(NASDAQ: QFIN; HKEx: 3660) (â€œQifu Technologyâ€ or the â€œCompanyâ€), a leading Credit-Tech platform in China, today provided updates on its share repurchase plans. Â On March 12, 2024, the Companyâ€™s board of directors (the â€œBoardâ€) approved a share repurchase plan (the â€œ2024 Share Repurchase Planâ€), whereby the Company is authorized to repurchase its American depositary shares (â€œADSâ€) or Class A ordinary shares with an aggregate value of up to US$350 million during the 12-month period from April 1, 2024. As of December 30, 2024, the Company had utilized substantially all of the total authorized value for the 2024 Share Repurchase Plan. Specifically, the Company had in aggregate purchased 15,110,617 ADSs in the open market for a total amount of US$349,997,661 (inclusive of commissions) at an average price of US$23.14 per ADS. The Company intends to cancel all of the repurchased shares in accordance with applicable rules and regulations. Â On November 19, 2024, the Board approved a new share repurchase plan (the â€œ2025 Share Repurchase Planâ€), whereby the Company is authorized to repurchase up to US$450 million worth of its ADSs or Class A ordinary shares over the next 12 months starting from January 1, 2025. The share repurchases may be effected from time to time on the open market at prevailing market prices, in privately negotiated transactions, in block trades and/or through other legally permissible means, depending on market conditions and will be implemented in accordance with all applicable rules and regulations, including the requirements of Rule 10b-18 and/or Rule 10b5-1 under the U.S. Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"). The Company has entered into a trading plan in accordance with Rule 10b5-1 under the Exchange Act to facilitate repurchases under the 2025 Share Repurchase Plan during the Companyâ€™s quarterly blackout period that begins on January 2, 2025.
