A Nature of the Business and Basis of Presentationindie Semiconductor, Inc. (â€œindieâ€”) and its predecessor for accounting purposes, Ay Dee Kay, LLC, a California limited liability company (â€œADK LLCâ€”) and its subsidiaries are collectively referred to herein as the â€œCompanyâ€”. The Company offers highly innovative automotive semiconductors and software solutions for Advanced Driver Assistance Systems (â€œADASâ€”), autonomous vehicle, connected car, user experience and electrification applications. The Company focuses on edge sensors across multiple modalities spanning LiDAR, radar, ultrasound and computer vision. These functions represent the core underpinnings of both electric and autonomous vehicles, while the advanced user interfaces are transforming the in-cabin experience to mirror and seamlessly connect to the mobile platforms people rely on every day. indie is an approved vendor to Tier 1 automotive suppliers and its platforms can be found in marquee automotive manufacturers around the world. Headquartered in Aliso Viejo, California, indie has design centers and sales offices in Austin, Texas; Detroit, Michigan; San Jose, California; Cordoba, Argentina; Budapest, Hungary; Dresden, Frankfurt am der Oder, Munich and Nuremberg, Germany; Edinburgh, Scotland; Schlieren, Switzerland; Rabat, Morocco; Haifa, Israel; Quebec City and Toronto, Canada; Seoul, South Korea; Tokyo, Japan and several locations throughout China. The Company engages subcontractors to manufacture its products. The majority of these subcontractors are located in Asia.Execution of At-The-Market AgreementOn August 26, 2022, the Company entered into an At Market Issuance Agreement (â€œATM Agreementâ€”) with B. Riley Securities, Inc., Craig-Hallum Capital Group LLC and Roth Capital Partners, LLC (collectively as â€œSales Agentsâ€”) relating to shares of its Class A common stock, par value $0.0001 per share (the â€œClass A common stockâ€”). In accordance with the terms of the ATM Agreement, the Company may offer and sell shares of its Class A common stock having an aggregate offering price of up to $150,000 from time to time through the Sales Agents, acting as the Companyâ€”s agent or principal. The Company implemented this program for the flexible access that it provides to the capital markets. As of September 30, 2024, and since the inception of the program indie has raised gross proceeds of $83,865 and issued 9,393,259 shares of Class A common stock at an average per-share sales price of $8.93 and had approximately $66,135 available for future issuances under the ATM Agreement. During the three months ended September 30, 2024, indie raised gross proceeds of $11,157 and issued 1,696,948 shares of Class A common stock at an average sales price of $6.57 per share. During the nine months ended September 30, 2024, indie raised gross proceeds of $13,526 and issued 2,042,000 shares of Class A common stock at an average sales price of $6.62 per share. During the three months ended September 30, 2023, there was no ATM related activity. During the nine months ended September 30, 2023, indie raised gross proceeds of $53,136 and issued 5,219,500 shares of Class A common stock at an average sales price of $10.18 per share. For the three months ended September 30, 2024 and 2023, indie incurred total issuance costs of $240 and $0, respectively. For the nine months ended September 30, 2024 and 2023, indie incurred total issuance costs of $291 and $1,136, respectively.Recent AcquisitionOn January 25, 2024 (the â€œDeal Closing Dateâ€”), indie and ADK LLC completed its acquisition of Kinetic Technologies, LLC (â€œKineticâ€”). The acquisition was consummated pursuant to an Asset Purchase Agreement (the â€œAPAâ€”) to acquire certain research and development personnel, intellectual property and business properties from Kinetic, in support of a custom product development for a North American electric vehicle original equipment manufacturer (â€œOEMâ€”). The closing consideration consisted of (i) $3,200 in cash as the initial cash consideration, net of an adjustment holdback amount of $500 and an indemnity holdback amount of $800, (ii) $2,348 of total contingent considerations, payable in cash or Class A common stock, subject to achievement of certain production based milestones 24 months after the Deal Closing Date (â€œthe Production Earnoutâ€”), and (iii) $2,251 of contingent considerations, payable in cash or Class A common stock, subject to achievement of certain revenue based milestones 12 months after the Deal Closing Date (â€œthe Revenue Earnoutâ€”). The purchase price was subject to working capital and other adjustments as provided in the APA. The indemnity holdback amount is payable within five business days after the 18-month anniversary of the Deal Closing Date and is payable in shares of Class A common stock.See Note 2 â€œBusiness Combinations for a full description of all of the recent acquisitions.11Table of ContentsRisks and UncertaintiesCurrent and continued inflationary conditions have led, and may continue to lead to rising prices or rising interest rates, which has had a dampening effect on overall economic activity and consumer demand for automotive products. Additionally, the conflict in the Middle East and the implication of this event has created global political and economic uncertainty. The Company is closely monitoring developments, including potential impact to the Companyâ€”s business, customers, suppliers, its employees and operations in Israel, the Middle East and elsewhere. At this time, the impact to indie is subject to change given the volatile nature of the situation.Basis of PresentationThe condensed consolidated financial statements are prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America (â€œU.S. GAAPâ€”) and the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission (â€œSECâ€”). Any reference in these notes to applicable guidance is meant to refer to the authoritative U.S. GAAP as found in the Accounting Standards Codification (â€œASCâ€”) and the Accounting Standards Update (â€œASUâ€”) of the Financial Accounting Standards Board (â€œFASBâ€”). The condensed consolidated financial statements include the condensed consolidated accounts of the Companyâ€”s majority-owned subsidiary, ADK LLC, of which approximately 91% was owned by indie as of September 30, 2024. ADK LLCâ€”s condensed consolidated financial statements include its wholly-owned subsidiaries indie Services Corporation, indie LLC and indie City LLC, all California entities, Ay Dee Kay Limited (â€œAy Dee Kay Ltd.â€”), a private limited company incorporated under the laws of Scotland, indie GmbH, Symeo GmbH, and Silicon Radar GmbH (â€œSilicon Radarâ€”), all of which are private limited liability companies incorporated under the laws of Germany, Exalos AG (â€œExalosâ€”), a company limited by shares organized under the laws of Switzerland, indie Kft, a limited liability company incorporated under the laws of Hungary, TeraXion Inc. and Geo Semiconductor Canada Inc., both incorporated under the laws of Canada, indie Semiconductor Israel Ltd., a private limited company incorporated under the laws of Israel, Ay Dee Kay S.A., a limited liability company incorporated under the laws of Argentina, indie Semiconductor Morocco, a limited liability company under the laws of Morocco, indie Semiconductor Japan KK, a limited liability company under the laws of Japan, Wuxi indie Microelectronics (â€œWuxiâ€”), a Chinese entity with approximately 59% voting controlled and approximately 34% owned by the Company as of September 30, 2024 and Wuxiâ€”s wholly-owned subsidiaries, indie Semiconductor Suzhou, indie Semiconductor HK, Ltd and Shanghai Ziyang Microelectronics Co., Ltd.All significant intercompany accounts and transactions of the subsidiaries have been eliminated in consolidation. The noncontrolling interest attributable to the Companyâ€”s less-than-wholly-owned subsidiary is presented as a separate component from stockholdersâ€” equity (deficit) in the condensed consolidated balance sheets, and a noncontrolling interest in the condensed consolidated statements of operations and condensed consolidated statements of stockholdersâ€” equity (deficit) and noncontrolling interest.Unaudited Interim Financial InformationThe accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements have been prepared pursuant to the rules and regulations of the SEC for interim financial reporting. Certain information and footnote disclosures, normally included in annual consolidated financial statements prepared in accordance with U.S. GAAP, have been condensed or omitted pursuant to those rules and regulations. However, in managementâ€”s opinion, the financial information reflects all adjustments, including those of a normal recurring nature, necessary to present fairly the results of operations, financial position, and cash flows of the Company for the periods presented. The results of operations, financial position, and cash flows for the Company during the interim periods are not necessarily indicative of those expected for the full year. This information should be read in conjunction with the Companyâ€”s consolidated financial statements and notes thereto contained in the Companyâ€”s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2023, filed with the SEC on February 29, 2024.12Table of ContentsSignificant Accounting PoliciesThe Companyâ€”s significant accounting policies are disclosed in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2023. There has been no material change to the Companyâ€”s significant accounting policies during the nine months ended September 30, 2024.Recent Accounting PronouncementsRecently Issued Not Yet Adopted Accounting PronouncementsIn November 2024, the FASB issued ASU No. 2024-03, Income Statement - Reporting Comprehensive Income - Expenses Disaggregation Disclosures (Subtopic 220-40): Disaggregation of Income Statement Expenses, which provides guidance to enhance disclosures related to the disaggregation of income statement expenses. The standard requires, in the notes to the financial statements, disclosure of specified information about certain costs and expenses which includes purchases of inventory, employee compensation, depreciation, and intangible asset amortization included in each relevant expense caption. The standard also requires amounts that are already required to be disclosed under U.S. GAAP in the same disclosure as the other disaggregation requirements, disclosure of a qualitative description of the amounts remaining in relevant expense captions that are not separately disaggregated quantitatively, and disclosure of the total amount of selling expenses and, in annual reporting periods, an entity's definition of selling expenses. The amendments in this standard are effective for annual periods beginning after December 15, 2026, and interim periods beginning after December 15, 2027. Companies have the option to apply the guidance either on a retrospective or prospective basis, and early adoption is permitted. The Company is currently evaluating the impact of ASU 2024-03 on its condensed consolidated financial statements and related disclosures. In December 2023, the FASB issued ASU No. 2023-09, Income Taxes (Topic 740) â€œImprovements to Income Tax Disclosures, to require enhanced income tax disclosures to provide information to assess how an entityâ€”s operations and related tax risks, tax planning, and operational opportunities affect its tax rate and prospects for future cash flows. The amendments in this update provide that a business entity disclose (1) a tabular income tax rate reconciliation, using both percentages and amounts, (2) separate disclosure of any individual reconciling items that are equal to or greater than 5% of the amount computed by multiplying the income (loss) from continuing operations before income taxes by the applicable statutory income tax rate, and disaggregation of certain items that are significant and (3) amount of income taxes paid (net of refunds received) disaggregated by federal, state and foreign jurisdictions, including separate disclosure of any individual jurisdictions greater than 5% of total income taxes paid. These amendments are effective for the Company for annual periods in 2025, applied prospectively, with early adoption and retrospective application permitted. The Company intends to adopt the amendments in this update prospectively in 2025. The impact of the adoption of the amendments in this update is not expected to be material to the Companyâ€”s condensed consolidated financial position and results of operations since the amendments require only enhancement of existing income tax disclosures in the notes to the Companyâ€”s condensed consolidated financial statements.In November 2023, the FASB issued ASU No. 2023-07, Segment Reporting (Topic 280) â€œImprovements to Reportable Segment Disclosures, to require enhanced disclosures that include reportable segment expenses. The amendments in this update provide that a business entity disclose significant segment expenses, segment profit or loss (after significant segment expenses), and allows reporting of additional measures of a segments profit or loss if used in assessing segment performance. Such disclosures apply to entities with a single reportable segment and are effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2023, and interim periods within fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2024, on a retrospective basis. Early adoption is permitted. The Company is currently evaluating the impact of ASU 2023-07 on its condensed consolidated financial statements and related disclosures but does not expect the impact to be material.13Table of Contents2. A Business CombinationsThe Company acquired Silicon Radar GmbH (â€œSilicon Radarâ€”) in February 2023, GEO Semiconductor, Inc. (â€œGEOâ€”) in March 2023, Exalos in September 2023 and Kinetic in January 2024. These acquisitions were recorded by allocating the purchase consideration to the net assets acquired based on their estimated fair values at the acquisition date. The excess of the purchase consideration for the acquisition over the fair value of the net assets acquired is recorded as goodwill. The following presents the preliminary allocation of the purchase consideration to the assets acquired and liabilities assumed for Kinetic, and the final allocation of the purchase consideration to the assets acquired and liabilities assumed for Exalos, Silicon Radar and GEO as of September 30, 2024:KineticExalosSilicon RadarGEOPurchase price - cash consideration paid$3,200$ â€”$ $8,653$ 91,076$ Purchase price - cash consideration accrued1,300$ â€”$ 800$ 3,464$ Less: cash acquired$â€”$ (3,439) (208)(1,092)Net cash consideration$4,500$ (3,439)$ 9,245$ 93,448$ Purchase price - equity consideration issued (common stock)$â€”$ 442,791$ 9,834$ 75,556$ Purchase price - equity consideration issuable (common stock)$â€”$ 2,500$ â€”$ 20,979$ Total equity consideration$â€”$ 445,291$ 9,834$ 96,535$ Contingent consideration$4,599$ 9,554$ 9,240$ 59,280$ Net consideration$9,099$ 51,607$ 28,319$ 249,263$ Estimated fair value of net assets and liabilities assumed:Current assets other than cash$6,040$ 4,531$ 2,979$ 24,043$ Property and equipment$962$ 1,253$ 781$ 178$ Developed technology$455$ 23,100$ 4,950$ 69,330$ In-process research & development$750$ 7,600$ 8,870$ 27,040$ Customer relationships$250$ 4,670$ 4,340$ 14,220$ Backlog$19$ 1,220$ 150$ 390$ Trade name$97$ 4,300$ 2,130$ 10,320$ Other non-current assets$729$ â€”$ 17$ 10$ Current liabilities$(752)(3,541)(1,585)(6,084)Deferred revenue$â€”$ â€”$ (512)$ â€”$ Deferred tax liabilities, non-current$â€”$ (8,660)(2,772)(1,982)Other non-current liabilities(217)$ â€”$ 711$ Total fair value of net assets acquired$8,333$ 36,673$ 19,348$ 136,754$ Goodwill$766$ 14,934$ 8,971$ 112,509$ For all acquisitions, trade receivables and payables, as well as other current and non-current assets and liabilities and deferred revenue, were valued at the existing carrying value as they represented the fair value of those items at the acquisition date, based on managementâ€”s judgments and estimates. Because the acquisition related to Kinetic occurred within the last twelve months, the Companyâ€”s fair value estimates for the purchase price allocation are preliminary and may change during the allowable measurement period, which is up to the point the Company obtains and analyzes the information that existed as of the date of the acquisition necessary to determine the fair values of the assets acquired and liabilities assumed, but in no case to exceed more than one year from the date of the acquisition. Changes in the estimated fair values of the net assets recorded for the business combination of Kinetic upon the finalization of more detailed analyses of the facts and circumstances that existed at the date of the transaction will change the allocation of the purchase price. Subsequent changes to the purchase allocation during the measurement period that are material will be recorded in the reporting period in which the adjustment amounts are determined. As of November 8, 2024, the 14Table of ContentsCompany had not finalized the determination of fair values allocated to various assets and liabilities, including, but not limited to, inventory, property, plant and equipment, identifiable intangible assets, deferred taxes, goodwill, tax uncertainties, income taxes payable, contingent considerations and other liabilities. Specifically for the valuation of intangibles assets acquired, the Company used publicly available benchmarking information, as well as a variety of other assumptions, including market participant assumptions to determine the preliminary values. Any changes in the fair values of the assets acquired and liabilities assumed during the measurement period may result in material adjustments to goodwill and/or deferred taxes.Refer to Note 2 Business Combination within Part II, Item 8 of our 2023 Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2023 under the heading â€œFinancial Statements and Supplementary Dataâ€” for a detailed discussion of acquisitions of Silicon Radar and GEO.Acquisition of Exalos AGOn September 18, 2023, Ay Dee Kay Ltd. completed its acquisition of Exalos pursuant to that Share Sale and Purchase Agreement by and among Ay Dee Kay Ltd., the Company and all of the stockholders of Exalos, whereby Ay Dee Kay Ltd. acquired all of the outstanding common shares of Exalos. The closing consideration consisted of (i) approximately 6,613,786 shares of Class A common stock of the Company, with a fair value of $42,791; (ii) a contingent consideration with fair value of $9,755 at closing, payable in cash or Class A common stock, subject to Exalosâ€” achievement of certain revenue-based milestones through September 30, 2025; and (iii) a holdback of $2,500 subject to final release 12 months from the acquisition date payable in shares of Class A common stock. The purchase price is subject to working capital and other adjustments as provided in the Share Sale and Purchase Agreement. The Company paid a premium (i.e., goodwill) over the fair value of the net tangible and identified intangible assets acquired as this acquisition immediately expands the Companyâ€”s ADAS and User Experience product and technology offering to its global tier one and automotive OEM customer base. Specifically, indie can now leverage Exalosâ€” technology portfolio to extend its FMCW LiDAR portfolio. The goodwill is not expected to be deductible for tax purposes.The Company incurred various acquisition-related costs, which were primarily legal expenses and recorded as part of the Selling, General and Administrative expenses. Total costs incurred were $621 during the year ended December 31, 2023. Total costs incurred are $262 for the nine months ended September 30, 2024.The Company maintained an adjustment holdback for the purpose of providing security against any adjustment to the amounts at closing. The holdback period extended for 12 months from the closing date and was paid in shares of Class A common stock. On September 27, 2024, the adjustment holdback was settled and 610,975 shares of Class A common stock were issued with a final fair value of $2,548. Accordingly, the fair value of the adjustment holdback liability was reduced to zero as of September 30, 2024 and a loss of $48 was recorded in Other income (expense), net for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2024 in the condensed consolidated statement of operations. Total purchase consideration transferred at closing also included contingent consideration that had a fair value of $9,755 as of the acquisition date. The acquisition date fair value of the contingent consideration was determined based on the Company's assessment of the probability of achieving the performance targets that ultimately obligate the Company to transfer additional consideration to the seller through the Monte Carlo simulation. The contingent consideration is comprised of two tranches, with maximum payout up to $13,500 and $6,500, respectively, both subject to Exalos achieving certain revenue targets. Both tranches are payable in cash or Class A common stock, at the election, up to a maximum of $20,000, upon the achievement of a revenue threshold of $19,000 for the 12-month period ending on September 30, 2024 and the achievement of a revenue threshold of $21,000 for the 12-month period ending on September 30, 2025, respectively. The fair value of any outstanding contingent consideration liabilities will be remeasured as of the end of each reporting period with any resulting remeasurement gains or losses recognized in the condensed consolidated statement of operations. The first and second tranche of this earn-out liability are both reflected in Contingent considerations in the condensed consolidated balance sheet as of September 30, 2024. On November 7, 2024, the first tranche of contingent consideration was settled through the issuance of 2,845,243 shares of Class A common stock and cash payment of $2,536. The Company initially used the probability-weighted method to determine the fair value of the equity-based earn out as certain information was not available to conduct the Monte Carlo Simulations analysis. Changes in fair value of inventory, property and equipment, operating lease right-of-use assets step-up and deferred tax liabilities were a result of gathering additional information during the measurement period. The Company also revised the initial values of intangible assets as a result of switching from utilizing publicly available benchmarking information to determine the fair value of the intangible assets to primarily utilizing an income method based on forecasts of expected future cash flows. As a result, the Company recorded an adjustment to increase the amortization of intangible assets of $554 in the condensed consolidated statement of operations during the three months ended September 30, 2024 that would have been recorded during year ended December 31, 2023 if the adjustment to the intangible assets had been recognized as of the date of the acquisition. Developed technology relates to near-infrared super-luminescent diodes (SLEDs), which can be used in Fiber-Optic Gyroscopes (FOG) for aerospace and defense navigation systems and sensors for fiber-optic sensing applications. Exalos existing SLEDs technology is complementary to TeraXion's fiber-optic technology and immediately expands into ADAS and user experience product and technology. Developed technologies was valued using relief from royalty of the income approach. The selected royalty rate was determined based on an analysis of licensing agreements related to similar technologies and was further adjusted to reflect the maintenance R&D expenses associated with sustaining the technology. The economic useful life was determined to be ten years based on the technology cycle related to each developed technology, as well as the cash flows over the forecast period.Customer relationships represent the fair value of future projected revenue that will be derived from sales of products to existing customers of Exalos. The fair value was determined by applying the excess earnings method of the income approach. The economic useful life was determined to be seven years. Backlog relates to various purchase orders in place with Exalos' customers at the time of the acquisition. The fair value was determined by applying the excess earnings method of the income approach. The economic useful life was determined to be two years. Trade name relates to the Exalos trade name. The fair value was determined by applying the relief from royalty of the income approach. The selected royalty rate was determined based on an analysis of licensing agreements related to similar brand names. The economic useful life was determined to be seven years.The fair value of IPR&D was determined using the relief from royalty of the income approach. The selected royalty rate was determined based on an analysis of licensing agreements related to similar technologies and was further adjusted to reflect the maintenance R&D expenses associated with sustaining the technology.Under both the relief from royalty and multi-period excess earnings methods, the fair value models incorporated estimates of future cash flows, estimates of allocations of certain assets and cash flows, estimates of future growth rates and management's 16Table of Contentsjudgment regarding the applicable discount rates to use to discount such estimates of cash flows. Because the estimates and assumptions made by management at the time of the acquisitions are unobservable and significant to the overall fair value measurement of these acquired identifiable intangible assets, the corresponding fair values are classified as Level 3 fair value hierarchy measurements.Pro forma financial information for Exalos is not disclosed as the results are not material to the Company's condensed consolidated financial statements.Acquisition of KineticOn January 25, 2024 (Deal Closing Date), indie and ADK LLC completed its acquisition of Kinetic. The acquisition was consummated pursuant to an executed APA to acquire certain research and development personnel, intellectual property and business properties from Kinetic, in support of a custom product development for a North American electric vehicle OEM. The closing consideration consisted of (i) $3,200 in cash as the Initial Cash Consideration, net of an adjustment holdback amount of $500 and an indemnity holdback amount of $800, (ii) the Production Earnout with fair value of $2,348, payable in cash or Class A common stock, subject to achievement of certain production based milestones 24 months after the Deal Closing Date, and (iii) the Revenue Earnout with fair value of $2,251, payable in cash or Class A common stock, subject to achievement of certain revenue based milestones 12 months after the Deal Closing Date. The purchase price is subject to working capital and other adjustments as provided in the APA. The indemnity holdback amount is payable within five business days after the 18-month anniversary of the Deal Closing Date and is payable in shares of Class A common stock.The Company paid a premium (i.e., goodwill) over the fair value of the net tangible and identified intangible assets acquired as this acquisition brings the Company a new family of smart connectivity solutions that enable high-speed networking of displays and controllers throughout the vehicle, which already generated interest from OEMs. The goodwill is expected to be deductible for tax purposes.indie incurred various acquisition-related costs, which were primarily legal expense, and recorded these as part of the Selling, General and Administrative expenses. Total costs incurred are $352 for the nine months ended September 30, 2024. The Company maintains an adjustment holdback and an indemnity holdback for the purpose of providing security against any adjustment to the amounts at closing. The adjustment holdback of $500 was released in July 2024 through a cash settlement while the indemnity holdback of $800 is reflected in Accrued expenses and other current liabilities as its holdback period extends for 18 months from the Deal Closing Date. The indemnity holdback will be paid in cash. Total purchase consideration transferred at the Deal Closing Date also included contingent consideration that had a total fair value of $4,599 as of the acquisition date. The acquisition date fair value of the contingent considerations was determined based on the Company's assessment of the probability of achieving the performance targets that ultimately obligate the Company to transfer additional consideration to the seller. The contingent consideration is comprised of two tranches and both are payable in cash or Class A common stock, at the election. The Production Earnout pays up to a maximum of $3,000, upon fulfillment of certain production volume of a predetermined product within 24-month period ending on January 24, 2026. The Revenue Earnout pays up to a maximum of $2,500 upon the achievement of a minimum revenue threshold of $12,000 for the 12-month period ending on January 24, 2025. The fair value of any outstanding contingent consideration liabilities will be remeasured as of the end of each reporting period with any resulting remeasurement gains or losses recognized in the condensed consolidated statement of operations. The Revenue Earnout is reflected in Contingent considerations and the Production Earnout is reflected in Other long-term liabilities in the condensed consolidated balance sheet as of September 30, 2024. Pro forma financial information for Kinetic is not disclosed as the results are not material to the Company's condensed consolidated financial statements.17Table of Contents3.A 4.A Restructuring and Other ChargesIn August 2024, the Company initiated a plan intended to improve its operating performance (the Plan). The Plan consisted of actions including but not limited to, workforce and facilities reductions. These actions commenced during the third quarter of 2024 and are expected to be substantially complete by the end of 2024. There is no guarantee that the actual charges to be incurred will not exceed management's estimates or that future costs reduction will be achieved. Due to the size, nature and frequency of this Plan, it is fundamentally different from the Company's ongoing productivity actions. As a result, all pre-tax charges related to such initiatives are separately reflected in Restructuring and other charges in the condensed consolidated statement of operations for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2024. Liabilities associated with the Plan are separately reflected in Accrued payroll liabilities and Accrued expenses and other current liabilities in the condensed consolidated balance sheet for personnel and non-personnel related charges, respectively. For the three and nine months ended September 30, 2024, the Company incurred total charges of $4,322 and remaining liabilities as of September 30, 2024 totaled $3,326.4.A 4.A Inventory, NetInventory, net consists of the following:September 30, 2024December 31, 2023Raw materials$17,443 $7,360A Work-in-process26,019A 12,423A Finished goods12,768A 15,896A Inventory, gross56,230A 35,679A Less: Inventory reserves4,073A 2,538A Inventory, net$52,157A $33,141A During the three months ended September 30, 2024 and 2023, the Company recognized write-downs in the value of inventory of $2,943 and $478, respectively.5.A 4.A Property and Equipment, NetProperty and equipment, net consists of the following:Useful life (in years)September 30, 2024December 31, 2023Production tooling$419,952A $16,428A Lab equipment$413,872A 12,887A Office equipment$3 - 710,161A 6,539A Leasehold improvements*1,962A 1,898A Construction in progress$8,757A 3,867A Property and equipment, gross$54,704A 41,619A Less: Accumulated depreciation20,027A 14,653A Property and equipment, net$34,677A $26,966A *Leasehold improvements are amortized over the shorter of the remaining lease term or estimated useful life of the leasehold improvement.The Company recognized depreciation expense of $2,390 and $1,271 for the three months ended September 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively. The 2027 Notes will be convertible into cash, shares of the Company's Class A common stock, or a combination of cash and shares of Class A common stock, at the Company's election, at an initial conversion rate of 115.5869 shares of Class A common stock per $1,000 principal amount of the 2027 Notes, which is equivalent to an initial conversion price of approximately $8.65 per share of Class A common stock. The initial conversion price of the Notes represents a premium of approximately 30% over the $6.655 per share last reported sale price of the Class A common stock on The Nasdaq Capital Market on November 16, 2022. The conversion rate will be subject to adjustment upon the occurrence of certain specified events, but will not be adjusted for any accrued and unpaid interest, except under the limited circumstances described in the Indenture. In addition, upon the occurrence of a Make-Whole Fundamental Change (as defined in Section 1.01 of the Indenture) prior to the maturity date, or if the Company delivers a notice of redemption, the Company will, in certain circumstances, increase the conversion rate by a number of additional shares of Class A common stock (not to exceed 150.2629 shares of Class A common stock per $1,000 principal amount of the Notes, subject to adjustment in the same manner as the conversion rate) for Notes that are converted in connection with such Make-Whole Fundamental Change or for notes called (or deemed called) for redemption that are converted in connection with such notice of redemption. The 2027 Notes are convertible at the option of the holders (in whole or in part) at any time prior to the close of business on the business day immediately preceding August 15, 2027 only under the following circumstances: (1) during any calendar quarter commencing after the calendar quarter ending on December 31, 2022 (and only during such calendar quarter), if the last reported sale price of the Class A common stock for at least 20 trading days (whether or not consecutive) during any 30 consecutive trading days ending on, and including, the last trading day of the immediately preceding calendar quarter is greater than or equal to 130% of the conversion price on each applicable trading day; (2) during the five business day period after any five consecutive trading day period (the “conversion period”) in which the “Trading Price” (as defined in Section 1.01 of the Indenture) per $1,000 principal amount of Notes for each trading day of the measurement period was less than 98% of the product of the last reported sale price of Class A common stock and the conversion rate on each such trading day; (3) if the Company calls such Notes for redemption, at any time prior to the close of business on the second scheduled trading day immediately preceding the redemption date, but only with respect to the Notes called (or deemed called) for redemption; or (4) upon the occurrence of certain corporate events as specified in the Indenture. On or after August 15, 2027 until the close of business on the second scheduled trading day immediately preceding the maturity date, holders may convert all or a portion of their Notes, in multiples of $1,000 principal amount, at any time, regardless of the foregoing circumstances. Upon conversion, the Company will pay or deliver, as the case may be, cash, shares of Class A common stock or a combination of cash and shares of Class A common stock, at the Company’s election, in amounts determined in the manner set forth in the Indenture. The Company may not redeem the 2027 Notes prior to November 20, 2025. The Company may redeem for cash all or any portion of the 2027 Notes, at the Company’s option, on or after November 20, 2025 if the last reported price of the Company’s Class A common stock has been at least 130% of the conversion price then in effect for at least 20 trading days (whether or not consecutive) during any 30 consecutive trading day period (including the last trading day of such period) ending on, and including, the trading day immediately preceding the date on which the Company provides notice of redemption, at a redemption price equal to 100% of the principal amount of the 2027 Notes to be redeemed, plus accrued and unpaid interest to, but excluding, the redemption date. Upon the occurrence of a Fundamental Change (as defined in Section 1.01 of the Indenture), subject to certain conditions and certain limited exceptions, holders may require the Company to repurchase for cash all or any portion of their Notes in principal amounts of $1,000 or an integral multiple thereof at a fundamental change repurchase price in cash equal to 100% of the principal amount of the Notes to be repurchased, plus accrued and unpaid interest to, but excluding, the fundamental change repurchase date. The 2027 Notes are senior unsecured obligations of the Company and rank: (i) senior in right of payment to any indebtedness of the Company that is expressly subordinated in right of payment to the Notes; (ii) equal in right of payment to any unsecured indebtedness of the Company that is not so subordinated; (iii) effectively junior in right of payment to any senior, secured debt of the Company that is not so subordinated; and (iv) structurally junior to all indebtedness and other liabilities (including trade payables) of the Company and its subsidiaries. In connection with the offering of the 2027 Notes, the Company entered into privately negotiated transactions through one of the initial purchasers or its affiliate to repurchase 1,112,524 shares of Class A common stock, at an average cost of $6.65 per share, for approximately $7,404 in 2022. The 2027 Notes have been recorded as long-term debt in its entirety pursuant to ASU 2020-06. The carrying value of the 2027 Notes is presented net of $5,374 of discount and issuance costs, which are amortized to interest expense over the respective terms of these borrowings. As of September 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, the total carrying value of the 2027 Notes, net of unamortized discount, was $156,475 and $155,712, respectively. As of September 30, 2024, the total fair value of the 2027 Notes was $142,208 or 88.88% of the aggregate principal amount of the 2027 Notes. As of December 31, 2023, the total fair value of the 2027 Notes was $191,648 or 119.78% of the aggregate principal amount of the 2027 Notes. The estimated fair values are based on Level 2 inputs as the fair value is based on quoted prices for the Company’s debt and comparable instruments in inactive markets. The amortization of the debt discount and cost of issuance resulted in non-cash interest expense of $260 and $246 for the three months ended September 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively. The amortization of the debt discount and cost of issuance resulted in non-cash interest expense of $763 and $720 for the nine months ended September 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively. Such amortization expenses are included in Interest Expense in the Company’s condensed consolidated statements of operations. Indio Semiconductor Revolving Line of Credit On March 29, 2024, the Company entered into a revolving line of credit agreement with Wells Fargo Bank, National Association (the “Wells Fargo”) with a credit limit of $10,000, bearing interest at the Secured Overnight Financing Rate (the “SOFR”) plus 1.75%. The outstanding principal balance is due and payable in full on March 28, 2025. Interest is payable monthly beginning on May 1, 2024 through the maturity date. This line of credit required the Company to collateralize a cash balance equal to the total outstanding balance in a cash security account with Wells Fargo, which resulted in a total restricted cash of $10,000 as of September 30, 2024. Fees of $50 incurred will be amortized over the life of the credit agreement. This revolving line of credit had an outstanding balance of $10,000 as of September 30, 2024. During the three and nine months ended September 30, 2024, the cash and non-cash interest was de minimus. TeraXion Revolving Credit In connection with the acquisition of TeraXion on October 12, 2021, the Company assumed a revolving credit with the Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce (the “CIBC”) with a credit limit of CAD9,440 bearing interest at prime rate plus 0.25%, repayable in monthly installments of CAD155 plus interest, maturing in October 2026. The repayment of monthly installments reduces the credit limit over time. CIBC also reserves the right to request full repayment of a portion or all outstanding balances at any time. As of September 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, the outstanding principal balance and credit limit of the loan was $2,976 and $3,971, (or CAD4,024 and CAD5,262), respectively. TeraXion also has an authorized credit facility up to CAD5,000 at September 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, respectively, from CIBC, bearing interest at prime rate plus 0.25%. The credit facility permits the Company to request incremental loans in an aggregate principal amount not to exceed the sum of an amount equal to the greater of CAD5,000 and 100% of TeraXion’s EBITDA. This line of credit had an outstanding balance of CAD2,025 (or approximately $1,497) as of September 30, 2024. This line of credit had an outstanding balance of CAD1,551 (or approximately $1,171) as of December 31, 2023. Wuxi Revolving Line of Credit On September 27, 2024, Wuxi entered into a short-term loan agreement with the Bank of Ningbo Co., Ltd. with an aggregate principal balance of CNY40,000 (or approximately $5,705) bearing interest of 3.50% per annum and maturing on December 27, 2024. As of September 30, 2024 the outstanding principal balance of the loan was CNY40,000 (or approximately $5,705). During the three and nine months ended September 30, 2024, the cash and non-cash interest was de minimus. Table of Contents The table below sets forth the components of interest expense for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2024 and September 30, 2023: Three Months Ended September 30, Nine Months Ended September 30, 2024 2023 2024 2023 Interest expense on the 2027 Notes Stated interest at 4.50% per annum $1,815 $1,840 $5,405 $5,460 Amortization of discount and issuance cost $260 $246 $763 $720 Total interest expense related to the 2027 Notes $2,075 $2,086 $6,168 $6,180 Interest expense on other debt obligations: Contractual interest $934 $924 $2,724 $2,724 Amortization of discount and issuance cost $124 $124 $374 $374 Total interest expense related to other debt obligations $1,058 $1,048 $3,098 $3,098 Total interest expense $3,133 $3,134 $9,262 $9,274 The future maturities of the debt obligations are as follows: 2024 (remaining 3 months) $7,202 2025 10,000 2026 126,976 2027 160,000 2028 $6,534 $180,178 9.3% A Warrant Liability In connection with the June 10, 2021 Transaction, the Company issued 17,250,000 Public Warrants, 8,625,000 Private Placement Warrants and 1,500,000 Working Capital Warrants, which were fully exchanged to Class A common stock on November 9, 2023. As of December 31, 2023, there was no liability remaining on the balance sheet. For the three and nine months ended September 30, 2023, the Company recognized a net gain (loss) of $15,660 and ($6,626), respectively. None were recorded for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2024. Refer to Note 9 Warrant Liability within Part II, Item 8 of our 2023 Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2023 under the heading “Financial Statements and Supplementary Data” for a detailed discussion of the warrant liabilities held by Indio. A Contingent and Earn-Out Liabilities Earn-Out Milestones In connection with the Transaction, certain of the Company’s stockholders are entitled to receive up to 10,000,000 earn-out shares of the Company’s Class A common stock if the earn-out milestones are met. The earn-out milestones represent two independent criteria, each of which entitles the eligible stockholders to 5,000,000 earn-out shares per milestone met. Each earn-out milestone is considered met if at any time following the Transaction and prior to December 31, 2027, the volume weighted average price of the Company’s Class A common stock is greater than or equal to $12.50 or $15.00 for any twenty trading days within any thirty-trading day period, respectively. Further, the earn-out milestones are also considered to be met if Indio undergoes a Sale. A Sale is defined as the occurrence of any of the following for Indio: (i) engage in a “going private” transaction pursuant to Rule 13e-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”), or otherwise cease to be subject to reporting obligations under Sections 13 or 15(d) of the Exchange Act; (ii) Class A common stock ceases to be listed on a national securities exchange, other than for the failure to satisfy minimum listing requirements under applicable stock exchange rules; or (iii) change of ownership (including a merger or consolidation) or approval of a plan for complete liquidation or dissolution. These earn-out shares had been categorized into two components: (i) those associated with stockholders with vested equity at the closing of the Transaction that will be earned upon achievement of the earn-out milestones (the “Vested Shares”) and (ii) those associated with stockholders with unvested equity at the closing of the Transaction that will be earned over the remaining service period with the Company on their unvested equity shares and upon achievement of the Earn-Out Milestones (the “Unvested Shares”). The Vested Shares were classified as liabilities in the condensed consolidated balance sheet and the Unvested Shares are equity-classified share-based compensation to be recognized over time. The earn-out liability was initially measured at fair value at the closing of the Transaction and subsequently remeasured at the end of each reporting period. The change in fair value of the earn-out liability was recorded as part of Other income (expense), net in the condensed consolidated statement of operations. The estimated fair value of the earn-out liability was determined using a Monte Carlo Simulations analysis that simulated the future path of the Company’s stock price over the earn-out period. The assumptions utilized in the calculation are based on the achievement of certain stock price milestones including projected stock price, volatility, and risk-free rate. Contingent Considerations On May 13, 2020, in connection with the acquisition of City Semiconductor, Inc. (the “City Semi”), the Company recorded contingent consideration as a long-term liability at an initial fair value of $1,180. The contingent consideration is comprised of two tranches. The first tranche is payable, up to a maximum of $500, upon the achievement of cash collection targets within 12 months of the acquisition, and $456 was achieved in May 2021. The second tranche is payable, up to a maximum of $1,500, upon the shipment of a product incorporating the acquired developed technology. In September 2021, the Company paid off the first tranche of the contingent consideration. In April 2023, the Company settled $500 of the $1,500 second tranche through the issuance of 73,311 shares of Class A common stock with a fair value of $608 at the time of issuance. In January 2024, the Company settled $500 of the $1,000 second tranche through the issuance of 62,562 shares of Class A common stock with a fair value of $500 at the time of issuance. The fair value of the remaining $500 second tranche contingent consideration liabilities was $490 as of September 30, 2024. On January 4, 2022, in connection with the acquisition of Syme, the Company recorded contingent considerations as a current and a long-term liability at an initial fair value of $4,390 and $3,446, respectively. The contingent consideration is comprised of two tranches. The first tranche was payable upon the achievement of a revenue threshold of $5,000 by March 31, 2023. The second tranche was payable upon Syme’s achievement of a revenue threshold of $6,000 by March 31, 2024. On October 26, 2023, the Company issued 363,194 of Class A common stock, with a fair value of $1,900 at the time of issuance to Analog Devices, Inc., as final settlement for the achievement of the first tranche of the contingent considerations. The second tranche of contingent consideration liability was fully released during the three months ended September 30, 2024 as the earnout milestone was not met. The final change in fair value of $7 is recorded in Other income (expense), net in the condensed consolidated statement of operations for the nine months ended September 30, 2024. On February 21, 2023, in connection with the acquisition of Silicon Radar, the Company recorded contingent considerations as a current and a long-term liability at an initial fair value of $4,155 and $5,085, respectively. The contingent consideration is comprised of two tranches. The first tranche was payable upon the achievement of a revenue threshold of $5,000 for the 12-month period ending on February 21, 2024. The second tranche is payable upon Silicon Radar’s achievement of a revenue threshold of $7,000 for the 12-month period ending on February 21, 2025. Both tranches are payable in cash or in common stock at the Company’s discretion. Should Indio elect to pay in common stock, the number of shares issuable equals the earnout amount divided by a VWAP for 20 days ending prior to the due date for payment. In May 2024, the Company settled the first tranche through the issuance of 1,103,140 shares of Class A common stock with a fair value of $6,045 at the time of issuance. The fair value of the second tranche contingent consideration liability as of September 30, 2024 was $60. The change in fair value since the acquisition date is recorded in Other income (expense), net in the condensed consolidated statement of operations. On March 3, 2023, in connection with the acquisition of GEO, the Company recorded contingent considerations as a current and a long-term liability at an initial fair value of $38,828 and $20,452, respectively. The contingent consideration is comprised of two tranches. The first tranche was payable upon the achievement of a revenue threshold of $20,000 for the 12-month period ending on March 31, 2024. The second tranche is payable upon GEO’s achievement of a revenue threshold of $10,000 for the six-month period ending on September 30, 2024. Both tranches are payable in cash or common stock, at the Company’s election. Should Indio elect to pay in common stock, the number of shares issuable equals the earnout amount divided by the Earnout Parent Trading Price. Payment in cash will be determined by the number of shares payable multiplied by the Earnout Parent Trading Price. In May 2024, the Company settled the first tranche through the issuance of 6,096,951 shares of Class A common stock with a fair value of $40,667 at the time of issuance. The fair value of the second tranche contingent consideration liability as of September 30, 2024 was $3,900. The change in fair value since the acquisition date is recorded in Other income (expense), net in the condensed consolidated statement of operations. On September 18, 2023, in connection with the acquisition of Exalos, the Company recorded contingent considerations as a current and a long-term liability at an initial fair value of $7,328 and $2,427, respectively. The contingent consideration is comprised of two tranches. The first tranche is payable upon the achievement of a revenue threshold of $19,000 for the 12-month period ending on September 30, 2024. The second tranche is payable upon Exalos’s achievement of a revenue threshold of $21,000 for the 12-month period ending on September 30, 2025. Both tranches are payable in cash or in shares at the Company’s discretion. The fair value of the first and second tranche contingent consideration liability as of September 30, 2024 was $14,113 and $584, respectively. The change in fair value since the acquisition date is recorded in Other income (expense), net in the condensed consolidated statement of operations. On November 7, 2024, the first tranche of contingent consideration was settled through the issuance of 2,845,243 shares of Class A common stock and cash payment of $2,536. On January 25, 2024, in connection with the acquisition of Kinetic, the Company recorded contingent considerations as a current and a long-term liability at an initial fair value of $2,251 and 2,348, respectively. The contingent consideration is comprised of two tranches. The first tranche is payable upon the achievement of a revenue threshold of $12,000 for the 12-month period ending on January 25, 2025. The second tranche is payable upon achievement of certain production-based milestones for the 24-month period ending on January 25, 2026. Both tranches are payable in cash or in shares at the Company’s discretion. The fair value of the first and second tranche contingent consideration liabilities as of September 30, 2024 was $2,391 and $1,840, respectively. The change in fair value since the acquisition date is recorded in Other income (expense), net in the condensed consolidated statement of operations. 11. A Fair Value Measurements The Company’s debt instruments are recorded at their carrying values in its condensed consolidated balance sheets, which may differ from their respective fair values. The estimated fair value of the Company’s 2027 Notes is based on Level 2 inputs as the fair value is based on quoted prices for the Company’s debt (see Note 8 “Debt for additional information). The fair values of the Company’s short-term loans generally approximated their carrying values. At September 30, 2024 and 2023, the Company held currency forward contracts with an aggregated notional amount of $13,850 and $17,584, respectively to sell United States dollars and to buy various foreign currencies such as Canadian dollars and Euro, among others at a forward rate. Any changes in the fair value of these contracts are recorded in Other income (expense), net in the condensed consolidated statement of operations. During the three and nine months ended September 30, 2024, the Company recorded a net gain (loss) of $509 and ($701), respectively. During the three and nine months ended September 30, 2023, the Company recorded a net loss of $789 and $296, respectively. Table of Contents The following table presents the Company’s fair value hierarchy for financial assets and liabilities: Fair Value Measurements as of September 30, 2024 Level 1 Level 2 Level 3 Total Liabilities: Exalos Contingent Consideration - First Tranche $4,124 $4,124 $14,113 $14,113 Exalos Contingent Consideration - Second Tranche $4,124 $4,124 $584 $584 GEO Contingent Consideration - Second Tranche $4,124 $4,124 $3,900 $3,900 GEO Indemnity Holdback $6,250 $6,250 $6,250 Kinetic Contingent Consideration - First Tranche $4,124 $4,124 $2,391 $2,391 Kinetic Contingent Consideration - Second Tranche $4,124 $4,124 $1,840 $1,840 Silicon Radar Contingent Consideration - Second Tranche $4,124 $4,124 $490 $490 Fair Value Measurements as of December 31, 2023 Level 1 Level 2 Level 3 Total Liabilities: Exalos Contingent consideration $4,124 $4,124 $9,593 $9,593 Exalos Contingent Consideration $4,124 $4,124 $4,012 $4,012 GEO Contingent Consideration $4,124 $4,124 $44,709 $44,709 GEO Contingent Consideration $4,124 $4,124 $25,921 $25,921 GEO Indemnity Holdback $12,704 $12,704 $4,124 $4,124 Silicon Radar Contingent Consideration $4,124 $4,124 $2,740 $2,740 Silicon Radar Contingent Consideration $4,124 $4,124 $3,310 $3,310 City Semi Contingent Consideration $4,124 $4,124 $940 $940 Syme Contingent Consideration $4,124 $4,124 $7 $7 As of September 30, 2024 and

December 31, 2023, the Company’s cash and cash equivalents, including restricted cash, were all held in cash or Level 1 instruments where the fair values approximate the carrying values. Level 3 Disclosures Contingent Considerations Contingent considerations were valued based on the consideration expected to be transferred. The Company estimated the fair value based on a Monte Carlo Simulations analysis to simulate the probability of achievement of various milestones identified within each contingent consideration arrangement, using certain assumptions that require significant judgement and discount rates. The discount rates were based on the estimated cost of debt plus a premium, which included consideration of expected term of the earn-out payment, yield on treasury instruments and an estimated credit rating for the Company. Because the acquisition related to Kinetic occurred within the last twelve months, the significant information to be obtained and analyzed and the fact that Kinetic resides in a foreign jurisdiction, the Company’s fair value estimates for the associated contingent consideration were valued based on a probability method as of September 30, 2024. The following table presents the significant unobservable inputs assumed for each of the fair value measurements:

(the “Wuxi”), indie’s majority controlled subsidiary. The Wuxi Capital Raise provided Wuxi additional funding of CNY300,000 (approximately $42,000) by issuing 371,160 shares from Wuxi, which represents 16% of Wuxi’s equity at the time of issuance. The funds raised are intended to promote Wuxi’s business development and strengthen their capabilities. Pursuant to the terms of the agreement, these investors subscribed for the 371,160 shares at CNY808.28 per share. As a result, indie’s ownership in Wuxi has reduced from 45% to 38% ownership control, with indie having 59% voting control. As indie continues to control Wuxi’s Board of Directors and has the majority of the voting interests, Wuxi’s financial results will continue to be consolidated with those of ADK LLC and its other wholly-owned subsidiaries. Minority interests held in Wuxi are accounted for as non-controlling interests in the Company’s condensed consolidated financial statements. Among other provisions, this agreement includes certain liquidation preferences for the investors (the “Deemed Liquidation Event”) as well as an ability to exchange their Wuxi shares for shares of indie’s Class A common stock in the event Wuxi does not successfully complete a local initial public offering (the “IPO”) by December 31, 2027 (the “Conversion”). A Deemed Liquidation Event includes but not limited to (a) a change of control of the Company or its surviving entity in a single, or series of related transactions, or merger, division, reorganization, acquisition, or business integration between the Company and any third parties, excluding any corporate restricting as duly approved pursuant to the AOA; or (b) a sale, transfer or otherwise disposal of the all or substantially all assets of the Company, in a single, or series of related transactions. Upon a DLE prior to IPO, the distribution will be made in cash in order of the liquidation preferences pursuant to the investment agreement for an amount that is the higher of (i) an amount equal to 100% of the applicable original issue price with an annual simple premium of 8% (calculated from the transaction closing date of November 29, 2022 to the date of the Liquidation Event), or (ii) an amount equal to the total liquidation proceeds received by the Company or the shareholders (as the case may be) directly in a Liquidation Event, multiplied by the shareholder’s proportionate ownership percentage, plus all accrued or declared but unpaid dividends of such share.
Table of Contents	Pursuant to the investment agreement, Wuxi shall use commercially reasonable efforts to meet the conditions for the IPO and list shares by a Chinese or overseas securities trading institutions and consummate an IPO as early as possible. If Wuxi is unable to consummate an IPO, indie undertakes to exchange the shares issued in this capital raise for indie’s Class A common stock equal to the total capital raised plus a premium of 8% per year (simple interest) between the execution date and December 31, 2027. The total amount is calculated using the exchange rate at the time of the stock exchange and the value of each Class A common stock is based on the stock price at that time, but the exchange shall not exceed a total of 6,000,000 shares of indie Class A common stock. Wuxi Equity Incentive Plan
In December 2023, employees in Wuxi exercised stock options granted to them through the Wuxi Equity Incentive Plan (the “Wuxi EIP”) and paid CNY87,959 (or approximately $12,346) in capital contributions to Wuxi. The Wuxi EIP was approved by Wuxi’s Board of Directors and is a long-term incentive plan under which equity awards may be granted to employees of Wuxi in the form of options to purchase Wuxi common shares at a fixed strike price in the future after certain vesting conditions are met and which are then subject to certain holding conditions (the “Options”). Options granted under the Wuxi EIP are equity-classified awards and subject to vest either six years from the grant date or when Wuxi achieves a successful IPO on a local stock exchange, whichever that is later. No compensation cost will be recognized until a qualifying event (i.e., IPO) is deemed probable to occur as these Options are considered to have no value until an IPO becomes probable. Upon occurrence of the qualifying event, the compensation cost will be recognized in full for vested Options. As of September 30, 2024, there was $11,802 of total unrecognized compensation cost related to these Options. These unrecognized compensation costs will be recognized in full when a qualifying event satisfying the in-substance performance condition becomes probable. Further, per the Wuxi EIP, recipients of the Options should complete all capital contributions and payment of the incentive share price (the “Paid in Capital Contribution”) after Wuxi and the intermediary agencies (including securities companies, law firms, and accounting firms) that apply for IPO have reached an IPO application schedule and before the last financial benchmark date of Wuxi’s IPO application. The Paid in Capital Contribution is akin to an early exercise. Given that Wuxi has no obligation to return the paid-in capital contribution to the recipient of the award in any event (i.e., an unsuccessful IPO, termination of employment), the Company concludes that the Paid in Capital Contribution made by the recipient is classified into Additional paid-in capital on the consolidated balance sheet as of September 30, 2024. The funds are being used for Wuxi’s general corporate purposes. Stock Repurchase Program
On November 16, 2022, indie’s Board of Directors authorized the repurchase, from time to time, of up to $50,000 of indie’s Class A common stock and/or warrants to purchase common stock. This was inclusive of the concurrent repurchase of shares of common stock described in Note 8 “Debt, under the 2027 Notes, which allowed for a portion of net proceeds to be used to repurchase up to $25,000 of common stock. There were no repurchases of common stock during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2024. As of September 30, 2024, there is $42,596 available for future repurchase under the program.
13. A A Noncontrolling Interest	In connection with the closing of the Transaction on June 10, 2021, certain members of ADK LLC (the “ADK Minority Holders”) retained approximately 26% membership interest in ADK LLC. The ADK Minority Holders may from time to time, after December 10, 2021, exchange with indie, such holders’ units in ADK LLC for an equal number of shares of indie’s Class A common stock. As a result, indie’s ownership interest in ADK LLC will increase. The ADK Minority Holders’ ownership interests are accounted for as noncontrolling interests in the Company’s condensed consolidated financial statements. The Company’s ownership of ADK LLC was approximately 91% as of both September 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023. In connection with the Transaction, the Company issued to ADK LLC Minority Holders an aggregate of 33,827,371 shares of Class V common stock of indie (the “Class V Holders”). The shares of Class V common stock provides no economic rights in indie to the holder thereof; however, each Class V Holder is entitled to vote with the holders of Class A common stock of indie, with each share of Class V common stock entitling the holder to one (1) vote per share of Class V common stock at the time of such vote (subject to customary conversion rate adjustments for stock splits, stock dividends and reclassifications). As of September 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, the Company had an aggregate of 18,044,332 and 18,694,332 shares of Class V common stock issued and outstanding, respectively.
Table of Contents	ADK LLC held approximately 59% voting control and approximately 34% ownership interest in Wuxi as of both September 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023. From time to time, Wuxi has sold equity ownership and the transactions have reduced ADK LLC’s controlling interest in Wuxi on the condensed consolidated balance sheets. As of September 30, 2024, ADK LLC maintained its controlling ownership in Wuxi. Accordingly, Wuxi’s financial statements are consolidated with those of ADK LLC and its other wholly-owned subsidiaries. Minority interests held in Wuxi are accounted for as non-controlling interests in the Company’s condensed consolidated financial statements.
14. A A Revenue	Disaggregation of Revenue The Company disaggregates revenue from contracts with customers by geographic region, as the Company’s management believes it best depicts how the nature, amount, timing and uncertainty of revenue and cash flows are affected by economic factors. The following tables present revenue disaggregated by geography of the customer’s shipping location for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2024 and 2023:

Certain assets or liabilities are recorded depending on the timing of revenue recognition, billings and cash collections on a contract-by-contract basis. Contract liabilities primarily relate to deferred revenue, including advance consideration received from customers for contracts prior to the transfer of control to the customer, and therefore revenue is recognized upon delivery of products and services or as the services are performed. The following table presents the assets and liabilities associated with the engineering services contracts recorded on the condensed consolidated balance sheet as of September 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023:
Balance Sheet Classification	September 30, 2024

Prepaid expenses and other current assets	$9,023
$8,506	Contract liabilities
Accrued expenses and other current liabilities	$3,070
$2,473	During the three months ended September 30, 2024 and 2023, the Company recognized $408 and $357, respectively, of revenue related to amounts that were previously included in deferred revenue at the beginning of the period. During the nine months ended September 30, 2024 and 2023, the Company recognized $1,500 and $1,599, respectively, of revenue related to amounts that were previously included in deferred revenue at the beginning of the period. Deferred revenue fluctuates over time due to changes in the timing of payments received from customers and revenue recognized for services provided. Revenue related to remaining performance obligations represents the amount of contracted development arrangements that has not been recognized, which includes deferred revenue on the condensed consolidated balance sheet and unbilled amounts that will be recognized as revenue in future periods. As of September 30, 2024, the amount of performance obligations that have not been recognized as revenue was $5,385, of which approximately 100% is expected to be recognized as revenue over the next 12 months. This amount excludes the value of remaining performance obligations for contracts with an original expected length of 29Table of Contents
one year or less. Variable consideration that has been constrained is excluded from the amount of performance obligations that have not been recognized. Concentrations
As identified below, some of our customers accounted for more than 10% of the Company’s total revenue for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2023, and no customers accounted for more than 10% of the Company’s total revenue for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2024:

The Company’s potentially dilutive securities, which include unvested Class B units, unvested phantom units, unvested restricted stock units, convertible Class V common shares, warrants for Class A units (public and private), unexercised options, earn-out shares, escrow shares and convertible debt have been excluded from the computation of diluted net loss per share as the effect would be to reduce the net loss per share. For the three and nine months ended September 30, 2024 and 2023, the weighted average number of shares outstanding used to calculate both basic and diluted net loss per share attributable to common shares is the same because the Company reported a net loss for each of these periods and the effect of inclusion would be antidilutive. The Company excluded the following potential shares, presented based on amounts outstanding at each period end, from the computation of diluted net loss per share attributable to shareholders for the periods included as their inclusion would have had an antidilutive effect:

17. A A Income Taxes
We are subject to U.S. federal and state taxes with respect to our allocable share of any taxable income or loss of ADK, LLC, as well as any stand-alone income or loss we generate. ADK, LLC is treated as a partnership for U.S. income tax purposes and for most applicable state and local income tax purposes and generally does not pay income taxes in most jurisdictions. Instead, ADK, LLC’s taxable income or loss is passed through to its members, including us. Despite its status as a partnership in the United States, ADK, LLC’s foreign subsidiaries are taxable entities operating in foreign jurisdictions. As such, these foreign subsidiaries record a tax expense or benefit in jurisdictions where a valuation allowance has not been recorded. Our effective tax rate in 2024 will differ from the U.S. federal statutory rate primarily due to changes in valuation allowance, tax expense or benefit in foreign jurisdictions taxed at different tax rates, foreign research and development tax credits and incentives, and changes in non-controlling interest. Based primarily on our limited operating history and ADK LLC’s historical domestic losses, we believe there is a significant uncertainty as to when we will be able to use our domestic, federal and state, deferred tax assets (the “DTAs”). Therefore, we have recorded a valuation allowance against these DTAs for which we have concluded that it is not more likely than not that these will be realized. As part of reverse capitalization, the Company entered into Tax Receivable Agreements (the “TRAs”) with certain shareholders that will represent approximately 85% of the calculated tax savings based on the portion of basis adjustments on future exchanges of ADK, LLC units and other carryforward attributes assumed that we anticipate to be able to utilize in future years. Through September 30, 2024, there have been exchanges of units that would generate a DTA; however, as there is a full valuation allowance on the related DTA, we have not recorded a liability under the TRAs. The Company recorded a benefit (provision) for income taxes of $315 and ($650) for the three months ended September 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively. The Company recorded a benefit for income taxes of $1,338 and $2,714 for the nine months ended September 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively. Income tax benefit for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2024 are primarily related to the Company’s foreign operations. Income tax benefit (provision) for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2023 are primarily related to the tax effects of our acquisition of GEO and subsequent tax reorganizations.
18. A A Commitments and Contingencies
Litigation
On November 3, 2023, the Company received a demand letter alleging breaches relating to covenants and demanded payments of $7,500 in contingent consideration related to a previously completed business combination. On November 30, 2023, the Company responded to the demand letter, denying that any breach occurred or that the party is entitled to any damages. There have been no further developments on this matter. The Company is unable to make a reasonable estimate of a potential loss, if any, on this matter. The Company intends to continue to vigorously defend against the claims made in the demand letter. In addition to the foregoing matter, from time to time, the Company may be a party to routine claims or litigation matters that arise in the ordinary course of its business. These may include disputes and lawsuits related to intellectual property, mergers and acquisitions, licensing, contract law, tax, regulatory, distribution arrangements, employee relations and other matters. Periodically, the Company reviews the status of these matters and assesses its potential financial exposure. If the potential loss from any claim or legal proceeding is considered probable and a range of possible losses can be estimated, the Company accrues a liability for the estimated loss. Legal proceedings are subject to uncertainties, and the outcomes are difficult to predict. Because of such uncertainties, accruals are based only on the best information available at the time. As additional information becomes available, the Company continues to reassess the potential liability related to pending claims and litigation and may revise estimates. Royalty Agreement The Company has entered into license agreements to use certain technology in its design and manufacture of its products. The agreements require royalty fees for each semiconductor sold using the licensed technology. Total royalty expense incurred in connection with these contracts during the three months ended September 30, 2024 and 2023 was $661 and $1,524, respectively. Total royalty expense incurred in connection with these contracts during the nine months ended September 30, 2024 and 2023 was $1,846 and $2,956. These expenses are included in cost of goods sold in the condensed consolidated statements of operations. Accrued royalties of $662 and $789 are included in Accrued expenses and other current liabilities in the Company's condensed consolidated balance sheets as of September 30, 2024 and consolidated balance sheets as of December 31, 2023, respectively. 32 Table of Contents Tax Distributions To the extent the Company has funds legally available, the Board of Directors will approve distributions to each member of ADK LLC, prior to March 15 of each year, in an amount per unit that, when added to all other distributions made to such member with respect to the previous calendar year, equals the estimated federal and state income tax liabilities applicable to such member as the result of its, his or her ownership of the units and the associated net taxable income allocated with respect to such units for the previous calendar year. There were no distributions approved by the Board of Directors or paid by the Company during the nine months ended September 30, 2024 and 2023. 19. Supplemental Financial Information Accrued expenses and other current liabilities consist of the following: September 30, 2024 December 31, 2023 Holdbacks and deferred payments for business combinations $7,050 $4,339 Accrued interest 2,943 1,120 Operating lease liabilities, current 2,801 2,653 Deferred revenues 3,070 2,473 Accrued restructuring charges 1,916 $ $ Accrued royalties 662 789 Other (12,258) 10,037 Accrued expenses and other current liabilities September 30, 2024 $21,411 (1) Amount represents accruals for various operating expenses such as professional fees, open purchase orders, and other estimates that are expected to be paid within the next 12 months. 20. A A A Subsequent Events A For its condensed consolidated financial statements as of September 30, 2024, management reviewed and evaluated material subsequent events from the condensed consolidated balance sheet date of September 30, 2024 through November 8, 2024, the date the condensed consolidated financial statements were issued. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS OF INDIE Unless the context otherwise requires, all references in this section to the "Company," "Indie," "we," "us," "our," "Indie" and "Indie" refer to the business of Indie and its subsidiaries prior to the consummation of the Transaction. Throughout this section, unless otherwise noted, "Indie" refers to Indie Semiconductor, Inc. and its consolidated subsidiaries. The following discussion and analysis provides information that management believes is relevant to an assessment and understanding of our consolidated results of operations and financial condition. You should read this discussion and analysis in conjunction with the accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements and notes thereto included elsewhere in this Form 10-Q. Certain amounts may not foot due to rounding. This discussion and analysis contains forward-looking statements. See "Forward Looking Statements." We urge you to consider the risks and uncertainties discussed in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q and our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the Fiscal Year ended December 31, 2023, including, but not limited to, those described under the sections entitled "Risk Factors" and in the other documents we have filed with the SEC in evaluating our forward-looking statements. We assume no obligation to update any of these forward-looking statements except as required by law. Actual results may differ materially from those contained in any forward-looking statements. OUR COMPANY Indie offers highly innovative automotive semiconductor and software solutions for Advanced Driver Assistance Systems ("ADAS"), autonomous vehicle, connected car, user experience and electrification applications. We focus on edge sensors across multiple modalities spanning LiDAR, radar, ultrasound and computer vision. These functions represent the core underpinnings of both electric and autonomous vehicles, while the advanced user interfaces are transforming the in-cabin experience to mirror and seamlessly connect to the mobile platforms we rely on every day. We are an approved vendor to Tier 1 automotive suppliers and our platforms can be found in marquee automotive manufacturers around the world. Headquartered in Aliso Viejo, California, Indie has design centers and sales offices in Austin, Texas; Detroit, Michigan; San Jose, California; Cordoba, Argentina; Budapest, Hungary; Dresden, Frankfurt am der Oder, Munich and Nuremberg, Germany; Edinburgh, Scotland; Schlieren, Switzerland; Rabat, Morocco; Haifa, Israel; Quebec City and Toronto, Canada; Seoul, South Korea; Tokyo, Japan and several locations throughout China. We maintain design centers for our semiconductor engineers and designers in the United States, Argentina, Canada, Hungary, Germany, Scotland, Morocco, Israel, Switzerland and China. We engage subcontractors to manufacture our products. These subcontractors, as well as the majority of our customers' locations, are primarily in Asia. For the nine months ended September 30, 2024 and 2023, approximately 65% and 63%, respectively, of our product revenues were recognized for shipments to customer locations in Asia. Execution of At-The-Market Agreement On August 26, 2022, we entered into an At Market Issuance Agreement ("ATM Agreement") with B. Riley Securities, Inc., Craig-Hallum Capital Group LLC and Roth Capital Partners, LLC (collectively as "Sales Agents") relating to shares of our Class A common stock, par value $0.0001 per share (the "Class A common stock"). In accordance with the terms of the ATM Agreement, we may offer and sell shares of our Class A common stock having an aggregate offering price of up to $150.0 million from time to time through the Sales Agents, acting as our agent or principal. We implemented this program for the flexibility that it provides to the capital markets and to best time our equity capital needs. As of September 30, 2024, we had raised gross proceeds of $83.9 million and issued 9,393,259 shares of Class A common stock at an average per-share sales price of $8.93 through this program. During the nine months ended September 30, 2024, we raised gross proceeds of $13.5 million and issued 2,042,000 shares of Class A common stock at an average sales price of $6.62 per share. During the nine months ended September 30, 2023, we raised gross proceeds of $53.1 million and issued 5,219,500 shares of Class A common stock at an average sales price of $10.18 per share. For the three months ended September 30, 2024, we incurred total issuance costs of $0.2 million. For the three months ended September 30, 2023, there was no activity. For the nine months ended September 30, 2024 and 2023, Indie incurred total issuance costs of $0.3 million and $1.1 million, respectively. Recent Acquisitions Kinetic Technologies On January 25, 2024 (the "Deal Closing Date"), Indie and ADK LLC completed its acquisition of Kinetic Technologies, LLC (the "Kinetic"). The acquisition was consummated pursuant to an Asset Purchase Agreement (the "APA"), carving out certain 34 Table of Contents assets, including R&D personnel and intellectual properties (the "IP") from Kinetic Technologies (the "Kinetic"), in support of a custom product development for a North American electric vehicle OEM. The closing consideration consisted of (i) $3.2 million in cash as the initial cash consideration, net of an adjustment holdback amount of $0.5 million and an indemnity holdback amount of $0.8 million, (ii) $2.3 million of contingent consideration, payable in cash or Class A common stock, subject to achievement of certain production based milestones 24 months after the Deal Closing Date, and (iii) $2.3 million of contingent consideration, payable in cash or Class A common stock, subject to achievement of a revenue based milestone 12 months after the Deal Closing Date. The purchase price is subject to working capital and other adjustments as provided in the APA. See Note 2 "Business Combinations for additional descriptions of our recent acquisitions. Impact of Macroeconomic Conditions Current and continued inflationary conditions have led to, and may continue to lead to, rising prices or rising interest rates, which has had a dampening effect on overall economic activity and consumer demand for automotive products. Additionally, the ongoing conflict in the Middle East and the implications of these events has created global political and economic uncertainty. We are closely monitoring developments, including potential impact to our business, customers, suppliers, our employees and operations in Israel, the Middle East and elsewhere. At this time, the impact to Indie is subject to change given the volatile nature of the situation. Refer to Part I, Item 1A of our 2023 Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2023 under the heading "Risk Factors" for more information on our risks and uncertainties. The decrease in product revenue was due primarily to change in product volume (units sold) as a result of the cyclical trough in the automotive market. The decrease in contract revenue of $4.4 million was primarily due to a large multi-year non-recurring engineering project that commenced in early 2022 that is winding down in the current year towards its completion stage. 35 Table of Contents Operating Expenses Three Months Ended September 30, 2024 2023 (in thousands) % of Revenue % of Revenue $ Change % Change Operating expenses: Cost of goods sold $32,730 61A % $35,187 58A % $(2,457) (7)% Research and development $45,968 85A % $41,594 69A % $4,374 11A % Selling, general, and administrative 20,848 39A % 19,841 33A % 1,007 5A % Restructuring costs $4,322 8A % $4,322 100A % Total operating expenses $103,868 192A % $96,622 160A % $7,246 7A % Cost of goods sold for the three months ended September 30, 2024 was $32.7 million, compared to $35.2 million for the three months ended September 30, 2023. The decrease of $2.5 million or 7% was primarily due to a $1.5 million decrease in product shipments in connection with the decline in products sold as described above and a $1.5 million decrease in product cost. Total cost of goods sold for the three months ended September 30, 2024 also included an additional $0.9 million in amortization related to acquired intangible assets and amortization for inventory step-up value both as a result of the business combinations that took place during the period. Research and development expense for the three months ended September 30, 2024 was $46.0 million, compared to $41.6 million for the three months ended September 30, 2023. The increase of $4.4 million or 11% was primarily due to a $3.7 million increase in share-based compensation expense and $0.8 million increase in personnel cost. Increases in share-based compensation expense were primarily driven by new equity awards granted since the same period in prior year. We expect research and development expense to stabilize over time. Selling, general and administrative expense for the three months ended September 30, 2024 was $20.8 million, compared to $19.8 million for the three months ended September 30, 2023. The increase of $1.0 million or 5% was primarily due to a $0.8 million increase in share-based compensation expense due to an increase in employee headcount and additional equity awards granted since the same period prior year. We expect selling, general, and administrative expense to stabilize over time. Restructuring costs for the three months ended September 30, 2024 was $4.3 million due to the restructuring plan initiated in August 2024. Interest income decreased in the current period primarily as a result of lower cash balances due to multiple acquisitions in 2023 and the first quarter of 2024. 36 Table of Contents Interest expense for the three months ended September 30, 2024 remained relatively consistent at approximately $2.2 million for both the three months ended September 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively. For the three months ended September 30, 2024 and 2023, we recognized gains (losses) from change in fair value for warrants, contingent considerations and acquisition-related holdbacks. The gains (losses) recorded for the three months ended September 30, 2024 and 2023 represent the following: i) Warrants: During the three months ended September 30, 2023, we recognized an unrealized gain from change in fair value of our warrants of $15.7 million, which reflected the decrease in fair value of our warrant liability, resulting from the decrease of the closing price of our Class A common stock listed on the Nasdaq to $6.30 per share on September 30, 2023 from $9.40 per share on June 30, 2023. As of November 9, 2023, we completed our exchange of Warrants. Subsequently there will be no future remeasurement. ii) Contingent considerations and acquisition-related holdbacks: During the three months ended September 30, 2024, we recognized a net loss from change in fair value of our contingent considerations and acquisition-related holdbacks of $4.5 million. The net loss is primarily attributed to a net unrealized loss of $7.4 million for the contingent considerations related to the Exalos acquisition, offset by an net unrealized gain of $3.1 million for the contingent considerations and acquisition-related holdbacks related to the GEO acquisition. During the three months ended September 30, 2023, we recognized a net unrealized gain from change in fair value of our contingent considerations and acquisition-related holdbacks of $3.5A million which is primarily contributed by an unrealized gain of $2.9 million and $0.8 million for the contingent considerations and acquisition-related holdbacks related to the GEO and Symeo acquisitions, respectively. Other income (expense) for the three months ended September 30, 2024 and 2023 was $0.7 million and $(0.7) million, respectively. Other income (expense) relates primarily to the realized and unrealized foreign currency gains and losses during the period, which was primarily driven by a net gain (loss) of $0.5 million and $(0.8) million related to the change in fair value of our currency forward contracts entered during the periods. Income Taxes Income tax benefits for the three months ended September 30, 2024 are primarily related to our foreign operations. Income tax expense for the three months ended September 30, 2023 is primarily related to our operations in Canada and Europe. Refer to Note 17, Income Tax, in our accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements for additional detail. Comparison of the Nine Months Ended September 30, 2024 and 2023 Revenue Nine Months Ended September 30, 2024 2023 (in thousands) % of Revenue % of Revenue $ Change % Change Revenue: Product revenues $148,872 94A % $132,471 87A % $16,401 12A % Contract revenue 9,801 6A % 20,565 13A % (10,764) (52)% Total revenues $158,673 100A % $153,036 100A % $5,637 4A % Revenue for the nine months ended September 30, 2024 was $158.7 million, compared to $153.0 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2023, an increase of $5.6 million or 4%, which was primarily driven by a $16.4 million increase in product revenue, offset by a decrease in contract revenue. The increase in product revenue was due primarily to change in product mix as well as higher product volume (units sold) as well as the recent acquisitions, offset by a slight change in ASP. The decrease in contract revenue of $10.8 million or 52% was primarily due to a large multi-year non-recurring engineering project that commenced in early 2022 and is winding down in the current year towards its completion stage. 37 Table of Contents Operating expenses Nine Months Ended September 30, 2024 2023 (in thousands) % of Revenue % of Revenue $ Change % Change Operating expenses: Cost of goods sold $93,060 59A % $91,370 60A % $1,690 2A % Research and development 136,858 86A % 120,226 79A % 16,632 14A % Selling, general, and administrative 60,617 38A % 55,292 36A % 5,325 10A % Restructuring costs $4,322 3A % $4,322 100A % Total operating expenses $294,857 186A % $266,888 174A % $27,969 10A % Cost of goods sold for the nine months ended September 30, 2024 was $93.1 million, compared to $91.4 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2023. The increase of $1.7 million or 2% was primarily due to a $9.9 million increase due to change in product mix, a $3.4 million increase in product shipments in connection with the increase in products sold as described above, offset by a $4.3 million decrease in product cost. Total cost of goods sold for the nine months ended September 30, 2024 also included a decrease in amortization related to acquired intangible assets and inventory step-up value both in connection with finalizing the opening net assets acquired from the recent acquisitions. Research and development ("R&D") expense for the nine months ended September 30, 2024 was $136.9 million, compared to $120.2 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2023. This increase of $16.6 million or 14% was primarily due to a $3.9 million increase in headcounts to support our continued growth in research and development needs. Research and development expense for the nine months ended September 30, 2024 also included an $14.7 million increase in share-based compensation expense due to both increase in headcounts and additional equity awards granted since the same period in prior year. We expect research and development expense to stabilize over time. Selling, general and administrative expense for the nine months ended September 30, 2024 was $60.6 million, compared to $55.3 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2023. The increase of $5.3 million or 10% was primarily due to a $1.5 million increase in personnel costs due to increase in headcounts and a $3.1 million increase in share-based compensation expense. The increase in share-based compensation expense is due to both increase in headcounts and additional equity awards granted since the same period in prior year. We expect selling, general, and administrative expense to stabilize over time. Restructuring costs for the nine months ended September 30, 2024 was $4.3 million, due to the restructuring plan initiated in August 2024. The gains (losses) recorded for the both the nine months ended September 30, 2024 and 2023 represent the following: i) Warrants: During the nine months ended September A 30, 2023, we recognized an unrealized loss from change in fair value of our warrants of $6.6 million, which reflected the increase in fair value of our warrant liability, resulting from the increase of the closing price of our Class A common stock listed on the Nasdaq to $6.30 per share on September A 30, 2023 from $5.83 per share on December 31, 2022. As of November 9, 2023, we completed our exchange of Warrants. Subsequently there will be no future remeasurement. ii) Contingent considerations and acquisition-related holdbacks: During the nine months ended September 30, 2024, we recognized an net gain from change in fair value of our contingent considerations and acquisition-related holdbacks of $28.2 million, which is primarily contributed by an unrealized gain of $28.5 million and $3.2 million for the contingent considerations and acquisition-related holdback related to the GEO and Silicon Radar acquisitions, respectively, partially offset by an unrealized loss of $4.6 million for the contingent considerations related to Exalos. During the nine months ended September 30, 2023, we recognized an unrealized net gain from change in fair value of our contingent considerations and acquisition-related holdbacks of $4.2 million, which is primarily contributed by an unrealized gain of $5.0 million for the contingent considerations and acquisition-related holdback related to GEO, offset by $0.3 million and $0.4 million unrealized loss for the contingent considerations related to the Symeo and Silicon Radar acquisitions, respectively. Income Taxes Income tax benefits for the nine months ended September 30, 2024 are primarily related to our foreign operations. Income tax benefits for the nine months ended September 30, 2023 are primarily related to the tax effects of our acquisition of GEO and subsequent tax reorganizations. Refer to Note 17, Income Tax, in our accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements for additional detail. Liquidity and Capital Resources Our primary use of cash is to fund operating expenses, which consist primarily of research and development expenditures, working capital requirements related to inventory, accounts payable and general and administrative expenditures. In addition, from time to time, we use cash to fund our mergers and acquisitions, purchases of various capital, intellectual property and software assets and scheduled repayments for outstanding debt obligations. Our immediate sources of liquidity are cash, cash equivalents and funds anticipated to be generated from our operations, available borrowings under our revolving credit facility and the issuance of Class A common stock under the ATM Agreement. We believe these sources of liquidity will be sufficient to meet our needs for at least the next 12 months. Our future capital requirements may vary from those currently planned and will depend on many factors, including our rate of sales growth, the timing and extent of spending on various business initiatives, including potential merger and acquisition activities, our international expansion, the timing of new product introductions, market acceptance of our solutions, and overall economic conditions including the potential impact of global supply imbalances, rising interest rates, inflationary pressures, the impact of the ongoing conflicts in Ukraine and the Middle East, and volatility in the global financial markets. To the extent that current and anticipated future sources of liquidity are insufficient to fund our future business activities and requirements, we may be required to seek additional equity or debt financing. We have cash deposits with large financial institutions that have stable outlooks and credit ratings as of November A 8, 2024. These cash deposits may exceed the insurance provided on such deposits. As part of our A cash management A strategy going forward, we concentrate cash deposits with large financial institutions that are subject to regulation and maintain deposits across diverse retail banks. Historically, we derive liquidity primarily from debt and equity financing activities as we have historically had negative cash flows from operations. As of September A 30, 2024, our balance of cash and cash equivalents, including restricted cash, was $107.2 million. In December 2023, employees in Wuxi exercised options granted to them through the Wuxi Employee Equity Incentive Plan (the A Wuxi EIP A) and contributed total capital of CNY88.0 million (or approximately $12.3A million) from option proceeds in 39 Table of Contents preparation for a potential IPO in China. The funds will be used by Wuxi for general corporate purposes. Wuxi does not have an obligation to repay the collected capital to its employees in the case of an unsuccessful IPO. On March 29, 2024, we entered into a revolving line of credit agreement with Wells Fargo Bank, National Association (A Wells Fargo A) with a credit limit of $10 million, bearing interest at the Secured Overnight Financing Rate (A SOFR A) plus 1.75%. The outstanding principal balance is due and payable in full on March 28, 2025. Interest is payable monthly beginning on May 1, 2024 through the maturity date. This line of credit required us to collateralize a cash balance equal to the total outstanding balance in a cash security account with Wells Fargo. On September A 27, 2024, Wuxi entered into a short-term loan agreement with the Bank of Ningbo Co., Ltd. with an aggregate principal balance of CNY40,000 (or approximately $5,705) bearing interest of 3.50% per annum and maturing on December 27, 2024. Acquisitions We have completed multiple acquisitions in the last couple of years and we plan to selectively pursue and assess inorganic growth opportunities that are complementary to our existing technologies and portfolio of products and/or accelerate our growth initiatives. In connection with our acquisitions (See Part I, Item 1, Note 2, Business Combinations, of this quarterly report on Form 10-Q), we may from time to time be required to make future payments or issue additional shares of our common stock to satisfy our obligations under the acquisition agreements, including to satisfy certain earn-out requirements. In January 2022, we completed the acquisition of Symeo, for which we made an initial cash payment of approximately $10.0 million and an additional $10.0 million was paid in January 2023. We are still subject to an equity based earn out of Class A common stock based on Symeo A s future revenue growth. In February 2023, we entered into an agreement to acquire GEO, and completed the transaction on March 3, 2023. The closing consideration consisted of (i) $93.4 million in cash (including accrued cash considerations at closing and net of cash acquired); (ii) the issuance by indie of 6,868,768 shares of Class A common stock at closing, with a fair value of $75.6 million; (iii) 1,907,180 shares of Class A common stock, with a fair value of $21.0 million at closing, payable in the next 24-month period after closing; and (iv) an earn-out with a fair value of $59.3 million at closing payable in cash or in Class A common stock, subject to achieving certain GEO-related revenue targets through September A 30, 2024. Additionally, in February 2023, we acquired Silicon Radar, for approximately (i) $9.2 million in cash (including debt payable at closing and net of cash acquired), (ii) the issuance by indie of 982,445 shares of Class A common stock at closing, with a fair value of $9.8 million; and (iii) a contingent consideration with fair value of $9.2 million at closing, payable in cash or in Class A common stock subject to Silicon Radar A s achievement of certain revenue-based and design-win milestones through February A 21, 2025. In September 2023, we acquired Exalos. The closing consideration consisted of (i) the issuance by indie of 6,613,786 shares of Class A common stock at closing, with a fair value of $42.8 million; (ii) a contingent consideration with fair value of $9.8 million at closing, payable in cash, subject to Exalos A s achievement of certain revenue-based milestones through September A 30, 2025; and (iii) a holdback of $2.5 million subject to final release 12 months from the acquisition date payable in shares of Class A common stock. On January 25, 2024, we completed the acquisition of certain business properties from Kinetic through an asset purchase agreement. The closing consideration consisted of (i) $3.2 million in cash as the initial cash consideration, net of an adjustment holdback amount of $0.5 million and an indemnity holdback amount of $0.8 million, (ii) $2.3 million of contingent considerations, payable in cash or Class A common stock, subject to achievement of certain production based milestone for the next 24 months, or through January 25, 2026, and (iii) $2.3 million of contingent considerations, payable in cash or Class A common stock, subject to achievement of certain revenue based milestones 12 months after January 25, 2024. The indemnity holdback amount is payable within five business days after the 18-month anniversary of the closing date of January 25, 2024. We expect to continue to incur net operating losses and negative cash flows from operations. We also expect our research and development expenses, general and administrative expenses and capital expenditures will increase over time as we continue to expand our operations, product offerings and customer base. 40 Table of Contents The following table summarizes our condensed consolidated cash flows for the nine months ended September 30, 2024 and 2023: Nine Months Ended September 30, Change Change 2024 2023 $ % Net cash used in operating activities $(51,877) $(87,977) $36,100A (41)% Net cash used in investing activities (16,726) (103,569) 86,843A (84)% Net cash provided by financing activities 23,454A 34,195A (10,741)(31)% Operating Activities Our primary use of cash is to fund operating expenses, which consist primarily of research and development expenditures, working capital requirements related to inventory, accounts payable and general and administrative expenditures. For the nine months ended September 30, 2024, net cash used in operating activities was $51.9 million, which included net loss of $109.8 million and reflected adjustments for certain non-cash items and changes in operating assets and liabilities. Non-cash decreases primarily consisted of $27.5 million of net losses resulting from a change in fair value for contingent considerations and currency forward contracts, and non-cash increased consisted of $55.4 million in share-based compensation expense and $30.9 million in depreciation and amortization. Changes in operating assets and liabilities from operations used $8.8 million of cash, primarily driven by an increase in inventory and a decrease in accrued expenses, offset by a decrease in accounts receivable and an increase in accounts payable. Cash used in operating activities during the nine months ended September 30, 2023 was $88.0 million, which included net loss of $114.2 million and reflected adjustments for certain non-cash items and changes in operating assets and liabilities. Non-cash increases primarily consisted of $2.7 million of net losses resulting from a change in fair value for warrants and contingent considerations, $36.6 million in share-based compensation expense and $26.5 million in depreciation and amortization. Changes in operating assets and liabilities from operations used $39.3 million of cash, primarily driven by an increase in accounts receivable, inventory and prepaid and other current assets. Investing Activities Net cash used in investing activities for the nine months ended September 30, 2024 and 2023 was $16.7 million and $103.6 million, respectively. During the period ended September A 30, 2024, the decrease in cash was primarily due to the acquisition of Kinetic for $3.2A million, net of cash acquired, as well as an increase in cash used of $12.5 million for the purchase of capital expenditures. During the period ended September A 30, 2023, the decrease in cash was primarily due to the acquisitions of Exalos, GEO and Silicon Radar for $95.0 million, net of cash acquired, as well as an increase in cash used of $8.6 million for the purchase of capital expenditures. We expect that we will make additional capital expenditures in the future, including licenses to various intangible assets, in order to support the future growth of our business. Financing Activities Net cash provided by financing activities for the nine months ended September 30, 2024 was $23.5 million, which was primarily attributed to $10.0 million of net proceeds from the issuance of the line of credit through Wells Fargo, $13.2 million of net proceeds from the issuance of common stocks through the ATM and $5.7 million of net proceeds from the issuance of a line of credit through the Bank of Ningbo Co., LTD, partially offset by $2.0 million payments on debt obligations and $4.4A million of payments on financed software. Net cash provided by financing activities for the nine months ended September 30, 2023 was $34.2 million, which was primarily attributed to $52.0A million of net proceeds from the issuance of common stocks through the ATM, partially offset by $12.5 million payments on debt obligations, and $7.0 million of payments on financed software. Critical Accounting Estimates The discussion and analysis of our financial condition and results of operations are based upon our condensed consolidated financial statements, which have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles (A GAAP A). The preparation of these financial statements requires us to make estimates and judgments in applying our most critical accounting policies that can have a significant impact on the results we report in our financial statements. The SEC has defined critical accounting estimates as those that involve a significant level of estimation uncertainty and have had or are reasonably likely to have a material impact on a registrant A s financial condition or results of operations. Based on this definition, our most critical accounting estimates include revenue recognition, which impacts the recording of net revenue; business combinations, which impacts the fair value of acquired assets and assumed liabilities; and contingent considerations, which impact the fair value of assumed liabilities and the recording of other income (expense). We have other significant accounting policies that do not generally require subjective estimates or judgments or would not have a material impact on our results of operations. Our critical accounting policies and estimates are disclosed under Item 7, Management A s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2023. There have been no material changes to our critical accounting policies and estimates as disclosed in our Annual Report on Form 10-K filed for the year ended December 31, 2023. Recently Issued and Adopted Accounting Standards We describe the recently issued and adopted accounting pronouncements that apply to us in Note 1 A s Nature of Business and Basis of Presentation to our condensed consolidated financial statements presented herein. ITEM 3. QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK Foreign Currency Risk We have international operations, giving rise to exposure to market risks from changes in currency exchange rates. Our primary foreign currency exposures are the Canadian dollar, Chinese yuan/renminbi, Euro, British pound sterling and Israeli New Shekel. Foreign exchange gains and losses that resulted from our international operations are included in the determination of Net income (loss). The foreign currency translation exchange gain (loss) included in determining loss before income taxes was $0.7 million and $(0.1) million for the three and nine months ended September A 30, 2024. For the three and nine months ended September A 30, 2023 the foreign currency translation exchange gain included in determining loss before income taxes was $0.7 million and $0.3 million, respectively. The year-over-year change was primarily related to the change in fair value of our currency forward contracts entered into during 2024. We also have intercompany loans with certain of our foreign subsidiaries that are long-term in nature. Repayments of such principal amounts are neither planned nor anticipated in the foreseeable future and are therefore treated analogous to equity for accounting purposes. As a result, the foreign exchange gains and losses on these borrowings are excluded from the determination of Net income (loss) and recorded as a component of Accumulated other comprehensive income (loss) in the consolidated balance sheets. A cumulative foreign currency translation loss of $8.5 million and $20.3 million related to our foreign subsidiaries is included in A s Accumulated other comprehensive loss A within the Stockholders' Equity section of the consolidated balance sheet at September A 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively. The year-over-year change was primarily driven by the cumulative foreign currency translation loss recorded in relation to permanently invested intercompany loans as of September A 30, 2024 as the exchange rate for U.S. dollar fluctuates against foreign currencies. 42 Table of Contents As our international operations grow, our risks associated with fluctuation in foreign currency rates will become greater, and we will continue to reassess our approach to managing this risk. In addition, currency fluctuations or a weakening U.S. dollar could increase the costs of our international expansion and operation. To mitigate the risk, we plan to enter into additional foreign currency forward contracts in the foreseeable future. Investment and Interest Rate Risk Our exposure to interest rate and general market risks relates principally to our investment portfolio, which consists of cash and cash equivalents (money market funds and marketable securities purchased with less than ninety days until maturity) and restricted cash that totals approximately $107.2 million as of September A 30, 2024. The main objectives of our investment activities are liquidity and preservation of capital. Our cash equivalent investments have short-term maturity periods that dampen the impact of market or interest rate risk. Credit risk associated with our investments is not material because our investments are diversified across securities with high credit ratings. Given the objectives of our investment activities, and the relatively low interest income generated from our cash, cash equivalents, and other investments, we do not believe that investment or interest rate risks currently pose material exposures to our business or results of operations even in the current environment of rising interest rates. ITEM 4. CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES Evaluation of Disclosure Controls and Procedures Our management, including our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, have conducted an evaluation of the effectiveness of the design and operation of our disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Rule 13a-15(e) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the A s Exchange Act A)) as of September A 30, 2024 and based on this evaluation, have concluded that, as a result of the material weaknesses in internal control over financial reporting as described below, our disclosure controls and procedures were not effective as of September A 30, 2024. Per Rule 13a-15(e), the term disclosure controls and procedures means controls and other procedures of an issuer that are designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed by the issuer in the reports that it files or submits under the Exchange Act (15 U.S.C. 78a et seq.) is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in the SEC A s rules and forms. Disclosure controls and procedures include, without limitation, controls and procedures designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed by an issuer in the reports that it files or submits under the Exchange Act is accumulated and communicated to the issuer’s management, including its Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, or persons performing similar functions, as appropriate to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosures. In designing and evaluating disclosure controls and procedures, our management recognizes that any system of controls, however well designed and operated, can provide only reasonable assurance, and not absolute assurance, that the desired control objectives of the system are met. In addition, the design of any control system is based in part upon certain assumptions about the likelihood of future events. Because of these and other inherent limitations of control systems, there can be no assurance that any design will succeed in achieving its stated goals in all future circumstances. Accordingly, our disclosure controls and procedures must be designed to provide reasonable, not absolute, assurance that the objectives of our disclosure control system are met. Previously Reported Material Weaknesses A material weakness is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control over financial reporting such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of our annual or interim financial statements will not be prevented or detected on a timely basis. As disclosed in in Part IIaCItem 9A of the Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2023 filed with SEC on February 29, 2024, management determined that the Company did not have effective risk assessment to identify and analyze risks related to non-routine transactions, such as mergers and acquisitions, at a sufficient level of detail to identify all relevant risks of material misstatement across the Company or within each acquired entity. Additionally, the Company did not have effective information control processes, including those related to information technology general controls (ITGCs), user access controls and the use of manual spreadsheets, to ensure the reliability of information used in certain computations related to financial reporting. As a consequence of the aforementioned deficiencies, the Company did not have effective control activities related to the design and operation of process-level controls across certain key financial reporting processes. Management has determined that these material weaknesses persisted as of September 30, 2024. 43 Table of Contents Remediation Efforts to Address the Material Weaknesses Management’s remediation efforts are ongoing and the actions outlined in the Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2023, will continue to be pursued. As we continue to evaluate and enhance our internal control over financial reporting, we may determine that additional measures to address the material weaknesses or adjustments to the remediation plan may be required. However, we cannot guarantee when we will remediate material weaknesses, nor can we be certain that additional steps will be necessary. Furthermore, it cannot be guaranteed that no further material weaknesses will emerge in the future. The remediation efforts are subject to continuous management evaluation and audit committee supervision. Until Management has completed its remediation efforts and evaluated their effectiveness, we will not be able to determine whether the steps taken will completely remedy the material deficiencies in the Company’s internal control over financial reporting. Changes in Internal Control Over Financial Reporting There were no changes in our internal control over financial reporting, as defined in Exchange Act Rules 13a-15(f) and 15d-15(d) during the quarter ended September 30, 2024, with the exception of the ongoing remediation efforts related to the material weaknesses described above. 44 Table of Contents PART II. OTHER INFORMATION ITEM 1. LEGAL PROCEEDINGS We are not party to any material legal proceedings. From time to time, we may be involved in legal proceedings or subject to claims incident to the ordinary course of business. The outcome of litigation is inherently uncertain, and there can be no assurances that favorable outcomes will be obtained. In addition, regardless of the outcome, such proceedings or claims can have an adverse impact on us, which may be material because of defense and settlement costs, diversion of resources and other factors. ITEM 1A. RISK FACTORS The business, financial condition, and operating results of the Company can be affected by many factors, whether currently known or unknown, including but not limited to those described in Part 1, Item 1A in the Company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2023 under the heading “Risk Factors,” any one or more of which could, directly or indirectly, cause the Company’s actual financial condition and operating results to vary materially from past or the anticipated future financial condition and operating results. Any of these factors, in whole or in part, could materially and adversely affect the Company’s business, financial condition, operating results, and stock price. There have been no material changes to the Company’s risk factors disclosed under the heading “Risk Factors” in Part 1, Item 1A in the Company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2023 filed on February 29, 2024. ITEM 2. UNREGISTERED SALES OF EQUITY SECURITIES AND USE OF PROCEEDS On various dates between August 15, 2024 and September 6, 2024, we issued an aggregate of 61,279 shares of Class A common stock to two ADK Minority Holders (as defined in Note 13, Noncontrolling Interest) in exchange for an equal number of their ADK LLC units. The shares of Class A common stock were issued to the two ADK Minority Holders in reliance on the exemption under Section 4(a)(2) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”). In connection with such exchange, zero shares of Class V common stock held by the ADK Minority Holders were cancelled and 61,279 shares of ADK LLC units were exchanged to Class A common stock. On September 27, 2024 in connection with the acquisition of Exalos AG, the Company issued 610,975 shares of its Class A common stock to settle the release of the adjustment holdback. ITEM 3. DEFAULTS UPON SENIOR SECURITIES None. ITEM 4. MINE SAFETY DISCLOSURES Not applicable. ITEM 5. OTHER INFORMATION On November 7, 2024 in connection with the acquisition of Exalos AG, the Company issued 2,845,243 shares of our Class A common stock as payment for the first tranche of contingent consideration that was due upon achievement of a revenue-based target for the 12-month period ending on September 30, 2024. The securities were issued by the Company in reliance upon Section 4(a)(2) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended. ITEM 6. (â€œindieâ€) and its predecessor for accounting purposes, Ay Dee Kay, LLC, a California limited liability company (â€œADK LLCâ€) and its subsidiaries are collectively referred to herein as the â€œCompany.â€ The Company offers highly innovative automotive semiconductors and software solutions for Advanced Driver Assistance Systems (â€œADASâ€), autonomous vehicle, connected car, user experience and electrification applications. The Company focuses on edge sensors across multiple modalities spanning LiDAR, radar, ultrasound and computer vision. These functions represent the core underpinnings of both electric and autonomous vehicles, while the advanced user interfaces are transforming the in-cabin experience to mirror and seamlessly connect to the mobile platforms people rely on every day. indie is an approved vendor to Tier 1 automotive suppliers and its platforms can be found in marquee automotive manufacturers around the world. Headquartered in Aliso Viejo, California, indie has design centers and sales offices in Austin, Texas; Detroit, Michigan; San Jose, California; Cordoba, Argentina; Budapest, Hungary; Dresden, Frankfurt am der Oder, Munich and Nuremberg, Germany; Edinburgh, Scotland; Schlieren, Switzerland; Rabat, Morocco; Haifa, Israel; Quebec City and Toronto, Canada; Seoul, South Korea; Tokyo, Japan and several locations throughout China. The Company engages subcontractors to manufacture its products. The majority of these subcontractors are located in Asia.Execution of At-The-Market AgreementOn August 26, 2022, the Company entered into an At Market Issuance Agreement (â€œATM Agreementâ€) with B. Riley Securities, Inc., Craig-Hallum Capital Group LLC and Roth Capital Partners, LLC (collectively as â€œSales Agentsâ€) relating to shares of its Class A common stock, par value $0.0001 per share (the â€œClass A common stockâ€). In accordance with the terms of the ATM Agreement, the Company may offer and sell shares of its Class A common stock having an aggregate offering price of up to $150,000 from time to time through the Sales Agents, acting as the Companyâ€™s agent or principal. The Company implemented this program for the flexible access that it provides to the capital markets. As of September 30, 2024, and since the inception of the program indie has raised gross proceeds of $83,865 and issued 9,393,259 shares of Class A common stock at an average per-share sales price of $8.93 and had approximately $66,135 available for future issuances under the ATM Agreement. During the three months ended September 30, 2024, indie raised gross proceeds of $11,157 and issued 1,696,948 shares of Class A common stock at an average sales price of $6.57 per share. During the nine months ended September 30, 2024, indie raised gross proceeds of $13,526 and issued 2,042,000 shares of Class A common stock at an average sales price of $6.62 per share. During the three months ended September 30, 2023, there was no ATM related activity. During the nine months ended September 30, 2023, indie raised gross proceeds of $53,136 and issued 5,219,500 shares of Class A common stock at an average sales price of $10.18 per share. For the three months ended September 30, 2024 and 2023, indie incurred total issuance costs of $240 and $0, respectively. For the nine months ended September 30, 2024 and 2023, indie incurred total issuance costs of $291 and $1,136, respectively.Recent AcquisitionOn January 25, 2024 (the â€œDeal Closing Dateâ€), indie and ADK LLC completed its acquisition of Kinetic Technologies, LLC (â€œKineticâ€). The acquisition was consummated pursuant to an Asset Purchase Agreement (the â€œAPAâ€) to acquire certain research and development personnel, intellectual property and business properties from Kinetic, in support of a custom product development for a North American electric vehicle original equipment manufacturer (â€œOEMâ€). The closing consideration consisted of (i) $3,200 in cash as the initial cash consideration, net of an adjustment holdback amount of $500 and an indemnity holdback amount of $800, (ii) $2,348 of total contingent considerations, payable in cash or Class A common stock, subject to achievement of certain production based milestones 24 months after the Deal Closing Date (â€œthe Production Earnoutâ€), and (iii) $2,251 of contingent considerations, payable in cash or Class A common stock, subject to achievement of certain revenue based milestones 12 months after the Deal Closing Date (â€œthe Revenue Earnoutâ€). The purchase price was subject to working capital and other adjustments as provided in the APA. The indemnity holdback amount is payable within five business days after the 18-month anniversary of the Deal Closing Date and is payable in shares of Class A common stock.See Note 2 â€” Business Combinations for a full description of all of the recent acquisitions.Risks and UncertaintiesCurrent and continued inflationary conditions have led, and may continue to lead to rising prices or rising interest rates, which has had a dampening effect on overall economic activity and consumer demand for automotive products. Additionally, the conflict in the Middle East and the implication of this event has created global political and economic uncertainty. The Company is closely monitoring developments, including potential impact to the Companyâ€™s business, customers, suppliers, its employees and operations in Israel, the Middle East and elsewhere. At this time, the impact to indie is subject to change given the volatile nature of the situation.Basis of PresentationThe condensed consolidated financial statements are prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America (â€œU.S. GAAPâ€) and the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission (â€œSECâ€). Any reference in these notes to applicable guidance is meant to refer to the authoritative U.S. GAAP as found in the Accounting Standards Codification (â€œASCâ€) and the Accounting Standards Update (â€œASUâ€) of the Financial Accounting Standards Board (â€œFASBâ€). The condensed consolidated financial statements include the condensed consolidated accounts of the Companyâ€™s majority-owned subsidiary, ADK LLC, of which approximately 91% was owned by indie as of September 30, 2024. ADK LLCâ€™s condensed consolidated financial statements include its wholly-owned subsidiaries indie Services Corporation, indie LLC and indie City LLC, all California entities, Ay Dee Kay Limited (â€œAy Dee Kay Ltd.â€), a private limited company incorporated under the laws of Scotland, indie GmbH, Symeo GmbH, and Silicon Radar GmbH (â€œSilicon Radarâ€), all of which are private limited liability companies incorporated under the laws of Germany, Exalos AG (â€œExalosâ€), a company limited by shares organized under the laws of Switzerland, indie Kft, a limited liability company incorporated under the laws of Hungary, TeraXion Inc. and Geo Semiconductor Canada Inc., both incorporated under the laws of Canada, indie Semiconductor Israel Ltd., a private limited company incorporated under the laws of Israel, Ay Dee Kay S.A., a limited liability company incorporated under the laws of Argentina, indie Semiconductor Morocco, a limited liability company under the laws of Morocco, indie Semiconductor Japan KK, a limited liability company under the laws of Japan, Wuxi indie Microelectronics (â€œWuxiâ€), a Chinese entity with approximately 59% voting controlled and approximately 34% owned by the Company as of September 30, 2024 and Wuxiâ€™s wholly-owned subsidiaries, indie Semiconductor Suzhou, indie Semiconductor HK, Ltd and Shanghai Ziyang Microelectronics Co., Ltd.All significant intercompany accounts and transactions of the subsidiaries have been eliminated in consolidation. The noncontrolling interest attributable to the Companyâ€™s less-than-wholly-owned subsidiary is presented as a separate component from stockholdersâ€™ equity (deficit) in the condensed consolidated balance sheets, and a noncontrolling interest in the condensed consolidated statements of operations and condensed consolidated statements of stockholdersâ€™ equity (deficit) and noncontrolling interest.Unaudited Interim Financial InformationThe accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements have been prepared pursuant to the rules and regulations of the SEC for interim financial reporting. Certain information and footnote disclosures, normally included in annual consolidated financial statements prepared in accordance with U.S. GAAP, have been condensed or omitted pursuant to those rules and regulations. However, in managementâ€™s opinion, the financial information reflects all adjustments, including those of a normal recurring nature, necessary to present fairly the results of operations, financial position, and cash flows of the Company for the periods presented. The results of operations, financial position, and cash flows for the Company during the interim periods are not necessarily indicative of those expected for the full year. This information should be read in conjunction with the Companyâ€™s consolidated financial statements and notes thereto contained in the Companyâ€™s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2023, filed with the SEC on February 29, 2024.Significant Accounting PoliciesThe Companyâ€™s significant accounting policies are disclosed in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2023. There has been no material change to the Companyâ€™s significant accounting policies during the nine months ended September 30, 2024.Recent Accounting PronouncementsRecently Issued Not Yet Adopted Accounting PronouncementsIn November 2024, the FASB issued ASU No. 2024-03, Income Statement - Reporting Comprehensive Income - Expenses Disaggregation Disclosures (Subtopic 220-40): Disaggregation of Income Statement Expenses, which provides guidance to enhance disclosures related to the disaggregation of income statement expenses. The standard requires, in the notes to the financial statements, disclosure of specified information about certain costs and expenses which includes purchases of inventory, employee compensation, depreciation, and intangible asset amortization included in each relevant expense caption. The standard also requires amounts that are already required to be disclosed under U.S. GAAP in the same disclosure as the other disaggregation requirements, disclosure of a qualitative description of the amounts remaining in relevant expense captions that are not separately disaggregated quantitatively, and disclosure of the total amount of selling expenses and, in annual reporting periods, an entity's definition of selling expenses. The amendments in this standard are effective for annual periods beginning after December 15, 2026, and interim periods beginning after December 15, 2027. Companies have the option to apply the guidance either on a retrospective or prospective basis, and early adoption is permitted. The Company is currently evaluating the impact of ASU 2024-03 on its condensed consolidated financial statements and related disclosures. In December 2023, the FASB issued ASU No. 2023-09, Income Taxes (Topic 740) â€” Improvements to Income Tax Disclosures, to require enhanced income tax disclosures to provide information to assess how an entityâ€™s operations and related tax risks, tax planning, and operational opportunities affect its tax rate and prospects for future cash flows. The amendments in this update provide that a business entity disclose (1) a tabular income tax rate reconciliation, using both percentages and amounts, (2) separate disclosure of any individual reconciling items that are equal to or greater than 5% of the amount computed by multiplying the income (loss) from continuing operations before income taxes by the applicable statutory income tax rate, and disaggregation of certain items that are significant and (3) amount of income taxes paid (net of refunds received) disaggregated by federal, state and foreign jurisdictions, including separate disclosure of any individual jurisdictions greater than 5% of total income taxes paid. These amendments are effective for the Company for annual periods in 2025, applied prospectively, with early adoption and retrospective application permitted. The Company intends to adopt the amendments in this update prospectively in 2025. The impact of the adoption of the amendments in this update is not expected to be material to the Companyâ€™s condensed consolidated financial position and results of operations since the amendments require only enhancement of existing income tax disclosures in the notes to the Companyâ€™s condensed consolidated financial statements.In November 2023, the FASB issued ASU No. 2023-07, Segment Reporting (Topic 280) â€” Improvements to Reportable Segment Disclosures, to require enhanced disclosures that include reportable segment expenses. The amendments in this update provide that a business entity disclose significant segment expenses, segment profit or loss (after significant segment expenses), and allows reporting of additional measures of a segments profit or loss if used in assessing segment performance. Such disclosures apply to entities with a single reportable segment and are effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2023, and interim periods within fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2024, on a retrospective basis. Early adoption is permitted. The Company is currently evaluating the impact of ASU 2023-07 on its condensed consolidated financial statements and related disclosures but does not expect the impact to be material. The amortization of the debt discount and cost of issuance resulted in non-cash interest expense of $260 and $246 for the three months ended September 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively. The amortization of the debt discount and cost of issuance resulted in non-cash interest expense of $763 and $720 for the nine months ended September 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively. Such amortization expenses are included in Interest Expense in the Company's condensed consolidated statements of operations.Indie Semiconductor Revolving Line of CreditOn March 29, 2024, the Company entered into a revolving line of credit agreement with Wells Fargo Bank, National Association (the Wells Fargo line) with a credit limit of $10,000, bearing interest at the Secured Overnight Financing Rate (the SOFR rate) plus 1.75%. The outstanding principal balance is due and payable in full on March 28, 2025. Interest is payable monthly beginning on May 1, 2024 through the maturity date. This line of credit required the Company to collateralize a cash balance equal to the total outstanding balance in a cash security account with Wells Fargo, which resulted in a total restricted cash of $10,000 as of September 30, 2024. Fees of $50 incurred will be amortized over the life of the credit agreement. This revolving line of credit had an outstanding balance of $10,000 as of September 30, 2024. During the three and nine months ended September 30, 2024, the cash and non-cash interest was de minimus.TeraXion Revolving CreditIn connection with the acquisition of TeraXion on October 12, 2021, the Company assumed a revolving credit with the Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce (the CIBC line) with a credit limit of CAD9,440 bearing interest at prime rate plus 0.25%, repayable in monthly installments of CAD155 plus interest, maturing in October 2026. The repayment of monthly installments reduces the credit limit over time. CIBC also reserves the right to request full repayment of a portion or all outstanding balances at any time. As of September 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, the outstanding principal balance and credit limit of the loan was $2,976 and $3,971, (or CAD4,024 and CAD5,262), respectively. TeraXion also has an authorized credit facility up to CAD5,000 at September 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, respectively, from CIBC, bearing interest at prime rate plus 0.25%. The credit facility permits the Company to request incremental loans in an aggregate principal amount not to exceed the sum of an amount equal to the greater of CAD5,000 and 100% of TeraXion's EBITDA. This line of credit had an outstanding balance of CAD2,025 (or approximately $1,497) as of September 30, 2024. The earn-out milestones represent two independent criteria, each of which entitles the eligible stockholders to 5,000,000 earn-out shares per milestone met. Each earn-out milestone is considered met if at any time following the Transaction and prior to December 31, 2027, the volume weighted average price of indie's Class A common stock is greater than or equal to $12.50 or $15.00 for any twenty trading days within any thirty-trading day period, respectively. Further, the earn-out milestones are also considered to be met if indie undergoes a Sale. A Sale is defined as the occurrence of any of the following for indie: (i) engage in a ongoing private transaction pursuant to Rule 13e-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act), or otherwise cease to be subject to reporting obligations under Sections 13 or 15(d) of the Exchange Act; (ii) Class A common stock ceases to be listed on a national securities exchange, other than for the failure to satisfy minimum listing requirements under applicable stock exchange rules; or (iii) change of ownership (including a merger or consolidation) or approval of a plan for complete liquidation or dissolution.These earn-out shares had been categorized into two components: (i) those associated with stockholders with vested equity at the closing of the Transaction that will be earned upon achievement of the earn-out milestones (the Vested Shares) and (ii) those associated with stockholders with unvested equity at the closing of the Transaction that will be earned over the remaining service period with the Company on their unvested equity shares and upon achievement of the Earn-Out Milestones (the Unvested Shares). The Vested Shares were classified as liabilities in the condensed consolidated balance sheet and the Unvested Shares are equity-classified share-based compensation to be recognized over time. The earn-out liability was initially measured at fair value at the closing of the Transaction and subsequently remeasured at the end of each reporting period. The change in fair value of the earn-out liability was recorded as part of Other income (expense), net in the condensed consolidated statement of operations.The estimated fair value of the earn-out liability was determined using a Monte Carlo Simulations analysis that simulated the future path of the Company's stock price over the earn-out period. The assumptions utilized in the calculation are based on the achievement of certain stock price milestones including projected stock price, volatility, and risk-free rate.Contingent ConsiderationsOn May 13, 2020, in connection with the acquisition of City Semiconductor, Inc. (the City Semi), the Company recorded contingent consideration as a long-term liability at an initial fair value of $1,180. The contingent consideration is comprised of two tranches. The first tranche is payable, up to a maximum of $500, upon the achievement of cash collection targets within 12 months of the acquisition, and $456 was achieved in May 2021. The second tranche is payable, up to a maximum of $1,500, upon the shipment of a product incorporating the acquired developed technology. In September 2021, the Company paid off the first tranche of the contingent consideration. In April 2023, the Company settled $500 of the $1,500 second tranche through the issuance of 73,311 shares of Class A common stock with a fair value of $608 at the time of issuance. In January 2024, the Company settled $500 of the $1,000 second tranche through the issuance of 62,562 shares of Class A common stock with a fair value of $500 at the time of issuance. The fair value of the remaining $500 second tranche contingent consideration liabilities was $490 as of September 30, 2024.On January 4, 2022, in connection with the acquisition of Symeo, the Company recorded contingent considerations as a current and a long-term liability at an initial fair value of $4,390 and $3,446, respectively. The contingent consideration is comprised of two tranches. The first tranche was payable upon the achievement of a revenue threshold of $5,000 by March 31, 2023. The second tranche was payable upon Symeo's achievement of a revenue threshold of $6,000 by March 31, 2024. On October 26, 2023, the Company issued 363,194 of Class A common stock, with a fair value of $1,900 at the time of issuance to Analog Devices, Inc., as final settlement for the achievement of the first tranche of the contingent considerations. The second tranche of contingent consideration liability was fully released during the three months ended September 30, 2024 as the earnout milestone was not met. The final change in fair value of $7 is recorded in Other income (expense), net in the condensed consolidated statement of operations for the nine months ended September 30, 2024.On February 21, 2023, in connection with the acquisition of Silicon Radar, the Company recorded contingent considerations as a current and a long-term liability at an initial fair value of $4,155 and $5,085, respectively. The contingent consideration is comprised of two tranches. The first tranche was payable upon the achievement of a revenue threshold of $5,000 for the 12-month period ending on February 21, 2024. The second tranche is payable upon Silicon Radar's achievement of a revenue threshold of $7,000 for the 12-month period ending on February 21, 2025. Both tranches are payable in cash or in common stock at indie's discretion. Should indie elect to pay in common stock, the number of shares issuable equals the earnout amount divided by a VWAP for 20 days ending prior to the due date for payment. In May 2024, the Company settled the first tranche through the issuance of 1,103,140 shares of Class A common stock with a fair value of $6,045 at the time of issuance. The fair value of the second tranche contingent consideration liability as of September 30, 2024 was $60. The change in fair value since the acquisition date is recorded in Other income (expense), net in the condensed consolidated statement of operations. On March 3, 2023, in connection with the acquisition of GEO, the Company recorded contingent considerations as a current and a long-term liability at an initial fair value of $38,828 and $20,452, respectively. The contingent consideration is comprised of two tranches. The first tranche was payable upon the achievement of a revenue threshold of $20,000 for the 12-month period ending on March 31, 2024. The second tranche is payable upon GEO's achievement of a revenue threshold of $10,000 for the six-month period ending on September 30, 2024. Both tranches are payable in cash or common stock, at indie's election. Should indie elect to pay in common stock, the number of shares issuable equals the earnout amount divided by the Earnout Parent Trading Price. Payment in cash will be determined by the number of shares payable multiplied by the Earnout Parent Trading Price. In May 2024, the Company settled the first tranche through the issuance of 6,096,951 shares of Class A common stock with a fair value of $40,667 at the time of issuance. The fair value of the second tranche contingent consideration liability as of September 30, 2024 was $3,900. The change in fair value since the acquisition date is recorded in Other income (expense), net in the condensed consolidated statement of operations. On September 18, 2023, in connection with the acquisition of Exalos, the Company recorded contingent considerations as a current and a long-term liability at an initial fair value of $7,328 and $2,427, respectively. The contingent consideration is comprised of two tranches. The first tranche is payable upon the achievement of a revenue threshold of $19,000 for the 12-month period ending on September 30, 2024. The second tranche is payable upon Exalos' achievement of a revenue threshold of $21,000 for the 12-month period ending on September 30, 2025. Both tranches are payable in cash or in shares at indie's discretion. The fair value of the first and second tranche contingent consideration liability as of September 30, 2024 was $14,113 and $584, respectively. The change in fair value since the acquisition date is recorded in Other income (expense), net in the condensed consolidated statement of operations. On November 7, 2024, the first tranche of contingent consideration was settled through the issuance of 2,845,243 shares of Class A common stock and cash payment of $2,536.On January 25, 2024, in connection with the acquisition of Kinetic, the Company recorded contingent considerations as a current and a long-term liability at an initial fair value of $2,251 and 2,348, respectively. The contingent consideration is comprised of two tranches. The first tranche is payable upon the achievement of a revenue threshold of $12,000 for the 12-month period ending on January 25, 2025. The second tranche is payable upon achievement of certain production-based milestones for the 24-month period ending on January 25, 2026. Both tranches are payable in cash or in shares at indie's discretion. The fair value of the first and second tranche contingent consideration liabilities as of September 30, 2024 was $2,391 and $1,840, respectively. The change in fair value since the acquisition date is recorded in Other income (expense), net in the condensed consolidated statement of operations. The Company estimated the fair value based on a Monte Carlo Simulations analysis to simulate the probability of achievement of various milestones identified within each contingent consideration arrangement, using certain assumptions that require significant judgement and discount rates. The discount rates were based on the estimated cost of debt plus a premium, which included consideration of expected term of the earn-out payment, yield on treasury instruments and an estimated credit rating for the Company.Because the acquisition related to Kinetic occurred within the last twelve months, the significant information to be obtained and analyzed and the fact that Kinetic resides in a foreign jurisdiction, the Companyâ€™s fair value estimates for the associated contingent consideration were valued based on a probability method as of SeptemberÂ 30, 2024.The following table presents the significant unobservable inputs assumed for each of the fair value measurements:September 30, 2024December 31, 2023InputInputLiabilities:Exalos Contingent Consideration - First TrancheDiscount rate9.98A %7.46A %Volatility60.00A %75.00A %Exalos Contingent Consideration - Second TrancheDiscount rate9.98A %7.46A %Volatility60.00A %70.00A %GEO Contingent Consideration - Second TrancheDiscount rate8.90A %12.60A %A Volatility78.70A %60.00A %Kinetic Contingent Consideration - First TrancheMarket yield rate8.90A %N/AA A Scenario probability100.00A %N/AKinetic Contingent Consideration - Second TrancheMarket yield rate8.81A %N/AA A Scenario probability70.00A %N/ASilicon Radar Contingent Consideration - Second TrancheDiscount rate10.56A %10.79A %Volatility60.00A %60.00A %City Semi Contingent Consideration - Second TrancheDiscount rate12.65A %12.65A %X - ReferencesNo definition available. + Details Name: us-gaap FairValueDisclosuresAbstract Namespace Prefix: us-gaap_ Data Type: xbrli:stringItem Type Balance Type: na Period Type: duration X - DefinitionThe entire disclosure for the fair value of financial instruments (as defined), including financial assets and financial liabilities (collectively, as defined), and the measurements of those instruments as well as disclosures related to the fair value of non-financial assets and liabilities. (â€œWuxiâ€), indieâ€™s majority controlled subsidiary. The Wuxi Capital Raise provided Wuxi additional funding of CNY300,000 (approximately $42,000) by issuing 371,160 shares from Wuxi, which represents 16% of Wuxiâ€™s equity at the time of issuance. The funds raised are intended to promote Wuxiâ€™s business development and strengthen its capabilities. Pursuant to the terms of the agreement, these investors subscribed for the 371,160 shares at CNY808.28 per share. As a result, indieâ€™s ownership in Wuxi has reduced from 45% to 38% ownership control, with indie having 59% voting control. As indie continues to control Wuxiâ€™s Board of Directors and has the majority of the voting interests, Wuxiâ€™s financial results will continue to be consolidated with those of ADK LLC and its other wholly-owned subsidiaries. Minority interests held in Wuxi are accounted for as non-controlling interests in the Companyâ€™s condensed consolidated financial statements. Among other provisions, this agreement includes certain liquidation preferences for the investors (â€œDeemed Liquidation Eventâ€ or â€œDLEâ€) as well as an ability to exchange their Wuxi shares for shares of indieâ€™s Class A common stock in the event Wuxi does not successfully complete a local initial public offering (â€œIPOâ€) by DecemberÂ 31, 2027 (the â€œConversionâ€). A Deemed Liquidation Event includes but not limited to (a) a change of control of the Company or its surviving entity in a single, or series of related transactions, or merger, division, reorganization, acquisition, or business integration between the Company and any third parties, excluding any corporate restricting as duly approved pursuant to the AOA; or (b) a sale, transfer or otherwise disposal of the all or substantially all assets of the Company, in a single, or series of related transactions. Upon a DLE prior to IPO, the distribution will be made in cash in order of the liquidation preferences pursuant to the investment agreement for an amount that is the higher of (i) an amount equal to 100% of the applicable original issue price with an annual simple premium of 8% (calculated from the transaction closing date of November 29, 2022 to the date of the Liquidation Event), or (ii) an amount equal to the total liquidation proceeds received by the Company or the shareholders (as the case may be) directly in a Liquidation Event, multiplied by the shareholderâ€™s proportionate ownership percentage, plus all accrued or declared but unpaid dividends of such share.Pursuant to the investment agreement, Wuxi shall use commercially reasonable efforts to meet the conditions for the IPO and list shares by a Chinese or overseas securities trading institutions and consummate an IPO as early as possible. If Wuxi is unable to consummate an IPO, indie undertakes to exchange the shares issued in this capital raise for indieâ€™s Class A common stock equal to the total capital raised plus a premium of 8% per year (simple interest) between the execution date and DecemberÂ 31, 2027. The total amount is calculated using the exchange rate at the time of the stock exchange and the value of each Class A common stock is based on the stock price at that time, but the exchange shall not exceed a total of 6,000,000 shares of indie Class A common stock. Wuxi Equity Incentive Plan Paid-In CapitalIn December 2023, employees in Wuxi exercised stock options granted to them through the Wuxi Equity Incentive Plan (the â€œWuxi EIPâ€) and paid CNY87,959 (or approximately $12,346) in capital contributions to Wuxi. The Wuxi EIP was approved by Wuxiâ€™s Board of Directors and is a long-term incentive plan under which equity awards may be granted to employees of Wuxi in the form of options to purchase Wuxi common shares at a fixed strike price in the future after certain vesting conditions are met and which are then subject to certain holding conditions (â€œOptionsâ€). Options granted under the Wuxi EIP are equity-classified awards and subject to vest either six years from the grant date or when Wuxi achieves a successful IPO on a local stock exchange, whichever that is later. No compensation cost will be recognized until a qualifying event (i.e., IPO) is deemed probable to occur as these Options are considered to have no value until an IPO becomes probable. Upon occurrence of the qualifying event, the compensation cost will be recognized in full for vested Options. As of SeptemberÂ 30, 2024, there was $11,802 of total unrecognized compensation cost related to these Options. These unrecognized compensation costs will be recognized in full when a qualifying event satisfying the in-substance performance condition becomes probable.Further, per the Wuxi EIP, recipients of the Options should complete all capital contributions and payment of the incentive share price (the â€œPaid in Capital Contributionâ€) after Wuxi and the intermediary agencies (including securities companies, law firms, and accounting firms) that apply for IPO have reached an IPO application schedule and before the last financial benchmark date of Wuxiâ€™s IPO application. The Paid in Capital Contribution is akin to an early exercise. Given that Wuxi has no obligation to return the paid-in capital contribution to the recipient of the award in any event (i.e., an unsuccessful IPO, termination of employment), the Company concludes that the Paid in Capital Contribution made by the recipient is classified into Additional paid-in capital on the consolidated balance sheet as of SeptemberÂ 30, 2024.The funds are being used for Wuxiâ€™s general corporate purposes.Stock Repurchase ProgramOn November 16, 2022, indieâ€™s Board of Directors authorized the repurchase, from time to time, of up to $50,000 of indieâ€™s Class A common stock and/or warrants to purchase common stock. This was inclusive of the concurrent repurchase of shares of common stock described in Note 8 â€” Debt, under the 2027 Notes, which allowed for a portion of net proceeds to be used to repurchase up to $25,000 of common stock. There were no repurchases of common stock during the three and nine months ended SeptemberÂ 30, 2024. As of SeptemberÂ 30, 2024, there is $42,596 available for future repurchase under the program. The ADK Minority Holders may from time to time, after December 10, 2021, exchange with indie, such holders’ units in ADK LLC for an equal number of shares of indie’s Class A common stock. As a result, indie’s ownership interest in ADK LLC will increase. The ADK Minority Holders’ ownership interests are accounted for as noncontrolling interests in the Company’s condensed consolidated financial statements. The Company’s ownership of ADK LLC was approximately 91% as of both September 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023. In connection with the Transaction, the Company issued to ADK LLC Minority Holders an aggregate of 33,827,371 shares of Class V common stock of indie (the “Class V Holders”). The shares of Class V common stock provides no economic rights in indie to the holder thereof; however, each Class V Holder is entitled to vote with the holders of Class A common stock of indie, with each share of Class V common stock entitling the holder to one (1) vote per share of Class V common stock at the time of such vote (subject to customary conversion rate adjustments for stock splits, stock dividends and reclassifications). ADK LLC held approximately 59% voting control and approximately 34% ownership interest in Wuxi as of both September 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023. From time to time, Wuxi has sold equity ownership and the transactions have reduced ADK LLC’s controlling interest in Wuxi on the condensed consolidated balance sheets. As of September 30, 2024, ADK LLC maintained its controlling ownership in Wuxi. Accordingly, Wuxi’s financial statements are consolidated with those of ADK LLC and its other wholly-owned subsidiaries. During the nine months ended September 30, 2024 and 2023, the Company recognized $1,500 and $1,599, respectively, of revenue related to amounts that were previously included in deferred revenue at the beginning of the period. Deferred revenue fluctuates over time due to changes in the timing of payments received from customers and revenue recognized for services provided. Revenue related to remaining performance obligations represents the amount of contracted development arrangements that has not been recognized, which includes deferred revenue on the condensed consolidated balance sheet and unbilled amounts that will be recognized as revenue in future periods. As of September 30, 2024, the amount of performance obligations that have not been recognized as revenue was $5,385, of which approximately 100% is expected to be recognized as revenue over the next 12 months. This amount excludes the value of remaining performance obligations for contracts with an original expected length of one year or less. Variable consideration that has been constrained is excluded from the amount of performance obligations that have not been recognized. ConcentrationsAs identified below, some of our customers accounted for more than 10% of the Company’s total revenue for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2023, and no customers accounted for more than 10% of the Company’s total revenue for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2024: Three Months EndedSeptember 30,Nine Months EndedSeptember 30,2024202320242023Customer A9.6Á %13.7Á %9.3Á %14.4Á %Customer Bâ€ Á %10.9Á %6.8Á %9.5Á %Customer Câ€ Á %10.2Á %â€ Á %6.5Á %The loss of these customers would have a material impact on the Company’s condensed consolidated financial results. The earn-out milestones represent two independent criteria, each of which entitles the eligible stockholders to 5,000,000 earn-out shares per milestone met. Each earn-out milestone is considered met if at any time following the Transaction and prior to December 31, 2027, the volume weighted average price of indie’s Class A common stock is greater than or equal to $12.50 or $15.00 for any twenty trading days within any thirty-trading day period, respectively. Further, the earn-out milestones are also considered to be met if indie undergoes a Sale. A Sale is defined as the occurrence of any of the following for indie: (i) engage in a “going private” transaction pursuant to Rule 13e-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”), or otherwise cease to be subject to reporting obligations under Sections 13 or 15(d) of the Exchange Act; (ii) Class A common stock ceases to be listed on a national securities exchange, other than for the failure to satisfy minimum listing requirements under applicable stock exchange rules; or (iii) change of ownership (including a merger or consolidation) or approval of a plan for complete liquidation or dissolution. These earn-out shares had been categorized into two components: (i) those associated with stockholders with vested equity at the closing of the Transaction that will be earned upon achievement of the earn-out milestones (the “Vested Shares”) and (ii) those associated with stockholders with unvested equity at the closing of the Transaction that will be earned over the remaining service period with the Company on their unvested equity shares and upon achievement of the Earn-Out Milestones (the “Unvested Shares”). The Vested Shares were classified as liabilities in the condensed consolidated balance sheet and the Unvested Shares are equity-classified share-based compensation to be recognized over time. The earn-out liability was initially measured at fair value at the closing of the Transaction and subsequently remeasured at the end of each reporting period. The change in fair value of the earn-out liability was recorded as part of Other income (expense), net in the condensed consolidated statement of operations. The estimated fair value of the earn-out liability was determined using a Monte Carlo Simulations analysis that simulated the future path of the Company’s stock price over the earn-out period. The assumptions utilized in the calculation are based on the achievement of certain stock price milestones including projected stock price, volatility, and risk-free rate. Contingent ConsiderationsOn May 13, 2020, in connection with the acquisition of City Semiconductor, Inc. (the “City Semi”), the Company recorded contingent consideration as a long-term liability at an initial fair value of $1,180. The contingent consideration is comprised of two tranches. The first tranche is payable, up to a maximum of $500, upon the achievement of cash collection targets within 12 months of the acquisition, and $456 was achieved in May 2021. The second tranche is payable, up to a maximum of $1,500, upon the shipment of a product incorporating the acquired developed technology. In September 2021, the Company paid off the first tranche of the contingent consideration. In April 2023, the Company settled $500 of the $1,500 second tranche through the issuance of 73,311 shares of Class A common stock with a fair value of $608 at the time of issuance. In January 2024, the Company settled $500 of the $1,000 second tranche through the issuance of 62,562 shares of Class A common stock with a fair value of $500 at the time of issuance. The fair value of the remaining $500 second tranche contingent consideration liabilities was $490 as of September 30, 2024. On January 4, 2022, in connection with the acquisition of Symeo, the Company recorded contingent considerations as a current and a long-term liability at an initial fair value of $4,390 and $3,446, respectively. The contingent consideration is comprised of two tranches. The first tranche was payable upon the achievement of a revenue threshold of $5,000 by March 31, 2023. The second tranche was payable upon Symeo’s achievement of a revenue threshold of $6,000 by March 31, 2024. On October 26, 2023, the Company issued 363,194 of Class A common stock, with a fair value of $1,900 at the time of issuance to Analog Devices, Inc., as final settlement for the achievement of the first tranche of the contingent considerations. The second tranche of contingent consideration liability was fully released during the three months ended September 30, 2024 as the earnout milestone was not met. The final change in fair value of $7 is recorded in Other income (expense), net in the condensed consolidated statement of operations for the nine months ended September 30, 2024. On February 21, 2023, in connection with the acquisition of Silicon Radar, the Company recorded contingent considerations as a current and a long-term liability at an initial fair value of $4,155 and $5,085, respectively. The contingent consideration is comprised of two tranches. The first tranche was payable upon the achievement of a revenue threshold of $5,000 for the 12-month period ending on February 21, 2024. The second tranche is payable upon Silicon Radar’s achievement of a revenue threshold of $7,000 for the 12-month period ending on February 21, 2025. Both tranches are payable in cash or in common stock at indie’s discretion. Should indie elect to pay in common stock, the number of shares issuable equals the earnout amount divided by a VWAP for 20 days ending prior to the due date for payment. In May 2024, the Company settled the first tranche through the issuance of 1,103,140 shares of Class A common stock with a fair value of $6,045 at the time of issuance. The fair value of the second tranche contingent consideration liability as of September 30, 2024 was $60. The change in fair value since the acquisition date is recorded in Other income (expense), net in the condensed consolidated statement of operations. On March 3, 2023, in connection with the acquisition of GEO, the Company recorded contingent considerations as a current and a long-term liability at an initial fair value of $38,828 and $20,452, respectively. The contingent consideration is comprised of two tranches. The first tranche was payable upon the achievement of a revenue threshold of $20,000 for the 12-month period ending on March 31, 2024. The second tranche is payable upon GEO’s achievement of a revenue threshold of $10,000 for the six-month period ending on September 30, 2024. Both tranches are payable in cash or common stock, at indie’s election. Should indie elect to pay in common stock, the number of shares issuable equals the earnout amount divided by the Earnout Parent Trading Price. Payment in cash will be determined by the number of shares payable multiplied by the Earnout Parent Trading Price. In May 2024, the Company settled the first tranche through the issuance of 6,096,951 shares of Class A common stock with a fair value of $40,667 at the time of issuance. The fair value of the second tranche contingent consideration liability as of September 30, 2024 was $3,900. The change in fair value since the acquisition date is recorded in Other income (expense), net in the condensed consolidated statement of operations. On September 18, 2023, in connection with the acquisition of Exalos, the Company recorded contingent considerations as a current and a long-term liability at an initial fair value of $7,328 and $2,427, respectively. The contingent consideration is comprised of two tranches. The first tranche is payable upon the achievement of a revenue threshold of $19,000 for the 12-month period ending on September 30, 2024. The second tranche is payable upon Exalosâ€™ achievement of a revenue threshold of $21,000 for the 12-month period ending on September 30, 2025. Both tranches are payable in cash or in shares at indiefâ€™s discretion. The fair value of the first and second tranche contingent consideration liability as of September 30, 2024 was $14,113 and $584, respectively. The change in fair value since the acquisition date is recorded in Other income (expense), net in the condensed consolidated statement of operations. On November 7, 2024, the first tranche of contingent consideration was settled through the issuance of 2,845,243 shares of Class A common stock and cash payment of $2,536. On January 25, 2024, in connection with the acquisition of Kinetic, the Company recorded contingent considerations as a current and a long-term liability at an initial fair value of $2,251 and 2,348, respectively. The contingent consideration is comprised of two tranches. The first tranche is payable upon the achievement of a revenue threshold of $12,000 for the 12-month period ending on January 25, 2025. The second tranche is payable upon achievement of certain production-based milestones for the 24-month period ending on January 25, 2026. Both tranches are payable in cash or in shares at indiefâ€™s discretion. The fair value of the first and second tranche contingent consideration liabilities as of September 30, 2024 was $2,391 and $1,840, respectively. The change in fair value since the acquisition date is recorded in Other income (expense), net in the condensed consolidated statement of operations. Recent Accounting Pronouncements Recent Accounting PronouncementsRecently Issued Not Yet Adopted Accounting PronouncementsIn November 2024, the FASB issued ASU No. 2024-03, Income Statement - Reporting Comprehensive Income - Expenses Disaggregation Disclosures (Subtopic 220-40): Disaggregation of Income Statement Expenses, which provides guidance to enhance disclosures related to the disaggregation of income statement expenses. The standard requires, in the notes to the financial statements, disclosure of specified information about certain costs and expenses which includes purchases of inventory, employee compensation, depreciation, and intangible asset amortization included in each relevant expense caption. The standard also requires amounts that are already required to be disclosed under U.S. GAAP in the same disclosure as the other disaggregation requirements, disclosure of a qualitative description of the amounts remaining in relevant expense captions that are not separately disaggregated quantitatively, and disclosure of the total amount of selling expenses and, in annual reporting periods, an entity's definition of selling expenses. The amendments in this standard are effective for annual periods beginning after December 15, 2026, and interim periods beginning after December 15, 2027. Companies have the option to apply the guidance either on a retrospective or prospective basis, and early adoption is permitted. The Company is currently evaluating the impact of ASU 2024-03 on its condensed consolidated financial statements and related disclosures. In December 2023, the FASB issued ASU No. 2023-09, Income Taxes (Topic 740)    Improvements to Income Tax Disclosures, to require enhanced income tax disclosures to provide information to assess how an entity   s operations and related tax risks, tax planning, and operational opportunities affect its tax rate and prospects for future cash flows. The amendments in this update provide that a business entity disclose (1) a tabular income tax reconciliation, using both percentages and amounts, (2) separate disclosure of any individual reconciling items that are equal to or greater than 5% of the amount computed by multiplying the income (loss) from continuing operations before income taxes by the applicable statutory income tax rate, and disaggregation of certain items that are significant and (3) amount of income taxes paid (net of refunds received) disaggregated by federal, state and foreign jurisdictions, including separate disclosure of any individual jurisdictions greater than 5% of total income taxes paid. These amendments are effective for the Company for annual periods in 2025, applied prospectively, with early adoption and retrospective application permitted. The Company intends to adopt the amendments in this update prospectively in 2025. The impact of the adoption of the amendments in this update is not expected to be material to the Company   s condensed consolidated financial position and results of operations since the amendments require only enhancement of existing income tax disclosures in the notes to the Company   s condensed consolidated financial statements.In November 2023, the FASB issued ASU No. 2023-07, Segment Reporting (Topic 280)    Improvements to Reportable Segment Disclosures, to require enhanced disclosures that include reportable segment expenses. The amendments in this update provide that a business entity disclose significant segment expenses, segment profit or loss (after significant segment expenses), and allows reporting of additional measures of a segments profit or loss if used in assessing segment performance. Such disclosures apply to entities with a single reportable segment and are effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2023, and interim periods within fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2024, on a retrospective basis. Early adoption is permitted. The Company is currently evaluating the impact of ASU 2023-07 on its condensed consolidated financial statements and related disclosures but does not expect the impact to be material. DefinitionTabular disclosure of liabilities, including [financial] instruments measured at fair value that are classified in stockholders' equity, if any, by class that are measured at fair value on a recurring basis. The disclosures contemplated herein include the fair value measurements at the reporting date by the level within the fair value hierarchy in which the fair value measurements in their entirety fall, segregating fair value measurements using quoted prices in active markets for identical assets (Level 1), significant other observable inputs (Level 2), and significant unobservable inputs (Level 3). Where the quoted price in an active market for the identical liability is not available, the Level 1 input is the quoted price of an identical liability when traded as an asset. + ReferencesReference 1: http://www.xbrl.org/2009/role/commonPracticeRef -Topic 820 -SubTopic 10 -Name Accounting Standards Codification -Section 50 -Paragraph 2 -Subparagraph (b) -Publisher FASB -URI https://asc.fasb.org/1943274/2147482106/820-10-50-2Reference 2: http://www.xbrl.org/2009/role/commonPracticeRef -Topic 820 -SubTopic 10 -Name Accounting Standards Codification -Section 50 -Paragraph 2 -Subparagraph (d) -Publisher FASB -URI https://asc.fasb.org/1943274/2147482106/820-10-50-2Reference 3: http://www.xbrl.org/2003/role/disclosureRef -Topic 820 -SubTopic 10 -Name Accounting Standards Codification -Section 50 -Paragraph 2 -Subparagraph (c) -Publisher FASB -URI https://asc.fasb.org/1943274/2147482106/820-10-50-2 + Details Name: us-gaap_FairValueLiabilitiesMeasuredOnRecurringBasisTextBlock Namespace Prefix: us-gaap_Data Type: dtr-types:textBlockItem Type Balance Type: na Period Type: duration X - DefinitionTabular disclosure of the fair value measurement of liabilities using significant unobservable inputs (Level 3), a reconciliation of the beginning and ending balances, separately presenting changes attributable to the following: (1) total gains or losses for the period (realized and unrealized), segregating those gains or losses included in earnings (or changes in net assets), and gains or losses recognized in other comprehensive income (loss) and a description of where those gains or losses included in earnings (or changes in net assets) are reported in the statement of income (or activities); (2) purchases, sales, issues, and settlements (each type disclosed separately); and (3) transfers in and transfers out of Level 3 (for example, transfers due to changes in the observability of significant inputs) by class of liability. + ReferencesReference 1: http://www.xbrl.org/2003/role/disclosureRef -Topic 820 -SubTopic 10 -Name Accounting Standards Codification -Section 50 -Paragraph 3 -Subparagraph (b) -Publisher FASB -URI https://asc.fasb.org/1943274/2147482106/820-10-50-3Reference 2: http://www.xbrl.org/2003/role/disclosureRef -Topic 820 -SubTopic 10 -Name Accounting Standards Codification -Section 50 -Paragraph 2 -Subparagraph (d) -Publisher FASB -URI https://asc.fasb.org/1943274/2147482106/820-10-50-2Reference 3: http://www.xbrl.org/2003/role/disclosureRef -Topic 820 -SubTopic 10 -Name Accounting Standards Codification -Section 50 -Paragraph 2 -Subparagraph (c) -Publisher FASB -URI https://asc.fasb.org/1943274/2147482106/820-10-50-2 + Details Name: us-gaap_FairValueLiabilitiesMeasuredOnRecurringBasisTextBlock Namespace Prefix: us-gaap_Data Type: dtr-types:textBlockItem Type Balance Type: na Period Type: duration XML 46 R36.htm IDEA: XBRL DOCUMENT v3.24.3 Revenue (Tables) 9 Months Ended Sep. 30, 2024 Revenue from Contract with Customer [Abstract] A Schedule of Disaggregation of Revenue The following tables present revenue disaggregated by geography of the customerâ€™s shipping location for the three and nine months ended SeptemberÂ 30, 2024 and 2023: Three Months EndedSeptember 30,Nine Months EndedSeptember 30,2024202320242023United States$10,317Â $12,118Â $29,139Â $36,764Â Greater China21,531Â 27,639Â 66,881Â 66,925Â South Korea1,745Â 5,024Â 9,297Â 14,616Â Europe8,768Â 11,720Â 27,155Â 24,213Â Rest of North America1,113Â 2,766Â 4,130Â 7,109Â Rest of Asia Pacific9,972Â 806Â 20,309Â 1,783Â South America519Â 403Â 1,762Â 1,626Â Total$53,965Â $60,476Â $158,673Â $153,036Â Schedule of Contract Liabilities The following table presents the assets and liabilities associated with the engineering services contracts recorded on the condensed consolidated balance sheet as of SeptemberÂ 30, 2024 and DecemberÂ 31, 2023:Balance Sheet ClassificationSeptember 30,2024December 31,2023Unbilled revenuePrepaid expenses and other current assets$9,023Â $8,506Â Contract liabilitiesAccrued expenses and other current liabilities$3,070Â $2,473Â Schedules of Customers Accounting for More Than 10% of Total Revenue As identified below, some of our customers accounted for more than 10% of the Companyâ€™s total revenue for the three and nine months ended SeptemberÂ 30, 2023, and no customers accounted for more than 10% of the Companyâ€™s total revenue for the three and nine months ended SeptemberÂ 30, 2024:Three Months EndedSeptember 30,Nine Months EndedSeptember 30,2024202320242023Customer A9.6Â %13.7Â %9.3Â %14.4Â %Customer Bâ€”Â A %10.9Â %4.8Â %9.5Â %Customer Câ€”Â A %10.2Â %â€”Â A %6.5Â % X - DefinitionTabular disclosure of receivable, contract asset, and contract liability with customer. of the Business and Basis of Presentationindie Semiconductor, Inc. ("indie") and its predecessor for accounting purposes, Ay Dee Kay, LLC, a California limited liability company ("ADK LLC") and its subsidiaries are collectively referred to herein as the "Company." The Company offers highly innovative automotive semiconductors and software solutions for Advanced Driver Assistance Systems ("ADAS"), autonomous vehicle, connected car, user experience and electrification applications. The Company focuses on edge sensors across multiple modalities spanning LiDAR, radar, ultrasound and computer vision. These functions represent the core underpinnings of both electric and autonomous vehicles, while the advanced user interfaces are transforming the in-cabin experience to mirror and seamlessly connect to the mobile platforms people rely on every day. indie is an approved vendor to Tier 1 automotive suppliers and its platforms can be found in marquee automotive manufacturers around the world. Headquartered in Aliso Viejo, California, indie has design centers and sales offices in Austin, Texas; Detroit, Michigan; San Jose, California; Cordoba, Argentina; Budapest, Hungary; Dresden, Frankfurt an der Oder, Munich and Nuremberg, Germany; Edinburgh, Scotland; Schlieren, Switzerland; Rabat, Morocco; Haifa, Israel; Quebec City and Toronto, Canada; Seoul, South Korea; Tokyo, Japan and several locations throughout China. The Company engages subcontractors to manufacture its products. The majority of these subcontractors are located in Asia.Execution of At-The-Market Agreement

On August 26, 2022, the Company entered into an At Market Issuance Agreement ("ATM Agreement") with B. Riley Securities, Inc., Craig-Hallum Capital Group LLC and Roth Capital Partners, LLC (collectively as "Sales Agents") relating to shares of its Class A common stock, par value $0.0001 per share (the "Class A common stock"). In accordance with the terms of the ATM Agreement, the Company may offer and sell shares of its Class A common stock having an aggregate offering price of up to $150,000 from time to time through the Sales Agents, acting as the Company's agent or principal. The Company implemented this program for the flexible access that it provides to the capital markets. As of September 30, 2024, and since the inception of the program indie has raised gross proceeds of $83,865 and issued 9,393,259 shares of Class A common stock at an average per-share sales price of $8.93 and had approximately $66,135 available for future issuances under the ATM Agreement. During the three months ended September 30, 2024, indie raised gross proceeds of $11,157 and issued 1,696,948 shares of Class A common stock at an average sales price of $6.57 per share. During the nine months ended September 30, 2024, indie raised gross proceeds of $13,526 and issued 2,042,000 shares of Class A common stock at an average sales price of $6.62 per share. During the three months ended September 30, 2023, there was no ATM related activity. During the nine months ended September 30, 2023, indie raised gross proceeds of $53,136 and issued 5,219,500 shares of Class A common stock at an average sales price of $10.18 per share. For the three months ended September 30, 2024 and 2023, indie incurred total issuance costs of $240 and $0, respectively. For the nine months ended September 30, 2024 and 2023, indie incurred total issuance costs of $291 and $1,136, respectively.Recent AcquisitionOn January 25, 2024 (the "Deal Closing Date"), indie and ADK LLC completed its acquisition of Kinetic Technologies, LLC

(“Kinetic”). The acquisition was consummated pursuant to an Asset Purchase Agreement (the “APA”) to acquire certain research and development personnel, intellectual property and business properties from Kinetic, in support of a custom product development for a North American electric vehicle original equipment manufacturer (“OEM”). The closing consideration consisted of (i) $3,200 in cash as the initial cash consideration, net of an adjustment holdback amount of $500 and an indemnity holdback amount of $800, (ii) $2,348 of total contingent considerations, payable in cash or Class A common stock, subject to achievement of certain production based milestones 24 months after the Deal Closing Date (“the Production Earnout”), and (iii) $2,251 of contingent considerations, payable in cash or Class A common stock, subject to achievement of certain revenue based milestones 12 months after the Deal Closing Date (“the Revenue Earnout”). The purchase price was subject to working capital and other adjustments as provided in the APA. The indemnity holdback amount is payable within five business days after the 18-month anniversary of the Deal Closing Date and is payable in shares of Class A common stock.

See Note 2 — Business Combinations for a full description of all of the recent acquisitions.

Risks and Uncertainties

Current and continued inflationary conditions have led, and may continue to lead to rising prices or rising interest rates, which has had a dampening effect on overall economic activity and consumer demand for automotive products. Additionally, the conflict in the Middle East and the implication of this event has created global political and economic uncertainty. The Company is closely monitoring developments, including potential impact to the Company’s business, customers, suppliers, its employees and operations in Israel, the Middle East and elsewhere. At this time, the impact to indie is subject to change given the volatile nature of the situation.

Basis of Presentation

The condensed consolidated financial statements are prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America (“U.S. GAAP”) and the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”). Any reference in these notes to applicable guidance is meant to refer to the authoritative U.S. GAAP as found in the Accounting Standards Codification (“ASC”) and the Accounting Standards Update (“ASU”) of the Financial Accounting Standards Board (“FASB”). The condensed consolidated financial statements include the condensed consolidated accounts of the Company’s majority-owned subsidiary, ADK LLC, of which approximately 91% was owned by indie as of September 30, 2024. Unaudited Interim Financial Information

The accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements have been prepared pursuant to the rules and regulations of the SEC for interim financial reporting. Certain information and footnote disclosures, normally included in annual consolidated financial statements prepared in accordance with U.S. GAAP, have been condensed or omitted pursuant to those rules and regulations. However, in management's opinion, the financial information reflects all adjustments, including those of a normal recurring nature, necessary to present fairly the results of operations, financial position, and cash flows of the Company for the periods presented. The results of operations, financial position, and cash flows for the Company during the interim periods are not necessarily indicative of those expected for the full year. This information should be read in conjunction with the Company's consolidated financial statements and notes thereto contained in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2023, filed with the SEC on February 29, 2024.

Significant Accounting Policies

The Company's significant accounting policies are disclosed in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2023. There has been no material change to the Company's significant accounting policies during the nine months ended September 30, 2024.

In November 2024, the FASB issued ASU No. 2024-03, Income Statement – Reporting Comprehensive Income – Expenses Disaggregation Disclosures (Subtopic 220-40): Disaggregation of Income Statement Expenses, which provides guidance to enhance disclosures related to the disaggregation of income statement expenses. The standard requires, in the notes to the financial statements, disclosure of specified information about certain costs and expenses which includes purchases of inventory, employee compensation, depreciation, and intangible asset amortization included in each relevant expense caption. The standard also requires amounts that are already required to be disclosed under U.S. GAAP in the same disclosure as the other disaggregation requirements, disclosure of a qualitative description of the amounts remaining in relevant expense captions that are not separately disaggregated quantitatively, and disclosure of the total amount of selling expenses and, in annual reporting periods, an entity's definition of selling expenses. The amendments in this standard are effective for annual periods beginning after December 15, 2026, and interim periods beginning after December 15, 2027. Companies have the option to apply the guidance either on a retrospective or prospective basis, and early adoption is permitted. The Company is currently evaluating the impact of ASU 2024-03 on its condensed consolidated financial statements and related disclosures.

In December 2023, the FASB issued ASU No. 2023-09, Income Taxes (Topic 740) — Improvements to Income Tax Disclosures, to require enhanced income tax disclosures to provide information to assess how an entity's operations and related tax risks, tax planning, and operational opportunities affect its tax rate and prospects for future cash flows. The amendments in this update provide that a business entity disclose (1) a tabular income tax rate reconciliation, using both percentages and amounts, (2) separate disclosure of any individual reconciling items that are equal to or greater than 5% of the amount computed by multiplying the income (loss) from continuing operations before income taxes by the applicable statutory income tax rate, and disaggregation of certain items that are significant and (3) amount of income taxes paid (net of refunds received) disaggregated by federal, state and foreign jurisdictions, including separate disclosure of any individual jurisdictions greater than 5% of total income taxes paid. These amendments are effective for the Company for annual periods in 2025, applied prospectively, with early adoption and retrospective application permitted. The Company intends to adopt the amendments in this update prospectively in 2025. The impact of the adoption of the amendments in this update is not expected to be material to the Company's condensed consolidated financial position and results of operations since the amendments require only enhancement of existing income tax disclosures in the notes to the Company's condensed consolidated financial statements.

In November 2023, the FASB issued ASU No. 2023-07, Segment Reporting (Topic 280) – Improvements to Reportable Segment Disclosures, to require enhanced disclosures that include reportable segment expenses. The amendments in this update provide that a business entity disclose significant segment expenses, segment profit or loss (after significant segment expenses), and allows reporting of additional measures of a segments profit or loss if used in assessing segment performance. Such disclosures apply to entities with a single reportable segment and are effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2023, and interim periods within fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2024, on a retrospective basis. Early adoption is permitted. The Company is currently evaluating the impact of ASU 2023-07 on its condensed consolidated financial statements and related disclosures but does not expect the impact to be material.

subject to final release 12 months from the acquisition date payable in shares of Class A common stock. The purchase price is subject to working capital and other adjustments as provided in the Share Sale and Purchase Agreement.

The Company paid a premium (i.e., goodwill) over the fair value of the net tangible and identified intangible assets acquired as this acquisition immediately expands the Company's ADAS and User Experience product and technology offering to its global tier one and automotive OEM customer base. Specifically, indie can now leverage Exalos' technology portfolio to extend its FMCW LiDAR portfolio. The goodwill is not expected to be deductible for tax purposes.

The Company incurred various acquisition-related costs, which were primarily legal expenses and recorded as part of the Selling, General and Administrative expenses. Total costs incurred were $621 during the year ended December 31, 2023. Total costs incurred are $262 for the nine months ended September 30, 2024.

The Company maintained an adjustment holdback for the purpose of providing security against any adjustment to the amounts at closing. The holdback period extended for 12 months from the closing date and was paid in shares of Class A common stock. On September 27, 2024, the adjustment holdback was settled and 610,975 shares of Class A common stock were issued with a final fair value of $2,548. Accordingly, the fair value of the adjustment holdback liability was reduced to zero as of September 30, 2024 and a loss of $48 was recorded in Other income (expense), net for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2024 in the condensed consolidated statement of operations.

Total purchase consideration transferred at closing also included contingent consideration that had a fair value of $9,755 as of the acquisition date. The acquisition date fair value of the contingent consideration was determined based on the Company's assessment of the probability of achieving the performance targets that ultimately obligate the Company to transfer additional consideration to the seller though the Monte Carlo simulation. The contingent consideration is comprised of two tranches, with maximum payout up to $13,500 and $6,500, respectively, both subject to Exalos achieving certain revenue targets. Both tranches are payable in cash or Class A common stock, at indie's election, up to a maximum of $20,000, upon the achievement of a revenue threshold of $19,000 for the 12-month period ending on September 30, 2024 and the achievement of a revenue threshold of $21,000 for the 12-month period ending on September 30, 2025, respectively. The fair value of any outstanding contingent consideration liabilities will be remeasured as of the end of each reporting period with any resulting remeasurement gains or losses recognized in the condensed consolidated statement of operations. The first and second tranche of this earn-out liability are both reflected in Contingent considerations in the condensed consolidated balance sheet as of September 30, 2024. On November 7, 2024, the first tranche of contingent consideration was settled through the issuance of 2,845,243 shares of Class A common stock and cash payment of $2,536.

As of September 30, 2024, the Company finalized the opening net assets acquired and goodwill as follows:

(Change in the contingent considerations was driven by updating the valuation methodology from probability-weighted method to Monte Carlo Simulations analysis. The Company initially used the probability-weighted method to determine the fair value of the equity-based earn out as certain information was not available to conduct the Monte Carlo Simulations analysis.)

Changes in fair value of inventory, property and equipment, operating lease right-of-use assets step-up and deferred tax liabilities were a result of gathering additional information during the measurement period. The Company also revised the initial values of intangible assets as a result of switching from utilizing publicly available benchmarking information to determine the fair value of the intangible assets to primarily utilizing an income method based on forecasts of expected future cash flows. As a result, the Company recorded an adjustment to increase the amortization of intangible assets of $554 in the condensed consolidated statement of operations during the three months ended September 30, 2024 that would have been recorded during year ended December 31, 2023 if the adjustment to the intangible assets had been recognized as of the date of the acquisition.

family: 'Times New Roman', sans-serif; font-size: 10pt; font-weight: 400; line-height: 120%;">Developed technology relates to near-infrared super-luminescent diodes ("SLEDs"), which can be used in Fiber-Optic Gyroscopes ("FOG") for aerospace and defense navigation systems and sensors for fiber-optic sensing applications. Exalos existing SLEDs technology is complementary to TeraXion's fiber-optic technology and immediately expands indie's ADAS and user experience product and technology. Developed technologies was valued using relief from royalty of the income approach. The selected royalty rate was determined based on an analysis of licensing agreements related to similar technologies and was further adjusted to reflect the maintenance R&D expenses associated with sustaining the technology. The economic useful life was determined to be ten years based on the technology cycle related to each developed technology, as well as the cash flows over the forecast period.

Customer relationships represent the fair value of future projected revenue that will be derived from sales of products to existing customers of Exalos. The fair value was determined by applying the excess earnings method of the income approach. The economic useful life was determined to be seven years.

Backlog relates to various purchase orders in place with Exalos' customers at the time of the acquisition. The fair value was determined by applying the excess earnings method of the income approach. The economic useful life was determined to be two years.

Trade name relates to the "Exalos" trade name. The fair value was determined by applying the relief from royalty of the income approach. The selected royalty rate was determined based on an analysis of licensing agreements related to similar brand names. The economic useful life was determined to be seven years.

The fair value of IPR&D was determined using the relief from royalty of the income approach. The selected royalty rate was determined based on an analysis of licensing agreements related to similar technologies and was further adjusted to reflect the maintenance R&D expenses associated with sustaining the technology.

Under both the relief from royalty and multi-period excess earnings methods, the fair value models incorporated estimates of future cash flows, estimates of allocations of certain assets and cash flows, estimates of future growth rates and management's judgment regarding the applicable discount rates to use to discount such estimates of cash flows. Because the estimates and assumptions made by management at the time of the acquisitions are unobservable and significant to the overall fair value measurement of these acquired identifiable intangible assets, the corresponding fair values are classified as Level 3 fair value hierarchy measurements.

Pro forma financial information for Exalos is not disclosed as the results are not material to the Company's condensed consolidated financial statements.

Acquisition of Kinetic

On January 25, 2024 ("Deal Closing Date"), indie and ADK LLC completed its acquisition of Kinetic. The acquisition was consummated pursuant to an executed APA to acquire certain research and development personnel, intellectual property and business properties from Kinetic, in support of a custom product development for a North American electric vehicle OEM. The closing consideration consisted of (i) $3,200 in cash as the Initial Cash Consideration, net of an adjustment holdback amount of $500 and an indemnity holdback amount of $800, (ii) the Production Earnout with fair value of $2,348, payable in cash or Class A common stock, subject to achievement of certain production based milestones 24 months after the Deal Closing Date, and (iii) the Revenue Earnout with fair value of $2,251, payable in cash or Class A common stock, subject to achievement of certain revenue based milestones 12 months after the Deal Closing Date. The purchase price is subject to working capital and other adjustments as provided in the APA. The indemnity holdback amount is payable within five business days after the 18-month anniversary of the Deal Closing Date and is payable in shares of Class A common stock.

The Company paid a premium (i.e., goodwill) over the fair value of the net tangible and identified intangible assets acquired as this acquisition brings the Company a new family of smart connectivity solutions that enable high-speed networking of displays and controllers throughout the vehicle, which already generated interest from OEMs. The goodwill is expected to be deductible for tax purposes.

The Company obtained software licenses, which it uses for its research and development efforts related to its products. In both fiscal 2024 and 2023, the Company acquired developed technology, customer relationships, trade names, backlog and IPR&D as a result of business combinations. See Note 2 — Business Combinations for additional information. Further, during the nine months ended September 30, 2024, the Company acquired $20,385 of software licenses with contractual life of three years and retired fully amortized intangible assets of $20,345 of software licenses.

Intangible assets with finite lives are amortized on a straight-line basis over the expected period to be benefited by future cash flows. The Company monitors and assesses these assets for impairment on a periodic basis.

Amortization of intangible assets for the three months ended September 30, 2024 and 2023 was $9,324 and $9,044, respectively. Amortization of intangible assets for the nine months ended September 30, 2024 and 2023 was $25,616 and $22,701, respectively. Amortization of intangible assets is included within Cost of goods sold, Research and development expenses, Selling, general and administrative expenses and based their respective nature, in the condensed consolidated statements of operations.

Based on the amount of definite-lived intangible assets subject to amortization as of September 30, 2024, amortization expense for each of the next five fiscal years is expected to be as follows:

Balance as of Balance as of the end of the period
$	275,417

The change in goodwill is primarily driven by a $766 increase during the nine months ended September 30, 2024 due to the acquisition of Kinetic that was completed during the period, a $17,032 decrease related to the completion of the purchase price allocation for Exalos, as well as a $3,413 decrease in value due to the effect of exchange rate on goodwill. See Note 2 — for a detailed discussion of goodwill acquired for Kinetic, as well as the decrease in goodwill in relation to the finalization of the purchase price allocation for Exalos.

Business Combinations

The Company tests its goodwill for impairment annually as of the first day of its fourth fiscal quarter and in interim periods if certain events occur indicating the carrying value of goodwill may be impaired. There were no indicators of impairment noted during the nine months ended September 30, 2024.

The following table sets forth the carrying amount and activity of goodwill as of September 30, 2024:

The initial conversion price of the Notes represents a premium of approximately 30% over the $6.655 per share last reported sale price of the Class A common stock on The Nasdaq Capital Market on November 16, 2022. The conversion rate will be subject to adjustment upon the occurrence of certain specified events, but will not be adjusted for any accrued and unpaid interest, except under the limited circumstances described in the Indenture. In addition, upon the occurrence of a "Make-Whole Fundamental Change" (as defined in Section 1.01 of the Indenture) prior to the maturity date, or if the Company delivers a notice of redemption, the Company will, in certain circumstances, increase the conversion rate by a number of additional shares of Class A common stock (not to exceed 150,2629 shares of Class A common stock per $1,000 principal amount of the Notes, subject to adjustment in the same manner as the conversion rate) for Notes that are converted in connection with such Make-Whole Fundamental Change or for notes called (or deemed called) for redemption that are converted in connection with such notice of redemption.The 2027 Notes are convertible at the option of the holders (in whole or in part) at any time prior to the close of business on the business day immediately preceding August 15, 2027 only under the following circumstances: (1) during any calendar quarter commencing after the calendar quarter ending on December 31, 2022 (and only during such calendar quarter), if the last reported sale price of the Class A common stock for at least 20 trading days (whether or not consecutive) during any 30 consecutive trading days ending on, and including, the last trading day of the immediately preceding calendar quarter is greater than or equal to 130% of the conversion price on each applicable trading day; (2) during the five business day period after any five consecutive trading day period (the "measurement period") in which the "Trading Price" (as defined in Section 1.01 of the Indenture) per $1,000 principal amount of Notes for each trading day of the measurement period was less than 98% of the product of the last reported sale price of Class A common stock and the conversion rate on each such trading day; (3) if the Company calls such Notes for redemption, at any time prior to the close of business on the second scheduled trading day immediately preceding the redemption date, but only with respect to the Notes called (or deemed called) for redemption; or (4) upon the occurrence of certain corporate events as specified in the Indenture. On or after August 15, 2027 until the close of business on the second scheduled trading day immediately preceding the maturity date, holders may convert all or a portion of their Notes, in multiples of $1,000 principal amount, at any time, regardless of the foregoing circumstances. Upon conversion, the Company will pay or deliver, as the case may be, cash, shares of Class A common stock or a combination of cash and shares of Class A common stock, at the Company's election, in amounts determined in the manner set forth in the Indenture.

The Company may not redeem the 2027 Notes prior to November 20, 2025. indie may redeem for cash all or any portion of the 2027 Notes, at indie's option, on or after November 20, 2025 if the last reported price of indie's Class A common stock has been at least 130% of the conversion price then in effect for at least 20 trading days (whether or not consecutive) during any 30 consecutive trading day period (including the last trading day of such period) ending on, and including, the trading day immediately preceding the date on which indie provides notice of redemption, at a redemption price equal to 100% of the principal amount of the 2027 Notes to be redeemed, plus accrued and unpaid interest to, but excluding, the redemption date.

Upon the occurrence of a "Fundamental Change" (as defined in Section 1.01 of the Indenture), subject to certain conditions and certain limited exceptions, holders may require the Company to repurchase for cash all or any portion of their Notes in principal amounts of $1,000 or an integral multiple thereof at a fundamental change repurchase price in cash equal to 100% of the principal amount of the Notes to be repurchased, plus accrued and unpaid interest to, but excluding, the fundamental change repurchase date.

The 2027 Notes are senior unsecured obligations of the Company and rank: (i) senior in right of payment to any indebtedness of the Company that is expressly subordinated in right of payment to the Notes; (ii) equal in right of payment to any unsecured indebtedness of the Company that is not so subordinated; (iii) effectively junior in right of payment to any senior, secured indebtedness of the Company to the extent of the value of the assets securing such indebtedness; and (iv) structurally junior to all indebtedness and other liabilities (including trade payables) of the Company's subsidiaries.

In connection with the offering of the 2027 Notes, the Company entered into privately negotiated transactions through one of the initial purchasers or its affiliate to repurchase 1,112,524 shares of Class A common stock, at an average cost of $6.65 per share, for approximately $7,404 in 2022.

The 2027 Notes have been recorded as long-term debt in its entirety pursuant to ASU 2020-06. The carrying value of the 2027 Notes is presented net of $5,374 of discount and issuance costs, which are amortized to interest expense over the respective terms of these borrowings. As of September 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, the total carrying value of the 2027 Notes, net of unamortized discount, was $156,475 and $155,712, respectively. As of September 30, 2024, the total fair value of the 2027 Notes was $142,208 or 88.88% of the aggregate principal amount of the 2027 Notes. As of December 31, 2023, the total fair value of the 2027 Notes was $191,648 or 119.78% of the aggregate principal amount of the 2027 Notes. The estimated fair values are based on Level 2 inputs as the fair value is based on quoted prices for the Company's debt and comparable instruments in inactive markets. The amortization of the debt discount and cost of issuance resulted in non-cash interest expense of $260 and $246 for the three months ended September 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively. The amortization of the debt discount and cost of issuance resulted in non-cash interest expense of $763 and $720 for the nine months ended September 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively. Such amortization expenses are included in

in the Company's condensed consolidated statements of operations.

indie Semiconductor Revolving Line of Credit

On March 29, 2024, the Company entered into a revolving line of credit agreement with Wells Fargo Bank, National Association ("Wells Fargo") with a credit limit of $10,000, bearing interest at the Secured Overnight Financing Rate ("SOFR") plus 1.75%. The outstanding principal balance is due and payable in full on March 28, 2025. Interest is payable monthly beginning on May 1, 2024 through the maturity date. This line of credit required the Company to collateralize a cash balance equal to the total outstanding balance in a cash security account with Wells Fargo, which resulted in a total restricted cash of $10,000 as of September 30, 2024. Fees of $50 incurred will be amortized over the life of the credit agreement. This revolving line of credit had an outstanding balance of $10,000 as of September 30, 2024. During the three and nine months ended September 30, 2024, the cash and non-cash interest was de minimus.

TeraXion Revolving Credit

In connection with the acquisition of TeraXion on October 12, 2021, the Company assumed a revolving credit with the Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce ("CIBC") with a credit limit of CAD9,440 bearing interest at prime rate plus 0.25%, repayable in monthly installments of CAD155 plus interest, maturing in October 2026. The repayment of monthly installments reduces the credit limit over time. CIBC also reserves the right to request full repayment of a portion or all outstanding balances at any time. As of September 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, the outstanding principal balance and credit limit of the loan was $2,976 and $3,971, (or CAD4,024 and CAD5,262), respectively.

TeraXion also has an authorized credit facility up to CAD5,000 at September 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, respectively, from CIBC, bearing interest at prime rate plus 0.25%. The credit facility permits the Company to request incremental loans in an aggregate principal amount not to exceed the sum of an amount equal to the greater of CAD5,000 and 100% of TeraXion's EBITDA. This line of credit had an outstanding balance of CAD2,025 (or approximately $1,497) as of September 30, 2024. This line of credit had an outstanding balance of CAD1,551 (or approximately $1,171) as of December 31, 2023.

Wuxi Revolving Line of Credit

On September 27, 2024, Wuxi entered into a short-term loan agreement with the Bank of Ningbo Co., Ltd. with an aggregate principal balance of CNY40,000 (or approximately $5,705) bearing interest of 3.50% per annum and maturing on December 27, 2024. As of September 30, 2024 the outstanding principal balance of the loan was CNY40,000 (or approximately $5,705). During the three and nine months ended September 30, 2024, the cash and non-cash interest was de minimus.

The table below sets forth the components of interest expense for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2024 and September 30, 2023:

Earn-Out Milestones

In connection with the Transaction, certain of indie’s stockholders are entitled to receive up to 10,000,000 earn-out shares of the Company’s Class A common stock if the earn-out milestones are met. The earn-out milestones represent two independent criteria, each of which entitles the eligible stockholders to 5,000,000 earn-out shares per milestone met. Each earn-out milestone is considered met if at any time following the Transaction and prior to December 31, 2027, the volume weighted average price of indie's Class A common stock is greater than or equal to $12.50 or $15.00 for any twenty trading days within any thirty trading day period, respectively. Further, the earn-out milestones are also considered to be met if indie undergoes a Sale. A Sale is defined as the occurrence of any of the following for indie: (i) engage in a "going private" transaction pursuant to Rule 13e-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"), or otherwise cease to be subject to reporting obligations under Sections 13 or 15(d) of the Exchange Act; (ii) Class A common stock ceases to be listed on a national securities exchange, other than for the failure to satisfy minimum listing requirements under applicable stock exchange rules; or (iii) change of ownership (including a merger or consolidation) or approval of a plan for complete liquidation or dissolution.

These earn-out shares had been categorized into two components: (i) those associated with stockholders with vested equity at the closing of the Transaction that will be earned upon achievement of the earn-out milestones (the "Vested Shares") and (ii) those associated with stockholders with unvested equity at the closing of the Transaction that will be earned over the remaining service period with the Company on their unvested equity shares and upon achievement of the Earn-Out Milestones (the "Unvested Shares"). The Vested Shares were classified as liabilities in the condensed consolidated balance sheet and the Unvested Shares are equity-classified share-based compensation to be recognized over time. The earn-out liability was initially measured at fair value at the closing of the Transaction and subsequently remeasured at the end of each reporting period. The change in fair value of the earn-out liability was recorded as part of in the condensed consolidated statement of operations.

The estimated fair value of the earn-out liability was determined using a Monte Carlo Simulations analysis that simulated the future path of the Company's stock price over the earn-out period. The assumptions utilized in the calculation are based on the achievement of certain stock price milestones including projected stock price, volatility, and risk-free rate.

Contingent Considerations

On May 13, 2020, in connection with the acquisition of City Semiconductor, Inc. ("City Semi"), the Company recorded contingent consideration as a long-term liability at an initial fair value of $1,180. The contingent consideration is comprised of two tranches. The first tranche is payable, up to a maximum of $500, upon the achievement of cash collection targets within 12 months of the acquisition, and $456 was achieved in May 2021. The second tranche is payable, up to a maximum of $1,500, upon the shipment of a product incorporating the acquired developed technology. In September 2021, the Company paid off the first tranche of the contingent consideration. In April 2023, the Company settled $500 of the $1,500 second tranche through the issuance of 73,311 shares of Class A common stock with a fair value of $608 at the time of issuance. In January 2024, the Company settled $500 of the $1,000 second tranche through the issuance of 62,562 shares of Class A common stock with a fair value of $500 at the time of issuance. The fair value of the remaining $500 second tranche contingent consideration liabilities was $490 as of September 30, 2024.

On January 4, 2022, in connection with the acquisition of Symeo, the Company recorded contingent considerations as a current and a long-term liability at an initial fair value of $4,390 and $3,446, respectively. The contingent consideration is comprised of two tranches. The first tranche was payable upon the achievement of a revenue threshold of $5,000 by March 31, 2023. The second tranche was payable upon Symeo's achievement of a revenue threshold of $6,000 by March 31, 2024. On October 26, 2023, the Company issued 363,194 of Class A common stock, with a fair value of $1,900 at the time of issuance to Analog Devices, Inc., as final settlement for the achievement of the first tranche of the contingent considerations. The second tranche of contingent consideration liability was fully released during the three months ended September 30, 2024 as the earnout milestone was not met. The final change in fair value of $7 is recorded in

in the condensed consolidated statement of operations for the nine months ended September 30, 2024.

On February 21, 2023, in connection with the acquisition of Silicon Radar, the Company recorded contingent considerations as a current and a long-term liability at an initial fair value of $4,155 and $5,085, respectively. The contingent consideration is comprised of two tranches. The first tranche was payable upon the achievement of a revenue threshold of $5,000 for the 12-month period ending on February 21, 2024. The second tranche is payable upon Silicon Radar's achievement of a revenue threshold of $7,000 for the 12-month period ending on February 21, 2025. Both tranches are payable in cash or in common stock at indie's discretion. Should indie elect to pay in common stock, the number of shares issuable equals the earnout amount divided by a VWAP for 20 days ending prior to the due date for payment. In May 2024, the Company settled the first tranche through the issuance of 1,103,140 shares of Class A common stock with a fair value of $6,045 at the time of issuance. The fair value of the second tranche contingent consideration liability as of September 30, 2024 was $60. The change in fair value since the acquisition date is recorded in

Other income (expense), net in the condensed consolidated statement of operations.

On March 3, 2023, in connection with the acquisition of GEO, the Company recorded contingent considerations as a current and a long-term liability at an initial fair value of $38,828 and $20,452, respectively. The contingent consideration is comprised of two tranches. The first tranche was payable upon the achievement of a revenue threshold of $20,000 for the 12-month period ending on March 31, 2024. The second tranche is payable upon GEO's achievement of a revenue threshold of $10,000 for the six-month period ending on September 30, 2024. Both tranches are payable in cash or common stock, at indie's election. Should indie elect to pay in common stock, the number of shares issuable equals the earnout amount divided by the Earnout Parent Trading Price. Payment in cash will be determined by the number of shares payable multiplied by the Earnout Parent Trading Price. In May 2024, the Company settled the first tranche through the issuance of 6,096,951 shares of Class A common stock with a fair value of $40,667 at the time of issuance. The fair value of the second tranche contingent consideration liability as of September 30, 2024 was $3,900. The change in fair value since the acquisition date is recorded in

Other income (expense), net in the condensed consolidated statement of operations.

On September 18, 2023, in connection with the acquisition of Exalos, the Company recorded contingent considerations as a current and a long-term liability at an initial fair value of $7,328 and $2,427, respectively. The contingent consideration is comprised of two tranches. The first tranche is payable upon the achievement of a revenue threshold of $19,000 for the 12-month period ending on September 30, 2024. The second tranche is payable upon Exalos' achievement of a revenue threshold of $21,000 for the 12-month period ending on September 30, 2025. Both tranches are payable in cash or in shares at indie's discretion. The fair value of the first and second tranche contingent consideration liability as of September 30, 2024 was $14,113 and $584, respectively. The change in fair value since the acquisition date is recorded in

Other income (expense), net in the condensed consolidated statement of operations.

On November 7, 2024, the first tranche of contingent consideration was settled through the issuance of 2,845,243 shares of Class A common stock and cash payment of $2,536.

On January 25, 2024, in connection with the acquisition of Kinetic, the Company recorded contingent considerations as a current and a long-term liability at an initial fair value of $2,251 and 2,348, respectively. The contingent consideration is comprised of two tranches. The first tranche is payable upon the achievement of a revenue threshold of $12,000 for the 12-month period ending on January 25, 2025. The second tranche is payable upon achievement of certain production-based milestones for the 24-month period ending on January 25, 2026. Both tranches are payable in cash or in shares at indie's discretion. The fair value of the first and second tranche contingent consideration liabilities as of September 30, 2024 was $2,391 and $1,840, respectively. The change in fair value since the acquisition date is recorded in

Other income (expense), net in the condensed consolidated statement of operations.

Share-Based Compensation

Stock compensation expense is recorded in cost of goods sold, research and development, and general and administrative expenses based on the classification of the work performed by the grantees.

The following table sets forth the share-based compensation for the periods presented:

Stock compensation expense for the three months ended September 30, 2024 and 2023 included $2,341 of reduction and $1,214 of expenses, respectively, related to liability classified awards issuable upon distribution of the Company's annual incentive plans. Stock compensation expense for the nine months ended September 30, 2024 and 2023 included $3,117 expense and $6,350 expense, respectively, related to liability classified awards issuable upon distribution of the Company's annual incentive plans.

Value Measurements

The Company's debt instruments are recorded at their carrying values in its condensed consolidated balance sheets, which may differ from their respective fair values. The estimated fair value of the Company's 2027 Notes is based on Level 2 inputs as the fair value is based on quoted prices for the Company's debt (see Note 8).

Debt

for additional information). The fair values of the Company's short-term loans generally approximated their carrying values.

At September 30, 2024 and 2023, the Company held currency forward contracts with an aggregated notional amount of $13,850 and $17,584, respectively to sell United States dollars and to buy various foreign currencies such as Canadian dollars and Euro, among others at a forward rate. Any changes in the fair value of these contracts are recorded in Other income (expense), net in the condensed consolidated statement of operations. During the three and nine months ended September 30, 2024, the Company recorded a net gain (loss) of $509 and $(701), respectively. During the three and nine months ended September 30, 2023, the Company recorded a net loss of $789 and $296, respectively.

Contingent Considerations

Contingent considerations were valued based on the consideration expected to be transferred. The Company estimated the fair value based on a Monte Carlo Simulations analysis to simulate the probability of achievement of various milestones identified within each contingent consideration arrangement, using certain assumptions that require significant judgement and discount rates. The discount rates were based on the estimated cost of debt plus a premium, which included consideration of expected term of the earn-out payment, yield on treasury instruments and an estimated credit rating for the Company.

Because the acquisition related to Kinetic occurred within the last twelve months, the significant information to be obtained and analyzed and the fact that Kinetic resides in a foreign jurisdiction, the Company's fair value estimates for the associated contingent consideration were valued based on a probability method as of September 30, 2024.

The following table presents the significant unobservable inputs assumed for each of the fair value measurements:

Wuxi Capital Raise

On November 29, 2022, the Company entered into and closed an agreement with multiple investors in China, including two of the top four Chinese automotive OEMs, that secured a strategic investment (“Wuxi Capital Raise”) through Wuxi indie Microelectronics Ltd. (“Wuxi”), indie’s majority controlled subsidiary. The Wuxi Capital Raise provided Wuxi additional funding of CNY300,000 (approximately $42,000) by issuing 371,160 shares from Wuxi, which represents 16% of Wuxi’s equity at the time of issuance. The funds raised are intended to promote Wuxi’s business development and strengthen its capabilities. Pursuant to the terms of the agreement, these investors subscribed for the 371,160 shares at CNY808.28 per share. As a result, indie’s ownership in Wuxi has reduced from 45% to 38% ownership control, with indie having 59% voting control. As indie continues to control Wuxi’s Board of Directors and has the majority of the voting interests, Wuxi’s financial results will continue to be consolidated with those of ADK LLC and its other wholly-owned subsidiaries. Minority interests held in Wuxi are accounted for as non-controlling interests in the Company’s condensed consolidated financial statements. Among other provisions, this agreement includes certain liquidation preferences for the investors (“Deemed Liquidation Event” or “DLE”) as well as an ability to exchange their Wuxi shares for shares of indie’s Class A common stock in the event Wuxi does not successfully complete a local initial public offering (“IPO”) by December 31, 2027 (the “Conversion”). A Deemed Liquidation Event includes but not limited to (a) a change of control of the Company or its surviving entity in a single, or series of related transactions, or merger, division, reorganization, acquisition, or business integration between the Company and any third parties, excluding any corporate restricting as duly approved pursuant to the AOA; or (b) a sale, transfer or otherwise disposal of the all or substantially all assets of the Company, in a single, or series of related transactions. Upon a DLE prior to IPO, the distribution will be made in cash in order of the liquidation preferences pursuant to the investment agreement for an amount that is the higher of (i) an amount equal to 100% of the applicable original issue price with an annual simple premium of 8% (calculated from the transaction closing date of November 29, 2022 to the date of the Liquidation Event), or (ii) an amount equal to the total liquidation proceeds received by the Company or the shareholders (as the case may be) directly in a Liquidation Event, multiplied by the shareholder's proportionate ownership percentage, plus all accrued or declared but unpaid dividends of such share.

Pursuant to the investment agreement, Wuxi shall use commercially reasonable efforts to meet the conditions for the IPO and list shares by a Chinese or overseas securities trading institutions and consummate an IPO as early as possible. If Wuxi is unable to consummate an IPO, indie undertakes to exchange the shares issued in this capital raise for indie's Class A common stock equal to the total capital raised plus a premium of 8% per year (simple interest) between the execution date and December 31, 2027. The total amount is calculated using the exchange rate at the time of the stock exchange and the value of each of Class A common stock is based on the stock price at that time, but the exchange shall not exceed a total of 6,000,000 shares of indie Class A common stock.

Wuxi Equity Incentive Plan Paid-In Capital

In December 2023, employees in Wuxi exercised stock options granted to them through the Wuxi Equity Incentive Plan (the "Wuxi EIP") and paid CNY87,959 (or approximately $12,346) in capital contributions to Wuxi.

The Wuxi EIP was approved by Wuxi's Board of Directors and is a long-term incentive plan under which equity awards may be granted to employees of Wuxi in the form of options to purchase Wuxi common shares at a fixed strike price in the future after certain vesting conditions are met and which are then subject to certain holding conditions ("Options"). Options granted under the Wuxi EIP are equity-classified awards and subject to vest either six years from the grant date or when Wuxi achieves a successful IPO on a local stock exchange, whichever that is later. No compensation cost will be recognized until a qualifying event (i.e., IPO) is deemed probable to occur as these Options are considered to have no value until an IPO becomes probable. Upon occurrence of the qualifying event, the compensation cost will be recognized in full for vested Options. As of September 30, 2024, there was $11,802 of total unrecognized compensation cost related to these Options. These unrecognized compensation costs will be recognized in full when a qualifying event satisfying the in-substance performance condition becomes probable.

Further, per the Wuxi EIP, recipients of the Options should complete all capital contributions and payment of the incentive share price (the "Paid in Capital Contribution") after Wuxi and the intermediary agencies (including securities companies, law firms, and accounting firms) that apply for IPO have reached an IPO application schedule and before the last financial benchmark date of Wuxi's IPO application. The Paid in Capital Contribution is akin to an early exercise. Given that Wuxi has no obligation to return the paid-in capital contribution to the recipient of the award in any event (i.e., an unsuccessful IPO, termination of employment), the Company concludes that the Paid in Capital Contribution made by the recipient is classified into Additional paid-in capital on the consolidated balance sheet as of September 30, 2024.

The funds are being used for Wuxi's general corporate purposes.

Stock Repurchase Program

On November 16, 2022, indie's Board of Directors authorized the repurchase, from time to time, of up to $50,000 of indie's Class A common stock and/or warrants to purchase common stock. This was inclusive of the concurrent repurchase of shares of common stock described in Note 8 — height:120%"; under the 2027 Notes, which allowed for a portion of net proceeds to be used to repurchase up to $25,000 of common stock. There were no repurchases of common stock during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2024. As of September 30, 2024, there is $42,596 available for future repurchase under the program.

Interest

In connection with the closing of the Transaction on June 10, 2021, certain members of ADK LLC (the "ADK Minority Holders") retained approximately 26% membership interest in ADK LLC. The ADK Minority Holders may from time to time, after December 10, 2021, exchange with indie, such holders' units in ADK LLC for an equal number of shares of indie's Class A common stock. As a result, indie's ownership interest in ADK LLC will increase. The ADK Minority Holders' ownership interests are accounted for as noncontrolling interests in the Company's condensed consolidated financial statements. The Company's ownership of ADK LLC was approximately 91% as of both September 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023.

In connection with the Transaction, the Company issued to ADK LLC Minority Holders an aggregate of 33,827,371 shares of Class V common stock of indie (the "Class V Holders"). The shares of Class V common stock provides no economic rights in indie to the holder thereof; however, each Class V Holder is entitled to vote with the holders of Class A common stock of indie, with each share of Class V common stock entitling the holder to one (1) vote per share of Class V common stock at the time of such vote (subject to customary conversion rate adjustments for stock splits, stock dividends and reclassifications). As of September 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, the Company had an aggregate of 18,044,332 and 18,694,332 shares of Class V common stock issued and outstanding, respectively.

ADK LLC held approximately 59% voting control and approximately 34% ownership interest in Wuxi as of both September 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023. From time to time, Wuxi has sold equity ownership and the transactions have reduced ADK LLC's controlling interest in Wuxi on the condensed consolidated balance sheets. As of September 30, 2024, ADK LLC maintained its controlling ownership in Wuxi. Accordingly, Wuxi's financial statements are consolidated with those of ADK LLC and its other wholly-owned subsidiaries. Minority interests held in Wuxi are accounted for as non-controlling interests in the Company's condensed consolidated financial statements.

Disaggregation of Revenue

The Company disaggregates revenue from contracts with customers by geographic region, as the Company's management believes it best depicts how the nature, amount, timing and uncertainty of revenue and cash flows are affected by economic factors.

Taxes

We are subject to U.S. federal and state taxes with respect to our allocable share of any taxable income or loss of ADK, LLC, as well as any stand-alone income or loss we generate. ADK, LLC is treated as a partnership for U.S. income tax purposes and for most applicable state and local income tax purposes and generally does not pay income taxes in most jurisdictions. Instead, ADK, LLC's taxable income or loss is passed through to its members, including us. Despite its status as a partnership in the United States, ADK, LLC's foreign subsidiaries are taxable entities operating in foreign jurisdictions. As such, these foreign subsidiaries record a tax expense or benefit in jurisdictions where a valuation allowance has not been recorded.

Our effective tax rate in 2024 will differ from the U.S. federal statutory rate primarily due to changes in valuation allowance, tax expense or benefit in foreign jurisdictions taxed at different tax rates, foreign research and development tax credits and incentives, and changes in non-controlling interest.

Based primarily on our limited operating history and ADK LLC's historical domestic losses, we believe there is a significant uncertainty as to when we will be able to use our domestic, federal and state, deferred tax assets ("DTAs"). Therefore, we have recorded a valuation allowance against these DTAs for which we have concluded that it is not more likely than not that these will be realized.

As part of reverse capitalization, the Company entered into Tax Receivable Agreements ("TRAs") with certain shareholders that will represent approximately 85% of the calculated tax savings based on the portion of basis adjustments on future exchanges of ADK, LLC units and other carryforward attributes assumed that we anticipate to be able to utilize in future years. Through September 30, 2024, there have been exchanges of units that would generate a DTA; however, as there is a full valuation allowance on the related DTA, we have not recorded a liability under the TRAs.

The Company recorded a benefit (provision) for income taxes of $315 and $(650) for the three months ended September 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively. The Company recorded a benefit for income taxes of $1,338 and $2,714 for the nine months ended September 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively. Income tax benefit for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2024 are primarily related to the Company's foreign operations. Income tax benefit (provision) for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2023 are primarily related to the tax effects of our acquisition of GEO and subsequent tax reorganizations.

Litigation

On November 3, 2023, the Company received a demand letter alleging breaches relating to covenants and demanded payments of $7,500 in contingent consideration related to a previously completed business combination. On November 30, 2023, the Company responded to the demand letter, denying that any breach occurred or that the party is entitled to any damages. There have been no further developments on this matter. The Company is unable to make a reasonable estimate of a potential loss, if any, on this matter. The Company intends to continue to vigorously defend against the claims made in the demand letter.

In addition to the foregoing matter, from time to time, the Company may be a party to routine claims or litigation matters that arise in the ordinary course of its business. These may include disputes and lawsuits related to intellectual property, mergers and acquisitions, licensing, contract law, tax, regulatory, distribution arrangements, employee relations and other matters. Periodically, the Company reviews the status of these matters and assesses its potential financial exposure. If the potential loss from any claim or legal proceeding is considered probable and a range of possible losses can be estimated, the Company accrues a liability for the estimated loss. Legal proceedings are subject to uncertainties, and the outcomes are difficult to predict. Because of such uncertainties,
