524/942-220-S99-1 + Details Name: us-gaap_InterestExpenseTrustPreferredSecurities Namespace Prefix: us-gaap_ Data Type: xbrli:monetaryItemType Balance Type: debit Period Type: duration X - DefinitionAmount of interest income or expense, including any amortization and accretion (as applicable) of discounts and premiums, including consideration of the provisions for loan, lease, credit, and other related losses. + ReferencesReference 1: http://fasb.org/us-gaap/role/ref/legacyRef -Topic 942 -SubTopic 220 -Name Accounting Standards Codification -Section S99 -Paragraph 1 -Subparagraph (SX 210.9-04(12)) -Publisher FASB -URI https://asc.fasb.org/1943274/2147478524/942-220-S99-1 + Details Name: us-gaap_InterestIncomeExpenseAfterProvisionForLoanLoss Namespace Prefix: us-gaap_ Data Type: xbrli:monetaryItemType Balance Type: credit Period Type: duration X - DefinitionAmount of interest income (expense) classified as operating. + ReferencesReference 1: http://www.xbrl.org/2009/role/commonPracticeRef -Topic 280 -SubTopic 10 -Name Accounting Standards Codification -Section 50 -Paragraph 22 -Publisher FASB -URI https://asc.fasb.org/1943274/2147482810/280-10-50-22Reference 2: http://www.xbrl.org/2003/role/disclosureRef -Topic 942 -SubTopic 220 -Name Accounting Standards Codification -Section S99 -Paragraph 1 -Subparagraph (SX 210.9-04(10)) -Publisher FASB -URI https://asc.fasb.org/1943274/2147478524/942-220-S99-1 + Details Name: us-gaap_InterestIncomeExpenseNet Namespace Prefix: us-gaap_ Data Type: xbrli:monetaryItemType Balance Type: credit Period Type: duration X - DefinitionAmount of operating interest income, including amortization and accretion of premiums and discounts, on securities exempt from state, federal and other income tax. + ReferencesReference 1: http://www.xbrl.org/2003/role/disclosureRef -Name Regulation S-K (SK) -Number 229 -Section 1402 -Paragraph a -Publisher SECReference 2: http://fasb.org/us-gaap/role/ref/legacyRef -Topic 942 -SubTopic 220 -Name Accounting Standards Codification -Section S99 -Paragraph 1 -Subparagraph (SX 210.9-04(2)) -Publisher FASB -URI https://asc.fasb.org/1943274/2147478524/942-220-S99-1Reference 3: http://www.xbrl.org/2003/role/disclosureRef -Name Regulation S-K (SK) -Number 229 -Section 1402 -Paragraph b -Subparagraph (1)(Instruction 4) -Publisher SEC + Details Name: us-gaap_InterestIncomeSecuritiesTaxExempt Namespace Prefix: us-gaap_ Data Type: xbrli:monetaryItemType Balance Type: credit Period Type: duration X - DefinitionAmount of operating interest income, including amortization and accretion of premiums and discounts, on securities subject to state, federal and other income tax. + ReferencesReference 1: http://www.xbrl.org/2003/role/disclosureRef -Name Regulation S-K (SK) -Number 229 -Section 1402 -Paragraph a -Publisher SECReference 2: http://fasb.org/us-gaap/role/ref/legacyRef -Topic 942 -SubTopic 220 -Name Accounting Standards Codification -Section S99 -Paragraph 1 -Subparagraph (SX 210.9-04(2)) -Publisher FASB -URI https://asc.fasb.org/1943274/2147478524/942-220-S99-1Reference 3: http://www.xbrl.org/2003/role/disclosureRef -Name Regulation S-K (SK) -Number 229 -Section 1402 -Paragraph b -Subparagraph (1)(Instruction 4) -Publisher SEC + Details Name: us-gaap_InterestIncomeSecuritiesTaxable Namespace Prefix: us-gaap_ Data Type: xbrli:monetaryItemType Balance Type: credit Period Type: duration X - DefinitionAmount of expense for salary, wage, profit sharing; credit Period Type: duration XML 19 R7.htm IDEA: XBRL DOCUMENT v3.24.3 Accounting Policies 9 Months Ended Sep. 30, 2024 Accounting Policies [Abstract] Â Accounting Policies Accounting Policies1st Source Corporation is a bank holding company headquartered in South Bend, Indiana that provides, through its subsidiaries (collectively referred to as â€œ1st Sourceâ€ or â€œthe Companyâ€), a broad array of financial products and services.Basis of Presentation â€“ The accompanying unaudited consolidated financial statements reflect all adjustments (all of which are normal and recurring in nature) which are, in the opinion of management, necessary for a fair presentation of the consolidated financial position, the results of operations, changes in comprehensive income (loss), changes in shareholdersâ€™ equity, and cash flows for the periods presented. These unaudited consolidated financial statements have been prepared according to the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and, therefore, certain information and footnote disclosures normally included in financial statements prepared in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP) have been omitted.The Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements appearing in 1st Source Corporationâ€™s Annual Report on FormÂ 10-K (2023 Annual Report), which include descriptions of significant accounting policies, should be read in conjunction with these interim financial statements. The Consolidated Statement of Financial Condition at DecemberÂ 31, 2023, has been derived from the audited financial statements at that date, but does not include all of the information and footnotes required by GAAP for complete financial statements. Certain amounts in the prior period consolidated financial statements have been reclassified to conform to the current period presentation.Use of Estimates in the Preparation of Financial Statements â€“ Financial statements prepared in accordance with GAAP require the Company to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of income and expense during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.Loans and Leases â€“ Loans are stated at the principal amount outstanding, net of unamortized deferred loan origination fees and costs and net of unearned income. Interest income is accrued as earned based on unpaid principal balances. Origination fees and direct loan and lease origination costs are deferred, and the net amount amortized to interest income over the estimated life of the related loan or lease. Loan commitment fees are deferred and amortized into other income over the commitment period.Direct financing leases are carried at the aggregate of lease payments plus estimated residual value of the leased property, net of unamortized deferred lease origination fees and costs and unearned income. Only those costs incurred as a direct result of closing a lease transaction are capitalized and all other initial direct costs are expensed immediately. Interest income on direct financing leases is recognized over the term of the lease to achieve a constant periodic rate of return on the outstanding investment.Accrued interest is included in Accrued Income and Other Assets on the Consolidated Statements of Financial Condition and is excluded from the calculation of the allowance for credit losses. The accrual of interest on loans and leases is discontinued when a loan or lease becomes contractually delinquent for 90 days, or when an individual analysis of a borrowerâ€™s credit worthiness indicates a credit should be placed on nonperforming status, except for residential mortgage loans and consumer loans that are well secured and in the process of collection. Residential mortgage loans are placed on nonaccrual at the time the loan is placed in foreclosure. When interest accruals are discontinued, interest credited to income in the current year is reversed and interest accrued in the prior year is charged to the allowance for loan and lease losses. However, in some cases, the Company may elect to continue the accrual of interest when the net realizable value of collateral is sufficient to cover the principal and accrued interest. When a loan or lease is classified as nonaccrual and the future collectability of the recorded loan or lease balance is doubtful, collections on interest and principal are applied as a reduction to principal outstanding. Loans are returned to accrual status when all principal and interest amounts contractually due are brought current and future payments are reasonably assured, which is typically evidenced by a sustained repayment performance of at least six months.Occasionally, the Company modifies loans and leases to borrowers in financial distress (typically denoted by internal credit quality graded â€œsubstandardâ€ or worse) by providing term extensions, other-than-insignificant payment delays, or interest rate reductions. In some cases, a combination of modifications are made to the same loan or lease. These modifications typically result from the Companyâ€™s loss mitigation activities. If the Company determines that the value of the modified loan is less than the recorded investment in the loan (net of previous charge-offs, deferred loan fees or costs and unamortized premium or discount), impairment is recognized through an allowance for loan and lease losses estimate or a charge-off to the allowance for loan and lease losses. The amendments also require that all entities disclose on an annual basis the following information about income taxes paid: (1) the amount of income taxes paid (net of refunds received) disaggregated by federal, state, and foreign taxes and (2) the amount of income taxes paid (net of refunds received) disaggregated by individual jurisdictions in which income taxes paid (net of refunds received) is equal to or greater than five percent of total income taxes paid (net of refunds received.) This guidance is effective for public business entities for annual periods beginning after December 15, 2024. Early adoption is permitted for annual financial statements that have not yet been issued or made available for issuance. The amendments should be applied on a prospective basis although retrospective application is permitted. The Company continues to assess ASU 2023-09 and its impact on its accounting and disclosures.Segment Reporting: In November 2023, the FASB issued ASU 2023-07 â€œSegment Reporting (Topic 280): Improvements to Reportable Segment Disclosures.â€ These amendments require, among other things, that a public entity that has a single reportable segment provide all the disclosures required by the amendments in this ASU and all existing segment disclosures in Topic 208. The ASU is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2023, and interim periods within fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2024. Early adoption is permitted. A public entity should apply the amendments retrospectively to all periods presented in the financial statements. The Company continues to assess ASU 2023-09 and its impact on its accounting and disclosures. The Company uses two methods to assess credit risk: loan or lease credit quality grades and credit risk classifications. The purpose of the loan or lease credit quality grade is to document the degree of risk associated with individual credits, as well as inform management of the degree of risk in the portfolio taken as a whole. Credit risk classifications are used to categorize loans by degree of risk and to designate individual or committee approval authorities for higher risk credits at the time of origination. Credit risk classifications include categories for: Acceptable, Marginal, Special Attention, Special Risk, Restricted by Policy, Regulated and Prohibited by Law.All loans and leases, except residential real estate loansâ€š home equity loans, and consumer loans, are assigned credit quality grades on a scale from 1 to 12, with grade 1 representing superior credit quality. The criteria used to assign grades to extensions of credit that exhibit potential problems or well-defined weaknesses are primarily based upon the degree of risk and the likelihood of orderly repayment, and their effect on the Companyâ€™s safety and soundness. Loans or leases graded 7 or weaker are considered â€œespecial attentionâ€ credits and, as such, relationships in excess of $250,000 are reviewed quarterly as part of managementâ€™s evaluation of the appropriateness of the allowance for loan and lease losses. Grade 7 credits are defined as â€œwatchâ€ and contain greater than average credit risk and are monitored to limit the exposure to increased risk; grade 8 credits are â€œespecial mentionâ€ and, following regulatory guidelines, are defined as having potential weaknesses that deserve managementâ€™s close attention. Credits that exhibit well-defined weaknesses and a distinct possibility of loss are considered â€œclassifiedâ€ and are graded 9 through 12 corresponding to the regulatory definitions of â€œsubstandardâ€ (grades 9 and 10) and the more severe â€œdoubtfulâ€ (grade 11) and â€œlossâ€ (grade 12). For residential real estate and home equity and consumer loans, credit quality is based on the aging status of the loan and by payment activity. Nonperforming loans are those loans which are on nonaccrual status or are 90 days or more past due.Below is a summary of the Companyâ€™s loan and lease portfolio segments and a discussion of the risk characteristics relevant to each portfolio segment.Commercial and agricultural â€” loans are to entities within the Companyâ€™s local market communities. Loans are for business or agri-business purposes and include working capital lines of credit secured by accounts receivable and inventory that are generally renewable annually and term loans secured by equipment with amortizations based on the expected life of the underlying collateral, generally three to seven years. These loans are typically further supported by personal guarantees. Commercial exposure is to a wide range of industries and services. Risks in this sector are also varied and are most impacted by general economic conditions. Risk mitigants include appropriate underwriting and monitoring and, when appropriate, government guarantees, including SBA and FSA.Renewable energy â€” loans are for the purpose of financing solar related projects and may include construction draw notes, operating loans, letters of credit and may entail a tax equity structure. Collateral in a multi-state area includes tangible assets of the borrower, assignment of intangible assets including power purchase agreements, and pledges of permits and licenses. Financing is provided to qualified borrowers throughout the continental United States with an emphasis on the region east of the Rocky Mountains.Auto and light truck â€” loans are secured by vehicles and borrowers are nationwide. The portfolio predominantly consists of loans to borrowers in the auto rental and commercial auto leasing industries. Borrowers in the auto rental segment are primarily independent auto rental entities with on-airport and off-airport locations, and some insurance replacement business. Loan amortizations are relatively short, generally eighteen months, but up to four years. Auto leasing customers lease to businesses and the Company takes assignment of the lease stream and places its lien on the vehicles. Terms are generally longer than the auto rental sector, three to seven years and match the underlying leases. Risks in both these segments include economic risks and collateral risks, principally used vehicle values.Medium and heavy duty truck â€” loans and full-service truck leases are secured by heavy-duty trucks, commonly Class 8 trucks, and are generally personally guaranteed. In addition to economic risks, collateral risk is significant. Financing is generally at full cost, plus additional expenditures to get the vehicle operational, such as taxes, insurance and fees. It takes three to four years of debt amortization to reach an equity position in the collateral.Aircraft â€” loans are to domestic and foreign borrowers with the domestic segment further divided into two pools: 1) personal and business use, and 2) dealers and operators. The Companyâ€™s focus for the foreign sector is Latin America, principally Mexico and Brazil. Loans are primarily secured by new and used business jets and helicopters, with appropriate advances, amortizations of ten to fifteen years, and are generally guaranteed by individuals. The most significant risk in the Aircraft portfolio is collateral risk - volatility in underlying values and maintenance concerns. The portfolio is subject to national and global economic risks.Construction equipment â€” loans are to borrowers throughout the country secured by specific equipment. The borrowers include highway and road builders, asphalt producers and pavers, suppliers of aggregate products, site developers, frac sand operations, general construction equipment dealers and operators, and crane rental entities. Generally, loans include personal guarantees. The construction equipment industry is heavily dependent on both the U.S. and global economy. Market growth is reliant on investments from public and private sectors into urbanization and infrastructure projects.Commercial real estate â€“ loans are generally to entities within the local market communities served by the Company with advances generally within regulatory guidelines. Historically, the Companyâ€™s exposure to commercial real estate has been primarily to the less risky owner-occupied segment. The non-owner-occupied segment accounts for less than half of the commercial real estate portfolio and includes hotels, apartment complexes and warehousing facilities. There is limited exposure to construction loans. Many commercial real estate loans carry personal guarantees. Additional risks in the commercial real estate portfolio stem from geographical concentration in northern Indiana and southwest Michigan and general economic conditions.Residential real estate and home equity â€“ loans predominantly include one-to-four family mortgages to borrowers in the Companyâ€™s local market communities and are appropriately underwritten and secured by residential real estate.Consumer â€“ loans are to individuals in the Companyâ€™s local markets and auto loans are generally secured by personal vehicles and appropriately underwritten.The following table shows the amortized cost of loans and leases, segregated by portfolio segment, credit quality rating and year of origination as of SeptemberÂ 30, 2024, and gross charge-offs for the nine months ended SeptemberÂ The determination of the allowance requires significant judgment to estimate credit losses measured on a collective pool basis when similar risk characteristics exist, and for loans evaluated individually. In determining the allowance, the Company estimates expected future losses for the loanâ€™s entire contractual term adjusted for expected payments when appropriate. The allowance estimate considers relevant available information, from internal and external sources, relating to the historical loss experience, current conditions, and reasonable and supportable forecasts for the Companyâ€™s outstanding loan and lease balances. The allowance is an estimation that reflects managementâ€™s evaluation of expected losses related to the Companyâ€™s financial assets measured at amortized cost. To ensure the allowance is maintained at an adequate level, a detailed analysis is performed on a quarterly basis and an appropriate provision is made to adjust the allowance.The Company categorizes its loan portfolios into nine segments based on similar risk characteristics. Loans within each segment are collectively evaluated using either: 1) a cohort cumulative loss rate methodology (â€œcohortâ€) or, 2) the probability of default (â€œPDâ€)/loss given default (â€œLGDâ€) methodology (PD/LGD).The following table shows the changes in the allowance for loan and lease losses, segregated by portfolio segment, for the three months ended SeptemberÂ 30, 2024 and 2023.(DollarsÂ inÂ thousands)CommercialÂ andagriculturalRenewable energyAuto andlightÂ truckMediumÂ andheavyÂ dutyÂ truckAircraftConstructionequipmentCommercialrealÂ estateResidentialrealÂ estateand homeequityConsumerTotalSeptember 30, 2024Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Balance, beginning of period$18,637Â $7,653Â $17,726Â $9,221Â $35,166Â $26,944Â $24,847Â $7,792Â $2,081Â $150,067Â Charge-offs2,004Â â€“Â 302Â â€“Â â€“Â â€“Â â€“Â 323Â 2,629Â Recoveries217Â â€“Â 719Â â€“Â 214Â 28Â 538Â 2Â 60Â 1,778Â Net charge-offs (recoveries)1,787Â â€“Â (417)â€“Â (214)(28)(538)(2)263Â 851Â Provision (recovery of provision)2,812Â 304Â (188)(559)332Â 1,051Â (1,118)43Â 431Â 3,108Â Balance, end of period$19,662Â $7,957Â $17,955Â $8,662Â $35,712Â $28,023Â $24,267Â $7,837Â $2,249Â $152,324Â September 30, 2023Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Balance, beginning of period$16,637Â $6,308Â $17,173Â $7,556Â $40,571Â $26,105Â $20,356Â $6,767Â $2,069Â $143,542Â Charge-offs2,261Â â€“Â 189Â â€“Â â€“Â â€“Â â€“Â 45Â 283Â 2,778Â Recoveries20Â â€“Â 1,825Â â€“Â 243Â 284Â â€“Â 1Â 78Â 2,451Â Net charge-offs (recoveries)2,241Â â€“Â (1,636)â€“Â (243)(284)â€“Â 44Â 205Â 327Â Provision (recovery of provision)573Â (203)(2,471)155Â (354)506Â 2,288Â 168Â 197Â 859Â Balance, end of period$14,969Â $6,105Â $16,338Â $7,711Â $40,460Â $26,895Â $22,644Â $6,891Â $2,061Â $144,074Â The following table shows the changes in the allowance for loan and lease losses, segregated by portfolio segment, for the nine months ended SeptemberÂ 30, 2024 and 2023.(DollarsÂ inÂ thousands)CommercialÂ andagriculturalRenewable energyAuto

See Note 8 for further information.The Company has certain interest rate derivative positions that are not designated as hedging instruments. Derivative assets and liabilities are recorded at fair value on the Consolidated Statements of Financial Condition and do not take into account the effects of master netting agreements. Master netting agreements allow the Company to settle all derivative contracts held with a single counterparty on a net basis, and to offset net derivative positions with related collateral, where applicable. These derivative positions relate to transactions in which the Company enters into an interest rate swap with a client while at the same time entering into an offsetting interest rate swap with another financial institution. In connection with each transaction, the Company agrees to pay interest to the client on a notional amount at a variable interest rate and receive interest from the client on the same notional amount at a fixed interest rate. At the same time, the Company agrees to pay another financial institution the same fixed interest rate on the same notional amount and receive the same variable interest rate on the same notional amount. The transaction allows the client to effectively convert a variable rate loan to a fixed rate. Because the terms of the swaps with the customers and the other financial institutions offset each other, with the only difference being counterparty credit risk, changes in the fair value of the underlying derivative contracts are not materially different and do not significantly impact the Companyâ€™s results of operations.The following table shows the amounts of non-hedging derivative financial instruments.Â Â AssetÂ derivativesLiabilityÂ derivatives(DollarsÂ inÂ thousands)Notional or contractual amountStatement of Financial Condition classificationFair valueStatement of Financial Condition classificationFair valueSeptember 30, 2024Â Â Â Â Â Â Interest rate swap contracts$1,081,092Â Other assets$20,064Â Other liabilities$20,433Â Loan commitments5,817Â Mortgages held for sale201Â N/Aâ€”Â Forward contracts - mortgage loan7,500Â N/Aâ€”Â Mortgages held for sale9Â Total$1,094,409Â Â $20,265Â Â $20,442Â December 31, 2023Â Â Â Â Â Â Interest rate swap contracts$1,085,618Â Other assets$22,704Â Other liabilities$23,140Â Loan commitments2,824Â Mortgages held for sale107Â N/Aâ€”Â Forward contracts - mortgage loan3,500Â N/Aâ€”Â Mortgages held for sale16Â Total$1,091,942Â Â $22,811Â Â $23,156Â The following table shows the amounts included in the Consolidated Statements of Income for non-hedging derivative financial instruments.Â Â GainÂ (loss)Â Three Months EndedSeptember 30,Nine Months EndedSeptember 30,(DollarsÂ inÂ thousands)Statement of IncomeÂ classification2024202320242023Interest rate swap contractsOther expense$26Â (42)68Â $(41)Interest rate swap contractsOther income190Â 475Â 743Â 766Â Loan commitmentsMortgage banking(84)(14)94Â 76Â Forward contracts - mortgage loanMortgage banking(30)8Â 7Â 12Â TotalÂ $102Â $427Â $912Â $813Â The following table shows the offsetting of financial assets and derivative assets.GrossÂ AmountsÂ NotÂ OffsetÂ inÂ the StatementÂ ofÂ FinancialÂ Condition(DollarsÂ inÂ thousands)Gross Amounts of Recognized AssetsGross Amounts Offset in the Statement of FinancialÂ ConditionNet Amounts of Assets Presented in the Statement of FinancialÂ ConditionFinancial InstrumentsCash Collateral ReceivedNetÂ AmountSeptember 30, 2024Â Â Â Â Â Â Interest rate swaps$20,064Â $â€”Â $20,064Â $â€”Â $â€”Â $20,064Â December 31, 2023Â Â Â Â Â Â Interest rate swaps$22,704Â $â€”Â $22,704Â $â€”Â $10,795Â $11,909Â The following table shows the offsetting of financial liabilities and derivative liabilities.GrossÂ AmountsÂ NotÂ OffsetÂ inÂ the StatementÂ ofÂ FinancialÂ Condition(DollarsÂ inÂ thousands)Gross Amounts of Recognized LiabilitiesGross Amounts Offset in the Statement of FinancialÂ ConditionNet Amounts of Liabilities Presented in the Statement of FinancialÂ ConditionFinancial InstrumentsCash Collateral PledgedNetÂ AmountSeptember 30, 2024Â Â Â Â Â Â Interest rate swaps$20,433Â $â€”Â $20,433Â $â€”Â $525Â $19,908Â Repurchase agreements63,553Â â€”Â 63,553Â 63,553Â â€”Â â€”Â Total$83,986Â $â€”Â $83,986Â $63,553Â $525Â $19,908Â December 31, 2023Â Â Â Â Â Â Interest rate swaps$23,140Â $â€”Â $23,140Â $â€”Â $â€”Â $23,140Â Repurchase agreements55,809Â â€”Â 55,809Â 55,809Â â€”Â â€”Â Total$78,949Â $â€”Â $78,949Â $55,809Â $â€”Â $23,140Â If a default in performance of any obligation of a repurchase agreement occurs, each party will set-off property held in respect of transactions against obligations owing in respect of any other transactions. The Companyâ€™s investments in VIEs are primarily related to investments promoting affordable housing, community development and renewable energy sources. Some of these tax-advantaged investments support the Companyâ€™s regulatory compliance with the Community Reinvestment Act. The Companyâ€™s investments in these entities generate a return primarily through the realization of federal and state income tax credits and other tax benefits, such as tax deductions from operating losses of the investments, over specified time periods. These tax credits are recognized as a reduction of tax expense or, for investments qualifying as investment tax credits, as a reduction to the related investment asset. The Company recognized federal and state income tax credits related to its affordable housing and community development tax-advantaged investments in tax expense of $0.80 million and $0.66 million for the three months ended September 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively, and $2.39 million and $1.99 million for the nine months ended SeptemberÂ 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively. The Company also recognized $1.34 million and $0.57 million of investment tax credits for the three months ended September 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively, and $12.13 million and $25.02 million for the nine months ended SeptemberÂ 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively.The Company is not required to consolidate VIEs in which it has concluded it does not have a controlling financial interest, and thus is not the primary beneficiary. In such cases, the Company does not have both the power to direct the entitiesâ€™ most significant activities and the obligation to absorb losses or the right to receive benefits that could potentially be significant to the VIEs. As a limited partner in these operating partnerships, the Company is allocated credits and deductions associated with the underlying properties. The Company has determined that it is not the primary beneficiary of these investments because the general partners have the power to direct activities that most significantly influence the economic performance of their respective partnerships.The Companyâ€™s investments in these unconsolidated VIEs are carried in Other Assets on the Consolidated Statements of Financial Condition. The Companyâ€™s unfunded capital and other commitments related to these unconsolidated VIEs are generally carried in Other Liabilities on the Consolidated Statements of Financial Condition. The Companyâ€™s maximum exposure to loss from these unconsolidated VIEs includes the investment recorded on the Consolidated Statements of Financial Condition, net of unfunded capital commitments, and previously recorded tax credits which remain subject to recapture by taxing authorities based on compliance features required to be met at the project level. While the Company believes potential losses from these investments are remote, the maximum exposure was determined by assuming a scenario where the community-based business projects, housing projects, and renewable energy projects completely fail and do not meet certain taxing authority compliance requirements, resulting in recapture of the related tax credits.The following table provides a summary of investments in affordable housing, community development, and renewable energy VIEs that the Company has not consolidated.(DollarsÂ inÂ thousands)September 30, 2024December 31, 2023Investment carrying amount$70,889Â $79,228Â Unfunded capital and other commitments62,260Â 80,719Â Maximum exposure to loss71,686Â 59,649Â The Company is required to consolidate VIEs in which it has concluded it has significant involvement and the ability to direct the activities that impact the entityâ€™s economic performance. The Company is the managing general partner of entities in which it shares interest in tax-advantaged investments with a third party. At SeptemberÂ 30, 2024, and DecemberÂ 31, 2023, approximately $78.77 million and $87.37 million, respectively, of the Companyâ€™s assets and $0.00 million and $0.00 million, respectively, of its liabilities included on the Consolidated Statements of Financial Condition were related to tax-advantaged investment VIEs which the Company has consolidated. The assets of the consolidated VIEs are reported in Other Assets, the liabilities are reported in Other Liabilities, and the non-controlling interest is reported in Equity on the Consolidated Statements of Financial Condition. The assets of a particular VIE are the primary source of funds to settle its obligations. The creditors of the VIE do not have recourse to the general credit of the Company. The Companyâ€™s exposure to the consolidated VIE is generally limited to the carrying value of its variable interest plus any related tax credits previously recognized.Additionally, the Company sponsors one trust, 1st Source Master Trust (Capital Trust), of which 100% of the common equity is owned by the Company. The Capital Trust was formed in 2007 for the purpose of issuing corporation-obligated mandatorily redeemable capital securities (the capital securities) to third-party investors and investing the proceeds from the sale of the capital securities solely in junior subordinated debenture securities of the Company (the subordinated notes). The subordinated notes held by the Capital Trust are the sole assets of the Capital Trust. The Capital Trust qualifies as a variable interest entity for which the Company is not the primary beneficiary and is therefore reported in the financial statements as an unconsolidated subsidiary. The junior subordinated debentures are reflected as subordinated notes on the Consolidated Statements of Financial Condition with the corresponding interest distributions reflected as Interest Expense on the Consolidated Statements of Income. The common shares issued by the Capital Trust are included in Other Assets on the Consolidated Statements of Financial Condition.Distributions on the capital securities issued by the Capital Trust are payable quarterly at a rate per annum equal to the interest rate being earned by the Capital Trust on the subordinated notes held by the Capital Trust. The capital securities are subject to mandatory redemption, in whole or in part, upon repayment of the subordinated notes. The Company has entered into agreements which, taken collectively, fully and unconditionally guarantee the capital securities subject to the terms of each of the guarantees. The capital securities held by the Capital Trust qualify as Tier 1 capital under Federal Reserve Board guidelines.The following table shows subordinated notes at SeptemberÂ 30, 2024.(DollarsÂ inÂ thousands)Amount of Subordinated NotesInterest RateMaturity DateJuneÂ 2007 issuance (1)$41,238Â 7.22Â %6/15/2037AugustÂ 2007 issuance (2)17,526Â 6.69Â %9/15/2037Total$58,764Â Â Â (1) Fixed rate through life of debt.(2) 3-Month Term SOFR + the 3-Month tenor spread adjustment + 1.48% through remaining life of debt. Basic earnings per common share is computed by dividing net income available to common shareholders by the weighted-average number of common shares outstanding during the applicable period, excluding outstanding participating securities. Participating securities include non-vested restricted stock awards. Non-vested restricted stock awards are considered participating securities to the extent the holders of these securities receive non-forfeitable dividends at the same rate as holders of common stock. Diluted earnings per common share is computed using the weighted-average number of shares determined for the basic earnings per common share computation plus the dilutive effect of stock compensation using the treasury stock method.Stock options, where the exercise price was greater than the average market price of the common shares, were excluded from the computation of diluted earnings per common share because the result would have been antidilutive. These plans include three executive stock award plans, the Executive Incentive Plan (EIP), the Restricted Stock Award Plan (RSAP), the Strategic Deployment Incentive Plan (SDP); and the Employee Stock Purchase Plan (ESPP). The 2011 Stock Option Plan was approved by the shareholders on AprilÂ 21, 2011, but the Company had not made any grants through

SeptemberÂ 30, 2024.Stock-based compensation expense for all stock-based compensation awards granted is based on the grant-date fair value. For all awards except stock option awards, the grant date fair value is either the fair market value per share or book value per share (corresponding to the type of stock awarded) as of the grant date. For stock option awards, the grant date fair value is estimated using the Black-Scholes option pricing model. For all awards, the Company recognizes these compensation costs on a straight-line basis over the requisite service period of the award, for which the Company uses the related vesting term. Total fair value of options vested and expensed was zero for the nine months ended SeptemberÂ 30, 2024 and 2023. As of SeptemberÂ 30, 2024 and 2023 there were no outstanding stock options. There were no stock options exercised during the nine months ended SeptemberÂ 30, 2024 and 2023. All shares issued in connection with stock option exercises are issued from available treasury stock.As of SeptemberÂ 30, 2024, there was $11.34 million of total unrecognized compensation cost related to non-vested share-based compensation arrangements. Fair value is defined as the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. Fair value measurements are also utilized to determine the initial value of certain assets and liabilities, to perform impairment assessments, and for disclosure purposes. The Company uses quoted market prices and observable inputs to the maximum extent possible when measuring fair value. In the absence of quoted market prices, various valuation techniques are utilized to measure fair value. When possible, observable market data for identical or similar financial instruments is used in the valuation. When market data is not available, fair value is determined using valuation models that incorporate managementâ€™s estimates of the assumptions a market participant would use in pricing the asset or liability.Fair value measurements are classified within one of three levels based on the observability of the inputs used to determine fair value, as follows:â€¢Level 1 â€” The valuation is based on quoted prices in active markets for identical instruments.â€¢Level 2 â€” The valuation is based on observable inputs such as quoted prices for similar instruments in active markets, quoted prices for identical or similar instruments in markets that are not active, and model-based valuation techniques for which all significant assumptions are observable in the market.â€¢Level 3 â€” The valuation is based on unobservable inputs that are supported by minimal or no market activity and that are significant to the fair value of the instrument. Level 3 valuations are typically performed using pricing models, discounted cash flow methodologies, or similar techniques that incorporate managementâ€™s own estimates of assumptions that market participants would use in pricing the instrument, or valuations that require significant management judgment or estimation.A financial instrumentâ€™s level within the fair value hierarchy is based on the lowest level of input that is significant to the fair value measurement.The Company elected fair value accounting for mortgages held for sale and for its best-efforts forward sales commitments. The Company economically hedges its mortgages held for sale at the time the interest rate locks are issued to the customers. The Company believes the election for mortgages held for sale will reduce certain timing differences and better match changes in the value of these assets with changes in the value of derivatives or best-best efforts forward sales commitments. At SeptemberÂ 30, 2024 and DecemberÂ 31, 2023, all mortgages held for sale were carried at fair value.The following table shows the differences between the fair value carrying amount of mortgages held for sale measured at fair value and the aggregate unpaid principal amount the Company is contractually entitled to receive at maturity.(DollarsÂ inÂ thousands)FairÂ valueÂ carryingamountAggregateunpaidÂ principalExcessÂ ofÂ fair valueÂ carrying amountÂ over (under)Â unpaid principalÂ September 30, 2024Â Â Â Â Mortgages held for sale reported at fair value$3,690Â $3,358Â $332Â (1)December 31, 2023Â Â Â Â Mortgages held for sale reported at fair value$1,442Â $1,297Â $145Â (1)(1)The excess of fair value carrying amount over (under) unpaid principal is included in mortgage banking income and includes changes in fair value at and subsequent to funding and gains and losses on the related loan commitment prior to funding.Financial Instruments on Recurring Basis:The following is a description of the valuation methodologies used for financial instruments measured at fair value on a recurring basis:Investment securities available-for-sale are valued primarily by a third-party pricing agent. Prices supplied by the independent pricing agent, as well as their pricing methodologies and assumptions, are reviewed by the Company for reasonableness and to ensure such prices are aligned with market levels. In general, the Companyâ€™s investment securities do not possess a complex structure that could introduce greater valuation risk. The portfolio mainly consists of traditional investments including U.S. Treasury and Federal agencies securities, Federal agency mortgage pass-through securities, and general obligation and revenue municipal bonds. Pricing for such instruments is fairly generic and is easily obtained. On a quarterly basis, prices supplied by the pricing agent are validated by comparison to prices obtained from other third-party sources for a material portion of the portfolio.The valuation policy and procedures for Level 3 fair value measurements of available-for-sale debt securities are decided through collaboration between management of the Corporate Accounting and Funds Management departments. The changes in fair value measurement for Level 3 securities are analyzed on a periodic basis under a collaborative framework with the aforementioned departments. The methodology and variables used for input are derived from the combination of observable and unobservable inputs. The unobservable inputs are determined through internal assumptions that may vary from period to period due to external factors, such as market movement and credit rating adjustments.Both the market and income valuation approaches are implemented using the following types of inputs:â€¢U.S. treasuries are priced using the market approach and utilizing live data feeds from active market exchanges for identical securities.â€¢Government-sponsored agency debt securities and corporate bonds are primarily priced using available market information through processes such as benchmark curves, market valuations of like securities, sector groupings and matrix pricing.â€¢Other government-sponsored agency securities, mortgage-backed securities and some of the actively traded REMICs and CMOs, are primarily priced using available market information including benchmark yields, prepayment speeds, spreads and volatility of similar securities.â€¢State and political subdivisions are largely grouped by characteristics, i.e., geographical data and source of revenue in trade dissemination systems. Since some securities are not traded daily and due to other grouping limitations, active market quotes are often obtained using benchmarking for like securities. Local direct placement municipal securities, with very little market activity, are priced using an appropriate market yield curve, which includes a credit spread assumption.Mortgages held for sale and the related loan commitments and forward contracts (hedges) are valued by a third-party pricing agent. Prices supplied by the independent pricing agent, as well as their pricing methodologies, are reviewed by the Company for reasonableness and to ensure such prices are aligned with market values. On a quarterly basis, prices supplied by the pricing agent are validated by comparison to the prices obtained from other third-party sources.Interest rate swap positions, both assets and liabilities, are valued by a third-party pricing agent using an income approach and utilizing models that use as their basis readily observable market parameters. This valuation process considers various factors including interest rate yield curves, time value and volatility factors. Validation of third-party agent valuations is accomplished by comparing those values to the Companyâ€™s swap counterparty valuations. Management believes an adjustment is required to â€œmid-marketâ€ valuations for derivatives tied to its performing loan portfolio to recognize the imprecision and related exposure inherent in the process of estimating expected credit losses as well as velocity of deterioration evident with systemic risks embedded in these portfolios. Any change in the mid-market derivative valuation adjustment will be recognized immediately through the Consolidated Statements of Income.The following table shows the balance of assets and liabilities measured at fair value on a recurring basis.(DollarsÂ inÂ thousands)LevelÂ 1LevelÂ 2LevelÂ 3TotalSeptember 30, 2024Â Â Â Â Assets:Â Â Â Â Investment securities available-for-sale:Â Â Â Â Â U.S. Treasury and Federal agencies securities$479,400Â $343,967Â $â€”Â $823,367Â U.S. States and political subdivisions securitiesâ€”Â 81,991Â 1,058Â 83,049Â Mortgage-backed securities â€” Federal agenciesâ€”Â 656,545Â â€”Â 656,545Â Corporate debt securitiesâ€”Â â€”Â â€”Â â€”Â Foreign government and other securitiesâ€”Â 500Â â€”Â 500Â Total debt securities available-for-sale479,400Â 1,083,003Â 1,058Â 1,563,461Â Mortgages held for saleâ€”Â 3,690Â â€”Â 3,690Â Accrued income and other assets (interest rate swap agreements)â€”Â 20,064Â â€”Â 20,064Â Total$479,400Â $1,106,757Â $1,058Â $1,587,215Â Liabilities:Â Â Â Â Â Accrued expenses and other liabilities (interest rate swap agreements)$â€”Â $20,433Â $â€”Â $20,433Â Total$â€”Â $20,433Â $â€”Â $20,433Â December 31, 2023Â Â Â Â Assets:Â Â Â Â Investment securities available-for-sale:Â Â Â Â Â U.S. Treasury and Federal agencies securities$541,461Â $381,405Â $â€”Â $922,866Â U.S. States and political subdivisions securitiesâ€”Â 91,403Â 1,161Â 92,564Â Mortgage-backed securities â€” Federal agenciesâ€”Â 598,252Â â€”Â 598,252Â Corporate debt securitiesâ€”Â 8,329Â â€”Â 8,329Â Foreign government and other securitiesâ€”Â 589Â â€”Â 589Â Total debt securities available-for-sale541,461Â 1,079,978Â 1,161Â 1,622,600Â Mortgages held for saleâ€”Â 1,442Â â€”Â 1,442Â Accrued income and other assets (interest rate swap agreements)â€”Â 22,704Â â€”Â 22,704Â Total$541,461Â $1,104,124Â $1,161Â $1,646,746Â Liabilities:Â Â Â Â Â Accrued expenses and other liabilities (interest rate swap agreements)$â€”Â $23,140Â $â€”Â $23,140Â Total$â€”Â $23,140Â $â€”Â $23,140Â The following table shows changes in Level 3 assets measured at fair value on a recurring basis for the quarter ended SeptemberÂ 30, 2024 and 2023.(DollarsÂ inÂ thousands)U.S.Â StatesÂ andpoliticalsubdivisionssecuritiesBeginning balance July 1, 2024$1,037Â Total gains or losses (realized/unrealized):Â Included in earningsâ€”Â Included in other comprehensive income (loss)21Â Purchasesâ€”Â Issuancesâ€”Â Salesâ€”Â Settlementsâ€”Â Maturitiesâ€”Â Transfers into Level 3â€”Â Transfers out of Level 3â€”Â Ending balance September 30, 2024$1,058Â Beginning balance July 1, 2023$4,249Â Total gains or losses (realized/unrealized):Â Included in earningsâ€”Â Included in other comprehensive income (loss)(26)Purchasesâ€”Â Issuancesâ€”Â Salesâ€”Â Settlementsâ€”Â Maturities(85)Transfers into Level 3â€”Â Transfers out of Level 3â€”Â Ending balance September 30, 2023$4,138Â There were no gains or losses for the period included in earnings attributable to the change in unrealized gains or losses relating to assets still held at SeptemberÂ 30, 2024 or 2023.The following table shows the valuation methodology and unobservable inputs for Level 3 assets measured at fair value on a recurring basis.(DollarsÂ inÂ thousands)FairÂ ValueValuation MethodologyUnobservableÂ InputsRangeÂ ofÂ InputsWeighted AverageSeptember 30, 2024Â Â Â Â Debt securities available-for saleÂ Â Â Â Direct placement municipal securities$1,058Â Discounted cash flowsCredit spread assumption3.41% - 4.25%3.68Â %December 31, 2023Â Â Â Â Debt securities available-for saleÂ Â Â Â Direct placement municipal securities$1,161Â Discounted cash flowsCredit spread assumption0.31% - 5.28%4.28Â %Financial Instruments on Non-recurring Basis:The Company may be required, from time to time, to measure certain other financial assets at fair value on a non-recurring basis in accordance with GAAP. These adjustments to fair value usually result from application of lower of cost or market accounting or impairment charges of individual assets.The Credit Policy Committee (CPC), a management committee, is responsible for overseeing the valuation processes and procedures for Level 3 measurements of impaired loans, other real estate and repossessions. The CPC reviews these assets on a quarterly basis to determine the accuracy of the observable inputs, generally third-party appraisals, auction values, values derived from trade publications and data submitted by the borrower, and the appropriateness of the unobservable inputs, generally discounts due to current market conditions and collection issues. The CPC establishes discounts based on asset type and valuation source; deviations from the standard are documented. The discounts are reviewed periodically, annually at a minimum, to determine they remain appropriate. Consideration is given to current trends in market values for the asset categories and gains and losses on sales of similar assets. The Loan and Funds Management Committee of the Board of Directors is responsible for overseeing the CPC.Discounts vary depending on the nature of the assets and the source of value. Aircraft are generally valued using quarterly trade publications adjusted for engine time, condition, maintenance programs, discounted by 10%. Likewise, autos are valued using current auction values, discounted by 10%; medium and heavy duty trucks are valued using trade publications and auction values, discounted by 15%. Construction equipment is generally valued using trade publications and auction values, discounted by 20%. Real estate is valued based on appraisals or evaluations, discounted by 20% with higher discounts for property in poor condition or property with characteristics which may make it more difficult to market. Commercial loans subject to borrowing base certificates are generally discounted by 20% for receivables and 40% - 75% for inventory with higher discounts when monthly borrowing base certificates are not required or received.Collateral-dependent impaired loans and related write-downs are based on the fair value of the underlying collateral if repayment is expected solely from the collateral. Collateral values are reviewed quarterly and estimated using customized discounting criteria, appraisals and dealer and trade magazine quotes which are used in a market valuation approach. In accordance with fair value measurements, only impaired loans for which an allowance for loan loss has been established based on the fair value of collateral require classification in the fair value hierarchy. As a result, only a portion of the Companyâ€™s impaired loans are classified in the fair value hierarchy.The Company has established MSRs valuation policies and procedures based on industry standards and to ensure valuation methodologies are consistent and verifiable. MSRs and related adjustments to fair value result from application of lower of cost or fair value accounting. For purposes of impairment, MSRs are stratified based on the predominant risk characteristics of the underlying servicing, principally by loan type. The fair value of each tranche of the servicing portfolio is estimated by calculating the present value of estimated future net servicing cash flows, taking into consideration actual and expected mortgage loan prepayment rates, discount rates, servicing costs, and other economic factors. Prepayment rates and discount rates are derived through a third-party pricing agent. Changes in the most significant inputs, including prepayment rates and discount rates, are compared to the changes in the fair value measurements and appropriate resolution is made. A fair value analysis is also obtained from an independent third-party agent and compared to the internal valuation for reasonableness. MSRs do not trade in an active, open market with readily observable prices and though sales of MSRs do occur, precise terms and conditions typically are not readily available, and the characteristics of the Companyâ€™s servicing portfolio may differ from those of any servicing portfolios that do trade.Other real estate is based on the fair value of the underlying collateral less expected selling costs. Collateral values are estimated primarily using appraisals and reflect a market value approach. Fair values are reviewed quarterly, and new appraisals are obtained annually. Repossessions are similarly valued.For assets measured at fair value on a nonrecurring basis, the following represents impairment charges (recoveries) recognized on these assets during the quarter ended SeptemberÂ 30, 2024: collateral-dependent impaired loans - $2.30 million; mortgage servicing rights - $0.00 million; repossessions - $0.01 million; and other real estate - $0.00 million.The following table shows the carrying value of assets measured at fair value on a non-recurring basis.(DollarsÂ inÂ thousands)LevelÂ 1LevelÂ 2LevelÂ 3TotalSeptember 30, 2024Â Â Â Â Collateral-dependent impaired loans$â€”Â $â€”Â $15,666Â $15,666Â Accrued income and other assets (mortgage servicing rights)â€”Â â€”Â 3,490Â 3,490Â Accrued income and other assets (repossessions)â€”Â â€”Â 109Â 109Â Total$â€”Â $â€”Â $19,265Â $19,265Â December 31, 2023Â Â Â Â Collateral-dependent impaired loans$â€”Â $â€”Â $6,289Â $6,289Â Accrued income and other assets (mortgage servicing rights)â€”Â â€”Â 3,670Â 3,670Â Accrued income and other assets (repossessions)â€”Â â€”Â 705Â 705Â Total$â€”Â $â€”Â $10,664Â $10,664Â The following table below shows the valuation methodology and unobservable inputs for Level 3 assets and liabilities measured at fair value on a non-recurring basis.(DollarsÂ inÂ thousands)CarryingÂ ValueFairÂ ValueValuationÂ MethodologyUnobservableÂ InputsRangeÂ ofÂ InputsWeighted AverageSeptember 30, 2024Â Â Â Â Collateral-dependent impaired loans$15,666Â $15,666Â Collateral based measurements including appraisals, trade publications, and auction valuesDiscount for lack of marketability and current conditions20% - These unaudited consolidated financial statements have been prepared according to the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and, therefore, certain information and footnote disclosures normally included in financial statements prepared in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP) have been omitted.The Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements appearing in 1st Source Corporationâ€™s Annual Report on FormÂ 10-K (2023 Annual Report), which include descriptions of significant accounting policies, should be read in conjunction with these interim financial statements. The Consolidated Statement of Financial Condition at DecemberÂ 31, 2023, has been derived from the audited financial statements at that date, but does not include all of the information and footnotes required by GAAP for complete financial statements. Certain amounts in the prior period consolidated financial statements have been reclassified to conform to the current period presentation. Use of Estimates in the Preparation of Financial Statements Use of Estimates in the Preparation of Financial Statements â€” Financial statements prepared in accordance with GAAP require the Company to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of income and expense during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates. Loans and Leases Loans and Leases â€” Loans are stated at the principal amount outstanding, net of unamortized deferred loan origination fees and costs and net of unearned income. Interest income is accrued as earned based on unpaid principal balances. Origination fees and direct loan and lease origination costs are deferred, and the net amount amortized to interest income over the estimated life of the related loan or lease. Loan commitment fees are deferred and amortized into other income over the commitment period.Direct financing leases are carried at the aggregate of lease payments plus estimated residual value of the leased property, net of unamortized deferred lease origination fees and costs and unearned income. Only those costs incurred as a direct result of closing a lease transaction are capitalized and all other initial direct costs are expensed immediately. Interest income on direct financing leases is recognized over the term of the lease to achieve a constant periodic rate of return on the outstanding investment.Accrued interest is included in Accrued Income and Other Assets on the Consolidated Statements of Financial Condition and is excluded from the calculation of the allowance for credit losses. The accrual of interest on loans and leases is discontinued when a loan or lease becomes contractually delinquent for 90 days, or when an individual analysis of a borrowerâ€™s credit worthiness indicates a credit should be placed on nonperforming status, except for residential mortgage loans and consumer loans that are well secured and in the process of collection. Residential mortgage loans are placed on nonaccrual at the time the loan is placed in foreclosure. When interest accruals are discontinued, interest credited to income in the current year is reversed and interest accrued in the prior year is charged to the allowance for loan and lease losses. However, in some cases, the Company may elect to continue the accrual of interest when the net realizable value of collateral is sufficient to cover the principal and accrued interest. When a loan or lease is classified as nonaccrual and the future collectability of the recorded loan or lease balance is doubtful, collections on interest and principal are applied as a reduction to principal outstanding. Loans are returned to accrual status when all principal and interest amounts contractually due are brought current and future payments are reasonably assured, which is typically evidenced by a sustained repayment performance of at least six months.Occasionally, the Company modifies loans and leases to borrowers in financial distress (typically denoted by internal credit quality graded â€œsubstandardâ€ or worse) by providing term extensions, other-than-insignificant payment delays, or interest rate reductions. In some cases, a combination of modifications are made to the same loan or lease. These modifications typically result from the Companyâ€™s loss mitigation activities. If the Company determines that the value of the modified loan is less than the recorded investment in the loan (net of previous charge-offs, deferred loan fees or costs and unamortized premium or discount), impairment is recognized through an allowance for loan and lease losses estimate or a charge-off to the allowance for loan and lease losses. DefinitionThis element represents the portion of the balance sheet assertion valued at fair value by the entity whether such amount is presented as a separate caption or as a parenthetical disclosure. Additionally, this element may be used in connection with the fair value disclosures required in the footnote disclosures to the financial statements. The element may be used in both the balance sheet and disclosure in the same submission. For banks and other depository institutions: It includes cash on hand (currency and coin), cash items in process of collection, noninterest bearing deposits due from other financial institutions (including corporate credit unions), and balances with the Federal Reserve Banks and central banks. + ReferencesNo definition available. + Details Name: source_CashAndDueFromBanksExcludingFederalHomeLoanBankCashFairValueDisclosure Namespace Prefix: source_ Data Type: xbrli:monetaryItemType Balance Type: debit Period Type: instant X - DefinitionThis element represents the amount outstanding of funds lent to other depository institutions, securities brokers, or securities dealers in the form of Federal Funds sold; for example, immediately available funds lent under agreements or contracts that mature in one business day or roll over under a continuing contract, regardless of the nature of the transaction or the collateral involved, excluding overnight lending for commercial and industrial purposes. Also include Federal Funds sold under agreements to resell on a gross basis, excluding (1) sales of term Federal Funds, (2) due bills representing purchases of securities or other assets by the reporting bank that have not yet been delivered and similar instruments, (3) resale agreements that mature in more than one business day involving assets other than securities, and (4) yield maintenance dollar repurchase agreements. Also includes Federal Home Loan Bank cash and interest-bearing deposits with Federal Reserve Banks. In addition, this element also includes interest-bearing deposits in other financial institutions for relatively short periods of time including, for example, certificates of deposits, which are presented separately from cash on the balance sheet. + ReferencesNo definition available. + Details Name: source_FederalFundsSoldAndInterestBearingDepositsInBanks Namespace Prefix: source_ Data Type: xbrli:monetaryItemType Balance Type: debit Period Type: instant X - DefinitionThis element represents the aggregate carrying amount of long-term borrowings as of the balance sheet date including Federal Home Loan Bank borrowings, current portion of long term debt and promissory notes. referred to as "1st Source" or "the Company"), a broad array of financial products and services. Basis of Presentation – The accompanying unaudited consolidated financial statements reflect all adjustments (all of which are normal and recurring in nature) which are, in the opinion of management, necessary for a fair presentation of the consolidated financial position, the results of operations, changes in comprehensive income (loss), changes in shareholders' equity, and cash flows for the periods presented. These unaudited consolidated financial statements have been prepared according to the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and, therefore, certain information and footnote disclosures normally included in financial statements prepared in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP) have been omitted. The Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements appearing in 1st Source Corporation's Annual Report on Form 10-K (2023 Annual Report), which include descriptions of significant accounting policies, should be read in conjunction with these interim financial statements. The Consolidated Statement of Financial Condition at December 31, 2023, has been derived from the audited financial statements at that date, but does not include all of the information and footnotes required by GAAP for complete financial statements. Certain amounts in the prior period consolidated financial statements have been reclassified to conform to the current period presentation. Use of Estimates in the Preparation of Financial Statements – Financial statements prepared in accordance with GAAP require the Company to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of income and expense during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates. Loans and Leases – Loans are stated at the principal amount outstanding, net of unamortized deferred loan origination fees and costs and net of unearned income. Interest income is accrued as earned based on unpaid principal balances. Origination fees and direct loan and lease origination costs are deferred, and the net amount amortized to interest income over the estimated life of the related loan or lease. Loan commitment fees are deferred and amortized into other income over the commitment period. Direct financing leases are carried at the aggregate of lease payments plus estimated residual value of the leased property, net of unamortized deferred lease origination fees and costs and unearned income. Only those costs incurred as a direct result of closing a lease transaction are capitalized and all other initial direct costs are expensed immediately. Interest income on direct financing leases is recognized over the term of the lease to achieve a constant periodic rate of return on the outstanding investment. Accrued interest is included in Accrued Income and Other Assets on the Consolidated Statements of Financial Condition and is excluded from the calculation of the allowance for credit losses. The accrual of interest on loans and leases is discontinued when a loan or lease becomes contractually delinquent for 90 days, or when an individual analysis of a borrower's credit worthiness indicates a credit should be placed on nonperforming status, except for residential mortgage loans and consumer loans that are well secured and in the process of collection. Residential mortgage loans are placed on nonaccrual at the time the loan is placed in foreclosure. When interest accruals are discontinued, interest credited to income in the current year is reversed and interest accrued in the prior year is charged to the allowance for loan and lease losses. However, in some cases, the Company may elect to continue the accrual of interest when the net realizable value of collateral is sufficient to cover the principal and accrued interest. When a loan or lease is classified as nonaccrual and the future collectability of the recorded loan or lease balance is doubtful, collections on interest and principal are applied as a reduction to principal outstanding. Loans are returned to accrual status when all principal and interest amounts contractually due are brought current and future payments are reasonably assured, which is typically evidenced by a

sustained repayment performance of at least six months. Occasionally, the Company modifies loans and leases to borrowers in financial distress (typically denoted by internal credit quality graded "substandard" or worse) by providing term extensions, other-than-insignificant payment delays, or interest rate reductions. In some cases, a combination of modifications are made to the same loan or lease. These modifications typically result from the Company's loss mitigation activities. If the Company determines that the value of the modified loan is less than the recorded investment in the loan (net of previous charge-offs, deferred loan fees or costs and unamortized premium or discount), impairment is recognized through an allowance for loan and lease losses estimate or a charge-off to the allowance for loan and lease losses. P6M Recent Accounting Pronouncements Income Taxes: In December 2023, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued Accounting Standards Update (ASU) No. 2023-09 "Income Taxes (Topic 740): Improvements to Income Tax Disclosures." Among other things, these amendments require that public business entities on an annual basis (1) disclose specific categories in the rate reconciliation and (2) provide additional information for reconciling items that meet a quantitative threshold (if the effect of those reconciling items is equal to or greater than five percent of the amount computed by multiplying pretax income (loss) by the applicable statutory income tax rate.) The amendments also require that all entities disclose on an annual basis the following information about income taxes paid: (1) the amount of income taxes paid (net of refunds received) disaggregated by federal, state, and foreign taxes and (2) the amount of income taxes paid (net of refunds received) disaggregated by individual jurisdictions in which income taxes paid (net of refunds received) is equal to or greater than five percent of total income taxes paid (net of refunds received.) This guidance is effective for public business entities for annual periods beginning after December 15, 2024. Early adoption is permitted for annual financial statements that have not yet been issued or made available for issuance. The amendments should be applied on a prospective basis although retrospective application is permitted. The Company continues to assess ASU 2023-09 and its impact on its accounting and disclosures. Segment Reporting: In November 2023, the FASB issued ASU 2023-07 "Segment Reporting (Topic 280): Improvements to Reportable Segment Disclosures." These amendments require, among other things, that a public entity that has a single reportable segment provide all the disclosures required by the amendments in this ASU and all existing segment disclosures in Topic 208. The ASU is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2023, and interim periods within fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2024. Early adoption is permitted. A public entity should apply the amendments retrospectively to all periods presented in the financial statements. The Company continues to assess ASU 2023-09 and its impact on its accounting and disclosures. The unrealized losses occurred as a result of changes in interest rates, market spreads and market conditions subsequent to purchase. The following table shows the gross realized gains and losses from the available-for-sale debt securities portfolio. Realized gains and losses of all securities are computed using the specific identification cost basis. <table style="border-collapse:collapse;display:inline-table;margin-bottom:5pt;vertical-align:text-bottom;width:100.000%"><tr><td style="width:1.0%"></td><td style="width:45.245%"></td><td style="width:0.1%"></td><td style="width:0.1%"></td><td style="width:0.384%"></td><td style="width:0.1%"></td><td style="width:1.0%"></td><td style="width:11.619%"></td><td style="width:0.1%"></td><td style="width:0.1%"></td><td style="width:0.530%"></td><td style="width:0.1%"></td><td style="width:1.0%"></td><td style="width:11.619%"></td><td style="width:0.1%"></td><td style="width:0.1%"></td><td style="width:0.530%"></td><td style="width:0.1%"></td><td style="width:1.0%"></td><td style="width:11.619%"></td><td style="width:0.1%"></td><td style="width:0.1%"></td><td style="width:0.530%"></td><td style="width:0.1%"></td><td style="width:1.0%"></td><td style="width:11.624%"></td><td style="width:0.1%"></td></tr><tr><td colspan="3" style="padding:0 1pt"></td><td colspan="3" style="padding:0 1pt"></td><td colspan="9" style="padding:2px 1pt;text-align:center;vertical-align:bottom">Three Months Ended

0 0 0 -44000 374650000 411380000 Loan and Lease Financings The Company evaluates loans and leases for credit quality at least annually, but more frequently if certain circumstances occur (such as material new information which becomes available and indicates a potential change in credit risk). The Company uses two methods to assess credit risk: loan or lease credit quality grades and credit risk classifications. The purpose of the loan or lease credit quality grade is to document the degree of risk associated with individual credits, as well as inform management of the degree of risk in the portfolio taken as a whole. Credit risk classifications are used to categorize loans by degree of risk and to designate individual or committee approval authorities for higher risk credits at the time of origination. Credit risk classifications include categories for: Acceptable, Marginal, Special Attention, Special Risk, Restricted by Policy, Regulated and Prohibited by Law. All loans and leases, except residential real estate loans, home equity loans, and consumer loans, are assigned credit quality grades on a scale from 1 to 12, with grade 1 representing superior credit quality. The criteria used to assign grades to extensions of credit that exhibit potential problems or well-defined weaknesses are primarily based upon the degree of risk and the likelihood of orderly repayment, and their effect on the Company's safety and soundness. Loans or leases graded 7 or weaker are considered "special attention" credits and, as such, relationships in excess of $250,000 are reviewed quarterly as part of management's evaluation of the appropriateness of the allowance for loan and lease losses. Grade 7 credits are defined as "watch" and contain greater than average credit risk and are monitored to limit the exposure to increased risk; grade 8 credits are "special mention" and, following regulatory guidelines, are defined as having potential weaknesses that deserve management's close attention. Credits that exhibit well-defined weaknesses and a distinct possibility of loss are considered "classified" and are graded 9 through 12 corresponding to the regulatory definitions of "substandard" (grades 9 and 10) and the more severe "doubtful" (grade 11) and "loss" (grade 12). For residential real estate and home equity and consumer loans, credit quality is based on the aging status of the loan and by payment activity. Nonperforming loans are those loans which are on nonaccrual status or are 90 days or more past due. Below is a summary of the Company's loan and lease portfolio segments and a discussion of the risk characteristics relevant to each portfolio segment. Commercial and agricultural - loans are to entities within the Company's local market communities. Loans are for business or agri-business purposes and include working capital lines of credit secured by accounts receivable and inventory that are generally renewable annually and term loans secured by equipment with amortizations based on the expected life of the underlying collateral, generally three to seven years. These loans are typically further supported by personal guarantees. Commercial exposure is to a wide range of industries and services. Risks in this sector are also varied and are most impacted by general economic conditions. Risk mitigants include appropriate underwriting and monitoring and, when appropriate, government guarantees, including SBA and FSA. Renewable energy - loans are for the purpose of financing solar related projects and may include construction draw notes, operating loans, letters of credit and may entail a tax equity structure. Collateral in a multi-state area includes tangible assets of the borrower, assignment of intangible assets including power purchase agreements, and pledges of permits and licenses. Financing is provided to qualified borrowers throughout the continental United States with an emphasis on the region east of the Rocky Mountains. Auto and light truck - loans are secured by vehicles and borrowers are nationwide. The portfolio predominantly consists of loans to borrowers in the auto rental and commercial auto leasing industries. Borrowers in the auto rental segment are primarily independent auto rental entities with on-airport and off-airport locations, and some insurance replacement business. Loan amortizations are relatively short, generally eighteen months, but up to four years. Auto leasing customers lease to businesses and the Company takes assignment of the lease stream and places its lien on the vehicles. Terms are generally longer than the auto rental sector, three to seven years and match the underlying leases. Risks in both these segments include economic risks and collateral risks, principally used vehicle values. Medium and heavy duty truck - loans and full-service truck leases are secured by heavy-duty trucks, commonly Class 8 trucks, and are generally personally guaranteed. In addition to economic risks, collateral risk is significant. Financing is generally at full cost, plus additional expenditures to get the vehicle operational, such as taxes, insurance and fees. It takes three to four years of debt amortization to reach an equity position in the collateral. Aircraft - loans are to domestic and foreign borrowers with the domestic segment further divided into two pools: 1) personal and business use, and 2) dealers and operators. The Company's focus for the foreign sector is Latin America, principally Mexico and Brazil. Loans are primarily secured by new and used business jets and helicopters, with appropriate advances, amortizations of ten to fifteen years, and are generally guaranteed by individuals. The most significant risk in the Aircraft portfolio is collateral risk - volatility in underlying values and maintenance concerns. The portfolio is subject to national and global economic risks. Construction equipment - loans are to borrowers throughout the country secured by specific equipment. The borrowers include highway and road builders, asphalt producers and pavers, suppliers of aggregate products, site developers, frac sand operations, general construction equipment dealers and operators, and crane rental entities. Generally, loans include personal guarantees. The construction equipment industry is heavily dependent on both the U.S. and global economy. Market growth is reliant on investments from public and private sectors into urbanization and infrastructure projects. Commercial real estate - loans are generally to entities within the local market communities served by the Company with advances generally within regulatory guidelines. Historically, the Company's exposure to commercial real estate has been primarily to the less risky owner-occupied segment. The non-owner-occupied segment accounts for less than half of the commercial real estate portfolio and includes hotels, apartment complexes and warehousing facilities. There is limited exposure to construction loans. Many commercial real estate loans carry personal guarantees. Additional risks in the commercial real estate portfolio stem from geographical concentration in northern Indiana and southwest Michigan and general economic conditions. Residential real estate and home equity - loans predominantly include one-to-four family mortgages to borrowers in the Company's local market communities and are appropriately underwritten and secured by residential real estate. Consumer - loans are to individuals in the Company's local markets and auto loans are generally secured by personal vehicles and appropriately underwritten.

 The following table shows the amortized cost of loans and leases, segregated by portfolio segment, credit quality rating and year of origination as of September 30, 2024, and gross charge-offs for the nine months ended September 30, 2024. <table style="border-collapse:collapse;display:inline-table;margin-bottom:5pt;vertical-align:text-bottom;width:100.000%"><tr><td style="width:1.0%"></td><td
