(the "Bank"). The Company's primary operations are conducted by the Bank, which operates branches in Rockville and Columbia, Maryland; Reston, Virginia; the District of Columbia; and Fort Lauderdale, Florida. The Bank is principally engaged in the business of investing in commercial, real estate, and credit card loans and attracting deposits. The Company originates residential mortgage loans for sale in the secondary market through Capital Bank Home Loans (the "CBHL"), the Bank's residential mortgage banking arm, and issues credit cards through OpenSky, a digitally-driven nationwide credit card platform providing secured, partially secured, and unsecured credit solutions. The Company formed Church Street Capital, LLC (the "Church Street Capital") in 2014 to provide short-term secured real estate financing to Washington, D.C. area investors and developers that may not meet all Bank credit criteria. At September 30, 2024, Church Street Capital had loans totaling $6.2 million with a collectively assessed allowance for credit losses (the "ACL") of $184 thousand. Refer to Note 5 - Portfolio Loans Receivable and Allowance for Credit Losses to the Notes to Unaudited Consolidated Financial Statements for further discussion of the consolidated ACL. In addition, the Company owns all of the stock of Capital Bancorp (MD) Statutory Trust I (the "Trust"). The Trust is a special purpose non-consolidated entity organized for the sole purpose of issuing trust preferred securities. Basis of presentation: The accompanying unaudited interim consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (the "GAAP") for interim financial information and with rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") and include the activity of the Company and its wholly-owned subsidiaries, the Bank and Church Street Capital. The statements do not include all of the information and footnotes required by GAAP for complete financial statements. All adjustments have been made which, in the opinion of management, are necessary for a fair presentation of the results for the interim periods presented. Such adjustments are all of a normal and recurring nature. All significant inter-company accounts and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation. The results of operations for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2024 are not necessarily indicative of the results that may be expected for the full year. These unaudited interim consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the Company's audited financial statements and the notes thereto as of December 31, 2023, included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2023. The Company reports its activities as four business segments: commercial banking; mortgage lending; credit cards; and corporate activities. In determining the appropriateness of segment definition, the Company considers components of the business about which financial information is available and regularly evaluates relative to resource allocation and performance assessment. Significant accounting policies: The preparation of consolidated financial statements in accordance with GAAP requires estimates and judgments that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses and related disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities. The primary reference point for the estimates is on historical experience and assumptions believed to be reasonable regarding the value of certain assets and liabilities that are not readily available from other sources. Estimates are evaluated on an ongoing basis. Capital Bancorp, Inc. and SubsidiariesNotes to Unaudited Consolidated Financial StatementsNote 1 - Nature of Business and Basis of Presentation (continued) basis. Actual results may materially differ from these estimates under different assumptions or conditions. The Company's significant accounting policies are described in the Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements included in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2023. There have been no changes to our significant accounting policies during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2024. Recently issued accounting pronouncements: In December 2023, the FASB issued Accounting Standards Update (ASU) 2023-07, Segment Reporting (Topic 280), Improvements to Reportable Segment Disclosures (the "ASU 2023-07"). ASU 2023-07 requires public entities to disclose significant segment expenses, an amount and description for other segment items, the title and position of the entity's chief operating decision maker (the "CODM") and an explanation of how the CODM uses the reported measures of profit or loss to assess segment performance, and, on an interim basis, certain segment related disclosures that previously were required only on an annual basis. ASU 2023-07 also clarifies that entities with a single reportable segment are subject to both new and existing segment reporting requirements and that an entity is permitted to disclose multiple measures of segment profit or loss, provided that certain criteria are met. ASU 2023-07 is effective for the Company for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2023 and interim periods within fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2024, with early adoption permitted. The Company will update its segment related disclosures upon adoption. In December 2023, the FASB issued Accounting Standards Update 2023-09, Income Taxes (Topic 740), Improvements to Income Tax Disclosures (the "ASU 2023-09"). ASU 2023-09 requires public entities to disclose in their rate reconciliation table additional categories of information about federal, state and foreign income taxes and to provide more details about the reconciling items in some categories if items meet a quantitative threshold. ASU 2023-09 also requires all entities to disclose income taxes paid, net of refunds, disaggregated by federal, state and foreign taxes for annual periods and to disaggregate the information by jurisdiction based on quantitative thresholds, among other things. ASU 2023-09 is effective for the Company for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2024 with early adoption permitted. The Company will update its income tax disclosures upon adoption. Other accounting standards that have been issued or proposed by the FASB or other standards-setting bodies are not expected to have a material impact on the Company's financial position, results of operations or cash flows. Reclassifications: Certain reclassifications have been made to amounts reported in prior periods to conform to the current period presentation. The reclassifications had no material effect on net income or total stockholders' equity. Subsequent events: Subsequent events are events or transactions that occur after the balance sheet date but before financial statements are issued. Recognized subsequent events are events or transactions that provide additional evidence about conditions that existed at the date of the balance sheet, including the estimates inherent in the process of preparing financial statements. Non-recognized subsequent events are events that provide evidence about conditions that did not exist at the date of the balance sheet but arose after that date. For further information on a subsequent event related to the Company's quarterly dividend, refer to Note 10. Capital Bancorp, Inc. and SubsidiariesNotes to Unaudited Consolidated Financial StatementsNote 2 - Acquisition Acquisition of Integrated Financial Holdings, Inc. On October 1, 2024, the Company completed its previously announced merger (the "Merger") with Integrated Financial Holdings, Inc., a North Carolina corporation (the "IFHI") pursuant to an Agreement and Plan of Merger and Reorganization (the "Merger Agreement"), dated as of March 27, 2024. At the effective time of the Merger (the "Effective Time"), IFHI merged with and into the Company, with the Company continuing as the surviving corporation in the Merger. Immediately following the Merger, West Town Bank & Trust, merged with and into Capital Bank, with Capital Bank as the surviving bank. In accordance with the terms of the Merger Agreement, each share of IFHI's common stock, par value $1.00 per share was converted into the right to receive (i) 1.115 shares of the Company's common stock, par value $0.01 per share, and (ii) subject to certain adjustments, $5.36 in cash per share of IFHI common stock, par value $1.00 per share, held immediately prior to the Effective Time, as well as cash in lieu of fractional shares of the Company's common stock. In addition, each stock option granted by IFHI to purchase shares of IFHI common stock, whether vested or unvested, outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time, was assumed by the Company and converted into an equivalent option to purchase the Company's common stock, with the same terms and conditions as applied to the IFHI stock option. During the three and nine months ended September 30, 2024, the Company incurred merger-related expenses related to the acquisition of IFHI totaling $0.5A million and $1.3A million, respectively. Note 3 - Cash and Cash Equivalents Cash and cash equivalents include cash and amounts due from banks, interest-bearing deposits and federal funds sold. The Bank is required by regulations to maintain an average cash reserve balance based on a percentage of deposits; however, on March 15, 2020, the Federal Reserve announced that, due to economic conditions, reserve requirement ratios for all depository institutions would be reduced to zero percent effective March 26, 2020. The reserve requirement is still at zero percent as of September 30, 2024. Note 4 - Investment Securities The following table summarizes the amortized cost, fair value and allowance for credit losses of securities available-for-sale at September 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, respectively, and the corresponding amounts of gross unrealized gains and losses recognized in accumulated other comprehensive income (loss): 11Capital Bancorp, Inc. and SubsidiariesNotes to Unaudited Consolidated Financial StatementsNote 4 - Investment Securities (continued) (in thousands) Amortized Cost Gross Unrealized Gains Gross Unrealized Losses Allowance for Credit Losses Fair Value September 30, 2024 U.S. Treasuries $135,903A $130A $(8,229) $6A $127,804A Municipal 11,699A 15A (1,947) $6A $9,767A Corporate 5,000A $6A (320) $6A 4,680A Asset-backed securities 5,652A 20A (15) $6A 5,657A Mortgage-backed securities 61,772A 402A (1,382) $6A 60,792A Total $220,026A $567A $(11,893) $6A $208,700A December 31, 2023 U.S. Treasuries $161,420A $13A $(12,192) $6A $149,228A Municipal 11,699A 4A (2,331) $6A 9,372A Corporate 5,000A $6A (587) $6A 4,413A Asset-backed securities 7,069A 13A (37) $6A 7,045A Mortgage-backed securities 40,491A 1A (2,220) $6A 38,271A Total $225,679A $17A $(17,367) $6A $208,329A There were no securities sold during the nine months ended September 30, 2024 or the nine months ended September 30, 2023. contracts are recorded at fair value with changes in fair value recorded in mortgage banking revenue. Interest rate lock commitments and commitments to deliver loans to investors are considered to be derivatives. The market value of interest rate lock commitments and best efforts contracts are not readily ascertainable with precision because they are not actively traded in stand-alone markets. The Company determines the fair value of rate lock commitments by estimating the fair value of the underlying asset, which is impacted by current interest rates and takes into consideration the probability that the rate lock commitments will close or will be funded. The following table presents the commitment and fair value amounts on the outstanding derivatives: (in thousands) September 30, 2024 December 31, 2023 Notional amount of open forward sales agreements $15,000A $A€A Fair value of open forward delivery sales agreements $8A €A Notional amount of interest rate lock commitments 11,065A $A Fair value of interest rate lock commitments (8)A€A Note 7 - Leases The Company's primary leasing activities relate to certain real estate leases entered into in support of the Company's branch operations and back office operations. The Company leases five of its full service branches and four other locations for corporate/administration activities, operations, and loan production. All property leases under lease agreements have been designated as operating leases. The Company does not have leases designated as finance leases. The Company determines if an arrangement is a lease at inception. Operating lease Right of Use (A€œROU) assets are included in premises and equipment, and operating lease liabilities are included as other liabilities in the consolidated balance sheets. ROU assets represent the right to use an underlying asset for the lease term and lease liabilities represent the obligation to make lease payments arising from the lease. Operating lease ROU assets and liabilities are recognized at commencement date based on the present value of lease payments over the lease term. As the Company's leases do not provide an implicit rate, the Company uses its incremental borrowing rate based on the information available at 23 Capital Bancorp, Inc. and Subsidiaries Notes to Unaudited Consolidated Financial Statements Note 7 - Leases (continued) commencement date in determining the present value of lease payments. The historical weighted average discount rate was 4.27% at September 30, 2024 and 3.79% at December 31, 2023. The operating lease ROU asset also includes any lease pre-payments. The Company's lease terms may include options to extend or terminate the lease when it is reasonably certain that the Company will exercise that option. Lease expense for lease payments is recognized on a straight-line basis over the lease term. The Company has lease agreements with lease and non-lease components, which the Company has elected to account for separately as the non-lease component amounts are readily determinable under most leases. As of September 30, 2024, the Company's net lease ROU assets and related lease liabilities were $3.8 millionA and $4.4 million, respectively, compared to December 31, 2023 balances of $3.6 million of ROU assets and $3.8 million of lease liabilities, and have remaining terms ranging from one to nine years, including extension options that the Company is reasonably certain will be exercised. As of September 30, 2024, the Company had not entered into any material leases that have not yet commenced. The Company's lease information is summarized as follows: (in thousands) September 30, 2024 December 31, 2023 Lease Right of Use Asset: Lease asset $6,069A $6,810A Less: Accumulated amortization (2,226) (3,223) Net lease asset $3,843A $3,587A Lease Liability: Lease liability $6,404A 6,892A Less: Accumulated amortization (2,053) (3,101) Net lease liability $4,351A $3,791A Future minimum payments for operating leases with initial or remaining terms of one year or more are as follows: (in thousands) September 30, 2024 Amounts due in: 2024 $248A 2025 $1,112A 2026 $1,081A 2027 $576A 2028 $450A 2029 and thereafter $1,629A Total future lease payments $5,096A Discount of cash flows (745) Present value of net future lease payments $4,351A 24 Capital Bancorp, Inc. and Subsidiaries Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements Note 8 - Fair Value Fair value is the exchange price that would be received for an asset or paid to transfer a liability (exit price) in the principal or most advantageous market for the asset or liability in an orderly transaction between market participants on the measurement date. There are three levels of inputs that may be used to measure fair values: Level 1 - Quoted prices (unadjusted) for identical assets or liabilities in active markets that the entity has the ability to access as of the measurement date. This includes certain U.S. Treasury and other U.S. Government and government agency securities actively traded in over-the-counter markets. Level 2 - Significant other observable inputs other than Level 1 prices such as quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities; quoted prices in markets that are not active; or other inputs that are observable or can be corroborated by observable market data. Level 3 - Significant unobservable inputs that reflect a company's own assumptions about the assumptions that market participants would use in pricing an asset or liability. The Company used the following methods and significant assumptions to estimate fair value on a recurring basis: Investment securities available-for-sale - The fair values for investment securities available-for-sale are provided by an independent pricing service and are determined by quoted market prices, if available (Level 1). For securities where quoted prices are not available, fair values are calculated based on market prices of similar securities (Level 2), using matrix pricing. Matrix pricing, which is a mathematical technique commonly used to price debt securities that are not actively traded, values debt securities without relying exclusively on quoted prices for the specific securities but rather by relying on the securities' relationship to other benchmark quoted securities (Level 2 inputs). For securities where quoted prices or market prices of similar securities are not available, fair values are calculated using discounted cash flows or other market indicators (Level 3). Loans held for sale - The fair value of loans held for sale is determined using quoted prices for similar assets, adjusted for specific attributes of that loan (Level 2). Derivative financial instruments - The fair values of derivatives are based on valuation models using observable market data as of the measurement date (Level 2). Our derivatives are traded in an over-the-counter market where quoted market prices are not always available. Therefore, the fair values of derivatives are determined using quantitative models that utilize multiple market inputs. The inputs will vary based on the type of derivative, but could include interest rates, prices and indices to generate continuous yield or pricing curves, prepayment rates, and volatility factors to value the position. The majority of market inputs are actively quoted and can be validated through external sources, including brokers, market transactions and third-party pricing services. 25 Capital Bancorp, Inc. and Subsidiaries Notes to Unaudited Consolidated Financial Statements Note 8 - Fair Value (continued) The Company has categorized its financial instruments measured at fair value on a recurring basis as of September 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023 as follows: (in thousands) September 30, 2024 Total Quoted Prices in Active Markets for Identical Assets (Level 1) Significant Other Observable Inputs (Level 2) Significant Unobservable Inputs (Level 3) Investment securities available-for-sale U.S. Treasuries $127,804A $127,804A $A€A Municipal $9,767A $A€A Corporate $4,680A $A€A Asset-backed securities $5,674A $A€A Mortgage-backed securities $60,792A $A€A Total $208,706A $127,804A $80,896A $A€A Loans held for sale $19,554A $A€A Derivative assets $8A $A€A Derivative liabilities $8A $A€A December 31, 2023 Investment securities available-for-sale U.S. Treasuries $149,228A $149,228A $A€A Municipal $37,224A $A€A Corporate $4,131A $A€A Asset-backed securities $7,045A $A€A Mortgage-backed securities $38,271A $A€A Total $208,706A $149,228A $59,101A $A€A Loans held for sale $7,481A $A€A Derivative assets $A€A Derivative liabilities $A€A Financial instruments recorded using FASB ASC 825-10 Under FASB ASC 825-10, the Company may elect to report most financial instruments and certain other items at fair value on an instrument-by-instrument basis with changes in fair value reported in net income. After the initial adoption, the election is made at the acquisition of an eligible financial asset, liability or firm commitment or when certain specified reconsideration events occur. The fair value election, with respect to an item, may not be revoked once an election is made. The following table reflects the difference between the fair value carrying amount of loans held for sale, measured at fair value under FASB ASC 825-10, and the aggregate unpaid principal amount the Company is contractually entitled to receive at maturity: Fair Value of Loans Held for Sale (in thousands) September 30, 2024 December 31, 2023 Aggregate fair value $19,554A $7,481A Contractual principal $15,218A $15,684 Difference $4,336A $2,313A 26 Capital Bancorp, Inc. and Subsidiaries Notes to Unaudited Consolidated Financial Statements Note 8 - Fair Value (continued) The Company has elected to account for loans held for sale at fair value to eliminate the mismatch that would occur by recording changes in market value on derivative instruments used to hedge loans held for sale while carrying the loans at the lower of cost or market. As of September 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, there were no held for sale loans which were classified as nonaccrual. Fair value measurements on a nonrecurring basis individually evaluated loans - The Company has measured expected credit losses based on the fair value of the loan's collateral and discounted cash flow analysis, where appropriate. Fair value of the collateral is generally determined based upon independent third-party appraisals of the properties, or discounted cash flows based upon the expected proceeds. These assets are included as Level 3 fair values. As of September 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, the fair values consist of loan balances of $15.5A million and $16.0A million, with specific reserves of $1.0A million and $422A thousand, respectively. Foreclosed real estate - The Company's foreclosed real estate is measured at fair value less cost to sell. Fair value is determined based on offers and/or appraisals. Cost to sell the real estate is based on standard market factors. The Company categorizes its foreclosed real estate as Level 3. As of September 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, there was no foreclosed real estate held by the Company. The Company has categorized its financial instruments measured at fair value on a nonrecurring basis as of September 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023 as follows: (in thousands) September 30, 2024 December 31, 2023 Individually evaluated loans for credit loss, net Level 3 inputs $14,456A $15,620A Total $14,456A $15,620A The following table provides information describing the unobservable inputs used in Level 3 fair value measurements at September 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023: Unobservable Inputs Valuation Technique Unobservable Inputs Range of Inputs Individually evaluated loans Appraised Value/Discounted Cash Flows Discounts to appraisals or cash flows for estimated holding and/or selling costs 0 to 25% Fair value of financial instruments Fair value information about financial instruments, whether or not recognized in the balance sheet, for which it is practical to estimate the value is based upon the characteristics of the instruments and relevant market information. Financial instruments include cash, evidence of ownership in an entity, or contracts that convey or impose on an entity the contractual right or obligation to either receive or deliver cash for another financial instrument. The information used to determine fair value is highly subjective in nature and, therefore, the results are imprecise. Subjective factors include, among other things, estimates of cash flows, risk characteristics, credit quality, and interest rates, all of which are subject to change. Since the fair value is estimated as of the balance sheet date, the amounts that will actually be realized or paid upon settlement or maturity on these various instruments could be significantly different. 27 Capital Bancorp, Inc. and Subsidiaries Notes to Unaudited Consolidated Financial Statements Note 8 - Fair Value (continued) As of September 30, 2024, the techniques used by the Company to estimate the exit price of the loan portfolio consists of similar procedures to those used as of December 31, 2023. The fair value of the Company's loan portfolio includes a credit risk assumption in the determination of the fair value of its loans. This credit risk assumption is intended to approximate the fair value that a market participant would realize in a hypothetical orderly transaction. The Company's loan portfolio is initially fair valued using a segmented approach. The Company divides its loan portfolio into the following categories: variable rate loans, individually analyzed loans, and all other loans. The results are then adjusted to account for credit risk as described above, and a further credit risk discount is applied through the use of a discounted cash flow model to compensate for illiquidity risk, based on certain assumptions included within the discounted cash flow model, primarily the use of discount rates that better capture inherent credit risk over the lifetime of a loan. For variable-rate loans that reprice frequently and have no significant change in credit risk, fair values approximate carrying values. Fair values for impaired loans are estimated using discounted cash flow models or based on the fair value of the underlying collateral. The fair value of cash and cash equivalents and investments in restricted stocks is the carrying amount. Restricted investments includes equity of the Federal Reserve and other bank's banks. The fair value of noninterest-bearing deposits and securities sold under agreements to repurchase is the carrying amount. The fair value of checking, savings, and money market deposits is the amount payable on demand at the reporting date. Fair value of fixed maturity term accounts and individual retirement accounts is estimated using rates currently offered for accounts of similar remaining maturities. The fair value of certificates of deposit in other financial institutions is estimated based on interest rates currently offered for deposits of similar remaining maturities. The fair value of borrowings is estimated by discounting the value of contractual cash flows using current market rates for borrowings with similar terms and remaining maturities. The fair value of outstanding loan commitments, unused lines of credit, and letters of credit are not included in the table since the carrying value generally approximates fair value. These instruments generate fees that approximate those currently charged to originate similar commitments. The table below presents the carrying amount, fair value, and placement in the fair value hierarchy of the Company's financial instruments. 28 Capital Bancorp, Inc. and Subsidiaries Notes to Unaudited Consolidated Financial Statements Note 8 - Fair Value (continued) September 30, 2024 December 31, 2023 (in thousands) Carrying Amount Fair Value Carrying Amount Fair Value Financial assets Level 1 Cash and due from banks $23,462A $23,462A $14,513A $14,513A Interest-bearing deposits at other financial institutions $13,180A $13,180A $39,044A $39,044A Federal funds sold $58A $58A 407A Level 3 Portfolio loans receivable, net $2,075,597A $2,056,729A $1,874,678A $1,855,158A Restricted investments $5,895A $5,895A 4,353A Financial liabilities Level 1 Noninterest-bearing deposits $718,120A $717,951A $617,373A $617,373A Level 3 Interest-bearing deposits $1,468,104A $1,478,623A $1,280,682A FHLB advances and other borrowed funds $64,062A $62,302A 49,062A 46,934A Note 9 - Segments The Company's reportable segments represent business units with discrete financial information whose results are regularly reviewed by management. The four segments include Commercial Banking, Capital Bank Home Loans (the Company's mortgage loan division), OpenSky, (the Company's credit card division) and the Corporate Office. Effective January 1, 2024, the Company allocated certain expenses previously recorded directly to the Commercial Bank segment to the other segments. These expenses are for shared services also consumed by OpenSky, CBHL and Corporate. The Company performs an allocation process based on several metrics the Company believes more accurately ascribe shared service overhead to each segment. The Company believes this reflects the cost of support for each segment that should be considered in assessing segment performance. Historical information has been recast to reflect financial information consistently with the 2024 presentation. 29 Capital Bancorp, Inc. and Subsidiaries Notes to Unaudited Consolidated Financial Statements Note 9 - Segments (continued) The following schedule presents financial information for each reportable segment at September 30, 2024 and September

We have no duty to, and do not intend to, and disclaim any obligation to, update or revise any industry information or forward-looking statements after the date on which they are made.Critical Accounting Policies34The accounting and reporting policies of the Company are in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (“GAAP”) and conform to general practices within the banking industry. The Company’s financial position and results of operations are affected by management’s application of accounting policies, including estimates, assumptions and judgments made to arrive at the carrying value of assets and liabilities and amounts reported for revenues, expenses and related disclosures. Different assumptions in the application of these policies could result in material changes in the Company’s consolidated financial position and/or results of operations. The Company evaluates its critical accounting estimates and assumptions on an ongoing basis and updates them, as deemed necessary. Management has discussed the Company’s critical accounting policies and estimates with the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors of the Company.The Company’s accounting policies are fundamental to understanding the Company’s consolidated financial position and consolidated results of operations. Accordingly, the Company’s significant accounting policies are discussed in detail in Note 1 “Nature of Business and Basis of Presentation” in the “Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements” contained in Item 8 “Financial Statements and Supplementary Data” of the Company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2023.OverviewWe are Capital Bancorp, Inc., a bank holding company and a Maryland corporation incorporated in 1998, operating primarily through our wholly-owned subsidiary, Capital Bank, N.A., a commercial-focused community bank based in the Washington D.C. and Baltimore metropolitan areas. The Bank is headquartered in Rockville, Maryland, received its charter in 1999 and began operations the same year. We serve businesses, not-for-profit associations, entrepreneurs and others throughout the Washington, D.C. and Baltimore, Maryland metropolitan areas and Fort Lauderdale, Florida through five commercial bank branches, one mortgage office, and two loan production offices.The Company currently operates three divisions: Commercial Banking, Capital Bank Home Loans, and OpenSky, credit card division. The Company reports its activities in four business segments: commercial banking; mortgage lending; credit cards; and corporate activities. In determining the appropriateness of segment definition, the Company considers components of the business about which financial information is available and regularly evaluated relative to resource allocation and performance assessment. The accompanying consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with GAAP, and conform to general practices within the banking industry.Our Commercial Banking division accounts for the majority of the Bank’s total assets. Our commercial bankers endeavor to provide quality service, customized solutions and tailored advice to commercial clients in our operating markets, primarily in the Washington, D.C. and Baltimore metropolitan areas.Our Capital Bank Home Loans (“CBHL”) division originates conventional and government-guaranteed residential mortgage loans on a nationwide basis primarily for sale into the secondary market and, in certain circumstances, for the Bank’s loan portfolio.Our OpenSky, credit card division provides secured, partially secured and unsecured credit cards on a nationwide basis to under-banked populations and those looking to rebuild their credit scores. OpenSky, credit cards operate on a digital and mobile enabled platform with almost all marketing and application procedures being conducted through website and mobile applications. For the secured credit card, a deposit equal to the full credit limit of the card is made, upon account opening, into a noninterest-bearing demand account with the Bank and the deposit is required to be maintained throughout the life of the card. Using our proprietary scoring model, which considers credit score and repayment history (typically a minimum of six months of on-time repayments, but ultimately determined on a case-by-case basis), OpenSky, credit cards also offers certain existing customers an unsecured line supplementary to their secured line of credit.35CapitalAs of September 30, 2024, the Bank was in compliance with all applicable regulatory capital requirements to which it was subject, and the Bank was classified as “well capitalized” for purposes of the prompt corrective action regulations. There are no conditions or events since that notification that management believes would change the Bank’s classification. We closely monitor our capital position and intend to take appropriate steps to ensure that our level of capital remains strong.Acquisition of Integrated Financial Holdings, Inc.On October 1, 2024, the Company completed its previously announced merger (the “Merger”) with IFHI pursuant to an Agreement and Plan of Merger and Reorganization (the “Merger Agreement”), dated as of March 27, 2024. At the effective time of the Merger (the “Effective Time”), IFHI merged with and into the Company, with the Company continuing as the surviving corporation in the Merger. Immediately following the Merger, West Town Bank & Trust, merged with and into Capital Bank, with Capital Bank as the surviving bank. In accordance with the terms of the Merger Agreement, each share of IFHI’s common stock, par value $1.00 per share was converted into the right to receive (i) 1.115 shares of the Company’s common stock, par value $0.01 per share, and (ii) subject to certain adjustments, $5.36 in cash per share of IFHI common stock, par value $1.00 per share, held immediately prior to the Effective Time, as well as cash in lieu of fractional shares of the Company’s common stock. In addition, each stock option granted by IFHI to purchase shares of IFHI common stock, whether vested or unvested, outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time, was assumed by the Company and converted into an equivalent option to purchase the Company’s common stock, with the same terms and conditions as applied to the IFHI stock option.As of the closing, IFHI had more than $541 million in assets, $424 million in gross loans and $450 million in total deposits and operated one banking office located in North Riverside, Illinois.Results of Operations Non-GAAP Financial MeasuresThis document contains non-GAAP financial measures denoted throughout our MD&A by reference to “non-GAAP.” We believe these non-GAAP financial measures provide useful information to investors because they are used by management to evaluate our operating performance and make day-to-day operating decisions. In addition, we believe our non-GAAP results in any given reporting period reflect our on-going financial performance in that period and, accordingly, are useful to consider in addition to our GAAP financial results. We further believe the presentation of non-GAAP results increases comparability of period-to-period results.Other companies may use similarly titled non-GAAP financial measures that may be calculated differently from the way we calculate such measures. Accordingly, our non-GAAP financial measures may not be comparable to similar measures used by such companies. We caution investors not to place undue reliance on such non-GAAP financial measures, but to consider them with the most directly comparable GAAP measures. Non-GAAP financial measures have limitations as analytical tools and should not be considered in isolation or as a substitute for our results reported under GAAP.For more information on the computation of non-GAAP financial measures, see “Non-GAAP Financial Measures and Reconciliations.”36Net IncomeThe following table sets forth the principal components of net income for the periods indicated.Three Months Ended September 30, 20242023% Change(in thousands)Interest income$52,610A $47,741A 10.2A %Interest expense14,256A 10,931A 30.4A %Net interest income38,354A 36,810A 4.2A %Provision for credit losses3,748A 2,280A 64.4A %Provision for credit losses on unfunded commitments17A 24A (29.2)%Net interest income after provision34,589A 34,506A 0.2A %Noninterest income6,354A 6,326A 4.9A %Noninterest expenses29,725A 28,046A 6.0A %Net income before income taxes11,499A 12,786A (10.1)%Income tax expense2,827A 2,998A (5.7)%Net income$8,672A $9,788A (11.4)%Net income for the three months ended September 30, 2024 was $8.7 million, compared to net income of $9.8 million for the same period in 2023, an 11.4% decrease. Net income, as adjusted to exclude the impact of merger-related expenses (non-GAAP, excluding merger-related expenses), was $9.2 million for the three months ended September 30, 2024. Net interest income increased by $1.5A million, or 4.2%, to $38.4 million when comparing the three months ended September 30, 2024 to the three months ended September 30, 2023, primarily due to increased average balances of $205.8 million in portfolio loans partially offset by increases in the cost of funding. For more information on the computation of non-GAAP financial measures, see “Non-GAAP Financial Measures and Reconciliations.” The provision for credit losses for the three months ended September 30, 2024 was $3.7 million, an increase of $1.5 million from the same period in 2023. Net charge-offs for the three months ended September 30, 2024 were $2.7 million, or 0.51% on an annualized basis of average portfolio loans, compared to $1.8A million, or 0.38% on an annualized basis of average loans for the same period in 2023. Mortgage banking revenue of $5.3Â million increased $1.6 million due to an increase in home loan sales while credit card fees of $12.3Â million declined $1.0Â million from lower interchange and other fee income recognized compared to the prior year.Noninterest expense was $88.7Â million for the nine months ended September 30, 2024, as compared to $83.9Â million for the nine months ended September 30, 2023, an increase of $4.8Â million, or 5.8%. The change includes increases in salaries and employee benefits expenses of $2.4Â million, or 6.5%, merger-related expenses of $1.3Â million, occupancy and equipment expenses of $1.2Â million, data processing expense of $0.9Â million, advertising expenses of $0.6Â million and other operating expenses of $0.5Â million partially offset by a decrease in professional fees of $1.6Â million and other operating losses of $0.4 million.Net Interest Income and Net Margin AnalysisNet interest income is the difference between interest income on earning assets and the cost of funds supporting those assets. Interest earning assets are composed primarily of loans, loans held for sale, investment securities, and interest-bearing deposits with banks. The cost of funds represents interest expense on deposits and borrowings, which consist of federal funds purchased, advances from the Federal Home Loan Bank (â€œFHLBâ€) and subordinated notes. Noninterest-bearing deposits and capital also provide sources of funding.38We analyze our ability to maximize income generated from interest earning assets and control the interest expenses associated with our liabilities, measured as net interest income, through our net interest margin and net interest spread. Net interest margin is a ratio calculated as net interest income annualized divided by average interest earning assets for the same period. Net interest spread is the difference between average interest rates earned on interest earning assets and average interest rates paid on interest-bearing liabilities.Changes in market interest rates and the interest rates we earn on interest earning assets or pay on interest-bearing liabilities, as well as in the volume and mix of interest earning assets, interest-bearing and noninterest-bearing liabilities and stockholdersâ€™ equity, are usually the largest drivers of periodic changes in net interest income, net interest margin and net interest spread. Fluctuations in market interest rates are driven by many factors, including governmental monetary policies, inflation, deflation, macroeconomic developments, changes in unemployment, the money supply, political and international conditions and conditions in domestic and foreign financial markets. Periodic changes in the volume and types of loans in our loan portfolio are affected by, among other factors, economic and competitive conditions in the Washington, D.C. and Baltimore metropolitan areas, as well as developments affecting the real estate, technology, government services, hospitality and tourism and financial services sectors within our target markets and throughout the Washington, D.C. and Baltimore metropolitan areas. Our ability to respond to changes in these factors by using effective asset-liability management techniques is critical to maintaining the stability of net interest income and net interest margin.The table below presents the average balances and weighted average rates of the major categories of the Companyâ€™s assets, liabilities, and stockholdersâ€™ equity for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2024 and 2023. Weighted average yields are derived by dividing annualized income by the average balance of the related assets, and weighted average rates are derived by dividing annualized expense by the average balance of the related liabilities, for the periods shown. Average outstanding balances are derived by utilizing average daily balances for the time period shown. The weighted average yields and rates include amortization of fees, costs, premiums and discounts, which are considered adjustments to yield/rates. Weighted average yields on tax-exempt securities are not calculated on a fully taxable equivalent basis.39AVERAGE BALANCE SHEET AND NET INTEREST ANALYSISThree Months Ended September 30,20242023Average Outstanding BalanceInterest Income/ ExpenseAverage Yield/ Rate(1)Average Outstanding BalanceInterest Income/ ExpenseAverage Yield/ Rate(1)($ in thousands)AssetsInterest earning assets:Interest-bearing deposits$91,089Â 1,137.4 4.97Â %$87,112Â 1,183.5 5.39Â %Federal funds sold57.1 1.6 9.8Â 1,134.1 15.5 2.5Â Investment securities available-for-sale221,303.1 1,343.4 2.41 229,731.1 1,089.1 1.88.1 Restricted investments4,911.1 82.6 6.64 4,058.1 69.6 7.5.1 Loans held for sale9,967.1 161.6 6.43 6,670.1 111.6 6.60.1 Portfolio loans receivable(2)(3)(2)053,619.1 49,886.1 9.66.1 1,847,772.1 45,274.1 9.72.1 Total interest earning assets2,380,946.1 52,610.1 8.79.1 2,176,477.1 47,741.1 8.70.1 Noninterest earning assets56,924.1 44,640.1 Total assets$2,437,870.1 $2,221,117.1 Liabilities and Stockholdersâ€™ EquityInterest-bearing liabilities:Interest-bearing demand accounts$228,365.1 $321.0 5.64.1 $215,527.1 $71.0 1.33.1 Savings4,135.1 5.0 4.84.1 5,582.1 3.0 0.21.1 Money market accounts698,239.1 7,442.1 4.24.1 655,990.1 6,373.1 3.85.1 Time deposits479,824.1 6,134.1 5.09.1 374,429.1 4,256.1 4.51.1 Borrowed funds43,655.1 354.1 3.23.1 34,932.1 228.1 2.59.1 Total interest-bearing liabilities1,454,218.1 14,256.1 3.90.1 1,286,460.1 10,931.1 3.37.1 Noninterest-bearing liabilities:Noninterest-bearing liabilities28,834.1 25,047.1 Noninterest-bearing deposits680,731.1 666,939.1 Stockholdersâ€™ equity274,274.1 0.087.1 242,671.1 Total liabilities and stockholdersâ€™ equity$2,437,870.1 $2,221,117.1 Net interest spread4.89.1 %5.33.1 %Net interest income$38,354.1 $36,810.1 Net interest margin(4)6.41.1 %6.71.1 % (1)Annualized.(2)Includes nonaccrual loans.(3)For the three months ended September 30, 2024 and 2023, collectively, portfolio loans yield excluding credit card loans was 7.15% and 6.76%, respectively.(4)For the three months ended September 30, 2024 and 2023, collectively, credit card loans accounted for 233 and 266 basis points of the reported net interest margin, respectively.The net interest margin decreased 30 basis points to 6.41% for the three months ended September 30, 2024 from the same period in 2023 as the increase in the cost of deposits, including money market accounts and time deposits, outpaced the increase in portfolio loan yields, including credit card loans. The loan portfolio, excluding credit cards, continued to experience growth through the three months ended September 30, 2024, which contributed an additional $5.3 million in interest income. Total interest expense was impacted by growth in average balances of time deposits and money market accounts contributing $1.3 million and $0.5 million, respectively, in interest expense and increased rates on time deposits and money market accounts, which contributed an additional $0.5 million and $0.6 million, respectively, of interest expense.When comparing the nine months ended September 30, 2024 to the same period in 2023, the greatest positive impact to total interest income was the effect of growth in average portfolio loan balances and increases in market interest rates. The loan portfolio, excluding credit cards, contributed $10.1 million in interest income from volume and $6.1 million in interest income from an increase in market interest rates for the nine months ended September 30, 2024 compared to the same period in the 42prior year. Total interest expense was impacted by growth in average balances of time deposits and money market accounts contributing $4.2 million and $1.7 million, respectively, in interest expense and increased rates on time deposits and money market accounts, which contributed an additional $2.1 million and $3.5 million, respectively, of interest expense.Provision for Credit LossesThe provision for credit losses represents the amount of expense charged to current earnings to fund the ACL. The amount for credit losses is based on many factors which reflect managementâ€™s assessment of the risk in the loan portfolio. Those factors include historical losses, forecasted cash flows, economic conditions and trends, the value and adequacy of collateral, volume and mix of the portfolio, performance of the portfolio, and internal loan processes of the Company and Bank. For a description of the factors taken into account by our management in determining the ACL, see Note 1 â€œNature of Business and Basis of Presentationâ€ in the â€œNotes to the Consolidated Financial Statementsâ€ contained in Item 8 â€œFinancial Statements and Supplementary Dataâ€ of the Companyâ€™s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2023.For the three months ended September 30, 2024, the provision for credit losses was $3.7 million, an increase of $1.5 million from the same period in 2023, attributable primarily to portfolio loan growth. Net charge-offs for the three months ended September 30, 2024 were $2.7 million, or 0.51% on an annualized basis of average portfolio loans, compared to $1.8Â million, or 0.38% on an annualized basis of average portfolio loans for the same period in 2023. Of the $2.7 million in net charge-offs during the quarter, $1.0 million related to secured and partially secured credit cards and $0.7 million related to unsecured credit cards. Further, $0.6 million of net charge-offs were related to commercial real estate loans and $0.4 million were related to commercial and industrial loans. For the nine months ended September 30, 2024, the provision for credit losses was $9.9 million, an increase of $3.1 million from the same period in 2023, attributable primarily to portfolio loan growth and specific reserves of $1.0Â million for collateral dependent loans at September 30, 2024, as compared to $0.7 million at September 30, 2023. Net charge-offs for the nine months ended September 30, 2024 were $6.6 million, or 0.44% on an annualized basis of average portfolio loans, compared to $6.0 million, or 0.45% on an annualized basis of average portfolio loans, for the same period in 2023. The $6.6 million in net charge-offs during the nine months ended September 30, 2024 was comprised primarily of credit card portfolio net charge-offs, with $3.1 million related to secured and partially secured cards while $1.8 million was related to unsecured cards. Further, $0.6 million of net charge-offs were related to commercial real estate loans, $0.6 million were related to multi-family loans and $0.5 million were related to commercial and industrial loans. Although the majority of OpenSky,â€™ credit cards are secured, losses may occur. Some losses result from identity fraud, payment fraud and funding fraud. In addition, losses are sometimes incurred when customers exceed established credit limits as a consequence of certain VISA membership policies that allow cardholders to incur certain charges, such as, for example, rental car charges, gas station charges and hotel deposits, that may exceed card limits. Finally, losses to our credit card portfolio may arise if cardholders cease to maintain the account in good standing with timely payments.The ACL as a percent of portfolio loans was 1.51% at September 30, 2024 as compared to 1.50% at December 31, 2023. The maintenance of a high-quality loan portfolio, with an adequate allowance for expected credit losses, will continue to be a primary objective for the Company. See additional discussion regarding the Companyâ€™s ACL and reserve for unfunded commitments credit exposures at September 30, 2024 in â€œFinancial Condition - Allowance for Credit Losses.â€43Noninterest IncomeOur primary sources of recurring noninterest income are credit card fees, such as interchange fees and statement fees, and mortgage banking revenue. Noninterest income does not include (i) loan origination fees to the extent they exceed the direct loan origination costs, which are generally recognized over the life of the related loan as an adjustment to yield using the interest method or (ii) annual, renewal and late fees related to our credit card portfolio, which are generally recognized over the twelve month life of the related loan as an adjustment to yield using the interest method.The following table presents, for the periods indicated, the major categories of noninterest income:Three Months Ended September 30,Nine Months Ended September 30,20242023% Change20242023% Change(in thousands)Noninterest income:Service charges on deposit accounts$235.1 $250.1 (6.0)%$642.1 $724.1 (11.3)%Credit card fees4,055.1 4,387.1 (7.6)12,266.1 13,303.1 (7.8)Mortgage banking revenue1,882.1 1,243.1 51.4.1 5,325.1 3,730.1 42.8.1 Other income463.1 446.1 3.8.1 1,264.1 1,282.1 (1.4)Total noninterest income$6,635.1 $6,326.1 4.9.1 %$19,497.1 $19,039.1 2.4.1 %Mortgage banking revenue of $1.9Â million increased $0.6Â million for the three months ended September 30, 2024 due to an increase in salable originations as compared to the prior year. Gain on sale margins decreased from 2.71% for the nine months ended September 30, 2023, to 2.65% for the nine months ended September 30, 2024.Mortgage loans sold are subject to repurchase in circumstances where documentation is deficient or the underlying loan becomes delinquent or pays off within a specified period following loan funding and sale. The Bank has established a reserve under GAAP for possible repurchases. The reserve was $0.9Â million and $1.0Â million at September 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, respectively. The Bank repurchased one loan totaling $0.3Â million during the nine months ended September 30, 2024. The Bank did not repurchase any loans during the nine months ended September 30, 2023. The Bank does not originate â€œsub-primeâ€ mortgage loans and has no exposure to this market segment. Noninterest ExpenseGenerally, noninterest expense is comprised of all employee expenses and costs associated with operating our facilities, obtaining and retaining customer relationships and providing bank services, with the largest component being salaries and employee benefits expenses. Noninterest expense also includes operational expenses, such as occupancy and equipment expenses, professional fees, 44advertising expenses, loan processing expenses and other general and administrative expenses, including FDIC assessments, communications, travel, meals, training, supplies and postage. The following table presents, for the periods indicated, the major categories of noninterest expense:Three Months Ended September 30,Nine Months Ended September 30,20242023% Change20242023% Change(in thousands)Noninterest expense:Salaries and employee benefits$13,345.1 $12,419.1 7.5.1 %$39,524.1 $37,116.1 6.5.1 %Occupancy and equipment1,791.1 1,351.1 32.6.1 5,268.1 4,100.1 28.5.1 Professional fees1,980.1 2,358.1 (16.0)5,696.1 7,340.1 (22.4)Data

Investment SecuritiesThe Company uses its securities portfolio to provide a source of liquidity, provide an appropriate return on funds invested, manage interest rate risk, meet collateral requirements and meet regulatory capital requirements.Management classifies investment securities as either held to maturity or available-for-sale based on our intentions and the Company's ability to hold such securities until maturity. In determining such classifications, securities that management has the positive intent and the Company has the ability to hold until maturity are classified as held to maturity and carried at amortized cost. All other securities are designated as available-for-sale and carried at estimated fair value with unrealized gains and losses included in stockholders' equity on an after-tax basis. As of September 30, 2024, all securities were classified as available-for-sale.To supplement interest income earned on our loan portfolio, the Company invests in U.S. Treasuries, high-quality mortgage-backed securities, government agency bonds, asset-backed securities and high-quality municipal and corporate bonds. The asset-backed securities are comprised of student loan collateral issued by the Federal Family Education Loan Program, which includes a minimum of a 97% 46government repayment guarantee, as well as additional support in excess of the government guaranteed portion.The following tables summarize the contractual maturities, without consideration of call features or pre-funding dates, and weighted-average yields of investment securities at September 30, 2024 and the amortized cost and carrying value of those securities as of the indicated dates. The weighted average yields were calculated by multiplying the amortized cost of each individual security by its yield, dividing that figure by the portfolio total, and then summing the value of these results to arrive at the weighted average yield. Yields on tax-exempt investments are not calculated on a fully tax equivalent basis.INVESTMENT MATURITIESOne year or LessMore Than One Year Through Five YearsMore Than Five Years Through Ten YearsMore Than Ten YearsTotalSeptember 30, 2024Amortized CostWeighted Average YieldAmortized CostWeighted Average YieldAmortized CostWeighted Average YieldAmortized CostWeighted Average YieldAmortized CostFair ValueWeighted Average Yield (in thousands)Securities Available-for-Sale:U.S. Treasuries$30,000Å 1.94Å %$85,215Å 1.25Å %$20,688Å 1.47Å %$Å 1.47Å %$135,903Å 1.27,804Å 1.44Å %MunicipalÅ 903Å 4.87Å 4,105Å 4.47Å 6,691Å 1.91Å 11,699Å 9,767Å 3.04Å backed securitiesÅ 1.47Å %$5,621Å 5.65Å 6.51Å 5.65Å 6.51Å Mortgage-backed securities5,921Å 5.00Å 36,867Å 4.34Å 6,957Å 2.94Å 12,027Å 4.29Å 61,772Å 60,792Å 4.24Å Total$35,921Å 2.44Å %$122,985Å 2.20Å %$36,750Å 2.47Å %$24,370Å 4.15Å %$220,026Å $208,700Å described in Note 4 - Investment Securities in the Notes to Unaudited Consolidated Financial Statements, at September 30, 2024, management determined the Company does not have the intent to sell, nor is it more likely than not that it will be required to sell, available-for-sale debt securities in an unrealized loss position at September 30, 2024 before it is able to recover the amortized cost basis. Further, management reviewed the Company's holdings as of September 30, 2024 and concluded there were no credit-related declines in fair value. Additional information related to the types of securities held at September 30, 2024, other than securities issued or guaranteed by U.S. Government entities or agencies, is as follows:Corporate Securities Å There have been no payment defaults on any of the Company's holdings of corporate debt securities. There are five securities all of which are subordinated debt of other financial institutions with face amounts ranging from $0.5Å million to $2Å million.Municipal Securities Å All of the Company's holdings of municipal bonds were investment grade and there have been no payment defaults. Summary ratings information at September 30, 2024, based on the amortized cost basis and reflecting the lowest enhanced or underlying rating by Moody's, Standard & Poors or Fitch, is as follows: AAA Å 82% of the portfolio; AA+ Å 8%; AA Å 10%.Asset-backed Securities Å There were three investment grade asset-backed securities, and there have been no payment defaults on these securities.As such, it is deemed the above listed securities are not in an unrealized loss position due to credit-related issues and no further analysis is warranted as of September 30, 2024.47Portfolio Loans ReceivableOur primary source of income is derived from interest earned on loans. Our portfolio loans consist of loans secured by real estate as well as commercial business loans, credit card loans secured by corresponding deposits at the Bank and, to a limited extent, other consumer loans. Our loan customers primarily consist of small- to medium-sized businesses, professionals, real estate investors, small residential builders and individuals. Our owner-occupied commercial real estate loans, residential construction loans and commercial business and investment loans provide us with higher risk-adjusted returns, shorter maturities and more sensitivity to interest rate fluctuations, and are complemented by our relatively lower risk residential real estate loans to individuals. Our credit card portfolio supplements our traditional lending products with enhanced yields. Our lending activities, outside of credit cards, are principally directed to our market area consisting of the Washington, D.C. and Baltimore, Maryland metropolitan areas.Residential Real Estate Loans. One-to-four family mortgage loans are primarily secured by owner-occupied primary and secondary residences and, to a lesser extent, investor-owned residences. Residential loans are originated through the commercial sales teams and CBHL division. Residential loans also include home equity lines of credit. Owner-occupied residential real estate loans usually have fixed rates for five or seven years and adjust on an annual basis after the initial term based on a typical maturity of 30 years. Investor residential real estate loans are generally based on 25-year terms with a balloon payment due after five years. Generally, the required minimum debt service coverage ratio is 115%.Commercial Real Estate Loans. Commercial real estate loans are originated on owner-occupied and non-owner-occupied properties. These loans may be adversely affected by conditions in the real estate markets or in the general economy. Business equity lines of credit totaling $2.7Å million as of September 30, 2024 and $14.1 million as of December 31, 2023, are included in the commercial real estate loan category. Business equity lines of credit are commercial purpose lines of credit primarily secured by the business owners residential properties. Lender finance loans totaling $29.5Å million as of September 30, 2024 and $11.1 million as of December 31, 2023, are also included in the commercial real estate loan category. Lender finance loans are loans to companies used to purchase finance receivables or extend finance receivables to the underlying obligors and are secured primarily by the finance receivables held by our borrowers. The primary sources of repayment are the operating incomes of the borrowers and the collection of the finance receivables securing the loans. Commercial loans that are secured by owner-occupied commercial real estate and primarily collateralized by operating cash flows are included in the commercial real estate loan category. As of September 30, 2024, there were approximately $351.5Å million of owner-occupied commercial real estate loans, representing approximately 16.6% of the loan portfolio as compared to $307.9 million, or 16.1% of the loan portfolio at December 31, 2023. Commercial real estate loan terms are generally extended for 10 years or less and amortize generally over 25 years or less. The interest rates on commercial real estate loans generally have initial fixed rate terms that adjust typically at five years. Origination fees are routinely charged for services. Personal guarantees from the principal owners of the business are generally required, supported by a review of the principal owners' personal financial statements and global debt service obligations. The properties securing the portfolio are diverse in type. This diversity may help reduce the exposure to adverse economic events that affect any single industry.Construction Loans. Construction loans are offered within the Company's Washington, D.C. and Baltimore, Maryland metropolitan operating areas to builders, primarily for the construction of single-family homes and condominium and townhouse conversions or renovations and, to a lesser extent, to individuals. Construction loans typically have terms of 12 to 18 months. The Company frequently transitions the end purchaser to permanent financing or re-underwriting and sale into the secondary market through its CBHL division. According to underwriting standards, the ratio of loan principal to collateral value, as established by an independent appraisal, cannot exceed 75% for investor-owned and 80% for owner-occupied properties, although exceptions are sometimes made. The Company performs a 48stress test of the construction loan portfolio at least once a year, and underlying real estate conditions are monitored as well as trends in sales outcomes versus underwriting valuations as part of ongoing risk management efforts. The borrowers' progress in construction buildout is monitored against the original underwriting guidelines for construction milestones and completion timelines.Commercial and Industrial. In addition to other loan products, general commercial loans, including commercial lines of credit, working capital loans, term loans, equipment financing, letters of credit and other loan products, are offered, primarily in target markets, and underwritten based on each borrower's ability to service debt from income. These loans are primarily made based on the identified cash flows of the borrower and secondarily, on the underlying collateral provided by the borrower. Most commercial business loans are secured by a lien on general business assets including, among other things, available real estate, accounts receivable, promissory notes, inventory and equipment. Personal guaranties from the borrower or other principal are generally obtained.Credit Cards. Through the OpenSky, e credit card division, the Company offers secured, partially secured, and unsecured credit cards on a nationwide basis to under-banked populations and those looking to rebuild their credit scores through a fully digital and mobile platform. The secured lines of credit are secured by a noninterest-bearing demand account at the Bank in an amount equal to the full credit limit of the credit card. For the partially secured lines of credit, the Bank offers certain customers an unsecured line in excess of their secured line of credit by using a proprietary scoring model, which considers credit score and repayment history (typically a minimum of six months of on-time payments, but ultimately determined on a case-by-case basis). Partially secured and unsecured credit cards are only extended to existing secured card customers who have demonstrated sound credit behaviors. Approximately $89.6 million and $95.3Å million in secured and partially secured credit card balances were protected by savings deposits held by the Company as of September 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, respectively. Unsecured balances were $39.7 million and $30.8 million, respectively, at the same dates.Other Consumer Loans. To a limited extent and typically as an accommodation to existing customers, personal consumer loans, such as term loans, car loans and boat loans are offered.Purchased Credit Deterioration. There were no loans purchased with credit deterioration during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2024 or the three and nine months ended September 30, 2023.The repayment of loans is a source of additional liquidity for the Company. The following table details contractual maturities of our portfolio loans, along with an analysis of loans maturing after one year categorized by rate characteristic. Loans with adjustable interest rates are shown as maturing in the period during which the contract is due. The table does not reflect the effects of possible prepayments.49As of September 30, 2024One Year or LessOne to Five YearsOver Five Years to Fifteen YearsAfter Fifteen Years(in thousands)AmountAmountAmountTotalReal estate:Residential$138,413Å $237,966Å $67,493Å $179,812Å $623,684Å Commercial137,797Å 381,501Å 251,135Å 16,725Å 787,158Å Construction264,913Å 34,538Å 2,458Å Å 301,909Å Com and Industrial105,354Å 70,518Å 76,450Å 19,489Å 271,811Å Credit card127,098Å Å 127,098Å Other consumer382Å 288Å 1,375Å Å 2,045Å Total portfolio loans, gross$773,957Å $724,811Å $398,911Å $216,026Å $2,113,705Å Loans above maturing after one year categorized by rate characteristic:Predetermined Interest RatesFloating or Variable RatesTotal real estate:Residential$302,114Å $183,157Å $485,271Å Commercial397,254Å 252,107Å 649,361Å Construction5,403Å 31,593Å 36,996Å Commercial and Industrial92,819Å 73,638Å 166,457Å Other consumer456Å 1,207Å 1,663Å Total portfolio loans, gross$798,046Å $541,702Å 1,339,748Å Multi-family loans totaled $170.5Å million at September 30, 2024 and are included in the real estate residential loan category. Loans may be placed on nonaccrual status regardless of whether or not such loans are considered past due. In general, we place loans on nonaccrual status when they become 90 days past due. We also place loans on nonaccrual status if they are less than 90 days past due if the collection of principal or interest is in doubt. When the interest accrual is discontinued, all unpaid accrued interest is reversed from income. Loans are returned to accrual status when all the principal and interest amounts contractually due are brought current and future payments are, in management's opinion, reasonably assured. Loans are generally charged-off in part or in full when management determines the loan to be uncollectible. Factors for charge-off that may be considered include: repayments deemed to be extended out beyond reasonable time frames, customer bankruptcy and lack of assets, and/or collateral deficiencies. Consumer credit card balances are moved into the charge off queue after they become more than 90 days past due and are charged off not later than 120 days after they become past due. Otherwise, loans that are past due for 180 days or more are charged off unless the loan is well secured and in the process of collection.The Company believes its approach to lending and the management of nonperforming assets has resulted in sound asset quality and timely resolution of problem assets. The Company has established underwriting guidelines to be followed by our bankers, and routinely monitors our delinquency levels for any negative or adverse trends. There can be no assurance, however, that our loan portfolio will not become subject to increasing pressures from deteriorating borrower credit.From a credit risk standpoint, we grade watchlist and problem loans into one of five credit quality indicators: pass/watch, special mention, substandard, doubtful or loss. The classifications of loans reflect a judgment about the risks of default and loss associated with each loan. Credit ratings are reviewed regularly and adjusted regularly to reflect the degree of risk and loss that our management believes to be appropriate for each credit. Our lending policy requires the routine monitoring of past due reports, daily overdraft reports, monthly maturing loans, monthly risk rating reports and internal loan review reports. The lending and credit management of the Bank meet periodically to review loans rated pass/watch. The focus of each meeting is to identify and promptly determine any necessary required action within this loan population, which consists of loans that, although considered satisfactory and performing to terms, may exhibit special risk features that warrant management's attention.52Management is intent on maintaining a strong credit review function and risk rating process. The Company has an experienced Credit Administration function, which provides independent analysis of credit requests and the management of problem credits. The Credit Department has developed and implemented analytical procedures for evaluating credit requests, has refined the Company's risk rating system, and continues to adapt and enhance the monitoring of the loan portfolio. The loan portfolio analysis process is intended to contribute to the identification of weaknesses before they become more severe.A special mention loan has potential weaknesses deserving of management's attention. If uncorrected, such weaknesses may, at a future date, impair the repayment prospects for the asset or our credit position.Loans that are deemed special mention, substandard, doubtful or loss are listed in the Bank's Problem Loan Status Report. The Problem Loan Status Report provides a detailed summary of the borrower and guarantor status, loan accrual status, collateral evaluation and includes a description of the planned collection and administration program designed to mitigate the Bank's risk of loss and remove the loan from problem status. The Special Asset Committee reviews the Problem Loan Status Report on a quarterly basis for borrowers with an overall loan exposure in excess of $250,000.At September 30, 2024, the recorded investment in individually assessed loans was $15.5 million, requiring a specific reserve of $1.0 million. At December 31, 2023, the recorded investment in individually assessed loans was $16.0 million, requiring a specific reserve of $0.4 million. The $16.0 million of individually assessed loans at December 31, 2023 included a single multi-unit residential real estate loan secured by four properties with a balance of $7.6 million at December 31, 2023. Allowance for Credit LossesWe maintain an ACL that represents management's estimate of expected credit losses and risks inherent in our loan portfolio. The balance of the ACL is based on internally assigned risk classifications of loans, historical loss rates, changes in the nature of our loan portfolio, overall portfolio quality, industry concentrations, delinquency trends, current economic factors and the estimated impact of current economic conditions on certain historical loss rates.A major consideration in the determination of the ACL on the credit card portfolio is based on historical loss experience in that portfolio. The Company calculates the credit card ACL collectively, applying segmentation based on collateral positions: secured, partially secured, and unsecured.The following table presents key ratios for the ACL and nonaccrual loans for the periods indicated:Allowance for credit losses to period end portfolio loansNonaccrual loans to total portfolio loansAllowance for credit losses to nonaccrual loans(in thousands)September 30, 2024December 31, 2023September 30, 2024December 31, 2023September 30, 2024December 31, 2023Real estate:Residential0.96%0.96%1.02%1.02%1.99%0.94%484%Commercial1.49%1.51%0.31%0.09%483%Construction0.86%0.78%1.44%1.13%60%69%Commercial and Industrial1.58%1.84%0.86%0.32%183%569%Credit cards7.7%4.94%1.0%1.0%Other consumer0.88%1.26%1.0%1.0%Total1.51%1.50%0.73%0.84%207%178%53The following tables present a summary of the net charge-offs (recovery) of loans as a percentage of average loans for the periods indicated:Three Months Ended September 30, 20242023(in thousands)Net Charge-OffsAverage LoansPercent of average portfolio loans(1)Net Charge-OffsAverage LoansPercent of average portfolio loans(1)Real estate:Residential$(4)$610,828%0.07%Commercial$70%758,750%0.01%Construction$300,187%0.04%Commercial and Industrial$366%260,808%0.56%66%28,421%0.11%Credit card1,723%149,458%1.17%1,753%116,814%1.50%Other consumer$3,588%1.0%1.0%88%1.0%Total$655%2,053,619%0.51%$1,780%1,847,772%0.38%(1)Annualized.Nine Months Ended September 30, 20242023(in thousands)Net Charge-OffsAverage LoansPercent of average portfolio loans(1)Net Charge-Offs(Average LoansPercent of average portfolio loans(1)Real estate:Residential$630%$591,728%0.14%$551,280%0.14%Commercial$570%738,630%0.10%904%653,467%0.18%Construction$294,767%0.04%259,602%0.04%Commercial and Industrial$468%249,017%0.25%56%220,897%0.03%Credit card4,909%113,764%5.76%5,036%114,416%5.88%Other consumer$3,529%1.0%1.0%693%1.0%Total$6,577%1,991,435%0.44%$6,996%1,801,355%0.45%(1)Annualized.As the loan portfolio and ACL review processes continue to evolve, there may be changes to elements of the allowance and this may influence the overall level of the allowance maintained. Historically, the Bank has enjoyed a high-quality loan portfolio with relatively low levels of net charge-offs and low delinquency rates. The maintenance of a high-quality portfolio will continue to be a priority.Although we believe we have established our ACL in accordance with GAAP and that the ACL is currently adequate to provide for known and inherent losses in the portfolio at all times shown above, future provisions for credit losses will be subject to ongoing evaluations of the risks in our loan portfolio.The following table shows the allocation of the ACL among loan categories as of the dates indicated. We offer a variety of deposit products including interest-bearing demand, savings, money market and time accounts, all of which we actively market at competitive pricing. We generate deposits from our customers on a relationship basis and through the efforts of our commercial and business banking officers. Our credit card customers are a significant source of low cost deposits. As of September 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, our credit card customers accounted for $170.8 million and $173.9 million, or 23.8% and 28.2%, respectively, of our total noninterest-bearing deposit balances.Major categories of interest-bearing deposits are as follows:Interest-Bearing Deposits(in thousands)September 30, 2024December 31, 2023Interest-bearing demand accounts$266,493$199,308Savings$763$5,211Money markets$66,526$63,129Brokered time deposits$153,022$142,356Other time deposits$358,300$268,619Total interest-bearing deposits$1,468,104$1,278,62355The following table presents the average balances and average rates paid on deposits for the periods indicated:For the Nine Months Ended September 30, 2024For the Year Ended December 31, 2023Average BalanceAverage Rate(1)Average BalanceAverage Rate(1)(in thousands)Interest-bearing demand accounts$209,346$0.37%$201,194$0.15%Savings$4,460$0.21%$5,768$0.14%Money market accounts$684,017$4.22%$642,013$3.66%Time deposits$465,256$5.05%$360,464$4.39%Total interest-bearing deposits$1,363,079$3.90%$1,209,439$3.28%Noninterest-bearing demand accounts$657,044$655,013Total deposits$2,020,123$2.63%$1,864,452$2.13%(1)Annualized.Deposit costs increased 50 basis points during the nine months ended September 30, 2024 due, in large part, to a series of interest rate increases implemented by the Federal Reserve beginning in early 2022 and the corresponding move from savings accounts to higher rate money market accounts and time deposits. In addition, average noninterest-bearing deposit balances for the nine months ended September 30, 2024 increased $2.0 million when compared to the year ended December 31, 2023, as growth in the number of customer accounts and corresponding balances outpaced the decision by some depositors to move balances from noninterest-bearing deposit accounts to interest-bearing deposit accounts.The following table presents the maturities of our certificates of deposit as of September 30, 2024. Total brokered time deposits of $153.0 million at September 30, 2024 increased $10.6 million from $142.4 million at December 31, 2023. Total brokered time deposits as a percentage of total deposits was 7.0% at September 30, 2024.As of September 30, 2024 based on the methodologies and assumptions used for the Bank's regulatory reporting requirements, approximately $973.9 million, or 44.5% of the deposit portfolio was uninsured. As of December 31, 2023 approximately $789.4 million, or 41.6%, of the deposit portfolio was uninsured. Uninsured deposits are comprised of the portion of account balances that are in excess of FDIC insurance limits.Deposits securing our OpenSky, e card lines of credit and deposits from title companies represent the largest concentrations in the deposit portfolio. As of September 30, 2024, these deposits represented 8% and 14% of deposits, respectively. As of December 31, 2023, these concentrations were 9% and 12% of deposits, respectively.56BorrowingsWe utilize short-term and long-term borrowings to supplement deposits to fund our lending and investment activities, each of which is discussed below.FHLB Advances. The FHLB allows us to borrow up to 25% of our assets on a blanket floating lien status collateralized by certain securities and loans. As of September 30, 2024, approximately $597.4 million in real estate loans were pledged as collateral to the FHLB and our total borrowing capacity from the FHLB was $443.1 million. As of September 30, 2024, no investment securities were pledged with the FHLB. We utilize these borrowings to meet liquidity needs and to fund certain fixed rate loans in our portfolio. As of September 30, 2024, we had $52.0 million in outstanding advances and $391.1 million in available borrowing capacity from the FHLB. Other Borrowed Funds. The Company has also issued junior subordinated debentures and other subordinated notes. At September 30, 2024, these other borrowings amounted to $12.1 million, consisting of Floating Rate Junior Subordinated Deferrable Interest Debentures and subordinated notes.At September 30, 2024, our Floating Rate Junior Subordinated Deferrable Interest Debentures amounted to $2.1 million. The Floating Rate Junior Subordinated Deferrable Interest Debentures (the "Floating Rate Debentures") were issued in June of 2006, mature on June 15, 2036, and may be redeemed prior to that date under certain circumstances. The principal amount of the Floating Rate Debentures has not changed since issuance, and they accrue interest at a floating rate equal to the three-month CME Term SOFR plus a spread adjustment of 0.26161%

used measure is common equity to total assets (computed as equity divided by total assets), which was 10.94% at September 30, 2024 and 11.45% at December 31, 2023. The Bank is subject to various regulatory capital requirements administered by the federal banking agencies. Failure to meet minimum capital requirements can precipitate certain mandatory and possibly additional discretionary actions by regulators that, if undertaken, could have a material effect on the Company's financial condition. Under capital adequacy guidelines and the regulatory framework for prompt corrective action, the Bank must meet specific capital guidelines that involve quantitative measures of its assets, liabilities, and certain off-balance sheet items as calculated under regulatory accounting practices. The capital amounts and classifications are also subject to qualitative judgments by the regulators. Quantitative measures established by regulation to ensure capital adequacy require the Bank to maintain minimum ratios of common equity Tier 1, Tier 1, and total capital as a percentage of assets and off-balance sheet exposures, adjusted for risk weights ranging from 0% to 1,250%. The Bank is also required to maintain capital at a minimum level based on quarterly average assets, which is known as the leverage ratio. In July 2013, federal bank regulatory agencies issued a final rule that revised their risk-based capital requirements and the method for calculating risk-weighted assets to make them consistent with certain standards that were developed by Basel III and certain provisions of the Dodd-Frank Act. The final rule applies to all depository institutions and bank holding companies and savings and loan holding companies with total consolidated assets of more than $1 billion. The Bank was required to implement the new Basel III capital standards (subject to the phase-in for certain parts of the new rules) as of January 1, 2015. In August of 2018 the Regulatory Relief Act directed the Federal Reserve Board to revise the Small BHC Policy Statement to raise the total consolidated asset limit in the Small BHC Policy Statement from $1 billion to $3 billion. The Company is currently exempt from the consolidated capital requirements. The ability of the Company to continue to grow is dependent on its earnings and those of the Bank, and the ability to obtain additional funds for contribution to the Bank's capital, through additional borrowings, through the sale of additional common stock or preferred stock, or through the issuance of additional qualifying capital instruments, such as subordinated debt. The capital levels required to be maintained by the Company and Bank may be impacted as a result of the Bank's concentrations in commercial real estate loans. See "Risks Related to the Regulation of Our Industry" in Part I, Item 1A - Risk Factors in the Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2023. As of September 30, 2024, the Bank was in compliance with all applicable regulatory capital requirements to which it was subject, and the Bank was classified as a well-capitalized bank for purposes of the prompt corrective action regulations. As we deploy our capital and continue to grow our operations, our regulatory capital levels may decrease depending on our level of earnings. However, we intend to monitor and control our growth relative to our earnings in order to remain in compliance with all regulatory capital standards applicable to us.

The following table presents the regulatory capital ratios for the Company and the Bank as of the dates indicated. (in thousands)

Our liquidity monitoring and management consider both present and future demands for and sources of liquidity. Off-Balance Sheet Items In the normal course of business, we enter into various transactions that, in accordance with GAAP, are not included in our consolidated balance sheets. We enter into these transactions to meet the financing needs of our customers. These transactions include commitments to extend credit and issue letters of credit, which involve, to varying degrees, elements of credit risk and interest rate risk in excess of the amounts recognized in our consolidated balance sheets. Our exposure to credit loss is represented by the contractual amounts of these commitments. The same credit policies and procedures are generally used in making these commitments as for on-balance sheet instruments. We are not aware of any accounting loss to be incurred by funding these commitments; however, we maintain a reserve for unfunded commitments and certain off-balance sheet credit risks, which is recorded in other liabilities on the consolidated balance sheet. Our commitments associated with outstanding letters of credit and commitments to extend credit expiring by period as of the date indicated are summarized below. Since commitments associated with letters of credit and commitments to extend credit may expire unused, the amounts shown do not necessarily reflect actual future cash funding requirements.	60	As of September 30, 2024	As of December 31, 2023	(in thousands)	Unfunded lines of credit	$403,540	$336,472	Letters of credit	$633,4	$641,4	Commitment to fund other investments	$3,034	3,874	Total credit extension commitments	$411,207	$344,987	Unfunded lines of credit represent unused credit facilities to our current borrowers. Lines of credit generally have variable interest rates. Letters of credit are conditional commitments issued by us to guarantee the performance of a customer to a third party. In the event of nonperformance by the customer in accordance with the terms of the agreement with the third party, we would be required to fund the commitment. The maximum potential amount of future payments we could be required to make is represented by the contractual amount of the commitment. If the commitment is funded, we would be entitled to seek recovery from the customer from the underlying collateral, which can include commercial real estate, physical plant and property, inventory, receivables, cash and/or marketable securities. Our policies generally require that letter of credit arrangements contain security and debt covenants similar to those contained in loan agreements. We believe the credit risk associated with issuing letters of credit is substantially the same as the risk involved in extending loan facilities to our customers. We seek to minimize our exposure to loss under letters of credit and credit commitments by subjecting them to the same credit approval and monitoring procedures as we do for on-balance sheet instruments. The effect on our revenue, expenses, cash flows and liquidity of the unused portions of these letters of credit commitments cannot be precisely predicted because we do not control the extent to which the lines of credit may be used. Commitments to extend credit are agreements to lend funds to a customer, as long as there is no violation of any condition established in the contract. Commitments generally have variable interest rates, fixed expiration dates or other termination clauses and may require payment of a fee. Since many of the commitments are expected to expire without being fully drawn, the total commitment amounts disclosed above do not necessarily represent future cash requirements. We evaluate each customer's creditworthiness on a case-by-case basis. The amount of collateral obtained, if considered necessary by us, upon extension of credit is based on management's credit evaluation of the customer. We enter into forward commitments for the delivery of mortgage loans in our current pipeline. Interest rate lock commitments are entered into in order to economically hedge the effect of changes in interest rates resulting from our commitments to fund the loans. These commitments to fund mortgage loans to be sold into the secondary market, along with the interest rate lock commitments and forward commitments for the future delivery of mortgage loans to third party investors, are considered derivatives. The commitment to fund other investments reflects an obligation to make an investment in a Small Business Investment Company. Impact of Inflation The consolidated financial statements and related notes included elsewhere in this report have been prepared in accordance with GAAP. GAAP requires the measurement of financial position and operating results in terms of historical dollars, without considering changes in the relative value of money over time due to inflation or recession. Unlike many industrial companies, substantially all of the Company's assets and liabilities are monetary in nature. As a result, interest rates have a more significant impact on our performance than the effects of general levels of inflation. Interest rates may not necessarily move in the same direction or in 61 the same magnitude as the prices of goods and services. However, most other operating expenses are sensitive to changes in levels of inflation. Non-GAAP Financial Measures and Reconciliations The Company has presented the following non-GAAP financial measures because it believes that these non-GAAP financial measures provide useful information to investors because they are used by management to evaluate our operating performance and make day-to-day operating decisions. In addition, we believe our non-GAAP results in any given reporting period reflect our on-going financial performance in that period and, accordingly, are useful to consider in addition to our GAAP financial results. We further believe the presentation of non-GAAP results increases comparability of period-to-period results. Other companies may use similarly titled non-GAAP financial measures that may be calculated differently from the way we calculate such measures. Accordingly, our non-GAAP financial measures may not be comparable to similar measures used by such companies. We caution investors not to place undue reliance on such non-GAAP financial measures, but to consider them with the most directly comparable GAAP measures. Non-GAAP financial measures have limitations as analytical tools and should not be considered in isolation or as a substitute for our results reported under GAAP. QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK	Interest Rate Sensitivity and Market Risk	As a financial institution, our primary component of market risk is interest rate volatility. Our asset liability and funds management policy provides management with the guidelines for funds management, and we have established a measurement system for monitoring our net interest rate sensitivity position. We endeavor to manage our sensitivity position within our established guidelines. Fluctuations in interest rates will ultimately impact both the level of income and the market value of all interest earning assets and interest-bearing liabilities, other than those that have a short term to maturity. Interest rate risk is the potential of economic losses due to future interest rate changes. These economic losses can be reflected as a loss of future net interest income and/or a loss of current fair market values. The objective is to measure the effect on net interest income and to adjust the balance sheet to minimize the inherent risk while at the same time maximizing income. We endeavor to manage our exposure to interest rates by structuring our balance sheet in the ordinary course of business. We do not enter into instruments such as leveraged derivatives, financial options or financial futures contracts for the purpose of reducing interest rate risk. We endeavor to hedge the interest rate risks of our available-for-sale mortgage pipeline by using mortgage-backed securities, and short positions. Based on the nature of our operations, we are not subject to foreign exchange or commodity price risk. We do not own any trading assets. Our exposure to interest rate risk is managed by the Bank's Asset/Liability Management Committee (ALCO) in accordance with policies approved by our board of directors. The ALCO formulates strategies based on perceived levels of interest rate risk. In determining the appropriate level of interest rate risk, the committee considers the impact on earnings and capital of the current outlook for interest rates, potential changes in interest rates, regional economies, liquidity, business strategies and other factors. The ALCO meets regularly to review, among other things, the sensitivity of assets and liabilities to interest rate changes, the book and market values of assets and liabilities, unrealized gains and losses, purchase and sale activities, commitments to originate loans and the maturities of investments and borrowings. Additionally, the ALCO reviews liquidity, cash flow flexibility, maturities of deposits and consumer and commercial deposit activity. Management employs methodologies to manage interest rate risk, which include an analysis of relationships between interest earning assets and interest-bearing liabilities and an interest rate shock simulation model. The following table indicates that, for periods less than one year, rate-sensitive assets exceeded rate-sensitive liabilities, resulting in an asset-sensitive position. For a bank with an asset-sensitive position, or positive gap, rising interest rates would generally be expected to have a positive effect on net interest income, and falling interest rates would generally be expected to have the opposite effect.	65	INTEREST SENSITIVITY GAP	September 30, 2024	Within One Month	After One Month	Through Three Months	After Three Months	Through Twelve Months	Within One Year	Greater Than One Year	Non-Sensitive	Total	(in thousands)	Assets	Interest earning assets	Loans	(1)	$904,947	$140,437	$299,826	$1,345,210	$781,866	$2,127,076	Securities	14,027	4,179	39,282	57,488	157,107	214,595	Interest-bearing deposits at other financial institutions	133,180	$0	$0	$133,180	$0	$133,180	Federal funds sold	$58	$0	$0	$58	$0	$58	Total earning assets	$1,052,212	$144,616	$339,108	$1,535,936	$938,973	$2,474,909	Liabilities	Interest-bearing liabilities	Interest-bearing deposits	$14,155	$28,310	$127,397	$169,862	$786,920	$956,782	Time deposits	$83,136	$141,854	$236,380	$461,370	$49,952	$11,322	Total interest-bearing deposits	$97,291	$170,164	$363,777	$631,232	$836,772	$1,468,104	FHLB Advances	$30,000	$0	$30,000	$22,000	$52,000	Other borrowed funds	$0	$0	$0	$0	$0	$0	Total interest-bearing liabilities	$127,291	$170,164	$363,777	$661,232	$870,934	$1,532,166	Period gap	$924,921	$52,548	(24,669)	$874,704	$68,039	$942,743	Cumulative

Washington, D.C. area investors and developers. The Company does not meet the criteria for September 30, 2024, Church Street Capital had loans totaling $6.2 million with a collectively assessed allowance for credit losses (the "allowance") of $184 thousand. Refer to Note 5 - Allowance for Credit Losses to the Consolidated Financial Statements for further discussion of the consolidated ACL. In addition, the Company owns all of the stock of Capital Bancorp (MD) Statutory Trust I (the "Trust"). The Trust is a special purpose non-consolidated entity organized for the sole purpose of issuing trust preferred securities. Basis of presentation: The accompanying unaudited interim consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (the "GAAP") for interim financial information and with rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") and include the activity of the Company and its wholly-owned subsidiaries, the Bank and Church Street Capital. The statements do not include all of the information and footnotes required by GAAP for complete financial statements. All adjustments have been made which, in the opinion of management, are necessary for a fair presentation of the results for the interim periods presented. Such adjustments are all of a normal and recurring nature. All significant inter-company accounts and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation. The results of operations for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2024 are not necessarily indicative of the results that may be expected for the full year. These unaudited interim consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the Company's audited financial statements and the notes thereto as of December 31, 2023, included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2023. The Company reports its activities as four business segments: commercial banking; mortgage lending; credit cards; and corporate activities. In determining the appropriateness of segment definition, the Company considers components of the business about which financial information is available and regularly evaluated relative to resource allocation and performance assessment. Significant accounting policies: The preparation of consolidated financial statements in accordance with GAAP requires estimates and judgments that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses and related disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities. The primary reference point for the estimates is on historical experience and assumptions believed to be reasonable regarding the value of certain assets and liabilities that are not readily available from other sources. Estimates are evaluated on an ongoing basis. Actual results may materially differ from these estimates under different assumptions or conditions. The Company's significant accounting policies are described in the Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements included in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2023. There have been no changes to our significant accounting policies during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2024. Recently issued accounting pronouncements: In December 2023, the FASB issued Accounting Standards Update (ASU) 2023-07, Segment Reporting (Topic 280), Improvements to Reportable Segment Disclosures. ASU 2023-07 requires public entities to disclose significant segment expenses, an amount and description for other segment items, the title and position of the entity's chief operating decision maker (CODM) and an explanation of how the CODM uses the reported measures of profit or loss to assess segment performance, and, on an interim basis, certain segment related disclosures that previously were required only on an annual basis. ASU 2023-07 also clarifies that entities with a single reportable segment are subject to both new and existing segment reporting requirements and that an entity is permitted to disclose multiple measures of segment profit or loss, provided that certain criteria are met. ASU 2023-07 is effective for the Company for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2023 and interim periods within fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2024, with early adoption permitted. The Company will update its segment related disclosures upon adoption. In December 2023, the FASB issued Accounting Standards Update 2023-09, Income Taxes (Topic 740), Improvements to Income Tax Disclosures. ASU 2023-09 requires public entities to disclose in their rate reconciliation table additional categories of information about federal, state and foreign income taxes and to provide more details about the reconciling items in some categories if items meet a quantitative threshold. ASU 2023-09 also requires all entities to disclose income taxes paid, net of refunds, disaggregated by federal, state and foreign taxes for annual periods and to disaggregate the information by jurisdiction based on quantitative thresholds, among other things. ASU 2023-09 is effective for the Company for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2024 with early adoption permitted. The Company will update its income tax disclosures upon adoption. Other accounting standards that have been issued or proposed by the FASB or other standards-setting bodies are not expected to have a material impact on the Company's financial position, results of operations or cash flows. Reclassifications: Certain reclassifications have been made to amounts reported in prior periods to conform to the current period presentation. The reclassifications had no material effect on net income or total stockholders' equity. Subsequent events: Subsequent events are events or transactions that occur after the balance sheet date but before financial statements are issued. Recognized subsequent events are events or transactions that provide additional evidence about conditions that existed at the date of the balance sheet, including the estimates inherent in the process of preparing financial statements. Non-recognized subsequent events are events that provide evidence about conditions that did not exist at the date of the balance sheet but arose after that date. Credit quality indicatorsAs part of the ongoing monitoring of the credit quality of the Companyâ€™s loan portfolio, management tracks certain credit quality indicators including trends related to the risk grade of loans, the level of classified loans, net charge-offs, nonperforming loans, and general economic conditions in the Companyâ€™s market. From a credit risk standpoint, the Company utilizes a risk grading matrix to assign a risk grade to each of its loans. The classifications of loans reflect a judgment about the risk of expected credit loss associated with each loan. Credit quality indicators are reviewed and adjusted regularly to account for the degree of risk and expected credit loss that the Company believes to be appropriate for each financial asset. A description of the general characteristics of loans characterized as classified is as follows:Pass Loans characterized as pass includes loans graded exceptional, very good, good, satisfactory and pass/watch. The Company believes that there is a low likelihood of credit deterioration related to those loans that are considered pass. Special mention A special mention loan has potential weaknesses that deserve managementâ€™s close attention. If left uncorrected, these potential weaknesses may result in deterioration of the repayment prospects for the asset or in the Companyâ€™s credit position at some future date. Special mention loans are not adversely classified and do not expose the Company to sufficient risk to warrant adverse classification. Borrowers may exhibit poor liquidity and leverage positions resulting from generally negative cash flow or negative trends in earnings. Access to alternative financing may be limited to finance companies for business borrowers and may be unavailable for commercial real estate borrowers. Substandard A substandard loan is inadequately protected by the current financial condition and paying capacity of the obligor or of the collateral pledged, if any. Substandard loans have a well-defined weakness, or weaknesses, that jeopardize the liquidation of the debt. They are characterized by the distinct possibility that the Company will sustain some loss if the deficiencies are not corrected. Borrowers may exhibit recent or unexpected unprofitable operations, an inadequate debt service coverage ratio, or marginal liquidity and capitalization. These loans require more intense supervision by Company management. Doubtful A doubtful loan has all the weaknesses associated with a substandard loan with the added characteristic that the weaknesses make collection or liquidation in full, on the basis of currently existing facts, conditions, and values, highly questionable and improbable. Ungraded Ungraded loans represent credit card loans not included in the individual credit grading process due to the borrower type. The credit quality indicator for credit card loans is based on delinquency status of the borrower as of the date presented. The following table presents the balances of classified loans based on the most recent credit quality indicator analysis. Classified loans include Special Mention, Substandard and Doubtful loans. Pass classified loans include loans graded exceptional, very good, good, satisfactory, and pass/watch. Credit card loans are ungraded as they are not individually graded. The Company then locks the loan and rate in with an investor and commits to deliver the loan if settlement occurs (Best Efforts). Certain loans under rate lock commitments are covered under forward sales contracts. Forward sales contracts are recorded at fair value with changes in fair value recorded in mortgage banking revenue. Interest rate lock commitments and commitments to deliver loans to investors are considered to be derivatives. The market value of interest rate lock commitments and best efforts contracts are not readily ascertainable with precision because they are not actively traded in stand-alone markets. The Company determines the fair value of rate lock commitments by estimating the fair value of the underlying asset, which is impacted by current interest rates and takes into consideration the probability that the rate lock commitments will close or will be funded.The following table reports the commitment and fair value amounts on the outstanding derivatives:(in thousands)September 30, 2024December 31, 2023Notional amount of open forward sales agreements$15,000A $â€ Fair value of open forward delivery sales agreements$8A â€ Notional amount of interest rate lock commitments11,065A â€ Fair value of interest rate lock commitments$18A â€ X - ReferencesNo definition available. + Details Name: us-gaap_DerivativeInstrumentsAndHedgingActivitiesDisclosureAbstract Namespace Prefix: us-gaap_Data Type: xbrli:stringItemType Balance Type: na Period Type: duration X - DefinitionThe entire disclosure for derivative instruments and hedging activities including, but not limited to, risk management strategies, non-hedging derivative instruments, assets, liabilities, revenue and expenses, and methodologies and assumptions used in determining the amounts. + ReferencesReference 1: http://www.xbrl.org/2003/role/disclosureRef -Topic 815 -SubTopic 40 -Name Accounting Standards Codification -Section 50 -Paragraph 5 -Subparagraph (f) -Publisher FASB -URI https://asc.fasb.org/1943274/2147480237/815-40-50-5Reference 2: http://www.xbrl.org/2003/role/disclosureRef -Topic 815 -SubTopic 10 -Name Accounting Standards Codification -Section 50 -Paragraph 5C -Subparagraph (b) -Publisher FASB -URI https://asc.fasb.org/1943274/2147480434/815-10-50-5CReference 3: http://fasb.org/us-gaap/role/ref/legacyRef -Topic 815 -Name Accounting Standards Codification -Publisher FASB -URI https://asc.fasb.org/815/tableOfContent + Details Name: us-gaap_DerivativeInstrumentsAndHedgingActivitiesDisclosureTextBlock Namespace Prefix: us-gaap_Data Type: dtr-types:textBlockItemType Balance Type: na Period Type: duration XML 26 R15.htm IDEA: XBRL DOCUMENT v3.24.3 Leases 9 Months Ended Sep. 30, 2024 Leases [Abstract] A LeasesLeasesThe Companyâ€™s primary leasing activities relate to certain real estate leases entered into in support of the Companyâ€™s branch operations and back office operations. The Company leases fiveA of itsA full service branches and four other locations for corporate/administration activities, operations, and loan production. All property leases under lease agreements have been designated as operating leases. The Company does not have leases designated as finance leases.The Company determines if an arrangement is a lease at inception. Operating lease Right of Use (â€ROUâ€) assets are included in premises and equipment, and operating lease liabilities are included as other liabilities in the consolidated balance sheets. ROU assets represent the right to use an underlying asset for the lease term and lease liabilities represent the obligation to make lease payments arising from the lease. Operating lease ROU assets and liabilities are recognized at commencement date based on the present value of lease payments over the lease term. As the Company's leases do not provide an implicit rate, the Company uses its incremental borrowing rate based on the information available at commencement date in determining the present value of lease payments. The historical weighted average discount rate was 4.27% at September 30, 2024 and 3.79% at December 31, 2023. The operating lease ROU asset also includes any lease pre-payments. The Company's lease terms may include options to extend or terminate the lease when it is reasonably certain that the Company will exercise that option. Lease expense for lease payments is recognized on a straight-line basis over the lease term. The Company has lease agreements with lease and non-lease components, which the Company has elected to account for separately as the non-lease component amounts are readily determinable under most leases.As ofA September 30, 2024,A the Companyâ€™s net lease ROU assets and related lease liabilities were $3.8A millionA andA $4.4 million, respectively, compared to December 31, 2023 balances of $3.6 million of ROU assets and $3.8 million of lease liabilities, and have remaining terms ranging from one to nine years, including extension options that the Company is reasonably certain will be exercised. There are three levels of inputs that may be used to measure fair values:Level 1 - Quoted prices (unadjusted) for identical assets or liabilities in active markets that the entity has the ability to access as of the measurement date. This includes certain U.S. Treasury and other U.S. Government and government agency securities actively traded in over-the-counter markets.Level 2 - Significant other observable inputs other than Level 1 prices such as quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities; quoted prices in markets that are not active; or other inputs that are observable or can be corroborated by observable market data.Level 3 - Significant unobservable inputs that reflect a companyâ€™s own assumptions about the assumptions that market participants would use in pricing an asset or liability.The Company used the following methods and significant assumptions to estimate fair value on a recurring basis:Investment securities available-for-sale - The fair values for investment securities available-for-sale are provided by an independent pricing service and are determined by quoted market prices, if available (Level 1). For securities where quoted prices are not available, fair values are calculated based on market prices of similar securities (Level 2), using matrix pricing. Matrix pricing, which is a mathematical technique commonly used to price debt securities that are not actively traded, values debt securities without relying exclusively on quoted prices for the specific securities but rather by relying on the securitiesâ€™ relationship to other benchmark quoted securities (Level 2 inputs). For securities where quoted prices or market prices of similar securities are not available, fair values are calculated using discounted cash flows or other market indicators (Level 3). Loans held for sale - The fair value of loans held for sale is determined using quoted prices for similar assets, adjusted for specific attributes of that loan (Level 2). Derivative financial instruments - The fair values of derivatives are based on valuation models using observable market data as of the measurement date (Level 2). Our derivatives are traded in an over-the-counter market where quoted market prices are not always available. Therefore, the fair values of derivatives are determined using quantitative models that utilize multiple market inputs. The inputs will vary based on the type of derivative, but could include interest rates, prices and indices to generate continuous yield or pricing curves, prepayment rates, and volatility factors to value the position. The majority of market inputs are actively quoted and can be validated through external sources, including brokers, market transactions and third-party pricing services.The Company has categorized its financial instruments measured at fair value on a recurring basis as of September 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023 as follows:(in thousands)September 30, 2024TotalQuoted Prices in Active Markets for Identical Assets (Level 1)Significant Other Observable Inputs (Level 2)Significant Unobservable Inputs (Level 3)Investment securities available-for-saleU.S. Treasuries$127,804A $127,804A $â€A $â€A Municipal9,767A â€A 9,767A â€A Corporate4,680A â€A 4,680A â€A Asset-backed securities5,657A â€A 5,657A â€A Mortgage-backed securities60,792A â€A 60,792A â€A Total$208,700A $127,804A $80,896A $â€A Loans held for sale$19,554A $â€A $19,554A $â€A Derivative assets$8A $â€A $8A $â€A Derivative liabilities$8A $â€A $8A $â€A December 31, 2023Investment securities available-for-saleU.S. Treasuries$149,228A $149,228A $â€A $â€A Municipal9,372A â€A 9,372A â€A Corporate4,413A â€A 4,413A â€A Asset-backed securities7,045A â€A 7,045A â€A Mortgage-backed securities38,271A â€A 38,271A â€A Total$208,329A $149,228A $59,101A $â€A Loans held for sale$7,481A $â€A $7,481A $â€A Derivative assets$â€A $â€A $â€A $â€A Derivative liabilities$â€A $â€A $â€A $â€A Financial instruments recorded using FASB ASC 825-10Under FASB ASC 825-10, the Company may elect to report most financial instruments and certain other items at fair value on an instrument-by-instrument basis with changes in fair value reported in net income. Fair value of the collateral is generally determined based upon independent third-party appraisals of the properties, or discounted cash flows based upon the expected proceeds. These assets are included as LevelA 3 fair values. As of September 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, the fair values consist of loan balances of $15.5A million and $16.0A million, with specific reserves of $1.0A million and $422A thousand, respectively.Foreclosed real estate - The Company's foreclosed real estate is measured at fair value less cost to sell. Fair value is determined based on offers and/or appraisals. Cost to sell the real estate is based on standard market factors. The Company categorizes its foreclosed real estate as Level 3. As of September 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, there was no foreclosed real estate held by the Company.The Company has categorized its financial instruments measured at fair value on a nonrecurring basis as of September 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023 as follows:(in thousands)September 30, 2024December 31, 2023Individually evaluated loans for credit loss, netLevel 3 inputs$14,456A $15,620A Totals$14,456A $15,620A The following table provides information describing the unobservable inputs used in Level 3 fair value measurements at September 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023:Unobservable InputsValuation TechniqueUnobservable InputsRange of InputsIndividually evaluated loansAppraised Value/Discounted Cash FlowsDiscounts to appraisals or cash flows for estimated holding and/or selling costs0 to 25%Fair value of financial instrumentsFair value information about financial instruments, whether or not recognized in the balance sheet, for which it is practical to estimate the value is based upon the characteristics of the instruments and relevant market information. Financial instruments include cash, evidence of ownership in an entity, or contracts that convey or impose on an entity the contractual right or obligation to either receive or deliver cash for another financial instrument. The information used to determine fair value is highly subjective in nature and, therefore, the results are imprecise. Subjective factors include, among other things, estimates of cash flows, risk characteristics, credit quality, and interest rates, all of which are subject to change. Since the fair value is estimated as of the balance sheet date, the amounts that will actually be realized or paid upon settlement or maturity on these various instruments could be significantly different.As of September 30, 2024, the techniques used by the Company to estimate the exit price of the loan portfolio consists of similar procedures to those used as of December 31, 2023. The fair value of the Companyâ€™s loan portfolio includes a credit risk assumption in the determination of the fair value of its loans. This credit risk assumption is intended to approximate the fair value that a market participant would realize in a hypothetical orderly transaction. The Companyâ€™s loan portfolio is initially fair valued using a segmented approach. The Company divides its loan portfolio into the following categories: variable rate loans, individually analyzed loans, and all other loans. The results are then adjusted to account for credit risk as described above, and a further credit risk discount is applied through the use of a discounted cash flow model to compensate for illiquidity risk, based on certain assumptions included within the discounted cash flow model, primarily the use of discount rates that better capture inherent credit risk over the lifetime of a loan.For variable-rate loans that reprice frequently and have no significant change in credit risk, fair values approximate carrying values. Fair values for impaired loans are estimated using discounted cash flow models or based on the fair value of the underlying collateral.The fair value of cash and cash equivalents and investments in restricted stocks is the carrying amount. Restricted investments includes equity of the Federal Reserve and other bankerâ€™s banks. The fair value of noninterest-bearing deposits and securities sold under agreements to repurchase is the carrying amount.The fair value of checking, savings, and money market deposits is the amount payable on demand at the reporting date. Fair value of fixed maturity term accounts and individual retirement accounts is estimated using rates currently offered for accounts of similar remaining maturities. The fair value of certificates of deposit in other financial institutions is estimated based on interest rates currently offered for deposits of similar remaining maturities. The fair value of borrowings is estimated by discounting the value of contractual cash flows using current market rates for borrowings with similar terms and remaining maturities. The fair value of outstanding loan commitments, unused lines of credit, and letters of credit are not included in the table since the carrying value generally approximates fair value. These instruments generate fees that approximate those currently charged to originate similar commitments.The table below presents the carrying amount, fair value, and placement in the fair value hierarchy of the Companyâ€™s financial instruments. [Abstract] A Segments SegmentsThe Companyâ€™s reportable segments represent business units with discrete financial information whose results are regularly reviewed by management. The four segments include Commercial Banking, Capital Bank Home Loans (the Companyâ€™s mortgage loan division), OpenSkyâ„ (the Companyâ€™s credit card division) and the Corporate Office. Effective January 1, 2024, the Company allocated certain expenses previously recorded directly to the Commercial Bank segment to the other segments. These expenses are for shared services also consumed by OpenSkyâ„, CBHL, and Corporate. The Company performs an allocation process based on several metrics the Company believes more accurately ascribe shared service overhead to each segment. The Company believes this reflects the cost of support for each segment that should be considered in assessing segment performance. Historical information has been recast to reflect financial information consistently with the 2024 presentation. The following schedule presents financial information for each reportable segment at September 30, 2024 and September 30, 2023. Basis of Presentation (Policies) 9 Months Ended Sep. 30, 2024 Accounting Policies [Abstract] A Nature of operations Nature of operations:Capital Bancorp, Inc. is a Maryland corporation and the bank holding company (the "Company") for Capital Bank, N.A. (the "Bank"). The Company's primary operations are conducted by the Bank, which operates branches in Rockville and Columbia, Maryland; Reston, Virginia; the District of Columbia; and Fort Lauderdale, Florida. The Bank is principally engaged in the business of investing in commercial, real estate, and credit card loans and attracting deposits. The Company originates residential mortgages for sale in the secondary market through Capital Bank Home Loans ("CBHL"), the Bank's residential mortgage banking arm, and issues credit cards through OpenSky, a digitally-driven nationwide credit card platform providing secured, partially secured, and unsecured credit solutions. The Company formed Church Street Capital, LLC ("Church Street Capital") in 2014 to provide short-term secured real estate financing to Washington, D.C. area investors and developers that may not meet all Bank credit criteria. At September 30, 2024, Church Street Capital had loans totaling $6.2 million with a collectively assessed allowance for credit losses ("ACL") of $184 thousand. Refer to Note 5 - "Portfolio Loans Receivable and Allowance for Credit Losses" to the Notes to Unaudited Consolidated Financial Statements for further discussion of the consolidated ACL. In addition, the Company owns all of the stock of Capital Bancorp (MD) Statutory Trust 1 (the "Trust"). The Trust is a special purpose non-consolidated entity organized for the sole purpose of issuing trust preferred securities. Basis of presentation Basis of presentation:The accompanying unaudited interim consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP") for interim financial information and with rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") and include the activity of the Company and its wholly-owned subsidiaries, the Bank and Church Street Capital. The statements do not include all of the information and footnotes required by GAAP for complete financial statements. All adjustments have been made which, in the opinion of management, are necessary for a fair presentation of the results for the interim periods presented. Such adjustments are all of a normal and recurring nature. All significant inter-company accounts and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation. The results of operations for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2024 are not necessarily indicative of the results that may be expected for the full year. These unaudited interim consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the Company's audited financial statements and the notes thereto as of December 31, 2023, included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2023. The Company reports its activities as four business segments: commercial banking; mortgage lending; credit cards; and corporate activities. In determining the appropriateness of segment definition, the Company considers components of the business about which financial information is available and regularly evaluated relative to resource allocation and performance assessment. Recently issued accounting pronouncements Recently issued accounting pronouncements:In December 2023, the FASB issued Accounting Standards Update ("ASU") 2023-07, "Segment Reporting (Topic 280), Improvements to Reportable Segment Disclosures" ("ASU 2023-07"). ASU 2023-07 requires public entities to disclose significant segment expenses, an amount and description for other segment items, the title and position of the entity's chief operating decision maker ("CODM") and an explanation of how the CODM uses the reported measures of profit or loss to assess segment performance, and, on an interim basis, certain segment related disclosures that previously were required only on an annual basis. ASU 2023-07 also clarifies that entities with a single reportable segment are subject to both new and existing segment reporting requirements and that an entity is permitted to disclose multiple measures of segment profit or loss, provided that certain criteria are met. ASU 2023-07 is effective for the Company for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2023 and interim periods within fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2024, with early adoption permitted. The Company will update its segment related disclosures upon adoption. In December 2023, the FASB issued Accounting Standards Update 2023-09, "Income Taxes (Topic 740), Improvements to Income Tax Disclosures" ("ASU 2023-09"). ASU 2023-09 requires public entities to disclose in their rate reconciliation table additional categories of information about federal, state and foreign income taxes and to provide more details about the reconciling items in some categories if items meet a quantitative threshold. ASU 2023-09 also requires all entities to disclose income taxes paid, net of refunds, disaggregated by federal, state and foreign taxes for annual periods and to disaggregate the information by jurisdiction based on quantitative thresholds, among other things. ASU 2023-09 is effective for the Company for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2024 with early adoption permitted. The Company will update its income tax disclosures upon adoption. Other accounting standards that have been issued or proposed by the FASB or other standards-setting bodies are not expected to have a material impact on the Company's financial position, results of operations or cash flows. Reclassifications:Reclassifications:Certain reclassifications have been made to amounts reported in prior periods to conform to the current period presentation. The reclassifications had no material effect on net income or total stockholders' equity. Subsequent events Subsequent events:Subsequent events are events or transactions that occur after the balance sheet date but before financial statements are issued. Recognized subsequent events are events or transactions that provide additional evidence about conditions that existed at the date of the balance sheet, including the estimates inherent in the process of preparing financial statements. Non-recognized subsequent events are events that provide evidence about conditions that did not exist at the date of the balance sheet but arose after that date. For further information on a subsequent event related to the Company's quarterly dividend, refer to Note 10. short-term secured real estate financing to Washington, D.C. area investors and developers that may not meet all Bank credit criteria. At September 30, 2024, Church Street Capital had loans totaling $6.2 million with a collectively assessed allowance for credit losses ("ACL") of $184 thousand. Refer to Note 5 – "Portfolio Loans Receivable and Allowance for Credit Losses" to the "Notes to Unaudited Consolidated Financial Statements" for further discussion of the consolidated ACL.

In addition, the Company owns all of the stock of Capital Bancorp (MD) Statutory Trust I (the "Trust"). The Trust is a special purpose non-consolidated entity organized for the sole purpose of issuing trust preferred securities.

Basis of presentation:

The accompanying unaudited interim consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP") for interim financial information and with rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") and include the activity of the Company and its wholly-owned subsidiaries, the Bank and Church Street Capital. The statements do not include all of the information and footnotes required by GAAP for complete financial statements. All adjustments have been made which, in the opinion of management, are necessary for a fair presentation of the results for the interim periods presented. Such adjustments are all of a normal and recurring nature. All significant inter-company accounts and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation. The results of operations for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2024 are not necessarily indicative of the results that may be expected for the full year. These unaudited interim consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the Company's audited financial statements and the notes thereto as of December 31, 2023, included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2023.

The Company reports its activities as four business segments: commercial banking; mortgage lending; credit cards; and corporate activities. In determining the appropriateness of segment definition, the Company considers components of the business about which financial information is available and regularly evaluated relative to resource allocation and performance assessment.

Significant accounting policies:

The preparation of consolidated financial statements in accordance with GAAP requires estimates and judgments that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses and related disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities. The primary reference point for the estimates is on historical experience and assumptions believed to be reasonable regarding the value of certain assets and liabilities that are not readily available from other sources. Estimates are evaluated on an ongoing basis. Actual results may materially differ from these estimates under different assumptions or conditions. The Company's significant accounting policies are described in the "Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements" included in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2023. There have been no changes to our significant accounting policies during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2024.

Recently issued accounting pronouncements:

In December 2023, the FASB issued Accounting Standards Update ("ASU") 2023-07, "Segment Reporting (Topic 280), Improvements to Reportable Segment Disclosures" ("ASU 2023-07"). ASU 2023-07 requires public entities to disclose significant segment expenses, an amount and description for other segment items, the title and position of the entity's chief operating decision maker ("CODM") and an explanation of how the CODM uses the reported measures of profit or loss to assess segment performance, and, on an interim basis, certain segment related disclosures that previously were required only on an annual basis. ASU 2023-07 also clarifies that entities with a single reportable segment are subject to both new and existing segment reporting requirements and that an entity is permitted to disclose multiple measures of segment profit or loss, provided that certain criteria are met. ASU 2023-07 is effective for the Company for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2023 and interim periods within fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2024, with early adoption permitted. The Company will update its segment related disclosures upon adoption.

In December 2023, the FASB issued Accounting Standards Update 2023-09, "Income Taxes (Topic 740), Improvements to Income Tax Disclosures" ("ASU 2023-09"). ASU 2023-09 requires public entities to disclose in their rate reconciliation table additional categories of information about federal, state and foreign income taxes and to provide more details about the reconciling items in some categories if items meet a quantitative threshold. ASU 2023-09 also requires all entities to disclose income taxes paid, net of refunds, disaggregated by federal, state and foreign taxes for annual periods and to disaggregate the information by jurisdiction based on quantitative thresholds, among other things. ASU 2023-09 is effective for the Company for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2024 with early adoption permitted. The Company will update its income tax disclosures upon adoption.

Other accounting standards that have been issued or proposed by the FASB or other standards-setting bodies are not expected to have a material impact on the Company's financial position, results of operations or cash flows.

Reclassifications:

Subsequent events:

Certain reclassifications have been made to amounts reported in prior periods to conform to the current period presentation. The reclassifications had no material effect on net income or total stockholders' equity.

Subsequent events:

Subsequent events are events or transactions that occur after the balance sheet date but before financial statements are issued. Recognized subsequent events are events or transactions that provide additional evidence about conditions that existed at the date of the balance sheet, including the estimates inherent in the process of preparing financial statements. Non-recognized subsequent events are events that provide evidence about conditions that did not exist at the date of the balance sheet but arose after that date. For further information on a subsequent event related to the Company's quarterly dividend, refer to Note 10.

Nature of operations:

Capital Bancorp, Inc. is a Maryland corporation and the bank holding company (the "Company") for Capital Bank, N.A. (the "Bank"). The Company's primary operations are conducted by the Bank, which operates branches in Rockville and Columbia, Maryland; Reston, Virginia; the District of Columbia; and Fort Lauderdale, Florida. The Bank is principally engaged in the business of investing in commercial, real estate, and credit card loans and attracting deposits. The Company originates residential mortgages for sale in the secondary market through Capital Bank Home Loans ("CBHL"), the Bank's residential mortgage banking arm, and issues credit cards through OpenSky™, a digitally-driven nationwide credit card platform providing secured, partially secured, and unsecured credit solutions.

The Company formed Church Street Capital, LLC ("Church Street Capital") in 2014 to provide short-term secured real estate financing to Washington, D.C. area investors and developers that may not meet all Bank credit criteria. Note 2 – Acquisition Acquisition of Integrated Financial Holdings, Inc.

On October 1, 2024, the Company completed its previously announced merger (the "Merger") with Integrated Financial Holdings, Inc., a North Carolina corporation ("IFHI") pursuant to an Agreement and Plan of Merger and Reorganization (the "Merger Agreement"), dated as of March 27, 2024. At the effective time of the Merger (the "Effective Time"), IFHI merged with and into the Company, with the Company continuing as the surviving corporation in the Merger. Immediately following the Merger, West Town Bank & Trust, merged with and into Capital Bank, with Capital Bank as the surviving bank.

In accordance with the terms of the Merger Agreement, each share of IFHI's common stock, par value $1.00 per share was converted into the right to receive (i) 1.115 shares of the Company's common stock, par value $0.01 per share, and (ii) subject to certain adjustments, $5.36 in cash per share of IFHI common stock, par value $1.00 per share, held immediately prior to the Effective Time, as well as cash in lieu of fractional shares of the Company's common stock. In addition, each stock option granted by IFHI to purchase shares of IFHI common stock, whether vested or unvested, outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time, was assumed by the Company and converted into an equivalent option to purchase the Company's common stock, with the same terms and conditions as applied to the IFHI stock option.

During the three and nine months ended September 30, 2024, the Company incurred merger-related expenses related to the acquisition of IFHI totaling $0.5 million and $1.3 million, respectively.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include cash and amounts due from banks, interest-bearing deposits and federal funds sold. The Bank is required by regulations to maintain an average cash reserve balance based on a percentage of deposits; however, on March 15, 2020, the Federal Reserve announced that, due to economic conditions, reserve requirement ratios for all depository institutions would be reduced to zero percent effective March 26, 2020. The reserve requirement is still at zero percent as of September 30, 2024.

As of September 30, 2024, management determined the Company does not have the intent to sell, nor is it more likely than not that it will be required to sell, available-for-sale debt securities in an unrealized loss position at September 30, 2024 before it is able to recover the amortized cost basis. Further, management reviewed the Company's holdings as of September 30, 2024 and concluded there were no credit-related declines in fair value. Additional information related to the types of securities held at September 30, 2024, other than securities issued or guaranteed by U.S. Government entities or agencies including U.S. Treasuries and substantially all of the Company's mortgage-backed securities, is as follows:

Corporate Securities — There have been no payment defaults on any of the Company's holdings of corporate debt securities. There are five securities all of which are subordinated debt of other financial institutions with face amounts ranging from $0.5 million to $2 million.

Municipal Securities — All of the Company's holdings of municipal bonds were investment grade and there have been no payment defaults. Summary ratings information at September 30, 2024, based on the amortized cost basis and reflecting the lowest enhanced or underlying rating by Moody's, Standard & Poors or Fitch, is as follows: AAA – 82% of the portfolio; AA+ – 8%; AA – 10%.

Asset-backed Securities — There were three investment grade asset-backed securities, and there have been no payment defaults on these securities.

As such, it is deemed the above listed securities are not in an unrealized loss position due to credit-related issues and no further analysis is warranted as of September 30, 2024.

Credit quality indicators

As part of the ongoing monitoring of the credit quality of the Company’s loan portfolio, management tracks certain credit quality indicators including trends related to the risk grade of loans, the level of classified loans, net charge-offs, nonperforming loans, and general economic conditions in the Company’s market. From a credit risk standpoint, the Company utilizes a risk grading matrix to assign a risk grade to each of its loans. The classifications of loans reflect a judgment about the risk of expected credit loss associated with each loan. Credit quality indicators are reviewed and adjusted regularly to account for the degree of risk and expected credit loss that the Company believes to be appropriate for each financial asset.

A description of the general characteristics of loans characterized as classified is as follows:

Pass

Loans characterized as pass includes loans graded exceptional, very good, good, satisfactory and pass/watch. The Company believes that there is a low likelihood of credit deterioration related to those loans that are considered pass.

Special mention

A special mention loan has potential weaknesses that deserve management's close attention. If left uncorrected, these potential weaknesses may result in deterioration of the repayment prospects for the asset or in the Company's credit position at some future date. Special mention loans are not adversely classified and do not expose the Company to sufficient risk to warrant adverse classification.

Borrowers may exhibit poor liquidity and leverage positions resulting from generally negative cash flow or negative trends in earnings. Access to alternative financing may be limited to finance companies for business borrowers and may be unavailable for commercial real estate borrowers.

Substandard

A substandard loan is inadequately protected by the current financial condition and paying capacity of the obligor or of the collateral pledged, if any. Substandard loans have a well-defined weakness, or weaknesses, that jeopardize the liquidation of the debt. They are characterized by the distinct possibility that the Company will sustain some loss if the deficiencies are not corrected.

Borrowers may exhibit recent or unexpected unprofitable operations, an inadequate debt service coverage ratio, or marginal liquidity and capitalization. These loans require more intense supervision by Company management.

Doubtful

A doubtful loan has all the weaknesses associated with a substandard loan with the added characteristic that the weaknesses make collection or liquidation in full, on the basis of currently existing facts, conditions, and values, highly questionable and improbable.

Ungraded

Ungraded loans represent credit card loans not included in the individual credit grading process due to the borrower type. The credit quality indicator for credit card loans is based on delinquency status of the borrower as of the date presented.

The following table presents the balances of classified loans based on the most recent credit quality indicator analysis. Classified loans include Special Mention, Substandard and Doubtful loans. Pass classified loans include loans graded exceptional, very good, good, satisfactory, and pass/watch. Credit card loans are ungraded as they are not individually graded. Charge-offs presented represent gross charge-offs recognized in the current period:

Letters of credit

Outstanding loan commitments in the credit card portfolio include $100.0 million and $98.2 million in secured and partially secured balances as of September 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, respectively.

Lines of credit are agreements to lend to a customer as long as there is no violation of any condition of the contract. Lines of credit generally have variable interest rates. Such lines do not represent future cash requirements because it is unlikely that all customers will, at any given time, draw upon their lines in full. Loan commitments generally have variable interest rates, fixed expiration dates, and may require payment of a fee.

The Company's maximum exposure to credit loss in the event of nonperformance by the customer is the contractual amount of the credit commitment. Loan commitments and lines of credit are generally made on the same terms, including with regard to collateral, as outstanding loans. Management is not aware of any accounting loss to be incurred by funding these loan commitments.

The Company maintains an estimated reserve for unfunded commitments and certain off-balance sheet items such as unfunded lines of credit, which is reflected in other liabilities, with increases or decreases in the reserve being charged to or released from operating expense. Activity for this account is as follows for the periods presented:

The Company then locks the loan and rate in with an investor and commits to deliver the loan if settlement occurs (Best Efforts). Certain loans under rate lock commitments are covered under forward sales contracts. Forward sales contracts are recorded at fair value with changes in fair value recorded in mortgage banking revenue. Interest rate lock commitments and commitments to deliver loans to investors are considered to be derivatives. The market value of interest rate lock commitments and best efforts contracts are not readily ascertainable with precision because they are not actively traded in stand-alone markets. The Company has elected to account for loans held for sale at fair value to eliminate the mismatch that would occur by recording changes in market value on derivative instruments used to hedge loans held for sale while carrying the loans at the lower of cost or market. As of September 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, there were no held for sale loans which were classified as nonaccrual.

Fair value measurements on a nonrecurring basis

Individually evaluated loans

The Company has measured expected credit losses based on the fair value of the loan's collateral and discounted cash flow analysis, where appropriate. Fair value of the collateral is generally determined based upon independent third party appraisals of the properties, or discounted cash flows based upon the expected proceeds. These assets are included as Level 3 fair values. As of September 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, the fair values consist of loan balances of $15.5 million and $16.0 million, with specific reserves of $1.0 million and $422 thousand, respectively.

Foreclosed real estate

The Company's foreclosed real estate is measured at fair value less cost to sell. Fair value is determined based on offers and/or appraisals. Cost to sell the real estate is based on standard market factors. The Company categorizes its foreclosed real estate as Level 3. As of September 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, there was no foreclosed real estate held by the Company.

The Company has categorized its financial instruments measured at fair value on a nonrecurring basis as of September 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023 as follows:

Subjective factors include, among other things, estimates of cash flows, risk characteristics, credit quality, and interest rates, all of which are subject to change. Since the fair value is estimated as of the balance sheet date, the amounts that will actually be realized or paid upon settlement or maturity on these various instruments could be significantly different.As of September 30, 2024, the techniques used by the Company to estimate the exit price of the loan portfolio consists of similar procedures to those used as of December 31, 2023. The fair value of the Company's loan portfolio includes a credit risk assumption in the determination of the fair value of its loans. This credit risk assumption is intended to approximate the fair value that a market participant would realize in a hypothetical orderly transaction. The Company's loan portfolio is initially fair valued using a segmented approach. The Company divides its loan portfolio into the following categories: variable rate loans, individually analyzed loans, and all other loans. The results are then adjusted to account for credit risk as described above, and a further credit risk discount is applied through the use of a discounted cash flow model to compensate for illiquidity risk, based on certain assumptions included within the discounted cash flow model, primarily the use of discount rates that better capture inherent credit risk over the lifetime of a loan.For variable-rate loans that reprice frequently and have no significant change in credit risk, fair values approximate carrying values. Fair values for impaired loans are estimated using discounted cash flow models or based on the fair value of the underlying collateral.The fair value of cash and cash equivalents and investments in restricted stocks is the carrying amount. Restricted investments includes equity of the Federal Reserve and other banker's banks.The fair value of noninterest-bearing deposits and securities sold under agreements to repurchase is the carrying amount.The fair value of checking, savings, and money market deposits is the amount payable on demand at the reporting date. Fair value of fixed maturity term accounts and individual retirement accounts is estimated using rates currently offered for accounts of similar remaining maturities.The fair value of certificates of deposit in other financial institutions is estimated based on interest rates currently offered for deposits of similar remaining maturities.The fair value of borrowings is estimated by discounting the value of contractual cash flows using current market rates for borrowings with similar terms and remaining maturities.The fair value of outstanding loan commitments, unused lines of credit, and letters of credit are not included in the table since the carrying value generally approximates fair value.
