Before you decide to invest in our securities, you should read the entire prospectus carefully, including the risk factors and the financial statements and related notes included or incorporated by reference in this prospectus.Â In this prospectus, unless otherwise noted, the terms â€œthe Company,â€ â€œCosmos,â€ â€œwe,â€ â€œus,â€ and â€œourâ€ refer to Cosmos Health Inc.Â OverviewÂ The Company conducts its business within the pharmaceutical and the healthcare industry and is active in branded pharmaceuticals, generics and nutraceutical product markets. The pharmaceutical industry is highly competitive and is subject to comprehensive government regulations. Many factors may significantly affect the Companyâ€™s sales of its products, including, but not limited to, efficacy, safety, price and cost-effectiveness, marketing effectiveness, product labeling, quality control and quality assurance. Currently, most of the products that the Company is trading, compete with other products already on the market in the same therapeutic category, and are subject to potential competition from new products that competitors may introduce in the future.Â Â 4Table of ContentsÂ Generic medicines are the pharmaceutical and therapeutic equivalents of branded pharmaceutical products and are generally marketed under their generic (chemical) names rather than by brand names. Typically, a generic drug may not be marketed until the expiration of applicable patent(s) on the corresponding branded product, unless a resolution of patent litigation results in an earlier opportunity to enter the market. Generic drugs are the same as branded products in dosage form, safety, efficacy, route of administration, quality, performance characteristics and intended use, but they are sold generally at prices below those of the corresponding branded products. Generic drugs provide a cost-effective alternative for consumers, while maintaining the same high quality, efficacy, safety profile, purity and stability of the branded product.Â The Company also conducts its business within the global nutraceuticals market with our own brand which we consider to be highly qualitative and competitive. Nutraceuticals are defined as products that contain at least one dietary ingredient within them and can be consumed orally. Some of the purposes of nutraceuticals are used for immune system defense, energy, stress, bones and joints. The global nutraceutical market has shown a rise for demand and growth within the last several years. The global market is driven by the rising popularity of sports-based performance enhancement supplements and the focus on preventive healthcare measures. The COVID-19 pandemic has also driven the global market to a high demand for immunity boosting nutraceutical products.Â Corporate StrategyÂ Our main strategy initiative is focused on continuing our progress in becoming a global pharmaceutical wholesale and import/export company through the development of a lean,Â efficient and vertically integrated operating model, as well as, to expand our portfolio of our own branded nutraceutical and pharmaceutical products, grow our customer base and achieve our growth stabilization in this new market and gain an adequate size in the global nutraceuticals market. We are committed to serving our customers while continuing to innovate and provide products that make a difference in the lives of individuals. We strive to maximize our shareholdersâ€™ value by adapting to market realities and customer needs. Our strategy involves the enhancement of our manufacturing capacities and building a multinational network or wholesalers, distributors, and pharmacies and simultaneously continuing to expand the portfolio of products that we distribute to that network.Â We are committed to driving organic growth at attractive margins by improving execution, optimizing cash flow and leveraging our strong market position, while maintaining a streamlined cost structure throughout each of our businesses. We continue to further align our organization to our customersâ€™ needs in a more seamless and unified way, while supporting corporate strategy and accelerating growth. Implementing this disciplined, focused strategy has allowed us to significantly expand our business, and we believe we are well-positioned to grow revenue and increase operating income through the execution of the following key elements of our business:Â Â·Branded Pharmaceuticals: Branded pharmaceutical products are the primary product category that we produce and distribute. We constantly evaluate product availability, pricing, demand trends, and patent expirations to maximize our performance. As the patents for branded products near expiration, the generic equivalents enter the marketplace and the demand for those branded products start to decrease. We monitor these cycles closely and always look to find value in pricing fluctuations caused by the patent expirations as the generic equivalents enter the market.Â Â Â Â·Generic Pharmaceuticals: Generic pharmaceutical products are the secondary product category that we produce and distribute. We apply the same discipline to generics that we do to the branded. We evaluate the demand and supply dynamics of branded products as their patents expire. This insight sheds light on the demand of generic products that take their place. Understanding the historical and market specific characteristics of generic product demand provides insight that we use to give guidance to our vendors that source our generic drug exports.Â Â Â Â·Nutraceuticals & Food Supplements: The wholesale distribution of nutraceuticals and food supplements market offer most of the times greater margins than pharmaceutical products. We are always looking to expand the portfolio of products that we distribute to maximize our margins. We offer convenience to our customers by providing them a larger portfolio of products that they can source from a single vendor. In addition to being wholesalers for supplements and related products we are also creating our own brand of products to sell to our current customer base. Our wholesale business gives insight to what products are in demand and we communicate with our customer base to identify which products to develop. Owning a brand with an extensive portfolio of products provides the Company with significant opportunities to penetrate into global sale channels.Â Â·Research & Development: We are committed to strategic R&D across each business unit with a particular focus for pharmaceutical and nutraceutical products with inherently lower risk profiles and clearly defined regulatory pathways. We are constantly evaluating the demand of food supplements in the markets that we currently distribute pharmaceutical products to. This research and analysis determines which pharmaceutical and nutraceutical products we choose to develop as well as their formulations. This approach maximizes the probability of successfully competing with other brands in the marketplace.Â·Acquisitions:Â We regularly evaluate acquisition targets that would allow us to expand our distribution reach and/or vertically integrate into the supply chain of the products that we currently distribute. In addition to focusing on organic growth drivers, we are also actively pursuing accretive acquisitions that offer long-term revenue growth, margin expansion through synergies, and the ability to maintain a flexible capital structure.Â Â·Local & Direct to Pharmacy Wholesale:Â We are expanding into the full-line wholesale distribution business through acquisition. Full-line pharmaceutical wholesalers provide the local markets with branded pharmaceuticals, generic pharmaceuticals, over-the-counter (OTC) medicines, vitamins and food supplements. By expanding our pharmaceutical distribution business, we will have a better ability to source more branded and generic products directly from manufacturers and sell our vitamins, food supplements and cosmetic products directly to pharmacies for better prices. We expect this expansion to increase our sales and profit margins as we vertically integrate into the supply chain.Â To successfully execute our corporate strategy, we believe that the Company must adopt, incorporate and maintain the aforementioned core strengths, although no assurances can be made that the Company will be able to effectively implement these strategies.Â Â 5Table of ContentsÂ Selling Securityholders - Private Placements of the December 2022 Warrants, the July 2023 Warrants and the Armistice New WarrantsÂ On December 19, 2022, Cosmos Health Inc. (the â€œCompanyâ€ or the â€œRegistrantâ€) entered into a Securities Purchase Agreement (the â€œDecember 2022 Purchase Agreementâ€) with certain institutional investors and existing shareholders of the Company (the â€œPurchasersâ€) pursuant to which the Company sold to the Purchasers 2,567,450 Common Warrants (the â€œDecember 2022 Warrantsâ€). The issuance of the 2022 Warrants was made in a Regulation D private placement (the â€œConcurrent Private Placementâ€) with a registered direct offering pursuant to a Shelf Registration Statement on Form S-3 (File No. 333-267550), filed the Securities and Exchange Commission (the â€œSECâ€) on September 21, 2022 (theÂ â€œSeptember 2022 S-3Â Shelf Registration Statementâ€). The 2,567,450 Warrants were fully exercisable immediately upon issuance on December 21, 2022, with an exercise price of $11.50 per share (each a â€œWarrant Shareâ€) and expire five (5) years from the date of issuance.Â On July 20, 2023, the Company entered into a Securities Purchase Agreement (the â€œJuly 2023 Purchase Agreementâ€) with certain institutional investors and existing shareholders of the Company (the â€œPurchasersâ€), pursuant to which the Company sold to the Purchasers 1,935,485 Common Warrants (the â€œJuly 2023 Warrantsâ€, together with the December 2022 Warrants, the â€œExisting Warrantsâ€). The issuance of the July 2023 Warrants was also made in a Regulation D private placement (the â€œConcurrent Private Placementâ€) with a registered direct offering, pursuant to the September 2022 S-3Â Shelf Registration Statement. The 1,935,485 Warrants were fully exercisable commencing six months from the closing date, July 21, 2023, with an exercise price of $2.75 per share and expire 5.5 years from the date of issuance.Â The issuance, or resale, of shares of Common Stock underlying the Existing Warrants (or â€œWarrant Sharesâ€) have been registered pursuant to effective registration statements on Form S-3 dated January 18, 2023 and August 18, 2023, respectively (File Nos. 333-269289 and 333-274093, respectively).Â On December 28, 2023, the Company entered into a warrant exchange agreement (the â€œExchange Agreementâ€) with an existing shareholder (Armistice Capital Master Fund, Ltd., â€œArmisticeâ€). Armistice held warrants to purchase shares of common stock, of which, 1,915,323 were issued on July 21, 2023, and 521,740 were issued on December 21, 2022 (collectively, the â€œArmistice Existing Warrantsâ€). Pursuant to the Exchange Agreement, Armistice received new warrants (the â€œArmistice New Warrantsâ€) to purchase up to an aggregate 4,874,126 shares of Common Stock (the â€œArmistice New Warrant Sharesâ€), equal to 200% of the 1,915,323 Warrant Shares and 521,740 Warrant Shares issuable pursuant to the exercise of the Armistice Existing Warrants, in consideration for exercising for cash any and all such Armistice Existing Warrants. The Armistice New Warrants are fully exercisable at $1.45 per share for a five-year period commencing from the date the Company obtains shareholder approval, if required, for the exercise of the Armistice New Warrants.Â On January 29, 2024, the Company filed a registration statement on Form S-3 to register the issuance, or resale, of the 4,874,126 shares of Common Stock issuable upon exercise of the Armistice New Warrants (File No. 333-276755).Â The September 2022 S-3Â Shelf Registration Statement, together with Registration Statements File Nos. 333-269289, 333-274093 and 333-276755 are herein defined as the â€œS-3 Registration Statementsâ€.Â Going ConcernÂ The Companyâ€™s consolidated financial statements are prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (U.S. GAAP), which contemplates the continuation of the Company as a going concern. For the six months ended June 30, 2024, the Company had revenue of $27,791,190, a net loss of $4,457,401 and net cash used in operations of $4,622,989. Additionally, as of June 30, 2024, the Company had positive working capital of $8,593,7111, and accumulated deficit of $96,101,634, and stockholdersâ€™ equity of $32,119,574. It is managementâ€™s opinion that these conditions raise substantial doubt about the Companyâ€™s ability to continue as a going concern for a period of twelve months from August 19, 2024, the date of filing of the Companyâ€™s Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ending June 30, 2024.Â The Companyâ€™s revenues are not able to sustain its operations and concerns exist regarding the Companyâ€™s ability to meet its obligations as they become due.Â The Company is subject to a number of risks to those of smaller commercial companies, including dependence of key individuals and products, the difficulties inherent in the development of a commercial market, the need to obtain additional capital, competition from larger companies, and other pharmaceutical and health care companies.Â Corporate InformationÂ Cosmos Health Inc. was incorporated in the State of Nevada on July 21, 2009 under the name Prime Estates and Developments, Inc. for the purpose of acquiring and operating commercial real estate and real estate related assets. The summary statement of operations data for the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022 have been derived from our audited financial statements appearing elsewhere in this prospectus. The unaudited financial statements for the six-month period ended June 30, 2024, were prepared on a basis consistent with our audited financial statements and include, in the opinion of management, all adjustments necessary for the fair presentation of the financial information contained in those statements. The historical results presented below are not necessarily indicative of financial results to be achieved in future periods.Â Statement of Operations Data:Â Â Â Years Ended December 31,Â Â Six Months Ended June 30,Â Â Â Â Â

continue to be subject to increasing regulation, as well as political and legal action, as future proposals to reform the health care system are considered by the European Union, the United Kingdom, and the Hellenic Republic of Greece. Our services and products are subject to rigorous regulation by the EMA, the Hellenic Ministry of Health and the Hellenic Organization of Medicine. The process of obtaining regulatory approvals to market a drug or medical device can be costly and time-consuming, and approvals might not be granted for future products, or additional indications or uses of existing products, on a timely basis, if at all. Delays in the receipt of, or failure to obtain approvals for, future products, or new indications and uses, could result in delayed realization of product revenues, reduction in revenues, and in substantial additional costs. In addition, no assurance can be given that we will remain in compliance with European Union, MHRA, the Hellenic Ministry of Health and other regulatory requirements if and when approval or marketing authorization has been obtained for a product. Regulatory requirements include, among other things, regulations regarding manufacturing practices, product labeling, and advertising and post marketing reporting, including adverse event reports and field alerts due to manufacturing quality concerns. Many of our facilities and procedures and those of our suppliers are subject to ongoing regulation, including periodic inspection by the applicable regulatory authorities. We must incur expense and spend time and effort to ensure compliance with these complex regulations. Possible regulatory actions for non-compliance could include warning letters, fines, damages, injunctions, civil penalties, recalls, seizures of our products, and criminal prosecution. These actions could result in, among other things, substantial modifications to our business practices and operations; refunds, recalls, or seizures of our products; a total or partial shutdown of production in one or more of our facilities while we or our suppliers remedy the alleged violation; the inability to obtain future pre-market approvals or marketing authorizations; and withdrawals or suspensions of current products from the market. Any of these events could disrupt our business and have a material adverse effect on our revenues, profitability and financial condition.Â Any future acquisitions that we may make could disrupt our business, cause dilution to our stockholders and harm our business, financial condition or operating results.Â Any future acquisitions that we may make could subject us to a number of risks, including, but not limited to:Â Â Â·the purchase price we pay and/or unanticipated costs could significantly deplete our cash reserves or result in increased indebtedness and/or dilution to our existing stockholders;Â Â· we may find that the acquired company or technologies do not improve our market position as planned;Â Â· we may have difficulty integrating the operations and personnel of the acquired company, as the combined operations will place significant demands on the Companyâ€™s management, technical, financial and other resources;Â Â· key personnel and customers of the acquired company may terminate their relationships with the acquired company as a result of the acquisition;Â Â· we may experience additional financial and accounting challenges and complexities in areas such as tax planning and financial reporting;Â Â· we may assume or be held liable for risks and liabilities (including environmental-related costs) as a result of our acquisitions, some of which we may not be able to discover during our due diligence investigation or adequately adjust for in our acquisition arrangements;Â Â· our ongoing business and managementâ€™s attention may be disrupted or diverted by transition or integration issues and the complexity of managing geographically or culturally diverse enterprises;Â Â· we may incur one-time write-offs or restructuring charges in connection with the acquisition;Â Â· we may acquire goodwill and other intangible assets that are subject to amortization or impairment tests, which could result in future charges to earnings; andÂ Â· we may not be able to realize the cost savings or other financial benefits we anticipated.Â We cannot assure you that, following any acquisition, we will achieve sales levels, profitability, efficiencies or synergies that justify the acquisition, or that the acquisition will result in increased earnings for us in any future period. These factors could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and operating results.Â Â 14Table of ContentsÂ We are exposed to potential product liability or similar claims, and insurance against these claims may not be available to us at a reasonable rate in the future.Â Our business exposes us to potential product liability related to our business of marketing distribution of branded and generic pharmaceuticals, nutraceuticals, OTC medications and medical devices. We currently carry product liability but we may not be able to maintain such insurance or the amount of such insurance may not be adequate to cover claims. We could be materially and adversely affected if we were required to pay damages or incur defense costs in connection with a claim outside the scope of insurance coverage or if our liability exceeds the amount of applicable insurance. In addition, insurance may not continue to be available on terms acceptable to us, if at all, or if obtained, the insurance coverage may be insufficient to cover any potential claims or liabilities. Similar risks, but with larger potential liability amounts, would exist upon the commercialization or marketing of any products by our collaborators or us.Â Regardless of their merit or eventual outcome, product liability claims may result in:Â Â Â·decreased demand for our products;Â Â· injury to our reputation and significant negative media attention;Â Â· costs of litigation;Â Â· distraction of management; andÂ Â· substantial monetary awards to plaintiffs.Â Should any of these events occur, it could have a material adverse effect on our reputation and financial condition.Â Discovery of safety issues with our products could create product liability and could cause additional regulatory scrutiny and requirements for additional labeling, withdrawal of products from the market, and the imposition of fines or criminal penalties.Â Discovery of safety issues with our products could create product liability and could cause additional regulatory scrutiny and requirements for additional labeling, withdrawal of products from the market, and the imposition of fines or criminal penalties. Adverse safety events may also damage physician and patient confidence in our products and our reputation. Any of these could result in liabilities, loss of revenue, material write-offs of inventory, material impairments of intangible assets, goodwill and fixed assets, material restructuring charges and other adverse impacts on our results of operations. Regulatory authorities are making greater amounts of stand-alone safety information directly available to the public through periodic safety update reports, patient registries and other reporting requirements. The reporting of adverse safety events involving our products or products similar to ours and public rumors about such events may increase claims against us and may also cause our product sales or stock price to decline or experience periods of volatility. Restrictions on use or significant safety warnings that may be required to be included in the label of our products may significantly reduce expected revenues for such products and require significant expense and management time.Â We are subject to anti-corruption laws.Â Â We are subject to the U.S. Foreign Corrupt Practices Act and similar anti-corruption laws in other European Union countries, including Greece. These laws generally prohibit companies and their intermediaries from engaging in bribery or making other prohibited payments to government officials for the purpose of obtaining or retaining business, and some have record keeping requirements. The failure to comply with these laws could result in substantial criminal and/or monetary penalties. We operate in jurisdictions that have experienced corruption, bribery, pay-offs and other similar practices from time-to-time and, in certain circumstances, such practices may be local custom. We have implemented internal control policies and procedures that mandate compliance with these anti-corruption laws. However, we cannot be certain that these policies and procedures will protect us against liability. There can be no assurance that our employees or other agents will not engage in such conduct for which we might be held responsible. If our employees or agents are found to have engaged in such practices, we could suffer severe criminal or civil penalties and other consequences that could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows, and/or share price.Â Â 15Table of ContentsÂ We may not be able to obtain regulatory approval for new products.Â Obtaining and maintaining regulatory approval has been and will continue to be increasingly difficult, time-consuming and costly. There may be situations in which demonstrating the efficacy and safety of a product candidate may not be sufficient to gain regulatory approval unless superiority to comparative products can be shown. Also, legislative bodies or regulatory agencies could enact new laws or regulations or change existing laws or regulations at any time, which could affect our ability to obtain or maintain approval of our products or product candidates. For example, the EU has finalized legislation, which relate to the conduct of clinical trials. While the aim of the new legislation is improvement in operational efficiency and a streamlining of the overall clinical trial authorization process, the new requirements also provide for increased transparency of clinical trial results and submission of quality data relating to the products and product candidates used for such trials. Failure to comply with new laws or regulations could result in significant monetary penalties as well as reputational and other harms. We are unable to predict when and whether any further changes to laws or regulatory policies affecting our business could occur, such as efforts to reform medical device regulation or the pedigree requirements for medical products or to implement new requirements for combination products, and whether such changes could have a material adverse effect on our business and results of operations. Regulatory authorities may also question the sufficiency for approval of the endpoints we select for our clinical trials. Regulatory authorities could also add new requirements, such as the completion of an outcomes study or a meaningful portion of an outcomes study, as conditions for obtaining approval or obtaining an indication. The imposition of additional requirements may delay our clinical development and regulatory filing efforts, and delay or prevent us from obtaining regulatory approval for new product candidates, new indications for existing products or maintenance of our current labels.Â Difficulty in developing new products.Â We believe, based on our knowledge of the industry, that our future strategy relies on the acquisition of new operating subsidiaries and the subsequent launch of new products and technologies. To accomplish this, we may need to commit substantial efforts, funds, and other resources to research and development. A high rate of failure is inherent in the research and development of new products and technologies. Failure can occur at any point in the process, including after significant funds have been invested. We cannot state with certainty when or whether any of our products will be developed and/or launched, whether we will be able to develop, license, or otherwise acquire compounds or products, or whether any products will be commercially successful.Â We face significant competition, including competition from larger and better funded enterprises.Â Our pharmaceutical businesses are conducted in intensely competitive and often highly regulated markets. Many of our pharmaceutical products face competition in the form of branded or generic drugs that treat similar diseases or indications. Our competitors include other trading companies, smaller companies, with generic drug and consumer healthcare products. We compete with other companies that manufacture and sell products that treat diseases or indications similar to those treated by our trading pharmaceutical products.Â Our competitive position in pharmaceutical sector is affected by several factors including among others, the amount and effectiveness of our and our competitorsâ€™ promotional resources; customer acceptance; product quality; our and our competitorsâ€™ introduction of new products, ingredients, claims, dosage forms, or other forms of innovation; and pricing, regulatory and legislative matters (such as product labeling, patient access and prescription).Â The branded pharmaceutical industry is highly competitive. Our products compete with products manufactured by many other companies in highly competitive markets throughout the EU territory and internationally as well. Competitors include many of the major brand name and generic manufacturers of pharmaceutical products. If competitors introduce new products, delivery systems or processes with therapeutic or cost advantages, our products can be subject to progressive price reductions or decreased volume of sales, or both.Â In the generic pharmaceutical market, we might face intense competition from other generic drug manufacturers, brand name pharmaceutical companies, existing brand equivalents and manufacturers of therapeutically similar drugs.Â Newly introduced generic products with limited or no other generic competition typically garner higher prices. At the expiration of the exclusivity period, other generic distributors may enter the market, resulting in a significant price decline for the drug. Consequently, the maintenance of profitable operations in generic pharmaceuticals depends, in part, on our ability to select, develop and launch new generic products in a timely and cost-efficient manner and to maintain efficient, high quality business capabilities.Â Â 16Table of ContentsÂ Our own branded nutraceutical products compete in the nutritional industry against companies that sell through retail stores, as well as against other direct selling companies. We compete against manufacturers and retailers of nutraceutical products which are distributed through supermarkets, drug stores, health food stores, vitamin outlets and mass market retailers, among others. We believe that the principal components of competition in nutraceutical products are expertise and service, high product quality, diversification and differentiation, price, and brand recognition.Â Operating conditions have become more challenging under the mounting global pressures of competition, industry regulation and cost containment. We continue to take measures to evaluate, adapt and improve our organization and business practices to better meet customer and public needs. We also seek to continually enhance the organizational effectiveness of all of our functions, including efforts to accurately and ethically launch and promote our products.Â If we are not able to overcome these competitive challenges, our prospects, results of operations, and financial condition could be harmed.Â Concentration of suppliers and production.Â A substantial portion of our capacity, as well as our current production, is attributable to a limited number of manufacturing facilities and certain third-party suppliers. A significant disruption at any one of such facilities within our internal or third party supply chain, even on a short-term basis, whether due to a labor strike, failure to reach acceptable agreement with labor and unions, adverse quality or compliance observation, infringement of intellectual property rights, act of God, civil or political unrest, export or import restrictions, or other events could impair our ability to trade, produce and ship products to the market on a timely basis and could, among other consequences, subject us to exposure to claims from customers. Any of these events could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows, and/or share price.Â The Company is subject to market perceptions.Â Market perceptions of us are very important to our business, especially market perceptions of our Company and brands and the safety and quality of our products. If we, our partners and suppliers, or our brands suffer from negative publicity, or if any of our products or similar products which other companies distribute are subject to market withdrawal or recall or are proven to be, or are claimed to be, ineffective or harmful to consumers, then this could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows, and/or share price. Also, because we are dependent on market perceptions, negative publicity associated with product quality, patient illness, or other adverse effects resulting from, or perceived to be resulting from, our products, or our partnersâ€™ and suppliersâ€™ manufacturing facilities, could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows, and/or share price.Â International risks.Â Our business is subject to risks associated with doing business internationally. Sales outside of the U.S. make up 100% percentage of our net sales. Additional risks associated with our international operations include: differing local product preferences and product requirements; trade protection measures and import or export licensing requirements; difficulty in establishing, staffing, and managing operations; differing labor regulations; potentially negative consequences from changes in or interpretations of tax laws; political and economic instability, including sovereign debt issues; price controls, limitations on participation in local enterprises, expropriation, nationalization, and other governmental action; inflation, recession, and fluctuations in interest rates; compulsory licensing or diminished protection of intellectual property; and potential penalties or other adverse consequences for violations of the General Data Protection Rules (â€œGDPRâ€) and anti-corruption, anti-bribery, and other similar laws and regulations, including the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act and the U.K. Bribery Act. Events contemplated by these risks may, individually or in the aggregate, have a material adverse effect on our revenues and profitability.Â Â 17Table of ContentsÂ International economic conditions.Â Criticism of excessive national debt of Greece has led to credit downgrades of the sovereign debt of Greece, and uncertainty about the future status of the Euro. Destabilization of the European economy could lead to a decrease in consumer confidence, which could cause reductions in discretionary spending and demand for our subsidiariesâ€™ products. Furthermore, sovereign debt issues could also lead to further significant, and potentially longer-term, economic issues, such as reduced economic growth and devaluation of the Euro against the U.S. Dollar, any of which could adversely affect our and each of our subsidiariesâ€™ business, financial condition and operating results.Â Our international operations could be affected by the ongoing war in Ukraine, currency fluctuations, capital and exchange controls, expropriation and other restrictive government actions, changes in intellectual property legal protections and remedies, trade regulations and procedures and actions affecting approval, production, pricing, and marketing of, reimbursement for and access to our products, as well as by political unrest, unstable governments and legal systems and inter-governmental disputes. Any of these changes could adversely affect our business.Â Market disruptions, supply-chain disruptions, geopolitical conflicts, including acts of war, macroeconomic events, and inflation, could create market volatility that could have a negative impact on our business and results of operations.Â Â Various social and political tensions in the United States and around the world may contribute to increased market volatility, may have long-term effects on the U.S. and worldwide markets and may cause further economic uncertainties in the United States and worldwide.Â The occurrence of events similar to those in recent years, such as the war in Ukraine, instability, new and ongoing pandemics, epidemics or outbreaks of infectious diseases in certain parts of the world, natural/environmental disasters, supply-chain disruptions, terrorist attacks in the United States and around the world, social and political discord, increasingly strained relations between the United States and a number of foreign countries, new and continued political unrest in various countries, continued changes in the balance of political power among and within the branches of the U.S. Government, government shutdowns, among others, may result in market volatility, may have long term effects on the U.S. and worldwide financial markets, and may cause further economic uncertainties in the United States and worldwide.Â The Effects of War in the Ukraine.Â On February 24, 2022, Russian forces launched significant military action against Ukraine. There continues to be sustained conflict and disruption in the region, which is expected to endure for the foreseeable future. We do not conduct any commercial transactions with either Ukraine or Russia and the Company is not aware of any specific event or circumstance that would require an update to its estimates or judgments or a revision of the carrying value of its assets or liabilities as of the date of this prospectus. Such political issues and conflicts could have a material adverse effect on our results of operations and financial condition if they escalate in areas in which we do business. In addition, changes in and adverse actions by governments in foreign markets in which we do business could have a material adverse effect on our results of operations and financial condition.Â These estimates may change, as new events occur, and additional information is obtained. Actual results could differ materially from these estimates under different assumptions or conditions. We will continue monitoring the social, political, regulatory and economic environment in Ukraine and Russia, and will consider further actions as appropriate.Â Conversion to Euros and GBP.Â Although we report our financial results in U.S. Dollars, a significant portion of our revenues, indebtedness and other liabilities and our costs are denominated in Euros and GBP. Our results of operations and, in some cases, cash flows, have in the past been and may in the future be adversely affected by certain movements in currency exchange rates. In particular, the risk of a debt default by one or more European countries and related European or national financial restructuring efforts may cause volatility in the value of the Euro. Defaults or restructurings in other countries could have a similar adverse impact. From time to time, we may implement currency hedges intended to reduce our exposure to changes in foreign currency exchange rates. However, our hedging strategies may not be successful, and any of our unhedged foreign exchange exposures will continue to be subject to market fluctuations. The occurrence of any of the above risks could cause a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows, and/or share price.Â Â 18Table of ContentsÂ We may not be able to defend or protect our intellectual property.Â We do not hold any patents at this time and we rely on trade secrets, know-how and other proprietary information. We seek to protect this information, in part, through the use of confidentiality agreements with employees, consultants, advisors and others. Nonetheless, there can be no assurance that those agreements will provide adequate protection for our trade secrets, know-how or other proprietary information and prevent their unauthorized use or disclosure. While we are not aware of any challenges to our intellectual property, if any patents are issued to us litigation may ensue. There is also the risk that our employees, consultants, advisors or others will not maintain confidentiality of such trade secrets or proprietary information, or that this information may become known in some other way or be independently developed by the Companyâ€™s competitors.Â We may be sued by third parties who claim that our products infringe on their intellectual property rights.Â We may be exposed to future litigation by third parties based on claims that our products or activities infringe on their intellectual property rights or that we have misappropriated their trade secrets. Any litigation or claims against us, whether or not valid, could result in substantial costs, could place a significant strain on our financial and managerial resources, and could harm our reputation. In addition, intellectual property litigation or claims could force us to do one or more of the following, any of which could have a material adverse effect on us, our results of operations and could cause us to curtail or cease its operations:Â Â Â·Cease testing, developing, using and/or commercializing products that it may develop; orÂ Â·Obtain a license from the holder of the infringed intellectual property right, which could also be costly or may not be available on reasonable terms.Â We may be subject to damages resulting from claims that we or our employees have wrongfully used or disclosed alleged trade secrets of their former employers.Â We may be subject to litigation and damages resulting from claims that we or our employees have wrongfully used or disclosed alleged trade secrets of their former employers. Although no claims against us are currently pending or threatened, we may be subject to claims that our employees or we have inadvertently or otherwise used or disclosed trade secrets or other proprietary information of former employers of our employees. Litigation may be necessary to defend against these claims. Even if we are successful in defending against these claims, litigation could result in substantial costs and be a distraction to management. If we fail in defending such claims, in addition to paying money claims, we may lose valuable intellectual property rights or personnel. A loss of key research personnel or their work product could hamper or prevent our ability to commercialize certain product candidates, which could severely harm our business.Â Governmental and third-party payors may impose sales and pharmaceutical pricing restrictions or controls on our products that could limit our future product revenues and adversely affect profitability.Â The commercial success of our products is substantially dependent on whether third-party reimbursement is available for the ordering of our products by the medical profession for use by their patients. Medicare, Medicaid, health maintenance organizations and other third-party payors may not cover or provide adequate payment for our products. They may not view our products as cost-effective and reimbursement may not be available to consumers or may not be sufficient to allow our products to be marketed on a competitive basis. Likewise, legislative or regulatory efforts to control or reduce health care costs or reform government health care programs could result in lower prices or rejection of our products. Changes in reimbursement policies or health care cost containment initiatives that limit or restrict reimbursement for our products may cause our revenue to decline.Â Â 19Table of ContentsÂ The commercial success of our products will depend upon the degree of market acceptance of these products among physicians, patients, health care payors and the medical community.Â Even if a product candidate is approved for sale by the appropriate regulatory authorities, physicians may not prescribe our product candidates, in which case we would not generate revenue or become profitable. Market acceptance by physicians, healthcare payors and patients will depend on a number of factors, including:Â Â Â·acceptance by physicians and patients of each such product as a safe and effective treatment;Â Â· cost effectiveness;Â Â· adequate reimbursement by third parties;Â Â· potential advantages over alternative treatments; andÂ Â· relative convenience and ease of administration.Â We are subject to critical accounting policies, and we may interpret or implement required policies incorrectly.Â We follow generally accepted accounting principles (â€œU.S. GAAPâ€) for the United States in preparing our financial statements. As part of this work, we must make many estimates and judgments about future events. These affect the value of the assets and liabilities, contingent assets and liabilities, and revenue and expenses that we report in our financial statements. We believe these estimates and judgments are reasonable, and we make them in accordance with our accounting policies based on information available at the time. However, actual results could differ from our estimates, and this could require us to record adjustments to expenses or revenues that could be material to our financial position and results of operations in future periods.Â Foreign currency risks.Â Assets and liabilities of all foreign operations are translated at year-end rates of exchange, and, amounts included in the â€œStatements of Operations and Comprehensive Income (Loss)â€ are translated at the average rates of exchange for the year. Gains or losses resulting from translating foreign currency financial statements are accumulated in a separate component of stockholdersâ€™ equity until the entity is sold or substantially liquidated. Gains or losses from foreign currency transactions (transactions denominated in a currency other than the entityâ€™s local currency) are included in comprehensive income (loss).Â We are subject to evolving and complex tax regulations in the United States, United Kingdom, Greece and in the European Union.Â We are subject to evolving and complex tax laws in the jurisdictions in which we operate. Significant judgment is required for determining our tax liabilities, and our tax returns are periodically examined by various tax authorities. We believe that our accrual for tax contingencies is adequate for all open years based on past experience, interpretations of tax law, and judgments about potential actions by tax authorities; however, due to the complexity of tax contingencies, the ultimate resolution of any tax matters may result in payments greater or less than amounts accrued. Changes to the U.S. international tax laws could have a significant impact on our financial results. In addition, we may be affected by changes in tax laws, including tax rate changes, changes to the laws related to the remittance of foreign earnings (deferral), or other limitations impacting the U.S. tax treatment of foreign earnings, new tax laws, and revised tax law interpretations in domestic and foreign jurisdictions. This prospectus does not discuss any such tax legislation or the manner in which it might affect purchasers of our securities. We urge you to consult with your legal and tax advisors with respect to any such legislation and the potential tax consequences of investing in our securities.Â Risks related to income taxes.Â The Company accounts for income taxes under the asset and liability method, as required by the accounting standard for income taxes, ASC 740 â€œAccounting for Income Taxes.â€ Under this method, deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the future tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax basis, as well as net operating loss carryforwards. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. The effect on deferred tax assets and liabilities of a change in tax rates is recognized in income in the period that includes the enactment date.Â Â 20Table of ContentsÂ We regularly review deferred tax assets to assess their potential realization and establish a valuation allowance for portions of such assets to reduce the carrying value if we do not consider it to be more likely than not that the deferred tax assets will be realized. Our review includes evaluating both positive (e.g., sources of taxable income) and negative (e.g., recent historical losses) evidence that could impact the realizability of our deferred tax assets.Â Â We recognize the impact of an uncertain tax position in our financial statements if, in managementâ€™s judgment, the position isÂ notÂ more-likely-then-not sustainable upon audit based on the positionâ€™s technical merits. This involves the identification of potential uncertain tax positions, the evaluation of applicable tax laws and an assessment of whether a liability for an uncertain tax position is necessary. We operate and are subject to audit in multiple taxing jurisdictions.Â We record interest and penalties related to income taxes as a component of interest and other expense, respectively.Â Potential benefits of income tax losses are not recognized in the accounts until realization is more likely than not. The Company has adopted ASC 740 â€œAccounting for Income Taxesâ€ as of its inception. Pursuant to ASC 740, the Company is required to compute tax asset benefits for net operating losses carried forward. The potential benefits ofÂ the U.S. net operating losses have not been recognized in this financial statement because the Company cannot be assured it is more likely than not it will utilize the net operating losses carried forward in future years.Â The Company has net operating loss carry-forwards in our parent, Cosmos Health Inc., which are applicable to future taxable income in the United States (if any). Additionally, the Company has income tax liabilities in the United Kingdom. The income tax assets and liabilities are not able to be netted. We therefore reserve the income tax assets applicable to the United States but recognize the income tax liabilities in Greece and the United Kingdom. Losses may also be subject to limitation under certain rules regarding change of ownership.Â Risks related to internal controls.Â The Companyâ€™s management, with the participation of the Companyâ€™s Principal Executive Officer and Principal Financial Officer, has evaluated the effectiveness of the Companyâ€™s disclosure controls and procedures. Based upon that evaluation, the Principal Executive Officer and the Principal Financial Officer have concluded that, as of the end of the last reporting period, the Companyâ€™s disclosure controls and procedures were ineffective due to the following material weaknesses: i. the Companyâ€™s lack of proper segregation of duties, and ii. the Companyâ€™s internal control structure lacking of multiple levels of review and oversight and not having appropriate IT General Controls (ITGCs) for the applications used in the Financial Reporting process, caused by lack of design of relevant controls and overall IT risk management.Â Management is in the process of remediating all material weaknesses present in our internal controls and plans to have completed the remediation by December 31, 2024.Â Regarding the Companyâ€™s lack of proper segregation of duties, Management is in the process of updating the organizational chart in order to reallocate roles among personnel and emphasize sharing the responsibilities of key business processes by distributing the discrete functions of these processes to multiple people and departments.Â Regarding the Companyâ€™s internal control structureâ€™s lack of multiple levels of review and oversight and not having appropriate IT General Controls (ITGCs) for the applications used in the Financial Reporting process, caused by lack of design of relevant controls and overall IT risk management, Management is in the process of developing multiple levels of review based on job responsibilities and level of personnel. Furthermore, Management is in the process of assessing a new financial reporting application that will be used by all the companies of the Group and would be able to support, process financially relevant information, provide financially relevant reporting and house financially relevant interfaces and application controls in order for us to more efficiently establish IT General Controls to a single and more reliable application.Â On the other hand, there were no changes in our internal control over financial reporting that have materially affected or are reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting. Our Audit Committee is in the process of evaluating our existing controls and procedures, while communicating with the Management on quarterly basis.Â Â 21Table of ContentsÂ Risks Related to Our SecuritiesÂ Nevada anti-takeover law may discourage acquirers and eliminate potentially beneficial sale for our shareholders.Â Provisions of our charter, bylaws, and Nevada law may make an acquisition of us or a change in our management more difficult.Â Certain provisions of our Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation and By-laws that are in effect could discourage, delay or prevent a merger, acquisition or other change in control that shareholders may consider favorable, including transactions in which you might otherwise receive a premium for your shares. These provisions also could limit the price that investors might be willing to pay in the future for shares of our Common Stock. Shareholders who wish to participate in these transactions may not have the opportunity to do so.Â Furthermore, these provisions could prevent or frustrate attempts by our shareholders to replace or remove our management. These provisions:Â Â Â·allow the authorized number of directors to be changed only by resolution of our board of directors;Â Â· authorize our board of directors to issue without shareholder approval blank check preferred stock that, if issued, could operate as a â€œpoison pillâ€ to dilute the stock ownership of a potential hostile acquirer to prevent an acquisition that is not approved by our board of directors;Â Â· establish advance notice requirements for shareholder nominations to our board of directors or for shareholder proposals that can be acted on at shareholder meetings;Â Â· authorize the Board of Directors to amend the By-laws;Â Â· limit who may call shareholder meetings; andÂ Â· require the approval of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of our capital stock entitled to vote in order to amend certain provisions of our certificate of incorporation.Â Section 78.438 of the Nevada Revised Statutes (â€œNRSâ€) prohibits a publicly held Nevada corporation from engaging in a business combination with an interested stockholder, generally a person that together with its affiliates owns or within the last two years has owned 10% of voting stock, for a period of two years after the date of the transaction in which the person became an interested stockholder, unless the business combination is approved in a prescribed manner, or falls within certain exemptions under the NRS. As a result of these provisions in our charter documents under Nevada law, the price investors may be willing to pay in the future for shares of our Common Stock may be limited.Â We do not anticipate paying cash dividends on our Common Stock, and accordingly, shareholders must rely on stock appreciation for any return on their investment.Â We have not declared or paid any cash dividend on our Common Stock and do not currently intend to do so for the foreseeable future. We currently anticipate that we will retain future earnings for the development, operation and expansion of our business and do not anticipate declaring or paying any cash dividends for the foreseeable future. Therefore, the success of an investment in shares of our Common Stock will depend upon any future appreciation in their value. There is no guarantee that shares of our Common Stock will appreciate in value or even maintain the price at which our shareholders have purchased their shares.Â Â In general, a non-affiliated person who has held restricted shares for a period of six months, under Rule 144, may sell into the market our Common Stock all of their shares, subject to the Company being current in its periodic reports filed with the SEC. An affiliate may sell an amount equal to the greater of 1% of the 23,259,551 outstanding shares as of October 23, 2024, or the average weekly number of shares sold on the Nasdaq Capital Market in the last four weeks prior to such sale. Such sales may be repeated once every three months, and any of the restricted shares may be sold by a non-affiliate without any restrictions after they have been held one year.Â Â 22Table of ContentsÂ Our Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation grants the Board of Directors the power to designate and issue additional shares of preferred stock which may act as an anti-takeover device.Â Our Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation grants our Board of Directors authority to, without any action by our stockholders, designate and issue, from our authorized capital, shares in such classes or series as it deems appropriate and establish the rights, preferences, and privileges of such shares, including dividends, liquidation and voting rights. The rights of holders of classes or series of preferred stock that may be issued could be superior to the rights of the common stock offered hereby. Our Board of Directorsâ€™ ability to designate and issue shares could impede or deter an unsolicited tender offer or takeover proposal. Further, the issuance of additional shares having preferential rights could adversely affect other rights appurtenant to the shares of common stock offered hereby. Any such issuances will dilute the percentage of ownership interest of our stockholders and may dilute our book value.Â Provisions of the Warrants offered by this prospectus could discourage an acquisition of us by a third party.Â Certain provisions of the Warrants offered by this prospectus could make it more difficult or expensive for a third party to acquire us. The Warrants prohibit us from engaging in certain transactions constituting â€œfundamental transactionsâ€ unless, among other things, the surviving entity assumes our obligations under the Warrants. Further, the Warrants provide that, in the event of certain transactions constituting â€œfundamental transactions,â€ with some exception, holders of such warrants will have the right, at their option, to require us to redeem such Warrants at a price described in such warrants. These and other provisions of the Warrants offered by this prospectus could prevent or deter a third party from acquiring us even where the acquisition could be beneficial to you.Â We have received notices from Nasdaq in the past regarding the Companyâ€™s non-compliance with continued listing standards. While these deficiencies have been resolved, if we fail again in the future to comply with such listing standards, our Common Stock could be delisted.Â Pursuant to certain non-compliance letters from the Nasdaq Capital Market, in the past, the Company failed to comply with certain continued listing requirements, for instance the minimum bid price requirement set forth in Nasdaq Listing Rule 5550(a)(2) or the timeliness of filing periodic financial reports required under the Exchange Act, pursuant to Nasdaq Listing Rule 5250(c)(1).Â While the Company resolved such past deficiencies and all matters have been declared closed by Nasdaq, if, in the future, we fail again to meet the Nasdaq Capital Marketâ€™s ongoing listing criteria, our Common Stock could be delisted. If our Common Stock is delisted by the Nasdaq Capital Market, our Common Stock may be eligible for quotation on an over-the-counter quotation system or on the pink sheets. Upon any such delisting, our Common Stock would become subject to the regulations of the SEC relating to the market for penny stocks described in the following risk factor. The regulations applicable to penny stocks may severely affect the market liquidity for our Common Stock and could limit the ability of stockholders to sell such securities in the secondary market. In such a case, an investor may find it more difficult to dispose of or obtain accurate quotations as to the market value of our Common Stock or Warrants, and there can be no assurance that our Common Stock will be eligible for trading or quotation on any alternative exchanges or markets.Â Delisting from the Nasdaq Capital Market could adversely affect our ability to raise additional financing through public or private sales of equity securities, would significantly affect the ability of investors to trade our securities and would negatively affect the value and liquidity of our Common Stock. Delisting could also have other negative results, including the potential loss of confidence by employees, the loss of institutional investor interest and fewer business development opportunities.Â Although there is no assurance, we expect that this offering and/or the shareholder proposal to provide the Board of Directors with the discretion to effect a Reverse Stock Split, if necessary, will enable us to regain compliance with Nasdaqâ€™s minimum bid-price requirement for continued listing on the Nasdaq Capital Market. Although Nasdaq notification letters described above have no immediate effect on our listing on the Nasdaq Capital Market, and we are working on implementing plans to regain compliance with Nasdaq listing standards, there can be no assurance that we will be able to regain compliance with Nasdaqâ€™s minimum bid-price requirement.Â Â 23Table of ContentsÂ We may become subject to â€œpenny stockâ€ rules, which could damage our reputation and the ability of investors to sell their shares.Â Stockholders should be aware that, according to the Securities and Exchange Commission Release No. 34-29093, the market for penny stocks has suffered in recent years from patterns of fraud and abuse. These patterns include: control of the market for the security by one or a few broker-dealers that are often related to the promoter or issuer; manipulation of prices through prearranged matching of purchases and ales and false and misleading press releases; â€œboiler roomâ€ practices involving high pressure sales tactics and unrealistic price projections by inexperienced sales persons; excessive and undisclosed bid-ask differentials and markups by selling broker-dealers; and the wholesale dumping of the same securities by promoters and broker-dealers after prices have been manipulated to a desired level, along with the inevitable collapse of those prices with consequent investor losses.Â Furthermore, the penny stock designation may adversely affect the development of any public market for our shares of Common Stock or, if such a market develops, its continuation. Broker-dealers are required to personally determine whether an investment in penny stock is suitable for customers. Penny stocks are securities (i) with a price of less than five dollars ($5.00) per share; (ii) that are not traded on a â€œrecognizedâ€ national exchange; and (iii) of an issuer with net tangible assets less than $2,000,000 (if the issuer has been in continuous operation for at least three years) or $5,000,000 (if in continuous operation for less than three years), or with average annual revenues of less than $6,000,000 for the last three years. Section 15(g) of the Exchange Act and Rule 15g-2 of the SEC require broker-dealers dealing in penny stocks to provide potential investors with a document disclosing the risks of penny stocks and to obtain a manually signed and dated written receipt of the document before effecting any transaction in a penny stock for the investorâ€™s account. Potential investors in our Common Stock are urged to obtain and read such disclosure carefully before purchasing any shares that are deemed to be penny stock. Rule 15g-9 of the SEC requires broker-dealers in penny stocks to approve the account of any investor for transactions in such stocks before selling any penny stock to that investor.Â This procedure requires the broker-dealer to (i) obtain from the investor information concerning his financial situation, investment experience and investment objectives; (ii) reasonably determine, based on that information, that transactions in penny stocks are suitable for the investor and that the investor has sufficient knowledge and experience as to be reasonably capable of evaluating the risks of penny stock transactions; (iii) provide the investor with a written statement setting forth the basis on which the broker-dealer made the determination in (ii) above; and (iv) receive a signed and dated copy of such statement from the investor, confirming that it accurately reflects the investorâ€™s financial situation, investment experience and investment objectives. Compliance with these requirements may make it more difficult for the Companyâ€™s stockholders to resell their shares to third parties or to otherwise dispose of them.Â The obligations associated with being a public company require significant resources and management attention, which may divert from our business operations.Â We are subject to the reporting requirements of the Exchange Act and the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 or the Sarbanes-Oxley Act. The Exchange Act requires that we file annual, quarterly and current reports, proxy statements, and other information. The Sarbanes-Oxley Act requires, among other things, that we establish and maintain effective internal controls and procedures for financial reporting. Our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer are required to certify that our disclosure controls and procedures are effective in ensuring that material information we are required to disclose in reports that we file or submit under the Exchange Act is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in the SECâ€™s rules and forms. We will need to hire additional financial reporting, internal controls and other financial personnel in order to enhance appropriate internal controls and reporting procedures. As a result, we will incur significant legal, accounting and other expenses. Furthermore, the need to establish the corporate infrastructure demanded of a public company may divert managementâ€™s attention from implementing our growth strategy, which could prevent us from improving our business, results of operations and financial condition. We have made, and will continue to make, changes to our internal controls and procedures for financial reporting and accounting systems to meet our reporting obligations as a public company. However, the measures we take may not be sufficient to satisfy our obligations as a public company. In addition, we cannot predict or estimate the amount of additional costs we may incur in order to comply with these requirements. We anticipate that these costs will materially increase our selling, general and administrative expenses.Â Section 404 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act requires annual management assessments of the effectiveness of our internal control over financial reporting. In connection with the implementation of the necessary procedures and practices related to internal control over financial reporting, we may identify deficiencies. Additionally, in the event we are no longer a smaller reporting company, as defined under the Exchange Act, and we are unable to comply with the internal controls requirements of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, then we may not be able to obtain the independent registered public accountantsâ€™ certifications required by that act, which may preclude us from keeping our filings with the SEC current, and interfere with the ability of investors to trade our securities and our shares to continue to be listed on Nasdaq.Â Â 24Table of ContentsÂ If we fail to establish and maintain an effective system of internal controls, we may not be able to report our financial results accurately or prevent fraud. Any inability to report and file our financial results accurately and timely could harm our reputation and adversely impact the trading price of our Common Stock.Â Effective internal controls are necessary for us to provide reliable financial reports and prevent fraud. If we cannot provide reliable financial reports or prevent fraud, we may not be able to manage our business as effectively as we would if an effective control environment existed, and our business and reputation with investors may be harmed. With each prospective acquisition we may make we will conduct whatever due diligence is necessary or prudent to assure us that the acquisition target can comply with the internal control requirements of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act. Notwithstanding our diligence, certain internal controls deficiencies may not be detected. As a result, any internal control deficiencies may adversely affect our financial condition, results of operations and access to capital. We have not performed an in-depth analysis to determine if historical undiscovered failures of internal controls exist, and may, in the future, discover areas of our internal controls that need improvement.Â Public company compliance may make it more difficult to attract and retain officers and directors.Â The Sarbanes-Oxley Act and rules implemented by the SEC have required changes in corporate governance practices of public companies. As a public company, these rules and regulations increase our compliance costs and make certain activities more time-consuming and costly. As a public company, these rules and regulations make it more difficult and expensive for us to obtain such insurance and we may be required to accept reduced policy limits and coverage or incur substantially higher costs to obtain the same. As a result, it may be more difficult for us to attract and retain qualified persons to serve on our Board of Directors or as executive officers, and to maintain insurance at reasonable rates, or at all.Â There may be future sales or other dilution of our equity, which may adversely affect the market price of our Common Stock.Â We are generally not restricted from issuing additional Common Stock, including any securities that are convertible into or exchangeable for, or that represent the right to receive, Common Stock. The market price of our Common Stock could decline as a result of sales of Common Stock or securities that are convertible into or exchangeable for, or that represent the right to receive, Common Stock after this offering or the perception that such sales could occur.Â If securities or industry analysts do not publish research or reports about our business, or if they change their recommendations regarding our stock adversely, our stock price and trading volume could decline.Â The trading market for our Common Stock relies in part on the research and reports that equity research analysts publish about us and our business. We do not control these analysts. The price of our Common Stock could decline if one or more equity research analysts downgrade our Common Stock or if they issue other unfavorable commentary or cease publishing reports about us or our business.Â This prospectus contains forward looking statements which are speculative in nature.Â This registration statement contains forward-looking statements. These statements relate to future events or our future financial performance. Forward looking statements are speculative and uncertain and not based on historical facts. Because forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties, there are important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed or implied by these forward-looking statements, including those discussed under "businessâ€ section, although the Company believes that the expectations reflected in the forward-looking statements are reasonable, future results, levels of activity, performance, or achievements cannot be guaranteed. The reader is advised to consult any further disclosures made on related subjects in our future SEC filings.Â Â 25Table of ContentsÂ Forward Looking StatementsÂ This prospectus contains forward-looking statements. These statements relate to future events or future predictions, including events or predictions relating to our future financial performance, and are based on current expectations, estimates, forecasts and projections about us, our future performance, our beliefs and managementâ€™s assumptions. They are generally identifiable by use of the words â€œmay,â€ â€œwill,â€ â€œshould,â€ â€œexpect,â€ â€œplan,â€ â€œanticipate,â€ â€œbelieve,â€ â€œfeel,â€ â€œconfident,â€ â€œestimate,â€ â€œintend,â€ â€œpredict,â€ â€forecast,â€ â€œpotentialâ€ or â€œcontinueâ€ or the negative of such terms or other variations on these words or comparable terminology. These statements are only predictions and involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors, including the risks described under â€œRisk Factorsâ€ that may cause the Companyâ€™s or its industryâ€™s actual results, levels of activity, performance or achievements to be materially different from any future results, levels of activity, performance or achievements expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. In addition to the risks described in Risk Factors, important factors to consider and evaluate in such forward-looking statements include: (i) general economic conditions and changes in the external competitive market factors which might impact the Companyâ€™s results of operations; (ii) unanticipated working capital or other cash requirements including those created by the failure of the Company to adequately anticipate the costs associated with acquisitions and other critical activities; (iii) changes in the Companyâ€™s corporate strategy or an inability to execute its strategy due to unanticipated changes; and (iv) the failure of the Company to complete any or all of the transactions described herein on the terms currently contemplated. In light of these risks and uncertainties, many of which are described in greater detail elsewhere in this Risk Factors discussion, there can be no assurance that the forward-looking statements contained in this prospectus will in fact transpire.Â Although the Company believes that the expectations reflected in the forward-looking statements are reasonable, the Company cannot guarantee future results, levels of activity, performance or achievements. We do not undertake any duty to update any of the forward-looking statements after the date of this prospectus to conform such statements to actual results or changes in our expectations.Â USE OF PROCEEDSÂ We are not selling any securities under this prospectus and will not receive any of the proceeds from the sale of Warrant Shares by the Selling Shareholder. However, we may receive proceeds of up to $9,260,839 from the exercise of 2024 New Warrants, if exercised in full for cash. We currently intend to use the net proceeds from this Offering for working capital and general corporate purposes, which may include operating expenses, resale, development, capital expenditures and funding for pending or future acquisitions.Â The timing and amount of our actual expenditures will be based on many factors, including cash flows from operations and the anticipated growth of our business. As of the date of this prospectus, we cannot specify with certainty all of the particular uses for the net proceeds to us from this Offering. As a result, our management will have broad discretion regarding the timing and application of the net proceeds from this Offering. Investors will be relying on the judgment of our management regarding the application of the proceeds of this Offering. Pending their ultimate use, we intend to invest the net proceeds in short-term, investment-grade, interest-bearing instruments.Â MARKET PRICE OF OUR COMMON STOCKÂ Our common stock is presently listed on the Nasdaq Capital Market under the symbol â€œCOSMâ€. On October 25, 2024, the last reported sale price of our common stock was $0.77.Â As of October 23, 2024, we had 23,259,551 shares outstanding for common stock. We had approximatelyÂ 614 registered holders of record of our common stock. A substantially greater number of holders of our common stock are â€œstreet nameâ€ or beneficial holders, whose shares of record are held through banks, brokers, other financial institutions and registered clearing agencies.Â Â 26Table of ContentsÂ MANAGEMENTâ€™S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OFFINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONSÂ Forward-Looking StatementsÂ Certain statements, other than purely historical information, including estimates, projections, statements relating to our business plans, objectives, and expected operating results, and the assumptions upon which those statements are based, are â€œforward-looking statementsâ€ within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. These forward-looking statements generally are identified by the words â€œbelieves,â€ â€œproject,â€ â€œexpects,â€ â€œanticipates,â€ â€œestimates,â€ â€œintends,â€ â€œstrategy,â€ â€œplan,â€ â€œmay,â€ â€œwill,â€ â€œwould,â€ â€œwill be,â€ â€œwill continue,â€ â€œwill likely result,â€ and similar expressions.Â We intend such forward-looking statements to be covered by the safe-harbor provisions for forward-looking statements contained in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, and are including this statement for purposes of complying with those safe-harbor provisions. Forward-looking statements are based on current expectations and assumptions that are subject to risks and uncertainties which may cause actual results to differ materially from the forward-looking statements. Our ability to predict results or the actual effect of future plans or strategies is inherently uncertain.Â Factors which could have a material adverse effect on our operations and future prospects on a consolidated basis include, but are not limited to: changes in economic conditions, legislative/regulatory changes, availability of capital, interest rates, competition, and generally accepted accounting principles. These risks and uncertainties should also be considered in evaluating forward-looking statements and undue reliance should not be placed on such statements. We undertake no obligation to update or revise publicly any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise. Further information concerning our business, including additional factors that could materially affect our financial results, is included herein and in our other filings with the SEC.Â Presentation of InformationÂ As used in this prospectus, the terms â€œwe,â€ â€œusâ€ â€œourâ€ and the â€œCompanyâ€ mean Cosmos Health Inc. unless the context requires otherwise. The following discussion and analysis should be read in conjunction with our audited (and unaudited) financial statements and the related notes that appear elsewhere in this prospectus. All dollar amounts in this registration statement refer to U.S. dollars unless otherwise indicated.Â OverviewÂ SummaryÂ We are an international pharmaceutical company with a proprietary line of nutraceuticals and distributor of branded and generic pharmaceuticals, nutraceuticals, OTC medications and medical devices. The Company uses a differentiated operating model based on a lean, nimble and decentralized structure, with an emphasis on acquisitions of established companies and our ability to maintain better pharmaceutical assets than others. This operating model and the execution of our corporate strategy are designed to enable the Company to achieve sustainable growth and create added value for our shareholders. In particular, we look to enhance our pharmaceutical and over-the-counter product lines by acquiring or licensing rights to additional products and regularly evaluate selective company acquisition opportunities. The Company, through its subsidiaries, is operating within the pharmaceutical industry and in order to compete successfully in the healthcare industry, must demonstrate that its products offer medical benefits as well as cost advantages. Currently, most of the products that the Company is trading, compete with other products already on the market in the same therapeutic category, and are subject to potential competition from new products that competitors may introduce in the future.Â We continue to rapidly expand our distribution network worldwide and open new markets for our proprietary line of branded pharmaceuticals, nutraceuticals, and nutraceuticals through our distribution channels and e-commerce market place. We use our extensive network with direct access to Europeâ€™s primary sales channels for pharmaceuticals and nutraceuticals, which includes over 160 pharmaceutical wholesale distributors in Europeâ€™s largest markets, over 40,000 pharmacies in Europe and 1,500 pharmacies in Greece. We achieve stable supply of pharmaceuticals from Doc Pharma, a related party, which enhances our ability to scale our expansion. We receive full priority in the production of nutraceuticals and volumes. Our full production in Greece ensures a decisive production-cost advantage whilst we secure additional discounts by leveraging our purchasing scale.Â Â 27Table of ContentsÂ Our focus on investing in technology enhances yield cost savings and economies of scale the safety, distribution and warehousing efficiency and reliability, as a result of 0% error selection rate and acceleration order fulfillment.Â Revenue sourcesÂ The Company operates in the wholesale distribution of branded pharmaceutical products, OTC products, medical devices, vitamins and a variety of nutraceuticals, including its proprietary label.Â Branded Pharmaceuticals & GenericsÂ We are engaged in the production, promotion, distribution and sale of licensed branded generics and OTC products throughout Europe by our subsidiaries in Greece and UK. Our capital efficient business model is based on infrastructure, efficiency and scale. We believe that there is a significant growth on opportunities through product additions and geographic expansion.Â Healthcare DistributionÂ We conduct direct distribution and sales of pharmaceuticals, medical devices, branded generics and OTC products. Our automated and GDP licensed distribution facilities ensure all medications reach their destination daily on an efficient and secure way. Our network exceeds over 1,500 pharmacies in Greece. We have created an upgraded and high-end distribution center in Greece due to our Robotic systems and integrated automations (â€œROWAâ€ robotics).Â NutraceuticalÂ We have created and developed our own proprietary branded nutraceutical products, named â€œSky Premium LifeÂ®â€ which was launched in 2018 and â€œMediterranationÂ®â€ which was launched in 2022. Utilizing unique formulations, and specialized extraction processes which follow strict pharmaceutical standards, our proprietary lines of nutraceuticals aim for excellence. We have a full portfolio of fast-moving and specialty formulas with more than 80 product codes including vitamins, minerals and other herbal extracts. Our nutraceutical products are manufactured exclusively by Doc Pharma. Our nutraceutical products have penetrated several markets within 2022 and 2023 through digital channels such as Amazon and Tmall.Â We focus on nutraceutical products because we foresee it as a market with high growth opportunities due to its large market size and margin contribution as the demand for nutraceutical products is increasing globally.Â Regulations and LicensesÂ Our subsidiary, Decahedron, was granted the license for the wholesale of medicinal products for human use in February 2021 pursuant to the regulation of 18 of The Human Medicines Regulations 2012 (SI 2012/1916). It fulfills the guidelines of the Wholesale Distribution Authorization (Human). Our subsidiary, Cosmofarm S.A., was granted the license for the wholesale of pharmaceutical products for human use on February 2019 pursuant to the EU directive of (2013/C 343/01). It fulfils the Guidelines of the Good Distribution Practices of medical products for human use. Finally, our subsidiary, Cana SA, is a holder of Good Manufacturing Practices license (GMP), which means that it is certified for fulfilling the minimum standards that a medicines manufacturer must meet in the production processes. All licenses were granted based on inspections and are valid unless current inspections occur which will revise their status.Â RisksÂ Supply chain disruption is a growing concern for the European pharmaceutical industry as it increasingly looks to cut costs by relying on â€˜emerging marketsâ€™, where standards can be lower in terms of compliance, ethics and health and safety. Our business depends on the timely supply of materials, services and related products to meet the demands of our customers, which depends in part on the timely delivery of materials and services from suppliers and contract manufacturers. Significant or sudden increases in demand for our products, as well as worldwide demand for the raw materials and services we require to manufacture and sell our products, may result in a shortage of such materials or may cause shipment delays due to transportation interruptions or capacity constraints. Such shortages or delays could adversely impact our suppliersâ€™ ability to meet our demand requirements. Difficulties in obtaining sufficient and timely supply of materials or services can have an adverse impact on our manufacturing operations and our ability to meet customer demand.Â Â 28Table of ContentsÂ We may also experience significant interruptions of our manufacturing operations, delays in our ability to deliver products, increased costs or customer order cancellations as a result of:Â Â Â·the failure or inability to accurately forecast demand and obtain sufficient quantities of quality raw materials on a cost-effective basis;Â Â Â Â Â·volatility in the availability and cost of materials or services, including rising prices due to inflation;Â Â Â Â Â·difficulties or delays in obtaining required import or export approvals;Â Â Â Â Â·shipment delays due to transportation interruptions or capacity constraints, such as reduced availability of air or ground transport or port closures;Â Â Â Â Â·information technology or infrastructure failures, including those of a third-party supplier or service provider; andÂ Â Â Â Â·natural disasters or other events beyond our control (such as earthquakes, utility interruptions, tsunamis, hurricanes, typhoons, floods, storms or extreme weather conditions, fires, regional economic downturns, regional or global health epidemics, including the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic, geopolitical turmoil, increased trade restrictions between the U.S. and China and other countries, social unrest, political instability, terrorism, or acts of war) in locations where we or our customers or suppliers have manufacturing or other operations.Â Hikes in the price of medicine and their impact on the sustainability of the healthcare systems are garnering more and more attention. European regulators are willing to play their part in safeguarding continued access to safe and effective medicines. Regulators can speed up the approval of branded pharmaceuticals and biosimilars to boost competition and drive down prices.Â Cuts in healthcare spending have been frequently occurring since the financial crises of the late of 2000â€™s. Europeâ€™s slow recovery has been uneven, with austerity and economic uncertainty, especially in the EUâ€™s poorer member states, such as Greece.Â Distribution and Trade AgreementsÂ On July 1, 2021, the Companyâ€™s subsidiary SkyPharm SA, entered into an exclusive distribution agreement with a company based in Germany, the â€œDistributor Aâ€, whereas SkyPharm appointed Distributor A to be the responsible Partner for the distribution, promotion, trade marketing, logistics and sale of the nutraceuticals manufactured and supplied by SkyPharm (Sky Premium LifeÂ®), in the territories of Austria and Germany. Distributor A places purchase orders with SkyPharm at the companyâ€™s address and the purchase order is necessary to initiate any shipment.Â On July 7, 2021, SkyPharm SA signed a trade agreement with a company specializing in e-commerce mall advice and operation, henceforward referred as â€œDistributor Bâ€. Based on the agreement, SkyPharm will sell its own branded products Sky Premium Life Â® to final consumers through the e-commerce store opened by Distributor B on Tmall International MALL and Distributor B will provide platform operation services to SkyPharm. The services provided by Distributor B will include mall construction, mall operation and network promotion, along with collection, settlement, customer service, logistics and distribution.Â On November 25, 2021, SkyPharm SA signed a trade agreement with a wholesaler which operates in the storage, distribution, trading and promotion of pharmaceutical products) henceforward referred as â€œDistributor Câ€. Based on the agreement Distributor C is appointed as the exclusive representative for the promotion & distribution of our proprietary nutraceutical products Sky Premium LifeÂ®, in Greece.Â Â 29Table of ContentsÂ During July 2021, the Companyâ€™s subsidiary Decahedron Ltd, created a distribution page on Amazon UK, through which it sells, advertises and promotes our own proprietary branded nutraceutical product line â€œSky Premium LifeÂ®, directly to final consumers.Â On September 22, 2022, the Company entered into a distribution agreement with a third party in order to become the distributor of Monkeypox Virus Real-Time PCR Detection Kits. Cosmos will have exclusive distribution rights for Greece and Cyprus, with the opportunity to distribute the test kits across Europe on a non-exclusive basis.Â On June 27, 2024 the Company signed an exclusive distribution agreement (the "Agreement") with Pharmalink for its Sky Premium Life products in the UAE. As part of the Agreement, Pharmalink will be responsible for all key functions, including sales and marketing, regulatory affairs, logistics, supply, and distribution of Sky Premium Life products in the UAE. Cosmos Health has secured its first purchase order from Pharmalink for 130,000 units and anticipates receiving orders of more than 500,000 units in the first year and in excess of 3,000,000 units over the next five years.Â Acquisitions and Co-VenturesÂ ZipDoctorÂ On September 28, 2022, the Company entered into a non-binding letter of intent (â€œLOIâ€) agreement to wholly acquire ZipDoctor Inc., a company that possesses a direct-to-consumer subscription-based telemedicine platform, that expects to provide its customers affordable, unlimited, 24/7 access to board certified physicians and licensed mental and behavioral health counselors and therapists. The current parent company of the acquiree will continue to manage all its aspects of the day-to-day operations, including product development, marketing, and operational support.Â On March 17, 2023, the Company announced that it has entered into a definitive agreement to acquire ZipDoctor Inc. for a total sum of $150,000. The Sale and Purchase Agreement (â€œSPAâ€) was signed on March 17, 2023, and the transaction closed on April 3, 2023.Â CANAÂ Â On May 31, 2023, the Company entered into a Stock Purchase Agreement with the owners of one hundred (100%) percent of the equity (the â€œSharesâ€) of Cana Laboratories Holdings (Cyprus) Limited (â€œCanaâ€), which wholly owned an operating subsidiary, (â€œCana SAâ€).Â The purchase price for the shares for the two Sellers is â‚¬800,000 and 46,377 shares of Cosmos restricted common stock at an issuance price of $17.25 per share or $800,000. Moreover, on February 28,Â 2023, the Company signed a Secured Promissory Note with Cana, whereby Cana borrowed the sum of â‚¬4,100,000 ($4,457,520), included in the total cash consideration provided for the acquisition. The acquisition was successfully completed on June 30, 2023.Â Cana SA is a Greek pharmaceutical company that manufactures, sells, distributes, and markets original branded products researched and developed by leading global pharmaceutical and healthcare companies. Cana stands out as it brings significant synergies and vertical integration. With a long-standing history spanning almost a century, Cana has earned the trust of industry giants like AstraZeneca, Merck, Unilever, and Procter & Gamble. Cana's Good Manufacturing Practice (GMP) license enables us to manufacture pharmaceuticals, including medicines, within the EU, which creates attractive opportunities for high-margin contract manufacturing agreements with major multinational clients.Â BikasÂ On June 15, 2023, Cosmos Health Inc. entered into an Assignment and Assumption Agreement (the â€œAgreementâ€) with Ioannis Bikas O.E., a Greek Company (â€œBikasâ€). Bikas is owner of a pharmaceutical distribution network in Greece and agreed to sell the Company their distribution network and customer base. The purchase price of the network was â‚¬100,000 ($109,330) of cash, and â‚¬300,000 ($316,081) of the Companyâ€™s stock. The Company issued 99,710 shares of common stock related to the acquisition of the customer base, based on the fair value of the stock on the acquisition date. The Company accounted for the acquisition as an asset acquisition in accordance with ASC 805 and recorded $425,411 as an intangible asset related to the customer base acquired.Â Â 30Table of ContentsÂ This acquisition positively impacted on our revenue (an increase of more than $10 million annually) and enhanced the Company's gross margins (due to economies of scale). Additionally, synergies with Cosmofarm's state-of-the-art facility, which employs robotic technologies for procurement, inventory management, and order execution, provide an elevated level of service to pharmacies, leading to increased orders. We are pleased to announce that we have now successfully integrated Bikas within the Cosmofarm platform.Â Cloudscreen Â Â On January 23, 2024, the Company completed the acquisition of Cloudscreen, a cutting-edge Artificial Intelligence (AI) powered platform. The acquisition is pursuant to the purchase agreement announced on October 11, 2023. Cloudscreen is a multimodal platform specialized in drug repurposing, a process that involves uncovering new target proteins or indications for existing drugs for use in treating different diseases. The total purchase price amounted to $637,080 and consisted of 280,000 shares of common stock with a fair value of $319,200 and an amount of $317,880 to be settled in cash during 2024 based on the Promissory Note signed on October 10, 2023. The Company accounted for the acquisition as an asset acquisition in accordance with Accounting Standards Codification (â€œASCâ€) Topic 805, Business Combinations, (â€œASC 805â€) and recorded $637,080 as another asset related to the technology platform acquired. The total amount was reclassified to â€œGoodwill and intangible assets, netâ€ in January 2024 with the closing of the agreement.Â Â Results of OperationsÂ Three and Six Months Ended June 30, 2024 and 2023Â Revenue and net lossÂ The Company had revenue of $13,206,717 and $12,363,429 (an increase of 6.82%) for the three months ended June 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively and $27,791,190 and $24,713,206 (an increase of 12.45%) for the six months ended June 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively. Revenue increased overall, compared to the prior periods, and the increase in the three and six-month periods is mainly attributed to the wholesale revenue stream which was further increased with the enhancement of the overall customer base along with the contribution of CANAâ€™s acquisition. The Company had a net loss of $2,590,711 on revenue of $13,206,717 versus a net loss of $981,530 on revenue of $12,363,429 for the three months ended June 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively and net loss of $4,457,401 on revenue of $27,791,190 versus a net loss of $1,441,393 on revenue of $24,713,206 for the six months ended June 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively.Â The increase in net loss for the six-month period ended June 30, 2024 compared to the 2023 period of $3,016,008 was due to the extraordinary 2023 items such as the gain on debt extinguishment of $1,910,770 and the bargain purchase gain of $1,633,842. The decrease in net loss for the three-month period ended June 30, 2024 compared to the three-month period ended June 30, 2023 is mainly attributable to the bargain purchase gain of $1,633,842 recorded in 2023.Â Cost of Goods SoldÂ The Company had costs of goods sold of $12,349,469 versus $11,416,595 (an increase of 8.96%) for the three months ended June 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively and $25,690,316 versus $22,809,295 (an increase of 12.63%) for the six months ended June 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively. The increase in cost of goods sold is a consequence of the increased sales volume of the wholesale revenue stream compared to the nutraceuticals one,Â given thatÂ the wholesale stream has significantly lower gross profit margins and of the overall revenue increase.Â Our future revenue growth is expected to continue to be affected by various factors such as industry growth trends, including drug utilization, the introduction of new innovative brand therapies, the likely increase in the number of branded pharmaceutical products that will be available over the next few yearsâ€™ price increases and price deflation, general economic conditions, including the effects of the current conflict in the Ukraine, the coronavirus in the United Kingdom and the member states of European Union, competition within the industry, customer consolidation, changes in pharmaceutical manufacturer pricing and distribution policies and practices, increased downward pressure on government and other third party reimbursement rates to our customers, and changes in government rules and regulations.Â Â 31Table of ContentsÂ Gross ProfitÂ The Company had gross profit of $767,248 versus $946,834 (a decrease of 18.97%) for the three months ended June 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively and $2,100,874 versus $1,903,911 (an increase of 10.35%) for the six months ended June 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively. The decrease in gross profit for the three -month period is attributable to the significantly decreased sales of SkyPharmâ€™s nutritional supplements, and the decrease in CANAâ€™s pharma manufacturing stream along with a drop in Decahedronâ€™s sales. Since all of them are a high margin revenue streams, this contributed to the decreased gross profit for the period. The increase in the six-month period is in accordance with the increase in revenue and cost of goods sold.Â Operating ExpensesÂ The Company had general and administrative costs of $1,390,525 and $2,000,151, salaries and wage expenses of $1,454,862 and $1,077,672, sales and marketing expenses of $110,813 and $318,061 and depreciation and amortization expense of $313,074 and $127,415 for a loss from operations of $2,502,026 and $2,576,465 for the three months ended June 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively. The operating expenses remained relatively stable overall (a decrease of 7.21% for the three-month period ended June 30, 2024). General and administrative costs decreased by 30.48% due to the cash bonuses awarded to management in 2023. The salaries and wages increased by 35% which is mainly attributable to the addition of CANA and the relevant payroll costs, once all employees remained with the Company following its acquisition on June 30, 2023. The increase in depreciation and amortization expense for the three-month period ended June 30, 2024 of $185,659 (145.71%) is in accordance with the increase in PP&E (purchase of CANAâ€™s & Cosmofarmâ€™s facilities) and intangible assets (purchase of pharmaceutical and nutraceutical licenses).Â For the six months ended June 30, 2024 and 2023, the Company had general and administrative costs of $2,808,663 and $4,089,165 salaries and wage expenses of $2,713,041 and $2,027,123, sales and marketing expenses of $284,443 and $785,324 and depreciation and amortization expense of $632,861 and $229,936 for a loss from operations of $4,338,134 and $5,227,637, respectively. All variances for the six-month periods ended June 30, 2024 and 2023 in both absolute terms and in terms of percentages are similar to the ones of the three-month periods and are attributable to identical factors.Â Other Income (Expense)Â The Company had interest expense related to notes payable and lines of credit of $342,446 and $244,135 versus $511,118 and $378,508 for the three and six months ended June 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively. The increase in interest expense of 40.27% and 35.03% for the three and six months ended June 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively is attributable to the increased floating rates of the Companyâ€™s notes and lines of credits in 2024 (Euribor, Libor and Euro Short Term rate).Â Interest income amounted to $102,030 and $261,269 versus $207,795 and $444,685 for the three and months ended June 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively and the decrease is attributable to both the decreased outstanding balances of the Companyâ€™s Loans Receivable and Loans Receivable from related parties and the fact that the Company had interest income arising from treasury bills in the 2023 comparative periods.Â The other income, net recorded in the 6-month period ended June 30, 2024, of $162,519 mostly relates to write-offs of liabilities of our dormant subsidiary Cana Laboratories Holdings (Cyprus) Limited (â€œCanaâ€) arising from the past which had no substance and thus written off. The corresponding other income amounts in the three-month periods ended June 30, 2024 and 2023 of $29,305 and $34,477, respectively, primarily relate to prior period income/(expenses) of the Greek subsidiaries.Â Additionally, a gain on debt extinguishment relating to the write-off of a share settled debt obligation and the forgiveness of a notes payable balance for a total gain of $1,910,770 was recorded in the six months ended June 30, 2023. Finally, the Company has recorded a bargain purchase gain of $1,633,842 for the three and six months ended June 30, 2023. The bargain purchase gain recorded is related solely to the gain recognized upon acquisition of Cana. No equivalent extraordinary items were included in the three and six-month periods ended June 30, 2024.Â Â 32Table of ContentsÂ Foreign currency translation adjustment, netÂ The Company had a foreign currency translation adjustment gain of $176,591 and $775,867 versus gains of $83,188 and $419,651, attributable to the negative movement of the exchange rates during the three and six-months ended June 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively, and a net comprehensive loss of $2,767,302 and $5,233,268 versus a loss of $898,342 versus and $1,021,742 for the three and six months ended June 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively. The increase in comprehensive loss apart from the unrealized currency movements derives from the extraordinary items recorded in the three and six months ended June 30, 2023 and described in â€œOther Income (Expense)â€ section above (gain on debt extinguishment and bargain purchase gain.Â Year ended December 31, 2023 versus December 31, 2022Â For the year ended December 31, 2023, the Company had a net loss of $18,542,654 on revenue of $53,376,874, versus a net loss of $13,830,371 on revenue of $50,347,652, for the year ended December 31, 2022.Â RevenueÂ Revenue during the Companyâ€™s 12-month period ended December 31, 2023, increased by 6.02% as compared to revenues in the period ended December 31, 2022. The increase is attributable to the wholesale revenue increase of our subsidiary Cosmofarm SA, following the acquisition of Bikas customer base and a slight increase in demand for the period.Â Our future revenue growth will continue to be affected by various factors such as industry growth trends, including drug utilization, the introduction of new innovative brand therapies, the likely increase in the number of generic drugs that will be available over the next few years as a result of the expiration of certain drug patents held by brand-name pharmaceutical manufacturers and the rate of conversion from brand products to those generic drugs, price increases and price deflation, general economic conditions in the member states of European Union, competition within the industry, customer consolidation, changes in pharmaceutical manufacturer pricing and distribution policies and practices, increased downward pressure on government and other third party reimbursement rates to our customers, and changes in government rules and regulations.Â Cost of Goods SoldÂ For the year ended December 31, 2023, we had direct costs of goods sold of $49,027,305 versus $44,390,695 from the prior fiscal year ended December 31, 2022. Cost of goods sold year over year increased by 10.45% in 2023 as compared to 2022, in accordance with the increase in revenue and the fact that a larger proportion of our revenue arose from the wholesale stream which historically has lower margins.Â Gross ProfitÂ Gross profit for the year ended December 31, 2023 was $4,349,569 compared with the $5,956,957 for the year ended December 31, 2022. Gross profit decreased by $1,607,388 or 26.98% from the prior fiscal year. The decrease in the gross profit was primarily due to the slight decrease in sales of our own brand of nutraceuticals,Â SkyPremium Life,Â during the period, in order for the Company to achieve a decrease in the outstanding receivables and the boost in our wholesale stream as explained in â€œCost of Goods Soldâ€ section above.Â Operating ExpensesÂ For the year ended December 31, 2023, we had general and administrative costs of $19,642,005, salaries and wages expenses of $4,719,768, sales and marketing expenses of $1,204,636 and depreciation and amortization expense of $614,377, for a net operating loss of $21,831,217. For the year ended December 31, 2022, we had general and administrative costs of $10,183,025, salaries and wages of $2,429,021, sales and marketing expenses of $630,057 and depreciation and amortization expense of $188,890, for a net operating loss of $7,474,036.Â The material increase in operating costs can be attributed to a combination of factors such as the provisions for expected credit losses which amounted to $11,850,788 for the year ended December 31, 2023 compared to $5,621,938 for the year ended December 31, 2022, the significant increase in managementâ€™s salaries and bonuses and the considerable investment in sales and marketing expenses, especially for our own branded nutraceuticals, which increased by 91.19% compared to the year ended December 31, 2022.Â Â 33Table of ContentsÂ Interest Income & ExpensesÂ For the year ended December 31, 2023, we had interest expense of $866,476, versus the year ending December 31, 2022, where we had interest expense of $2,345,410. The decrease of 63.06% is attributable to the significant debt repayments occurred in 2022 following our successful capital raises, which subsequently decreased the corresponding finance costs. Interest income for the year ended December 31, 2023 was $662,859 compared to $236,349 for the year ended December 31, 2022, an increase of 180.46% arising from interest income on short term time deposits (treasury bills) we had during the period and interest earned on the related party loan receivable we signed with Doc Pharma SA on December 30, 2022.Â Gain on extinguishment of debtÂ We had gains on debt extinguished of $1,910,967 for the year ended December 31, 2023, which arose from a gain of $1,605,499 from the termination of the agreement with Marathon Global Inc. and the write-off of the share settled debt obligation we had as of December 31, 2022 and $305,468 arising from the debt forgiveness of the Synthesis Structured debt facility of our subsidiary SkyPharm SA.Â Bargain purchase gainÂ We had a bargain purchase gain of $1,440,249 arising from the acquisition of Cana on June 30, 2023, once the fair value of Canaâ€™s net assets on the date of acquisition were more than the fair value of the consideration transferred.Â Unrealized Foreign Currency Losses & Deemed DividendsÂ We had an unrealized foreign currency translation loss of $712,791 for the year ended December 31, 2023, deemed dividends on the issuance and down round of warrants, on warrants exchanges and on preferred stock of $7,241,180 such that our net comprehensive loss for the period was $25,071,043 versus unrealized foreign currency gain of $981,014, deemed dividends on the issuance and down round of warrants, on warrants exchanges and on preferred stock of $50,114,914 which concerned the anti-dilution adjustment of the Companyâ€™s outstanding warrants, such that our net comprehensive loss for the period was $64,926,299 for the year ended December 31, 2022. The deemed dividend for the year ended December 31, 2023 relates to the Warrant Exchange Agreement we entered into on December 29, 2023.Â Going ConcernÂ The Companyâ€™s consolidated financial statements are prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (â€œU.S. GAAPâ€), which contemplates the continuation of the Company as a going concern.Â For the six months ended June 30, 2024, the Company had revenue of $27,791,190, net loss of $4,457,401Â and net cash used in operations of $4,622,989. Additionally, as of June 30, 2024, the Company had positive working capital of $8,593,711, an accumulated deficit of $96,101,634, and stockholdersâ€™ equity of $32,119,574.Â For the year ended period December 31, 2023, the Company had revenue of $53,376,874, net loss of $18,542,654 and net cash used in operations of $15,635,999. Additionally, as of December 31, 2023, the Company had positive working capital of $12,285,310, an accumulated deficit of $91,644,234, and stockholdersâ€™ equity of $36,043,028.Â It is managementâ€™s opinion that these conditions raise substantial doubt about the Companyâ€™s ability to continue as a going concern for a period of 12 months from the date of this filing.Â Â 34Table of ContentsÂ The Companyâ€™s revenues are not able to sustain its operations, and concerns exist regarding the Companyâ€™s ability to meet its obligations as they become due. The Company is subject to a number of risks to those of smaller commercial companies, including dependence on key individuals and products, the difficulties inherent in the development of a commercial market, the need to obtain additional capital, competition from larger companies, and other pharmaceutical and health care companies.Â Management evaluated the above conditions which raise substantial doubt about the Companyâ€™s ability to continue as a going concern to determine if it can meet its obligations for the subsequent 12 months from the date of this filing. Management considered its ability to access future capital, curtail expenses if needed, expand product lines, and acquire new products.Â Managementâ€™s plans include expansion of brand name products to the market, expanding the current product portfolio, and evaluating acquisition targets to expand distribution. Furthermore, the Company intends to vertically integrate the supply chain distribution network. During the period up to the issuance of this report the Company has signed multiple distribution agreements for its SPL products in Europe and Asia and a variety of contract manufacturing agreements though its subsidiary, CANA. Finally, the Company plans to access the capital markets further in order to raise additional funds through equity offerings. More specifically, management will consider postponing the repayment of its outstanding Trade Facility ($1,606,650 balance as of June 30, 2024), intends to make substantial efforts to receive additional debt financing through its subsidiary, Cosmofarm SA, and plans to raise additional equity funds through utilizing its outstanding warrants. Up to the issuance of its consolidated financial statements for the six months ended June 30, 2024, the Company had sold 901,488 shares of common stock for net proceeds of $629,426. Moreover, the Companyâ€™s management is considering postponing certain repayments of suppliers and creditors. However, management cannot provide any assurances that the Company will be successful in accomplishing any of its plans. The ability of the Company to continue as a going concern is dependent upon its ability to successfully accomplish the plans described herein and eventually secure other sources of financing and attain profitable operations.Â Considering the above, management is of the view that substantial doubt exists for the Companyâ€™s ability to continue as a going concern. The consolidated financial statements do not include any adjustments to reflect the possible future effect on the recoverability and classification of assets or the amounts and classifications of liabilities that may result from the outcome of this uncertainty.Â Liquidity and Capital ResourcesÂ As of June 30, 2024, the Company had working capital of $8,593,711 compared to $12,285,310 as of December 31, 2023.Â As of December 31, 2023, the Company had working capital of $12,285,310 versus a working capital of $34,618,059 as of December 31, 2022. This decrease in the working capital surplus is primarily attributed to the Companyâ€™s cash used for its operating activities during the year ending as of December 31, 2023 in addition to the significant expected credit loss allowances recorded for the 12-month period ended December 31, 2023.Â The Company had cash and cash equivalents of $343,509 versus $3,833,195 as of June 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, respectively. The Company had net cash used in operating activities of $4,622,989 and $12,064,068 for the six months ended June 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively. The Company has devoted substantially all of its cash resources to expand through organic business growth and has incurred significant general and administrative expenses in order to enable the financing and growth of its business and operations. The increase is attributable to the significant outflows to suppliers due to change in payment terms in addition to the material prepayments for the purchase and production of nutraceutical products.Â As of December 31, 2023, the Company had net cash of $3,833,195 versus $20,749,683 as of December 31, 2022. For the year ended December 31, 2023, net cash used in operating activities was $15,635,999 versus $14,870,639 net cash used in operating activities for the year ended December 31, 2022. The Company has devoted substantially all of its cash resources to apply its investment program to expand through organic business growth and, where appropriate, the execution on selective company and license acquisitions, and incurred significant general and administrative expenses to enable it to finance and grow its business and operations.Â Â 35Table of ContentsÂ The Company had cash and cash equivalents of $343,509 versus $3,833,195 as of June 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, respectively. The Company had net cash used in operating activities of $4,622,989 and $12,064,068 for the six months ended June 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively. The Company has devoted substantially all of its cash resources to expand through organic business growth and has incurred significant general and administrative expenses in order to enable the financing and growth of its business and operations. The increase is attributable to the significant outflows to suppliers due to change in payment terms in addition to the material prepayments for the purchase and production of nutraceutical products.Â During the year ended December 31, 2023, there was $13,760,357 net cash used in investing activities versus $21,497 used in during the year ended December 31, 2022. In the year ended December 31, 2023 this was due to the net effect of purchase of fixed assets such as the purchase of the facilities of our subsidiary Cosmofarm SA, the purchase of nutraceutical and pharmaceutical licenses, proceeds from loan receivables, advances made for the acquisition of a building in Canada and the cash paid for the acquisition of our new subsidiary Cana, on June 30, 2023.Â The Company had net cash provided by financing activities of $746,610 versus $2,058,614 during the six months ended June 30, 2024, and 2023, respectively. For the six months ended June 30, 2024, the Company received proceeds from lines of credit of $13,034,203 and payments of lines of credit of $12,342,152, for a net increase on the lines of credit of $692,051. The significant higher inflows arising from financing activities in 2023 was mainly attributable to the receipt of the $4,750,107 subscription receivable, due from Decemberâ€™s 2022 offering. However, the Company repaid $1,372,976 of the outstanding notes payable during the six-month period ended June 30, 2023, versus $549,946 of debt repayments within the six-month period ended June 30, 2024. During the six-month period ended June 30, 2024, the Company raised additional equity funds through a Baby Shelf supplement to its Registration Statement on Form S-3 (No. 333-267550) filed with the SEC on February 29, and March 7, 2024. More specifically, the Company sold 901,488 shares of common stock for gross proceeds of $649,039.Â During the year ended December 31, 2023, there was $12,694,007 of net cash and cash equivalents provided by financing activities versus $35,048,288 provided by financing activities during the year ended December 31, 2022. The significant decrease is attributable to a preferred-stock offering that took place within February 2022 and the two common stock offerings that occurred within October and December 2022 for total net proceeds of approximately $40 million for the 12-month period ended December 31, 2022 whereas for the 12-month period ended December 31, 2023 we had $9,362,937 proceeds from the July 2023 offering and the receipt of the outstanding subscription receivable from Decemberâ€™s 2022 offering and $3,533,741 net proceeds from the exercise of warrants during December 2023. The Company also repaid approximately $1.7 million of debt and received $1,057,540 from the new loan facility of our subsidiary, Cosmofarm SA.Â We anticipate using cash in our bank account as of June 30, 2024, cash generated from debt or equity financing, from investing activities or from management loans to the extent that funds are available to do so to conduct our business in the upcoming year. Management is not obligated to provide these or any other funds. If we fail to meet these requirements, we may lose the qualification for quotation and our securities would no longer trade on Nasdaq Capital Market. Further, as a consequence we would fail to satisfy our reporting obligations with the Securities and Exchange Commission (â€œSECâ€), and investors would then own stock in a company that does not provide the disclosure available in quarterly and annual reports filed with the SEC and investors may have increased difficulty in selling their stock as we will be non-reporting.Â Debt ObligationsÂ May 18, 2020, July 3, 2020, and August 4, 2020 Senior Promissory NotesÂ Modification of May 18, 2020, July 3, 2020, and August 4, 2020 Senior Promissory NotesÂ On February 23, 2022, the Company entered into modification agreements to extend the due dates of the May 18 Note, July 3 Note, and August 4 Note to June 30, 2023, totaling $9,000,000, in the aggregate. The Company paid restructuring fees totaling $506,087 upon modification. The Company determined the modification should be recorded as debt extinguishment in accordance with ASC 470 because the present value of the remaining cash flows under the terms of the new debt instrument is at least 10% different from the present value of the remaining cash flows under the terms of the original instrument. The Company recorded the new debt at fair value in the amount of $7,706,369 and a gain upon extinguishment in the amount of $787,544. During the year ended December 31, 2022, the Company repaid the aggregate principal balance of $7,000,000 and the aggregate accrued interest related to these notes in full.Â Â Â Â 36Table of ContentsÂ June 23, 2020 Debt AgreementÂ On June 23, 2020, the Companyâ€™s subsidiary, Cosmofarm, entered into an agreement with the National Bank of Greece S.A. (the â€œBankâ€) to borrow a maximum of â¬500,000 ($611,500).Â The note has a maturity date of 60 months from the date of the first disbursement, which includes a grace period of nine months. The total amount of the initial proceeds was received in three equal monthly installments. The note is interest bearing from the date of receipt and is payable every three months at an interest rate of 3.06% plus 3-month Euribor (3.96% as of December 31, 2023). The outstanding balance was â¬205,882 ($227,747) and â¬323,529 ($346,112) as of December 31, 2023 and 2022, respectively, of which $97,606 and $220,253 was classified asÂ â€œNotes payable â€“ long-term portionâ€Â respectively,Â on theÂ accompanying consolidated balance sheets. During the year ended December 31, 2023, the Company repaid â¬117,647 ($130,141) of the principal balance.Â June 24, 2020 Debt AgreementÂ On June 24, 2020, the Companyâ€™s subsidiary, Decahedron, received a loan Â£50,000 ($68,310) from theÂ UK government. The loan has a ten-year maturity and bears interest at a rate of 2.5% per annum beginning 12-months after the initial disbursement, which was on July 10, 2020. The Company may prepay this loan without penalty at any time. As of December 31, 2022, the principal balance was Â£47,144 ($56,936). As of December 31, 2023, the Company had accrued $161,274 in interest expense related to these agreements.Â On December 22, 2022, SkyPharm signed an agreement for the extension of the payments and an increase in interest rate due under the EURO loan, that was extended to be repaid with a balloon payment now due on October 31, 2025. This extension was agreed upon in writing on December 22, 2022, with a retroactive modification date to October 31, 2022 (the original maturity date).Â Â COVID-19 Government LoansÂ On May 12, 2020, the Companyâ€™s subsidiary, SkyPharm, was granted and, on May 22, 2020, received a â‚¬300,000 ($366,900) loan from the Greek government. The loan will be repaid in 40 equal monthly installments beginning on July 29, 2022. As a condition to the loan, the Company was required to retain the same number of employees until October 31, 2020. As of December 31, 2022, the principal balance was $150,441. During the year ended December 31, 2023, the Company repaid â‚¬18,750 ($20,741) of the principal balance.Â The outstanding balance is â‚¬121,875 ($134,818) as of December 31, 2023.Â Related Party IndebtednessÂ Grigorios SiokasÂ From time to time, Grigorios Siokas loans the Company funds in the form of non-interest bearing, no-term loans.Â During the 12-month period ended December 31, 2022, the Company had an outstanding principal balance under these loans of $12,821 in loans payable to Grigorios Siokas. As of December 31, 2023, the Company had an outstanding principal balance of $0 related to this payable.Â December 20, 2018 NoteÂ On December 20, 2018, the â‚¬1,500,000 ($1,718,400) note payable, originally borrowed by SkyPharm pursuant to a Loan Agreement with a third-party lender, dated March 16, 2018, was transferred to Grigorios Siokas. The note bears an interest rate of 4.7% per annum and had a maturity date of March 18, 2019 pursuant to the original agreement which was extended to December 31, 2021, and again to December 31, 2023. During the year ended December 31, 2022, the Note was paid in full and as of December 31, 2023 the Company had no outstanding balance. As of December 31, 2023 and 2022, the Company had accrued interest of â‚¬0 ($0) and â‚¬192,891 ($206,355), respectively, outstanding related to this loan, classified underÂ â€œAccrued interestâ€Â in the Companyâ€™s consolidated balance sheets.Â Grigorios Siokas is the Companyâ€™s CEO and a principal shareholder and is hence considered a related party to the Company.Â Â 39Table of ContentsÂ Dimitrios GoulielmosÂ On November 21, 2014, the Company entered into an agreement with Dimitrios Goulielmos, as amended on November 4, 2016. Pursuant to the amendment, this loan has no maturity date and is non-interest bearing. As of December 31, 2023 and 2022, the Company had a principal balance of â‚¬10,200 ($11,283) and â‚¬10,200 ($10,912), respectively.Â The above balances are adjusted for the foreign currency rate as of the balance sheet date. For the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022, the Company recorded a foreign currency translation loss of $371 and $19,568, respectively.Â Â Plan of Operations in the Next 12 MonthsÂ Specifically, our plan of operations for the next twelve months is as follows.Â Â We assess the foreseeable development of the Company as being positive. Over the medium term we expect to further expand our market share. However, during the course of further organizational optimization there may be associated extraordinary additional costs.Â Our plan for our own branded nutraceuticals is to enlarge our portfolio up to 150 SKUs by the end of 2023, including more basic line formulas to cover more customer needs of any age, advanced formulations, formulas based on herbs and further clinical studies with R&D for further products. Our plan for geographic expansion in distributing and market penetration in the EU, Asia, USA and Canada is based on exclusive distributors, wholesalers, e-commerce, and development of franchising model, alliances and acquisitions of nutraceutical companies.Â In addition, our plan for branded pharmaceuticals is geographic expansion across the world, especially in the EU and UK, as well as in other countries with fast registration and developed markets with liberalized OTC policies for online pharmacies and supermarkets. We also intend to enhance our exclusive distribution rights with a growing basis of cooperating partners whilst purchasing generic, biosimilar drugs and OTC licenses. We also intend to enhance our product expectance by registered copyrights and trademarks in all OTC drugs. In addition, we remain committed to strategic research and development across each business unit with a particular focus on assets with inherently lower risk profiles and clearly defined governmental regulatory pathways.Â Our plan for our full line wholesale is to expand in the Greek territory, enlarge our customer portfolio and integrate of established sales network of pharmacies through the use of B2B and B2C e-commerce platforms and exclusive distributors. We are also aiming in increasing the exports of branded pharmaceuticals as we focus on higher profit margins categories (OTC and VMS), deliver 3PL (third-party logistics) services to pharma companies, put in force loyalty programs, provide added value services to pharmacies and emergency deliveries to VIP customers. The Company will evaluate and, where appropriate, execute on opportunities to expand its network of pharmacies and products in areas that it believes will offer above average growth characteristics and attractive margins.Â The Company is growing its business through organic growth, market penetration, geographic expansion and acquisitions which would add value to its business and its shareholders. The Company is also committed to pursuing various forms of business development; this can include trading, alliances, joint ventures and dispositions. Moreover, it hopes to continue to build on its portfolio of pharmaceutical products and expand its OTC and nutraceutical product portfolio. Thus, the Company is developing a sound sales distribution network specializing in its own branded nutraceutical products.Â The Companyâ€™s main objective is expanding the business operations of its subsidiaries by concentrating its efforts on becoming an international pharmaceutical Company. The Company views its business development activity as an enabler of its strategies, and it seeks to generate earnings growth and enhance shareholder value by pursuing a disciplined, strategic, and financial approach to evaluating business development opportunities. Under these principles the Company assesses businesses and assets as part of its regular, ongoing portfolio review process and continues to consider trading development activities for its businesses. The Companyâ€™s objective is the optimization of operating expenses across all entities without compromising the quality of the Companyâ€™s services and products.Â Â 40Table of ContentsÂ Changes in the behavior and spending patterns of purchasers of pharmaceutical and healthcare products and services, including delaying medical procedures, rationing prescription medications, reducing the frequency of doctor visits, and foregoing healthcare insurance coverage, may impact the Companyâ€™s business.Â The pharmaceutical sector offers a large growth potential within the European pharmaceutical market if service, price and quality are strictly directed towards the customer requirements. The Company will continue to encounter competition in the market by product, service, reliability, and a high level of quality. On the procurement side, the Company can access a wide range of supply possibilities. To minimize business risks, the Company diversifies its sources of supply all over Europe. It secures its high-quality demands through careful supplier qualification and selection, as well as active suppliersâ€™ system management.Â Strategic PlanÂ Our strategic plan, which strikes a balance between growth and sustainability, emphasizes synergies, vertical integration, operational efficiencies, R&D, brand expansion, and the global growth of our distribution network and facilities.Â We intend to continue to pursue active ongoing acquisitions. In fact, many of our acquisitions entail exploring opportunities, with discounted assets through business combinations or joint ventures, all to enhance our distribution network. We will expand our R&D division which is a platform and incubator to develop new patented pharmaceuticals and proprietary innovative nutraceutical products. To foster organic growth, we will enhance our business development and marketing efforts, pursue global expansion via prominent retailers, pharmacies and e-commerce platforms, and recapture lost markets such as the infant and baby care categories. In addition, we will invest in the expansion of our production capacity and global network of facilities to boost sales of our brands, engage in contract manufacturing with large multinational pharmaceutical companies, produce pharma grade ethanol for hospitals, and expand into new large markets capitalizing on our comparative advantages. Last but not least, we aim to strategically invest in key personnel, from seasoned export managers to highly skilled scientists, to ensure we have the necessary expertise at our fingertips.Â Organic GrowthÂ Proprietary Portfolio of Branded Products:Â A bright spot so far in 2024 is the strong demand for our branded nutraceuticals, as we aspire to transform them into global brands. Our products have received very positive feedback at leading events like Arab Health in Dubai, Infarma in Barcelona, Vitafoods in Geneva, and Pharmacy Show in Birmingham.Â Sky Premium LifeÂ®:Â We are selling Sky Premium Life products in an increasing number of countries through pharmacies, retail chains, and online platforms. Among our prominent retailers is Holland & Barrett. With over 1,600 stores in 18 countries across the world, it is not only Europe's largest health and wellbeing retailer but also one of the world's largest, generating about $1 billion in annual revenue. Additionally, our products are available online through platforms like eBay and Amazon in the UK, Canada, the US, Germany, France, Spain, and Singapore. We are investing in our infrastructure, expanding our production capacity to accommodate increasing volumes, accelerating our efforts to broaden our distribution network, and planning to penetrate new major markets. This is boosted by strategic collaborations like the one announced with C.A. PAPAELLINAS Group, a market leader with an extensive distribution network throughout Cyprus. PAPAELLINAS will represent and distribute Sky Premium Life, not only in Holland & Barrett stores but also in pharmacies throughout Cyprus.Â MediterranationÂ®:Â Building upon the success of Sky Premium Life, we also launched Mediterranation, our premium food supplements brand. Inspired by the Mediterranean way of life, renowned for its healthy food, sunny climate, and longevity, Mediterranation utilizes organic herbs and plant extracts, such as dittany of Crete, oregano, mastic, and kritamos from the Mediterranean region. All of our products are manufactured under strict pharmaceutical standards and adhere to GMP protocols.Â Â 41Table of ContentsÂ Bio-BebeÂ® and C-SeptÂ®/C-Scrub:Â Among Cana's many valuable assets, Cosmos Health also obtained a proprietary portfolio of pharmaceutical, dermocosmetic, antiseptic, and food supplement branded products. These include, among others: Bio-Bebe, an organic infant care and nutrition brand, which we are in the process of relaunching. This presents us with a great opportunity to enter the lucrative global baby food market that, according to Fortune Business Insights, is worth $102.90 billion per year. C-Sept, an antiseptic brand, which we are expanding with the launch of the new C-Scrub Wash 4% CHG Biocide. We are well positioned to capitalize on the global antiseptic and disinfectant market that, according to Grand View Research, is worth $29 billion per year.Â Â While the Company intends to pursue these milestones, there may be circumstances where for valid business reasons or due to factors beyond the control of the Company, a reallocation of efforts may be necessary or advisable.Â The Company intends to spend the funds available to strengthen working capital, inventories, intangible assets, acquisitions, research and development, sales and marketing expenses. Due to the uncertain nature of the industry in which the Company operates, projects may be frequently reviewed and reassessed. Accordingly, while it is currently intended by management that the available funds will be expended as set forth above, actual expenditures may in fact differ from these amounts and allocations.Â Significant EquipmentÂ We do not intend to purchase any significant equipment for the next 12 months aside from a few pieces of IT equipment. Nevertheless, we will replace essential equipment for operations if it is required within the year.Â EmployeesÂ In order to achieve our strategic objectives, we have, and will remain, focused on hiring and retaining a highly skilled management team that has extensive experience and specific skill sets relating to the sales, selection, development and commercialization of pharmaceutical products. We intend to continue our efforts to build and expand this team as we grow our business. We have plans to increase the number of our employees by adding more sales people during the next 12 months.Â Off Balance Sheet ArrangementsÂ As of June 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, there were no off-balance sheet arrangements.Â Critical Accounting Policies and EstimatesÂ In December 2001, the SEC requested that all registrants list their most â€œcritical accounting policesâ€ in the Managementâ€™s Discussion and Analysis. The SEC indicated that a â€œcritical accounting policyâ€ is one which is both important to the portrayal of a companyâ€™s financial condition and results, and requires managementâ€™s most difficult, subjective or complex judgments, often as a result of the need to make estimates about the effect of matters that are inherently uncertain.Â Foreign Currency.Â Assets and liabilities of all foreign operations are translated at year-end rates of exchange, and the statements of operations are translated at the average rates of exchange for the year. Gains or losses resulting from translating foreign currency financial statements are accumulated in a separate component of stockholdersâ€™ equity until the entity is sold or substantially liquidated. Gains or losses from foreign currency transactions (transactions denominated in a currency other than the entityâ€™s local currency) are included in net (loss) earnings.Â Income Taxes.Â The Company accounts for income taxes under the asset and liability method, as required by the accounting standard for income taxes, ASC 740 â€œAccounting for Income Taxes.â€ Under this method, deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the future tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax basis, as well as net operating loss carryforwards. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. The effect on deferred tax assets and liabilities of a change in tax rates is recognized in income in the period that includes the enactment date.Â The Company is liable for income taxes in Greece and the United Kingdom. The corporate income tax rate is 22% in Greece (tax losses are carried forward for five years effective January 1, 2013) and 25% in the United Kingdom. Losses may also be subject to limitation under certain rules regarding change of ownership.Â Â Â 42Table of ContentsÂ We regularly review deferred tax assets to assess their potential realization and establish a valuation allowance for portions of such assets to reduce the carrying value if we do not consider it to be more likely than not that the deferred tax assets will be realized. Our review includes evaluating both positive (e.g., sources of taxable income) and negative (e.g., recent historical losses) evidence that could impact the realizability of our deferred tax assets.Â Â We recognize the impact of an uncertain tax position in our financial statements if, in managementâ€™s judgment, the position isÂ notÂ more-likely-then-not sustainable upon audit based on the positionâ€™s technical merits. This involves the identification of potential uncertain tax positions, the evaluation of applicable tax laws and an assessment of whether a liability for an uncertain tax position is necessary. We operate and are subject to audit in multiple taxing jurisdictions.Â We record interest and penalties related to income taxes as a component of interest and other expense, respectively.Â Potential benefits of income tax losses are not recognized in the accounts until realization is more likely than not. The Company has adopted ASC 740 â€œAccounting for Income Taxesâ€ as of its inception. Pursuant to ASC 740, the Company is required to compute tax asset benefits for net operating losses carried forward. The potential benefits ofÂ the U.S. net operating losses have not been recognized in this financial statement because the Company cannot be assured it is more likely than not it will utilize the net operating losses carried forward in future years.Â The Company has net operating loss carry-forwards in our parent, Cosmos Health Inc., which are applicable to future taxable income in the United States (if any). Additionally, the Company has income tax liabilities in the United Kingdom. The income tax assets and liabilities are not able to be netted. We therefore reserve the income tax assets applicable to the United States, but recognize the income tax liabilities in Greece and the United Kingdom. Losses may also be subject to limitation under certain rules regarding change of ownership.Â Accounts Receivable and Allowance for Credit LossesÂ The Company follows ASC Topic 326, Financial Instruments â€“ Credit Losses (â€œASC 326â€) to estimate the allowance for credit losses. The Company is required to estimate credit losses on accounts receivable balances held at amortized cost. ASC 326 introduces a new methodology for measuring credit losses, replacing the previous incurred loss model with an expected credit loss model. The Company measures credit losses on accounts receivable using an expected credit loss model, which considers historical experience, current conditions, and reasonable and supportable forecasts. Credit losses are measured as the difference between the present value of contractual cash flows expected to be collected and the present value of expected cash flows discounted at the financial instrumentâ€™s original effective interest rate. The Company reviews individually each trade receivable for collectability and performs on-going credit evaluations of its customers and adjusts credit limits based upon payment history and the customerâ€™s current credit worthiness, as determined by the review of their current credit information; and determines the allowance for credit losses based on historical write-off experience, customer specific facts and general economic conditions that may affect a clientâ€™s ability to pay. Bad debt expense is included in general and administrative expenses, if any.Â InventoryÂ Our merchandise inventories are made up of finished goods, manufacturing products, raw materials and other products and are valued at the lower of cost or market using the weighted-average cost method. However, the net realizable value (â€œNRVâ€) will always be higher than our inventoryâ€™s cost, once most of our inventory is fast moving and the vast majority of our products is pharmaceuticals, which have standard selling prices that could not result to the NRV being higher than the average cost. Moreover, our efficient inventory management which has led to minimum obsolete and slow-moving inventory also indicates that the NRV is higher than its average cost. Thus, an NRV assessment would have no material, if any, to our inventoryâ€™s cost. Average cost includes the direct purchase price, net of vendor allowances and cash discounts, of merchandise inventory. We record valuation reserves on an annual basis for merchandise damage and defective returns, merchandise items with slow-moving or obsolescence exposure and merchandise that has a carrying value that exceeds market value. These reserves are estimates of a reduction in value to reflect inventory valuation at the lower of cost or market. The reserve for merchandise returns is based upon the determination of the historical net realizable value of products sold from our returned goods inventory or returned to vendors for credit. Our reserve for merchandise returns includes amounts for returned product on-hand as well as for new merchandise on-hand that we estimate will ultimately become returned goods inventory after being sold based on historical return rates.Â Â 43Table of ContentsÂ Below is an analysis per category of our inventories as of June 30, 2024, December 31, 2023Â and 2022:Â Product CategoriesÂ June 30,2024Â Â December 31,Â 2023Â Â December 31,2022Â PharmaceuticalsÂ Â 3,196,681Â Â Â 3,417,039Â Â Â 2,763,350Â ParapharmaceuticalsÂ Â 892,356Â Â Â 1,030,878Â Â Â 662,598Â Manufacturing productsÂ Â 139,713Â Â Â 160,436Â Â Â -Â Raw materialsÂ Â 299,209Â Â Â 275,919Â Â Â -Â Dairy productsÂ Â 21,756Â Â Â 21,017Â Â Â 24,630Â Veterinary medicineÂ Â 7,522Â Â Â 13,872Â Â Â 5,638Â OtherÂ Â 110,482Â Â Â 225,098Â Â Â 101,709Â Less provisionsÂ Â (343,935)Â Â (355,205)Â Â (106,057)TotalÂ Â 4,323,784Â Â Â 4,789,054Â Â Â 3,451,868Â Â Recently Issued Accounting PronouncementsÂ In December 2023, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (â€œFASBâ€) issued Accounting Standards Update (â€œASUâ€)Â 2023-09,Â Income Taxes (Topic 740): Improvements to Income Tax Disclosures. This guidance is intended to enhance the transparency and decision-usefulness of income tax disclosures. The amendments in ASUÂ 2023-09Â address investor requests for enhanced income tax information primarily through changes to disclosure regarding rate reconciliation and income taxes paid both in the U.S. and in foreign jurisdictions. ASUÂ 2023-09Â is effective for fiscal years beginning after DecemberÂ 15, 2024 on a prospective basis, with the option to apply the standard retrospectively. Early adoption is permitted. The Company is currently evaluating this guidance to determine the impact it may have on its consolidated financial statements disclosures.Â In November 2023, the FASB issued ASUÂ 2023-07, Segment Reporting: Improvements to Reportable Segment Disclosures. This guidance expands public entitiesâ€™ segment disclosures primarily by requiring disclosure of significant segment expenses that are regularly provided to the chief operating decision maker and included within each reported measure of segment profit or loss, an amount and description of its composition for other segment items, and interim disclosures of a reportable segmentâ€™s profit or loss and assets. The guidance is effective for fiscal years beginning after DecemberÂ 15, 2023, and interim periods within fiscal years beginning after DecemberÂ 15, 2024, with early adoption permitted. The amendments are required to be applied retrospectively to all prior periods presented in an entityâ€™s financial statements. The Company is currently evaluating this guidance to determine the impact it may have on its consolidated financial statements related disclosures.Â Â In December 2022, the FASB issued ASU No. 2022-06, Deferral of the Sunset Date of Reference Rate Reform (Topic 848). Topic 848 provides optional expedients and exceptions for applying GAAP to transactions affected by reference rate (e.g., LIBOR) reform if certain criteria are met, for a limited period of time to ease the potential burden in accounting for (or recognizing the effects of) reference rate reform on financial reporting. The ASU deferred the sunset date of Topic 848 from December 31, 2022 to December 31, 2024. The ASU is effective as of December 21, 2022 through December 31, 2024. We continue to evaluate transactions or contract modifications occurring as a result of reference rate reform and determine whether to apply the optional guidance on an ongoing basis. We adopted ASU 2022-06 during 2022. The ASU has not and is currently not expected to have a material impact on the Companies consolidated financial statements.Â Â 44Table of ContentsÂ In March 2022, the FASB issued ASU 2022-02, Troubled Debt Restructurings and Vintage Disclosures. This ASU eliminates the accounting guidance for troubled debt restructurings by creditors that have adopted ASU 2016-13, Measurement of Credit Losses on Financial Instruments, which was adopted on January 1, 2020. The adoption of ASU 2016-13 did not have a material impact on the Companyâ€™s consolidated financial statements. ASU 2022-02 also enhances the disclosure requirements for certain loan refinancing and restructurings by creditors when a borrower is experiencing financial difficulty. In addition, the ASU amends the guidance on vintage disclosures to require entities to disclose current period gross write-offs by year of origination for financing receivables and net investments in leases within the scope of ASC 326-20. The ASU is effective for annual periods beginning after December 15, 2022, including interim periods within those fiscal years. Adoption of the ASU would be applied prospectively. Early adoption is also permitted, including adoption in an interim period. This ASU was adopted on January 1, 2023, which resulted in no cumulative-effect adjustment to retained earnings.Â October 2021, the FASB issued ASU 2021-08, Business Combinations (Topic 805): Accounting for Contract Assets and Contract Liabilities from Contracts with Customers, which requires contract assets and contract liabilities (i.e., deferred revenue) acquired in a business combination to be recognized and measured by the acquirer on the acquisition date in accordance with ASC 606, Revenue from Contracts with Customers, as if it had originated the contracts. The new guidance creates an exception to the general recognition and measurement principles of ASC 805, Business Combinations. The new guidance should be applied prospectively and is effective for all public business entities for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2022, and include interim periods. The Company adopted this ASU which resulted in no impact on the Companyâ€™s consolidated financial statements.Â Management does not believe that any recently issued, but not effective, accounting standards, if currently adopted, would have a material effect on the Companyâ€™s consolidated financial statements.Â Â BUSINESSÂ OverviewÂ Business EnvironmentÂ The Company conducts its business within the pharmaceutical and the healthcare industry and is active in branded pharmaceuticals, generics and nutraceutical product markets. The pharmaceutical industry is highly competitive and is subject to comprehensive government regulations. Many factors may significantly affect the Companyâ€™s sales of its products, including, but not limited to, efficacy, safety, price and cost-effectiveness, marketing effectiveness, product labeling, quality control and quality assurance. Currently, most of the products that the Company is trading, compete with other products already on the market in the same therapeutic category, and are subject to potential competition from new products that competitors may introduce in the future.Â Generic medicines are the pharmaceutical and therapeutic equivalents of branded pharmaceutical products and are generally marketed under their generic (chemical) names rather than by brand names. Typically, a generic drug may not be marketed until the expiration of applicable patent(s) on the corresponding branded product, unless a resolution of patent litigation results in an earlier opportunity to enter the market. Generic drugs are the same as branded products in dosage form, safety, efficacy, route of administration, quality, performance characteristics and intended use, but they are sold generally at prices below those of the corresponding branded products. Generic drugs provide a cost-effective alternative for consumers, while maintaining the same high quality, efficacy, safety profile, purity and stability of the branded product.Â The Company also conducts its business within the global nutraceuticals market with our own brand which we consider to be highly qualitative and competitive. Nutraceuticals are defined as products that contain at least one dietary ingredient within them and can be consumed orally. Some of the purposes of nutraceuticals are used for immune system defense, energy, stress, bones and joints. The global nutraceutical market has shown rise for demand and growth within the last several years. The global market is driven by the rising popularity of sports-based performance enhancement supplements and the focus on preventive healthcare measures. The COVID-19 pandemic has also driven the global market to a high demand for immunity boosting nutraceutical products.Â Â 45Table of ContentsÂ Corporate StrategyÂ Our main strategy initiative is focused on continuing our progress in becoming a global pharmaceutical wholesale and import/export company through the development of a lean,Â efficient and vertically integrated operating model, as well as, to expand our portfolio of our own branded nutraceutical and pharmaceutical products, grow our customer base and achieve our growth stabilization in this new market and gain an adequate size in the global nutraceuticals market. We are committed to serving our customers while continuing to innovate and provide products that make a difference in the lives of individuals. We strive to maximize our shareholdersâ€™ value by adapting to market realities and customer needs. Our strategy involves the enhancement of our manufacturing capacities and building a multinational network or wholesalers, distributors, and pharmacies and simultaneously continuing to expand the portfolio of products that we distribute to that network.Â We are committed to driving organic growth at attractive margins by improving execution, optimizing cash flow and leveraging our strong market position, while maintaining a streamlined cost structure throughout each of our businesses. We continue to further align our organization to our customersâ€™ needs in a more seamless and unified way, while supporting corporate strategy and accelerating growth. Implementing this disciplined, focused strategy has allowed us to significantly expand our business, and we believe we are well-positioned to grow revenue and increase operating income through the execution of the following key elements of our business:Â Â Â -Â Branded Pharmaceuticals: Branded pharmaceutical products are the primary product category that we produce and distribute. We constantly evaluate product availability, pricing, demand trends, and patent expirations to maximize our performance. As the patents for branded products near expiration, the generic equivalents enter the marketplace and the demand for those branded products start to decrease. We monitor these cycles closely and always look to find value in pricing fluctuations caused by the patent expirations as the generic equivalents enter the market.-Â Generic Pharmaceuticals: Generic pharmaceutical products are the secondary product category that we produce and distribute. We apply the same discipline to generics that we do to the branded. We evaluate the demand and supply dynamics of branded products as their patents expire. This insight sheds light on the demand of generic products that take their place. Understanding the historical and market specific characteristics of generic product demand provides insight that we use to give guidance to our vendors that source our generic drug exports.Â Â Â·Nutraceuticals & Food Supplements: The wholesale distribution of nutraceuticals and food supplements market offer most of the times greater margins than pharmaceutical products. We are always looking to expand the portfolio of products that we distribute to maximize our margins. We offer convenience to our customers by providing them a larger portfolio of products that they can source from a single vendor. In addition to being wholesalers for supplements and related products we are also creating our own brand of products to sell to our current customer base. Our wholesale business gives insight to what products are in demand and we communicate with our customer base to identify which products to develop. Owning a brand with an extensive portfolio of products provides the Company with significant opportunities to penetrate into global sale channels.Â Â Â Â Â·Research & Development: We are committed to strategic R&D across each business unit with a particular focus for pharmaceutical and nutraceutical products with inherently lower risk profiles and clearly defined regulatory pathways. We are constantly evaluating the demand of food supplements in the markets that we currently distribute pharmaceutical products to. This research and analysis determines which pharmaceutical and nutraceutical products we choose to develop as well as their formulations. This approach maximizes the probability of successfully competing with other brands in the marketplace.Â Â Â Â Â·Acquisitions: We regularly evaluate acquisition targets that would allow us to expand our distribution reach and/or vertically integrate into the supply chain of the products that we currently distribute. In addition to focusing on organic growth drivers, we are also actively pursuing accretive acquisitions that offer long-term revenue growth, margin expansion through synergies, and the ability to maintain a flexible capital structure.Â Â Â Â Â·Local & Direct to Pharmacy Wholesale: We are expanding into the full-line wholesale distribution business through acquisition. Full-line pharmaceutical wholesalers provide the local markets with branded pharmaceuticals, generic pharmaceuticals, over-the-counter (OTC) medicines, vitamins and food supplements. By expanding our pharmaceutical distribution business, we will have a better ability to source more branded and generic products directly from manufacturers and sell our vitamins, food supplements and cosmetic products directly to pharmacies for better prices. We expect this expansion to increase our sales and profit margins as we vertically integrate into the supply chain.Â Â 46Table of ContentsÂ To successfully execute our corporate strategy, we believe that the Company must adopt, incorporate and maintain the aforementioned core strengths, although no assurances can be made that the Company will be able to effectively implement these strategies.Â Â NutraceuticalsÂ The current principal activity of the Company is the manufacturing, development and trading of its own proprietary branded nutraceutical product lines â€œSky Premium LifeÂ®â€ (â€œSPLâ€) and MediterranationÂ®. The Companyâ€™s portfolio currently includes 105 product codes including vitamins, minerals and other herbal extracts used for health prevention and care needs. Our plan for our own branded nutraceuticals is to enlarge our portfolio up to 150 SKUs. We also use our subsidiaries as distribution centers for SPL in order to penetrate UK and EU markets. However, the leading activity of Decahedron is the trading of branded and generic pharmaceutical products and medicines across the UK. We purchase excess inventories at a discount from wholesalers and export pharmaceutical product codes to EU member states capturing contract price differentials in the process. The Company only purchases stock with purchase orders at hand, limiting inventory risk. EU countries have put into force new legal frameworks and mandates that boost the parallel trade market in order to deflate healthcare pricing across the region.Â Branded Pharmaceuticals & GenericsÂ During the course of 2023, the Company committed to its strategic acquisition plan and proceeded to the acquisition of pharmaceutical products, specifically five branded pharmaceuticals and ten generic licenses.Â Accordingly, the Company commenced the manufacturing, development and trading of its own branded pharmaceutical and generics products apart from its own branded nutraceuticals. This is in parallel with the production of Canaâ€™s proprietary antimicrobial products.Â Product CategoriesÂ Our product portfolio includes medicines, OTC medicines, nutraceutical products, health care products, medical devices, baby products and others. We utilize the latest technology in pharmaceutical storage and retrieval systems to ensure the quality and accuracy of its distribution. Our facility utilizes ROWAâ„¢ (German pharmacy robotics) technologies to automate our procurement, a German fully automated warehouse system, inventory management, and order execution. Therefore, we achieve a zero-error rate, faster order picking, automated order picking process, higher cost-efficiency. We stay in the forefront of quality assurance and accuracy by investing in the most innovative machinery and software available to pharmaceutical distributors. Our Company supports all its customers with special product offerings, seasonal products, and all the top brands and trending products.Â We believe that the entire aforementioned product life cycle would take approximately six weeks to two months, from the demand list to the payment for the shipment.Â Distribution and MarketingÂ The majority of our products are represented directly and indirectly through a dedicated sales force team. Our sales force targets mainly wholesale distributors and other healthcare providers. We sell our products principally through independent wholesale distributors, but we also sell directly to other healthcare providers such as; clinics, government agencies, independent retail and specialty pharmacies and independent specialty distributors. Customer service representatives are centralized in order to respond to customer needs in a timely and effective manner. We seek to motivate and provide incentives to our sales force team by offering high quality products and providing them with product support, training seminars, sales convention and financial incentives.Â Our products in Europe and in the UK are shipped directly from our warehouse facilities and in foreign markets we have contracted third-parties to distribute our products.Â We are formulating a broader and more diversified pharmaceutical product portfolio and a greater selection of targets for potential development. We target products with limited competition for reasons such as trading complexity or the market size, which make our pharmaceutical products a key growth driver of our portfolio and complementary to other product offerings.Â Â 49Table of ContentsÂ Patents, Trademarks, Licenses and Proprietary PropertyÂ We have developed or acquired various proprietary pharmaceutical and nutraceutical products, nutraceutical products licenses, wholesale licenses, processes, software, and other intellectual property that are used either to facilitate the conduct of our business or that are made available as products or services to customers.Â At present, besides the above licenses, we do not have any intellectual property or other licenses, including, but not limited to, patents, trademarks, franchises, concessions, and royalty agreements or other proprietary interests.Â We have obtained trademark registrations for â€œSky Premium LifeÂ®â€, and related logos for all of our â€œSky Premium LifeÂ®â€ products product lines. We hold trademark registrations in Europe. During 2023, we added a variety of trademarks through our new subsidiary Cana (acquired on June 30, 2023), such as multiple antimicrobial products (C-SEPT) and cosmetics (EXELIA & C-DERM). The Company also submitted a patent application with the European Patent Office (EPO) for its CCX0722 obesity and weight management product on December 1, 2023. Additionally, on June 18, 2024, the Company entered into an agreement to acquire all remaining rights arising from the patent filed with the World Intellectual Property Organization (WIPO) under reference code PCT/EP2023/071865. This follows the agreement announced on December 7, 2023, where the Company had acquired 60% of the rights. The patent filing describes the repurposing of an existing drug to act on the Mucosa-associated lymphoid tissue lymphoma translocation protein 1 (MALT1), a key target in various diseases.Â We rely on confidentiality agreements with our employees, consultants and other parties to protect, among other things, trade secrets and other proprietary technology. There can be no assurance that these agreements will not be breached, that we will have adequate remedies for any breach, that others will not independently develop equivalent proprietary information or that other third parties will not otherwise gain access to our trade secrets and other intellectual property.Â Product InsuranceÂ We have insurance in place for our warehouses and the products in stock against any damage or theft, but we do not insure our products after the sale, since we are working under an Ex-works policy, and thus our clients are responsible for the transportation and the insurance of the products against any damage. In the future, we will continue to reevaluate our decision and may purchase product liability insurance to cover some of or all of our product liability risk.Â CustomersÂ Through our subsidiaries, we primarily sell pharmaceutical products directly to pharmacies and a limited number of large wholesale drug distributors who, in turn, supply-sell the products to other wholesalers, hospitals, pharmacies, and governmental agencies across the European Union member state. No customer accounted for 10% or more of our total consolidated revenues during the six months ended June 30, 2024 and the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022.Â We have a diverse customer base that includes wholesalers and retail healthcare providers. We make a significant amount of our sales to a relatively small number of pharmaceutical wholesalers. These customers represent an essential part of the distribution chain of our products. Pharmaceutical wholesalers have undergone, and are continuing to undergo, significant consolidation on a worldwide basis. This consolidation resulted in these groups gaining additional purchasing leverage and consequently increasing the product pricing pressures facing our business.Â Â 50Table of ContentsÂ Geographic MarketsÂ All of our revenues are generated from operations in the European Union and UK, or otherwise earned outside of the U.S. All of our foreign operations are subject to risks inherent in conducting business abroad, including price and currency exchange controls, fluctuations in the relative values of currencies, political and economic instability and restrictive governmental actions. Our geographical market sales distribution of our total consolidated revenues during the six months ended June 30, 2024, the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022 are as follows:Â Â Â June 30, 2024Â Â December 31, 2023Â Â December 31, 2022Â GreeceÂ Â 97.65%Â Â 94.67%Â Â 98.94%UKÂ Â 1.95%Â Â 4.53%Â Â 0.80%CroatiaÂ Â 0.07%Â Â 0.05%Â Â 0.08%BulgariaÂ Â 0.07%Â Â 0.39%Â Â 0.00%Cayman IslandsÂ Â 0.00%Â Â 0.02%Â Â 0.00%CyprusÂ Â 0.26%Â Â 0.34%Â Â 0.18%TotalÂ Â 100.00%Â Â 100.00%Â Â 100.00%Â We currently sell the products to wholesalers through our own sales force. We do not sell directly to large drug store chains or through distributors in countries where we do not have our own sales staff. As part of our sales marketing and promotion program, we use direct advertising, direct mailings, trading techniques, direct and personal contacts, exhibition of products at medical conventions and sponsor medical education symposia.Â CompetitionÂ Our pharmaceutical businesses are conducted in intensely competitive and often highly regulated markets. Many of our trading of pharmaceutical products face competition in the form of branded or generic drugs that treat similar diseases or indications. The principal forms of competition include efficacy, safety, ease of use, and cost effectiveness. The means of competition vary across product categories and business groups, demonstrating that the value of our trading products is a critical factor for success in all of our principal businesses.Â Our competitors include other pharmaceutical companies, and smaller companies with generic drug and consumer healthcare products. We compete with other companies that manufacture and sell products that treat diseases or indications similar to those treated by our trading pharmaceutical products.Â Our competitive position in pharmaceutical sector is affected by several factors including among others, the amount and effectiveness of our and our competitorsâ€™ promotional resources, customer acceptance, product quality, our and our competitorsâ€™ introduction of new products, ingredients, claims, dosage forms, or other forms of innovation, and pricing, regulatory and legislative matters (such as product labeling, patient access and prescription).Â The branded pharmaceutical industry is highly competitive. Our products compete with products manufactured by many other companies in highly competitive markets throughout the EU territory and internationally as well. Competitors include many of the major brand name and generic manufacturers of pharmaceutical products. If competitors introduce new products, delivery systems or processes with therapeutic or cost advantages, our products can be subject to progressive price reductions or decreased volume of sales, or both.Â Â In the generic pharmaceutical market, we might face intense competition from other generic drug manufacturers, brand name pharmaceutical companies, existing brand equivalents and manufacturers of therapeutically similar drugs.Â By specializing in high barrier to entry products, we endeavor to market more profitable and longer-lived products relative to commodity generic products. We believe that our competitive advantages include our integrated team-based approach to product development that combines our formulation, regulatory, legal and commercial capabilities; our ability to introduce new generic equivalents for brand-name drugs; our ability to meet customer expectations; and the breadth of our existing generic product portfolio offering.Â Newly introduced generic products with limited or no other generic competition typically garner higher prices. At the expiration of the exclusivity period, other generic distributors may enter the market, resulting in a significant price decline for the drug. Consequently, the maintenance of profitable operations in generic pharmaceuticals depends, in part, on our ability to select, develop and launch new generic products in a timely and cost-efficient manner and to maintain efficient, high quality business capabilities.Â Â 51Table of ContentsÂ We compete in the nutritional industry with our own branded nutraceutical products against companies that sell through retail stores, as well as against other direct selling companies. We compete against manufacturers and retailers of nutraceutical products which are distributed through supermarkets, drug stores, health food stores, vitamin outlets and mass market retailers, among others. We believe that the principal components of competition in nutraceutical products are expertise and service, high product quality, diversification and differentiation, price and brand recognition.Â Operating conditions have become more challenging under the mounting global pressures of competition, industry regulation and cost containment. We continue to take measures to evaluate, adapt and improve our organization and business practices to better meet customer and public needs. We also seek to continually enhance the organizational effectiveness of all of our functions, including efforts to accurately and ethically launch and promote our products.Â Information SystemsÂ The Company operates its full-service wholesale pharmaceutical distribution facilities in Europe on one primary enterprise resource planning (â€œERPâ€) system that provides for, among other things, electronic order entry by customers, invoice preparation and purchasing, and inventory tracking. We are currently making significant investments to enhance and upgrade the ERP system.Â Additionally, we are improving our entity-wide infrastructure environment to drive efficiency, capabilities, and speed to market. We will continue to invest in advanced information systems and automated warehouse technology. For example, in an effort to comply with future pedigree and other supply chain custody requirements we have made significant investments in our secure supply chain information systems.Â The Company processes a substantial portion of its purchase orders, invoices, and payments electronically. However, it continues to make substantial investments to expand its electronic interface with its suppliers. The Company has integrated warehouse operating system, which are used to manage the majority of transactional volume. The warehouse operating system has improved the distribution services productivity and operating leverage.Â Government RegulationsÂ Government authorities in the EU and in other countries extensively regulate, among other things, the research, development, testing, approval, manufacturing, labeling, post-approval monitoring and reporting, packaging, advertising and promotion, storage, distribution, marketing and export and import of pharmaceutical products. As such, our branded pharmaceutical products and the generic product candidates are subject to extensive regulation both before and after approval. The process of obtaining regulatory approvals and the subsequent compliance with applicable state, local and foreign statutes and regulations require the expenditure of substantial time and financial resources. Failure to comply with these regulations could result in, among other things, warning letters, civil penalties, delays in approving or refusal to approve a pharmaceutical product.Â A main part of our business relates to the trading of branded and generic pharmaceutical products and medicines within the EU member states. In order to be able to operate our business, we need to comply with EU regulations, as well as EU member states regulations that govern various operations of our business. The Greek government regulation that applies to our business requires the granting to our operating subsidiaries of the Authorization for Wholesale Distribution of Medicinal Products for human use. In order for this Authorization to be granted, the companies need to always comply with certain Good Distribution Practices (â€œGDPâ€) that mainly assure the proper storage, handling, distribution and trade of the pharmaceutical products.Â Â 52Table of ContentsÂ On July 22, 2015, the National Medicines Agency in Greece approved the license of wholesale sale of pharmaceutical products under the name SkyPharm SA with set validity at five years and an expiration date of July 22, 2020. Subsequently, on June 15, 2020, SkyPharm legally and timely submitted the application for renewal of the wholesale license of pharmaceutical products to the National Medicines Agency. The National Medicines Agency did not respond, therefore the Company asked for an immediate decision on the renewal. Two months after the filing of the no. 3459 / 15.01.2021 letter and almost nine months after the no. 627615.06.2020 company application for the renewal, the National Medicines Agency replied by rejecting the renewal request on March 9, 2021 (ref. 62769 / 20-25.02.2021). In addition, document No. 127351-16.12.2021 of EOF (Greek National Medicines Organization) to SkyPharm states that after an inspection of EOF at the premises of Doc Pharma, we did not have a wholesale license in violation of article 106 par. 1b and par. 1c of the ministerial decision D.YG3a / GP.32221 / 29-4-2019. The National Medicines Agency imposed a fine of â‚¬15,000 ($16,225) on SkyPharm for the above case, which was included in â€œGeneral and administrativeâ€ expense on the accompany statement of operations and comprehensive loss for the 12-month period ended December 31, 2023.Â Decahedron received its Wholesale Distribution Authorization for human use on February 5, 2021, from the UK Medicines and Healthcare Products Regulatory Agency (â€œMHRAâ€) in accordance with Regulation 18 of the Human Medicines Regulations 2012 (SI 2012/1916) and it is subject to the provisions of those Regulations and the Medicines Act 1971. This License will continue to remain in force from the date of issue by the Licensing Authority unless cancelled, suspended, revoked or varied as to the period of its validity or relinquished by the authorization holder.Â Cosmofarm received its Wholesale Distribution Authorization for human use on February 15, 2019, from the National Organization for Medicines. The license is valid for a period of five years and pursuant to the EU directive of (2013/C343/01). Also, Cosmofarm was granted with GDP certificate on November 11, 2019.Â Our subsidiary, Cana SA, is a holder of Good Manufacturing Practices license (GMP), which means that it is certified for fulfilling the minimum standards that a medicines manufacturer must meet in the production processes.Â Our subsidiaries are ISO 9001 certified for a management system for the trade and distribution of pharmaceuticals. As part of the certification process by the International Organization for Standardization, we need to be compliant with the General Data Protection Regulation (â€œGDPRâ€) adopted by the European Union in May 2018. GDPR applies to the processing of personal data of persons in the EU by a controller or processor.Â Research and DevelopmentÂ The Company entered into a Research & Development agreement with Doc Pharma S.A. on May 17, 2021. Under this agreement, Doc Pharma is responsible for the research, development, design, registration, copy rights and licenses of 250 nutritional supplements for the final products called Sky Premium LifeÂ®. More specifically, Doc Pharma is responsible for the product development and the Company has added 105 of such products codes in its portfolio as of December 31, 2023. The licenses purchased by Doc Pharma SA are capitalized and included in â€œGoodwill and intangible assets, netâ€ of the Companyâ€™s Consolidated Balance Sheets as of December 31, 2023. Thus, no relevant R&D expense had been charged to the Companyâ€™s Consolidated Statements of Operations and Comprehensive Loss.Â On June 26, 2022, the Company signed a research and development (â€œR&Dâ€) agreement with a third party, through which the Company assigned to the third party the development of new products and services in the field of health, focusing on the human intestinal microbiome. The project includes two phases. Phase 1 has a 20-month duration and its cost amounts to EUR 758,000 ($838,450) and phase 2, has a 22-month duration and a cost of EUR 820,000 ($907,084). The amount will be due and payable upon completion of the corresponding phases. The Company records the corresponding R&D expense based on the projectâ€™s progress, which is invoiced by the third party in the relevant period. For the 12-month period ended December 31, 2023, the Company has incurred $164,859 of such costs included in â€œGeneral and administrative expensesâ€ in the Companyâ€™s Consolidated Statements of Operations and Comprehensive Loss.Â Â On January 23, 2024, the Company completed the acquisition of Cloudscreen, a cutting-edge Artificial Intelligence (AI) powered platform. The acquisition is pursuant to the purchase agreement announced on October 11, 2023. Cloudscreen is a multimodal platform specialized in drug repurposing, a process that involves uncovering new target proteins or indications for existing drugs for use in treating different diseases.Â Â 53Table of ContentsÂ Distribution & Trade AgreementsÂ On July 7, 2021, SkyPharm SA signed a trade agreement with a company specializing in e-commerce mall advice and operation, henceforward referred as â€œDistributor Bâ€. Based on the agreement, SkyPharm will sell its own branded products Sky Premium Life Â® to final consumers through the e-commerce store opened by Distributor B on Tmall International MALL and Distributor B will provide platform operation services to SkyPharm. The services provided by Distributor B will include mall construction, mall operation and network promotion, along with collection, settlement, customer service, logistics and distribution.Â On November 25, 2021, SkyPharm SA signed a trade agreement with a wholesaler which operates in the storage, distribution, trading & promotion of pharmaceutical products) henceforward referred as â€œDistributor Câ€. Based on the agreement Distributor C is appointed as the exclusive representative for the promotion & distribution of our proprietary nutraceutical products Sky Premium LifeÂ®, in Greece.Â During July 2021, the Companyâ€™s subsidiary, Decahedron Ltd, created a distribution page on Amazon UK, through which it sells, advertises and promotes our own proprietary branded nutraceutical product line Sky Premium LifeÂ®, directly to final consumers.Â On September 22, 2022, the Company entered into a distribution agreement with a third party in order to become the distributor of Monkeypox Virus Real-Time PCR Detection Kits. Cosmos will have exclusive distribution rights for Greece and Cyprus, with the opportunity to distribute the test kits across Europe on a non-exclusive basis.Â International Cannabis Corp. (f/k/a Kaneh Bosm Biotechnology Inc.) - CannabisÂ Distribution and Equity AgreementÂ On March 19, 2018, the Company entered into a Distribution and Equity Acquisition Agreement (the â€œDistribution and Equity Acquisition Agreementâ€) with Marathon Global Inc. (â€œMarathonâ€), a company incorporated in the Province of Ontario, Canada. Marathon was formed to be a global supplier of Cannabis, cannabidiol (â€œCBDâ€) and/or any Cannabis Extract products, extracts, ancillaries and derivatives (collectively, the â€œProductsâ€). The Company was appointed the exclusive distributor of the Products initially throughout Europe and on a non-exclusive basis wherever else lawfully permitted. The Company has no present intention to distribute any Products under this Agreement in the United States or otherwise participate in cannabis operations in the United States. The Company intends to await further clarification from the U.S. Government on cannabis regulation prior to determining whether to enter the domestic market.Â The above transaction closed on May 22, 2018 after the due diligence period, following which the Company received: (a) a 33 1/3% equity interest or 5 million shares in Marathon as partial consideration for the Companyâ€™s distribution services; and (b) received cash of CAD $2,000,000, subject to repayment in common shares of the Company if it failed to meet certain performance milestones. The Company was entitled to receive an additional CAD $2,750,000 upon the Companyâ€™s receipt of gross sales of CAD $6,500,000 and an additional CAD $2,750,000 upon receipt of gross sales of CAD $13,000,000. The Company was also given the right to nominate one director to the Marathon board of directors. Since Marathon was a newly formed entity with no assets and no activity, the Company attributed no value to the 5 million shares in Marathon which was received as consideration for the distribution services.Â The Distribution and Equity Acquisition Agreement was to remain in effect indefinitely unless Marathon fails to provide Market Competitive (as defined) product pricing and Marathon has not become profitable within five years of the agreement. On March 20, 2023, the Company sent a termination notice, to Marathon, which became effective on April 19, 2023 as a result of Marathonâ€™s failure to satisfy these conditions. The Company had accounted for its obligation to issue a variable number of the Companyâ€™s Common Shares as Share-settled debt obligation in accordance with ASC Topic 480, Distinguishing Liabilities from Equity (â€œASC 480â€), which was measured at fair value or the settlement amount of $1,554,590 (CAD $2 million). Due to termination of the Distribution and Equity Acquisition Agreement, the Company recorded a gain on extinguishment of debt of $1,554,590 due to the write-off of the share settled debt obligation, for the 12-month period ended December 31, 2023.Â Â 54Table of ContentsÂ Employees & Human CapitalÂ As ofÂ October 23, 2024, we had 165 employees in total, of which 21 engaged in sales department, 3 in procurement department, 4 in marketing department, 36 in warehouse services, 18 in logistics/transportation works, 6 in quality assurance, 13 in finance & accounting department, 5 in management, 4 in cleaning, 8 in administration, 13 in call center, 1 in B2B e-shop, 1 in compliance, 24 in production, 1 in HR department, 4 in R&D department and 3 in IT department. Selling Shareholder and its affiliates owning, after exercise, a number of shares of Common Stock in excess of the Beneficial Ownership Limitation.Â Â 66Table of ContentsÂ Â PLAN OF DISTRIBUTIONÂ The Selling Shareholder of the securities and any of its pledgees, assignees and successors-in-interest may, from time to time, sell any or all of their securities covered hereby on the Nasdaq Capital Market or any other stock exchange, market or trading facility on which the securities are traded or in private transactions. These sales may be at fixed or negotiated prices. The Selling Shareholder may use any one or more of the following methods when selling securities:Â Â Â·ordinary brokerage transactions and transactions in which the broker-dealer solicits purchasers;Â Â Â Â Â·block trades in which the broker-dealer will attempt to sell the securities as agent but may position and resell a portion of the block as principal to facilitate the transaction;Â Â Â Â Â·purchases by a broker-dealer as principal and resale by the broker-dealer for its account;Â Â Â Â Â·an exchange distribution in accordance with the rules of the applicable exchange;Â Â Â Â Â·privately negotiated transactions;Â Â Â Â Â·settlement of short sales;Â Â Â Â Â·in transactions through broker-dealers that agree with the Selling Shareholder to sell a specified number of such securities at a stipulated price per security;Â Â Â Â Â·through the writing or settlement of options or other hedging transactions, whether through an options exchange or otherwise;Â Â Â Â Â·a combination of any such methods of sale; orÂ Â Â Â Â·any other method permitted pursuant to applicable law.Â The Selling Shareholder may also sell securities under Rule 144 or any other exemption from registration under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the â€œSecurities Actâ€), if available, rather than under this prospectus.Â Broker-dealers engaged by the Selling Shareholder may arrange for other brokers-dealers to participate in sales. Broker-dealers may receive commissions or discounts from the Selling Shareholder (or, if any broker-dealer acts as agent for the purchaser of securities, from the purchaser) in amounts to be negotiated, but, except as set forth in a supplement to this prospectus, in the case of an agency transaction not in excess of a customary brokerage commission in compliance with FINRA Rule 2121; and in the case of a principal transaction a markup or markdown in compliance with FINRA Rule 2121.Â In connection with the sale of the securities or interests therein, the Selling Shareholder may enter into hedging transactions with broker-dealers or other financial institutions, which may in turn engage in short sales of the securities in the course of hedging the positions they assume. The Selling Shareholder may also sell securities short and deliver these securities to close out their short positions, or loan or pledge the securities to broker-dealers that in turn may sell these securities. The Selling Shareholder may also enter into option or other transactions with broker-dealers or other financial institutions or create one or more derivative securities which require the delivery to such broker-dealer or other financial institution of securities offered by this prospectus, which securities such broker-dealer or other financial institution may resell pursuant to this prospectus (as supplemented or amended to reflect such transaction).Â Â 67Table of ContentsÂ The Selling Shareholder and any broker-dealers or agents that are involved in selling the securities may be deemed to be â€œunderwritersâ€ within the meaning of the Securities Act in connection with such sales. In such event, any commissions received by such broker-dealers or agents and any profit on the resale of the securities purchased by them may be deemed to be underwriting commissions or discounts under the Securities Act. The Selling Shareholder has informed the Company that it does not have any written or oral agreement or understanding, directly or indirectly, with any person to distribute the securities.Â The Company is required to pay certain fees and expenses incurred by the Company incident to the registration of the securities. The Company has agreed to indemnify the Selling Shareholder against certain losses, claims, damages and liabilities, including liabilities under the Securities Act.Â We agreed to keep this prospectus effective until the earlier of (i) the date on which the securities may be resold by the Selling Shareholder without registration and without regard to any volume or manner-of-sale limitations by reason of Rule 144, without the requirement for the Company to be in compliance with the current public information under Rule 144 under the Securities Act or any other rule of similar effect or (ii) all of the securities have been sold pursuant to this prospectus or Rule 144 under the Securities Act or any other rule of similar effect. The resale securities will be sold only through registered or licensed brokers or dealers if required under applicable state securities laws. In addition, in certain states, the resale securities covered hereby may not be sold unless they have been registered or qualified for sale in the applicable state or an exemption from the registration or qualification requirement is available and is complied with.Â Under applicable rules and regulations under the Exchange Act, any person engaged in the distribution of the resale securities may not simultaneously engage in market making activities with respect to the shares of Common Stock for the applicable restricted period, as defined in Regulation M, prior to the commencement of the distribution. In addition, the Selling Shareholder will be subject to applicable provisions of the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations thereunder, including Regulation M, which may limit the timing of purchases and sales of the shares of Common Stock by the Selling Shareholder or any other person. We will make copies of this prospectus available to the Selling Shareholder and have informed them of the need to deliver a copy of this prospectus to each purchaser at or prior to the time of the sale (including by compliance with Rule 172 under the Securities Act).Â DESCRIPTION OF NEW WARRANT SHARESÂ Authorized and Outstanding Capital StockÂ The following description sets forth certain general terms and provisions of the shares of Common Stock and shares of preferred stock.Â We have 400,000,000 shares of capital stock, par value $0.001 per share, authorized of which 300,000,000 are shares of Common Stock and 100,000,000 are shares of â€œblank checkâ€ preferred stock.Â As of October 23, 2024, we hadÂ 23,259,551 shares of our common stock issued and outstanding, held byÂ 614 stockholders of record. The rights, preferences and privileges of holders of our Common Stock are subject to, and may be adversely affected by, the rights of the holders of any series of preferred stock, which may be designated solely by action of our board of directors and issued in the future.Â Â 68Table of ContentsÂ 2024 New WarrantsÂ The New Warrants issued under the Warrant Inducement Offer were issued in certificated form. The following description is subject to the detailed provisions of the form of certificate for the New Warrants (the â€œWarrant Certificateâ€). Reference should be made to the Warrant Certificate for the full text of attributes of the Warrants.Â The Series A Warrants are exercisable at any time on or after the Stockholder Approval Date (as defined in the 2024 New Warrants), and have a term of exercise of five years from the Stockholder Approval Date.Â The Series B Warrants are exercisable at any time on or after the Stockholder Approval Date (as defined in the 2024 New Warrants), and have a term of exercise of eighteen months from the Stockholder Approval Date.Â The 2024 New Warrants have an exercise price of $0.95 per share.Â The 2024 New Warrants will be exercisable, at the option of the Selling Shareholder, in whole or in part, by delivering to the Company a duly executed notice of exercise, thereby canceling all or a portion of the Selling Shareholderâ€™s 2024 New Warrants.Â The Selling Shareholder will not have the right to exercise any portion of its 2024 New Warrants if it, together with its affiliates, would beneficially own in excess of 4.99% of the number of shares of Common Stock outstanding immediately after giving effect to such exercise; provided, however, that upon notice to the Company, the Selling Shareholder may increase or decrease such beneficial ownership limitation, provided that in no event shall such beneficial ownership limitation exceed 9.99% and any increase in the beneficial ownership limitation will not be effective until 61 days following notice of such increase from the holder to us.Â The 2024 New Warrants may be exercised on a â€œnetâ€ or â€œcashlessâ€ basis to the extent that the Company does not have an effective registration statement registering (or the related prospectus is not available for) the Warrant Shares issuable upon exercise of the 2024 New Warrants. We have agreed to use our reasonable best efforts to maintain an effective registration statement and prospectus available for use relating to Warrant Shares issuable upon exercise of the 2024 New Warrants until the expiration of the 2024 New Warrants.Â Â The Warrant Certificate will provide that the number of underlying Warrant Shares and exercise price of the 2024 New Warrants will be subject to adjustment in the event of certain share dividends or distributions or of a subdivision or consolidation of the common shares or similar events.Â The Warrant Certificate will also provide that, during the period in which the 2024 New Warrants are exercisable, it will give notice to holders of 2024 New Warrants of certain stated events, at least 5 days prior to the record date or effective date, as the case may be, of such events.Â In connection with a Fundamental Transaction, as defined in the Warrant Inducement Offer, the Selling Shareholder as holder of the 2024 New Warrants will have the right to receive, upon exercise, the same consideration as holders of common shares that would be issuable upon exercise of the 2024 New Warrants immediately prior to such Fundamental Transaction, in addition to any additional consideration receivable by holders of common shares in connection with such Fundamental Transaction. The Selling Shareholder as holder of the 2024 New Warrants will also have the option, within 30 days of the closing of a Fundamental Transaction, to require the Company (or its successor) to repurchase its 2024 New Warrants in cash or, if the Fundamental Transaction is not in the Companyâ€™s control, in the consideration received by other holders of common shares in respect of such Fundamental Transaction, at a value determined by using the Black-Scholes option pricing model.Â There is currently no market through which the 2024 New Warrants may be sold, and the Selling Shareholder may not be able to resell the 2024 New Warrants purchased in the Warrant Exchange Offer. No fractional Warrant Shares will be issuable upon the exercise of any 2024 New Warrants. The Selling Shareholder as holder of the 2024 New Warrants will not have any voting or pre-emptive rights or any other rights which a holder of common shares would have, except as set forth in the 2024 New Warrants.Â ListingÂ The Companyâ€™s Common Stock is listed on the Nasdaq Capital Market under the symbol â€œCOSM.â€Â Transfer AgentÂ Our transfer agent for our Common Stock is Globex Transfer, LLC, located at 780 Deltona Blvd., Suite 202, Deltona, Florida, 32725.Â Â 69Table of ContentsÂ MATERIAL U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCESÂ The following is a discussion of the material U.S. federal income tax considerations with respect to the acquisition, ownership and disposition of Warrants. This discussion applies only to beneficial owners of our securities that will hold our Warrants as â€œcapital assetsâ€ within the meaning of SectionÂ 1221 of the Code (generally, property held for investment). This discussion is based on the provisions of the Code, U.S. Treasury regulations, administrative rules and judicial decisions, all as in effect on the date hereof, and all of which are subject to change or differing interpretations, possibly with retroactive effect. Any such change or differing interpretation could affect the accuracy of the statements set forth herein. We have not sought any rulings from the IRS with respect to the statements made and the positions or conclusions described in this summary. Such statements, positions and conclusions are not free from doubt, and there can be no assurance that your tax advisor, the IRS or a court will agree with such statements, positions and conclusions.Â The following discussion does not purport to address all aspects of U.S. federal income taxation that may be relevant to particular holders in light of their personal circumstances. In addition, this summary does not address the â€œMedicareâ€ tax on certain investment income, any alternative minimum tax, U.S. federal estate or gift tax laws, any U.S. state, local orÂ non-U.S.Â tax laws, or any tax treaties. This summary also does not address tax considerations applicable to investors that may be subject to special treatment under the U.S. federal income tax laws, such as:Â Â Â·banks, insurance companies, or other financial institutions;Â Â Â Â Â·tax-exempt or governmental organizations;Â Â Â Â Â·dealers in securities or foreign currencies;Â Â Â Â Â·U.S. persons whose functional currency is not the U.S. dollar;Â Â Â Â Â·traders in our securities that use the mark-to-market method of accounting for U.S. federal income tax purposes;Â Â Â Â Â·â€œcontrolled foreign corporations,â€ â€œpassive foreign investment companiesâ€ and corporations that accumulate earnings to avoid U.S. federal income tax;Â Â Â Â Â·partnerships or other pass-through entities for U.S. federal income tax purposes or holders of interests therein;Â Â Â Â Â·persons that acquire our securities through the exercise of employee stock options or otherwise as compensation or through tax-qualified retirement plans;Â Â Â Â Â·persons that hold our securities as part of a straddle, appreciated financial position, synthetic security, hedge, conversion transaction or other integrated investment or risk reduction transaction;Â Â Â Â Â·certain former citizens or long-term residents of the United States;Â Â 70Table of ContentsÂ Â Â·persons required to accelerate the recognition of any item of gross income as a result of such income being recognized on an â€œapplicable financial statementâ€;Â Â Â Â Â·regulated investment companies;Â Â Â Â Â·real estate investment trusts;Â Â Â Â Â·individual retirement or other tax-deferred accounts;Â Â Â Â Â·except as specifically provided below, persons that actually or constructively hold 5% or more (by vote or value) of any class of our shares; andÂ Â Â Â Â·the Selling Securityholders.Â If a partnership (including an entity or arrangement treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes) holds our securities, the tax treatment of a partner in such partnership generally will depend upon the status of the partner, upon the activities of the partnership and upon certain determinations made at the partner level. Accordingly, we urge partners in partnerships (including entities or arrangements treated as partnerships for U.S. federal income tax purposes) holding our securities to consult with their own tax advisors regarding the U.S. federal income tax consequences to them relating to the matters discussed below.Â INVESTORS SHOULD CONSULT WITH THEIR OWN TAX ADVISORS WITH RESPECT TO THE APPLICATION OF THE U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX LAWS (INCLUDING ANY POTENTIAL FUTURE CHANGES THERETO) TO THEIR PARTICULAR SITUATIONS, AS WELL AS ANY TAX CONSEQUENCES ARISING UNDER THE U.S. FEDERAL ESTATE OR GIFT TAX LAWS OR UNDER THE LAWS OF ANY U.S. STATE, LOCAL,Â NON-U.S.Â OR OTHER TAXING JURISDICTION OR UNDER ANY APPLICABLE INCOME TAX TREATY.Â U.S. HoldersÂ This section applies to you if you are a â€œU.S. Holder.â€Â For purposes of this discussion, a â€œU.S. Holderâ€Â is a holder that, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, is:Â Â Â·an individual who is a citizen or resident of the United States;Â Â Â Â Â·a corporation (or other entity treated as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes) created or organized in or under the laws of the United States, any state thereof, or the District of Columbia;Â Â Â Â Â·an estate the income of which is subject to U.S. federal income tax regardless of its source; orÂ Â Â Â Â·a trust (i) the administration of which is subject to the primary supervision of a U.S. court and which has one or more â€œUnited States personsâ€ (within the meaning of Section 7701(a)(30) of the Code) who have the authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust or (ii) that has made a valid election under applicable U.S. Treasury regulations to be treated as a United States person.Â Gain on Sale, Redemption, Taxable Exchange or Other Taxable Disposition of WarrantsÂ Upon a sale or other taxable disposition of ClassÂ A common stock or Private Placement Warrants, a U.S. Holder generally will recognize capital gain or loss in an amount equal to the difference between the amount realized and the U.S. Holderâ€™s adjusted tax basis in its Warrants, as applicable. Any such capital gain or loss generally will be long-term capital gain or loss if the U.S. Holderâ€™s holding period for the Warrants, as applicable, so disposed of exceeds one year. If theÂ one-yearÂ holding period requirement is not satisfied, any gain on a sale or other taxable disposition of the Warrants, as applicable, would be subject to short-term capital gain treatment and would be taxed at regular ordinary income tax rates. Long-term capital gains recognized byÂ non-corporateÂ U.S. Holders will be eligible to be taxed at reduced rates. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations.Â A full or partial redemption of common stock will be treated as a distribution taxable as a dividend to a U.S. Holder to the extent paid from our current or accumulated earnings and profits, unless it can be satisfactorily established that, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, (i)Â the redemption is â€œnot essentially equivalent to a dividend,â€ (ii) the redemption results in a â€œcomplete terminationâ€ of the U.S. Holderâ€™s interest in our equity interests or (iii)Â the redemption is â€œsubstantially disproportionateâ€ with respect to the U.S. Holder, all within the meaning of SectionÂ 302(b) of the Code. In any such case where one of these requirements is met, the redemption will be subject to U.S. federal income tax in the manner described above with respect to sales and other taxable dispositions generally.Â Â 71Table of ContentsÂ Generally, the amount of gain or loss recognized by a U.S. Holder is an amount equal to the difference between (i)Â the sum of the amount of cash and the fair market value of any property received in such disposition and (ii)Â the U.S. Holderâ€™s adjusted tax basis in its Warrants so disposed of. A U.S. Holderâ€™s adjusted tax basis in its Warrants generally will equal the U.S. Holderâ€™s acquisition cost of the Warrants, as applicable, any prior distributions paid to such U.S. Holder that were treated as a return of capital for U.S. federal income tax purposes (as discussed above).Â Exercise of a WarrantÂ Except as discussed below with respect to the â€œcashless exerciseâ€ of a Warrant, a U.S. Holder generally will not recognize gain or loss on the acquisition of common stock upon the exercise of a Warrant. The U.S. Holderâ€™s tax basis in its common stock received upon exercise of a Warrant generally will be an amount equal to the sum of the U.S. Holderâ€™s acquisition cost of the Warrant and the exercise price of such Warrant.Â The tax consequences of a cashless exercise of a Warrant are not clear under current tax law. A cashless exercise may beÂ tax-free,Â either because the exercise is not treated as a realization event or, if it is treated as a realization event, because the exercise is treated as a â€œrecapitalizationâ€ for U.S. federal income tax purposes. In either case, a U.S. Holderâ€™s initial tax basis in the common stock received would equal the holderâ€™s basis in the Warrants exercised therefor. However, it is also possible that a cashless exercise may be treated in part as a taxable exchange in which gain or loss would be recognized. In such event, a U.S. Holder may be deemed to have surrendered a number of Warrants having an aggregate value equal to the exercise price of the number of Warrants to be exercised. The U.S. Holder would then recognize capital gain or loss in an amount generally equal to the difference between the fair market value of the Warrants deemed surrendered and the U.S. Holderâ€™s tax basis in such Warrants. In this case, a U.S. Holderâ€™s initial tax basis in the common stock received would equal the sum of the U.S. Holderâ€™s initial tax basis in the Warrants exercised and the exercise price of such Warrants. Due to the absence of authority on the U.S. federal income tax treatment of a cashless exercise, there can be no assurance as to which, if any, of the alternative tax consequences described herein would be adopted by the IRS or a court of law. Accordingly, U.S. Holders should consult with their own tax advisors regarding the tax consequences of a cashless exercise.Â If we purchase Warrants in an open market transaction, such purchase generally will be treated as a taxable disposition to the U.S. Holder, taxed as described under â€œU.S. Holders-Gain on Sale, Redemption, Taxable Exchange or Other Taxable Disposition of Warrantsâ€ above.Â Expiration of a WarrantÂ If a Warrant is allowed to expire unexercised, a U.S. Holder generally will recognize a capital loss equal to such holderâ€™s tax basis in the Warrant. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to certain limitations.Â Possible Constructive Distributions with Respect to WarrantsÂ The terms of the Warrants provide for an adjustment to the number of shares of common stock for which Warrants may be exercised or to the exercise price of the Warrants in certain events. An adjustment that has the effect of preventing dilution generally is not taxable. U.S. Holders of the Warrants would, however, be treated as receiving a constructive distribution from us if, for example, the adjustment increases the Warrant holderâ€™s proportionate interest in our assets or earnings and profits (e.g., through an increase in the number of shares of common stock that would be obtained upon exercise or through a decrease in the exercise price of the Warrant) in connection with a distribution of cash or other property to the holders of shares of common stock. Any such constructive distribution would be treated in the same manner as if U.S. Holders of Warrants received a cash distribution from us generally equal to the fair market value of the increased interest and would be taxed in a manner similar to distributions to U.S. Holders of common stock.Â Â 72Table of ContentsÂ Information Reporting and Backup WithholdingÂ Information reporting requirements generally will apply to dividends paid to a U.S. Holder and to the proceeds of the sale or other disposition of common stock and Warrants, unless the U.S. Holder is an exempt recipient. Backup withholding may apply to such payments if the U.S. Holder fails to provide a taxpayer identification number or a certification of exempt status or has been notified by the IRS that it is subject to backup withholding (and such notification has not been withdrawn).Â Backup withholding is not an additional tax. Rather, the U.S. federal income tax liability (if any) of persons subject to backup withholding will be reduced by the amount of tax withheld. If backup withholding results in an overpayment of taxes, a refund generally may be obtained, provided that the required information is timely furnished to the IRS.Â Non-U.S.Â HoldersÂ This section applies to you if you are a â€œNon-U.S.Â Holder.â€Â For purposes of this discussion, a â€œNon-U.S.Â Holderâ€Â is a beneficial owner of our securities that is not a U.S. Holder and that is, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, an individual, corporation, estate or trust.Â Gain on Sale, Redemption, Taxable Exchange or Other Taxable Disposition of WarrantsÂ Subject to the discussions below regarding redemptions of common stock and under â€œNon-U.S.Â Holders-Information Reporting and Backup Withholdingâ€ and â€œNon-U.S.Â Holders-Additional Withholding Requirements under FATCA,â€ aÂ Non-U.S.Â Holder generally will not be subject to U.S. federal income or withholding tax on any gain realized upon the sale or other disposition of common stock or Warrants unless:Â Â Â·the Non-U.S. Holder is an individual who is present in the United States for a period or periods aggregating 183 days or more during the calendar year in which the sale or disposition occurs and certain other conditions are met;Â Â Â Â Â·the gain is effectively connected with a trade or business conducted by the Non-U.S. Holder in the United States (and, if required by an applicable income tax treaty, is attributable to a permanent establishment or fixed base maintained by the Non-U.S. Holder in the United States); orÂ Â Â Â Â·shares of common stock or Warrants constitute United States real property interests by reason of our status as a â€œUnited States real property holding corporationâ€ (a â€œUSRPHCâ€) for U.S. federal income tax purposes and as a result such gain is treated as effectively connected with a trade or business conducted by the Non-U.S. Holder in the United States.Â AÂ Non-U.S.Â Holder described in the first bullet point above will be subject to U.S. federal income tax at a rate of 30% (or such lower rate as specified by an applicable income tax treaty) on the amount of such gain, which generally may be offset by certain U.S.-source capital losses.Â AÂ Non-U.S.Â Holder whose gain is described in the second bullet point above or, subject to the exceptions described in the next paragraph, the third bullet point above, generally will be taxed on a net income basis at the rates and in the manner generally applicable to United States persons unless an applicable income tax treaty provides otherwise. If theÂ Non-U.S.Â Holder is a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes whose gain is described in the second bullet point above, such gain would also be included in its effectively connected earnings and profits (as adjusted for certain items), which may be subject to a branch profits tax at a 30% rate (or such lower rate as specified by an applicable income tax treaty).Â Â 73Table of ContentsÂ Generally, a corporation is a USRPHC if the fair market value of its United States real property interests equals or exceeds 50% of the sum of the fair market value of its worldwide real property interests and its other assets used or held for use in a trade or business, as determined for U.S. federal income tax purposes. We do not believe that we are a USRPHC for U.S. federal income tax purposes, and we do not expect to become a USRPHC for the foreseeable future. However, in the event that we were to become a USRPHC, aÂ Non-U.S.Â Holder who disposes of our common stock generally will not be subject to tax on any gain realized as a result of our status as a USRPHC as long as our common stock is â€œregularly traded on an established securities marketâ€ (within the meaning of the U.S. Treasury regulations, referred to herein as â€œregularly tradedâ€) and suchÂ Non-U.S.Â Holder did not actually or constructively own, at any time during the shorter of the five-year period ending on the date of the disposition or theÂ Non-U.S.Â Holderâ€™s holding period for such common stock, more than 5% of our common stock. It is unclear how aÂ Non-U.S.Â Holderâ€™s ownership of Warrants will affect the determination of whether suchÂ Non-U.S.Â Holder owned more than 5% of the common stock. In addition, special rules apply in the case of a disposition of Warrants if the common stock is considered to be regularly traded, but such Warrants are not considered to be regularly traded. We can provide no assurance as to our future status as a USRPHC or as to whether the common stock or Warrants will be treated as regularly traded.Â Non-U.S.Â Holders are encouraged to consult with their own tax advisors regarding the tax consequences related to ownership in a USRPHC and the application of the rules above to the Warrants.Â As discussed above under â€œU.S. Holders â€“ Gain on Sale, Redemption, Taxable Exchange or Other Taxable Disposition of Warrants,â€ a full or partial redemption of common stock will generally be treated as a distribution taxable as a dividend to the extent of our current or accumulated earnings and profits unless it can be satisfactorily established that, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, (i)Â the redemption is â€œnot essentially equivalent to a dividend,â€ (ii)Â the redemption results in a â€œcomplete terminationâ€ of the holderâ€™s interest in our equity interests or (iii)Â the redemption is â€œsubstantially disproportionateâ€ with respect to the holder, all within the meaning of SectionÂ 302(b) of the Code. In such event, any amount constituting a dividend for U.S. federal income tax purposes generally would be subject to U.S. federal withholding tax at a rate of 30%, or such lower rate as may be specified by an applicable income tax treaty, unless such dividend is effectively connected with theÂ Non-U.S.Â Holderâ€™s conduct of a trade or business within the United States (and, if required by an applicable income tax treaty, is attributable to a permanent establishment maintained by suchÂ Non-U.S.Â Holder in the United States). A withholding agent might not make a determination as to whether the cash received upon redemption is subject to such withholding, including because the application of SectionÂ 302 of the Code will depend on aÂ Non-U.S.Â Holderâ€™s particular circumstances. Accordingly, withholding agents may withhold tax at a rate of 30% (or such lower rate as may be specified by an applicable income tax treaty) on the entire amount of the redemption amount made to suchÂ Non-U.S.Â Holder, unless (1)Â the withholding agent has established special procedures allowingÂ Non-U.S.Â Holders to certify that they are exempt from such withholding tax and (2)Â suchÂ Non-U.S.Â Holders are able to certify that they meet the requirements of such exemption (e.g., because suchÂ Non-U.S.Â Holders are not treated as receiving a dividend under the SectionÂ 302 tests described above). However, there can be no assurance that a withholding agent will establish such special certification procedures. If a withholding agent withholds excess amounts from the cash consideration so payable to aÂ Non-U.S.Â Holder, suchÂ Non-U.S.Â Holder may obtain a refund of any such excess amounts by timely filing an appropriate claim with the IRS.Â Non-U.S.Â Holders should consult their own tax advisors regarding the application of the foregoing rules in light of their particular facts and circumstances, the procedures for claiming treaty benefits or otherwise establishing an exemption from U.S. withholding tax with respect to payments received in redemption of their common stock.Â Exercise of a WarrantÂ The U.S. federal income tax characterization of aÂ Non-U.S.Â Holderâ€™s exercise of a Warrant generally will correspond to the U.S. federal income tax characterization of the exercise of a Warrant by a U.S. Holder, as described under â€œU.S. Holders-Exercise of a Warrantâ€ above. To the extent a cashless exercise is characterized as a taxable exchange, the consequences would be similar to those described above under â€œNon-U.S.Â Holders-Gain on Sale,Â Redemption, Taxable Exchange or Other TaxableÂ Disposition of Warrants.â€ If we purchase Warrants in an open market transaction, the U.S. federal income tax treatment for aÂ Non-U.S.Â Holder generally will correspond to that described above under â€œNon-U.S.Â Holders-Gain on Sale,Â Redemption, Taxable Exchange or Other Taxable Disposition of Warrants.â€Â Expiration of a WarrantÂ The U.S. federal income tax treatment of the expiration of a Warrant held by aÂ Non-U.S.Â Holder generally will correspond to the U.S. federal income tax treatment of the expiration of a Warrant held by a U.S. Holder, as described under â€œU.S. Holders-Expiration of a Warrantâ€ above.Â Â 74Table of ContentsÂ Possible Constructive Distributions with Respect to WarrantsÂ The terms of the Warrants provide for an adjustment to the number of shares of common stock for which Warrants may be exercised or to the exercise price of the Warrants in certain events. An adjustment that has the effect of preventing dilution generally is not taxable.Â Non-U.S.Â Holders of Warrants would, however, be treated as receiving a constructive distribution from us if, for example, the adjustment increases the Warrant holderâ€™s proportionate interest in our assets or earnings and profits (e.g., through an increase in the number of shares of common stock that would be obtained upon exercise or through a decrease in the exercise price of the Warrant) in connection with a distribution of cash or other property to the holders of shares of common stock. Any such constructive distribution would be treated in the same manner as ifÂ Non-U.S.Â Holders of Warrants received a cash distribution from us generally equal to the fair market value of the increased interest and would be taxed in a manner similar to distributions toÂ Non-U.S.Â Holders of common stock. The applicable withholding agent may withhold any resulting withholding tax from future cash distributions or other amounts owed to theÂ Non-U.S.Â Holder.Â Information Reporting and Backup WithholdingÂ Any dividends paid to aÂ Non-U.S.Â Holder must be reported annually to the IRS and to theÂ Non-U.S.Â Holder. Copies of these information returns may be made available to the tax authorities in the country in which theÂ Non-U.S.Â Holder resides or is established. Payments of dividends to aÂ Non-U.S.Â Holder generally will not be subject to backup withholding if theÂ Non-U.S.Â Holder establishes an exemption by properly certifying itsÂ non-U.S.Â status on an IRS FormÂ W-8BENÂ or IRS FormÂ W-8BEN-EÂ (or other applicable or successor form).Â Payments of the proceeds from a sale or other disposition by aÂ Non-U.S.Â Holder of shares of common stock or Warrants generally will be subject to information reporting and backup withholding unless theÂ Non-U.S.Â Holder establishes an exemption by properly certifying itsÂ non-U.S.Â status on an IRS FormÂ W-8BENÂ or IRS FormÂ W-8BEN-EÂ (or other applicable or successor form) and certain other conditions are met.Â Backup withholding is not an additional tax. Rather, the U.S. federal income tax liability (if any) of persons subject to backup withholding will be reduced by the amount of tax withheld. If backup withholding results in an overpayment of taxes, a refund may be obtained, provided that the required information is timely furnished to the IRS.Â Additional Withholding Requirements under FATCAÂ Sections 1471 through 1474 of the Code, and the U.S. Treasury regulations and administrative guidance issued thereunder (â€œFATCAâ€), impose a 30% withholding tax on any dividends on shares of common stock and, subject to the proposed U.S. Treasury regulations discussed below, on proceeds from sales or other dispositions of shares of common stock, if paid to a â€œforeign financial institutionâ€ or aÂ â€œnon-financialÂ foreign entityâ€ (each as defined in the Code) (including, in some cases, when such foreign financial institution orÂ non-financialÂ foreign entity is acting as an intermediary), unless (i)Â in the case of a foreign financial institution, such institution enters into an agreement with the U.S. government to withhold on certain payments and to collect and provide to the U.S. tax authorities substantial information regarding U.S. account holders of such institution (which includes certain equity and debt holders of such institution, as well as certain account holders that areÂ non-U.S.Â entities with U.S. owners), (ii)Â in the case of aÂ non-financialÂ foreign entity, such entity certifies that it does not have any â€œsubstantial United States ownersâ€ (as defined in the Code) or provides the applicable withholding agent with a certification identifying the direct and indirect substantial United States owners of the entity (in either case, generally on an IRS FormÂ W-8BEN-E)Â or (iii)Â the foreign financial institution orÂ non-financialÂ foreign entity otherwise qualifies for an exemption from these rules and provides appropriate documentation (such as an IRS FormÂ W-8BEN-E).Â Foreign financial institutions located in jurisdictions that have an intergovernmental agreement with the United States governing these rules may be subject to different rules. Under certain circumstances, a holder might be eligible for refunds or credits of such taxes. While gross proceeds from a sale or other disposition of shares of common stock paid after JanuaryÂ 1, 2019 would have originally been subject to withholding under FATCA, proposed U.S. Treasury regulations provide that such payments of gross proceeds do not constitute withholdable payments. Taxpayers may generally rely on these proposed U.S. Treasury regulations until they are revoked or final U.S. Treasury regulations are issued.Â Non-U.S.Â Holders are encouraged to consult with their own tax advisors regarding the effects of FATCA on an investment in shares of common stock.Â Â 75Table of ContentsÂ LEGAL MATTERSÂ Davidoff Hutcher & Citron LLP, 605 Third Avenue, New York, New York 10158, is acting as counsel for the Company in connection with the Offering.Â EXPERTSÂ The financial statements as of and for the year ended December 31, 2023 have been audited by RBSM LLP, an independent registered public accounting firm as set forth in their report and are included in reliance upon such report given as authority of such firm as experts in accounting and auditing.Â The financial statements as of and for the year ended December 31, 2022 have been audited by Armanino LLP, an independent registered public accounting firm as set forth in their report and are included in reliance upon such report given as authority of such firm as experts in accounting and auditing.Â PROSPECTIVE INVESTORS MAY RELY ONLY ON THE INFORMATION CONTAINED IN THIS PROSPECTUS.Â WE HAVE NOT AUTHORIZED ANYONE TO PROVIDE PROSPECTIVE INVESTORS WITH DIFFERENT OR ADDITIONAL INFORMATION.Â THIS PROSPECTUS IS NOT AN OFFER TO SELL NOR IS IT SEEKING AN OFFER TO BUY IN ANY JURISDICTION WHERE SUCH OFFER, OR SALE, IS NOT PERMITTED.Â THE INFORMATION CONTAINED IN THIS PROSPECTUS IS CORRECT ONLY AS OF THE DATE OF THIS PROSPECTUS, REGARDLESS OF THE TIME OF DELIVERY OF THIS PROSPECTUS OR ANY SALE OF THESE SHARES.Â Â 76Table of ContentsÂ 9,748,252 Common StockÂ COSMOS HEALTH INC.Â PROSPECTUSÂ October 28, 2024Â Â 77Table of ContentsÂ Â INDEX TOFINANCIAL STATEMENTSCOSMOS HEALTH, INC.Â Â Â Page No.Â Â Â Â Â Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheets as of June 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023Â F-2Â Â Â Â Â Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Statements of Operations and Comprehensive Loss for the three and six months ended June 30, 2024 and 2023Â F-3Â Â Â Â Â Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Statements of Changes in Stockholdersâ€™ Equity and Mezzanine Equity for the Periods Ended June 30, 2024 and 2023Â F-4Â Â Â Â Â Â Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Statements of Cash Flow for the Six Months Ended June, 30 2024 and 2023Â F-6Â Â Â Â Â Notes to Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements for the Period Ended June, 30 2024Â F-7Â Â Â Â Â Reports of Independent Registered Public Accounting FirmsÂ F-39 & F-42Â Â Â Â Â Consolidated Balance Sheets as of December 31, 2023 and 2022Â F-43Â Â Â Â Â Consolidated Statements of Operations and Comprehensive Loss for the Years Ended December 31, 2023 and 2022Â F-44Â Â Â Â Â Consolidated Statements of Changes in Stockholdersâ€™ Equity and Mezzanine Equity for the Years Ended December 31, 2023 and December 31, 2022Â F-45Â Â Â Â Â Â Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows for the Years Ended December 31, 2023 and 2022Â F-46Â Â Â Â Â Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements for the Years Ended December 31, 2023and 2022Â F-47Â Â Â F-1Table of ContentsÂ COSMOS HEALTH INC.CONDENSEDÂ Â CONSOLIDATED BALANCE SHEETSÂ Â Â Â Â Â Â June 30, 2024Â Â December 31, 2023Â Â Â (Unaudited)Â Â Â Â ASSETSÂ Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â CURRENT ASSETS:Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Cash and cash equivalentsÂ $343,509Â Â $3,833,195Â Accounts receivable, netÂ Â 18,383,107Â Â Â 19,759,254Â Accounts receivable - ZipDoctor Inc. (â€œZipDoctorâ€), a telehealth company, a direct-to-consumer subscription-based telemedicine platform. On June 30, 2023, the Company acquired Cana Laboratories Holdings (Cyprus) Limited (â€œCanaâ€), which wholly owned an operating subsidiary, Pharmaceutical Laboratories Cana S.A. (â€œCana SAâ€), a Greek pharmaceutical company that manufactures, sells, distributes, and markets original branded products researched and developed by leading global pharmaceutical and healthcare companies.Â Acquisition AccountingÂ CloudscreenÂ On January 23, 2024, the Company completed the acquisition of Cloudscreen, a cutting-edge Artificial Intelligence (AI) powered platform. The acquisition is pursuant to the purchase agreement announced on October 11, 2023. Cloudscreen is a multimodal platform specialized in drug repurposing, a process that involves uncovering new target proteins or indications for existing drugs for use in treating different diseases. The total purchase price amounted to $637,080 and consisted of 280,000 shares of common stock with a fair value of $319,200 and an amount of $317,880 to be settled in cash during 2024 based on the Promissory Note signed on October 10, 2023. The Company accounted for the acquisition as an asset acquisition in accordance with Accounting Standards Codification (â€œASCâ€) Topic 805, Business Combinations, (â€œASC 805â€) and recorded $637,080 as an intangible asset related to the technology platform acquired.Â ZipDoctorÂ On April 3, 2023, the Company completed the acquisition of ZipDoctor Inc. (â€œZipDoctorâ€), aÂ telehealth company for a total sum of $150,000 in cash and $8,788 in fees. The Company accounted for the acquisition as an asset acquisition in accordance with Accounting Standards Codification (â€œASCâ€) Topic 805, Business Combinations, (â€œASC 805â€) and recorded $158,788 as an intangible asset related to the technology platform acquired.Â Â F-8Table of ContentsÂ COSMOS HEALTH INC.Notes to Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Financial StatementsJune 30, 2024Â Â BikasÂ On June 15, 2023, Cosmos Health Inc. entered into an Assignment and Assumption Agreement (the â€œAgreementâ€) with Ioannis Bikas O.E., a Greek Company (â€œBikasâ€). Bikas is owner of a pharmaceutical distribution network in Greece and agreed to sell to the Company their distribution network and customer base. The purchase price of the network was â¬100,000 ($109,330)Â in cash, and â¬300,000 ($316,081)Â in the Companyâ€™s common stock. The Company issued 99,710 shares of common stock related to the acquisition of the customer base, based on the fair value of the stock on the acquisition date. The Company accounted for the acquisition as an asset acquisition in accordance with ASC 805 and recorded $425,411 as an intangible asset related to the customer base acquired.Â Buildings AcquisitionsÂ On April 24, 2023, the Company purchased a building for a total sum of $1,054,872 in cash.Â The Company accounted for the acquisition as an asset acquisition in accordance with ASC 805 and recorded the cost of the building as "Property, plant and equipment" on the consolidated balance sheets.Â On January 6, 2023, the Company agreed to purchase land and building located in Montreal, Canada from a third-party vendor. The total purchase price amounts to $3,950,000 and the closing date of the agreement based on the amendment signed on July 19, 2023, is December 31, 2023. As of June 30, 2024, the Company has made no additional prepayments concerning this building. The closing date of the agreement has been extended to December 31, 2024.Â Cana Â On June 30, 2023, the Company acquired Cana Laboratories Holdings (Cyprus) Limited (â€œCanaâ€), which wholly owned an operating subsidiary, Pharmaceutical Laboratories Cana S.A. (â€œCana SAâ€) for â¬800,000 ($873,600) in cash and 46,377 shares of common stock, with fair value of $138,667 as of the date of acquisition. Moreover, on February 28, 2023, the Company had signed a Secured Promissory Note with Cana, whereby Cana borrowed the sum of â¬4,100,000 ($4,457,520), included in the total consideration of $5,469,787. The Company accounted for the acquisition as a business acquisition in accordance with ASC 805. The fair value of Cana assets acquired, and liabilities assumed was based upon managementâ€™s estimates assisted by an independent third-party valuation firm. The fixed assets of Cana (which included land, building & machinery) were valued as of December 31, 2022 and the Company believes that nothing has materially changed between such date and the acquisition date (June 30, 2023). The following table summarizes the preliminary allocation of purchase price of the acquisition:Â Consideration Â Â Â CashÂ $5,331,120Â Fair value of common stock issuedÂ Â 138,667Â Fair value of total consideration transferredÂ $5,469,787Â Â Â Â Â Â Recognized amounts of identifiable assets acquiredÂ Â Â Â Financial assetsÂ $1,796,911Â InventoryÂ Â 297,340Â Property, plant and equipmentÂ Â 7,488,818Â Identifiable intangible assetsÂ Â 562,200Â Financial liabilitiesÂ Â (3,235,233)Total identifiable net assetsÂ $6,910,036Â Â Â Â Â Â Bargain purchase gainÂ $1,440,249Â Â Revenue for the 6- month period ended December 31, 2023Â $344,708Â LossÂ for the 6- month period ended December 31, 2023Â $(1,232,732)Â Â F-9Table of ContentsÂ COSMOS HEALTH INC.Notes to Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Financial StatementsJune 30, 2024Â Â During the prior year period, Cana had minimal operations as it was in financial difficulties and seeking for an investor. Â Basis of Financial Statement PresentationÂ The accompanying consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with U.S. GAAP.Â Principles of ConsolidationÂ Our consolidated accounts include our accounts and the accounts of our wholly owned subsidiaries, SkyPharm S.A., Decahedron Ltd., Cosmofarm S.A., Cana Laboratories Holdings (Cyprus) Limited and ZipDoctor Inc. The Groupâ€™s financial statements are prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (â€œUS GAAPâ€). The consolidated financial statements reflect the consolidation of all entities in which the Company has control, as determined by the ability to direct the activities that significantly affect the entitiesâ€™ economic performance. All significant intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated.Â Transactions in and Translations of Foreign CurrencyÂ The functional currency for the Greek subsidiaries of the Company (CANA Laboratories, Cosmofarm S.A. and SkyPharm SA) is EURO (â¬) and for the UK subsidiary (Decahedron Ltd) is GBP (Â£). ZipDoctor Inc. is a U.S. based entity. As a result, the financial statements of the subsidiaries (except for ZipDoctor Inc.) have been translated from the local currency into U.S. dollars using (i) year-end exchange rates for balance sheet accounts, and (ii) average exchange rates for the reporting period for all income statements accounts. Foreign currency translations gains and losses are reported as a separate component of the condensed consolidated statements of changes in stockholdersâ€™ equity and mezzanine equity. Â Use of EstimatesÂ The preparation of the consolidated financial statements in conformity with U.S. GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates. Â The Effects of War in the UkraineÂ On February 24, 2022, Russian forces launched significant military action against Ukraine. There continues to be sustained conflict and disruption in the region, which is expected to endure for the foreseeable future. We do not conduct any commercial transactions with either Ukraine or Russia and the Company and, as such, is not aware of any specific event or circumstance that would require an update to its estimates or judgments or a revision of the carrying value of its assets or liabilities as of the date of issuance of this Annual Report on Form 10-K. Such political issues and conflicts could have a material adverse effect on our results of operations and financial condition if they escalate in areas in which we do business. In addition, changes in and adverse actions by governments in foreign markets in which we do business could have a material adverse effect on our results of operations and financial condition.Â Â F-10Table of ContentsÂ COSMOS HEALTH INC.Notes to Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Financial StatementsJune 30, 2024Â Â Credit LossesÂ In June 2016, the FASB issued ASU 2016-13, Financial Instrumentsâ€”Credit Losses (Topic 326): Measurement of Credit Losses of Financial Instruments, which amends the requirement on the measurement and recognition of expected credit losses for financial assets held. Furthermore, amendments ASU 2019-10 and ASU 2019-11 provided additional clarification for implementing ASU 2016-13. ASU 2016-13 is effective for the Company beginning January 1, 2023, with early adoption permitted. The Company adopted the standard on January 1, 2023, and the standard did not have a material impact on the Companyâ€™s consolidated financial statements and related disclosures. The Company is exposed to credit losses primarily through sales to its customers and the loans that it has provided. The Company assesses each customerâ€™s/ borrowerâ€™s ability to pay, and a credit loss estimate by conducting a credit review which includes consideration of established credit rating, or an internal assessment of the customerâ€™s creditworthiness based on an analysis of their payment history when a credit rating is not available. The Company monitors credit exposure through active review of customer balances. The Companyâ€™s expected loss methodology for accounts receivable is developed through consideration of factors including, but not limited to, historical collection experience, current customer credit ratings, current customer financial condition, current and future economic and market conditions, and age of the receivables. More specifically, the Company assesses a number of customers with significant long outstanding balances on an individual basis, applying different credit loss percentages to them, and subsequently summarizes the ones not included in the individual analysis, groups them based on their rating (decided based on the factors described above) and applies specific credit loss percentages to each group. The Company has elected to follow the simplified ECL approach. The charges related to credit losses are included in â€œGeneral and administrative expensesâ€ and are recorded in the period that the outstanding receivables are determined to be doubtful. Account balances are written-off against the allowance when they are deemed uncollectible.Â Cash and Cash EquivalentsÂ For purposes of the statement of cash flows, the Company considers all highly liquid investments purchased with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents. Â The Company maintains bank accounts in the United States denominated in U.S. Dollars, in Greece denominated in Euros, U.S. Dollars and Great Britain Pounds (British Pounds Sterling), and in Bulgaria denominated in Euros. The Company also maintains bank accounts in the United Kingdom, denominated in Euros and Great Britain Pounds (British Pounds Sterling).Â Accounts Receivable, netÂ Accounts receivable are stated at their net realizable value. The allowance for doubtful accounts against gross accounts receivable reflects the best estimate of probable losses inherent in the receivablesâ€™ portfolio determined on the basis of historical experience, specific allowances for known troubled accounts and other currently available information. As of June 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, the Companyâ€™s allowance for doubtful accounts was $19,086,835 and $19,686,091, respectively. Below is the summary of changes in the allowance for doubtful accounts:Â Â Â June 30, 2024 Â Â Â Â Â Balance as of January 1st, 2024 Â $19,686,091Â Provisions for credit losses Â Â -Â Write-offs Â Â -Â Foreign exchange adjustmentsÂ Â (568,264)Other adjustmentsÂ Â (30,992)Balance as of June 30, 2024Â $19,086,835Â Â Tax ReceivablesÂ The Company pays Value Added Tax (â€œVATâ€) or similar taxes (â€œinput VATâ€), income taxes, and other taxes within the normal course of its business in most of the countries in which it operates related to the procurement of merchandise and/or services it acquires and/or on sales and taxable income. The Company also collects VAT or similar taxes on behalf of the government (â€œoutput VATâ€) for merchandise and/or services it sells. If the output VAT exceeds the input VAT, this creates a VAT payable to the government. If the input VAT exceeds the output VAT, this creates a VAT receivable from the government. The VAT tax return is filed on a monthly basis offsetting the payables against the receivables. In observance of EU regulations for intra-EU cross-border sales, our subsidiaries in Greece, SkyPharm and Cosmofarm, do not charge VAT for sales to wholesale drug distributors registered in other European Union member states. As of June 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, the Company had a VAT net receivable balance of $276,152 and $187,152 respectively, recorded in the consolidated balance sheet as prepaid expenses and other current assets and accounts payable and accrued expenses, respectively.Â Â F-11Table of ContentsÂ COSMOS HEALTH INC.Notes to Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Financial StatementsJune 30, 2024Â Â Inventory Â Inventory is stated at the lower-of-cost or net realizable value using the weighted average method. Inventory consists primarily of finished goods and packaging materials, i.e., packaged pharmaceutical products and the wrappers and containers they are sold in. A periodic inventory system is maintained by 100% count. Inventory is replaced periodically to maintain the optimum stock on hand available for immediate shipment.Â The Company writes down inventories to net realizable value based on physical condition, expiration date, and current market conditions, as well as forecasted demand. The Companyâ€™s inventories are not highly susceptible to obsolescence. Many of the Companyâ€™s inventory items are eligible for return to our suppliers when pre-agreed product requirements, including, but not limited to, physical condition and expiration date, are not met. No significant judgments have been applied in estimating the selling price of our inventory.Â Property and Equipment, net Â Property and equipment are stated at cost, less accumulated depreciation. Depreciation is calculated on a straight-line basis over the useful lives (except for leasehold improvements which are depreciated over the lesser of the lease term or the useful life) of the assets as follows:Â Â EstimatedUseful LifeLeasehold improvements and technical worksÂ Lesser of lease term or 25 yearsBuildingsÂ Â 25-30 yearsÂ VehiclesÂ 6 yearsMachineryÂ 20 yearsFurniture, fixtures and equipmentÂ 5â€“10 yearsÂ Computers and softwareÂ 3-5 yearsÂ Depreciation expense was $103,558 and $79,163 for the three months ended June 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively and $216,432 and $112,569 for the six months ended June 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively.Â Property and Equipment additionsÂ Property and Equipment additions are recognized as assets when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the asset will flow to the entity and the cost of the asset can be measured reliably. Additions are initially measured at cost, which includes all costs directly attributable to bringing the asset to its working condition and location for its intended use. This may include purchase price, freight, installation, and any directly attributable professional fees. They are capitalized if their cost exceeds a certain threshold. The threshold is determined based on materiality considerations. Costs below the threshold are typically expensed as incurred. After initial recognition, additions are measured at cost less accumulated depreciation and any accumulated impairment losses. Depreciation is calculated systematically over the estimated useful life of the asset. They are tested for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable. If the carrying amount exceeds the recoverable amount, an impairment loss is recognized, and the carrying amount of the asset is adjusted accordingly. Borrowing costs directly attributable to the acquisition, construction, or production of qualifying assets, including Property and Equipment additions, are capitalized as part of the cost of those assets. Â Â F-12Table of ContentsÂ COSMOS HEALTH INC.Notes to Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Financial StatementsJune 30, 2024Â Â Goodwill and Intangibles, netÂ The Company periodically reviews the carrying value of intangible assets not subject to amortization, including goodwill, to determine whether impairment may exist. Goodwill and certain intangible assets are assessed annually, or when certain triggering events occur, for impairment using fair value measurement techniques. These events could include a significant change in the business climate, legal factors, a decline in operating performance, competition, sale or disposition of a significant portion of the business, or other factors. First, under step 0, we determine whether it is more likely than not that the fair value of the reporting unit is less than the carrying amount. Following, if step 0 fails, goodwill impairment is determined using a two-step process. The first step of the goodwill impairment test is used to identify potential impairment by comparing the fair value of a reporting unit with its carrying amount, including goodwill. The Company uses level 3 inputs and a discounted cash flow methodology to estimate the fair value of a reporting unit. A discounted cash flow analysis requires one to make various judgmental assumptions including assumptions about future cash flows, growth rates, and discount rates. The assumptions about future cash flows and growth rates are based on the Companyâ€™s budget and long-term plans. Discount rate assumptions are based on an assessment of the risk inherent in the respective reporting units. If the fair value of a reporting unit exceeds its carrying amount, goodwill of the reporting unit is considered not impaired and the second step of the impairment test is unnecessary. If the carrying amount of a reporting unit exceeds its fair value, the second step of the goodwill impairment test is performed to measure the amount of impairment loss, if any. The second step of the goodwill impairment test compares the implied fair value of the reporting unitâ€™s goodwill with the carrying amount of that goodwill. If the carrying amount of the reporting unitâ€™s goodwill exceeds the implied fair value of that goodwill, an impairment loss is recognized in an amount equal to that excess. The implied fair value of goodwill is determined in the same manner as the amount of goodwill recognized in a business combination. That is, the fair value of the reporting unit is allocated to all of the assets and liabilities of that unit (including any unrecognized intangible assets) as if the reporting unit had been acquired in a business combination and the fair value of the reporting unit was the purchase price paid to acquire the reporting unit. Â On December 19, 2018, as a result of the acquisition of Cosmofarm, the Company recorded $49,697 of goodwill. Â Intangible assets with definite useful lives are recorded on the basis of cost and are amortized on a straight-line basis over their estimated useful lives. The Company uses a useful life of 5 years for an import/export license and a useful life of 10 years for the pharmaceutical and nutraceutical products licenses included in Note 4 as â€œLicensesâ€. A useful life of 10 years is also used for the platforms included in Note 4 as â€œSoftwareâ€ and the customer bases. The Company evaluates the remaining useful life of intangible assets annually to determine whether events and circumstances warrant a revision to the remaining amortization period. If the estimate of the intangible assetâ€™s remaining useful life is changed, the remaining carrying amount of the intangible asset will be amortized prospectively over that revised remaining useful life. As of June 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, no revision to the remaining amortization period of the intangible assets was made.Â Amortization expense was $193,518 and $16,035 for the three months ended June 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively and $383,373 and $50,270 for the six months ended June 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively.Â Impairment of Long-Lived AssetsÂ In accordance with ASC 360-10, Long-lived Assets, property and equipment and intangible assets are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset may not be recoverable. Recoverability of long-lived assets to be held and used is measured by a comparison of the carrying amount of an asset to the estimated undiscounted future cash flows expected to be generated by the asset. If the carrying amount of an asset exceeds its estimated undiscounted future cash flows, an impairment charge is recognized by the amount by which the carrying amount of the asset exceeds the fair value of the assets. Fair value is generally determined using the assetâ€™s expected future discounted cash flows or market value, if readily determinable. Â Â F-13Table of ContentsÂ Â Equity Method InvestmentÂ For those investments in common stock or in-substance common stock in which the Company has the ability to exercise significant influence over the operating and financial policies of the investee, the investment is accounted for under the equity method. The Company records its share in the earnings of the investee and is included in â€œEquity earnings of affiliateâ€ in the consolidated statement of operations. The Company assesses its investment for other-than-temporary impairment when events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of the investment might not be recoverable and recognizes an impairment loss to adjust the investment to its then current fair value.Â Investments in Equity SecuritiesÂ Investments in equity securities are accounted for at fair value with changes in fair value recognized in net income (loss). Equity securities are classified as short-term or long-term based on the nature of the securities and their availability to meet current operating requirements. Equity securities that are readily available for sale in current operations are reported as a component of current assets in the accompanying consolidated balance sheets. Equity securities that are not considered available for use in current operations would be reported as a component of long-term assets in the accompanying consolidated balance sheets. For equity securities with no readily determinable fair value, the Company elects a measurement alternative to fair value. Under this alternative, the Company measures the investments at cost, less any impairment, and adjusted for changes resulting from observable price changes in transactions for identical or similar investments of the investee. The election to use the measurement alternative is made for each eligible investment. Â As of June 30, 2024, investments consisted of 16,666 shares which traded at a closing price of $0.75 per share or value of $12,416 of National Bank of Greece. Additionally, the Company has $7,665 in equity securities of Pancreta Bank, which are revalued annually. Â Fair Value MeasurementÂ The Company applies ASC 820, Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures, (â€œASC 820â€), for assets and liabilities measured at fair value on a recurring basis. ASC 820 establishes a common definition for fair value to be applied to existing generally accepted accounting principles that require the use of fair value measurements establishes a framework for measuring fair value and expands disclosure about such fair value measurements. Â ASC 820 defines fair value as the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. Additionally, ASC 820 requires the use of valuation techniques that maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs. These inputs are prioritized below:Â Level 1:Â Observable inputs such as quoted prices (unadjusted)Â in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.Â Level 2:Â Inputs other than quoted prices that are observable, either directly or indirectly. These include quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets and quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in markets that are not active.Â Level 3:Â Unobservable inputs in which little or no market data exists, therefore developed using estimates and assumptions developed by us, which reflect those that a market participant would use.Â In addition, ASC 825-10-25, Fair Value Option, (â€œASC 825-10-25â€), expands opportunities to use fair value measurements in financial reporting and permits entities to choose to measure many financial instruments and certain other items at fair value. The Company did not elect the fair value options for any of its qualifying financial instruments.Â Â F-14Table of ContentsÂ COSMOS HEALTH INC.Notes to Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Financial StatementsJune 30, 2024Â Â Our financials also included the following financial instruments as of June 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023: cash, accounts receivable, inventory, prepaid expenses, loans receivable, accounts payable, notes payable and lines of credit. Except for the loans receivable which carry fixed interest rates, the carrying value of the remaining instruments, approximates fair value due to their short-term nature.Â Customer AdvancesÂ The Company receives prepayments from certain customers for pharmaceutical products prior to those customers taking possession of the Companyâ€™s products. The Company records these receipts as current liabilities until it has met all the criteria for recognition of revenue including passing control of the products to its customer, at such point, the Company will reduce the customerÂ advances balance and credit the Companyâ€™s revenues.Â Revenue RecognitionÂ In accordance with ASC Topic 606,Â Revenue from Contracts with CustomersÂ (â€œASC 606â€), the Company uses a five-step model for recognizing revenue by applying the following steps: Â Â 1)Identification of the Contract: The Company identifies a contract with a customer when it enters into an agreement that creates enforceable rights and obligations.Â 2)Identification of Performance Obligations: The Company identifies distinct performance obligations within each contract, which represent promises to transfer goods or services to the customer.Â 3)Determination of Transaction Price: The Company determines the transaction price, which represents the amount of consideration to which it expects to be entitled in exchange for transferring promised goods or services to the customer, excluding any amounts collected on behalf of third parties.Â 4)Allocation of Transaction Price: The Company allocates the transaction price to each distinct performance obligation based on its standalone selling price. If the standalone selling price is not observable, the Company estimates it using an appropriate method.Â 5)Recognition of Revenue: Revenue is recognized when (or as) the Company satisfies a performance obligation by transferring a promised good or service to the customer. This typically occurs at a point in time or over time, depending on the nature of the performance obligation.Â Wholesale revenue and sales of own branded nutraceutical and pharmaceutical productsÂ The Company has contracts or signed partnership forms (usual in the wholesale sector of the pharma industry) with its customers, stipulating the enforceable rights and obligations. The Company is responsible for transferring the goods to the customerâ€™s location, which represents its sole performance obligation. Thus, the transaction price, which is predetermined in most of the products sold, is exclusively allocated to this performance obligation. Revenue is recognized at a single point in time, which is upon issuance of the corresponding sales invoice. The Company has assessed the impact of the items invoiced but not delivered to the customerâ€™s location as of December 31, 2023 and June 30, 2024, and deemed that it had no material effect. Â Pharma manufacturingÂ The Company has active contracts with its customers, stipulating the enforceable rights and obligations. The Company is responsible for the manufacturing and the packaging of specific products assigned by its customers, which represents its performance obligations to which the Company allocates the transaction price determined. The customers are responsible for providing the raw materials to the Company. Revenue is recognized over a period of time, which is during the production and packaging period of the respective products. As of June 30, 2024, there were no products or batches of products for which the production or packaging phase was in progress. Â Â F-15Table of ContentsÂ COSMOS HEALTH INC.Notes to Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Financial StatementsJune 30, 2024Â Â Medihelm SA Â Commencing from January 1, 2023, and pursuant to the agreement with Medihelm, the exclusive distributor of the Companyâ€™s own proprietary line of nutraceuticals, the Company considers the transaction price to be variable and records an estimate of the transaction price, subject to the constraint for variable consideration. The Company is basing the change in transaction price with the exclusive distributor through assessment of significant overdue receivables from the exclusive distributor, which the Company reassesses each reporting period. Through this assessment, the Company applied the â€œexpected valueâ€ model under ASC 606-10-32-5 and had applied specific constraints to revenue due from the customer at the end of each reporting period. Following the application of the â€œexpected valueâ€ model, the Company had deferred an amount of $397,000Â and recorded it against the sales to Medihelm for the twelve months ended December 31, 2024. However, the Company assessed once more the trading relationship with Medihelm SA at year end and since no significant receipts had taken place up to the issuance of the report, the Company recorded an allowance for the total receivable amount not received up to the issuance date. More specifically a cumulative reserve of $12,655,615 was applied, leaving a receivable of $532,704 due from Medihelm SA, as of December 31, 2023. The Company does not consider that new sales to Medihelm SA or sales to any other customer include a variable component as of June 30, 2024.Â Stock-based Compensation Â The Company records stock-based compensation in accordance with ASC 718, Stock Compensation (â€œASC 718â€) and Staff Accounting Bulletin No. 107 (â€œSAB 107â€) regarding its interpretation of ASC 718. ASC 718 requires the fair value of all stock-based employee compensation awarded to employees to be recorded as an expense over the related requisite service period. The Company values any employee or non-employee stock-based compensation at fair value using the Black-Scholes Option Pricing Model.Â The Company accounts for non-employee share-based awards in accordance with the measurement and recognition criteria of ASU 2018-07, â€œCompensation-Stock Compensation-Improvements to Nonemployee Share-Based Payment Accounting.â€Â Income TaxesÂ The Company accounts for income taxes under the asset and liability method, as required by the accounting standard for income taxes ASC 740. Under this method, deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the future tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax basis, as well as net operating loss carryforwards. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. The effect on deferred tax assets and liabilities of a change in tax rates is recognized in income in the period that includes the enactment date. Â The Company is liable for income taxes in Greece and the United Kingdom The corporate income tax rate is 22% in Greece and 25% in the United Kingdom. Losses may also be subject to limitation under certain rules regarding change of ownership. Â We regularly review deferred tax assets to assess their potential realization and establish a valuation allowance for portions of such assets to reduce the carrying value if we do not consider it to be more likely than not that the deferred tax assets will be realized. Our review includes evaluating both positive (e.g., sources of taxable income) and negative (e.g., recent historical losses) evidence that could impact the realizability of our deferred tax assets. At June 30, 2024, we believe our United Kingdom and Greece deferred tax assets will not be realized, as such, we did not record a reversal on the full valuation approach we followed during the year ended December 31, 2023.Â LeasesÂ The Company accounts for leases in accordance with ASC 842. For all leases, the Company recognizes a right-of-use (ROU) asset and a lease liability on the balance sheet. The ROU asset represents the Company's right to use the underlying asset for the lease term, and the lease liability represents the obligation to make lease payments arising from the lease, both measured at the present value of future lease payments. Lease payments are recognized as an operating expense on a straight-line basis over the lease term. The interest on the lease liability and the amortization of the ROU asset are recognized separately in the income statement. Initial direct costs incurred by the Company in negotiating and securing leases are capitalized and amortized over the lease term on a straight-line basis. The assets and liabilities from operating and finance leases are recognized at the commencement date based on the present value of remaining lease payments over the lease term using the Companyâ€™s secured incremental borrowing rates or implicit rates, when readily determinable. Short-term leases, which have an initial term of 12 months or less, are not recorded on the balance sheet. The Companyâ€™s operating leases do not provide an implicit rate that can readily be determined. Therefore, we use a discount rate based on our incremental borrowing rate, which is determined using the average interest rate of our long-term debt on the date of inception.Â Â Â F-16Table of ContentsÂ COSMOS HEALTH INC.Notes to Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Financial StatementsJune 30, 2024Â Retirement and Termination BenefitsÂ Under Greek labor law, employees are entitled to lump-sum compensation in the event of termination or retirement. The amount depends on the employeeâ€™s work experience and remuneration as of the day of termination or retirement. If an employee remains with the company until full-benefit retirement, the employee is entitled to a lump-sum equal to 40% of the compensation to be received if the employee were to be dismissed on the same day. The Company periodically reviews the uncertainties and judgments related to the application of the relevant labor law regulations to determine retirement and termination benefits obligations of its Greek subsidiaries. The Company has evaluated the impact of these regulations and has identified a potential retirement and termination benefits liability. The amount of the liability as of June 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, was $395,698 and $408,665, respectively, and has been recorded as a long-term liability within the consolidated balance sheets. Â Basic and Diluted Net Loss per Common ShareÂ Basic income per share is calculated by dividing income available to common stockholders by the weighted average number of shares of common stock outstanding during the period. Diluted income per share is calculated by dividing income available to common stockholders by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding for the period and, when dilutive, potential shares from stock options and warrants to purchase common stock, using the treasury stock method. In accordance with ASC 260, Earnings Per Share, the following table reconciles basic shares outstanding to fully diluted shares outstanding.Â Â Â Â June 30, 2024Â Â June 30, 2023Â Weighted average number of common shares outstanding BasicÂ Â 17,025,203Â Â Â 10,718,010Â Potentially dilutive common stock equivalentsÂ Â Â Â Â Â -Â Weighted average number of common and equivalent shares outstanding â€“ DilutedÂ Â 17,025,203Â Â Â 10,718,010Â Â The following table summarizes potential common shares that were excluded as their effect is anti-dilutive:Â Â Â June 30, 2024Â Â June 30, 2023Â WarrantsÂ Â 8,558,380Â Â Â 4,188,928Â TotalÂ Â 8,558,380Â Â Â 4,188,928Â Â Common stock equivalents are included in the diluted income per share calculation only when option exercise prices are lower than the average market price of the common shares for the period presented.Â Accounting Standard AdoptedÂ In December 2022, the FASB issued ASU No. 2022-06, Deferral of the Sunset Date of Reference Rate Reform (Topic 848). Topic 848 provides optional expedients and exceptions for applying GAAP to transactions affected by reference rate (e.g., LIBOR) reform if certain criteria are met, for a limited period of time to ease the potential burden in accounting for (or recognizing the effects of) reference rate reform on financial reporting. The ASU deferred the sunset date of Topic 848 from December 31, 2022 to December 31, 2024. The ASU is effective as of December 21, 2022 through December 31, 2024. We continue to evaluate transactions or contract modifications occurring as a result of reference rate reform and determine whether to apply the optional guidance on an ongoing basis. We adopted ASU 2022-06 during 2022. The Company adopted this ASU on June 30, 2023. The adoption of this ASU did not have a material impact on the Companyâ€™s accounting and disclosures.Â Â F-17Table of ContentsÂ COSMOS HEALTH INC.Notes to Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Financial StatementsJune 30, 2024Â Â In March 2022, the FASB issued ASU 2022-02, Troubled Debt Restructurings and Vintage Disclosures. This ASU eliminates the accounting guidance for troubled debt restructurings by creditors that have adopted ASU 2016-13, Measurement of Credit Losses on Financial Instruments, which was adopted on January 1, 2020. The adoption of ASU 2016-13 did not have a material impact on the Companyâ€™s consolidated financial statements. ASU 2022-02 also enhances the disclosure requirements for certain loan refinancing and restructurings by creditors when a borrower is experiencing financial difficulty. In addition, the ASU amends the guidance on vintage disclosures to require entities to disclose current period gross write-offs by year of origination for financing receivables and net investments in leases within the scope of ASC 326-20. The ASU is effective for annual periods beginning after December 15, 2022, including interim periods within those fiscal years. Adoption of the ASU would be applied prospectively. Early adoption is also permitted, including adoption in an interim period. This ASU was adopted on January 1, 2023, which resulted in no cumulative-effect adjustment to retained earnings.Â Recent Accounting PronouncementsÂ In December 2023, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (â€œFASBâ€) issued Accounting Standards Update (â€œASUâ€)Â 2023-09,Â Income Taxes (Topic 740): Improvements to Income Tax Disclosures. This guidance is intended to enhance the transparency and decision-usefulness of income tax disclosures. The amendments in ASUÂ 2023-09Â address investor requests for enhanced income tax information primarily through changes to disclosure regarding rate reconciliation and income taxes paid both in the U.S. and in foreign jurisdictions. ASUÂ 2023-09Â is effective for fiscal years beginning after DecemberÂ 15, 2024 on a prospective basis, with the option to apply the standard retrospectively. Early adoption is permitted. The Company is currently evaluating this guidance to determine the impact it may have on its consolidated financial statements disclosures.Â In November 2023, the FASB issued ASUÂ 2023-07, Segment Reporting: Improvements to Reportable Segment Disclosures. This guidance expands public entitiesâ€™ segment disclosures primarily by requiring disclosure of significant segment expenses that are regularly provided to the chief operating decision maker and included within each reported measure of segment profit or loss, an amount and description of its composition for other segment items, and interim disclosures of a reportable segmentâ€™s profit or loss and assets. The guidance is effective for fiscal years beginning after DecemberÂ 15, 2023, and interim periods within fiscal years beginning after DecemberÂ 15, 2024, with early adoption permitted. The amendments are required to be applied retrospectively to all prior periods presented in an entityâ€™s financial statements. The Company is currently evaluating this guidance to determine the impact it may have on its consolidated financial statements related disclosures.Â Â Management does not believe that any recently issued, but not effective, accounting standards, if currently adopted, would have a material effect on the Companyâ€™s consolidated financial statements.Â Â NOTE 3 â€“EQUITY METHOD INVESTMENTSÂ Distribution and Equity Agreement Â On March 19, 2018, the Company entered into a Distribution and Equity Acquisition Agreement with Marathon Global Inc. (â€œMarathonâ€), a company incorporated in the Province of Ontario, Canada. Marathon was formed to be a global supplier of cannabis, cannabidiol (CBD) and/or any cannabis extract products, extracts, ancillaries and derivatives (collectively, the â€œProductsâ€). The Company was appointed the exclusive distributor of the Products initially throughout Europe and on a non-exclusive basis wherever else lawfully permitted. The Company has no present intention to distribute any Products under this Agreement in the United States or otherwise participate in cannabis operations in the United States. The Company intended to await further clarification from the U.S. government on cannabis regulation prior to determining whether to enter the domestic market.Â Â F-18Table of ContentsÂ Â The above transaction closed on May 22, 2018 after the due diligence period, following which the Company received: (a) a 33 1/3% equity interest or 5 million shares in Marathon as partial consideration for the Companyâ€™s distribution services; and (b) received cash of CAD $2,000,000, subject to repayment in common shares of the Company if it failed to meet certain performance milestones. The Company was entitled to receive an additional CAD $2,750,000 upon the Companyâ€™s receipt of gross sales of CAD $6,500,000 and an additional CAD $2,750,000 upon receipt of gross sales of CAD $13,000,000. The Company was also given the right to nominate one director to the Marathon board of directors. Since Marathon was a newly formed entity with no assets and no activity, the Company attributed no value to the 5 million shares in Marathon which was received as consideration for the distribution services.Â The Distribution and Equity Acquisition Agreement was to remain in effect indefinitely unless Marathon fails to provide Market Competitive (as defined) product pricing and Marathon has not become profitable within five (5) years of the agreement. On March 20, 2023, the Company sent a termination notice, to Marathon, which became effective on April 19, 2023 as a result of Marathonâ€™s failure to satisfy these conditions. The Company had accounted for its obligation to issue a variable number of the Companyâ€™s Common Shares as Share-settled debt obligation in accordance with ASC Topic 480, Distinguishing Liabilities from Equity (â€œASC

480â€), which was measured at fair value or the settlement amount of $1,554,590 (CAD $2 million). Due to termination of the Equity agreement, the Company recorded a gain on extinguishment of debt of $1,554,590 due to the write-off of the share settled debt obligation, for the six months ended June 30, 2023. Â CosmoFarmacy LPÂ In September 2019, the Company entered into an agreement with an unaffiliated third party to incorporate CosmoFarmacy L.P. for the purpose of providing strategic management consulting services and the retail trade of pharmaceutical products, and OTC to pharmacies. CosmoFarmacy was incorporated with aÂ 30-year term through May 31, 2049. The unaffiliated third party is the general partner (the â€œGPâ€) of the limited partnership and is responsible for management and decision-making associated with CosmoFarmacy. The initial share capital was set to EURÂ 150,000Â ($163,080) which was later increased to EURÂ 500,000Â ($543,600). The GP contributed the pharmacy license (the â€œLicenseâ€) valued at EURÂ 350,000Â (30-year term) to operate the business of CosmoFarmacy in exchange for aÂ 70% equity ownership. The Company is a limited partner and contributed cash of EURÂ 150,000Â ($163,080) for the remainingÂ 30% equity ownership. CosmoFarmacy is not publicly traded and the Companyâ€™s investment has been recorded using the equity method of accounting. The value of the investment as of June 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, was $160,665Â and $165,930, respectively, and is included in â€œOther assetsâ€ on the Companyâ€™s consolidated balance sheets.Â Â NOTE 4 â€“ PROPERTY AND EQUIPMENT, NET Â Property and equipment, net consists of the following at June 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023:Â Â Â Â Â June 30, 2024Â Â December 31, 2023Â LandÂ $3,438,343Â Â $3,551,020Â Buildings and improvementsÂ Â 4,674,665Â Â Â 4,787,963Â Leasehold improvementsÂ Â 3,524Â Â Â 3,639Â VehiclesÂ Â 274,487Â Â Â 285,388Â Furniture, fixtures and equipmentÂ Â 2,697,076Â Â Â 2,707,442Â Computers and softwareÂ Â 195,302Â Â Â 168,173Â Â Â Â 11,283,397Â Â Â 11,503,625Â Less: Accumulated depreciation and amortizationÂ Â (1,229,411)Â Â (1,048,126)TotalÂ $10,053,986Â Â $10,455,499Â Â Â F-19Table of ContentsÂ COSMOS HEALTH INC.Notes to Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Financial StatementsJune 30, 2024Â NOTEÂ 5 â€“ INTANGIBLE ASSETSÂ Goodwill and intangible, net assets consist of the following at June 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023: Â Â Â June 30, 2024Â Â December 31, 2023Â LicenseÂ $6,714,555Â Â $6,876,169Â Trade name / markÂ Â 390,188Â Â Â 392,197Â Customer baseÂ Â 602,204Â Â Â 602,204Â SoftwareÂ Â 795,868Â Â Â 155,788Â Â Â Â 8,502,814Â Â Â 8,029,357Â Less: Accumulated amortizationÂ Â Â Â Â Â Â Â LicenseÂ Â (609,659)Â Â (235,925)Trade name / markÂ Â (36,997)Â Â (36,997)Customer baseÂ Â (141,994)Â Â (110,160)SoftwareÂ Â (47,619)Â Â (11,789)SubtotalÂ Â 7,666,545Â Â Â 7,634,486Â GoodwillÂ Â 49,697Â Â Â 49,697Â TotalÂ $7,716,242Â Â $7,684,183Â Â At June 30, 2024, the estimated aggregate amortization expense for intangible assets subject to amortization for each of the five succeeding fiscal years is as follows:Â YearÂ AmountÂ 2024Â $405,212Â 2025Â Â 807,519Â 2026Â Â 808,689Â 2027Â Â 808,689Â 2028Â Â 756,665Â ThereafterÂ Â 3,724,570Â TotalÂ $7,311,545Â Â NOTE 6 â€“ LOAN RECEIVABLEÂ On October 30, 2021, the Company entered into an agreement for a ten-year loan with Medihelm SA to memorialize â‚¬4,284,521 ($4,849,221) in prepayments the Company had made. The prepayments to Medihelm SA had been made in accordance with the parallel export business, through which Medihelm supplied and would supply SkyPharm SA with branded pharmaceuticals. This business is no longer in place for the Company and thus the Company entered into this agreement with Medihelm SA in order for the outstanding amount to be settled. Interest is calculated at a rate of 5.5% per annum on a 360-day basis. Under the terms of the agreement, the Company is to receive 120 equal payments over the term of the loan. During the year ended December 31, 2023, the Company received â‚¬352,438 ($389,867) in principal payments such that as of December 31, 2023, the Company had a short-term receivable balance of $411,858 and a long-term receivable balance of $3,509,200 under this loan. The Company also received â‚¬156,684 ($167,824) in principal payments and â‚¬81,077 ($86,341 in interest payments during the six-month period ended June 30, 2024. The corporate tax rate in Greece is 22% on income reported in the statutory financial statements after appropriate tax adjustments. Â The Companyâ€™s United Kingdom subsidiaries are governed by the income tax laws of the United Kingdom. The corporate tax rate in the United Kingdom is 25% on income reported in the statutory financial statements after appropriate tax adjustments.Â June 30, 2024 and 2023, the Companyâ€™s effective tax rate differs from the U.S. federal statutory tax rate primarily due to a valuation allowance recorded against net deferred tax assets in in the United States and the United Kingdom. Â We regularly review deferred tax assets to assess their potential realization and establish a valuation allowance for portions of such assets to reduce the carrying value if we do not consider it to be more likely than not that the deferred tax assets will be realized. Our review includes evaluating both positive (e.g., sources of taxable income) and negative (e.g., recent historical losses) evidence that could impact the realizability of our deferred tax assets. As of June 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, the Company has maintained a valuation allowance against all net deferred tax assets in the United States, Greece, and the UK.Â For the three and six months ended June 30, 2024, and 2023, the Company has recorded tax benefit in any jurisdiction where it is subject to income tax, in the amount of $0 and $65,873 respectively, on the Condensed Consolidated Statements of Operations and Comprehensive Loss.Â NOTEÂ 8 â€“ CAPITAL STRUCTUREÂ Preferred StockÂ The Company is authorized to issue 100 million shares of preferred stock, of which 6,000,000 are designated as Series A convertible preferred stock. The preferred stock has aÂ liquidation preference over the common stock andÂ is non-voting. As of June 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, no preferred shares were issued and outstanding.Â Major Rights & Preferences of Series A Preferred StockÂ On and effective October 4, 2021, the Company amended and restated its articles of incorporation (the â€œAmended and Restated Articlesâ€) and filed a certificate of designation (the â€œCODâ€) for its Series A Preferred Stock (the â€œSeries A Preferred Stockâ€) with the State of Nevada. The Amended and Restated Articles allow the Companyâ€™s Board of Directors the authority to authorize the issuance of preferred stock from time to time in one or more classes or series by resolution. On February 23, 2022, the Company filed Correction No. 1 to the COD. On July 28, 2022, the Company filed an Amendment to the COD with the State of Nevada to allow a holder to waive application of the Beneficial Ownership Limitation with respect to the conversion of Series A Preferred Stock.Â With respect to payment of dividends and distribution of assets upon liquidation, dissolution, or winding up of the Company, whether voluntary or involuntary, all shares of the Series A Preferred Stock will rank: (i) senior to all of the Companyâ€™s Common Stock and any other equity securities that the Company may issue in the future, (ii) equal to any other equity securities that the Company may issue in the future, the terms of which specifically provide that such equity securities are on parity or senior to the Series A Preferred Stock (â€œParity Securitiesâ€), (iii) junior to all other equity securities the Company issues, the terms of which specifically provide that such equity securities rank senior to the Series A Preferred Stock, and (iv) junior to all of the Companyâ€™s existing and future indebtedness; without the prior written consent of the Majority Holders.Â Â Â F-21Table of ContentsÂ COSMOS HEALTH INC.Notes to Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Financial StatementsJune 30, 2024Â Â In the event of any voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Company (a â€œLiquidationâ€), the Holders of shares of Series A Preferred Stock shall be first entitled to receive out of the assets of the Company available for distribution to its shareholders.Â Each Holder shall not be entitled to vote with holders of outstanding shares of Common Stock, voting together as a single class, with respect to any and all matters presented to the stockholders of the Company for their action or consideration, except as provided by law or as set forth in the COD.Â The holders of Series A Preferred Stock are entitled to receive dividends paid and distributions made to the holders of Common Stock to the same extent as if the holders of Series A Preferred Stock had converted such shares into shares of Common Stock.Â The Series A Preferred Stock was initially convertible into the Companyâ€™s Common Stock as determined by dividing the number of shares of Series A Preferred Stock to be converted by the lower of (i) $75.00 or (ii) 80% of the average volume weighted average price for the Companyâ€™s Common Stock for the five trading days immediately following the effectiveness of the registration statement concerning the shares (the â€œConversion Priceâ€). On June 14, 2022, the Conversion Price was reset to $15.54 per share.Â Each holder is entitled to receive dividends in shares of Series A Preferred Stock or cash determined based on the stated value of each Series A Preferred Stock at the dividend rate of 8.0% per year. For the year ended December 31, 2022, the Company recorded $372,414 as a deemed dividend in accordance with the Series A Preferred Stock cumulative dividend. As of December 31, 2022, the cumulative dividend has been recorded as mezzanine equity. Following, Mr. Siokas waiver of the right to receive the dividends on February 26, 2024, and the unanimous written consent of the Companyâ€™s Board of Directors on February 29, 2024, through which was resolved that the Company shall remove all accrued and unpaid dividends payable to the previous holders of Series A Preferred stock, the Company eliminated the total deemed dividend of $372,414 through retained earnings. Thus, the balance of mezzanine equity as of June 30, 2024, and December 31, 2023 is $0.Â The Series A Shares rank senior to all of the Companyâ€™s Common Stock and any other equity securities that the Company may issue in the future with respect to payment of dividends and distribution of assets upon liquidation, dissolution or winding up. While the Series A Shares are outstanding, the Company may not amend, alter or change adversely the powers, preferences or rights given to the Series A Shares, create, or authorize the creation of, any additional class or series of capital stock of the Company (or any security convertible into or exercisable for any class or series of capital stock of the Company), including any class or series of capital stock of the Company that ranks superior to or in parity with the Series A Shares, alter, amend, modify, or repeal its Articles of Incorporation or other charter documents in any manner that adversely affects any rights of the holders of Series A Shares, increase or decrease the number of authorized shares of Series A Shares, any agreement, commitment or transaction that would result in a Change of Control, any sale or disposition of any material assets outside of the ordinary course of business of the Company, any material change in the principal business of the Company, including the entry into any new line of business or exit of any current line of business, and circumvent a right or preference of the Series A Shares. Any holder of the Series A Shares shall have the right by written election to the Company to convert all or any portion of the outstanding Series A Shares. Immediately upon effectiveness of a registration statement registering for resale all of the Registrable Securities (as defined in the Registration Rights Agreement), all outstanding Series A Shares shall automatically convert into Common Stock, subject to certain beneficial ownership limitations. Â Treasury stockÂ As of June 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, the Company held 86,497 and 86,497, respectively, shares of our common stock at a cost of $917,159 and $917,159, respectively. Shares of our common stock that are repurchased are classified as treasury stock pending future use and reduce the number of shares outstanding used in calculating earnings per share. Cosmos may repurchase shares from time to time through open market purchases in accordance with applicable securities laws and other restrictions. The Company repurchased no shares of our common stock during the six months ended June 30, 2024. The Company repurchased 71,000 shares of our common stock for $100,452 during the year ended December 31, 2023. The Company repurchased no shares of our common stock during the six months ended June 30, 2024.Â Â F-22Table of ContentsÂ COSMOS HEALTH INC.Notes to Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Financial StatementsJune 30, 2024Â Â On January 24, 2023 the Company announced that its Board of Directors has approved a share repurchase program with authorization to purchase up to $3 million of its common stock. Cosmos may repurchase shares from time to time through open market purchases in accordance with applicable securities laws and other restrictions. Â Common StockÂ The Company is authorized to issue 300 million shares of common stock. As of June 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, the Company had 17,834,023 and 15,982,472 shares of our common stock issued, respectively, and 17,747,526 and 15,895,975 shares outstanding, respectively.Â Issuance of Common StockÂ During the three-month period ended June 30, 2023 the Company issuedÂ 15,258Â to a consultant for services rendered. The shares were valued and expensed on the date of issuance and are separately presented in the condensed consolidated statement of changes in stockholdersâ€™ equity and mezzanine as â€œShares issued in lieu of cashâ€.Â During the six months ended June 30, 2024 raised additional equity funds through a Baby Shelf supplement to its Registration Statement on Form S-3 (No. 333-267550) filed with the SEC on February 29 and March 7, 2024. More specifically, the Company sold 901,488 shares of common stock for gross proceeds of $648,893. Placement agentâ€™s fees and other commissions amounted to $19,467 and thus the total net proceeds for the period were $629,426. Â On December 29, 2023, the Company had entered into a warrant exchange agreement (the â€œWarrant Exchangeâ€) with an investor to reduce the exercise price of 2,437,063 warrants from $2.75 per share to $1.45 per shares as an inducement to exercise. The Company issued 1,487,000 shares of common stock, held 950,063 shares in escrow until the investorâ€™s beneficial ownership limitation allows for the transfer of the escrow shares, and received gross cash proceeds of 3,533,741. The 950,063 shares were issued within the three-month period ended March 31, 2024 but were already valued in the year ended December 31, 2023.Â Exercise of WarrantsÂ We had no warrant exercises during the six months ended June 30, 2024.Â Warrant ClassificationÂ The Company determines the classification of its warrants upon issuance by identifying the instrument issued to determine if it is debt or equity classified. The Company determined its warrants meet the scope exception in ASC 815-10 and are equity classified because, (a) the warrant is indexed to the Companyâ€™s own stock, (b) require settlement in equity shares, and (c) the Company has enough authorized and unissued shares.Â Â NOTE 9 â€“ RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS Â Doc Pharma S.A.Â Doc Pharma S.A is considered a related party to the Company due to the fact that the CEO of Doc Pharma is the wife of Grigorios Siokas, the Companyâ€™s CEO and principal shareholder, who also served as a principal of Doc Pharma S.A. in the past.Â Â F-23Table of ContentsÂ COSMOS HEALTH INC.Notes to Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Financial StatementsJune 30, 2024Â Â Prepaid expenses and other current assets â€“ related partyÂ As of June 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, the Company had a prepaid balance of $5,482,679Â and $4,347,184, respectively, to Doc Pharma related to purchases of inventory.Â Accounts payable and accrued expenses - related partyÂ As of June 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, the Company had an accounts payable balance to Doc Pharma of $112,019Â and $34,217, respectively.Â Accounts receivable - related partyÂ The Company had a receivable balance of $2,774,038 and $2,386,721 from Doc Pharma S.A as of June 30, 2024, and December 31, 2023, respectively.Â Sales and PurchasesÂ During the six months ended June 30, 2024 and 2023, the Company purchased a total of $520,699 and $193,831Â of products from Doc Pharma S.A., respectively. The Company has the exclusive ownership rights for trading and distribution of its own branded nutritional supplements named â€œSky Premium LifeÂ®â€. The duration of the agreement is for five years, however, either party may terminate the agreement at any time giving six-month advance notice. Doc Pharma is exclusively responsible for supplying the raw materials and packaging required to manufacture the final product. However, they are not responsible for potential delays that may arise, concerning their import. Doc Pharma is also obligated to store the raw and packaging materials. The delivery of raw and packaging materials should be purchased at least 30 and 25 days, respectively, before the delivery date of the final product. The Manufacturer solely delivers the finished product to the Company. There is a minimum order quantity (â€œMoQâ€) ofÂ 1,000 piecesÂ per product code. Both parties have agreed that the Company will deposit 60% of the total cost upon agreement and assignment and 40% of the total cost including VAT charge upon the delivery date. The prices are indicative and are subject to amendments if the cost of the raw material or the production cost change.Â For the three months ended June 30, 2024 and 2023, the Company has purchased â‚¬61,597 ($66,295) and â‚¬174,519 ($190,021) respectively, in inventory related to this agreement.Â For the six months ended June 30, 2024 and 2023, the Company has purchased â‚¬126,758 ($137,027) and â‚¬548,980 ($593,427) respectively, in inventory related to this agreement.Â On May 17, 2021, Doc Pharma and the Company entered into a Research and Development (â€œR&Dâ€) agreement whereby Doc Pharma will be responsible for the research, development, design, registration, copy rights and licenses of 250 nutritional supplements for the final products called Sky Premium LifeÂ®. These products will be sold in Greece and abroad.Â The total cost of this project will be â‚¬1,425,000 plus VAT and will be done over three phases as follows: Design & Development (â‚¬725,000); Control and Product Manufacturing (â‚¬250,000) and Clinical Study and Research (â‚¬450,000). SkyPharm has bought a total of as of 81 licenses at value of â‚¬554,500 ($593,204) which is 38.91% of the total cost, as of December 31, 2022. During the year ended December 31, 2023, 24 additional licenses were purchased at value of â‚¬475,014 ($525,461). Â During the three and six months ended June 30, 2024, no additional licenses were purchased. The agreement will terminate onÂ December 31, 2025.Â Â Â Â F-24Table of ContentsÂ COSMOS HEALTH INC.Notes to Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Financial StatementsJune 30, 2024Â Â Purchase of branded pharmaceuticalsÂ On June 28, 2023, the Company approved the purchase of five proprietary and innovative branded pharmaceuticals with significant market presence and material profit contribution from Zakalia Ltd., the parent company of Doc Pharma, for â‚¬1,800,000 ($1,965,600). The transaction was settled on a non-cash basis through the reduction, of an equivalent amount, of prepaid expense balances the Company held with Doc Pharma. The purchased branded pharmaceuticals are presented in "Goodwill and intangible assets, net" on the accompanying consolidated balance sheets. On December 29, 2023, the Company approved the purchase of additional 19 licenses from DocPharma, of a total value of â‚¬3,200,000 ($3,539,840). This transaction was also settled on a non-cash basis through the reduction, of an equivalent amount, of prepaid expense balances the Company held with Doc Pharma.Â Loans receivable - related partyÂ The balance of prepaid expenses due Doc Pharma as of December 31, 2022, had increased to â‚¬7,103,706 ($7,599,545), which was mainly attributable to the prepayments SkyPharm S.A. made in accordance with the CMO agreement and the extensive orders and sales of the SPL products the Company expects to achieve within 2023, mainly through its Amazon channels in the UK, Singapore, Canada and other countries. However, as the benefit from a significant portion of the prepaid balance would not have been realized within a 12-month period, the Company opted to secure a portion of the outstanding prepaid balance through a loan agreement. SkyPharm S.A. (the â€œLenderâ€) entered into a loan agreement with Doc Pharma (the â€œBorrowerâ€) for â‚¬4,000,000 ($4,279,200), all of which was financed through the outstanding prepaid balance. The duration of the loan is for aÂ 10-year period up toÂ December 1, 2032Â (the â€œMaturity Dateâ€). The loan bears a fixed interest rate ofÂ 5.5% payable on a monthly basis and will be repayable in 120 equal instalments of â‚¬33,333.33 ($35,660). The loan may be prepaid anytime during its duration in full or partially based on the Companyâ€™s product requirements and other factors, without Doc Pharma incurring any prepayment penalty. Â As of June 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, the loan had a current portion of â‚¬400,000 ($431,640) and â‚¬400,000 ($442,480), and a non-current portion of â‚¬3,100,000 ($3,345,210), and â‚¬3,200,000 ($3,539,840), respectively, which is classified as "Loans receivable â€“ related party" on the accompanying consolidated balance sheets. During the six months ended June 30, 2024, the Company received â‚¬200,000 ($224,220) in principal repayments, and â‚¬81,077 ($86,841) of interest repayments. Additionally, during the six months ended June 30, 2024, the Company recorded â‚¬96,708 ($103,584) as interest income relating to this loan.Â Â Â Cana Laboratories Holding LimitedÂ Â Cana was considered a related party as the Company had signed a binding letter of intent and an SPA for the acquisition of Cana. The acquisition was completed on June 30, 2023 according to the SPA signed on May 31, 2023. Thus, all balances between the Company and Cana were eliminated upon consolidation as of December 31, 2023. The Secured Promissory Note discussed below was included in consideration transferred upon acquisition.Â Loans receivable - Related Party - Long TermÂ On February 28,Â 2023 (Issue Date), the Company signed a Secured Promissory Note with Cana Laboratories Holding (Cyprus) Limited (the â€œHolderâ€), whereby the Holder borrowed the sum of â‚¬4,100,000 ($4,457,520) from the Company.Â Interest on the Principal Amount under this Note shall accrue at a rate equal to Five Percent (5%) plus 1 month LIBOR per annum (5.47% as of December 31, 2023). The maturity date (â€œMaturity Dateâ€) of this Note shall be five (5) years from the Issue Date. The Principal Amount, as well as all accrued interest shall be due and payable on the Maturity Date. Following, the completion of Canaâ€™s acquisition on June 30, 2023 the balance of the Note was eliminated on a consolidated level.Â Â F-25Table of ContentsÂ COSMOS HEALTH INC.Notes to Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Financial StatementsJune 30, 2024Â Â Panagiotis KozarisÂ Panagiotis Kozaris is considered a related party due to the fact that he is a former General operational manager and current employee of Cosmofarm S.A.Â Prepaid Expenses and Other Current Assets - Related PartyÂ From time to time the Company purchases back shares that Panagiotis Kozaris owns and records them as treasury shares. The Company pays Panagiotis Kozaris in advance for the shares owned and obtains the shares upon execution of a cumulative stock-purchase agreement (â€œSPAâ€). During the three months ended June 30, 2024 and 2023, the Company paid Panagiotis Kozaris an additional sum of $0Â and $51,159 respectively for shares owned, however, no SPA for these funds has been executed as of June 30, 2024. The Company intends to execute a cumulative SPA for these amounts during 2024. The total balances owed of $194,215Â and $194,215Â are included in "Prepaid expenses and other current assets - related party", on the accompanying consolidated balance sheets as of June 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, respectively.Â Basotho Investment LimitedÂ Basotho Investment Limited is considered a related party once Panagiotis Kozaris (former general operational manager and current employee of Cosmofarm SA) is one of its directors.Â General and administrative expensesÂ On November 21, 2023, the Company issued 120,000 shares of common stock to Basotho Investment Limited for services rendered. The fair value of these shares for the period ended December 31, 2023 was $10,300, which was recorded as general and administrative expense. The fair value of the shares vested for the six-month period ended June 30, 2024 was $61,800, which was recorded as general and administrative expense. Â Maria KozariÂ Maria Kozari is considered a related party to the Company due to the fact that she is the daughter of Panagiotis Kozaris, a former Operational General Manager and current employee of Cosmofarm S.A.Â Accounts Receivable - Related PartyÂ During 2021, the Company, through its subsidiary, Cosmofarm SA, commenced a partnership with a pharmacy called â€œPharmacy & Moreâ€, owned by Maria Kozari. The transactions with the respective pharmacy were in Cosmofarmâ€™s normal course of business, however, a more flexible credit policy was allowed as the pharmacy was new and needed to be established in the market. During the three and six months ended June 30, 2024 and 2023 the Companyâ€™s net sales to Pharmacy & More amounted to $95,195 and $117,219 and $181,973Â and $236,205Â respectively. As of June 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023 the Companyâ€™s outstanding receivable balance due from the pharmacy amounted to $1,123,835 (â‚¬1,203,739) and $1,142,402 (â‚¬1,032,726), respectively, and are included in "Accounts receivable - related party", on the accompanying consolidated balance sheets.Â The Company plans to acquire Pharmacy & More within fiscal year 2024. Upon acquisition, the Company intends to offset the outstanding receivable balance with the corresponding purchase price and additionally plans to make Pharmacy & More the first shop-in-shop of its own branded line of nutraceutical products, Sky Premium LifeÂ® (SPL).Â Other Related PartiesÂ The Company has the following balances as of June 30, 2024: a) a balance of $698,000Â relating to unpaid salaries and bonuses due to Grigorios Siokas, the CEO of the Company and George Terzis, the CFO of the Company, classified as "Accounts payable and accrued expenses - related party" in the Companyâ€™s consolidated balance sheets, b) a net payable balance of $37,292 due to Konstantinos Gaston Kanaroglou, former manager and current employee of the Companyâ€™s wholly owned subsidiary Cana, classified as "Accounts receivable" in the Companyâ€™s consolidated balance sheets.Â Â F-26Table of ContentsÂ COSMOS HEALTH INC.Notes to Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Financial StatementsJune 30, 2024Â Â Additionally, the Company had the following balances as of December 31, 2023: a) a balance of $98,000Â relating to unpaid salaries and bonuses due to George Terzis, the CFO of the Company, classified as "Accounts payable and accrued expenses - related party" in the Companyâ€™s consolidated balance sheets, b) a net payable balance of $85,332 due to Konstantinos Gaston Kanaroglou, former manager and current employee of the Companyâ€™s wholly owned subsidiary Cana, classified as "Accounts receivable" in the Companyâ€™s consolidated balance sheets.Â Notes Payable â€“ Related PartyÂ A summary of the Companyâ€™s related party notes payable as of June 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023 is presented below:Â Â Â June 30, 2024Â Â December 31, 2023Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Beginning balanceÂ $11,283Â Â Â $10,912Â Payments Â Â Â Â Â Â -Â Foreign currency translationÂ Â (358)Â Â 371Â Ending BalanceÂ $10,925Â Â $11,283Â Â Dimitrios GoulielmosÂ Dimitrios Goulielmos was the Companyâ€™s former CEO and a Director of the Company. The Companyâ€™s Greek subsidiaries have $2,018,525 in settled tax liabilities payable to the tax authorities in installments and $1,017,767 in payroll tax related current liabilities. Moreover, we have recorded a provision relating to the unaudited tax years of our subsidiary SkyPharm SA, of $619,670 and a provision for staff leaving compensation, based on the corresponding actuarial reports, of $395,698. Additionally, we have received prepayments from our customers of $355,255, included in â€œOther current liabilitiesâ€ as of June 30, 2024. We classify the liabilities payable within the twelve months following the balance sheet date in â€œOther current liabilitiesâ€ and the remaining balance is included in â€œOther Liabilitiesâ€.Â NOTE 14 â€“ COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIESÂ Legal MattersÂ From time to time, the Company may be involved in litigation relating to claims arising out of the Companyâ€™s operations in the normal course of business. As of June 30, 2024, the following litigations were pending. None of the below is expected to have a material financial or operational impact. Â On July 22, 2015, the National Medicines Agency approved the license of wholesale sale of pharmaceutical products under the name SkyPharm SA with set validity at five years and an expiration date of July 22, 2020. Subsequently, SkyPharm on June 15, 2020, legally and timely submitted the application for renewal of the wholesale license of pharmaceutical products to the National Medicines Agency. The National Medicines Agency did not respond, therefore the Company asked for an immediate decision on the renewal. Two months after the filing of the no. 3459 / 15.01.2021 letter and almost nine months after the no. 627615.06.2020 Company application for the renewal, the National Medicines Agency replied by rejecting the renewal request on March 9, 2021 (ref. 62769 / 20-25.02.2021). In addition, document No. 127351-16.12.2021 of EOF (Greek National Medicines Organization) to SkyPharm states that after an inspection of EOF at the premises of Doc Pharma, we did not have a wholesale license in violation of article 106 par. 1b and par. 1c of the ministerial decision D.YG3a / GP.32221 / 29-4-2019. The National Medicines Agency imposed a fine of â,¬15,000 ($16,214) on SkyPharm for the above case, which was included in "General and administrative" expense on the accompany statement of operations and comprehensive loss for the twelve-month ended December 31, 2023.Â There has been a payment request by the Greek court, which relates to a fine arising from Cosmofarmâ€™s tax audit for financial year 2014. The law with no. 483/16.12.2020 was used by the court against Cosmofarm (the â€œdefendantâ€). The defendant appealed against the decision using the law with no.11541/09.03.2021. This appeal was dismissed after 120 days from its submission to the court. Additionally, there had been an obligation for payment of additional tax and fines related to this matter in the amount of â,¬91,652 ($99,644), which the defendant has already settled. However, the defendant has claimed back the respective amount through appeal. As of June 30, 2024, the trial is still pending.Â On January 25, 2023, a criminal case of dishonored checks against Cosmofarmâ€™s customer Filippou, was heard at the Zâ€™ Three-Member Misdemeanor Court of Athens, which was postponed to November 27, 2023, when the defendant was tried and found guilty.Â Â F-34Table of ContentsÂ Â On January 26, 2023, the appeal of the Company against Eleutheria Drakopoulou and decision 1389/2021of the Single-Member Court of First Instance of Athens was heard at the Athens Court of Appeal. The appeal was partially accepted. The Court ordered the return of the fee to the appellants, dismissed the action against the third defendant, Kozaris and accepted the action as regards the first and the second defendants (Kastrantas & Cosmofarm).Â On October 23, 2023, a criminal case of dishonored checks against Cosmofarmâ€™s customer Kafantaris was heard at the Sixth Single-Member Misdemeanor Court of Athens, which was postponed to January 26, 2024, when the defendant was convicted by decision no. 1599/2024.Â Â In October 2023, the Companyâ€™s subsidiary, Cana Laboratories was approached by an Attorney at law on behalf of two clients which were requesting an amount of â,¬39,211 as compensation for the value of 34.70 square meters in relation to an urban sprawl with respect to which an Act of Imputation had been issued by the department of Urban Planning. Our legal counselâ€™s response was that CANA was not obliged to accept the compensatory value agreed and suggested exploring out of court settlement. As of today, the clientsâ€™ Attorney at law has not come back with any suggestions.Â Our subsidiary, Cana Laboratories, has two pending lawsuits against Euaggelismos Hospital for a total sum of EUR 526,436 due to unpaid bills. The court date for one of the two lawsuits is set for December 11, 2024, and for the other one has not yet been set. The opinion of our legal advisor is that the collection of the total sum by the Company is almost certain. Â Our subsidiary, Cana Laboratories, has an unasserted claim against Papanikolaou Hospital for a total sum of EUR 89,300 due to unpaid bills, which will be asserted through a lawsuit. The opinion of our legal advisor is that the collection of the sum by the Company is almost certain. Â A lawsuit dated April 5, 2018 against the Companyâ€™s subsidiary Cana Laboratories by a former employee before the Athens court of instance was initially heard on October 12, 2018. The former employee was seeking that the termination of her employment contract to be considered null and void and was requesting compensation for late wages and moral damages. Following numerous appeals, Judgment No. 1192/2024 was issued on September 26, 2023, which as explicitly stated by our legal counsel, requires CANA to rehire the former employee with the threat of a penalty of â,¬200 for each day of non-compliance. As informed by our legal counsel, in order for the penalty to be effective the former employee should file a new lawsuit against CANA and request to get rehired. In case CANA denies employment, then the penalty should be in effect. As of today, we have not received neither a lawsuit nor any request of employment by the former employee.Â Advisory AgreementsÂ On July 1, 2021, the Company entered into a two-year advisory agreement with a third party (the â€œConsultantâ€) for advisory and consulting services related to the Companyâ€™s intention to become listed on Nasdaq. Peter Goldstein, a then director of the Company is a principal of the Consultant. As consideration for services rendered, and successful Nasdaq listing, the Company paid $100,000. The $100,000 bonus was incurred and settled within 2022. Finally, the Consultant received a total of 10,000 shares of the Companyâ€™s common stock, 2,000 of such shares that have been previously issued pursuant to previous agreements and additional 15,258 shares that were issued on February 2, 2023, based on the amendment signed on February 1, 2023.Â Â On November 21, 2023, the Company entered into certain consulting agreements with four third-party consultants for the provision of a variety of services such as digital marketing, advisory services relating to target acquisitions and M&As and other additional services as described in the respective agreements. The agreements have duration from 10 to 18 months and the consultants will solely receive stock consideration for the services rendered. More precisely, they have been awarded a total of 970,000 shares of the Companyâ€™s common stock valued at a total of $999,100 based on the fair value of the Companyâ€™s common stock as of the agreementsâ€™ date. The corresponding consulting expense is accrued evenly over the term of the agreements. For the twelve-month period ended December 31, 2023 the Company has recorded $77,250 as stocked based compensation for the above agreements, classified as â€œGeneral and administrative expensesâ€ in the Companyâ€™s consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive loss. For the three and six months ended June 30, 2024 and 2023 the Company has recorded $231,750 and $463,500 and $0 and $0 as stocked based compensation for the above agreements, classified as â€œGeneral and administrative expensesâ€ in the Companyâ€™s Condensed Consolidated Statements of Operations and Comprehensive Loss.Â Â F-35Table of ContentsÂ COSMOS HEALTH INC.Notes to Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Financial StatementsJune 30, 2024Â Â Research and Development AgreementsÂ The Company entered into a Research & Development agreement with Doc Pharma S.A. on May 17, 2021. Under this agreement, Doc Pharma is responsible for the research, development, design, registration, copy rights and licenses of 250 nutritional supplements for the final products called Sky Premium LifeÂ®. More specifically, Doc Pharma is responsible for the product development and the Company had added 105 of such products codes in its portfolio as of December 31, 2023. No additional ones were added within the six-month period ended June 30, 2024. The licenses purchased by Doc Pharma SA are capitalized and included in â€œGoodwill and intangible assets, netâ€ of the Companyâ€™s Consolidated Balance Sheets as of June 30, 2024. Thus, no relevant R&D expense had been charged to the Companyâ€™s Consolidated Statements of Operations and Comprehensive Loss.Â On June 26, 2022, the Company signed a research and development (â€œR&Dâ€) agreement with a third party, through which the Company assigns to the third party the development of new products and services in the field of health, focusing on the human intestinal microbiome. The project includes two phases. Phase 1 has a 20-month duration and its cost amounts to EUR 758,000 ($838,450) and phase 2, has a 22-month duration and a cost of EUR 820,000 ($907,084). The amount will be due and payable upon completion of the corresponding phases. The Company records the corresponding R&D expense based on the projectâ€™s progress, which is invoiced by the third party in the relevant period. For the six-month period ended June 30, 2024, the Company has not incurred such costs.Â NOTE 15Â â€“ STOCK OPTIONS AND WARRANTSÂ Omnibus Equity Incentive PlanÂ On September 19, 2022, the Company held a Board of Directors meeting, whereas, the Board of Directors had elected to adopt an Omnibus Equity Incentive Plan (the â€œ2022 Planâ€), that includes reserving 200,000 shares of common stock eligible for issuance under the 2022 Plan to be registered on a Form S-8 Registration Statement with the SEC. The 2022 Plan is designed to enable the flexibility to grant equity awards to the Companyâ€™s officers, employees, non-employee directors and consultants and to ensure that it can continue to grant equity awards to eligible recipients at levels determined to be appropriate by the Board and/or the Compensation Committee. According to the Proxy Statement filed with the SEC on October 20, 2022 the 2022 Plan received final approval by the Companyâ€™s stockholdersÂ at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders held on December 2, 2022.Â On April 3, 2023, the Company approved incentive stock awards for the CFO, certain officers and directors and other employees of the Company. The awards are in the form of restricted stock and will vest in two parts: 50% on October 2, 2023 and 50% on October 2, 2024. A total of 185,000 shares were awarded and a corresponding share-based compensation expense of $108,297 and $216,741 was recorded for the three and six months ended June 30, 2024, based on the amortization of fair value from the date of issuance of April 3, 2023, through March 31, 2024 and June 30, 2024, respectively.Â On August 21, 2023, the Board adopted, subject to stockholder approval, the Cosmos Health Inc. 2023 Omnibus Equity Incentive Plan (the â€œ2023 Planâ€). The 2023 Plan is designed to enable the flexibility to grant equity awards to our officers, employees, non-employee directors and consultants and to ensure that we can continue to grant equity awards to eligible recipients at levels determined to be appropriate by the Board and/or the Compensation Committee. Subject to certain adjustments (as provided in Section 4.2 of the 2023 Plan) and exception (as provided in Section 5.6(b) of the 2023 Plan), the maximum number of shares reserved for issuance under the 2023 Plan (including incentive share options) is 2,500,000 shares. The 2023 Plan was approved by the Companyâ€™s stockholders at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders held on September 18, 2023.Â Â Â F-36Table of ContentsÂ Â Warrant Anti-Dilution Adjustment and Deemed DividendÂ The Companyâ€™s warrants outstanding contain certain anti-dilution adjustments if the Company issues shares of its common stock at a lower price per share than the applicable exercise price of the underlying warrant. If any such dilutive issuance occurs prior to the exercise of such warrant, the exercise price will be adjusted downward to a price equal to the common stock issuance, and the number of warrants that may be purchase upon exercise is increased proportionately so that the aggregate exercise price payable under the warrant shares shall be the same as the aggregate exercise price in effect immediately prior to such adjustment. On December 21, 2021, the Company issued its common stock upon conversion of its convertible debt at an issuance price of $50.50 per share. As a result, the Company issued additional warrants to the Companyâ€™s existing warrant holders to purchase 101,343 shares of common stock with an exercise price of $50.50 per share. The new warrants were issued with a weighted average contractual term of 2.04 years. The deemed dividend was recorded as an increase to accumulated deficit and additional paid-in capital and reduced net income available to common shareholders by the same amount. The Company valued (a) the fair value of the warrants immediately before the re-pricing in the amount of $1,915,077, (b) the fair value of the warrants immediately after the re-pricing in the amount of $9,548,110, and (c) recorded the difference as deemed dividend in the amount of $7,633,033. The warrants were valued using the Black-Scholes option pricing model using the following terms: a) fair value of common stock of $93.75, b) exercise prices of $125.00, $150.00 and $187.50 before re-pricing, c) exercise price of $50.50 after re-pricing, d) terms of 1.40 years, 1.97 years, 2.20 years and 2.26 years, e) dividend rate of 0%, and f) risk free interest rate of 0.41%.Â As of June 30, 2024, there were 8,558,380 warrants outstanding and 8,558,380 warrants exercisable with 8,545,036 warrants having expiration dates from October 2024 through October 2029 and 13,334 warrants with no expiration date. To regain compliance with the Minimum Bid Price Requirement, the closing bid of the Company's shares of common stock needed to be at least $1.00 per share for a minimum of ten (10) consecutive business days. The Notification Letter confirmed that the Company achieved a closing bid price of $1.00 or greater per common share for ten (10) consecutive business days from July 5, 2024 to July 18, 2024, thereby regaining compliance with the Minimum Bid Price Requirement. Accordingly, Nasdaq has determined that this matter is now closed. This cured the delinquency from March 20, 2024, notification that the Companyâ€™s common stock had failed to maintain a minimum bid price of $1.00 over the previous 30 consecutive business days as required by the Nasdaq Listing Rules.Â Â F-38Table of ContentsÂ Â Â Â Â New York Office:Â 805 Third AvenueNew York, NY 10022212.838-5100Â www.rbsmllp.comÂ REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRMÂ To the Stockholders and theBoard of Directors ofCosmos Health Inc. and subsidiariesThessaloniki, GreeceÂ Opinion on the Consolidated Financial StatementsÂ We have audited the accompanying consolidated balance sheet of Cosmos Health Inc. and its subsidiaries (the Company) as of December 31, 2023, the related consolidated statement of operations, stockholdersâ€™ equity and cash flows for the year ended December 31, 2023, and the related notes (collectively referred to as the financial statements). In our opinion, the financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2023, and the results of its operations and its cash flow for the year ended December 31, 2023, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.Â The Companyâ€™s Ability to Continue as a Going ConcernÂ The accompanying financial statements have been prepared assuming that the Company will continue as a going concern. As discussed in Note 1 to the financial statements, the Company has incurred substantial operating losses and will require additional capital to continue as a going concern. This raises substantial doubt about the Companyâ€™s ability to continue as a going concern. Managementâ€™s plans regarding these matters are also described in Note 2. The financial statements do not include any adjustments to reflect the possible future effects on the recoverability and classification of assets or the amounts and classification of liabilities that may result from the outcome of this uncertainty.Â Basis for OpinionÂ These financial statements are the responsibility of the Companyâ€™s management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Companyâ€™s financial statements based on our audit. We are a public accounting firm registered with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) (PCAOB) and are required to be independent with respect to the Company in accordance with U.S. federal securities laws and the applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the PCAOB.Â We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the PCAOB. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement, whether due to error or fraud. The Company is not required to have, nor were we engaged to perform, an audit of its internal control over financial reporting. As part of our audit, we are required to obtain an understanding of internal control over financial reporting but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Companyâ€™s internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion.Â New York, NYÂ Â Washington DCÂ Â Mumbai & Pune, IndiaÂ Â Boca Raton, FLÂ Â San Francisco, CAÂ Â Las Vegas, NVÂ Â Beijing, ChinaÂ Â Athens, GreeceÂ Member: ANTEA International with affiliated offices worldwideÂ Â F-39Table of ContentsÂ Â Our audit included performing procedures to assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to error or fraud, and performing procedures that respond to those risks. As disclosed in Note 1, on June 30, 2023, the Company acquired Cana Laboratories Holdings (Cyprus) Limited (â€œCanaâ€), which wholly owned an operating subsidiary, Pharmaceutical Laboratories Cana S.A. (â€œCana SAâ€), for â¬800,000 ($873,600) in cash and 46,377 shares of common stock, with fair value of $138,667 as of the date of acquisition. Moreover, on February 28, 2023, the Company had signed a Secured Promissory Note with Cana, whereby Cana borrowed the sum of â¬4,100,000 ($4,457,520), included in the total consideration of $5,469,787. The Company accounted for the acquisition as a business acquisition in accordance with ASC 805. Auditing the accounting for the acquisition was complex due to the significant estimation uncertainty in determining the fair values of identifiable intangible assets, and the bargain purchase gain.Â The principal considerations for our determination that performing audit procedures to evaluate the reasonableness of managementâ€™s estimates and assumptions required a high degree of auditor judgment and an increased effort, including the need to involve a fair value specialist.Â How the Critical Audit Matter Was Addressed in the AuditÂ Addressing the matter involved performing procedures and evaluating audit evidence in connection with forming our overall opinion on the financial statements. These procedures included, among others:Â â€”Utilizing personnel with specialized knowledge and skill in valuation to assist in;Â Â i)assessing the appropriateness of the valuation methodology for the intangible assets,Â ii)evaluating the reasonableness of discount rate used in the income approach,Â iii)evaluating the reasonableness of appraiserâ€™s estimates used in the valuation methodologies.Â iv)determination of the appropriateness of the standard of value utilized (ASC 805)Â â€”Assessed the appraiserâ€™s competence, capabilities, and objectivity as it relates to the preparation of the analysis.Â Â â€”Reviewed and assessed the appropriateness of adjustments to Bargain Purchase Gain, other Intangibles and other Assets and Liabilities acquired based on changes to their estimated fair values.Â New York, NYÂ Â Washington DCÂ Â Mumbai & Pune, IndiaÂ Â Boca Raton, FLÂ Â San Francisco, CAÂ Â Las Vegas, NVÂ Â Beijing, ChinaÂ Â Athens, GreeceÂ Member: ANTEA International with affiliated offices worldwideÂ Â F-40Table of ContentsÂ Â Impairment Assessments of Intangible AssetsÂ â€“Â Refer to Notes 1, 2 and 5 to the financial statementsÂ Critical Audit Matter DescriptionÂ As described in Note 5 to the financial statements, the Companyâ€™s intangible assets was approximately $7.7 million as of December 31, 2023.Â The intangible assets consisted of goodwill, licenses, distribution network and customer base and software. Â Management tests these assets annually for impairment or more frequently when potential impairment triggering events are present. Goodwill is tested for impairment by comparing the estimated fair value of a reporting unit to its carrying value.Â The principal considerations for our determination that performing procedures relating to the intangible asset impairment assessments is a critical audit matter because (i) the significant, subjective and complex judgments used by management when determining the fair value estimates of the reporting units; (ii) the high degree of auditor judgment, subjectivity and effort in performing procedures and evaluating the significant assumptions used in managementâ€™s fair value estimates; and (iii) the audit effort involved in the use of professionals with specialized skill and knowledge including a valuation expert.Â How the Critical Audit Matter Was Addressed in the AuditÂ Addressing the matter involved performing procedures and evaluating audit evidence in connection with forming our overall opinion on the financial statements. customer base, based on the fair value of the stock on acquisition date. The Company accounted for the acquisition as an asset acquisition in accordance with ASC 805 and recorded $425,411 as an intangible asset related to the customer base acquired.Â Â F-47Table of ContentsÂ COSMOS HEALTH INC.Notes to the Consolidated Financial StatementsÂ Buildings AcquisitionsÂ On April 24, 2023, the Company purchased a building for a total sum of $1,054,872 in cash.Â The Company accounted for the acquisition as an asset acquisition in accordance with ASC 805 and recorded the cost of the building as â€œProperty, plant and equipmentâ€ on the consolidated balance sheets.Â On January 6, 2023, the Company agreed to purchase land and building located in Montreal, Canada from a third-party vendor. The total purchase price amounts to $3,950,000 and the closing date of the agreement based on the amendment signed on July 19, 2023, is December 31, 2023. As of December 31, 2023, the Company has made prepayments of $2,000,020 classified as â€œAdvances for buildingâ€™s acquisitionâ€ on the Companyâ€™s consolidated balance sheets.Â Cana Â On June 30, 2023, the Company acquired Cana Laboratories Holding (Cyprus) Limited (â€œCanaâ€), which wholly owned an operating subsidiary, Pharmaceutical Laboratories CanaÂ S.A. (â€œCana SAâ€) for â‚¬800,000 ($873,600) in cash and 46,377 shares of common stock, with fair value of $138,667 as of the date of acquisition. Moreover, on February 28, 2023, the Company had signed a Secured Promissory Note with Cana, whereby Cana borrowed the sum of â‚¬4,100,000 ($4,457,520), included in the total consideration of $5,469,787. The Company accounted for the acquisition as a business acquisition in accordance with ASC 805. The fair value of Cana assets acquired, and liabilities assumed was based upon managementâ€™s estimates assisted by an independent third-party valuation firm. The fixed assets of Cana (which included land, building & machinery) were valued as of December 31, 2022 and the Company believes that nothing has materially changed between such date and the acquisition date (June 30, 2023). The following table summarizes the preliminary allocation of purchase price of the acquisition:Â Consideration Â Â Â CashÂ $5,331,120Â Fair value of common stock issuedÂ Â 138,667Â Fair value of total consideration transferredÂ $5,469,787Â Â Â Â Â Â Recognized amounts of identifiable assets acquiredÂ Â Â Â Financial assetsÂ $1,796,911Â InventoryÂ Â 297,340Â Property, plant and equipmentÂ Â 7,488,818Â Identifiable intangible assetsÂ Â 562,200Â Financial liabilitiesÂ Â (3,235,233)Total identifiable net assetsÂ $6,910,036Â Â Â Â Â Â Bargain purchase gainÂ $1,440,249Â Â Revenue for the 6- month period ended December 31, 2023Â $344,708Â LossÂ for the 6- month period ended December 31, 2023Â $(1,232,732)Â During the prior year period, Cana had minimal operations as it was in financial difficulties and seeking for an investor. Therefore, we consider that presenting prior period pro forma financial Â Â information pursuant to ASC 805 would not provide meaningful information.Â Going ConcernÂ The Companyâ€™s consolidated financial statements are prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (â€œU.S. GAAPâ€), which contemplates the continuation of the Company as a going concern. For the year ended period December 31, 2023, the Company had revenue of $53,376,874, net loss of $18,542,654 and net cash used in operations of $14,998,919. Additionally, as of December 31, 2023, the Company had positive working capital of $12,285,310, an accumulated deficit of $91,644,233, and stockholdersâ€™ equity of $36,043,028. It is managementâ€™s opinion that these conditions raise substantial doubt about the Companyâ€™s ability to continue as a going concern for a period of 12 months from the date of this filing.Â Â F-48Table of ContentsÂ COSMOS HEALTH INC.Notes to the Consolidated Financial StatementsÂ The Companyâ€™s revenues are not able to sustain its operations, and concerns exist regarding the Companyâ€™s ability to meet its obligations as they become due. The Company is subject to a number of risks to those of smaller commercial companies, including dependence on key individuals and products, the difficulties inherent in the development of a commercial market, the need to obtain additional capital, competition from larger companies, and other pharmaceutical and health care companies.Â Management evaluated the above conditions which raise substantial doubt about the Companyâ€™s ability to continue as a going concern to determine if it can meet its obligations for the subsequent 12 months from the date of this filing. Management considered its ability to access future capital, curtail expenses if needed, expand product lines, and acquire new products.Â Managementâ€™s plans include expansion of brand name products to the market, expanding the current product portfolio, and evaluating acquisition targets to expand distribution. Furthermore, the Company intends to vertically integrate the supply chain distribution network. Finally, the Company plans to access the capital markets further in order to raise additional funds through equity offerings. More specifically, management will consider postponing the repayment of its outstanding Trade Facility ($1,908,195 balance as of December 31, 2023), intends to make substantial efforts to receive additional debt financing in conjunction with utilizing potential equity proceeds by its outstanding warrants. Moreover, the Companyâ€™s management is considering of postponing certain repayments of suppliers and creditors. However, management cannot provide any assurances that the Company will be successful in accomplishing any of its plans. The ability of the Company to continue as a going concern is dependent upon its ability to successfully accomplish the plans described herein and eventually secure other sources of financing and attain profitable operations.Â Considering the above, management is of the view that substantial doubt exists for the Companyâ€™s ability to continue as a going concern. The consolidated financial statements do not include any adjustments to reflect the possible future effect on the recoverability and classification of assets or the amounts and classifications of liabilities that may result from the outcome of this uncertainty.Â Â NOTE 2Â â€“Â SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIESÂ Â Basis of Financial Statement PresentationÂ The accompanying consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with U.S. GAAP.Â Principles of ConsolidationÂ Our consolidated accounts include our accounts and the accounts of our wholly owned subsidiaries, SkyPharm S.A., Decahedron Ltd., Cosmofarm S.A.,Â Cana Laboratories Holding (Cyprus) Limited and ZipDoctor Inc. The Groupâ€™s financial statements are prepared in accordance with U.S. GAAP. The consolidated financial statements reflect the consolidation of all entities in which the Company has control, as determined by the ability to direct the activities that significantly affect the entitiesâ€™ economic performance. All significant intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated.Â Use of EstimatesÂ The preparation of the consolidated financial statements in conformity with U.S. GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates. Â Â F-49Table of ContentsÂ COSMOS HEALTH INC.Notes to the Consolidated Financial StatementsÂ The Effects of War in the UkraineÂ On February 24, 2022, Russian forces launched significant military action against Ukraine. There continues to be sustained conflict and disruption in the region, which is expected to endure for the foreseeable future. We do not conduct any commercial transactions with either Ukraine or Russia and the Company and, as such, is not aware of any specific event or circumstance that would require an update to its estimates or judgments or a revision of the carrying value of its assets or liabilities as of the date of issuance of this Annual Report on Form 10-K. Such political issues and conflicts could have a material adverse effect on our results of operations and financial condition if they escalate in areas in which we do business. In addition, changes in and adverse actions by governments in foreign markets in which we do business could have a material adverse effect on our results of operations and financial condition.Â Credit LossesÂ In June 2016, the FASB issued ASU 2016-13, Financial Instrumentsâ€“Credit Losses (Topic 326): Measurement of Credit Losses of Financial Instruments, which amends the requirement on the measurement and recognition of expected credit losses for financial assets held. Furthermore, amendments ASU 2019-10 and ASU 2019-11 provided additional clarification for implementing ASU 2016-13. ASU 2016-13 is effective for the Company beginning January 1, 2023, with early adoption permitted. The Company adopted the standard on January 1, 2023, and the standard did not have a material impact on the Companyâ€™s consolidated financial statements and related disclosures. The Company is exposed to credit losses primarily through sales to its customers and the loans that it has provided. The Company assesses each customerâ€™s/ borrowerâ€™s ability to pay, and a credit loss estimate by conducting a credit review which includes consideration of established credit rating, or an internal assessment of the customerâ€™s creditworthiness based on an analysis of their payment history when a credit rating is not available. The Company monitors credit exposure through active review of customer balances. The Companyâ€™s expected credit loss (â€œECL) methodology for accounts receivable is developed through consideration of factors including, but not limited to, historical collection experience, current customer credit ratings, current customer financial condition, current and future economic and market conditions, and age of the receivables. More specifically, the Company assesses a number of customers with significant long outstanding balances on an individual basis, applying different credit loss percentages to them, and subsequently summarizes the ones not included in the individual analysis, groups them based on their rating (decided based on the factors described above) and applies specific credit loss percentages to each group. The Company has elected to follow the simplified ECL approach and for the period ended December 31, 2023 applied a 5% loss rate to all balances outstanding for more than 90 days and 1% loss rate to the total outstanding balance. The charges related to credit losses are included in â€œGeneral and administrative expensesâ€ and are recorded in the period that the outstanding receivables are determined to be doubtful. Account balances are written-off against the allowance when they are deemed uncollectible.Â Foreign Currency Translation and Other Comprehensive LossÂ The functional currency of the Companyâ€™s subsidiaries is the Euro and British Pound. For financial reporting purposes, both the Euro (â€œEURâ€) and British Pound (â€œGBPâ€) have been translated into United States dollars ($) and/or (â€œUSDâ€) as the reporting currency. Assets and liabilities are translated at the exchange rate in effect at the balance sheet date. Revenues and expenses are translated at the average rate of exchange prevailing during the reporting period. Equity transactions are translated at each historical transaction date spot rate. Translation adjustments arising from the use of different exchange rates from period to period are included as a component of stockholdersâ€™ equity (deficit) as â€œAccumulated other comprehensive income (loss)â€. Gains and losses resulting from foreign currency transactions are included in the statements of operations and comprehensive loss as other comprehensive loss. There have been no significant fluctuations in the exchange rate for the conversion of EUR or GBP to USD after the balance sheet date.Â Assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated into the functional currency at the exchange rates prevailing at the consolidated balance sheet date with any transaction gains and losses that arise from exchange rate fluctuations on transactions denominated in a currency other than the functional currency included in the consolidated results of operations as incurred.Â Â F-50Table of ContentsÂ COSMOS HEALTH INC.Notes to the Consolidated Financial StatementsÂ As of December 31, 2023 and 2022, the exchange rates used to translate amounts in Euros into USD and British Pounds into USD for the purposes of preparing the consolidated financial statements were as follows:Â Â Â December 31, 2023Â Â December 31, 2022Â Exchange rate on balance sheet datesÂ Â Â Â Â Â EUR: USD exchange rateÂ Â 1.1062Â Â Â 1.0698Â GBP: USD exchange rateÂ Â 1.2743Â Â Â 1.2077Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Average exchange rate for the periodÂ Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â EUR: USD exchange rateÂ Â 1.0817Â Â Â 1.0534Â GBP: USD exchange rateÂ Â 1.2440Â Â Â 1.2371Â Â Â Â Â Cash and Cash EquivalentsÂ For purposes of the statement of cash flows, the Company considers all highly liquid investments purchased with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents. As of December 31, 2023 and December 31, 2022, there were no cash equivalents.Â The Company maintains bank accounts in the United States denominated in U.S. Dollars, in Greece denominated in Euros, U.S. Dollars and Great Britain Pounds (British Pounds Sterling), and in Bulgaria denominated in Euros. The Company also maintains bank accounts in the United Kingdom, denominated in Euros and Great Britain Pounds (British Pounds Sterling). As of December 31, 2023 and 2022, the aggregate amount in these foreign accounts were $1,047,738 and $831,793, respectively. Additionally, as of December 31, 2023 and 2022, the Company had cash on hand in the amount of $48,590 and $15,690, respectively.Â Reclassifications to Prior Year Financial Statements and AdjustmentsÂ Certain reclassifications have been made in the Companyâ€™s financial statements of the prior year to conform with current year presentation.Â As of December 31, 2022, $421,302, $322,010, $120,294 and $66,401 (an aggregate total of $930,006) was reclassified from â€œPrepaid expenses and other current assets,â€ â€œOther assets,â€ â€œAccounts receivable â€“ related party,â€ and â€œPrepaid expenses and other current assets â€“ related party,â€ respectively to â€œAccounts receivable, netâ€.Â Moreover, $248,678 was reclassified from â€œFinancing lease right-of-use assetâ€ to â€œOperating lease right-of-use assetâ€ and $247,595 was reclassified from Financing Lease Liabilities to Operating Lease Liabilities as of the year ended, December 31, 2022. Finally, an amount of $1,784,751 was reclassified from â€œAccounts payable and accrued expensesâ€ to â€œOther current liabilitiesâ€ as of the year ended, December 31, 2022. These reclassifications had no impact on earnings or stockholdersâ€™ equity.Â Accounts Receivable & Allowance for Doubtful AccountsÂ Accounts receivable are stated at their net realizable value. The allowance for credit losses against gross accounts receivable reflects the best estimate of probable losses inherent in the receivablesâ€™ portfolio determined on the basis of historical experience, specific allowances for known troubled accounts and other currently available information. As of December 31, 2023 and 2022, the Companyâ€™s allowance for credit losses was $19,686,091 and $7,309,311, respectively. Below is the summary of changes in the allowance for doubtful accounts:Â Â Â December 31, 2023 Â Â Â Â Â Â Balance as of January 1, 2023 Â $7,309,311Â Provisions for credit losses Â Â 11,850,788Â Write-offs Â Â -Â Foreign exchange adjustmentsÂ Â 525,992Â Other adjustmentsÂ Â -Â Balance as of December 31, 2023Â $19,686,091Â Â Â F-51Table of ContentsÂ COSMOS HEALTH INC.Notes to the Consolidated Financial StatementsÂ Tax ReceivablesÂ The Company pays Value Added Tax (â€œVATâ€) or similar taxes (â€œinput VATâ€), income taxes, and other taxes within the normal course of its business in most of the countries in which it operates related to the procurement of merchandise and/or services it acquires and/or on sales and taxable income. The Company also collects VAT or similar taxes on behalf of the government (â€œoutput VATâ€) for merchandise and/or services it sells. If the output VAT exceeds the input VAT, this creates a VAT payable to the government. If the input VAT exceeds the output VAT, this creates a VAT receivable from the government. The VAT tax return is filed on a monthly basis offsetting the payables against the receivables. In observance of EU regulations for intra-EU cross-border sales, our subsidiaries in Greece, SkyPharm and Cosmofarm, do not charge VAT for sales to wholesale drug distributors registered in other European Union member states. As of December 31, 2023 and 2022, the Company had a VAT net receivable balance of $187,512 and a net receivable balance of $79,373 respectively, recorded in the consolidated balance sheet as prepaid expenses and other current assets and accounts payable and accrued expenses, respectively.Â Inventories Â Inventory is stated at the lower-of-cost or net realizable value using the weighted average method. Inventory consists primarily of finished goods and packaging materials, i.e., packaged pharmaceutical products and the wrappers and containers they are sold in. A periodic inventory system is maintained by 100% count. Inventory is replaced periodically to maintain the optimum stock on hand available for immediate shipment.Â The Company writes down inventories to net realizable value based on physical condition, expiration date, current market conditions, as well as forecasted demand. The Companyâ€™s inventories are not highly susceptible to obsolescence. Many of the Companyâ€™s inventory items are eligible for return to our suppliers when pre-agreed product requirements, including, but not limited to, physical condition and expiration date, are not met. No significant judgments have been applied in estimating the selling price of our inventory.Â Property and Equipment, net Â Property and equipment are stated at cost, less accumulated depreciation. Depreciation is calculated on a straight-line basis over the useful lives (except for leasehold improvements which are depreciated over the lesser of the lease term or the useful life) of the assets as follows:Â Â EstimatedUseful LifeLeasehold improvements and technical worksÂ Lesser of lease term or 25 yearsBuildingsÂ Â 25-30 yearsÂ VehiclesÂ 6 yearsMachineryÂ 20 yearsFurniture, fixtures and equipmentÂ 5â€“10 yearsÂ Computers and softwareÂ 3-5 yearsÂ Depreciation expense was $353,043 and $70,109 for the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022, respectively.Â Â F-52Table of ContentsÂ COSMOS HEALTH INC.Notes to the Consolidated Financial StatementsÂ Property and Equipment additionsÂ Property and Equipment additions are recognized as assets when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the asset will flow to the entity and the cost of the asset can be measured reliably. Additions are initially measured at cost, which includes all costs directly attributable to bringing the asset to its working condition and location for its intended use. This may include purchase price, freight, installation, and any directly attributable professional fees. They are capitalized if their cost exceeds a certain threshold. The threshold is determined based on materiality considerations. Costs below the threshold are typically expensed as incurred. After initial recognition, additions are measured at cost less accumulated depreciation and any accumulated impairment losses. Depreciation is calculated systematically over the estimated useful life of the asset. They are tested for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable. If the carrying amount exceeds the recoverable amount, an impairment loss is recognized, and the carrying amount of the asset is adjusted accordingly. Borrowing costs directly attributable to the acquisition, construction, or production of qualifying assets, including Property and Equipment additions, are capitalized as part of the cost of those assets. Â Impairment of Long-Lived AssetsÂ In accordance with ASC 360-10, Long-lived Assets, property and equipment and intangible assets are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset may not be recoverable. Recoverability of long-lived assets to be held and used is measured by a comparison of the carrying amount of an asset to the estimated undiscounted future cash flows expected to be generated by the asset. If the carrying amount of an asset exceeds its estimated undiscounted future cash flows, an impairment charge is recognized by the amount by which the carrying amount of the asset exceeds the fair value of the assets. Fair value is generally determined using the assetâ€™s expected future discounted cash flows or market value, if readily determinable. For the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022, the Company had no impairment of long-lived assets.Â Goodwill and Intangibles, netÂ The Company periodically reviews the carrying value of intangible assets not subject to amortization, including goodwill, to determine whether impairment may exist. Goodwill and certain intangible assets are assessed annually, or when certain triggering events occur, for impairment using fair value measurement techniques. These events could include a significant change in the business climate, legal factors, a decline in operating performance, competition, sale or disposition of a significant portion of the business, or other factors. First, under step 0, we determine whether it is more likely than not that the fair value of the reporting unit is less than the carrying amount. Following, if step 0 fails, goodwill impairment is determined using a two-step process. The first step of the goodwill impairment test is used to identify potential impairment by comparing the fair value of a reporting unit with its carrying amount, including goodwill. The Company uses level 3 inputs and a discounted cash flow methodology to estimate the fair value of a reporting unit. A discounted cash flow analysis requires one to make various judgmental assumptions including assumptions about future cash flows, growth rates, and discount rates. The assumptions about future cash flows and growth rates are based on the Companyâ€™s budget and long-term plans. Discount rate assumptions are based on an assessment of the risk inherent in the respective reporting units. If the fair value of a reporting unit exceeds its carrying amount, goodwill of the reporting unit is considered not impaired and the second step of the impairment test is unnecessary. If the carrying amount of a reporting unit exceeds its fair value, the second step of the goodwill impairment test is performed to measure the amount of impairment loss, if any. The second step of the goodwill impairment test compares the implied fair value of the reporting unitâ€™s goodwill with the carrying amount of that goodwill. If the carrying amount of the reporting unitâ€™s goodwill exceeds the implied fair value of that goodwill, an impairment loss is recognized in an amount equal to that excess. The implied fair value of goodwill is determined in the same manner as the amount of goodwill recognized in a business combination. That is, the fair value of the reporting unit is allocated to all of the assets and liabilities of that unit (including any unrecognized intangible assets) as if the reporting unit had been acquired in a business combination and the fair value of the reporting unit was the purchase price paid to acquire the reporting unit. Â On December 19, 2018, as a result of the acquisition of Cosmofarm, the Company recorded $49,697 of goodwill. Â Â F-53Table of ContentsÂ COSMOS HEALTH INC.Notes to the Consolidated Financial StatementsÂ Intangible assets with definite useful lives are recorded on the basis of cost and are amortized on a straight-line basis over their estimated useful lives. The Company uses a useful life of 5 years for an import/export license and a useful life of ten years for the pharmaceutical and nutraceutical products licenses included in Note 4 as â€œLicensesâ€. A useful life of ten years is also used for the platforms included in Note 4 as â€œSoftwareâ€ and the customer bases. The Company evaluates the remaining useful life of intangible assets annually to determine whether events and circumstances warrant a revision to the remaining amortization period. If the estimate of the intangible assetâ€™s remaining useful life is changed, the remaining carrying amount of the intangible asset will be amortized prospectively over that revised remaining useful life. As of December 31, 2023, no revision to the remaining amortization period of the intangible assets was made.Â Amortization expense was $239,841 and $33,085 for the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022, respectively.Â Equity Method InvestmentÂ For those investments in common stock or in-substance common stock in which the Company has the ability to exercise significant influence over the operating and financial policies of the investee, the investment is accounted for under the equity method. The Company records its share in the earnings of the investee and is included in â€œEquity earnings of affiliateâ€ in the consolidated statement of operations. The Company assesses its investment for other-than-temporary impairment when events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of the investment might not be recoverable and recognizes an impairment loss to adjust the investment to its then current fair value.Â Investments in Equity SecuritiesÂ Investments in equity securities are accounted for at fair value with changes in fair value recognized in net income (loss). Equity securities are classified as short-term or long-term based on the nature of the securities and their availability to meet current operating requirements. Equity securities that are readily available for sale in current operations are reported as a component of current assets in the accompanying consolidated balance sheets. Equity securities that are not considered available for use in current operations would be reported as a component of long-term assets in the accompanying consolidated balance sheets. For equity securities with no readily determinable fair value, the Company elects a measurement alternative to fair value. Under this alternative, the Company measures the investments at cost, less any impairment, and adjusted for changes resulting from observable price changes in transactions for identical or similar investments of the investee. The election to use the measurement alternative is made for each eligible investment. Â As of December 31, 2023, investments consisted of (i) 3,000,000 shares, which traded at a closing price of $0 per share or a value of $0 of ICC International Cannabis Corp and (ii)Â 16,666 shares which traded at a closing price of $0.70 per share or value of $11,596 of National Bank of Greece. Additionally, the Company has $8,479 in equity securities of Pancreta Bank, which are revalued annually. As of December 31, 2022, investments consisted of (i) 3,000,000 shares, which traded at a closing price of $0 per share or a value of $0 of ICC International Cannabis Corp and (ii)Â 16,666 shares which traded at a closing price of $0.40 per share or value of $6,681 of National Bank of Greece. Additionally, the Company has $8,200 in equity securities of Pancreta Bank, which are revalued annually. See Note 2 for additional investments in equity securities.Â Fair Value MeasurementÂ The Company applies ASC 820, Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures, (â€œASC 820â€), for assets and liabilities measured at fair value on a recurring basis. ASC 820 establishes a common definition for fair value to be applied to existing generally accepted accounting principles that require the use of fair value measurements establishes a framework for measuring fair value and expands disclosure about such fair value measurements. Â ASC 820 defines fair value as the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. Additionally, ASC 820 requires the use of valuation techniques that maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs. These inputs are prioritized below:Â Level 1:Â Observable inputs such as quoted prices (unadjusted)Â in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.Â Â F-54Table of ContentsÂ COSMOS HEALTH INC.Notes to the Consolidated Financial StatementsÂ Level 2:Â Inputs other than quoted prices that are observable, either directly or indirectly. These include quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets and quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in markets that are not active.Â Level 3:Â Unobservable inputs in which little or no market data exists, therefore developed using estimates and assumptions developed by us, which reflect those that a market participant would use.Â The following table presents assets that are measured and recognized at fair value as of December 31, 2023 and 2022, on a recurring basis:Â Â Â December 31, 2023Â Â Total Carrying Â Â Â Level 1Â Â Level 2Â Â Level 3Â Â ValueÂ Marketable securities â€“ ICC International Cannabis Corp.Â $-Â Â Â -Â Â Â -Â Â $-Â Marketable securities â€“ National Bank of GreeceÂ Â 11,596Â Â Â -Â Â Â -Â Â Â 11,596Â Â Â $11,596Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â $11,596Â Â Â Â December 31, 2022Â Â Total Carrying Â Â Â Level 1Â Â Level 2Â Â Level 3Â Â ValueÂ Marketable securities â€“ ICC International Cannabis Corp.Â $-Â Â Â -Â Â Â -Â Â $-Â Marketable securities â€“ National Bank of GreeceÂ Â 6,681Â Â Â -Â Â Â -Â Â Â 6,681Â Â Â $6,681Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â $6,681Â Â In addition, ASC 825-10-25, Fair Value Option, (â€œASC 825-10-25â€), expands opportunities to use fair value measurements in financial reporting and permits entities to choose to measure many financial instruments and certain other items at fair value. The Company did not elect the fair value options for any of its qualifying financial instruments.Â Our financials also included the following financial instruments as of December 31, 2023: cash, accounts receivable, inventory, prepaid expenses, loans receivable, accounts payable, notes payable and lines of credit. Except for the loans receivable which carry fixed interest rates, the carrying value of the remaining instruments, approximates fair value due to their short-term nature.Â Derivative InstrumentsÂ DerivativeÂ financial instruments are recorded in the accompanying consolidated balance sheets at fair value in accordance with ASC 815. When the Company enters into a financial instrument such as a debt or equity agreement (the â€œhost contractâ€), the Company assesses whether the economic characteristics of any embedded features are clearly and closely related to the primary economic characteristics of the remainder of the host contract. When it is determined that (i) an embedded feature possesses economic characteristics that are not clearly and closely related to the primary economic characteristics of the host contract, and (ii) a separate, stand-alone instrument with the same terms would meet the definition of a financial derivativeÂ instrument, then the embedded feature is bifurcated from the host contract and accounted for as a derivativeÂ instrument. The estimated fair value of the derivativeÂ feature is recorded in the accompanying consolidated balance sheets separately from the carrying value of the host contract. Subsequent changes in the estimated fair value of derivatives are recorded as a gain or loss in the Companyâ€™s consolidated statements of operations.Â Â F-55Table of ContentsÂ COSMOS HEALTH INC.Notes to the Consolidated Financial StatementsÂ Customer AdvancesÂ The Company receives prepayments from certain customers for pharmaceutical products prior to those customers taking possession of the Companyâ€™s products. The Company records these receipts as current liabilities until it has met all the criteria for recognition of revenue including passing control of the products to its customer, at such point, the Company will reduce the customerÂ advances balance and credit the Companyâ€™s revenues.Â Revenue RecognitionÂ In accordance with ASC Topic 606,Â Revenue from Contracts with CustomersÂ (â€œASC 606â€), the Company uses a five-step model for recognizing revenue by applying the following steps: Â Â 1)Identification of the Contract: The Company identifies a contract with a customer when it enters into an agreement that creates enforceable rights and obligations.Â Â Â Â 2)Identification of Performance Obligations: The Company identifies distinct performance obligations within each contract, which represent promises to transfer goods or services to the customer.Â Â Â Â 3)Determination of Transaction Price: The Company determines the transaction price, which represents the amount of consideration to which it expects to be entitled in exchange for transferring promised goods or services to the customer, excluding any amounts collected on behalf of third parties.Â Â Â Â 4)Allocation of Transaction Price: The Company allocates the transaction price to each distinct performance obligation based on its standalone selling price. If the standalone selling price is not observable, the Company estimates it using an appropriate method.Â Â Â Â 5)Recognition of Revenue: Revenue is recognized when (or as) the Company satisfies a performance obligation by transferring a promised good or service to the customer. This typically occurs at a point in time or over time, depending on the nature of the performance obligation.Â Wholesale revenue and sales of own branded nutraceutical and pharmaceutical productsÂ The Company has contracts or signed partnership forms (usual in the wholesale sector of the pharma industry) with its customers, stipulating the enforceable rights and obligations. The Company is responsible for transferring the goods to the customerâ€™s location, which represents its sole performance obligation. Thus, the transaction price, which is predetermined in most of the products sold, is exclusively allocated to this performance obligation. Revenue is recognized at a single point in time, which is upon issuance of the corresponding sales invoice. The Company has assessed the impact of the items invoiced but not delivered to the customerâ€™s location as of December 31, 2023, and deemed that it had no material effect. Â Pharma manufacturingÂ The Company has active contracts with its customers, stipulating the enforceable rights and obligations. The Company is responsible for the manufacturing and the packaging of specific products assigned by its customers, which represents its performance obligations to which the Company allocates the transaction price determined. The customers are responsible for providing the raw materials to the Company. Revenue is recognized over a period of time, which is during the production and packaging period of the respective products. As of December 31, 2023 there were no products or batches of products for which the production or packaging phase was in progress. Â Medihelm SA Â Commencing from January 1, 2023, and pursuant to the agreement with Medihelm, the exclusive distributor of the Companyâ€™s own proprietary line of nutraceuticals, the Company considers the transaction price to be variable and records an estimate of the transaction price, subject to the constraint for variable consideration. The Company is basing the change in transaction price with the exclusive distributor through assessment of significant overdue receivables from the exclusive distributor, which the Company reassesses each reporting period. Through this assessment, the Company applied the â€œexpected valueâ€ model under ASC 606-10-32-5 and had applied specific constraints to revenue due from the customer at the end of each reporting period. Following the application of the â€œexpected valueâ€ model, the Company deferred an amount of $397,000Â and recorded it against the sales to Medihelm for the year ended December 31, 2023. The Company does not consider that sales to any other customer include a variable component as of December 31, 2023.Â Â F-56Table of ContentsÂ COSMOS HEALTH INC.Notes to the Consolidated Financial StatementsÂ Stock-based Compensation Â The Company records stock-based compensation in accordance with ASC 718, Stock Compensation (â€œASC 718â€) and Staff Accounting Bulletin No. 107 (â€œSAB 107â€) regarding its interpretation of ASC 718. ASC 718 requires the fair value of all stock-based employee compensation awarded to employees to be recorded as an expense over the related requisite service period. The Company values any employee or non-employee stock-based compensation at fair value using the Black-Scholes Option Pricing Model.Â The Company accounts for non-employee share-based awards in accordance with the measurement and recognition criteria of ASU 2018-07, â€œCompensation-Stock Compensation-Improvements to Nonemployee Share-Based Payment Accounting.â€Â Concentrations of Credit RiskÂ Financial instruments that potentially subject the Company to concentrations of credit risk consist principally of cash investments and accounts receivable.Â The Company had no clients which contributed 10% or more of revenue and accounts receivable, respectively for the year ended December 31, 2023.Â Income TaxesÂ The Company accounts for income taxes under the asset and liability method, as required by the accounting standard for income taxes ASC 740. Under this method, deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the future tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax basis, as well as net operating loss carryforwards. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. The effect on deferred tax assets and liabilities of a change in tax rates is recognized in income in the period that includes the enactment date. Â The Company is liable for income taxes in Greece and the United Kingdom. The corporate income tax rate is 22% in Greece and 25% in the United Kingdom. Losses may also be subject to limitation under certain rules regarding change of ownership. Â We regularly review deferred tax assets to assess their potential realization and establish a valuation allowance for portions of such assets to reduce the carrying value if we do not consider it to be more likely than not that the deferred tax assets will be realized. Our review includes evaluating both positive (e.g., sources of taxable income) and negative (e.g., recent historical losses) evidence that could impact the realizability of our deferred tax assets. At December 31, 2023, we believe our United Kingdom and Greece deferred tax assets will not be realized, as such, we did not record a reversal on the full valuation approach we followed during the period ended December 31, 2022.Â LeasesÂ The Company accounts for leases in accordance with ASC 842. For all leases, the Company recognizes a right-of-use (ROU) asset and a lease liability on the balance sheet. The ROU asset represents the Companyâ€™s right to use the underlying asset for the lease term, and the lease liability represents the obligation to make lease payments arising from the lease, both measured at the present value of future lease payments. Lease payments are recognized as an operating expense on a straight-line basis over the lease term. The interest on the lease liability and the amortization of the ROU asset are recognized separately in the income statement. Initial direct costs incurred by the Company in negotiating and securing leases are capitalized and amortized over the lease term on a straight-line basis. The assets and liabilities from operating and finance leases are recognized at the commencement date based on the present value of remaining lease payments over the lease term using the Companyâ€™s secured incremental borrowing rates or implicit rates, when readily determinable. Short-term leases, which have an initial term of 12 months or less, are not recorded on the balance sheet. The Companyâ€™s operating leases do not provide an implicit rate that can readily be determined. Therefore, we use a discount rate based on our incremental borrowing rate, which is determined using the average interest rate of our long-term debt on the date of inception.Â Â Â F-57Table of ContentsÂ COSMOS HEALTH INC.Notes to the Consolidated Financial StatementsÂ Retirement and Termination BenefitsÂ Under Greek labor law, employees are entitled to lump-sum compensation in the event of termination or retirement. The amount depends on the employeeâ€™s work experience and renumeration as of the day of termination or retirement. If an employee remains with the company until full-benefit retirement, the employee is entitled to a lump-sum equal to 40% of the compensation to be received if the employee were to be dismissed on the same day. The Company periodically reviews the uncertainties and judgments related to the application of the relevant labor law regulations to determine retirement and termination benefits obligations of its Greek subsidiaries. The Company has evaluated the impact of these regulations and has identified a potential retirement and termination benefits liability. The amount of the liability as of December 31, 2023, and December 31, 2022, was $408,665 and $0, respectively, and has been recorded as a long-term liability within the consolidated balance sheets. The Company engaged an actuarial expert for the first time, during the period ended December 31, 2023, and thus the liability of $408,665 is the cumulative effect of the 2-year period ended December 31, 2023. The effect allocated to the prior period ended December 31, 2022, would have been $147,776.Â Basic and Diluted Net Loss per Common ShareÂ Basic income per share is calculated by dividing income available to common stockholders by the weighted average number of shares of common stock outstanding during the period. Diluted income per share is calculated by dividing income available to common stockholders by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding for the period and, when dilutive, potential shares from stock options and warrants to purchase common stock, using the treasury stock method. In accordance with ASC 260, Earnings Per Share, the following table reconciles basic shares outstanding to fully diluted shares outstanding.Â Â Â Years Ended December 31,Â Â Â 2023Â Â 2022Â Weighted average number of common shares outstanding BasicÂ Â 11,968,665Â Â Â 1,928,172Â Potentially dilutive common stock equivalentsÂ Â Â Â Â Â -Â Weighted average number of common and equivalent shares outstanding â€“ DilutedÂ Â 11,968,665Â Â Â 1,928,172Â Â Common stock equivalents are included in the diluted income per share calculation only when option exercise prices are lower than the average market price of the common shares for the period presented. December 2023, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (â€œFASBâ€) issued Accounting Standards Update (â€œASUâ€)Â 2023-09,Â Income Taxes (Topic 740): Improvements to Income Tax Disclosures. This guidance is intended to enhance the transparency and decision-usefulness of income tax disclosures. The amendments in ASUÂ 2023-09Â address investor requests for enhanced income tax information primarily through changes to disclosure regarding rate reconciliation and income taxes paid both in the U.S. and in foreign jurisdictions. ASUÂ 2023-09Â is effective for fiscal years beginning after DecemberÂ 15, 2024 on a prospective basis, with the option to apply the standard retrospectively. Early adoption is permitted. The Company is currently evaluating this guidance to determine the impact it may have on its consolidated financial statements disclosures.Â In November 2023, the FASB issued ASUÂ 2023-07, Segment Reporting: Improvements to Reportable Segment Disclosures. This guidance expands public entitiesâ€™ segment disclosures primarily by requiring disclosure of significant segment expenses that are regularly provided to the chief operating decision maker and included within each reported measure of segment profit or loss, an amount and description of its composition for other segment items, and interim disclosures of a reportable segmentâ€™s profit or loss and assets. The guidance is effective for fiscal years beginning after DecemberÂ 15, 2023, and interim periods within fiscal years beginning after DecemberÂ 15, 2024, with early adoption permitted. The amendments are required to be applied retrospectively to all prior periods presented in an entityâ€™s financial statements. The Company is currently evaluating this guidance to determine the impact it may have on its consolidated financial statements related disclosures.Â Â In December 2022, the FASB issued ASU No. 2022-06, Deferral of the Sunset Date of Reference Rate Reform (Topic 848). Topic 848 provides optional expedients and exceptions for applying GAAP to transactions affected by reference rate (e.g., LIBOR) reform if certain criteria are met, for a limited period of time to ease the potential burden in accounting for (or recognizing the effects of) reference rate reform on financial reporting. The ASU deferred the sunset date of Topic 848 from December 31, 2022 to December 31, 2024. The ASU is effective as of December 21, 2022 through December 31, 2024. We continue to evaluate transactions or contract modifications occurring as a result of reference rate reform and determine whether to apply the optional guidance on an ongoing basis. We adopted ASU 2022-06 during 2022. The Company adopted this ASU on June 30, 2023. The adoption of this ASU did not have a material impact on the Companyâ€™s accounting and disclosures.Â In March 2022, the FASB issued ASU 2022-02, Troubled Debt Restructurings and Vintage Disclosures. This ASU eliminates the accounting guidance for troubled debt restructurings by creditors that have adopted ASU 2016-13, Measurement of Credit Losses on Financial Instruments, which was adopted on January 1, 2020. The adoption of ASU 2016-13 did not have a material impact on the Companyâ€™s consolidated financial statements. ASU 2022-02 also enhances the disclosure requirements for certain loan refinancing and restructurings by creditors when a borrower is experiencing financial difficulty. In addition, the ASU amends the guidance on vintage disclosures to require entities to disclose current period gross write-offs by year of origination for financing receivables and net investments in leases within the scope of ASC 326-20. The ASU is effective for annual periods beginning after December 15, 2022, including interim periods within those fiscal years. Adoption of the ASU would be applied prospectively. Early adoption is also permitted, including adoption in an interim period. This ASU was adopted on January 1, 2023, which resulted in no cumulative-effect adjustment to retained earnings.Â Â F-58Table of ContentsÂ COSMOS HEALTH INC.Notes to the Consolidated Financial StatementsÂ In October 2021, the FASB issued ASU 2021-08, Business Combinations (Topic 805): Accounting for Contract Assets and Contract Liabilities from Contracts with Customers, which requires contract assets and contract liabilities (i.e., deferred revenue) acquired in a business combination to be recognized and measured by the acquirer on the acquisition date in accordance with ASC 606, Revenue from Contracts with Customers, as if it had originated the contracts. The new guidance creates an exception to the general recognition and measurement principles of ASC 805, Business Combinations. The new guidance should be applied prospectively and is effective for all public business entities for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2022 and include interim periods. The Company adopted this ASU which resulted in no impact on the Companyâ€™s consolidated financial statements.Â Management does not believe that any recently issued, but not effective, accounting standards, if currently adopted, would have a material effect on the Companyâ€™s consolidated financial statements.Â Â NOTE 3 â€“EQUITY METHOD INVESTMENTSÂ Distribution and Equity Agreement Â On March 19, 2018, the Company entered into a Distribution and Equity Acquisition Agreement with Marathon Global Inc. (â€œMarathonâ€), a company incorporated in the Province of Ontario, Canada. Marathon was formed to be a global supplier of cannabis, cannabidiol (CBD) and/or any cannabis extract products, extracts, ancillaries and derivatives (collectively, the â€œProductsâ€). The Company was appointed the exclusive distributor of the Products initially throughout Europe and on a non-exclusive basis wherever else lawfully permitted. The Company has no present intention to distribute any Products under this Agreement in the United States or otherwise participate in cannabis operations in the United States. The Company intended to await further clarification from the U.S. Government on cannabis regulation prior to determining whether to enter the domestic market.Â The above transaction closed on May 22, 2018 after the due diligence period, following which the Company received: (a) a 33 1/3% equity interest or 5 million shares in Marathon as partial consideration for the Companyâ€™s distribution services; and (b) received cash of CAD $2,000,000, subject to repayment in common shares of the Company if it failed to meet certain performance milestones. The Company was entitled to receive an additional CAD $2,750,000 upon the Companyâ€™s receipt of gross sales of CAD $6,500,000 and an additional CAD $2,750,000 upon receipt of gross sales of CAD $13,000,000. The Company was also given the right to nominate one director to the Marathon board of directors. Since Marathon was a newly formed entity with no assets and no activity, the Company attributed no value to the 5 million shares in Marathon which was received as consideration for the distribution services.Â The Distribution and Equity Acquisition Agreement was to remain in effect indefinitely unless Marathon fails to provide Market Competitive (as defined) product pricing and Marathon has not become profitable within five years of the agreement. On March 20, 2023, the Company sent a termination notice, to Marathon, which became effective on April 19, 2023 as a result of Marathonâ€™s failure to satisfy these conditions. The Company had accounted for its obligation to issue a variable number of the Companyâ€™s Common Shares as Share-settled debt obligation in accordance with ASC Topic 480, Distinguishing Liabilities from Equity (â€œASC 480â€), which was measured at fair value or the settlement amount of $1,554,590 (CAD $2 million). Due to termination of the Distribution and Equity Acquisition Agreement, the Company recorded a gain on extinguishment of debt of $1,554,590 due to the write-off of the share settled debt obligation, for the year ended December 31, 2023. Â Â F-59Table of ContentsÂ COSMOS HEALTH INC.Notes to the Consolidated Financial StatementsÂ CosmoFarmacy LPÂ In September 2019, the Company entered into an agreement with an unaffiliated third party to incorporate CosmoFarmacy L.P. for the purpose of providing strategic management consulting services and the retail trade of pharmaceutical products, and OTC to pharmacies. CosmoFarmacy was incorporated with aÂ 30-year term through May 31, 2049. The unaffiliated third party is the general partner (the â€œGPâ€) of the limited partnership and is responsible for management and decision-making associated with CosmoFarmacy. The initial share capital was set to EURÂ 150,000Â ($163,080) which was later increased to EURÂ 500,000Â ($543,600). The GP contributed the pharmacy license (the â€œLicenseâ€) valued at EURÂ 350,000Â (30-year term) to operate the business of CosmoFarmacy in exchange for aÂ 70% equity ownership. The Company is a limited partner and contributed cash of EURÂ 150,000Â ($163,080) for the remainingÂ 30% equity ownership. CosmoFarmacy is not publicly traded and the Companyâ€™s investment has been recorded using the equity method of accounting. The value of the investment as of December 31, 2023 and December 31, 2022, was $165,930Â and $160,470, respectively, and is included in â€œOther assetsâ€ on the Companyâ€™s consolidated balance sheets.Â Â NOTE 4 â€“ PROPERTY AND EQUIPMENT, NET Â Property and equipment, net consists of the following at December 31, 2023 and 2022:Â Â Â Â 2023Â Â 2022Â LandÂ $3,551,020Â Â $-Â Buildings and improvementsÂ Â 4,787,963Â Â Â -Â Leasehold improvementsÂ Â 3,639Â Â Â 502,882Â VehiclesÂ Â 285,388Â Â Â 107,976Â Furniture, fixtures and equipmentÂ Â 2,707,442Â Â Â 1,945,207Â Computers and softwareÂ Â 168,173Â Â Â 138,783Â Â Â Â 11,503,625Â Â Â 2,694,848Â Less: Accumulated depreciation and amortizationÂ Â (1,048,126)Â Â (877,823)TotalÂ $10,455,499Â Â $1,817,025Â Â Â NOTEÂ 5 â€“ INTANGIBLE ASSETSÂ Intangible assets consist of the following at December 31, 2023 and 2022: Â Â Â 2023Â Â 2022Â LicenseÂ $6,876,169Â Â $643,204Â Trade name / markÂ Â 392,197Â Â Â 36,997Â Customer baseÂ Â 602,204Â Â Â 176,793Â SoftwareÂ Â 158,788Â Â Â -Â Â Â Â 8,029,358Â Â Â 856,994Â Less: Accumulated amortizationÂ Â Â Â Â Â Â Â LicenseÂ Â (235,925)Â Â (98,686)Trade name / markÂ Â (36,997)Â Â (29,881)Customer baseÂ Â (110,161)Â Â (71,210)SoftwareÂ Â (11,789)Â Â -Â SubtotalÂ Â 7,634,486Â Â Â 657,217Â GoodwillÂ Â 49,697Â Â Â 49,697Â TotalÂ $7,684,183Â Â $706,914Â Â Â Â F-60Table of ContentsÂ COSMOS HEALTH INC.Notes to the Consolidated Financial StatementsÂ At December 31, 2023, the estimated aggregate amortization expense for intangible assets subject to amortization for each of the five succeeding fiscal years is as follows:Â YearÂ AmountÂ 2024Â $763,292Â 2025Â Â 763,026Â 2026Â Â 764,213Â 2027Â Â 764,213Â 2028Â Â 735,772Â ThereafterÂ Â 3,488,769Â SumÂ $7,279,285Â Â Â NOTE 6 â€“ LOAN RECEIVABLEÂ On October 30, 2021, the Company entered into an agreement for a ten-year loan with Medihelm SA to memorialize â‚¬4,284,521 ($4,849,221) in prepayments the Company had made. The prepayments to Medihelm SA had been made in accordance with the parallel export business, through which Medihelm supplied and would supply SkyPharm SA with branded pharmaceuticals. This business is no longer in place for the Company and thus the Company entered into this agreement with Medihelm SA in order for the outstanding amount to be settled. Interest is calculated at a rate of 5.5% per annum on a 360-day basis. Under the terms of the agreement, the Company is to receive 120 equal payments over the term of the loan. As of December 31, 2022, the Company had a short-term receivable balance of $377,038 and a long-term receivable balance of $3,792,034 under this loan. During the year ended December 31, 2023, the Company received â‚¬352,438 ($389,867) in principal payments such that as of December 31, 2023, the Company had a short-term receivable balance of $411,858 and a long-term receivable balance of $3,509,200 under this loan. The Company also received â‚¬174,711 ($193,265) in interest payments during year ended December 31, 2023. The Note is considered fully recoverable and all capital and interest repayments due as of December 31, 2023 have been settled.Â NOTEÂ 7 â€“ CAPITAL STRUCTUREÂ Preferred StockÂ The Company is authorized to issue 100 million shares of preferred stock, of which 6,000,000 are designated as Series A convertible preferred stock. The preferred stock has aÂ liquidation preference over the common stock andÂ is non-voting. As of December 31, 2023 and 2022, all Series A convertible preferred stock had been converted and no preferred shares were issued and outstanding.Â Major Rights & Preferences of Series A Preferred StockÂ On and effective October 4, 2021, the Company amended and restated its articles of incorporation (the â€œAmended and Restated Articlesâ€) and filed a certificate of designation (the â€œCODâ€) for its Series A Preferred Stock (the â€œSeries A Preferred Stockâ€) with the State of Nevada. The Amended and Restated Articles allow the Companyâ€™s Board of Directors the authority to authorize the issuance of preferred stock from time to time in one or more classes or series by resolution. On February 23, 2022, the Company filed Correction No. 1 to the COD. On July 28, 2022, the Company filed an Amendment to the COD with the State of Nevada to allow a holder to waive application of the Beneficial Ownership Limitation with respect to the conversion of Series A Preferred Stock.Â With respect to payment of dividends and distribution of assets upon liquidation, dissolution, or winding up of the Company, whether voluntary or involuntary, all shares of the Series A Preferred Stock will rank: (i) senior to all of the Companyâ€™s Common Stock and any other equity securities that the Company may issue in the future, (ii) equal to any other equity securities that the Company may issue in the future, the terms of which specifically provide that such equity securities are on parity or senior to the Series A Preferred Stock (â€œParity Securitiesâ€), (iii) junior to all other equity securities the Company issues, the terms of which specifically provide that such equity securities rank senior to the Series A Preferred Stock, and (iv) junior to all of the Companyâ€™s existing and future indebtedness; without the prior written consent of the Majority Holders.Â Â Â Â F-61Table of ContentsÂ COSMOS HEALTH INC.Notes to the Consolidated Financial StatementsÂ In the event of any voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Company (a â€œLiquidationâ€), the Holders of shares of Series A Preferred Stock shall be first entitled to receive out of the assets of the Company available for distribution to its shareholders.Â Each Holder shall not be entitled to vote with holders of outstanding shares of Common Stock, voting together as a single class, with respect to any and all matters presented to the stockholders of the Company for their action or consideration, except as provided by law or as set forth in the COD.Â The holders of Series A Preferred Stock are entitled to receive dividends paid and distributions made to the holders of Common Stock to the same extent as if the holders of Series A Preferred Stock had converted such shares into shares of Common Stock.Â The Series A Preferred Stock was initially convertible into the Companyâ€™s Common Stock as determined by dividing the number of shares of Series A Preferred Stock to be converted by the lower of (i) $75.00 or (ii) 80% of the average volume weighted average price for the Companyâ€™s Common Stock for the five trading days immediately following the effectiveness of the registration statement concerning the shares (the â€œConversion Priceâ€). On June 14, 2022, the Conversion Price was reset to $15.54 per share.Â Each holder is entitled to receive dividends in shares of Series A Preferred Stock or cash determined based on the stated value of each Series A Preferred Stock at the dividend rate of 8.0% per year. For the year ended December 31, 2022, the Company recorded $372,414 as a deemed dividend in accordance with the Series A Preferred Stock cumulative dividend. As of December 31, 2022, the cumulative dividend has been recorded as mezzanine equity. Following, Mr. Siokas waiver of the right to receive the dividends on February 26, 2024 and the unanimous written consent of the Companyâ€™s Board of Directors on February 29, 2024, through which was resolved that the Company shall remove all accrued and unpaid dividends payable to the previous holders of Series A Preferred stock, the Company eliminated the total deemed dividend of $372,414 through retained earnings. Thus, the balance of mezzanine equity as of December 31, 2023 is $0.Â On February 28, 2022, the Company entered into a securities purchase agreement, or the Purchase Agreement, with certain investors and an insider for a private placement of the Companyâ€™s securities (the â€œPrivate Placementâ€).Â The Private Placement consisted of the sale ofÂ 6,000Â shares of the Companyâ€™s Series A Convertible Preferred Stock, or the Series A Shares, at a price of $1,000 per share, andÂ 80,000Â warrants to purchase shares of common stock, or the Warrants, for aggregate gross proceeds of approximately $6Â million. The Warrants were initially exercisable to purchase shares of common stock at $82.50 per share, or 110% of the Series A Shares initial conversion price and will expire five and one-half years following the initial exercise date of the Warrants. The Company determined that the 80,000 warrants are additional value being distributed to the preferred stockholders and presented the warrantsâ€™ fair value of $5,788,493 as a deemed dividend on issuance of warrants in the consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive loss. The warrants were valued using the Black-Scholes option pricing model with the following terms: a) exercise price of $82.50, b) common stock fair value of $85.50, c) volatility of 118%, d) discount rate of 1.71%, e) term of 5.50 years and f) dividend rate of 0%.Â The closing of the Private Placement occurred on February 28, 2022. As a condition to the closing of the sale, the Companyâ€™s common stock received conditional approval for listing and trading on the Nasdaq Capital Market and commenced trading on February 28, 2022, under the trading symbol COSM. Concurrent with the issuance of the Series A Shares, the Company executed a registration rights agreement (the â€œRegistration Rights Agreementâ€) to register the resale of the shares of common stock issuable upon conversion of the Series A Shares and the shares of common stock issuable upon exercise of the warrants issued in connection with the Series A Shares. The Company was required to file its initial registration statement within 45 days following February 28, 2022. The Effectiveness Date was required to be 60 days after February 28, 2022, or 75 days following the SECâ€™s full review, and any additional registration statements that may be required are to be filed within 20 days following the date required by the SEC. If the Company fails to timely file its initial registration statement, or any additional registration statement, or otherwise comply with the requirements of the Registration Rights Agreement, the Company shall pay each holder 2% of the subscription amount in cash until cured, with an additional penalty of 18% if the cash payment is not made within seven days of the cash payable date.Â Â F-62Table of ContentsÂ COSMOS HEALTH INC.Notes to the Consolidated Financial StatementsÂ The Company filed its initial registration statement on May 25, 2022, and thus accrued for liquidated damages payable to the holders in the amount of $250,260, calculated as described above, for both the late filing of the registration statement (event) and the 1st anniversary (30 days following the event date) of the event, which, along with an additional lump sum amount of $2,000,000 agreed to be paid to the investors as additional damages, led to a total amount of $2,250,260 concerning liquidated damages related to the February Private Placement within the year ended December 31, 2022. Upon the effectiveness of the Companyâ€™s registration statement, the Series A Shares conversion price was adjusted to $15.54Â and the warrant exercise price was adjusted to $15.54 per share. The Company recorded a deemed dividend in the amount of $8,189,515 upon reducing the conversion price from $75.00 to $15.54 which was recorded as an increase to additional paid-in capital and an increase to accumulated deficit.Â The Series A Shares rank senior to all of the Companyâ€™s Common Stock and any other equity securities that the Company may issue in the future with respect to payment of dividends and distribution of assets upon liquidation, dissolution or winding up. While the Series A Shares are outstanding, the Company may not amend, alter or change adversely the powers, preferences or rights given to the Series A Shares, create, or authorize the creation of, any additional class or series of capital stock of the Company (or any security convertible into or exercisable for any class or series of capital stock of the Company), including any class or series of capital stock of the Company that ranks superior to or in parity with the Series A Shares, alter, amend, modify, or repeal its Articles of Incorporation or other charter documents in any manner that adversely affects any rights of the holders of Series A Shares, increase or decrease the number of authorized shares of Series A Shares, any agreement, commitment or transaction that would result in a Change of Control, any sale or disposition of any material assets outside of the ordinary course of business of the Company, any material change in the principal business of the Company, including the entry into any new line of business or exit of any current line of business, and circumvent a right or preference of the Series A Shares. Any holder of the Series A Shares shall have the right by written election to the Company to convert all or any portion of the outstanding Series A Shares. Immediately upon effectiveness of a registration statement registering for resale all of the Registrable Securities (as defined in the Registration Rights Agreement), all outstanding Series A Shares shall automatically convert into Common Stock, subject to certain beneficial ownership limitations. Â Treasury stockÂ As of December 31, 2023 and 2022, the Company held 86,497 and 15,497, respectively, shares of its common stock at a cost of $917,159 and $816,707, respectively. Shares of common stock that are repurchased are classified as treasury stock pending future use and reduce the number of shares outstanding used in calculating earnings per share. Cosmos may repurchase shares from time to time through open market purchases in accordance with applicable securities laws and other restrictions. The Company repurchased 71,000 shares of its common stock for $100,452 during the year ended December 31, 2023.Â On January 24, 2023, the Company announced that its Board of Directors has approved a share repurchase program with authorization to purchase up to $3 million of its common stock. Cosmos may repurchase shares from time to time through open market purchases in accordance with applicable securities laws and other restrictions. Â Mezzanine EquityÂ The Series A Shares are recorded as mezzanine equity in accordance with ASC 480 at its initial net carrying value in the amount of $5,452,300. The Series A Shares are recorded as mezzanine equity in accordance with ASC 480 as the Company may be obligated to issue a variable number of shares at a fixed price known at inception and there is no maximum number of shares that could potentially be issued upon conversion. In this instance, cash settlement would be presumed and the Series A Shares are classified as mezzanine equity in accordance with ASC 480-10-S99. Immediately upon effectiveness of the registration statement registering for resale of all the common stock issuable under the Series A Shares, all outstanding Series A Shares shall automatically convert into common stock.Â As of December 31, 2022, 6,000 of the Series A Shares had been converted into 386,588 shares of common stock in accordance with the terms of the agreements and thus an amount of $5,452,300 was reclassified from mezzanine equity to common stock and additional paid-in capital, in the aggregate. Â Â F-63Table of ContentsÂ COSMOS HEALTH INC.Notes to the Consolidated Financial StatementsÂ Common StockÂ The Company is authorized to issue 300 million shares of common stock. The remaining balance of $19 million, are limited to utilization of 80% of taxable income but do not have an expiration. At December 31, 2023, the Company had Greek NOL carryforwards of $2,240,902 and had UK NOL carryforwards of $1,753,800. A valuation allowance exists for all operations, based on a more likely than not criterion and in consideration of all available positive and negative evidence.Â ASC 740 requires that the tax benefit of net operating losses (â€œNOLsâ€), temporary differences and credit carryforwards be recorded as an asset to the extent that management assesses that realization is â€œmore likely than not.â€ Realization of the future tax benefits is dependent on the Companyâ€™s ability to generate sufficient taxable income within the carryforward period. Because of the Companyâ€™s history of domestic operating losses, management believes that recognition of the deferred tax assets arising from the above-mentioned future tax benefits is currently not likely to be realized and, accordingly, has provided a valuation allowance, on all our deferred tax asset. Management considered all available evidence to when evaluating the realizability of foreign deferred tax assets by jurisdiction and concluded primarily based upon a strong earnings history that these deferred tax assets were more-likely-than-not realizable.Â Â F-68Table of ContentsÂ COSMOS

HEALTH INC.Notes to the Consolidated Financial StatementsÂ The Company applied the â€œmore-likely-than-notâ€ recognition threshold to all tax positions taken or expected to be taken in a tax return, which resulted in no unrecognized tax benefits as of December 31, 2023 and December 31, 2022, respectively. We recognize interest accrued related to unrecognized tax benefits and penalties as income tax expense.Â The Company files income tax returns in Illinois, United States, and in foreign jurisdictions including Greece and the United Kingdom. As of December 31, 2023, all domestic tax years are open to tax authority examination due the availability of net operating loss deductions, 2010 through 2023. In Greece, the statute of limitations is open for five years, 2018 through 2023. In the United Kingdom, the statute of limitations is open for four years, 2019 through 2023. Currently, there are no ongoing tax authority income tax examinations.Â NOTE 9 â€“ RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS Â Doc Pharma S.A.Â Doc Pharma S.A. is considered a related party to the Company due to the fact that the CEO of Doc Pharma is the wife of Grigorios Siokas, the Companyâ€™s CEO and principal shareholder, who also served as a principal of Doc Pharma S.A. in the past.Â Prepaid expenses and other current assets â€“ related partyÂ As of December 31, 2023, and December 31, 2022, the Company had a prepaid balance of $4,347,184Â and $3,320,345, respectively, to Doc Pharma related to purchases of inventory.Â Accounts payable and accrued expensesÂ â€“Â related partyÂ As of December 31, 2023, and December 31, 2022, the Company had an accounts payable balance to Doc Pharma of $34,217Â and $201,991, respectively.Â Accounts receivableÂ â€“Â related partyÂ Additionally, the Company had a receivable balance of $2,386,721Â and $2,070,570Â from Doc Pharma S.A. as of December 31, 2023, and December 31, 2022, respectively.Â Sales and PurchasesÂ During the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022, the Company purchased a total of $1,365,324 and $1,755,103Â of products from Doc Pharma S.A., respectively. The Company has the exclusive ownership rights for trading and distribution of its own branded nutritional supplements named â€œSky Premium LifeÂ®â€. The duration of the agreement is for five years, however, either party may terminate the agreement at any time giving six-month advance notice. Doc Pharma is exclusively responsible for supplying the raw materials and packaging required to manufacture the final product. However, they are not responsible for potential delays that may arise, concerning their import. Doc Pharma is also obligated to store the raw and packaging materials. The delivery of raw and packaging materials should be purchased at least 30 and 25 days, respectively, before the delivery date of the final product. The Manufacturer solely delivers the finished product to the Company. There is a minimum order quantity (â€œMoQâ€) ofÂ 1,000 piecesÂ per product code. Both parties have agreed that the Company will deposit 60% of the total cost upon agreement and assignment and 40% of the total cost including VAT charge upon the delivery date. The prices are indicative and are subject to amendments if the cost of the raw material or the production cost change.Â Â F-69Table of ContentsÂ COSMOS HEALTH INC.Notes to the Consolidated Financial StatementsÂ For the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022, the Company has purchased â‚¬1,144,043 ($1,237,467) and â‚¬1,653,911 ($1,742,282), respectively, in inventory related to this agreement.Â On May 17, 2021, Doc Pharma and the Company entered into a Research and Development (â€œR&Dâ€) agreement whereby Doc Pharma will be responsible for the research, development, design, registration, copy rights and licenses of 250 nutritional supplements for the final products called Sky Premium LifeÂ®. These products will be sold in Greece and abroad.Â The total cost of this project will be â‚¬1,425,000 plus VAT and will be done over three phases as follows: Design & Development (â‚¬725,000); Control and Product Manufacturing (â‚¬250,000) and Clinical Study and Research (â‚¬450,000). SkyPharm has bought a total of as of 81 licenses at value of â‚¬554,500 ($593,204) which is 38.91% of the total cost, as of December 31, 2022. During the year ended December 31, 2023, 24 additional licenses were purchased at value of â‚¬475,014 ($525,461). The agreement will terminate onÂ December 31, 2025.Â Â Â Purchase of branded pharmaceuticalsÂ On June 28, 2023, the Company approved the purchase of five proprietary and innovative branded pharmaceuticals with significant market presence and material profit contribution from Zakalia Ltd., the parent company of Doc Pharma, for â‚¬1,800,000 ($1,965,600). The transaction was settled on a non-cash basis through the reduction, of an equivalent amount, of prepaid expense balances the Company held with Doc Pharma. The purchased branded pharmaceuticals are presented in â€œGoodwill and intangible assets, netâ€ on the accompanying consolidated balance sheets. On December 29, 2023, the Company approved the purchase of additional 19 licenses from Doc Pharma, of a total value of â‚¬3,200,000 ($3,539,840). This transaction was also settled on a non-cash basis through the reduction, of an equivalent amount, of prepaid expense balances the Company held with Doc Pharma.Â Loans receivable - related partyÂ The balance of prepaid expenses due Doc Pharma as of December 31, 2022, had increased to â‚¬7,103,706 ($7,599,545), which was mainly attributable to the prepayments SkyPharm S.A. made in accordance with the CMO agreement and the extensive orders and sales of the SPL products the Company expects to achieve within 2023, mainly through its Amazon channels in the UK, Singapore, Canada and other countries. However, as the benefit from a significant portion of the prepaid balance would not have been realized within a 12-month period, the Company opted to secure a portion of the outstanding prepaid balance through a loan agreement. SkyPharm S.A. (the â€œLenderâ€) entered into a loan agreement with Doc Pharma (the â€œBorrowerâ€) for â‚¬4,000,000 ($4,279,200), all of which was financed through the outstanding prepaid balance. The duration of the loan is for aÂ 10-year period up toÂ December 1, 2032Â (the â€œMaturity Dateâ€). The loan bears a fixed interest rate ofÂ 5.5% payable on a monthly basis and will be repayable in 120 equal instalments of â‚¬33,333.33 ($35,660). The loan may be prepaid anytime during its duration in full or partially based on the Companyâ€™s product requirements and other factors, without Doc Pharma incurring any prepayment penalty. As of December 31, 2023 and December 31, 2022, the loan had a current portion of â‚¬400,000 ($442,480) and â‚¬400,000 ($427,720), and a non-current portion of â‚¬3,200,000 ($3,539,840), and â‚¬3,600,000 ($3,851,280), respectively, which is classified as â€œLoans receivable â€“ related partyâ€ on the accompanying consolidated balance sheets. During the year ended December 31, 2023, the Company received â‚¬400,000 ($442,480) in principal repayments, and â‚¬209,917 ($232,210) of interest repayments. Additionally, during the year ended December 31, 2023, the Company recorded â‚¬201,057 ($217,476) as interest income relating to this loan.Â Â Â Â Cana Laboratories Holding LimitedÂ Â Cana was considered a related party as the Company had signed a binding letter of intent and an SPA for the acquisition of Cana. The acquisition was completed on June 30, 2023 according to the SPA signed on May 31, 2023. Thus, all balances between the Company and Cana were eliminated upon consolidation as of December 31, 2023. The Secured Promissory Note discussed below was included in consideration transferred upon acquisition.Â Â F-70Table of ContentsÂ COSMOS HEALTH INC.Notes to the Consolidated Financial StatementsÂ Loans receivable - Related Party - Long TermÂ On February 28,Â 2023 (Issue Date) the Company signed a Secured Promissory Note with Cana Laboratories Holding (Cyprus) Limited (the â€œHolderâ€), whereby the Holder borrowed the sum of â‚¬4,100,000 ($4,457,520) from the Company.Â Interest on the Principal Amount under this Note shall accrue at a rate equal to Five Percent (5%) plus one month LIBOR per annum (5.47% as of December 31, 2023). The maturity date (â€œMaturity Dateâ€) of this Note shall be five years from the Issue Date. The Principal Amount, as well as all accrued interest shall be due and payable on the Maturity Date. During the six months ended June 30, 2023, the Company recorded interest income of â‚¬137,138 ($148,789). Following, the completion of Canaâ€™s acquisition on June 30, 2023 the balance of the Note was eliminated on a consolidated level.Â Panagiotis KozarisÂ Panagiotis Kozaris is considered a related party due to the fact that he is a former General operational manager and current employee of Cosmofarm S.A.Â Prepaid Expenses and Other Current Assets - Related PartyÂ From time-to-time the Company purchases back shares that Panagiotis Kozaris owns and records them as treasury shares. The Company pays Panagiotis Kozaris in advance for the shares owned and obtains the shares upon execution of a cumulative stock-purchase agreement (â€œSPAâ€). During the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022, the Company paid Panagiotis Kozaris an additional sum of $51,159Â and $143,056Â respectively for shares owned, however, no SPA for these funds has been executed as of December 31, 2023. The Company intends to execute a cumulative SPA for these amounts during 2024. The total balances owed of $194,215Â and $143,056Â are included in â€œPrepaid expenses and other current assets - related partyâ€, on the accompanying consolidated balance sheets as of December 31, 2023 and 2022, respectively.Â Basotho Investment LimitedÂ Basotho Investment Limited is considered a related party once Panagiotis Kozaris (former General operational manager and current employee of Cosmofarm S.A) is one of its directors.Â General and administrative expensesÂ On November 21, 2023, the Company issued 120,000 shares of common stock to Basotho Investment Limited for services rendered. The fair value of these shares for the period ended December 31, 2023 was $10,300, which was recorded as general and administrative expense. Â Maria KozariÂ Maria Kozari is considered a related party to the Company due to the fact that she is the daughter of Panagiotis Kozaris, a former Operational General Manager and current employee of Cosmofarm S.A.Â Accounts Receivable - Related PartyÂ During 2021, the Company, through its subsidiary, Cosmofarm SA, commenced a partnership with a pharmacy called â€œPharmacy & Moreâ€, owned by Maria Kozari. The transactions with the respective pharmacy were in Cosmofarmâ€™s normal course of business, however, a more flexible credit policy was allowed as the pharmacy was new and needed to be established in the market. During the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022 the Companyâ€™s net sales to Pharmacy & More amounted to $480,029Â and $463,467Â respectively. As of December 31, 2023 and 2022 the Companyâ€™s outstanding receivable balance due from the pharmacy amounted to $1,142,402 (â‚¬1,032,726) and $760,025Â (â‚¬710,436), respectively, and are included in â€œAccounts receivable - related partyâ€, on the accompanying consolidated balance sheets.Â Â F-71Table of ContentsÂ COSMOS HEALTH INC.Notes to the Consolidated Financial StatementsÂ The Company plans to acquire Pharmacy & More within fiscal year 2024. Upon acquisition, the Company intends to offset the outstanding receivable balance with the corresponding purchase price and additionally plans to make Pharmacy & More theÂ first shop-in-shop of its own branded line of nutraceutical products, Sky Premium LifeÂ® (SPL).Â Other Related PartiesÂ Additionally, the Company has the following balances as of December 31, 2023: a) a balance of $98,000Â relating to unpaid salaries and bonuses due to George Terzis, the CFO of the Company, classified as â€œAccounts payable and accrued expenses - related partyâ€Â in the Companyâ€™s consolidated balance sheets, b) a net payable balance of $85,332 due to Konstantinos Gaston Kanaroglou, former manager and current employee of the Companyâ€™s wholly owned subsidiary Cana, classified as "Accounts receivable" in the Companyâ€™s consolidated balance sheets.Â Notes Payable â€“ Related PartyÂ A summary of the Companyâ€™s related party notes payable during the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022 is presented below:Â Â Â Â 2023Â Â 2022Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Beginning BalanceÂ $10,912Â Â $464,264Â Payments Â Â -Â Â Â (472,920)Foreign currency translationÂ Â 371Â Â Â 19,568Â Ending BalanceÂ $11,283Â Â $10,912Â Â Grigorios SiokasÂ Grigorios Siokas is the Companyâ€™s CEO and principal shareholder.Â On December 20, 2018, the â‚¬1,500,000 ($1,718,400) note payable, originally borrowed pursuant to a Loan Agreement with a third-party lender, dated March 16, 2018, was transferred to Grigorios Siokas. The principal amount together with interest at the rate of eight percent (8.0%) per annum, compounded annually (the â€œInterest Rateâ€), will be paid to the Lenders on or before the Maturity Date (December 31, 2021 or as defined below). Accrued interest shall be calculated on the basis of a 360-day year for the actual number of days elapsed. In the event that on or before the Maturity Date, the Note either (i) had not been converted or have not been otherwise satisfied in full or (ii) an Event of Default (as defined in the SPA) occurs, then the applicable rate of interest on the outstanding amount of theÂ Note since inception shall be the Interest Rate plus eighteen percent (18.0%), the Default Interest. Unless previously converted, the principal and accrued interest on the Note is due and payable in cash (USD) upon the earlier of (i) December 31, 2021, (ii) a Change of Control (as defined in the SPA) or (iii), an Event of Default (collectively, the â€œMaturity Dateâ€).Â On May 1, 2022, the Company issued 1,574 shares of common stock to convert the outstanding principal and accrued interest balance of $26,515. Following the conversion, the outstanding balance of the above Note is $0. Upon conversion, the 1,574 shares were issued at a fair value of $38,144 which was recorded as equity. Accordingly, upon conversion, the Company reduced its derivative liability by $11,629 (see Note 7).Â Â F-74Table of ContentsÂ COSMOS HEALTH INC.Notes to the Consolidated Financial StatementsÂ The Company determined that the embedded conversion feature of the convertible promissory note meets the definition of aÂ derivative liability which is accounted for separately. The Company determined a derivative liability exists and determined that the embedded derivative was valued at $456,570 which was recorded as a debt discount, and together with the original issue discount and transaction expenses of $43,000, in the aggregate of $499,570, is being amortized over the life of the loan. As of December 31, 2022 the full amount of the debt discount has been amortized. Therefore, as of December 31, 2023 and 2022, the fair value of the derivative liability was $0 and $0, respectively. For the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022, the Company recorded a loss on the change in fair value of the derivative of $0 and a loss of $5,807, respectively.Â January 7, 2021 Subscription Agreement Â On January 7, 2021 (the â€œIssue Dateâ€), the Company entered into a subscription agreement with an unaffiliated third party, whereby the Company issued for a purchase price of $100,000 in principal amount, a convertible promissory note. The note bore an interest rate of 8% per annum and originally matured on the earlier of (i) consummation of the Company listing its common shares on the NEO Stock Exchange or (ii) October 31, 2021. Â However, the listing to NEO Stock Exchange did not occur. As of December 31, 2022, the Company had a principal balance of $100,000 and had accrued $13,740 in interest expense. During the year ended December 31, 2023, the Company paid the balance in full.Â The Company determined that the embedded conversion feature of the convertible promissory note meets the definition of a derivative liability which is accounted for separately. The Company measured the embedded derivative valued at $62,619 which was recorded as a debt discount and additional paid-in capital and was being amortized over the life of the loan. As of December 31, 2022, the debt discount had been fully amortized. As of December 31, 2023 and 2022, the fair value of the derivative liability was $0 and $54,293, respectively. For the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022, the Company recorded a loss of $3,384 and $14,450, respectively, from the change in fair value of derivative liability, which is included in â€œOther expense, net" in the consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive loss. Â The Company considered both the note payable and conversion feature separately and upon settlement. The Company re-valued the conversion feature to fair value and applied extinguishment accounting as the debt has now been settled. Because the conversion feature is extinguished upon settling the note, the value of the conversion feature goes though debt extinguishment and the Company recorded a gain on settlement of debt, which totaled $50,909 for the year ended December 31, 2023.Â Â Â Convertible Promissory Note and Securities Purchase AgreementÂ On September 17, 2021 (the â€œIssue Dateâ€), the Company entered into a convertible promissory note and securities purchase agreement with an unaffiliated third party.Â Convertible Promissory NoteÂ The Company issued the convertible promissory note for a purchase price of $525,000Â in principal amount for cash proceeds of $500,000. The note was issued with an original issue discount (â€œOIDâ€) of $25,000, bears an interest rate ofÂ 10% per annum and matures on the earlier of (i) the consummation of the Company listing its common shares on the Nasdaq StockÂ Market or (ii) September 17, 2022.Â Upon the consummation ofÂ our Nasdaq listing in 2022, the total principal and accrued interest outstanding on the note would convert into shares of the Companyâ€™s common stock at aÂ 30% discount to the prices of the common shares sold in the financing to be conducted in conjunction withÂ our Nasdaq listing, subject to a conversion floor of $75.00. However, the Company, upon agreement with the third party, did not convert the note andÂ fully repaidÂ it in cash on October 21,Â 2022.Â As of December 31, 2022, the Company repaid the remaining outstanding balance of the note and thus its outstanding balance as of the end of the period was $0. For the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022, the Company recorded amortization of debt discount in the amount of $0 and $18,185, respectively, which is included in "Non-cash interest expense" on the accompanying statements of operations and comprehensive loss.Â Â F-75Table of ContentsÂ COSMOS HEALTH INC.Notes to the Consolidated Financial StatementsÂ Securities Purchase AgreementÂ On September 17, 2021, the Company entered into a Securities Purchase Agreement (the â€œSPAâ€) with a third party whereby the Company agree to issue 5,000,000 shares of Series A Preferred Stock at a purchase price of $1.00 per share or $5,000,000 in the aggregate, and a Warrant (the â€œWarrantâ€) to purchase 100% of the number of shares of the Companyâ€™s Common Stock issuable upon conversion of the Series A Preferred Stock. The Series A Preferred Stock will be convertible into the Companyâ€™s Common Stock as determined by multiplying the number of shares of Series A Preferred Stock to be converted by the lower of (i) $100.00 or (ii) 80% of the average volume weighted average price for the Companyâ€™s Common Stock for the five days prior to the date of Uplisting, subject to a floor of $75.00 per share. The Company reassessed and adjusted accordingly the accretion of the debt extinguishment effect described above.Â Trade Facility Agreements Â On May 12, 2017, SkyPharm entered into a Trade Finance Facility Agreement (the â€œTFFâ€) with Synthesis Structured Commodity Trade Finance Limited (the â€œLenderâ€ or â€œSynthesisâ€) as amended on November 16, 2017, and May 16, 2018. Â On October 17, 2018, the Company entered into a further amended agreement with Synthesis whereby the current balance on the TFF as of October 1, 2018, which was â,¬4,866,910 ($5,629,555) and related accrued interest of â,¬453,094 ($524,094) would be split into two principal balances of Euro â,¬2,000,000 ($2,316,000), (the â€œEURO Loanâ€) and USD $4,000,000 (the â€œUSD Loanâ€). Interest on both the EURO Loan and USD Loan commenced on October 1, 2018, at 6% per annum plus one-month Euribor (3.90% as of December 31, 2023), and 6% plus one-month LIBOR (fully paid as of December 31, 2023), respectively. Â On December 30, 2020, the Company transferred the EURO Loan to a new third-party lender. The terms remained the same except interest accrues at 5.5% per annum plus one-month Euribor (3.87% as of December 31, 2023). The principal was scheduled to be repaid in a total of five quarterly installments beginning October 31, 2021 of â,¬50,000Â ($54,600) each with a final repayment of â,¬1,800,000 ($1,965,600) Euro payable on October 31, 2022.Â On March 3, 2022, the Company entered into a modification agreement to extend the maturity date to January 10, 2023 and payments under the USD Loan. During June 2022, the Company agreed with the Lender to postpone the repayment of an installment of $500,000 due on June 30, 2022 (based on the modification agreement signed on March 3, 2022) until January 2023. During September 2022, the Company entered into an agreement with the Lender to postpone the repayment of the outstanding balance on the USD Loan of $3,950,000, plus unpaid accrued interest until January 2023. The Company capitalized fees paid upon modification of â,¬200,000 ($221,060) that are being amortized over the life of the loan. The Company incurred non-cash interest expense of $200,000 during the year ended December 31, 2022 concerning the above capitalized fees.Â During the year ended December 31, 2022, the Company repaid â,¬175,000 ($191,100) of the EURO Loan and $2,593,363 of the USD Loan such that as of December 31, 2022, the Company had principal balances of â,¬1,775,000 ($1,898,895) and $1,406,637 under the agreements, respectively. As of December 31, 2022, the Company had accrued $4,878 in interest expense related to these agreements.Â On December 21, 2022 the USD Loan was assigned to GIB Fund Solutions ICAV (the â€œFundâ€). On January 31, 2023, the Company paid $1,100,000 to the Fund under a full and final settlement agreement for the USD Loan, recording a gain on extinguishment of debt of $306,637 relating to the waiver of the unpaid balance. Additionally, the Company repaid â,¬50,000 ($55,310) of the EURO Loan during the year ended December 31, 2023. The Companyâ€™s Greek subsidiaries have $2,430,517 in settled tax liabilities payable to the tax authorities in installments and $1,046,507 in payroll tax related current liabilities. Moreover, we have recorded a provision relating to the unaudited tax years of our subsidiary SkyPharm SA, of $591,547 and a provision for staff leaving compensation, based on the corresponding actuarial reports, of $408,665. Additionally, we have received prepayments from our customers of $207,204, included in â€œOther current liabilitiesâ€ as of December 31, 2023. We classify the liabilities payable within the 12 months following the balance sheet date in â€œOther current liabilitiesâ€ and the remaining balance is included in â€œOther Liabilitiesâ€.Â NOTE 15 â€“ COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIESÂ Legal MattersÂ From time to time, the Company may be involved in litigation relating to claims arising out of the Companyâ€™s operations in the normal course of business. As of December 31, 2023, the following litigations were pending. None of the below is expected to have a material financial or operational impact. Â Solgar Inc., a competitor of the Company, sued SkyPharm for product homogeneity regarding the nutraceutical line â€œSky Premium Lifeâ€. As a result, Solgar requested the prohibition for SkyPharm to manufacture, import and sell, market or in any way possess and distribute, including internet sales and advertise in any way in the Greek market of â€œSky Premium Lifeâ€ due to homogeneity with Solgarâ€™s products. Solgar Inc. has further requested to be awarded compensation for non-pecuniary damage amounting to â‚¬20,000 ($21,744). The case was heard on January 28, 2022, and the decision numbered 8842/2022 of the court of Thessaloniki was issued, which, accepted our claims and dismissed theÂ Solgar Inc.â€™s lawsuit.Â Â F-82Table of ContentsÂ On July 22, 2015, the National Medicines Agency approved the license of wholesale sale of pharmaceutical products under the name SkyPharm SA with set validity at five years and an expiration date of July 22, 2020. Subsequently, SkyPharm on June 15, 2020, legally and timely submitted the application for renewal of the wholesale license of pharmaceutical products to the National Medicines Agency. The National Medicines Agency did not respond, therefore the Company asked for an immediate decision on the renewal. Two months after the filing of the no. 3459 / 15.01.2021 letter and almost nine months after the no. 627615.06.2020 Company application for the renewal, the National Medicines Agency replied by rejecting the renewal request on March 9, 2021 (ref. 62769 / 20-25.02.2021). In addition, document No. 127351-16.12.2021 of EOF (Greek National Medicines Organization) to SkyPharm states that after an inspection of EOF at the premises of Doc Pharma, we did not have a wholesale license in violation of article 106 par. 1b and par. 1c of the ministerial decision D.YG3a / GP.32221 / 29-4-2019. The National Medicines Agency imposed a fine of â‚¬15,000 ($16,214) on SkyPharm for the above case, which was included in â€œGeneral and administrativeâ€ expense on the accompany statement of operations and comprehensive loss for the 12-month period ended December 31, 2023.Â There has been a payment request by the Greek court, which relates to a fine arising from Cosmofarmâ€™s tax audit for financial year 2014. The law with no. 483/16.12.2020 was used by the court against Cosmofarm (the â€œdefendantâ€). The defendant appealed against the decision using the law with no.11541/09.03.2021. This appeal was dismissed after 120 days from its submission to the court. Additionally, there had been an obligation for payment of additional tax and fines related to this matter in the amount of â‚¬91,652 ($99,644), which the defendant has already settled. However, the defendant has claimed back the respective amount through appeal. As of December 31, 2023, the trial is still pending.Â On January 25, 2023, a criminal case of dishonored checks against Cosmofarmâ€™s customer Filippou, was heard at the Zâ€™ Three-Member Misdemeanor Court of Athens, which was postponed to November 27, 2023, when the defendant was tried and found guilty.Â On January 26, 2023, the appeal of the Company against Eleutheria Drakopoulou and decision 1389/2021of the Single-Member Court of First Instance of Athens was heard at the Athens Court of Appeal. The appeal was partially accepted. The Court ordered the return of the fee to the appellants, dismissed the action against the third defendant, Kozaris and accepted the action as regards the first and the second defendants (Kastrantas & Cosmofarm).Â On October 23, 2023, a criminal case of dishonored check against Cosmofarmâ€™s customer Kafantaris was heard at the Sixth Single-Member Misdemeanor Court of Athens, which was postponed to January 26, 2024, when the defendant was convicted by decision no. 1599/2024.Â In October 2023, the Companyâ€™s subsidiary, Cana Laboratories Holding (Cyprus) Limited (â€œCanaâ€) was approached by an attorney at law on behalf of two clients which were requesting an amount of â‚¬39,211 as compensation for the value of 34.70 square meters in relation to an urban sprawl with respect to which an Act of Imputation had been issued by the department of Urban Planning. Our legal counselâ€™s response was that Cana was not obliged to accept the compensatory value agreed and suggested exploring out of court settlement. As of today, the clientsâ€™ Attorney at law has not come back with any suggestions.Â Our subsidiary, Cana, has two pending lawsuits against Euaggelismos Hospital for a total sum of EUR 526,436 due to unpaid bills. The court date for one of the two lawsuits is set for December 11, 2024, and for the other one has not yet been set. The opinion of our legal advisor is that the collection of the total sum by the Company is almost certain. Â Our subsidiary, Cana, has an unasserted claim against Papanikolaou Hospital for a total sum of EUR 89,300 due to unpaid bills, which will be asserted through a lawsuit. The opinion of our legal advisor is that the collection of the sum by the Company is almost certain. Â Â F-83Table of ContentsÂ COSMOS HEALTH INC.Notes to the Consolidated Financial StatementsÂ A lawsuit dated on April 5, 2018 against the Companyâ€™s subsidiary Cana by a former employee before the Athens court of instance was initially heard on October 12, 2018. The former employee was seeking that the termination of her employment contract to be considered null and void and was requesting compensation for late wages and moral damages. Following, numerous appeals the Judgment No. 1192/2024 was issued on September 26, 2023, which as explicitly stated by our legal counsel, requires Cana to rehire the former employee with the threat of a penalty of â‚¬200 for each day of non-compliance. As informed by our legal counsel, in order for the penalty to be effective the former employee should file a new lawsuit against Cana and request to get rehired. In case Cana denies the employment, then the penalty should be in effect. As of today, we have not received neither a lawsuit nor any request of employment by the former employee.Â Advisory AgreementsÂ On July 1, 2021, the Company entered into a two-year advisory agreement with a third party (the â€œConsultantâ€) for advisory and consulting services related to the Companyâ€™s intention to become listed on Nasdaq. Peter Goldstein, a then director of the Company is a principal of the Consultant. As consideration for services rendered, and successful Nasdaq listing, the Company paid $100,000. The $100,000 bonus was incurred and settled within 2022. Finally, the Consultant received a total of 10,000 shares of the Companyâ€™s common stock, 2,000 of such shares that have been previously issued pursuant to previous agreements and additional 15,258 shares that were issued on February 2, 2023, based on the amendment signed on February 1, 2023.Â Â On November 21, 2023, the Company entered into certain consulting agreements with four third-party consultants for the provision of a variety of services such as digital marketing, advisory services relating to target acquisitions and M&As and other additional services as described in the respective agreements. The agreements have duration from ten to 18 months and the consultants will solely receive stock consideration for the services rendered. More precisely, they have been awarded a total of 970,000 shares of the Companyâ€™s common stock valued at a total of $999,100 based on the fair value of the Companyâ€™s common stock as of the agreementsâ€™ date. The corresponding consulting expense is accrued evenly over the term of the agreements. For the 12-month period ended December 31, 2023 the Company has recorded $77,250 as stocked based compensation for the above agreements, classified as â€œGeneral and administrative expensesâ€ in the Companyâ€™s consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive loss.Â Research and Development AgreementsÂ The Company entered into a Research & Development agreement with Doc Pharma S.A. on May 17, 2021. Under this agreement, Doc Pharma is responsible for the research, development, design, registration, copy rights and licenses of 250 nutritional supplements for the final products called Sky Premium LifeÂ®. More specifically, Doc Pharma is responsible for the product development and the Company has added 105 of such products codes in its portfolio as of December 31, 2023. The licenses purchased by Doc Pharma SA are capitalized and included in â€œGoodwill and intangible assets, netâ€ of the Companyâ€™s Consolidated Balance Sheets as of December 31, 2023. Thus, no relevant R&D expense had been charged to the Companyâ€™s Consolidated Statements of Operations and Comprehensive Loss.Â On June 26, 2022, the Company signed a research and development (â€œR&Dâ€) agreement with a third party, through which the Company assigns to the third party the development of new products and services in the field of health, focusing on the human intestinal microbiome. The project includes two phases. Phase 1 has a 20-month duration and its cost amounts to EUR 758,000 ($838,450) and phase 2, has a 22-month duration and a cost of EUR 820,000 ($907,084). The amount will be due and payable upon completion of the corresponding phases. The Company records the corresponding R&D expense based on the projectâ€™s progress, which is invoiced by the third party in the relevant period. For the 12-month period ended December 31, 2023, the Company has incurred $164,859 of such costs included in â€œGeneral and administrative expensesâ€ in the Companyâ€™s Consolidated Statements of Operations and Comprehensive Loss.Â Â F-84Table of ContentsÂ COSMOS HEALTH INC.Notes to the Consolidated Financial StatementsÂ NOTE 16 â€“ EARNINGS PER SHAREÂ Basic net loss per share is computed by dividing net loss attributable to the common stockholders, decreased with respect to net income or increased with respect to net loss by dividends declared on preferred stock by using the weighted-average number of common shares outstanding. The 2022 Plan is designed to enable the flexibility to grant equity awards to the Companyâ€™s officers, employees, non-employee directors and consultants and to ensure that it can continue to grant equity awards to eligible recipients at levels determined to be appropriate by the Board and/or the Compensation Committee. According to the Proxy Statement filed with the SEC on October 20, 2022, the 2022 Plan received final approval by the Companyâ€™s stockholdersÂ at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders held on December 2, 2022.Â On April 3, 2023, the Company approved incentive stock awards for the CFO, certain officers and directors and other employees of the Company. The awards are in the form of restricted stock and will vest in two parts: 50% on October 2, 2023 and 50% on October 2, 2024. A total of 185,000 shares were awarded and a corresponding share-based compensation expense of $323,957 was recorded for the 12 months ended December 31, 2023, respectively, based on the amortization of fair value from the date of issuance of April 3, 2023 through December 31, 2023.Â On August 21, 2023, the Board adopted, subject to stockholder approval, the Cosmos Health Inc. 2023 Omnibus Equity Incentive Plan (the â€œ2023 Planâ€). The 2023 Plan is designed to enable the flexibility to grant equity awards to our officers, employees, non-employee directors and consultants and to ensure that we can continue to grant equity awards to eligible recipients at levels determined to be appropriate by the Board and/or the Compensation Committee. Subject to certain adjustments (as provided in Section 4.2 of the 2023 Plan) and exception (as provided in Section 5.6(b) of the 2023 Plan), the maximum number of shares reserved for issuance under the Plan (including incentive share options) is 2,500,000 shares. The 2023 Plan was approved by the Companyâ€™s stockholders at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders held on September 18, 2023.Â Warrant Anti-Dilution Adjustment and Deemed DividendÂ The Companyâ€™s warrants outstanding contain certain anti-dilution adjustments if the Company issues shares of its common stock at a lower price per share than the applicable exercise price of the underlying warrant. If any such dilutive issuance occurs prior to the exercise of such warrant, the exercise price will be adjusted downward to a price equal to the common stock issuance, and the number of warrants that may be purchase upon exercise is increased proportionately so that the aggregate exercise price payable under the warrant shares shall be the same as the aggregate exercise price in effect immediately prior to such adjustment. On December 21, 2021, the Company issued its common stock upon conversion of its convertible debt at an issuance price of $50.50 per share. As a result, the Company issued additional warrants to the Companyâ€™s existing warrant holders to purchase 101,343 shares of common stock with an exercise price of $50.50 per share. The new warrants were issued with a weighted average contractual term of 2.04 years. The deemed dividend was recorded as an increase to accumulated deficit and additional paid-in capital and reduced net income available to common shareholders by the same amount. The Company valued (a) the fair value of the warrants immediately before the re-pricing in the amount of $1,915,077, (b) the fair value of the warrants immediately after the re-pricing in the amount of $9,548,110, and (c) recorded the difference as deemed dividend in the amount of $7,633,033. The warrants were valued using the Black-Scholes option pricing model using the following terms: a) fair value of common stock of $93.75, b) exercise prices of $125.00, $150.00 and $187.50 before re-pricing, c) exercise price of $50.50 after re-pricing, d) terms of 1.40 years, 1.97 years, 2.20 years and 2.26 years, e) dividend rate of 0%, and f) risk free interest rate of 0.41%.Â As of December 31, 2023, there were 8,561,476 warrants outstanding and 8,548,142 warrants exercisable with 8,548,142 warrants having expiration dates from March 2024 through October 2029 and 13,334 warrants with no expiration date. distributed to the preferred stockholders and presented the warrantsâ€™ fair value of $5,788,493 as a deemed dividend in the unaudited condensed consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive income (loss). The warrants were valued using the Black-Scholes option pricing model with the following terms: (a) exercise price of $3.30, (b) common stock fair value of $3.42, (c) volatility of 118%, (d) discount rate of 1.71%, and (e) dividend rate of 0%. The Company also recorded a deemed dividend in the amount of $8,480,379 upon reducing the conversion price from $3.00 to $0.62152 in order to account for the down-round effect of warrants during the second quarter of 2022. The warrants were valued using the Black-Scholes option pricing model with the following terms: (a) exercise price of $3.30, (b) common stock fair value of $1.07, (c) volatility of 107%, (d) discount rate of 2.99%, and (e) dividend rate of 0%.Â The closing of the Private Placement occurred on February 28, 2022. As a condition to the closing of the sale, the Companyâ€™s common stock received conditional approval for listing and trading on the Nasdaq Capital Market and commenced trading on February 28, 2022, under the trading symbol â€œCOSM.â€ Concurrent with the issuance of the Series A Shares, the Company executed a registration rights agreement (the â€œRegistration Rights Agreementâ€) to register the resale of the shares of common stock issuable upon conversion of the Series A Shares and the shares of common stock issuable upon exercise of the warrants issued in connection with the Series A Shares. The registration statement was declared effective on June 7, 2022. The Company was required to pay an aggregate of $187,970 in liquidated damages under the Registration Rights Agreement.Â Â Â 79Table of ContentsÂ The Series A Shares rank senior to all of the Companyâ€™s Common Stock and any other equity securities that the Company may issue in the future with respect to payment of dividends and distribution of assets upon liquidation, dissolution or winding up. While the Series A Shares are outstanding, the Company may not amend, alter or change adversely the powers, preferences or rights given to the Series A Shares, create, or authorize the creation of, any additional class or series of capital stock of the Company (or any security convertible into or exercisable for any class or series of capital stock of the Company), including any class or series of capital stock of the Company that ranks superior to or in parity with the Series A Shares, alter, amend, modify, or repeal its Articles of Incorporation or other charter documents in any manner that adversely affects any rights of the holders of Series A Shares, increase or decrease the number of authorized shares of Series A Shares, any agreement, commitment or transaction that would result in a Change of Control, any sale or disposition of any material assets outside of the ordinary course of business of the Company, any material change in the principal business of the Company, including the entry into any new line of business or exit of any current line of business, and circumvent a right or preference of the Series A Shares. Any holder of the Series A Shares has the right by written election to the Company to convert all or any portion of the outstanding Series A Shares. Immediately upon effectiveness of a registration statement registering for sale all of the Registrable Securities (as defined in the Registration Rights Agreement), all outstanding Series A Preferred Shares will automatically convert into Common Stock, subject to certain beneficial ownership limitations. UNDERTAKINGSÂ The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:Â (1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:Â (i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;Â (ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20 percent change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the â€œCalculation of Registration Feeâ€ table in the effective registration statement;Â (iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement;Â provided, however,Â that paragraphs (a)1(i) and (a)(1)(ii) of above do not apply if the registration statement is on Form S-8, and the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in periodic reports filed with or furnished to the Commission by the registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that are incorporated by reference in the registration statement.Â (2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initialÂ bona fideÂ offering thereof.Â (3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.Â (4) That, for the purpose of determining liability under the Securities Act of 1933 to any purchaser, each prospectus filed the registrant pursuant to Rule 424(b)(3) shall be deemed to be part of the registration statement as of the date the filed prospectus was deemed part of and included in the registration statement; and each prospectus required to be filed pursuant to Rule 424(b)(2), (b)(5), or (b)(7) as part of a registration statement in reliance on Rule 430B relating to an offering made pursuant to Rule 415(a)(1)(i), (vii), or (x) for the purpose of providing the information required by Section 10(a) of the Securities Act shall be deemed to be part of and included in the registration statement as of the earlier of the date such form of prospectus is first used after effectiveness or the date of the first contract of sale of securities in the offering described in the prospectus. As provided in Rule 430B, for liability purposes of the issuer and any person that is at that date an underwriter, such date shall be deemed to be a new effective date of the registration statement relating to the securities in the registration statement to which that prospectus relates, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.Â Provided, however, that no statement made in a registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement or made in a document incorporated or deemed incorporated by reference into the registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement will, as to a purchaser with a time of contract of sale prior to such effective date, supersede or modify any statement that was made in the registration statement or prospectus that was part of the registration statement or made in any such document immediately prior to such effective date.Â Â Â 90Table of ContentsÂ (5) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933 to any purchaser in the initial distribution of the securities: the undersigned registrant undertakes that in a primary offering of securities of the undersigned registrant pursuant to this registration statement, regardless of the underwriting method used to sell the securities to the purchaser, if the securities are offered or sold to such purchaser by means of any of the following communications, the undersigned registrant will be a seller to the purchaser and will be considered to offer or sell such securities to such purchaser:Â (i) Any preliminary prospectus or prospectus of the undersigned registrant relating to the offering required to be filed pursuant to Rule 424 (Â§ 230.424 of this chapter);Â (ii) Any free writing prospectus relating to the offering prepared by or on behalf of the undersigned registrant or used or referred to by the undersigned registrant;Â (iii) The portion of any other free writing prospectus relating to the offering containing material information about the undersigned registrant or its securities provided by or on behalf of the undersigned registrant; andÂ (iv) Any other communication that is an offer in the offering made by the undersigned registrant to the purchaser.Â (6) For purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrantâ€™s annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit planâ€™s annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.Â (7) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.Â Â 91Table of ContentsÂ SIGNATURESÂ Pursuant to the requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, the registrant has duly caused this registration statement to be signed on its behalf by the undersigned, thereunto duly authorized on theÂ 28th day of October 2024.Â Â COSMOS HEALTH INC.Â By:/s/ Grigorios SiokasÂ Name:Grigorios SiokasÂ Title:Chief Executive OfficerÂ We, the undersigned officers and directors of Cosmos Health Inc., hereby severally constitute and appoint Grigorios Siokas and Georgios Terzis (with full power to each of them to act alone), our true and lawful attorneys-in-fact and agents, with full power of substitution and re-substitution, for us and in our stead, in any and all capacities, to sign any and all amendments (including post-effective amendments) to this Registration Statement and all documents relating thereto, and to file the same, with all exhibits thereto, and other documents in connection therewith, with the Securities and Exchange Commission, granting unto said attorneys-in-fact and agents, and each of them full power and authority to do and perform each and every act and thing necessary or advisable to be done in and about the premises, as fully to all intents and purposes as he might or could do in person, hereby ratifying and confirming all that said attorneys-in-fact and agents, or any of them, or their substitute or substitutes, may lawfully do or cause to be done by virtue thereof.Â WITNESS our hands and common seal on the dates set forth below.Â Pursuant to the requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, this registration statement has been signed by the following persons in the capacities and on the dates indicated.Â SignatureÂ TitleÂ DateÂ Â Â Â Â /s/ Grigorios SiokasÂ Â Â October 28, 2024Grigorios SiokasÂ Chief Executive Officer(Principal Executive Officer and Director)Â Â Â Â Â Â Â /s/ Grigorios SiokasOctober 28, 2024Georgios TerzisÂ Chief Financial Officer(Principal Accounting and Financial Officer)Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â /s/ Demetrios G. The Warrants Shares are being offered and sold pursuant to this registration statement pursuant to Rule 415 under the Securities Act in connection with the prospectus forming a part of a Registration Statement on Form S-1 under the Securities Act (No. 333-_____), originally filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on the date hereof by the Company (such registration statement as amended and supplemented), the "Registration Statement" and the prospectus contained therein (the "Prospectus") and a Warrant Inducement Offer Letter, the form of which has been filed as Exhibit 1.1 to the Registration Statement. Â In connection with this opinion, we have assumed that the Registration Statement, and any amendments thereto will have become effective and the Warrant Shares will be sold in the manner described in the Registration Statement and the Prospectus relating thereto. Â In connection with the opinion expressed herein, we have examined originals or copies, certified or otherwise identified to our satisfaction, of such documents, corporate records, certificates of public officials and other instruments as we have deemed necessa1y for the purposes of rendering this opinion. In our examination, we have assumed the genuineness of all signatures, the authenticity of all documents submitted to us as originals, the conformity with the originals of all documents submitted to us as copies, the authenticity of the originals of such documents and the legal competence of all signatories to such documents. We have also reviewed such questions of law as we have deemed necessary or appropriate. Â As to matters of fact relevant to the opinion expressed herein, and as to factual matters arising in connection with our examination of corporate documents, records and other documents and writings, we relied upon certificates and other communications of corporate officers of the Company, without further investigation as to the facts set forth therein. Â Â Â Â Based upon the foregoing, and subject to the qualifications, assumptions and limitations stated herein, we are of the opinion that: Â Â 1. The 2024 New Warrants issued and sold by the Company have been duly authorized for issuance and, when exercised and paid for in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Warrant Inducement Offer Letter, will constitute valid and binding obligations of and enforceable against the Company, in accordance with their terms under the laws of the jurisdiction governing the Warrants. Â Â Â Â Â 2. The Warrant Shares to be issued by the Company upon exercise of the 2024 New Warrants have been duly validly authorized and reserved for issuance and, when issued in accordance with the terms of the 2024 New Warrants and the Warrant Inducement Offer Letter, will be validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable. Â The foregoing opinions are limited in all respects to the facts as they currently exist and the General Corporation Law of the State of Nevada (including the applicable provisions of the Nevada Constitution and the reported judicial decisions interpreting these laws)Â the New York Business Corporation Law and the federal laws of the United States of America, and we do not express any opinions as to the laws of any other jurisdiction. We assume no obligation to revise or supplement this opinion in the event of future changes in such laws or the interpretation thereof or such facts. Â We hereby consent to the statements with respect to us under the heading "Legal Matters" in the Prospectus and to the filing of this opinion as an exhibit to the Registration Statement. In giving these consents, we do not thereby admit that we are within the category of persons whose consent is required under Section 7 of the Securities Act or the Rules and Regulations of the Commission. Weighted average relates to the portion of time within a reporting period that common shares have been issued and outstanding to the total time in that period. Such concept is used in determining the weighted average number of shares outstanding for purposes of calculating earnings per share (basic). + ReferencesReference 1: http://fasb.org/us-gaap/role/ref/legacyRef -Name Accounting Standards Codification -Topic 260 -SubTopic 10 -Section 45 -Paragraph 13 -Publisher FASB -URI https://asc.fasb.org/1943274/2147482689/260-10-45-13Reference 2: http://fasb.org/us-gaap/role/ref/legacyRef -Name Accounting Standards Codification -Topic 260 -SubTopic 10 -Section 45 -Paragraph 10 -Publisher FASB -URI https://asc.fasb.org/1943274/2147482689/260-10-45-10 + Details Name: us-gaap_WeightedAverageNumberOfSharesIssuedBasic Namespace Prefix: us-gaap_ Data Type: xbrli:sharesItemType Balance Type: na Period Type: duration X - ReferencesNo definition available. + Details Name: us-gaap_WeightedAverageNumberOfSharesOutstandingAbstract Namespace Prefix: us-gaap_ Data Type: xbrli:stringItemType Balance Type: na Period Type: duration XML 21 R5.htm IDEA: XBRL DOCUMENT v3.24.3 UNAUDITED CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED STATEMENTS OF CHANGES IN STOCKHOLDERS' EQUITY AND MEZZANINE EQUITY - USD ($) Total Preferred Stock Common Stock Additional Paid-In Capital Subscription Receivable Retained Earnings (Accumulated Deficit) Accumulated other comprehensive loss Treasurys Stocks Balance, shares at Dec. 31, 2021 Â Â 701,780 Â Â Â Â 15,497 Balance, amount at Dec. 31, 2021 $ 4,379,463 $ 0 $ 702 $ 39,692,595 $ 0 $ (34,345,506) $ (151,621) $ (816,707) Foreign currency translation adjustment, net (981,014) 0 $ 0 0 0 0 (981,014) 0 Shares issued in lieu of cash, shares Â Â 40,600 Â Â Â Â Â Shares issued in lieu of cash, amount 175,941 0 $ 41 175,900 0 0 0 0 Net loss (13,830,371) 0 0 0 0 (13,830,371) 0 0 Adoption of ASU 2020-06 (240,752) $ 0 0 (294,000) 0 53,248 0 0 Issuance of Series A preferred stock, net of issuance costs of $547,700, shares Â 6,000 Â Â Â Â Â Â Issuance of Series A preferred stock, net of issuance costs of $547,700, amount 0 $ 5,452,300 $ 0 0 0 0 0 0 Conversion of Series A preferred stock, shares Â (6,000) 386,588 Â Â Â Â Â Conversion of Series A preferred stock, amount 5,452,300 $ (5,452,300) $ 387 5,451,913 0 0 0 0 Sale of common stock, shares Â Â 5,314,987 Â Â Â Â Â Â Sale of common stock, amount 6,622,924 0 $ 5,315 11,367,717 (4,750,108) 0 0 0 Sale of warrants bundled with common stock 26,216,237 0 $ 0 26,216,237 0 0 0 0 Exercise of warrants, shares Â Â 3,608,667 Â Â Â Â Â Â Exercise of warrants, amount 10,826,000 0 $ 3,609 10,822,391 0 0 0 0 Conversion of convertible debt, shares Â Â 1,574 Â Â Â Â Â Conversion of convertible debt, amount 38,144 0 $ 1 38,143 0 0 0 0 Cashless exercise of warrants, amount 0 0 $ 526 (526) 0 0 0 0 Cashless exercise of warrants, shares Â Â 526,112 Â Â Â Â Â Â Conversion of notes payable into shares of common stock, amount 973,420 0 $ 9 973,411 0 0 0 0 Conversion of notes payable into shares of common stock, shares Â Â 9,520 Â Â Â Â Â Â Fair value of warrants issued in lieu of cash 24,401 0 $ 0 24,401 0 0 0 0 Deemed dividend upon downround of preferred stock and warrants 0 0 0 16,669,894 0 (16,669,894) 0 0 Deemed dividend on preferred stock (372,414) 372,414 0 0 0 (372,414) 0 0 Deemed dividend on warrant exchange 0 0 $ 0 1,067,876 0 (1,067,876) 0 0 Rounding upon reverse stock split of 1 for 25 common shares, shares Â Â 15,584 Â Â Â Â Â Â Rounding upon reverse stock split of 1 for 25 common shares, amount 16 0 $ 16 0 0 0 0 0 Balance, amount at Dec. 31, 2022 39,284,295 372,414 $ 10,606 112,205,952 (4,750,108) (66,232,813) (1,132,635) $ (816,707) Balance, shares at Dec. 31, 2022 Â Â 10,605,412 Â Â Â Â Â 15,497 Foreign currency translation adjustment,

In the opinion of management of COSM, all adjustments (consisting of normal recurring accruals) considered necessary for a fair presentation have been included. Operating results for the three and six months ended June 30, 2024, are not necessarily indicative of the results that may be expected for the year ending December 31, 2024, or any other period. These unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements and notes should be read in conjunction with the financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2023, included in the Companyâ€™s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2023 (â€œForm 10-Kâ€). The accompanying condensed consolidated balance sheet as of December 31, 2023 has been derived from the audited financial statements filed in our Form 10-K and is included for comparison purposes in the accompanying balance sheet. Â Going ConcernÂ The Companyâ€™s consolidated financial statements are prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (â€œU.S. GAAPâ€), which contemplates the continuation of the Company as a going concern. For the six months ended June 30, 2024, the Company had revenue of $27,791,190, net loss of $4,457,401Â and net cash used in operations of $4,622,989. Additionally, as of June 30, 2024, the Company had positive working capital of $8,593,711, an accumulated deficit of $96,101,634, and stockholdersâ€™ equity of $32,119,574. It is managementâ€™s opinion that these conditions raise substantial doubt about the Companyâ€™s ability to continue as a going concern for a period of twelve months from the date of this filing.Â The Companyâ€™s revenues are not able to sustain its operations, and concerns exist regarding the Companyâ€™s ability to meet its obligations as they become due. The Company is subject to a number of risks to those of smaller commercial companies, including dependence on key individuals and products, the difficulties inherent in the development of a commercial market, the need to obtain additional capital, competition from larger companies, and other pharmaceutical and health care companies.Â Management evaluated the above conditions which raise substantial doubt about the Companyâ€™s ability to continue as a going concern to determine if it can meet its obligations for the subsequent twelve months from the date of this filing. Management considered its ability to access future capital, curtail expenses if needed, expand product lines, and acquire new products.Â Managementâ€™s plans include expansion of brand name products to the market, expanding the current product portfolio, and evaluating acquisition targets to expand distribution. Furthermore, the Company intends to vertically integrate the supply chain distribution network. During the period up to the issuance of this report the Company has signed multiple distribution agreements for its SPL products in Europe and Asia and a variety of contract manufacturing agreements though its subsidiary, CANA. Finally, the Company plans to access the capital markets further in order to raise additional funds through equity offerings. More specifically, management will consider postponing the repayment of its outstanding Trade Facility ($1,606,650 balance as of June 30, 2024), intends to make substantial efforts to receive additional debt financing through its subsidiary, Cosmofarm SA, and plans to raise additional equity funds through utilizing its outstanding warrants. Up to the issuance of its consolidated financial statements for the six months ended June 30, 2024, the Company has sold 901,488 shares of common stock for net proceeds of $629,426. Moreover, the Companyâ€™s management is considering postponing certain repayments of suppliers and creditors. However, management cannot provide any assurances that the Company will be successful in accomplishing any of its plans. The ability of the Company to continue as a going concern is dependent upon its ability to successfully accomplish the plans described herein and eventually secure other sources of financing and attain profitable operations.Â Considering the above, management is of the view that substantial doubt exists for the Companyâ€™s ability to continue as a going concern. The consolidated financial statements do not include any adjustments to reflect the possible future effect on the recoverability and classification of assets or the amounts and classifications of liabilities that may result from the outcome of this uncertainty. The group is engaged in the nutraceuticals sector through its own proprietary lines of products â€œSky Premium Lifeâ€ and â€œMediterranationâ€. The Company is operating in the pharmaceutical sector as well, through the provision of a broad line of branded generics and OTC medications. In addition, the group is involved in the healthcare distribution sector through its subsidiaries in Greece and the UK, serving retail pharmacies and wholesale distributors. The Company is strategically focusing on the research and development (â€œR&Dâ€) of novel patented nutraceuticals (Intellectual Property) and specialized root extracts as well as on the R&D of proprietary complex generics and innovative OTC products. The Company has developed a global distribution platform and is currently expanding throughout Europe, Asia and North America. The Company has offices and distribution centers in Thessaloniki and Athens, Greece and Harlow, UK.Â The Company was incorporated in the State of Nevada under the name Prime Estates and Developments, Inc. on July 21, 2009. On November 14, 2013, we changed our name to Cosmos Holdings Inc., and on November 29, 2022, we changed our name to Cosmos Health Inc. Through its acquisition of Amplerissimo Ltd, on September 27, 2013, the Company changed its principal activities into trading of products, providing representation, and provision of consulting services to various sectors. On August 1, 2014, the Company formed SkyPharm S.A., a Greek Company (â€œSkyPharmâ€), a subsidiary that used to focus on the trading, sourcing and export of nutraceutical and pharmaceutical products. In February 2017, the Company acquired Decahedron Ltd., a UK Company (â€œDecahedronâ€) which is a fully licensed second-generation wholesaler specializing in imports and exports of generics and OTC pharmaceutical products within the EEA and distributor of Sky Premium Life nutraceutical products in the UK.Â On December 19, 2018, the Company acquired Cosmofarm, a pharmaceutical wholesaler specializing in the distribution and export of pharmaceutical products through its extensive pharmacies network. On April 3, 2023, the Company completed the acquisition of ZipDoctor Inc. (â€œZipDoctorâ€), a telehealth company, a direct-to-consumer subscription-based telemedicine platform. On June 30, 2023, the Company acquired Cana Laboratories Holdings (Cyprus) Limited (â€œCanaâ€), which wholly owned an operating subsidiary, Pharmaceutical Laboratories Cana S.A. (â€œCana SAâ€), a Greek pharmaceutical company that manufactures, sells, distributes, and markets original branded products researched and developed by leading global pharmaceutical and healthcare companies.Â Acquisition AccountingÂ CloudscreenÂ On January 23, 2024, the Company completed the acquisition of Cloudscreen, a cutting-edge Artificial Intelligence (AI) powered platform. The acquisition is pursuant to the purchase agreement announced on October 11, 2023. Cloudscreen is a multimodal platform specialized in drug repurposing, a process that involves uncovering new target proteins or indications for existing drugs for use in treating different diseases. The total purchase price amounted to $637,080 and consisted of 280,000 shares of common stock with a fair value of $319,200 and an amount of $317,880 to be settled in cash during 2024 based on the Promissory Note signed on October 10, 2023. The Company accounted for the acquisition as an asset acquisition in accordance with Accounting Standards Codification (â€œASCâ€) Topic 805, Business Combinations, (â€œASC 805â€) and recorded $637,080 as an intangible asset related to the technology platform acquired.Â ZipDoctorÂ On April 3, 2023, the Company completed the acquisition of ZipDoctor Inc. (â€œZipDoctorâ€), aÂ telehealth company for a total sum of $150,000 in cash and $8,788 in fees. The Company accounted for the acquisition as an asset acquisition in accordance with Accounting Standards Codification (â€œASCâ€) Topic 805, Business Combinations, (â€œASC 805â€) and recorded $158,788 as an intangible asset related to the technology platform acquired.Â BikasÂ On June 15, 2023, Cosmos Health Inc. entered into an Assignment and Assumption Agreement (the â€œAgreementâ€) with Ioannis Bikas O.E., a Greek Company (â€œBikasâ€). Bikas is owner of a pharmaceutical distribution network in Greece and agreed to sell to the Company their distribution network and customer base. The purchase price of the network was â‚¬100,000 ($109,330)Â in cash, and â‚¬300,000 ($316,081)Â in the Companyâ€™s common stock. The Company issued 99,710 shares of common stock related to the acquisition of the customer base, based on the fair value of the stock on the acquisition date. The Company accounted for the acquisition as an asset acquisition in accordance with ASC 805 and recorded $425,411 as an intangible asset related to the customer base acquired.Â Buildings AcquisitionsÂ On April 24, 2023, the Company purchased a building for a total sum of $1,054,872 in cash.Â The Company accounted for the acquisition as an asset acquisition in accordance with ASC 805 and recorded the cost of the building as "Property, plant and equipment" on the consolidated balance sheets.Â On January 6, 2023, the Company agreed to purchase land and building located in Montreal, Canada from a third-party vendor. The total purchase price amounts to $3,950,000 and the closing date of the agreement based on the amendment signed on July 19, 2023, is December 31, 2023. As of June 30, 2024, the Company has made no additional prepayments concerning this building. The closing date of the agreement has been extended to December 31, 2024.Â Cana Â On June 30, 2023, the Company acquired Cana Laboratories Holdings (Cyprus) Limited (â€œCanaâ€), which wholly owned an operating subsidiary, Pharmaceutical Laboratories Cana S.A. (â€œCana SAâ€) for â‚¬800,000 ($873,600) in cash and 46,377 shares of common stock, with fair value of $138,667 as of the date of acquisition. Moreover, on February 28, 2023, the Company had signed a Secured Promissory Note with Cana, whereby Cana borrowed the sum of â‚¬4,100,000 ($4,457,520), included in the total consideration of $5,469,787. The Company accounted for the acquisition as a business acquisition in accordance with ASC 805. The fair value of Cana assets acquired, and liabilities assumed was based upon managementâ€™s estimates assisted by an independent third-party valuation firm. The fixed assets of Cana (which included land, building & machinery) were valued as of December 31, 2022 and the Company believes that nothing has materially changed between such date and the acquisition date (June 30, 2023). The following table summarizes the preliminary allocation of purchase price of the acquisition:Â Consideration Â Â Â CashÂ $5,331,120Â Fair value of common stock issuedÂ Â 138,667Â Fair value of total consideration transferredÂ $5,469,787Â Â Â Â Â Â Recognized amounts of identifiable assets acquiredÂ Â Â Â Financial assetsÂ $1,796,911Â InventoryÂ Â 297,340Â Property, plant and equipmentÂ Â 7,488,818Â Identifiable intangible assetsÂ Â 562,200Â Financial liabilitiesÂ Â (3,235,233)Total identifiable net assetsÂ $6,910,036Â Â Â Â Â Â Bargain purchase gainÂ $1,440,249Â Â Revenue for the 6- month period ended December 31, 2023Â $344,708Â LossÂ for the 6- month period ended December 31, 2023Â $(1,232,732)Â During the prior year period, Cana had minimal operations as it was in financial difficulties and seeking for an investor. Â Basis of Financial Statement PresentationÂ The accompanying consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with U.S. GAAP.Â Principles of ConsolidationÂ Our consolidated accounts include our accounts and the accounts of our wholly owned subsidiaries, SkyPharm S.A., Decahedron Ltd., Cosmofarm S.A., Cana Laboratories Holdings (Cyprus) Limited and ZipDoctor Inc. The Groupâ€™s financial statements are prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (â€œUS GAAPâ€). The consolidated financial statements reflect the consolidation of all entities in which the Company has control, as determined by the ability to direct the activities that significantly affect the entitiesâ€™ economic performance. All significant intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated.Â Transactions in and Translations of Foreign CurrencyÂ The functional currency for the Greek subsidiaries of the Company (CANA Laboratories, Cosmofarm S.A. and SkyPharm SA) is EURO (â‚¬) and for the UK subsidiary (Decahedron Ltd) is GBP (Â£). ZipDoctor Inc. is a U.S. based entity. As a result, the financial statements of the subsidiaries (except for ZipDoctor Inc.) have been translated from the local currency into U.S. dollars using (i) year-end exchange rates for balance sheet accounts, and (ii) average exchange rates for the reporting period for all income statements accounts. Foreign currency translations gains and losses are reported as a separate component of the condensed consolidated statements of changes in stockholdersâ€™ equity and mezzanine equity. Â Use of EstimatesÂ The preparation of the consolidated financial statements in conformity with U.S. GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates. Â The Effects of War in the UkraineÂ On February 24, 2022, Russian forces launched significant military action against Ukraine. There continues to be sustained conflict and disruption in the region, which is expected to endure for the foreseeable future. We do not conduct any commercial transactions with either Ukraine or Russia and the Company and, as such, is not aware of any specific event or circumstance that would require an update to its estimates or judgments or a revision of the carrying value of its assets or liabilities as of the date of issuance of this Annual Report on Form 10-K. Such political issues and conflicts could have a material adverse effect on our results of operations and financial condition if they escalate in areas in which we do business. In addition, changes in and adverse actions by governments in foreign markets in which we do business could have a material adverse effect on our results of operations and financial condition.Â Credit LossesÂ In June 2016, the FASB issued ASU 2016-13, Financial Instrumentsâ€"Credit Losses (Topic 326): Measurement of Credit Losses of Financial Instruments, which amends the requirement on the measurement and recognition of expected credit losses for financial assets held. Furthermore, amendments ASU 2019-10 and ASU 2019-11 provided additional clarification for implementing ASU 2016-13. ASU 2016-13 is effective for the Company beginning January 1, 2023, with early adoption permitted. The Company adopted the standard on January 1, 2023, and the standard did not have a material impact on the Companyâ€™s consolidated financial statements and related disclosures. The Company is exposed to credit losses primarily through sales to its customers and the loans that it has provided. The Company assesses each customerâ€™s/ borrowerâ€™s ability to pay, and a credit loss estimate by conducting a credit review which includes consideration of established credit rating, or an internal assessment of the customerâ€™s creditworthiness based on an analysis of their payment history when a credit rating is not available. The Company monitors credit exposure through active review of customer balances. The Companyâ€™s expected loss methodology for accounts receivable is developed through consideration of factors including, but not limited to, historical collection experience, current customer credit ratings, current customer financial condition, current and future economic and market conditions, and age of the receivables. More specifically, the Company assesses a number of customers with significant long outstanding balances on an individual basis, applying different credit loss percentages to them, and subsequently summarizes the ones not included in the individual analysis, groups them based on their rating (decided based on the factors described above) and applies specific credit loss percentages to each group. The Company has elected to follow the simplified ECL approach. The charges related to credit losses are included in â€œGeneral and administrative expensesâ€ and are recorded in the period that the outstanding receivables are determined to be doubtful. Account balances are written-off against the allowance when they are deemed uncollectible.Â Cash and Cash EquivalentsÂ For purposes of the statement of cash flows, the Company considers all highly liquid investments purchased with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents. Â The Company maintains bank accounts in the United States denominated in U.S. Dollars, in Greece denominated in Euros, U.S. Dollars and Great Britain Pounds (British Pounds Sterling), and in Bulgaria denominated in Euros. The Company also maintains bank accounts in the United Kingdom, denominated in Euros and Great Britain Pounds (British Pounds Sterling).Â Accounts Receivable, netÂ Accounts receivable are stated at their net realizable value. The allowance for doubtful accounts against gross accounts receivable reflects the best estimate of probable losses inherent in the receivablesâ€™ portfolio determined on the basis of historical experience, specific allowances for known troubled accounts and other currently available information. As of June 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, the Companyâ€™s allowance for doubtful accounts was $19,086,835 and $19,686,091, respectively. Below is the summary of changes in the allowance for doubtful accounts:Â Â Â June 30, 2024 Â Â Â Â Â Â Balance as of January 1st, 2024 Â $19,686,091Â Provisions for credit losses Â Â -Â Write-offs Â Â -Â Foreign exchange adjustmentsÂ Â (568,264)Other adjustmentsÂ Â (30,992)Balance as of June 30, 2024Â $19,086,835Â Â Tax ReceivablesÂ The Company pays Value Added Tax (â€œVATâ€) or similar taxes (â€œinput VATâ€), income taxes, and other taxes within the normal course of its business in most of the countries in which it operates related to the procurement of merchandise and/or services it acquires and/or on sales and taxable income. The Company also collects VAT or similar taxes on behalf of the government (â€œoutput VATâ€) for merchandise and/or services it sells. If the output VAT exceeds the input VAT, this creates a VAT payable to the government. If the input VAT exceeds the output VAT, this creates a VAT receivable from the government. The VAT tax return is filed on a monthly basis offsetting the payables against the receivables. In observance of EU regulations for intra-EU cross-border sales, our subsidiaries in Greece, SkyPharm and Cosmofarm, do not charge VAT for sales to wholesale drug distributors registered in other European Union member states. As of June 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, the Company had a VAT net receivable balance of $276,152 and $187,512 respectively, recorded in the consolidated balance sheet as prepaid expenses and other current assets and accounts payable and accrued expenses, respectively.Â Inventory Â Inventory is stated at the lower-of-cost or net realizable value using the weighted average method. Inventory consists primarily of finished goods and packaging materials, i.e., packaged pharmaceutical products and the wrappers and containers they are sold in. A periodic inventory system is maintained by 100% count. Inventory is replaced periodically to maintain the optimum stock on hand available for immediate shipment.Â The Company writes down inventories to net realizable value based on physical condition, expiration date, and current market conditions, as well as forecasted demand. The Companyâ€™s inventories are not highly susceptible to obsolescence. Many of the Companyâ€™s inventory items are eligible for return to our suppliers when pre-agreed product requirements, including, but not limited to, physical condition and expiration date, are not met. No significant judgments have been applied in estimating the selling price of our inventory.Â Property and Equipment, net Â Property and equipment are stated at cost, less accumulated depreciation. Depreciation is calculated on a straight-line basis over the useful lives (except for leasehold improvements which are depreciated over the lesser of the lease term or the useful life) of the assets as follows:Â Â EstimatedUseful LifeLeasehold improvements and technical worksÂ Lesser of lease term or 25 yearsBuildingsÂ Â 25-30 yearsÂ VehiclesÂ 6 yearsMachineryÂ 20 yearsFurniture, fixtures and equipmentÂ 5â€“10 yearsÂ Computers and softwareÂ 3-5 yearsÂ Depreciation expense was $103,558 and $79,163 for the three months ended June 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively and $216,432 and $112,569 for the six months ended June 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively.Â Property and Equipment additionsÂ Property and Equipment additions are recognized as assets when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the asset will flow to the entity and the cost of the asset can be measured reliably. Additions are initially measured at cost, which includes all costs directly attributable to bringing the asset to its working condition and location for its intended use. This may include purchase price, freight, installation, and any directly attributable professional fees. They are capitalized if their cost exceeds a certain threshold. The threshold is determined based on materiality considerations. Costs below the threshold are typically expensed as incurred. After initial recognition, additions are measured at cost less accumulated depreciation and any accumulated impairment losses. Depreciation is calculated systematically over the estimated useful life of the asset. They are tested for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable. If the carrying amount exceeds the recoverable amount, an impairment loss is recognized, and the carrying amount of the asset is adjusted accordingly. Borrowing costs directly attributable to the acquisition, construction, or production of qualifying assets, including Property and Equipment additions, are capitalized as part of the cost of those assets. Â Goodwill and Intangibles, netÂ The Company periodically reviews the carrying value of intangible assets not subject to amortization, including goodwill, to determine whether impairment may exist. Goodwill and certain intangible assets are assessed annually, or when certain triggering events occur, for impairment using fair value measurement techniques. These events could include a significant change in the business climate, legal factors, a decline in operating performance, competition, sale or disposition of a significant portion of the business, or other factors. First, under step 0, we determine whether it is more likely than not that the fair value of the reporting unit is less than the carrying amount. Following, if step 0 fails, goodwill impairment is determined using a two-step process. The first step of the goodwill impairment test is used to identify potential impairment by comparing the fair value of a reporting unit with its carrying amount, including goodwill. The Company uses level 3 inputs and a discounted cash flow methodology to estimate the fair value of a reporting unit. A discounted cash flow analysis requires one to make various judgmental assumptions including assumptions about future cash flows, growth rates, and discount rates. The assumptions about future cash flows and growth rates are based on the Companyâ€™s budget and long-term plans. Discount rate assumptions are based on an assessment of the risk inherent in the respective reporting units. If the fair value of a reporting unit exceeds its carrying amount, goodwill of the reporting unit is considered not impaired and the second step of the impairment test is unnecessary. If the carrying amount of a reporting unit exceeds its fair value, the second step of the goodwill impairment test is performed to measure the amount of impairment loss, if any. The second step of the goodwill impairment test compares the implied fair value of the reporting unitâ€™s goodwill with the carrying amount of that goodwill. If the carrying amount of the reporting unitâ€™s goodwill exceeds the implied fair value of that goodwill, an impairment loss is recognized in an amount equal to that excess. The implied fair value of goodwill is determined in the same manner as the amount of goodwill recognized in a business combination. That is, the fair value of the reporting unit is allocated to all of the assets and liabilities of that unit (including any unrecognized intangible assets) as if the reporting unit had been acquired in a business combination and the fair value of the reporting unit was the purchase price paid to acquire the reporting unit. Â On December 19, 2018, as a result of the acquisition of Cosmofarm, the Company recorded $49,697 of goodwill. Â Intangible assets with definite useful lives are recorded on the basis of cost and are amortized on a straight-line basis over their estimated useful lives. The Company uses a useful life of 5 years for an import/export license and a useful life of 10 years for the pharmaceutical and nutraceutical products licenses included in Note 4 as â€œLicensesâ€. A useful life of 10 years is also used for the platforms included in Note 4 as â€œSoftwareâ€ and the customer bases. The Company evaluates the remaining useful life of intangible assets annually to determine whether events and circumstances warrant a revision to the remaining amortization period. If the estimate of the intangible assetâ€™s remaining useful life is changed, the remaining carrying amount of the intangible asset will be amortized prospectively over that revised remaining useful life. As of June 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, no revision to the remaining amortization period of the intangible assets was made.Â Amortization expense was $193,518 and $16,035 for the three months ended June 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively and $383,373 and $50,270 for the six months ended June 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively.Â Impairment of Long-Lived AssetsÂ In accordance with ASC 360-10, Long-lived Assets, property and equipment and intangible assets are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset may not be recoverable. Recoverability of long-lived assets to be held and used is measured by a comparison of the carrying amount of an asset to the estimated undiscounted future cash flows expected to be generated by the asset. If the carrying amount of an asset exceeds its estimated undiscounted future cash flows, an impairment charge is recognized by the amount by which the carrying amount of the asset exceeds the fair value of the assets. Fair value is generally determined using the assetâ€™s expected future discounted cash flows or market value, if readily determinable. Â Equity Method InvestmentÂ For those investments in common stock or in-substance common stock in which the Company has the ability to exercise significant influence over the operating and financial policies of the investee, the investment is accounted for under the equity method. The Company records its share in the earnings of the investee and is included in â€œEquity earnings of affiliateâ€ in the consolidated statement of operations. The Company assesses its investment for other-than-temporary impairment when events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of the investment might not be recoverable and recognizes an impairment loss to adjust the investment to its then current fair value.Â Investments in Equity SecuritiesÂ Investments in equity securities are accounted for at fair value with changes in fair value recognized in net income (loss). Equity securities are classified as short-term or long-term based on the nature of the securities and their availability to meet current operating requirements. Equity securities that are readily available for sale in current operations are reported as a component of current assets in the accompanying consolidated balance sheets. Equity securities that are not considered available for use in current operations would be reported as a component of long-term assets in the accompanying consolidated balance sheets. For equity securities with no readily determinable fair value, the Company elects a measurement alternative to fair value. Under this alternative, the Company measures the investments at cost, less any impairment, and adjusted for changes resulting from observable price changes in transactions for identical or similar investments of the investee. The election to use the measurement alternative is made for each eligible investment. Â As of June 30, 2024, investments consisted of 16,666 shares which traded at a closing price of $0.75 per share or value of $12,416 of National Bank of Greece. Additionally, the Company has $7,665 in equity securities of Pancreta Bank, which are revalued annually. Â Fair Value MeasurementÂ The Company applies ASC 820, Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures, (â€œASC 820â€), for assets and liabilities measured at fair value on a recurring basis. ASC 820 establishes a common definition for fair value to be applied to existing generally accepted accounting principles that require the use of fair value measurements establishes a framework for measuring fair value and expands disclosure about such fair value measurements. Â ASC 820 defines fair value as the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. Additionally, ASC 820 requires the use of valuation techniques that maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs. These inputs are prioritized below:Â Level 1:Â Observable inputs such as quoted prices (unadjusted)Â in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.Â Level 2:Â Inputs other than quoted prices that are observable, either directly or indirectly. These include quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets and quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in markets that are not active.Â Level 3:Â Unobservable inputs in which little or no market data exists, therefore developed using estimates and assumptions developed by us, which reflect those that a market participant would use.Â In addition, ASC 825-10-25, Fair Value Option, (â€œASC 825-10-25â€), expands opportunities to use fair value measurements in financial reporting and permits entities to choose to measure many financial instruments and certain other items at fair value. The Company did not elect the fair value options for any of its qualifying financial instruments.Â Our financials also included the following financial instruments as of June 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023: cash, accounts receivable, inventory, prepaid expenses, loans receivable, accounts payable, notes payable and lines of credit. Except for the loans receivable which carry fixed interest rates, the carrying value of the remaining instruments, approximates fair value due to their short-term nature.Â Customer AdvancesÂ The Company receives prepayments from certain customers for pharmaceutical products prior to those customers taking possession of the Companyâ€™s products. The Company records these receipts as current liabilities until it has met all the criteria for recognition of revenue including passing control of the products to its customer, at such point, the Company will reduce the customerÂ advances balance and credit the Companyâ€™s revenues.Â Revenue RecognitionÂ In accordance with ASC Topic 606,Â Revenue from Contracts with CustomersÂ (â€œASC 606â€), the Company uses a five-step model for recognizing revenue by applying the following steps: Â Â 1)Identification of the Contract: The Company identifies a contract with a customer when it enters into an agreement that creates enforceable rights and obligations.Â 2)Identification of Performance Obligations: The Company identifies distinct performance obligations within each contract, which represent promises to transfer goods or services to the customer.Â 3)Determination of Transaction Price: The Company determines the transaction price, which represents the amount of consideration to which it expects to be entitled in exchange for transferring promised goods or services to the customer, excluding any amounts collected on behalf of third parties.Â 4)Allocation of Transaction Price: The Company allocates the transaction price to each distinct performance obligation based on its standalone selling price. If the standalone selling price is not observable, the Company estimates it using an appropriate method.Â 5)Recognition of Revenue: Revenue is recognized when (or as) the Company satisfies a performance obligation by transferring a promised good or service to the customer. This typically occurs at a point in time or over time, depending on the nature of the performance obligation.Â Wholesale revenue and sales of own branded nutraceutical and pharmaceutical productsÂ The Company has contracts or signed partnership forms (usual in the wholesale sector of the pharma industry) with its customers, stipulating the enforceable rights and obligations. The Company is responsible for transferring the goods to the customerâ€™s location, which represents its sole performance obligation. Thus, the transaction price, which is predetermined in most of the products sold, is exclusively allocated to this performance obligation. Revenue is recognized at a single point in time, which is upon issuance of the corresponding sales invoice. The Company has assessed the impact of the items invoiced but not delivered to the customerâ€™s location as of December 31, 2023 and June 30, 2024, and deemed that it had no material effect. Â Pharma manufacturingÂ The Company has active contracts with its customers, stipulating the enforceable rights and obligations. The Company is responsible for the manufacturing and the packaging of specific products assigned by its customers, which represents its performance obligations to which the Company allocates the transaction price determined. The customers are responsible for providing the raw materials to the Company. Revenue is recognized over a period of time, which is during the production and packaging period of the respective products. As of June 30, 2024, there were no products or batches of products for which the production or packaging phase was in progress. Â Medihelm SA Â Commencing from January 1, 2023, and pursuant to the agreement with Medihelm, the exclusive distributor of the Companyâ€™s own proprietary line of nutraceuticals, the Company considers the transaction price to be variable and records an estimate of the transaction price, subject to the constraint for variable consideration. The Company is basing the change in transaction price with the exclusive distributor through assessment of significant overdue receivables from the exclusive distributor, which the Company reassesses each reporting period. Through this assessment, the Company applied the â€œexpected valueâ€ model under ASC 606-10-32-5 and had applied specific constraints to revenue due from the customer at the end of each reporting period. Following the application of the â€œexpected valueâ€ model, the Company had deferred an amount of $397,000Â and recorded it against the sales to Medihelm for the twelve months ended December 31, 2024. However, the Company assessed once more the trading relationship with Medihelm SA at year end and since no significant receipts had taken place up to the issuance of the report, the Company recorded an allowance for the total receivable amount not received up to the issuance date. More specifically a cumulative reserve of $12,655,615 was applied, leaving a receivable of $532,704 due from Medihelm SA, as of December 31, 2023. The Company does not consider that new sales to Medihelm SA or sales to any other customer include a variable component as of June 30, 2024.Â Stock-based Compensation Â The Company records stock-based compensation in accordance with ASC 718, Stock Compensation (â€œASC 718â€) and Staff Accounting Bulletin No. 107 (â€œSAB 107â€) regarding its interpretation of ASC 718. ASC 718 requires the fair value of all stock-based employee compensation awarded to employees to be recorded as an expense over the related requisite service period. The Company values any employee or non-employee stock-based compensation at fair value using the Black-Scholes Option Pricing Model.Â The Company accounts for non-employee share-based awards in accordance with the measurement and recognition criteria of ASU 2018-07, â€œCompensation-Stock Compensation-Improvements to Nonemployee Share-Based Payment Accounting.â€Â Income TaxesÂ The Company accounts for income taxes under the asset and liability method, as required by the accounting standard for income taxes ASC 740. Under this method, deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the future tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax basis, as well as net operating loss carryforwards. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. The effect on deferred tax assets and liabilities of a change in tax rates is recognized in income in the period that includes the enactment date. Â The Company is liable for income taxes in Greece and the United Kingdom The corporate income tax rate is 22% in Greece and 25% in the United Kingdom. Losses may also be subject to limitation under certain rules regarding change of ownership. Â We regularly review deferred tax assets to assess their potential realization and establish a valuation allowance for portions of such assets to reduce the carrying value if we do not consider it to be more likely than not that the deferred tax assets will be realized. Our review includes evaluating both positive (e.g., sources of taxable income) and negative (e.g., recent historical losses) evidence that could impact the realizability of our deferred tax assets. At June 30, 2024, we believe our United Kingdom and Greece deferred tax assets will not be realized, as such, we did not record a reversal on the full valuation approach we followed during the year ended December 31, 2023.Â LeasesÂ The Company accounts for leases in accordance with ASC 842. For all leases, the Company recognizes a right-of-use (ROU) asset and a lease liability on the balance sheet. The ROU asset represents the Company's right to use the underlying asset for the lease term, and the lease liability represents the obligation to make lease payments arising from the lease, both measured at the present value of future lease payments. Lease payments are recognized as an operating expense on a straight-line basis over the lease term. The interest on the lease liability and the amortization of the ROU asset are recognized separately in the income statement. Initial direct costs incurred by the Company in negotiating and securing leases are capitalized and amortized over the lease term on a straight-line basis. The assets and liabilities from operating and finance leases are recognized at the commencement date based on the present value of remaining lease payments over the lease term using the Companyâ€™s secured incremental borrowing rates or implicit rates, when readily determinable. Short-term leases, which have an initial term of 12 months or less, are not recorded on the balance sheet. The Companyâ€™s operating leases do not provide an implicit rate that can readily be determined. Therefore, we use a discount rate based on our incremental borrowing rate, which is determined using the average interest rate of our long-term debt on the date of inception.Â Retirement and Termination BenefitsÂ Under Greek labor law, employees are entitled to lump-sum compensation in the event of termination or retirement. The amount depends on the employeeâ€™s work experience and remuneration as of the day of termination or retirement. If an employee remains with the company until full-benefit retirement, the employee is entitled to a lump-sum equal to 40% of the compensation to be received if the employee were to be dismissed on the same day. The Company periodically reviews the uncertainties and judgments related to the application of the relevant labor law regulations to determine retirement and termination benefits obligations of its Greek subsidiaries. The Company has evaluated the impact of these regulations and has identified a potential retirement and termination benefits liability. The amount of the liability as of June 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, was $395,698 and $408,665, respectively, and has been recorded as a long-term liability within the consolidated balance sheets. Â Basic and Diluted Net Loss per Common ShareÂ Basic income per share is calculated by dividing income available to common stockholders by the weighted average number of shares of common stock outstanding during the period. Diluted income per share is calculated by dividing income available to common stockholders by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding for the period and, when dilutive, potential shares from stock options and warrants to purchase common stock, using the treasury stock method. In accordance with ASC 260, Earnings Per Share, the following table reconciles basic shares outstanding to fully diluted shares outstanding.Â Â Â Â June 30, 2024Â Â June 30, 2023Â Weighted average number of common shares outstanding BasicÂ Â 17,025,203Â Â Â 10,718,010Â Potentially dilutive common stock equivalentsÂ Â Â Â Â Â -Â Weighted average number of common and equivalent shares outstanding â€“ DilutedÂ Â 17,025,203Â Â Â 10,718,010Â Â The following table summarizes potential common shares that were excluded as their effect is anti-dilutive:Â Â Â June 30, 2024Â Â June 30, 2023Â WarrantsÂ Â 8,558,380Â Â Â 4,188,928Â TotalÂ Â 8,558,380Â Â Â 4,188,928Â Â Common stock equivalents are included in the diluted income per share calculation only when option exercise prices are lower than the average market price of the common shares for the period presented.Â Accounting Standard AdoptedÂ In December 2022, the FASB issued ASU No. 2022-06, Deferral of the Sunset Date of Reference Rate Reform (Topic 848). Topic 848 provides optional expedients and exceptions for applying GAAP to transactions affected by reference rate (e.g., LIBOR) reform if certain criteria are met, for a limited period of time to ease the potential burden in accounting for (or recognizing the effects of) reference rate reform on financial reporting. The ASU deferred the sunset date of Topic 848 from December 31, 2022 to December 31, 2024. The ASU is effective as of December 21, 2022 through December 31, 2024. We continue to evaluate transactions or contract modifications occurring as a result of reference rate reform and determine whether to apply the optional guidance on an ongoing basis. We adopted ASU 2022-06 during 2022. The Company adopted this ASU on June 30, 2023. The adoption of this ASU did not have a material impact on the Companyâ€™s accounting and disclosures.Â In March 2022, the FASB issued ASU 2022-02, Troubled Debt Restructurings and Vintage Disclosures. This ASU eliminates the accounting guidance for troubled debt restructurings by creditors that have adopted ASU 2016-13, Measurement of Credit Losses on Financial Instruments, which was adopted on January 1, 2020. The adoption of ASU 2016-13 did not have a material impact on the Companyâ€™s consolidated financial statements. ASU 2022-02 also enhances the disclosure requirements for certain loan refinancing and restructurings by creditors when a borrower is experiencing financial difficulty. In addition, the ASU amends the guidance on vintage disclosures to require entities to disclose current period gross write-offs by year of origination for financing receivables and net investments in leases within the scope of ASC 326-20. The ASU is effective for annual periods beginning after December 15, 2022, including interim periods within those fiscal years. Adoption of the ASU would be applied prospectively. Early adoption is also permitted, including adoption in an interim period. This ASU was adopted on January 1, 2023, which resulted in no cumulative-effect adjustment to retained earnings.Â Recent Accounting PronouncementsÂ In December 2023, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (â€œFASBâ€) issued Accounting Standards Update (â€œASUâ€)Â 2023-09,Â Income Taxes (Topic 740): Improvements to Income Tax Disclosures. This guidance is intended to enhance the transparency and decision-usefulness of income tax disclosures. The amendments in ASUÂ 2023-09Â address investor requests for enhanced income tax information primarily through changes to disclosure regarding rate reconciliation and income taxes paid both in the U.S. and in foreign jurisdictions. ASUÂ 2023-09Â is effective for fiscal years beginning after DecemberÂ 15, 2024 on a prospective basis, with the option to apply the standard retrospectively. Early adoption is permitted. The Company is currently evaluating this guidance to determine the impact it may have on its consolidated financial statements disclosures.Â In November 2023, the FASB issued ASUÂ 2023-07, Segment Reporting: Improvements to Reportable Segment Disclosures. This guidance expands public entitiesâ€™ segment disclosures primarily by requiring disclosure of significant segment expenses that are regularly provided to the chief operating decision maker and included within each reported measure of segment profit or loss, an amount and description of its composition for other segment items, and interim disclosures of a reportable segmentâ€™s profit or loss and assets. The guidance is effective for fiscal years beginning after DecemberÂ 15, 2023, and interim periods within fiscal years beginning after DecemberÂ 15, 2024, with early adoption permitted. The amendments are required to be applied retrospectively to all prior periods presented in an entityâ€™s financial statements. The Company is currently evaluating this guidance to determine the impact it may have on its consolidated financial statements related disclosures.Â Â Management does not believe that any recently issued, but not effective, accounting standards, if currently adopted, would have a material effect on the Companyâ€™s consolidated financial statements.Â NOTE 1 â€“ ORGANIZATION AND NATURE OF BUSINESSÂ Cosmos Health Inc. and its subsidiaries (Nasdaq: COSM), (â€œusâ€, â€œweâ€, the â€œGroupâ€, or the â€œCompanyâ€) are an international healthcare group headquartered in Chicago, Illinois. The Group is engaged in the nutraceuticals sector through its own proprietary lines of products â€œSky Premium Lifeâ€ and â€œMediterranationâ€. The Company is operating in the pharmaceutical sector as well, through the provision of a broad line of branded generics and OTC medications. In addition, the Group is involved in the healthcare distribution sector through its subsidiaries in Greece and the UK, serving retail pharmacies and wholesale distributors. The Company is strategically focusing on the research and development (â€œR&Dâ€) of novel patented nutraceuticals (Intellectual Property) and specialized root extracts as well as on the R&D of proprietary complex generics and innovative OTC products. The Company has developed a global distribution platform and is currently expanding throughout Europe, Asia and North America. The Company has offices and distribution centers in Thessaloniki and Athens, Greece and Harlow, UK.Â The Company was incorporated in the State of Nevada under the name Prime Estates and Developments, Inc. on July 21, 2009. On November 14, 2013, we changed our name to Cosmos Holdings Inc., and on November 29, 2022, we changed our name to Cosmos Health Inc. Through its acquisition of Amplerissimo Ltd, on September 27, 2013, the Company changed its principal activities into trading of products, providing representation, and provision of consulting services to various sectors. On August 1, 2014, the Company formed SkyPharm S.A., a Greek Company (â€œSkyPharmâ€), a subsidiary that used to focus on the trading, sourcing and export of nutraceutical and pharmaceutical products. In February 2017, the Company acquired Decahedron Ltd., a UK Company (â€œDecahedronâ€) which is a fully licensed second-generation wholesaler specializing in imports and exports of generics and OTC pharmaceutical products within the EEA (European Economic Area) and distributor of Sky Premium Life nutraceutical products in the UK.Â On December 19, 2018, the Company acquired CosmofarmÂ S.A. (â€œCosmofarmâ€), a pharmaceutical wholesaler specializing in the distribution and export of pharmaceutical products through its extensive pharmacies network. On April 3, 2023, the Company completed the acquisition of ZipDoctor Inc. (â€œZipDoctorâ€), a telehealth company, a direct-to-consumer subscription-based telemedicine platform. On June 30, 2023, the Company acquiredÂ Laboratories Holdings (Cyprus) Limited (â€œCanaâ€), which wholly owned an operating subsidiary, Pharmaceutical Laboratories CanaÂ S.A. (â€œCana SAâ€), a Greek pharmaceutical company that manufactures, sells, distributes, and markets original branded products researched and developed by leading global pharmaceutical and healthcare companies.Â Acquisition AccountingÂ CloudscreenÂ On January 23, 2024, the Company completed the acquisition of Cloudscreen, a cutting-edge Artificial Intelligence (AI) powered platform. The acquisition is pursuant to the purchase agreement announced on October 11, 2023. Cloudscreen is a multimodal platform specialized in drug repurposing, a process that involves uncovering new target proteins or indications for existing drugs for use in treating different diseases. The total purchase price amounted to $637,080 and consisted of 280,000 shares of common stock with a fair value of $319,200 and an amount of $317,880 to be settled in cash during 2024 based on the Promissory Note signed on October 10, 2023. The Company accounted for the acquisition as an asset acquisition in accordance with Accounting Standards Codification (â€œASCâ€) Topic 805, Business Combinations, (â€œASC 805â€) and recorded $637,080 as another asset related to the technology platform acquired. The total amount was reclassified to â€œGoodwill and intangible assets, netâ€ in January 2024 with the closing of the agreement (refer to Note 20).Â ZipDoctorÂ On April 3, 2023, the Company completed the acquisition of ZipDoctor Inc. (â€œZipDoctorâ€), aÂ telehealth company for a total sum of $150,000 in cash and $8,788 in fees. The Company accounted for the acquisition as an asset acquisition in accordance with Accounting Standards Codification (â€œASCâ€) Topic 805, Business Combinations, (â€œASC 805â€) and recorded $158,788 as an intangible asset related to the technology platform acquired.Â BikasÂ On June 15, 2023, Cosmos Health Inc. entered into an Assignment and Assumption Agreement (the â€œAgreementâ€) with Ioannis Bikas O.E., a Greek Company (â€œBikasâ€). Bikas is owner of a pharmaceutical distribution network in Greece and agreed to sell to the Company their distribution network and customer base. The purchase price of the network was â‚¬100,000 ($109,330) of cash, and â‚¬300,000 ($316,081) of the Companyâ€™s stock. The Company issued 99,710 shares of common stock related to the acquisition of the customer base, based on the fair value of the stock on acquisition date. The Company accounted for the acquisition as an asset acquisition in accordance with ASC 805 and recorded $425,411 as an intangible asset related to the customer base acquired.Buildings AcquisitionsÂ On April 24, 2023, the Company purchased a building for a total sum of $1,054,872 in cash.Â The Company accounted for the acquisition as an asset acquisition in accordance with ASC 805 and recorded the cost of the building as â€œProperty, plant and equipmentâ€ on the consolidated balance sheets.Â On January 6, 2023, the Company agreed to purchase land and building located in Montreal, Canada from a third-party vendor. The total purchase price amounts to $3,950,000 and the closing date of the agreement based on the amendment signed on July 19, 2023, is December 31, 2023. As of December 31, 2023, the Company has made prepayments of $2,000,020 classified as â€œAdvances for buildingâ€™s acquisitionâ€ on the Companyâ€™s consolidated balance sheets.Â Cana Â On June 30, 2023, the Company acquired Cana Laboratories Holding (Cyprus) Limited (â€œCanaâ€), which wholly owned an operating subsidiary, Pharmaceutical Laboratories CanaÂ S.A. (â€œCana SAâ€) for â‚¬800,000 ($873,600) in cash and 46,377 shares of common stock, with fair value of $138,667 as of the date of acquisition. Moreover, on February 28, 2023, the Company had signed a Secured Promissory Note with Cana, whereby Cana borrowed the sum of â‚¬4,100,000 ($4,457,520), included in the total consideration of $5,469,787. The Company accounted for the acquisition as a business acquisition in accordance with ASC 805. The fair value of Cana assets acquired, and liabilities assumed was based upon managementâ€™s estimates assisted by an independent third-party valuation firm. The fixed assets of Cana (which included land, building & machinery) were valued as of December 31, 2022 and the Company believes that nothing has materially changed between such date and the acquisition date (June 30, 2023). The following table summarizes the preliminary allocation of purchase price of the acquisition:Â Consideration Â Â Â CashÂ $5,331,120Â Fair value of common stock issuedÂ Â 138,667Â Fair value of total consideration transferredÂ $5,469,787Â Â Â Â Â Â Recognized amounts of identifiable assets acquiredÂ Â Â Â Financial assetsÂ $1,796,911Â InventoryÂ Â 297,340Â Property, plant and equipmentÂ Â 7,488,818Â Identifiable intangible assetsÂ Â 562,200Â Financial liabilitiesÂ Â (3,235,233)Total identifiable net assetsÂ $6,910,036Â Â Â Â Â Â Bargain purchase gainÂ $1,440,249Â Â Revenue for the 6- month period ended December 31, 2023Â $344,708Â LossÂ for the 6- month period ended December 31, 2023Â $(1,232,732)Â During the prior year period, Cana had minimal operations as it was in financial difficulties and seeking for an investor. Therefore, we consider that presenting prior period pro forma financial Â Â information pursuant to ASC 805 would not provide meaningful information.Â Going ConcernÂ The Companyâ€™s consolidated financial statements are prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (â€œU.S. GAAPâ€), which contemplates the continuation of the Company as a going concern. For the year ended period December 31, 2023, the Company had revenue of $53,376,874, net loss of $18,542,654 and net cash used in operations of $14,998,919. Additionally, as of December 31, 2023, the Company had positive working capital of $12,285,310, an accumulated deficit of $91,644,233, and stockholdersâ€™ equity of $36,043,028. It is managementâ€™s opinion that these conditions raise substantial doubt about the Companyâ€™s ability to continue as a going concern for a period of 12 months from the date of this filing.The Companyâ€™s revenues are not able to sustain its operations, and concerns exist regarding the Companyâ€™s ability to meet its obligations as they become due. The Company is subject to a number of risks to those of smaller commercial companies, including dependence on key individuals and products, the difficulties inherent in the development of a commercial market, the need to obtain additional capital, competition from larger companies, and other pharmaceutical and health care companies.Â Management evaluated the above conditions which raise substantial doubt about the Companyâ€™s ability to continue as a going concern to determine if it can meet its obligations for the subsequent 12 months from the date of this filing. Management considered its ability to access future capital, curtail expenses if needed, expand product lines, and acquire new products.Â Managementâ€™s plans include expansion of brand name products to the market, expanding the current product portfolio, and evaluating acquisition targets to expand distribution. Furthermore, the Company intends to vertically integrate the supply chain distribution network. Finally, the Company plans to access the capital markets further in order to raise additional funds through equity offerings. More specifically, management will consider postponing the repayment of its outstanding Trade Facility ($1,908,195 balance as of December 31, 2023), intends to make substantial efforts to receive additional debt financing in conjunction with utilizing potential equity proceeds by its outstanding warrants. Moreover, the Companyâ€™s management is considering of postponing certain repayments of suppliers and creditors. However, management cannot provide any assurances that the Company will be successful in accomplishing any of its plans. The ability of the Company to continue as a going concern is dependent upon its ability to successfully accomplish the plans described herein and eventually secure other sources of financing and attain profitable operations.Â Considering the above, management is of the view that substantial doubt exists for the Companyâ€™s ability to continue as a going concern. The consolidated financial statements do not include any adjustments to reflect the possible future effect on the recoverability and classification of assets or the amounts and classifications of liabilities that may result from the outcome of this uncertainty. The Groupâ€™s financial statements are prepared in accordance with U.S. GAAP. The consolidated financial statements reflect the consolidation of all entities in which the Company has control, as determined by the ability to direct the activities that significantly affect the entitiesâ€™ economic performance. All significant intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated.Â Use of EstimatesÂ The preparation of the consolidated financial statements in conformity with U.S. GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates. The Effects of War in the UkraineÂ On February 24, 2022, Russian forces launched significant military action against Ukraine. There continues to be sustained conflict and disruption in the region, which is expected to endure for the foreseeable future. We do not conduct any commercial transactions with either Ukraine or Russia and the Company and, as such, is not aware of any specific event or circumstance that would require an update to its estimates or judgments or a revision of the carrying value of its assets or liabilities as of the date of issuance of this Annual Report on Form 10-K. Such political issues and conflicts could have a material adverse effect on our results of operations and financial condition if they escalate in areas in which we do business. In addition, changes in and adverse actions by governments in foreign markets in which we do business could have a material adverse effect on our results of operations and financial condition.Â Credit LossesÂ In June 2016, the FASB issued ASU 2016-13, Financial Instrumentsâ€”Credit Losses (Topic 326): Measurement of Credit Losses of Financial Instruments, which amends the requirement on the measurement and recognition of expected credit losses for financial assets held. Furthermore, amendments ASU 2019-10 and ASU 2019-11 provided additional clarification for implementing ASU 2016-13. ASU 2016-13 is effective for the Company beginning January 1, 2023, with early adoption permitted. The Company adopted the standard on January 1, 2023, and the standard did not have a material impact on the Companyâ€™s consolidated financial statements and related disclosures. The Company is exposed to credit losses primarily through sales to its customers and the loans that it has provided. The Company assesses each customerâ€™s/ borrowerâ€™s ability to pay, and a credit loss estimate by conducting a credit review which includes consideration of established credit rating, or an internal assessment of the customerâ€™s creditworthiness based on an analysis of their payment history when a credit rating is not available. The Company monitors credit exposure through active review of customer balances. The Companyâ€™s expected credit loss (â€œECL) methodology for accounts receivable is developed through consideration of factors including, but not limited to, historical collection experience, current customer credit ratings, current customer financial condition, current and future economic and market conditions, and age of the receivables. More specifically, the Company assesses a number of customers with significant long outstanding balances on an individual basis, applying different credit loss percentages to them, and subsequently summarizes the ones not included in the individual analysis, groups them based on their rating (decided based on the factors described above) and applies specific credit loss percentages to each group. The Company has elected to follow the simplified ECL approach and for the period ended December 31, 2023 applied a 5% loss rate to all balances outstanding for more than 90 days and 1% loss rate to the total outstanding balance. The charges related to credit losses are included in â€œGeneral and administrative expensesâ€ and are recorded in the period that the outstanding receivables are determined to be doubtful. Account balances are written-off against the allowance when they are deemed uncollectible.Â Foreign Currency Translation and Other Comprehensive LossÂ The functional currency of the Companyâ€™s subsidiaries is the Euro and British Pound. For financial reporting purposes, both the Euro (â€œEURâ€) and British Pound (â€œGBPâ€) have been translated into United States dollars ($) and/or (â€œUSDâ€) as the reporting currency. Assets and liabilities are translated at the exchange rate in effect at the balance sheet date. Revenues and expenses are translated at the average rate of exchange prevailing during the reporting period. Equity transactions are translated at each historical transaction date spot rate. Translation adjustments arising from the use of different exchange rates from period to period are included as a component of stockholdersâ€™ equity (deficit) as â€œAccumulated other comprehensive income (loss)â€. Gains and losses resulting from foreign currency transactions are included in the statements of operations and comprehensive loss as other comprehensive loss. There have been no significant fluctuations in the exchange rate for the conversion of EUR or GBP to USD after the balance sheet date.Â Assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated into the functional currency at the exchange rates prevailing at the consolidated balance sheet date with any transaction gains and losses that arise from exchange rate fluctuations on transactions denominated in a currency other than the functional currency included in the consolidated results of operations as incurred.As of December 31, 2023 and 2022, the exchange rates used to translate amounts in Euros into USD and British Pounds into USD for the purposes of preparing the consolidated financial statements were as follows:Â Â Â December 31, 2023Â Â December 31, 2022Â Exchange rate on balance sheet datesÂ Â Â Â Â Â EUR: USD exchange rateÂ Â 1.1062Â Â Â 1.0698Â GBP: USD exchange rateÂ Â 1.2743Â Â Â 1.2077Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Average exchange rate for the periodÂ Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â EUR: USD exchange rateÂ Â 1.0817Â Â Â 1.0534Â GBP: USD exchange rateÂ Â 1.2440Â Â Â 1.2371Â Â Â Â Cash and Cash EquivalentsÂ For purposes of the statement of cash flows, the Company considers all highly liquid investments purchased with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents. As of December 31, 2023 and December 31, 2022, there were no cash equivalents.Â The Company maintains bank accounts in the United States denominated in U.S. Dollars, in Greece denominated in Euros, U.S. Dollars and Great Britain Pounds (British Pounds Sterling), and in Bulgaria denominated in Euros. The Company also maintains bank accounts in the United Kingdom, denominated in Euros and Great Britain Pounds (British Pounds Sterling). As of December 31, 2023 and 2022, the aggregate amount in these foreign accounts were $1,047,738 and $831,793, respectively. Additionally, as of December 31, 2023 and 2022, the Company had cash on hand in the amount of $48,590 and $15,690, respectively.Â Reclassifications to Prior Year Financial Statements and AdjustmentsÂ Certain reclassifications have been made in the Companyâ€™s financial statements of the prior year to conform with current year presentation.Â As of December 31, 2022, $421,302, $322,010, $120,294 and $66,401 (an aggregate total of $930,006) was reclassified from â€œPrepaid expenses and other current assets,â€ â€œOther assets,â€ â€œAccounts receivable â€“ related party,â€ and â€œPrepaid expenses and other current assets â€“ related party,â€ respectively to â€œAccounts receivable, netâ€.Â Moreover, $248,678 was reclassified from â€œFinancing lease right-of-use assetâ€ to â€œOperating lease right-of-use assetâ€ and $247,595 was reclassified from Financing Lease Liabilities to Operating Lease Liabilities as of the year ended, December 31, 2022. Finally, an amount of $1,784,751 was reclassified from â€œAccounts payable and accrued expensesâ€ to â€œOther current liabilitiesâ€ as of the year ended, December 31, 2022. These reclassifications had no impact on earnings or stockholdersâ€™ equity.Â Accounts Receivable & Allowance for Doubtful AccountsÂ Accounts receivable are stated at their net realizable value. The allowance for credit losses against gross accounts receivable reflects the best estimate of probable losses inherent in the receivablesâ€™ portfolio determined on the basis of historical experience, specific allowances for known troubled accounts and other currently available information. As of December 31, 2023 and 2022, the Companyâ€™s allowance for credit losses was $19,686,091 and $7,309,311, respectively. Below is the summary of changes in the allowance for doubtful accounts:Â Â Â December 31, 2023 Â Â Â Â Â Balance as of January 1, 2023 Â $7,309,311Â Provisions for credit losses Â Â 11,850,788Â Write-offs Â Â -Â Foreign exchange adjustmentsÂ Â 525,992Â Other adjustmentsÂ Â -Â Balance as of December 31, 2023Â $19,686,091Â Tax ReceivablesÂ The Company pays Value Added Tax (â€œVATâ€) or similar taxes (â€œinput VATâ€), income taxes, and other taxes within the normal course of its business in most of the countries in which it operates related to the procurement of merchandise and/or services it acquires and/or on sales and taxable income. The Company also collects VAT or similar taxes on behalf of the government (â€œoutput VATâ€) for merchandise and/or services it sells. If the output VAT exceeds the input VAT, this creates a VAT payable to the government. If the input VAT exceeds the output VAT, this creates a VAT receivable from the government. The VAT tax return is filed on a monthly basis offsetting the payables against the receivables. In observance of EU regulations for intra-EU cross-border sales, our subsidiaries in Greece, SkyPharm and Cosmofarm, do not charge VAT for sales to wholesale drug distributors registered in other European Union member states. As of December 31, 2023 and 2022, the Company had a VAT net receivable balance of $187,512 and a net receivable balance of $79,373 respectively, recorded in the consolidated balance sheet as prepaid expenses and other current assets and accounts payable and accrued expenses, respectively.Â Inventories Â Inventory is stated at the lower-of-cost or net realizable value using the weighted average method. Inventory consists primarily of finished goods and packaging materials, i.e., packaged pharmaceutical products and the wrappers and containers they are sold in. A periodic inventory system is maintained by 100% count. Inventory is replaced periodically to maintain the optimum stock on hand available for immediate shipment.Â The Company writes down inventories to net realizable value based on physical condition, expiration date, current market conditions, as well as forecasted demand. The Companyâ€™s inventories are not highly susceptible to obsolescence. Many of the Companyâ€™s inventory items are eligible for return to our suppliers when pre-agreed product requirements, including, but not limited to, physical condition and expiration date, are not met. No significant judgments have been applied in estimating the selling price of our inventory.Â Property and Equipment, net Â Property and equipment are stated at cost, less accumulated depreciation. Depreciation is calculated on a straight-line basis over the useful lives (except for leasehold improvements which are depreciated over the lesser of the lease term or the useful life) of the assets as follows:Â Â EstimatedUseful LifeLeasehold improvements and technical worksÂ Lesser of lease term or 25 yearsBuildingsÂ Â 25-30 yearsÂ VehiclesÂ 6 yearsMacheneryÂ 20 yearsFurniture, fixtures and equipmentÂ 5â€“10 yearsÂ Computers and softwareÂ 3-5 yearsÂ Depreciation expense was $353,043 and $70,109 for the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022, respectively.Property and Equipment additionsÂ Property and Equipment additions are recognized as assets when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the asset will flow to the entity and the cost of the asset can be measured reliably. Additions are initially measured at cost, which includes all costs directly attributable to bringing the asset to its working condition and location for its intended use. This may include purchase price, freight, installation, and any directly attributable professional fees. They are capitalized if their cost exceeds a certain threshold. The threshold is determined based on materiality considerations. Costs below the threshold are typically expensed as incurred. After initial recognition, additions are measured at cost less accumulated depreciation and any accumulated impairment losses. Depreciation is calculated systematically over the estimated useful life of the asset. They are tested for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable. If the carrying amount exceeds the recoverable amount, an impairment loss is recognized, and the carrying amount of the asset is adjusted accordingly. Borrowing costs directly attributable to the acquisition, construction, or production of qualifying assets, including Property and Equipment additions, are capitalized as part of the cost of those assets. Â Impairment of Long-Lived AssetsÂ In accordance with ASC 360-10, Long-lived Assets, property and equipment and intangible assets are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset may not be recoverable. Recoverability of long-lived assets to be held and used is measured by a comparison of the carrying amount of an asset to the estimated undiscounted future cash flows expected to be generated by the asset. If the carrying amount of an asset exceeds its estimated undiscounted future cash flows, an impairment charge is recognized by the amount by which the carrying amount of the asset exceeds the fair value of the assets. Fair value is generally determined using the assetâ€™s expected future discounted cash flows or market value, if readily determinable. For the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022, the Company had no impairment of long-lived assets.Â Goodwill and Intangibles, netÂ The Company periodically reviews the carrying value of intangible assets not subject to amortization, including goodwill, to determine whether impairment may exist. Goodwill and certain intangible assets are assessed annually, or when certain triggering events occur, for impairment using fair value measurement techniques. These events could include a significant change in the business climate, legal factors, a decline in operating performance, competition, sale or disposition of a significant portion of the business, or other factors. First, under step 0, we determine whether it is more likely than not that the fair value of the reporting unit is less than the carrying amount. Following, if step 0 fails, goodwill impairment is determined using a two-step process. The first step of the goodwill impairment test is used to identify potential impairment by comparing the fair value of a reporting unit with its carrying amount, including goodwill. The Company uses level 3 inputs and a discounted cash flow methodology to estimate the fair value of a reporting unit. A discounted cash flow analysis requires one to make various judgmental assumptions including assumptions about future cash flows, growth rates, and discount rates. The assumptions about future cash flows and growth rates are based on the Companyâ€™s budget and long-term plans. Discount rate assumptions are based on an assessment of the risk inherent in the respective reporting units. If the fair value of a reporting unit exceeds its carrying amount, goodwill of the reporting unit is considered not impaired and the second step of the impairment test is unnecessary. If the carrying amount of a reporting unit exceeds its fair value, the second step of the goodwill impairment test is performed to measure the amount of impairment loss, if any. The second step of the goodwill impairment test compares the implied fair value of the reporting unitâ€™s goodwill with the carrying amount of that goodwill. If the carrying amount of the reporting unitâ€™s goodwill exceeds the implied fair value of that goodwill, an impairment loss is recognized in an amount equal to that excess. The implied fair value of goodwill is determined in the same manner as the amount of goodwill recognized in a business combination. That is, the fair value of the reporting unit is allocated to all of the assets and liabilities of that unit (including any unrecognized intangible assets) as if the reporting unit had been acquired in a business combination and the fair value of the reporting unit was the purchase price paid to acquire the reporting unit. Â On December 19, 2018, as a result of the acquisition of Cosmofarm, the Company recorded $49,697 of goodwill. Intangible assets with definite useful lives are recorded on the basis of cost and are amortized on a straight-line basis over their estimated useful lives. The Company uses a useful life of 5 years for an import/export license and a useful life of ten years for the pharmaceutical and nutraceutical products licenses included in Note 4 as â€œLicensesâ€. A useful life of ten years is also used for the platforms included in Note 4 as â€œSoftwareâ€ and the customer bases. The Company evaluates the remaining useful life of intangible assets annually to determine whether events and circumstances warrant a revision to the remaining amortization period. If the estimate of the intangible assetâ€™s remaining useful life is changed, the remaining carrying amount of the intangible asset will be amortized prospectively over that revised remaining useful life. As of December 31, 2023, no revision to the remaining amortization period of the intangible assets was made.Â Amortization expense was $239,841 and $33,085 for the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022, respectively.Â Equity Method InvestmentÂ For those investments in common stock or in-substance common stock in which the Company has the ability to exercise significant influence over the operating and financial policies of the investee, the investment is accounted for under the equity method. The Company records its share in the earnings of the investee and is included in â€œEquity earnings of affiliateâ€ in the consolidated statement of operations. The Company assesses its investment for other-than-temporary impairment when events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of the investment might not be recoverable and recognizes an impairment loss to adjust the investment to its then current fair value.Â Investments in Equity SecuritiesÂ Investments in equity securities are accounted for at fair value with changes in fair value recognized in net income (loss). Equity securities are classified as short-term or long-term based on the nature of the securities and their availability to meet current operating requirements. Equity securities that are readily available for sale in current operations are reported as a component of current assets in the accompanying consolidated balance sheets. Equity securities that are not considered available for use in current operations would be reported as a component of long-term assets in the accompanying consolidated balance sheets. For equity securities with no readily determinable fair value, the Company elects a measurement alternative to fair value. Under this alternative, the Company measures the investments at cost, less any impairment, and adjusted for changes resulting from observable price changes in transactions for identical or similar investments of the investee. The election to use the measurement alternative is made for each eligible investment. Â As of December 31, 2023, investments consisted of (i) 3,000,000 shares, which traded at a closing price of $0 per share or a value of $0 of ICC International Cannabis Corp and (ii)Â 16,666 shares which traded at a closing price of $0.70 per share or value of $11,596 of National Bank of Greece. Additionally, the Company has $8,479 in equity securities of Pancreta Bank, which are revalued annually. As of December 31, 2022, investments consisted of (i) 3,000,000 shares, which traded at a closing price of $0 per share or a value of $0 of ICC International Cannabis Corp and (ii)Â 16,666 shares which traded at a closing price of $0.40 per share or value of $6,681 of National Bank of Greece. Additionally, the Company has $8,200 in equity securities of Pancreta Bank, which are revalued annually. See Note 2 for additional investments in equity securities.Â Fair Value MeasurementÂ The Company applies ASC 820, Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures, (â€œASC 820â€), for assets and liabilities measured at fair value on a recurring basis. ASC 820 establishes a common definition for fair value to be applied to existing generally accepted accounting principles that require the use of fair value measurements establishes a framework for measuring fair value and expands disclosure about such fair value measurements. Â ASC 820 defines fair value as the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. Additionally, ASC 820 requires the use of valuation techniques that maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs. These inputs are prioritized below:Â Level 1:Â Observable inputs such as quoted prices (unadjusted)Â in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.Level 2:Â Inputs other than quoted prices that are observable, either directly or indirectly. These include quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets and quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in markets that are not active.Â Level 3:Â Unobservable inputs in which little or no market data exists, therefore developed using estimates and assumptions developed by us, which reflect those that a market participant would use.Â The following table presents assets that are measured and recognized at fair value as of December 31, 2023 and 2022, on a recurring basis:Â Â Â December 31, 2023Â Â Total Carrying Â Â Â Level 1Â Â Level 2Â Â Level 3Â Â ValueÂ Marketable securities â€“ ICC International Cannabis Corp.Â $-Â Â Â -Â Â Â -Â Â Â $-Â Marketable securities â€“ National Bank of GreeceÂ Â 11,596Â Â Â -Â Â Â -Â Â Â 11,596Â Â Â Â $11,596Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â $11,596Â Â Â Â December 31, 2022Â Â Total Carrying Â Â Â Level 1Â Â Level 2Â Â Level 3Â Â ValueÂ Marketable securities â€“ ICC International Cannabis Corp.Â $-Â Â Â -Â Â Â -Â Â Â $-Â Marketable securities â€“ National Bank of GreeceÂ Â 6,681Â Â Â -Â Â Â -Â Â Â 6,681Â Â Â $6,681Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â $6,681Â Â In addition, ASC 825-10-25, Fair Value Option, (â€œASC 825-10-25â€), expands opportunities to use fair value measurements in financial reporting and permits entities to choose to measure many financial instruments and certain other items at fair value. The Company did not elect the fair value options for any of its qualifying financial instruments.Â Our financials also included the following financial instruments as of December 31, 2023: cash, accounts receivable, inventory, prepaid expenses, loans receivable, accounts payable, notes payable and lines of credit. Except for the loans receivable which carry fixed interest rates, the carrying value of the remaining instruments, approximates fair value due to their short-term nature.Â Derivative InstrumentsÂ DerivativeÂ financial instruments are recorded in the accompanying consolidated balance sheets at fair value in accordance with ASC 815. When the Company enters into a financial instrument such as a debt or equity agreement (the â€œhost contractâ€), the Company assesses whether the economic characteristics of any embedded features are clearly and closely related to the primary economic characteristics of the remainder of the host contract. When it is determined that (i) an embedded feature possesses economic characteristics that are not clearly and closely related to the primary economic characteristics of the host contract, and (ii) a separate, stand-alone instrument with the same terms would meet the definition of a financial derivativeÂ instrument, then the embedded feature is bifurcated from the host contract and accounted for as a derivativeÂ instrument. The estimated fair value of the derivativeÂ feature is recorded in the accompanying consolidated balance sheets separately from the carrying value of the host contract. Subsequent changes in the estimated fair value of derivatives are recorded as a gain or loss in the Companyâ€™s consolidated statements of operations.Customer AdvancesÂ The Company receives prepayments from certain customers for pharmaceutical products prior to those customers taking possession of the Companyâ€™s products. The Company records these receipts as current liabilities until it has met all the criteria for recognition of revenue including passing control of the products to its customer, at such point, the Company will reduce the customerÂ advances balance and credit the Companyâ€™s revenues.Â Revenue RecognitionÂ In accordance with ASC Topic 606,Â Revenue from Contracts with CustomersÂ (â€œASC 606â€), the Company uses a five-step model for recognizing revenue by applying the following steps: Â Â 1)Identification of the Contract: The Company identifies a contract with a customer when it enters into an agreement that creates enforceable rights and obligations.Â Â Â Â 2)Identification of Performance Obligations: The Company identifies distinct performance obligations within each contract, which represent promises to transfer goods or services to the customer.Â Â Â Â 3)Determination of Transaction Price: The Company determines the transaction price, which represents the amount of consideration to which it expects to be entitled in exchange for transferring promised goods or services to the customer, excluding any amounts collected on behalf of third parties.Â Â Â Â 4)Allocation of Transaction Price: The Company allocates the transaction price to each distinct performance obligation based on its standalone selling price. If the standalone selling price is not observable, the Company estimates it using an appropriate method.Â Â Â Â 5)Recognition of Revenue: Revenue is recognized when (or as) the Company satisfies a performance obligation by transferring a promised good or service to the customer. This typically occurs at a point in time or over time, depending on the nature of the performance obligation.Â Wholesale revenue and sales of own branded nutraceutical and pharmaceutical productsÂ The Company has contracts or signed partnership forms (usual in the wholesale sector of the pharma industry) with its customers, stipulating the enforceable rights and obligations. The Company is responsible for transferring the goods to the customerâ€™s location, which represents its sole performance obligation. Thus, the transaction price, which is predetermined in most of the products sold, is exclusively allocated to this performance obligation. Revenue is recognized at a single point in time, which is upon issuance of the corresponding sales invoice. The Company has assessed the impact of the items invoiced but not delivered to the customerâ€™s location as of December 31, 2023, and deemed that it had no material effect. Â Pharma manufacturingÂ The Company has active contracts with its customers, stipulating the enforceable rights and obligations. The Company is responsible for the manufacturing and the packaging of specific products assigned by its customers, which represents its performance obligations to which the Company allocates the transaction price determined. The customers are responsible for providing the raw materials to the Company. Revenue is recognized over a period of time, which is during the production and packaging period of the respective products. As of December 31, 2023 there were no products or batches of products for which the production or packaging phase was in progress. Â Medihelm SA Â Commencing from January 1, 2023, and pursuant to the agreement with Medihelm, the exclusive distributor of the Companyâ€™s own proprietary line of nutraceuticals, the Company considers the transaction price to be variable and records an estimate of the transaction price, subject to the constraint for variable consideration. The Company is basing the change in transaction price with the exclusive distributor through assessment of significant overdue receivables from the exclusive distributor, which the Company reassesses each reporting period. Through this assessment, the Company applied the â€œexpected valueâ€ model under ASC 606-10-32-5 and had applied specific constraints to revenue due from the customer at the end of each reporting period. Following the application of the â€œexpected valueâ€ model, the Company deferred an amount of $397,000Â and recorded it against the sales to Medihelm for the year ended December 31, 2023. The Company does not consider that sales to any other customer include a variable component as of December 31, 2023.Stock-based Compensation Â The Company records stock-based compensation in accordance with ASC 718, Stock Compensation (â€œASC 718â€) and Staff Accounting Bulletin No. 107 (â€œSAB 107â€) regarding its interpretation of ASC 718. ASC 718 requires the fair value of all stock-based employee compensation awarded to employees to be recorded as an expense over the related requisite service period. The Company values any employee or non-employee stock-based compensation at fair value using the Black-Scholes Option Pricing Model.Â The Company accounts for non-employee share-based awards in accordance with the measurement and recognition criteria of ASU 2018-07, â€œCompensation-Stock Compensation-Improvements to Nonemployee Share-Based Payment Accounting.â€Â Concentrations of Credit RiskÂ Financial instruments that potentially subject the Company to concentrations of credit risk consist principally of cash investments and accounts receivable.Â The Company had no clients which contributed 10% or more of revenue and accounts receivable, respectively for the year ended December 31, 2023.Â Income TaxesÂ The Company accounts for income taxes under the asset and liability method, as required by the accounting standard for income taxes ASC 740. Under this method, deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the future tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax basis, as well as net operating loss carryforwards. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. The effect on deferred tax assets and liabilities of a change in tax rates is recognized in income in the period that includes the enactment date. Â The Company is liable for income taxes in Greece and the United Kingdom. The corporate income tax rate is 22% in Greece and 25% in the United Kingdom. Losses may also be subject to limitation under certain rules regarding change of ownership. Â We regularly review deferred tax assets to assess their potential realization and establish a valuation allowance for portions of such assets to reduce the carrying value if we do not consider it to be more likely than not that the deferred tax assets will be realized. Our review includes evaluating both positive (e.g., sources of taxable income) and negative (e.g., recent historical losses) evidence that could impact the realizability of our deferred tax assets. At December 31, 2023, we believe our United Kingdom and Greece deferred tax assets will not be realized, as such, we did not record a reversal on the full valuation approach we followed during the period ended December 31, 2022.Â LeasesÂ The Company accounts for leases in accordance with ASC 842. For all leases, the Company recognizes a right-of-use (ROU) asset and a lease liability on the balance sheet. The ROU asset represents the Companyâ€™s right to use the underlying asset for the lease term, and the lease liability represents the obligation to make lease payments arising from the lease, both measured at the present value of future lease payments. Lease payments are recognized as an operating expense on a straight-line basis over the lease term. The interest on the lease liability and the amortization of the ROU asset are recognized separately in the income statement. Initial direct costs incurred by the Company in negotiating and securing leases are capitalized and amortized over the lease term on a straight-line basis. The assets and liabilities from operating and finance leases are recognized at the commencement date based on the present value of remaining lease payments over the lease term using the Companyâ€™s secured incremental borrowing rates or implicit rates, when readily determinable. Short-term leases, which have an initial term of 12 months or less, are not recorded on the balance sheet. The Companyâ€™s operating leases do not provide an implicit rate that can readily be determined. Therefore, we use a discount rate based on our incremental borrowing rate, which is determined using the average interest rate of our long-term debt on the date of inception.Â Retirement and Termination BenefitsÂ Under Greek labor law, employees are entitled to lump-sum compensation in the event of termination or retirement. The amount depends on the employeeâ€™s work experience and renumeration as of the day of termination or retirement. If an employee remains with the company until full-benefit retirement, the employee is entitled to a lump-sum equal to 40% of the compensation to be received if the employee were to be dismissed on the same day. The Company periodically reviews the uncertainties and judgments related to the application of the relevant labor law regulations to determine retirement and termination benefits obligations of its Greek subsidiaries. The Company has evaluated the impact of these regulations and has identified a potential retirement and termination benefits liability. The amount of the liability as of December 31, 2023, and December 31, 2022, was $408,665 and $0, respectively, and has been recorded as a long-term liability within the consolidated balance sheets. The Company engaged an actuarial expert for the first time, during the period ended December 31, 2023, and thus the liability of $408,665 is the cumulative effect of the 2-year period ended December 31, 2023. The effect allocated to the prior period ended December 31, 2022, would have been $147,776.Â Basic and Diluted Net Loss per Common ShareÂ Basic income per share is calculated by dividing income available to common stockholders by the weighted average number of shares of common stock outstanding during the period. Diluted income per share is calculated by dividing income available to common stockholders by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding for the period and, when dilutive, potential shares from stock options and warrants to purchase common stock, using the treasury stock method. In accordance with ASC 260, Earnings Per Share, the following table reconciles basic shares outstanding to fully diluted shares outstanding.Â Â Â Years Ended December 31,Â Â Â 2023Â Â 2022Â Weighted average number of common shares outstanding BasicÂ Â 11,968,665Â Â Â 1,928,172Â Potentially dilutive common stock equivalentsÂ Â Â Â Â Â -Â Weighted average number of common and equivalent shares outstanding â€“ DilutedÂ Â 11,968,665Â Â Â 1,928,172Â Â Common stock equivalents are included in the diluted income per share calculation only when option exercise prices are lower than the average market price of the common shares for the period presented. Â The following table summarizes the potential shares of common stock that were excluded from the computation of diluted net loss per share for the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022 as such shares would have had an anti-dilutive effect:Â Â Â 2023Â Â 2022Â Common Stock WarrantsÂ Â 8,561,476Â Â Â 4,194,236Â Common Stock OptionsÂ Â -Â Â Â -Â Convertible DebtÂ Â -Â Â Â 8,827Â TotalÂ Â 8,561,476Â Â Â 4,203,063Â Â Recent Accounting PronouncementsÂ In December 2023, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (â€œFASBâ€) issued Accounting Standards Update (â€œASUâ€)Â 2023-09,Â Income Taxes (Topic 740): Improvements to Income Tax Disclosures. This guidance is intended to enhance the transparency and decision-usefulness of income tax disclosures. The amendments in ASUÂ 2023-09Â address investor requests for enhanced income tax information primarily through changes to disclosure regarding rate reconciliation and income taxes paid both in the U.S. and in foreign jurisdictions. ASUÂ 2023-09Â is effective for fiscal years beginning after DecemberÂ 15, 2024 on a prospective basis, with the option to apply the standard retrospectively. Early adoption is permitted. The Company is currently evaluating this guidance to determine the impact it may have on its consolidated financial statements disclosures.Â In November 2023, the FASB issued ASUÂ 2023-07, Segment Reporting: Improvements to Reportable Segment Disclosures. This guidance expands public entitiesâ€™ segment disclosures primarily by requiring disclosure of significant segment expenses that are regularly provided to the chief operating decision maker and included within each reported measure of segment profit or loss, an amount and description of its composition for other segment items, and interim disclosures of a reportable segmentâ€™s profit or loss and assets. The guidance is effective for fiscal years beginning after DecemberÂ 15, 2023, and interim periods within fiscal years beginning after DecemberÂ 15, 2024, with early adoption permitted. The amendments are required to be applied retrospectively to all prior periods presented in an entityâ€™s financial statements. The Company is currently evaluating this guidance to determine the impact it may have on its consolidated financial statements related disclosures.Â Â In December 2022, the FASB issued ASU No. 2022-06, Deferral of the Sunset Date of Reference Rate Reform (Topic 848). Topic 848 provides optional expedients and exceptions for applying GAAP to transactions affected by reference rate (e.g., LIBOR) reform if certain criteria are met, for a limited period of time to ease the potential burden in accounting for (or recognizing the effects of) reference rate reform on financial reporting. The ASU deferred the sunset date of Topic 848 from December 31, 2022 to December 31, 2024. The ASU is effective as of December 21, 2022 through December 31, 2024. We continue to evaluate transactions or contract modifications occurring as a result of reference rate reform and determine whether to apply the optional guidance on an ongoing basis. We adopted ASU 2022-06 during 2022. The Company adopted this ASU on June 30, 2023. The adoption of this ASU did not have a material impact on the Companyâ€™s accounting and disclosures.Â In March 2022, the FASB issued ASU 2022-02, Troubled Debt Restructurings and Vintage Disclosures. This ASU eliminates the accounting guidance for troubled debt restructurings by creditors that have adopted ASU 2016-13, Measurement of Credit Losses on Financial Instruments, which was adopted on January 1, 2020. The adoption of ASU 2016-13 did not have a material impact on the Companyâ€™s consolidated financial statements. ASU 2022-02 also enhances the disclosure requirements for certain loan refinancing and restructurings by creditors when a borrower is experiencing financial difficulty. In addition, the ASU amends the guidance on vintage disclosures to require entities to disclose current period gross write-offs by year of origination for financing receivables and net investments in leases within the scope of ASC 326-20. The ASU is effective for annual periods beginning after December 15, 2022, including interim periods within those fiscal years. Adoption of the ASU would be applied prospectively. Early adoption is also permitted, including adoption in an interim period. This ASU was adopted on January 1, 2023, which resulted in no cumulative-effect adjustment to retained earnings.In October 2021, the FASB issued ASU 2021-08, Business Combinations (Topic 805): Accounting for Contract Assets and Contract Liabilities from Contracts with Customers, which requires contract assets and contract liabilities (i.e., deferred revenue) acquired in a business combination to be recognized and measured by the acquirer on the acquisition date in accordance with ASC 606, Revenue from Contracts with Customers, as if it had originated the contracts. The new guidance creates an exception to the general recognition and measurement principles of ASC 805, Business Combinations. The new guidance should be applied prospectively and is effective for all public business entities for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2022 and include interim periods. The Company adopted this ASU which resulted in no impact on the Companyâ€™s consolidated financial statements.Â Management does not believe that any recently issued, but not effective, accounting standards, if currently adopted, would have a material effect on the Companyâ€™s consolidated financial statements.Â X - ReferencesNo definition available. + Details Name: us-gaap_AccountingPoliciesAbstract Namespace Prefix: us-gaap_ Data Type: xbrli:stringItemType Balance Type: na Period Type: duration X - DefinitionThe entire disclosure for all significant accounting policies of the reporting entity. + ReferencesReference 1: http://www.xbrl.org/2003/role/disclosureRef -Topic 235 -SubTopic 10 -Name Accounting Standards Codification -Section 50 -Paragraph 1 -Publisher FASB -URI

(â€œMarathonâ€), a company incorporated in the Province of Ontario, Canada. Marathon was formed to be a global supplier of cannabis, cannabidiol (CBD) and/or any cannabis extract products, extracts, ancillaries and derivatives (collectively, the â€œProductsâ€). The Company was appointed the exclusive distributor of the Products initially throughout Europe and on a non-exclusive basis wherever else lawfully permitted. The Company has no present intention to distribute any Products under this Agreement in the United States or otherwise participate in cannabis operations in the United States. The Company intended to await further clarification from the U.S. government on cannabis regulation prior to determining whether to enter the domestic market.Â The above transaction closed on May 22, 2018 after the due diligence period, following which the Company received: (a) a 33 1/3% equity interest or 5 million shares in Marathon as partial consideration for the Companyâ€™s distribution services; and (b) received cash of CAD $2,000,000, subject to repayment in common shares of the Company if it failed to meet certain performance milestones. The Company was entitled to receive an additional CAD $2,750,000 upon the Companyâ€™s receipt of gross sales of CAD $6,500,000 and an additional CAD $2,750,000 upon receipt of gross sales of CAD $13,000,000. The Company was also given the right to nominate one director to the Marathon board of directors. Since Marathon was a newly formed entity with no assets and no activity, the Company attributed no value to the 5 million shares in Marathon which was received as consideration for the distribution services.Â The Distribution and Equity Acquisition Agreement was to remain in effect indefinitely unless Marathon fails to provide Market Competitive (as defined) product pricing and Marathon has not become profitable within five (5) years of the agreement. On March 20, 2023, the Company sent a termination notice, to Marathon, which became effective on April 19, 2023 as a result of Marathonâ€™s failure to satisfy these conditions. The Company had accounted for its obligation to issue a variable number of the Companyâ€™s Common Shares as Share-settled debt obligation in accordance with ASC Topic 480, Distinguishing Liabilities from Equity (â€œASC 480â€), which was measured at fair value or the settlement amount of $1,554,590 (CAD $2 million). Due to termination of the Equity agreement, the Company recorded a gain on extinguishment of debt of $1,554,590 due to the write-off of the share settled debt obligation, for the six months ended June 30, 2023. Â CosmoFarmacy LPÂ In September 2019, the Company entered into an agreement with an unaffiliated third party to incorporate CosmoFarmacy L.P. for the purpose of providing strategic management consulting services and the retail trade of pharmaceutical products, and OTC to pharmacies. NOTE 8 â€“ INCOME TAXESÂ The Company provides for income taxes using an asset and liability approach under which deferred income taxes are provided for based upon enacted tax laws and rates applicable to periods in which the taxes become payable.Â The domestic and foreign components of income (loss) before (benefit from) provision for income taxes were as follows:Â Â Â December 31, 2023Â Â December 31, 2022Â DomesticÂ $(2,832,980)Â Â $(7,093,161)ForeignÂ Â (15,709,674)Â Â Â (5,962,159)Â Â Â $(18,542,654)Â Â $(13,055,320)Â The components of the (benefit from) provision for income taxes are as follows:Â Â Â December 31, 2023Â Â December 31, 2022Â Current tax provisionÂ Â Â Â Â Â FederalÂ $-Â Â $-Â StateÂ Â -Â Â Â -Â ForeignÂ Â -Â Â Â (75,724)Total current tax provisionÂ $-Â Â $(75,724)Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Deferred tax provisionÂ Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â DomesticÂ $-Â Â $-Â StateÂ Â -Â Â Â -Â ForeignÂ Â -Â Â Â 850,775Â Total deferred tax provisionÂ $-Â Â $850,775Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Total current provisionÂ $-Â Â $775,051Â The reconciliation of income tax expense computed at the U.S. federal statutory rate to the income tax provision for the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022 is as follows:Â Â Â December 31, 2023Â Â December 31, 2022Â USÂ Â Â Â Â Â Loss before income taxesÂ $(18,542,654)Â $(13,055,320)Taxes under statutory US tax ratesÂ $(3,893,957)Â $(2,741,617)Increase (decrease) in taxes resulting from:Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Increase in valuation allowanceÂ $4,339,572Â Â $3,989,786Â Foreign tax rate differentialÂ $245,518Â Â $34,601Â Permanent differencesÂ $(448,032)Â Â $128,705Â Prior period adjustmentsÂ $(151,879)Â $(186,143)State taxesÂ $(91,222)Â $(450,280)Income tax expenseÂ $-Â Â $775,052Â Â Companies subject to the Global Intangible Low-Taxed Income provision (GILTI) have the option to account for the GILTI tax as a period cost if and when incurred, or to recognize deferred taxes for outside basis temporary differences expected to reverse as GILTI. We have elected to account for GILTI as a period cost.Â Deferred income taxes reflect the net tax effects of temporary differences between the carrying amount of assets and liabilities for financial reporting purposes and amounts used for income tax purposes. Significant components of the Companyâ€™s deferred tax assets and liabilities consist of the following:Â Â Â December 31, 2023Â Â December 31, 2022Â Net operating loss carryforwardÂ $7,621,277Â Â $5,899,702Â Capital loss carryforwardÂ Â 801,744Â Â Â 801,744Â Section 163(j) carryforwardÂ Â 563,138Â Â Â 561,130Â Foreign exchangeÂ Â 129,916Â Â Â 297,263Â Allowance for doubtful accountsÂ Â 4,404,277Â Â Â 1,616,926Â Accrued expensesÂ Â 261,466Â Â Â 352,025Â Mark to market adjustment in securitiesÂ Â 358,761Â Â Â 358,761Â Lease liabilityÂ Â 261,377Â Â Â 259,381Â Capitalized research & development costsÂ Â 52,261Â Â Â Â -Â DepreciationÂ Â (35,734)Â Â (22,914)Total deferred tax assetsÂ Â 14,418,483Â Â Â 10,124,018Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â IntangiblesÂ Â (15,845)Â Â (8,139)InventoryÂ Â 4,853Â Â Â (49,961)Right of use assetÂ Â (258,770)Â Â (256,769)GoodwillÂ Â (10,980)Â Â (10,979)Total deferred tax liabilitiesÂ Â (280,742)Â Â (325,848)Valuation allowanceÂ Â (14,137,741)Â Â (9,798,170)Net deferred tax assetsÂ $-Â Â $-Â Â At December 31, 2023, the Company had U.S. net operating loss (â€œNOLâ€) carryforwards of approximately $21,516,941 that may be offset against future taxable income, subject to limitation under IRC Section 382. Of the $21.5 million Federal NOL carryforwards, $2.5 million are pre-2018 and begin to expire in 2031. The remaining balance of $19 million, are limited to utilization of 80% of taxable income but do not have an expiration. At December 31, 2023, the Company had Greek NOL carryforwards of $2,240,902 and had UK NOL carryforwards of $1,753,800. A valuation allowance exists for all operations, based on a more likely than not criterion and in consideration of all available positive and negative evidence.Â ASC 740 requires that the tax benefit of net operating losses (â€œNOLsâ€), temporary differences and credit carryforwards be recorded as an asset to the extent that management assesses that realization is â€œmore likely than not.â€ Realization of the future tax benefits is dependent on the Companyâ€™s ability to generate sufficient taxable income within the carryforward period. Because of the Companyâ€™s history of domestic operating losses, management believes that recognition of the deferred tax assets arising from the above-mentioned future tax benefits is currently not likely to be realized and, accordingly, has provided a valuation allowance, on all our deferred tax asset. Management considered all available evidence to when evaluating the realizability of foreign deferred tax assets by jurisdiction and concluded primarily based upon a strong earnings history that these deferred tax assets were more-likely-than-not realizable.The Company applied the â€œmore-likely-than-notâ€ recognition threshold to all tax positions taken or expected to be taken in a tax return, which resulted in no unrecognized tax benefits as of December 31, 2023 and December 31, 2022, respectively. We recognize interest accrued related to unrecognized tax benefits and penalties as income tax expense.Â The Company files income tax returns in Illinois, United States, and in foreign jurisdictions including Greece and the United Kingdom. As of December 31, 2023, all domestic tax years are open to tax authority examination due the availability of net operating loss deductions, 2010 through 2023. In Greece, the statute of limitations is open for five years, 2018 through 2023. In the United Kingdom, the statute of limitations is open for four years, 2019 through 2023. Currently, there are no ongoing tax authority income tax examinations. The preferred stock has aÂ liquidation preference over the common stock andÂ is non-voting. As of June 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, no preferred shares were issued and outstanding.Â Major Rights & Preferences of Series A Preferred StockÂ On and effective October 4, 2021, the Company amended and restated its articles of incorporation (the â€œAmended and Restated Articlesâ€) and filed a certificate of designation (the â€œCODâ€) for its Series A Preferred Stock (the â€œSeries A Preferred Stockâ€) with the State of Nevada. The Amended and Restated Articles allow the Companyâ€™s Board of Directors the authority to authorize the issuance of preferred stock from time to time in one or more classes or series by resolution. On February 23, 2022, the Company filed Correction No. 1 to the COD. On July 28, 2022, the Company filed an Amendment to the COD with the State of Nevada to allow a holder to waive application of the Beneficial Ownership Limitation with respect to the conversion of Series A Preferred Stock.Â With respect to payment of dividends and distribution of assets upon liquidation, dissolution, or winding up of the Company, whether voluntary or involuntary, all shares of the Series A Preferred Stock will rank: (i) senior to all of the Companyâ€™s Common Stock and any other equity securities that the Company may issue in the future, (ii) equal to any other equity securities that the Company may issue in the future, the terms of which specifically provide that such equity securities are on parity or senior to the Series A Preferred Stock (â€œParity Securitiesâ€), (iii) junior to all other equity securities the Company issues, the terms of which specifically provide that such equity securities rank senior to the Series A Preferred Stock, and (iv) junior to all of the Companyâ€™s existing and future indebtedness; without the prior written consent of the Majority Holders.Â Â In the event of any voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Company (a â€œLiquidationâ€), the Holders of shares of Series A Preferred Stock shall be first entitled to receive out of the assets of the Company available for distribution to its shareholders.Â Each Holder shall not be entitled to vote with holders of outstanding shares of Common Stock, voting together as a single class, with respect to any and all matters presented to the stockholders of the Company for their action or consideration, except as provided by law or as set forth in the COD.Â The holders of Series A Preferred Stock are entitled to receive dividends paid and distributions made to the holders of Common Stock to the same extent as if the holders of Series A Preferred Stock had converted such shares into shares of Common Stock.Â The Series A Preferred Stock was initially convertible into the Companyâ€™s Common Stock as determined by dividing the number of shares of Series A Preferred Stock to be converted by the lower of (i) $75.00 or (ii) 80% of the average volume weighted average price for the Companyâ€™s Common Stock for the five trading days immediately following the effectiveness of the registration statement concerning the shares (the â€œConversion Priceâ€). On June 14, 2022, the Conversion Price was reset to $15.54 per share.Â Each holder is entitled to receive dividends in shares of Series A Preferred Stock or cash determined based on the stated value of each Series A Preferred Stock at the dividend rate of 8.0% per year. For the year ended December 31, 2022, the Company recorded $372,414 as a deemed dividend in accordance with the Series A Preferred Stock cumulative dividend. As of December 31, 2022, the cumulative dividend has been recorded as mezzanine equity. Following, Mr. Siokas waiver of the right to receive the dividends on February 26, 2024, and the unanimous written consent of the Companyâ€™s Board of Directors on February 29, 2024, through which was resolved that the Company shall remove all accrued and unpaid dividends payable to the previous holders of Series A Preferred stock, the Company eliminated the total deemed dividend of $372,414 through retained earnings. Thus, the balance of mezzanine equity as of June 30, 2024, and December 31, 2023 is $0.Â The Series A Shares rank senior to all of the Companyâ€™s Common Stock and any other equity securities that the Company may issue in the future with respect to payment of dividends and distribution of assets upon liquidation, dissolution or winding up. While the Series A Shares are outstanding, the Company may not amend, alter or change adversely the powers, preferences or rights given to the Series A Shares, create, or authorize the creation of, any additional class or series of capital stock of the Company (or any security convertible into or exercisable for any class or series of capital stock of the Company), including any class or series of capital stock of the Company that ranks superior to or in parity with the Series A Shares, alter, amend, modify, or repeal its Articles of Incorporation or other charter documents in any manner that adversely affects any rights of the holders of Series A Shares, increase or decrease the number of authorized shares of Series A Shares, any agreement, commitment or transaction that would result in a Change of Control, any sale or disposition of any material assets outside of the ordinary course of business of the Company, any material change in the principal business of the Company, including the entry into any new line of business or exit of any current line of business, and circumvent a right or preference of the Series A Shares. Any holder of the Series A Shares shall have the right by written election to the Company to convert all or any portion of the outstanding Series A Shares. Immediately upon effectiveness of a registration statement registering for resale all of the Registrable Securities (as defined in the Registration Rights Agreement), all outstanding Series A Shares shall automatically convert into Common Stock, subject to certain beneficial ownership limitations. Â Treasury stockÂ As of June 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, the Company held 86,497 and 86,497, respectively, shares of our common stock at a cost of $917,159 and $917,159, respectively. Shares of our common stock that are repurchased are classified as treasury stock pending future use and reduce the number of shares outstanding used in calculating earnings per share. Cosmos may repurchase shares from time to time through open market purchases in accordance with applicable securities laws and other restrictions. The Company repurchased no shares of our common stock during the six months ended June 30, 2024. The Company repurchased 71,000 shares of our common stock for $100,452 during the year ended December 31, 2023. The Company repurchased no shares of our common stock during the six months ended June 30, 2024.Â On January 24, 2023 the Company announced that its Board of Directors has approved a share repurchase program with authorization to purchase up to $3 million of its common stock. Cosmos may repurchase shares from time to time through open market purchases in accordance with applicable securities laws and other restrictions. Â Common StockÂ The Company is authorized to issue 300 million shares of common stock. As of June 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, the Company had 17,834,023 and 15,982,472 shares of our common stock issued, respectively, and 17,747,526 and 15,895,975 shares outstanding, respectively.Â Issuance of Common StockÂ During the three-month period ended June 30, 2023 the Company issuedÂ 15,258Â to a consultant for services rendered. The shares were valued and expensed on the date of issuance and are separately presented in the condensed consolidated statement of changes in stockholdersâ€™ equity and mezzanine as â€œShares issued in lieu of cashâ€.Â During the six months ended June 30, 2024 raised additional equity funds through a Baby Shelf supplement to its Registration Statement on Form S-3 (No. 333-267550) filed with the SEC on February 29 and March 7, 2024. More specifically, the Company sold 901,488 shares of common stock for gross proceeds of $648,893. Placement agentâ€™s fees and other commissions amounted to $19,467 and thus the total net proceeds for the period were $629,426. Â On December 29, 2023, the Company had entered into a warrant exchange agreement (the â€œWarrant Exchangeâ€) with an investor to reduce the exercise price of 2,437,063 warrants from $2.75 per share to $1.45 per shares as an inducement to exercise. The Company issued 1,487,000 shares of common stock, held 950,063 shares in escrow until the investorâ€™s beneficial ownership limitation allows for the transfer of the escrow shares, and received gross cash proceeds of 3,533,741. The 950,063 shares were issued within the three-month period ended March 31, 2024 but were already valued in the year ended December 31, 2023.Â Exercise of WarrantsÂ We had no warrant exercises during the six months ended June 30, 2024.Â Warrant ClassificationÂ The Company determines the classification of its warrants upon issuance by identifying the instrument issued to determine if it is debt or equity classified. The Company determined its warrants meet the scope exception in ASC 815-10 and are equity classified because, (a) the warrant is indexed to the Companyâ€™s own stock, (b) require settlement in equity shares, and (c) the Company has enough authorized and unissued shares.Â NOTEÂ 7 â€“ CAPITAL STRUCTUREÂ Preferred StockÂ The Company is authorized to issue 100 million shares of preferred stock, of which 6,000,000 are designated as Series A convertible preferred stock. The preferred stock has aÂ liquidation preference over the common stock andÂ is non-voting. As of December 31, 2023 and 2022, all Series A convertible preferred stock had been converted and no preferred shares were issued and outstanding.Â Major Rights & Preferences of Series A Preferred StockÂ On and effective October 4, 2021, the Company amended and restated its articles of incorporation (the â€œAmended and Restated Articlesâ€) and filed a certificate of designation (the â€œCODâ€) for its Series A Preferred Stock (the â€œSeries A Preferred Stockâ€) with the State of Nevada. The Amended and Restated Articles allow the Companyâ€™s Board of Directors the authority to authorize the issuance of preferred stock from time to time in one or more classes or series by resolution. On February 23, 2022, the Company filed Correction No. 1 to the COD. On July 28, 2022, the Company filed an Amendment to the COD with the State of Nevada to allow a holder to waive application of the Beneficial Ownership Limitation with respect to the conversion of Series A Preferred Stock.Â With respect to payment of dividends and distribution of assets upon liquidation, dissolution, or winding up of the Company, whether voluntary or involuntary, all shares of the Series A Preferred Stock will rank: (i) senior to all of the Companyâ€™s Common Stock and any other equity securities that the Company may issue in the future, (ii) equal to any other equity securities that the Company may issue in the future, the terms of which specifically provide that such equity securities are on parity or senior to the Series A Preferred Stock (â€œParity Securitiesâ€), (iii) junior

to all other equity securities the Company issues, the terms of which specifically provide that such equity securities rank senior to the Series A Preferred Stock, and (iv) junior to all of the Companyâ€™s existing and future indebtedness; without the prior written consent of the Majority Holders.Â In the event of any voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Company (a â€œLiquidationâ€), the Holders of shares of Series A Preferred Stock shall be first entitled to receive out of the assets of the Company available for distribution to its shareholders.Â Each Holder shall not be entitled to vote with holders of outstanding shares of Common Stock, voting together as a single class, with respect to any and all matters presented to the stockholders of the Company for their action or consideration, except as provided by law or as set forth in the COD.Â The holders of Series A Preferred Stock are entitled to receive dividends paid and distributions made to the holders of Common Stock to the same extent as if the holders of Series A Preferred Stock had converted such shares into shares of Common Stock.Â The Series A Preferred Stock was initially convertible into the Companyâ€™s Common Stock as determined by dividing the number of shares of Series A Preferred Stock to be converted by the lower of (i) $75.00 or (ii) 80% of the average volume weighted average price for the Companyâ€™s Common Stock for the five trading days immediately following the effectiveness of the registration statement concerning the shares (the â€œConversion Priceâ€). On June 14, 2022, the Conversion Price was reset to $15.54 per share.Â Each holder is entitled to receive dividends in shares of Series A Preferred Stock or cash determined based on the stated value of each Series A Preferred Stock at the dividend rate of 8.0% per year. For the year ended December 31, 2022, the Company recorded $372,414 as a deemed dividend in accordance with the Series A Preferred Stock cumulative dividend. As of December 31, 2022, the cumulative dividend has been recorded as mezzanine equity. Following, Mr. Siokas waiver of the right to receive the dividends on February 26, 2024 and the unanimous written consent of the Companyâ€™s Board of Directors on February 29, 2024, through which was resolved that the Company shall remove all accrued and unpaid dividends payable to the previous holders of Series A Preferred stock, the Company eliminated the total deemed dividend of $372,414 through retained earnings. Thus, the balance of mezzanine equity as of December 31, 2023 is $0.Â On February 28, 2022, the Company entered into a securities purchase agreement, or the Purchase Agreement, with certain investors and an insider for a private placement of the Companyâ€™s securities (the â€œPrivate Placementâ€).Â The Private Placement consisted of the sale ofÂ 6,000Â shares of the Companyâ€™s Series A Convertible Preferred Stock, or the Series A Shares, at a price of $1,000 per share, andÂ 80,000Â warrants to purchase shares of common stock, or the Warrants, for aggregate gross proceeds of approximately $6Â million. The Warrants were initially exercisable to purchase shares of common stock at $82.50 per share, or 110% of the Series A Shares initial conversion price and will expire five and one-half years following the initial exercise date of the Warrants. The Company determined that the 80,000 warrants are additional value being distributed to the preferred stockholders and presented the warrantsâ€™ fair value of $5,788,493 as a deemed dividend on issuance of warrants in the consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive loss. The warrants were valued using the Black-Scholes option pricing model with the following terms: a) exercise price of $82.50, b) common stock fair value of $85.50, c) volatility of 118%, d) discount rate of 1.71%, e) term of 5.50 years and f) dividend rate of 0%.Â The closing of the Private Placement occurred on February 28, 2022. As a condition to the closing of the sale, the Companyâ€™s common stock received conditional approval for listing and trading on the Nasdaq Capital Market and commenced trading on February 28, 2022, under the trading symbol COSM. Concurrent with the issuance of the Series A Shares, the Company executed a registration rights agreement (the â€œRegistration Rights Agreementâ€) to register the resale of the shares of common stock issuable upon conversion of the Series A Shares and the shares of common stock issuable upon exercise of the warrants issued in connection with the Series A Shares. The Company was required to file its initial registration statement within 45 days following February 28, 2022. The Effectiveness Date was required to be 60 days after February 28, 2022, or 75 days following the SECâ€™s full review, and any additional registration statements that may be required are to be filed within 20 days following the date required by the SEC. If the Company fails to timely file its initial registration statement, or any additional registration statement, or otherwise comply with the requirements of the Registration Rights Agreement, the Company shall pay each holder 2% of the subscription amount in cash until cured, with an additional penalty of 18% if the cash payment is not made within seven days of the cash payable date.The Company filed its initial registration statement on May 25, 2022, and thus accrued for liquidated damages payable to the holders in the amount of $250,260, calculated as described above, for both the late filing of the registration statement (event) and the 1st anniversary (30 days following the event date) of the event, which, along with an additional lump sum amount of $2,000,000 agreed to be paid to the investors as additional damages, led to a total amount of $2,250,260 concerning liquidated damages related to the February Private Placement within the year ended December 31, 2022. Upon the effectiveness of the Companyâ€™s registration statement, the Series A Shares conversion price was adjusted to $15.54Â and the warrant exercise price was adjusted to $15.54 per share. The Company recorded a deemed dividend in the amount of $8,189,515 upon reducing the conversion price from $75.00 to $15.54 which was recorded as an increase to additional paid-in capital and an increase to accumulated deficit.Â The Series A Shares rank senior to all of the Companyâ€™s Common Stock and any other equity securities that the Company may issue in the future with respect to payment of dividends and distribution of assets upon liquidation, dissolution or winding up. While the Series A Shares are outstanding, the Company may not amend, alter or change adversely the powers, preferences or rights given to the Series A Shares, create, or authorize the creation of, any additional class or series of capital stock of the Company (or any security convertible into or exercisable for any class or series of capital stock of the Company), including any class or series of capital stock of the Company that ranks superior to or in parity with the Series A Shares, alter, amend, modify, or repeal its Articles of Incorporation or other charter documents in any manner that adversely affects any rights of the holders of Series A Shares, increase or decrease the number of authorized shares of Series A Shares, any agreement, commitment or transaction that would result in a Change of Control, any sale or disposition of any material assets outside of the ordinary course of business of the Company, any material change in the principal business of the Company, including the entry into any new line of business or exit of any current line of business, and circumvent a right or preference of the Series A Shares. Any holder of the Series A Shares shall have the right by written election to the Company to convert all or any portion of the outstanding Series A Shares. Immediately upon effectiveness of a registration statement registering for resale all of the Registrable Securities (as defined in the Registration Rights Agreement), all outstanding Series A Shares shall automatically convert into Common Stock, subject to certain beneficial ownership limitations. Â Treasury stockÂ As of December 31, 2023 and 2022, the Company held 86,497 and 15,497, respectively, shares of its common stock at a cost of $917,159 and $816,707, respectively. Shares of common stock that are repurchased are classified as treasury stock pending future use and reduce the number of shares outstanding used in calculating earnings per share. Cosmos may repurchase shares from time to time through open market purchases in accordance with applicable securities laws and other restrictions. The transaction was settled on a non-cash basis through the reduction, of an equivalent amount, of prepaid expense balances the Company held with Doc Pharma. The purchased branded pharmaceuticals are presented in "Goodwill and intangible assets, net" on the accompanying consolidated balance sheets. On December 29, 2023, the Company approved the purchase of additional 19 licenses from DocPharma, of a total value of â‚¬3,200,000 ($3,539,840). This transaction was also settled on a non-cash basis through the reduction, of an equivalent amount, of prepaid expense balances the Company held with Doc Pharma.Â Loans receivable - related partyÂ The balance of prepaid expenses due Doc Pharma as of December 31, 2022, had increased to â‚¬7,103,706 ($7,599,545), which was mainly attributable to the prepayments SkyPharm S.A. made in accordance with the CMO agreement and the extensive orders and sales of the SPL products the Company expects to achieve within 2023, mainly through its Amazon channels in the UK, Singapore, Canada and other countries. However, as the benefit from a significant portion of the prepaid balance would not have been realized within a 12-month period, the Company opted to secure a portion of the outstanding prepaid balance through a loan agreement. SkyPharm S.A. (the â€œLenderâ€) entered into a loan agreement with Doc Pharma (the â€œBorrowerâ€) for â‚¬4,000,000 ($4,279,200), all of which was financed through the outstanding prepaid balance. The duration of the loan is for aÂ 10-year period up toÂ December 1, 2032Â (the â€œMaturity Dateâ€). The loan bears a fixed interest rate ofÂ 5.5% payable on a monthly basis and will be repayable in 120 equal instalments of â‚¬33,333.33 ($35,660). The loan may be prepaid anytime during its duration in full or partially based on the Companyâ€™s product requirements and other factors, without Doc Pharma incurring any prepayment penalty. Â As of June 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, the loan had a current portion of â‚¬400,000 ($431,640) and â‚¬400,000 ($442,480), and a non-current portion of â‚¬3,100,000 ($3,345,210), and â‚¬3,200,000 ($3,539,840), respectively, which is classified as "Loans receivable â€“ related party" on the accompanying consolidated balance sheets. During the six months ended June 30, 2024, the Company received â‚¬200,000 ($224,220) in principal repayments, and â‚¬81,077 ($86,841) of interest repayments. Additionally, during the six months ended June 30, 2024, the Company recorded â‚¬96,708 ($103,584) as interest income relating to this loan.Â Â Â Â Cana Laboratories Holding LimitedÂ Â Cana was considered a related party as the Company had signed a binding letter of intent and an SPA for the acquisition of Cana. The acquisition was completed on June 30, 2023 according to the SPA signed on May 31, 2023. Thus, all balances between the Company and Cana were eliminated upon consolidation as of December 31, 2023. The Secured Promissory Note discussed below was included in consideration transferred upon acquisition.Â Loans receivable - Related Party - Long TermÂ On February 28,Â 2023 (Issue Date), the Company signed a Secured Promissory Note with Cana Laboratories Holding (Cyprus) Limited (the â€œHolderâ€), whereby the Holder borrowed the sum of â‚¬4,100,000 ($4,457,520) from the Company.Â Interest on the Principal Amount under this Note shall accrue at a rate equal to Five Percent (5%) plus 1 month LIBOR per annum (5.47% as of December 31, 2023). The maturity date (â€œMaturity Dateâ€) of this Note shall be five (5) years from the Issue Date. The Principal Amount, as well as all accrued interest shall be due and payable on the Maturity Date. Following, the completion of Canaâ€™s acquisition on June 30, 2023 the balance of the Note was eliminated on a consolidated level.Â Panagiotis KozarisÂ Panagiotis Kozaris is considered a related party due to the fact that he is a former General operational manager and current employee of Cosmofarm S.A.Â Prepaid Expenses and Other Current Assets - Related PartyÂ From time to time the Company purchases back shares that Panagiotis Kozaris owns and records them as treasury shares. The Company pays Panagiotis Kozaris in advance for the shares owned and obtains the shares upon execution of a cumulative stock-purchase agreement (â€œSPAâ€). During the three months ended June 30, 2024 and 2023, the Company paid Panagiotis Kozaris an additional sum of $0Â and $51,159 respectively for shares owned, however, no SPA for these funds has been executed as of June 30, 2024. The Company intends to execute a cumulative SPA for these amounts during 2024. The total balances owed of $194,215Â and $194,215Â are included in "Prepaid expenses and other current assets - related party", on the accompanying consolidated balance sheets as of June 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, respectively.Â Basotho Investment LimitedÂ Basotho Investment Limited is considered a related party once Panagiotis Kozaris (former general operational manager and current employee of Cosmofarm SA) is one of its directors.Â General and administrative expensesÂ On November 21, 2023, the Company issued 120,000 shares of common stock to Basotho Investment Limited for services rendered. The fair value of these shares for the period ended December 31, 2023 was $10,300, which was recorded as general and administrative expense. The fair value of the shares vested for the six-month period ended June 30, 2024 was $61,800, which was recorded as general and administrative expense. Â Maria KozariÂ Maria Kozari is considered a related party to the Company due to the fact that she is the daughter of Panagiotis Kozaris, a former Operational General Manager and current employee of Cosmofarm S.A.Â Accounts Receivable - Related PartyÂ During 2021, the Company, through its subsidiary, Cosmofarm SA, commenced a partnership with a pharmacy called â€œPharmacy & Moreâ€, owned by Maria Kozari. The transactions with the respective pharmacy were in Cosmofarmâ€™s normal course of business, however, a more flexible credit policy was allowed as the pharmacy was new and needed to be established in the market. During the three and six months ended June 30, 2024 and 2023 the Companyâ€™s net sales to Pharmacy & More amounted to $95,195 and $117,219 and $181,973Â and $236,205Â respectively. The Company has the exclusive ownership rights for trading and distribution of its own branded nutritional supplements named â€œSky Premium LifeÂ®â€. The duration of the agreement is for five years, however, either party may terminate the agreement at any time giving six-month advance notice. Doc Pharma is exclusively responsible for supplying the raw materials and packaging required to manufacture the final product. However, they are not responsible for potential delays that may arise, concerning their import. Doc Pharma is also obligated to store the raw and packaging materials. The delivery of raw and packaging materials should be purchased at least 30 and 25 days, respectively, before the delivery date of the final product. The Manufacturer solely delivers the finished product to the Company. There is a minimum order quantity (â€œMoQâ€) ofÂ 1,000 piecesÂ per product code. Both parties have agreed that the Company will deposit 60% of the total cost upon agreement and assignment and 40% of the total cost including VAT charge upon the delivery date. The prices are indicative and are subject to amendments if the cost of the raw material or the production cost change.For the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022, the Company has purchased â‚¬1,144,043 ($1,237,467) and â‚¬1,653,911 ($1,742,282), respectively, in inventory related to this agreement.Â On May 17, 2021, Doc Pharma and the Company entered into a Research and Development (â€œR&Dâ€) agreement whereby Doc Pharma will be responsible for the research, development, design, registration, copy rights and licenses of 250 nutritional supplements for the final products called Sky Premium LifeÂ®. These products will be sold in Greece and abroad.Â The total cost of this project will be â‚¬1,425,000 plus VAT and will be done over three phases as follows: Design & Development (â‚¬725,000); Control and Product Manufacturing (â‚¬250,000) and Clinical Study and Research (â‚¬450,000). SkyPharm has bought a total of as of 81 licenses at value of â‚¬554,500 ($593,204) which is 38.91% of the total cost, as of December 31, 2022. During the year ended December 31, 2023, 24 additional licenses were purchased at value of â‚¬475,014 ($525,461). The agreement will terminate onÂ December 31, 2025.Â Â Â Â Purchase of branded pharmaceuticalsÂ On June 28, 2023, the Company approved the purchase of five proprietary and innovative branded pharmaceuticals with significant market presence and material profit contribution from Zakalia Ltd., the parent company of Doc Pharma, for â‚¬1,800,000 ($1,965,600). The transaction was settled on a non-cash basis through the reduction, of an equivalent amount, of prepaid expense balances the Company held with Doc Pharma.

The purchased branded pharmaceuticals are presented in â€œGoodwill and intangible assets, netâ€ on the accompanying consolidated balance sheets. On December 29, 2023, the Company approved the purchase of additional 19 licenses from Doc Pharma, of a total value of â‚¬3,200,000 ($3,539,840). This transaction was also settled on a non-cash basis through the reduction, of an equivalent amount, of prepaid expense balances the Company held with Doc Pharma.Â Loans receivable - related partyÂ The balance of prepaid expenses due Doc Pharma as of December 31, 2022, had increased to â‚¬7,103,706 ($7,599,545), which was mainly attributable to the prepayments SkyPharm S.A. made in accordance with the CMO agreement and the extensive orders and sales of the SPL products the Company expects to achieve within 2023, mainly through its Amazon channels in the UK, Singapore, Canada and other countries. However, as the benefit from a significant portion of the prepaid balance would not have been realized within a 12-month period, the Company opted to secure a portion of the outstanding prepaid balance through a loan agreement. SkyPharm S.A. (the â€œLenderâ€) entered into a loan agreement with Doc Pharma (the â€œBorrowerâ€) for â‚¬4,000,000 ($4,279,200), all of which was financed through the outstanding prepaid balance. The duration of the loan is for aÂ 10-year period up toÂ December 1, 2032Â (the â€œMaturity Dateâ€). The loan bears a fixed interest rate ofÂ 5.5% payable on a monthly basis and will be repayable in 120 equal instalments of â‚¬33,333.33 ($35,660). The loan may be prepaid anytime during its duration in full or partially based on the Companyâ€™s product requirements and other factors, without Doc Pharma incurring any prepayment penalty. As of December 31, 2023 and December 31, 2022, the loan had a current portion of â‚¬400,000 ($442,480) and â‚¬400,000 ($427,720), and a non-current portion of â‚¬3,200,000 ($3,539,840), and â‚¬3,600,000 ($3,851,280), respectively, which is classified as â€œLoans receivable â€“ related partyâ€ on the accompanying consolidated balance sheets. During the year ended December 31, 2023, the Company received â‚¬400,000 ($442,480) in principal repayments, and â‚¬209,917 ($232,210) of interest repayments. Additionally, during the year ended December 31, 2023, the Company recorded â‚¬201,057 ($217,476) as interest income relating to this loan.Â Â Â Cana Laboratories Holding LimitedÂ Â Cana was considered a related party as the Company had signed a binding letter of intent and an SPA for the acquisition of Cana. The acquisition was completed on June 30, 2023 according to the SPA signed on May 31, 2023. Thus, all balances between the Company and Cana were eliminated upon consolidation as of December 31, 2023. The Secured Promissory Note discussed below was included in consideration transferred upon acquisition.Loans receivable - Related Party - Long TermÂ On February 28,Â 2023 (Issue Date) the Company signed a Secured Promissory Note with Cana Laboratories Holding (Cyprus) Limited (the â€œHolderâ€), whereby the Holder borrowed the sum of â‚¬4,100,000 ($4,457,520) from the Company.Â Interest on the Principal Amount under this Note shall accrue at a rate equal to Five Percent (5%) plus one month LIBOR per annum (5.47% as of December 31, 2023). The maturity date (â€œMaturity Dateâ€) of this Note shall be five years from the Issue Date. The Principal Amount, as well as all accrued interest shall be due and payable on the Maturity Date. During the six months ended June 30, 2023, the Company recorded interest income of â‚¬137,138 ($148,789). Following, the completion of Canaâ€™s acquisition on June 30, 2023 the balance of the Note was eliminated on a consolidated level.Â Panagiotis KozarisÂ Panagiotis Kozaris is considered a related party due to the fact that he is a former General operational manager and current employee of Cosmofarm S.A.Â Prepaid Expenses and Other Current Assets - Related PartyÂ From time-to-time the Company purchases back shares that Panagiotis Kozaris owns and records them as treasury shares. The Company pays Panagiotis Kozaris in advance for the shares owned and obtains the shares upon execution of a cumulative stock-purchase agreement (â€œSPAâ€). During the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022, the Company paid Panagiotis Kozaris an additional sum of $51,159Â and $143,056Â respectively for shares owned, however, no SPA for these funds has been executed as of December 31, 2023. The Company intends to execute a cumulative SPA for these amounts during 2024. The total balances owed of $194,215Â and $143,056Â are included in â€œPrepaid expenses and other current assets - related partyâ€, on the accompanying consolidated balance sheets as of December 31, 2023 and 2022, respectively.Â Basotho Investment LimitedÂ Basotho Investment Limited is considered a related party once Panagiotis Kozaris (former General operational manager and current employee of Cosmofarm S.A) is one of its directors.Â General and administrative expensesÂ On November 21, 2023, the Company issued 120,000 shares of common stock to Basotho Investment Limited for services rendered. The fair value of these shares for the period ended December 31, 2023 was $10,300, which was recorded as general and administrative expense.Â Maria KozariÂ Maria Kozari is considered a related party to the Company due to the fact that she is the daughter of Panagiotis Kozaris, a former Operational General Manager and current employee of Cosmofarm S.A.Â Accounts Receivable - Related PartyÂ During 2021, the Company, through its subsidiary, Cosmofarm SA, commenced a partnership with a pharmacy called â€œPharmacy & Moreâ€, owned by Maria Kozari. The transactions with the respective pharmacy were in Cosmofarmâ€™s normal course of business, however, a more flexible credit policy was allowed as the pharmacy was new and needed to be established in the market. During the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022 the Companyâ€™s net sales to Pharmacy & More amounted to $480,029Â and $463,467Â respectively. As of December 31, 2023 and 2022 the Companyâ€™s outstanding receivable balance due from the pharmacy amounted to $1,142,402 (â‚¬1,032,726) and $760,025Â (â‚¬710,436), respectively, and are included in â€œAccounts receivable - related partyâ€, on the accompanying consolidated balance sheets.The Company plans to acquire Pharmacy & More within fiscal year 2024. â€œSPAâ€).Â The Company issued the $540,000Â Note in exchange for $500,000Â in cash and included a $40,000Â Original Issue Discount (â€œOIDâ€) and paid $3,000Â in financing costs. The principal amount together with interest at the rate of eight percent (8.0%) per annum, compounded annually (the â€œInterest Rateâ€), will be paid to the Lenders on or before the Maturity Date (December 31, 2021 or as defined below). Accrued interest shall be calculated on the basis of a 360-day year for the actual number of days elapsed. In the event that on or before the Maturity Date, the Note either (i) had not been converted or have not been otherwise satisfied in full or (ii) an Event of Default (as defined in the SPA) occurs, then the applicable rate of interest on the outstanding amount of theÂ Note since inception shall be the Interest Rate plus eighteen percent (18.0%), the Default Interest. Unless previously converted, the principal and accrued interest on the Note is due and payable in cash (USD) upon the earlier of (i) December 31, 2021, (ii) a Change of Control (as defined in the SPA) or (iii), an Event of Default (collectively, the â€œMaturity Dateâ€).Â On May 1, 2022, the Company issued 1,574 shares of common stock to convert the outstanding principal and accrued interest balance of $26,515. Following the conversion, the outstanding balance of the above Note is $0. Upon conversion, the 1,574 shares were issued at a fair value of $38,144 which was recorded as equity. Accordingly, upon conversion, the Company reduced its derivative liability by $11,629 (see Note 7).The Company determined that the embedded conversion feature of the convertible promissory note meets the definition of aÂ derivative liability which is accounted for separately. The Company determined a derivative liability exists and determined that the embedded derivative was valued at $456,570 which was recorded as a debt discount, and together with the original issue discount and transaction expenses of $43,000, in the aggregate of $499,570, is being amortized over the life of the loan. As of December 31, 2022 the full amount of the debt discount has been amortized. Therefore, as of December 31, 2023 and 2022, the fair value of the derivative liability was $0 and $0, respectively. For the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022, the Company recorded a loss on the change in fair value of the derivative of $0 and a loss of $5,807, respectively.Â January 7, 2021 Subscription Agreement Â On January 7, 2021 (the â€œIssue Dateâ€), the Company entered into a subscription agreement with an unaffiliated third party, whereby the Company issued for a purchase price of $100,000 in principal amount, a convertible promissory note. The note bore an interest rate of 8% per annum and originally matured on the earlier of (i) consummation of the Company listing its common shares on the NEO Stock Exchange or (ii) October 31, 2021. Â However, the listing to NEO Stock Exchange did not occur. As of December 31, 2022, the Company had a principal balance of $100,000 and had accrued $13,740 in interest expense. During the year ended December 31, 2023, the Company paid the balance in full.Â The Company determined that the embedded conversion feature of the convertible promissory note meets the definition of a derivative liability which is accounted for separately. The Company measured the embedded derivative valued at $62,619 which was recorded as a debt discount and additional paid-in capital and was being amortized over the life of the loan. As of December 31, 2022, the debt discount had been fully amortized. As of December 31, 2023 and 2022, the fair value of the derivative liability was $0 and $54,293, respectively. For the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022, the Company recorded a loss of $3,384 and $14,450, respectively, from the change in fair value of derivative liability, which is included in â€œOther expense, net" in the consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive loss. Â The Company considered both the note payable and conversion feature separately and upon settlement. The Company re-valued the conversion feature to fair value and applied extinguishment accounting as the debt has now been settled. Because the conversion feature is extinguished upon settling the note, the value of the conversion feature goes though debt extinguishment and the Company recorded a gain on settlement of debt, which totaled $50,909 for the year ended December 31, 2023.Â Â Â Convertible Promissory Note and Securities Purchase AgreementÂ On September 17, 2021 (the â€œIssue Dateâ€), the Company entered into a convertible promissory note and securities purchase agreement with an unaffiliated third party.Â Convertible Promissory NoteÂ The Company issued the convertible promissory note for a purchase price of $525,000Â in principal amount for cash proceeds of $500,000. The note was issued with an original issue discount (â€œOIDâ€) of $25,000, bears an interest rate ofÂ 10% per annum and matures on the earlier of (i) the consummation of the Company listing its common shares on the Nasdaq StockÂ Market or (ii) September 17, 2022.Â Upon the consummation ofÂ our Nasdaq listing in 2022, the total principal and accrued interest outstanding on the note would convert into shares of the Companyâ€™s common stock at aÂ 30% discount to the prices of the common shares sold in the financing to be conducted in conjunction withÂ our Nasdaq listing, subject to a conversion floor of $75.00. However, the Company, upon agreement with the third party, did not convert the note andÂ fully repaidÂ it in cash on October 21,Â 2022.Â As of December 31, 2022, the Company repaid the remaining outstanding balance of the note and thus its outstanding balance as of the end of the period was $0. For the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022, the Company recorded amortization of debt discount in the amount of $0 and $18,185, respectively, which is included in "Non-cash interest expense" on the accompanying statements of operations and comprehensive loss.Securities Purchase AgreementÂ On September 17, 2021, the Company entered into a Securities Purchase Agreement (the â€œSPAâ€) with a third party whereby the Company agree to issue 5,000,000 shares of Series A Preferred Stock at a purchase price of $1.00 per share or $5,000,000 in the aggregate, and a Warrant (the â€œWarrantâ€) to purchase 100% of the number of shares of the Companyâ€™s Common Stock issuable upon conversion of the Series A Preferred Stock. The Series A Preferred Stock will be convertible into the Companyâ€™s Common Stock as determined by multiplying the number of shares of Series A Preferred Stock to be converted by the lower of (i) $100.00 or (ii) 80% of the average volume weighted average price for the Companyâ€™s Common Stock for the five days prior to the date of Uplisting, subject to a floor of $75.00 per share. The shares of common stock issuable upon conversion of Series A Preferred Stock and exercise of the Warrants are subject to a Registration Right Agreement. The Warrant has an exercise price equal to 110% of the Conversion Price of the Series A Preferred Stock and expires five years from the date of issuance.Â The SPA is subject to certain conditions to close. As of December 31, 2023 and the date of this filing, the conditions to close had not been met, the funds have not been transferred, the preferred shares and the warrant was not issued. The SPA automatically terminated on March 31, 2022.Â Â Â Derivative Liabilities Â The table below provides a summary of the changes in fair value, including net transfers in and/or out of all financial liabilities measured at fair value on a recurring basis using significant unobservable inputs (Level 3) during the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022:Â Â Â AmountÂ Balance on January 1, 2022Â $45,665Â Issuances to debt discountÂ Â -Â Reduction of derivative related to conversionsÂ Â (11,629)Change in fair value of derivative liabilitiesÂ Â 20,257Â Balance on December 31, 2022Â Â 54,293Â Reduction of derivative related to conversionsÂ Â (50,909)Change in fair value of derivative liabilitiesÂ Â (3,384)Balance on December 31, 2023 Â $-Â Â The fair value of the derivative conversion features as of December 31, 2023 and 2022 were calculated using a Monte-Carlo option model valued with the following assumptions:Â Â Â December 31, Â Â December 31, Â Â Â 2023Â Â 2022Â Dividend yieldÂ Â -Â Â Â 0%Expected volatilityÂ Â -Â Â 87.9%-157.2Â Risk free interest rateÂ Â -Â Â 1.46%-3.75Â Contractual terms (in years)Â Â -Â Â 1.25 - 0.75Â X - ReferencesNo definition available. + Details Name: cosm_ConvertibleDebtDisclosureTextBlock Namespace Prefix: cosm_ Data Type: nonnum:textBlockItemType Balance Type: na Period Type: duration X - ReferencesNo definition available. + Details Name: us-gaap_LongtermConvertibleDebtCurrentAndNoncurrentAbstract Namespace Prefix: us-gaap_ Data Type: xbrli:stringItemType Balance Type: na Period Type: duration XML 35 R19.htm IDEA: XBRL DOCUMENT v3.24.3 NOTES PAYABLE 6 Months Ended 12 Months Ended Jun. 30, 2024 Dec. 31, 2023 NOTES PAYABLE Â Â NOTES PAYABLE NOTE 11 â€“ NOTES PAYABLEÂ A summary of the Companyâ€™s third-party debt as of and for the sixÂ months ended June 30, 2024, and the year ended December 31, 2023 is presented below:Â June 30, 2024Â Trade Facility Â Â Third PartyÂ Â COVID LoansÂ Â TotalÂ Beginning balance, December 31, 2023Â $1,908,195Â Â $2,511,148Â Â $186,884Â Â $4,606,227Â ProceedsÂ Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â PaymentsÂ Â (240,998)Â Â (293,229)Â Â (7,145)Â Â (541,372)Conversion of debtÂ Â -Â Â Â -Â Â Â -Â Â Â -Â Recapitalized upon debt modification Â Â -Â Â Â -Â Â Â -Â Â Â -Â Accretion of debt and debt discountÂ Â -Â Â Â -Â Â Â -Â Â Â -Â Foreign currency translationÂ Â (60,548)Â Â (62,972)Â Â (9,129)Â Â (132,649)Ending balance, June 30, 2024Â Â 1,606,649Â Â Â 2,154,947Â Â Â 170,610Â Â Â 3,932,206Â Notes payable - long-termÂ Â (1,124,655)Â Â (1,125,866)Â Â (140,909)Â Â (2,391,430)Notes payable - short-termÂ $481,994Â Â $1,029,081Â Â $29,701Â Â $1,540,776Â Â December 31, 2023Â Trade Facility Â Â Third PartyÂ Â COVID LoansÂ Â TotalÂ Beginning balance, December 31, 2022Â $3,305,532Â Â $1,505,078Â Â $207,377Â Â $5,017,987Â ProceedsÂ Â -Â Â Â 1,082,231Â Â Â -Â Â Â 1,082,231Â PaymentsÂ Â (1,155,310)Â Â (415,557)Â Â (27,027)Â Â (1,597,894)Oher additionsÂ Â -Â Â Â 317,880Â Â Â -Â Â Â 317,880Â Debt forgivenessÂ Â (306,637)Â Â -Â Â Â -Â Â Â (306,637)Foreign currency translationÂ Â (64,610)Â Â 21,516Â Â Â 6,534Â Â Â 92,660Â Ending balance, December 31, 2023Â Â 1,908,195Â Â Â 2,511,148Â Â Â 186,884Â Â Â 4,606,227Â Notes payable â€“ long-termÂ Â (1,327,440)Â Â (1,549,768)Â Â (159,344)Â Â (3,036,552)Notes payable - short-termÂ $580,755Â Â $961,380Â Â $27,540Â Â $1,569,675Â Â Our outstanding debt as of June 30, 2024Â is repayable as follows:Â Â June 30, 2024Â Â 2025Â $1,540,776Â 2026Â Â 1,657,806Â 2027Â Â 376,470Â 2028 Â Â 267,722Â 2029 and thereafterÂ Â 89,432Â Total debtÂ Â 3,932,206Â Less: notes payable - current portionÂ Â (1,540,776)Notes payable - long term portionÂ $2,391,430Â Â Trade Facility Agreements Â On May 12, 2017, SkyPharm entered into a Trade Finance Facility Agreement (the â€œTFFâ€) with Synthesis Structured Commodity Trade Finance Limited (the â€œLenderâ€) as amended on November 16, 2017, and May 16, 2018. Â On October 17, 2018, the Company entered into a further amended agreement with Synthesis whereby the current balance on the TFF as of October 1, 2018, which was â‚¬4,866,910 ($5,629,555) and related accrued interest of â‚¬453,094 ($524,094) would be split into two principal balances of Euro â‚¬2,000,000 ($2,316,000), (the "EURO Loan") and USD $4,000,000 (the "USD Loan"). Interest on both the EURO Loan and USD Loan commenced on October 1, 2018, at 6% per annum plus one-month Euribor (3.90% as of December 31, 2023), and 6% plus one-month LIBOR (fully paid as of December 31, 2023), respectively. Â On December 30, 2020, the Company transferred the EURO Loan to a new third-party lender. The terms remained the same except interest accrues at 5.5% per annum plus one-month Euribor (3.87% as of December 31, 2023). The principal was scheduled to be repaid in a total of five quarterly installments beginning October 31, 2021 of â‚¬50,000Â ($54,600) each with a final repayment of â‚¬1,800,000 ($1,965,600) Euro payable on October 31, 2022.Â On March 3, 2022, the Company entered into a modification agreement to extend the maturity date to January 10, 2023 and payments under the USD Loan. During June 2022, the Company agreed with the Lender to postpone the repayment of an installment of $500,000 due on June 30, 2022 (based on the modification agreement signed on March 3, 2022) until January 2023. During September 2022, the Company entered into an agreement with the Lender to postpone the repayment of the outstanding balance on the USD Loan of $3,950,000, plus unpaid accrued interest until January 2023. The Company capitalized fees paid upon modification of â‚¬200,000 ($221,060) that are being amortized over the life of the loan. The Company incurred non-cash interest expense of $200,000 during the year ended December 31, 2022 concerning the above capitalized fees.Â On December 22, 2022, SkyPharm signed an agreement for the extension of the payments and an increase in interest rate due under the EURO Loan that was extended to be repaid with a balloon payment now due on October 31, 2025. This extension was agreed upon in writing on December 22, 2022, with a retroactive modification date to October 31, 2022 (the original maturity date).Â Â As of December 31, 2023 the Company had an outstanding principal balance of â‚¬1,725,000 ($1,908,195), of which $1,327,440 is classified as ''Notes payable - long term portion" on the consolidated balance sheets. This agreement is secured by a personal guaranty of Grigorios Siokas, which is secured by a pledge of 40,000 shares of common stock of the Company owned by Mr. Siokas.Â During the year ended December 31, 2022, the maturity of the facility was informally extended to December 31, 2022. The Company reassessed and adjusted accordingly the accretion of the debt extinguishment effect described above.Â Trade Facility Agreements Â On May 12, 2017, SkyPharm entered into a Trade Finance Facility Agreement (the â€œTFFâ€) with Synthesis Structured Commodity Trade Finance Limited (the â€œLenderâ€ or â€œSynthesisâ€) as amended on November 16, 2017, and May 16, 2018. Â On October 17, 2018, the Company entered into a further amended agreement with Synthesis whereby the current balance on the TFF as of October 1, 2018, which was â‚¬4,866,910 ($5,629,555) and related accrued interest of â‚¬453,094 ($524,094) would be split into two principal balances of Euro â‚¬2,000,000 ($2,316,000), (the â€œEURO Loanâ€) and USD $4,000,000 (the â€œUSD Loanâ€). Interest on both the EURO Loan and USD Loan commenced on October 1, 2018, at 6% per annum plus one-month Euribor (3.90% as of December 31, 2023), and 6% plus one-month LIBOR (fully paid as of December 31, 2023), respectively. Â On December 30, 2020, the Company transferred the EURO Loan to a new third-party lender. The terms remained the same except interest accrues at 5.5% per annum plus one-month Euribor (3.87% as of December 31, 2023). The principal was scheduled to be repaid in a total of five quarterly installments beginning October 31, 2021 of â‚¬50,000Â ($54,600) each with a final repayment of â‚¬1,800,000 ($1,965,600) Euro payable on October 31, 2022.Â On March 3, 2022, the Company entered into a modification agreement to extend the maturity date to January 10, 2023 and payments under the USD Loan. During June 2022, the Company agreed with the Lender to postpone the repayment of an installment of $500,000 due on June 30, 2022 (based on the modification agreement signed on March 3, 2022) until January 2023. During September 2022, the Company entered into an agreement with the Lender to postpone the repayment of the outstanding balance on the USD Loan of $3,950,000, plus unpaid accrued interest until January 2023. The Company capitalized fees paid upon modification of â‚¬200,000 ($221,060) that are being amortized over the life of the loan. The Company incurred non-cash interest expense of $200,000 during the year ended December 31, 2022 concerning the above capitalized fees.Â During the year ended December 31, 2022, the Company repaid â‚¬175,000 ($191,100) of the EURO Loan and $2,593,363 of the USD Loan such that as of December 31, 2022, the Company had principal balances of â‚¬1,775,000 ($1,898,895) and $1,406,637 under the agreements, respectively. As of December 31, 2022, the Company had accrued $4,878 in interest expense related to these agreements.Â On December 21, 2022 the USD Loan was assigned to GIB Fund Solutions ICAV (the â€œFundâ€). On January 31, 2023, the Company paid $1,100,000 to the Fund under a full and final settlement agreement for the USD Loan, recording a gain on extinguishment of debt of $306,637 relating to the waiver of the unpaid balance. Additionally, the Company repaid â‚¬50,000 ($55,310) of the EURO Loan during the year ended December 31, 2023. As of December 31, 2023 the Company had an outstanding principal balance of â‚¬1,725,000 ($1,908,195), of which $1,327,440 is classified as â€œNotes payable - long term portionâ€ on the consolidated balance sheets. As of December 31, 2023, the Company had accrued $161,274 in interest expense related to these agreements.Â On December 22, 2022, SkyPharm signed an agreement for the extension of the payments and an increase in interest rate due under the EURO loan that was extended to be repaid with a balloon payment now due on October 31, 2025. This extension was agreed upon in writing on December 22, 2022, with a retroactive modification date to October 31, 2022 (the original maturity date).Â Third Party DebtÂ On November 16, 2015, the Company entered into a Loan Agreement with Panagiotis Drakopoulos, the Companyâ€™s former Director and former Chief Executive Officer, pursuant to which the Company borrowed â‚¬40,000 ($42,832) as a note payable from Mr. Drakopoulos. As of June 30, 2024, the following litigations were pending. None of the below is expected to have a material financial or operational impact. Â On July 22, 2015, the National Medicines Agency approved the license of wholesale sale of pharmaceutical products under the name SkyPharm SA with set validity at five years and an expiration date of July 22, 2020. Subsequently, SkyPharm on June 15, 2020, legally and timely submitted the application for renewal of the wholesale license of pharmaceutical products to the National Medicines Agency. The National Medicines Agency did not respond, therefore the Company asked for an immediate decision on the renewal. Two months after the filing of the no. 3459 / 15.01.2021 letter and almost nine months after the no. 627615.06.2020 Company application for the renewal, the National Medicines Agency replied by rejecting the renewal request on March 9, 2021 (ref. 62769 / 20-25.02.2021). In addition, document No. 127351-16.12.2021 of EOF (Greek National Medicines Organization) to SkyPharm states that after an inspection of EOF at the premises of Doc Pharma, we did not have a wholesale license in violation of article 106 par. 1b and par. 1c of the ministerial decision D.YG3a / GP.32221 / 29-4-2019. The National Medicines Agency imposed a fine of â‚¬15,000 ($16,214) on SkyPharm for the above case, which was included in "General and administrative" expense on the accompany statement of operations and comprehensive loss for the twelve-month ended December 31, 2023.Â There has been a payment request by the Greek court, which relates to a fine arising from Cosmofarmâ€™s tax audit for financial year 2014. The law with no. 483/16.12.2020 was used by the court against Cosmofarm (the â€œdefendantâ€). The defendant appealed against the decision using the law with no.11541/09.03.2021. This appeal was dismissed after 120 days from its submission to the court. Additionally, there had been an obligation for payment of additional tax and fines related to this matter in the amount of â‚¬91,652 ($99,644), which the defendant has already settled. However, the defendant has claimed back the respective amount through appeal. As of June 30, 2024, the trial is still pending.Â On January 25, 2023, a criminal case of dishonored checks against Cosmofarmâ€™s customer Filippou, was heard at the Zâ€™ Three-Member Misdemeanor Court of Athens, which was postponed to November 27, 2023, when the defendant was tried and found guilty.Â On January 26, 2023, the appeal of the Company against Eleutheria Drakopoulou and decision 1389/2021of the Single-Member Court of First Instance of Athens was heard at the Athens Court of Appeal. The appeal was partially accepted. The Court ordered the return of the fee to the appellants, dismissed the action against the third defendant, Kozaris and accepted the action as regards the first and the second defendants (Kastrantas & Cosmofarm).Â On October 23, 2023, a criminal case of dishonored checks against Cosmofarmâ€™s customer Kafantaris was heard at the Sixth Single-Member Misdemeanor Court of Athens, which was postponed to January 26, 2024, when the defendant was convicted by decision no. 1599/2024.Â Â In October 2023, the Companyâ€™s subsidiary, Cana Laboratories was approached by an Attorney at law on behalf of two clients which were requesting an amount of â‚¬39,211 as compensation for the value of 34.70 square meters in relation to an urban sprawl with respect to which an Act of Imputation had been issued by the department of Urban Planning. Our legal counselâ€™s response was that CANA was not obliged to accept the compensatory value agreed and suggested exploring out of court settlement. As of today, the clientsâ€™ Attorney at law has not come back with any suggestions.Â Our subsidiary, Cana Laboratories, has two pending lawsuits against Euaggelismos Hospital for a total sum of EUR 526,436 due to unpaid bills. The court date for one of the two lawsuits is set for December 11, 2024, and for the other one has not yet been set. The opinion of our legal advisor is that the collection of the total sum by the Company is almost certain. Â Our subsidiary, Cana Laboratories, has an unasserted claim against Papanikolaou Hospital for a total sum of EUR 89,300 due to unpaid bills, which will be asserted through a lawsuit. The opinion of our legal advisor is that the collection of the sum by the Company is almost certain. Â A lawsuit dated April 5, 2018 against the Companyâ€™s subsidiary Cana Laboratories by a former employee before the Athens court of instance was initially heard on October 12, 2018. The former employee was seeking that the termination of her employment contract to be considered null and void and was requesting compensation for late wages and moral damages. Following numerous appeals, Judgment No. 1192/2024 was issued on September 26, 2023, which as explicitly stated by our legal counsel, requires CANA to rehire the former employee with the threat of a penalty of â‚¬200 for each day of non-compliance. As informed by our legal counsel, in order for the penalty to be effective the former employee should file a new lawsuit against CANA and request to get rehired. In case CANA denies employment, then the penalty should be in effect. As of today, we have not received neither a lawsuit nor any request of employment by the former employee.Â Advisory AgreementsÂ On July 1, 2021, the Company entered into a two-year advisory agreement with a third party (the â€œConsultantâ€) for advisory and consulting services related to the Companyâ€™s intention to become listed on Nasdaq. Peter Goldstein, a then director of the Company is a principal of the Consultant. As consideration for services rendered, and successful Nasdaq listing, the Company paid $100,000. The $100,000 bonus was incurred and settled within 2022. Finally, the Consultant received a total of 10,000 shares of the Companyâ€™s common stock, 2,000 of such shares that have been previously issued pursuant to previous agreements and additional 15,258 shares that were issued on February 2, 2023, based on the amendment signed on February 1, 2023.Â Â On November 21, 2023, the Company entered into certain consulting agreements with four third-party consultants for the provision of a variety of services such as digital marketing, advisory services relating to target acquisitions and M&As and other additional services as described in the respective agreements. The agreements have duration from 10 to 18 months and the consultants will solely receive stock consideration for the services rendered. More precisely, they have been awarded a total of 970,000 shares of the Companyâ€™s common stock valued at a total of $999,100 based on the fair value of the Companyâ€™s common stock as of the agreementsâ€™ date. The corresponding consulting expense is accrued evenly over the term of the agreements. For the twelve-month period ended December 31, 2023 the Company has recorded $77,250 as stocked based compensation for the above agreements, classified as â€œGeneral and administrative expensesâ€ in the Companyâ€™s consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive loss. For the three and six months ended June 30, 2024 and 2023 the Company has recorded $231,750 and $463,500 and $0 and $0 as stocked based compensation for the above agreements, classified as â€œGeneral and administrative expensesâ€ in the Companyâ€™s Condensed Consolidated Statements of Operations and Comprehensive Loss.Â Research and Development AgreementsÂ The Company entered into a Research & Development agreement with Doc Pharma S.A. on May 17, 2021. Under this agreement, Doc Pharma is responsible for the research, development, design, registration, copy rights and licenses of 250 nutritional supplements for the final products called Sky Premium LifeÂ®. More specifically, Doc Pharma is responsible for the product development and the Company had added 105 of such products codes in its portfolio as of December 31, 2023. No additional ones were added within the six-month period ended June 30, 2024. The licenses purchased by Doc Pharma SA are capitalized and included in â€œGoodwill and intangible assets, netâ€ of the Companyâ€™s Consolidated Balance Sheets as of June 30, 2024. Thus, no relevant R&D expense had been charged to the Companyâ€™s Consolidated Statements of Operations and Comprehensive Loss.Â On June 26, 2022, the Company signed a research and development (â€œR&Dâ€) agreement with a third party, through which the Company assigns to the third party the development of new products and services in the field of health, focusing on the human intestinal microbiome. The project includes two phases. Phase 1 has a 20-month duration and its cost amounts to EUR 758,000 ($838,450) and phase 2, has a 22-month duration and a cost of EUR 820,000 ($907,084). The amount will be due and payable upon completion of the corresponding phases. The Company records the corresponding R&D expense based on the projectâ€™s progress, which is invoiced by the third party in the relevant period. For the six-month period ended June 30, 2024, the Company has not incurred such costs. NOTE 15 â€“ COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIESÂ Legal MattersÂ From time to time, the Company may be involved in litigation relating to claims arising out of the Companyâ€™s operations in the normal course of business. As of December 31, 2023, the following litigations were pending. None of the below is expected to have a material financial or operational impact. Â Solgar Inc., a competitor of the Company, sued SkyPharm for product homogeneity regarding the nutraceutical line â€œSky Premium Lifeâ€. As a result, Solgar requested the prohibition for SkyPharm to manufacture, import and sell, market or in any way possess and distribute, including internet sales and advertise in any way in the Greek market of â€œSky Premium Lifeâ€ due to homogeneity with Solgarâ€™s products. Solgar Inc. has further requested to be awarded compensation for non-pecuniary damage amounting to â‚¬20,000 ($21,744). The case was heard on January 28, 2022, and the decision numbered 8842/2022 of the court of Thessaloniki was issued, which, accepted our claims and dismissed theÂ Solgar Inc.â€™s lawsuit.On July 22, 2015, the National Medicines Agency approved the license of wholesale sale of pharmaceutical products under the name SkyPharm SA with set validity at five years and an expiration date of July 22, 2020. Subsequently, SkyPharm on June 15, 2020, legally and timely submitted the application for renewal of the wholesale license of pharmaceutical products to the National Medicines Agency. The National Medicines Agency did not respond, therefore the Company asked for an immediate decision on the renewal. Two months after the filing of the no. 3459 / 15.01.2021 letter and almost nine months after the no. 627615.06.2020 Company application for the renewal, the National Medicines Agency replied by rejecting the renewal request on March 9, 2021 (ref. 62769 / 20-25.02.2021). In addition, document No. 127351-16.12.2021 of EOF (Greek National Medicines Organization) to SkyPharm states that after an inspection of EOF at the premises of Doc Pharma, we did not have a wholesale license in violation of article 106 par. 1b and par. 1c of the ministerial decision D.YG3a / GP.32221 / 29-4-2019. The National Medicines Agency imposed a fine of â‚¬15,000 ($16,214) on SkyPharm for the above case, which was included in â€œGeneral and administrativeâ€ expense on the accompany statement of operations and comprehensive loss for the 12-month period ended December 31, 2023.Â There has been a payment request by the Greek court, which relates to a fine arising from Cosmofarmâ€™s tax audit for financial year 2014. The law with no. 483/16.12.2020 was used by the court against Cosmofarm (the â€œdefendantâ€). The defendant appealed against the decision using the law with no.11541/09.03.2021. This appeal was dismissed after 120 days from its submission to the court. Additionally, there had been an obligation for payment of additional tax and fines related to this matter in the amount of â‚¬91,652 ($99,644), which the defendant has already settled. However, the defendant has claimed back the respective amount through appeal. As of December 31, 2023, the trial is still pending.Â On January 25, 2023, a criminal case of dishonored checks against Cosmofarmâ€™s customer Filippou, was heard at the Zâ€™ Three-Member Misdemeanor Court of Athens, which was postponed to November 27, 2023, when the defendant was tried and found guilty.Â On January 26, 2023, the appeal of the Company against Eleutheria Drakopoulou and decision 1389/2021of the Single-Member Court of First Instance of Athens was heard at the Athens Court of Appeal. The appeal was partially accepted. The Court ordered the return of the fee to the appellants, dismissed the action against the third defendant, Kozaris and accepted the action as regards the first and the second defendants (Kastrantas & Cosmofarm).Â On October 23, 2023, a criminal case of dishonored check against Cosmofarmâ€™s customer Kafantaris was heard at the Sixth Single-Member Misdemeanor Court of Athens, which was postponed to January 26, 2024, when the defendant was convicted by decision no. 1599/2024.Â In October 2023, the Companyâ€™s subsidiary, Cana Laboratories Holding (Cyprus) Limited (â€œCanaâ€) was approached by an attorney at law on behalf of two clients which were requesting an amount of â‚¬39,211 as compensation for the value of 34.70 square meters in relation to an urban sprawl with respect to which an Act of Imputation had been issued by the department of Urban Planning. Our legal counselâ€™s response was that Cana was not obliged to accept the compensatory value agreed and suggested exploring out of court settlement. As of today, the clientsâ€™ Attorney at law has not come back with any suggestions.Â Our subsidiary, Cana, has two pending lawsuits against Euaggelismos Hospital for a total sum of EUR 526,436 due to unpaid bills. The court date for one of the two lawsuits is set for December 11, 2024, and for the other one has not yet been set. The opinion of our legal advisor is that the collection of the total sum by the Company is almost certain. Â Our subsidiary, Cana, has an unasserted claim against Papanikolaou Hospital for a total sum of EUR 89,300 due to unpaid bills, which will be asserted through a lawsuit. The opinion of our legal advisor is that the collection of the sum by the Company is almost certain. A lawsuit dated on April 5, 2018 against the Companyâ€™s subsidiary Cana by a former employee before the Athens court of instance was initially heard on October 12, 2018. The former employee was seeking that the termination of her employment contract to be considered null and void and was requesting compensation for late wages and moral damages. Following, numerous appeals the Judgment No. 1192/2024 was issued on September 26, 2023, which as explicitly stated by our legal counsel, requires Cana to rehire the former employee with the threat of a penalty of â‚¬200 for each day of non-compliance. As informed by our legal counsel, in order for the penalty to be effective the former employee should file a new lawsuit against Cana and request to get rehired. In case Cana denies the employment, then the penalty should be in effect. As of today, we have not received neither a lawsuit nor any request of employment by the former employee.Â Advisory AgreementsÂ On July 1, 2021, the Company entered into a two-year advisory agreement with a third party (the â€œConsultantâ€) for advisory and consulting services related to the Companyâ€™s intention to become listed on Nasdaq. Peter Goldstein, a then director of the Company is a principal of the Consultant. As consideration for services rendered, and successful Nasdaq listing, the Company paid $100,000. The $100,000 bonus was incurred and settled within 2022. Finally, the Consultant received a total of 10,000 shares of the Companyâ€™s common stock, 2,000 of such shares that have been previously issued pursuant to previous agreements and additional 15,258 shares that were issued on February 2, 2023, based on the amendment signed on February 1, 2023.Â Â On November 21, 2023, the Company entered into certain consulting agreements with four third-party consultants for the provision of a variety of services such as digital marketing, advisory services relating to target acquisitions and M&As and other additional services as described in the respective agreements. The agreements have duration from ten to 18 months and the consultants will solely receive stock consideration for the services rendered. More precisely, they have been awarded a total of 970,000 shares of the Companyâ€™s common stock valued at a total of $999,100 based on the fair value of the Companyâ€™s common stock as of the agreementsâ€™ date. The corresponding consulting expense is accrued evenly over the term of the agreements. For the 12-month period ended December 31, 2023 the Company has recorded $77,250 as stocked based compensation for the above agreements, classified as â€œGeneral and administrative expensesâ€ in the Companyâ€™s consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive loss.Â Research and Development AgreementsÂ The Company entered into a Research & Development agreement with Doc Pharma S.A. on May 17, 2021. Under this agreement, Doc Pharma is responsible for the research, development, design, registration, copy rights and licenses of 250 nutritional supplements for the final products called Sky Premium LifeÂ®. More specifically, Doc Pharma is responsible for the product development and the Company has added 105 of such products codes in its portfolio as of December 31, 2023. The licenses purchased by Doc Pharma SA are capitalized and included in â€œGoodwill and intangible assets, netâ€ of the Companyâ€™s Consolidated Balance Sheets as of December 31, 2023. Thus, no relevant R&D expense had been charged to the Companyâ€™s Consolidated Statements of Operations and Comprehensive Loss.Â On June 26, 2022, the Company signed a research and development (â€œR&Dâ€) agreement with a third party, through which the Company assigns to the third party the development of new products and services in the field of health, focusing on the human intestinal microbiome. The project includes two phases. Phase 1 has a 20-month duration and its cost amounts to EUR 758,000 ($838,450) and phase 2, has a 22-month duration and a cost of EUR 820,000 ($907,084). The amount will be due and payable upon completion of the corresponding phases. The Company records the corresponding R&D expense based on the projectâ€™s progress, which is invoiced by the third party in the relevant period. For the 12-month period ended December 31, 2023, the Company has incurred $164,859 of such costs included in â€œGeneral and administrative expensesâ€ in the Companyâ€™s Consolidated Statements of Operations and Comprehensive Loss. The 2022 Plan is designed to enable the flexibility to grant equity awards to the Companyâ€™s officers, employees, non-employee directors and consultants and to ensure that it can continue to grant equity awards to eligible recipients at levels determined to be appropriate by the Board and/or the Compensation Committee. According to the Proxy Statement filed with the SEC on October 20, 2022 the 2022 Plan received final approval by the Companyâ€™s stockholdersÂ at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders held on December 2, 2022.Â On April 3, 2023, the Company approved incentive stock awards for the CFO, certain officers and directors and other employees of the Company. The awards are in the form of restricted stock and will vest in two parts: 50% on October 2, 2023 and 50% on October 2, 2024. A total of 185,000 shares were awarded and a corresponding share-based compensation expense of $108,297 and $216,741 was recorded for the three and six months ended June 30, 2024, based on the amortization of fair value from the date of issuance of April 3, 2023, through March 31, 2024 and June 30, 2024, respectively.Â On August 21, 2023, the Board adopted, subject to stockholder approval, the Cosmos Health Inc. 2023 Omnibus Equity Incentive Plan (the â€œ2023 Planâ€). The 2023 Plan is designed to enable the flexibility to grant equity awards to our officers, employees, non-employee directors and consultants and to ensure that we can continue to grant equity awards to eligible recipients at levels determined to be appropriate by the Board and/or the Compensation Committee. Subject to certain adjustments (as provided in Section 4.2 of the 2023 Plan) and exception (as provided in Section 5.6(b) of the 2023 Plan), the maximum number of shares reserved for issuance under the 2023 Plan (including incentive share options) is 2,500,000 shares. The 2023 Plan was approved by the Companyâ€™s stockholders at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders held on September 18, 2023.Â Â Warrant Anti-Dilution Adjustment and Deemed DividendÂ The Companyâ€™s warrants outstanding contain certain anti-dilution adjustments if the Company issues shares of its common stock at a lower price per share than the applicable exercise price of the underlying warrant. If any such dilutive issuance occurs prior to the exercise of such warrant, the exercise price will be adjusted downward to a price equal to the common stock issuance, and the number of warrants that may be purchase upon exercise is increased proportionately so that the aggregate exercise price payable under the warrant shares shall be the same as the aggregate exercise price in effect immediately prior to such adjustment. On December 21, 2021, the Company issued its common stock upon conversion of its convertible debt at an issuance price of $50.50 per share. As a result, the Company issued additional warrants to the Companyâ€™s existing warrant holders to purchase 101,343 shares of common stock with an exercise price of $50.50 per share. The new warrants were issued with a weighted average contractual term of 2.04 years. The deemed dividend was recorded as an increase to accumulated deficit and additional paid-in capital and reduced net income available to common shareholders by the same amount. The Company valued (a) the fair value of the warrants immediately before the re-pricing in the amount of $1,915,077, (b) the fair value of the warrants immediately after the re-pricing in the amount of $9,548,110, and (c) recorded the difference as deemed dividend in the amount of $7,633,033. The warrants were valued using the Black-Scholes option pricing model using the following terms: a) fair value of common stock of $93.75, b) exercise prices of $125.00, $150.00 and $187.50 before re-pricing, c) exercise price of $50.50 after re-pricing, d) terms of 1.40 years, 1.97 years, 2.20 years and 2.26 years, e) dividend rate of 0%, and f) risk free interest rate of 0.41%.Â As of June 30, 2024, there were 8,558,380 warrants outstanding and 8,558,380 warrants exercisable with 8,545,036 warrants having expiration dates from October 2024 through October 2029 and 13,334 warrants with no expiration date. To regain compliance with the Minimum Bid Price Requirement, the closing bid of the Company's shares of common stock needed to be at least $1.00 per share for a minimum of ten (10) consecutive business days. The Notification Letter confirmed that the Company achieved a closing bid price of $1.00 or greater per common share for ten (10) consecutive business days from July 5, 2024 to July 18, 2024, thereby regaining compliance with the Minimum Bid Price Requirement. Accordingly, Nasdaq has determined that this matter is now closed. This cured the delinquency from March 20, 2024, notification that the Companyâ€™s common stock had failed to maintain a minimum bid price of $1.00 over the previous 30 consecutive business days as required by the Nasdaq Listing Rules. NOTE 20 â€“ SUBSEQUENT EVENTSÂ On January 23, 2024, the Company completed the acquisition of Cloudscreen, a cutting-edge Artificial Intelligence (AI) powered platform. The acquisition is pursuant to the purchase agreement announced on October 11, 2023. Cloudscreen is a multimodal platform specialized in drug repurposing, a process that involves uncovering new target proteins or indications for existing drugs for use in treating different diseases. The total purchase price amounted to $637,080 and consisted of 280,000 shares of common stock with a fair value of $319,200 and an amount of $317,880 to be settled in cash during 2024 based on the Promissory Note signed on October 10, 2023. The Company accounted for the acquisition as an asset acquisition in accordance with Accounting Standards Codification (â€œASCâ€) Topic 805, Business Combinations, (â€œASC 805â€) and recorded $637,080 as an intangible asset related to the technology platform acquired.Â During the period March 15 to March 21, 2024, the Company raised additional equity funds through a Baby Shelf supplement to its Registration Statement on Form S-3 (No. 333-267550) filed with the SEC on February 29 and March 7, 2024. More specifically, the Company sold 901,488 shares of common stock for gross proceeds of $648,893. Placement agentâ€™s fees and other commissions amounted to $23,153 and thus the total net proceeds for the period were $625,740.Â On April 17, 2024, the Company received a notification letter from the Listing Qualifications Department of The Nasdaq Stock Market LLC (â€œNasdaqâ€) stating that, because the Company had not yet filed its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the period ended December 31, 2023, it is no longer in compliance with Nasdaq Listing Rule 5250(c)(1). The Nasdaq letter had no immediate effect on the listing of the Companyâ€™s shares. The Nasdaq notification letter stated that the Company had 60 calendar days to submit to Nasdaq a plan to regain compliance with the Nasdaq Listing Rules. If a compliance plan is accepted, Nasdaq may grant up to 180 days from the prescribed due date to regain compliance. Â On May 21, 2024, the Company received an additional delinquency letter from Nasdaq notifying the Company that it continued to be out of compliance with Nasdaqâ€™s continued listing requirements set forth in Nasdaq Listing Rule 5250(c)(1) due to the Companyâ€™s failure to timely file its Form 10-Q for the period ended March 31, 2024, as well as remaining delinquent in filing its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the period ended December 31, 2023. The additional delinquency letter had no immediate effect on the listing of the Companyâ€™s shares on Nasdaq. On May 31, 2024, the Company provided its compliance plan to Nasdaq, in relation to the filing of its Form 10-K and Form 10-Q for the period ended March 31, 2024. On June 20, 2024, Nasdaq accepted the plan and initially granted the Company a period ending July 29, 2024 to file the delinquent reports. On July 30, 2024, Nasdaq further extended the filing deadline through October 14, 2024.Â On April 22, 2024, the Company entered into a Rights Agreement by and between the Company and Globex Transfer, LLC, as Rights Agent, which Rights Agreement was previously approved and adopted by the Board of Directors of the Company on November 21, 2023. Pursuant to the Rights Agreement, the Board declared a dividend of one common share purchase right for each outstanding share of common stock, par value $0.001 of the Company. The Rights are distributable to stockholders of record as of the close of business on April 19, 2024. In general, the Rights Agreement works by causing substantial dilution to any person or group that acquires beneficial ownership of twenty percent (20%) or more of the Common Shares without the approval of the Board.On April 26, 2024, the Company dismissed KPMG as the Companyâ€™s independent registered accountant, effective immediately. The Companyâ€™s Audit Committee, mindful of certain filing deadlines under the US securities laws, unanimously voted in favor to dismiss KPMG as the Companyâ€™s independent auditors. KPMG was unable to complete the audit of the Companyâ€™s financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2023, on a timely basis. The Companyâ€™s Board of Directors agreed with such recommendation. The Companyâ€™s opinion was that there were no disagreements with KPMG on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosures, or auditing scope or procedure. In their letter, KPMG has the contrary opinion that there have been disagreements, between KPMG and the Company on the above. The Company objected to such statements made by KPMG and provided a relevant response letter.Â On April 29, 2024, RBSM LLP (â€œRBSMâ€) was appointed by the Companyâ€™s Audit Committee as the Companyâ€™s independent registered public accounting firm, to audit the Companyâ€™s consolidated financial statements as of and for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2023, subject to customary client acceptance procedures.Â On June 27, 2024, the Company signed an exclusive distribution agreement (the â€œAgreementâ€) with Pharmalink for its Sky Premium Life products in the United Arab Emirates (UAE). As part of the Agreement, Pharmalink will be responsible for all key functions, including sales and marketing, regulatory affairs, logistics, supply, and distribution of Sky Premium Life products in the UAE. Cosmos Health has secured its first purchase order from Pharmalink for 130,000 units and anticipates receiving orders of more than 500,000 units in the first year and in excess of 3,000,000 units over the next five years.Â On July 19, 2024, the Company received a notification letter from Nasdaq, informing the Company that it has regained compliance with the minimum bid price requirement set forth in Nasdaq Listing Rule 5550(a)(2) (the â€œMinimum Bid Price Requirementâ€). To regain compliance with the Minimum Bid Price Requirement, the closing bid of the Companyâ€™s shares of common stock needed to be at least $1.00 per share for a minimum of ten consecutive business days. The notification letter confirmed that the Company achieved a closing bid price of $1.00 or greater per common share for ten consecutive business days from July 5, 2024 to July 18, 2024, thereby regaining compliance with the Minimum Bid Price Requirement. The accompanying consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with U.S. GAAP. Principles of Consolidation Our consolidated accounts include our accounts and the accounts of our wholly owned subsidiaries, SkyPharm S.A., Decahedron Ltd., Cosmofarm S.A., Cana Laboratories Holdings (Cyprus) Limited and ZipDoctor Inc. The Groupâ€™s financial statements are prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (â€œUS GAAPâ€). The consolidated financial statements reflect the consolidation of all entities in which the Company has control, as determined by the ability to direct the activities that significantly affect the entitiesâ€™ economic performance. All significant intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated. Our consolidated accounts include our accounts and the accounts of our wholly owned subsidiaries, SkyPharm S.A., Decahedron Ltd., Cosmofarm S.A.,Â Cana Laboratories Holding (Cyprus) Limited and ZipDoctor Inc. The Groupâ€™s financial statements are prepared in accordance with U.S. GAAP. The consolidated financial statements reflect the consolidation of all entities in which the Company has control, as determined by the ability to direct the activities that significantly affect the entitiesâ€™ economic performance. All significant intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated. Transactions in and Translations of Foreign Currency The functional currency for the Greek subsidiaries of the Company (CANA Laboratories, Cosmofarm S.A. and SkyPharm SA) is EURO (â‚¬) and for the UK subsidiary (Decahedron Ltd) is GBP (Â£). ZipDoctor Inc. is a U.S. based entity. As a result, the financial statements of the subsidiaries (except for ZipDoctor Inc.) have been translated from the local currency into U.S. dollars using (i) year-end exchange rates for balance sheet accounts, and (ii) average exchange rates for the reporting period for all income statements accounts. Foreign currency translations gains and losses are reported as a separate component of the condensed consolidated statements of changes in stockholdersâ€™ equity and mezzanine equity. The functional currency of the Companyâ€™s subsidiaries is the Euro and British Pound. For financial reporting purposes, both the Euro (â€œEURâ€) and British Pound (â€œGBPâ€) have been translated into United States dollars ($) and/or (â€œUSDâ€) as the reporting currency. Assets and liabilities are translated at the exchange rate in effect at the balance sheet date. Revenues and expenses are translated at the average rate of exchange prevailing during the reporting period. Equity transactions are translated at each historical transaction date spot rate. Translation adjustments arising from the use of different exchange rates from period to period are included as a component of stockholdersâ€™ equity (deficit) as â€œAccumulated other comprehensive income (loss)â€. Gains and losses resulting from foreign currency transactions are included in the statements of operations and comprehensive loss as other comprehensive loss. There have been no significant fluctuations in the exchange rate for the conversion of EUR or GBP to USD after the balance sheet date.Â Assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated into the functional currency at the exchange rates prevailing at the consolidated balance sheet date with any transaction gains and losses that arise from exchange rate fluctuations on transactions denominated in a currency other than the functional currency included in the consolidated results of operations as incurred.As of December 31, 2023 and 2022, the exchange rates used to translate amounts in Euros into USD and British Pounds into USD for the purposes of preparing the consolidated financial statements were as follows:Â Â Â December 31, 2023Â Â December 31, 2022Â Exchange rate on balance sheet datesÂ Â Â Â Â Â EUR: USD exchange rateÂ Â 1.1062Â Â Â 1.0698Â GBP: USD exchange rateÂ Â 1.2743Â Â Â 1.2077Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Average exchange rate for the periodÂ Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â EUR: USD exchange rateÂ Â 1.0817Â Â Â 1.0534Â GBP: USD exchange rateÂ Â 1.2440Â Â Â 1.2371Â Use of Estimates The preparation of the consolidated financial statements in conformity with U.S. GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates. Credit Losses In June 2016, the FASB issued ASU 2016-13, Financial Instrumentsâ€”Credit Losses (Topic 326): Measurement of Credit Losses of Financial Instruments, which amends the requirement on the measurement and recognition of expected credit losses for financial assets held. Furthermore, amendments ASU 2019-10 and ASU 2019-11 provided additional clarification for implementing ASU 2016-13. ASU 2016-13 is effective for the Company beginning January 1, 2023, with early adoption permitted. The Company adopted the standard on January 1, 2023, and the standard did not have a material impact on the Companyâ€™s consolidated financial statements and related disclosures. The Company is exposed to credit losses primarily through sales to its customers and the loans that it has provided. The Company assesses each customerâ€™s/ borrowerâ€™s ability to pay, and a credit loss estimate by conducting a credit review which includes consideration of established credit rating, or an internal assessment of the customerâ€™s creditworthiness based on an analysis of their payment history when a credit rating is not available. The Company monitors credit exposure through active review of customer balances. The Companyâ€™s expected loss methodology for accounts receivable is developed through consideration of factors including, but not limited to, historical collection experience, current customer credit ratings, current customer financial condition, current and future economic and market conditions, and age of the receivables. More specifically, the Company assesses a number of customers with significant long outstanding balances on an individual basis, applying different credit loss percentages to them, and subsequently summarizes the ones not included in the individual analysis, groups them based on their rating (decided based on the factors described above) and applies specific credit loss percentages to each group. The Company has elected to follow the simplified ECL approach. The charges related to credit losses are included in â€œGeneral and administrative expensesâ€ and are recorded in the period that the outstanding receivables are determined to be doubtful. Account balances are written-off against the allowance when they are deemed uncollectible. Tax Receivables The Company pays Value Added Tax (â€œVATâ€) or similar taxes (â€œinput VATâ€), income taxes, and other taxes within the normal course of its business in most of the countries in which it operates related to the procurement of merchandise and/or services it acquires and/or on sales and taxable income. The Company also collects VAT or similar taxes on behalf of the government (â€œoutput VATâ€) for merchandise and/or services it sells. If the output VAT exceeds the input VAT, this creates a VAT payable to the government. If the input VAT exceeds the output VAT, this creates a VAT receivable from the government. The VAT tax return is filed on a monthly basis offsetting the payables against the receivables. In observance of EU regulations for intra-EU cross-border sales, our subsidiaries in Greece, SkyPharm and Cosmofarm, do not charge VAT for sales to wholesale drug distributors registered in other European Union member states. As of

June 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, the Company had a VAT net receivable balance of $276,152 and $187,512 respectively, recorded in the consolidated balance sheet as prepaid expenses and other current assets and accounts payable and accrued expenses, respectively. Inventory consists primarily of finished goods and packaging materials, i.e., packaged pharmaceutical products and the wrappers and containers they are sold in. A periodic inventory system is maintained by 100% count. Inventory is replaced periodically to maintain the optimum stock on hand available for immediate shipment.Â The Company writes down inventories to net realizable value based on physical condition, expiration date, and current market conditions, as well as forecasted demand. The Companyâ€™s inventories are not highly susceptible to obsolescence. Many of the Companyâ€™s inventory items are eligible for return to our suppliers when pre-agreed product requirements, including, but not limited to, physical condition and expiration date, are not met. No significant judgments have been applied in estimating the selling price of our inventory. Inventory is stated at the lower-of-cost or net realizable value using the weighted average method. Additions are initially measured at cost, which includes all costs directly attributable to bringing the asset to its working condition and location for its intended use. This may include purchase price, freight, installation, and any directly attributable professional fees. They are capitalized if their cost exceeds a certain threshold. The threshold is determined based on materiality considerations. Costs below the threshold are typically expensed as incurred. After initial recognition, additions are measured at cost less accumulated depreciation and any accumulated impairment losses. Depreciation is calculated systematically over the estimated useful life of the asset. They are tested for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable. If the carrying amount exceeds the recoverable amount, an impairment loss is recognized, and the carrying amount of the asset is adjusted accordingly. Borrowing costs directly attributable to the acquisition, construction, or production of qualifying assets, including Property and Equipment additions, are capitalized as part of the cost of those assets. Goodwill and Intangibles, net The Company periodically reviews the carrying value of intangible assets not subject to amortization, including goodwill, to determine whether impairment may exist. Goodwill and certain intangible assets are assessed annually, or when certain triggering events occur, for impairment using fair value measurement techniques. These events could include a significant change in the business climate, legal factors, a decline in operating performance, competition, sale or disposition of a significant portion of the business, or other factors. First, under step 0, we determine whether it is more likely than not that the fair value of the reporting unit is less than the carrying amount. Following, if step 0 fails, goodwill impairment is determined using a two-step process. The first step of the goodwill impairment test is used to identify potential impairment by comparing the fair value of a reporting unit with its carrying amount, including goodwill. The Company uses level 3 inputs and a discounted cash flow methodology to estimate the fair value of a reporting unit. A discounted cash flow analysis requires one to make various judgmental assumptions including assumptions about future cash flows, growth rates, and discount rates. The assumptions about future cash flows and growth rates are based on the Companyâ€™s budget and long-term plans. Discount rate assumptions are based on an assessment of the risk inherent in the respective reporting units. If the fair value of a reporting unit exceeds its carrying amount, goodwill of the reporting unit is considered not impaired and the second step of the impairment test is unnecessary. If the carrying amount of a reporting unit exceeds its fair value, the second step of the goodwill impairment test is performed to measure the amount of impairment loss, if any. The second step of the goodwill impairment test compares the implied fair value of the reporting unitâ€™s goodwill with the carrying amount of that goodwill. If the carrying amount of the reporting unitâ€™s goodwill exceeds the implied fair value of that goodwill, an impairment loss is recognized in an amount equal to that excess. The implied fair value of goodwill is determined in the same manner as the amount of goodwill recognized in a business combination. That is, the fair value of the reporting unit is allocated to all of the assets and liabilities of that unit (including any unrecognized intangible assets) as if the reporting unit had been acquired in a business combination and the fair value of the reporting unit was the purchase price paid to acquire the reporting unit. Â On December 19, 2018, as a result of the acquisition of Cosmofarm, the Company recorded $49,697 of goodwill. Â Intangible assets with definite useful lives are recorded on the basis of cost and are amortized on a straight-line basis over their estimated useful lives. The Company uses a useful life of 5 years for an import/export license and a useful life of 10 years for the pharmaceutical and nutraceutical products licenses included in Note 4 as â€œLicensesâ€. A useful life of 10 years is also used for the platforms included in Note 4 as â€œSoftwareâ€ and the customer bases. The Company evaluates the remaining useful life of intangible assets annually to determine whether events and circumstances warrant a revision to the remaining amortization period. If the estimate of the intangible assetâ€™s remaining useful life is changed, the remaining carrying amount of the intangible asset will be amortized prospectively over that revised remaining useful life. As of June 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, no revision to the remaining amortization period of the intangible assets was made.Â Amortization expense was $193,518 and $16,035 for the three months ended June 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively and $383,373 and $50,270 for the six months ended June 30, 2024 and 2023, respectively. Impairment of Long-Lived Assets In accordance with ASC 360-10, Long-lived Assets, property and equipment and intangible assets are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset may not be recoverable. Recoverability of long-lived assets to be held and used is measured by a comparison of the carrying amount of an asset to the estimated undiscounted future cash flows expected to be generated by the asset. If the carrying amount of an asset exceeds its estimated undiscounted future cash flows, an impairment charge is recognized by the amount by which the carrying amount of the asset exceeds the fair value of the assets. Fair value is generally determined using the assetâ€™s expected future discounted cash flows or market value, if readily determinable. Equity Method Investment For those investments in common stock or in-substance common stock in which the Company has the ability to exercise significant influence over the operating and financial policies of the investee, the investment is accounted for under the equity method. The Company records its share in the earnings of the investee and is included in â€œEquity earnings of affiliateâ€ in the consolidated statement of operations. The Company assesses its investment for other-than-temporary impairment when events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of the investment might not be recoverable and recognizes an impairment loss to adjust the investment to its then current fair value. Investments in Equity Securities Investments in equity securities are accounted for at fair value with changes in fair value recognized in net income (loss). Equity securities are classified as short-term or long-term based on the nature of the securities and their availability to meet current operating requirements. Equity securities that are readily available for sale in current operations are reported as a component of current assets in the accompanying consolidated balance sheets. Equity securities that are not considered available for use in current operations would be reported as a component of long-term assets in the accompanying consolidated balance sheets. For equity securities with no readily determinable fair value, the Company elects a measurement alternative to fair value. Under this alternative, the Company measures the investments at cost, less any impairment, and adjusted for changes resulting from observable price changes in transactions for identical or similar investments of the investee. The election to use the measurement alternative is made for each eligible investment. Â As of June 30, 2024, investments consisted of 16,666 shares which traded at a closing price of $0.75 per share or value of $12,416 of National Bank of Greece. Fair Value Measurement The Company applies ASC 820, Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures, (â€œASC 820â€), for assets and liabilities measured at fair value on a recurring basis. ASC 820 establishes a common definition for fair value to be applied to existing generally accepted accounting principles that require the use of fair value measurements establishes a framework for measuring fair value and expands disclosure about such fair value measurements. Â ASC 820 defines fair value as the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. Additionally, ASC 820 requires the use of valuation techniques that maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs. These inputs are prioritized below:Â Level 1:Â Observable inputs such as quoted prices (unadjusted)Â in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.Â Level 2:Â Inputs other than quoted prices that are observable, either directly or indirectly. These include quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets and quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in markets that are not active.Â Level 3:Â Unobservable inputs in which little or no market data exists, therefore developed using estimates and assumptions developed by us, which reflect those that a market participant would use.Â In addition, ASC 825-10-25, Fair Value Option, (â€œASC 825-10-25â€), expands opportunities to use fair value measurements in financial reporting and permits entities to choose to measure many financial instruments and certain other items at fair value. The Company did not elect the fair value options for any of its qualifying financial instruments.Â Our financials also included the following financial instruments as of June 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023: cash, accounts receivable, inventory, prepaid expenses, loans receivable, accounts payable, notes payable and lines of credit. Except for the loans receivable which carry fixed interest rates, the carrying value of the remaining instruments, approximates fair value due to their short-term nature. Additionally, ASC 820 requires the use of valuation techniques that maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs. These inputs are prioritized below:Â Level 1:Â Observable inputs such as quoted prices (unadjusted)Â in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.Level 2:Â Inputs other than quoted prices that are observable, either directly or indirectly. These include quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets and quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in markets that are not active.Â Level 3:Â Unobservable inputs in which little or no market data exists, therefore developed using estimates and assumptions developed by us, which reflect those that a market participant would use.Â The following table presents assets that are measured and recognized at fair value as of December 31, 2023 and 2022, on a recurring basis:Â Â Â December 31, 2023Â Â Total Carrying Â Â Â Level 1Â Â Level 2Â Â Level 3Â Â ValueÂ Marketable securities â€“ ICC International Cannabis Corp.Â $-Â Â Â -Â Â Â -Â Â Â $-Â Marketable securities â€“ National Bank of GreeceÂ Â 11,596Â Â Â -Â Â Â -Â Â Â 11,596Â Â Â $11,596Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â $11,596Â Â Â Â December 31, 2022Â Â Total Carrying Â Â Â Level 1Â Â Level 2Â Â Level 3Â Â ValueÂ Marketable securities â€“ ICC International Cannabis Corp.Â $-Â Â Â -Â Â Â -Â Â Â $-Â Marketable securities â€“ National Bank of GreeceÂ Â 6,681Â Â Â -Â Â Â -Â Â Â 6,681Â Â Â $6,681Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â $6,681Â Â In addition, ASC 825-10-25, Fair Value Option, (â€œASC 825-10-25â€), expands opportunities to use fair value measurements in financial reporting and permits entities to choose to measure many financial instruments and certain other items at fair value. The Company did not elect the fair value options for any of its qualifying financial instruments.Â Our financials also included the following financial instruments as of December 31, 2023: cash, accounts receivable, inventory, prepaid expenses, loans receivable, accounts payable, notes payable and lines of credit. Except for the loans receivable which carry fixed interest rates, the carrying value of the remaining instruments, approximates fair value due to their short-term nature. Customer Advances The Company receives prepayments from certain customers for pharmaceutical products prior to those customers taking possession of the Companyâ€™s products. The Company records these receipts as current liabilities until it has met all the criteria for recognition of revenue including passing control of the products to its customer, at such point, the Company will reduce the customerÂ advances balance and credit the Companyâ€™s revenues. Revenue Recognition In accordance with ASC Topic 606,Â Revenue from Contracts with CustomersÂ (â€œASC 606â€), the Company uses a five-step model for recognizing revenue by applying the following steps: Â Â 1)Identification of the Contract: The Company identifies a contract with a customer when it enters into an agreement that creates enforceable rights and obligations.Â 2)Identification of Performance Obligations: The Company identifies distinct performance obligations within each contract, which represent promises to transfer goods or services to the customer.Â 3)Determination of Transaction Price: The Company determines the transaction price, which represents the amount of consideration to which it expects to be entitled in exchange for transferring promised goods or services to the customer, excluding any amounts collected on behalf of third parties.Â 4)Allocation of Transaction Price: The Company allocates the transaction price to each distinct performance obligation based on its standalone selling price. If the standalone selling price is not observable, the Company estimates it using an appropriate method.Â 5)Recognition of Revenue: Revenue is recognized when (or as) the Company satisfies a performance obligation by transferring a promised good or service to the customer. This typically occurs at a point in time or over time, depending on the nature of the performance obligation.Â Wholesale revenue and sales of own branded nutraceutical and pharmaceutical productsÂ The Company has contracts or signed partnership forms (usual in the wholesale sector of the pharma industry) with its customers, stipulating the enforceable rights and obligations. The Company is responsible for transferring the goods to the customerâ€™s location, which represents its sole performance obligation. Thus, the transaction price, which is predetermined in most of the products sold, is exclusively allocated to this performance obligation. Revenue is recognized at a single point in time, which is upon issuance of the corresponding sales invoice. The Company has assessed the impact of the items invoiced but not delivered to the customerâ€™s location as of December 31, 2023 and June 30, 2024, and deemed that it had no material effect. Â Pharma manufacturingÂ The Company has active contracts with its customers, stipulating the enforceable rights and obligations. The Company is responsible for the manufacturing and the packaging of specific products assigned by its customers, which represents its performance obligations to which the Company allocates the transaction price determined. The customers are responsible for providing the raw materials to the Company. Revenue is recognized over a period of time, which is during the production and packaging period of the respective products. As of June 30, 2024, there were no products or batches of products for which the production or packaging phase was in progress. Â Medihelm SA Â Commencing from January 1, 2023, and pursuant to the agreement with Medihelm, the exclusive distributor of the Companyâ€™s own proprietary line of nutraceuticals, the Company considers the transaction price to be variable and records an estimate of the transaction price, subject to the constraint for variable consideration. The Company is basing the change in transaction price with the exclusive distributor through assessment of significant overdue receivables from the exclusive distributor, which the Company reassesses each reporting period. Through this assessment, the Company applied the â€œexpected valueâ€ model under ASC 606-10-32-5 and had applied specific constraints to revenue due from the customer at the end of each reporting period. Following the application of the â€œexpected valueâ€ model, the Company had deferred an amount of $397,000Â and recorded it against the sales to Medihelm for the twelve months ended December 31, 2024. However, the Company assessed once more the trading relationship with Medihelm SA at year end and since no significant receipts had taken place up to the issuance of the report, the Company recorded an allowance for the total receivable amount not received up to the issuance date. More specifically a cumulative reserve of $12,655,615 was applied, leaving a receivable of $532,704 due from Medihelm SA, as of December 31, 2023. The Company does not consider that new sales to Medihelm SA or sales to any other customer include a variable component as of June 30, 2024. Â Derivatives Instruments Â DerivativeÂ financial instruments are recorded in the accompanying consolidated balance sheets at fair value in accordance with ASC 815. When the Company enters into a financial instrument such as a debt or equity agreement (the â€œhost contractâ€), the Company assesses whether the economic characteristics of any embedded features are clearly and closely related to the primary economic characteristics of the remainder of the host contract. When it is determined that (i) an embedded feature possesses economic characteristics that are not clearly and closely related to the primary economic characteristics of the host contract, and (ii) a separate, stand-alone instrument with the same terms would meet the definition of a financial derivativeÂ instrument, then the embedded feature is bifurcated from the host contract and accounted for as a derivativeÂ instrument. The estimated fair value of the derivativeÂ feature is recorded in the accompanying consolidated balance sheets separately from the carrying value of the host contract. Subsequent changes in the estimated fair value of derivatives are recorded as a gain or loss in the Companyâ€™s consolidated statements of operations. Stock-based Compensation The Company records stock-based compensation in accordance with ASC 718, Stock Compensation (â€œASC 718â€) and Staff Accounting Bulletin No. 107 (â€œSAB 107â€) regarding its interpretation of ASC 718. ASC 718 requires the fair value of all stock-based employee compensation awarded to employees to be recorded as an expense over the related requisite service period. The Company values any employee or non-employee stock-based compensation at fair value using the Black-Scholes Option Pricing Model.Â The Company accounts for non-employee share-based awards in accordance with the measurement and recognition criteria of ASU 2018-07, â€œCompensation-Stock Compensation-Improvements to Nonemployee Share-Based Payment Accounting.â€ The Company records stock-based compensation in accordance with ASC 718, Stock Compensation (â€œASC 718â€) and Staff Accounting Bulletin No. 107 (â€œSAB 107â€) regarding its interpretation of ASC 718. Under this method, deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the future tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax basis, as well as net operating loss carryforwards. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. The effect on deferred tax assets and liabilities of a change in tax rates is recognized in income in the period that includes the enactment date. Â The Company is liable for income taxes in Greece and the United Kingdom The corporate income tax rate is 22% in Greece and 25% in the United Kingdom. Losses may also be subject to limitation under certain rules regarding change of ownership. Â We regularly review deferred tax assets to assess their potential realization and establish a valuation allowance for portions of such assets to reduce the carrying value if we do not consider it to be more likely than not that the deferred tax assets will be realized. Our review includes evaluating both positive (e.g., sources of taxable income) and negative (e.g., recent historical losses) evidence that could impact the realizability of our deferred tax assets. At June 30, 2024, we believe our United Kingdom and Greece deferred tax assets will not be realized, as such, we did not record a reversal on the full valuation approach we followed during the year ended December 31, 2023. The Company does not consider that sales to any other customer include a variable component as of December 31, 2023. Leases The Company accounts for leases in accordance with ASC 842. For all leases, the Company recognizes a right-of-use (ROU) asset and a lease liability on the balance sheet. The ROU asset represents the Company's right to use the underlying asset for the lease term, and the lease liability represents the obligation to make lease payments arising from the lease, both measured at the present value of future lease payments. Lease payments are recognized as an operating expense on a straight-line basis over the lease term. The interest on the lease liability and the amortization of the ROU asset are recognized separately in the income statement. Initial direct costs incurred by the Company in negotiating and securing leases are capitalized and amortized over the lease term on a straight-line basis. The assets and liabilities from operating and finance leases are recognized at the commencement date based on the present value of remaining lease payments over the lease term using the Companyâ€™s secured incremental borrowing rates or implicit rates, when readily determinable. Short-term leases, which have an initial term of 12 months or less, are not recorded on the balance sheet. The Companyâ€™s operating leases do not provide an implicit rate that can readily be determined. Therefore, we use a discount rate based on our incremental borrowing rate, which is determined using the average interest rate of our long-term debt on the date of inception.Â The Company accounts for leases in accordance with ASC 842. Retirement and Termination Benefits Under Greek labor law, employees are entitled to lump-sum compensation in the event of termination or retirement. The amount depends on the employeeâ€™s work experience and remuneration as of the day of termination or retirement. If an employee remains with the company until full-benefit retirement, the employee is entitled to a lump-sum equal to 40% of the compensation to be received if the employee were to be dismissed on the same day. The Company periodically reviews the uncertainties and judgments related to the application of the relevant labor law regulations to determine retirement and termination benefits obligations of its Greek subsidiaries. The Company has evaluated the impact of these regulations and has identified a potential retirement and termination benefits liability. The amount of the liability as of June 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, was $395,698 and $408,665, respectively, and has been recorded as a long-term liability within the consolidated balance sheets. Topic 848 provides optional expedients and exceptions for applying GAAP to transactions affected by reference rate (e.g., LIBOR) reform if certain criteria are met, for a limited period of time to ease the potential burden in accounting for (or recognizing the effects of) reference rate reform on financial reporting. The ASU deferred the sunset date of Topic 848 from December 31, 2022 to December 31, 2024. The ASU is effective as of December 21, 2022 through December 31, 2024. We continue to evaluate transactions or contract modifications occurring as a result of reference rate reform and determine whether to apply the optional guidance on an ongoing basis. We adopted ASU 2022-06 during 2022. The Company adopted this ASU on June 30, 2023. The adoption of this ASU did not have a material impact on the Companyâ€™s accounting and disclosures.Â In March 2022, the FASB issued ASU 2022-02, Troubled Debt Restructurings and Vintage Disclosures. This ASU eliminates the accounting guidance for troubled debt restructurings by creditors that have adopted ASU 2016-13, Measurement of Credit Losses on Financial Instruments, which was adopted on January 1, 2020. The adoption of ASU 2016-13 did not have a material impact on the Companyâ€™s consolidated financial statements. ASU 2022-02 also enhances the disclosure requirements for certain loan refinancing and restructurings by creditors when a borrower is experiencing financial difficulty. In addition, the ASU amends the guidance on vintage disclosures to require entities to disclose current period gross write-offs by year of origination for financing receivables and net investments in leases within the scope of ASC 326-20. The ASU is effective for annual periods beginning after December 15, 2022, including interim periods within those fiscal years. Adoption of the ASU would be applied prospectively. Early adoption is also permitted, including adoption in an interim period. This ASU was adopted on January 1, 2023, which resulted in no cumulative-effect adjustment to retained earnings. Â Recent Accounting Pronouncements In December 2023, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (â€œFASBâ€) issued Accounting Standards Update (â€œASUâ€)Â 2023-09,Â Income Taxes (Topic 740): Improvements to Income Tax Disclosures. This guidance is intended to enhance the transparency and decision-usefulness of income tax disclosures. The amendments in ASUÂ 2023-09Â address investor requests for enhanced income tax information primarily through changes to disclosure regarding rate reconciliation and income taxes paid both in the U.S. and in foreign jurisdictions. ASUÂ 2023-09Â is effective for fiscal years beginning after DecemberÂ 15, 2024 on a prospective basis, with the option to apply the standard retrospectively. Early adoption is permitted. The Company is currently evaluating this guidance to determine the impact it may have on its consolidated financial statements disclosures.Â In November 2023, the FASB issued ASUÂ 2023-07, Segment Reporting: Improvements to Reportable Segment Disclosures. This guidance expands public entitiesâ€™ segment disclosures primarily by requiring disclosure of significant segment expenses that are regularly provided to the chief operating decision maker and included within each reported measure of segment profit or loss, an amount and description of its composition for other segment items, and interim disclosures of a reportable segmentâ€™s profit or loss and assets. The guidance is effective for fiscal years beginning after DecemberÂ 15, 2023, and interim periods within fiscal years beginning after DecemberÂ 15, 2024, with early adoption permitted. The acquisition is pursuant to the purchase agreement announced on October 11, 2023. Cloudscreen is a multimodal platform specialized in drug repurposing, a process that involves uncovering new target proteins or indications for existing drugs for use in treating different diseases. The total purchase price amounted to $637,080 and consisted of 280,000 shares of common stock with a fair value of $319,200 and an amount of $317,880 to be settled in cash during 2024 based on the Promissory Note signed on October 10, 2023. Volatility also may be defined as a probability-weighted measure of the dispersion of returns about the mean. The volatility of a share price is the standard deviation of the continuously compounded rates of return on the share over a specified period. That is the same as the standard deviation of the differences in the natural logarithms of the stock prices plus dividends, if any, over the period. + ReferencesReference 1: http://www.xbrl.org/2003/role/disclosureRef -Topic 718 -SubTopic 10 -Name Accounting Standards Codification -Section 50 -Paragraph 2 -Subparagraph (f)(2)(ii) -Publisher FASB -URI https://asc.fasb.org/1943274/2147480429/718-10-50-2 + Details Name: us-gaap_ShareBasedCompensationArrangementByShareBasedPaymentAwardFairValueAssumptionsExpectedVolatilityRate Namespace Prefix: us-gaap_ Data Type: dtr-types:percentItemType Balance Type: na Period Type: duration X - DefinitionThe risk-free interest rate assumption that is used in valuing an option on its own shares. + ReferencesReference 1: http://www.xbrl.org/2003/role/disclosureRef -Topic 718 -SubTopic 10 -Name Accounting Standards Codification -Section 50 -Paragraph 2 -Subparagraph (f)(2)(iv) -Publisher FASB -URI https://asc.fasb.org/1943274/2147480429/718-10-50-2 + Details Name: us-gaap_ShareBasedCompensationArrangementByShareBasedPaymentAwardFairValueAssumptionsRiskFreeInterestRate Namespace Prefix: us-gaap_ Data Type: dtr-types:percentItemType Balance Type: na Period Type: duration X - DefinitionExpected term of award under share-based payment arrangement, in 'PnYnMnDTnHnMnS' format, for example, 'P1Y5M13D' represents reported fact of one year, five months, and thirteen days. + ReferencesReference 1: http://www.xbrl.org/2003/role/disclosureRef -Topic 718 -SubTopic 10 -Name Accounting Standards Codification -Section 50 -Paragraph 2 -Subparagraph (f)(2)(i) -Publisher FASB -URI https://asc.fasb.org/1943274/2147480429/718-10-50-2 + Details Name: us-gaap_ShareBasedCompensationArrangementByShareBasedPaymentAwardFairValueAssumptionsExpectedTerm1 Namespace Prefix: us-gaap_ Data Type: xbrli:durationItemType Balance Type: na Period Type: duration X - Details Name: srt_RangeAxis=srt_MinimumMember Namespace Prefix: Data Type: na Balance Type: Period Type: X - Details Name: srt_RangeAxis=srt_MaximumMember Namespace Prefix: Data Type: na Balance Type: Period Type: XML 93 R77.htm IDEA: XBRL DOCUMENT v3.24.3 CONVERTIBLE DEBT (Details Narrative) - USD ($) 1 Months Ended 12 Months Ended Dec. 21, 2020 Dec. 31, 2023 Dec. 31, 2022 Jun. 30, 2024 Jul. 20, 2023 May 01, 2022 Dec. 31, 2021 Sep. 17, 2021 Jan. 07, 2021 Dec. 31, 2020 Dec. 16, 2020 Convertible note payable net Â $ 525,000 Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Convertible notes payable, principal amount Â 100,000 $ 525,000 Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Accrued Interest expense Â 13,740 Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Derivative liability Â $ 0 $ 54,293 Â Â $ 11,629 $ 45,665 Â Â $ 460,728 Â Common stock share issued Â 15,982,472 10,605,412 17,834,023 Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Interest expense Â $ 411,858 $ 377,038 $ 167,824 Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Gain on settlement of debt Â 50,909 Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Securities Purchase Agreement [Member] Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Convertible notes payable, principal amount Â Â 525,000 Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Loss on change in fair value of derivative liability Â 3,384 14,450 Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Accrued intetest Â Â Â Â Â Â $ 26,515 Â Â Â Â Â Â Common stock share issued Â Â Â Â Â 1,401,163 1,574 Â Â Â Â Â Â Shares issued at a fair value Â Â Â Â Â Â $ 38,144 Â Â Â Â Â Â Securities Purchase Agreement [Member] | Convertible Promissory Note [Member] Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Amortization of debt discount Â 62,619 Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Derivative liability Â $ 0 54,293 Â Â Â Â Â $ 62,619 Â Â Debt original issue discount $ 40,000 Â 25,000 Â Â Â Â $ 25,000 Â Â Â Financing cost $ 3,000 Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Interest rate 8.00% 10.00% Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Default interest rate 18.00% Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â 8.00% Â Â Purchase price principal amount Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â $ 100,000 Â Â Note issued $ 540,000 Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Cash proceeds from conversion Â $ 500,000 Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Conversion discount to price Â 30.00% Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Beneficial conversion feature's intrinsic value Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â $ 25,000 Â Â Â Note issued upon exchange for cash $ 500,000 Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Convertible debt description Â (i) $100.00 or (ii) 80% of the average volume weighted average price for the Companyâ€™s Common Stock for the five days prior to the date of Upliting, subject to a floor of $75.00 per share.
