At each balance sheet date, portfolio company investments denominated in foreign currencies are translated into U.S. dollars using the spot exchange rate on the last business day of the period. Transactions of foreign portfolio company investments, and income related from such investments, are translated into U.S. dollars using relevant rates of exchange on the respective dates of such transactions. (20) Â Convertible notes represent investments that are redeemable by the Company upon occurrence of contingent events. There are no principal or interest payments to be made against the note. Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements (Unaudited) Note 1 â€" OrganizationRunway Growth Finance Corp. (the â€œCompanyâ€), is a Maryland corporation that was formed on August 31, 2015. On August 18, 2021, the Company changed its name to â€œRunway Growth Finance Corp.â€ from â€œRunway Growth Credit Fund Inc.â€ The Company is an externally managed, non-diversified, closed-end investment company that has elected to be regulated as a business development company (â€œBDCâ€) under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (the â€œ1940 Actâ€). The Companyâ€™s investment objective is to maximize its total return to its stockholders primarily through current income on its loan portfolio, and secondarily through capital gain (loss) on its warrants and other equity positions. The Companyâ€™s investment activities are managed by its external investment adviser, Runway Growth Capital LLC (â€œRGCâ€). The Companyâ€™s administrator, Runway Administrator Services LLC (the â€œAdministratorâ€), is a wholly owned subsidiary of RGC and provides administrative services necessary for the Company to operate.On October 25, 2021, the Company closed its initial public offering ("IPO"), issuing 6,850,000 shares of its common stock at a public offering price of $14.60 per share. Net of underwriting fees and offering costs, the Company received net proceeds of $93.0 million. The Company's common stock began trading on the Nasdaq Global Select Market LLC on October 21, 2021, under the symbol â€œRWAYâ€. Note 2 â€" Summary of Significant Accounting PoliciesBasis of PresentationThe accompanying interim unaudited consolidated financial statements of the Company are prepared on the accrual basis of accounting in conformity with U.S. Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (â€œU.S. GAAPâ€) and pursuant to the requirements for reporting on Form 10â€‘Q and Regulation S-X under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the â€œExchange Actâ€). The Company is an investment company following the specialized accounting and reporting guidance specified in the Financial Accounting Standards Boardâ€™s (â€œFASBâ€) Accounting Standards Codification (â€œASCâ€) Topic 946, Financial Services â€" Investment Companies.In the opinion of management, all adjustments, all of which were of a normal recurring nature, considered necessary for the fair presentation of financial statements for the interim period have been included. The results of operations for the current interim period are not necessarily indicative of results that ultimately may be achieved for any other interim period or for the year ending December 31, 2024. The interim unaudited consolidated financial statements and notes hereto should be read in conjunction with the audited consolidated financial statements and notes thereto contained in the Companyâ€™s annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2023, filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") on March 7, 2024.Certain items in the June 30, 2023, and December 31, 2023, consolidated financial statements have been reclassified to conform to the June 30, 2024, presentation with no effect on the "Total net assets" on the Consolidated Statements of Assets and Liabilities, no effect on the "Net increase (decrease) in net assets resulting from operations" on the Consolidated Statements of Operations, and no effect to the "Net increase (decrease) in cash and cash equivalents" on the Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows.Â 19 Table of ContentsPrinciples of ConsolidationUnder ASC 946, the Company is precluded from consolidating portfolio company investments, including those in which it has a controlling interest, unless the portfolio company is another investment company. An exception to this general principle occurs if the Company holds a controlling interest in an operating company that provides all or substantially all of its services directly to the Company or to its portfolio companies. None of the portfolio investments made by the Company qualify for this exception. Therefore, the Companyâ€™s investment portfolio is carried on the Consolidated Statements of Assets and Liabilities at fair value, as discussed further in â€œNote 4 â€" Investments,â€ with any adjustments to fair value recognized as "Net change in unrealized gain (loss) on investmentsâ€ on the Consolidated Statements of Operations.The Companyâ€™s consolidated operations include the activities of its wholly owned subsidiary, P3 Holdco LLC ("P3 Holdco") and P3 Holdcoâ€™s wholly owned subsidiary Pivot3, Inc. The subsidiaries are consolidated and included in the Companyâ€™s consolidated financial statements and the assets of Pivot3, Inc. are recorded at fair value. All intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated. Refer to the Schedule of Investments for the Companyâ€™s equity interest in Pivot3, Inc. as of June 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023.Runway-Cadma I LLCAs announced on March 7, 2024, effective March 6, 2024, the Company entered into a joint venture agreement with Cadma Capital Partners LLC ("Cadma") to create and co-manage Runway-Cadma I LLC (â€œRunway-Cadma LLCâ€ or the â€œJVâ€). The JV may invest in secured loans to growth-stage companies that have been originated by the Company. The Company and Cadma committed to initially provide $35.0 million and $35.0 million, respectively, of equity capital to the JV. The JV is capitalized as investment transactions are completed. All portfolio decisions and generally all other actions in respect of the JV must be approved by the board of managers of the JV consisting of an equal number of representatives of the Company and Cadma. Capital contributions are called from the Company and Cadma on a pro-rata basis based on their total capital commitments. For more information, refer to "Note 3 â€" Related Parties." Â As permitted under Regulation S-X and consistent with the guidance in ASC 946-810-45-3, the Company will generally not consolidate its investment in a company other than an investment company subsidiary or a controlled operating company whose business consists of providing services to the Company. As the Companyâ€™s representatives do not comprise the majority of the board of managers of the JV and the Company does not hold a majority of the economic interests in the JV, the Company does not consolidate the JV in its consolidated financial statements.Use of EstimatesThe preparation of consolidated financial statements in conformity with U.S. GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities as of the date of the consolidated financial statements and the reported amounts of income and expense during the reporting period. Changes in the economic and regulatory environment, financial markets, the credit worthiness of our portfolio companies, and any other parameters used in determining these estimates and assumptions could cause actual results to differ from these estimates and assumptions.Cash and Cash EquivalentsCash consists solely of funds deposited with financial institutions, while cash equivalents consist of short-term liquid investments in money market funds. Cash and cash equivalents are carried at cost, which approximates fair value. As of June 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, the Company did not have any cash invested in money market funds. Interest earned in money market funds are recorded in "Other income" on the Consolidated Statements of Operations.20 Table of ContentsDebt and Deferred Debt CostsThe debt of the Company is carried at amortized cost on the Consolidated Statements of Assets and Liabilities, which is comprised of the principal amount borrowed, net of unamortized debt issuance costs. Debt issuance costs are fees and other direct incremental costs incurred by the Company in relation to debt financing and are amortized over the life of the related debt instrument or the life of the cost respective service, if shorter, using the straight-line method, which closely approximates the effective yield method. Amortization of such debt issuance costs and interest expense on the outstanding principal balance are recorded in "Interest and other debt financing expenses" on the Consolidated Statements of Operations. Debt issuance costs that have not yet been amortized are recorded as "Unamortized deferred debt costs" on the Consolidated Statements of Assets and Liabilities. To the extent there are no outstanding borrowings, the deferred debt costs are presented as an asset on the Consolidated Statements of Assets and Liabilities. Accrued but unpaid interest is included within "Interest payable" on the Consolidated Statements of Assets and Liabilities. For more information, refer to â€œNote 7 â€" Borrowings.â€SegmentsThe Company lends to and invests in customers in various industries. The Company separately evaluates the performance of each of its lending and investment relationships. However, because each of these loan and investment relationships has similar business and economic characteristics, they have been aggregated into a single reportable segment. All applicable segment disclosures are included in or can be derived from the Companyâ€™s consolidated financial statements.Investment Transactions and Related Investment IncomeSecurity transactions, if any, are recorded on a trade-date basis. Realized gains or losses from the repayment or sale of investments are measured using the specific identification method. The amortized cost basis of investments represents the original cost adjusted for the accretion/amortization of discounts and premiums, accretion of contractual end of term payments ("ETP") and upfront loan origination fees. The Company reports changes from the prior period in fair value of investments that are measured at fair value as a component of "Net change in unrealized gain (loss) on investments" on the Consolidated Statements of Operations.Dividend income is recorded on an accrual basis to the extent that such amounts are payable and expected to be collected. Dividend income is recorded on the record date for private portfolio companies and on the ex-dividend date for publicly traded portfolio companies. Interest income, if any, adjusted for amortization of market premium and accretion of market discount, is recorded on an accrual basis to the extent that the Company expects to collect such amounts. Original issue discount (â€œOIDâ€), principally representing any loan origination fees received in connection with the closing of investments, ETP, market discount or premium, and the estimated fair value of detachable equity, warrants or contractual success fees obtained in conjunction with the Companyâ€™s debt investments, are capitalized and accreted or amortized into interest income over the life of the respective security using the effective interest method. Upon prepayment of a debt investment, any unamortized loan origination fees, end-of-term payments, and unamortized market discounts are recorded as interest income and any prepayment penalties are recorded as fee income. Upon amending terms of an existing investment, any amendment fees charged are recorded as fee income. The Company currently holds, and expects to hold in the future, some investments in its portfolio that contain PIK interest provisions. PIK interest is computed at the contractual rate specified in each loan agreement and is added to the principal balance of the loan, rather than being paid to the Company in cash, and is recorded as interest income. Thus, the actual collection of PIK interest may be deferred until the time of debt principal repayment. PIK interest, which is a non-cash source of income, is included in the Companyâ€™s taxable income and therefore affects the amount of income the Company is required to distribute to stockholders to maintain its qualification as a RIC for U.S. federal income tax purposes, even though the Company has not yet collected the cash. For the three and six months ended June 30, 2024, approximately 6.8% and 8.8%, respectively, of the Companyâ€™s total investment income was attributable to non-cash PIK interest. For the three and six months ended June 30, 2023, approximately 15.3% and 12.6%, respectively, of the Companyâ€™s total investment income was attributable to non-cash PIK interest. Â 21 Table of ContentsInvestments Denominated in Foreign CurrencyAt each balance sheet date, portfolio company investments denominated in foreign currencies are translated into U.S. dollars using the spot exchange rate on the last business day of the period. Purchases and sales of foreign portfolio company investments, and any income from such investments, are translated into U.S. dollars using the rates of exchange prevailing on the respective dates of such transactions. As of June 30, 2024, the Company had two investments denominated in a foreign currency. As of December 31, 2023, the Company held one investment denominated in a foreign currency. Although the fair values of foreign portfolio company investments and the fluctuation in such fair values are translated into U.S. dollars using the applicable foreign exchange rates described above, the Company does not distinguish the portion of the change in fair value resulting from foreign currency exchange rate fluctuations from the change in fair value of the underlying investment. All fluctuations in fair value are included in "Net change in unrealized gain (loss) on investments" on the Companyâ€™s Consolidated Statements of Operations.Current Expected Credit LossesThe Company measures current expected credit losses (â€œCECLâ€) for financial instruments held at amortized cost based on ASC No. 326, Financial Instruments â€" Credit Losses (â€œASC 326â€). The Company adopted ASC 326 on January 1, 2020. ASC 326 introduces a new allowance for credit losses methodology and requires earlier recognition of credit losses, while also providing additional transparency about credit risk. The CECL methodology utilizes a lifetime â€œexpected credit lossâ€ methodology for the recognition of credit losses for receivables and loans subject to CECL at the time the financial asset is originated or based on historical experience and current conditions, as well as reasonable and supportable forecasts incorporating forward-looking information. The allowance for credit losses (the â€œCECL Reserveâ€) required under ASC 326 is deducted from the respective financial asset's amortized cost basis on the Companyâ€™s Consolidated Statements of Assets and Liabilities. The expected credit losses are adjusted each period for changes in expected lifetime credit losses through a provision for current expected credit losses recognized on the Consolidated Statements of Operations. As permitted by ASC 326, the Company has elected not to measure an allowance for credit losses on accrued interest receivable, but rather write-off in a timely manner by reversing interest income that would likely be uncollectible. As of June 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, the amortized cost basis of financial assets subject to CECL recorded within "Interest and fees receivable" on the Consolidated Statements of Assets and Liabilities was $0.3 million and $2.3 million, respectively. As of June 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, the Company's interest receivable excluded from the amortized cost basis of financial assets subject to CECL was $5.6 million and $6.0 million, respectively. As of June 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, the Company had recorded a CECL reserve within "Interest and fees receivable" on the Consolidated Statements of Assets and Liabilities of $0.2 million, and $0, respectively.Non-Accrual of InvestmentsDebt investments are placed on non-accrual status when principal, interest, and other obligations become materially past due or when it is probable that principal, interest, or other obligations will not be collected in full. At the point of non-accrual, the Company will cease recognizing interest income on the debt investment until all principal and interest due have been paid or the Company believes the borrower has demonstrated the ability to repay its current and future contractual obligations. Additionally, any OID associated with the debt investment is no longer accreted to interest income as of the date the loan is placed on non-accrual status. Any payments received on non-accrual loans are first applied to principal prior to recovery of any foregone interest or end of term payment fees. Non-accrual loans are restored to accrual status when past due principal or interest are paid, and, in managementâ€™s judgment are likely to remain current. The Company may make exceptions to this policy if the investment has sufficient collateral value and is in the process of collection such that the Company will be made whole on the investment, inclusive of interest and end of term payment fees.As of June 30, 2024, the Company had two senior secured term loans on non-accrual status; one loan to Mingle Healthcare Solutions, Inc. with a cost basis of $5.0 million and a fair value of $3.1 million, and one loan to Snagajob, Inc., with a cost basis of $42.7 million and a fair value of $30.0 million, representing 3.1% of the Companyâ€™s total investment portfolio. From being placed on non-accrual status through June 30, 2024, cumulative interest of $0.4 million would be receivable from Mingle Healthcare Solutions, Inc. and not recorded in "Interest income" on the Consolidated Statements of Operations. From being placed on non-accrual status through June 30, 2024, cumulative interest of $1.8 million would be receivable from Snagajob, Inc. and $0.1 million OID would be accreted into the cost basis, for a total of $1.9 million not recorded in "Interest income" on the Consolidated Statements of Operations. As of December 31, 2023, the Company did not have any loans on non-accrual status. As of June 30, 2024, the Company had reversed interest income of $0.3 million related to the senior secured term loans. As of December 31, 2023, the Company had not reversed any accrued and uncollected interest income related to the senior secured term loans.22 Table of ContentsFair Value MeasurementsThe Company measures the value of its financial instruments at fair value in accordance with ASC Topic 820, Fair Value Measurements and Disclosure (â€œASC Topic 820â€), issued by the FASB. Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. The Company's investment portfolio is reported at fair value on the Consolidated Statements of Assets and Liabilities. All assets and liabilities approximate fair value on the Consolidated Statements of Assets and Liabilities, with the exception of the Companyâ€™s borrowings, which are reported at amortized cost. For more information on financial instruments reported at cost, refer to "Note 5 â€“ Fair Value of Financial Instruments."ASC Topic 820 specifies a hierarchy of valuation techniques based on whether the inputs to those valuation techniques are observable or unobservable. ASC Topic 820 also provides guidance regarding a fair value hierarchy, which prioritizes information used to measure fair value and the effect of fair value measurements on earnings and provides for enhanced disclosures determined by the level within the hierarchy of information used in the valuation. In accordance with ASC Topic 820, these inputs are summarized in the three levels listed below:â€¢Level 1â€”Valuations are based on quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities that are accessible at the measurement date.â€¢Level 2â€”Valuations are based on quoted prices in markets that are not active or for which all significant inputs are observable, either directly or indirectly and model-based valuation techniques for which all significant inputs are observable.â€¢Level 3â€”Valuations based on inputs that are unobservable and significant to the overall fair value measurement. Level 3 assets and liabilities include financial instruments whose value is determined using pricing models incorporating significant unobservable inputs, such as discounted cash flow models and other similar valuations techniques. The valuation of Level 3 assets and liabilities generally requires significant management judgment due to the inability to observe inputs to valuation.In certain cases, the inputs used to measure fair value may fall into different levels of the fair value hierarchy. In such cases, a financial instrumentâ€™s level within the fair value hierarchy is based on the lowest level of observable input that is significant to the fair value measurement. The assessment of the significance of a particular input to the fair value measurement in its entirety requires judgment and considers factors specific to the instrument.Under ASC Topic 820, the fair value measurement also assumes that the transaction to sell an asset or liability occurs in the principal market for the asset or liability or, in the absence of a principal market, the most advantageous market for the asset, which may be a hypothetical market, and excludes transaction costs. The principal market for any asset or liability is the market with the greatest volume and level of activity for such asset or liability in which the reporting entity would or could sell or transfer the asset or liability. In determining the principal market for an asset or liability under ASC Topic 820, it is assumed that the reporting entity has access to such market as of the measurement date. Market participants are defined as buyers and sellers in the principal or most advantageous market that are independent, knowledgeable and willing and able to transact.Rule 2a-5 under the 1940 Act established additional requirements for determining the fair value of a BDC's investments in good faith for purposes of the 1940 Act. Rule 2a-5 permits boards, in compliance with certain conditions, to designate certain parties to perform fair value determinations, subject to board oversight. Rule 2a-5 also defines when market quotations are "readily available" for purposes of the 1940 Act and the threshold for determining whether a fund must determine the fair value of a security. Rule 31a-4 under the 1940 Act established additional recordkeeping requirements related to fair value determinations. Although the Company adopted certain revisions to its valuation policies and procedures to comply with Rule 2a-5 and Rule 31a-4, the Company's board of directors (the "Board of Directors") has not elected to designate a valuation designee.Investment Valuation TechniquesWith respect to investments for which market quotations are not readily available, the Company undertakes a multi-step valuation process each quarter, as described below:â€¢The quarterly valuation process begins with each portfolio company investment being initially valued by RGCâ€™s investment professionals that are responsible for the portfolio investment;â€¢Preliminary valuation conclusions are then documented and discussed with RGCâ€™s senior investment team;â€¢At least once annually, the valuation for each portfolio investment is reviewed by an independent valuation firm. Certain investments, however, may not be evaluated annually by an independent valuation firm if the net asset value and other aspects of such investments in the aggregate do not exceed certain thresholds;23 Table of Contentsâ€¢The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors (the "Audit Committee") then reviews these preliminary valuations from RGC and the independent valuation firm, if any, and makes a recommendation to the Board of Directors regarding such valuations; andâ€¢The Board of Directors reviews the recommended preliminary valuations and determines the fair value of each investment in the Companyâ€™s portfolio, in good faith, based on the input of RGC, the independent valuation firm(s) and the Audit Committee. The Companyâ€™s investments are primarily loans made to and equity and warrants of small, fast-growing companies focused in technology, healthcare, business services, and other high-growth industries. These investments are considered Level 3 assets under ASC Topic 820 because there is no known or accessible market or market indices for these types of debt and equity instruments and, thus, RGCâ€™s senior investment team must estimate the fair value of these investment securities based on models utilizing unobservable inputs.The Audit Committee assists the Board of Directors in valuing investments that are not publicly traded or for which current market values are not readily available. Investments for which market quotations are readily available are valued using market quotations, which are generally obtained from independent pricing services, broker-dealers or market makers. With respect to portfolio investments for which market quotations are not readily available, the Board of Directors, with the assistance of the Audit Committee, RGC and its senior investment team and independent valuation agents, is responsible for determining, in good faith, the fair value in accordance with the valuation policy approved by the Board of Directors. If more than one valuation method is used to measure fair value, the results are evaluated and weighted, as appropriate, considering the reasonableness of the range indicated by those results. The Company considers a range of fair values based upon the valuation techniques utilized and selects the value within that range that was most representative of fair value based on current market conditions as well as other factors RGCâ€™s senior investment team considers relevant.The Board of Directors makes this fair value determination on a quarterly basis and any other time when a decision regarding the fair value of the portfolio investments is required. A determination of fair value involves subjective judgments and estimates and depends on the facts and circumstances. Due to the inherent uncertainty of determining the fair value of portfolio investments that do not have a readily available market value, the fair value of the investments may differ significantly from the values that would have been used had a readily available market value existed for such investments, and the differences could be material.Valuation methodologies involve a significant degree of judgment. There is no single standard for determining the fair value of investments that do not have an active public market. Valuations of privately held investments are inherently uncertain, as they are based on estimates, and their values may fluctuate over time. The determination of fair value may differ materially from the values that would have been used if an active market for these investments existed. In some cases, the fair value of such investments is best expressed as a range of values derived utilizing different methodologies from which a fair value may then be determined.Debt InvestmentsTo determine the fair value of the Companyâ€™s debt investments, the Company compares the cost basis of the debt investment, which includes OID, to the resulting fair value determined using a discounted cash flow model, unless another model is more appropriate based on the circumstances at the measurement date. The discounted cash flow approach entails analyzing the interest rate spreads for recently completed financing transactions that are similar in nature to the Companyâ€™s investments, in order to determine a comparable range of effective market interest rates for its investments. The range of interest rate spreads utilized is based on borrowers with similar credit profiles. All remaining expected cash flows of the investment are discounted using this range of interest rates to determine a range of fair values for the debt investment.This valuation process includes, among other things, evaluating the underlying investment performance, the portfolio companyâ€™s current financial condition and ability to raise additional capital, as well as macro-economic events that may impact valuations. These events include, but are not limited to, current market yields and interest rate spreads of similar securities as of the measurement date. Significant increases (decreases) in these unobservable inputs could result in significantly higher (lower) fair value measurements.Under certain circumstances, the Company may use an alternative technique to value the debt investments to be acquired by the Company that better reflects the fair value of the investment, such as the price paid or realized in a recently completed transaction or a binding offer received in an arms-length transaction, the use of multiple probability-weighted cash flow models when the expected future cash flows contain elements of variability or estimates of proceeds that would be received in a liquidation scenario.24 Table of ContentsWarrantsFair value of warrants is primarily determined using a Black Scholes option-pricing model. Privately held warrants and equity-related securities are valued based on an analysis of various factors including, but not limited to, the following:â€¢Underlying enterprise value of the issuer is estimated based on information available, including any information regarding the most recent rounds of issuer funding. Valuation techniques to determine enterprise value include market multiple approaches, income approaches or approaches that utilize recent rounds of financing and the portfolio companyâ€™s capital structure to determine enterprise value. Valuation techniques are also utilized to allocate the enterprise fair value of a portfolio company to the specific class of common or preferred stock exercisable in the warrant. Such techniques take into account the rights and preferences of the portfolio companyâ€™s securities, expected exit scenarios, and volatility associated with such outcomes to allocate the fair value to the specific class of stock held in the portfolio. Such techniques include Option Pricing Models, or â€œOPM,â€ including back-solve techniques, Probability Weighted Expected Return Models, or â€œPWERM,â€ and other techniques as determined to be appropriate.â€¢Volatility, or the amount of uncertainty or risk about the size of the changes in the warrant price, is based on comparable publicly traded companies within indices similar in nature to the underlying company issuing the warrant. Significant increases (decreases) in this unobservable input could result in a significantly lower (higher) fair value, but a significantly higher or lower fair value measurement of any of the Companyâ€™s portfolio investments may occur regardless of whether there is a significant increase or decrease in this unobservable input.â€¢The risk-free interest rates are derived from the U.S. Treasury yield curve. The risk-free interest rates are calculated based on a weighted average of the risk-free interest rates that correspond closest to the expected remaining life of the warrant. Significant increases (decreases) in this unobservable input could result in a significantly higher (lower) fair value, but a significantly higher or lower fair value measurement of any of the Companyâ€™s portfolio investments may occur regardless of whether there is a significant increase (decrease) in this unobservable input.â€¢Other adjustments, including a marketability discount on private company warrants, are estimated based on judgment about the general industry environment. Significant increases (decreases) in this unobservable input could result in a significantly lower (higher) fair value, but a significantly higher or lower fair value measurement of any of the Companyâ€™s portfolio investments may occur regardless of whether there is a significant increase (decrease) in this unobservable input.â€¢Historical portfolio experience on cancellations and exercises of warrants are utilized as the basis for determining the estimated life of the warrants in each financial reporting period. Warrants may be exercised in the event of acquisitions, mergers or initial public offerings, and cancelled due to events such as bankruptcies, restructuring activities or additional financings. These events cause the expected remaining life assumption to be shorter than the contractual term of the warrants. Significant increases (decreases) in this unobservable input could result in a significantly higher (lower) fair value, but a significantly higher or lower fair value measurement of any of the Companyâ€™s portfolio investments may occur regardless of whether there is a significant increase (decrease) in this unobservable input.Success fees are valued utilizing a scenario analysis. Fair value is determined based the potential success fee proceeds under varied timing of liquidity events during the life of the success fee agreement. At each potential exit scenario, a probability is ascribed based on the current expectations of an exit event for the portfolio company. The probability weighted value at each respective exit date is discounted to a present value and summed together to arrive at the fair value.Under certain circumstances, the Company may use an alternative technique to value warrants that better reflects the warrantsâ€™ fair values, such as an expected settlement of a warrant in the near term, a model that incorporates a put feature associated with the warrant, or the price paid or realized in a recently completed transaction or binding offer received in an arms-length transaction. The fair value may be determined based on the expected proceeds to be received from such settlement or based on the net present value of the expected proceeds from the put option.Equity InvestmentsThe fair value of an equity investment in a privately held company is initially the face value of the amount invested. The Company adjusts the fair value of equity investments in private companies upon the completion of a new third-party round of equity financing subsequent to the Companyâ€™s investment. The Company may make adjustments to fair value, absent a new equity financing event, based upon positive or negative changes in a portfolio companyâ€™s financial or operational performance. The Company may also reference comparable transactions and/or secondary market transactions in connection with its determination of fair value. The fair value of an equity investment in a publicly traded company is based upon the closing public share price on the date of measurement. These assets are recorded at fair value on a recurring basis. Money market funds are valued based on the published net asset value per share on the day of valuation and are included in "Cash and cash equivalents" on the Consolidated Statements of Assets and Liabilities.25 Table of ContentsInvestment ClassificationThe Company classifies its investments by level of affiliation and control. As defined in the 1940 Act, investee companies are deemed as affiliated investments when a company or individual possesses, or has the right to acquire within 60 days or less, beneficial ownership of 5.0% or more of the outstanding voting securities of an investee company. Control investments are those where the investor has the ability or power to exercise a controlling influence over the management or policies of an investee company. Control is generally deemed to exist when a company or individual possesses, or has the right to acquire within 60 days or less, beneficial ownership of more than 25.0% of the outstanding voting securities of an investee company, or maintains greater than 50% representation on the investee company's board of directors. Investments are recognized when the Company assumes an obligation to acquire a financial instrument and assumes the risks for gains or losses related to that instrument. Investments are derecognized when the Company assumes an obligation to sell a financial instrument and foregoes the risks for gains or losses related to that instrument. Specifically, the Company records all security transactions on a trade date basis. Investments in other, non-security financial instruments, such as limited partnerships or private companies, are recorded on the basis of subscription date or redemption date, as applicable. Amounts for investments recognized or derecognized but not yet settled will be reported as receivables for investments sold and payables for investments acquired, respectively, on the Consolidated Statements of Assets and Liabilities.Income TaxesThe Company elected to be treated as a RIC under Subchapter M of the Code beginning with its taxable year ended December 31, 2016, currently qualifies as a RIC, and intends to qualify annually for the tax treatment applicable to RICs. A RIC generally is not subject to U.S. federal income taxes on distributed income and gains so long as it meets certain source-of-income and asset diversification requirements and it distributes at least 90% of its net ordinary income and net short-term capital gains in excess of its net long-term capital losses, if any, to its stockholders. So long as the Company maintains its status as a RIC, it generally will not be subject to U.S. federal income tax on any ordinary income or capital gains that it distributes at least annually to its stockholders as dividends. Rather, any tax liability related to income earned by the Company represents obligations of the Companyâ€™s investors and will not be reflected in the consolidated financial statements of the Company. The Company intends to make sufficient distributions to maintain its RIC status each year and it does not anticipate paying any material U.S. federal income taxes in the future.Depending on the level of taxable income earned in a tax year, the Company may choose to carry forward such taxable income in excess of current year dividend distributions from such current year taxable income into the next tax year and pay a 4% excise tax on such income, as required. If the Company determines that the estimated current year taxable income will exceed the estimated dividend distributions for the current year from such income, the Company accrues excise tax on estimated excess taxable income as such taxable income is earned. Differences between taxable income and net increase in net assets resulting from operations either can be temporary, meaning they will reverse in the future, or permanent. In accordance with Section 946-205-45-3 of the ASC, permanent tax differences are reclassified from accumulated undistributed earnings to paid-in-capital at the end of each year and have no impact on total net assets. For more information, refer to "Note 10 â€“ Income Taxes." Per Share InformationBasic and diluted earnings (loss) per common share is calculated using the weighted-average number of common shares outstanding for the period presented. For the three and six months ended June 30, 2024 and 2023, basic and diluted earnings (loss) per share of common stock were the same because there were no potentially dilutive securities outstanding. Per share data is based on the weighted-average shares outstanding.Comprehensive Income The Company reports all changes in comprehensive income in the Consolidated Statements of Operations. The Company did not have any other comprehensive income in 2024 or 2023. The Companyâ€™s comprehensive income is equal to its "Net increase (decrease) in net assets resulting from operations" on the Consolidated Statements of Operations. Â 26 Table of ContentsDistributionsDistributions to common stockholders are recorded on the applicable record date. The amount, if any, to be distributed to common stockholders is determined by the Board of Directors each quarter and is generally based upon the Company's earnings estimated by management. Net realized capital gains, if any, are generally distributed at least annually. For more information, refer to "Note 9 â€“ Net Assets." Organization and Offering CostsOrganization costs include, among other things, the cost of organizing as a Maryland corporation, including the cost of legal services and other fees pertaining to the Company's organization, all of which are expensed as incurred. Offering costs include, among other things, legal fees and other costs pertaining to the preparation of the Companyâ€™s public and private offering materials as well as travel-related expenses related to the Companyâ€™s public and private offerings. In 2016, the Company incurred the maximum amount of $1.0 million in organization and offering costs incurred in connection with the Initial Private Offering. Offering costs related to the Second Private Offering (as defined in "Note 9 â€“ Net Assets") were accumulated and charged to additional paid in capital at the time of each closing beginning in 2019. These offering costs related to the Second Private Offering were subject to a cap of $0.6 million, excluding placement agent fees which had no cap and therefore the Company will bear such cost. At the completion of the Second Private Offering, the Company had accumulated and recorded $0.7 million in offering costs and $0.2 million in placement agent fees related to the Second Private Offering. Under the terms of the Second Private Offering, offering costs in excess of $0.6 million, excluding placement agent fees, were reimbursed by RGC.The Company had accumulated and recorded $7.0 million of offering costs related to the IPO, which were charged to additional paid in capital at the time of closing in October 2021. The offering costs were fully born by the Company and included underwriting fees, legal fees, and other costs pertaining to the preparation of the Companyâ€™s offering materials as well as travel-related expenses.Recently Adopted Accounting PronouncementsIn June 2022, the FASB issued ASU 2022-03, "Fair Value Measurement (Topic 820) - Fair Value Measurement of Equity Securities Subject to Contractual Sale Restrictions", which was issued to (1) clarify the guidance in Topic 820, Fair Value Measurement, when measuring the fair value of an equity security subject to contractual restrictions that prohibit the sale of an equity security, (2) to amend a related illustrative example, and (3) to introduce new disclosure requirements for equity securities subject to contractual sale restrictions that are measured at fair value in accordance with Topic 820. The new guidance is effective for interim and annual periods beginning after December 15, 2023. The Company adopted the guidance on January 1, 2024, and its adoption did not have a material impact on the Companyâ€™s financial statements. Recently Issued Accounting PronouncementsIn November 2023, the FASB issued ASU 2023-07, Segment Reporting (Topic 280): Improvements to Reportable Segment Disclosures ("ASU 2023-07"). This change is intended to improve reportable segment disclosure requirements, primarily through enhanced disclosures about significant segment expenses, allowing financial statement users to better understand the components of a segment's profit or loss and assess potential future cash flows for each reportable segment and the entity as a whole. The amendments expand a public entity's segment disclosures by requiring disclosure of significant segment expenses that are regularly provided to the chief operating decision maker, clarifying when an entity may report one or more additional measures to assess segment performance, requiring enhanced interim disclosures and providing new disclosure requirements for entities with a single reportable segment, among other new disclosure requirements. The amendments are effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2023, and interim periods within fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2024, and early adoption is permitted. Although the ASU only requires additional disclosure about the Company's operating segment, the Company is currently evaluating the impact of adopting this guidance with respect to the consolidated financial statements.Â In December 2023, the FASB issued ASU 2023-09 "Income Taxes (Topics 740): Improvements to Income Tax Disclosures" to expand the disclosure requirements for income taxes, specifically related to the rate reconciliation and income taxes paid. ASU 2023-09 is effective for our annual periods beginning January 1, 2025, with early adoption permitted. We are currently evaluating the potential effect that the updated standard will have on our financial statement disclosures. Â 27 Table of Contents Note 3 â€“ Related Party Agreements and TransactionsAdvisory AgreementOn November 29, 2016, the Board of Directors approved an investment advisory agreement between RGC and the Company, under which RGC, subject to the overall supervision of the Board of Directors, manages the day-to-day operations of and provides investment advisory services to the Company (together with a subsequent amendment thereto, the â€œPrior Advisory Agreementâ€). On August 3, 2017, the Board of Directors approved certain amendments to the Prior Advisory Agreement (the â€œFirst Amended and Restated Advisory Agreementâ€) and recommended that the Companyâ€™s stockholders approve the First Amended and Restated Advisory Agreement. The First Amended and Restated Advisory Agreement became effective on September 12, 2017 upon approval by the stockholders at a special meeting of stockholders of the Company. On April 7, 2021, the Board of Directors approved certain additional amendments to the First Amended and Restated Advisory Agreement (the â€œAdvisory Agreementâ€) at a virtual meeting and recommended that the Companyâ€™s stockholders approve the Advisory Agreement. In reliance upon certain exemptive relief granted by the SEC in connection with the global COVID-19 pandemic, the Board of Directors undertook to ratify the Advisory Agreement at its next in-person meeting which was held in July 2021. The Advisory Agreement became effective on May 27, 2021 upon approval by the stockholders at a special meeting of stockholders of the Company. The Advisory Agreement amended the First Amended and Restated Advisory Agreement to include certain revisions to the management and incentive fee calculation mechanisms and clarify language relating to liquidity events. On April 30, 2024, the Board of Directors renewed the Advisory Agreement for a period of twelve months commencing May 27, 2024. Under the terms of the Advisory Agreement, RGC:â€¢determines the composition of the Companyâ€™s portfolio, the nature and timing of the changes to the portfolio and the manner of implementing such changes;â€¢identifies, evaluates and negotiates the structure of the investments the Company makes;â€¢executes, closes and monitors the investments the Company makes;â€¢determines the securities and other assets that the Company will purchase, retain or sell;â€¢performs due diligence on prospective investments; andâ€¢provides the Company with other such investment advisory, research and related services as the Company may, from time to time, reasonably require for the investment of its funds.Pursuant to the Advisory Agreement, the Company pays RGC a fee for its investment advisory and management services consisting of two components â€“ a base management fee and an incentive fee. The cost of both the base management fee and incentive fee are ultimately borne by the Companyâ€™s stockholders.Base Management FeeThe base management fee is payable on the first day of each calendar quarter and is calculated on the Company's "Gross Assets" which, for purposes of the Advisory Agreement, is defined as the Companyâ€™s gross assets, including assets purchased with borrowed funds or other forms of leverage, as well as any PIK interest, as of the end of the most recently completed fiscal quarter. The base management fee will be an amount equal to 0.375% (1.50% annualized) of the Companyâ€™s average daily Gross Assets during the most recently completed calendar quarter, so long as the aggregate amount of the Companyâ€™s Gross Assets as of the end of the most recently completed calendar quarter is equal to or greater than $1.0 billion. If the aggregate amount of the Companyâ€™s Gross Assets as of the end of the most recently completed calendar quarter is less than $1.0 billion but equal to or greater than $500.0 million, the base management fee will be an amount equal to 0.40% (1.60% annualized) of the Companyâ€™s average daily Gross Assets during the most recently completed calendar quarter. If the aggregate amount of the Companyâ€™s Gross Assets as of the end of the most recently completed calendar quarter is less than $500.0 million, the base management fee will be an amount equal to 0.4375% (1.75% annualized) of the Companyâ€™s average daily Gross Assets during the most recently completed calendar quarter.For the three and six months ended June 30, 2024, RGC earned base management fees at a rate of 1.50% per annum, amounting to $3.9 million and $7.9 million, respectively. For the three and six months ended June 30, 2023, RGC earned base management fees at a rate of 1.50% per annum, amounting to $4.3 million and $8.3 million, respectively.28 Table of ContentsIncentive FeeThe incentive fee, which provides RGC with a share of the income that RGC generates for the Company, consists of an investment-income component and a capital-gains component, which are largely independent of each other, with the result that one component may be payable even if the other is not.Under the investment-income component (the â€œIncome Incentive Feeâ€), the Company pays RGC each quarter an incentive fee with respect to the Companyâ€™s pre-incentive fee net investment income ("Pre-Incentive Fee NII"). The Income Incentive Fee is calculated and payable quarterly in arrears based on the Pre-Incentive Fee NII for the immediately preceding fiscal quarter. Payments based on Pre-Incentive Fee NII will be based on the Pre-Incentive Fee NII earned for the quarter. For this purpose, â€œPre-Incentive Fee NIIâ€ means interest income, dividend income and any other income (including any other fees, such as commitment, origination, structuring, diligence, managerial and consulting fees or other fees that the Company receives from portfolio companies) that the Company accrues during the fiscal quarter, minus the Companyâ€™s operating expenses for the quarter (including the base management fee, expenses payable under the amended and restated administration were deferred incentive fees payable, both of which are included in "Incentive fees payable" on the Consolidated Statements of Assets and Liabilities agreement with the Administrator (the â€œAdministration Agreementâ€), and any dividends paid on any issued and outstanding preferred stock, but excluding the incentive fee). Pre-Incentive Fee NII includes, in the case of investments with a deferred interest feature (such as OID accretion, debt instruments with pay in kind interest and zero coupon securities), accrued income the Company has not yet received in cash; provided, however, that the portion of the Income Incentive Fee attributable to deferred interest features will be paid, only if and to the extent received in cash, and any accrual thereof will be reversed if and to the extent such interest is reversed in connection with any write off or similar treatment of the investment giving rise to any deferred interest accrual, applied in each case in the order such interest was accrued. Such subsequent payments in respect of previously accrued income will not reduce the amounts payable for any quarter pursuant to the calculation of the Income Incentive Fee described above. Pre-Incentive Fee NII does not include any realized or unrealized capital gains (losses).Pre-Incentive Fee NII, expressed as a rate of return on the value of the Companyâ€™s net assets (defined as total assets less liabilities) at the end of the immediately preceding fiscal quarter, will be compared to a â€œhurdle rateâ€ of 2.0% per quarter (8.0% annualized). The Company pays RGC an Income Incentive Fee with respect to the Companyâ€™s Pre-Incentive Fee NII in each calendar quarter as follows: (1) no Income Incentive Fee in any calendar quarter in which the Companyâ€™s Pre-Incentive Fee NII does not exceed the hurdle rate of 2.0%; (2) 80% of the Companyâ€™s Pre-Incentive Fee NII with respect to that portion of such Pre-Incentive Fee NII, if any, that exceeds the hurdle rate but is less than 2.667% in any calendar quarter (10.668% annualized) (the portion of the Companyâ€™s Pre-Incentive Fee NII that exceeds the hurdle but is less than 2.667% is referred to as the â€œcatch-upâ€; the â€œcatch-upâ€ is meant to provide RGC with 20.0% of the Companyâ€™s Pre-Incentive Fee NII as if a hurdle did not apply if the Companyâ€™s Pre-Incentive Fee NII exceeds 2.667% in any calendar quarter (10.668% annualized)); and (3) 20.0% of the amount of the Companyâ€™s Pre-Incentive Fee NII, if any, that exceeds 2.667% in any calendar quarter (10.668% annualized) payable to RGC (once the hurdle is reached and the catch-up is achieved, 20.0% of all Pre-Incentive Fee NII thereafter is allocated to RGC).Until the consummation of a Spin-Off transaction (defined below), in the event that (a) the sum of the Companyâ€™s cumulative net realized losses since the date of the Companyâ€™s election to be regulated as a BDC exceeded 2.0% of the total non-control/non-affiliate investments made by the Company since the date of the Companyâ€™s election to be regulated as a BDC through the end of the quarter and (b) the Pre-Incentive Fee NII adjusted to include any realized capital gains and losses (â€œAdjusted Pre-Incentive Fee NIIâ€), expressed as an annualized rate of return on the value of the Companyâ€™s average daily net assets (defined as total assets less liabilities), since the Companyâ€™s election to be regulated as a BDC through the end of the quarter was less than 10.0%, no Income Incentive Fee would be payable for such quarter until the first subsequent quarter in which either (x) the sum of the Companyâ€™s cumulative net realized losses since the date of the Companyâ€™s election to be regulated as a BDC was equal to or less than 2.0% of the total non-control/non-affiliate investments made by the Company since the date of the Companyâ€™s election to be regulated as a BDC through the end of such subsequent quarter or (y) the Adjusted Pre-Incentive Fee NII, expressed as an annualized rate of return on the value of the Companyâ€™s average daily net assets (defined as total assets less liabilities), since the Companyâ€™s election to be regulated as a BDC through the of the end of the quarter equals or exceeds 10.0%; provided, however, that in no event would any Income Incentive Fee be payable for any prior quarter after the three-year anniversary of the end of such quarter. For purposes of the Advisory Agreement, a â€œSpin-Off transactionâ€ includes either a transaction whereby (a) the Company offers its stockholders the option to elect to either (i) retain their ownership of shares of the Companyâ€™s common stock, or (ii) exchange their shares of the Companyâ€™s common stock for shares of common stock in a newly formed entity (the â€œPublic Fundâ€) that will elect to be regulated as a BDC under the 1940 Act and treated as a RIC under Subchapter M of the Code (the â€œPublic Fund Spin Offâ€); or (b) the Company completes a listing of the Companyâ€™s securities on any securities exchange (an â€œExchange Listingâ€). Under the capital gains component of the incentive fee (the â€œCapital Gains Feeâ€), the Company will pay RGC, as of the end of each calendar year, 20.0% of the Companyâ€™s aggregate cumulative realized capital gains, if any, from the date of the Companyâ€™s election to be regulated as a BDC through the end of that calendar year, computed net of the Companyâ€™s aggregate cumulative realized capital 29 Table of Contentslosses and aggregate cumulative unrealized capital losses through the end of such year, less the aggregate amount of any previously paid Capital Gains Fee. For the foregoing purpose, the Companyâ€™s â€œaggregate cumulative realized capital gainsâ€ will not include any unrealized gains. If such amount is negative, then no Capital Gains Fee will be payable for such year.For the three and six months ended June 30, 2024, RGC earned incentive fees of $3.6 million and $8.3 million, respectively; $2.9 million and $6.5 million of which were payable in cash, respectively, and $0.7 million and $1.8 million were accrued and generated from deferred interest, respectively. For the three and six months ended June 30, 2023, RGC earned incentive fees of $4.9 million and $9.5 million, respectively; of which $3.4 million and $6.9 million were payable in cash, respectively, and $1.5 million and $2.6 million were accrued and generated from deferred interest, respectively. All incentive fees accrued and generated from deferred interest (i.e., PIK and certain discount accretion) are not payable until receipt of respective cash by the Company. As of June 30, 2024, $2.9 million were payable in cash, and $11.0 million were deferred incentive fees payable, both of which are included in "Incentive fees payable" on the Statements of Assets and Liabilities. As of December 31, 2023, $3.3 million of incentive fees payable were payable in cash, and $9.2 million were deferred incentive fees payable, both of which are included in "Incentive fees payable" on the Consolidated Statements of Assets and Liabilities. The capital gains incentive fee consists of fees related to realized gains and losses and unrealized capital losses. With respect to the incentive fee expense accrual related to the capital gains incentive fee, U.S. GAAP requires that the capital gains incentive fee accrual consider the cumulative aggregate unrealized gains in the calculation, as a capital gains incentive fee would be payable if such unrealized gains were realized even though such unrealized gains are not permitted to be considered in calculating the fee actually payable under the Advisory Agreement. As of each of June 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, there was no capital gains incentive fee accrued, earned or payable to RGC under the Advisory Agreement.Spin-Off Incentive FeeThe Income Incentive Fee will be payable in connection with a Public Fund Spin-Off as follows. The Income Incentive Fee will be calculated as of the date of the completion of each Public Fund Spin-Off and will equal the amount of Income Incentive Fee that would be payable to RGC if (1) all of the Companyâ€™s investments were liquidated for their current value and any unamortized deferred portfolio investment-related fees would be deemed accelerated, (2) the proceeds from such liquidation were used to pay all of the Companyâ€™s outstanding liabilities, and (3) the remainder were distributed to the Companyâ€™s stockholders and paid as incentive fee in accordance with the Income Incentive Fee described in clauses (1) and (2) above for determining the amount of the Income Incentive Fee; provided, however, that in no event will the Income Incentive Fee paid in connection with the completion of the Public Fund Spin-Off (x) include the portion of the Income Incentive Fee attributable to deferred interest features of a particular investment that is not transferred pursuant to the Public Fund Spin-Off until such time as the deferred interest is received in cash, or (y) exceed 20.0% of the Companyâ€™s Pre-Incentive Fee NII accrued by the Company for the fiscal quarter as of the date of the completion of the Public-Fund Spin-Off. The Company will make the payment of the Income Incentive Fee paid in connection with the completion of the Public Fund Spin-Off in cash on or immediately following the date of the completion of the Public-Fund Spin-Off. After the Public Fund Spin-Off, all calculations relating to the incentive fee payable will be made beginning on the day immediately following the completion of the Public Fund Spin-Off without taking into account the exchanged shares of the Companyâ€™s common stock (or contributions, distributions or proceeds relating thereto).The Capital Gains Fee will be payable in respect of the exchanged shares of the Companyâ€™s common stock in connection with the Public Fund Spin-Off and will be calculated as of the date of the completion of the Public Fund Spin-Off as if such date were a calendar year-end for purposes of calculating and paying the Capital Gains Fee.No Income Incentive Fee or Capital Gains Fee will be payable in connection with the Public Fund Spin-Off unless, on the date of the completion of the Public Fund Spin-Off, the sum of the Companyâ€™s (i) Pre-Incentive Fee NII and (ii) realized capital gains less realized capital losses and unrealized capital losses from the date of the Companyâ€™s election to be regulated as a BDC through, and including, the date of the completion of the Public Fund Spin-Off, is greater than 8.0% of the cumulative net investments made by the Company since the Companyâ€™s election to be regulated as a BDC.Â 30 Table of ContentsAdministration AgreementThe Company reimburses the Administrator for the allocable portion of overhead expenses incurred by the Administrator in performing its obligations under the Administration Agreement, including furnishing the Company with office facilities, equipment and clerical, bookkeeping and recordkeeping services at such facilities, as well as providing other administrative services. Investments in derivative contracts are subject to additional risks that can result in a loss of all or part of an investment. The derivative activities and exposure to derivative contracts primarily involve equity price risks. In addition to the primary underlying risk, additional counterparty risk exists due to the potential inability of counterparties to meet the terms of their contracts.Warrants provide exposure and potential gains upon increases in the portfolio companyâ€™s equity value. A warrant has a limited life and expires on a certain date. As a warrantâ€™s expiration date approaches, the time value of the warrant will decline. In addition, if the stock underlying the warrant declines in price, the intrinsic value of an â€œin the moneyâ€ warrant will decline. Further, if the price of the stock underlying the warrant does not exceed the strike price of the warrant on the expiration date, the warrant will expire worthless. As a result, there is the potential for the entire value of an investment in a warrant to be lost. The Companyâ€™s volume of warrant investment activity is closely correlated to its primary senior secured loans to portfolio companies. For the three and six months ended June 30, 2024, the Company had no realized gains or losses on investments and a net unrealized loss of $0.5 million and $0.8 million, respectively, from its investments in warrants. For the three months ended June 30, 2023, the Company had no realized gains or losses from its investments in warrants. For the six months ended June 30, 2023, the Company had a realized loss of $1.2 million from its investments in warrants. For the three and six months ended June 30, 2023, the Company had a net unrealized loss of $0.9 million and a net unrealized gain of $2.6 million, respectively, from its investments in warrants. Realized gains and losses from warrants are included in the respective control, affiliate, or non-control/non-affiliate "Net realized gain (loss) on investments" on the Consolidated Statements of Operations. Unrealized gains and losses from investments in warrants is included in the respective control, affiliate, or non-control/non-affiliate "Net change in unrealized gain (loss) on investments" on the Consolidated Statements of Operations.Counterparty risk exists from the potential failure of an issuer of warrants to settle its exercised warrants. The maximum risk of loss from counterparty risk is the fair value of the contracts and the purchase price of the warrants. The Board of Directors considers the effects of counterparty risk when determining the fair value of its investments in warrants. in the fair value measurement of the Companyâ€™s debt securities are origination yields and discount rates. The origination yield is defined as the initial market price of an investment in a hypothetical market to hypothetical market participants where buyers and sellers are willing participants. The discount rate is related to company-specific characteristics such as underlying investment performance, projected cash flows, and other characteristics of the investment. Significant increases or decreases in the inputs in isolation may result in a significantly higher or lower fair value measurement, depending on the materiality of the investment. However, a significantly higher or lower fair value measurement of any of the Companyâ€™s portfolio investments may occur regardless of whether there is a significant increase or decrease in the unobservable inputs.(2)The significant unobservable inputs used in the fair value measurement of the Companyâ€™s warrant and equity-related securities are inputs used in the OPM, which include industry volatility, risk free interest rate and estimated time to exit. The Equity Allocation model and the Black Scholes model were the main OPMs used during the period ended June 30, 2024. Probability Weighted Expected Return Models (â€œPWERMâ€) and other techniques were used as determined appropriate. Significant increases (decreases) in the inputs in isolation would result in a significantly higher (lower) fair value measurement, depending on the materiality of the investment. However, a significantly higher or lower fair value measurement of any of the Companyâ€™s portfolio investments may occur regardless of whether there is a significant increase (decrease) in the unobservable inputs. For some investments, additional consideration may be given to data from the last round of financing or merger/acquisition events near the measurement date.(3)Warrant investments using a PWERM valuation technique contain success fees, in which case the inputs are not applicable because the nature of a success fee is a fixed payout dependent on certain liquidation events. 39 Table of ContentsThe following table provides quantitative information regarding Level 3 fair value measurements as of December 31, 2023 (in thousands): Description Â Fair Value Â Â Valuation Technique Â Unobservable Inputs Â Range (Weighted Average) Senior Secured Term Loans(1) Â $ Â 904,739 Â Â Discounted Cash Flow analysis Â Discount rate Â 10.8% - 22.2% (15.0%) Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Origination yield Â 10.8% - 19.9% (13.6%) Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Revenue multiples Â 0.29x - 7.49x (3.66x) Â Â Â Â 59,360 Â Â PWERM Â Discount rate Â 20.3% - 46.5% (28.8%) Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Origination yield Â 10.8% - 29.7% (17.3%) Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Revenue multiples Â 0.95x - 3.16x (1.89x) Second Lien Term Loans(1) Â Â Â 14,399 Â Â Discounted Cash Flow analysis Â Discount rate Â 16.1% - 16.1% (16.1%) Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Origination yield Â 13.1% - 13.1% (13.1%) Convertible Notes Â Â Â 1,357 Â Â PWERM Â Discount rate Â 45.0% - 45.0% (45.0%) Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Origination yield Â 10.8% - 10.8% (10.8%) Preferred Stock Â Â Â 120 Â Â Recent private market and merger and acquisition transaction prices Â N/A Â N/A Â Â Â Â 26,038 Â Â PWERM Â Risk-free interest rate Â 4.7% - 4.7% (4.7%) Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Average industry volatility Â 40.0% - 40.0% (40.0%) Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Estimated time to exit Â 2.0 - 2.0 (2.0 years) Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Revenue multiples Â 4.46x - 4.46x (4.46x) Â Â Â Â 127 Â Â Waterfall Approach Â Estimated time to exit Â 3.0 - 3.0 (3.0 years) Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Revenue multiples Â 4.00x - 4.00x (4.00x) Common Stock Â Â Â 16 Â Â Recent private market and merger and acquisition transaction prices Â N/A Â N/A Â Â Â Â 856 Â Â Option Pricing Model Â Risk-free interest rate Â 4.3% - 4.3% (4.3%) Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Average industry volatility Â 35.0% - 35.0% (35.0%) Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Estimated time to exit Â 5.0 - 5.0 (5.0 years) Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Revenue multiples Â 3.28x - 3.28x (3.28x) Equity Interest Â Â Â 950 Â Â PWERM Â Discount rate Â 20.0% - 20.0% (20.0%) Warrants(2) Â Â Â 7,075 Â Â Option Pricing Model Â Risk-free interest rate Â 3.8% - 5.3% (4.5%) Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Average industry volatility Â 25.0% - 108.8% (45.4%) Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Estimated time to exit Â 0.8 - 8.2 (3.1 years) Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Revenue multiples Â 0.95x - 7.49x (3.95x) Â Â Â Â 3,912 Â Â PWERM (3) Â N/A Â N/A Â Â Â Â 1,851 Â Â Waterfall Approach Â Estimated time to exit Â 3.0 - 3.0 (3.0Â years) Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Revenue multiples Â 2.58x - 4.00x (3.39x) Total Level 3 Investments Â $ Â 1,020,800 Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â (1)The significant unobservable inputs used in the fair value measurement of the Companyâ€™s debt securities are origination yields and discount rates. The fair value of the Company's Credit Facility, April 2026 Notes, December 2026 Notes and August 2027 Notes are estimated using Level 3 inputs by discounting remaining payments using comparable market rates or market quotes for similar instruments at the measurement date. The fair value of the Company's July 2027 Notes and December 2027 Notes is based on vendor pricing received by the Company, which is considered a Level 2 input, and reflects the market close price of the notes traded on the Nasdaq Global Select Market LLC under the symbol "RWAYL" and "RWAYZ", respectively. As of both June 30, 2024, and December 31, 2023, the carrying values of the Credit Facility, April 2026 Notes, July 2027 Notes, August 2027 Notes, and December 2027 Notes approximate fair value. Note 6 â€“ Concentration of Credit RiskIn the normal course of business, the Company maintains its cash balances at large, high credit-quality financial institutions, which at times may exceed federally insured limits. The Company is subject to credit risk to the extent that any financial institution with which it conducts business is unable to fulfill contractual obligations on its behalf. The Company monitors the financial condition of those financial institutions and believes that risk of loss associated with any uninsured balance is remote. Â In the event that a portfolio company completely fails to perform according to the terms of their loan agreement, the amount of loss due to credit risk from the Company's investments would equal the sum of the Companyâ€™s recorded investments in the portfolio company and the portion of unfunded commitments currently eligible to be drawn. Refer to "Note 8 â€“ Commitments and Contingencies" for a summary of the aggregate balance of unfunded commitments as of June 30, 2024. The Company predominantly collateralizes its investments by obtaining a first priority security interest in a portfolio companyâ€™s assets, which may include its intellectual property. Â As of June 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, the Companyâ€™s five largest debt investments in portfolio companies represented approximately 36.4% and 38.0%, respectively, of the total fair value of the Companyâ€™s debt investments in portfolio companies. As of June 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, the Company had debt investments in 17 and 14 portfolio companies, respectively, that represented 5% or more of the Companyâ€™s net assets. The Company currently qualifies and intends to qualify annually for the tax treatment applicable to RICs. A RIC generally is not subject to U.S. federal income taxes on distributed income and gains so long as it meets certain source-of-income and asset diversification requirements and it distributes at least 90% of its net ordinary income and net short-term capital gains in excess of its net long-term capital losses, if any, to its stockholders. So long as the Company maintains its status as a RIC, it generally will not be subject to U.S. federal income tax on any ordinary income or capital gains that it distributes at least annually to its stockholders as dividends. Rather, any tax liability related to income earned by the Company represents obligations of the Companyâ€™s investors and will not be reflected in the consolidated financial statements of the Company. The Company intends to make sufficient distributions to maintain its RIC status each year and it does not anticipate paying any material United States federal income taxes in the future.Federal income tax regulations differ from U.S. GAAP, therefore distributions in accordance with tax regulations may differ from net investment income and realized gains recognized for financial reporting purposes. Differences may be permanent or temporary in nature. Permanent differences are reclassified among capital accounts in the consolidated financial statements to reflect their appropriate tax character. Temporary differences arise when certain items of income, expense, gain or loss are recognized at some time in the future.The following table sets forth the tax cost basis and the estimated aggregate gross unrealized gain (loss) on investments for federal income tax purposes as of and for the period ended June 30, 2024 and the year ended December 31, 2023 (in thousands): Â Â June 30, 2024 Â Â December 31, 2023 Â Tax cost on investments Â $ Â 1,115,957 Â Â $ Â 1,105,481 Â Change in unrealized gain on a tax basis Â $ Â 11,929 Â Â $ Â 11,239 Â Change in unrealized loss on a tax basis Â Â Â (64,562) Â Â Â (49,711) Net unrealized gain (loss) on a tax basis Â $ Â (52,633) Â $ Â (38,472) The Company accounts for income taxes in conformity with ASC Topic 740 â€“ Income Taxes ("ASC 740"). ASC 740 provides guidelines for how uncertain tax positions should be recognized, measured, presented and disclosed in consolidated financial statements. ASC 740 requires the evaluation of tax positions taken or expected to be taken in the course of preparing the Company's tax returns to determine whether the tax positions are "more-likely-than-not" of being sustained by the applicable tax authority. Tax positions deemed to meet a "more-likely-than-not" threshold would be recorded as a tax benefit or expense in the current period. The Company recognizes interest and penalties, if any, related to unrecognized tax benefits as income tax expense on the Consolidated Statements of Operations. There were no material uncertain income tax positions at June 30, 2024 or December 31, 2023. Although the Company files federal and state tax returns, the Company's major tax jurisdiction is federal. The previous three tax year-ends and the interim tax period since then remain subject to examination by the Internal Revenue Service.If the Company does not distribute (or is not deemed to have distributed) each calendar year the sum of (1) 98% of its net ordinary income for each calendar year, (2) 98.2% of its capital gain net income for the one-year period ending October 31 in that calendar year and (3) any income recognized, but not distributed, in preceding years (the â€œMinimum Distribution Amountâ€), the Company will generally be required to pay a U.S. federal excise tax equal to 4% of the amount by which the Minimum Distribution Amount exceeds the distributions for the year. To the extent that the Company determines that its estimated current year annual taxable income will be in excess of estimated current year dividend distributions from such taxable income, the Company accrues excise taxes, if any, on estimated excess taxable income as taxable income is earned using an annual effective excise tax rate. The annual effective U.S. federal excise tax rate is determined by dividing the estimated annual excise tax by the estimated annual taxable income.If the Company does not qualify to be treated as a RIC for any taxable year, the Company will be taxed as a regular corporation (a â€œC corporationâ€) under subchapter C of the Code for such taxable year. If the Company has previously qualified as a RIC but is subsequently unable to qualify, and certain amelioration provisions are not applicable, the Company would be subject to U.S. federal income tax on all of its taxable income (including its net capital gains) at regular corporate rates. The Company would not be able to deduct distributions to stockholders, nor would it be required to make distributions. In order to requalify as a RIC, in addition to the other requirements discussed above, the Company would be required to distribute all of its previously undistributed earnings attributable to the period it failed to qualify by the end of the first year that it intends to requalify. If the Company fails to requalify for a period greater than two taxable years, it may be subject to U.S. federal income tax at corporate tax rates on any net built-in gains with respect to certain of its assets (i.e., the excess of the aggregate gains, including items of income, over aggregate losses that would have been realized with respect to such assets if the Company had been liquidated) that it elects to recognize on requalification or when recognized over the next five years. 49 Table of Contents Note 11 â€“ Financial HighlightsThe following table sets forth the financial highlights for the six months ended June 30, 2024 and 2023 (in thousands, except for per share data and ratios): Â Â Six Months Ended June 30, Â Â 2024 Â 2023 Per Share Data(1): Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Net asset value at beginning of period Â $ Â 13.50 Â Â Â $ Â 14.22 Â Â Net investment income Â Â Â 0.84 Â Â Â Â Â 0.94 Â Â Net realized gain (loss) Â Â Â - Â Â Â Â Â (0.03) Â Net change in unrealized gain (loss) Â Â Â (0.33) Â Â Â Â (0.06) Â Total from investment operations Â Â Â 0.51 Â Â Â Â Â 0.85 Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Distributions Â Â Â (0.94) Â Â Â Â Â (0.90) Â Accretion (dilution) (2) Â Â Â 0.07 Â Â Â Â Â - Â Â Net asset value at end of period Â $ Â 13.14 Â Â Â $ Â 14.17 Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Ratio/Supplemental Data: Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Total return based on net asset value(3) Â Â Â 4.30 Â % Â Â 5.98 Â % Total return based on market value(4) Â Â Â 0.63 Â % Â Â 14.32 Â % Ratio of net investment income to average net assets(5)(6) Â Â Â 12.56 Â % Â Â 13.23 Â % Ratio of total operating expenses to average net assets(5)(6) Â Â Â 15.46 Â % Â Â 15.10 Â % Ratio of total operating expenses, excluding incentive fees, to average net assets(5) Â Â Â 12.32 Â % Â Â 11.79 Â % Ratio of net increase (decrease) in net assets resulting from operations to average net assets(5) Â Â Â 7.68 Â % Â Â 11.97 Â % Portfolio turnover rate(7) Â Â Â 5.86 Â % Â Â 5.71 Â % Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Net assets at beginning of period Â $ Â 547,071 Â Â Â $ Â 576,052 Â Â Net assets at end of period Â $ Â 506,384 Â Â Â $ Â 573,898 Â Â Weighted average net assets Â $ Â 532,513 Â Â Â $ Â 577,921 Â Â Weighted average shares outstanding for the period, basic Â 39,786,511 Â Â Â 40,509,269 Â Â (1)All per share activity, excluding dividends, is calculated based on the weighted-average shares outstanding for the relevant period.(2)Accretion (dilution) represents the effect of issuance of common stock and repurchase of treasury stock. As such, portfolio turnover is not annualized. Overview Runway Growth Finance Corp. ("we," "us," "our," or the "Company"), a Maryland corporation formed on August 31, 2015, is structured as an externally managed, non-diversified closed-end management investment company. On August 18, 2021, we changed our name to "Runway Growth Finance Corp." from "Runway Growth Credit Fund Inc." We are a specialty finance company focused on providing senior secured loans to high growth-potential companies in technology, healthcare, business services, financial services, select consumer services and products and other high-growth industries. Our goal is to create significant value for our stockholders and the entrepreneurs we support by providing high growth-potential companies with hybrid debt and equity financing that is more flexible than traditional credit and less dilutive than equity. Our investment objective is to maximize our total return to our stockholders primarily through current income on our loan portfolio, and secondarily through capital gains on our warrants and other equity positions. Our offices are in Chicago, Illinois; Menlo Park, California; and New York, New York. We have elected to be regulated as a business development company ("BDC") under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (together with the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, the "1940 Act"). We have also elected to be treated as regulated investment company ("RIC") under Subchapter M of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"). While we currently qualify and intend to qualify annually to be treated as a RIC, no assurance can be provided that we will be able to maintain our tax treatment as a RIC. If we fail to qualify for tax treatment as a RIC for any taxable year, we will be subject to U.S. federal income tax at corporate rates on any net taxable income for such year. As a BDC and a RIC, we are required to comply with various regulatory requirements, such as the requirement to invest at least 70% of our assets in â€œqualifying assets,â€ source-of-income limitations, asset diversification requirements, and the requirement to distribute annually at least 90% of our investment company taxable income and net tax-exempt interest. We are an â€œemerging growth company,â€ as defined in the Jumpstart Our Business Startups Act of 2012 (the â€œJOBS Actâ€). We will remain an emerging growth company until the last day of our fiscal year following the fifth anniversary of our IPO, which closed on October 25, 2021 or until the earliest of (i) the last day of the first fiscal year in which we have total annual gross revenue of $1.235 billion or more, (ii) December 31 of the fiscal year in which we become a â€œlarge accelerated filerâ€ as defined in Rule 12b-2 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (together with the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, the â€œExchange Actâ€), (which would occur if the market value of our common stock held by non-affiliates exceeds $700.0 million, measured as of the last business day of our most recently completed second fiscal quarter, and we have been publicly reporting for at least 12 months), or (iii) the date on which we have issued more than $1.0 billion in non-convertible debt during the preceding three-year period. For so long as we remain an emerging growth company under the JOBS Act, we will be subject to reduced public company reporting requirements. 53 Table of Contents We are externally managed by Runway Growth Capital LLC ("RGC"), an investment adviser that has registered with the SEC under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, as amended. The Administrator, a wholly-owned subsidiary of RGC, provides all the administrative services necessary for us to operate. On August 10, 2020, we, RGC, and certain other funds and accounts sponsored or managed by RGC and/or its affiliates were granted an order (the â€œOrderâ€), as amended on August 30, 2022, that permits us greater flexibility than the 1940 Act permits to negotiate the terms of co-investments if our Board of Directors determines that it would be advantageous for us to co-invest with other accounts sponsored or managed by RGC or its affiliates in a manner consistent with our investment objective, positions, policies, strategies and restrictions as well as regulatory requirements and other pertinent factors. We believe that the ability to co-invest with similar investment structures and accounts sponsored or managed by RGC or its affiliates provides additional investment opportunities and the ability to achieve greater diversification. Under the terms of the Order, a majority of our independent directors are required to make certain determinations in connection with a co-investment transaction, including that (1) the terms of the proposed transaction are reasonable and fair to us and our stockholders and do not involve overreaching in respect of us or our stockholders on the part of any person concerned and (2) the transaction is consistent with the interests of our stockholders and is consistent with our investment strategies and policies. Portfolio Composition and Investment Activity Portfolio Composition At June 30, 2024, we had investments in 55 portfolio companies, representing 25 companies in which we held debt and warrant investments, three companies in which we held debt investments and shares of common stock, preferred stock, or a combination with warrants, three companies in which we held a debt investment only, 16 companies in which we held warrant investments only, and eight companies in which we held shares of common stock, preferred stock, or equity interests only, or a combination with warrants. At December 31, 2023, we had investments in 52 portfolio companies, representing 22 companies in which we held debt and warrant investments, three companies in which we held debt investments and shares of common, preferred stock, or a combination with warrants, four companies in which we held a debt investment only, 16 companies in which we held warrant investments only, and seven companies in which we held shares of common stock, preferred stock, or equity interests only, or a combination with warrants. We calculate the yield on dollar-weighted debt investments for any period measured as (1) total related investment income during the period divided by (2) the daily average of the fair value of debt investments outstanding during the period, including any debt investments on non-accrual status. As of June 30, 2024, our debt investments had a dollar-weighted average term of 58 months at origination and a dollar-weighted average remaining term of 35 months, or approximately 2.9 years. As of June 30, 2024, substantially all of our debt investments had a committed principal amount of between $6.0 million and $85.0 million and pay cash interest at annual interest rates of between 8.0% and 15.1%. 54 Table of Contents The following table shows our dollar-weighted annualized yield by investment type for the three and six months ended June 30, 2024 and 2023: Â Fair Value(1) Cost(2) Â Three Months Ended June 30, Six Months Ended June 30, Three Months Ended June 30, Six Months Ended June 30, Â 2024 2023 2024 2023 2024 Â 2023 2024 2023 Investment type: Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Â Debt investments Â 15.05 Â % Â 16.69 Â % Â 15.91 Â % Â 15.65 Â % Â 14.75 Â % Â Â 16.42 Â % Â 15.64 Â % Â 15.40 Â % Equity interest Â â€” Â % Â 2.56 Â % Â 0.11 Â % Â 2.83 Â % Â â€” Â % Â Â 2.02 Â % Â 0.07 Â % Â 2.31 Â % All investments Â 14.30 Â % Â 16.00 Â % Â 15.15 Â % Â 15.10 Â % Â 13.64 Â % Â Â 15.56 Â % Â 14.51 Â % Â 14.73 Â % Â (1)We calculate the dollar-weighted annualized yield on average investment type for any period as (a) total related investment income during the period divided by (b) the daily average of the fair value of the investment type outstanding during the period, including any investments on non-accrual status. (2)We calculate the dollar-weighted annualized yield on average investment type for any period as (a) total related investment income during the period divided by (b) the daily average of the investment type outstanding during the period, at amortized cost, including any investments on non-accrual status. Investment Activity The value of our investment portfolio will change over time due to changes in the fair value of our underlying investments, as well as changes in the composition of our portfolio resulting from purchases of new and follow-on investments as well as repayments and sales of existing investments. During the six months ended June 30, 2024, we funded $94.4 million in three new portfolio companies, $0.7 million in one joint venture, and $5.0 million in one existing portfolio company, net of upfront loan origination fees and refinances. We also received $59.8 million in loan prepayments from three portfolio companies and $1.7 million in scheduled principal payments from one portfolio company. There were no proceeds from the termination of warrants, sale of preferred stock, sale of equity interest, or sale of common stock. During the six months ended June 30, 2023, we did not fund any new portfolio companies and funded $63.5 million in eight existing portfolio companies, net of upfront loan origination fees and refinances. We also received $98.9 million in loan prepayments from six portfolio companies and $6.8 million in scheduled principal payments from two portfolio companies. There were no proceeds from the termination of warrants, sale of preferred stock, sale of equity interest, or sale of common stock. Equity securities and U.S. Treasury Bills are not graded. This debt investment rating system uses a five-level numeric scale. The following is a description of the conditions associated with each investment rating: InvestmentRating Rating Definition 1 Performing above plan and/or strong enterprise profile, value, financial performance/coverage. Maintaining full covenant and payment compliance as agreed. 2 Performing at or reasonably close to plan. Acceptable business prospects, enterprise value, financial coverage. Maintaining key covenant and payment compliance as agreed. Generally, all new loans are initially graded Category 2. 3 Performing below plan of record. Potential elements of concern over performance, trends and business outlook. Loan-to-value remains adequate. Potential key covenant non-compliance. Full payment compliance. 4 Performing materially below plan. Non-compliant with material financial covenants. Payment default/deferral could result without corrective action. Requires close monitoring. Business prospects, enterprise value and collateral coverage declining. These investments may be in workout, and there is a possibility of loss of return but no loss of principal is expected. 5 Going concern nature in question. Substantial decline in enterprise value and all coverages. Covenant and payment default imminent if not currently present. Investments are nearly always in workout. May experience partial and/or full loss. The following table shows the investment ratings of our debt investments at fair value as of June 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023 (dollars in thousands): Â June 30, 2024 Â Â December 31, 2023 Investment Rating Fair Value Â Â % of Total Portfolio Â Number of Portfolio Companies Â Â Fair Value Â Â % of Total Portfolio Â Number of Portfolio Companies 1 $ â€” Â Â â€” % Â â€” Â Â $ â€” Â Â â€” % Â â€” 2 Â 643,623 Â Â 60.53 Â Â 20 Â Â Â 612,709 Â Â 57.41 Â Â 19 3 Â 338,383 Â Â 31.82 Â Â 9 Â Â Â 361,998 Â Â 33.93 Â Â 9 4 Â â€” Â Â â€” Â Â â€” Â Â Â 3,791 Â Â 0.36 Â Â 1 5 Â 33,125 Â Â 3.12 Â Â 2 Â Â Â â€” Â Â â€” Â Â â€” Â $ 1,015,131 Â Â 95.47 % Â 31 Â Â $ 978,498 Â Â 91.70 % Â 29 Loans and Debt Securities on Non-Accrual Status Generally, when interest and/or principal payments on a loan become past due, or if we otherwise do not expect the borrower to be able to service its debt and other obligations, we will place the loan on non-accrual status and will cease recognizing interest income on that loan for financial reporting purposes until all principal and interest have been brought current through payment or due to a restructuring such that the interest income is deemed to be collectible. As of June 30, 2024, we had two senior secured term loans on non-accrual status; one loan to Mingle Healthcare Solutions, Inc. with a cost basis of $5.0 million and a fair value of $3.1 million, and one loan to Snagajob, Inc., with a cost basis of $42.7 million and a fair value of $30.0 million which represent 3.1% our total investment portfolio. From being placed on non-accrual status through June 30, 2024, cumulative interest of $0.4 million would be receivable from Mingle Healthcare Solutions, Inc. and not recorded in "Interest income" on the Consolidated Statements of Operations. From being placed on non-accrual status through June 30, 2024, cumulative interest of $1.8 million would be receivable from Snagajob, Inc. and $0.1 million OID would be accreted into the cost basis, for a total of $1.9 million not recorded in "Interest income" on the Consolidated Statements of Operations. As of December 31, 2023, we had no loans on non-accrual status. As of June 30, 2024, we had reversed interest income of $0.3 million related to the senior secured term loans. As of December 31, 2023, we had not reversed any accrued and uncollected interest income related to the senior secured term loans. Â 56 Table of Contents Results of Operations An important measure of our financial performance is "Net increase (decrease) in net assets resulting from operations" on the Consolidated Statement of Operations, which includes "Net investment income (loss)", "Net realized gain (loss) on investments" and "Net change in unrealized gain (loss) on investments". "Net investment income (loss)" is the difference between our income from interest, dividends, fees and other income and our operating expenses, including interest on borrowed funds. "Net realized gain (loss) on investments" is the difference between the proceeds received from dispositions of portfolio investments and U.S. Treasury Bills and their amortized cost. "Net change in unrealized gain (loss) on investments" is the net change in the fair value of our investment portfolio. Investment Income Our investment objective is to maximize total return to our stockholders primarily through current income on our loan portfolio, and secondarily through capital gain on our warrants and other equity positions. We intend to achieve our investment objective by investing in high growth-potential, private companies. We typically invest in senior secured loans that generally fall into two strategies: Sponsored Growth Lending and Non-Sponsored Growth Lending. We generally receive warrants and/or other equity from our investments. We expect our investments in loans will generally range from between $10.0 million to $100.0 million, and the upper end of this range may increase as we raise additional capital.We generate revenue in the form of interest on the debt securities that we hold and distributions and capital gains on other interests that we acquire in our portfolio companies. We expect that the debt we invest in will generally have stated terms of 36 to 60 months. Interest on debt securities is generally payable monthly, primarily based on a floating rate index, and subject to certain floors determined by market rates at the time the investment is made. In some cases, some of our investments may provide for deferred interest payments or PIK interest. The principal amount of the debt securities and any accrued but unpaid interest will become due at the maturity date. Any original issue discount ("OID") or market discount or premium will be capitalized, and we will accrete or amortize such amounts as interest income. We record prepayment fees on debt investments as fee income. Dividend income, if any, will be recognized on an accrual basis to the extent that we expect to collect such amounts. 57 Table of Contents Investment income for the three months ended

June 30, 2024 and 2023 was $34.2 million and $41.9 million, respectively, and includes non-recurring income of $0.4 million and $2.8 million, respectively. Non-recurring income includes, but is not limited to, acceleration of unaccreted OID, prepayment fees and amendment fees. The decrease in investment income for the three months ended June 30, 2024 compared to the three months ended June 30, 2023 was primarily due to the decrease in the average outstanding principal on interest-earning debt investments as a result of loan repayments and our loans to Snagajob, Inc., and Mingle Healthcare Solutions, Inc. moving to non-accrual status. Investment income for the six months ended June 30, 2024 and 2023 was $74.2 million and $81.2 million, respectively, and includes non-recurring income of $4.2 million and $3.4 million, respectively. The net realized loss on investments of $1.2 million for the six months ended June 30, 2023 was due to a loss of our investments in the warrants of CareCloud, Inc. and Gynesonics, Inc. Â 59 Table of Contents Net Change in Unrealized Gain (Loss) on Investments Net change in unrealized loss on investments of $6.3 million for the three months ended June 30, 2024 was primarily due to a decrease in the fair value of our convertible note investment in Snagajob.com, Inc., our senior secured loans to Snagajob.com, Inc., Vesta Payment Solutions, Inc., and FiscalNote, Inc., offset by increases in our preferred stock investment in Carecloud, Inc., and our senior secured loan to Cloudpay, Inc. Net Increase (Decrease) in Net Assets Resulting from Operations We had a net increase in net assets resulting from operations of $8.3 million for the three months ended June 30, 2024, as compared to a net increase in net assets resulting from operations of $22.3 million for the three months ended June 30, 2023. We had a net increase in net assets resulting from operations of $20.3 million for the six months ended June 30, 2024, as compared to a net increase in net assets resulting from operations of $34.3 million for the six months ended June 30, 2023. Financial Condition, Liquidity, Capital Resources and Obligations Our liquidity and capital resources are derived from net proceeds from the offering of our securities, debt borrowings and cash flows from operations, including investment sales and repayments, and income earned. We have used, and expect to continue to use, our debt and the proceeds from the turnover of our portfolio and from public and private offerings of securities to finance our investment objectives. We expect that we may also generate cash from any financing arrangements we may enter into in the future and any future offerings of our equity or debt securities. Financing arrangements may come in the form of borrowings from banks or issuances of senior securities, which may be secured or unsecured, through registered offerings or private placements. Our primary use of funds is to make investments in eligible portfolio companies, pay our operating expenses and make distributions to holders of our common stock. During the six months ended June 30, 2024, we principally funded our operations from (i) cash receipts from interest, dividend, and fee income from our investment portfolio and (ii) cash proceeds from the realization of portfolio investments through the repayments of debt investments and the sale of debt and equity investments. During the six months ended June 30, 2024, our operating activities provided $30.0 million of cash and cash equivalents, compared to $71.6 million provided during the six months ended June 30, 2023. The $41.6 million decrease in cash provided by operating activities was primarily due to a $37.1 million decrease in sales and repayments of investments and U.S. Treasury Bills. During the six months ended June 30, 2024, our financing activities used $24.1 million of cash, compared to $39.6 million used by financing activities during the six months ended June 30, 2023. The $15.5 million decrease in cash flows used in financing activities was primarily due to increased net borrowing activity of $39.0 million, offset by increased share repurchases of $23.5 million. As of June 30, 2024, our net assets totaled $506.4 million, with a net asset value per share of $13.14. We intend to continue to operate in order to generate cash flows from operations, including income earned from investments in our portfolio companies. Our primary use of funds will be investments in portfolio companies and cash distributions to holders of our common stock. Available Liquidity and Capital Resources As of June 30, 2024, we had $249.8 million in available liquidity, including $8.8 million in cash and cash equivalents, and approximately $241.0 million available under our Credit Facility, subject to borrowing base capacity. As of June 30, 2024, we had $309.0 million of secured debt outstanding under our Credit Facility, which are floating interest rate obligations and $247.3 million of unsecured debt outstanding under the 2026 and 2027 Notes, which are all fixed interest rate debt obligations. Refer to "Note 7 â€“ Borrowings" to our consolidated financial statements in Part I, Item 1 of this Form 10-Q for additional discussion of our debt obligations. Â Pursuant to the 1940 Act, we are permitted to incur borrowings, issue debt securities, or issue preferred stock if, immediately after the borrowings or issuance, the ratio of total assets (less total liabilities other than indebtedness) to total indebtedness plus preferred stock 60 Table of Contents is at least 150% (at least 200% prior to June 17, 2022). As of June 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, our asset coverage ratio was 191% and 205%, respectively. As detailed above, our diverse and well-structured balance sheet is designed to provide a long-term focused and sustainable investment platform. Currently, we believe we have sufficient liquidity to support our near-term capital requirements. Commitments and Obligations Our significant contractual payment obligations relate to our borrowings and deferred incentive fees. As of June 30, 2024, we had $556.3 million of debt outstanding, none of which was due within the next year, $404.0 million within 1 to 3 years, and $152.3 million beyond 3 years. As of June 30, 2024, we had $11.0 million of deferred incentive fees, $0.5 million of which was due within the next year, $7.5 million within 1 to 3 years, and $3.0 million beyond 3 years. In addition to our on-balance sheet contractual obligations, in the normal course of business, we have future cash requirements related to our financial instruments with off-balance sheet risk. These consist of unfunded commitments to extend credit, in the form of loans, to our portfolio companies. Unfunded commitments to provide funds to portfolio companies are not reflected on our balance sheet. Our unfunded commitments may be significant from time to time. As of June 30, 2024, we had a total of $254.2 million in unfunded commitments which was comprised of $219.8 million to provide debt financing to our portfolio companies and $34.4 million in unfunded commitments to provide equity financing to the Runway-Cadma I LLC. Unfunded contractual commitments depend upon a portfolio company reaching certain milestones before the debt commitment is available to the portfolio company, which is expected to affect our funding levels. These commitments are subject to the same underwriting and ongoing portfolio maintenance as the on-balance sheet financial instruments that we hold. From time to time, unfunded contractual commitments may expire without being drawn and thus do not represent future cash requirements. We maintain sufficient liquidity (through cash on hand and available borrowings under the Credit Facility) to fund such unfunded commitments should the need arise. As of June 30, 2024, we had approximately $42.0 million of available unfunded commitments to portfolio companies that are eligible to be drawn based on achieved milestones and $34.4 million in unfunded capital commitments to Runway-Cadma I LLC. Refer to â€œNote 8 â€“ Commitments and Contingenciesâ€ to our consolidated financial statements in Part I, Item 1 of this Form 10-Q for a summary of unfunded commitments by portfolio company as of June 30, 2024. The fair value of our unfunded commitments is considered to be immaterial as the yield determined at the time of underwriting is expected to be materially consistent with the yield upon funding, given that interest rates are generally pegged to market indices and given the existence of milestones, conditions and/or obligations embedded in the borrowing agreements. Repurchase Program On February 24, 2022, our Board of Directors approved a repurchase program (the â€œInitial Repurchase Programâ€) under which we were authorized to repurchase up to $25.0 million of our outstanding common stock, prior to its expiration on February 24, 2023. Under the Initial Repurchase Program, we were authorized to repurchase shares at managementâ€™s discretion from time to time in open-market transactions, in accordance with all applicable securities laws and regulations. We had repurchased 871,345 shares of our common stock under the Initial Repurchase Program for an aggregate purchase price of $10.8 million. The Board of Directors did not renew the Initial Repurchase Program, and it expired on February 24, 2023. On November 2, 2023, our Board of Directors approved a new share repurchase program (the "Repurchase Program"), under which we may repurchase up to $25.0 million of our outstanding shares of common stock. Under the Repurchase Program, purchases may be made at managementâ€™s discretion from time to time in open-market transactions, in accordance with all applicable securities laws and regulations. As of June 30, 2024, we had repurchased 1,961,938 shares in connection with the Repurchase Program for an aggregate purchase price of $23.5 million. If not renewed, the Repurchase Program will terminate upon the earlier of (i) November 2, 2024 or (ii) the repurchase of $25.0 million of our shares of common stock. Â 61 Table of Contents Distributions To the extent that we have funds available, we intend to make quarterly distributions to our stockholders. Our stockholder distributions, if any, will be determined by our Board of Directors. Any distribution to our stockholders will be declared out of assets legally available for distribution. We anticipate that distributions will be paid from income primarily generated by interest and dividend income earned on investments made by us. During the three and six months ended June 30, 2024, we declared and paid dividends in the amount of $18.5 million and $37.6 million, respectively, of which $18.2 million and $37.0 million, respectively, were distributed in cash and the remainder distributed in shares to stockholders pursuant to our Dividend Reinvestment Plan. For the three and six months ended June 30, 2023, we declared dividends in the amount of $18.2 million and $36.5 million, respectively, of which $17.5 million and $34.9 million, respectively, were distributed in cash and the remainder distributed in shares to stockholders pursuant to our Dividend Reinvestment Plan. The timing and amount of our distributions, if any, will be determined by our Board of Directors and will be declared out of assets legally available for distribution. Refer to "Note 9 â€“ Net Assets" of our consolidated financial statements in Part I, Item 1 of this Form 10-Q for a summary of the distributions declared and paid since inception. Critical Accounting Estimates The preparation of the consolidated financial statements and related disclosures in conformity with U.S. GAAP requires our management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the consolidated financial statements, and revenues and expenses during the period reports. Actual results could materially differ from those estimates. For a description of our critical accounting policies, including those related to the valuation of investments and our election to be treated, and intent to qualify annually, as a RIC refer to â€œNote 2 â€“ Summary of Significant Accounting Policiesâ€ to our consolidated financial statements in Part I, Item 1 of this Form 10-Q. We consider the most significant accounting policies to be those related to our Fair Value Measurements and Income Taxes. Item 3. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures about Market Risk We commenced investment activities in portfolio securities during the quarter ended June 30, 2017, and commenced investment activities in U.S. Treasury Bills during the quarter ended December 31, 2016. We are subject to financial market risk, including changes in the valuations of our investment portfolio. Market risk includes risks that arise from changes in interest rates, commodity prices, equity prices and other market changes that affect market sensitive instruments. The prices of securities held by us may decline in response to certain events, including those directly involving the companies we invest in; conditions affecting the general economy; overall market changes; legislative reform; local, regional, national or global political, social or economic instability; and interest rate fluctuations. Uncertainty with respect to the economic efforts of rising interest rates and inflation has introduced significant volatility in the financial markets, and the effects of this volatility could materially impact our market risks. Valuation Risk Our investments may not have a readily available market price, and we value these investments at fair value as determined in good faith by our Board of Directors in accordance with our valuation policy. There is no single standard for determining fair value in good faith. As a result, determining fair value requires that judgment be applied to the specific facts and circumstances of each portfolio investment while employing a consistently applied valuation process for the types of investments we make. Due to the inherent uncertainty of determining the fair value of investments that do not have a readily available market value, the fair value of our investments may fluctuate from period to period. Because of the inherent uncertainty of valuation, these estimated values may differ significantly from the values that would have been used had a ready market for the investments existed, and it is possible that the difference could be material. Â 62 Table of Contents Interest Rate Risk We are subject to financial market risks, including changes in interest rates. Interest rate risk is defined as the sensitivity of our current and future earnings to interest rate volatility, variability of spread relationships, the difference in re-pricing intervals between our assets and liabilities and the effect that interest rates may have on our cash flows. Changes in interest rates may affect both our cost of funding and our interest income from portfolio investments, and cash and cash equivalents. Changes in interest rates can also affect our ability to acquire and originate loans and securities and the value of our investment portfolio. Our net investment income is affected by fluctuations in various interest rates, including SOFR and Prime rates. Increasing interest rates could have the effect of increasing our total investment income once interest rates increase above contractual interest rates floors to which our portfolio companies are subject. Conversely, we would expect the cost of our floating rate Credit Facility to increase as well, offsetting the positive effect on our net interest income. As of June 30, 2024, 100.0% of our performing debt portfolio investments bore interest at variable rates, consisting of approximately 68.0% based on SOFR and 32.0% based on Prime. As a policy, any interest above the cash cap, if applicable, as determined on an individual loan basis will accrue to principal and be treated as PIK interest. A hypothetical 200 basis point increase or decrease in the interest rates on our variable-rate debt investments could increase our investment income by a maximum of $19.3 million and decrease our investment income by a maximum of $15.6 million, due to certain floors, on an annual basis. Our debt borrowings under the Credit Facility bear interest at a floating rate, all other outstanding debt borrowings bear interest at a fixed rate. Borrowings under the Credit Facility bear interest on a per annum basis equal to the SOFR plus an applicable margin rate that ranges from 2.95% to 3.35% per annum depending on our leverage ratio and number of eligible loans in the collateral pool. For additional information regarding the interest rate associated with each of our debt borrowings, refer to "Note 7 â€" Borrowings" to our consolidated financial statements in Part I, Item 1 of this Form 10-Q. Because we currently borrow, and plan to borrow in the future, to originate loans and securities, our net investment income is dependent upon the difference between the rate at which we borrow funds and the rate at which we invest the funds borrowed. Accordingly, there can be no assurance that a significant change in market interest rates will not have a material adverse effect on our net investment income. In periods of rising interest rates, our cost of funds would increase, which could reduce our net investment income if there is not a corresponding increase in interest income generated by our investment portfolio. We regularly measure exposure to interest rate risk. We assess interest rate risk and manage interest rate exposure on an ongoing basis by comparing our interest rate sensitive assets to our interest rate sensitive liabilities. We may hedge against interest rate and currency exchange rate fluctuations by using standard hedging instruments such as futures, options and forward contracts subject to the requirements of the 1940 Act. While hedging activities may insulate us against adverse changes in interest rates, they may also limit our ability to participate in benefits of lower interest rates with respect to our portfolio of investments with fixed interest rates. In addition, any investments we make that are denominated in a foreign currency will be subject to risks associated with changes in currency exchange rates. These risks include the possibility of significant fluctuations in the foreign currency markets, the imposition or modification of foreign exchange controls and potential illiquidity in the secondary market. These risks will vary depending upon the currency or currencies involved, and may be exacerbated current economic conditions and any associated impact on foreign financial markets. Item 4. Controls and Procedures Evaluation of Disclosure Controls and Procedures As of the end of the period covered by this report, we carried out an evaluation, under the supervision and with the participation of our management, including our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, of the effectiveness of the design and operation of our disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Rule 13aâ€'15 under the Exchange Act). Based on that evaluation, our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer have concluded that our current disclosure controls and procedures are effective in timely alerting them to material information relating to us that is required to be disclosed by us in the reports we file or submit under the Exchange Act. There have been no changes in our internal control over financial reporting that occurred during our most recently completed fiscal quarter that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting. 63 Table of Contents PART II. The Company is an investment company following the specialized accounting and reporting guidance specified in the Financial Accounting Standards Boardâ€™s (â€œFASBâ€) Accounting Standards Codification (â€œASCâ€) Topic 946, Financial Services â€“ Investment Companies.In the opinion of management, all adjustments, all of which were of a normal recurring nature, considered necessary for the fair presentation of financial statements for the interim period have been included. The results of operations for the current interim period are not necessarily indicative of results that ultimately may be achieved for any other interim period or for the year ending December 31, 2024. The interim unaudited consolidated financial statements and notes hereto should be read in conjunction with the audited consolidated financial statements and notes thereto contained in the Companyâ€™s annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2023, filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") on March 7, 2024.Certain items in the June 30, 2023, and December 31, 2023, consolidated financial statements have been reclassified to conform to the June 30, 2024, presentation with no effect on the "Total net assets" on the Consolidated Statements of Assets and Liabilities, no effect on the "Net increase (decrease) in net assets resulting from operations" on the Consolidated Statements of Operations, and no effect to the "Net increase (decrease) in cash and cash equivalents" on the Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows.Â Principles of ConsolidationUnder ASC 946, the Company is precluded from consolidating portfolio company investments, including those in which it has a controlling interest, unless the portfolio company is another investment company. An exception to this general principle occurs if the Company holds a controlling interest in an operating company that provides all or substantially all of its services directly to the Company or to its portfolio companies. None of the portfolio investments made by the Company qualify for this exception. Therefore, the Companyâ€™s investment portfolio is carried on the Consolidated Statements of Assets and Liabilities at fair value, as discussed further in â€œNote 4 â€“ Investments,â€ with any adjustments to fair value recognized as "Net change in unrealized gain (loss) on investmentsâ€ on the Consolidated Statements of Operations.The Companyâ€™s consolidated operations include the activities of its wholly owned subsidiary, P3 Holdco LLC ("P3 Holdco") and P3 Holdcoâ€™s wholly owned subsidiary Pivot3, Inc. The subsidiaries are consolidated and included in the Companyâ€™s consolidated financial statements and the assets of Pivot3, Inc. are recorded at fair value. All intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated. Refer to the Schedule of Investments for the Companyâ€™s equity interest in Pivot3, Inc. as of June 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023.Runway-Cadma I LLCAs announced on March 7, 2024, effective March 6, 2024, the Company entered into a joint venture agreement with Cadma Capital Partners LLC ("Cadma") to create and co-manage Runway-Cadma I LLC (â€œRunway-Cadma LLCâ€ or the â€œJVâ€). The JV may invest in secured loans to growth-stage companies that have been originated by the Company. The Company and Cadma committed to initially provide $35.0 million and $35.0 million, respectively, of equity capital to the JV. The JV is capitalized as investment transactions are completed. All portfolio decisions and generally all other actions in respect of the JV must be approved by the board of managers of the JV consisting of an equal number of representatives of the Company and Cadma. Capital contributions are called from the Company and Cadma on a pro-rata basis based on their total capital commitments. For more information, refer to "Note 3 â€“ Related Parties." Â As permitted under Regulation S-X and consistent with the guidance in ASC 946-810-45-3, the Company will generally not consolidate its investment in a company other than an investment company subsidiary or a controlled operating company whose business consists of providing services to the Company. As the Companyâ€™s representatives do not comprise the majority of the board of managers of the JV and the Company does not hold a majority of the economic interests in the JV, the Company does not consolidate the JV in its consolidated financial statements.Use of EstimatesThe preparation of consolidated financial statements in conformity with U.S. GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities as of the date of the consolidated financial statements and the reported amounts of income and expense during the reporting period. Changes in the economic and regulatory environment, financial markets, the credit worthiness of our portfolio companies, and any other parameters used in determining these estimates and assumptions could cause actual results to differ from these estimates and assumptions.Cash and Cash EquivalentsCash consists solely of funds deposited with financial institutions, while cash equivalents consist of short-term liquid investments in money market funds. Cash and cash equivalents are carried at cost, which approximates fair value. As of June 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, the Company did not have any cash invested in money market funds. Interest earned in money market funds are recorded in "Other income" on the Consolidated Statements of Operations.Debt and Deferred Debt CostsThe debt of the Company is carried at amortized cost on the Consolidated Statements of Assets and Liabilities, which is comprised of the principal amount borrowed, net of unamortized debt issuance costs. Debt issuance costs are fees and other direct incremental costs incurred by the Company in relation to debt financing and are amortized over the life of the related debt instrument or the life of the cost respective service, if shorter, using the straight-line method, which closely approximates the effective yield method. Amortization of such debt issuance costs and interest expense on the outstanding principal balance are recorded in "Interest and other debt financing expenses" on the Consolidated Statements of Operations. Debt issuance costs that have not yet been amortized are recorded as "Unamortized deferred debt costs" on the Consolidated Statements of Assets and Liabilities. To the extent there are no outstanding borrowings, the deferred debt costs are presented as an asset on the Consolidated Statements of Assets and Liabilities. Accrued but unpaid interest is included within "Interest payable" on the Consolidated Statements of Assets and Liabilities. For more information, refer to â€œNote 7 â€“ Borrowings.â€SegmentsThe Company lends to and invests in customers in various industries. The Company separately evaluates the performance of each of its lending and investment relationships. However, because each of these loan and investment relationships has similar business and economic characteristics, they have been aggregated into a single reportable segment. All applicable segment disclosures are included in or can be derived from the Companyâ€™s consolidated financial statements.Investment Transactions and Related Investment IncomeSecurity transactions, if any, are recorded on a trade-date basis. Realized gains or losses from the repayment or sale of investments are measured using the specific identification method. The amortized cost basis of investments represents the original cost adjusted for the accretion/amortization of discounts and premiums, accretion of contractual end of term payments ("ETP") and upfront loan origination fees. The Company reports changes from the prior period in fair value of investments that are measured at fair value as a component of "Net change in unrealized gain (loss) on investments" on the Consolidated Statements of Operations.Dividend income is recorded on an accrual basis to the extent that such amounts are payable and expected to be collected. Dividend income is recorded on the record date for private portfolio companies and on the ex-dividend date for publicly traded portfolio companies. Interest income, if any, adjusted for amortization of market premium and accretion of market discount, is recorded on an accrual basis to the extent that the Company expects to collect such amounts. Original issue discount (â€œOIDâ€), principally representing any loan origination fees received in connection with the closing of investments, ETP, market discount or premium, and the estimated fair value of detachable equity, warrants or contractual success fees obtained in conjunction with the Companyâ€™s debt investments, are capitalized and accreted or amortized into interest income over the life of the respective security using the effective interest method. Upon prepayment of a debt investment, any unamortized loan origination fees, end-of-term payments, and unamortized market discounts are recorded as interest income and any prepayment penalties are recorded as fee income. Upon amending terms of an existing investment, any amendment fees charged are recorded as fee income. The Company currently holds, and expects to hold in the future, some investments in its portfolio that contain PIK interest provisions. PIK interest is computed at the contractual rate specified in each loan agreement and is added to the principal balance of the loan, rather than being paid to the Company in cash, and is recorded as interest income. Thus, the actual collection of PIK interest may be deferred until the time of debt principal repayment. PIK interest, which is a non-cash source of income, is included in the Companyâ€™s taxable income and therefore affects the amount of income the Company is required to distribute to stockholders to maintain its qualification as a RIC for U.S. federal income tax purposes, even though the Company has not yet collected the cash. For the three and six months ended June 30, 2024, approximately 6.8% and 8.8%, respectively, of the Companyâ€™s total investment income was attributable to non-cash PIK interest. For the three and six months ended June 30, 2023, approximately 15.3% and 12.6%, respectively, of the Companyâ€™s total investment income was attributable to non-cash PIK interest. Â Investments Denominated in Foreign CurrencyAt each balance sheet date, portfolio company investments denominated in foreign currencies are translated into U.S. dollars using the spot exchange rate on the last business day of the period. Purchases and sales of foreign portfolio company investments, and any income from such investments, are translated into U.S. dollars using the rates of exchange prevailing on the respective dates of such transactions. As of June 30, 2024, the Company had two investments denominated in a foreign currency. As of December 31, 2023, the Company held one investment denominated in a foreign currency. Although the fair values of foreign portfolio company investments and the fluctuation in such fair values are translated into U.S. dollars using the applicable foreign exchange rates described above, the Company does not distinguish the portion of the change in fair value resulting from foreign currency exchange rate fluctuations from the change in fair value of the underlying investment. All fluctuations in fair value are included in "Net change in unrealized gain (loss) on investments" on the Companyâ€™s Consolidated Statements of

Operations.Current Expected Credit LossesThe Company measures current expected credit losses (â€œCECLâ€) for financial instruments held at amortized cost based on ASC No. 326, Financial Instruments â€“ Credit Losses (â€œASC 326â€). The Company adopted ASC 326 on January 1, 2020. ASC 326 introduces a new allowance for credit losses methodology and requires earlier recognition of credit losses, while also providing additional transparency about credit risk. The CECL methodology utilizes a lifetime â€œexpected credit lossâ€ methodology for the recognition of credit losses for receivables and loans subject to CECL at the time the financial asset is originated or based on historical experience and current conditions, as well as reasonable and supportable forecasts incorporating forward-looking information. The allowance for credit losses (the â€œCECL Reserveâ€) required under ASC 326 is deducted from the respective financial asset's amortized cost basis on the Companyâ€™s Consolidated Statements of Assets and Liabilities. The expected credit losses are adjusted each period for changes in expected lifetime credit losses through a provision for current expected credit losses recognized on the Consolidated Statements of Operations. As permitted by ASC 326, the Company has elected not to measure an allowance for credit losses on accrued interest receivable, but rather write-off in a timely manner by reversing interest income that would likely be uncollectible. As of June 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, the amortized cost basis of financial assets subject to CECL recorded within "Interest and fees receivable" on the Consolidated Statements of Assets and Liabilities was $0.3 million and $2.3 million, respectively. As of June 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, the Company's interest receivable excluded from the amortized cost basis of financial assets subject to CECL was $5.6 million and $6.0 million, respectively. As of June 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, the Company had recorded a CECL reserve within "Interest and fees receivable" on the Consolidated Statements of Assets and Liabilities of $0.2 million, and $0, respectively.Non-Accrual of InvestmentsDebt investments are placed on non-accrual status when principal, interest, and other obligations become materially past due or when it is probable that principal, interest, or other obligations will not be collected in full. At the point of non-accrual, the Company will cease recognizing interest income on the debt investment until all principal and interest due have been paid or the Company believes the borrower has demonstrated the ability to repay its current and future contractual obligations. Additionally, any OID associated with the debt investment is no longer accreted to interest income as of the date the loan is placed on non-accrual status. Any payments received on non-accrual loans are first applied to principal prior to recovery of any foregone interest or end of term payment fees. Non-accrual loans are restored to accrual status when past due principal or interest are paid, and, in managementâ€™s judgment are likely to remain current. The Company may make exceptions to this policy if the investment has sufficient collateral value and is in the process of collection such that the Company will be made whole on the investment, inclusive of interest and end of term payment fees.As of June 30, 2024, the Company had two senior secured term loans on non-accrual status; one loan to Mingle Healthcare Solutions, Inc. with a cost basis of $5.0 million and a fair value of $3.1 million, and one loan to Snagajob, Inc., with a cost basis of $42.7 million and a fair value of $30.0 million, representing 3.1% of the Companyâ€™s total investment portfolio. From being placed on non-accrual status through June 30, 2024, cumulative interest of $0.4 million would be receivable from Mingle Healthcare Solutions, Inc. and not recorded in "Interest income" on the Consolidated Statements of Operations. From being placed on non-accrual status through June 30, 2024, cumulative interest of $1.8 million would be receivable from Snagajob, Inc. and $0.1 million OID would be accreted into the cost basis, for a total of $1.9 million not recorded in "Interest income" on the Consolidated Statements of Operations. As of December 31, 2023, the Company did not have any loans on non-accrual status. As of June 30, 2024, the Company had reversed interest income of $0.3 million related to the senior secured term loans. As of December 31, 2023, the Company had not reversed any accrued and uncollected interest income related to the senior secured term loans.Fair Value MeasurementsThe Company measures the value of its financial instruments at fair value in accordance with ASC Topic 820, Fair Value Measurements and Disclosure (â€œASC Topic 820â€), issued by the FASB. Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. The Company's investment portfolio is reported at fair value on the Consolidated Statements of Assets and Liabilities. All assets and liabilities approximate fair value on the Consolidated Statements of Assets and Liabilities, with the exception of the Companyâ€™s borrowings, which are reported at amortized cost. For more information on financial instruments reported at cost, refer to "Note 5 â€“ Fair Value of Financial Instruments."ASC Topic 820 specifies a hierarchy of valuation techniques based on whether the inputs to those valuation techniques are observable or unobservable. ASC Topic 820 also provides guidance regarding a fair value hierarchy, which prioritizes information used to measure fair value and the effect of fair value measurements on earnings and provides for enhanced disclosures determined by the level within the hierarchy of information used in the valuation. In accordance with ASC Topic 820, these inputs are summarized in the three levels listed below:â€¢Level 1â€”Valuations are based on quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities that are accessible at the measurement date.â€¢Level 2â€”Valuations are based on quoted prices in markets that are not active or for which all significant inputs are observable, either directly or indirectly and model-based valuation techniques for which all significant inputs are observable.â€¢Level 3â€”Valuations based on inputs that are unobservable and significant to the overall fair value measurement. Level 3 assets and liabilities include financial instruments whose value is determined using pricing models incorporating significant unobservable inputs, such as discounted cash flow models and other similar valuations techniques. The valuation of Level 3 assets and liabilities generally requires significant management judgment due to the inability to observe inputs to valuation.In certain cases, the inputs used to measure fair value may fall into different levels of the fair value hierarchy. In such cases, a financial instrumentâ€™s level within the fair value hierarchy is based on the lowest level of observable input that is significant to the fair value measurement. The assessment of the significance of a particular input to the fair value measurement in its entirety requires judgment and considers factors specific to the instrument.Under ASC Topic 820, the fair value measurement also assumes that the transaction to sell an asset or liability occurs in the principal market for the asset or liability or, in the absence of a principal market, the most advantageous market for the asset, which may be a hypothetical market, and excludes transaction costs. The principal market for any asset or liability is the market with the greatest volume and level of activity for such asset or liability in which the reporting entity would or could sell or transfer the asset or liability. In determining the principal market for an asset or liability under ASC Topic 820, it is assumed that the reporting entity has access to such market as of the measurement date. Market participants are defined as buyers and sellers in the principal or most advantageous market that are independent, knowledgeable and willing and able to transact.Rule 2a-5 under the 1940 Act established additional requirements for determining the fair value of a BDC's investments in good faith for purposes of the 1940 Act. Rule 2a-5 permits boards, in compliance with certain conditions, to designate certain parties to perform fair value determinations, subject to board oversight. Rule 2a-5 also defines when market quotations are "readily available" for purposes of the 1940 Act and the threshold for determining whether a fund must determine the fair value of a security. Rule 31a-4 under the 1940 Act established additional recordkeeping requirements related to fair value determinations. Although the Company adopted certain revisions to its valuation policies and procedures to comply with Rule 2a-5 and Rule 31a-4, the Company's board of directors (the "Board of Directors") has not elected to designate a valuation designee.Investment Valuation TechniquesWith respect to investments for which market quotations are not readily available, the Company undertakes a multi-step valuation process each quarter, as described below:â€¢The quarterly valuation process begins with each portfolio company investment being initially valued by RGCâ€™s investment professionals that are responsible for the portfolio investment;â€¢Preliminary valuation conclusions are then documented and discussed with RGCâ€™s senior investment team;â€¢At least once annually, the valuation for each portfolio investment is reviewed by an independent valuation firm. Certain investments, however, may not be evaluated annually by an independent valuation firm if the net asset value and other aspects of such investments in the aggregate do not exceed certain thresholds;â€¢The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors (the "Audit Committee") then reviews these preliminary valuations from RGC and the independent valuation firm, if any, and makes a recommendation to the Board of Directors regarding such valuations; andâ€¢The Board of Directors reviews the recommended preliminary valuations and determines the fair value of each investment in the Companyâ€™s portfolio, in good faith, based on the input of RGC, the independent valuation firm(s) and the Audit Committee. The Companyâ€™s investments are primarily loans made to and equity and warrants of small, fast-growing companies focused in technology, healthcare, business services, and other high-growth industries. These investments are considered Level 3 assets under ASC Topic 820 because there is no known or accessible market or market indices for these types of debt and equity instruments and, thus, RGCâ€™s senior investment team must estimate the fair value of these investment securities based on models utilizing unobservable inputs.The Audit Committee assists the Board of Directors in valuing investments that are not publicly traded or for which current market values are not readily available. Investments for which market quotations are readily available are valued using market quotations, which are generally obtained from independent pricing services, broker-dealers or market makers. With respect to portfolio investments for which market quotations are not readily available, the Board of Directors, with the assistance of the Audit Committee, RGC and its senior investment team and independent valuation agents, is responsible for determining, in good faith, the fair value in accordance with the valuation policy approved by the Board of Directors. If more than one valuation method is used to measure fair value, the results are evaluated and weighted, as appropriate, considering the reasonableness of the range indicated by those results. The Company considers a range of fair values based upon the valuation techniques utilized and selects the value within that range that was most representative of fair value based on current market conditions as well as other factors RGCâ€™s senior investment team considers relevant.The Board of Directors makes this fair value determination on a quarterly basis and any other time when a decision regarding the fair value of the portfolio investments is required. A determination of fair value involves subjective judgments and estimates and depends on the facts and circumstances. Due to the inherent uncertainty of determining the fair value of portfolio investments that do not have a readily available market value, the fair value of the investments may differ significantly from the values that would have been used had a readily available market value existed for such investments, and the differences could be material.Valuation methodologies involve a significant degree of judgment. There is no single standard for determining the fair value of investments that do not have an active public market. Valuations of privately held investments are inherently uncertain, as they are based on estimates, and their values may fluctuate over time. The determination of fair value may differ materially from the values that would have been used if an active market for these investments existed. In some cases, the fair value of such investments is best expressed as a range of values derived utilizing different methodologies from which a fair value may then be determined.Debt InvestmentsTo determine the fair value of the Companyâ€™s debt investments, the Company compares the cost basis of the debt investment, which includes OID, to the resulting fair value determined using a discounted cash flow model, unless another model is more appropriate based on the circumstances at the measurement date. The discounted cash flow approach entails analyzing the interest rate spreads for recently completed financing transactions that are similar in nature to the Companyâ€™s investments, in order to determine a comparable range of effective market interest rates for its investments. The range of interest rate spreads utilized is based on borrowers with similar credit profiles. All remaining expected cash flows of the investment are discounted using this range of interest rates to determine a range of fair values for the debt investment.This valuation process includes, among other things, evaluating the underlying investment performance, the portfolio companyâ€™s current financial condition and ability to raise additional capital, as well as macro-economic events that may impact valuations. These events include, but are not limited to, current market yields and interest rate spreads of similar securities as of the measurement date. Significant increases (decreases) in these unobservable inputs could result in significantly higher (lower) fair value measurements.Under certain circumstances, the Company may use an alternative technique to value the debt investments to be acquired by the Company that better reflects the fair value of the investment, such as the price paid or realized in a recently completed transaction or a binding offer received in an arms-length transaction, the use of multiple probability-weighted cash flow models when the expected future cash flows contain elements of variability or estimates of proceeds that would be received in a liquidation scenario.WarrantsFair value of warrants is primarily determined using a Black Scholes option-pricing model. Privately held warrants and equity-related securities are valued based on an analysis of various factors including, but not limited to, the following:â€¢Underlying enterprise value of the issuer is estimated based on information available, including any information regarding the most recent rounds of issuer funding. Valuation techniques to determine enterprise value include market multiple approaches, income approaches or approaches that utilize recent rounds of financing and the portfolio companyâ€™s capital structure to determine enterprise value. Valuation techniques are also utilized to allocate the enterprise fair value of a portfolio company to the specific class of common or preferred stock exercisable in the warrant. Such techniques take into account the rights and preferences of the portfolio companyâ€™s securities, expected exit scenarios, and volatility associated with such outcomes to allocate the fair value to the specific class of stock held in the portfolio. Such techniques include Option Pricing Models, or â€œOPM,â€ including back-solve techniques, Probability Weighted Expected Return Models, or â€œPWERM,â€ and other techniques as determined to be appropriate.â€¢Volatility, or the amount of uncertainty or risk about the size of the changes in the warrant price, is based on comparable publicly traded companies within indices similar in nature to the underlying company issuing the warrant. Significant increases (decreases) in this unobservable input could result in a significantly lower (higher) fair value, but a significantly higher or lower fair value measurement of any of the Companyâ€™s portfolio investments may occur regardless of whether there is a significant increase or decrease in this unobservable input.â€¢The risk-free interest rates are derived from the U.S. Treasury yield curve. The risk-free interest rates are calculated based on a weighted average of the risk-free interest rates that correspond closest to the expected remaining life of the warrant. Significant increases (decreases) in this unobservable input could result in a significantly higher (lower) fair value, but a significantly higher or lower fair value measurement of any of the Companyâ€™s portfolio investments may occur regardless of whether there is a significant increase (decrease) in this unobservable input.â€¢Other adjustments, including a marketability discount on private company warrants, are estimated based on judgment about the general industry environment. Significant increases (decreases) in this unobservable input could result in a significantly lower (higher) fair value, but a significantly higher or lower fair value measurement of any of the Companyâ€™s portfolio investments may occur regardless of whether there is a significant increase (decrease) in this unobservable input.â€¢Historical portfolio experience on cancellations and exercises of warrants are utilized as the basis for determining the estimated life of the warrants in each financial reporting period. Warrants may be exercised in the event of acquisitions, mergers or initial public offerings, and cancelled due to events such as bankruptcies, restructuring activities or additional financings. These events cause the expected remaining life assumption to be shorter than the contractual term of the warrants. Significant increases (decreases) in this unobservable input could result in a significantly higher (lower) fair value, but a significantly higher or lower fair value measurement of any of the Companyâ€™s portfolio investments may occur regardless of whether there is a significant increase (decrease) in this unobservable input.Success fees are valued utilizing a scenario analysis. Fair value is determined based the potential success fee proceeds under varied timing of liquidity events during the life of the success fee agreement. At each potential exit scenario, a probability is ascribed based on the current expectations of an exit event for the portfolio company. The probability weighted value at each respective exit date is discounted to a present value and summed together to arrive at the fair value.Under certain circumstances, the Company may use an alternative technique to value warrants that better reflects the warrantsâ€™ fair values, such as an expected settlement of a warrant in the near term, a model that incorporates a put feature associated with the warrant, or the price paid or realized in a recently completed transaction or binding offer received in an arms-length transaction. The fair value may be determined based on the expected proceeds to be received from such settlement or based on the net present value of the expected proceeds from the put option.Equity InvestmentsThe fair value of an equity investment in a privately held company is initially the face value of the amount invested. The Company adjusts the fair value of equity investments in private companies upon the completion of a new third-party round of equity financing subsequent to the Companyâ€™s investment. The Company may make adjustments to fair value, absent a new equity financing event, based upon positive or negative changes in a portfolio companyâ€™s financial or operational performance. The Company may also reference comparable transactions and/or secondary market transactions in connection with its determination of fair value. The fair value of an equity investment in a publicly traded company is based upon the closing public share price on the date of measurement. These assets are recorded at fair value on a recurring basis. Money market funds are valued based on the published net asset value per share on the day of valuation and are included in "Cash and cash equivalents" on the Consolidated Statements of Assets and Liabilities.Investment ClassificationThe Company classifies its investments by level of affiliation and control. As defined in the 1940 Act, investee companies are deemed as affiliated investments when a company or individual possesses, or has the right to acquire within 60 days or less, beneficial ownership of 5.0% or more of the outstanding voting securities of an investee company. Control investments are those where the investor has the ability or power to exercise a controlling influence over the management or policies of an investee company. Control is generally deemed to exist when a company or individual possesses, or has the right to acquire within 60 days or less, beneficial ownership of more than 25.0% of the outstanding voting securities of an investee company, or maintains greater than 50% representation on the investee company's board of directors. Investments are recognized when the Company assumes an obligation to acquire a financial instrument and assumes the risks for gains or losses related to that instrument. Investments are derecognized when the Company assumes an obligation to sell a financial instrument and foregoes the risks for gains or losses related to that instrument. Specifically, the Company records all security transactions on a trade date basis. Investments in other, non-security financial instruments, such as limited partnerships or private companies, are recorded on the basis of subscription date or redemption date, as applicable. Amounts for investments recognized or derecognized but not yet settled will be reported as receivables for investments sold and payables for investments acquired, respectively, on the Consolidated Statements of Assets and Liabilities.Income TaxesThe Company elected to be treated as a RIC under Subchapter M of the Code beginning with its taxable year ended December 31, 2016, currently qualifies as a RIC, and intends to qualify annually for the tax treatment applicable to RICs. A RIC generally is not subject to U.S. federal income taxes on distributed income and gains so long as it meets certain source-of-income and asset diversification requirements and it distributes at least 90% of its net ordinary income and net short-term capital gains in excess of its net long-term capital losses, if any, to its stockholders. So long as the Company maintains its status as a RIC, it generally will not be subject to U.S. federal income tax on any ordinary income or capital gains that it distributes at least annually to its stockholders as dividends. Rather, any tax liability related to income earned by the Company represents obligations of the Companyâ€™s investors and will not be reflected in the consolidated financial statements of the Company. The Company intends to make sufficient distributions to maintain its RIC status each year and it does not anticipate paying any material U.S. federal income taxes in the future.Depending on the level of taxable income earned in a tax year, the Company may choose to carry forward such taxable income in excess of current year dividend distributions from such current year taxable income into the next tax year and pay a 4% excise tax on such income, as required. If the Company determines that the estimated current year taxable income will exceed the estimated dividend distributions for the current year from such income, the Company accrues excise tax on estimated excess taxable income as such taxable income is earned. Differences between taxable income and net increase in net assets resulting from operations either can be temporary, meaning they will reverse in the future, or permanent. In accordance with Section 946-205-45-3 of the ASC, permanent tax differences are reclassified from accumulated undistributed earnings to paid-in-capital at the end of each year and have no impact on total net assets. For more information, refer to "Note 10 â€“ Income Taxes." Per Share InformationBasic and diluted earnings (loss) per common share is calculated using the weighted-average number of common shares outstanding for the period presented. For the three and six months ended June 30, 2024 and 2023, basic and diluted earnings (loss) per share of common stock were the same because there were no potentially dilutive securities outstanding. Per share data is based on the weighted-average shares outstanding.Comprehensive Income The Company reports all changes in comprehensive income in the Consolidated Statements of Operations. The Company did not have any other comprehensive income in 2024 or 2023. The Companyâ€™s comprehensive income is equal to its "Net increase (decrease) in net assets resulting from operations" on the Consolidated Statements of Operations. Â DistributionsDistributions to common stockholders are recorded on the applicable record date. The amount, if any, to be distributed to common stockholders is determined by the Board of Directors each quarter and is generally based upon the Company's earnings estimated by management. Net realized capital gains, if any, are generally distributed at least annually. For more information, refer to "Note 9 â€“ Net Assets." Organization and Offering CostsOrganization costs include, among other things, the cost of organizing as a Maryland corporation, including the cost of legal services and other fees pertaining to the Company's organization, all of which are expensed as incurred. Offering costs include, among other things, legal fees and other costs pertaining to the preparation of the Companyâ€™s public and private offering materials as well as travel-related expenses related to the Companyâ€™s public and private offerings. Pursuant to the Advisory Agreement (as defined in "Note 3 â€“ Related Party Agreements and Transactions"), the Company and RGC agreed that organization and offering costs incurred in connection with the Initial Private Offering (as defined in "Note 9 â€“ Net Assets") would be borne by the Company up to a maximum amount of $1.0 million, provided that the amount of such costs in excess of $1.0 million would be paid by RGC. In 2016, the Company incurred the maximum amount of $1.0 million in organization and offering costs incurred in connection with the Initial Private Offering. Offering costs related to the Second Private Offering (as defined in "Note 9 â€“ Net Assets") were accumulated and charged to additional paid in capital at the time of each closing beginning in 2019. These offering costs related to the Second Private Offering were subject to a cap of $0.6 million, excluding placement agent fees which had no cap and therefore the Company will bear such cost. At the completion of the Second Private Offering, the Company had accumulated and recorded $0.7 million in offering costs and $0.2 million in placement agent fees related to the Second Private Offering. Under the terms of the Second Private Offering, offering costs in excess of $0.6 million, excluding placement agent fees, were reimbursed by RGC.The Company had accumulated and recorded $7.0 million of offering costs related to the IPO, which were charged to additional paid in capital at the time of closing in October 2021. The offering costs were fully born by the Company and included underwriting fees, legal fees, and other costs pertaining to the preparation of the Companyâ€™s offering materials as well as travel-related expenses.Recently Adopted Accounting PronouncementsIn June 2022, the FASB issued ASU 2022-03, "Fair Value Measurement (Topic 820) - Fair Value Measurement of Equity Securities Subject to Contractual Sale Restrictions", which was issued to (1) clarify the guidance in Topic 820, Fair Value Measurement, when measuring the fair value of an equity security subject to contractual restrictions that prohibit the sale of an equity security, (2) to amend a related illustrative example, and (3) to introduce new disclosure requirements for equity securities subject to contractual sale restrictions that are measured at fair value in accordance with Topic 820. The new guidance is effective for interim and annual periods beginning after December 15, 2023. The Company adopted the guidance on January 1, 2024, and its adoption did not have a material impact on the Companyâ€™s financial statements. Recently Issued Accounting PronouncementsIn November 2023, the FASB issued ASU 2023-07, Segment Reporting (Topic 280): Improvements to Reportable Segment Disclosures ("ASU 2023-07"). This change is intended to improve reportable segment disclosure requirements, primarily through enhanced disclosures about significant segment expenses, allowing financial statement users to better understand the components of a segment's profit or loss and assess potential future cash flows for each reportable segment and the entity as a whole. The amendments expand a public entity's segment disclosures by requiring disclosure of significant segment expenses that are regularly provided to the chief operating decision maker, clarifying when an entity may report one or more additional measures to assess segment performance, requiring enhanced interim disclosures and providing new disclosure requirements for entities with a single reportable segment, among other new disclosure requirements. The amendments are effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2023, and interim periods within fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2024, and early adoption is permitted. Although the ASU only requires additional disclosure about the Company's operating segment, the Company is currently evaluating the impact of adopting this guidance with respect to the consolidated financial statements.Â In December 2023, the FASB issued ASU 2023-09 "Income Taxes (Topics 740): Improvements to Income Tax Disclosures" to expand the disclosure requirements for income taxes, specifically related to the rate reconciliation and income taxes paid. ASU 2023-09 is effective for our annual periods beginning January 1, 2025, with early adoption permitted. We are currently evaluating the potential effect that the updated standard will have on our financial statement disclosures. We intend to achieve our investment objective by investing in high growth-potential, private companies. We typically invest in senior secured loans that generally fall into two strategies: Sponsored Growth Lending and Non-Sponsored Growth Lending. We generally receive warrants and/or other equity from our investments. We expect our investments in loans will generally range from between $10.0 million to $100.0 million, and the upper end of this range may increase as we raise additional capital.We generate revenue in the form of interest on the debt securities that we hold and distributions and capital gains on other interests that we acquire in our portfolio companies. We expect that the debt we invest in will generally have stated terms of 36 to 60 months. Interest on debt securities is generally payable monthly, primarily based on a floating rate index, and subject to certain floors determined by market rates at the time the investment is made. In some cases, some of our investments may provide for deferred interest payments or PIK interest. The principal amount of the debt securities and any accrued but unpaid interest will become due at the maturity date. Any original issue discount ("OID") or market discount or premium will be capitalized, and we will accrete or amortize such amounts as interest income. We record prepayment fees on debt investments as fee income. Dividend income, if any, will be recognized on an accrual basis to the extent that we expect to collect such amounts. On August 3, 2017, the Board of Directors approved certain amendments to the Prior Advisory Agreement (the â€œFirst Amended and Restated Advisory Agreementâ€) and recommended that the Companyâ€™s stockholders approve the First Amended and Restated Advisory Agreement. The First Amended and Restated Advisory Agreement became effective on September 12, 2017 upon approval by the stockholders at a special meeting of stockholders of the Company. On April 7, 2021, the Board of Directors approved certain additional amendments to the First Amended and Restated Advisory Agreement (the â€œAdvisory Agreementâ€) at a virtual meeting and recommended that the Companyâ€™s stockholders approve the Advisory Agreement. In reliance upon certain exemptive relief granted by the SEC in connection with the global COVID-19 pandemic, the Board of Directors undertook to ratify the Advisory Agreement at its next in-person meeting which was held in July 2021. The Advisory Agreement became effective on May 27, 2021 upon approval by the stockholders at a special meeting of stockholders of the Company. The Advisory Agreement amended the First Amended and Restated Advisory Agreement to include certain revisions to the management and incentive fee calculation mechanisms and clarify language relating to liquidity events. On April 30, 2024, the Board of Directors renewed the Advisory Agreement for a period of twelve months commencing May 27, 2024. Under the terms of the Advisory Agreement, RGC:â€¢determines the composition of the Companyâ€™s portfolio, the nature and timing of the changes to the portfolio and the manner of implementing such changes;â€¢identifies, evaluates and negotiates the structure of the investments the Company makes;â€¢executes, closes and monitors the investments the Company makes;â€¢determines the securities and other assets that the Company will purchase, retain or sell;â€¢performs due diligence on prospective investments; andâ€¢provides the Company with other such investment advisory, research and related services as the Company may, from time to time, reasonably require for the investment of its funds.Pursuant to the Advisory Agreement, the Company pays RGC a fee for its investment advisory and management services consisting of two components â€“ a base management fee and an incentive fee. The cost of both the base management fee and incentive fee are ultimately borne by the Companyâ€™s stockholders.Base Management FeeThe base management fee is payable on the first day of each calendar quarter and is calculated on the Company's "Gross Assets" which, for purposes of the Advisory Agreement, is defined as the Companyâ€™s gross assets, including assets purchased with borrowed funds or other forms of leverage, as well as any PIK interest, as of the end of the most recently completed fiscal quarter. The base management fee will be an amount equal to 0.375% (1.50% annualized) of the Companyâ€™s average daily Gross Assets during the most recently completed calendar quarter, so long as the aggregate amount of the Companyâ€™s Gross Assets as of the end of the most recently completed calendar quarter is equal to or greater than $1.0 billion. If the aggregate amount of the Companyâ€™s Gross Assets as of the end of the most recently completed calendar quarter is less than $1.0 billion but equal to or greater than $500.0 million, the base management fee will be an amount equal to 0.40% (1.60% annualized) of the Companyâ€™s average daily Gross Assets during the most recently completed calendar quarter. If the aggregate amount of the Companyâ€™s Gross Assets as of the end of the most recently completed calendar quarter is less than $500.0 million, the base management fee will be an amount equal to 0.4375% (1.75% annualized) of the Companyâ€™s average daily Gross Assets during the most recently completed calendar quarter.For the three and six months ended June 30, 2024, RGC earned base management fees at a rate of 1.50% per annum, amounting to $3.9 million and $7.9 million, respectively. For the three and six months ended June 30, 2023, RGC earned base management fees at a rate of 1.50% per annum, amounting to $4.3 million and $8.3 million, respectively.Incentive FeeThe incentive fee, which provides RGC with a share of the income that RGC generates for the Company, consists of an investment-income component and a capital-gains component, which are largely independent of each other, with the result that one component may be payable even if the other is not.Under the investment-income component (the â€œIncome Incentive Feeâ€), the Company pays RGC each quarter an incentive fee with respect to the Companyâ€™s pre-incentive fee net investment income ("Pre-Incentive Fee NII"). The Income Incentive Fee is calculated and payable quarterly in arrears based on the Pre-Incentive Fee NII for the immediately preceding fiscal quarter. Payments based on Pre-Incentive Fee NII will be based on the Pre-Incentive Fee NII earned for the quarter. For this purpose, â€œPre-Incentive Fee NIIâ€ means interest income, dividend income and any other income (including any other fees, such as commitment, origination, structuring, diligence, managerial and consulting fees or other fees that the Company receives from portfolio companies) that the Company accrues during the fiscal quarter, minus the Companyâ€™s operating expenses for the quarter (including the base management fee, expenses payable under the amended and restated administration were deferred incentive fees payable, both of which are included in "Incentive fees payable" on the Consolidated Statements of Assets and Liabilities agreement with the Administrator (the â€œAdministration Agreementâ€), and any dividends paid on any issued and outstanding preferred stock, but excluding the incentive fee). Pre-Incentive Fee NII includes, in the case of investments with a deferred interest feature (such as OID accretion, debt instruments with pay in kind interest and zero coupon securities), accrued income the Company has not yet received in cash; provided, however, that the portion of the Income Incentive Fee attributable to deferred interest features will be paid, only if and to the extent received in cash, and any accrual thereof will be reversed if and to the extent such interest is reversed in connection with any write off or similar treatment of the investment giving rise to any deferred interest accrual, applied in each case in the order such interest was accrued. Such subsequent payments in respect of previously accrued income will not reduce the amounts payable for any quarter pursuant to the calculation of the Income Incentive Fee described above. Pre-Incentive Fee NII does not include any realized or unrealized capital gains (losses).Pre-Incentive Fee NII, expressed as a rate of return on the value of the Companyâ€™s net assets (defined as total assets less liabilities) at the end of the immediately preceding fiscal quarter, will be compared to a â€œhurdle rateâ€ of 2.0% per quarter (8.0% annualized). The Company pays RGC an Income Incentive Fee with respect to the Companyâ€™s Pre-Incentive Fee NII in each calendar quarter as follows: (1) no Income Incentive Fee in any calendar quarter in which the Companyâ€™s Pre-Incentive Fee NII does not exceed the hurdle rate of 2.0%; (2) 80% of the Companyâ€™s Pre-Incentive Fee NII with respect to that portion of such Pre-Incentive Fee NII, if any, that exceeds the hurdle rate but is less than 2.667% in any calendar quarter (10.668% annualized) (the portion of the Companyâ€™s Pre-Incentive Fee NII that exceeds the hurdle but is less than 2.667% is referred to as the â€œcatch-upâ€; the â€œcatch-upâ€ is meant to provide RGC with 20.0% of the Companyâ€™s Pre-Incentive Fee NII as if a hurdle did not apply if the Companyâ€™s Pre-Incentive Fee NII exceeds 2.667% in any calendar quarter (10.668% annualized)); and (3) 20.0% of the amount of the Companyâ€™s Pre-Incentive Fee NII, if any, that exceeds 2.667% in any calendar quarter (10.668% annualized) payable to RGC (once the hurdle is reached and the catch-up is achieved, 20.0% of all Pre-Incentive Fee NII thereafter is allocated to RGC).Until the consummation of a Spin-Off transaction (defined below), in the event that (a) the sum of the Companyâ€™s cumulative net realized losses since the date of the Companyâ€™s election to be regulated as a BDC exceeded 2.0% of the total non-control/non-affiliate investments made by the Company since the date of the Companyâ€™s election to be regulated as a BDC through the end of the quarter and (b) the Pre-Incentive Fee NII adjusted to include any realized capital gains and losses (â€œAdjusted Pre-Incentive Fee NIIâ€), expressed as an annualized rate of return on the value of the Companyâ€™s average daily net assets (defined as total assets less liabilities), since the Companyâ€™s election to be regulated as a BDC through the end of the quarter was less than 10.0%, no Income Incentive Fee would be payable for such quarter until the first subsequent quarter in which either (x) the sum of the Companyâ€™s cumulative net realized losses since the date of the Companyâ€™s election to be regulated as a BDC was equal to or less than 2.0% of the total non-control/non-affiliate investments made by the Company since the date of the Companyâ€™s election to be regulated as a BDC through the end of such subsequent quarter or (y) the Adjusted Pre-Incentive Fee NII, expressed as an annualized rate of return on the value of the Companyâ€™s average daily net assets (defined as total assets less liabilities), since the Companyâ€™s election to be regulated as a BDC through the of the end of the quarter equals or exceeds 10.0%; provided, however, that in no event would any Income Incentive Fee be payable for any prior quarter after the three-year anniversary of the end of such quarter. For purposes of the Advisory Agreement, a â€œSpin-Off transactionâ€ includes either a transaction whereby (a) the Company offers its stockholders the option to elect to either (i) retain their ownership of shares of the Companyâ€™s common stock, or (ii) exchange their shares of the Companyâ€™s common stock for shares of common stock in a newly formed entity (the â€œPublic Fundâ€) that will elect to be regulated as a BDC under the 1940 Act and treated as a RIC under Subchapter M of the Code (the â€œPublic Fund Spin Offâ€); or (b) the Company completes a listing of the Companyâ€™s securities on any securities exchange (an â€œExchange Listingâ€). Under the capital gains component of the incentive fee (the â€œCapital Gains Feeâ€), the Company will pay RGC, as of the end of each calendar year, 20.0% of the Companyâ€™s aggregate cumulative realized capital gains, if any, from the date of the Companyâ€™s election to be regulated as a BDC through the end of that calendar year, computed net of the Companyâ€™s aggregate cumulative realized capital losses and aggregate cumulative unrealized capital losses through the end of such year, less the aggregate amount of any previously paid Capital Gains Fee. For the foregoing purpose, the Companyâ€™s â€œaggregate cumulative realized capital gainsâ€ will not include any unrealized gains. If such amount is negative, then no Capital Gains Fee will be payable for such year.For the three and six months ended June 30, 2024, RGC earned incentive fees of $3.6 million and $8.3 million, respectively; $2.9 million and $6.5 million of which were payable in cash, respectively, and $0.7 million and $1.8 million were accrued and generated from deferred interest, respectively. For the three and six months ended June 30, 2023, RGC earned incentive fees of $4.9 million and $9.5 million, respectively; of which $3.4 million and $6.9 million were payable in cash, respectively, and $1.5 million and $2.6 million were accrued and generated from deferred interest, respectively. All incentive fees accrued and generated from deferred interest (i.e., PIK and certain discount accretion) are not payable until receipt of respective cash by the Company. As of June 30, 2024, $2.9 million were payable in cash, and $11.0 million were deferred incentive fees payable, both of which are included in "Incentive fees payable" on the Statements of Assets and Liabilities. As of December 31, 2023, $3.3 million of incentive fees payable were payable in cash, and $9.2 million were deferred incentive fees payable, both of which are included in "Incentive fees payable" on the Consolidated Statements of Assets and Liabilities. The capital gains incentive fee consists of fees related to realized gains and losses and unrealized capital losses. With respect to the incentive fee expense accrual related to the capital gains incentive fee, U.S. GAAP requires that the capital gains incentive fee accrual consider the cumulative aggregate unrealized gains in the calculation, as a capital gains incentive fee would be payable if such unrealized gains were realized even though such unrealized gains are not permitted to be considered in calculating the fee actually payable under the Advisory Agreement. As of each of June 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, there was no capital gains incentive fee accrued, earned or payable to RGC under the Advisory Agreement.Spin-Off Incentive FeeThe Income Incentive Fee will be payable in connection with a Public Fund Spin-Off as follows. The Income Incentive Fee will be calculated as of the date of the completion of each Public Fund Spin-Off and will equal the amount of Income Incentive Fee that would be payable to RGC if (1) all of the Companyâ€™s investments were liquidated for their current value and any unamortized deferred portfolio investment-related fees would be deemed accelerated, (2) the proceeds from such liquidation were used to pay all of the Companyâ€™s outstanding liabilities, and (3) the remainder were distributed to the Companyâ€™s stockholders and paid as incentive fee in accordance with the Income Incentive Fee described in clauses (1) and (2) above for determining the amount of the Income Incentive Fee; provided, however, that in no event will the Income Incentive Fee paid in connection with the completion of the Public Fund Spin-Off (x) include the portion of the Income Incentive Fee attributable to deferred interest features of a particular investment that is not transferred pursuant to the Public Fund Spin-Off until such time as the deferred interest is received in cash, or (y) exceed 20.0% of the Companyâ€™s Pre-Incentive Fee NII accrued by the Company for the fiscal quarter as of the date of the completion of the Public-Fund Spin-Off. The Company will make the payment of the Income Incentive Fee paid in connection with the completion of the Public Fund Spin-Off in cash on or immediately following the date of the completion of the Public-Fund Spin-Off. After the Public Fund Spin-Off, all calculations relating to the incentive fee payable will be made beginning on the day immediately following the completion of the Public Fund Spin-Off without taking into account the exchanged shares of the Companyâ€™s common stock (or contributions, distributions or proceeds relating thereto).The Capital Gains Fee will be payable in respect of the exchanged shares of the Companyâ€™s common stock in connection with the Public Fund Spin-Off and will be calculated as of the date of the completion of the Public Fund Spin-Off as if such date were a calendar year-end for purposes of calculating and paying the Capital Gains Fee.No Income Incentive Fee or Capital Gains Fee will be payable in connection with the Public Fund Spin-Off unless, on the date of the completion of the Public Fund Spin-Off, the sum of the Companyâ€™s (i) Pre-Incentive Fee NII and (ii) realized capital gains less realized capital losses and unrealized capital losses from the date of the Companyâ€™s election to be regulated as a BDC through, and including, the date of the completion of the Public Fund Spin-Off, is greater than 8.0% of the cumulative net investments made by the Company since the Companyâ€™s election to be regulated as a BDC.Â Administration AgreementThe Company reimburses the Administrator for the allocable portion of overhead expenses incurred by the Administrator in performing its obligations under the Administration Agreement, including furnishing the Company with office facilities, equipment and clerical, bookkeeping and recordkeeping services at such facilities, as well as providing other administrative services. In addition, the Company reimburses the Administrator for the fees and expenses associated with performing compliance functions, and the Companyâ€™s allocable portion of the compensation of the Companyâ€™s Chief Financial Officer, Chief Compliance Officer and their respective support staff, as well as any expenses paid by the Administrator on the Company's behalf. See â€œNote 2 â€“ Summary of Significant Accounting Policiesâ€ for further discussion.Â Derivative Financial InstrumentsIn the normal course of business, the Company may utilize derivative contracts in connection with its investment activities. Investments in derivative contracts are subject to additional risks that can result in a loss of all or part of an investment. The derivative activities and exposure to derivative contracts primarily involve equity price risks. In addition to the primary underlying risk, additional counterparty risk exists due to the potential inability of counterparties to meet the terms of their contracts.Warrants provide exposure and potential gains upon increases in the portfolio companyâ€™s equity value. A warrant has a limited life and expires on a certain date. As a warrantâ€™s expiration date approaches, the time value of the warrant will decline. In addition, if the stock underlying the warrant declines in price, the intrinsic value of an â€œin the moneyâ€ warrant will decline. Further, if the price of the stock underlying the warrant does not exceed the strike price of the warrant on the expiration date, the warrant will expire worthless. As a result, there is the potential for the entire value of an investment in a warrant to be lost. The Companyâ€™s volume of warrant investment activity is closely correlated to its primary senior secured loans to portfolio companies. For the three and six months ended June 30, 2024, the Company had no realized gains or losses on investments and a net unrealized loss of $0.5 million and $0.8 million, respectively, from its investments in warrants. For the three months ended June 30, 2023, the Company had no realized gains or losses from its investments in warrants. For the six months ended June 30, 2023, the Company had a realized loss of $1.2 million from its investments in warrants. For the three and six months ended June 30, 2023, the Company had a net unrealized loss of $0.9 million and a net unrealized gain of $2.6 million, respectively, from its investments in warrants. Realized gains and losses from warrants are included in the respective control, affiliate, or non-control/non-affiliate "Net realized gain (loss) on investments" on the Consolidated Statements of Operations. Unrealized gains and losses from investments in warrants is included in the respective control, affiliate, or non-control/non-affiliate "Net change in unrealized gain (loss) on investments" on the Consolidated Statements of Operations.Counterparty risk exists from the potential failure of an issuer of warrants to settle its exercised warrants. The maximum risk of loss from counterparty risk is the fair value of the contracts and the purchase price of the warrants. The Board of Directors considers the effects of counterparty risk when determining the fair value of its investments in warrants. debt securities are origination yields and discount rates. The origination yield is defined as the initial market price of an investment in a hypothetical market to hypothetical market participants where buyers and sellers are willing participants. The discount rate is related to company-specific characteristics such as underlying investment performance, projected cash flows, and other characteristics of the investment. Significant increases or decreases in the inputs in isolation may result in a significantly higher or lower fair value measurement, depending on the materiality of the investment. However, a significantly higher or lower fair value measurement of any of the Companyâ€™s portfolio investments may occur regardless of whether there is a significant increase or decrease in the unobservable inputs.(2)The significant unobservable inputs used in the fair value measurement of the Companyâ€™s warrant and equity-related securities are inputs used in the OPM, which include industry volatility, risk free interest rate and estimated time to exit. The Equity Allocation model and the Black Scholes model were the main OPMs used during the period ended June 30, 2024. Probability Weighted Expected Return Models (â€œPWERMâ€) and other techniques were used as determined appropriate. Significant increases (decreases) in the inputs in isolation would result in a significantly higher (lower) fair value measurement, depending on the materiality of the investment. However, a significantly higher or lower fair value measurement of any of the Companyâ€™s portfolio investments may occur regardless of whether there is a significant increase (decrease) in the unobservable inputs. For some investments, additional consideration may be given to data from the last round of financing or merger/acquisition events near the measurement date.(3)Warrant investments using a PWERM valuation technique contain success fees, in which case the inputs are not applicable because the nature of a success fee is a fixed payout dependent on certain liquidation events. The fair value of the Company's Credit Facility, April 2026 Notes, December 2026 Notes and August 2027 Notes are estimated using Level 3 inputs by discounting remaining payments using comparable market rates or market quotes for similar instruments at the measurement date. The fair value of the Company's July 2027 Notes and December 2027 Notes is based on vendor pricing received by the Company, which is considered a Level 2 input, and reflects the market close price of the notes traded on the Nasdaq Global Select Market LLC under the symbol "RWAYL" and "RWAYZ", respectively. As of both June 30, 2024, and December 31, 2023, the carrying values of the Credit Facility, April 2026 Notes, July 2027 Notes, August 2027 Notes, and December 2027 Notes approximate fair value. As of June 30, 2024, the fair value of the December 2026 Notes was approximately $64.6 million and the carrying value was approximately $69.5 million, net of unamortized deferred debt costs of $0.5 million. The Company is subject to credit risk to the extent that any financial institution with which it conducts business is unable to fulfill contractual obligations on its behalf. The Company monitors the financial condition of those financial institutions and believes that risk of loss associated with any uninsured balance is remote. Â In the event that a portfolio company completely fails to perform according to the terms of their loan agreement, the amount of loss due to credit risk from the Company's investments would equal the sum of the Companyâ€™s recorded investments in the portfolio company and the portion of unfunded commitments currently eligible to be drawn. Refer to "Note 8 â€“ Commitments and Contingencies" for a summary of the aggregate balance of unfunded commitments as of June 30, 2024. The Company predominantly collateralizes its investments by obtaining a first priority security interest in a portfolio companyâ€™s assets, which may include its intellectual property. Â As of June 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, the Companyâ€™s five largest debt investments in portfolio companies represented approximately 36.4% and 38.0%, respectively, of the total fair value of the Companyâ€™s debt investments in portfolio companies. As of June 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, the Company had debt investments in 17 and 14 portfolio companies, respectively, that represented 5% or more of the

Companyâ€™s net assets. Taxes Note 10 â€“ Income TaxesThe Company elected to be treated as a RIC under Subchapter M of the Code starting with its taxable year ended December 31, 2016. The Company currently qualifies and intends to qualify annually for the tax treatment applicable to RICs. A RIC generally is not subject to U.S. federal income taxes on distributed income and gains so long as it meets certain source-of-income and asset diversification requirements and it distributes at least 90% of its net ordinary income and net short-term capital gains in excess of its net long-term capital losses, if any, to its stockholders. So long as the Company maintains its status as a RIC, it generally will not be subject to U.S. federal income tax on any ordinary income or capital gains that it distributes at least annually to its stockholders as dividends. Rather, any tax liability related to income earned by the Company represents obligations of the Companyâ€™s investors and will not be reflected in the consolidated financial statements of the Company. The Company intends to make sufficient distributions to maintain its RIC status each year and it does not anticipate paying any material United States federal income taxes in the future.Federal income tax regulations differ from U.S. GAAP, therefore distributions in accordance with tax regulations may differ from net investment income and realized gains recognized for financial reporting purposes. Differences may be permanent or temporary in nature. Permanent differences are reclassified among capital accounts in the consolidated financial statements to reflect their appropriate tax character. Temporary differences arise when certain items of income, expense, gain or loss are recognized at some time in the future.The following table sets forth the tax cost basis and the estimated aggregate gross unrealized gain (loss) on investments for federal income tax purposes as of and for the period ended June 30, 2024 and the year ended December 31, 2023 (in thousands): Â Â June 30, 2024 Â Â December 31, 2023 Â Tax cost on investments Â $ Â 1,115,957 Â Â $ Â 1,105,481 Â Change in unrealized gain on a tax basis Â $ Â 11,929 Â Â $ Â 11,239 Â Change in unrealized loss on a tax basis Â Â Â (64,562) Â Â Â (49,711) Net unrealized gain (loss) on a tax basis Â $ Â (52,633) Â $ Â (38,472) The Company accounts for income taxes in conformity with ASC Topic 740 â€“ Income Taxes ("ASC 740"). ASC 740 provides guidelines for how uncertain tax positions should be recognized, measured, presented and disclosed in consolidated financial statements. ASC 740 requires the evaluation of tax positions taken or expected to be taken in the course of preparing the Company's tax returns to determine whether the tax positions are "more-likely-than-not" of being sustained by the applicable tax authority. Tax positions deemed to meet a "more-likely-than-not" threshold would be recorded as a tax benefit or expense in the current period.

The Company recognizes interest and penalties, if any, related to unrecognized tax benefits as income tax expense on the Consolidated Statements of Operations. There were no material uncertain income tax positions at June 30, 2024 or December 31, 2023. Although the Company files federal and state tax returns, the Company's major tax jurisdiction is federal. The previous three tax year-ends and the interim tax period since then remain subject to examination by the Internal Revenue Service.If the Company does not distribute (or is not deemed to have distributed) each calendar year the sum of (1) 98% of its net ordinary income for each calendar year, (2) 98.2% of its capital gain net income for the one-year period ending October 31 in that calendar year and (3) any income recognized, but not distributed, in preceding years (the â€œMinimum Distribution Amountâ€), the Company will generally be required to pay a U.S. federal excise tax equal to 4% of the amount by which the Minimum Distribution Amount exceeds the distributions for the year. To the extent that the Company determines that its estimated current year annual taxable income will be in excess of estimated current year dividend distributions from such taxable income, the Company accrues excise taxes, if any, on estimated excess taxable income as taxable income is earned using an annual effective excise tax rate. The annual effective U.S. federal excise tax rate is determined by dividing the estimated annual excise tax by the estimated annual taxable income.If the Company does not qualify to be treated as a RIC for any taxable year, the Company will be taxed as a regular corporation (a â€œC corporationâ€) under subchapter C of the Code for such taxable year. If the Company has previously qualified as a RIC but is subsequently unable to qualify, and certain amelioration provisions are not applicable, the Company would be subject to U.S. federal income tax on all of its taxable income (including its net capital gains) at regular corporate rates. The Company would not be able to deduct distributions to stockholders, nor would it be required to make distributions. In order to requalify as a RIC, in addition to the other requirements discussed above, the Company would be required to distribute all of its previously undistributed earnings attributable to the period it failed to qualify by the end of the first year that it intends to requalify. If the Company fails to requalify for a period greater than two taxable years, it may be subject to U.S. federal income tax at corporate tax rates on any net built-in gains with respect to certain of its assets (i.e., the excess of the aggregate gains, including items of income, over aggregate losses that would have been realized with respect to such assets if the Company had been liquidated) that it elects to recognize on requalification or when recognized over the next five years. The Company is an investment company following the specialized accounting and reporting guidance specified in the Financial Accounting Standards Boardâ€™s (â€œFASBâ€) Accounting Standards Codification (â€œASCâ€) Topic 946, Financial Services â€” Investment Companies.In the opinion of management, all adjustments, all of which were of a normal recurring nature, considered necessary for the fair presentation of financial statements for the interim period have been included. The results of operations for the current interim period are not necessarily indicative of results that ultimately may be achieved for any other interim period or for the year ending December 31, 2024. The interim unaudited consolidated financial statements and notes hereto should be read in conjunction with the audited consolidated financial statements and notes thereto contained in the Companyâ€™s annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2023, filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") on March 7, 2024.Certain items in the June 30, 2023, and December 31, 2023, consolidated financial statements have been reclassified to conform to the June 30, 2024, presentation with no effect on the "Total net assets" on the Consolidated Statements of Assets and Liabilities, no effect on the "Net increase (decrease) in net assets resulting from operations" on the Consolidated Statements of Operations, and no effect to the "Net increase (decrease) in cash and cash equivalents" on the Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows. Principles of Consolidation Principles of ConsolidationUnder ASC 946, the Company is precluded from consolidating portfolio company investments, including those in which it has a controlling interest, unless the portfolio company is another investment company. An exception to this general principle occurs if the Company holds a controlling interest in an operating company that provides all or substantially all of its services directly to the Company or to its portfolio companies. None of the portfolio investments made by the Company qualify for this exception. Therefore, the Companyâ€™s investment portfolio is carried on the Consolidated Statements of Assets and Liabilities at fair value, as discussed further in â€œNote 4 â€” Investments,â€ with any adjustments to fair value recognized as "Net change in unrealized gain (loss) on investmentsâ€ on the Consolidated Statements of Operations.The Companyâ€™s consolidated operations include the activities of its wholly owned subsidiary, P3 Holdco LLC ("P3 Holdco") and P3 Holdcoâ€™s wholly owned subsidiary Pivot3, Inc. The subsidiaries are consolidated and included in the Companyâ€™s consolidated financial statements and the assets of Pivot3, Inc. are recorded at fair value. All intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated. Refer to the Schedule of Investments for the Companyâ€™s equity interest in Pivot3, Inc. as of June 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023. Runway-Cadma I LLC Runway-Cadma I LLCAs announced on March 7, 2024, effective March 6, 2024, the Company entered into a joint venture agreement with Cadma Capital Partners LLC ("Cadma") to create and co-manage Runway-Cadma I LLC (â€œRunway-Cadma LLCâ€ or the â€œJVâ€). The JV may invest in secured loans to growth-stage companies that have been originated by the Company. The Company and Cadma committed to initially provide $35.0 million and $35.0 million, respectively, of equity capital to the JV. The JV is capitalized as investment transactions are completed. All portfolio decisions and generally all other actions in respect of the JV must be approved by the board of managers of the JV consisting of an equal number of representatives of the Company and Cadma. Capital contributions are called from the Company and Cadma on a pro-rata basis based on their total capital commitments. For more information, refer to "Note 3 â€” Related Parties." Â As permitted under Regulation S-X and consistent with the guidance in ASC 946-810-45-3, the Company will generally not consolidate its investment in a company other than an investment company subsidiary or a controlled operating company whose business consists of providing services to the Company. As the Companyâ€™s representatives do not comprise the majority of the board of managers of the JV and the Company does not hold a majority of the economic interests in the JV, the Company does not consolidate the JV in its consolidated financial statements. Use of Estimates Use of EstimatesThe preparation of consolidated financial statements in conformity with U.S. GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities as of the date of the consolidated financial statements and the reported amounts of income and expense during the reporting period. Changes in the economic and regulatory environment, financial markets, the credit worthiness of our portfolio companies, and any other parameters used in determining these estimates and assumptions could cause actual results to differ from these estimates and assumptions. Cash and Cash Equivalents Cash and Cash EquivalentsCash consists solely of funds deposited with financial institutions, while cash equivalents consist of short-term liquid investments in money market funds. Cash and cash equivalents are carried at cost, which approximates fair value. As of June 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, the Company did not have any cash invested in money market funds. Interest earned in money market funds are recorded in "Other income" on the Consolidated Statements of Operations. Debt and Deferred Debt Costs Debt and Deferred Debt CostsThe debt of the Company is carried at amortized cost on the Consolidated Statements of Assets and Liabilities, which is comprised of the principal amount borrowed, net of unamortized debt issuance costs. Debt issuance costs are fees and other direct incremental costs incurred by the Company in relation to debt financing and are amortized over the life of the related debt instrument or the life of the cost respective service, if shorter, using the straight-line method, which closely approximates the effective yield method. Amortization of such debt issuance costs and interest expense on the outstanding principal balance are recorded in "Interest and other debt financing expenses" on the Consolidated Statements of Operations. Debt issuance costs that have not yet been amortized are recorded as "Unamortized deferred debt costs" on the Consolidated Statements of Assets and Liabilities. To the extent there are no outstanding borrowings, the deferred debt costs are presented as an asset on the Consolidated Statements of Assets and Liabilities. Accrued but unpaid interest is included within "Interest payable" on the Consolidated Statements of Assets and Liabilities. For more information, refer to â€œNote 7 â€” Borrowings.â€ Segments SegmentsThe Company lends to and invests in customers in various industries. The Company separately evaluates the performance of each of its lending and investment relationships. However, because each of these loan and investment relationships has similar business and economic characteristics, they have been aggregated into a single reportable segment. All applicable segment disclosures are included in or can be derived from the Companyâ€™s consolidated financial statements. Investment Transactions and Related Investment Income Investment Transactions and Related Investment IncomeSecurity transactions, if any, are recorded on a trade-date basis. Realized gains or losses from the repayment or sale of investments are measured using the specific identification method. The amortized cost basis of investments represents the original cost adjusted for the accretion/amortization of discounts and premiums, accretion of contractual end of term payments ("ETP") and upfront loan origination fees. The Company reports changes from the prior period in fair value of investments that are measured at fair value as a component of "Net change in unrealized gain (loss) on investments" on the Consolidated Statements of Operations.Dividend income is recorded on an accrual basis to the extent that such amounts are payable and expected to be collected. Dividend income is recorded on the record date for private portfolio companies and on the ex-dividend date for publicly traded portfolio companies. Interest income, if any, adjusted for amortization of market premium and accretion of market discount, is recorded on an accrual basis to the extent that the Company expects to collect such amounts. Original issue discount (â€œOIDâ€), principally representing any loan origination fees received in connection with the closing of investments, ETP, market discount or premium, and the estimated fair value of detachable equity, warrants or contractual success fees obtained in conjunction with the Companyâ€™s debt investments, are capitalized and accreted or amortized into interest income over the life of the respective security using the effective interest method. Upon prepayment of a debt investment, any unamortized loan origination fees, end-of-term payments, and unamortized market discounts are recorded as interest income and any prepayment penalties are recorded as fee income. Upon amending terms of an existing investment, any amendment fees charged are recorded as fee income. The Company currently holds, and expects to hold in the future, some investments in its portfolio that contain PIK interest provisions. PIK interest is computed at the contractual rate specified in each loan agreement and is added to the principal balance of the loan, rather than being paid to the Company in cash, and is recorded as interest income. Thus, the actual collection of PIK interest may be deferred until the time of debt principal repayment. PIK interest, which is a non-cash source of income, is included in the Companyâ€™s taxable income and therefore affects the amount of income the Company is required to distribute to stockholders to maintain its qualification as a RIC for U.S. federal income tax purposes, even though the Company has not yet collected the cash. For the three and six months ended June 30, 2024, approximately 6.8% and 8.8%, respectively, of the Companyâ€™s total investment income was attributable to non-cash PIK interest. For the three and six months ended June 30, 2023, approximately 15.3% and 12.6%, respectively, of the Companyâ€™s total investment income was attributable to non-cash PIK interest. Investments Denominated in Foreign Currency Investments Denominated in Foreign CurrencyAt each balance sheet date, portfolio company investments denominated in foreign currencies are translated into U.S. dollars using the spot exchange rate on the last business day of the period. Purchases and sales of foreign portfolio company investments, and any income from such investments, are translated into U.S. dollars using the rates of exchange prevailing on the respective dates of such transactions. As of June 30, 2024, the Company had two investments denominated in a foreign currency. As of December 31, 2023, the Company held one investment denominated in a foreign currency. Although the fair values of foreign portfolio company investments and the fluctuation in such fair values are translated into U.S. dollars using the applicable foreign exchange rates described above, the Company does not distinguish the portion of the change in fair value resulting from foreign currency exchange rate fluctuations from the change in fair value of the underlying investment. All fluctuations in fair value are included in "Net change in unrealized gain (loss) on investments" on the Companyâ€™s Consolidated Statements of Operations.Current Expected Credit LossesThe Company measures current expected credit losses (â€œCECLâ€) for financial instruments held at amortized cost based on ASC No. 326, Financial Instruments â€“ Credit Losses (â€œASC 326â€). The Company adopted ASC 326 on January 1, 2020. ASC 326 introduces a new allowance for credit losses methodology and requires earlier recognition of credit losses, while also providing additional transparency about credit risk. The CECL methodology utilizes a lifetime â€œexpected credit lossâ€ methodology for the recognition of credit losses for receivables and loans subject to CECL at the time the financial asset is originated or based on historical experience and current conditions, as well as reasonable and supportable forecasts incorporating forward-looking information. The allowance for credit losses (the â€œCECL Reserveâ€) required under ASC 326 is deducted from the respective financial asset's amortized cost basis on the Companyâ€™s Consolidated Statements of Assets and Liabilities. The expected credit losses are adjusted each period for changes in expected lifetime credit losses through a provision for current expected credit losses recognized on the Consolidated Statements of Operations. As permitted by ASC 326, the Company has elected not to measure an allowance for credit losses on accrued interest receivable, but rather write-off in a timely manner by reversing interest income that would likely be uncollectible. As of June 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, the amortized cost basis of financial assets subject to CECL recorded within "Interest and fees receivable" on the Consolidated Statements of Assets and Liabilities was $0.3 million and $2.3 million, respectively. As of June 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, the Company's interest receivable excluded from the amortized cost basis of financial assets subject to CECL was $5.6 million and $6.0 million, respectively. As of June 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, the Company had recorded a CECL reserve within "Interest and fees receivable" on the Consolidated Statements of Assets and Liabilities of $0.2 million, and $0, respectively. Current Excepted Credit Losses Current Expected Credit LossesThe Company measures current expected credit losses (â€œCECLâ€) for financial instruments held at amortized cost based on ASC No. 326, Financial Instruments â€“ Credit Losses (â€œASC 326â€). The Company adopted ASC 326 on January 1, 2020. ASC 326 introduces a new allowance for credit losses methodology and requires earlier recognition of credit losses, while also providing additional transparency about credit risk. The CECL methodology utilizes a lifetime â€œexpected credit lossâ€ methodology for the recognition of credit losses for receivables and loans subject to CECL at the time the financial asset is originated or based on historical experience and current conditions, as well as reasonable and supportable forecasts incorporating forward-looking information. The allowance for credit losses (the â€œCECL Reserveâ€) required under ASC 326 is deducted from the respective financial asset's amortized cost basis on the Companyâ€™s Consolidated Statements of Assets and Liabilities. The expected credit losses are adjusted each period for changes in expected lifetime credit losses through a provision for current expected credit losses recognized on the Consolidated Statements of Operations. As permitted by ASC 326, the Company has elected not to measure an allowance for credit losses on accrued interest receivable, but rather write-off in a timely manner by reversing interest income that would likely be uncollectible. As of June 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, the amortized cost basis of financial assets subject to CECL recorded within "Interest and fees receivable" on the Consolidated Statements of Assets and Liabilities was $0.3 million and $2.3 million, respectively. As of June 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, the Company's interest receivable excluded from the amortized cost basis of financial assets subject to CECL was $5.6 million and $6.0 million, respectively. As of June 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, the Company had recorded a CECL reserve within "Interest and fees receivable" on the Consolidated Statements of Assets and Liabilities of $0.2 million, and $0, respectively. Non-Accrual of Investments Non-Accrual of InvestmentsDebt investments are placed on non-accrual status when principal, interest, and other obligations become materially past due or when it is probable that principal, interest, or other obligations will not be collected in full. At the point of non-accrual, the Company will cease recognizing interest income on the debt investment until all principal and interest due have been paid or the Company believes the borrower has demonstrated the ability to repay its current and future contractual obligations. Additionally, any OID associated with the debt investment is no longer accreted to interest income as of the date the loan is placed on non-accrual status. Any payments received on non-accrual loans are first applied to principal prior to recovery of any foregone interest or end of term payment fees. Non-accrual loans are restored to accrual status when past due principal or interest are paid, and, in managementâ€™s judgment are likely to remain current. The Company may make exceptions to this policy if the investment has sufficient collateral value and is in the process of collection such that the Company will be made whole on the investment, inclusive of interest and end of term payment fees.As of June 30, 2024, the Company had two senior secured term loans on non-accrual status; one loan to Mingle Healthcare Solutions, Inc. with a cost basis of $5.0 million and a fair value of $3.1 million, and one loan to Snagajob, Inc., with a cost basis of $42.7 million and a fair value of $30.0 million, representing 3.1% of the Companyâ€™s total investment portfolio. From being placed on non-accrual status through June 30, 2024, cumulative interest of $0.4 million would be receivable from Mingle Healthcare Solutions, Inc. and not recorded in "Interest income" on the Consolidated Statements of Operations. From being placed on non-accrual status through June 30, 2024, cumulative interest of $1.8 million would be receivable from Snagajob, Inc. and $0.1 million OID would be accreted into the cost basis, for a total of $1.9 million not recorded in "Interest income" on the Consolidated Statements of Operations. As of December 31, 2023, the Company did not have any loans on non-accrual status. As of June 30, 2024, the Company had reversed interest income of $0.3 million related to the senior secured term loans. As of December 31, 2023, the Company had not reversed any accrued and uncollected interest income related to the senior secured term loans. Fair Value Measurements Fair Value MeasurementsThe Company measures the value of its financial instruments at fair value in accordance with ASC Topic 820, Fair Value Measurements and Disclosure (â€œASC Topic 820â€), issued by the FASB. Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. The Company's investment portfolio is reported at fair value on the Consolidated Statements of Assets and Liabilities. All assets and liabilities approximate fair value on the Consolidated Statements of Assets and Liabilities, with the exception of the Companyâ€™s borrowings, which are reported at amortized cost. For more information on financial instruments reported at cost, refer to "Note 5 â€“ Fair Value of Financial Instruments."ASC Topic 820 specifies a hierarchy of valuation techniques based on whether the inputs to those valuation techniques are observable or unobservable. ASC Topic 820 also provides guidance regarding a fair value hierarchy, which prioritizes information used to measure fair value and the effect of fair value measurements on earnings and provides for enhanced disclosures determined by the level within the hierarchy of information used in the valuation. In accordance with ASC Topic 820, these inputs are summarized in the three levels listed below:â€¢Level 1â€”Valuations are based on quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities that are accessible at the measurement date.â€¢Level 2â€”Valuations are based on quoted prices in markets that are not active or for which all significant inputs are observable, either directly or indirectly and model-based valuation techniques for which all significant inputs are observable.â€¢Level 3â€”Valuations based on inputs that are unobservable and significant to the overall fair value measurement. Level 3 assets and liabilities include financial instruments whose value is determined using pricing models incorporating significant unobservable inputs, such as discounted cash flow models and other similar valuations techniques. The valuation of Level 3 assets and liabilities generally requires significant management judgment due to the inability to observe inputs to valuation.In certain cases, the inputs used to measure fair value may fall into different levels of the fair value hierarchy. In such cases, a financial instrumentâ€™s level within the fair value hierarchy is based on the lowest level of observable input that is significant to the fair value measurement. The assessment of the significance of a particular input to the fair value measurement in its entirety requires judgment and considers factors specific to the instrument.Under ASC Topic 820, the fair value measurement also assumes that the transaction to sell an asset or liability occurs in the principal market for the asset or liability or, in the absence of a principal market, the most advantageous market for the asset, which may be a hypothetical market, and excludes transaction costs. The principal market for any asset or liability is the market with the greatest volume and level of activity for such asset or liability in which the reporting entity would or could sell or transfer the asset or liability. In determining the principal market for an asset or liability under ASC Topic 820, it is assumed that the reporting entity has access to such market as of the measurement date. Market participants are defined as buyers and sellers in the principal or most advantageous market that are independent, knowledgeable and willing and able to transact.Rule 2a-5 under the 1940 Act established additional requirements for determining the fair value of a BDC's investments in good faith for purposes of the 1940 Act. Rule 2a-5 permits boards, in compliance with certain conditions, to designate certain parties to perform fair value determinations, subject to board oversight. Rule 2a-5 also defines when market quotations are "readily available" for purposes of the 1940 Act and the threshold for determining whether a fund must determine the fair value of a security. Rule 31a-4 under the 1940 Act established additional recordkeeping requirements related to fair value determinations. Although the Company adopted certain revisions to its valuation policies and procedures to comply with Rule 2a-5 and Rule 31a-4, the Company's board of directors (the "Board of Directors") has not elected to designate a valuation designee. Investment Valuation Techniques Investment Valuation TechniquesWith respect to investments for which market quotations are not readily available, the Company undertakes a multi-step valuation process each quarter, as described below:â€¢The quarterly valuation process begins with each portfolio company investment being initially valued by RGCâ€™s investment professionals that are responsible for the portfolio investment;â€¢Preliminary valuation conclusions are then documented and discussed with RGCâ€™s senior investment team;â€¢At least once annually, the valuation for each portfolio investment is reviewed by an independent valuation firm. Certain investments, however, may not be evaluated annually by an independent valuation firm if the net asset value and other aspects of such investments in the aggregate do not exceed certain thresholds;â€¢The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors (the "Audit Committee") then reviews these preliminary valuations from RGC and the independent valuation firm, if any, and makes a recommendation to the Board of Directors regarding such valuations; andâ€¢The Board of Directors reviews the recommended preliminary valuations and determines the fair value of each investment in the Companyâ€™s portfolio, in good faith, based on the input of RGC, the independent valuation firm(s) and the Audit Committee. The Companyâ€™s investments are primarily loans made to and equity and warrants of small, fast-growing companies focused in technology, healthcare, business services, and other high-growth industries. These investments are considered Level 3 assets under ASC Topic 820 because there is no known or accessible market or market indices for these types of debt and equity instruments and, thus, RGCâ€™s senior investment team must estimate the fair value of these investment securities based on models utilizing unobservable inputs.The Audit Committee assists the Board of Directors in valuing investments that are not publicly traded or for which current market values are not readily available. Investments for which market quotations are readily available are valued using market quotations, which are generally obtained from independent pricing services, broker-dealers or market makers. With respect to portfolio investments for which market quotations are not readily available, the Board of Directors, with the assistance of the Audit Committee, RGC and its senior investment team and independent valuation agents, is responsible for determining, in good faith, the fair value in accordance with the valuation policy approved by the Board of Directors. If more than one valuation method is used to measure fair value, the results are evaluated and weighted, as appropriate, considering the reasonableness of the range indicated by those results. The Company considers a range of fair values based upon the valuation techniques utilized and selects the value within that range that was most representative of fair value based on current market conditions as well as other factors RGCâ€™s senior investment team considers relevant.The Board of Directors makes this fair value determination on a quarterly basis and any other time when a decision regarding the fair value of the portfolio investments is required. A determination of fair value involves subjective judgments and estimates and depends on the facts and circumstances. Due to the inherent uncertainty of determining the fair value of portfolio investments that do not have a readily available market value, the fair value of the investments may differ significantly from the values that would have been used had a readily available market value existed for such investments, and the differences could be material.Valuation methodologies involve a significant degree of judgment. There is no single standard for determining the fair value of investments that do not have an active public market. Valuations of privately held investments are inherently uncertain, as they are based on estimates, and their values may fluctuate over time. The determination of fair value may differ materially from the values that would have been used if an active market for these investments existed. In some cases, the fair value of such investments is best expressed as a range of values derived utilizing different methodologies from which a fair value may then be determined.Debt InvestmentsTo determine the fair value of the Companyâ€™s debt investments, the Company compares the cost basis of the debt investment, which includes OID, to the resulting fair value determined using a discounted cash flow model, unless another model is more appropriate based on the circumstances at the measurement date. The discounted cash flow approach entails analyzing the interest rate spreads for recently completed financing transactions that are similar in nature to the Companyâ€™s investments, in order to determine a comparable range of effective market interest rates for its investments. The range of interest rate spreads utilized is based on borrowers with similar credit profiles. All remaining expected cash flows of the investment are discounted using this range of interest rates to determine a range of fair values for the debt investment.This valuation process includes, among other things, evaluating the underlying investment performance, the portfolio companyâ€™s current financial condition and ability to raise additional capital, as well as macro-economic events that may impact valuations. These events include, but are not limited to, current market yields and interest rate spreads of similar securities as of the measurement date. Significant increases (decreases) in these unobservable inputs could result in significantly higher (lower) fair value measurements.Under certain circumstances, the Company may use an alternative technique to value the debt investments to be acquired by the Company that better reflects the fair value of the investment, such as the price paid or realized in a recently completed transaction or a binding offer received in an arms-length transaction, the use of multiple probability-weighted cash flow models when the expected future cash flows contain elements of variability or estimates of proceeds that would be received in a liquidation scenario.WarrantsFair value of warrants is primarily determined using a Black Scholes option-pricing model. Privately held warrants and equity-related securities are valued based on an analysis of various factors including, but not limited to, the following:â€¢Underlying enterprise value of the issuer is estimated based on information available, including any information regarding the most recent rounds of issuer funding. Valuation techniques to determine enterprise value include market multiple approaches, income approaches or approaches that utilize recent rounds of financing and the portfolio companyâ€™s capital structure to determine enterprise value. Valuation techniques are also utilized to allocate the enterprise fair value of a portfolio company to the specific class of common or preferred stock exercisable in the warrant. Such techniques take into account the rights and preferences of the portfolio companyâ€™s securities, expected exit scenarios, and volatility associated with such outcomes to allocate the fair value to the specific class of stock held in the portfolio. Such techniques include Option Pricing Models, or â€œOPM,â€ including back-solve techniques, Probability Weighted Expected Return Models, or â€œPWERM,â€ and other techniques as determined to be appropriate.â€¢Volatility, or the amount of uncertainty or risk about the size of the changes in the warrant price, is based on comparable publicly traded companies within indices similar in nature to the underlying company issuing the warrant. Significant increases (decreases) in this unobservable input could result in a significantly lower (higher) fair value, but a significantly higher or lower fair value measurement of any of the Companyâ€™s portfolio investments may occur regardless of whether there is a significant increase or decrease in this unobservable input.â€¢The risk-free interest rates are derived from the U.S. Treasury yield curve. The risk-free interest rates are calculated based on a weighted average of the risk-free interest rates that correspond closest to the expected remaining life of the warrant. Significant increases (decreases) in this unobservable input could result in a significantly higher (lower) fair value, but a significantly higher or lower fair value measurement of any of the Companyâ€™s portfolio investments may occur regardless of whether there is a significant increase (decrease) in this unobservable input.â€¢Other adjustments, including a marketability discount on private company warrants, are estimated based on judgment about the general industry environment. Significant increases (decreases) in this unobservable input could result in a significantly lower (higher) fair value, but a significantly higher or lower fair value measurement of any of the Companyâ€™s portfolio investments may occur regardless of whether there is a significant increase (decrease) in this unobservable input.â€¢Historical portfolio experience on cancellations and exercises of warrants are utilized as the basis for determining the estimated life of the warrants in each financial reporting period. Warrants may be exercised in the event of acquisitions, mergers or initial public offerings, and cancelled due to events such as bankruptcies, restructuring activities or additional financings. These events cause the expected remaining life assumption to be shorter than the contractual term of the warrants. Significant increases (decreases) in this unobservable input could result in a significantly higher (lower) fair value, but a significantly higher or lower fair value measurement of any of the Companyâ€™s portfolio investments may occur regardless of whether there is a significant increase (decrease) in this unobservable input.Success fees are valued utilizing a scenario analysis. Fair value is determined based the potential success fee proceeds under varied timing of liquidity events during the life of the success fee agreement. At each potential exit scenario, a probability is ascribed based on the current expectations of an exit event for the portfolio company. The probability weighted value at each respective exit date is discounted to a present value and summed together to arrive at the fair value.Under certain circumstances, the Company may use an alternative technique to value warrants that better reflects the warrantsâ€™ fair values, such as an expected settlement of a warrant in the near term, a model that incorporates a put feature associated with the warrant, or the price paid or realized in a recently completed transaction or binding offer received in an arms-length transaction. The fair value may be determined based on the expected proceeds to be received from such settlement or based on the net present value of the expected proceeds from the put option.Equity InvestmentsThe fair value of an equity investment in a privately held company is initially the face value of the amount invested. The Company adjusts the fair value of equity investments in private companies upon the completion of a new third-party round of equity financing subsequent to the Companyâ€™s investment. The Company may make adjustments to fair value, absent a new equity financing event, based upon positive or negative changes in a portfolio companyâ€™s financial or operational performance. The Company may also reference comparable transactions and/or secondary market transactions in connection with its determination of fair value. The fair value of an equity investment in a publicly traded company is based upon the closing public share price on the date of measurement. These assets are recorded at fair value on a recurring basis. Money market funds are valued based on the published net asset value per share on the day of valuation and are included in "Cash and cash equivalents" on the Consolidated Statements of Assets and Liabilities. Investment Classification Investment ClassificationThe Company classifies its investments by level of affiliation and control. As defined in the 1940 Act, investee companies are deemed as affiliated investments when a company or individual possesses, or has the right to acquire within 60 days or less, beneficial ownership of 5.0% or more of the outstanding voting securities of an investee company. Control investments are those where the investor has the ability or power to exercise a controlling influence over the management or policies of an investee company. Control is generally deemed to exist when a company or individual possesses, or has the right to acquire within 60 days or less, beneficial ownership of more than 25.0% of the outstanding voting securities of an investee company, or maintains greater than 50% representation on the investee company's board of directors. Investments are recognized when the Company assumes an obligation to acquire a financial instrument and assumes the risks for gains or losses related to that instrument. Investments are derecognized when the Company assumes an obligation to sell a financial instrument and foregoes the risks for gains or losses related to that instrument. Specifically, the Company records all security transactions on a trade date basis. Investments in other, non-security financial instruments, such as limited partnerships or private companies, are recorded on the basis of subscription date or redemption date, as applicable. Amounts for investments recognized or derecognized but not yet settled will be reported as receivables for investments sold and payables for investments acquired, respectively, on the Consolidated Statements of Assets and Liabilities. Income Taxes Income TaxesThe Company elected to be treated as a RIC under Subchapter M of the Code beginning with its taxable year ended December 31, 2016, currently qualifies as a RIC, and intends to qualify annually for the tax treatment applicable to RICs. A RIC generally is not subject to U.S. federal income taxes on distributed income and gains so long as it meets certain source-of-income and asset diversification requirements and it distributes at least 90% of its net ordinary income and net short-term capital gains in excess of its net long-term capital losses, if any, to its stockholders. So long as the Company maintains its status as a RIC, it generally will not be subject to U.S. federal income tax on any ordinary income or capital gains that it distributes at least annually to its stockholders as dividends. Rather, any tax liability related to income earned by the Company represents obligations of the Companyâ€™s investors and will not be reflected in the consolidated financial statements of the Company. The Company intends to make sufficient distributions to maintain its RIC status each year and it does not anticipate paying any material U.S. federal income taxes in the future.Depending on the level of taxable income earned in a tax year, the Company may choose to carry forward such taxable income in excess of current year dividend distributions from such current year taxable income into the next tax year and pay a 4% excise tax on such income, as required. If the Company determines that the estimated current year taxable income will exceed the estimated dividend distributions for the current year from such income, the Company accrues excise tax on estimated excess taxable income as such taxable income is earned. Differences between taxable income and net increase in net assets resulting from operations either can be temporary, meaning they will reverse in the future, or permanent. In accordance with Section 946-205-45-3 of the ASC, permanent tax differences are reclassified from accumulated undistributed earnings to paid-in-capital at the end of each year and have no impact on total net assets. For more information, refer to "Note 10 â€“ Income Taxes." Per Share Information Per Share InformationBasic and diluted earnings (loss) per common share is calculated using the weighted-average number of common shares outstanding for the period presented. For the three and six months ended June 30, 2024 and 2023, basic and diluted earnings (loss) per share of common stock were the same because there were no potentially dilutive securities outstanding. Per share data is based on the weighted-average shares outstanding. Comprehensive Income Comprehensive Income The Company reports all changes in comprehensive income in the Consolidated Statements of Operations. The Company did not have any other comprehensive income in 2024 or 2023. The Companyâ€™s comprehensive income is equal to its "Net increase (decrease) in net assets resulting from operations" on the Consolidated Statements of Operations. Distributions DistributionsDistributions to common stockholders are recorded on the applicable record date. The amount, if any, to be distributed to common stockholders is determined by the Board of Directors each quarter and is generally based upon the Company's earnings estimated by management. Net realized capital gains, if any, are generally distributed at least annually. For more information, refer to "Note 9 â€“ Net Assets." Organization and Offering Costs Organization and Offering CostsOrganization costs include, among other things, the cost of organizing as a Maryland corporation, including the cost of legal services and other fees pertaining to the Company's organization, all of which are expensed as incurred. Offering costs include, among other things, legal fees and other costs pertaining to the preparation of the Companyâ€™s public and private offering materials as well as travel-related expenses related to the Companyâ€™s public and private offerings. Pursuant to the Advisory Agreement (as defined in "Note 3 â€“ Related Party Agreements and Transactions"), the Company and RGC agreed that organization and offering costs incurred in connection with the Initial Private Offering (as defined in "Note 9 â€“ Net Assets") would be borne by the Company up to a maximum amount of $1.0 million, provided that the amount of such costs in excess of $1.0 million would be paid by RGC. In 2016, the Company incurred the maximum amount of $1.0 million in organization and offering costs incurred in connection with the Initial Private Offering. Offering costs related to the Second Private Offering (as defined in "Note 9 â€“ Net Assets") were accumulated and charged to additional paid in capital at the time of each closing beginning in 2019. These offering costs related to the Second Private Offering were subject to a cap of $0.6 million, excluding placement agent fees which had no cap and therefore the Company will bear such cost. At the completion of the Second Private Offering, the Company had accumulated and recorded $0.7 million in offering costs and $0.2 million in placement agent fees related to the Second Private Offering. Under the terms of the Second Private Offering, offering costs in excess of $0.6 million, excluding placement agent fees, were reimbursed by RGC.The Company had accumulated and recorded $7.0 million of offering costs related to the IPO, which were charged to additional paid in capital at the time of closing in October 2021. The offering costs were fully born by the Company and included underwriting fees, legal fees, and other costs pertaining to the preparation of the Companyâ€™s offering materials as well as travel-related expenses. Recently Adopted Accounting Pronouncements Recently Adopted Accounting PronouncementsIn June 2022, the FASB issued ASU 2022-03, "Fair Value Measurement (Topic 820) - Fair Value Measurement of Equity Securities Subject to Contractual Sale Restrictions", which was issued to (1) clarify the guidance in Topic 820, Fair Value Measurement, when measuring the fair value of an equity security subject to contractual restrictions that prohibit the sale of an equity security, (2) to amend a related illustrative example, and (3) to introduce new disclosure requirements for equity securities subject to contractual sale restrictions that are measured at fair value in accordance with Topic 820. The new guidance is effective for interim and annual periods beginning after December 15, 2023. The Company adopted the guidance on January 1, 2024, and its adoption did not have a material impact on the Companyâ€™s financial statements. Recently Issued Accounting PronouncementsIn November 2023, the FASB issued ASU 2023-07, Segment Reporting (Topic 280): Improvements to Reportable Segment Disclosures ("ASU 2023-07"). This change is intended to improve reportable segment disclosure requirements, primarily through enhanced disclosures about significant segment expenses, allowing financial statement users to better understand the components of a segment's profit or loss and assess potential future cash flows for each reportable segment and the entity as a whole. The amendments expand a public entity's segment disclosures by requiring disclosure of significant segment expenses that are regularly provided to the chief operating decision maker, clarifying when an entity may report one or more additional measures to assess segment performance, requiring enhanced interim disclosures and providing new disclosure requirements for entities with a single reportable segment, among other new disclosure requirements. The amendments are effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2023, and interim periods within fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2024, and early adoption is permitted. Although the ASU only requires additional disclosure about the Company's operating segment, the Company is currently evaluating the impact of adopting this guidance with respect to the consolidated financial statements.Â In December 2023, the FASB issued ASU 2023-09 "Income Taxes (Topics 740): Improvements to Income Tax Disclosures" to expand the disclosure requirements for income taxes, specifically related to the rate reconciliation and income taxes paid. ASU 2023-09 is effective for our annual periods beginning January 1, 2025, with early adoption permitted. We are currently evaluating the potential effect that the updated standard will have on our financial statement disclosures. Concentration of Credit Risk Concentration of Credit RiskIn the normal course of business, the Company maintains its cash balances at large, high credit-quality financial institutions, which at times may exceed federally insured limits. The Company is subject to credit risk to the extent that any financial institution with which it conducts business is unable to fulfill contractual obligations on its behalf. The Company monitors the financial condition of those financial institutions and believes that risk of loss associated with any uninsured balance is remote. Â In the event that a portfolio company completely fails to perform according to the terms of their loan agreement, the amount of loss due to credit risk from the Company's investments would equal the sum of the Companyâ€™s recorded investments in the portfolio company and the portion of unfunded commitments currently eligible to be drawn. Refer to "Note 8 â€“ Commitments and Contingencies" for a summary of the aggregate balance of unfunded commitments as of June 30, 2024. The Company predominantly collateralizes its investments by obtaining a first priority security interest in a portfolio companyâ€™s assets, which may include its intellectual property. Â As of June 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, the Companyâ€™s five largest debt investments in portfolio companies represented approximately 36.4% and 38.0%, respectively, of the total fair value of the Companyâ€™s debt investments in portfolio companies. As of June 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, the Company had debt investments in 17 and 14 portfolio companies, respectively, that represented 5% or more of the Companyâ€™s net assets. Companyâ€™s debt securities are origination yields and discount rates. The origination yield is defined as the initial market price of an investment in a hypothetical market to hypothetical market participants where buyers and sellers are willing participants. The discount rate is related to company-specific characteristics such as underlying investment performance, projected cash flows, and other characteristics of the investment. Significant increases or decreases in the inputs in isolation may result in a significantly higher or lower fair value measurement, depending on the materiality of the investment. However, a significantly higher or lower fair value measurement of any of the Companyâ€™s portfolio investments may occur regardless of whether there is a significant increase or decrease in the unobservable inputs.(2)The significant unobservable inputs used in the fair value measurement of the Companyâ€™s warrant and equity-related securities are inputs used in the OPM, which include industry volatility, risk free interest rate and estimated time to exit. The Equity Allocation model and the Black Scholes model were the main OPMs used during the period ended June 30, 2024. Probability Weighted Expected Return Models (â€œPWERMâ€) and other techniques were used as determined appropriate. Significant increases (decreases) in the inputs in isolation would result in a significantly higher (lower) fair value measurement, depending on the materiality of the investment. However, a significantly higher or lower fair value measurement of any of the Companyâ€™s portfolio investments may occur regardless of whether there is a significant increase (decrease) in the unobservable inputs. For some investments, additional consideration may be given to data from the last round of financing or merger/acquisition events near the measurement date.(3)Warrant investments using a PWERM valuation technique contain success fees, in which case the inputs are not applicable because the nature of a success fee is a fixed payout dependent on certain liquidation events. The total returns are not annualized. (5)The ratios are calculated based on weighted average net assets for the relevant period and are annualized. (6)The ratio includes annualized incentive fees and as incentive fees are performance driven, the amount expensed in future periods may vary significantly and is dependent on overall investment performance, early terminations, scheduled prepayments and other liquidity events. (7)The portfolio turnover rate for the period is calculated by taking the lesser of investment portfolio purchases or sales during the period, divided by the average investment portfolio value during the period. [2] Accretion (dilution) represents the effect of issuance of common stock and repurchase of treasury stock. [3] Total return based on net asset value is calculated as the change in net asset value per share during the period plus dividends per share, divided by the beginning net asset values per share. The total returns are not annualized. [4] Total return based on market value is calculated as the change in market value per share during the period plus dividends per share, divided by the beginning market value per share. The total returns are not annualized. [5] The ratio includes annualized incentive fees and as incentive fees are performance driven, the amount expensed in future periods may vary significantly and is dependent on overall investment performance, early terminations, scheduled prepayments and other liquidity events. [6] The ratios are calculated based on weighted average net assets for the relevant period and are annualized. [7] The portfolio turnover rate for the period is calculated by taking the lesser of investment portfolio purchases or sales during the period, divided by the average investment portfolio value during the period. As such, portfolio turnover is not annualized.
