Overview Founded in 1904, Coty Inc. is one of the world's largest beauty companies with an iconic portfolio of brands across fragrance, color cosmetics, and skin and body care. Over the past few years we have implemented a comprehensive transformation agenda (the "Transformation Plan"), focusing on our core go-to-market competencies, simplifying our capital structure and deleveraging our balance sheet. Following this transformation, we continue to make progress on our strategic priorities, including stabilizing and growing our consumer beauty brands through leading innovation and improved execution, accelerating our prestige fragrance brands and ongoing expansion into prestige cosmetics, building a comprehensive skincare portfolio over the mid-to-long term leveraging existing brands, enhancing our organizational growth capabilities including digital and research and development, expanding our presence in the travel retail channel, China and other growth markets, and establishing Coty as an industry leader in sustainability. All dollar amounts in the following discussion are in millions of United States ("U.S.") dollars, unless otherwise indicated. Segments Operating and reportable segments (referred to as "segments") reflect the way the Company is managed and for which separate financial information is available and evaluated regularly by the Company's chief operating decision maker ("CODM") in deciding how to allocate resources and assess performance. The Company has designated its Chief Executive Officer as the CODM. For segment financial information and information about our long-lived assets, see Note 4 "Segment Reporting" in the notes to our Consolidated Financial Statements. Marketing We have a diverse portfolio of brands, some owned and some licensed, and we employ different models to create a distinct image and personality suited to each brand's equity, distribution, product focus and consumer. For our licensed brands, we work with licensors to promote brand image. Each of our brands is promoted with logos, packaging and advertising designed to enhance its image and the uniqueness of each brand. We manage our creative marketing work through a combination of our in-house teams and external agencies that design and produce the sales materials, social media strategies, advertisements and packaging for products in each brand. We promote our brands through various channels to reach and engage beauty consumers to build brand awareness, affinity and loyalty, through traditional media, through in-store displays, on digital and social media, and through collaborations, product placements and events. In addition, we seek editorial coverage for products and brands in both traditional media and digital and social media to drive influencer amplification and to build brand equity. We are focused on accelerating our digital advocacy strategy to amplify our brand and product innovations, leverage consumer analytics and insights, and improve the return on investment of our marketing activities. We leverage our relationships with celebrities, on-line influencers and brand ambassadors to endorse certain of our products, and we seek to attract and engage existing and new consumers through buzz-worthy activations, unexpected creativity and unique collaborations. Our marketing efforts also benefit from cooperative advertising programs with retailers, often in connection with in-store marketing activities designed to engage consumers so that they try, or purchase, our products, including sampling and "gift-with-purchase" programs designed to stimulate product trials. We have dedicated marketing and sales forces in most of our significant markets. These teams leverage local insights to strategically promote our brands and product offerings and tailor our creative marketing to fit local tastes and resonate with consumers most effectively. We utilize in-depth brand and market data analytics to develop branding, merchandising and marketing execution strategies to maximize the consumer experience and build a better business. 2 Distribution Channels and Retail Sales We market, sell and distribute our products in approximately 121 countries and territories, with dedicated local sales forces in most of our significant markets. We have a balanced multi-channel distribution strategy which complements our product categories. Our mass beauty brands are primarily sold through hypermarkets, supermarkets, drug stores and pharmacies, mid-tier department stores, traditional food and drug retailers, and dedicated e-commerce retailers. The prestige products are primarily sold through prestige retailers, including perfumers, department stores, e-retailers, direct-to-consumer websites and duty-free shops. We continue to focus on expanding our e-commerce and direct-to-consumer channels. We also sell our products through third-party distributors. In fiscal 2024, no retailer accounted for more than 10% of our global net revenues; however, certain retailers accounted for more than 10% of net revenues within certain geographic markets and segments. In fiscal 2024, Walmart, our top retailer, accounted for approximately 5% of total Coty Inc. net revenues. Innovation Innovation is a pillar of our business. We innovate through brand-building and new product lines, as well as through new technology. Our research and development teams work with our marketing and operations teams to identify recent trends and consumer needs and to bring products quickly to market. We are continuously innovating to increase our sales by elevating our digital presence, including e-commerce and digital, social media and influencer marketing designed to build brand equity and consumer engagement. We have also focused our efforts on meeting evolving consumer shopping preferences and behaviors, both on-line and in-store. We have introduced new ways to customize the consumer experience, including using artificial intelligence-powered tools to provide personalized advice on selecting and using products, and augmented reality tools that invite customers to virtually try products with curated looks, tutorials and product recommendations. In addition, we continuously seek to improve our products through research and development. Our basic and applied research groups, which conduct longer-term and "blue sky" research, seek to develop proprietary new technologies for first-to-market products and for improving existing products. This research and development is done both internally and through affiliations with various universities, technical centers, supply partners, industry associations and technical associations. A number of our products incorporate patented, patent-pending or proprietary technology. In addition, several of our products and/or packaging for our products are covered by design rights protections. Our principal research and development centers are located in the U.S. and Europe. See "Item 2. Properties." We do not perform, nor do we commission any third parties on our behalf to perform, testing of our products or ingredients on animals except where required by law. In the few jurisdictions requiring animal testing, we actively apply for exemptions and work with local authorities and organizations to authorize alternative methods of product testing. Supply Chain During fiscal year 2024, we continued to manufacture and package approximately 79% of our products, primarily in facilities located in the United States, Brazil, China and various countries in Europe. We recognize the importance of our employees at our manufacturing facilities and have in place programs designed to ensure operating safety. In addition, we implement programs designed to ensure that our manufacturing and distribution facilities comply with applicable environmental rules and regulations, as well as initiatives to support our sustainability goals. To capitalize on innovation and other supply chain benefits, we continue to utilize a network of third-party manufacturers on a global basis who produce approximately 21% of our finished products. The principal raw materials used in the manufacture of our products are primarily essential oils, alcohols and specialty chemicals. The essential oils in our fragrance products are generally sourced from fragrance houses. As a result, we realize material cost savings and benefits from the technology, innovation and resources provided by these fragrance houses. We purchase the raw materials for all our products from various third parties. We also purchase packaging components that are manufactured to our design specifications. We collaborate with our suppliers to meet our stringent design and creative criteria. We believe that we currently have adequate sources of supply for all our products. We review our supplier base periodically with the specific objectives of improving quality, increasing innovation and speed-to-market, ensuring supply sufficiency and reducing costs. We have experienced disruptions in our supply chain from time to time, including in connection with our past restructuring efforts and, more recently due to global supply disruptions, and we work to anticipate and respond to actual and potential disruptions. In light of these challenges, we are continually benchmarking the performance of our supply chain, and we augment our supply base, adjust our distribution networks and manufacturing footprint, enhance our forecasting and planning capabilities and adjust our inventory strategy based upon the changing needs of the business. We continue to explore options to further optimize our supply chain operations, including the implementation of advanced digital solutions to streamline and enhance our supply chain operations. 3 Competition There is significant competition within each market where our products are sold. We compete against manufacturers and marketers of beauty products, salon professional nail products and personal care products. In addition to the established multinational brands against which we compete, small targeted niche brands continue to enter the beauty market. We also have competition from private label products sold by retailers. We believe that we compete primarily on the basis of perceived value, including pricing and innovation, product efficacy, service to the consumer, promotional activities, advertising, special events, new product introductions, e-commerce initiatives, direct sales and other activities (including influencers). It is difficult for us to predict the timing, scale and effectiveness of our competitors' actions in these areas or the timing and impact of new entrants into the marketplace. For additional risks associated with our competitive position, see "Risk Factors." The beauty industry is highly competitive, and if we are unable to compete effectively, our business, prospects, financial condition and results of operation could suffer. Intellectual Property We generally own or license the trademark rights in key sales countries in Trademark International Class 3 (covering cosmetics and perfumery) for use in connection with our brands. When we license trademark rights we generally enter into long-term licenses, and we are generally the exclusive trademark licensee for all Class 3 trademarks as used in connection with our products. We or our licensors, as the case may be, actively protect the trademarks used in our principal products in the U.S. and significant markets worldwide. We consider the protection of our trademarks to be essential to our business. A number of our products also incorporate patented, patent-pending or proprietary technology in their respective formulations and/or packaging, and in some cases our product packaging is subject to copyright, trade dress or design protection. While we consider our patents and copyrights, and the protection thereof, to be important, no single patent or copyright, or group of related patents or copyrights, is material to the conduct of our business. Products representing 50% of our fiscal 2024 net revenues are manufactured and marketed under brands owned by us or under licenses which are effectively perpetual. Of the remaining portfolio, 34% of our fiscal 2024 sales are under exclusive license agreements granted to us for use on a worldwide and/or regional basis with a remaining duration spanning from 6 to 30 years. As of June 30, 2024, we maintained 24 brand licenses. In addition, approximately 56% of our fiscal 2024 net revenues were attributable to prestige fragrance, of which approximately 91% was from our top seven prestige fragrance brands. Approximately 82% of the revenues from our top seven fragrance brands were from licenses with remaining durations spanning from approximately 8 to 21 years, or perpetual. Our licenses impose obligations and restrictions on us that we believe are common to many licensing relationships in the beauty industry, such as paying annual royalties on net sales of the licensed products, maintaining the quality of the licensed products and the image of the applicable trademarks, achievement of minimum sales levels, promotion of sales and qualifications and behavior of our suppliers, distributors and retailers. We believe that we are currently in material compliance with the terms of our material brand license agreements. Our license agreements have an average duration of over 25 years. Most brand licenses have renewal options for one or more terms, which can range from two to ten years. Certain brand licenses provide for automatic extensions, so long as minimum annual royalty payments are made, while renewal of others is contingent upon attaining specified sales levels or upon agreement of the licensor. None of our top seven licenses are up for non-automatic renewal before 2028, with an average remaining duration of 14 years. For additional risks associated with our licensing arrangements, see "Risk Factors." Our brand licenses may be terminated if specified conditions are not met, and we may not be able to renew expiring licenses on favorable terms or at all and "Risk Factors." Our failure to protect our reputation, or the failure of our brand partners or licensors to protect their reputations, could have a material adverse effect on our brand image. Human Capital Workforce. As of June 30, 2024, we had approximately 11,791 full-time employees in over 36 countries. In addition, we typically employ a large number of seasonal contractors during our peak manufacturing and promotional season. Our employees in the U.S. are not covered by collective bargaining agreements. Our employees in certain countries in Europe are subject to works council arrangements and collective bargaining agreements. We have not experienced a material strike or work stoppage in the U.S. or any other country where we have a significant number of employees. Our employees are a key source of competitive advantage and their actions, guided by our Code of Conduct and our global compliance program, Behave Beautifully, are critical to the long-term success of our business. We recognize the importance of our employees to our business and believe our relationship with our employees is satisfactory. 4 Environmental, Social and Governance Our sustainability framework, Beauty That Lasts, is a multi-pillared strategy which aims to contribute to a more sustainable and inclusive future. With a focus on product, planet and people, we aim to contribute towards delivering a more sustainable and inclusive world. We report annually on our progress towards our sustainability targets through a separate sustainability report. Our sustainability reports and other information on our sustainability initiatives and achievements are available on our website. Changing circumstances, including evolving expectations for sustainability, or changes in standards and the way progress is measured, may lead to adjustments in, or the discontinuation of, our pursuit of certain goals, commitments, or initiatives (see additional discussion in "Forward-Looking Statements" Cautionary Note Regarding Sustainability Information). The content of our sustainability reports and information on our website are not incorporated by reference into this Annual Report on Form 10-K or in any other report or document we file with the SEC. On March 6, 2024, the SEC adopted a rule on climate-related disclosures by U.S. public companies. On April 4, 2024, the SEC stayed the rule pending the completion of judicial review of the consolidated Eighth Circuit petitions. We are unable to predict if or when the stay will be lifted, and the extent to which the outcome of the petitions may result in changes to the final rules and the timing of the effectiveness of such rules. The Beauty of Our Product Our products have an important role to play in building a sustainable future for the beauty sector. To respond to evolving social and environmental challenges, we are putting sustainability at the heart of our product creation, from design and development through to sourcing of materials. We see sustainability as the ultimate driver of innovation. We are changing the way we design, formulate and manufacture in order to minimize our environmental impact and create innovative products. Since 2020, we have an operational Beauty That Lasts Index in place, which is a qualitative tool for evaluating the sustainability profile of new product developments. We have an ambition to reduce the amount of packaging we use across our portfolio, while sourcing from more sustainable sources. In fiscal 2024, we are continuing to steadily expand refillable formats, including Burberry Goddess, Cosmic Kylie Jenner and Infinitum Coty Paris. We are implementing screw neck caps for new prestige fragrance bottle designs to further enable refill potential. In addition, we work to reduce the environmental impact of our product formulas and our new products. In fiscal 2024, Infinitum Coty Paris is the first globally distributed full fragrance collection manufactured using 100% carbon-captured ethanol. We recognize that sustainability efforts require collaboration which goes beyond our own organization. To that end we are members of several industry initiatives, including the Responsible Beauty Initiative and Responsible Mica Initiative, focused on responsible sourcing. We are also part of the EcoBeautyScore Consortium â€” a breakthrough initiative which aims to develop an industry-wide environmental scoring system for cosmetics products, with the aim of empowering consumers to make sustainable beauty choices. We are also active members of the Sustainable Packaging Initiative for Cosmetics â€” SPICE â€” where we partner with other companies in the cosmetics industry to collectively shape the future of sustainable packaging. We continue to evaluate and modify our processes and activities to further limit our impact on the environment as we implement our sustainability strategy. The Beauty of Our Planet: Conserving and protecting the natural environment is a vital part of our responsibility as a business. We are committed to minimizing the environmental impact of our operations and preserving resources for generations to come. Our short-term greenhouse gas emissions targets are approved by the Science Based Target initiative (â€”SBTiâ€”). The targets cover our greenhouse gas emissions for scopes 1 and 2, renewable electricity commitment and our greenhouse gas reduction for scope 3. In November 2023, we committed to the SBTi to set emissions reduction targets in line with science-based net-zero.1. We continue to focus on the implementation of these targets with the development of operational plans. We are currently implementing our climate strategy focusing on three focus areas: our product impact, our transportation and the impact of our own operations. In fiscal 2024, we have expanded our solar panel use across four sites and we now have eight carbon neutral sites, labs and offices.2. Air freight emissions have decreased by more than 50% since 2019 due to the efforts of our transport and supply chain teams to improve planning and educating internal stakeholders about the importance of shifting to less carbon intense modes of transport. In our efforts to reduce our impacts on the environment, none of the waste from our factories and distribution centers was sent to landfill. Per SBTi target setting process, targets will be set within 24 months of November 2023.2 Scope 1 and 2 emissions.3 The scope of our waste reporting is our factories and distribution centers managed by Coty. For our reporting on our emissions, energy usage and water consumption our scope covers our factories and distribution centers managed by Coty and our corporate offices (14 factories and distribution centers, and 40+ offices and R&D centers) and excludes third-party operated factories and distribution centers.5,11, while most was reused, recycled, or composted. We have implemented several measures to reduce water consumption across our plants and distribution centers. While certain projects are already in execution phase, other projects are in the early stages as we validate their feasibility and explore new ones to achieve our proposed targets. We continue to evaluate and modify our processes and activities to further limit our impact on the environment and to enable the deployment of our climate-related initiatives to meet our proposed targets. The Beauty of Our People: We are committed to playing our part in creating a more inclusive business and society. We celebrate diversity in all its forms and continue to work towards building a more inclusive business. We recognize the importance of diversity at a leadership level and throughout our whole organization. In fiscal 2024, we made strides in advancing our Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion (DE&I) initiatives. Through the Coty Academy, we enhanced our training programs to include DE&I fundamentals, unconscious bias, and cultural awareness. Additionally, we launched a global toolkit to facilitate Learning Festivals aimed at bolstering interpersonal communication, collaboration, and DE&I skills across our organization. Additionally, we strive for gender balance in leadership. Our Executive Committee and our Board of Directors are majority female. We also strive to reflect the communities we serve through our brands, which champion the diversity of beauty and beauty of diversity. In fiscal 2024, Max Factor UK entered the second year of partnership with UNICEF to support Skills4Girls. This program is helping give young girls the tools and resources to reach their full potential and become the next generation of successful leaders, entrepreneurs, and change-makers. A notable development this year was the introduction of a pilot program with new performance management philosophy for senior leaders, centered around Co-Creation Principles. This new approach is pivotal in our efforts to transform our workplace culture into a more inclusive and empowering environment. We have expanded our parental leave policy to offer 14 weeks of fully paid leave to all employees globally, regardless of gender, further reinforcing our commitment to creating supportive and equitable work environments. Our dedication to DE&I has been recognized through various accolades, including one of our UK subsidiariesâ€” ranking among Stonewallâ€”s Top 100 LGBTQIA+ Employers and our recognition as a leader in LGBTQ+ workplace inclusion in the US Corporate Equality Index. Additionally, two of our UK subsidiaries have achieved certification as Disability Confident Committed Employers, underscoring our commitment to accessible and inclusive work settings. We continue to focus on the development of our associates to foster their career growth and long-term employability. Our training programs at the Coty Academy are designed to align with business priorities and to enhance essential skills such as personal effectiveness, people management, and leadership. Annual Learning Festivals have been hosted at most of our largest sites and are supported by our Leadership Team. The Learning Festivals feature a strategic and experiential agenda, that have been extremely well-received. These festivals are crucial in our commitment to building capabilities aligned with our strategic priorities. They include a comprehensive delivery and communication plan along with training modules focused on interpersonal skills, collaboration, and DE&I content, effectively training thousands of participants on a variety of topics. These initiatives collectively reflect our ongoing commitment to not only embrace diversity but also to actively nurture and develop the potential of every associate within our global community. As of October 2023, we maintained our commitment to pay equity for similar roles and performance, regardless of gender by reducing the gap in every level of our global management categories. Our global Health and Safety Policy governs the management of work-related health and safety risks across all our manufacturing and distribution sites, including corporate offices. The policy, which is complemented by our Code of Conduct, sets out the principles that guide our approach to Health and Safety, as well as outlining responsibilities within the business. Government Regulation: We and our products are subject to regulation by various U.S. federal regulatory agencies as well as by various state and local regulatory authorities and by the applicable regulatory authorities in the countries in which our products are produced or sold. Such regulations principally relate to the ingredients, labeling, manufacturing, packaging, advertising and marketing and sales and distribution of our products. Because we have commercial operations overseas, we are also subject to the U.S. Foreign Corrupt Practices Act (the â€”FCPAâ€”) as well as other countriesâ€” anti-corruption and anti-bribery regimes, such as the U.K. Bribery Act. We are subject to numerous foreign, federal, provincial, state, municipal and local environmental, health and safety laws and regulations relating to, among other matters, safe working conditions, product stewardship, and environmental protection, including those relating to emissions to the air, discharges to land and surface waters, deforestation and land use, generation, handling, storage, transportation, treatment and disposal of hazardous substances and waste materials, and the registration and evaluation of chemicals. We maintain policies and procedures to monitor and control environmental, health and safety risks, and to monitor compliance with applicable environmental, health and safety requirements. Compliance with such laws and regulations pertaining to the discharge of materials into the environment, or otherwise relating to the protection of the environment, has not had a material effect upon our capital expenditures, earnings or competitive position. However, environmental and social responsibility laws and regulations have tended to become increasingly stringent which has increased our compliance costs and, to the extent regulatory changes occur in the future, they could result in, among other things, increased costs and risks of non-compliance for us. Due to our dual-listing structure, certain of our E.U. and non-E.U. entities will be subject to new sustainability-related laws being implemented by E.U. policymakers and member states. In particular, certain of our E.U. and non-E.U. entities will be subject to the extensive disclosure requirements of the Corporate Sustainability Reporting Directive (â€”CSRDâ€”), which has entailed, and will continue to entail, significant compliance efforts and costs. Regulators increased focus on climate change and other sustainability issues may lead to more scrutiny by investors and other stakeholders in Europe. In fiscal year 2025, we are assessing our compliance obligations and the impact the European Union Deforestation Regulation (â€”EUDRâ€”) will have on our business as it will require companies trading in certain commodities, including, but not limited to, palm oil, wood, as well as products derived from these commodities, to ensure these commodities and related products do not result from deforestation or forest degradation in order to sell such products in the European Union. In addition, the E.U.â€”s Corporate Sustainability Due Diligence Directive (â€”CSDDDâ€”), adopted in July 2024, may subject certain of our E.U. and non-E.U. entities to additional due diligence obligations and governance requirements with respect to their own operations and â€”chain(s) of activities,â€” as promulgated, and activities of their external suppliers in their upstream value chain. In the U.S., certain states, such as California, and the U.S. Congress have proposed legislation relating to chemical disclosure and other requirements related to the content of our products. For more information, see â€”Risk Factorsâ€” Changes in laws, regulations and policies that affect our business or products could adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.â€” Seasonality: The Companyâ€”s sales generally increase during the second fiscal quarter as a result of increased demand associated with the winter holiday season. Financial performance, working capital requirements, sales, cash flows and borrowings generally experience variability during the three to six months preceding the holiday season. Product innovations, new product launches and the size and timing of orders from the Companyâ€”s customers may also result in variability. However, the mix of product sales can vary considerably as a result of changes in seasonal and geographic demand for particular types of products, as well as other macroeconomic, operating and logistics-related factors. You should consider the following risks and uncertainties and all of the other information in this Annual Report on Form 10-K and our other filings in connection with evaluating our business and the forward-looking information contained in this Annual Report on Form 10-K. Our business and financial results may also be adversely affected by risks and uncertainties not presently known to us or that we currently believe to be immaterial. If any of the events contemplated by the following discussion of risks should occur or other risks arise or develop, our business, prospects, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows, as well as the trading price of our securities, may be materially and adversely affected. When used in this discussion, the term â€”includesâ€” and â€”includingâ€” means, unless the context otherwise indicates, including without limitation and the terms â€”Coty,â€” â€”the Company,â€” â€”we,â€” â€”our,â€” or â€”usâ€” mean, unless the context otherwise indicates, Coty Inc. and its majority and wholly-owned subsidiaries. 7. Risk Factor Summary: We are providing the following summary of the risk factors to enhance the readability and accessibility of our risk factor disclosures. We encourage you to carefully review the full risk factors discussed below in their entirety for additional information. Some of the factors that could materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations or prospects include: â€”The beauty industry is highly competitive, and if we are unable to compete effectively, our business, prospects, financial condition and results of operations could suffer.â€” Further consolidation in the retail industry and shifting preferences in how and where consumers shop, including to e-commerce, may adversely affect our business, prospects, financial condition and results of operations. â€”Changes in industry trends and consumer preferences could adversely affect our business, prospects, financial condition and results of operations.â€” Our success depends, in part, on the quality, efficacy and safety of our products.â€” Our failure to protect our reputation, or the failure of our brand partners or licensors to protect their reputations, could have a material adverse effect on our brand images.â€” Our brand licenses may be terminated if specified conditions are not met, and we may not be able to renew expiring licenses on favorable terms or at all.â€” If we are unable to obtain, maintain and protect our intellectual property rights, in particular trademarks, patents and copyrights, or if our brand partners and licensors are unable to maintain and protect their intellectual property rights that we use in connection with our products, our ability to compete could be negatively impacted.â€” Our success depends on our ability to operate our business without infringing, misappropriating or otherwise violating the intellectual property of third parties.â€” Our business is subject to seasonal variability.â€” Our success depends on our ability to achieve our global business strategies.â€” We have incurred significant costs in connection with the integration of acquisitions and simplifying our business, and expect to incur costs in connection with the implementation of our global business strategies, that could affect our period-to-period operating results.â€” Our new product introductions may not be as successful as we anticipate, which could have a material adverse effect on our business, prospects, financial condition and results of operations.â€” We may not be able to identify suitable acquisition targets and our acquisition activities and other strategic transactions may present managerial, integration, operational and financial risks, which may prevent us from realizing the full intended benefit of the acquisitions we undertake.â€” We face risks associated with our joint ventures and strategic partnership investments.â€” Our goodwill and other assets have been subject to impairment and may continue to be subject to impairment in the future.â€” A disruption in operations could adversely affect our business.â€” We outsource a number of functions to third-party service providers, and any failure to perform or other disruptions or delays at our third-party service providers could adversely impact our business, our results of operations or our financial condition.â€” We are increasingly dependent on information technology, and if we are unable to protect against service interruptions, corruption of our data and privacy protections, cyber-based attacks or network security breaches, our operations could be disrupted.â€” We must continue to maintain and make requisite or critical upgrades to our information technology systems, and our failure to do so could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.â€” Failure to protect sensitive information of our consumers and information technology systems against security breaches could damage our reputation and substantially harm our business, financial condition and results of operations.â€” Failure of or disruption to one or more of our information technology platforms could affect our ability to execute our operating strategy.â€” We use interests of our other stockholders. We are a controlled company within the meaning of the NYSE rules and, as a result, are entitled to rely on exemptions from certain corporate governance requirements that are designed to provide protection to stockholders of companies that are not controlled companies. The dual-listing of our Class A Common Stock on the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE) and on Euronext Paris's Professional Segment may adversely affect the liquidity and value of our Class A Common Stock. Risk Factors Risks related to our Business and Industry The beauty industry is highly competitive, and if we are unable to compete effectively, our business, prospects, financial condition and results of operations could suffer. The beauty industry is highly competitive and can change rapidly due to consumer preferences and industry trends, such as the expansion of digital channels, direct-to-consumer channels, new disruptive trendy brands and advances in technology such as artificial intelligence (AI). Competition in the beauty industry is based on several factors, including pricing, value and quality, product efficacy, packaging and brands, speed or quality of innovation and new product introductions, in-store presence and visibility, promotional activities (including influencers) and brand recognition, distribution channels, advertising, editorials and adaption to evolving technology and device trends, including via e-commerce initiatives. Our competitors include large multinational consumer products companies, private label brands and emerging companies, among others, and some have greater resources than we do or may be able to respond more quickly or effectively to changing business and economic conditions than we can. It is difficult for us to predict the timing and scale of our competitors' actions and their impact on the industry or on our business. For example, the fragrance category is being influenced by new product introductions, niche brands and growing e-commerce distribution. The color cosmetics category has been influenced by entry by new competitors and smaller competitors that are fast to respond to trends and engage with their customers through digital platforms, including using new or advancing technologies such as AI and innovative in-store activations. Furthermore, e-commerce and the online retail industry is characterized by rapid technological evolution, changes in consumer requirements and preferences, frequent introductions of new products and services embodying new technologies and the emergence of new industry standards and practices and evolving regulatory regimes, any of which could render our existing technologies and systems obsolete. Our success will depend, in part, on our ability to identify, develop, acquire or license leading technologies useful in our business, and respond to technological advances and emerging industry standards and practices in a cost-effective and timely way. If we are unable to compete effectively on a global basis or in our key product categories or geographies, it could have an adverse impact on our business, prospects, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows, as well as the trading price of our securities. Further consolidation in the retail industry and shifting preferences in how and where consumers shop, including to e-commerce, may adversely affect our business, prospects, financial condition and results of operations. Significant consolidation in the retail industry has occurred during the last several years. The trend toward consolidation, particularly in developed markets such as the U.S. and Western Europe, has resulted in our becoming increasingly dependent on our relationships with, and the overall business health of, fewer key retailers that control an increasing percentage of retail locations, which trend may continue. For example, certain retailers account for over 10% of our net revenues in certain geographies, including the U.S. Our success is dependent on our ability to manage our retailer relationships, including offering trade terms on mutually acceptable terms. Furthermore, increased online competition and declining in-store traffic has resulted, and may continue to result, in brick-and-mortar retailers closing physical stores, which could negatively impact our distribution strategies and/or sales if such retailers decide to significantly reduce their inventory levels for our products or to designate more shelf space to our competitors. Additionally, these retailers periodically assess the allocation of shelf space and have elected (and could further elect) to reduce the shelf space allocated to our products. Some of our brands, including CoverGirl, have experienced shelf space losses in the past, and such declines may continue or resume. Further consolidation and store closures, or reduction in inventory levels of our products or shelf space devoted to our products, or the financial distress of a major retailer, could have a material adverse effect on our business, prospects, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows, as well as the trading price of our securities. We generally do not have long-term sales contracts or other sales assurances with our retail customers. Consumer shopping preferences have also shifted, and may continue to shift in the future, to distribution channels other than traditional retail in which we have more limited experience, presence and development, such as direct-to-consumer sales and e-commerce. In particular, expansion of our direct-to-consumer business presents challenges for logistics and fulfillment as well as additional regulatory compliance. If we are not successful in our efforts to expand distribution channels, including growing our e-commerce activities, we will not be able to compete effectively. In addition, our entry into new categories and geographies has exposed, and may continue to expose, us to new distribution channels or risks about which we have less experience. Any change in our distribution channels, such as direct sales, could also expose us to disputes with distributors. If we are not successful in developing and utilizing these channels or other channels that future consumers may prefer, we may experience lower than expected revenues. Changes in industry trends and consumer preferences could adversely affect our business, prospects, financial condition and results of operations. Our success depends on our products' appeal to a broad range of consumers whose preferences cannot be predicted with certainty and may change rapidly, and on our ability to anticipate and respond in a timely and cost-effective manner to industry trends through product innovations, product line extensions and marketing and promotional activities, among other things. Product life cycles and consumer preferences continue to be affected by the rapidly increasing use and proliferation of social and digital media by consumers, and the speed with which information and opinions are shared. As product life cycles shorten, we must continually work to develop, produce and market new products, maintain and enhance the recognition of our brands and shorten our product development and supply chain cycles. In addition, net revenues and margins on beauty products tend to decline as they advance in their life cycles, so our net revenues and margins could suffer if we do not successfully and continuously develop new products. This product innovation also can place a strain on our employees and our financial resources, including incurring expenses in connection with product innovation and development, marketing and advertising that are not subsequently supported by a sufficient level of sales. Furthermore, we cannot predict how consumers will react to any new products that we launch or to repositioning of our brands. Our successful product launches may not continue. The amount of positive or negative sales contribution of any of our products may change significantly within a period or from period to period. The above-referenced factors, as well as new product risks, could have an adverse effect on our business, prospects, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows, as well as the trading price of our securities. These risks have been exacerbated by the impact of general economic conditions such as inflationary pressures on our business. Consumer spending habits and consumer confidence have shifted and may continue to change in light of inflationary pressures, as well as changes in work practices and travel trends impacting the demand for our products. Our success depends, in part, on the quality, efficacy and safety of our products. Product safety or quality failures, actual or perceived, or allegations of product contamination, even when false or unfounded, or inclusion of regulated ingredients could tarnish the image of our brands and could cause consumers to choose other products. Allegations of contamination, allergens or other adverse effects on product safety or suitability for use by a particular consumer, even if untrue, may require us from time to time to recall a product from all of the markets in which the affected product was distributed. Such issues or recalls and any related litigation could negatively affect our profitability and brand image. In addition, government authorities and self-regulatory bodies regulate advertising and product claims regarding the performance and benefits of our products. These regulatory authorities typically require a reasonable basis to support any marketing claims. What constitutes a reasonable basis for substantiation can vary widely based on geography, and the efforts that we undertake to support our claims may not be deemed adequate for any particular product or claim. If we are unable to show adequate substantiation for our product claims, or our promotional materials make claims that exceed the scope of allowed claims for the classification of the specific product, regulatory authorities could take enforcement action or impose penalties, such as monetary consumer redress, requiring us to revise our marketing materials, amend our claims or stop selling or recalling certain products, all of which could harm our business, prospects, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows, as well as the trading price of our securities. Any regulatory action or penalty could lead to private party actions, which could further harm our business, prospects, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows, as well as the trading price of our securities. If our products are perceived to be defective or unsafe, or if they otherwise fail to meet our consumers' expectations, our relationships with customers or consumers could suffer, the appeal of one or more of our brands could be diminished, and we could lose sales or become subject to liability claims. In addition, safety or other defects in our competitors' products could reduce consumer demand for our own products if consumers view them to be similar or view the defects as symptomatic of the product category. Any of these outcomes could result in a material adverse effect on our business, prospects, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows, as well as the trading price of our securities. Our failure to protect our reputation, or the failure of our brand partners or licensors to protect their reputations, could have a material adverse effect on our brand images. Our ability to maintain our reputation is critical to our business and our various brand images. Our reputation could be jeopardized if we fail to maintain high standards for product quality and integrity (including should we be perceived as violating the law) or if we, or the third parties with whom we do business, do not comply with regulations or accepted practices and are subject to a significant product recall, litigation, or allegations of tampering, animal testing, use of certain ingredients (such as certain palm oil) or misconduct by executives, founders or influencers. Any negative publicity about these types of concerns or other concerns, whether actual or perceived or directed towards us or our competitors, may reduce demand for our products. Failure to comply with ethical, social, product, labor and environmental standards, or related political considerations, could also jeopardize our reputation and potentially lead to various adverse consumer actions, including boycotts. In addition, the behavior of our employees, including with respect to our employees' use of social media subjects us to potential negative publicity if such use does not align with our high standards and integrity or fails to comply with regulations or accepted practices. Furthermore, widespread use of digital and social media by consumers has greatly increased the accessibility of information and the speed of its dissemination. Negative or inaccurate publicity, posts or comments on social media, whether accurate or inaccurate, about us, our employees or our brand partners (including influencers) and licensors, our respective brands or our respective products, whether true or untrue, could damage our respective brands and our reputation. We also devote time and resources to citizenship efforts that are consistent with our corporate values and are designed to strengthen our business and protect and preserve our reputation, including programs driving diversity, equity and inclusion, responsible sourcing, packaging and environmental sustainability. If these programs are not executed as planned, fail or be perceived to fail in our achievement of announced goals or initiatives (or are unable to accurately report on our progress) or suffer negative publicity, our reputation and results of operations or cash flows could be adversely impacted. In addition, we could be criticized for the scope of such initiatives or goals or perceived as not acting responsibly in connection with these matters. Additionally, our success is also partially dependent on the reputations of our brand partners, influencers and licensors and the goodwill associated with their intellectual property. We often rely on our brand partners, influencers or licensors to manage and maintain their brands, but these licensors' reputation or goodwill may be harmed due to factors outside our control, which could be attributed to our other brands and have a material adverse effect on our business, prospects, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows, as well as the trading price of our securities. Many of these brand licenses are with fashion houses, whose popularity may decline due to mismanagement, changes in fashion or consumer preferences, allegations against their management or designers or other factors beyond our control. Similarly, certain of our products bear the names and likeness of celebrities, whose brand or image may change without notice and who may not maintain the appropriate celebrity status or positive association among the consumer public to support projected sales levels. In addition, in the event that any of these licensors were to enter bankruptcy proceedings, we could lose our rights to use the intellectual property that the applicable licensors license to us. Damage to our reputation or the reputations of our brand partners or licensors or loss of consumer confidence for any of these or other reasons could have a material adverse effect on our results of operations, financial condition and cash flows, as well as require additional resources to rebuild our reputation. Our brand licenses may be terminated if specified conditions are not met, and we may not be able to renew expiring licenses on favorable terms or at all. We license trademarks for many of our product lines. Our brand licenses typically impose various obligations on us, including the payment of annual royalties, maintenance of the quality of the licensed products, achievement of minimum sales levels, promotion of sales and qualifications and behavior of our suppliers, distributors and retailers. We have breached, and may in the future breach, certain terms of our brand licenses. If we breach our obligations, our rights under the applicable brand license agreements could be terminated by the licensor and we could, among other things, have to pay damages, lose our ability to sell products related to that brand, lose any upfront investments made in connection with such license and sustain reputational damage. In addition, most brand licenses have renewal options for one or more terms, which can range from three to ten years. Certain brand licenses provide for automatic extensions, so long as minimum annual royalty payments are made, while renewal of others is contingent upon attaining specified sales levels or upon agreement of the licensor. We may not be able to renew expiring licenses on terms that are favorable to us or at all. We may also face difficulties in finding replacements for terminated or expired licenses. Each of the aforementioned risks could have a material adverse effect on our business, prospects, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows, as well as the trading price of our securities. If we are unable to obtain, maintain and protect our intellectual property rights, in particular trademarks, patents and copyrights, or if our brand partners and licensors are unable to maintain and protect their intellectual property rights that we use in connection with our products, our ability to compete could be negatively impacted. Our intellectual property is a valuable asset of our business. Although certain of the intellectual property we use is registered in the U.S. and in many of the foreign countries in which we operate, there can be no assurances with respect to the continuation of such intellectual property rights, including our ability to further register, use or defend key current or future trademarks. Further, applicable law may provide only limited and uncertain protection, particularly in emerging markets, such as China. Furthermore, we may not apply for, or be unable to obtain, intellectual property protection for certain aspects of our business. Third parties have in the past, and could in the future, bring infringement, invalidity, co-inventorship, re-examination, opposition or similar claims with respect to our current or future intellectual property. Any such claims, whether or not successful, could be costly to defend, may not be sufficiently covered by any indemnification provisions to which we are party, divert management's attention and resources, damage our reputation and brands, and substantially harm our business, prospects, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows, as well as the trading price of our securities. Patent expirations may also affect our business. As patents expire, competitors may be able to legally produce and market products similar to the ones that were patented, which could have a material adverse effect on our business, prospects, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows, as well as the trading price of our securities. In addition, third parties may distribute and sell counterfeit or other infringing versions of our products, which may be inferior or pose safety risks and could confuse consumers or customers, which could cause them to refrain from purchasing our brands in the future or otherwise damage our reputation. In recent years, there has been an increase in the availability of counterfeit goods, including fragrances, in various markets by street vendors and small retailers, as well as on the Internet. The presence of counterfeit versions of our products in the market and of prestige products in mass distribution channels, including grey market products, could also dilute the value of our brands, force us and our distributors to compete with heavily discounted products, cause us to be in breach of contract (including license agreements), impact our compliance with distribution and competition laws in jurisdictions including the E.U. and China, or otherwise have a negative impact on our reputation and business, prospects, financial condition or results of operations. We are engaged in efforts to rationalize our wholesale distribution channel and continue efforts to reduce the amount of product diversion to the value and mass channels; however, stopping or significantly reducing such commerce could result in a potential adverse impact to our sales and net revenues, including to those customers who are selling our products to unauthorized retailers, or an increase in returns over historical levels. To protect or enforce our intellectual property and other proprietary rights, we may initiate litigation or other proceedings against third parties, such as infringement suits, opposition proceedings or interference proceedings. Any lawsuits or proceedings that we initiate could be expensive, take significant time and divert management's attention from other business concerns, adversely impact customer relations and we may not be successful. Litigation and other proceedings may also put our intellectual property at risk of being invalidated or interpreted narrowly. In addition, while we maintain a robust anti-counterfeiting and brand enforcement program, bringing numerous actions against infringers every year, such efforts may not be successful. The occurrence of any of these events may have a material adverse effect on our business, prospects, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows, as well as the trading price of our securities. In addition, many of our products bear, and the value of our brands is affected by, the trademarks and other intellectual property rights of our brand and joint venture partners and licensors. Our brand and joint venture partners' ability to maintain and protect their trademark and other intellectual property rights is subject to risks similar to those described above with respect to our intellectual property. We do not control the protection of the trademarks and other intellectual property rights of our brand and joint venture partners and licensors and cannot ensure that our brand and joint venture partners and licensors will be able to secure or protect their trademarks and other intellectual property rights, which could have a material adverse effect on our business, prospects, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows, as well as the trading price of our securities. Our success depends on our ability to operate our business without infringing, misappropriating or otherwise violating the intellectual property of third parties. Our commercial success depends in part on our ability to operate without infringing, misappropriating or otherwise violating the trademarks, patents, copyrights and other proprietary rights of third parties. However, we cannot be certain that the conduct of our business does not and will not infringe, misappropriate or otherwise violate such rights. Moreover, our acquisition targets and other businesses in which we make strategic investments are often smaller or younger companies with less robust intellectual property clearance practices, and we may face challenges on the use of their trademarks and other proprietary rights. If we are found to be infringing, misappropriating or otherwise violating a third party trademark, patent, copyright or other proprietary rights, we may need to obtain a license, which may not be available in a timely manner on commercially reasonable terms or at all, or redesign or rebrand our products, which may not be possible or result in a significant delay to market or otherwise have an adverse commercial impact. We may also be required to pay substantial damages or be subject to a court order prohibiting us and our customers from selling certain products or engaging in certain activities, which could therefore have a material adverse effect on our business, prospects, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows, as well as the trading price of our securities. Our business is subject to seasonal variability. Our sales generally increase during our second fiscal quarter as a result of increased demand by retailers associated with the winter holiday season. Accordingly, our financial performance, sales, working capital requirements, cash flow and borrowings generally experience variability during the three to six months preceding and during the holiday period. As a result of this seasonality, our expenses, including working capital expenditures and advertising spend, are typically higher during the period before a high-demand season. Consequently, any substantial decrease in, or inaccurate forecasting with respect to, net revenues during such periods of high demand including as a result of decreased customer purchases or other changes in order patterns, increased product returns, production or distribution disruptions or other events (many of which are outside of our control), would prevent us from being able to recoup our earlier expenses and could have a material adverse effect on our financial condition, results of operations and cash flows, as well as the trading price of our securities. Risks Related to our Business Strategy and Organization Our success depends on our ability to achieve our global business strategies. Our future performance and growth depends on the success of our global business strategies, including our management team's ability to successfully implement them, including a focus on improving gross margin, deleveraging, and simplifying our business. The multi-year implementation of our global business strategies has resulted and is expected to continue to result in changes to business priorities and operations, capital allocation priorities, operational and organizational structure, and increased demands on management. Such changes could result in short-term and one-time costs without any current revenues, lost customers, reduced sales volume, higher than expected restructuring costs, loss of key personnel, additional supply chain disruptions, higher costs of supply and other negative impacts on our business. Implementation of our global business strategy may take longer than anticipated, and, once implemented, we may not realize, in full or in part, the anticipated benefits or such benefits may be realized more slowly than anticipated. The failure to realize benefits, which may be due to our inability to execute plans, delays in the implementation of our global business strategies, global or local economic conditions, competition, changes in the beauty industry and the other risks described herein, could have a material adverse effect on our business, prospects, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows, as well as the trading price of our securities. Our strategy includes executing on our brand repositioning and continuing to focus our brand-building efforts on priority categories, channels and markets. In addition, we continue to prioritize our deleveraging objectives. In the future, we may dispose of or discontinue select brands and/or streamline operations, and dispose of select businesses or interests therein (including through strategic transactions or public offerings) and incur costs or restructuring and/or other charges in doing so. We may face risks of declines in brand performance and license terminations, due to expirations and/or allegations of breach or for other reasons, including with regard to any potentially divested or discontinued brands. If and when we decide to divest or discontinue any brands or lines of business, we cannot be sure that we will be able to locate suitable buyers or that we will be able to complete such divestitures (including through strategic transactions or public offerings) or discontinuances successfully, timely, at appropriate valuations and on commercially advantageous terms, or without significant costs, including relating to any post-closing purchase price adjustments or claims for indemnification. Any future divestitures and discontinuances could have, a dilutive impact on our earnings, create dis-synergies, and divert significant financial, operational and managerial resources from our existing operations and make it more difficult to achieve our operating and strategic objectives. We also cannot be sure of the effect such divestitures or discontinuances would have on the performance of our remaining business or ability to execute our global business strategies. We have incurred significant costs in connection with the integration of acquisitions and simplifying our business, and expect to incur costs in connection with the implementation of our global business strategies, that could affect our period-to-period operating results. We have incurred significant restructuring costs in the past, and, as we continue to implement our global business strategies and any future restructuring initiatives, we expect to continue to incur one-time cash costs. In the past, as we integrated acquisitions, including the transformational acquisition of the P&G Beauty Business, we experienced challenges, including supply chain disruptions, higher than expected costs and lost customers and related revenue and profits, and we could experience these or other challenges arising from the implementation of our global business strategies and any future restructuring initiatives. The cash usage associated with such, and similar, expenses has impacted and could continue to impact our ability to execute our business strategies, improve operating results and leverage our balance sheet. If our management is not able to effectively manage these initiatives, address fixed and other costs, we incur additional operating expenses or capital expenditures to realize synergies, simplifications and cost savings, or if any significant business activities are interrupted as a result of these initiatives, our business, prospects, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows, as well as the trading price of our securities may be materially adversely affected. The amount and timing of the above-referenced charges and management distraction could further adversely affect our business, prospects, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows, as well as the trading price of our securities. In addition, the implementation of our global business strategies, any continuing or future restructuring initiatives and the integration of acquisitions may impact our ability to anticipate future business trends and accurately forecast future results. The diversion of resources to the integration of the P&G Beauty Business, together with changes and turnover in our management teams as we reorganized our business, negatively impacted our fiscal 2018 and 2019 results. The implementation of our global business strategies could result in similar challenges. Although our global business strategies are intended to deliver meaningful, sustainable expense and cost management improvement, events and circumstances such as financial or strategic difficulties, significant employee turnover, business disruption and delays may occur or continue, resulting in new, unexpected or increased costs that could result in us not realizing all of the anticipated benefits of our global business strategies on our expected timetable or at all. In addition, we are executing many initiatives simultaneously, including changes to our operations and global strategy, which may result in further diversion of our resources, employee attrition and business disruption (including supply chain disruptions), and may adversely impact the execution of such initiatives. Any failure to implement our global business strategies and other initiatives in accordance with our expectations could adversely affect our business, prospects, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows, as well as the trading price of our securities. Our new product introductions may not be as successful as we anticipate, which could have a material adverse effect on our business, prospects, financial condition and results of operations. We must continually work to develop, produce and market new products and maintain a favorable mix of products in order to respond in an effective manner to changing consumer preferences. We continually develop our approach as to how and where we market and sell our products. In addition, we believe that we must maintain and enhance the recognition of our brands, which may require us to quickly and continuously adapt in a highly competitive industry to deliver desirable products and branding to our consumers. For example, as part of our global business strategies, we are instituting new objectives for our innovation efforts to support expansion of category coverage and sustainability. If these or other initiatives are not successful, our business, prospects, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows, as well as the trading price of our securities could be adversely impacted. We have made changes and may continue to change our process for the continuous development and evaluation of new product concepts. In addition, each new product launch carries risks. For example, we may incur costs exceeding our expectations, our advertising, promotional and marketing strategies may be less effective than planned or customer purchases may not be as high as anticipated. In addition, we may experience a decrease in sales of certain of our existing products as a result of consumer preferences shifting to our newly-launched products or to the products of our competitors as a result of unsuccessful or unpopular product launches harming our brands. Also, initially successful launches may not be sustained. Any of these could have a material adverse effect on our business, prospects, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows, as well as the trading price of our securities. As part of our ongoing business strategy we expect that we will need to continue to introduce new products in our traditional product categories and channels, while also expanding our product launches into adjacent categories and channels in which we may have less operating experience. For example, we entered into strategic partnerships with Kylie Jenner and Kim Kardashian, both digital-native beauty businesses, we are continuing our expansion into prestige cosmetics, and we are building a comprehensive skincare portfolio leveraging existing and new brands. The success of product launches in these or adjacent product categories could be hampered by our relative inexperience operating in such categories and channels, the strength of our competitors or any of the other risks referred to herein. Our inability to introduce successful products in our traditional categories and channels or in these or other adjacent categories and channels could limit our future growth and have a material adverse effect on our business, prospects, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows, as well as the trading price of our securities. We may not be able to identify suitable acquisition targets and our acquisition activities and other strategic transactions may present managerial, integration, operational and financial risks, which may prevent us from realizing the full intended benefit of the acquisitions we undertake. Our acquisition activities and other strategic transactions expose us to certain risks related to integration, including diversion of management attention from existing core businesses and substantial investment of resources to support integration. During the past several years, we have explored and undertaken opportunities to acquire other companies and assets as part of our growth strategy. For example, we completed five significant acquisitions in fiscal 2016 through fiscal 2018 (including the acquisition of the P&G Beauty Business in October 2016). We entered into a joint venture with Kylie Jenner in fiscal 2020 and a strategic partnership with Kim Kardashian in fiscal 2021. These assets represent a significant portion of our net assets, particularly the P&G Beauty Business. As we consider growth opportunities, we may continue to seek acquisitions that we believe strengthen our competitive position in our key segments and geographies or accelerate our ability to grow into adjacent product categories and channels and emerging markets or which otherwise fit our strategy. There can be no assurance that we will be able to identify suitable acquisition candidates, be the successful bidder or consummate acquisitions on favorable terms, have the funds to acquire desirable acquisitions or otherwise realize the full intended benefit of such transactions. In addition, acquisitions could adversely impact our deleveraging strategy. The assumptions we use to evaluate acquisition opportunities may prove to be inaccurate, and intended benefits may not be realized. Our due diligence investigations may fail to identify all of the problems, liabilities or other challenges associated with an acquired business which could result in increased risk of unanticipated or unknown issues or liabilities, including with respect to environmental, competition and other regulatory matters, and our mitigation strategies for such risks that are identified may not be effective. As a result, we may not achieve some or any of the benefits, including anticipated synergies or accretion to earnings or other financial measures, that we expect to achieve in connection with our acquisitions and joint ventures, or we may not accurately anticipate the fixed and other costs associated with such acquisitions and joint ventures, or the business may not achieve the performance we anticipated, which may materially adversely affect our business, prospects, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows, as well as the trading price of our securities. Any financing for an acquisition could increase our indebtedness or result in a potential violation of the debt covenants under our existing facilities requiring consent or waiver from our lenders, which could delay or prevent the acquisition, or dilute the interests of our stockholders. For example, in connection with the acquisition of the P&G Beauty Business, Green Acquisition Sub Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, was merged with and into Galleria, with Galleria continuing as the surviving corporation and a direct wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company (the "Green Merger") and pre-Green Merger holders of our stock were diluted to 46% of the fully diluted shares of common stock immediately following the Green Merger. In addition, acquisitions of foreign businesses, new entrepreneurial businesses and businesses in new distribution channels, such as our acquisition of the Brazilian personal care and beauty business of Hypermarcas S.A. (the "Hypermarcas Brands") and our joint venture with Kylie Jenner and our investment in the Kim Kardashian beauty business, entail certain particular risks, including potential difficulties in geographies and channels in which we lack a significant presence, difficulty in seizing business opportunities compared to local or other global competitors, difficulty in complying with new regulatory frameworks, the acquisition of new or unexpected liabilities, the adverse impact of fluctuating exchange rates and entering lines of business where we have limited or no direct experience. See "Fluctuations in currency exchange rates may negatively impact our financial condition and results of operations" and "We are subject to risks related to our international operations." We face risks associated with our joint ventures and strategic partnership investments. We are party to several joint ventures and strategic partnership investments in both the U.S. and abroad. Going forward, we may acquire interests in more joint venture enterprises or other strategic partnerships to execute our business strategy by utilizing our partners' skills, experiences and resources. These joint ventures and investments involve risks that our joint venture or strategic investment partners may not have economic or business interests or goals that are inconsistent with or adverse to ours; we may take actions contrary to our requests or contrary to our policies or objectives, including actions that may violate applicable law; we may be unable or unwilling to fulfill their obligations under the relevant joint venture agreements; we may have financial or business difficulties; we may take actions that may harm our reputation; we may have disputes with us as to the scope of their rights, responsibilities and obligations. In certain cases, joint ventures and strategic partnership investments may present us with a lack of ability to fully control all aspects of their operations, including due to veto rights, and we may not have full visibility with respect to all operations, customer relations and compliance practices, among others. Our present or future joint venture and strategic partnership investment projects may not be successful. We have had, and in the future may have, disputes or encounter other problems with respect to our present or future joint venture or strategic investment partners or our joint venture or strategic partnership investment agreements may not be effective or enforceable in resolving these disputes or we may not be able to resolve such disputes and solve such problems in a timely manner or on favorable economic terms, or at all. Any failure by us to address these potential disputes or conflicts of interest effectively could have a material adverse effect on our business, prospects, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows, as well as the trading price of our securities. Our goodwill and other assets have been subject to impairment and may continue to be subject to impairment in the future. We are required, at least annually and sometimes on an interim basis, to test goodwill and indefinite-lived intangible assets to determine if any impairment has occurred. Impairment may result from various factors, including adverse changes in assumptions used for valuation purposes, such as actual or projected revenue growth rates, profitability or discount rates. If the testing indicates that an impairment has occurred, we are required to record a non-cash impairment charge for the difference between the carrying value of the goodwill or indefinite intangible assets and the fair value of the goodwill or of indefinite-lived intangible assets. We cannot predict the amount and timing of any future impairments, if any. We have experienced impairment charges with respect to goodwill, intangible assets or other items in connection with past acquisitions, and we may experience such charges in connection with such acquisitions or future acquisitions, particularly if business performance declines or expected growth is not realized or the applicable discount rate changes adversely. For example, in our continuing operations in fiscal 2022, we incurred impairment charges of $31.4, primarily related to impairments on indefinite-lived other intangible assets. It is possible that material changes in our business, market conditions, or market assumptions could occur over time. Any future impairment of our goodwill or other intangible assets could have an adverse effect on our financial condition and results of operations, as well as the trading price of our securities. For a further discussion of our impairment testing, please refer to "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations-Financial Condition-Liquidity and Capital Resources-Goodwill, Other Intangible Assets and Long-Lived Assets." Risks Related to our Business Operations A disruption in operations could adversely affect our business. As a company engaged in manufacturing and distribution on a global scale, we are subject to the risks inherent in such activities, including industrial accidents, environmental events, strikes and other labor disputes (including as to works councils), disruptions in supply chain or information systems, loss or impairment of key manufacturing sites or distribution centers, product quality control, safety, licensing requirements and other regulatory issues, as well as natural disasters, pandemics or outbreaks of contagious diseases, border disputes, acts of terrorism, armed conflicts such as the war in Ukraine and other geopolitical tensions, possible dawn raids, and other external factors over which we have no control. For example, in fiscal 2022, limited driver capacity and transportation delays impacted our U.S. distribution centers resulting in increased costs, including penalty payments to retailers for delayed product delivery. As we continue our implementation of our global business strategies (including our cost discipline activities and sustainability initiatives) and other restructuring activities, any additional or ongoing supply chain disruptions or delay in securing applicable approvals or consultations for such activities may impact our quarterly results. The loss of, or damage or disruption to, any of our manufacturing facilities or distribution centers could have a material adverse effect on our business, prospects, results of operations, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows, as well as the trading price of our securities. We manufacture and package a majority of our products. Raw materials, consisting chiefly of essential oils, alcohols, chemicals, containers and packaging components, are purchased from various third-party suppliers. The loss of multiple suppliers or a significant disruption or interruption in the supply chain, or our relationships with key suppliers due to our payment terms or otherwise, could have a material adverse effect on the manufacturing and packaging of our products. In fiscal 2023, inflationary pressures as well as global supply chain disruptions caused significant volatility in the cost and availability of the raw materials and services (such as transportation) that we need to manufacture and distribute our products. In particular, increases in energy costs due to global geopolitical conditions, particularly in Europe, impacted the cost and availability of raw materials, including glass and glass components and certain resins. Although inflationary pressures have eased, future increases in the costs of raw materials or other commodities and transportation services may adversely affect our profit margins if we are unable to pass along any higher costs in the form of price increases or otherwise achieve cost efficiencies in manufacturing and distribution. In addition, failure by our third-party suppliers to comply with ethical, social, product, labor and environmental laws, regulations or standards, or their engagement in politically or socially controversial conduct, such as animal testing, could negatively impact our reputations and lead to various adverse consequences, including decreased sales and consumer boycotts. We are also subject to reporting requirements under The Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act of 2010 regarding the use of certain minerals mined from the Democratic Republic of Congo and adjoining countries and procedures pertaining to a manufacturer's efforts in identifying the source of such minerals. SEC rules implementing these requirements may have the effect of reducing the pool of suppliers who may supply conflict-free products, and we may not be able to obtain conflict-free products or supplies in sufficient quantities for our operations. Likewise, we have faced, and may continue to face, constraints in the availability of certain raw materials that align with our sustainability goals, including responsibly sourced palm oil, mica and recycled materials. Since our supply chain is complex, we may face operational obstacles and reputational challenges with our customers and stockholders if we are unable to continue to sufficiently verify the origins for materials used in our products and packaging or if we are subject to additional supply chain diligence and disclosure regulations or other reporting obligations. The above risks have been and may continue to be exacerbated by the impact of inflationary pressures, global supply chain disruptions on our business, and our efforts to manage and remedy these impacts to the Company may not achieve results in accordance with our expectations or on the timelines we anticipate. We outsource a number of functions to third-party service providers, and any failure to perform or other disruptions or delays at our third-party service providers could adversely impact our business, our results of operations or our financial condition. We have outsourced and may continue to outsource certain functions, including outsourcing of distribution functions, outsourcing of business processes (including certain financing and accounting functions), and third-party manufacturers, logistics and supply chain suppliers, and other suppliers, including third-party software providers, web-hosting and e-commerce providers, and we are dependent on the entities performing those functions. The failure of one or more such providers to provide the expected services, provide them on a timely basis or provide them at the prices we expect, the failure of one or more of such providers to meet our performance standards and expectations, including with respect to data security, compliance with data protection and privacy laws, disruptions arising from the transition of functions to an outsourcing provider, or the costs incurred in returning these outsourced functions to being performed under our management and direct control, may have a material adverse effect on our results of operations or financial condition. We are increasingly dependent on information technology, and if we are unable to protect against service interruptions, corruption of our data and privacy protections, cyber-based attacks or network security breaches, our operations could be disrupted. We rely on information technology networks and systems, including the Internet, to process, transmit and store electronic and financial information, to manage a variety of business processes and activities, and to comply with regulatory, legal and tax requirements. We also increasingly depend on our information technology infrastructure for digital marketing activities, e-commerce and for electronic communications among our locations, personnel, customers and suppliers around the world, including as a result of remote working in connection with flexible working arrangements. These information technology systems, some of which are managed by third parties that we do not control, may be susceptible to damage, disruptions or shutdowns due to failures during the process of upgrading or replacing software, databases or components thereof, outages in our restructuring and simplification initiatives, power outages, hardware failures, telecommunication failures, user errors, catastrophic events or other problems. In addition, our databases and systems and our third-party providers' databases and systems have been, and will likely continue to be, subject to advanced computer viruses or other malicious codes, ransomware, unauthorized access attempts, denial of service attacks, phishing, social engineering, hacking and other cyber attacks, the threat of which is increasing in frequency, intensity and duration. Such attacks have become increasingly difficult to detect, defend against or prevent and may originate from outside parties, hackers, criminal organizations or other threat actors, including nation states. As AI capabilities improve and gain widespread use, we may experience cyber attacks created using AI, which may be difficult to detect and mitigate against. These attacks could be designed with an AI tool to directly attack information systems with increased speed and/or efficiency than a human or create more effective phishing techniques. It is also possible for a threat to be introduced as a result of our customers and third-party providers using the output of an AI tool that includes a threat, such as introducing malicious code by incorporating AI-generated source code. In addition, insider actors (malicious or otherwise) could cause technical disruptions and/or confidential data leakage. Our security efforts or the security efforts of our third-party providers may not be sufficient to prevent material breaches, operational incidents or other breakdowns to our or our third-party providers' information technology databases or systems. If our information technology systems otherwise suffer severe damage, disruption or shutdown and our business continuity plans do not effectively resolve the issues in a timely manner, our product sales, financial condition and results of operations may be materially and adversely affected, and we could experience delays in reporting our financial results. If not managed and mitigated effectively, these risks could increase in the future as we expand our digital capabilities and e-commerce activities, including through the use of new digital applications and technologies. There are further risks associated with the information systems of our joint ventures and of the companies we acquire, both in terms of systems compatibility, process controls, level of security and functionality. It may cost us significant time, money and resources to address these risks and if our systems were to fail or we are unable to successfully expand the capacity of these systems, or we are unable to integrate new technologies into our existing systems, our financial condition, results of operations and cash flows, as well as the trading price of our securities, may be adversely affected. We must continue to maintain and make requisite or critical upgrades to our information technology systems, and our failure to do so could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations. Our information technology systems, operations and security control frameworks require an ongoing commitment of significant resources to maintain, protect, and enhance existing systems to keep pace with continuing changes in technology, legal and regulatory standards, cyber threats and the commercial opportunities that accompany the changing digital and data-driven economy. From time to time, we undertake significant information technology systems projects, including enterprise resource planning updates, modifications, integrations and roll-outs, as well as separation and carve-out activities relating to dispositions. These projects may be subject to cost overruns and delays and may cause disruptions in our daily business operations. These cost overruns and delays and distractions as well as our reliance on certain third parties for certain business and financial information could impact our financial statements and could adversely impact our ability to run our business, correctly forecast future performance and make fully informed decisions. Failure to protect sensitive information of our consumers and information technology systems against security breaches could damage our reputation and substantially harm our business, financial condition and results of operations. We collect, maintain, transmit, store and otherwise process data about our consumers, suppliers, prospective and current employees, and others, including personal data, financial information, including consumer payment information, as well as other confidential and proprietary information important to our business. We also employ third-party service providers that collect, store, process and transmit personal data, and confidential, proprietary and financial information on our behalf. We are subject to an evolving body of federal, state and non-U.S. laws, regulations, guidelines, and principles regarding data privacy and security. A data breach or inability on our part to comply with such laws, regulations, guidelines, and principles or to quickly adapt our practices to reflect them as they develop, could potentially subject us to significant liabilities and reputational harm. Several governments, including the E.U., the U.K., Brazil, China and several states in the United States, have regulations dealing with the collection and use of personal information obtained from their citizens, and regulators globally are also imposing greater monetary fines for privacy violations. In addition, in the U.S. and internationally, there has been increased legislative and regulatory activity related to AI and the risks and challenges AI poses, including the European Union's Artificial Intelligence Act and the current U.S. presidential administration's executive order to, among other things, establish AI safety and security. These existing laws and other changes in laws or regulations associated with the enhanced protection of certain types of sensitive data and other personal information, require us to evaluate our current operations, information technology systems and data handling practices and implement enhancements and adaptations where necessary to comply. Compliance with these laws, could greatly increase our operational costs or require us to adapt certain products, operations, processes or activities in otherwise suboptimal ways, to comply with the stricter regulatory requirements, such as efforts to meet consumer demand for personalized products and services, in jurisdictions where we operate. The regulations are complex and likely require adjustments to our operations. Any failure to comply with all such laws by us, our business partners or third parties engaged by us could result in significant liabilities and reputational harm. In addition, if we are unable to prevent or detect security breaches, or properly remedy them, we may suffer financial and reputational damage or penalties because of the unauthorized disclosure of confidential information belonging to us or to our partners, customers or suppliers, including personal employee, consumer or presenter information stored in our or third-party systems or as a result of the dissemination of inaccurate information. In addition, the unauthorized disclosure of nonpublic sensitive information could lead to the loss of trade secrets or damage our reputation and brand image or otherwise adversely affect our ability to compete. Adverse publicity stemming from a data breach, whether or not valid, could reduce demand for our products or adversely affect our relationship with customers, suppliers, vendors, partners and service providers. Further, a failure to adequately protect personal data, including that of customers or employees, or other data security failure, such as a cyber attack from a third party, could lead to penalties, significant remediation costs and reputational damage, including loss of future business. Failure of or disruption to one or more of our information technology platforms could affect our ability to execute our operating strategy. We rely on multiple information technology platforms to execute operations related to OTC (order to cash), manufacturing, financial transactions and reporting, procurement to pay and payroll. In addition, we have become more reliant on DTC and content management. Many of these systems are integrated via internally developed interfaces and modifications. The failure of one or more systems could lead to operating inefficiencies or disruptions and a resulting decline in revenue or profitability. As we continue the implementation and the migration to SaaS and cloud-based technology solutions, there can be no assurance that we will be successful in our efforts or that the implementation of the remaining stages of these initiatives in the Company's global operations will not involve disruptions in our systems or processes having a short-term adverse impact on our operations and ability to serve customers and business partners. Our e-commerce operations are important to our business, and our digital marketing strategies rely on the use of online and mobile applications, including third-party social media platforms. Due to the importance of our e-commerce operations, we are vulnerable to website or application downtime and other technical failures, as well as disruptions beyond our control. For example, recent and future regulatory measures restricting or otherwise impacting the use of the web sites, mobile applications or social media platforms that we use in connection with our digital marketing and e-commerce activities could impact the development of our digital advocacy strategy. Our failure to successfully respond to these risks in a timely manner could reduce e-commerce sales, damage our brands' reputations or reduce the impact of our digital marketing strategies. The risks described here are heightened due to the increase in remote working and the challenges associated with managing remote computing assets and security vulnerabilities that are present in many non-corporate and home networks. If a natural disaster, power outage, connectivity issue, or other event occurs that impacts our employees' ability to work remotely, it may be difficult or, in certain cases, impossible, for us to continue our business for a substantial period of time. The increase in remote working may also result in heightened consumer privacy, IT security and fraud concerns, potentially disrupting our operations for a prolonged period of time. We use AI in our business, and challenges with properly managing its use could result in harm to our brands, reputation, business or customers. We are starting to implement the use of AI solutions, including machine learning and generative AI tools that collect, aggregate, and analyze data to assist in the development of our products and in the use of internal tools that support our business. These applications may become increasingly important in our operations over time. This emerging technology presents a number of risks inherent in its use. AI algorithms trained with noisy data may create accuracy issues, unintended biases, and discriminatory outcomes that could harm our brand, reputation, business, or customers. Additionally, no assurance can be made that the usage of AI will assist us in being more efficient. Further, dependence on AI without adequate safeguards to make certain business decisions may introduce additional operational vulnerabilities by producing inaccurate outcomes, recommendations, or other suggestions based on flaws in the underlying data or other unintended results. Our competitors or other third parties may incorporate AI into their business, services, and products more rapidly or more successfully than us, which could hinder our ability to compete effectively and adversely affect our results of operations. Implementing the use of AI successfully, ethically and as intended, will require significant resources. In addition, the use of AI may increase cybersecurity and data privacy risks, such as intended, unintended, or inadvertent transmission of proprietary or sensitive information. The technologies underlying AI and their use cases are rapidly developing, and it is not possible to predict all of the legal, operational or technological risks related to the use of AI. While new AI initiatives, laws, and regulations are emerging and evolving, uncertainty will remain, and our obligation to comply with the evolving regulatory landscape could entail significant costs, negatively affect our business, or limit our ability to incorporate certain AI capabilities into our business. Our success depends, in part, on our employees, including our key personnel. Our success depends, in part, on our ability to identify, hire, train and retain our employees, including our key personnel, such as our executive officers and senior management team and our research and development and marketing personnel. Over the past few years, we have experienced several changes to senior management and the composition of our board of directors, as well as the separation of the Wella Business, and we are still in the process of implementing our global business strategies, including cost reduction activities. Transition periods accompanying changes in leadership and changes due to business reorganization may result in uncertainty, impact business performance and strategies and retention of personnel. The unexpected loss of one or more of our key employees could adversely affect our business. Competition for highly qualified individuals can be intense, and although many of our key personnel have signed non-compete agreements, it is possible that these agreements would be unenforceable, in whole or in part, in some jurisdictions, permitting employees in those jurisdictions to transfer their skills and knowledge to the benefit of our competitors with little or no restriction. We may not be able to attract, assimilate or retain qualified personnel in the future, and our failure to do so could adversely affect our business. Further, other companies may attempt to recruit our key personnel and we may attempt to recruit their key personnel, even if bound by non-competes, which could result in diversion of management attention and our resources to litigation related to such recruitment. These risks may be exacerbated by the stresses associated with changes in our global business strategy, the implementation of our restructuring activities, any continued changes in our senior management team and other key personnel, and other initiatives. During fiscal 2024, we continued to experience an increasingly competitive labor market, increased employee turnover, and labor shortages in our extended supply chain. These challenges have resulted in, and could continue to result in, increased costs and could impact our ability to meet consumer demand, each of which may adversely affect our business and financial results. As we continue to restructure our workforce from time to time (including with respect to our global business strategies and other business restructuring initiatives, as well as acquisitions and our overall growth strategy) and work with more brand partners and licensors, the risk of potential employment-related claims and disputes will also increase. As such, we or our partners may be subject to claims, allegations or legal proceedings related to employment matters including discrimination, harassment (sexual or otherwise), wrongful termination or retaliation, local, state, federal and non-U.S. labor law violations, injury, and wage violations. In addition, our employees in certain countries in Europe are subject to works council arrangements, exposing us to associated delays, works council claims and associated litigation. In the event we or our partners are subject to one or more employment-related claims, allegations or legal proceedings, we or our partners may incur substantial costs, losses or other liabilities in the defense, investigation, settlement, delays associated with, or other disposition of such claims. In addition to the economic impact, we or our partners may also suffer reputational harm as a result of such claims, allegations and legal proceedings and the investigation, defense and prosecution of such claims, allegations and legal proceedings could cause substantial disruption in our or our partners' business and operations, including delaying and reducing the expected benefits of any associated restructuring activities. We have policies and procedures in place to reduce our exposure to these risks, but such policies and procedures may not be effective and we may be exposed to such claims, allegations or legal proceedings. If we underestimate or overestimate demand for our products and do not maintain appropriate inventory levels, our net revenues or working capital could be negatively impacted. We currently engage in a program seeking to improve control over our product demand and inventories. We have identified, and may continue to identify, inventories that are not saleable in the ordinary course, but our existing program or any future inventory management program may not be successful in improving our inventory control. Our ability to manage our inventory levels to meet demand for our products is important for our business. If we overestimate or underestimate demand for any of our products, we may not maintain appropriate inventory levels, we could have excess inventory that we may need to hold for a long period of time, write down, sell at prices lower than expected or discard, which could negatively impact our reputation, net sales, working capital or cash flows from working capital, or cause us to incur excess and obsolete inventory charges. We also could have inadequate inventories which could hinder our ability to meet demand. We have sought and continue to seek to improve our payable terms, which could adversely affect our relations with our suppliers. In addition, we have significant working capital needs, as the nature of our business requires us to maintain inventories that enable us to fulfill customer demand. We generally finance our working capital needs through cash flows from operations and borrowings under our credit facilities. If we are unable to finance our working capital needs on the same or more favorable terms going forward, or if our working capital requirements increase and we are unable to finance the increase, we may not be able to produce the inventories required by demand, which could result in a loss of sales. In addition, we are reliant on our cash flows from operations to repay our indebtedness, which may impact the cash flows that are available for working capital needs. Our ability to generate and maintain sufficient cash levels also could impact our ability to reduce our indebtedness. The above risks have been and may continue to be exacerbated by the impact of inflationary pressures and global supply chain disruptions on our business, and our efforts to manage and remedy these impacts to the Company may not achieve results in accordance with our expectations or on the timelines we anticipate. We are subject to risks related to our international operations. We operate on a global basis, and approximately 71% of our net revenues in fiscal 2024, were generated outside North America. We have employees in more than 36 countries, and we market, sell and distribute our products in over 121 countries and territories. Our presence in such geographies has expanded as a result of our acquisitions, as well as organic growth, and we are pursuing selective international expansion in countries where we do not yet have significant presence. In these countries, we are exposed to risks inherent in operating in geographies in which we have not operated in or have been less present in the past, and in most of these countries we face established competitors with significantly more operating experience in those locations. Non-U.S. operations are subject to many risks and uncertainties, including ongoing instability or changes in a country's economic, regulatory or political conditions, including inflation, recession, interest rate fluctuations, sovereign default risk and actual or anticipated military or political conflicts, labor market disruptions, sanctions, boycotts, new or increased tariffs, quotas, exchange or price controls, trade barriers or other restrictions on foreign businesses, our failure to effectively and timely implement processes and policies across our diverse operations and employee base and difficulties and costs associated with complying with a wide variety of complex and potentially conflicting regulations across multiple jurisdictions. Non-U.S. operations also increase the risk of non-compliance with U.S. laws and regulations applicable to such non-U.S. operations, such as those relating to sanctions, boycotts and improper payments. In addition, sudden disruptions in business conditions as a consequence of events such as terrorist attacks, war or other military action or the threat of further attacks, pandemics or other crises or vulnerabilities or as a result of adverse weather conditions or climate changes, may have an impact on consumer spending, which could have a material adverse effect on our business, prospects, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows, as well as the trading price of our securities. The U.S. and the other countries in which our products are manufactured or sold have imposed and may impose additional quotas, duties, tariffs, retaliatory or trade protection measures, or other restrictions or regulations, or may adversely adjust prevailing quota, duty or tariff levels, which can affect both the materials that we use to manufacture or package our products and the sale of finished products. For example, in 2018, the E.U. imposed tariffs on certain prestige category products imported from the U.S., which impact the sale in the E.U. of certain of our products that are manufactured in the U.S. Similarly, the tariffs imposed by the U.S. on goods and materials from China are impacting materials we import for use in manufacturing or packaging in the U.S. Measures to reduce the impact of tariff increases or trade restrictions, including shifts of production among countries and manufacturers, geographical diversification of our sources of supply, adjustments in product or packaging design and fabrication, or increased prices, could increase our costs and delay our time to market or decrease sales. Other governmental action related to tariffs or international trade agreements has the potential to adversely impact demand for our products, our costs, customers, suppliers and global economic conditions and cause higher volatility in financial markets. The beauty industry has been impacted by ongoing uncertainty surrounding tariffs and import duties, and international trade relations generally. While we actively review existing and proposed measures to seek to assess the impact of them on our business, changes in tariff rates, import duties and other new or augmented trade restrictions could have a number of negative impacts on our business, including higher consumer prices and reduced demand for our products and higher input costs. Changes in tax laws or regulations, or challenges to our tax positions, could significantly increase our tax liabilities. We are subject to taxation in the U.S. and numerous foreign jurisdictions. From time to time, changes in tax laws or regulations may be enacted that could significantly affect our overall tax liabilities and our effective tax rate. For example, in the United States the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act of 2017 made broad and complex changes to the U.S. tax laws that affect businesses operating internationally, and, as a result of future elections in the United States, there could be additional significant changes in tax laws and regulations in the future. U.S. and foreign governmental agencies maintain focus on the taxation of multinational companies, including statutory tax rates, digital taxes, global minimum taxes (such as the Pillar Two framework agreed to by members of the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development which has been adopted in many jurisdictions), country-by-country reporting, and transactions between affiliated companies. Such changes may negatively impact our effective tax rate and may increase tax compliance and reporting costs, and our future income tax provisions could increase or be adversely affected by changes in the mix of income earned or losses incurred in jurisdictions with differing statutory rates, changes in the valuation of our deferred tax assets or liabilities, successful challenges to our tax positions or by other factors. Risks related to our Indebtedness We have taken on significant debt, and the agreements that govern such debt contain various covenants that impose significant operating and financial restrictions on us, which may adversely affect our business. We have a substantial amount of indebtedness, which may have adverse consequences on our business and impair our ability to be certain that additional financing will be available on reasonable terms when required. Agreements that govern our indebtedness, including our credit agreement (as amended, the "2018 Coty Credit Agreement"), and the indentures governing our senior secured notes and our senior unsecured notes, impose significant operating and financial restrictions on our activities. These restrictions may limit or prohibit our ability and the ability of our restricted subsidiaries to, among other things: incur indebtedness or grant liens on our property; dispose of assets or equity; make acquisitions or investments; make dividends, distributions or other restricted payments; effect affiliate transactions; enter into sale and leaseback transactions; and pursue into mergers, consolidations or sales of substantially all of our assets and the assets of our subsidiaries. In addition, we are required to maintain certain financial ratios calculated pursuant to a financial maintenance covenant under the 2018 Coty Credit Agreement on a quarterly basis. For a further description of the 2018 Coty Credit Agreement and the covenants thereunder please refer to Note 14, "Debt" in the notes to our Consolidated Financial Statements. Our debt burden and the restrictions in the agreements that govern our debt could have important consequences, including increasing our vulnerability to general adverse economic and industry conditions; limiting our flexibility in planning for, or reacting to, changes in our business and our industry; requiring the dedication of a substantial portion of any cash flow from operations and capital investments to the payment of principal of, and interest on, our indebtedness, thereby reducing the availability of such cash flow to fund our operations, turnaround strategy, working capital, capital expenditures, future business opportunities and other general corporate purposes; exposing us to the risk of increased interest rates with respect to any borrowings that are at variable rates of interest; restricting us from making strategic acquisitions or causing us to make non-strategic divestitures; limiting our ability to obtain additional financing for working capital, capital expenditures, research and development, debt service requirements, acquisitions and general corporate or other purposes; limiting our ability to adjust to changing market conditions; limiting our ability to take advantage of financing and other corporate opportunities; and placing us at a competitive disadvantage relative to our competitors who are less highly leveraged. Moreover, a material breach of the 2018 Coty Credit Agreement could result in the acceleration of all obligations outstanding under that agreement. Our ability to service and repay our indebtedness will be dependent on the cash flow generated by our subsidiaries and events beyond our control. Prevailing economic conditions and financial, business and other factors, many of which are beyond our control, may affect our ability to make payments on our debt and comply with other requirements under the 2018 Coty Credit Agreement and to meet our deleveraging objectives. In particular, due to the seasonal nature of the beauty industry, with the highest levels of consumer demand generally occurring during the holiday buying season in our second fiscal quarter, our subsidiaries' cash flow in the second half of the fiscal year may be less than in the first half of the fiscal year, which may affect our ability to satisfy our debt service obligations, including to service our senior secured notes, senior unsecured notes and the 2018 Coty Credit Agreement, and to meet our deleveraging objectives. If we do not generate sufficient cash flow to satisfy our covenants and debt service obligations, including payments on our senior secured notes, senior unsecured notes and under the 2018 Coty Credit Agreement, we may have to undertake additional cost reduction measures or alternative financing plans, such as refinancing or restructuring our debt; selling assets; reducing or delaying capital investments; modifying terms of agreements, including timing of payments, with vendors, customers, and other third parties; or seeking to raise additional capital. The terms of the indentures governing our senior secured notes and senior unsecured notes, the 2018 Coty Credit Agreement or any existing debt instruments or future debt instruments that we may enter into may restrict us from adopting some of these alternatives. Our ability to restructure or refinance our debt will depend on the capital markets and other macroeconomic conditions and our financial condition at such time. Recent refinancings of our debt have resulted, and future refinancings or modifications of our debt could result, in higher interest rates and may require us to comply with more onerous covenants or reduce our borrowing capacity, which could further restrict our business operations. For example, the refinancing of certain portions of our debt in 2021 resulted in higher interest rates applicable to the newly issued senior secured notes, in part due to prevailing macroeconomic conditions and a decline in our credit ratings since our previous refinancing transactions in 2018. The inability of our subsidiaries to generate sufficient cash flow to satisfy our covenants and debt service obligations, including the inability to service our senior secured notes, senior unsecured notes and the 2018 Coty Credit Agreement, or to refinance our obligations on commercially reasonable terms, could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations, profitability, cash flows or liquidity, as well as the trading price of our securities, and may impact our ability to satisfy our obligations in respect of our senior secured notes, senior unsecured notes and the 2018 Coty Credit Agreement. Our variable rate indebtedness subjects us to interest rate risk, which could cause certain debt service obligations to increase. Borrowings under the 2018 Coty Credit Agreement, as well as certain payments under our forward repurchase contracts, are at variable rates of interest and expose us to interest rate risk. In the past year, inflation and other factors have resulted in an increase in interest rates generally, which has impacted our borrowing costs. If interest rates were to continue to increase, our debt service obligations on the variable rate indebtedness referred to above would increase even if the principal amount borrowed remained the same, and our net income and cash flows will correspondingly decrease. We do not maintain interest rate swaps with respect to our variable rate exposures. In addition, we have amended our 2018 Credit Agreement to allow us to reference the Secured Overnight Financing Rate ("SOFR") as the primary benchmark rate for our variable rate indebtedness, in lieu of the London Interbank Offered Rate ("LIBOR"). SOFR is a relatively new reference rate and with a limited history, and changes in SOFR have, on occasion, been more volatile than changes in other benchmark or market rates. As a result, the amount of interest we may pay on our variable rate indebtedness is difficult to predict. Risks related to Macroeconomic Conditions and Market Risks We must successfully manage the impact of a general economic downturn, credit restriction, uncertainty in global economic or political conditions or other global events or a sudden disruption in business conditions which may affect consumer spending, global supply chain conditions and inflationary pressures and adversely affect our financial results. Global events may impact our business, prospects, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows, as well as the trading price of our securities, and, as demonstrated by the impacts of COVID-19 and the war in Ukraine, such events can evolve rapidly and cause significant and pervasive disruptions to global economic and business conditions. We operate in an environment of slow overall growth in the segments and geographies in which we compete with increasing competitive pressure and changing consumer preferences, and global economic activity has been in decline as a result of higher levels of unemployment, unprecedented levels of inflation, recessionary conditions and geopolitical conditions including the war in Ukraine and/or the armed conflict in the Middle East (including the Red Sea conflict). While prestige fragrances and skin care categories have experienced strong growth, declines in the retail mass color cosmetics, mass nail and mass fragrance categories in the U.S. and certain key markets in Western Europe continue to impact our business and financial results. Deterioration of social or economic conditions in Europe or elsewhere could reduce sales and could also impair collections on accounts receivable. For example, political and economic developments in the U.S., the U.K., Europe, Brazil and China have introduced uncertainty in the regulatory and business environment in which we operate (including potential increases in tariffs). These political and economic developments have resulted and could continue to result in changes to legislation or reformation of government policies, rules and regulations pertaining to trade. Such changes could have a significant impact on our business by increasing the cost of doing business, affecting our ability to sell our products and negatively impacting our profitability. Abrupt political change, terrorist activity, and armed conflict, such as the ongoing war in Ukraine and/or the armed conflict in the Middle East (including the Red Sea conflict) and any escalation or expansion thereof, pose a risk of further general economic disruption in affected regions. Geopolitical change may result in changing regulatory systems and requirements and market interventions that could impact our operating strategies, access to national, regional and global markets (due to sanctions or otherwise), hiring, and profitability. For example, changes in the regulatory environment in China or geopolitical tensions impacting trade or operations in China could impact our growth strategy. Any of these changes may negatively impact our revenues. In addition, our sales are affected by the overall level of consumer spending. The general level of consumer spending is affected by a number of factors, including general economic conditions (including potential recessions in one or more significant economies), inflation, interest rates, government policies that affect consumers (such as those relating to medical insurance or income tax), energy costs and consumer confidence, each of which is beyond our control. Consumer purchases of discretionary and other items and services, including beauty products, tend to decline during recessionary periods, periods of high inflation and otherwise weak economic environments, when disposable income is lower. A decline in consumer spending would likely have a negative impact on our direct sales and could cause financial difficulties at our retailer and other customers. If consumer purchases decrease, we may not be able to generate enough cash flow to meet our debt obligations and other commitments and may need to refinance our debt, dispose of assets or issue equity to raise necessary funds. We cannot predict whether we would be able to undertake any of these actions to raise funds on a timely basis or on satisfactory terms or at all. The financial difficulties of a customer or retailer could also cause us to curtail or eliminate business with that customer or retailer. We may also decide to assume more credit risk relating to the receivables from our customers or retailers, which increases the possibility of late or non-payment of receivables. Our inability to collect receivables from a significant retailer or customer, or from a group of these customers, could have a material adverse effect on our business, prospects, results of operations, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows, as well as the trading price of our securities. If a retailer or customer were to go into liquidation, we could incur additional costs if we choose to purchase the retailer's or customer's inventory of our products to protect brand equity. These risks have been, and may continue to be, amplified by COVID-19, the war in Ukraine and related geopolitical conditions. Price inflation for labor, materials and services, further exacerbated by volatility in energy and commodity markets by geopolitical events, could adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition. We experienced considerable price inflation in costs for labor, materials and services during fiscal 2022 and fiscal 2023. If inflationary pressures resume, we may not be able to pass through inflationary cost increases, and we may only be able to recoup a portion of our increased costs in future periods. Our ability to raise prices to reflect increased costs may also be limited by competitive conditions in the market for our products. The war in Ukraine and/or the armed conflict in the Middle East and prolonged geopolitical conflict globally may continue to result in increased price inflation, escalating energy and commodity prices and increasing costs of materials and services (together with shortages or inconsistent availability of materials and services), which may also have the effect of heightening many of our other risks, such as those relating to cyber security, supply chain disruption, volatility in prices and market conditions, our ability to forecast demand, and our ability to successfully implement our global business strategies, any of which could negatively affect our business, results of operations and financial condition. Volatility in the financial markets could have a material adverse effect on our business, prospects, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows, as well as the trading price of our securities. While we currently generate significant cash flows from our ongoing operations and have access to global credit markets through our various financing activities, credit markets may experience significant disruptions. Deterioration in global financial markets, including as a result of global and regional economic conditions, the war in Ukraine and/or the armed conflict in the Middle East (including the Red Sea conflict) and related geopolitical conditions, could make future financing difficult or more expensive. If any financial institutions that are parties to our credit facilities or other financing arrangements, such as interest rate or foreign currency exchange hedging instruments, were to declare bankruptcy or become insolvent, or experience other financial difficulty, they may be unable to perform under their agreements with us. In addition, the deterioration of the financial condition of any of the financial institutions that hold our short-term investments and cash deposits could negatively impact the value and liquidity of such investments and deposits. This could leave us with reduced borrowing capacity, could leave us unhedged against certain interest rate or foreign currency exposures or could reduce our access to our cash deposits, which could have an adverse impact on our business, prospects, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows, as well as the trading price of our securities. Fluctuations in currency exchange rates may negatively impact our financial condition and results of operations. Exchange rate fluctuations have affected and may in the future affect our results of operations, financial condition, reported earnings, the value of our foreign assets, the relative prices at which we and foreign competitors sell products in the same markets and the cost of certain inventory and non-inventory items required by our operations. The currencies to which we are exposed include the euro, the British pound, the Chinese yuan, the Polish zloty, the Brazilian real, the Australian dollar and the Canadian dollar. The exchange rates between these currencies and the U.S. dollar in recent years have fluctuated significantly and may continue to do so in the future. A depreciation of these currencies against the U.S. dollar would decrease the U.S. dollar equivalent of the amounts derived from foreign operations reported in our consolidated financial statements and an appreciation of these currencies would result in a corresponding increase in such amounts. The cost of certain items, such as raw materials, transportation and freight, required by our operations may be affected by changes in the value of the various relevant currencies. To the extent that we are required to pay for goods or services in foreign currencies, the appreciation of such currencies against the U.S. dollar would tend to negatively impact our financial condition and results of operations. Our efforts to hedge certain exposures to foreign currency exchange rates arising in the ordinary course of business may not successfully hedge the effect of such fluctuations. In addition, a portion of our borrowings under the 2018 Coty Credit Agreement and senior notes indentures are denominated in euros and expose us to currency exchange rate risk. We have entered into derivative transactions in order to reduce currency exchange rate volatility. However, we may not enter into or maintain such derivatives with respect to all of our euro-denominated indebtedness, and any derivative transactions we enter into may not fully mitigate our currency exchange rate risk. Public health crises could have a negative impact on our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows. The COVID-19 pandemic and the actions taken by governments and third-parties in response have had, and continue to have, evolving and unpredictable impacts on global economies, financial markets and business practices. A resurgence of COVID-19, including any variants of the virus, or the outbreak of another pandemic, epidemic or infectious disease in one or more of the countries where we operate or our customers are located could result in varied government and third-party actions relating to, among other things, quarantines, facility closures, store closures or social distancing, resulting in further volatility and disparity in our results and operations across geographies and creating challenges for our ability to forecast demand. Our business has been, and may continue to be, negatively impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic in such countries, although the impacts have decreased and have been less significant in fiscal 2024. Ongoing impacts of COVID-19 have continued in China, and economic recovery in the region has been slower than predicted and may continue to be below pre-pandemic levels, which could adversely affect our strategy to expand our presence in China. The full extent of the impact of a pandemic, such as the COVID-19 pandemic, an epidemic or an infectious disease outbreak on our business, financial condition and results of operations will depend on future developments that are highly uncertain and unpredictable, including the timing, acceptance and efficacy of vaccinations and possible achievement of herd immunity in various locations, the occurrence of virus mutations and variants, infection rates increasing or returning in various geographic areas, actions by government authorities to contain outbreaks or treat their impact, and any related impact on capital and financial markets and consumer behavior, including the impacts of any recession or inflationary pressures, all of which may vary across regions. Legal and Regulatory Risks We are subject to legal proceedings and legal compliance risks, including talc-related litigation alleging bodily injury. We are subject to a variety of legal proceedings and legal compliance risks in the countries in which we do business, including the matters described under the heading "Legal Proceedings" in Part I, Item 3 of this report. We are under the jurisdiction of regulators and other governmental authorities which may, in certain circumstances, lead to enforcement actions, changes in business practices, fines and penalties, the assertion of private litigation claims and damages. Some of these actions may also adversely impact our customer relationships, particularly to the extent customers were implicated by such proceedings. We are also subject to legal proceedings and legal compliance risks in connection with legacy matters involving the P&G Beauty Business, the Burberry fragrance business, Hypermarcas Brands, the Kylie Jenner business and the Kim Kardashian business that were previously outside our control and that we are now independently addressing, as well as retained liabilities relating to divested businesses, which may result in unanticipated or new liabilities. We also are involved in numerous lawsuits involving product liability issues, most involving allegations related to alleged asbestos in our talc-based cosmetic products, allegedly leading to mesothelioma. While we believe that we have valid defenses to these lawsuits, these risks will continue to exist with respect to our business, and additional legal proceedings and other contingencies, the outcome and impact of which (including legal fees) cannot be predicted with certainty, will arise from time to time. In particular, the potential impact of talc-related litigation is highly uncertain, as nationwide trial results in similar cases filed against Coty and other manufacturers or retailers of cosmetic talc products have ranged from outright dismissals to very large settlements and jury awards of both compensatory and punitive damages. Additionally, our continued production and sale of talc-based cosmetic products could in the future subject us to additional legal claims related to the sale of one or more of our talc-based cosmetics products, including potential governmental inquiries, investigations, claims and consumer protection cases from state attorneys general. Any negative resolution of litigation to which we are subject to could have an adverse effect on our business, prospects, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows. In addition, we are subject to pending tax assessment matters in Brazil relating to local sales tax credits for the 2016-2020 tax periods. Although we are seeking a favorable administrative and judicial decisions on the related tax enforcement actions, we may not be successful. For example, in connection with a GoIás State tax ICMS assessment received in August 2020, we have received unfavorable rulings in fiscal 2024 in a related judicial case about an additional claim for fees over the tax incentive, which we have appealed to the Superior Court of Justice for review. See Note 24 "Legal and Other Contingencies for more information regarding our potential tax obligations in Brazil. Changes in laws, regulations and policies that affect our business or products could adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows, as well as the trading price of our securities. Our business is subject to numerous laws, regulations and policies. Changes in the laws (both foreign and domestic), regulations and policies, including the interpretation or enforcement thereof, that affect, or will affect, our business or products, including those related to intellectual property, marketing, antitrust and competition, product liability, restrictions or requirements related to product content or formulation, labeling and packaging (including end-of-product-life responsibility), corruption, the environment or climate change (including increasing focus on the climate, water and waste impacts of operations and products), immigration, privacy, data protection, taxes, tariffs, trade and customs (including, among others, import and export license requirements, sanctions, boycotts, quotas, trade barriers, and other measures imposed by U.S. and foreign countries), restrictions on foreign investment, the outcome and expense of legal or regulatory proceedings, and any action we may take as a result, and changes in accounting standards, could adversely affect our financial results as well as the trading price of our securities. We are subject to risks related to our international operations. In addition, increasing governmental and societal attention to environmental, social and governance matters, including expanding mandatory and voluntary reporting, diligence and disclosure on topics such as climate change, waste production, water usage, biodiversity, emerging technologies, human capital, labor, supply chain, and risk oversight, could expand the nature, scope and complexity of matters that we are required to control, assess and report. These and other rapidly changing laws, regulations, policies and related interpretations, as well as increased enforcement actions by various governmental and regulatory agencies, create challenges for us, including our compliance and ethics programs, may alter the environment in which we do business and may increase the ongoing costs of compliance, which could adversely impact our results of operations and cash flows. If we are unable to continue to meet these challenges and comply with all laws, regulations, policies and related interpretations, our reputation and our business results could be adversely impacted. We are also subject to legal proceedings and legal compliance risks in connection with legacy matters related to acquired companies that were previously outside our control. Such matters may result in our incurring unanticipated costs that may negatively impact the financial contributions of such acquisitions at least in the periods in which such liability is incurred or require operational adjustments that affect our results of operations with respect to such investments. We may not have adequate or any insurance coverage for some of these legacy matters, including matters assumed in the acquisition of the P&G Beauty Business, the Hypermarcas Brands and the Burberry fragrance business, the joint venture with Kylie Jenner and the strategic partnership with Kim Kardashian. While we believe that we have adopted, and will adopt, appropriate risk management and compliance programs, the global nature of our operations and many laws and regulations to which we are subject mean that legal and compliance risks will continue to exist with respect to our business, and additional legal proceedings and other contingencies, the outcome of which cannot be predicted with certainty, will arise from time to time, which could adversely affect our business, prospects, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows, as well as the trading price of our securities. Our operations and acquisitions in certain foreign areas expose us to political, regulatory, economic and reputational risks. We operate on a global basis. Our employees, contractors and agents, business partners, joint ventures and joint venture partners and companies to which we outsource certain of our business operations, may take actions in violation of our compliance policies or applicable law. In addition, some of our acquisitions have required us to integrate non-U.S. companies that had not, until our acquisition, been subject to U.S. law or other laws to which we are subject. In many countries, particularly in those with developing economies, it may be common for persons to engage in business practices prohibited by the laws and regulations applicable to us. In addition, certain countries have laws that differ with those in the US, including relating to competition and product distribution, with which US and other personnel may be unfamiliar, thereby increasing the risk of non-compliance. We continue to enhance our compliance program, including as a result of acquisitions and changes in the regulatory environment, but our compliance program may encounter problems or may not be effective in ensuring compliance. Failure by us or our subsidiaries to comply with applicable laws or policies could subject us to civil and criminal penalties, cause us to be in breach of contract or damage to our or our licensors' reputation, each of which could materially and adversely affect our business, prospects, financial condition, cash flows, results of operations, as well as the trading price of our securities. In addition, the U.S. has imposed and may impose additional sanctions at any time on countries where we sell our products. If so, our existing activities may be adversely affected, we may incur costs in order to come into compliance with future sanctions, depending on the nature of any further sanctions that may be imposed, or we may experience reputational harm and increased regulatory scrutiny. For example, in April 2022, following the imposition of additional sanctions against Russia and Russian interests in connection with the war in Ukraine, we announced our Board's decision to wind down the operations of our Russian subsidiary as a result of the war and the related sanctions. We are subject to the interpretation and enforcement by governmental agencies of other foreign laws, rules, regulations or policies, including any changes thereto, such as restrictions on trade, import and export license requirements, and tariffs and taxes (including assessments and disputes related thereto), which may require us to adjust our operations in certain areas where we do business. We face legal and regulatory risks in the U.S. and abroad and, in particular, cannot predict with certainty the outcome of various contingencies or the impact that pending or future legislative and regulatory changes may have on our business. It is not possible to gauge what any final regulation may provide, its effective date or its impact at this time. These risks could have a material adverse effect on our business, prospects, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows, as well as the trading price of our securities. Our employees or others may engage in misconduct or other improper activities including noncompliance with regulatory standards and regulatory requirements. We are exposed to the risk of fraud or other misconduct by our personnel or third parties such as independent contractors, agents or influencers. Misconduct by employees, independent contractors, influencers or agents could include inadvertent or intentional failures to comply with the laws and regulations to which we are subject or with our policies, provide accurate information to regulatory authorities, comply with ethical, social, product, labor and environmental standards, comply with fraud and abuse laws and regulations, report financial information or data accurately, or disclose unauthorized activities to us. In particular, our business is subject to laws, regulations and policies intended to prevent fraud, kickbacks, self-dealing, resale price maintenance and other abusive practices. These laws and regulations may restrict or prohibit a wide range of pricing, discounting, marketing and promotion, sales commission, customer incentive programs, and other business arrangements. Our current and former employees, influencers or independent contractors may also become subject to allegations of sexual harassment, racial and gender discrimination or other similar misconduct, which, regardless of the ultimate outcome, may result in adverse publicity that could significantly harm our company's brand, reputation and operations. Employee misconduct could also involve improper use of information obtained in the course of the employee's prior or current employment, which could result in legal or regulatory action and serious harm to our reputation. Violations of our prohibition on harassment, sexual or otherwise, could result in liabilities and/or litigation. We prohibit harassment or discrimination in the workplace, in sexual or in any other form. This policy applies to all aspects of employment. Notwithstanding our conducting training and taking disciplinary action against alleged violations, we may encounter additional costs from claims made and/or legal proceedings brought against us, and, regardless of the ultimate outcome, we could suffer reputational harm. If the Distribution (as defined below) or the acquisition of the P&G Beauty Business does not qualify for its intended tax treatment, in certain circumstances we are required to indemnify P&G for resulting tax-related losses under the tax matters agreement entered into in connection with the acquisition of the P&G Beauty Business dated October 1, 2016 (the "Tax Matters Agreement"). In connection with the closing of the acquisition of the P&G Beauty Business on October 1, 2016, we and P&G received written opinions from special tax counsel regarding the intended tax treatment of the merger, and The Procter & Gamble Company (the "P&G Co.") received an additional written opinion from special tax counsel regarding the intended tax treatment of the Distribution by P&G of its shares of Galleria Co. (the "Galleria Co.") common stock to P&G shareholders by way of an exchange offer (the "Distribution"). The opinions were based on, among other things, certain assumptions and representations as to factual matters and certain covenants made by us, P&G, Galleria and Green Acquisition Sub Inc. The opinions are not binding on the Internal Revenue Service (the "IRS") or a court, and the IRS or a court may not agree with the opinions. Under the Tax Matters Agreement, in certain circumstances and subject to certain limitations, we are required to indemnify P&G against tax-related losses (e.g., increased taxes, penalties and interest required to be paid by P&G) if the Distribution or the merger fails to qualify for its intended tax treatment, including if the Distribution becomes taxable to P&G as a result of the acquisition of a 50% or greater interest (by vote or value) in us as part of a plan or series of related transactions that included the Distribution or if such failure is attributable to a breach of certain representations and warranties by us or certain actions or omissions by us. If we are required to indemnify P&G in the event of a taxable Distribution, this indemnification obligation would be substantial and could have a material adverse effect on us, including with respect to our financial condition and results of operations. Risks Related to Ownership of Our Common Stock We are subject to risks related to our common stock and our stock repurchase program. Any repurchases pursuant to our stock repurchase program, or a decision to discontinue our stock repurchase program, which may be discontinued at any time, could affect our stock price and increase volatility. In addition, the timing and actual number of any shares repurchased will depend on a variety of factors including the timing of open trading windows, price, corporate and regulatory requirements, an assessment by management and our board of directors of cash availability, capital allocation priorities, including deleveraging, and other market conditions. In addition, we have entered into forward repurchase transactions to begin hedging for a potential $196 million repurchase under our stock repurchase program currently planned for 2025 and an additional potential $294 million repurchase planned for 2026. These forward repurchase transactions expose us to additional risks related to the price of our common stock, including a potential true-up in cash upon specified changes in the price of our common stock. JAB Beauty B.V. (the "JAB Co.") and its affiliates beneficially own approximately 55% of the fully diluted shares of our Class A Common Stock and, as such, have the ability to effect certain decisions regarding stockholder approval, which may be inconsistent with the interests of our other stockholders. JAB Holdings B.V. (the "JABH Co."), through an affiliate, JAB Beauty B.V., may be deemed to beneficially own approximately 55% of the outstanding shares of our Class A Common Stock. As a result, JABH has the ability to exercise control over certain decisions regarding stockholder approval, including the election of directors, amendments to our certificate of incorporation and approval of significant corporate transactions, such as a merger or other sale of the Company or our assets. In addition, several of the members of our Board of Directors are affiliated with JABH. Accordingly, JABH has significant influence over us and our decisions, including the appointment of management and any other action requiring a vote of our Board of Directors. In addition, this concentration of ownership may have the effect of delaying, preventing or deterring a change in control of us and may negatively affect the market price of our stock. JABH's interests may be different from or conflict with our interests or the interests of our other stockholders. JABH and its affiliates are in the business of making investments in companies and may from time to time acquire and hold interests in businesses that compete indirectly with us. JABH or its affiliates may also pursue acquisition opportunities that are complementary to our business, and, as a result, those acquisition opportunities may not be available to us. In addition, JABH's obligations under its credit facility may cause JABH to take actions which may be inconsistent with your interests. Accordingly, the interests of JABH may not always coincide with our interests or the interests of other stockholders, and JABH may seek to cause us to take courses of action that, in its judgment, could enhance its investment in the Company but which might involve risks to our other stockholders or adversely affect us or our other stockholders. We are an *afco*controlled company within the meaning of the NYSE rules and, as a result, are entitled to rely on exemptions from certain corporate governance requirements that are designed to provide protection to stockholders of companies that are not *afco*controlled companies. For so long as JABH and its affiliates own more than 50% of the total voting power of our common shares, we are an *afco*controlled company within the meaning of the NYSE corporate governance standards. As a controlled company, we are exempt under the NYSE standards from the obligation to comply with certain NYSE corporate governance requirements, including the requirements that a majority of our board of directors consists of independent directors; that we have a nominating committee that is composed entirely of independent directors with a written charter addressing the committee's purpose and responsibilities; and that we have a compensation committee that is composed entirely of independent directors with a written charter addressing the committee's purpose and responsibilities. If we elect to rely on the controlled company exemptions, the procedures for approving significant corporate decisions could be determined by directors who have a direct or indirect interest in such decisions, and our stockholders would not have the same protections afforded to stockholders of other companies that are required to comply with all of the independence rules of the NYSE. The dual-listing of our Class A Common Stock on the NYSE and on Euronext Paris's Professional Segment may adversely affect the liquidity and value of our Class A Common Stock. Our Class A Common Stock is listed on Euronext Paris's Professional Segment (*afco*Euronext Paris). While the dual-listing of our Class A Common Stock was intended to promote additional liquidity for investors and provide greater access to our Class A Common Stock among investors in Europe who may be required to invest in Eurozone markets or certain currencies only, this dual-listing may dilute the liquidity of these securities in one or both markets and may adversely affect the development of an active trading market for Class A Common Stock on Euronext Paris. The price of our Class A Common Stock listed on Euronext Paris could also be adversely affected by trading in our Class A Common Stock on the NYSE. In addition, currency fluctuations between the Euro and U.S. dollar may have an adverse impact on the value of our Class A Common Stock traded on Euronext Paris. There has been, and may continue to be, limited liquidity on the Euronext Paris market. We have not appointed any market maker on the Euronext Paris market but may do so in the future. On this basis, the liquidity of our Class A Common Stock traded on Euronext Paris may be uncertain and investors on the Euronext Paris market may need to assess their ability to adjust the size of their position given the then trading liquidity prior to investing in our securities. Item 1B. Unresolved Staff Comments. None. Item 1C. Cybersecurity. Risk management and strategy. We have developed and implemented a cybersecurity risk management program intended to protect the confidentiality, integrity, and availability of our critical systems and information. We continuously assess and strategically invest to improve the resiliency of our information security systems in a dynamic cybersecurity landscape. Our assurance practices are based on internationally recognized standards as implemented by our Global Information Security Team, which is responsible for managing our Security Operations Center. Our cybersecurity risk management program includes protocols for preventing, detecting and responding to cybersecurity incidents, and cross-functional coordination and governance of business continuity and disaster recovery plans. In addition to assessing our own cybersecurity preparedness, we also consider and evaluate cybersecurity risks associated with our third-party service providers and vendors. We engage internal and external assessors, consultants, auditors, and other third-party experts, to identify opportunities for improvements to our cybersecurity risk management program. The Global Information Security Team has implemented processes to manage and report various security threats, including escalation procedures based on the nature and severity of the incident including, where appropriate, escalation to our Cybersecurity Special Committee, Audit and Finance Committee (*afco*AFC) and Board of Directors. We conduct cybersecurity incident simulations on a regular basis, including involvement of the Cybersecurity Special Committee, along with various tabletop exercises designed to test our incident response procedures, identify gaps and improvement opportunities and exercise team preparedness. Cybersecurity training and safety are fundamental pillars to our overarching global information security strategy. The Global Information Security Team periodically shares security tips and best practices for all employees to raise awareness around digital security and routinely conducts phishing simulations and testing scenarios to complement required employee trainings on cybersecurity fundamentals, awareness, common threats and data loss prevention. As of the date of this report, we have not identified cybersecurity threats that have materially affected or are reasonably likely to materially affect our operations, business strategy, results of operations, or financial condition. We may face risks from cybersecurity threats that, if realized, are reasonably likely to materially affect our operations, business strategy, results of operations, or financial condition. See *afco*Risk factors related to our information technology and cybersecurity systems included as part of Item 1A. Risk Factors of this Annual Report on Form 10-K, which disclosures are incorporated by reference herein. Governance. Management is responsible for understanding and managing the risks that we face in our business, including relating to cybersecurity, and the Board of Directors is responsible for overseeing management's overall approach to risk management. Our Board of Directors has delegated to the AFC oversight responsibility for cybersecurity and data privacy, including periodically evaluating the Company's cybersecurity and privacy programs and receiving information on cybersecurity and privacy compliance. The chair of the AFC reports to the full Board of Directors following its regularly scheduled meetings. Our Board of Directors also has a dedicated Cybersecurity Special Committee that is empowered to manage the Company's response to major cybersecurity incidents and enable the integration of crisis management and business continuity processes. The Cybersecurity Special Committee, led by our Chief Information and Business Services Officer and two Board members (including the Chair of the AFC), consists of executive members from various corporate functions, including information technology, digital operations, corporate affairs, legal, compliance, human resources and finance. Outside cybersecurity experts periodically present to the Board on topics related to information security, data privacy and cyber risks and mitigation strategies. At the management level, our Global Information Security Team monitors alerts and informs relevant global senior management of all incidents and related mitigation and remediation, and escalates to the Cybersecurity Special Committee as needed. Global senior management monitors initiatives to prevent, detect, mitigate, and remediate cybersecurity risks and incidents. Item 2. Properties. Common Stock Our common stock is listed on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol *afco*COTY. It is also listed on the Euronext Paris Professional Segment. Stockholders of Record As of June 30, 2024 there were 588 stockholders of record of our Class A Common Stock. The actual number of stockholders is greater than this number of record holders, and includes stockholders who are beneficial owners, but whose shares are held in street name by brokers and other nominees. This number of holders of record also does not include stockholders whose shares may be held in trust by other entities. Dividend Policy On April 29, 2020, our Board of Directors suspended the payment of dividends on our common stock, in accordance with our 2018 Coty Credit Agreement, as amended. As we focus on preserving cash, we have continued to suspend the payment of Common Stock dividends. Any determination to pay dividends on our common stock in the future will be at the discretion of our Board of Directors and is subject to the restrictions under the terms of the Convertible Series B Preferred Stock described below. Dividends on the Convertible Series B Preferred Stock are payable in cash, or by increasing the amount of accrued dividends on Convertible Series B Preferred Stock, or any combination thereof, at the sole discretion of the Company. After the expiration of applicable restrictions under the 2018 Coty Credit Agreement, as amended, we began to pay dividends on the Convertible Series B Preferred Stock in cash for the period ended June 30, 2021, and we expect to continue to pay such dividends in cash on a quarterly basis, subject to the declaration thereof by our Board of Directors. The terms of the Convertible Series B Preferred Stock restrict our ability to declare cash dividends on our common stock until all accrued dividends on the Convertible Series B Preferred Stock have been declared and paid in cash. Furthermore, we are required to comply with certain covenants contained within the agreements that govern our indebtedness, including our credit agreements and the indentures relating to our senior secured notes and our senior unsecured notes. These agreements contain customary representations and warranties as well as customary affirmative and negative covenants, including but not limited to, restrictions on incurrence of additional debt, liens, dividends and other restricted payments, asset sales, investments, mergers, acquisitions and affiliate transactions. OVERVIEW We are one of the world's largest beauty companies, with an iconic portfolio of brands across fragrance, color cosmetics, and skin and body care. Our brands empower people to express themselves freely, creating their own visions of beauty; and we are committed to making a positive impact on the planet. Our strategic priorities include stabilizing and growing our Consumer Beauty brands through leading innovation and improved execution, accelerating our Prestige fragrance business and ongoing expansion into Prestige cosmetics, building a comprehensive skincare portfolio over the mid-to-long term leveraging existing brands, enhancing our organizational growth capabilities including digital and research and development, expanding our presence in growth channels such as the Travel Retail channel, in China and other growth engine markets (Latin America, including Brazil, the Middle East, North and South East Asia, Africa and India), and establishing Coty as an industry leader in sustainability. We have been making progress on our strategic priorities. In Consumer Beauty, we have implemented the relaunch of our top brands and returned to stable growth and steady margin improvement. Consumer Beauty net revenue grew 6% in fiscal 2024, with growth across mass fragrances, mass color cosmetics, skincare and body care led by Brazil. We are now focusing on accelerating our digital advocacy strategy to amplify our brand and product innovations, leverage consumer analytics and insights, and improve the return on investment of our marketing activities. Our e-commerce channel net revenues grew by over approximately 20% in fiscal 2024, with double-digit percentage growth in Prestige and Consumer Beauty. In Prestige, we continue to accelerate the fragrance business with exceptional new launches and expansion in premium and ultra-premium categories, while steadily expanding the distribution, productivity and assortment of our Prestige cosmetics. Our prestige cosmetics net revenues grew by a double-digit percentage in fiscal year 2024, led by Kylie Cosmetics and Burberry. We are continuing to thoughtfully expand our skincare portfolio (which contributed a mid-single digit percentage of our fiscal 2024 net revenue) with our focus on winning over the most discerning skin care consumers in our areas of excellence afco UV protection, photoaging prevention and repair, biotech-enhanced longevity science, and micro-dose formulations. Our skincare business, which contributed a mid-single-digit percentage of sales, generated strong sales growth in fiscal year 2024. We have successfully expanded our e-commerce capabilities, through best-in-class online launches, our digital advocacy strategy and active participation in key online shopping events, and increasing digital media competitiveness. Revenues from our global Travel channel grew in all three regions afco Americas, EMEA and Asia Pacific afco contributing approximately 20% to the net revenue growth in fiscal year 2024. Our growth engine markets net revenues grew in fiscal 2024, led by Brazil, the rest of LATAM, Southeast Asia, including India, and Africa. Our products are marketed, sold and distributed in approximately 121 countries and territories. As a geographically diverse company we are susceptible to global economic trends, geopolitical conflicts, domestic and foreign governmental policies, and changes in foreign exchange rates. In particular, economic conditions in China have had, and are expected to continue to have, an impact on our strategic initiatives, including our growth agenda in the region for Prestige products and our skincare growth priorities. Within the China market we continue to monitor and take actions to address the impact to our Consumer Beauty brands which have experienced sales declines as retailers and distributors continue to deplete their existing inventory. We remain attentive to economic and geopolitical conditions that may materially impact our business. We continue to explore and implement risk mitigation strategies in the face of these unfolding conditions and remain agile in adapting to changing circumstances. Such conditions have or may have global implications which may impact the future performance of our business in unpredictable ways. Changing market trends may impact sales of our products across and within product categories and regions. Within our Consumer Beauty segment, positive market trends within the skin and body care and mass color cosmetics categories in Brazil positively impacted the segment's sales volume during fiscal year 2024. Excluding the contribution from the Brazilian brands, the Consumer Beauty segment experienced a decline in sales volume primarily in the skin and body care category, as a result of a decline in sales from China, and in the color cosmetic category primarily due to negative market trends in the U.S. in mass color cosmetics market.³³ We expect that our net revenue for fiscal year 2025 will grow in the mid-single digit percent to high-single digit percent versus the prior year, excluding the impact of foreign exchange and the early termination of the Lacoste fragrance license. We anticipate that our annual gross margin will remain in the mid-sixties, providing us with opportunities to fund new product initiatives and support our brands through advertising and consumer promotional investments. We continue to target advertising and consumer promotional spending in the high-twenties percentage of net revenues. However, our level of advertising and consumer promotional spending will depend on various factors, including seasonality, the timing of product launches, and budgetary considerations. Global Supply Chain Challenges Our ability to fulfill demand for our products is critical to our success. Through steps taken to improve order fill rates and mitigate the impact of supply chain constraints, we have seen improvements in our order fill rates on a company-wide basis. As a result, in fiscal year 2024 we achieved close to pre-COVID-19 service levels across our divisions. Inflation The impact of inflation on material, logistical and other costs subsided during fiscal year 2024. Inflation may continue to impact certain costs, such as labor. However, we currently anticipate the overall impact of inflation to remain muted.³⁴ Selected Financial Data (in millions, except per share data) Year Ended June 30, 2024 2023 2022 Net revenues $6,118.0A $5,554.1A $5,304.4A Gross profit $3,939.2A $3,547.3A 3,369.2A Restructuring costs $36.7A (6.5) (6.5) Acquisition- and divestiture-related costs $A $A 14.7A Asset impairment charges $A $A 31.4A Operating income $546.7A $543.7A 240.9A Interest expense, net $25.0A 257.9A 224.0A Other expense (income), net $90.2A (419.0) (409.9) Income from continuing operations before income taxes $204.5A 704.8A 426.8A Provision for income taxes on continuing operations $95.1A 181.6A 164.8A Net income from continuing operations $109.4A 523.2A 262.0A Net income from discontinued operations $A $A 5.7A Net income $109.4A 523.2A 267.7A Net income attributable to Coty Inc. $89.4A $508.2A $259.5A Amounts attributable to Coty Inc.: Net income from continuing operations attributable to common stockholders $76.2A $495.0A $61.2A Per Share Data: Net income attributable to Coty Inc. per common share: Basic income from continuing operations $0.09A $0.58A $0.07A Basic income from discontinued operations $0.00A $0.00A $0.01A Basic income for Coty Inc. $0.09A $0.58A $0.08A Diluted income from continuing operations $0.09A $0.57A $0.07A Diluted income from discontinued operations $0.00A $0.00A $0.01A Diluted income for Coty Inc. $0.09A $0.57A $0.08A Weighted-average common shares Basic 874.4A 849.0A 820.6A Diluted 883.4A 886.5A 834.1A (in millions) Year Ended June 30, 2024 2023 2022 Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows Data: Net cash provided by operating activities $614.6A $625.7A $726.6A Net cash (used in) provided by investing activities (226.2) (118.2) (269.7) Net cash used in financing activities (336.7) (469.3) (1,034.0) (in millions) As of June 30, 2024 2023 2022 Consolidated Balance Sheets Data: Cash and cash equivalents $300.8A $246.9A $233.3A Total assets $12,082.5A $12,661.6A $12,116.1A Total debt $3,913.7A 4,281.6A 4,473.9A Total Coty Inc. stockholders' equity $3,827.1A 3,811.1A 3,154.5A 35 Non-GAAP Financial Measures To supplement the financial measures prepared in accordance with GAAP, we use non-GAAP financial measures for continuing operations and Coty Inc. including Adjusted operating income (loss), Adjusted EBITDA, Adjusted net income (loss), and Adjusted net income (loss) attributable to Coty Inc. to common stockholders (collectively, the "Adjusted Performance Measures"). The reconciliations of these non-GAAP financial measures to the most directly comparable financial measures calculated and presented in accordance with GAAP are shown in tables below. These non-GAAP financial measures should not be considered in isolation from, or as a substitute for or superior to, financial measures reported in accordance with GAAP. Moreover, these non-GAAP financial measures have limitations in that they do not reflect all the items associated with the operations of the business as determined in accordance with GAAP. Other companies, including companies in the beauty industry, may calculate similarly titled non-GAAP financial measures differently than we do, limiting the usefulness of those measures for comparative purposes. Despite the limitations of these non-GAAP financial measures, our management uses the Adjusted Performance Measures as key metrics in the evaluation of our performance and annual budgets and to benchmark performance of our business against our competitors. The following are examples of how these Adjusted Performance Measures are utilized by our management: strategic plans and annual budgets are prepared using the Adjusted Performance Measures; senior management receives a monthly analysis comparing budget to actual operating results that is prepared using the Adjusted Performance Measures; and senior management's annual compensation is calculated, in part, by using some of the Adjusted Performance Measures. In addition, our financial covenant compliance calculations under our debt agreements are substantially derived from these Adjusted Performance Measures. Our management believes that Adjusted Performance Measures are useful to investors in their assessment of our operating performance and the valuation of the Company. In addition, these non-GAAP financial measures address questions we routinely receive from analysts and investors and, in order to ensure that all investors have access to the same data, our management has determined that it is appropriate to make this data available to all investors. The Adjusted Performance Measures exclude the impact of certain items (as further described below) and provide supplemental information regarding our operating performance. By disclosing these non-GAAP financial measures, our management intends to provide investors with a supplemental comparison of our operating results and trends for the periods presented. Our management believes these measures are also useful to investors as such measures allow investors to evaluate our performance using the same metrics that our management uses to evaluate past performance and prospects for future performance. We provide disclosure of the effects of these non-GAAP financial measures by presenting the corresponding measure prepared in conformity with GAAP in our financial statements, and by providing a reconciliation to the corresponding GAAP measure so that investors may understand the adjustments made in arriving at the non-GAAP financial measures and use the information to perform their own analyses. Adjusted operating income/Adjusted EBITDA from continuing operations excludes restructuring costs and business structure realignment programs, amortization, acquisition- and divestiture-related costs and acquisition accounting impacts, stock-based compensation, and asset impairment charges and other adjustments as described below. For adjusted EBITDA, in addition to the preceding, we exclude adjusted depreciation as defined below. We do not consider these items to be reflective of our core operating performance due to the variability of such items from period-to-period in terms of size, nature and significance. They are primarily incurred to realign our operating structure and integrate new acquisitions, and implement divestitures of components of our business, and fluctuate based on specific facts and circumstances. Additionally, Adjusted net income attributable to Coty Inc. and Adjusted net income attributable to Coty Inc. per common share are adjusted for certain interest and other (income) expense items and preferred stock deemed dividends, as described below, and the related tax effects of each of the items used to derive Adjusted net income as such charges are not used by our management in assessing our operating performance period-to-period. Adjusted Performance Measures reflect adjustments based on the following items: Costs related to acquisition and divestiture activities: We have excluded acquisition- and divestiture-related costs and the accounting impacts such as those related to transaction costs and costs associated with the revaluation of acquired inventory in connection with business combinations because these costs are unique to each transaction. Additionally, for divestitures, we exclude write-offs of assets that are no longer recoverable and contract related costs due to the divestiture. The nature and amount of such costs vary significantly based on the size and timing of the acquisitions and divestitures, and the maturities of the businesses being acquired or divested. Also, the size, complexity and/or volume of past transactions, which often drives the magnitude of such expenses, may not be indicative of the size, complexity and/or volume of any future acquisitions or divestitures. Restructuring and other business realignment costs: We have excluded costs associated with restructuring and business structure realignment programs to allow for comparable financial results to historical operations and forward-looking guidance. In addition, the nature and amount of such charges vary significantly based on the size and timing of the programs. By excluding the referenced expenses from our non-GAAP financial measures, our management is able to further evaluate our ability to utilize existing assets and estimate their long-term value. Furthermore, our management believes that the adjustment of these items supplements the GAAP information with a measure that can be used to assess the sustainability of our operating performance. Asset impairment charges: We have excluded the impact of asset impairments as such non-cash amounts are inconsistent in amount and frequency and are significantly impacted by the timing and/or size of acquisitions. Our management believes that the adjustment of these items supplements the GAAP information with a measure that can be used to assess the sustainability of our operating performance. Amortization expense: We have excluded the impact of amortization of finite-lived intangible assets, as such non-cash amounts are inconsistent in amount and frequency and are significantly impacted by the timing and/or size of acquisitions. Our management believes that the adjustment of these items supplements the GAAP information with a measure that can be used to assess the sustainability of our operating performance. Although we exclude amortization of intangible assets from our non-GAAP expenses, our management believes that it is important for investors to understand that such intangible assets contribute to revenue generation. Amortization of intangible assets that relate to past acquisitions will recur in future periods until such intangible assets have been fully amortized. Any future acquisitions may result in the amortization of additional intangible assets. Gain on sale and termination of brand assets and early license termination: We have excluded the impact of gain on sale and termination of brand assets and early license termination as such amounts are inconsistent in amount and frequency and are significantly impacted by the size of the sale of brand assets and early license termination. Costs related to market exit: We have excluded the impact of direct incremental costs related to our decision to wind down our business operations in Russia. We believe that these direct and incremental costs are inconsistent and infrequent in nature. Consequently, our management believes that the adjustment of these items supplements the GAAP information with a measure that can be used to assess the sustainability of our operating performance. Gains on sale of real estate: We have excluded the impact of gains on sale of real estate as such amounts are inconsistent in amount and frequency and are significantly impacted by the size of the sale. Our management believes that the adjustment of these items supplements the GAAP information with a measure that can be used to assess the sustainability of our operating performance. Stock-based compensation: Although stock-based compensation is a key incentive offered to our employees, we have excluded the effect of these expenses from the calculation of adjusted operating income and adjusted EBITDA. This is due to their primarily non-cash nature; in addition, the amount and timing of these expenses may be highly variable and unpredictable, which may negatively affect comparability between periods. Depreciation and Adjusted depreciation: Our adjusted operating income excludes the impact of accelerated depreciation for certain restructuring projects that affect the expected useful lives of Property, Plant and Equipment, as such charges vary significantly based on the size and timing of the programs. Further, we have excluded adjusted depreciation, which represents depreciation expense net of accelerated depreciation charges, from our adjusted EBITDA. Our management believes that the adjustment of these items supplements the GAAP information with a measure that can be used to assess the sustainability of our operating performance. Other (income) expense: We have excluded the impact of pension curtailment (gains) and losses and pension settlements as such events are triggered by our restructuring and other business realignment activities and the amount of such charges vary significantly based on the size and timing of the programs. Further, we have excluded the change in fair value of the investment in Wella, as well as expenses related to potential or actual sales transactions reducing equity investments, as our management believes these unrealized (gains) and losses do not reflect our underlying ongoing business, and the adjustment of such impact helps investors and others compare and analyze performance from period to period. We have excluded the gain on the exchange of Series B Preferred Stock. Such transactions do not reflect our operating results and we have excluded the impact as our management believes that the adjustment of these items supplements the GAAP information with a measure that can be used to assess the sustainability of our operating performance. Noncontrolling interest: This adjustment represents the after-tax impact of the non-GAAP adjustments included in Net income attributable to noncontrolling interests based on the relevant noncontrolling interest percentage. Tax: This adjustment represents the impact of the tax effect of the pretax items excluded from Adjusted net income. The tax impact of the non-GAAP adjustments is based on the tax rates related to the jurisdiction in which the adjusted 37 items are received or incurred. Additionally, adjustments are made for the tax impact of any intra-entity transfer of assets and liabilities. Deemed Preferred Stock Dividends: We have excluded preferred stock deemed dividends related to the First Exchange and the Second Exchange (as disclosed and defined in Note 27 "Related Party Transactions" in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for fiscal 2023) from our calculation of adjusted net income attributable to Coty Inc. These deemed dividends are nonmonetary in nature, the transactions were entered into to simplify our capital structure and do not reflect our underlying ongoing business. Management believes that this adjustment helps investors and others compare and analyze our performance from period to period. Constant Currency We operate on a global basis, with the majority of our net revenues generated outside of the U.S. Accordingly, fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates can affect our results of operations. Therefore, to supplement financial results presented in accordance with GAAP, certain financial information is presented in constant currency, excluding the impact of foreign currency exchange translations to provide a framework for assessing how our underlying businesses performed excluding the impact of foreign currency exchange translations. Constant currency information compares results between periods as if exchange rates had remained constant period-over-period. We calculate constant currency information by translating current and prior-period results for entities reporting in currencies other than U.S. dollars into U.S. dollars using prior year foreign currency exchange rates. The constant currency calculations do not adjust for the impact of revaluing specific transactions denominated in a currency that is different to the functional currency of that entity when exchange rates fluctuate, or for the impacts of hyperinflation. The constant currency information we present may not be comparable to similarly titled measures reported by other companies. Basis of Presentation of Acquisitions, Divestitures, Terminations and Market Exit from Russia During the period when we complete an acquisition, divestiture, early license termination, or market exit, the financial results of the current year period are not comparable to the financial results presented in the prior year period. When explaining such changes from period to period and to maintain a consistent basis between periods, we exclude the financial contribution of: (i) the acquired brands or businesses in the current year period until we have twelve months of comparable financial results, and (ii) the divested brands or businesses or early terminated brands or markets exited in the prior year period, to maintain comparable financial results with the current fiscal year period. Acquisitions, divestitures, early license terminations, and market exits that would impact the comparability of financial results between periods presented in the Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations are shown in the table below. Period of acquisition, divestiture, termination, or market exit Acquisition, divestiture, termination, or market exit Impact on basis of 2024/2023 presentation Impact on basis of 2023/2022 presentation Third quarter fiscal 2023 Market Exit from Russia First and second quarters fiscal 2023 net revenue excluded. Third and fourth quarters fiscal 2022 net revenue excluded. Third quarter fiscal 2024 Termination: Lacoste Third and fourth quarters fiscal 2023 net revenue excluded. n/a When used herein, the term "Acquisitions, exits" refers to Divestitures, acquisitions, terminations, and Market Exit, refer to the financial contributions of the related acquisitions or divestitures, early license terminations, and market exits shown above, during the period that is not comparable as a result of such acquisitions or divestitures, early license terminations, and market exits. Unless otherwise noted, the following section pertains to the results of continuing operations. NET REVENUES In fiscal 2024, net revenues increased 10%, or $563.9, to $6,118.0 from $5,554.1 in fiscal 2023. Excluding net revenue from the first half of the prior period from Russia and the second half of the prior period from Lacoste, net revenues increased 12% or $654.3 to $6,118.0 from $5,463.7, reflecting a positive price and mix impact of 9%, an increase in unit volume of 2%, and a positive foreign currency exchange translation impact of 1%. The overall increase in net revenues reflects growth in our prestige fragrance category due to the continued success of fragrance brands, specifically Burberry, Hugo Boss, Calvin Klein, 38 Gucci, Chloe, Davidoff, Joop, and Marc Jacobs, as well as innovation from the launches including Marc Jacobs Daisy Wild and Cosmic Kylie Jenner, and positive performance in the prestige cosmetics category. The overall increase in net revenues for the Consumer Beauty segment was due to positive performance in the color cosmetics category specifically from Rimmel Manhattan and Risque, mass fragrance category specifically from David Beckham and Bruno Banani, and the skin and body care categories in Brazil, specifically from Monange, Paixao and Bozzano. The overall increase in net revenues reflects the continued success of our pricing and revenue management strategies, including the implementation of price increases across our product portfolio earlier in the fiscal year. Volume growth across our fragrance portfolio, as well as in skin and body care products in Brazil helped drive the increase in revenues, partially offset by volume declines from certain color cosmetic and other body care brands in China due to macroeconomic conditions which resulted in higher trade inventory levels. Geographically, except for China, net revenues in all major markets grew, led by Brazil, the United States, and Germany. Additionally, there was an increase in travel retail channel sales in all regions. Digital and e-commerce channel sales growth also contributed to the increase in net revenues. In fiscal 2023, net revenues increased 5%, or $249.7, to $5,554.1 from $5,304.4 in fiscal 2022. Excluding net revenue from the second half of the prior period from Russia, net revenues increased 6% or $276.8 to $5,554.1 from $5,277.3, reflecting a positive price and mix impact of 11% partially offset by a negative foreign currency exchange translation impact of 5%. Net revenues grew across both our segments. The growth in our Consumer Beauty segment was due to positive performance across the body care, skincare, and color cosmetics categories. Growth in our Prestige segment was primarily due to the positive performance in the prestige fragrance category due to the continued success of fragrance brands such as Burberry, Calvin Klein, Hugo Boss, Gucci, and Marc Jacobs. Although, the prestige make up category was negatively impacted by COVID-19 related to the lockdowns in China in the earlier portion of the fiscal period, this category began to show recovery in the last quarter of the fiscal period. The overall increase in net revenues reflects the successful implementation of global price increases across all product categories, our product premiumization strategy, and positive overall market trends. Net revenues also grew across all of our major geographic regions led by growth in the U.S. and Brazil. Additionally, there was an increase in travel retail sales in all major regions due to increased leisure travel in the period. The overall increase in net revenues was partially offset by the negative impact of foreign exchange headwinds on net revenues, primarily affecting the euro and British pound. Our exit from Russia impacted the overall change in our reported net revenues. Considering total fiscal 2023 year-to-date net revenues from Russia in both the current and prior fiscal 2022 period, the net negative impact on our fiscal year-to-date reported net revenue was approximately 1% on a consolidated basis, 1% for our Prestige division, and 1% for our Consumer Beauty division. PrestigeIn fiscal 2024, net revenues in the Prestige segment increased 13%, or $436.8 from $3,857.3 from $3,420.5 in fiscal 2023. Excluding net revenue from the first half of the prior period from Russia and the second half of the prior period from Lacoste, net revenues increased 15% or $508.5 from $3,348.8, reflecting a positive price and mix impact of 8% (primarily due to positive pricing impact as a result of price increases and in line with overall premiumization strategy), an increase in unit volume of 6% (primarily due to successful innovations and positive trends in the prestige fragrance category in many markets), and positive foreign currency exchange translation impact of 1%. The increase in net revenues primarily reflects: â€¢ Prestige fragrance sales growth of $476.9, primarily due to the continued success of Burberry Goddess, Classic, Her and Hero, Hugo Boss Boss Bottled and Boss the Scent, Calvin Klein One, Euphoria, and Eternity, Gucci Guilty and Flora, Chloe Nomade and Signature, Marc Jacobs Daisy Wild, Davidoff Cool Water, and Joop Homme, as well as continued brand innovation within the Gucci Flora franchise and Cosmic Kylie Jenner. Prestige fragrance sales grew in major markets such as the United States, Germany, Australia, and Spain as well as through travel retail channel sales across all regions. This growth was partially offset by lower net revenues for the Lacoste brand in the first six months of the current period, which was primarily due to the early license termination resulting in a wind down of 39 sales through the end of the second quarter; and no net revenues for the Bottega Veneta brand in the current period due to the ending of our licensing arrangement where sales of the brand ended in fiscal 2023; and â€¢ Prestige cosmetic sales growth of $24.5, primarily due to brand innovation from Kylie Cosmetics. In fiscal 2023, net revenues in the Prestige segment increased 5%, or $152.6, to $3,420.5 from $3,267.9 in fiscal 2022. Excluding net revenue from the second half of the prior period from Russia, net revenues increased 6% or $169.0 to $3,420.5 from $3,251.5, reflecting a positive price and mix impact of 11% (primarily due to the positive pricing impact as a result of global price increases and in line with overall premiumization strategy) partially offset by a negative foreign currency exchange translation impact of 5%. The increase in net revenues primarily reflects: â€¢ Prestige fragrance sales growth of $197.9, due to the continued success of Burberry Hero, Burberry Her, Calvin Klein, Hugo Boss Boss Bottled, Gucci Flora, and Marc Jacobs Daisy, particularly in the U.S. due to positive market trends and innovation, and in the travel retail channel sales across all major regions impacted by increased leisure travel compared to the prior year. These increases were partially offset by: â€¢ Prestige makeup sales decline of $18.1, primarily due to Gucci makeup travel retail channel sales in the Asia Pacific region as a result of slow recovery from the lockdowns in China; and â€¢ Prestige skincare sales decline of $10.8, primarily due to lower net revenues for philosophy due to less innovation and repositioning of the brand. Consumer BeautyIn fiscal 2024, net revenues in the Consumer Beauty segment increased 6%, or $127.1, to $2,260.7 from $2,133.6 in fiscal 2023. Excluding net revenue from the second half of the prior period from Russia, net revenues increased 7% or $145.8 to $2,260.7 from $2,114.9, reflecting a positive price and mix impact of 5% (primarily due to positive pricing impact as a result of price increases), an increase in unit volume of 1% (primarily due to increases from Brazilian brands offsetting decreases in volumes in most other markets), and a positive foreign currency exchange translation impact of 1%. The increase in net revenues primarily reflects: â€¢ Color cosmetics sales growth of $51.4, primarily due to the continued success of Rimmel Manhattan which saw continued brand innovation, such as Lasting Finish foundation and Thrill Seeker mascara, and Risque due to strong category momentum in Brazil and positive pricing impact, despite a category slowdown in the US; â€¢ Mass fragrance sales growth of $46.3, due to the continued success from the re-launch of David Beckham Instinct in the current period and success of Bruno Banani; and â€¢ Skin and body care sales growth of $44.6, due to the continued success of Brazilian brands Monange, Bozzano, and Paixao benefiting from strong category momentum and positive pricing impact. This growth was partially offset by lower sales volume for adidas primarily as a result of category slowdown in China which resulted in higher trade inventory levels. In fiscal 2023, net revenues in the Consumer Beauty segment increased 5%, or $97.1, to $2,133.6 from $2,036.5 in fiscal 2022. Excluding net revenue from the second half of the prior period from Russia, net revenues increased 6% or $107.8 to $2,133.6 from $2,025.8, reflecting a positive price and mix impact of 10% (primarily due to the positive pricing impact as a result of global price increases) partially offset by a negative foreign currency exchange translation impact of 4%. The increase in net revenues primarily reflects: â€¢ Color cosmetics sales growth of $59.1, resulting from Covergirl due to positive pricing impact and higher sell-out resulting in lower returns and markdowns in the U.S., and Rimmel Manhattan due to brand innovation and positive price and mix impact in major European markets, such as Germany, Austria, Switzerland, as well as Australia. â€¢ Skin and body care sales growth of $53.3, resulting from growth of brands in Brazil due to strong category momentum and positive product mix impact within our Brazilian brands â€¢ portfolio, as well as due to innovation in brands such as Monange and market share gains for Paixao. 40 COST OF SALESIn fiscal 2024, cost of sales increased 9%, or $172.0, to $2,178.8 from $2,006.8 in fiscal 2023. Cost of sales as a percentage of net revenues decreased to 35.6% in fiscal 2024 from 36.1% in fiscal 2023 resulting in a gross margin percentage increase of approximately 50 basis points, primarily reflecting: (i) approximately 80 basis points related to a decrease in manufacturing and material costs as a percentage of net revenues, driven by increased manufacturing efficiencies, improvements in productivity, as well as procurement and material cost optimization; and (ii) approximately 50 basis points related to decreased freight costs. These increases were partially offset by: (i) approximately 50 basis points related to an increase in excess and obsolescence costs across various subcategories within the Prestige and Consumer Beauty product portfolios; and (ii) approximately 30 basis points related to an increase in designer license fees due to licensed Prestige brands comprising a larger portion of overall net revenues in the current period as well as favorable royalty activity in the prior period, which did not recur in the current period. The above reflects a positive impact from pricing net of inflation of approximately 160 basis points. In fiscal 2023, cost of sales increased 4%, or $71.6, to $2,006.8 from $1,935.2 in fiscal 2022. Cost of sales as a percentage of net revenues decreased to 36.1% in fiscal 2023 from 36.5% in fiscal 2022 resulting in a gross margin percentage increase of approximately 40 basis points primarily reflecting: (i) approximately 30 basis points primarily related to manufacturing and material costs due to productivity improvements; (ii) â€¢ â€¢ approximately 20 basis points related to designer license fees due to favorable royalty related activity; and (iii) â€¢ â€¢ approximately 10 basis points related to excess and obsolescence costs. These increases were partially offset by approximately 200 basis points each. SELLING, GENERAL AND ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENSESIn fiscal 2024, selling, general and administrative expenses increased 12%, or $344.1, to $3,162.4 from $2,818.3 in fiscal 2023. Selling, general and administrative expenses as a percentage of net revenues increased to 51.7% in fiscal 2024 from 50.7% in fiscal 2023, or approximately 100 basis points. This increase was primarily due to: (i) 220 basis points due to a decrease in net gains in the current period compared to the prior year related to the early termination of the Lacoste license; (ii) 40 basis points due to an increase in bad debt expense as a percentage of net revenues. These increases were partially offset by the following decreases: (i) 100 basis points due to a decrease in stock-based compensation cost primarily related to a reduction in expense recognized in connection with awards granted to the CEO; (ii) 30 basis points due to a decrease in logistics costs as a percentage of net revenues; and (iii) 30 basis points due to favorable transactional impact from our exposure to foreign currency as a percentage of net revenues. In fiscal 2023, selling, general and administrative expenses decreased 2%, or $63.0, to $2,818.3 from $2,881.3 in fiscal 2022. Selling, general and administrative expenses as a percentage of net revenues decreased to 50.7% in fiscal 2023 from 54.3% in fiscal 2022, or approximately 360 basis points. This decrease was primarily due to: (i) 130 basis points in stock-based compensation cost primarily related to a reduction in expense recognized in connection with a prior year's grant made to the CEO; (ii) 100 basis points due to a decrease in advertising and consumer promotional costs as a percentage of net revenues primarily related to a reduction of working media in the fiscal period; (iii) 100 basis points due to a decrease in administrative costs as a percentage of net revenues primarily due to lower depreciation expense related to fully depreciated IT equipment and lower consulting fees; (iv) 70 basis points due to a decrease in bad debt expense as a percentage of net revenues; and (v) 40 basis points due to a decrease in logistics costs as a percentage of net revenues. These decreases were partially offset by the following increases: (i) 60 basis points due to unfavorable transactional impact from our exposure to foreign currency exchange fluctuations; and (ii) 30 basis points due to gains on sale of real estate recorded in the comparative period, which represented a greater percentage of net revenues compared to the net gains recorded in the current period, which primarily related to the early termination of the Lacoste license. OPERATING INCOME (LOSS) FROM CONTINUING OPERATIONSIn fiscal 2024, operating income from continuing operations was $546.7 compared to income of $543.7 in fiscal 2023. Operating income as a percentage of net revenues, worsened to 8.9% in fiscal 2024 as compared to operating income as a percentage of net revenues of 9.8% in fiscal 2023. The worsened operating margin is largely driven by gains from the early termination of the Lacoste license in the prior year (approximately 200 basis points), higher restructuring costs as a percentage of net revenues (approximately 70 basis points), partially offset by lower stock-based compensation expense (approximately 100 basis points) primarily related to a reduction in expense recognized in connection with grants made to the CEO, lower cost of sales as a percentage of net revenues (approximately 50 basis points), lower amortization expense as a percentage of net revenues (approximately 30 basis points), and lower fixed costs as a percentage of net revenues (approximately 30 basis points) primarily related to non-people costs. In addition, the greater proportion of Consumer Beauty net revenues, including a greater proportion of revenues from our Brazilian business were from lower margin Brazil brands, compared to the prior year, negatively impacted our consolidated operating income margin. In fiscal 2023, operating income from continuing operations was $543.7 compared to income of $240.9 in fiscal 2022. Operating income as a percentage of net revenues, improved to 9.8% in fiscal 2023 as compared to operating income as a percentage of net revenues of 4.5% in fiscal 2022. The improved operating margin is largely driven by lower fixed costs as a percentage of net revenues (approximately 150 basis points) primarily due to lower depreciation expense related to fully depreciated IT equipment, lower stock-based compensation as a percentage of net revenues (approximately 130 basis points) primarily related to a reduction in expense recognized in connection with a prior year â€¢ grant made to the CEO, lower advertising and consumer promotional spending as a percentage of net revenues (approximately 100 basis points) primarily due to a reduction in working media, and a decrease in asset impairment charges as a percentage of net revenues (approximately 60 basis points) related to the impairment of indefinite-lived intangibles recorded in the prior period. In addition, despite a higher proportion of Consumer Beauty sales from lower margin Brazil brands in fiscal 2023 compared to the prior year, a greater proportion of higher margin Prestige product sales in 2023 positively benefited our consolidated gross margin and operating income. PrestigeIn fiscal 2024, operating income for Prestige was $580.7 compared to income of $483.7 in fiscal 2023. Operating margin improved to 15.1% of net revenues in fiscal 2024 as compared to 14.1% in fiscal 2023, driven primarily by lower amortization expense as a percentage of net revenues (approximately 40 basis points), lower cost of sales as a percentage of net revenues (approximately 40 basis points), lower fixed costs as a percentage of net revenues (approximately 30 basis points) primarily related to non-people costs. 42 In fiscal 2023, operating income for Prestige was $483.7 compared to income of $367.2 in fiscal 2022. Operating margin improved to 14.1% of net revenues in fiscal 2023 as compared to 11.2% in fiscal 2022, driven primarily by lower fixed costs as a percentage of net revenues (approximately 110 basis points) primarily due to lower depreciation expense related to fully depreciated technology equipment, lower cost of goods sold as a percentage of net revenues (approximately 60 basis points) and lower amortization expense as a percentage of net revenues (approximately 60 basis points) mainly due to the certain definite-lived intangible assets reaching the end of their useful lives. Consumer BeautyIn fiscal 2024, operating income for Consumer Beauty was $89.3 compared to income of $63.3 in fiscal 2023. Operating margin improved to 4.0% of net revenues in fiscal 2024 as compared to 3.0% in fiscal 2023, primarily driven by lower advertising and consumer promotion expense as a percentage of net revenues (approximately 30 basis points) primarily due to lower spend in offline consumer engagement and lower transactional foreign exchange losses as a percentage of net revenues (approximately 30 basis points). In fiscal 2023, operating income for Consumer Beauty was $63.3 compared to income of $9.5 in fiscal 2022. Operating margin improved to 3.0% of net revenues in fiscal 2023 as compared to 0.5% in fiscal 2022, driven by lower advertising and consumer promotional costs as a percentage of net revenues (approximately 90 basis points) primarily due to lower depreciation expense on promotional fixtures as a result of fewer fixtures being installed during the COVID-19 pandemic, a decrease in impairment charges as a percentage of net revenues (approximately 150 basis points) related to the impairment of indefinite-lived intangibles recorded in the prior period, and lower fixed costs as a percentage of net revenues (approximately 130 basis points) primarily due to lower depreciation expense as a percentage of net revenues. CorporateCorporate primarily includes expenses not directly relating to our operating activities. These items are included in Corporate since we consider them to be corporate responsibilities, and these items are not used by our management to measure the underlying performance of the segments. Operating loss for Corporate was $123.3, $3.3 and $135.8 in fiscal 2024, 2023 and 2022, respectively, as described under â€¢ Adjusted Operating Income â€¢ below. The operating loss of $123.3 in fiscal 2024 declined in comparison to the prior year primarily due to the gain recognized due to the early termination of the Lacoste fragrance license in the prior period ($104.4) lower stock based compensation ($47.1 reduction in expense) primarily related to a reduction in expense recognized in connection with grants made to the CEO, partially offset by an increase in restructuring and business realignment costs ($42.9 increase in expense). The operating loss of $3.3 in fiscal 2023 includes stock-based compensation ($135.9), partially offset by gains related to the early termination of the Lacoste fragrance license ($104.4), gains related to the market exit in Russia (approximately $17.0), and gains on sale of real estate ($4.9). The operating loss of $135.8 in fiscal 2022 includes stock-based compensation ($195.5), costs related to the Russia market exit ($45.9), restructuring and other business realignment costs ($4.7), acquisition and divestiture related costs ($14.7), partially offset by a gain on the sale of real estate ($115.5) and gains from sale of brand assets ($9.5). 43 Continuing Operations by SegmentWe believe that adjusted operating income (loss) from continuing operations by segment further enhances an investor â€¢ understanding of our performance. assessments from local, state, and federal tax authorities in Brazil. In relation to the appeal of our Brazilian tax assessments, we have entered into surety bonds of R$449.0A million (approximately $81.6) as of June 30, 2024. See Note 24 "Legal and Other Contingencies for more details on these tax assessments. Derivative Financial Instruments and Hedging Activities We are exposed to foreign currency exchange fluctuations and interest rate volatility through our global operations. We utilize natural offsets to the fullest extent possible in order to identify net exposures. In the normal course of business, established policies and procedures are employed to manage these net exposures using a variety of financial instruments. We do not enter into derivative financial instruments for trading or speculative purposes. 56 Foreign Currency Exchange Risk Management We operate in multiple functional currencies and are exposed to the impact of foreign currency fluctuations. For foreign currency exposures, which primarily relate to receivables, inventory purchases and sales, payables and intercompany loans, derivatives are used to better manage the earnings and cash flow volatility arising from foreign currency exchange rate fluctuations. We recorded net foreign currency (losses) gains of $(18.1), $(32.3) and $3.3 in fiscal 2024, 2023 and 2022, respectively, resulting from non-financing foreign currency exchange transactions which are included in their associated expense type and are included in the Consolidated Statements of Operations. In July 2021, the Company entered into foreign exchange forward contracts to hedge up to 80% of our euro denominated external debt as part of management's strategy to minimize the impact of currency movements on those debt instruments. Net (losses) gains of $(16.5), $(12.2) and $10.0 in fiscal 2024, 2023 and 2022, respectively, resulting from financing foreign exchange currency transactions are included in Interest expense, net in the Consolidated Statements of Operations. Exchange gains or losses are also partially offset through the use of qualified derivatives under hedge accounting, for which we record accumulated gains or losses in Accumulated other comprehensive income until the underlying transaction occurs at which time the gain or loss is reclassified into the respective account in the Consolidated Statements of Operations. We have experienced and will continue to experience fluctuations in our net income as a result of balance sheet transactional exposures. We use a combination of foreign currency forward contracts and cross currency contracts when necessary to offset these exposures. As of June 30, 2024, in the event of a 10% unfavorable change in the prevailing market rates of hedged foreign currencies versus the U.S. dollar, the change in fair value of all foreign exchange forward contracts would result in a $89.5 decrease in the fair value of these forward contracts, which would be offset by an increase in the underlying foreign currency exposures. Interest Rate Risk Management We are exposed to interest rate risk that relates primarily to our indebtedness, which is affected by changes in the general level of the interest rates primarily in the U.S. and Europe. All of our long-term debt outstanding as of June 30, 2024 is fixed rate debt, however, we draw on our revolving credit facility which is subject to variable interest rates, from time to time. We periodically enter into interest rate swap agreements to facilitate our interest rate management activities. We have designated these agreements as cash flow hedges and, accordingly, applied hedge accounting. The effective changes in fair value of these agreements are recorded in AOCI/(L), net of tax, and ineffective portions are recorded in current-period earnings. Amounts in AOCI/(L) are subsequently reclassified to earnings as interest expense when the hedged transactions are settled. We expect that both at the inception and on an ongoing basis, the hedging relationship between any designated interest rate hedges and underlying variable rate debt will be highly effective in achieving offsetting cash flows attributable to the hedged risk during the term of the hedge. If it is determined that a derivative is not highly effective, or that it has ceased to be a highly effective hedge, we will be required to discontinue hedge accounting with respect to that derivative prospectively. The corresponding gain or loss position of the ineffective hedge recorded to AOCI/(L) will be reclassified to current-period earnings. We are exposed to changes in interest rates because of certain variable-rate debt discussed in Note 14 "Debt. If interest rates had been 10% higher and all other variables were held constant, Income from continuing operations before income taxes in fiscal 2024 would decrease by $2.3. As of June 30, 2024, we also had fixed-rate senior notes (the "Notes") outstanding. Since our Notes bear interest at fixed rates and are carried at amortized cost, fluctuations in interest rates do not have any impact on our consolidated financial statements. However, the fair value of the Notes will fluctuate with movements in market interest rates, increasing in periods of declining interest rates and declining in periods of increasing interest rates. Equity Investment Risk Our equity investments are investments in equity securities of privately-held companies without readily determinable fair values, including an investment of approximately $1,085.0 that is valued using the fair value option and approximately $5.6 that is accounted for using the equity method as of June 30, 2024. These investments are subject to a wide variety of market-related risks that could have a material impact on the carrying value of our holdings. We continually evaluate our equity investments in privately-held companies. See Note 12 "Equity Investments for additional information. In addition to the above equity investments, we entered into forward repurchase contracts in December 2022 and November 2023 with three large financial institutions to hedge for potential $196.0 and $294.0 share buyback programs of share repurchases in 2025 and 2026, respectively. These forward repurchase contracts are accounted for at fair value, with changes in the fair value recorded in Other expense (income), net within the Consolidated Statements of Operations. Our primary exposure is the movements of our stock price during the contract period, which may be volatile and is likely to fluctuate due to a number of factors beyond our control. These factors include actual or anticipated fluctuations in the quarterly 57 and annual results of our Company or of other peer companies in the industry, market perceptions concerning the macroeconomic, social or political developments, industry conditions, changes in government regulation and the securities market trends. We estimate that an immediate, hypothetical 10% decline in our stock price would result in a $47.6 decrease in the fair value of these forward repurchase contracts and reduce our Income (loss) from continuing operations before income taxes. Any realized gains or losses resulting from such fair value changes would occur if we elect to terminate the forward repurchase contracts prior to or on maturity. Refer to Note 21 "Equity and Convertible Preferred Stock. Credit Risk Management We attempt to minimize credit exposure to counterparties by generally entering into derivative contracts with counterparties that have an "A" (or equivalent) credit rating. The counterparties to these contracts are major financial institutions. Exposure to credit risk in the event of nonperformance by any of the counterparties is limited to the fair value of contracts in net asset positions, which totaled $1.5 as of June 30, 2024. Management believes risk of material loss under these hedging contracts is remote. Inflation Risk The impact of inflation on material, logistical and other costs subsided during fiscal year 2024. Inflation may continue to impact certain costs, such as labor, however. Although we currently anticipate the overall impact of inflation to remain muted, inflation may negatively impact our business by raising cost and reducing profitability and we may not be able to fully offset such higher costs through price increases. Our inability or failure to do so could harm our business, prospects, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows, as well as the trading price of our securities. Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements We had undrawn letters of credit of $4.1 and $7.2 and bank guarantees of $18.4 and $16.3 as of June 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively. Critical Accounting Policies We prepare our Consolidated Financial Statements in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles. The preparation of these Consolidated Financial Statements requires us to make estimates, assumptions and judgments that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses and related disclosures. These estimates and assumptions can be subjective and complex and, consequently, actual results may differ from those estimates that would result in material changes to our operating results and financial condition. We evaluate our estimates and assumptions on an ongoing basis. Our estimates are based on historical experience and various other assumptions that we believe to be reasonable under the circumstances. Our most critical accounting policies relate to revenue recognition, the fair value of equity investments, the assessment of goodwill, other intangible and long-lived assets for impairment, inventory and income taxes. Our management has discussed the selection of significant accounting policies and the effect of estimates with the Audit and Finance Committee of our Board of Directors. Revenue Recognition Net revenues comprise gross revenues less customer discounts and allowances, actual and expected returns (estimated based on an analysis of historical experience and position in product life cycle) and various trade spending activities. Trade spending activities represent variable consideration promised to the customer and primarily relate to advertising, product promotions and demonstrations, some of which involve cooperative relationships with customers. The costs of trade spend activities are estimated considering all reasonably available information, including contract terms with the customer, the Company's historical experience and its current expectations of the scope of the activities, and is reflected in the transaction price when sales are recorded. For additional information on our revenue accounting policies, see Note 2 "Summary of Significant Accounting Policies. Returns represented 1%, 2% and 2% of gross revenue after customer discounts and allowances in fiscal 2024, 2023 and 2022, respectively. Trade spending activities recorded as a reduction to gross revenue after customer discounts and allowances represent 9%, 10%, and 10% in fiscal 2024, 2023 and 2022, respectively. Our sales return accrual reflects seasonal fluctuations, including those related to the holiday season in the first half of our fiscal year. This accrual is a subjective critical estimate that has a direct impact on reported net revenues, and is calculated based on history of actual returns, estimated future returns and information provided by retailers regarding their inventory levels. In addition, as necessary, specific accruals may be established for significant future known or anticipated events. The types of known or anticipated events that we have considered, and will continue to consider, include the financial condition of our customers, store closings by retailers, changes in the retail environment, and our decision to continue to support new and existing brands. If the historical data we use to calculate these estimates does not approximate future returns, additional allowances may be required. Equity Investments 58 We elected the fair value option to account for its investment in Wella to align with our strategy for this investment. The fair value is updated on a quarterly basis. The investments are classified within Level 3 in the fair value hierarchy because we estimate the fair value of the investments using a combination of the income approach, the market approach and private transactions, when applicable. Changes in the fair value of equity investments under the fair value option are recorded in Other expense (income), net within the Consolidated Statements of Operations (see Note 12 "Equity Investments). Some of the inherent estimates and assumptions used in determining fair value of the Wella Company are outside the control of management, including interest rates, cost of capital, tax rates, credit ratings and industry growth. While we believe we have made reasonable estimates and assumptions to calculate the fair value of the Wella Company, it is possible changes could occur. As for the Wella Company, if in future years, the actual results are not consistent with our estimates and assumptions used to calculate fair value, we may be required to recognize additional adjustments. Goodwill, Other Intangible Assets and Long-Lived Assets Goodwill Goodwill is calculated as the excess of the cost of purchased businesses over the fair value of their underlying net assets. Other intangible assets consist of indefinite-lived trademarks. Goodwill and other indefinite-lived intangible assets are not amortized. We assess goodwill at least annually as of May 1 for impairment, or more frequently, if certain events or circumstances warrant. We test goodwill for impairment at the reporting unit level, which is the same level as our reportable segments. We identify our reporting units by assessing whether the components of our reporting segments constitute businesses for which discrete financial information is available and management of each reporting unit regularly reviews the operating results of those components. When testing goodwill for impairment, we have the option of first performing a qualitative assessment to determine whether it is more likely than not that the fair value of a reporting unit is less than its carrying amount as the basis to determine if it is necessary to perform a quantitative goodwill impairment test. In performing our qualitative assessment, we consider the extent to which unfavorable events or circumstances identified, such as changes in economic conditions, industry and market conditions or company specific events, could affect the comparison of the reporting unit's fair value with its carrying amount. If we conclude that it is more likely than not that the fair value of a reporting unit is less than its carrying amount, we are required to perform a quantitative impairment test. Quantitative impairment testing for goodwill is based upon the fair value of a reporting unit as compared to its carrying value. We make certain judgments and assumptions in allocating assets and liabilities to determine carrying values for our reporting units. The impairment loss recognized would be the difference between a reporting unit's carrying value and fair value in an amount not to exceed the carrying value of the reporting unit's goodwill. Testing goodwill for impairment requires us to estimate fair values of reporting units using significant estimates and assumptions. The assumptions made will impact the outcome and ultimate results of the testing. We use industry accepted valuation models and set criteria that are reviewed and approved by various levels of management and, in certain instances, we engage independent third-party valuation specialists. To determine fair value of the reporting unit, we used a combination of the income and market approaches, when applicable. We believe the blended use of both models, when applicable, compensates for the inherent risk associated with either model if used on a stand-alone basis, and this combination is indicative of the factors a market participant would consider when performing a similar valuation. Under the income approach, we determine fair value using a discounted cash flow method, projecting future cash flows of each reporting unit, as well as a terminal value, and discounting such cash flows at a rate of return that reflects the relative risk of the cash flows. Under the market approach, when applicable, we utilize information from comparable publicly traded companies with similar operating and investment characteristics as the reporting units, which creates valuation multiples that are applied to the operating performance of the reporting units being tested, to value the reporting unit. The key estimates and factors used in these approaches include revenue growth rates and profit margins based on our internal forecasts, our specific weighted-average cost of capital used to discount future cash flows, and comparable market multiples for the industry segment, when applicable, as well as our historical operating trends. Certain future events and circumstances, including deterioration of market conditions, higher cost of capital, a decline in actual and expected consumer consumption and demands, could result in changes to these assumptions and judgments. A revision of these assumptions could cause the fair values of the reporting units to fall below their respective carrying values, resulting in a non-cash impairment charge. Such charge could have a material effect on the Consolidated Statements of Operations and Balance Sheets. There were no impairments of goodwill at our reporting units in fiscal 2024, 2023 or fiscal 2022. Based on the annual impairment test performed on May 1, 2024, we determined that the fair value of each of the reporting units exceeded their respective carrying values at that date by approximately 143.6% and 69.9% relating to the Prestige and 59 Consumer Beauty reporting units, respectively. Consequently, there were no goodwill impairment charges recorded as a result of the annual impairment test performed on May 1, 2024. To determine the fair value of our reporting units, we have used annual revenue growth rates ranging from 3.0%-10.0% and 2.0%-7.8% for the Prestige and Consumer Beauty reporting units, respectively, and a discount rate of 9.5%. Some of the inherent estimates and assumptions used in determining fair value of the reporting units are outside the control of management, including interest rates, cost of capital, tax rates, credit ratings and industry growth. While the Company believes it has made reasonable estimates and assumptions to calculate the fair values of the reporting units, it is possible changes could occur. As for all the Company's reporting units, if in future years, the reporting unit's actual results are not consistent with the Company's estimates and assumptions used to calculate fair value, the Company may be required to recognize material impairments to goodwill. The Company will continue to monitor its reporting units for any triggering events or other signs of impairment. The Company may be required to perform additional impairment testing based on changes in the economic environment, disruptions to the Company's business, significant declines in operating results of the Company's reporting units, further sustained deterioration of the Company's market capitalization, and other factors, which could result in impairment charges in the future. Although management cannot predict when improvements in macroeconomic conditions will occur, if consumer confidence and consumer spending decline significantly in the future or if commercial and industrial economic activity or the market capitalization deteriorates significantly from current levels, it is reasonably likely the Company will be required to record impairment charges in the future. Other Intangible Assets We assess indefinite-lived other intangible assets (trademarks) at least annually as of May 1 for impairment, or more frequently if certain events occur or circumstances change that would more likely than not reduce the fair value of an indefinite-lived intangible asset below its carrying value. Trademarks are tested for impairment on a brand level basis. The trademarks' fair values are based upon the income approach, primarily utilizing the relief from royalty methodology. This methodology assumes that, in lieu of ownership, a third party would be willing to pay a royalty in order to obtain the rights to use the trademark. An impairment loss is recognized when the estimated fair value of the intangible asset is less than the carrying value. Fair value calculation requires significant judgments in determining both the asset's estimated cash flows as well as the appropriate discount and royalty rates applied to those cash flows to determine fair value. Variations in economic conditions or a change in general consumer demand, operating results estimates or the application of alternative assumptions could produce significantly different results. The carrying value of our indefinite-lived other intangible assets was $944.6 as of June 30, 2024, and is comprised of trademarks for the following brands: CoverGirl of $327.4, Max Factor of $148.4, Sally Hansen of $158.5, philosophy of $121.8, Bourjois of $36.1 and other trademarks totaling $152.4. As a result of the May 1, 2022 annual impairment test, total impairments on indefinite-lived other intangible assets of $31.4 were recorded. On May 1, 2024 and 2023, we performed our annual impairment testing of indefinite-lived other intangible assets and determined that no adjustments to carrying values were required. As of May 1, 2024, we determined that the fair value of our Max Factor and Bourjois trademarks exceeded their carrying values by approximately 4.8% and 5.8%, respectively, using annual revenue growth rates ranging from 2.0%-15.0% and 2.0%-13.5%, respectively, and a discount rate of 10.37%. The fair value of the Max Factor and Bourjois trademarks would fall below their carrying values if the average annual revenue growth rate decreased by approximately 62 and 75 basis points, respectively, or the discount rate increased by 42 basis points and 50 basis points, respectively. The fair values of the remaining indefinite-lived trademarks exceeded their carrying values by amounts ranging from 26% to 868%. Some of the inherent estimates and assumptions used in determining fair value of the indefinite-lived intangible assets are outside the control of management, including interest rates, cost of capital, tax rates, credit ratings and industry growth. While the Company believes it has made reasonable estimates and assumptions to calculate the fair values of the indefinite-lived intangible assets, it is possible changes could occur. As for the indefinite-lived intangible assets, the most significant assumptions used are the revenue growth rate and the discount rate, a decrease in the revenue growth rate or an increase in the discount rate could result in a future impairment. The Company will continue to monitor its indefinite-lived tradenames for any triggering events or other signs of impairment. The Company may be required to perform additional impairment testing based on changes in the economic environment, disruptions to the Company's business, significant declines in operating results of the Company's reporting units and/or tradenames, further sustained deterioration of the Company's market capitalization, and other factors, which could result in impairment charges in the future. Although management cannot predict when improvements in macroeconomic conditions will occur, if consumer confidence and consumer spending decline significantly in the future or if commercial and industrial economic activity or the market capitalization deteriorates significantly from current levels, it is reasonably likely the Company will be required to record impairment charges in the future.

60 Long-Lived Assets Long-lived assets, including tangible and intangible assets with finite lives, are amortized over their respective lives to their estimated residual values and are also reviewed for impairment whenever certain triggering events may indicate impairment. When such events or changes in circumstances occur, a recoverability test is performed comparing projected undiscounted cash flows from the use and eventual disposition of an asset or asset group to its carrying value. If the projected undiscounted cash flows are less than the carrying value, an impairment would be recorded for the excess of the carrying value over the fair value, which is determined by discounting future cash flows. During fiscal years 2024, 2023 and 2022, we recorded asset impairment charges of $1.7, $4.3 and $2.4, respectively, to Property and equipment, net and nil, $1.1 and $1.0, respectively to Operating lease right-of-use assets, primarily relating to the abandonment of equipment or leases no longer in use. These impairment charges are primarily recorded in Selling, general and administrative expenses in the Consolidated Statements of Operations. Inventories include items which are considered salable or usable in future periods, and are stated at the lower of cost or net realizable value, with cost being based on standard cost which approximates actual cost on a first-in, first-out basis. Costs include direct materials, direct labor and overhead (e.g., indirect labor, rent and utilities, depreciation, purchasing, receiving, inspection and quality control) and in-bound freight costs. The Company classifies inventories into various categories based upon their stage in the product life cycle, future marketing sales plans and the disposition process. The Company also records an inventory obsolescence reserve, which represents the excess of the cost of the inventory over its net realizable value, based on product sales projections. This reserve is calculated using an estimated obsolescence percentage applied to the inventory based on age, historical trends, and requirements to support forecasted sales. In addition, and as necessary, the Company may establish specific reserves for future known or anticipated events. Income Taxes We are subject to income taxes in the U.S. and various foreign jurisdictions. We account for income taxes under the asset and liability method. Therefore, income tax expense is based on reported income before income taxes, and deferred income taxes reflect the effect of temporary differences between the amounts of assets and liabilities that are recognized for financial reporting purposes and the amounts that are recognized for income tax purposes. Deferred taxes are recorded at currently enacted statutory tax rates and are adjusted as enacted tax rates change. A valuation allowance is established, when necessary, to reduce deferred tax assets to the amount that is more likely than not to be realized based on currently available evidence. We consider how to recognize, measure, present and disclose in financial statements uncertain tax positions taken or expected to be taken on a tax return. We are subject to tax audits in various jurisdictions. We regularly assess the likely outcomes of such audits in order to determine the appropriateness of liabilities for unrecognized tax benefits. We classify interest and penalties related to unrecognized tax benefits as a component of the provision for income taxes. For unrecognized tax benefits, we first determine whether it is more-likely-than-not (defined as a likelihood of more than fifty percent) that a tax position will be sustained based on its technical merits as of the reporting date, assuming that taxing authorities will examine the position and have full knowledge of all relevant information. A tax position that meets this more-likely-than-not threshold is then measured and recognized at the largest amount of benefit that is greater than fifty percent likely to be realized upon effective settlement with a taxing authority. As the determination of liabilities related to unrecognized tax benefits, including associated interest and penalties, requires significant estimates to be made by us, there can be no assurance that we will accurately predict the outcomes of these audits, and thus the eventual outcomes could have a material impact on our operating results or financial condition and cash flows. Unrecognized tax benefits are reviewed on an ongoing basis and are adjusted in light of changing facts and circumstances, including progress of examinations by tax authorities, developments in case law and closing of statute of limitations. Such adjustments are reflected in the provision for income taxes as appropriate. In addition, we are present in approximately 40 tax jurisdictions and we are subject to the continuous examination of our income tax returns by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) and other tax authorities. We regularly assess the likelihood of adverse outcomes resulting from these examinations to determine the adequacy of our provision for income taxes. As a result of the 2017 Tax Act changing the U.S. to a modified territorial tax system, the Company no longer asserts that any of its undistributed foreign earnings are permanently reinvested. We do not expect to incur significant withholding or state taxes on future distributions. To the extent there remains a basis difference between the financial reporting and tax basis of an investment in a foreign subsidiary after the repatriation of the previously taxed income, the Company is permanently reinvested. A determination of the unrecognized deferred taxes related to these components is not practicable.

61 Item 7A. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk. We have operations both within the U.S. and internationally, and we are exposed to market risks in the ordinary course of our business, including the effect of foreign currency fluctuations, interest rate changes and inflation. Information relating to quantitative and qualitative disclosures about these market risks is set forth in under the captions "Foreign Currency Exchange Risk Management," "Interest Rate Risk Management," and "Credit Risk Management" within Item 7, "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations," "Liquidity and Capital Resources" and is incorporated in this Item 7A by reference. Item 8. Financial Statements and Supplementary Data. The information required by this Item appears beginning on page F-1 of this Annual Report on Form 10-K and is incorporated in this Item 8 by reference. Item 9A. Controls and Procedures. Evaluation of Disclosure Controls and Procedures We maintain disclosure controls and procedures, as defined in Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e) under the Exchange Act, that are designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed by a company in the reports that it files or submits under the Exchange Act is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in the SEC's rules and forms. Disclosure controls and procedures include, without limitation, controls and procedures designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed by a company in the reports that it files or submits under the Exchange Act is accumulated and communicated to our management, including its principal executive and principal financial officers, as appropriate to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure. Our management, with the participation of our Chief Executive Officer (the CEO) and our Chief Financial Officer (the CFO), evaluated the effectiveness of our disclosure controls and procedures as of June 30, 2024. Based on the evaluation of our disclosure controls and procedures as of June 30, 2024, our CEO and CFO concluded that, as of such date, our disclosure controls and procedures were effective at the reasonable assurance level. We have included our Management Report over Internal Control over Financial Reporting in Item 15. Exhibits, Financial Statement Schedules and is incorporated in this Item 9A by reference. Changes in Internal Control over Financial Reporting There were no changes in our internal control over financial reporting identified in management's evaluation pursuant to Rules 13a-15(f) and 15d-15(f) of the Exchange Act during the fourth fiscal quarter that materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting. Inherent Limitations on Effectiveness of Controls Our management, including our CEO and CFO, believes that our disclosure controls and procedures and internal control over financial reporting are designed to provide reasonable assurance of achieving our objectives and are effective at the reasonable assurance level. However, our management does not expect that our disclosure controls and procedures or our internal control over financial reporting will prevent all errors and all fraud. A control system, no matter how well conceived and operated, can provide only reasonable, not absolute, assurance that the objectives of the control system are met. Further, the design of a control system must reflect the fact that there are resource constraints, and the benefits of controls must be considered relative to their costs. Because of the inherent limitations in all control systems, no evaluation of controls can provide absolute assurance that all control issues and instances of fraud, if any, have been detected. These inherent limitations include the realities that judgments in decision making can be faulty, and that breakdowns can occur because of a simple error or mistake. Additionally, controls can be circumvented by the individual acts of some persons, by collusion of two or more people or by management override of the controls. The design of any system of controls is also based in part upon certain assumptions about the likelihood of future events, and there can be no assurance that any design will succeed in achieving its stated goals under all potential future conditions; over time, controls may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or the degree of compliance with policies or procedures may deteriorate. Because of the inherent limitations in a cost-effective control system, misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Item 9B. Other Information. During the three months ended June 30, 2024, none of the Company's directors or Section 16 reporting officers adopted or terminated any Rule 10b5-1 trading arrangement or non-Rule 10b5-1 trading arrangement (as such terms are defined in Item 408(a) of the SEC's Regulation S-K). 62 The Company has adopted an Insider Trading Policy governing the purchase, sale and other dispositions of the Company's securities by its directors, officers, employees and contractors that the Company believes is reasonably designed to promote compliance with insider trading laws, rules and regulations (including both U.S. securities laws and the EU Market Abuse Regulation) and the listing standards applicable to the Company. Coty's internal control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that: (i) pertain to the maintenance of records that in reasonable detail accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets; (ii) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with GAAP, and that receipts and expenditures of the Company are being made only in accordance with authorizations of management and directors; and (iii) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition, use or disposition of the Company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements. Because of its inherent limitations, internal control over financial reporting may not prevent or detect misstatements. Also, projections of any evaluation of effectiveness to future periods are subject to the risk that controls may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate. Coty's management evaluated the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting as of June 30, 2024 based on the criteria established in the Internal Control - A Integrated Framework (2013) issued by the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission (COSO). Based on the evaluation, management has concluded that Coty maintained effective internal control over financial reporting as of June 30, 2024. The Company's internal control over financial reporting as of June 30, 2024 has been audited by Deloitte & Touche LLP, an independent registered public accounting firm, as stated in their attestation report which appears herein. /s/ Sue Nabi /s/ Laurent Mercier Sue Nabi Laurent Mercier Chief Executive Officer Chief Financial Officer August 20, 2024 REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM to the stockholders and the Board of Directors of Coty Inc. Opinion on Internal Control over Financial Reporting We have audited the internal control over financial reporting of Coty Inc. and subsidiaries (the "Company") as of June 30, 2024, based on criteria established in Internal Control - A Integrated Framework (2013) issued by the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission (COSO). In our opinion, the Company maintained, in all material respects, effective internal control over financial reporting as of June 30, 2024, based on criteria established in Internal Control - A Integrated Framework (2013) issued by COSO. We have also audited, in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) (PCAOB), the consolidated financial statements and financial statement schedule as of and for the year ended June 30, 2024, of the Company and our report dated August 20, 2024, expressed an unqualified opinion on those financial statements and financial statement schedule. Basis for Opinion The Company's management is responsible for maintaining effective internal control over financial reporting and for its assessment of the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting, included in the accompanying Management's Report on Internal Control over Financial Reporting. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's internal control over financial reporting based on our audit. We are a public accounting firm registered with the PCAOB and are required to be independent with respect to the Company in accordance with the U.S. federal securities laws and the applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the PCAOB. We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the PCAOB. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether effective internal control over financial reporting was maintained in all material respects. Our audit included obtaining an understanding of internal control over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk, and performing such other procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion. Definition and Limitations of Internal Control over Financial Reporting A company's internal control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's internal control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that (1) pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company; (2) provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorizations of management and directors of the company; and (3) provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements. Because of its inherent limitations, internal control over financial reporting may not prevent or detect misstatements. Also, projections of any evaluation of effectiveness to future periods are subject to the risk that controls may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate. /s/ Deloitte & Touche LLP New York, New York August 20, 2024 REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM TO THE STOCKHOLDERS AND THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF COTY INC. Our audits also included evaluating the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion. Critical Audit Matter The critical audit matter communicated below is a matter arising from the current-period audit of the financial statements that was communicated or required to be communicated to the audit committee and that (1) relates to accounts or disclosures that are material to the financial statements and (2) involved especially challenging, subjective, or complex judgments. The communication of critical audit matters does not alter in any way our opinion on the financial statements, taken as a whole, and we are not, by communicating the critical audit matter below, providing a separate opinion on the critical audit matter or on the accounts or disclosures to which it relates. Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets, net of Max Factor Trademark Valuation Refer to Notes 2 and 11 to the financial statements. Critical Audit Matter Description The Company has trademarks that are indefinite-lived intangible assets. The Company's valuation of the trademarks for impairment involves the comparison of the fair value of each trademark to its carrying value. Management estimates the fair value of these trademarks annually on its elected assessment date of May 1, or more frequently if certain events occur, based upon the income approach, using the relief from royalty methodology, which is a specific discounted cash flow method. The determination of the fair value requires management to make significant estimates and assumptions related to the trademarks' estimated cash flows, royalty, and discount rates, especially those related to the Max Factor trademark. Changes in these assumptions could have a significant impact on the fair value of the Max Factor trademark, the amount of any impairment charge, or both. As of June 30, 2024, the carrying value of the indefinite-lived intangible assets was $944.6 million, of which $148.4 million related to the Max Factor trademark. The fair value of the Max Factor trademark exceeded its carrying value by 4.8%. Given the significant estimates and assumptions made by management to estimate the fair value and the difference between the fair value and carrying value for the Max Factor trademark, performing audit procedures to evaluate the reasonableness of such estimates and assumptions, particularly the estimated cash flows, and the selection of the royalty and discount rate, required a high degree of auditor judgment and an increased extent of effort, including the need to involve our fair value specialists. How the Critical Audit Matter Was Addressed in the Audit Our audit procedures related to the estimated cash flows, the selection of the royalty and discount rate for the Max Factor trademark included the following, among others: We tested the effectiveness of controls over indefinite-lived intangible assets, including those over the estimated cash flows for the Max Factor trademark and the selection of the respective royalty and discount rate. We evaluated management's ability to accurately forecast by comparing actual results in previous years to management's historical forecasts and by comparing the May and June 2024 forecasts with actual results for those months. We evaluated the reasonableness of management's estimated cash flows for the Max Factor trademark, by comparing management's forecasts with: Historical cash flows and trends; Internal communications to management and the Board of Directors; and Forecasted information included in industry reports of the Company and selected companies in its peer group. We considered the impact of industry and market conditions on management's forecasts for the Max Factor trademark, including consideration of the effects related to the current macro-economic environment. We evaluated the impact of changes in management's forecasts for the May 1, 2024 annual measurement date to June 30, 2024. With the assistance of our fair value specialists, we evaluated the valuation approach and royalty and discount rate for the Max Factor trademark, including testing the underlying source information and the mathematical accuracy of the calculations, and developing independent estimates and comparing those to the respective royalty and discount rate selected by management. /s/ Deloitte & Touche LLP New York, New York August 20, 2024 We have served as the Company's auditor since 1995. a reporting unit is less than its carrying amount as the basis to determine if it is necessary to perform a quantitative goodwill impairment test. In performing its qualitative assessment, the Company considers the extent to which unfavorable events or circumstances identified, such as changes in economic conditions, industry and market conditions or company specific events, could affect the comparison of the reporting unit's fair value with its carrying amount. If the Company concludes that it is more likely than not that the fair value of a reporting unit is less than its carrying amount, the Company is required to perform a quantitative impairment test. Quantitative impairment testing for goodwill is based upon the fair value of a reporting unit as compared to its carrying value. The Company makes certain judgments and assumptions in allocating assets and liabilities to determine carrying values for its reporting units. To determine fair value of the reporting unit, the Company uses a combination of the income and market approaches, when applicable. Under the income approach, fair value is determined using a discounted cash flow method, projecting future cash flows of each reporting unit, as well as a terminal value, and discounting such cash flows at a rate of return that reflects the relative risk of the cash flows. Under the market approach, when applicable, information from comparable publicly traded companies with similar operating and investment characteristics as the reporting units is utilized to create valuation multiples that are applied to the operating performance of the reporting units being tested, to value the reporting unit. The impairment loss recognized would be the difference between a reporting unit's carrying value and fair value in an amount not to exceed the carrying value of the reporting unit's goodwill. Indefinite-lived other intangible assets principally consist of trademarks. The fair values of indefinite-lived other intangible assets are estimated and compared to their respective carrying values. The trademarks' fair values are based upon the income approach, utilizing the relief from royalty or excess earnings methodology. This methodology assumes that, in lieu of ownership, a third party would be willing to pay a royalty in order to obtain the rights to use the comparable asset. An impairment loss is recognized when the estimated fair value of the intangible asset is less than its carrying value. Leases All of the Company's material leases are operating leases. These are primarily for real estate properties, including corporate offices, retail stores and facilities to support the Company's manufacturing, research and development and distribution operations. For any new or modified lease, the Company, at the inception of the contract, determines whether a contract is or contains a lease. The Company records right-of-use ("ROU") assets and lease obligations for its operating leases, which are initially recognized based on the discounted future lease payments over the term of the lease. Variable lease payments are not included in the measurement of ROU assets and lease liabilities. As the rate implicit in the Company's leases is not easily determinable, the Company's applicable incremental borrowing rate is used in calculating the present value of the sum of the lease payments. Lease term is defined as the non-cancelable period of the lease plus any options to extend or terminate the lease when it is reasonably certain that the Company will exercise the option. The Company has elected not to recognize ROU asset and lease obligations for its short-term leases, which are defined as leases with an initial term of 12 months or less. As an accounting policy election for all asset classes, the Company elected the practical expedient related to lease and non-lease components, which allows a lessee to not separate non-lease from lease components and instead account for consideration paid in a contract as a single lease component. Deferred Financing Fees The Company capitalizes costs related to the issuance of debt instruments, as applicable. Such costs are amortized over the contractual term of the related debt instrument in Interest expense, net using the straight-line method, which approximates the effective interest method, in the Consolidated Statements of Operations. Noncontrolling Interests and Redeemable Noncontrolling Interests Interests held by third parties in consolidated majority-owned subsidiaries are presented as noncontrolling interests, which represents the noncontrolling stockholders' interests in the underlying net assets of the Company's consolidated majority-F-11 COTY INC. & SUBSIDIARIES NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS ($ in millions, except per share data) owned subsidiaries. Noncontrolling interests that are not redeemable are reported in the equity section of the Consolidated Balance Sheets. Noncontrolling interests, where the Company may be required to repurchase the noncontrolling interest under a put option or other contractual redemption requirement, are reported in the Consolidated Balance Sheets between liabilities and equity, as redeemable noncontrolling interests. The Company adjusts the redeemable noncontrolling interests to the higher of the redemption value or the carrying value (the acquisition date fair value adjusted for the noncontrolling interest's share of net income (loss) and dividends) on each balance sheet date with changes recognized as an adjustment to retained earnings, or in the absence of retained earnings, as an adjustment to additional paid-in capital. Revenue Recognition Revenue is recognized at a point in time and/or over time when control of the promised goods or services is transferred to the Company's customers, which usually occurs upon delivery. Revenue is recognized in an amount that reflects the consideration the Company expects to be entitled to in exchange for transferring those goods or services. At contract inception, the Company assesses the goods and services promised in its contracts with customers and identifies a performance obligation for each promise to transfer to the customer a good or service (or bundle of goods or services) that is distinct. To identify the performance obligations, the Company considers all of the goods or services promised in the contract regardless of whether they are explicitly stated or are implied by customary business practices. The Company's revenue contracts principally represent a performance obligation to sell its beauty products to trade customers and are satisfied when control of promised goods and services is transferred to the customers. Net revenues comprise gross revenues less customer discounts and allowances, actual and expected returns (estimated based on an analysis of historical experience and position in product life cycle) and various trade spending activities. Trade spending activities represent variable consideration promised to the customer and primarily relate to advertising, product promotions and demonstrations, some of which involve cooperative relationships with customers. The costs of trade spend activities are estimated considering all reasonably available information, including contract terms with the customer, the Company's historical experience and its current expectations of the scope of the activities, and is reflected in the transaction price when sales are recorded. The Company's payment terms vary by the type and location of its customers and the products offered. The term between invoicing and when payment is due is not significant. The Company's sales return accrual reflects seasonal fluctuations, including those related to revenues for the holiday season in the first half of the fiscal year. This accrual is a subjective critical estimate that has a direct impact on reported net revenues, and is calculated based on history of actual returns, estimated future returns and information provided by retailers regarding their inventory levels. In addition, as necessary, specific accruals may be established for significant future known or anticipated events. The types of known or anticipated events that the Company has considered, and will continue to consider, include the financial condition of the Company's customers, store closings by retailers, changes in the retail environment, and the Company's decision to continue to support new and existing brands. Returns represented 1%, 2% and 2% of gross revenue after customer discounts and allowances in fiscal 2024, 2023 and 2022, respectively. Trade spending activities recorded as a reduction to gross revenue after customer discounts and allowances represented 9%, 10%, and 10% in fiscal 2024, 2023 and 2022, respectively. The Company accounts for certain customer store fixtures as other assets. Such fixtures are amortized using the straight-line method over the period of 3 to 5 years as a reduction of revenue. Cost of Sales Cost of sales includes all of the costs to manufacture the Company's products. For products manufactured in the Company's own facilities, such costs include raw materials and supplies, direct labor and factory overhead. For products manufactured for the Company by third-party contractors, such costs represent the amounts invoiced by the contractors. Cost of sales also includes royalty expense associated with license agreements. Additionally, shipping costs, freight-in and depreciation and amortization expenses related to manufacturing equipment and facilities are included in Cost of sales in the Consolidated Statements of Operations. Selling, General and Administrative Expenses Selling, general and administrative expenses include advertising and promotional costs and research and development costs. Also included in Selling, general and administrative expenses are share-based compensation, certain warehousing fees, manufacturing fixed costs, personnel and related expenses, rent on operating leases, and professional fees. F-12 COTY INC. & SUBSIDIARIES NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS ($ in millions, except per share data) Advertising and promotional costs are expensed as incurred and totaled $1,625.5, $1,479.6 and $1,465.1 in fiscal 2024, 2023 and 2022, respectively. Included in advertising and promotional costs are $113.6, $103.0, and $119.4 of depreciation of marketing furniture and fixtures, such as product displays, in fiscal 2024, 2023 and 2022, respectively. Research and development costs are expensed as incurred and totaled $126.8, $105.2 and $97.3 in fiscal 2024, 2023 and 2022, respectively. Share-Based Compensation Common Stock Common shares are available to be awarded for the exercise of phantom units, vested stock options, the settlement of restricted stock units ("RSUs") and performance restricted stock units ("PRSUs"), and the conversion of Series A Preferred Stock. The Company accounts for its share-based compensation plans for Common Stock as equity awards, aside from phantom units. For those awards treated as equity, share-based compensation expense is measured and fixed at the grant date based on the estimated fair value of the award and is recognized on a straight-line basis, net of estimated forfeitures, over the employee's requisite service period and, for PRSUs, when it is probable that the performance condition will be achieved. For PRSUs, in a period we determine it is no longer probable that we will achieve certain performance measures for the awards, we reverse the stock-based compensation expense that we had previously recognized and associated with the portion of PRSUs that are no longer expected to vest. The amount of the expense ultimately recognized depends on the number of awards that actually vest. Accordingly, stock-based compensation expense may vary from period to period. The Company accounts for its phantom units as a liability award. For those awards treated as a liability, share-based compensation expense are measured at the end of each reporting period based on the fair value of the award on each reporting date and recognized as an expense to the extent earned. The fair value of stock options is determined using the Black-Scholes valuation model. Equity and liability awards generally vest over a term of three or five years. Treasury Stock The Company accounts for treasury stock under the cost method. When shares are reissued or retired from treasury stock they are accounted for at an average price. When treasury stock is re-issued at a price higher than its cost, the difference is recorded as a component of Additional paid-in-capital in the Company's Consolidated Balance Sheets. When treasury stock is re-issued at a price lower than its cost, the difference is recorded as a reduction of Additional paid-in-capital to the extent that there are treasury stock gains to offset the losses. If there are no treasury stock gains in Additional paid-in-capital, the losses upon re-issuance of treasury stock are recorded as a reduction of Retained earnings in the Company's Consolidated Balance Sheets. Income Taxes The Company is subject to income taxes in the U.S. and various foreign jurisdictions. The Company accounts for income taxes under the asset and liability method. Therefore, income tax expense is based on reported (Loss) income before income taxes, and deferred income taxes reflect the effect of temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities that are recognized for financial reporting purposes and the carrying amounts that are recognized for income tax purposes. A valuation allowance is established, when necessary, to reduce deferred tax assets to the amount that is more likely than not to be realized based on currently available evidence. The Company considers how to recognize, measure, present and disclose in financial statements uncertain tax positions taken or expected to be taken on a tax return. The Company is subject to tax audits in various jurisdictions. The Company regularly assesses the likely outcomes of such audits in order to determine the appropriateness of liabilities for unrecognized tax benefits ("UTBs"). The Company classifies interest and penalties related to UTBs as a component of the provision for income taxes. For UTBs, the Company first determines whether it is more-likely-than-not (defined as a likelihood of more than fifty percent) that a tax position will be sustained based on its technical merits as of the reporting date, assuming that taxing authorities will examine the position and have full knowledge of all relevant information. A tax position that meets this more-likely-than-not threshold is then measured and recognized at the largest amount of benefit that is greater than fifty percent likely to be realized upon effective settlement with a taxing authority. As the determination of liabilities related to UTBs and associated interest and penalties requires significant estimates to be made by the Company, there can be no assurance that the Company will accurately predict the outcomes of these audits, and thus the eventual outcomes could have a material impact on the Company's operating results or financial condition and cash flows. F-13 COTY INC. & SUBSIDIARIES NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS ($ in millions, except per share data) As a result of the 2017 Tax Act changing the U.S. to a modified territorial tax system, the Company no longer asserts that any of its undistributed foreign earnings are permanently reinvested. The Company does not expect to incur significant withholding or state taxes on future distributions. A To the extent there remains a basis difference between the financial reporting and tax basis of an investment in a foreign subsidiary after the repatriation of the previously taxed income, the Company is permanently reinvested. A determination of the unrecognized deferred taxes related to these components is not practicable. The Tax Act requires a U.S. shareholder of a foreign corporation to include in income its global intangible low-taxed income ("GILTI"). In general, GILTI is described as the excess of a U.S. shareholder's total net foreign income over a deemed return on tangible assets. An entity may choose to recognize deferred taxes for temporary differences expected to reverse as GILTI in future years or an entity can elect to treat GILTI as a period cost and include it in the tax expense of the year it is incurred. As such, the Company has elected to treat the tax on GILTI as a tax expense in the year it is incurred rather than recognizing deferred taxes. Restructuring Costs Charges incurred in connection with plans to restructure and integrate acquired businesses or in connection with cost-reduction initiatives that are initiated from time to time are included in Restructuring costs in the Consolidated Statements of Operations if such costs are directly associated with an exit or disposal activity, a reorganization, or with integrating an acquired business. These costs can include employee separations, contract and lease terminations, and other direct exit costs. Employee severance and other termination benefits are primarily determined based on established benefit arrangements, local statutory requirements or historical practices. The Company recognizes these benefits when payment is probable and estimable. Other business realignment costs represent the incremental cost directly related to the restructuring activities which can include accelerated depreciation, professional or consulting fees and other internal costs including compensation related costs for dedicated internal resources. Other business realignment costs are generally recorded in Selling, general and administrative expenses in the Consolidated Statements of Operations. Fair Value Measurements The following fair value hierarchy is used in selecting inputs for those assets and liabilities measured at fair value that distinguishes between assumptions based on market data (observable inputs) and the Company's assumptions (unobservable inputs). The Company evaluates these inputs and recognizes transfers between levels, if any, at the end of each reporting period. The hierarchy consists of three levels: Level 1 - Valuation based on quoted market prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities; Level 2 - Valuation based on inputs other than Level 1 inputs that are observable for the assets or liabilities either directly or indirectly; Level 3 - Valuation based on prices or valuation techniques that require inputs that are both significant to the fair value measurement and supported by little or no observable market activity. Apart from Coty's equity investment in Wella (see Note 12a "Equity Investments"), the Company has not elected the fair value measurement option for any financial instruments or other assets not required to be measured at fair value on a recurring basis. Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities All derivatives are recognized as assets or liabilities and measured at fair value. The accounting for changes in the fair value of a derivative depends on the intended use of the derivative and the resulting designation. For derivative instruments designated as cash flow hedges under FASB ASC Topic 815, "Derivatives and Hedging" ("ASC 815"), the change in fair value of the derivative is initially recorded in Accumulated other comprehensive (loss) income in the Consolidated Balance Sheets and is subsequently recognized in earnings when the hedged exposure impacts earnings. For derivative instruments that are not designated as hedges, gains (losses) from changes in fair values are recognized in Net income (loss). The Company does not enter into derivatives for trading or speculative purposes. Foreign Currency Exchange gains or losses incurred on non-financing foreign exchange currency transactions conducted by one of the Company's operations in a currency other than the operation's functional currency are reflected in Cost of sales or operating expenses. Net (losses)/gains of $(18.1), $(32.3) and $3.3 in fiscal 2024, 2023 and 2022, respectively resulting from non-financing foreign exchange currency transactions are included in the Consolidated Statements of Operations. Assets and liabilities of foreign operations are translated into U.S. dollars at the rates of exchange in effect at the end of the reporting period. Income and expense items are translated at the average exchange rates prevailing during each reporting period. F-14 COTY INC. & SUBSIDIARIES NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS ($ in millions, except per share data) presented. Translation gains or losses are reported as cumulative adjustments in Accumulated other comprehensive income (loss) ("AOCI/L"). Net (losses)/gains of $(16.5), $(12.2) and $10.0 in fiscal 2024, 2023 and 2022, respectively, resulting from financing foreign exchange currency transactions are included in Interest expense, net in the Consolidated Statements of Operations. Lacoste Fragrances License Termination During fiscal 2023, the Company terminated its licensing arrangement for Lacoste fragrances and received termination payments from the licensor totaling a, -87.8 million (approximately $93.9). The Company recognized a net gain within Selling, general and administrative expenses of $104.4 reflecting the termination proceeds, net of estimated expenses for contractual termination obligations and non-recoverable assets associated with the license termination. During fiscal 2024, the Company received an additional payment of a, -15.0 million (approximately $16.2) and made contractual termination payments of $4.9. The Company completed sales of remaining Lacoste fragrances inventory through December of calendar year 2023, as per a contractual inventory sell-off arrangement, and recognized a loss of $0.6 within Selling, general and administrative expenses reflecting the disposal of remaining inventory in fiscal 2024. Russia Market Exit On April 27, 2022, the Company announced the Board of Directors' decision to wind down its Russian operations. During fiscal 2022, the Company recognized total pre-tax charges in the Consolidated Statements of Operations of $83.6 associated with its exit of Russia. These charges are primarily related to the net realizable value of assets associated with the Russian business. These charges consisted of $45.5 in Selling, general and administrative expenses, primarily related to the write-down of working capital, long-term assets, as well as contract termination charges, contingent liabilities and legal costs, $31.4 in Asset impairment charges related to the impairment of indefinite-lived intangibles, $6.3 in Restructuring costs related to employee severances, and $0.4 in Cost of sales related to inventory write-downs. The Company incurred $24.1 of income tax charges associated with this decision. During fiscal 2023, the Company recognized total pre-tax gains in the Consolidated Statements of Operations of $17.0 are primarily related to a bad debt accrual release, due to better than expected collections, in addition to $0.4 of income tax benefits. The Company anticipates that it will incur an immaterial amount of additional costs through completion of the wind down. Additionally, management anticipates derecognizing the cumulative translation adjustment balance pertaining to the Russian subsidiary. The Company has substantially completed its commercial activities in Russia. However, the Company anticipates that the process related to the liquidation of the Russian legal entity will take an extended period of time. The amendments in the ASU require that a public entity discloses, on an annual and interim basis, significant segment expenses that are regularly provided to an entity's chief operating decision maker ("CODM"), a description of other segment items by reportable segment, and any additional measures of a segment's profit or loss used by the CODM when deciding how to allocate resources. Annual disclosures are required for the Company in fiscal 2025. Interim disclosures are required for periods within fiscal years beginning in the first quarter of fiscal 2026. Retrospective application is required for all prior periods presented, and early adoption is permitted. DISCONTINUED OPERATIONS On June 1, 2020, the Company entered into a definitive agreement with Rainbow UK Bidco Limited (the "KKR Bidco"), regarding a strategic transaction for the sale of Coty's Professional and Retail Hair businesses, including the Wella, Clairor, OPI and ghb brands, (together, the "Wella Business"). The transaction was completed on November 30, 2020 and Coty retained an initial ownership of 40% of the Wella Company. As of June 30, 2024, the Company owned a 25.84% stake in the Wella Company. See Note 12 "Equity Investments for additional information. Net income from discontinued operations for the year ended June 30, 2022 reflects certain working capital adjustments of ($6.1) net of the related income tax impact of $0.4. SEGMENT REPORTING Operating and reportable segments (referred to as "segments") reflect the way the Company is managed and for which separate financial information is available and evaluated regularly by the Company's chief operating decision maker ("CODM") in deciding how to allocate resources and assess performance. The Company has designated its Chief Executive Officer as the CODM. Certain income and shared costs and the results of corporate initiatives are managed by Corporate. Corporate primarily includes stock compensation expense, restructuring and realignment costs, costs related to acquisition and divestiture activities, and impairments of long-lived assets, goodwill and intangibles that are not attributable to ongoing operating activities of the segments. Corporate costs are not used by the CODM to measure the underlying performance of the segments. With the exception of goodwill and acquired intangible assets, the Company does not identify or monitor assets by segment. The Company does not present assets by reportable segment since various assets are shared between reportable segments. The allocation of goodwill by segment is presented in Note 11 "Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets, net. TRADE RECEIVABLES FACTORING The Company factors a portion of its trade receivables with unrelated third-party factoring companies on both a recourse and non-recourse basis. The Company accounts for trade receivable transfers as sales and derecognizes the sold receivables from the Consolidated Balance Sheets. The net amount utilized under factoring facilities was $195.3 and $202.9 as of June 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively. Cash received from the selling of F-18COTY INC. & SUBSIDIARIES NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS ($ in millions, except per share data) receivables are presented as a change in trade receivables within the operating activities section of the Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows. U.S. Receivables Purchase Agreement On March 19, 2019, the Company entered into an Uncommitted Receivables Purchase Agreement (the "Receivables Purchase Agreement") with a financial institution, with an aggregate facility limit of $150.0. Eligible trade receivables are purchased by the financial institution for cash at net invoice value less a factoring fee. Pursuant to Receivables Purchase Agreement, the Company acts as the collections agent for the financial institution and is responsible for the collection, and remittance to the financial institution, of all customer payments related to trade receivables factored under this arrangement. For certain customer receivables factored, the Company will retain a recourse obligation of up to 10 percent of the respective invoice's net invoice value, payable to the financial institution if the customer's payment is not received by the contractual due date. The fair value of sold receivables approximated their book value due to their short-term nature. The Company estimated that the fair value of its servicing responsibilities was not material. European Receivables Purchase Agreement In September 2019, the Company entered into a factoring agreement with a financial institution, which allows for the transfer of receivables from certain of the Company's European subsidiaries, in exchange for cash (the "European Receivables Purchase Agreement"). DERIVATIVE INSTRUMENTS Foreign Exchange Risk The Company is exposed to foreign currency exchange fluctuations through its global operations. The Company reduces its exposure to fluctuations in foreign exchange rates by creating offsetting positions through the use of derivative instruments, including forward foreign exchange contracts and by designating foreign currency denominated borrowings and cross-currency swaps as hedges of net investments in foreign subsidiaries. The Company expects that through hedging, any gain or loss on the derivative instruments would generally offset the expected increase or decrease in the value of the underlying forecasted transactions. In September 2019, the Company entered into cross-currency swap contracts in the notional amount of $550.0 and designated these cross-currency swaps as hedges of its net investment in certain foreign subsidiaries. In September 2020, the Company terminated these net investment cross currency swap derivatives in exchange for cash payment of $37.6. The related loss from this termination is included in AOCI(L) until the sale or substantial liquidation of the underlying investments. As of June 30, 2024 and 2023, the notional amounts of the outstanding forward foreign exchange contracts designated as cash flow hedges were $22.3 and $28.0, respectively. The Company also uses certain derivatives not designated as hedging instruments consisting primarily of foreign currency forward contracts and cross currency swaps to hedge intercompany transactions and foreign currency denominated external debt. Although these derivatives were not designated for hedge accounting, the overall objective of mitigating foreign currency exposure is the same for all derivative instruments. For derivatives not designated as hedging instruments, changes in fair value are recorded in the line item in the Consolidated Statements of Operations to which the derivative relates. As of June 30, 2024 and 2023, the notional amounts of these outstanding non-designated foreign currency forward and cross currency forward contracts were $1,797.6 and $1,653.5, respectively. F-46COTY INC. & SUBSIDIARIES NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS ($ in millions, except per share data) Interest Rate Risk The Company is exposed to interest rate fluctuations related to its variable rate debt instruments. The Company reduces its exposure to fluctuations in the cash flows associated with changes in the variable interest rates by entering into offsetting positions through the use of derivative instruments, such as interest rate swap contracts. The interest rate swap contracts result in recognizing a fixed interest rate for the portion of the Company's variable rate debt that was hedged. This will reduce the negative impact of increases in the variable rates over the term of the contracts. Hedge effectiveness of interest rate swap contracts is based on a long-haul hypothetical derivative methodology and includes all changes in value. In fiscal 2022, the Company terminated certain existing interest rate swaps with notional amounts of $200.0 in exchange for cash payment of $1.9. The related loss from this termination is included in Interest expense, net, within the Consolidated Statement of Operations. As of June 30, 2023, the Company had interest rate swap contracts designated as effective hedges in the notional amount of $200.0, which were fully terminated in December 2023 for a cash receipt of $2.1. The Company had no outstanding interest rate swap contracts as of June 30, 2024. As the forecasted interest expense under the original swap agreements is still probable, the related gain in accumulated other comprehensive income (loss) ("AOCI/L") will be amortized over the remaining life of the swaps. These interest rate swaps had been designated and qualified as cash flow hedges and were highly effective prior to termination. Net Investment Hedge Foreign currency gains and losses on borrowings designated as a net investment hedge, except ineffective portions, are reported in the cumulative translation adjustment ("CTA") component of AOCI(L), along with the foreign currency translation adjustments on those investments. As of June 30, 2024 and 2023, the nominal exposures of foreign currency denominated borrowings designated as net investment hedges were $1,611.6 million and $1,701.3 million, respectively. The designated hedge amounts were considered highly effective. Forward Repurchase Contracts In June 2022, December 2022, and November 2023, the Company entered into certain forward repurchase contracts to start hedging for potential $200.0, $196.0, and $294.0 share buyback programs, in 2024, 2025, and 2026, respectively. These forward repurchase contracts are accounted for at fair value, with changes in the fair value recorded in Other expense (income), net in the Consolidated Statements of Operations. In February 2024, the Company elected to physically settle the June 2022 Forward for a cash payment of $200.0 in exchange for 27.0A million shares of its Class A Common Stock. Refer to Note 21 "Equity and Convertible Preferred Stock. The Company has the ability to purchase the remaining noncontrolling interest of 25% on December 31, 2028, with such transaction to close on December 31, 2029 (the "Call Right"). In addition to the Call right feature, the noncontrolling interest holder has the right to sell the noncontrolling interest to the Company on December 31, 2028, with such transaction to close on December 31, 2029 (a "Put Right"). The amount at which the Put right and Call right can be exercised is based on a formula prescribed by the amended shareholders' agreement as summarized in the table below, multiplied by the noncontrolling interest holder's percentage interest in the Middle East Subsidiary. Given the provision of the Put right, the entire noncontrolling interest is redeemable outside of the Company's control and is recorded in the Consolidated Balance Sheets at the estimated redemption value. The Company adjusts the redeemable noncontrolling interest to the redemption values at the end of each reporting period with changes recognized as adjustments to APIC. The fair value of the shares repurchased was approximately $350.6, which was recorded as an increase to Treasury stock in the Consolidated Balance Sheets and Consolidated Statements of Equity. As part of the Forward agreements, the Company will pay interest on the outstanding underlying notional amount of the Forwards held by the Counterparties during the contract periods. The interest rates are variable, based on the United States secured overnight funding rate ("SOFR") plus a spread. These Forward agreements require the Company to: (i) repurchase the shares on or before December 15, 2024 and December 31, 2025, respectively, at a price based on the weighted average of the daily volume weighted average price ("VWAP") during the initial acquisition period ("Initial Price"); or (ii) at the Company's option, pay or receive the difference between the Final Price, defined as the weighted average of the daily VWAP during the unwind period as defined in the agreement, and Initial Price of the Forwards. As part of the December 2022 Forward transaction, the remaining Counterparty purchased approximately 11.5A million shares of the Company's Class A Common Stock. This Forward requires the Company to pay or receive the difference between the Final Price and Initial Price established at inception of the Forward on or before January 15, 2025. In addition, the Forwards include a provision for a potential true-up in cash upon specified changes in the price of the Company's Class A Common Stock relative to the Initial Price ("Hedge Valuation Adjustment"). Such Hedge Valuation adjustment shall not result in a termination date or any adjustment of the number of Coty's Class A Common Stock shares purchased by the Counterparties at inception. In the event the Company declares and pays any cash dividends on its Class A Common Stock, the Forward Counterparties will be entitled to such dividend payments and payable at termination of the Forwards. The phantom units vested on the fifth anniversary of the grant date and remain outstanding as of June 30, 2024.23. NET INCOME (LOSS) ATTRIBUTABLE TO COTY INC. PER COMMON SHARENet income (loss) attributable to Coty Inc. common stockholders per common share (a€"basic EPSa€") is computed by dividing net income (loss) attributable to Coty Inc. less any dividends on Series B Preferred Stock by the weighted-average number of common shares outstanding during the period. Net income (loss) attributable to Coty Inc. common stockholders per common share assuming dilution (a€"diluted EPSa€") is computed by adjusting the numerator used in basic EPS to add back the dividends applicable to the Series B Preferred Stock, if dilutive, and using the basic EPS weighted-average number of common shares and the effect of potentially dilutive securities outstanding during the period as the denominator. Potentially dilutive securities consist of non-qualified stock options, Series A Preferred Stock, RSUs, unvested restricted stock awards and potential shares resulting from the conversion of the Series B Preferred Stock as of June 30, 2024, 2023 and 2022.Net income (loss) attributable to Coty Inc. is adjusted through the application of the two-class method of income per share to reflect a portion of the periodic adjustment of the redemption value in excess of fair value of the redeemable noncontrolling F-56COTY INC. & SUBSIDIARIESNOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS($ in millions, except per share data)interests. There is no excess of redemption value over fair value of the redeemable noncontrolling interests in fiscal 2024, 2023 and 2022. In addition, there are no participating securities requiring the application of the two-class method of income per share.Reconciliation between the numerators and denominators of the basic and diluted EPS computations is presented below:Year Ended June 30, 202420232022Amounts attributable to Coty Inc.:Net income (loss) from continuing operations$89.4A $508.2A $253.8A Convertible Series B Preferred Stock dividends(13.2)(13.2)(198.3)Net income (loss) from continuing operations attributable to common stockholders76.2A 495.0A 55.5A Net income (loss) from discontinued operations, net of tax4€"A 4€"A 5.7A Net income (loss) attributable to common stockholders$76.2A $495.0A $61.2A Weighted-average common shares outstanding:Weighted-average common shares outstanding(a)Basic87.4A 44 849.0A 820.6A Effect of dilutive stock options and Series A Preferred Stock (a)0.1A 4€"A 4€"A Effect of restricted stock, PRSUs and RSUs (b)8.9A 13.8A 13.5A Effect of Convertible Series B Preferred Stock (c)4€"A 23.7A 4€"A Effect of Forward Repurchase Contracts (d)4€"A 4€"A 4€"A Weighted-average common shares and common share equivalents outstanding(a€"Diluted)883.4A 886.5A 834.1A Earnings (losses) per common shareEarnings (losses) from continuing operations per common share - basic$0.09A $0.58A $0.07A Earnings (losses) from continuing operations - diluted(e)$0.09A $0.57A $0.07A Earnings from discontinued operations - basic$0.00A $0.00A $0.01A Earnings (losses) from discontinued operations - diluted$0.00A $0.00A $0.01A Earnings (losses) per common share - basic$0.09A $0.58A $0.08A Earnings (losses) per common share - diluted(e)$0.09A $0.57A $0.08A (a) As of June 30, 2024, 2023, and 2022, outstanding stock options and Series A Preferred Stock with purchase or conversion rights to purchase 2.8A million, 4.8A million, and 8.3A million weighted average anti-dilutive shares of Common Stock, respectively, were excluded from the computation of diluted EPS.(b) As of June 30, 2024, 2023, and 2022, there were 1.0A million, 3.2A million, and 1.6A million weighted average anti-dilutive RSUs, respectively, were excluded from the computation of diluted EPS.(c) As of June 30, 2024 and 2022, there were 23.7A million and 65.4A million dilutive shares of Convertible Series B Preferred Stock, respectively, were excluded from the computation of diluted EPS as their inclusion would be anti-dilutive. For the twelve months ended June 30, 2023, potential shares for the Forward Repurchase Contracts were excluded from the computation of diluted EPS as Coty is in the position to receive shares from the counterparties and as such their inclusion would be anti-dilutive.(e) Diluted EPS is adjusted by the effect of dilutive securities, including awards under the Company's equity compensation plans, the convertible Series B Preferred Stock, and the Forward Repurchase Contracts. When calculating any potential dilutive effect of stock options, Series A Preferred Stock, restricted stock, PRSUs and RSUs, the Company uses the treasury method and the if-converted method for the Convertible Series B Preferred Stock and the Forward Repurchase Contracts. The treasury method typically does not adjust the net income attributable to Coty Inc., while the if-converted method requires an adjustment to reverse the impact of the preferred stock dividends of $13.2, $13.2, and $198.3, respectively, and to reverse the impact of fair market value losses/(gains) for contracts with the option to settle in shares or contrary to any unvested Restricted Stock Units granted to the Participant shall be immediately forfeited upon the Participant's termination of Service. For the avoidance of doubt and pursuant to the terms of the Plan, the Participant's Service shall continue after she ceases to be an Employee of the Company provided that and for so long as she continues to serve as a member of the Company's Board (including as Chairperson). 3. A Nontransferability. (a) Except as provided in Section 3(b) and subject to Section 5(b), no Restricted Stock Units granted hereunder may be sold, transferred, pledged, assigned, or otherwise alienated or hypothecated, other than by will or by the laws of descent or distribution and all rights with respect to the Restricted Stock Units shall be available during the Participant's lifetime only to the Participant or the Participant's guardian or legal representative. The Committee may, in its sole discretion, require the Participant's guardian or legal representative to supply it with evidence the Committee deems necessary to establish the authority of the guardian or legal representative to act on behalf of the Participant. (b) Subject to Section 5(b) and applicable law, Restricted Stock Units may be transferred to a Successor. Such transferred Restricted Stock Units may not be further sold, transferred, pledged, assigned or otherwise alienated by the Successor, and shall be subject in all respects to the terms of these Terms and Conditions and Section 16.6 of the Plan. For a transfer to be effective, the Successor shall promptly furnish the Company with written notice thereof and a copy of such evidence as the Committee may deem necessary to establish the validity of the transfer and the acceptance of the Successor of the terms and conditions of the Plan. 4. Settlement of Restricted Stock Units. Within fifteen (15) days after the Restricted Stock Units become vested according to the terms of Section 2 (or, if applicable, as soon as practicable following the effectiveness of the settlement agreement and release of claims), the Company (or its designee) shall deliver to the Participant for each Restricted Stock Unit one Share and the amount of dividends and other cash distributions paid with respect to a Share during the vesting period beginning on the Grant Date. 5. Securities Law Requirements. (a) If at any time the Committee determines that issuing Shares would violate applicable securities laws, the Company will not be required to issue such Shares. The Committee may declare any provision of these Terms and Conditions or action of its own null and void, if it determines the provision or action fails to comply with the short-selling trading rules. As a condition to the issuance of the Shares, the Company may require the Participant to make written representations it deems necessary or desirable to comply with applicable securities laws. (b) The Participant understands that the Restricted Stock Units and any Shares acquired upon settlement thereof have not been registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"), and that no Person who acquires any Shares acquired upon settlement thereof under these Terms and Conditions may sell such Shares unless they make the offer and sale pursuant to an effective registration statement under the Securities Act, which is current and includes the Shares to be sold, or an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act. The Participant further understands that the Shares shall bear a legend substantially as follows: THE SECURITIES REPRESENTED HEREBY HAVE NOT BEEN REGISTERED UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, AS AMENDED (THE "SECURITIES ACT"), OR APPLICABLE STATE SECURITIES LAWS AND MAY NOT BE TRANSFERRED, PLEDGED, HYPOTHECATED OR SOLD UNLESS (I) A REGISTRATION STATEMENT COVERING SUCH SECURITIES IS EFFECTIVE UNDER THE ACT, OR (II) THE TRANSACTION IS EXEMPT FROM REGISTRATION UNDER THE ACT AND APPLICABLE STATE SECURITIES LAWS AND, IF THE COMPANY REQUESTS, AN OPINION SATISFACTORY TO THE COMPANY TO SUCH EFFECT HAS BEEN RENDERED BY COUNSEL. (c) The Company shall use its reasonable best efforts to register the resale of any Shares acquired by the Participant upon settlement of the Restricted Stock Units within sixty days of the Participant's receipt of such Shares. 6. Limitation on Rights of the Company. The grant of the Restricted Stock Units does not and will not in any way affect the right or power of the Company to make adjustments, reclassifications or changes in its capital or business structure, or to merge, consolidate, dissolve, liquidate, sell or transfer all or any part of its business or assets. 7. Participant to Have No Rights as a Shareholder. Before the date as of which the Participant is recorded on the books of the Company as the holder of any Shares, the Participant will have no rights as a shareholder with respect to those Shares. 8. Any notice or other communication required or permitted under these Terms and Conditions must be in writing and must be delivered personally, sent by certified, registered or express mail, or sent by overnight courier, at the sender's expense. Notice will be deemed given when delivered personally or, if mailed, three (3) days after the date of deposit in the United States mail or, if sent by overnight courier, on the regular business day following the date sent. Notice to the Company should be sent to: Coty Inc. 350 Fifth Avenue New York, New York 10118 Attention: General Counsel. Notice to the Participant should be sent to the address on file with the Company. Either party may change the Person and/or address to which the other party must give notice under this Section 8 by giving such other party written notice of such change, in accordance with the procedures described above. 9. Successors. All obligations of the Company under these Terms and Conditions will be binding on any successor to the Company, whether the existence of the successor results from a direct or indirect purchase of all or substantially all of the business of the Company, or a merger, consolidation, or otherwise. 10. Governing Law. To the extent not preempted by federal law, these Terms and Conditions will be construed and enforced in accordance with, and governed by, the laws of the State of New York, without giving effect to its conflicts of law principles that would require the application of the law of any other jurisdiction. 11. Plan and Terms and Conditions Not a Contract of Employment or Service. Neither the Plan nor these Terms and Conditions are a contract of employment or Service, and no terms of the Participant's employment or Service will be affected in any way by the Plan, these Terms and Conditions or related instruments, except to the extent specifically expressed therein. Neither the Plan nor these Terms and Conditions will be construed as conferring any legal rights on the Participant to continue to be employed or remain in Service with the Company, nor will it interfere with the Company's right to discharge the Participant or to deal with him or her regardless of the existence of the Plan, these Terms and Conditions or the Award. 12. Plan Document Controls. The rights granted under these Terms and Conditions are in all respects subject to the provisions set forth in the Plan to the same extent and with the same effect as if set forth fully in these Terms and Conditions. If the terms of these Terms and Conditions conflict with the terms of the Plan document, the Plan document will control. 13. Amendment of the Agreement. These Terms and Conditions may be amended unilaterally by the Committee to the extent provided under the Plan, or by a written instrument signed by both parties. 14. Entire Agreement. These Terms and Conditions, together with the Plan, constitutes the entire obligation of the parties with respect to the subject matter of these Terms and Conditions and supersedes any prior written or oral expressions of intent or understanding with respect to such subject matter. 15. Administration. The Committee administers the Plan and these Terms and Conditions. The Participant's rights under these Terms and Conditions are expressly subject to the terms and conditions of the Plan, including any guidelines the Committee adopts from time to time. 16. Recoupment. Notwithstanding any provision in the these Terms and Conditions to the contrary, the Restricted Stock Units will be subject to recoupment by the Company pursuant to any clawback or similar compensation recoupment policy that may be established by the Company from time to time. 17. Section 409A. The Restricted Stock Units awarded pursuant to these Terms and Conditions are intended to comply with or, in the alternative, be exempt from Section 409A. Any reference to a termination of Service shall be construed as a separation from service for purposes of Section 409A. COTY INC. By: Name: Priya Srinivasan Title: Chief People and Purpose Officer EX-10.48.5 exhibit48-descriptionofsec.htm EX-10.48 Document Exhibit 4.8 Coty Inc. Description of Securities The rights of our stockholders are governed by Delaware General Corporation Law (the "DGCL"), our amended and restated certificate of incorporation, as amended (our "Certificate of Incorporation"), and our amended and restated by-laws (our "By-laws"). The following is a summary of the material terms and provisions of our capital stock and is qualified in its entirety by reference to our Certificate of Incorporation and the amendments thereto and our By-laws, which are incorporated by reference herein and attached as an exhibit to our most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission, and to the applicable provisions of the DGCL. This summary does not purport to be complete and may not contain all the information that is important to you. Authorized Capital Stock Under our Certificate of Incorporation, our authorized capital stock consists of 1,250,000,000 shares of Class A Common Stock, par value $0.01 per share, and 20,000,000 shares of Preferred Stock, par value $0.01 per share. Registered Securities Our Class A Common Stock is registered pursuant to Section 12 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and is listed on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol "COTY". Our Class A Common Stock is also listed on Euronext Paris under the symbol "COTY". Class A Common Stock Dividend Rights Holders of our Class A Common Stock are entitled to receive dividends, as and when declared by our board of directors (the "Board"), out of our legally available assets, in cash, property, shares of our Class A Common Stock or other securities, after payments of dividends required to be paid on outstanding Preferred Stock, if any. Voting Rights Holders of our Class A Common Stock are entitled to one vote per share on all matters submitted to a vote of our stockholders, unless otherwise required by our Certificate of Incorporation or By-laws. At all meetings of the stockholders at which a quorum is present, except as otherwise required by law, the Certificate of Incorporation or the By-laws, any question brought before any meeting of stockholders other than the election of directors, shall be decided by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the votes cast. Elections of directors shall be decided by a plurality of the votes cast. Stockholder Action by Written Consent Any action that can be taken at a meeting of the stockholders may be taken by written consent in lieu of the meeting if we receive consents signed by stockholders having the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to approve the action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote on the matter were present. Right to Receive Liquidation Distributions Upon our liquidation, dissolution or winding up, the assets legally available for distribution to our stockholders will be distributable ratably among the holders of Class A Common Stock, subject to prior satisfaction of all outstanding debts and other liabilities and the preferential rights and payment of liquidation preferences, if any, on any outstanding Preferred Stock. Amendment of Certificate of Incorporation and By-laws Our Board and our stockholders are authorized to adopt, amend or repeal our By-laws. The approval of our Board is required to amend our Certificate of Incorporation. In addition, Section 242(b)(2) of the DGCL requires that holders of our Class A Common Stock vote as a class upon the proposed amendment, if the amendment would increase or decrease the par value of the shares of Class A Common Stock, or alter or change the powers, preferences or special rights of the Class A Common Stock so as to affect them adversely. No Preemptive or Similar Rights Shares of our Class A Common Stock are not entitled to preemptive rights and are not convertible into any other shares of our capital stock. Preferred Stock We are authorized, subject to the limits imposed by the DGCL, to issue Preferred Stock in one or more series, to establish from time to time the number of shares to be included in each series and to fix the designation, powers, rights, preferences and privileges of the shares of each such series and any of the qualifications, limitations or restrictions thereof. Our Board can also increase or decrease the number of shares of any series, but not below the number of shares of a given series then outstanding, plus the number of shares reserved for issuance upon the exercise or vesting of outstanding securities convertible into the applicable series of Preferred Stock, by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of Coty stock entitled to vote, unless a vote of any other holders is required pursuant to a certificate or certificates of designation establishing a series of Preferred Stock, without any further vote or action by our stockholders. The rights of holders of Class A Common Stock are subject to, and may be adversely affected by, the rights of the holders of any shares of Preferred Stock that may be issued in the future. Our Board may authorize the issuance of Preferred Stock with voting or conversion rights that could adversely affect the voting power or other rights of the holders of Class A Common Stock. The issuance of Preferred Stock, while providing flexibility in connection with possible acquisitions and other corporate purposes, could, among other things, have the effect of delaying, deferring or preventing a future change in control of the Company and may adversely affect the market price of Class A Common Stock and the voting and other rights of the holders of Class A Common Stock. Series A Preferred Stock In fiscal year 2015, we established awards under our Equity and Long-Term Incentive Plan and certain of our executive officers at the time received awards of our Series A Preferred Stock. In April 2015, we filed a Certificate of Designations with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware, establishing the voting rights, powers, preferences and privileges, and the relative, participating, optional or other rights, and the qualifications, limitations or restrictions thereof, with respect to our Series A Preferred Stock, which various and several voting powers, preferences and relative, participating, optional or other rights, and the qualifications, limitations and restrictions thereof may be severally set forth in various subscription agreements relating to the issuance and sale of the Series A Preferred Stock (each, a "Series A Subscription Agreement"). Under the terms provided in the various Series A Subscription Agreements, a holder of Series A Preferred Stock may be entitled to exchange any or all vested Series A Preferred Stock prior to varying dates specified in the Series A Subscription Agreements, into, at our sole election, either cash or shares of Class A Common Stock, as calculated and subject to the limitations set forth therein. Shares of Series A Preferred Stock are not entitled to receive any dividends and have no voting rights, except as required by law. Upon our liquidation, dissolution or winding up, each share of Series A Preferred Stock entitles the holder to receive out of our assets available for distribution to stockholders, after satisfaction of liabilities to creditors and subject to the rights of senior securities, an amount in cash per share equal to the then fair market value per share of such Series A Preferred Stock as determined by an independent qualified professional appraisal firm. Such shares will not be entitled to an additional amount after the full liquidation distribution has been paid. Series B Convertible Preferred Stock In May 2020, we filed a Certificate of Designations with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware, establishing the voting rights, powers, preferences and privileges, and the relative, participating, optional or other rights, and the qualifications, limitations or restrictions thereof, with respect to our Series B Convertible Preferred Stock. Preferential Rights. The Series B Convertible Preferred Stock ranks senior to the shares of Class A Common Stock and the Company's other outstanding series of preferred stock as of the date of this Annual Report and will rank senior to any other future series of capital stock the terms of which do not expressly provide that such series rank on a parity basis or senior to the Series B Convertible Preferred Stock with respect to dividend rights and rights on the distribution of assets on any voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the affairs of the Company. Dissolution. In the event of any voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the affairs of the Company, the Holders shall be entitled, out of assets legally available therefor, before any distribution or payment out of the assets of the Company may be made to or set aside for the holders of any junior stock, and subject to the rights of the holders of any senior stock or parity stock and the rights of the Company's existing and future creditors, to receive in full a liquidating distribution in cash and in the amount per share of Series B Convertible Preferred Stock equal to the greater of (i) the sum of (A) the liquidation preference plus (B) the accrued dividends with respect to such share of Series B Convertible Preferred Stock as of the date of such voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the affairs of the Company and (ii) the amount such Holders would have received had such Holders, immediately prior to such voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the affairs of the Company, converted such shares of Series B Convertible Preferred Stock into Class A Common Stock. Dividends. Holders of the Series B Convertible Preferred Stock are entitled to a dividend at the rate of 9.0% per annum, accruing daily and payable quarterly in arrears; the dividend rate shall increase by 1.0% on the seven (7) year anniversary of May 26, 2020 and shall increase by an additional 1.0% on each subsequent anniversary up to a maximum of 12.0%. If the Company does not declare and pay a dividend on the Series B Convertible Preferred Stock on any dividend payment date, the dividend rate will increase by 1% per annum until all accrued but unpaid dividends have been paid in full. Dividends will be payable in cash, by increasing the amount of accrued dividends with respect to a share of Series B Convertible Preferred Stock, or any combination thereof, at the sole discretion of the Company. Conversion. The Series B Convertible Preferred Stock will be convertible, in whole or in part, at any time at the option of the Holders thereof into shares of Class A Common Stock at an initial conversion price of $6.24 per share of Series B Convertible Preferred Stock and an initial conversion rate of 160.2564 shares of Class A Common Stock per share of Series B Convertible Preferred Stock, subject to certain anti-dilution adjustments set forth in the Certificate of Designations, filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware on May 26, 2020, designating the Series B Convertible Preferred Stock (the "Certificate of Designations"). At any time after the third anniversary of May 26, 2020, if the volume weighted average price of the Class A Common Stock exceeds the then applicable conversion rate, as may be adjusted pursuant to the Certificate of Designations, for at least 20 trading days in any period of 30 consecutive trading days, at the election of the Company, all or any portion of the Series B Convertible Preferred Stock will be convertible into the relevant number of shares of Class A Common Stock. Pursuant to the terms of the Certificate of Designations, unless and until approval of the Company's stockholders is obtained as contemplated by NYSE listing rule 312.03(d) (the "Stockholder Approval"), no Holder of Series B Convertible Preferred Stock will have the right to acquire shares of Class A Common Stock if and solely to the extent that such conversion would result in such Holder beneficially owning a number of shares of Class A Common Stock that could trigger a change of control under NYSE listing rules (such limitation, the "Ownership Limitation"). The Company has the right to settle any conversion over the Ownership Limitation of a Holder of Series B Convertible Preferred Stock in cash if the Stockholder Approval is not obtained. Voting Rights. Holders of the Series B Convertible Preferred Stock will be entitled to a separate class vote with respect to, among other things, amendments to the Company's organizational documents that have an adverse effect on the Series B Convertible Preferred Stock, authorizations or issuances by the Company of securities that are senior to, or equal in priority with, the Series B Convertible Preferred Stock, increases or decreases in the number of authorized shares of Series B Convertible Preferred Stock and issuances of shares of Series B Convertible Preferred Stock after May 26, 2020. Redemption. At any time following the fifth anniversary of May 26, 2020, the Company may redeem some or all of the Series B Convertible Preferred Stock for a per share amount in cash equal to: (i) the sum of (x) 100% of the liquidation preference thereof, plus (y) all accrued and unpaid dividends, multiplied by (ii) (A) 107% if the redemption occurs at any time on or after the fifth anniversary of May 26, 2020 and prior to the sixth anniversary of the Closing Date, (B) 105% if the redemption occurs at any time on or after the sixth anniversary of May 26, 2020 and prior to the seventh anniversary of May 26, 2020, and (C) 100% if the redemption occurs at any time on or after the seventh anniversary of May 26, 2020 (such price, the "Redemption Price"). Upon certain change of control events involving the Company, the Holders of the Series B Convertible Preferred Stock may, at such Holder's election, (i) convert their shares of Series B Convertible Preferred Stock into Class A Common Stock at the then-current conversion price; provided that if such change of control occurs on or before the fifth anniversary of May 26, 2020, the Company will also be required to pay the Holders of the Series B Convertible Preferred Stock a "make-whole" premium or (ii) cause the Company to redeem their shares of Series B Convertible Preferred Stock for an amount in cash equal to (x) if the change of control occurs on or before the fifth anniversary of May 26, 2020, 110% of the sum of the liquidation preference thereof plus any accrued and unpaid dividends and (y) if the change of control occurs on or after the fifth anniversary of May 26, 2020, 100% of the then-current Redemption Price. If no such election is made with respect to any share of Series B Convertible Preferred Stock, such share shall remain outstanding. Preemptive Rights. The Holders shall not have any preemptive rights. Controlled Company Status. As of the date of this Annual Report, the JAB Investors (as defined below) beneficially own approximately 55% of the outstanding shares of Class A Common Stock, which also represents approximately 55% of the voting power of our capital stock. This is inclusive of all voting interests of Mr. Peter Harf, the Company's Chairman, and HFS Holdings S.A. r.l., (the "HFS"), which is beneficially owned by Mr. Harf, including its shares of Series B Preferred Stock on an if converted basis. Accordingly, we qualify as a "controlled company" under the NYSE Listed Company Manual rules (the "NYSE Rules"). As a "controlled company," we are permitted to take advantage of exemptions from certain of the corporate governance requirements under the NYSE Rules, including the requirements that a majority of our Board consist of independent directors, that we have a nominating and corporate governance committee that is composed entirely of independent directors and that we have a compensation committee that is composed entirely of independent directors. As a result, for so long as we are a controlled company, stockholders may not have the same protections afforded to stockholders of companies that are subject to all of the corporate governance requirements under the NYSE Rules. However, the Stockholders Agreement described below contains certain obligations with respect to the independence of our Board and a committee of our Board. Stockholders Agreement. The Company is party to a stockholders agreement, dated as of March 17, 2019 and as amended and restated as of June 16, 2023 (the "Stockholders Agreement"), with JAB Holdings B.V., JAB Cosmetics B.V. and JAB Beauty B.V. (formerly known as Cottage Holdco B.V.) (the "JAB Investors"). Pursuant to the Stockholders Agreement, among other things: during the three year period following June 16, 2023, the JAB Investors shall not, subject to certain exceptions, effect or enter into any agreement to effect any acquisition of additional shares of capital stock of the Company (including Class A Common Stock, Company Securities); provided that, the JAB Investors may acquire Company Securities on an established securities exchange or through privately negotiated transactions that, after giving effect to such acquisition, does not result in an increase in the JAB Investors' and their affiliates' collective beneficial ownership percentage of the voting power of the then issued and outstanding Company Securities to an amount greater than the percentage of the voting power of the issued and outstanding Company Securities beneficially owned by the JAB Investors, collectively, as of the consummation of the Offer, plus 9% (meaning a cap of approximately 69% for three years after June 16, 2023); during the one-year period following June 16, 2023, the JAB Investors shall not, subject to certain exceptions, transfer any Company Securities to any other person or group (other than an affiliate of any of the JAB Investors) that, after giving effect to such transfer, would become the largest beneficial owner of Class A Common Stock; so long as the Stockholders Agreement is in effect, the JAB Investors shall not effect or seek to effect, or announce any intention to effect, any "Rule 13e-3 transaction" as defined in Rule 13e-3 under the Exchange Act unless such transaction is conditioned on both (i) the affirmative approval of a special committee of our Board comprised solely of individuals who are each (1) "independent" under the requirements of Rule 10A-3 under the Exchange Act, and under the rules of the applicable securities exchange on which Company Securities are traded and (2) "disinterested" as it relates to the JAB Investors and their respective affiliates (any such individual, an "Independent Director") and who are disinterested and independent under Delaware law as to the matter under consideration, duly obtained in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Company's organizational documents, applicable law and the rules, regulations and listing standards promulgated by any securities exchange on which Company Securities are traded (a "Disinterested Director Approval") and (ii) the affirmative vote of our stockholders representing at least a majority of the voting power of the Company beneficially owned by stockholders that are not the JAB Investors or their affiliates; so long as the Stockholders Agreement is in effect, material related party transactions involving the JAB Investors or any of their affiliates and the Company will require Disinterested Director Approval; so long as the Stockholders Agreement is in effect, the JAB Investors and the Company have agreed to take all necessary actions within their control to maintain no fewer than four Independent Directors on our Board; the Company shall include certain questions specified in the Stockholders Agreement in its annual directors and officers' questionnaire used in the preparation of the Company's Form 10-K, annual report to stockholders and proxy statement; and the Company shall appoint of a new lead independent director consistent with the terms of the Stipulation of Settlement (as defined in the Stockholders Agreement). The Stockholders Agreement also provides the JAB Investors with certain customary demand and shelf registration rights with respect to Company Securities and restricts the registration rights we may grant other stockholders after the date thereof. Prior to the entry into the Stockholders Agreement, we granted certain other stockholders customary demand and "piggyback" registration rights. The Stockholders Agreement will terminate upon the earlier of the mutual consent of the parties to the Stockholders Agreement (including, with respect to the Company, Disinterested Director Approval) or such time as the JAB Investors and their affiliates cease to beneficially own 25% of the voting power of the Company capital stock on a fully diluted basis. The Stockholders Agreement may be amended by the JAB Investors and the Company after receipt of Disinterested Director Approval. Any waiver by the Company of any condition or of any breach of any term, covenant, representation or warranty contained in the Stockholders Agreement also requires Disinterested Director Approval. Anti-Takeover Effects of Delaware Law, Certificate of Incorporation and By-laws. The following provisions may make a change in control of our business more difficult and could delay, defer or prevent a tender offer or other takeover attempt that a stockholder might consider to be in its best interest, including takeover attempts that might result in the payment of a premium to our stockholders over the market price for their shares. These provisions also may promote the continuity of our management by making it more difficult for a person to remove or change the incumbent members of our Board. Controlling Stockholder. As of the date of this Annual Report, the JAB Investors beneficially own approximately 53% of the outstanding shares of Class A Common Stock, which also represents approximately 53% of the voting power of our capital stock. This concentrated control could have the effect of discouraging others from initiating a potential merger, takeover or other future change of control transaction that other stockholders may view as beneficial. Delaware Law. We are subject to the provisions of Section 203 of the DGCL regulating corporate takeovers. In general, the statute prohibits a publicly-held Delaware corporation from engaging in a "business combination" with an "interested stockholder" for a period of three years after the date that the person became an interested stockholder, subject to exceptions, unless the business combination is approved by our Board in a prescribed manner or the transaction in which the person became an interested stockholder is approved by our Board and disinterested stockholders in a prescribed manner. Generally, a "business combination" includes a merger, asset or stock sale, or other transaction resulting in a financial benefit to the stockholder. Generally, an "interested stockholder" is a person who, together with affiliates and associates, owns, or within three years prior, did own, 15% or more of the corporation's voting stock. These provisions may have the effect of delaying, deferring or preventing a change in control of our business without further action by the stockholders. Authorized but Unissued Shares; A Undesignated Preferred Stock. The authorized but unissued shares of Class A Common Stock will be available for future issuance without stockholder approval. These additional shares may be utilized for a variety of corporate purposes, including future public offerings to raise additional capital, acquisitions and employee benefit plans. In addition, our Board may authorize, without stockholder approval, the issuance of undesignated Preferred Stock with voting rights or other rights or preferences designated from time to time by our Board. The existence of authorized but unissued shares of Class A Common Stock or Preferred Stock may enable our Board to render more difficult or to discourage an attempt to obtain control of us by means of a merger, tender offer, proxy contest or otherwise. Advance Notice Requirements for Stockholder Proposals and Nominations of Directors. Our By-laws require stockholders seeking to bring business before an annual meeting of stockholders, or to nominate individuals for election as directors at an annual or special meeting of stockholders, to provide timely notice in writing, as specified therein. These provisions regulate our stockholders in bringing matters before the annual meeting of stockholders or making nominations for directors at any meetings of stockholders. These provisions may also discourage or deter a potential acquirer from conducting a solicitation of proxies to elect the potential acquirer's own slate of directors or otherwise attempting to obtain control of our business. Special Meetings of Stockholders. Our Certificate of Incorporation and By-laws provide that special meetings of stockholders may be called only by our Chairman, Chief Executive Officer or our Board or by our Secretary at the request of holders of not less than a majority of the combined voting power of Class A Common Stock. Cumulative Voting. Our Certificate of Incorporation provides that our stockholders are not permitted to cumulate votes in the election of directors. Series B Convertible Preferred Stock Change in Control Provisions. Upon certain change in control events involving the Company, the Holders thereof will have the right to convert their shares of Series B Convertible Preferred Stock into shares of Class A Common Stock or require the Company to repurchase the Series B Convertible Preferred Stock. See "Series B Convertible Preferred Stock" "Redemption" above. Transfer Agent. The transfer agent and registrar for our Class A Common Stock is Computershare Trust Company, N.A. EX-19.1 6 exhibit119insidertradingpo.htm EX-19.1 Document Exhibit 19.1 INSIDER TRADING POLICY (Effective as of August 16, 2024). I. A. A. INTRODUCTION. U.S. federal and state laws and Regulation (EU) No 596/2014 (the "EU Market Abuse Regulation" or "EU MAR") prohibit buying, selling or making other transfers of securities by persons who have material information that is not generally known or available to the public (as defined under the U.S. securities laws) and/or inside information (as defined under MAR). These laws also prohibit persons with such information from disclosing it to others who trade securities on that information. In light of these prohibitions, Coty Inc. (together with its subsidiaries, the "Company") has adopted the following policy (this "Policy") regarding trading in securities by its directors, officers, employees and consultants. You are responsible for not violating federal or state securities laws or this Policy. We designed this Policy to promote compliance with the MAR and the U.S. federal and state securities laws and to protect the Company and you from the serious liabilities and penalties that can result from violations of these laws. If you violate MAR and the U.S. federal insider trading laws, you may have to pay civil fines of up to three times the profit gained or loss avoided by such trading, as well as criminal fines of up to $5 million. You also may have to serve a jail sentence of up to 20 years. In addition, the Company could be subject to a civil fine of up to the greater of $1.425 million subject to adjustment for inflation, and three times the profit gained or loss avoided as a result of your insider trading violations, as well as a criminal fine of up to $25 million. The Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"), New York Stock Exchange ("NYSE"), the Autorité des Marchés Financiers (the "AMF"), the U.S. Department of Justice and state regulators are very effective at detecting and pursuing insider trading cases. The AMF and the SEC each have successfully prosecuted cases against employees trading through foreign accounts, trading by family members and friends, and trading involving only a small number of shares. Therefore, it is important that you understand the breadth of activities that constitute illegal insider trading. This Policy sets out the Company's policy in the area of insider trading and should be read carefully and complied with fully. If you have any questions, please contact the Legal Department. II. A. A. DEFINITIONS. A. A. What is "Material Nonpublic Information" under U.S. Securities Laws? 1. Material Information. Material information generally means information that there is a likelihood a reasonable investor would consider important in making an investment decision to buy, hold, or sell securities. Either positive or negative information may be material. Depending on the circumstances, common examples of information that may be material include: earnings, revenue, or similar financial information; unexpected financial results; unpublished financial reports or projections; extraordinary borrowing or liquidity problems; changes in control; changes in directors, senior management or auditors; information about current, proposed, or contemplated transactions, business plans, financial restructurings, acquisition targets or significant expansions or contractions of operations; changes in dividend policies or the declaration of a stock split or the proposed or contemplated issuance, redemption, or repurchase of securities; material defaults under agreements or actions by creditors, clients, or suppliers relating to a company's credit rating; information about major contracts, including potential or new license agreements, or the cancellation or threatened cancellation of a license agreement; gain or loss of a significant customer or supplier; information about major product launches; significant new product developments or innovations or significant advances in product development or price changes on major products; significant marketing changes; the interruption of production or other aspects of a company's business as a result of an accident, fire, natural disaster, or breakdown of labor negotiations or any major shut-down; network security breaches, service interruptions, data corruption or other cybersecurity incidents; labor negotiations; product recalls; major environmental incidents; bankruptcy or liquidity concerns or developments; and institution of, or developments in, major litigation, investigations, or regulatory actions or proceedings. U.S. Federal, state and NYSE investigators will scrutinize a questionable trade after the fact with the benefit of hindsight, so you should always err on the side of deciding that the information is material and not trade. If you have questions regarding specific transactions, please contact the Legal Department. 2. Nonpublic Information. Nonpublic information is information that is not generally known or available to the public. We consider information to be available to the public only when: it has been released to the public by the Company through appropriate channels (e.g., by means of a press release, a filing with the SEC or a widely disseminated statement from a senior officer); and enough time has elapsed to permit the investment market to absorb and evaluate the information. You should generally consider information to be nonpublic until one full trading day has elapsed following public disclosure. For example, if the Company discloses Material Nonpublic Information before the market opens on a Monday or while the market is open on a Monday, you may not trade until Tuesday (one full trading day after the Company's release), so long as you do not have any additional Material Nonpublic Information after such release. If, however, the Company discloses Material Nonpublic Information after the market closes on such Monday, you may not trade until Wednesday (one full trading day after the Company's release), so long as you do not have any additional Material Nonpublic Information after such release. B. A. A. What is Inside Information under MAR? Inside information under MAR is information of a precise nature, which has not been made public, relating, directly or indirectly, to the Company or to one or more financial instruments of the Company, and which, if it were made public, would be likely to have a significant effect on the prices of those financial instruments or on the price of related derivative financial instruments. 1. Precise Nature. Information is of a "precise nature" if it indicates circumstances which exist or are expected to come into existence, or an event that has occurred or is expected to occur, where a conclusion can be drawn about the possible effect of those circumstances or events on the prices of the Company's financial instruments. 2. Protracted Process. In the case of a protracted process that is intended to bring about, or that results in a particular circumstances or event (e.g., an M&A transaction), the intermediate steps of that process may be deemed to be inside information if they satisfy the criteria described above. 3. Likely to have a significant effect. Information which, if it were made public, would be likely to have a significant effect on the prices of financial instruments, shall mean information a reasonable investor would be likely to use as part of the basis of his or her investment decisions. C. A. A. A. Trading / Transactions. For purposes of this Policy, references to "trading" and "transactions" include, among other things: purchases and sales of Company securities in public markets; sales of Company securities obtained through the exercise of employee stock options granted by the Company (for example, through a broker-assisted cashless exercise, which involves the broker selling some or all shares underlying the stock option on the open market); making gifts of Company securities (including charitable donations); or cashing out Company securities to secure a loan. References to "trading" and "transactions" do not include: exercise of Company stock options if no shares are to be sold or if there is a "net exercise" (a "net exercise" is the use of shares underlying a stock option to pay the exercise price of the stock option and/or withhold tax obligations); vesting of Company stock options, restricted stock or restricted stock units or other securities; withholding of shares by the Company to satisfy a tax withholding obligation upon the vesting of restricted stock or restricted stock units; or gifts of Coty securities to immediate family members or entities controlled or managed by you. You may freely exercise your stock options if no shares are to be sold, engage in "net exercises" and have the Company withhold shares to satisfy your tax obligations without violating this Policy. III. A. A. PERSONS SUBJECT TO THIS POLICY. The policies and procedures in Sections IV(A), (B), and (C) apply to all directors, officers, employees and consultants. These policies and procedures also apply to anyone that lives in your household (other than household employees), corporations or other business entities controlled or managed by you, and trusts for which you are the trustee or have a beneficial pecuniary interest. The AMF, the SEC and federal prosecutors may presume that trading by family members is based on information you supplied and may treat any such transactions as if you had traded yourself. There is no exception for small transactions or transactions that may seem necessary or justifiable for independent reasons, such as the need to raise money for an emergency expenditure. In addition, certain aspects of this Policy shall only apply to persons that have been designated as primary insiders by the Company (in such context, each shall be referred to as a "Primary Insider"), as well as their Closely Associated Persons (as defined herein). The Chief Financial Officer or the Legal Counsel shall notify all persons defined as Primary Insiders. Furthermore, under MAR, the term "Closely Associated Person" as used herein includes (a) a spouse or a partner considered to be equivalent to a spouse, (b) a dependent child, (c) a relative who has shared same household for at least one year on the date of the transaction concerned and (d) a legal person, trust or partnership, the managerial responsibilities of which are discharged by a Primary Insider or by a person referred to in (a), (b) or (c), which is directly or indirectly controlled by such a person, which is set up for the benefit of such person, or the economic interests of which are substantially equivalent to those of such person. Each Primary Insider shall, upon election or appointment, provide the Legal Department with the necessary details about her/him and its Closely Associated Persons for registration in the primary insider register kept for purposes of MAR compliance. Each Primary Insider shall, as soon as practicable after being notified pursuant to the introduction of this Policy, provide the Legal Department a list of persons who qualify as its Closely Associated Persons, unless this has already been provided. The Primary Insider shall notify the Legal Department of any later amendments or updates to such list as and when relevant. In accordance with MAR, each Primary Insider shall inform its Closely Associated Persons about their mandatory obligations and keep a copy of such notification.

IV. POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

A. Trading Policy You may not trade in the stock or other securities of any company when you are aware of Material Nonpublic Information about that company. This policy against insider trading applies to trading in Company securities, as well as to trading in the securities of other companies, such as the Company's customers, distributors, suppliers or firms with which the Company may be negotiating a major transaction. You may not convey Material Nonpublic Information about the Company or another company to others, or suggest that anyone purchase or sell any company's securities, while you are aware of Material Nonpublic Information about that company. This practice, known as "tipping", also violates the securities laws and can result in the same civil and criminal penalties that apply if you engage in insider trading directly, even if you do not receive any money or derive any benefit from trades made by persons to whom you passed Material Nonpublic Information. This policy against tipping applies to information about the Company and its securities, as well as to information about other companies. Persons with whom you have a history, pattern or practice of sharing confidences such as family members, close friends and financial and personal counselors may be presumed to act on the basis of information known to you; therefore, special care should be taken so that Material Nonpublic Information is not disclosed to such persons. This policy does not restrict legitimate business communications to Company personnel who require the information in order to perform their business duties. Material Nonpublic Information, however, should not be disclosed to persons outside the Company unless you are specifically authorized to disclose such information and the person receiving the information has agreed, in writing, if appropriate, to keep the information confidential.

B. Policy Regarding Speculative Transactions, Hedging, Pledging and Trading on Margin

It is against Company policy for you to engage in speculative transactions in Company securities. As such, it is against Company policy for you to trade in puts or calls in Company securities, or sell Company securities short.

2. Hedging Transactions You are prohibited from engaging in any hedging transactions involving Company securities because certain forms of hedging transactions, such as zero cost collars and forward sale contracts, in certain instances involve the establishment of a short position (or an equivalent position) in Company securities and limit or eliminate the ability to profit from an increase in the value of Company securities.

3. Pledging and Trading on Margin Securities held on margin (or margined) or pledged as collateral may be sold without your consent if you fail to meet a margin call or if you default on a loan, a margin or foreclosure sale may result in unlawful insider trading. Because of this danger, you are prohibited from margining Company securities or pledging Company securities as collateral for a loan unless such pledge or margin is in connection with a purchase of Company securities under the Elite Program or a purchase of Series A Preferred Stock of the Company and, unless you have received a waiver from the Remuneration and Nominating Committee of the Board of Directors of the Company, (i) you have demonstrated to the Company's satisfaction that you have the financial capacity to repay the loan without the sale of the securities you propose to pledge as collateral or (ii) you have entered into a Rule 10b5-1(c) trading plan or a trading plan that provides comparable protection from insider trading. Thus, if you wish to margin securities that you hold, you should hold Company securities in a separate brokerage account and assume the risk of violating insider trading laws. In addition, if you are a director or an officer who has your compensation disclosed in the Company's annual proxy statement, you also should be aware that the Company is required to disclose in its annual proxy statement the number of Company securities that you have pledged as collateral.

C. Unauthorized Disclosure All directors, officers, employees and consultants must maintain the confidentiality of Company information for competitive, security and other business reasons, as well as to comply with securities laws. All information you learn about the Company or its business plans is potentially nonpublic information until we publicly disclose it. You should treat this information as confidential and proprietary to the Company. You may not disclose it to others, such as family members, other relatives, or business or social acquaintances, and you are expressly prohibited from disclosing any information concerning the Company to, or participating in, so-called "expert networks" (i.e., organizations that provide specialized information and research services to the outsiders, such as hedge funds and mutual funds). Also, legal rules govern the timing and nature of our disclosure of material information to outsiders or the public. Violation of these rules could result in substantial liability for you, the Company and its management. For this reason, we permit only specifically designated representatives of the Company to discuss the Company with the news media, securities analysts and investors and only in accordance with the Company's Guidelines for External Communications and Investor Relations Communications Policy. If you receive inquiries of this nature, refer them to the Investor Relations Department.

D. When and How Restricted Employees may Trade Company Securities

1. Overview Directors, executive officers and certain other employees who are so designated from time to time by the General Counsel (such officers and employees, "Restricted Employees") are for purposes of this Policy required to comply with the restrictions covered below. Even if you are not a director or a Restricted Employee, however, following the procedures listed below may assist you in complying with this Policy. These restrictions, including, but not limited to the Window Period, the MAR Blackout Period and the preclearance policy, also apply, to the extent applicable to you, to anyone that lives in your household (other than household employees), any corporation or other business entities controlled or managed by you, and trusts for which you are the trustee or have a beneficial pecuniary interest.

2. MAR Blackout Period Under MAR, a Primary Insider and its Closely Associated Persons are strictly prohibited from conducting any transactions on its own account or for the account of a third party, directly or indirectly, relating to the shares or debt instruments of the Company or to derivatives or other financial instruments linked to them during a closed period of 30 calendar days prior to the anticipated release of the relevant financial results (the "MAR Blackout Period").

3. Window Periods Directors and Restricted Employees may only trade in Company securities from one full trading day after the Company's earnings release to the end of business on the 15th day of the last month of each quarter (such period, the "Window Period"). The Window Periods for the fiscal year are listed in Appendix A. However, even if the Window Period is open, you may not trade in Company securities if you are aware of Material Nonpublic Information about the Company. In addition, you must preclear all transactions in Company securities even if you initiate them when the Window Period is open. From time to time the Company may close the Window Period due to Material Nonpublic Information developments. In such events, the Company may notify particular individuals that they should not engage in any transactions involving the purchase or sale of Company securities and should not disclose to others the fact that the Window Period has been closed. Even if the Window Period is closed and during the MAR Blackout Period, you may exercise Company stock options if no shares are to be sold (or exercise a tax withholding right pursuant to which you elect to have the Company withhold shares subject to an option to satisfy tax withholding obligations) if you may not, however, effect sales of stock issued upon the exercise of stock options (including same-day sales and cashless exercises). Generally, however, all pending purchase and sale orders regarding Company securities that could be executed while the Window Period is open must be executed or cancelled before it closes. In light of these restrictions, if you expect a need to sell Company securities at a specific time in the future, you may wish to consider entering into a prearranged Rule 10b5-1(c) trading plan, as discussed below.

4. Preclearance The Company requires its directors, members of its executive committee, and direct reports of the members of its executive committee to contact the Legal Department in advance of effecting any purchase, sale or other trading of Company securities (including a stock plan transaction such as an option exercise, a gift (other than to immediate family members or entities controlled or managed by such persons), a loan, a pledge or inclusion of Company securities in margin account, a contribution to a trust or any other transfer) and obtain prior approval of the transaction from the Legal Department. All requests must be submitted to the Legal Department at least two business days in advance of the proposed transaction. The Legal Department will then determine whether the transaction may proceed. This preclearance policy applies even if you are initiating a transaction while a Window Period is open. If a transaction is approved under the preclearance policy, the transaction must be executed within five business days after the approval is obtained, but regardless may not be executed if you acquire Material Nonpublic Information concerning the Company, if the Window Period closes during that time or if the Legal Department revokes the approval. If a transaction is not completed within the period described above, the transaction must be approved again before it may be executed. If a proposed transaction is not approved under the preclearance policy, you should refrain from initiating any transaction in Company securities, and you should not inform anyone within or outside of the Company of the restriction.

5. Rule 10b5-1(c) Trading Plans Rule 10b5-1(c) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "1934 Act") provides for an affirmative defense against insider trading liability if trades occur pursuant to a prearranged trading plan that meets specified conditions. The Company will allow you to enter into a Rule 10b5-1(c) trading plan, provided that the plan complies with the requirements set forth below. Under Rule 10b5-1(c), if you enter into a binding contract, an instruction or a written plan that specifies the amount, price and date on which securities are to be purchased or sold, and these arrangements are established at a time when you are not aware of Material Nonpublic Information, you may claim a defense to insider trading liability if the transactions under the trading plan occur at a time when you have subsequently learned Material Nonpublic Information. A plan effected in accordance with the rule may specify amount, price and date through a formula or may specify trading parameters which another person has discretion to administer, but you must not exercise any subsequent discretion affecting the transactions, and if your broker or any other person exercises discretion in implementing the trades, you must not influence his or her actions and he or she must not be aware of any Material Nonpublic Information at the time of the trades. Trading plans can be established for a single trade or a series of trades. It is important that you properly document the details of a trading plan. Note that, in addition to the requirements described above, there are a number of additional procedural conditions to Rule 10b5-1(c) that must be satisfied before you can rely on a trading plan as an affirmative defense against an insider trading charge. These requirements include that you act in good faith, that you do not modify your trading instructions while you are aware of Material Nonpublic Information and that you not enter into or alter a corresponding or hedging transaction or position. Because this rule is complex, the Company recommends that you work with a broker and be sure you fully understand the limitations and conditions of the rule before you establish a trading plan. All Rule 10b5-1(c) trading plans, contracts and instructions are required to be reviewed and approved by the Legal Department for compliance with Rule 10b5-1(c) and the Company's policies concerning such programs, prior to implementing any such plan, contract or instruction. In addition, all amendments, modifications and terminations of an existing Rule 10b5-1(c) trading plan must be reviewed and approved by the Legal Department prior to effecting any such amendments, modifications or terminations. Transactions pursuant to Rule 10b5-1(c) trading plans that are effected in accordance with this Policy may occur notwithstanding the other prohibitions included herein, except that under no circumstances can a Primary Insider or its Closely Associated Persons conduct any transactions during a MAR Blackout Period.

E. Certification All directors, officers, employees and consultants will be required to certify their understanding of and intent to comply with this Policy.

F. Noncompliance Each director, officer, employee or consultant who fails to comply with this Policy or who refuses to certify that he or she has complied with it will be subject to disciplinary action, which could include termination of employment, in accordance with applicable law.

G. Post-Termination Transactions This Policy will continue to apply to your transactions in Company securities after your employment or service has terminated with the Company until such time as you are no longer aware of Material Nonpublic Information and Inside Information or until that information has been publicly disclosed or is no longer material.

V. ADDITIONAL SECURITIES LAW MATTERS

A. Section 16 of the 1934 Act Directors, executive officers and greater than 10% beneficial owners of the Company's common stock (each, a "Section 16 Insider") will also be required to comply with the reporting obligations and limitations on short-swing transactions set forth in Section 16 of the 1934 Act. The practical effect of these provisions is that (a) Section 16 Insiders will be required to report transactions in Company securities (usually within two business days of the date of the transaction) and (b) Section 16 Insiders who purchase and sell Company securities, as determined by Section 16, within a six-month period will be required to disgorge all profits to the Company regardless of whether they had knowledge of any Material Nonpublic Information. The Company has provided separate materials to officers and directors regarding compliance with Section 16 and its related rules (see Memorandum re: Section 16 Reporting Requirements, Deadlines and Liabilities).

B. Rule 144 If you are a director or executive officer, you may be deemed to be an "affiliate" of the Company. Consequently, shares of Company common stock held by you may be considered to be "restricted securities" or "control securities", the sale of which are subject to compliance with Rule 144 under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (or any other applicable exemption under the federal securities laws). If this is the case, note that Rule 144 places limits on the number of shares you may be able to sell and provides that certain procedures must be followed before you can sell shares of Company common stock. Contact the Legal Department for more information on Rule 144.

Appendix A - Restricted Employees will be free to trade in Coty securities during the following anticipated Window Periods during the fiscal year, subject to preclearance by the Legal Department in the case of directors, members of the executive committee and their direct reports only:

- 1 trading day after the Q1 FY earnings release until December 15
- 1 trading day after the Q2 FY earnings release until March 15
- 1 trading day after the Q3 FY earnings release until June 15
- 1 trading day after the Q4/YE FY earnings release until September 15

The exact date of the opening of the Window Period will be determined by the date the earnings release is filed each quarter. The Window Period will open one trading day after the earnings release is filed. EX-21.1.7 exhibit211-subsidiarieslist.htm EX-21.1.1 Document Exhibit 21.1 Coty Inc. EX-97.1 13 exhibit971-clawbackpolicy.htm EX-97.1 DocumentExhibit 97.1 COTY INC.Clawback Policy Adopted as of September 29, 2023BackgroundIn the interest of promoting effective corporate governance, promoting accountability and promoting transparent and honest behavior, Coty Inc. (the "Company"), with the approval of the Remuneration and Nomination Committee of the Board of Directors, has adopted this Clawback Policy (this "Policy") which sets forth the following two clawback scenarios: (1) Financial Restatement and (2) Fraud or Willful Misconduct.The Financial Restatement portion of this Policy is designed to comply with Section 10D-1 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 as amended (the "Exchange Act") and the related rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") and the New York Stock Exchange (the "NYSE") (collectively, the "Clawback Rules") and will be implemented in accordance with such rules.The Fraud or Willful Misconduct portion of this Policy is unchanged from the Coty Clawback Policy adopted in 2020 and applies to a broader group of executives and a broader definition of incentive compensation than the standards required by the Clawback Rules.Policy StatementFinancial RestatementsThe Financial Restatements portion of this Policy applies to any current or former executive officer of the Company (as defined in Rule 10D-1 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (an "Executive Officer")) and will be implemented in accordance with the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") and the New York Stock Exchange (the "NYSE").In the event that the Company's financial statements are required to be restated due to material noncompliance with any financial reporting requirement under the U.S. federal securities laws, including any required accounting restatement (a) to correct an error in previously issued financial statements that is material to the previously issued financial statements, or (b) that would result in a material misstatement if the error were corrected in the current period or left uncorrected in the current period, then the Remuneration and Nomination Committee shall use reasonable efforts to recoup the amount of Incentive Compensation described below that is received by an Executive Officer during the three completed fiscal years immediately preceding the date that the Company is required to restate its financial statements, regardless of fault.For this portion of the Policy, "Incentive Compensation" includes any compensation that has been granted, earned or vested based wholly or in part upon the achievement of a restated financial reporting measure. The amount of Incentive Compensation subject to recoupment shall be the amount of Incentive Compensation received by the Executive Officer during the applicable recovery period that exceeds the amount of Incentive Compensation that otherwise would have been received by the Executive Officer if such Incentive Compensation had been determined based on the revised financial information reflected in the accounting restatement.Section 10D of the Securities Exchange Act, Section 304 of the Sarbanes Oxley Act, and other applicable rules of the SEC and NYSE shall apply for purposes of administering this portion of the Policy and determining the applicable recovery period and which persons and Incentive Compensation are subject to recoupment.Fraud or Willful MisconductIf the Company acting fairly and reasonably in its discretion determines that any award recipient is guilty of fraud or willful misconduct or any other action or inaction that would give rise to a termination for cause, whether or not such fraud or misconduct resulted in a restatement of the Company's financial statements, then, subject to the approval and instruction of the Remuneration and Nomination Committee, the Company will have the right to recover from that award recipient, any Covered Incentive Compensation. The Remuneration and Nomination Committee will, acting fairly and reasonably in its discretion, approve the recovery of Covered Incentive Compensation from any member of the executive leadership team.For this portion of the Policy, "Covered Incentive Compensation" shall mean amounts granted, vested or paid under any incentive cash or equity compensation program of the Company, (including but not limited to any cash incentive compensation plan and any equity awards made under the Amended and Restated Coty Inc. Equity and Long-Term Incentive Plan (as amended and restated on February 1, 2017), or any other stock incentive program the Company may hereafter adopt (collectively, the "Incentive Plans")), during the three year period prior to the event triggering the clawback.Executive leadership team means the Coty Leadership Team and any other person that is designated as an executive officer of the Company.Award recipient means any employee who receives cash or equity incentive compensation from the Company.Additional Definitions and InterpretationsThe value with respect to which recovery shall be determined by the Company (or Remuneration and Nomination Committee in the case of a member of the executive leadership team) based on such factors as considered relevant, including, but not limited to, the difference between the amount that was actually paid and what would have been paid based on the restatement.The terms and provisions of the Incentive Plans and/or any agreement pursuant to which awards were made thereunder (the "Award Agreements") shall control if there is a conflict between this Policy and the Incentive Plans and/or Award Agreements (provided that the absence of a clawback provision in such Incentive Plans and/or Award Agreements shall not be treated as a conflict).Further, no provision of this Policy shall limit the Company's right to seek any additional equitable or legal remedies from any person and which arise under the facts which give rise to a claim by the Company under this Policy. Organization, Consolidation and Presentation of Financial Statements [Abstract]
DESCRIPTION OF BUSINESS	DESCRIPTION OF BUSINESS
	Coty Inc. and its subsidiaries (collectively, the "Company" or "Coty") manufacture, market, sell and distribute branded beauty products, including fragrances, color cosmetics and skin & body related products throughout the world. Coty is a global beauty company with a rich entrepreneurial history and an iconic portfolio of brands.
	The Company operates on a fiscal year basis with a year-end of June 30. Unless otherwise noted, any reference to a year preceded by the word "fiscal" refers to the fiscal year ended June 30 of that year. For example, references to "fiscal 2024" refer to the fiscal year ended June 30, 2024. When used in this Annual Report on Form 10-K, the term "includes" and "including" means, unless the context otherwise indicates, including without limitation.
	The Company's sales generally increase during the second fiscal quarter as a result of increased demand associated with the winter holiday season. Financial performance, working capital requirements, sales, cash flows and borrowings generally experience variability during the three to six months preceding the holiday season. Product innovations, new product launches and the size and timing of orders from the Company's customers may also result in variability.

SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES	12 Months Ended
	Jun. 30, 2024
Accounting Policies [Abstract]
SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES	SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES
	Basis of Presentation and Principles of Consolidation
	The accompanying financial statements of the Company are presented on a consolidated basis in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP"). All intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.
	The Company also consolidates majority-owned entities in the United States of America, United Arab Emirates, Kingdom of Saudi Arabia, and South Korea where the Company has the ability to exercise control. Ownership interests of noncontrolling parties are presented as noncontrolling interests or redeemable noncontrolling interests, as applicable.
	Use of Estimates
	The preparation of financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and revenues and expenses during the period reported. Significant accounting policies that contain subjective management estimates and assumptions include those related to revenue recognition, the net realizable value of inventory, the fair value of equity investments, the assessment of goodwill, other intangible assets and long-lived assets for impairment, and income taxes. Management evaluates its estimates and assumptions on an ongoing basis using historical experience and other factors, including the current economic environment, and makes adjustments when facts and circumstances dictate. As future events and their effects cannot be determined with precision, actual results could differ significantly from those estimates and assumptions. Significant changes, if any, in those estimates and assumptions resulting from continuing changes in the economic environment will be reflected in the Consolidated Financial Statements in future periods.
	Cash Equivalents
	Cash equivalents include all highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less at the time of purchase.
	Restricted Cash
	Restricted cash represents funds that are not readily available for general purpose cash needs due to contractual limitations. Restricted cash is classified as a current or long-term asset based on the timing and nature of when or how the cash is expected to be used or when the restrictions are expected to lapse. As of June 30, 2024 and 2023, the Company had restricted cash of $19.8 and $36.9, respectively, included in Restricted cash in the Consolidated Balance Sheets. The restricted cash balances as of June 30, 2024 and 2023 primarily provide collateral for certain bank guarantees on rent, customs and duty accounts and also consists of collections on factored receivables that remain unremitted to the factor as of June 30, 2024 and 2023. Restricted cash is included as a component of Cash, cash equivalents, and restricted cash in the Consolidated Statement of Cash Flows.
	Trade Receivables
	Trade receivables are stated net of the allowance for doubtful accounts and cash discounts, which is based on the evaluation of the accounts receivable aging, specific exposures, and historical trends. We make estimates of expected credit and collectibility trends for the allowance for doubtful accounts based upon our assessment of historical experience, the age of the accounts receivable balances, credit quality of our customers, current economic conditions, reasonable and supportable forecasts of future economic conditions, and other factors that may affect our ability to collect from customers. Trade receivables are written off on a case-by-case basis, net of any amounts that may be collected.
	Inventories
	Inventories include items which are considered salable or usable in future periods, and are stated at the lower of cost or net realizable value, with cost being based on standard cost which approximates actual cost on a first-in, first-out basis. Costs include direct materials, direct labor and overhead (e.g., indirect labor, rent and utilities, depreciation, purchasing, receiving, inspection and quality control) and inbound freight costs. The Company classifies inventories into various categories based upon their stage in the product life cycle, future marketing sales plans and the disposition process.
	The Company also records an inventory obsolescence reserve, which represents the excess of the cost of the inventory over its net realizable value, based on product sales projections. This reserve is calculated using an estimated obsolescence percentage applied to the inventory based on age, historical trends, and requirements to support forecasted sales. In addition, and as necessary, the Company may establish specific reserves for future known or anticipated events.
	Equity Investments
	The Company elected the fair value option to account for its investment in Rainbow JVCO LTD and subsidiaries (together, "Wella" or the "Wella Company") to align with the Company's strategy for this investment. The fair value is updated on a quarterly basis. The investments are classified within Level 3 in the fair value hierarchy because the Company estimates the fair value of the investments using a combination of the income approach, the market approach and private transactions, when applicable. Changes in the fair value of equity investments under the fair value option are recorded in Other (income) expense, net within the Consolidated Statements of Operations (see Note 12—Equity Investments).
	Property and Equipment and Other Long-lived Assets
	Property and equipment is stated at cost less accumulated depreciation or amortization. The cost of renewals and betterments is capitalized and depreciated. Expenditures for maintenance and repairs are expensed as incurred. Property and equipment that is disposed of through sale, trade-in, donation, or scrapping is written off, and any gain or loss on the transaction, net of costs to dispose, is recorded in Selling, general and administrative expense. Depreciation and amortization are computed principally using the straight-line method over the following estimated useful lives:
	Description	Estimated Useful Lives
	Buildings	20-40 years
	Marketing furniture and fixtures	3-5 years
	Machinery and equipment	2-15 years
	Computer equipment and software	2-5 years
	Property and equipment under finance leases and leasehold improvements	Lesser of lease term or economic life
	Intangible assets with finite lives are amortized principally using the straight-line method over the following estimated useful lives:
	Description	Estimated Useful Lives
	License agreements	2-34 years
	Customer relationships	2-28 years
	Trademarks	2-30 years
	Product formulations and technology	2-28 years
	Long-lived assets, including tangible and intangible assets with finite lives, are tested for recoverability whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that their carrying amount may not be recoverable. When such events or changes in circumstances occur, a recoverability test is performed comparing projected undiscounted cash flows from the use and eventual disposition of an asset or asset group to its carrying value. If the projected undiscounted cash flows are less than the carrying value, an impairment charge would be recorded for the excess of the carrying value over the fair value. The Company estimates fair value based on the best information available, including discounted cash flows and/or the use of third-party valuations.
	Goodwill and Other Indefinite-lived Intangible Assets

Goodwill is calculated as the excess of the cost of purchased businesses over the fair value of their underlying net assets. Goodwill is allocated and evaluated at the reporting unit level, which are the Company's operating segments. The Company allocates goodwill to one or more reporting units that are expected to benefit from synergies of the business combination.

Goodwill and other intangible assets with indefinite lives are not amortized, but are evaluated for impairment annually as of May 1 or whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that their carrying amount may not be recoverable. When testing goodwill for impairment, the Company has the option of first performing a qualitative assessment to determine whether it is more likely than not that the fair value of a reporting unit is less than its carrying amount as the basis to determine if it is necessary to perform a quantitative goodwill impairment test. In performing its qualitative assessment, the Company considers the extent to which unfavorable events or circumstances identified, such as changes in economic conditions, industry and market conditions or company specific events, could affect the comparison of the reporting unit's fair value with its carrying amount. If the Company concludes that it is more likely than not that the fair value of a reporting unit is less than its carrying amount, the Company is required to perform a quantitative impairment test.

Quantitative impairment testing for goodwill is based upon the fair value of a reporting unit as compared to its carrying value. The Company makes certain judgments and assumptions in allocating assets and liabilities to determine carrying values for its reporting units. To determine fair value of the reporting unit, the Company uses a combination of the income and market approaches, when applicable. Under the income approach, fair value is determined using a discounted cash flow method, projecting future cash flows of each reporting unit, as well as a terminal value, and discounting such cash flows at a rate of return that reflects the relative risk of the cash flows. Under the market approach, when applicable, information from comparable publicly traded companies with similar operating and investment characteristics as the reporting units is utilized to create valuation multiples that are applied to the operating performance of the reporting units being tested, to value the reporting unit. The impairment loss recognized would be the difference between a reporting unit's carrying value and fair value in an amount not to exceed the carrying value of the reporting unit's goodwill.

Indefinite-lived other intangible assets principally consist of trademarks. The fair values of indefinite-lived other intangible assets are estimated and compared to their respective carrying values. The trademarks' fair values are based upon the income approach, utilizing the relief from royalty or excess earnings methodology. This methodology assumes that, in lieu of ownership, a third party would be willing to pay a royalty in order to obtain the rights to use the comparable asset. An impairment loss is recognized when the estimated fair value of the intangible asset is less than its carrying value.

Leases

All of the Company's material leases are operating leases. These are primarily for real estate properties, including corporate offices, retail stores and facilities to support the Company's manufacturing, research and development and distribution operations.

For any new or modified lease, the Company, at the inception of the contract, determines whether a contract is or contains a lease. The Company records right-of-use ("ROU") assets and lease obligations for its operating leases, which are initially recognized based on the discounted future lease payments over the term of the lease. Variable lease payments are not included in the measurement of ROU assets and lease liabilities. As the rate implicit in the Company's leases is not easily determinable, the Company's applicable incremental borrowing rate is used in calculating the present value of the sum of the lease payments.

Lease term is defined as the non-cancelable period of the lease plus any options to extend or terminate the lease when it is reasonably certain that the Company will exercise the option. The Company has elected not to recognize ROU asset and lease obligations for its short-term leases, which are defined as leases with an initial term of 12 months or less.

As an accounting policy election for all asset classes, the Company elected the practical expedient related to lease and non-lease components, which allows a lessee to not separate non-lease from lease components and instead account for consideration paid in a contract as a single lease component.

Deferred Financing Fees

The Company capitalizes costs related to the issuance of debt instruments, as applicable. Such costs are amortized over the contractual term of the related debt instrument in Interest expense, net using the straight-line method, which approximates the effective interest method, in the Consolidated Statements of Operations.

Noncontrolling Interests and Redeemable Noncontrolling Interests

Interests held by third parties in consolidated majority-owned subsidiaries are presented as noncontrolling interests, which represents the noncontrolling stockholders' interests in the underlying net assets of the Company's consolidated majority-owned subsidiaries. Noncontrolling interests that are not redeemable are reported in the equity section of the Consolidated Balance Sheets.

Noncontrolling interests, where the Company may be required to repurchase the noncontrolling interest under a put option or other contractual redemption requirement, are reported in the Consolidated Balance Sheets between liabilities and equity, as redeemable noncontrolling interests. The Company adjusts the redeemable noncontrolling interests to the higher of the redemption value or the carrying value (the acquisition date fair value adjusted for the noncontrolling interest's share of net income (loss) and dividends) on each balance sheet date with changes recognized as an adjustment to retained earnings, or in the absence of retained earnings, as an adjustment to additional paid-in capital.

Revenue Recognition

Revenue is recognized at a point in time and/or over time when control of the promised goods or services is transferred to the Company's customers, which usually occurs upon delivery. Revenue is recognized in an amount that reflects the consideration the Company expects to be entitled to in exchange for transferring those goods or services. At contract inception, the Company assesses the goods and services promised in its contracts with customers and identifies a performance obligation for each promise to transfer to the customer a good or service (or bundle of goods or services) that is distinct. To identify the performance obligations, the Company considers all of the goods or services promised in the contract regardless of whether they are explicitly stated or are implied by customary business practices. The Company's revenue contracts principally represent a performance obligation to sell its beauty products to trade customers and are satisfied when control of promised goods and services is transferred to the customers.

Net revenues comprise gross revenues less customer discounts and allowances, actual and expected returns (estimated based on an analysis of historical experience and position in product life cycle) and various trade spending activities. Trade spending activities represent variable consideration promised to the customer and primarily relate to advertising, product promotions and demonstrations, some of which involve cooperative relationships with customers. The costs of trade spend activities are estimated considering all reasonably available information, including contract terms with the customer, the Company's historical experience and its current expectations of the scope of the activities, and is reflected in the transaction price when sales are recorded.

The Company's payment terms vary by the type and location of its customers and the products offered. The term between invoicing and when payment is due is not significant.

The Company's sales return accrual reflects seasonal fluctuations, including those related to revenues for the holiday season in the first half of the fiscal year. This accrual is a subjective critical estimate that has a direct impact on reported net revenues, and is calculated based on history of actual returns, estimated future returns and information provided by retailers regarding their inventory levels. In addition, as the Company's specific accruals may be established for significant future known or anticipated events. The types of known or anticipated events that the Company has considered, and will continue to consider, include the financial condition of the Company's customers, store closings by retailers, changes in the retail environment, and the Company's decision to continue to support new and existing brands. Returns represented 1%, 2% and 2% of gross revenue after customer discounts and allowances in fiscal 2024, 2023 and 2022, respectively. Trade spending activities recorded as a reduction to gross revenue after customer discounts and allowances represented 9%, 10%, and 10% in fiscal 2024, 2023 and 2022, respectively.

The Company accounts for certain customer store fixtures as other assets. Such fixtures are amortized using the straight-line method over the period of 3 to 5 years as a reduction of revenue.

Cost of Sales

Cost of sales includes all of the costs to manufacture the Company's products. For products manufactured in the Company's own facilities, such costs include raw materials and supplies, direct labor and factory overhead. For products manufactured for the Company by third-party contractors, such costs represent the amounts invoiced by the contractors. Cost of sales also includes royalty expense associated with license agreements. Additionally, shipping costs, freight-in and depreciation and amortization expenses related to manufacturing equipment and facilities are included in Cost of sales in the Consolidated Statements of Operations.

Selling, General and Administrative Expenses

Selling, general and administrative expenses include advertising and promotional costs and research and development costs. Also included in Selling, general and administrative expenses are share-based compensation, certain warehousing fees, manufacturing fixed costs, personnel and related expenses, rent on operating leases, and professional fees.

Advertising and promotional costs are expensed as incurred and totaled $1,625.5, $1,479.6 and $1,465.1 in fiscal 2024, 2023 and 2022, respectively. Included in advertising and promotional costs are $113.6, $103.0, and $119.4 of depreciation of marketing furniture and fixtures, such as product displays, in fiscal 2024, 2023 and 2022, respectively. Research and development costs are expensed as incurred and totaled $126.8, $105.2 and $97.3 in fiscal 2024, 2023 and 2022, respectively.

Share-Based Compensation

Common Stock

Common shares are available to be awarded for the exercise of phantom units, vested stock options, the settlement of restricted stock units ("RSUs") and performance restricted stock units ("PRSUs"), and the conversion of Series A Preferred Stock.

The Company accounts for its share-based compensation plans for Common Stock as equity awards, aside from phantom units. For those awards treated as equity, share-based compensation expense is measured and fixed at the grant date based on the estimated fair value of the award and is recognized on a straight-line basis, net of estimated forfeitures, over the employee's requisite service period and, for PRSUs, when it is probable that the performance condition will be achieved.

For PRSUs, in a period we determine it is no longer probable that we will achieve certain performance measures for the awards, we reverse the stock-based compensation expense that we had previously recognized and associated with the portion of PRSUs that are no longer expected to vest. The amount of the expense ultimately recognized depends on the number of awards that actually vest. Accordingly, stock-based compensation expense may vary from period to period.

The Company accounts for its phantom units as a liability award. For those awards treated as a liability, share-based compensation expense are measured at the end of each reporting period based on the fair value of the award on each reporting date and recognized as an expense to the extent earned.

The fair value of stock options is determined using the Black-Scholes valuation model.

Equity and liability awards generally vest over a term of three or five years.

Treasury Stock

The Company accounts for treasury stock under the cost method. When shares are reissued or retired from treasury stock they are accounted for at an average price. When treasury stock is re-issued at a price higher than its cost, the difference is recorded as a component of Additional paid-in-capital in the Company's Consolidated Balance Sheets. When treasury stock is re-issued at a price lower than its cost, the difference is recorded as a reduction of Additional paid-in-capital to the extent that there are treasury stock gains to offset the losses. If there are no treasury stock gains in Additional paid-in-capital, the losses upon re-issuance of treasury stock are recorded as a reduction of Retained earnings in the Company's Consolidated Balance Sheets.

Income Taxes

The Company is subject to income taxes in the U.S. and various foreign jurisdictions. The Company accounts for income taxes under the asset and liability method. Therefore, income tax expense is based on reported (Loss) income before income taxes, and deferred income taxes reflect the effect of temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities that are recognized for financial reporting purposes and the carrying amounts that are recognized for income tax purposes. A valuation allowance is established, when necessary, to reduce deferred tax assets to the amount that is more likely than not to be realized based on currently available evidence. The Company considers how to recognize, measure, present and disclose in financial statements uncertain tax positions taken or expected to be taken on a tax return.

The Company is subject to tax audits in various jurisdictions. The Company regularly assesses the likely outcomes of such audits in order to determine the appropriateness of liabilities for unrecognized tax benefits ("UTBs"). The Company classifies interest and penalties related to UTBs as a component of the provision for income taxes.

For UTBs, the Company first determines whether it is more-likely-than-not (defined as a likelihood of more than fifty percent) that a tax position will be sustained based on its technical merits as of the reporting date, assuming that taxing authorities will examine the position and have full knowledge of all relevant information. A tax position that meets this more-likely-than-not threshold is then measured and recognized at the largest amount of benefit that is greater than fifty percent likely to be realized upon effective settlement with a taxing authority. As the determination of liabilities related to UTBs and associated interest and penalties requires significant estimates to be made by the Company, there can be no assurance that the Company will accurately predict the outcomes of these audits, and thus the eventual outcomes could have a material impact on the Company's operating results or financial condition and cash flows.

As a result of the 2017 Tax Act changing the U.S. to a modified territorial tax system, the Company no longer asserts that any of its undistributed foreign earnings are permanently reinvested. The Company does not expect to incur significant withholding or state taxes on future distributions. To the extent there remains a basis difference between the financial reporting and tax basis of an investment in a foreign subsidiary after the repatriation of the previously taxed income, the Company is permanently reinvested. A determination of the unrecognized deferred taxes related to these components is not practicable.

The Tax Act requires a U.S. shareholder of a foreign corporation to include in income its global intangible low-taxed income ("GILTI"). In general, GILTI is described as the excess of a U.S. shareholder's total net foreign income over a deemed return on tangible assets. An entity may choose to recognize deferred taxes for temporary differences expected to reverse as GILTI in future years or an entity can elect to treat GILTI as a period cost and include it in the tax expense of the year it is incurred. As such, the Company has elected to treat the tax on GILTI as a tax expense in the year it is incurred rather than recognizing deferred taxes.

Restructuring Costs

Charges incurred in connection with plans to restructure and integrate acquired businesses or in connection with cost-reduction initiatives that are initiated from time to time are included in Restructuring costs in the Consolidated Statements of Operations if such costs are directly associated with an exit or disposal activity, a reorganization, or with integrating an acquired business. These costs can include employee separations, contract and lease terminations, and other direct exit costs. Employee severance and other termination benefits are primarily determined based on established benefit arrangements, local statutory requirements or historical practices. The Company recognizes these benefits when payment is probable and estimable.

Other business realignment costs represent the incremental cost directly related to the restructuring activities which can include accelerated depreciation, professional or consulting fees and other internal costs including compensation related costs for dedicated internal resources. Other business realignment costs are generally recorded in Selling, general and administrative expenses in the Consolidated Statements of Operations.

Fair Value Measurements

The following fair value hierarchy is used in selecting inputs for those assets and liabilities measured at fair value that distinguishes between assumptions based on market data (observable inputs) and the Company's assumptions (unobservable inputs). The Company evaluates these inputs and recognizes transfers between levels, if any, at the end of each reporting period. The hierarchy consists of three levels:

Level 1 - Valuation based on quoted market prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities;

Level 2 - Valuation based on inputs other than Level 1 inputs that are observable for the assets or liabilities either directly or indirectly;

Level 3 - Valuation based on prices or valuation techniques that require inputs that are both significant to the fair value measurement and supported by little or no observable market activity.

Apart from Coty's equity investment in Wella (see Note 12—Equity Investments), the Company has not elected the fair value measurement option for any financial instruments or other assets not required to be measured at fair value on a recurring basis.

Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities

All derivatives are recognized as assets or liabilities and measured at fair value. The accounting for changes in the fair value of a derivative depends on the intended use of the derivative and the resulting designation. For derivative instruments designated as cash flow hedges under FASB ASC Topic 815, "Derivatives and Hedging" ("ASC 815"), the change in fair value of the derivative is initially recorded in Accumulated other comprehensive (loss) income in the Consolidated Balance Sheets and is subsequently recognized in earnings when the hedged exposure impacts earnings. For derivative instruments that are not designated as hedges, gains (losses) from changes in fair values are recognized in Net income (loss). The Company does not enter into derivatives for trading or speculative purposes.

Foreign Currency

Exchange gains or losses incurred on non-financing foreign exchange currency transactions conducted by one of the Company's operations in a currency other than the operation's functional currency are reflected in Cost of sales or operating expenses. Net (losses)/gains of $(18.1), $(32.3) and $3.3 in fiscal 2024, 2023 and 2022, respectively resulting from non-financing foreign exchange currency transactions are included in the Consolidated Statements of Operations.

Assets and liabilities of foreign operations are translated into U.S. dollars at the rates of exchange in effect at the end of the reporting period. Income and expense items are translated at the average exchange rates prevailing during each reporting period.

Translation gains or losses are reported as cumulative adjustments in Accumulated other comprehensive income (loss) ("AOCI(L)").

Net (losses)/gains of $(16.5), $(12.2) and $10.0 in fiscal 2024, 2023 and 2022, respectively, resulting from financing foreign exchange currency transactions are included in Interest expense, net in the Consolidated Statements of Operations.

Lacoste Fragrances License Termination

During fiscal 2023, the Company terminated its licensing arrangement for Lacoste fragrances and received termination payments from the licensor totaling €87.8 million (approximately $93.9). The Company recognized a net gain within Selling, general and administrative expenses of $104.4 reflecting the termination proceeds, net of estimated expenses for contractual termination obligations and non-recoverable assets associated with the license termination. During fiscal 2024, the Company received an additional payment of €15.0 million (approximately $16.2) and made contractual termination payments of $4.9. The Company completed sales of remaining Lacoste fragrances inventory through December of calendar year 2023, as per a contractual inventory sell-off arrangement, and recognized a loss of $0.6 within Selling, general and administrative expenses reflecting the disposal of remaining inventory in fiscal 2024.

Russia Market Exit

On April 27, 2022, the Company announced the Board of Directors' decision to wind down its Russian operations. During fiscal 2022, the Company recognized total pre-tax charges in the Consolidated Statements of Operations of $63.6 associated with its exit of Russia. These charges are primarily related to the net realizable value of assets associated with the Russian business. These charges consisted of $45.5 in Selling, general and administrative expenses, primarily related to the write-down of working capital, long-term assets, as well as contract termination charges, contingent liabilities and legal costs, $31.4 in Asset impairment charges related to the impairment of indefinite-lived intangibles, $6.3 in Restructuring costs related to employee severances, and $0.4 in Cost of sales related to inventory write-downs. The Company incurred $24.1 of income tax charges associated with this decision.

During fiscal 2023, the Company recognized total pre-tax gains in the Consolidated Statements of Operations of $17.0 are primarily related to a bad debt accrual release, due to better than expected collections, in addition to $0.4 of income tax benefits.

The Company anticipates that it will incur an immaterial amount of additional costs through completion of the wind down. Additionally, management anticipates derecognizing the cumulative translation adjustment balance pertaining to the Russian subsidiary. The Company has substantially completed its commercial activities in Russia. However, the Company anticipates that the process related to the liquidation of the Russian legal entity will take an extended period of time.

SEGMENT REPORTING

Operating and reportable segments (referred to as "segments") reflect the way the Company is managed and for which separate financial information is available and evaluated regularly by the Company's chief operating decision maker ("CODM") in deciding how to allocate resources and assess performance. The Company has designated its Chief Executive Officer as the CODM.

Certain income and shared costs and the results of corporate initiatives are managed by Corporate. Corporate primarily includes stock compensation expense, restructuring and realignment costs, costs related to acquisition and divestiture activities, and impairments of long-lived assets, goodwill and intangibles that are not attributable to ongoing operating activities of the segments. Corporate costs are not used by the CODM to measure the underlying performance of the segments.

With the exception of goodwill and acquired intangible assets, the Company does not identify or monitor assets by segment. The Company does not present assets by reportable segment since various assets are shared between reportable segments. The allocation of goodwill by segment is presented in Note 11—Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets, net.

TRADE RECEIVABLES—FACTORING

The Company factors a portion of its trade receivables with unrelated third-party factoring companies on both a recourse and non-recourse basis. The Company accounts for trade receivable transfers as sales and derecognizes the sold receivables from the Consolidated Balance Sheets. The net amount utilized under factoring facilities was $195.3 and $202.9 as of June 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively. The aggregate amount of trade receivable invoices on a worldwide basis amounted to $1,534.3 and $1,579.2 in fiscal 2024 and 2023, respectively. Remaining balances due from factors amounted to $10.0 and $14.2 as of June 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively, and are included in Trade receivables, net in the Consolidated Balance Sheets. Factoring fees paid under these arrangements were $10.3, $8.5 and $3.0 in fiscal 2024, 2023 and 2022, respectively, which were recorded in Selling, general and administrative expenses in the Consolidated Statements of Operations. Cash received from the selling of receivables are presented as a change in trade receivables within the operating activities section of the Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows.

U.S. Receivables Purchase Agreement

On March 19, 2019, the Company entered into an Uncommitted Receivables Purchase Agreement (the "Receivables Purchase Agreement") with a financial institution, with an aggregate facility limit of $150.0. Eligible trade receivables are purchased by the financial institution for cash at net invoice value less a factoring fee. Pursuant to Receivables Purchase Agreement, the Company acts as collections agent for the financial institution and is responsible for the collection, and remittance to the financial institution, of all customer payments related to trade receivables factored under this arrangement. For certain customer receivables factored, the Company will retain a recourse obligation of up to 10 percent of the respective invoice's net invoice value, payable to the financial institution if the customer's payment is not received by the contractual due date. The fair value of sold receivables approximated their book value due to their short-term nature. The Company estimated that the fair value of its servicing responsibilities was not material.

European Receivables Purchase Agreement

In September 2019, the Company entered into a factoring agreement with a financial institution, which allows for the transfer of receivables from certain of the Company's European subsidiaries, in exchange for cash (the "European Receivables Purchase Agreement"). The total outstanding amount permitted among such subsidiaries is €143.0 million. Factoring of such receivables under the European Receivables Purchase Agreement is executed on a non-recourse basis.

Other Factoring Agreements

In addition to the Company's main factoring facilities described above, from time to time, certain of the Company's subsidiaries may enter into local factoring agreements with local financial institutions. Based on the terms of such arrangements entered into during fiscal 2024 and 2023, the Company has derecognized receivables sold pursuant to these arrangements from the Consolidated Balance Sheets.

The 2018 Coty Credit Agreement contains affirmative and negative covenants. The negative covenants include, among other things, limitations on debt, liens, dispositions, investments, fundamental changes, restricted payments and affiliate transactions. With certain exceptions as described below, the 2018 Coty Credit Agreement, as amended, includes a financial covenant that requires us to maintain a Total Net Leverage Ratio (as defined below), equal to or less than the ratios shown below for each respective test period.

Quarterly Test Period Ending

June 30, 2024 through July 11, 2028

Total Net Leverage Ratio ^(a)

4.00 to 1.00

^(a) Total Net Leverage Ratio means, as of any date of determination, the ratio of: (a) (i) Total Indebtedness minus (ii) unrestricted and Cash Equivalents of the Parent Borrower and its Restricted Subsidiaries as determined in accordance with GAAP to (b) Adjusted EBITDA for the most recently ended Test Period (each of the defined terms, including Adjusted EBITDA, used within the definition of Total Net Leverage Ratio have the meanings ascribed to them within the 2018 Coty Credit Agreement, as amended). Adjusted EBITDA, as defined in the 2018 Coty Credit Agreement, as amended, includes certain add backs related to cost savings, unusual events such as COVID-19, operating expense reductions and future unrealized synergies subject to certain limits and conditions as specified in the 2018 Coty Credit Agreement, as amended.

In the four fiscal quarters following the closing of any Material Acquisition (as defined in the 2018 Coty Credit Agreement, as amended), including the fiscal quarter in which such Material Acquisition occurs, the maximum Total Net Leverage Ratio shall be the lesser of (i) 5.95 to 1.00 and (ii) 1.00 higher than the otherwise applicable maximum Total Net Leverage Ratio for such quarter (as set forth in the table above). Immediately after any such four fiscal quarter period, there shall be at least two consecutive fiscal quarters during which the Company's Total Net Leverage Ratio is no greater than the maximum Total Net Leverage Ratio that would otherwise have been required in the absence of such Material Acquisition, regardless of whether any additional Material Acquisitions are consummated during such period.

As of June 30, 2024, the Company was in compliance with all covenants contained within the 2018 Coty Credit Agreement, as amended.

Provision for income taxes on continuing operations	$ 95.1	$ 181.6	$ 164.8
Effective income tax rate	46.5 %	25.8 %	38.6 %

The 20.7% increase in the effective tax rate in fiscal 2024 from fiscal 2023 was primarily driven by the following items:

- a 17.6% increase from an increase in valuation allowances recorded on interest expense carryforwards;
- a 13.5% increase due to changes to the net deferred taxes recognized on the assignment of strategic service functions from Amsterdam to Geneva, as an indirect result of the required revaluation of the original transfer of the main principal location from Geneva to Amsterdam in fiscal 2021;
- a 11.8% from the revaluation of the Company's deferred tax liabilities due to a tax rate increase enacted in Switzerland; and
- a 11.7% increase in the foreign tax rate differential impact primarily due to lower fair value gains related to the investment in the Wella business taxed at a lower rate as compared to our U.S. Federal statutory rate of 21%.

These increases were partially offset by the following decreases:

- a 18.5% decrease as a result of the issuance of non-refundable income tax credits received from the Swiss Tax Authorities of $97.1. The Company recorded a benefit for the tax credit of $37.8, net of a valuation allowance; and
- a 12.2% decrease from a reduction of foreign tax audits due to the settlement of foreign tax audits.

The 12.8% decrease in the effective tax rate in fiscal 2023 from fiscal 2022 was primarily driven by the following items:

- a 6.6% decrease in tax costs associated with the Company's exit from Russia in the prior year;
- a 6.6% decrease from a reduction in permanent differences related to non-deductible expenses and non-deductible foreign exchange losses;
- a 4.8% decrease as a result of the reduction in the amount of non-deductible executive stock compensation;

- a 3.0% decrease from a gain on the disposition of business assets (real estate) in the prior period;
- a 1.9% decrease from a foreign exchange loss recognized on the repatriation of funds in the current year that were previously taxed.

These decreases were partially offset by the following increases:

- a 7.1% increase in unrecognized tax benefits due to the impact of increasing U.S. taxation of foreign sourced income; and
- a 2.4% increase in foreign tax rate differential impact primarily due to lower fair value gains related to the investment in the Wella business taxed at a lower rate as compared to our U.S. Federal statutory rate of 21%.

The Company has significant income in jurisdictions such as Germany, Netherlands, France, and Spain which have statutory tax rates higher than the U.S. Federal statutory rate of 21%. The impact of the foreign earnings in higher taxed jurisdictions coupled with U.S. losses at the statutory tax rate of 21% increases the Company's effective tax rate. This jurisdictional mix is expected to have a continuing impact on the effective tax rate.

Significant components of deferred income tax assets and liabilities as of June 30, 2024 and 2023 are presented below:

	June 30, 2024	June 30, 2023

The expirations of tax loss carry forwards, amounting to $482.7 as of June 30, 2024, in each of the fiscal years ending June 30, are presented below:

Fiscal Year Ending June 30,	United States	Western Europe	Rest of World	Total
2025	$ —	$ 0.1	$ 3.4	$ 3.5
2026	—	—	8.1	8.1

2029 and thereafter	—	57.1	248.4	305.5
Total	$ —	$ 186.0	$ 296.7	$ 482.7

The total valuation allowances recorded are $151.4 and $60.7 as of June 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively. In fiscal 2024, the change in the valuation allowance was primarily due to The Company recording a valuation allowance on its U.S. interest expense limitation carryforwards and a valuation allowance on a portion of the Swiss tax credits granted in the current period.

A reconciliation of the beginning and ending amount of UTBs is presented below:

	Year Ended June 30,
UTBs—July 1	$ 235.5	$ 251.6	$ 279.9
Additions based on tax positions related to the current year	1.3	6.7	1.7
Additions for tax positions of prior years	15.8	0.7	20.8
Reductions for tax positions of prior years	(19.0)	(1.4)	(29.4)
Settlements	(1.2)	(4.6)	(0.2)
Lapses in statutes of limitations	(17.8)	(13.8)	(14.1)
Foreign currency translation	0.7	(3.7)	(7.1)
UTBs—June 30	$ 215.3	$ 235.5	$ 251.6

As of June 30, 2024, the Company had $215.3 of UTBs of which $169.9 represents the amount that, if recognized, would impact the effective income tax rate in future periods. As of June 30, 2024 and 2023, the liability associated with UTBs, including accrued interest and penalties, is $200.2 and $218.6, respectively, which is recorded in Income and other taxes payable and Other non-current liabilities in the Consolidated Balance Sheets.

The Company accrued interest of $(2.4), $7.8 and $4.2, respectively, in fiscal 2024, 2023 and 2022. The Company accrued immaterial penalties in fiscal 2024 and no penalties in fiscal 2023, and released penalties of nil in fiscal 2022. The total gross accrued interest and penalties recorded in the Other noncurrent liabilities in the Consolidated Balance Sheets related to UTBs as of June 30, 2024 and 2023 is $30.2 and $33.1, respectively.

The Company is present in approximately 40 tax jurisdictions, and at any point in time is subject to several audits at various stages of completion. As a result, the Company evaluates tax positions and establishes liabilities for UTBs that may be challenged by local authorities and may not be fully sustained, despite a belief that the underlying tax positions are fully supportable. UTBs are reviewed on an ongoing basis and are adjusted in light of changing facts and circumstances, including progress of tax audits, developments in case law, and closing of statute of limitations. Such adjustments are reflected in the provision for income taxes as appropriate. In fiscal 2024 and 2023, the Company recognized a tax benefit of $19.0 and $18.4 respectively associated with the settlement of tax audits in multiple jurisdictions and the expiration of foreign and state statutes of limitation. The Company has open tax years ranging from 2009 and forward.

On the basis of information available at June 30, 2024, it is reasonably possible that a decrease of up to $32.9 in UTBs related to U.S. and foreign exposures may be necessary within the coming year. It is also possible the ongoing audits by tax authorities may result in increases or decreases to the balance of UTBs. Since it is common practice to extend audits beyond the Statute of Limitations, the Company is unable to predict the timing or conclusion of these audits and, accordingly, the Company is unable to estimate the amount of changes to the balance of UTBs that are reasonably possible at this time. However, the Company believes it has adequately provided for its UTBs for all open tax years in each tax jurisdiction.

EMPLOYEE BENEFIT PLANS

Savings and Retirement Plans - The Company's Savings and Retirement Plans include a U.S. defined contribution plan for employees primarily in the U.S. and international savings plans for employees in certain other countries. In the U.S., hourly and salary based employees are eligible to participate in the plan after 90 days of service and the Company matches 100% of employee contributions up to 6.0% of employee compensation. In addition, the Company makes contributions to the plan on behalf of employees determined by their age and compensation.

During fiscal 2024, 2023 and 2022, the defined contribution expense for Coty Inc. for the U.S. defined contribution plan was $15.6, $13.7 and $13.6, respectively, and the defined contribution expense for the international savings plans was $10.9, $9.6 and $9.7, respectively.

Participants in the U.S. defined benefit pension plan no longer accrue benefits. The Company measures defined benefit plan assets and obligations as of the date of the Company's fiscal year-end. The Company's defined benefit pension plans are funded primarily through contributions from the Company after consideration of recommendations from the pension plans' independent actuaries and are funded at levels sufficient to comply with local requirements.

Other Post-Employment Benefit Plans ("OPEB") - The Company provides certain post-employment health and life insurance benefits for certain employees and spouses principally in the U.S. and France if certain age and service requirements are met. Estimated benefits to be paid by the Company are expensed over the service period of each employee based on calculations performed by an independent actuary. In addition, the Company has a supplemental retirement plan and a termination benefit plan for selected salaried employees.

^(a) In connection with the P&G Beauty business acquisition in 2016, the Company assumed certain international pension and OPEB obligations and assets (the "P&G plans"). At that time, the P&G plans had an active legal dispute that has been resolved during fiscal 2023, resulting in $16.2 of additional assets being paid to the Coty plans. The projected benefit obligation has also increased $16.2 to reflect the liability to distribute these funds to the employees who were originally in the P&G plans. We expect that most of these assets will be paid out over the next few fiscal years.

The projected benefit obligation actuarial loss of $8.6 for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2024 was primarily driven by a decrease in discount rates since the fiscal year ended June 30, 2023. The actuarial loss was partially offset by the asset gain of $3.7 as a result of higher than expected asset performance in Germany, Switzerland and Belgium. The projected benefit obligation actuarial gain of $17.4 for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2023 was primarily driven by increases in discount rates offset by an increase in inflation since the fiscal year ended June 30, 2022. The actuarial gain in the projected benefit obligation was partially offset by an asset loss of $1.9 as a result of worse than expected asset performance.

During fiscal 2024, the retiree medical and life insurance plan experienced a gain on the liability of $4.5 primarily driven by an increase in the discount rate, retirees and spouses waiving medical coverage, and changes in pre-65 medical claim costs. The gain was slightly offset by increases in the medical trend assumption. During fiscal 2023 the retiree medical and life insurance plan experienced a gain on the liability of $3.3 primarily driven by the increase in the discount rate. Retirees waiving medical coverage and changes in the pre-65 medical claim costs also contributed to the gain, which was slightly offset by increases in the medical trend assumption.

The accumulated benefit obligation for the U.S. defined benefit pension plans was $12.5 and $13.0 as of June 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively. The accumulated benefit obligation for international defined benefit pension plans was $351.9 and $346.3 as of June 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively.

Pension Plan Investment Policy

The Company's investment policies and strategies for plan assets are to achieve the greatest return consistent with the fiduciary character of the plan and to maintain a level of liquidity that is sufficient to meet the need for timely payment of benefits. The goals of the investment managers include minimizing risk and achieving growth in principal value so that the purchasing power of such value is maintained with respect to the rate of inflation.

The pension plan's return on assets is based on management's expectations of long-term average rates of return to be achieved by the underlying investment portfolios. In establishing this assumption, management considers historical and expected returns for the assets in which the plan is invested, as well as current economic and market conditions.

The asset allocation decision includes consideration of future retirements, lump-sum elections, growth in the number of participants, the Company's contributions and cash flow. These actual characteristics of the plan place certain demands upon the level, risk and required growth of trust assets. Actual asset allocation is regularly reviewed and periodically rebalanced to the strategic allocation when considered appropriate.

The target asset allocations for the Company's pension plans as of June 30, 2024 and 2023, by asset category are presented below:

	Target	% of Plan Assets at Year End
		2024	2023
Equity securities	40%	35%	32%
Fixed income securities	50%	38%	37%
Cash and other investments	11%	27%	31%

Fair Value of Plan Assets

The international pension plan assets that the Company measures at fair value on a recurring basis, based on the fair value hierarchy as described in Note 2—Summary of Significant Accounting Policies, as of June 30, 2024 and 2023 are presented below:

	Level 1		Level 2		Level 3		Total

Total pension plan assets	$ 71.3	$ 69.6	$ —	$ —	$ 56.9	$ 51.4	$ 128.2	$ 121.0

The following is a description of the valuation methodologies used for plan assets measured at fair value:

Equity securities—The fair values reflect the closing price reported on a major market where the individual securities are traded. These investments are classified within Level 1 of the valuation hierarchy.

Corporate securities—The fair values are based on a compilation of primarily observable market information or a broker quote in a non-active market. These investments are classified within Level 1 of the valuation hierarchy.

Cash and cash equivalents—The carrying amount approximates fair value, primarily because of the short maturity of cash equivalent instruments. These investments are classified within Level 1 of the valuation hierarchy.

Insurance contracts and other—Includes contracts issued by insurance companies and other investments that are not publicly traded. These investments are generally classified as Level 3 as there are neither quoted prices nor other observable inputs for pricing. Insurance contracts are valued at cash surrender value, which approximates the contract fair value. Other Level 3 plan assets include real estate and other alternative investment funds requiring inputs that cannot be readily derived from observable market data due to the infrequency with which the underlying assets trade.

The Company sponsors a qualified defined benefit pension plan for all eligible Swiss employees. Retirement benefits are provided based on employees' years of service and earnings, or in accordance with applicable employee regulations. Consistent with typical Swiss practice, the pension plan is funded through a guaranteed insurance contract with an insurance company ("IC"). The IC is responsible for the investment strategy of the insurance premiums that the Company submits and does not hold individual assets per participating employer. Assets are invested in accordance with the IC's own strategies and risk assessments. Under the terms of the contract, the interest rate as well as the capital value is guaranteed for each participant, with the IC assuming any risk to the value of the underlying assets. The IC is a member of a security fund, whose purpose is to cover any shortfall in the event they are not able to fulfill its contractual agreements. The plan assets of the Swiss plan are included in the Level 3 valuation.

The Company also sponsors qualified defined benefit pension plans for certain eligible German employees. The Company's German pension plans are partially funded with plan assets held in a Contractual Trust Arrangement, under which Company assets have been irrevocably transferred to a registered association for the exclusive purpose of securing and funding pension obligations in Germany. The association invests primarily in publicly tradable equity and fixed income securities, using a funding strategy that is reviewed on a regular basis.

Plan assets are also held in the Company's other non-U.S. defined benefit pension plans. The other non-U.S. defined benefit pension plans provide benefits primarily based on earnings and years of service and are funded in compliance with local laws and practices. The plan assets are invested in various asset classes that are expected to produce a sufficient level of diversification and investment return over the long term at an acceptable level of risk.

The reconciliations of Level 3 plan assets measured at fair value in fiscal 2024 and 2023 are presented below:

	June 30, 2024	June 30, 2023

DERIVATIVE INSTRUMENTS

[Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities Disclosure \[Abstract\]](#)

DERIVATIVE INSTRUMENTS

Foreign Exchange Risk

The Company is exposed to foreign currency exchange fluctuations through its global operations. The Company reduces its exposure to fluctuations in foreign exchange rates by creating offsetting positions through the use of derivative instruments, including forward foreign exchange contracts and by designating foreign currency denominated borrowings and cross-currency swaps as hedges of net investments in foreign subsidiaries. The Company expects that through hedging, any gain or loss on the derivative instruments would generally offset the expected increase or decrease in the value of the underlying forecasted transactions.

In September 2019, the Company entered into cross-currency swap contracts in the notional amount of $550.0 and designated these cross-currency swaps as hedges of its net investment in certain foreign subsidiaries. In September 2020, the Company terminated these net investment cross currency swap derivatives in exchange for cash payment of $37.6. The related loss from this termination is included in AOCI/(L) until the sale or substantial liquidation of the underlying investments.

As of June 30, 2024 and 2023, the notional amounts of the outstanding forward foreign exchange contracts designated as cash flow hedges were $22.3 and $28.0, respectively.

The Company also uses certain derivatives not designated as hedging instruments consisting primarily of foreign currency forward contracts and cross currency swaps to hedge intercompany transactions and foreign currency denominated external debt. Although these derivatives were not designated for hedge accounting, the overall objective of mitigating foreign currency exposure is the same for all derivative instruments. For derivatives not designated as hedging instruments, changes in fair value are recorded in the line item in the Consolidated Statements of Operations to which the derivative relates. As of June 30, 2024 and 2023, the notional amounts of these outstanding non-designated foreign currency forward and cross currency forward contracts were $1,797.6 and $1,653.5, respectively.

Interest Rate Risk

The Company is exposed to interest rate fluctuations related to its variable rate debt instruments. The Company reduces its exposure to fluctuations in the cash flows associated with changes in the variable interest rates by entering into offsetting positions through the use of derivative instruments, such as interest rate swap contracts. The interest rate swap contracts result in recognizing a fixed interest rate for the portion of the Company's variable rate debt that was hedged. This will reduce the negative impact of increases in the variable rates over the term of the contracts. Hedge effectiveness of interest rate swap contracts is based on a long-haul hypothetical derivative methodology and includes all changes in value.

In fiscal 2022, the Company terminated certain existing interest rate swaps with notional amounts of $200.0 in exchange for cash payment of $1.9. The related loss from this termination is included in Interest expense, net, within the Consolidated Statement of Operations.

As of June 30, 2023, the Company had interest rate swap contracts designated as effective hedges in the notional amount of $200.0, which were fully terminated in December 2023 for a cash receipt of $2.1. The Company had no outstanding interest rate swap contracts as of June 30, 2024. As the forecasted interest expense under the original swap agreements is still probable, the related gain in accumulated other comprehensive income (loss) ("AOCI/L") will be amortized over the remaining life of the swaps. These interest rate swaps had been designated and qualified as cash flow hedges and were highly effective prior to termination.

Net Investment Hedge

Foreign currency gains and losses on borrowings designated as a net investment hedge, except ineffective portions, are reported in the cumulative translation adjustment ("CTA") component of AOCI/(L), along with the foreign currency translation adjustments on those investments. As of June 30, 2024 and 2023, the nominal exposures of foreign currency denominated borrowings designated as net investment hedges were €1,611.6 million and €701.3 million, respectively. The designated hedge amounts were considered highly effective.

Forward Repurchase Contracts

In June 2022, December 2022, and November 2023, the Company entered into certain forward repurchase contracts to start hedging for potential $200.0, $196.0, and $294.0 share buyback programs, in 2024, 2025, and 2026, respectively. These forward repurchase contracts are accounted for at fair value, with changes in the fair value recorded in Other expense (income), net in the Consolidated Statements of Operations.

In February 2024, the Company elected to physically settle the June 2022 Forward for a cash payment of $200.0 in exchange for 27.0 million shares of its Class A Common Stock. Refer to Note 21—Equity and Convertible Preferred Stock.

Derivative and non-derivative financial instruments which are designated as hedging instruments:

The accumulated gain (loss) on foreign currency borrowings classified as net investment hedges in the foreign currency translation adjustment component of AOCI/(L) was $14.6 and $(12.2) as of June 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively.

The accumulated loss on cross currency swaps designated as net investment hedges in the foreign currency translation adjustment component of AOCI/(L) was $(37.6) as of June 30, 2024 and 2023.

effective hedges that is expected to be reclassified from AOCI/(L) into earnings, net of tax, within the next twelve months is $2.0. As of June 30, 2024, all of the Company's remaining foreign currency forward contracts designated as hedges were highly effective.

REDEEMABLE NONCONTROLLING INTERESTS

As of June 30, 2024, the redeemable noncontrolling interests ("RNCI") consist of interests in a consolidated subsidiary in the Middle East ("Middle East Subsidiary"). The noncontrolling interest holder in the Company's Middle East Subsidiary had a 25% ownership share. The Company has the ability to purchase the remaining noncontrolling interest of 25% on December 31, 2028, with such transaction to close on December 31, 2029 (the "Call right"). In addition to the Call right feature, the noncontrolling interest holder has the right to sell the noncontrolling interest to the Company on December 31, 2028, with such transaction to close on December 31, 2029 (a "Put right"). The amount at which the Put right and Call right can be exercised is based on a formula prescribed by the amended shareholders' agreement as summarized in the table below, multiplied by the noncontrolling interest holder's percentage interest in the Middle East Subsidiary. Given the provision of the Put right, the entire noncontrolling interest is redeemable outside of the Company's control and is recorded in the Consolidated Balance Sheets at the estimated redemption value. The Company adjusts the redeemable noncontrolling interest to the redemption values at the end of each reporting period with changes recognized as adjustments to APIC. The Company recognized $93.6 and $93.5 as the redeemable noncontrolling interest balances as of June 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively.

On March 27, 2017 a Series A Preferred Stock subscription agreement was entered into with Lambertus J.H. Becht ("Mr. Becht"), the Company's former Chairman of the Board. Under the terms provided in the subscription agreement, the Series A Preferred Stock immediately vested on the grant date and the holder was entitled to exchange the vested shares after the fifth anniversary of the date of issuance. This exchange right expired on March 27, 2024. The Company has the right to redeem the Series A Preferred Stock (1.0 million shares) at a redemption price of $0.01 per share. The Company plans to redeem these shares of Series A Preferred Stock in accordance with their terms.

An (income) expense of $(0.8), $0.2, and $(0.2) was recorded during fiscal 2024, 2023 and 2022, respectively, and has been included in Selling, general and administrative expenses on the Consolidated Statements of Operations. As of June 30, 2024 and 2023, the Company classified nil and $0.8, respectively, of Series A Preferred Stock as a liability, recorded in Other noncurrent liabilities in the Consolidated Balance Sheet.

In 2020, the Company completed the issuance and sale to KKR Aggregator of 1.0 million shares of Convertible Series B Preferred Stock, par value $0.01 per share (the "Series B Preferred Stock"), for an aggregate purchase price of $1,000 per share. On August 27, 2021, KKR Aggregator and affiliated investment funds sold 146,057 shares of Series B Preferred Stock, to HFS Holdings S.à r.l. that is beneficially owned by Peter Harf, a director of the Company.

As a result of various conversions and exchanges of KKR Aggregator's shares of the Series B Preferred Stock, as of December 31, 2021, KKR has fully redeemed/exchanged all of their Series B Preferred Stock.

Cumulative preferred dividends accrue daily on the Series B Preferred Stock at a rate of 9.0% per year. During the twelve months ended June 30, 2024, 2023 and 2022, the Board of Directors declared dividends on the Series B Preferred Stock of $13.2, $13.2 and $35.2, paid accrued dividends of $13.2, $13.2 and $55.8 and converted/exchanged dividends of nil, nil and $50.1, respectively. As of June 30, 2024 and 2023, the Series B Preferred Stock had outstanding accrued dividends of $3.3.

Dividends - Common Stock

On April 29, 2020, the Board of Directors suspended the payment of dividends on Common Stock. No dividends on Common Stock were declared for the year ended June 30, 2024.

The change in dividends accrued recorded to APIC in the Consolidated Balance Sheet as of June 30, 2024, 2023 and 2022 was nil, $0.1 and $0.8, respectively, which represent dividends no longer expected to vest as a result of forfeitures of outstanding restricted stock units ("RSUs"). In addition, the Company made payments of $0.3 and $0.7, of which $0.1 and $0.2 related to employee taxes, and $1.4 for the previously accrued dividends on RSUs that vested during the twelve months ended June 30, 2024, 2023 and 2022, respectively.

Total accrued dividends on unvested RSUs and phantom units included in Accrued expenses and other current liabilities are $0.8 and $1.0 as of June 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively. In addition, accrued dividends of $0.0 and $0.1 are included in Other noncurrent liabilities as of June 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively.

Treasury Stock - Share Repurchase Program

Since February 2014, the Board has authorized the Company to repurchase its Class A Common Stock under approved repurchase programs. On February 3, 2016, the Board authorized the Company to repurchase up to $500.0 of its Class A Common Stock, and on November 13, 2023, the Board increased the Company's share repurchase authorization by an additional $600.0 (the "Share Repurchase Program"). Repurchases may be made from time to time at the Company's discretion, based on ongoing assessments of the capital needs of the business, the market price of its Class A Common Stock, and general market conditions. As of June 30, 2024, the Company has $796.8 remaining under the Share Repurchase Program.

In June 2022, December 2022, and November 2023, the Company entered into forward repurchase contracts (the "Forward" and together the "Forwards") with three large financial institutions ("Counterparties") to start hedging for potential $200.0, $196.0, and $294.0 share buyback programs in 2024, 2025, and 2026, respectively. In connection with the June 2022, December 2022, and November 2023 Forward transactions, the Company incurred certain execution fees of $2.0, $2.0, and $2.9, respectively, which were recognized as a premium to the forward price recorded at inception and amortized ratably over the contract periods.

In February 2024, the Company elected to physically settle the June 2022 Forward for a cash payment of $200.0 in exchange for 27.0 million shares of its Class A Common Stock. The fair value of the shares repurchased was approximately $350.6, which was recorded as an increase to Treasury stock in the Consolidated Balance Sheets and Consolidated Statements of Equity.

As part of the Forward agreements, the Company will pay interest on the outstanding underlying notional amount of the Forwards held by the Counterparties during the contract periods. The interest rates are variable, based on the United States secured overnight funding rate ("SOFR") plus a spread. The weighted average interest rate plus applicable spread for the December 2022 and November 2023 Forward transactions were 9.8% and 8.2%, respectively, as of June 30, 2024.

As part of the December 2022 Forward transaction, two of the Counterparties purchased approximately 11.0 million shares of the Company's Class A Common Stock. In addition, as part of the November 2023 Forward transaction, the Counterparties purchased 25.0 million shares of the Company's Class A Common Stock. These Forward agreements require the Company to: (i) repurchase the shares on or before December 31, 2024 and December 31, 2025, respectively, at a price based on the weighted average of the daily volume weighted average price ("VWAP") during the initial acquisition period ("Initial Price"); or (ii) at the Company's option, pay or receive the difference between the Final Price, defined as the weighted average of the daily VWAP during the unwind period as defined in the agreement, and Initial Price of the Forwards.

As part of the December 2022 Forward transaction, the remaining Counterparty purchased approximately 11.5 million shares of the Company's Class A Common Stock. This Forward requires the Company to pay or receive the difference between the Final Price and Initial Price established at inception of the Forward on or before January 15, 2025.

In addition, the Forwards include a provision for a potential true-up in cash upon specified changes in the price of the Company's Class A Common Stock relative to the Initial Price ("Hedge Valuation Adjustment"). Such Hedge Valuation adjustment shall not result in a termination date or any adjustment of the number of Coty's Class A Common Stock shares purchased by the Counterparties at inception.

In the event the Company declares and pays any cash dividends on its Class A Common Stock, the Forward Counterparties will be entitled to such dividend payments and payable at termination of the Forwards.

Since the Forwards permit a net cash settlement alternative in addition to the physical settlement, the Company accounted for the Forwards initially and subsequently at their fair value, with changes in the fair value recorded in Other expense (income), net in the Consolidated Statement of Operations.

The fair values of the Company's Forwards were $(12.4) and $219.8 as of June 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively. The Forwards are valued principally based on the change in the quoted market price of the Company's common stock price between the inception date and the end of the period. We classify these instruments as Level 2.

Non-Qualified Stock Options

During fiscal 2024, 2023 and 2022, the Company granted nil, non-qualified stock option awards. These options are accounted for using equity accounting whereby the share-based compensation expense is estimated and fixed at the grant date based on the estimated value of the options using the Black-Scholes valuation model.

Non-qualified stock options generally become exercisable five years from the date of the grant or on a graded vesting schedule where 60% of each award granted vests after three years, 20% of each award granted vests after four years and 20% of each award granted vests after five years. All grants expire ten years from the date of the grant.

The Company's outstanding non-qualified stock options as of June 30, 2024 and activity during the fiscal year then ended are presented below:

	Shares (in millions)	Weighted Average Exercise Price	Aggregate Intrinsic Value	Weighted Average Remaining Contractual Term (in years)

Of the 3.6 million stock options outstanding at June 30, 2024, 1.7 million vest on the fifth anniversary of the grant date and 1.9 million vest on the graded vesting schedule.

As of June 30, 2024, the grant prices of the outstanding options ranged from $11.08 to $19.17, and the grant prices for exercisable options ranged from $11.08 to $19.17.

Expected life, in years	0.74 years	1.74 years
Expected volatility	66.31%	65.57%
Risk-free rate of return	5.44%	2.89%
Dividend yield on Class A Common Stock	—%	1.56%

Pursuant to the Series A Preferred Stock subscription agreement dated March 27, 2017, the vested Series A Preferred Stock expired on March 31, 2024. As such, the fair value of the outstanding Series A Preferred Stock was zero and no valuation was performed.

Expected life, in years - The expected life represents the period of time (years) that Series A Preferred Stock granted are expected to be outstanding, which the Company calculates using a formula based on the contractual life of the respective Series A Preferred Stock.

Risk-free rate of return - The Company bases the risk-free rate of return on the U.S. Constant Maturity Treasury Rate.

Dividend yield on Class A Common Stock - The Company calculated the dividend yield on shares using the expected annualized dividend rate and the stock price as of the valuation date.

Series A Preferred Shares generally expire seven years from the date of the grant.

The Company has no non-vested shares of Series A Preferred Stock as of June 30, 2024 or 2023.

Long-term Equity Program for CEO

The Company's CEO, Sue Nabi, was granted a one-time sign-on award of restricted stock units (the "Award") on June 30, 2021. The Award vested and settled in 10.0 million shares of the Company's Class A Common Stock, par value $0.01 per share, on each of August 31, 2021, August 31, 2022 and August 31, 2023. The Company recognized the share-based compensation expense, on a straight-line basis over the vesting period, based on the fair value on the grant date. The amount of compensation cost recognized at each vesting date must at least equal the portion of the award legally vested.

In connection with this Award, on October 29, 2021 and September 18, 2023, JAB, the Company's largest stockholder and a wholly-owned subsidiary of JAB Holding Company S.à.r.l., completed the transfer of 10.0 million and 5.0 million shares of Class A Common Stock, respectively, to Ms. Nabi.

On August 31, 2023 and 2022, the Company issued 5.0 million and 10.0 million shares of Class A Common Stock, respectively, to Ms. Nabi in connection with the third and second vesting of the Award.

Pursuant to the term of the amended employment agreement on May 4, 2023, the Company granted Ms. Nabi a one-time award of 10,416,667 RSUs and will grant a total of 10,416,665 PRSUs in five equal tranches over the next five years. These two awards will vest periodically over the next seven years in accordance with the terms discussed below.

Ms. Nabi's 10,416,667 RSUs will vest and settle in shares of the Company's Class A Common Stock, par value $0.01 per share over five years on the following vesting schedule: (i) 15% on September 1, 2024, (ii) 15% on September 1, 2025, (iii) 20% on September 1, 2026, (iv) 20% on September 1, 2027; and (v) 30% on September 1, 2028, in each case subject to Ms. Nabi's continued employment through the applicable vesting date. The Company will recognize approximately $109.6 of share-based compensation expense, on a straight-line basis over the vesting period, based on the fair value on the grant date, net of forfeitures. The amount of compensation cost recognized at each vesting date must at least equal the portion of the award legally vested.

The first tranche of Ms. Nabi's PRSU award of 2,083,333 shares shall fully vest on September 1, 2026, subject to the achievement of three-year performance objectives determined by the Board on September 28, 2023 (the grant date) and subject to Ms. Nabi's continued employment. The next four tranches of 2,083,333 PRSUs will be granted on or around each September 1 of 2024 through 2027, which shall vest on the third-year anniversary of the respective grant date, subject in each case to the achievement of three-year performance objectives to be determined by the Board. The Company will recognize share-based compensation expense associated with these PRSUs, on a straight-line basis over the vesting period, based on the fair value on the grant date when it is probable that the performance condition will be achieved.

In the event that JAB and Ms. Nabi sell shares of Common Stock for cash in a privately negotiated transaction, subject to Board approval, the Company will grant Ms. Nabi new options to acquire shares of Common Stock (the "Reload Options") in an amount equal to the number of shares sold by Ms. Nabi in such transaction. The Reload Options will have a strike price equal to the greater of the volume weighted average price for shares at the time of the relevant transaction and the fair market value on the date of grant. The potential expense attributed to the reload options will be recognized when the reload options are granted.

NET INCOME (LOSS) ATTRIBUTABLE TO COTY INC. PER COMMON SHARE

Net income (loss) attributable to Coty Inc. common stockholders per common share ("basic EPS") is computed by dividing net income (loss) attributable to Coty Inc. less any dividends on Series B Preferred Stock by the weighted-average number of common shares outstanding during the period.

Net income (loss) attributable to Coty Inc. common stockholders per common share assuming dilution ("diluted EPS") is computed by adjusting the numerator used in basic EPS to add back the dividends applicable to the Series B Preferred Stock, if dilutive, and using the basic EPS weighted-average number of common shares and the effect of potentially dilutive securities outstanding during the period as the denominator. Potentially dilutive securities consist of non-qualified stock options, Series A Preferred Stock, RSUs, unvested restricted stock awards and potential shares resulting from the conversion of the Series B Preferred Stock as of June 30, 2024, 2023 and 2022.

Net income (loss) attributable to Coty Inc. is adjusted through the application of the two-class method of income per share to reflect a portion of the periodic adjustment of the redemption value in excess of fair value of the redeemable noncontrolling interests. There is no excess of redemption value over fair value of the redeemable noncontrolling interests in fiscal 2024, 2023 and 2022. In addition, there are no participating securities requiring the application of the two-class method of income per share.

Reconciliation between the numerators and denominators of the basic and diluted EPS computations is presented below:

The treasury method typically does not adjust the net income attributable to Coty Inc., while the if-converted method requires an adjustment to reverse the impact of the preferred stock dividends of $13.2, $13.2, and $198.3, respectively, and to reverse the impact of fair market value losses/(gains) for contracts with the option to settle in shares or cash of $73.4, $(101.8), and $0, respectively, if dilutive, for the twelve months ended June 30, 2024, 2023, and 2022 on net income applicable to common stockholders during the period.

LEGAL AND OTHER CONTINGENCIES

Legal Matters

The Company is involved, from time to time, in various litigation, administrative and other legal proceedings, including regulatory actions, incidental or related to its business, including consumer class or collective actions, personal injury (most involving allegations related to alleged asbestos in the Company's talc-based cosmetic products), intellectual property, competition, compliance and advertising claims litigation and disputes, among others (collectively, "Legal Proceedings"). While the Company cannot predict any final outcomes relating thereto, management believes that the outcome of current Legal Proceedings will not have a material effect upon its business, prospects, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows or the trading price of the Company's securities. However, management's assessment of the Company's current Legal Proceedings is ongoing, and could change in light of the discovery of additional facts with respect to Legal Proceedings not presently known to the Company, further legal analysis, or determinations by judges, arbitrators, juries or other finders of fact or deciders of law which are not in accord with management's evaluation of the probable liability or outcome of such Legal Proceedings. From time to time, the Company is in discussions with regulators, including discussions initiated by the Company, about actual or potential violations of law in order to remediate or mitigate associated legal or compliance risks and liabilities or penalties. As the outcomes of such proceedings are unpredictable, the Company can give no assurance that the results of any such proceedings will not materially affect its reputation, business, prospects, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows or the trading price of its securities.

Brazilian Tax Assessments

The Company's Brazilian subsidiaries receive tax assessments from local, state and federal tax authorities in Brazil from time to time. Current open tax assessments as of June 30, 2024 are:

Assessment received	Type of assessment	Type of Tax	Tax period impacted	Estimated amount, including interest and penalties as of June 30, 2024
Aug-20	State sales tax credits, which the Treasury Office of the State of Goiás considers as improperly registered	ICMS	2017-2019	R$873.8 million (approximately $158.8)
Oct-20		IPI	2016-2017	R$438.3 million (approximately $79.7)
Nov-22	Federal excise taxes, which the Treasury Office of the Brazil's Internal Revenue Service considers as improperly calculated ¹	IPI	2018-2019	R$592.3 million (approximately $107.7)
Mar-24		IPI	2020	R$33.5 million (approximately $6.1)
Nov-20	State sales taxes, which the Treasury Office of the State of Minas Gerais considers as improperly calculated	ICMS	2016-2019	R$225.4 million (approximately $41.0)
Jun-21	State sales tax, which the Treasury Office of the State of Goiás considers as improperly calculated	ICMS	2016-2020	R$46.9 million (approximately $8.5)

¹The case is scheduled to be heard by an administrative court in late August 2024.

For the Goiás State tax ICMS assessment received in August 2020, the Company has in parallel a judicial case about an additional claim for fees over the tax incentive, for which the Company received an unfavorable first instance ruling and has filed an appeal to the Court. In the first quarter of fiscal 2024, the Company filed a motion for clarification as a step before potentially appealing to a Brazilian higher court, which was denied. In December 2023, the Company filed appeals to be remitted to the Brazilian Superior Court of Justice and, in parallel, filed a motion to grant the suspension of the state's ability to collect the above tax incentives to the Goiás State Court as the case is under discussion. In January 2024, the motion to grant the suspension of the state's ability to collect the above tax incentives was dismissed. In April 2024, a judge of the Superior Court of Justice ruled against the Company. The Company filed an interlocutory appeal for the full bench of judges on the Superior Court of Justice to review the case. The case is scheduled to be heard by the Superior Court of Justice in late August 2024. The Company has been required to provide surety bonds of R$135.2 million (approximately $25.0) and cash deposits of R$124.5 million (approximately $22.6) as of June 30, 2024, to guarantee payment if the case is resolved against Coty. The cash deposits are included in the Other Noncurrent Assets on the Consolidated Balance Sheet.

The Minas Gerais State tax ICMS assessment received in November 2020 is currently at the judicial process. The Company has been required to provide surety bonds of R$311.9 (approximately $56.7) as of June 30, 2024, to guarantee payment if the case is resolved against Coty.

All other cases are currently in the administrative process.

The Company expects that cases may move from the administrative to the judicial process in case Coty does not receive a favorable decision at the administrative level, although the exact timing is uncertain. For cases in the judicial process, the Company will be required to make a judicial deposit or enter into a surety bond for the disputed tax assessment, interest and penalties. The judicial process in Brazil is likely to take a number of years to conclude. The Company is seeking favorable judicial and administrative decisions on the tax enforcement actions filed by the tax authorities for these assessments. The Company believes it has meritorious defenses and it has not recognized a loss for these assessments as the Company does not believe a loss is probable.

RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

Performance Guarantee

In connection with the sales of certain businesses, the Company has assigned its rights and obligations under a real estate lease to JAB Partners LLP. The remaining term of this lease is approximately seven years. While the Company is no longer the primary obligor under this lease, the lessor has not completely released the Company from its obligation, and holds it secondarily liable in the event that the assignee defaults on the lease. The maximum potential future payments that the Company could be required to make, if the assignee was to default as of June 30, 2024, would be approximately $3.6. The Company has assessed the probability of default by the assignee and has determined it to be remote.

Equity Transfer Agreement

In connection with the Award granted to the Company's CEO on June 30, 2021, JAB Beauty B.V. agreed to transfer to her (either directly or through contributing to the Company) one-half of the total number of shares of Common Stock owed to her when the Award vests, which has now been fulfilled. See Note 22—Share-Based Compensation Plans for more information on the Award.

Relationship with KKR

As noted in Note 21—Equity and Convertible Preferred Stock, in fiscal 2020 KKR Aggregator purchased Series B Preferred Stock. This preferred stock conveyed to KKR Aggregator the right to designate two directors to the Company's Board of Directors and voting rights on an as-converted basis. As a result of various conversions/exchanges described below, KKR no longer holds any preferred stock of the Company and no longer has the right to designate any directors to the Company's Board of Directors.

- On November 16, 2020, KKR Aggregator and affiliated investment funds agreed to sell 146,057 shares of Series B Preferred Stock to HFS Holdings S.à r.l, a private limited liability company incorporated under the laws of Luxembourg that is beneficially owned by Peter Harf, a director of the Company. The transaction, which was subject to customary closing conditions, closed on August 27, 2021.
- On September 10, 2021, KKR Aggregator converted a portion of its Series B Preferred Stock into Class A common stock and completed a secondary public offering of the converted shares of Class A common stock.
- On October 20, 2021, the Company completed the sale of a 9.4% stake in Wella to KKR Aggregator in exchange for the redemption of 290,465 shares of KKR's Series B Convertible Preferred Stock shares in Coty and a portion of unpaid dividends.
- On November 10, 2021, KKR Aggregator converted 123,219 shares of Series B Preferred Stock, and $1.2 of unpaid dividends into 19,944,701 shares of Class A common stock. Immediately after the conversion, KKR Aggregator completed a sale of 19,944,701 shares of Class A common stock.
- On November 30, 2021, Coty completed the sale of an additional 4.7% stake in Wella to KKR Aggregator. The Company's total shareholding in the Wella Company is now 25.84%. From time to time, certain funds held by KKR may hold the Company's Senior Secured and Unsecured Notes (as defined in Note 14—Debt). These funds may receive principal and interest payments on the same terms as other investors in the Company's Senior Secured and Unsecured Notes.

Wella

As of June 30, 2024, Coty owned 25.84% of the Wella Company as an equity investment and performs certain services to Wella. Refer to Note 12—Equity Investments.

On December 22, 2021, the Company entered into an agreement with ("KKR Bidco") related to post-closing adjustments to the purchase consideration the Wella Business. In relation to this contingent consideration agreement, the Company received cash proceeds of $6.0 during fiscal 2024 and recognized gains of $19.7, $30.8, and $0.7, during fiscal 2024, 2023 and 2022, respectively, reported in Other expense (income), net.

In connection with the sale of the Wella Business, the Company and Wella entered into a Transitional Services Agreement ("TSA"). Subject to the terms of this TSA, the Company will perform services for Wella in exchange for related service fees. Such services include billing and collecting from Wella customers, certain logistics and warehouse services, as well as other administrative and systems support. The Company and Wella have mutually agreed to end the contracted TSA services on January 31, 2022, as well as previously existing distribution services in Brazil during fiscal 2024. The Company and Wella continue to have in place manufacturing arrangements to facilitate the Wella Business transition in the U.S. and Brazil. TSA fees and other fees earned were $2.2 and $10.0, respectively, for the year ended June 30, 2024, $3.3 and $7.6, respectively for the year ended June 30, 2023, and $87.5 and $6.7, respectively for the year ended June 30, 2022. The TSA fees are principally invoiced on a cost plus basis. The TSA fees and other fees were included in Selling, general and administrative expenses and Cost of sales, respectively, in the Company's Statement of Operations. As of June 30, 2024, accounts receivable from and accounts payable to Wella of $40.0 and nil, respectively, were included in Prepaid expenses and other current assets and Accrued expenses and other current liabilities, respectively, in the Company's Balance Sheets. Additionally, as of June 30, 2024, the Company has accrued $33.5 related to long-term payables due to Wella included in Other noncurrent liabilities in the Company's Consolidated Balance Sheet.

In accordance with the separation agreement with Wella, Coty shall retain and be solely responsible for any amounts payable to former Coty employees transferred to Wella ("Wella employees"), who participated in the Coty Long-Term Incentive Plan. The Wella employees will continue to participate and vest on the current terms for the remaining vesting period after the separation. As such, Coty will continue to recognize the share-based compensation expense for Wella employees until the existing equity awards reach their vesting date. For the years ended June 30, 2024, 2023, and 2022 Coty recorded $2.1, $4.6, and $0.7 of share-based compensation expense related to Wella employees, which was presented as part of Other expense (income), net in the Consolidated Statements of Operations.

The Company also entered into an agreement with Wella to provide management, consulting and financial services to Wella and its direct and indirect divisions, subsidiaries, parent entities and controlled affiliates (in assisting it in the management of its business). Fees earned and reflected in Other expense (income), net in fiscal years 2024, 2023 and 2022 were $1.2, $2.7, and nil respectively.

The Company has certain sublease arrangements with Wella after the sale. For the years ended June 30, 2024, 2023 and 2022, the Company reported sublease income of $8.2, $9.1, and $13.3 from Wella.

Orveda

The disinterested members of the Board reviewed and approved the entry into a license agreement with Orveda, an ultra-premium skincare brand co-founded by Coty's CEO, Sue Nabi. Ms. Nabi has no continuing formal role at Orveda or economic interest in Orveda as a result of divesting her interests which was settled in cash in December 2021; however her business partner and co-founder, Nicolas Vu, is the sole owner and CEO of Orveda, and Mr. Vu also provides consulting services to Coty under the terms of a separate agreement. The initial term of the Orveda license agreement is five years, with two five-year automatic renewals subject to the achievement of certain net revenue milestones. The principal terms of the license agreement are consistent with other Coty prestige licenses and the Board determined that the terms were no more favorable than to an unaffiliated third party.

Consulting Services and Other Arrangements

Until June 30, 2023, Beatrice Ballini, a director, served as a senior member of the Retail Practice and a leader of the Board and CEO Advisory Partners group at Russell Reynolds Associates. From time to time, the Company has engaged Russell Reynolds Associates, a global leadership and search firm, for recruiting assistance. The amounts of such services provided to the Company for fiscal 2023 and 2022 were $0.9 and $0.7, respectively. As of fiscal 2024, Russell Reynolds Associates is no longer a related party.

SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING

POLICIES (Policies)

Accounting Policies

[\[Abstract\]](#)

Fiscal Period

The Company operates on a fiscal year basis with a year-end of June 30. Unless otherwise noted, any reference to a year preceded by the word “fiscal” refers to the fiscal year ended June 30 of that year. For example, references to “fiscal 2024” refer to the fiscal year ended June 30, 2024.

Basis of Presentation and Principles of Consolidation

Basis of Presentation and Principles of Consolidation

The accompanying financial statements of the Company are presented on a consolidated basis in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (“GAAP”). All intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

The Company also consolidates majority-owned entities in the United States of America, United Arab Emirates, Kingdom of Saudi Arabia, and South Korea where the Company has the ability to exercise control. Ownership interests of noncontrolling parties are presented as noncontrolling interests or redeemable noncontrolling interests, as applicable.

Use of Estimates

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and revenues and expenses during the period reported. Significant accounting policies that contain subjective management estimates and assumptions include those related to revenue recognition, the net realizable value of inventory, the fair value of equity investments, the assessment of goodwill, other intangible assets and long-lived assets for impairment, and income taxes. Management evaluates its estimates and assumptions on an ongoing basis using historical experience and other factors, including the current economic environment, and makes adjustments when facts and circumstances dictate. As future events and their effects cannot be determined with precision, actual results could differ significantly from those estimates and assumptions. Significant changes, if any, in those estimates and assumptions resulting from continuing changes in the economic environment will be reflected in the Consolidated Financial Statements in future periods.

Cash Equivalents

Cash Equivalents

Cash equivalents include all highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less at the time of purchase.

Restricted Cash

Restricted Cash

Restricted cash represents funds that are not readily available for general purpose cash needs due to contractual limitations. Restricted cash is classified as a current or long-term asset based on the timing and nature of when or how the cash is expected to be used or when the restrictions are expected to lapse. As of June 30, 2024 and 2023, the Company had restricted cash of $19.8 and $36.9, respectively, included in Restricted cash in the Consolidated Balance Sheets. The restricted cash balances as of June 30, 2024 and 2023 primarily provide collateral for certain bank guarantees on rent, customs and duty accounts and also consists of collections on factored receivables that remain unremitted to the factor as of June 30, 2024 and 2023. Restricted cash is included as a component of Cash, cash equivalents, and restricted cash in the Consolidated Statement of Cash Flows.

Trade Receivables

Trade Receivables

Trade receivables are stated net of the allowance for doubtful accounts and cash discounts, which is based on the evaluation of the accounts receivable aging, specific exposures, and historical trends. We make estimates of expected credit and collectibility trends for the allowance for doubtful accounts based upon our assessment of historical experience, the age of the accounts receivable balances, credit quality of our customers, current economic conditions, reasonable and supportable forecasts of future economic conditions, and other factors that may affect our ability to collect from customers. Trade receivables are written off on a case-by-case basis, net of any amounts that may be collected.

Inventories

Inventories

Inventories include items which are considered salable or usable in future periods, and are stated at the lower of cost or net realizable value, with cost being based on standard cost which approximates actual cost on a first-in, first-out basis. Costs include direct materials, direct labor and overhead (e.g., indirect labor, rent and utilities, depreciation, purchasing, receiving, inspection and quality control) and inbound freight costs. The Company classifies inventories into various categories based upon their stage in the product life cycle, future marketing sales plans and the disposition process.

The Company also records an inventory obsolescence reserve, which represents the excess of the cost of the inventory over its net realizable value, based on product sales projections. This reserve is calculated using an estimated obsolescence percentage applied to the inventory based on age, historical trends, and requirements to support forecasted sales. In addition, and as necessary, the Company may establish specific reserves for future known or anticipated events.

Equity Investments

Equity Investments

The Company elected the fair value option to account for its investment in Rainbow JVCO LTD and subsidiaries (together, “Wella” or the “Wella Company”) to align with the Company’s strategy for this investment. The fair value is updated on a quarterly basis. The investments are classified within Level 3 in the fair value hierarchy because the Company estimates the fair value of the investments using a combination of the income approach, the market approach and private transactions, when applicable. Changes in the fair value of equity investments under the fair value option are recorded in Other (income) expense, net within the Consolidated Statements of Operations (see Note 12—Equity Investments).

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment is stated at cost less accumulated depreciation or amortization. The cost of renewals and betterments is capitalized and depreciated. Expenditures for maintenance and repairs are expensed as incurred. Property and equipment that is disposed of through sale, trade-in, donation, or scrapping is written off, and any gain or loss on the transaction, net of costs to dispose, is recorded in Selling, general and administrative expense. Depreciation and amortization are computed principally using the straight-line method over the following estimated useful lives:

Description	Estimated Useful Lives
Buildings	20-40 years
Marketing furniture and fixtures	3-5 years
Machinery and equipment	2-15 years
Computer equipment and software	2-5 years
Property and equipment under finance leases and leasehold improvements	Lesser of lease term or economic life

Other Long-lived Assets

Intangible assets with finite lives are amortized principally using the straight-line method over the following estimated useful lives:

Description	Estimated Useful Lives
License agreements	2-34 years
Customer relationships	2-28 years
Trademarks	2-30 years
Product formulations and technology	2-28 years

Long-lived assets, including tangible and intangible assets with finite lives, are tested for recoverability whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that their carrying amount may not be recoverable. When such events or changes in circumstances occur, a recoverability test is performed comparing projected undiscounted cash flows from the use and eventual disposition of an asset or asset group to its carrying value. If the projected undiscounted cash flows are less than the carrying value, an impairment charge would be recorded for the excess of the carrying value over the fair value. The Company estimates fair value based on the best information available, including discounted cash flows and/or the use of third-party valuations.

Goodwill and Other Indefinite-lived Intangible Assets

Goodwill and Other Indefinite-lived Intangible Assets

Goodwill is calculated as the excess of the cost of purchased businesses over the fair value of their underlying net assets. Goodwill is allocated and evaluated at the reporting unit level, which are the Company’s operating segments. The Company allocates goodwill to one or more reporting units that are expected to benefit from synergies of the business combination.

Goodwill and other intangible assets with indefinite lives are not amortized, but are evaluated for impairment annually as of May 1 or whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that their carrying amount may not be recoverable. When testing goodwill for impairment, the Company has the option of first performing a qualitative assessment to determine whether it is more likely than not that the fair value of a reporting unit is less than its carrying amount as the basis to determine if it is necessary to perform a quantitative goodwill impairment test. In performing its qualitative assessment, the Company considers the extent to which unfavorable events or circumstances identified, such as changes in economic conditions, industry and market conditions or company specific events, could affect the comparison of the reporting unit’s fair value with its carrying amount. If the Company concludes that it is more likely than not that the fair value of a reporting unit is less than its carrying amount, the Company is required to perform a quantitative impairment test.

Quantitative impairment testing for goodwill is based upon the fair value of a reporting unit as compared to its carrying value. The Company makes certain judgments and assumptions in allocating assets and liabilities to determine carrying values for its reporting units. To determine fair value of the reporting unit, the Company uses a combination of the income and market approaches, when applicable. Under the income approach, fair value is determined using a discounted cash flow method, projecting future cash flows of each reporting unit, as well as a terminal value, and discounting such cash flows at a rate of return that reflects the relative risk of the cash flows. Under the market approach, when applicable, information from comparable publicly traded companies with similar operating and investment characteristics as the reporting units is utilized to create valuation multiples that are applied to the operating performance of the reporting units being tested, to value the reporting unit. The impairment loss recognized would be the difference between a reporting unit’s carrying value and fair value in an amount not to exceed the carrying value of the reporting unit’s goodwill.

Indefinite-lived other intangible assets principally consist of trademarks. The fair values of indefinite-lived other intangible assets are estimated and compared to their respective carrying values. The trademarks’ fair values are based upon the income approach, utilizing the relief from royalty or excess earnings methodology. This methodology assumes that, in lieu of ownership, a third party would be willing to pay a royalty in order to obtain the rights to use the comparable asset. An impairment loss is recognized when the estimated fair value of the intangible asset is less than its carrying value.

Leases

Leases

All of the Company’s material leases are operating leases. These are primarily for real estate properties, including corporate offices, retail stores and facilities to support the Company’s manufacturing, research and development and distribution operations.

For any new or modified lease, the Company, at the inception of the contract, determines whether a contract is or contains a lease. The Company records right-of-use (“ROU”) assets and lease obligations for its operating leases, which are initially recognized based on the discounted future lease payments over the term of the lease. Variable lease payments are not included in the measurement of ROU assets and lease liabilities. As the rate implicit in the Company’s leases is not easily determinable, the Company’s applicable incremental borrowing rate is used in calculating the present value of the sum of the lease payments.

Lease term is defined as the non-cancelable period of the lease plus any options to extend or terminate the lease when it is reasonably certain that the Company will exercise the option. The Company has elected not to recognize ROU asset and lease obligations for its short-term leases, which are defined as leases with an initial term of 12 months or less.

As an accounting policy election for all asset classes, the Company elected the practical expedient related to lease and non-lease components, which allows a lessee to not separate non-lease from lease components and instead account for consideration paid in a contract as a single lease component.

Deferred Financing Fees

Deferred Financing Fees

The Company capitalizes costs related to the issuance of debt instruments, as applicable. Such costs are amortized over the contractual term of the related debt instrument in Interest expense, net using the straight-line method, which approximates the effective interest method, in the Consolidated Statements of Operations.

Noncontrolling Interests and Redeemable Noncontrolling Interests

Noncontrolling Interests and Redeemable Noncontrolling Interests

Interests held by third parties in consolidated majority-owned subsidiaries are presented as noncontrolling interests, which represents the noncontrolling stockholders’ interests in the underlying net assets of the Company’s consolidated majority-

owned subsidiaries. Noncontrolling interests that are not redeemable are reported in the equity section of the Consolidated Balance Sheets.

Noncontrolling interests, where the Company may be required to repurchase the noncontrolling interest under a put option or other contractual redemption requirement, are reported in the Consolidated Balance Sheets between liabilities and equity, as redeemable noncontrolling interests. The Company adjusts the redeemable noncontrolling interests to the higher of the redemption value or the carrying value (the acquisition date fair value adjusted for the noncontrolling interest’s share of net income (loss) and dividends) on each balance sheet date with changes recognized as an adjustment to retained earnings, or in the absence of retained earnings, as an adjustment to additional paid-in capital.

Revenue Recognition and Cost of Sales

Revenue Recognition

Revenue is recognized at a point in time and/or over time when control of the promised goods or services is transferred to the Company’s customers, which usually occurs upon delivery. Revenue is recognized in an amount that reflects the consideration the Company expects to be entitled to in exchange for transferring those goods or services. At contract inception, the Company assesses the goods and services promised in its contracts with customers and identifies a performance obligation for each promise to transfer to the customer a good or service (or bundle of goods or services) that is distinct. To identify the performance obligations, the Company considers all of the goods or services promised in the contract regardless of whether they are explicitly stated or implied by customary business practices. The Company’s revenue contracts principally represent a performance obligation to sell its beauty products to trade customers and are satisfied when control of promised goods and services is transferred to the customers.

Net revenues comprise gross revenues less customer discounts and allowances, actual and expected returns (estimated based on an analysis of historical experience and position in product life cycle) and various trade spending activities. Trade spending activities represent variable consideration promised to the customer and primarily relate to advertising, product promotions and demonstrations, some of which involve cooperative relationships with customers. The costs of trade spend activities are estimated considering all reasonably available information, including contract terms with the customer, the Company’s historical experience and its current expectations of the scope of the activities, and is reflected in the transaction price when sales are recorded.

The Company’s payment terms vary by the type and location of its customers and the products offered. The term between invoicing and when payment is due is not significant.

The Company's sales return accrual reflects seasonal fluctuations, including those related to revenues for the holiday season in the first half of the fiscal year. This accrual is a subjective critical estimate that has a direct impact on reported net revenues, and is calculated based on history of actual returns, estimated future returns and information provided by retailers regarding their inventory levels. In addition, as necessary, specific accruals may be established for significant future known or anticipated events. The types of known or anticipated events that the Company has considered, and will continue to consider, include the financial condition of the Company's customers, store closings by retailers, changes in the retail environment, and the Company's decision to continue to support new and existing brands. Returns represented 1%, 2% and 2% of gross revenue after customer discounts and allowances in fiscal 2024, 2023 and 2022, respectively. Trade spending activities recorded as a reduction to gross revenue after customer discounts and allowances represented 9%, 10%, and 10% in fiscal 2024, 2023 and 2022, respectively.

The Company accounts for certain customer store fixtures as other assets. Such fixtures are amortized using the straight-line method over the period of 3 to 5 years as a reduction of revenue.

Cost of Sales

Cost of sales includes all of the costs to manufacture the Company's products. For products manufactured in the Company's own facilities, such costs include raw materials and supplies, direct labor and factory overhead. For products manufactured for the Company by third-party contractors, such costs represent the amounts invoiced by the contractors. Cost of sales also includes royalty expense associated with license agreements. Additionally, shipping costs, freight-in and depreciation and amortization expenses related to manufacturing equipment and facilities are included in Cost of sales in the Consolidated Statements of Operations.

Selling, General and Administrative Expenses

Selling, General and Administrative Expenses

Selling, general and administrative expenses include advertising and promotional costs and research and development costs. Also included in Selling, general and administrative expenses are share-based compensation, certain warehousing fees, manufacturing fixed costs, personnel and related expenses, rent on operating leases, and professional fees.

Advertising and promotional costs are expensed as incurred and totaled $1,625.5, $1,479.6 and $1,465.1 in fiscal 2024, 2023 and 2022, respectively. Included in advertising and promotional costs are $113.6, $103.0, and $119.4 of depreciation of marketing furniture and fixtures, such as product displays, in fiscal 2024, 2023 and 2022, respectively. Research and development costs are expensed as incurred and totaled $126.8, $105.2 and $97.3 in fiscal 2024, 2023 and 2022, respectively.

Share-Based Compensation

Share-Based Compensation

Common Stock

Common shares are available to be awarded for the exercise of phantom units, vested stock options, the settlement of restricted stock units ("RSUs") and performance restricted stock units ("PRSUs"), and the conversion of Series A Preferred Stock.

The Company accounts for its share-based compensation plans for Common Stock as equity awards, aside from phantom units. For those awards treated as equity, share-based compensation expense is measured and fixed at the grant date based on the estimated fair value of the award and is recognized on a straight-line basis, net of estimated forfeitures, over the employee's requisite service period and, for PRSUs, when it is probable that the performance condition will be achieved.

For PRSUs, in a period we determine it is no longer probable that we will achieve certain performance measures for the awards, we reverse the stock-based compensation expense that we had previously recognized and associated with the portion of PRSUs that are no longer expected to vest. The amount of the expense ultimately recognized depends on the number of awards that actually vest. Accordingly, stock-based compensation expense may vary from period to period.

The Company accounts for its phantom units as a liability award. For those awards treated as a liability, share-based compensation expense are measured at the end of each reporting period based on the fair value of the award on each reporting date and recognized as an expense to the extent earned.

The fair value of stock options is determined using the Black-Scholes valuation model.

Equity and liability awards generally vest over a term of three or five years.

Treasury Stock

Treasury Stock

The Company accounts for treasury stock under the cost method. When shares are reissued or retired from treasury stock they are accounted for at an average price. When treasury stock is re-issued at a price higher than its cost, the difference is recorded as a component of Additional paid-in-capital in the Company's Consolidated Balance Sheets. When treasury stock is re-issued at a price lower than its cost, the difference is recorded as a reduction of Additional paid-in-capital to the extent that there are treasury stock gains to offset the losses. If there are no treasury stock gains in Additional paid-in-capital, the losses upon re-issuance of treasury stock are recorded as a reduction of Retained earnings in the Company's Consolidated Balance Sheets.

Income Taxes

Income Taxes

The Company is subject to income taxes in the U.S. and various foreign jurisdictions. The Company accounts for income taxes under the asset and liability method. Therefore, income tax expense is based on reported (Loss) income before income taxes, and deferred income taxes reflect the effect of temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities that are recognized for financial reporting purposes and the carrying amounts that are recognized for income tax purposes. A valuation allowance is established, when necessary, to reduce deferred tax assets to the amount that is more likely than not to be realized based on currently available evidence. The Company considers how to recognize, measure, present and disclose in financial statements uncertain tax positions taken or expected to be taken on a tax return.

The Company is subject to tax audits in various jurisdictions. The Company regularly assesses the likely outcomes of such audits in order to determine the appropriateness of liabilities for unrecognized tax benefits ("UTBs"). The Company classifies interest and penalties related to UTBs as a component of the provision for income taxes.

For UTBs, the Company first determines whether it is more-likely-than-not (defined as a likelihood of more than fifty percent) that a tax position will be sustained based on its technical merits as of the reporting date, assuming that taxing authorities will examine the position and have full knowledge of all relevant information. A tax position that meets this more-likely-than-not threshold is then measured and recognized at the largest amount of benefit that is greater than fifty percent likely to be realized upon effective settlement with a taxing authority. As the determination of liabilities related to UTBs and associated interest and penalties requires significant estimates to be made by the Company, there can be no assurance that the Company will accurately predict the outcomes of these audits, and thus the eventual outcomes could have a material impact on the Company's operating results or financial condition and cash flows.

As a result of the 2017 Tax Act changing the U.S. to a modified territorial tax system, the Company no longer asserts that any of its undistributed foreign earnings are permanently reinvested. The Company does not expect to incur significant withholding or state taxes on future distributions. To the extent there remains a basis difference between the financial reporting and tax basis of an investment in a foreign subsidiary after the repatriation of the previously taxed income, the Company is permanently reinvested. A determination of the unrecognized deferred taxes related to these components is not practicable.

The Tax Act requires a U.S. shareholder of a foreign corporation to include in income its global intangible low-taxed income ("GILTI"). In general, GILTI is described as the excess of a U.S. shareholder's total net foreign income over a deemed return on tangible assets. An entity may choose to recognize deferred taxes for temporary differences expected to reverse as GILTI in future years or an entity can elect to treat GILTI as a period cost and include it in the tax expense of the year it is incurred. As such, the Company has elected to treat the tax on GILTI as a tax expense in the year it is incurred rather than recognizing deferred taxes.

Restructuring Costs

Restructuring Costs

Charges incurred in connection with plans to restructure and integrate acquired businesses or in connection with cost-reduction initiatives that are initiated from time to time are included in Restructuring costs in the Consolidated Statements of Operations if such costs are directly associated with an exit or disposal activity, a reorganization, or with integrating an acquired business. These costs can include employee separations, contract and lease terminations, and other direct exit costs. Employee severance and other termination benefits are primarily determined based on established benefit arrangements, local statutory requirements or historical practices. The Company recognizes these benefits when payment is probable and estimable.

Other business realignment costs represent the incremental cost directly related to the restructuring activities which can include accelerated depreciation, professional or consulting fees and other internal costs including compensation related costs for dedicated internal resources. Other business realignment costs are generally recorded in Selling, general and administrative expenses in the Consolidated Statements of Operations.

Fair Value Measurements

Fair Value Measurements

The following fair value hierarchy is used in selecting inputs for those assets and liabilities measured at fair value that distinguishes between assumptions based on market data (observable inputs) and the Company's assumptions (unobservable inputs). The Company evaluates these inputs and recognizes transfers between levels, if any, at the end of each reporting period. The hierarchy consists of three levels:

Level 1 - Valuation based on quoted market prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities;

Level 2 - Valuation based on inputs other than Level 1 inputs that are observable for the assets or liabilities either directly or indirectly;

Level 3 - Valuation based on prices or valuation techniques that require inputs that are both significant to the fair value measurement and supported by little or no observable market activity.

Apart from Coty's equity investment in Wella (see Note 12—Equity Investments), the Company has not elected the fair value measurement option for any financial instruments or other assets not required to be measured at fair value on a recurring basis.

Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities

Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities

All derivatives are recognized as assets or liabilities and measured at fair value. The accounting for changes in the fair value of a derivative depends on the intended use of the derivative and the resulting designation. For derivative instruments designated as cash flow hedges under FASB ASC Topic 815, "Derivatives and Hedging" ("ASC 815"), the change in fair value of the derivative is initially recorded in Accumulated other comprehensive (loss) income in the Consolidated Balance Sheets and is subsequently recognized in earnings when the hedged exposure impacts earnings. For derivative instruments that are not designated as hedges, gains (losses) from changes in fair values are recognized in Net income (loss). The Company does not enter into derivatives for trading or speculative purposes.

Foreign Exchange Risk

The Company is exposed to foreign currency exchange fluctuations through its global operations. The Company reduces its exposure to fluctuations in foreign exchange rates by creating offsetting positions through the use of derivative instruments, including forward foreign exchange contracts and by designating foreign currency denominated borrowings and cross-currency swaps as hedges of net investments in foreign subsidiaries. The Company expects that through hedging, any gain or loss on the derivative instruments would generally offset the expected increase or decrease in the value of the underlying forecasted transactions.

In September 2019, the Company entered into cross-currency swap contracts in the notional amount of $550.0 and designated these cross-currency swaps as hedges of its net investment in certain foreign subsidiaries. In September 2020, the Company terminated these net investment cross currency swap derivatives in exchange for cash payment of $37.6. The related loss from this termination is included in AOCI(L) until the sale or substantial liquidation of the underlying investments.

As of June 30, 2024 and 2023, the notional amounts of the outstanding forward foreign exchange contracts designated as cash flow hedges were $22.3 and $28.0, respectively.

The Company also uses certain derivatives not designated as hedging instruments consisting primarily of foreign currency forward contracts and cross currency swaps to hedge intercompany transactions and foreign currency denominated external debt. Although these derivatives were not designated for hedge accounting, the overall objective of mitigating foreign currency exposure is the same for all derivative instruments. For derivatives not designated as hedging instruments, changes in fair value are recorded in the line item in the Consolidated Statements of Operations to which the derivative relates. As of June 30, 2024 and 2023, the notional amounts of these outstanding non-designated foreign currency forward and cross currency forward contracts were $1,797.6 and $1,653.5, respectively.

Interest Rate Risk

The Company is exposed to interest rate fluctuations related to its variable rate debt instruments. The Company reduces its exposure to fluctuations in the cash flows associated with changes in the variable interest rates by entering into offsetting positions through the use of derivative instruments, such as interest rate swap contracts. The interest rate swap contracts result in recognizing a fixed interest rate for the portion of the Company's variable rate debt that was hedged. This will reduce the negative impact of increases in the variable rates over the term of the contracts. Hedge effectiveness of interest rate swap contracts is based on a long-haul hypothetical derivative methodology and includes all changes in value.

Net Investment Hedge

Foreign currency gains and losses on borrowings designated as a net investment hedge, except ineffective portions, are reported in the cumulative translation adjustment ("CTA") component of AOCI(L), along with the foreign currency translation adjustments on those investments. As of June 30, 2024 and 2023, the nominal exposures of foreign currency denominated borrowings designated as net investment hedges were €1,611.6 million and €701.3 million, respectively. The designated hedge amounts were considered highly effective.

Forward Repurchase Contracts

In June 2022, December 2022, and November 2023, the Company entered into certain forward repurchase contracts to start hedging for potential $200.0, $196.0, and $294.0 share buyback programs, in 2024, 2025, and 2026, respectively. These forward repurchase contracts are accounted for at fair value, with changes in the fair value recorded in Other expense (income), net in the Consolidated Statements of Operations.

In February 2024, the Company elected to physically settle the June 2022 Forward for a cash payment of $200.0 in exchange for 27.0 million shares of its Class A Common Stock. Refer to Note 21—Equity and Convertible Preferred Stock.

Foreign Currency

Foreign Currency

Exchange gains or losses incurred on non-financing foreign exchange currency transactions conducted by one of the Company's operations in a currency other than the operation's functional currency are reflected in Cost of sales or operating expenses. Net (losses)/gains of $(18.1), $(32.3) and $3.3 in fiscal 2024, 2023 and 2022, respectively resulting from non-financing foreign exchange currency transactions are included in the Consolidated Statements of Operations.

Assets and liabilities of foreign operations are translated into U.S. dollars at the rates of exchange in effect at the end of the reporting period. Income and expense items are translated at the average exchange rates prevailing during each reporting period.

presented. Translation gains or losses are reported as cumulative adjustments in Accumulated other comprehensive income (loss) ("AOCI(L)").

Net (losses)/gains of $(16.5), $(12.2) and $10.0 in fiscal 2024, 2023 and 2022, respectively, resulting from financing foreign exchange currency transactions are included in Interest expense, net in the Consolidated Statements of Operations.

^(a) In connection with the P&G Beauty business acquisition in 2016, the Company assumed certain international pension and OPEB obligations and assets (the "P&G plans"). At that time, the P&G plans had an active legal dispute that has been resolved during fiscal 2023, resulting in $16.2 of additional assets being paid to the Coty plans. The projected benefit obligation has also increased $16.2 to reflect the liability to distribute these funds to the employees who were originally in the P&G plans. We expect that most of these assets will be paid out over the next few fiscal years.

^(a) As of June 30, 2024, 2023, and 2022, outstanding stock options and Series A Preferred Stock with purchase or conversion rights to purchase 2.8 million, 4.8 million, and 8.3 million weighted average anti-dilutive shares of Common Stock, respectively, were excluded from the computation of diluted EPS.

^(b) As of June 30, 2024, 2023, and 2022, there were 1.0 million, 3.2 million, and 1.6 million weighted average anti-dilutive RSUs, respectively, were excluded from the computation of diluted EPS.

^(c) As of June 30, 2024 and 2022, there were 23.7 million and 65.4 million dilutive shares of Convertible Series B Preferred Stock, respectively, were excluded from the computation of diluted EPS as their inclusion would be anti-dilutive.

^(d) For the twelve months ended June 30, 2024, potential shares for the Forward Repurchase Contracts were excluded from the computation of diluted EPS as their inclusion would be anti-dilutive. For the twelve months ended June 30, 2023, potential shares for the Forward Repurchase Contracts were excluded from the computation of diluted EPS as Coty is in the position to receive shares from the counterparties and as such their inclusion would be anti-dilutive.

^(e) Diluted EPS is adjusted by the effect of dilutive securities, including awards under the Company's equity compensation plans, the convertible Series B Preferred Stock, and the Forward Repurchase Contracts. When calculating any potential dilutive effect of stock options, Series A Preferred Stock, restricted stock, PRSUs and RSUs, the Company uses the treasury method and the if-converted method for the Convertible Series B Preferred Stock and the Forward Repurchase Contracts. The treasury method typically does not adjust the net income attributable to Coty Inc., while the if-converted method requires an adjustment to reverse the impact of the preferred stock dividends of $13.2, $13.2, and $198.3, respectively, and to reverse the impact of fair market value losses/(gains) for contracts with the option to settle in shares or cash of $73.4, $(101.8), and $0, respectively, if dilutive, for the twelve months ended June 30, 2024, 2023, and 2022 on net income applicable to common stockholders during the period.
