Accounting Standards Not Yet Adopted

In November 2023, the FASB issued ASU 2023-07 that adds new reportable segment disclosure requirements, primarily through enhanced disclosures about significant segment expenses that are regularly provided to the chief operating decision maker and included within segment profit or loss. The ASU becomes effective for the Company beginning with its fiscal year ending June 30, 2025, and interim periods beginning with the first quarter of fiscal year 2026. Restructuring related expenses are directly attributable to restructuring activities; however, they do not qualify for special accounting treatment as exit or disposal activities. The Company believes the disclosure of restructuring related costs provides more complete information on its restructuring activities.

2023 Restructuring Plan

On February 7, 2023, the Company announced that it will allocate approximately $110 million to $130 million of the sale proceeds from the Russian business to various cost saving initiatives to partly offset divested earnings from the Russian business (the "2023 Restructuring Plan" or the "Plan"). The Company expects total Plan cash and non-cash net expenses of approximately $220 million, of which $89 million relates to employee related expenses, $33 million to fixed asset related expenses (net of expected gains on asset disposals), $62 million to other restructuring expenses, and $36 million to restructuring related expenses. The projects initiated as of September 30, 2024 are expected to result in approximately $130 million of net cash expenditures. The Plan includes both the Flexibles and Rigid Packaging reportable segments and is expected to be largely completed by the end of calendar year 2024.

From the initiation of the Plan through September 30, 2024, the Company has incurred $82 million in employee related expenses, $32 million in fixed asset related expenses, $50 million in other restructuring, and $23 million in restructuring related expenses, with $162 million incurred in the Flexibles reportable segment and $25 million incurred in the Rigid Packaging reportable segment. The Plan has resulted in cumulative net cash outflows of $86 million. Additional cash payments of approximately $40 million, net of estimated proceeds from disposals, are expected until completion of the Plan, which predominantly relates to the Flexibles reportable segment.

The restructuring related costs relate primarily to the closure of facilities and include startup and training costs after relocation of equipment, and other costs incidental to the Plan.

Other Restructuring Plans

The Company has entered into other individually immaterial restructuring plans ("Other Restructuring Plans"). Expenses incurred on such programs are primarily costs to move equipment and other costs.

Note 5 -Supply Chain Financing Arrangements

The Company facilitates several regional voluntary supply chain financing ("SCF") programs with financial institutions, all of which have similar characteristics. The Company establishes these SCF programs to provide its suppliers with a potential source of liquidity and to enable a more efficient payment process. Under these SCF programs, qualifying suppliers may elect, but are not obligated, to sell their receivables due from Amcor to these financial institutions in advance of the agreed payment due date. The Company is not involved in negotiations between the suppliers and the financial institutions, and its rights and obligations to its suppliers are not impacted by its suppliers' decisions to sell amounts to the financial institutions. Under these SCF programs, the Company agrees to pay the financial institution the stated invoice amounts from its participating suppliers on the original maturity dates of the invoices. The range of payment terms negotiated with suppliers under these arrangements are consistent with industry norms and short-term in nature, regardless of whether a supplier participates in the program. The Company's SCF programs do not include any guarantees to the financial institutions, or any assets pledged as securities.

All outstanding amounts related to suppliers participating in the SCF programs are reflected in trade payables in the Company's unaudited condensed consolidated balance sheets, and associated payments are included in operating activities within the Company's unaudited condensed consolidated statements of cash flows. As of March 31, 2024 September 30, 2024 and June 30, 2023 June 30, 2024, the amounts due to suppliers participating in the Company's SCF programs amounted to $0.9 billion and $1.1 billion, respectively.

In November 2023, the FASB issued ASU 2023-07 that adds new reportable segment disclosure requirements, primarily through enhanced disclosures about significant segment expenses. The standard's amendments are effective for the Company for annual periods beginning July 1, 2024, and interim periods beginning July 1, 2025, with early adoption permitted, and will be applied retrospectively to all periods in the financial statements. The Company will adopt this guidance in fiscal year 2025. The Company is currently evaluating the impact that this guidance will have on its disclosures.

In December 2023, the FASB issued ASU 2023-09 that adds new income tax disclosure requirements, primarily related to existing income tax rate reconciliation and income taxes paid information. The standard's amendments are effective for the Company for annual periods beginning July 1, 2025, with early adoption permitted, and can be applied either prospectively or retrospectively. The Company is currently evaluating the impact that this guidance will have on its disclosures.

The Company considers the applicability and impact of all ASUs issued by the FASB. The Company determined at this time that all other ASUs not yet adopted are either not applicable or are not expected to have a material impact on its results of operations, financial position, and disclosures.

Fiscal Year 2023 - Acquisitions

On May 31, 2023, the Company completed the acquisition of a New Zealand based leading manufacturer of state-of-the-art, automated protein packaging machines. The consideration includes contingent consideration of $13 million, to be earned and paid in cash over the two years following the acquisition date, subject to meeting certain performance targets. The acquisition is part of the Company's Flexibles reportable segment and resulted in the recognition of acquired identifiable net assets of $21 million and goodwill of $24 million. Goodwill is deductible for tax purposes. The fair values of the contingent consideration, identifiable net assets acquired, and goodwill are based on the Company's best estimate as of March 31, 2024 using information available as of the acquisition date, and are considered preliminary. The Company aims to complete the purchase price allocation as soon as practicable but no later than one year from the date of the acquisition.

On March 17, 2023, the Company completed the acquisition of a 100% equity interest in a medical device packaging manufacturing site in Shanghai, China. Fiscal Year 2023 - Disposal

On December 23, 2022, the Company completed the sale of the Russian business after receiving all necessary regulatory approvals and cash proceeds, including receipt of closing cash balances. The sale followed the Company's previously announced plan to pursue the orderly sale of its Russian business. The total net cash consideration received, excluding disposed cash and items settled net, was $365 million and resulted in a net pre-tax net gain of $215 million. The carrying value of the Russian business had previously been impaired by $90 million in the quarter ended June 30, 2022. The impairment charge was based on the Company's best estimate of the fair value of its Russian business, which considered the wide range of indicative bids received and uncertain regulatory environment. The net pre-tax gain on disposal of the Russian business was recorded as restructuring and other related activities, net within the unaudited condensed consolidated statements of income. The Russian business had a net carrying value of $252 million, including allocated goodwill of $46 million and accumulated other comprehensive losses of $73 million, primarily attributed to foreign currency translation adjustments.

Note 7 - Fair Value Measurements

The fair values of the Company's financial assets and financial liabilities listed below reflect the amounts that would be received to sell the assets or paid to transfer the liabilities in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date (exit price).

The Company's non-derivative financial instruments primarily include cash and cash equivalents, trade receivables, trade payables, short-term debt, and long-term debt. As of March 31, 2024 September 30, 2024 and June 30, 2023 June 30, 2024, the carrying value of these financial instruments, excluding long-term debt, approximated fair value because of the short-term nature of these instruments.

The carrying value of long-term debt with variable interest rates approximates its fair value. The fair value of the Company's long-term debt with fixed interest rates is based on market prices, if available, or expected future cash flows discounted at the current interest rate for financial liabilities with similar risk profiles.

The carrying values and estimated fair values of long-term debt with fixed interest rates (excluding the fair value of designated receive-fixed/pay-variable interest rate swaps) were as follows:

($ in millions)	March 31, 2024	Fair Value	June 30, 2023	Fair Value	September 30, 2024	Fair Value	June 30, 2024	Fair Value

These contracts are considered to be economic hedges and the related $1.2 billion $500 million notional amount of commercial paper is also excluded from the total long-term debt with fixed interest rates.

Assets and Liabilities Measured and Recorded at Fair Value on a Recurring Basis

Additionally, the Company measures and records certain assets and liabilities, including derivative instruments and contingent purchase consideration liabilities, at fair value. The following tables summarize the fair values of these instruments, which are measured at fair value on a recurring basis, by level, within the fair value hierarchy:

The fair value of the commodity contracts was determined using a discounted cash flow analysis based on the terms of the contracts and observed market forward prices discounted at a currency specific rate. Forward exchange contract fair values were determined based on quoted prices for similar assets and liabilities in active markets using inputs such as currency rates and forward points. The fair value of the interest rate swaps was determined using a discounted cash flow method based on market based market-based swap yield curves, taking into account current interest rates.

Contingent purchase consideration liabilities arise from business acquisitions and other investments. As of March 31, 2024 September 30, 2024, the Company had contingent purchase consideration liabilities of $36 million $28 million, consisting of $26 $17 million of contingent purchase consideration predominantly relating to fiscal year 2023 acquisitions (refer to Note 4, "Acquisitions and Disposals") and a $10 $11 million liability that is contingent on future royalty income generated by Discma AG, a subsidiary acquired in March 2017. The fair values of the contingent purchase consideration liabilities were determined for each arrangement individually. The fair values were determined using an income approach with significant inputs that are not observable in the market. Key assumptions include the selection of discount rates consistent with the level of risk of achievement and probability adjusted probability-adjusted financial projections. The expected outcomes are recorded at net present value, which require adjustment over the life for changes in risks and probabilities. Changes arising from modifications in forecasts related to contingent consideration are not expected to be material.During the three and nine months ended March 31, 2024, income of $1 million and $10 million, respectively, were recorded in other income/(expenses), net from remeasuring the fair values of the Company's contingent purchase consideration liabilities.

The fair value of contingent purchase consideration liabilities is included in other current liabilities and other non-current liabilities in the unaudited condensed consolidated balance sheets.

Assets and Liabilities Measured and Recorded at Fair Value on a Nonrecurring Basis

In addition to assets and liabilities that are recorded at fair value on a recurring basis, the Company records certain assets at fair value on a nonrecurring basis, generally when events or changes in circumstances indicate the carrying value may not be recoverable, or when they are deemed to be other than temporarily impaired. These assets include goodwill and other intangible assets, equity method and other investments, long-lived assets and disposal groups held for sale, and other long-lived assets. Generally, assets are recorded at fair value on a nonrecurring basis as a result of impairment charges or as a result of charges to remeasure assets classified as held for sale to fair value less costs to sell. The fair values of these assets are determined, when applicable, based on valuation techniques using the best information available, and may include quoted market prices, market comparables, and discounted cash flow projections. These nonrecurring fair value measurements are considered to be Level 3 in the fair value hierarchy.

In the three months ended September 30, 2024, the Company has recorded an impairment charge of $4 million within the Flexibles reportable segment, to adjust the carrying value of the net assets of $11 million that are held for sale to their estimated fair value less cost to sell.

During the nine three months ended March 31, 2024 September 30, 2024 and 2023, there were no impairment charges recorded on indefinite-lived intangibles, including goodwill. For information on long-lived asset impairments, refer to fixed asset related expenses in Note 5, 4, "Restructuring".

Note 8 - Derivative Instruments

The Company periodically uses derivatives and other financial instruments to hedge exposures to interest rates, commodity prices, and currency risks. The Company does not hold or issue derivative instruments for speculative or trading purposes. For hedges that meet hedge accounting criteria, the Company, at inception, formally designates and documents the instruments as a fair value hedge or a cash flow hedge of a specific underlying exposure. On an ongoing basis, the Company assesses and documents that its designated hedges have been and are expected to continue to be highly effective.

Interest Rate Risk

The Company's policy is to manage exposure to interest rate risk by maintaining a mixture of fixed-rate and variable-rate debt, monitoring global interest rates, and, where appropriate, hedging floating interest rate exposure or debt at fixed interest rates through various interest rate derivative instruments including, but not limited to, interest rate swaps, cross-currency interest rate swaps, and interest rate locks. For interest rate swaps that are accounted for as fair value hedges, the gains and losses related to the changes in the fair value of the interest rate swaps are included in interest expense and offset changes in the fair value of the hedged portion of the underlying debt that are attributable to the changes in market interest rates. Changes in the fair value of interest rate swaps that have not been designated as hedging instruments are reported in the accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated statements of income in other income/(expenses), net.

In March 2023, On August 5, 2024, the Company entered into an interest rate swap contracts contract for a total notional amount of $1.2 billion. $500 million. Under the terms of the contracts, contract, the Company pays a weighted-average fixed interest rate of 3.88% interest of 4.30% and receives a variable rate of interest, based on 1-month Term compound overnight Secured Overnight Financing Rate ("SOFR"), effective from July 2023 August 12, 2024, through June 2024, settled monthly, June 30, 2025, with monthly settlements commencing on September 1, 2024. The interest rate swap contract will economically hedge the SOFR component of the Company's forecasted commercial paper issuances. As of March 31, 2024 and June 30, 2023 September 30, 2024, the Company had no other receive-variable/pay-fixed interest rate swaps. Although swaps outstanding. As of June 30, 2024, the Company is did not applying have receive-variable, pay-fixed interest rate swaps outstanding. The Company did not apply hedge accounting the Company believes that on these economic hedging instruments are effective in protecting the Company against the risks of changes in the variable interest rate on a portion of its forecasted commercial paper issuances. instruments.

As of March 31, 2024 September 30, 2024, and June 30, 2023 June 30, 2024, the total notional amount of the Company's receive-fixed/pay-variable interest rate swaps was $650 million.

Foreign Currency Risk

The Company manufactures and sells its products and finances operations in a number of countries throughout the world and, as a result, is exposed to movements in foreign currency exchange rates. The purpose of the Company's foreign currency hedging program is to manage the volatility associated with the changes in exchange rates.

To manage this exchange rate risk, the Company utilizes forward contracts. Contracts contracts and cross currency swaps. Forward contracts that qualify for hedge accounting are designated as cash flow hedges of certain forecasted transactions denominated in foreign currencies. The effective portion of the changes in fair value of these instruments is reported in accumulated other comprehensive loss ("AOCI") and reclassified into earnings in the same financial statement line item and in the same period or periods during which the related hedged transactions affect earnings. The ineffective portion is recognized in earnings over the life of the hedging relationship in the same consolidated statements of income line item as the underlying hedged item. Changes in the fair value of forward contracts that have not been designated as hedging instruments are reported in the accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated statements of income.

As of March 31, 2024 September 30, 2024, and June 30, 2023 June 30, 2024, the notional amount of the outstanding forward contracts was $518 million $0.6 billion.

In May 2024, the Company entered into cross currency swap contracts for a total notional amount of $500 million. Under the terms of the contracts, the Company swapped the notional and $462 million, respectively, periodic interest payments to Swiss francs to manage the foreign currency risk, and receives a fixed U.S. dollar rate of interest of 5.450% and pays a fixed weighted-average Swiss franc rate of interest of 2.218%. The Company has designated these cross currency swap contracts as a fair value hedge of $500 million notes and recognizes the components excluded from the hedging relationship in accumulated other comprehensive loss ("AOCI") and reclassifies into earnings through the accrual of the periodic interest settlements on the swaps.

At September 30, 2024 and June 30, 2024, the Company had cross currency swaps with a notional amount of $500 million outstanding.

Commodity Risk

Certain raw materials used in the Company's production processes are subject to price volatility caused by weather, supply conditions, political and economic variables, and other unpredictable factors. The Company's policy is to minimize exposure to price volatility by passing through the commodity price risk to customers, including through the use of fixed price swaps.

In some cases, the Company purchases, on behalf of customers, fixed price commodity swaps to offset the exposure of price volatility on the underlying sales contracts. These instruments are cash closed out on maturity and the related cost or benefit is passed through to customers. Information about commodity price exposure is derived from supply forecasts submitted by customers and these exposures are hedged by central treasury units. Changes in the fair value of commodity hedges are recognized in AOCI. The cumulative amount of the hedge is recognized in the unaudited condensed consolidated statements of income when the forecasted transaction is realized.

The Company had the following outstanding commodity contracts to hedge forecasted purchases:

	March 31,	September 30,
	2024	2024	June 30, 2023

Certain derivative financial instruments are subject to master netting arrangements and are eligible for offset. The Company has made an accounting policy election not to offset the fair values of these instruments within the unaudited condensed consolidated balance sheets.

Note 10 - Income Taxes

The provision for income taxes for the three and nine months ended March 31, 2024 September 30, 2024 and 2023 is based on the Company's estimated annual effective tax rate for the respective fiscal years which is applied on income before income taxes and equity in loss of affiliated companies, and is adjusted for specific items that are required to be recognized in the period in which they are incurred.

The effective tax rate for the three months ended March 31, 2024 increased September 30, 2024 decreased by 1.4 1.9 percentage points compared to the three months ended March 31, 2023 September 30, 2023 from 16.0% to 17.4%, primarily due to the difference in the magnitude of discrete events in both periods.

The effective tax rate for the nine months ended March 31, 2024 increased by 5.7 percentage points compared to the nine months ended March 31, 2023 from 12.5% 20.1% to 18.2%, primarily due to the difference in the magnitude of discrete events non-deductible expenses in both periods, mainly driven by tax benefits attributable to the disposal of the Russian business in the nine months ended March 31, 2023, periods.

Forward contracts to purchase own shares

The Company's employee share plans require the delivery of shares to employees in the future when rights vest or vested options are exercised. The Company currently acquires shares on the open market to deliver shares to employees to satisfy vesting or exercising commitments which exposes the Company to market price risk.

To protect the Company from share price volatility, the Company has entered into forward contracts for the purchase of its ordinary shares. As of March 31, 2024 September 30, 2024, the Company had forward contracts outstanding that were entered into in September 2022 and mature in March 2025 to purchase 2 million shares at a weighted average price of $12.16. As of June 30, 2024, the Company had forward contracts outstanding that were entered into in September 2022 and matured in September 2024 to purchase 6 million shares at a weighted average price of $12.11. As of June 30, 2023 During the three months ended September 30, 2024, the Company had forward contracts outstanding that were entered into in May 2022 and September 2022 that matured between September 2023 and November 2023 to purchase 9 million shares at a weighted average price of $12.39. During the nine months ended March 31, 2024, Company's forward contracts related to 3 million 4 million shares were settled, which were outstanding as of June 30, 2023 June 30, 2024.

The forward contracts to purchase the Company's own shares have been included in other current liabilities in the unaudited condensed consolidated balance sheets. Equity is reduced by an amount equal to the fair value of the shares at inception. The carrying value of the forward contracts at each reporting period was determined based on the present value of the cost required to settle the contracts.

Note 13 - Earnings Per Share Computations

The Company applies the two-class method when computing its earnings per share ("EPS"), which requires that net income per share for each class of share be calculated assuming all of the Company's net income is distributed as dividends to each class of share based on their contractual rights.

Basic EPS is computed by dividing net income available to ordinary shareholders by the weighted-average number of ordinary shares outstanding after excluding the ordinary shares to be repurchased using forward contracts. Diluted EPS includes the effects of share options, restricted share units, performance rights, performance shares, and share rights, if dilutive.

Note: Per share amounts are computed independently for each of the quarters presented. The sum of the quarters may not equal the total year amount due to the impact of changes in average quarterly shares outstanding and all other quarterly amounts may not equal the total year due to rounding.

Certain stock awards outstanding were not included in the computation of diluted earnings per share above because they would not have had a dilutive effect. The excluded stock awards for the three and nine months ended March 31, 2024 represented an aggregate of 19 million and 27 million and 30 million shares, respectively. The excluded stock awards for the three and nine months ended March 31, 2023 represented an aggregate of 15 million September 30, 2024 and 13 million shares, 2023, respectively.

Note 14 - Contingencies and Legal Proceedings

Contingencies - Brazil

The Company's operations in Brazil are involved in various governmental assessments and litigation, principally related to claims for excise and income taxes. The Company vigorously defends its positions and believes it will prevail on most, if not all, of these matters. The Company does not believe that the ultimate resolution of these matters will materially impact the Company's consolidated results of operations, financial position, or cash flows. Under customary local regulations, the Company's Brazilian subsidiaries may need to post cash or other collateral if a challenge to any administrative assessment proceeds to the Brazilian court system; however, the level of cash or collateral already pledged or potentially required to be pledged would not significantly impact the Company's liquidity. As of March 31, 2024 September 30, 2024, the Company has recorded accruals of $14 million $12 million, included in other non-current liabilities in the unaudited condensed consolidated balance sheets. The Company has estimated a reasonably possible loss exposure in excess of the recorded accrual of $25 million $23 million as of March 31, 2024 September 30, 2024. The litigation process is subject to many uncertainties and the outcome of individual matters cannot be accurately predicted. The Company routinely assesses these matters as to the probability of ultimately incurring a liability and records the best estimate of the ultimate loss in situations where the likelihood of an ultimate loss is probable. The Company's assessments are based on its knowledge and experience, but the ultimate outcome of any of these matters may differ from the Company's estimates.

As of March 31, 2024 September 30, 2024, the Company provided letters of credit of $17 million $14 million, judicial insurance of $2 million, and deposited cash of $14 million $12 million with the courts to continue to defend the cases referenced above.

Contingencies - Environmental Matters

The Company, along with others, has been identified as a potentially responsible party ("PRP") at several waste disposal sites under U.S. federal and related state environmental statutes and regulations and may face potentially material environmental remediation obligations. While the Company benefits from various forms of insurance policies, actual coverage may not, or may only partially, cover the total potential exposures. As of March 31, 2024 September 30, 2024, the Company has recorded aggregate accruals of $9 million for its share of estimated future remediation costs at these sites.

In addition to the matters described above, as of March 31, 2024 September 30, 2024, the Company has also recorded aggregate accruals of $48 $41 million for potential liabilities for remediation obligations at various worldwide locations that are owned or operated by the Company, or were formerly owned or operated.

The SEC requires the Company to disclose certain information about proceedings arising under federal, state, or local environmental provisions if the Company reasonably believes that such proceeding may result in monetary sanctions above a stated threshold. Pursuant to SEC regulations, the Company uses a threshold of $1 million or more for purposes of determining whether disclosure of any such proceedings is required. Applying this threshold, there are no environmental matters required to be disclosed for the three and nine months ended March 31, 2024 September 30, 2024.

While the Company believes that its accruals are adequate to cover its future obligations, there can be no assurance that the ultimate payments will not exceed the accrued amounts. Nevertheless, based on the available information, the Company does not believe that its potential environmental obligations will have a material adverse effect upon its liquidity, results of operations, or financial condition.

Other Matters

In the normal course of business, the Company is subject to legal proceedings, lawsuits, and other claims. While the potential financial impact with respect to these ordinary course matters is subject to many factors and uncertainties, management believes that any financial impact to the Company from these matters, individually and in the aggregate, would not have a material adverse effect on the Company's financial position or results of operations.

Note 15 - Subsequent Events

On April 23, 2024, the Company extended the maturity of its Three-Year Syndicated Facility Agreement ("Three-Year Agreement") by one year until April 2026. The aggregate committed amount under the Three-Year Agreement will be reduced from $1.9 billion to $1.7 billion effective April 2025.

On April 30, 2024 October 31, 2024, the Company's Board of Directors declared a quarterly cash dividend of $0.1250 $0.1275 per share to be paid on June 11, 2024 December 11, 2024 to shareholders of record as of May 22, 2024 November 21, 2024. Amcor has received a waiver from the Australian Securities Exchange ("ASX") settlement operating rules, which will allow Amcor to defer processing conversions between ordinary share and CHESS Depositary Instrument ("CDI") registers from May 21, 2024 November 20, 2024 to May 22, 2024 November 21, 2024, inclusive.

On October 30, 2024, the Company entered into an agreement to sell its 50% consolidated investment in the Bericap North America closures business, which is part of the Rigid Packaging reportable segment, to the Company's joint venture partner for approximately $122 million. The Company expects the transaction to close by the end of calendar year 2024, with proceeds from the sale used to reduce debt.

As of ~~March 31, 2024~~ ~~September 30, 2024~~, we have initiated restructuring and related projects with an expected net cost of approximately ~~$227 million~~ ~~$220 million~~, of which approximately ~~$120 million~~ ~~$130 million~~ is expected to result in net cash expenditures. From the initiation of the Plan until ~~March 31, 2024~~ ~~September 30, 2024~~, we have incurred ~~$80 million~~ ~~$82 million~~ in employee-related expenses, ~~$36 million~~ ~~$32 million~~ in fixed asset related expenses, ~~$38 million~~ ~~$50 million~~ in other restructuring, and ~~$17 million~~ ~~$23 million~~ in restructuring related expenses. The Plan has resulted in ~~$70 million~~ ~~$86 million~~ of cumulative net cash outflows to date.

Management initiated other restructuring actions in the fourth quarter of fiscal year 2022 to help mitigate the impact of the Russian sale. Management expects to realize an annualized pre-tax benefit of approximately $50 million from structural cost reduction actions taken as a result of all Russia related restructuring by the end of fiscal year 2025.

Highly Inflationary Accounting

We have subsidiaries in Argentina that historically had a functional currency of the Argentine Peso. As of June 30, 2018, the Argentine economy was designated as highly inflationary for accounting purposes. Accordingly, beginning July 1, 2018, we began reporting the financial results of our Argentine subsidiaries with a functional currency of the Argentine Peso at the functional currency of the parent, which is the U.S. dollar. Following the governmental election in the second quarter of fiscal year 2024, Argentina devalued the Argentine Peso by approximately 55% against the U.S. dollar. In the third quarter of fiscal year 2024, the Argentine Peso stabilized against the U.S. ~~dollar and the Argentine peso has since been relatively stable against the U.S.~~ dollar. The impact of highly inflationary accounting in the three months ended ~~March 31, 2024~~ ~~September 30, 2024~~ and 2023 resulted in a negative impact on monetary assets of ~~$4~~ ~~$2~~ million and ~~$6~~ ~~$17~~ million, respectively, and $55 million and $19 million in the nine months ended March 31, 2024 and 2023, respectively, in foreign currency transaction losses that were reflected in the unaudited condensed consolidated statements of income. Our operations in Argentina represented approximately 2% of our consolidated net sales and annual adjusted earnings before interest and tax in ~~the last two fiscal years 2023 and 2022~~.

New Accounting Pronouncements

Refer to Note 2, "New Accounting Guidance," in "Item 1. Financial Statements - Notes to Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements".

Critical Accounting Estimates and Judgments

Our discussion and analysis of our financial condition and results of operations is based on our unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements, which have been prepared in accordance with U.S. GAAP. The preparation of these financial statements requires us to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of expenses during the reporting period. Our estimates and judgments are based on historical experience and on various other factors that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances. Actual results may differ from these estimates under different assumptions or conditions. These critical accounting estimates are discussed in detail in "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations - Critical Accounting Estimates and Judgments" in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2023 June 30, 2024. There have been no material changes in critical accounting estimates and judgments as of March 31, 2024 September 30, 2024 from those described in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2023 June 30, 2024.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

We finance our business primarily through cash flows provided by operating activities, borrowings from banks, and proceeds from issuances of debt and equity. We periodically review our capital structure and liquidity position in light of market conditions, expected future cash flows, potential funding requirements for debt refinancing, capital expenditures and acquisitions, the cost of capital, sensitivity analyses reflecting downside scenarios, the impact on our financial metrics and credit ratings, and our ease of access to funding sources.

We believe that our cash flows provided by operating activities, together with borrowings available under our credit facilities and access to the commercial paper market, backstopped by our bank debt facilities, will continue to provide sufficient liquidity to fund our operations, capital expenditures, and other commitments, including dividends and purchases of our ordinary shares and CHES Depositary Instruments under authorized share repurchase programs, into the foreseeable future.

Net Cash Used in Investing Activities

Net cash used in investing activities increased by $220 million $13 million for the nine three months ended March 31, 2024 September 30, 2024, compared to the nine three months ended March 31, 2023 September 30, 2023. Net Debt

We borrow from financial institutions and debt investors in the form of bank overdrafts, bank loans, corporate bonds, unsecured notes, and commercial paper. We have a mixture of fixed and floating interest rates and use interest rate swaps to provide further flexibility in managing the interest cost of borrowings.

In March 2023, we On August 5, 2024, the Company entered into two an interest rate swap contracts contract for a total notional amount of $1.2 billion. $500 million. Under the terms of the contracts, we contract, the Company will pay a weighted average fixed rate of interest of 3.88% 4.30% and receive a variable rate of interest, based on 1-month Term Secured Overnight Financing Rate ("SOFR"). The swaps have been compound overnight SOFR, effective as of July 1, 2023 from August 12, 2024, and mature through June 30, 2025, with monthly settlements commencing on June 30, 2024 September 1, 2024. The interest rate swap contracts contract will economically hedge the SOFR component of our the Company's forecasted commercial paper issuances.

Short-term debt consists of bank debt with a duration of less than 12 months and bank overdrafts which are classified as current due to the short-term nature of the borrowings, except where we have the ability and intent to refinance and as such extend the debt beyond 12 months. The current portion of long-term debt consists of debt amounts repayable within a year after the balance sheet date.

Our primary bank debt facilities and notes are unsecured and subject to negative pledge arrangements limiting the amount of secured indebtedness we can incur to 10.0% of our total tangible assets, subject to some exceptions and variations by facility. In addition, the covenants of the bank debt facilities require us to maintain a leverage ratio not higher than 3.9 times. The negative pledge arrangements and the financial covenants are defined in the related debt agreements. As of March 31, 2024 September 30, 2024, we were in compliance with all applicable covenants under our bank debt facilities.

Our net debt as of March 31, 2024 September 30, 2024 and June 30, 2023 June 30, 2024 was $6.7 billion $6.9 billion and $6.1 billion, respectively.

Debt Facilities

As of March 31, 2024 September 30, 2024, we had undrawn credit facilities available in the amount of $0.9 billion $1.9 billion. Our senior facilities are available to fund working capital, growth capital expenditures, and refinancing obligations and are provided to us by two bank syndicates. On April 23, 2024, the Company we extended the maturity of its our three-year syndicated facility agreement by one year until April 2026. The three-year syndicated facility agreement will be reduced from $1.9 billion to $1.7 billion effective April 2025. Our five-year syndicated credit facility matures in April 2027 and provides a revolving credit facility of $1.9 billion. The three-year facility has one 12-month option available to us to extend the maturity date and the five-year facility has two 12-month options available to us to extend the maturity date.

As of March 31, 2024 September 30, 2024, the revolving senior bank debt facilities had an aggregate limit of $3.8 billion, of which $2.9 billion $1.9 billion had been drawn (inclusive of amounts drawn under commercial paper programs reducing the overall balance of available senior facilities). Subject to certain conditions, we can request the total commitment level under each agreement to be increased by up to $500 million.

Dividend Payments

We declared and paid a $0.1225 cash dividend per ordinary share during the three months ended September 30, 2023, a $0.1250 cash dividend per ordinary share during the three months ended December 31, 2023, and a $0.1250 cash dividend per ordinary share during the three months ended March 31, 2024 September 30, 2024.

Credit Rating

Our capital structure and financial practices have earned us investment grade credit ratings from two internationally recognized credit rating agencies. These investment grade credit ratings are important to our ability to issue debt at favorable rates of interest, for various terms, and from a diverse range of markets that are highly liquid, including European and U.S. debt capital markets, and from global financial institutions.

Item 4. Controls and Procedures

Evaluation of Disclosure Controls and Procedures

Our management, with the participation of our Interim Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, has evaluated the effectiveness of our disclosure controls and procedures as of March 31, 2024 September 30, 2024. The term "disclosure controls and procedures," as defined in Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"), means controls and other procedures of a company that are designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed by a company in the reports that it files or submits under the Exchange Act is recorded, processed, summarized, and reported, within the time periods specified in the SEC's rules and forms. Disclosure controls and procedures include, without limitation, controls and procedures designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed by a company in the reports that it files or submits under the Exchange Act is accumulated and communicated to our management, including its principal executive and financial officers, as appropriate, to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure. Management recognizes that any controls and procedures, no matter how well designed and operated, can provide only reasonable assurance of achieving their objectives and management necessarily applies its judgment in evaluating the cost-benefit relationship of possible controls and procedures. Based on this evaluation, the Interim Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer have concluded that our disclosure controls and procedures were effective as of March 31, 2024 September 30, 2024.

Changes in Internal Control Over Financial Reporting

There were no changes in our internal control over financial reporting (as defined in Rules 13a-15(f) and 15d-15(f) under the Exchange Act) that occurred during the third first quarter of fiscal year 2024 2025 that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting.

Part II - Other Information

Item 1. Legal Proceedings

The material set forth in Note 14, "Contingencies and Legal Proceedings," in "Item 1. Financial Statements - Notes to Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements" is incorporated herein by reference.

Item 1A. Risk Factors

Other than the update to the risk factor set forth below, there have been no material changes from the risk factors contained in "Item 1A. - Risk Factors" of our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2023 June 30, 2024. Additional risks not currently known to us or that we currently deem to be immaterial may also materially affect our consolidated financial position, results of operations, or cash flows.

Attracting and Retaining Skilled Workforce — If we are unable to attract and retain our global executive management team and our skilled workforce, we may be adversely affected.

Our continued success depends on our ability to identify, attract, develop, and retain skilled and diverse personnel in our global executive management team and our operations. We focus on our talent acquisition processes, as well as our onboarding and talent and leadership programs, to ensure that our key new hires and skilled personnel's efficiency and effectiveness align with Amcor's values and ways of working. In March 2024, we announced the retirement of our Chief Executive Officer Ron Delia and the appointment of Peter Konieczny as our Interim Chief Executive Officer. Our Board of Directors has launched an On September 4, 2024, after a robust internal and external search, process for a permanent the Board of Directors of the Company appointed Mr. Konieczny as the Chief Executive Officer. Officer of the Company, effective immediately. Any failure to successfully transition key roles could impact our ability to execute on our strategic plans, make it difficult to meet our performance objectives, and be disruptive to our business. In addition, there is no assurance that our Board of Directors will be successful in finding a permanent Chief Executive Officer in a timely manner which may create additional uncertainty among our employees, customers, and suppliers and which could negatively impact our business, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows, and share price.

We are also, at times, impacted by regional labor shortages, inflationary pressures on wages, a competitive labor market, and changing demographics. While we have been successful to date in responding to regional labor shortages and maintaining plans for continuity of succession, there can be no assurance that we will be able to manage future labor shortages or recruit, develop, assimilate, motivate, and retain employees in the future who actively promote and meet the standards of our culture.

 - ii. Unvested awards (in particular, the LTIP for the fiscal years ended June 30, 2022 and 2023) will continue to vest on the scheduled vesting dates, assuming performance goals are met, but the number of stock options and/or performance shares that vest will be pro-rated to reflect the number of completed months that Employee was employed during the performance period through the Retirement Date.
- e. Other than specified above, Employee acknowledges that he will not be eligible to receive or vest in any additional stock options, stock awards, RSUs or performance shares. Failure to exercise any vested stock options within the applicable period as set forth in the applicable plan and/or grant documentation subject to modification as described above will result in their forfeiture. All terms and conditions that apply to stock options, stock awards, RSUs or performance shares not modified herein shall not be affected by this Agreement, shall remain in full force and effect, and shall govern the parties' rights with respect to such equity-based awards.
- f. Employee is fully vested in his benefits under the Amcor Rigid Packaging Deferred Compensation Plan ("Deferred Compensation Plan"), and his benefits will be paid pursuant to the terms of the Deferred Compensation Plan and Employee's applicable distribution elections. Per the terms of the Deferred Compensation Plan, Employee will not be entitled to receive an employer allocation for the 2024 calendar year.
- g. If Employee makes a timely election for continued health care coverage under Company's medical, dental and vision plans, as permitted by COBRA, Company will cover the employer portion of any applicable premium for a period of 12 months following the Retirement Date.
- h. Company will pay (or reimburse Employee) for general relocation costs including support from a relocation advisor, the transportation of a reasonable amount of personal household goods from Employee's Swiss residence to Employee's United States residence, any associated personal travel required to facilitate such a move, and assistance in the conclusion of accommodation lease arrangements.
- i. Company will continue to provide Employee with tax support services, at no cost to Employee, consistent with past practice, with respect to Employee's tax obligations for calendar years 2023, 2024, 2025 and 2026. The Employee agrees to assist the Company or its tax support services provider by providing any required information and fulfilling any tax obligations in a timely manner.
- j. Employee will be able to retain his company-provided laptop, ipad and cell phone, together with related peripherals, provided Company has had the opportunity to remove all Company confidential information therefrom.
- k. All payments of compensation and other taxable benefits described herein will be subject to tax withholding as required by law. To the extent not satisfied by the Company's tax withholding obligations, Employee will be responsible for any income tax obligations arising from the payment of compensation or provision of benefits as described above, with the exception of item (g) and the tax support services provided in (i). All tax obligations payable to jurisdictions outside the United States by virtue of the Employee's presence in such jurisdictions as required by the Company shall be covered by the Company in accordance with the Employment Documents.

acknowledges the significance and consequences of this Agreement itself and the releases and other promises and obligations contained in this Agreement.

c. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement, Employee does not release any claims for:

- i. any obligations of the Company under this Agreement;
- ii. compensation for illness or injury or medical expenses under any workers' compensation statute;
- iii. benefits under any plan maintained by any of the Released Parties that provides for retirement benefits, or entitlements under Australian superannuation legislation;
- iv. health benefits under any law or policy or plan currently maintained by any of the Released Parties that provides for health insurance continuation or conversion rights;
- v. claims for indemnification under the Company's bylaws or claims for coverage under the Company's directors & officers liability insurance policy;
- vi. any claim that cannot be waived or released; or
- vii. any rights or claims that may arise after the Effective Date.

d. Employee irrevocably covenants that Employee will not file, nor voluntarily participate or assist in the prosecution of any legal proceedings of any kind against the Released Parties based on the conduct known to Employee as of the date of this Agreement. Nothing in this Agreement shall prevent Employee's participation in any legal proceedings against any of the Released Parties in compliance with a summons or subpoena that requires such participation, or Employee's participation in administrative proceedings or investigations of the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (the "EEOC"), National Labor Relations Board, Illinois Department of Human Rights, the Chicago Commission on Human Relations, or similar government agency (whether local or foreign); provided, however, that this Agreement shall prevent Employee from receiving any monetary or financial damages or recoveries from the Company or any other Released Party and, if applicable, Employee from being reinstated to employment with the Company. Employee represents that Employee has not filed or asserted any claims whatsoever against the Released Parties. In addition, Employee agrees not to challenge the enforceability of any provision of this Agreement in any court of competent jurisdiction or arbitration, except as to validity under the ADEA.

7. No Admission of Liability. Employee agrees that neither this Agreement nor any performance under this Agreement constitutes an admission by any of the Released Parties of any violation or breach of any contract or federal, state, or local law, regulation, or common-law or any other wrongdoing of any type.

8. Cooperation.

- a. Employee agrees to provide reasonable cooperation with Company in the transition of the services that Employee provided to Company. Employee agrees to communicate with Company, its agents and attorneys, at reasonable times and places, and to respond to inquiries relating to the services that Employee provided to Company.
- b. Employee also agrees to provide reasonable cooperation with Company in connection with any pending or future litigation, proceeding or other matter which has been or may be brought against or by Company before any agency, court, or other tribunal and concerning or relating in any way to any matter falling within Employee's knowledge or former area of responsibility. Such cooperation includes meeting with Company's attorneys at reasonable dates and times and providing requested information including, without limitation, facilitating and assisting in the preparation of any underlying defense, responding to discovery requests, preparing for and attending depositions as well as appearing in court to provide truthful testimony. Company will reimburse Employee for all reasonable out of pocket expenses incurred at the request of Company associated with such assistance.

9. Return of Property. On or before the Retirement Date, Employee will return the original and all copies of all things in his possession or control relating to Company or its business, including but not limited to Confidential Information (as defined in Appendix A hereto), any and all contracts, reports, memoranda, correspondence, manuals, forms, records, designs, budgets, contact information or lists (including customer, vendor or supplier lists), ledger sheets or other financial information, drawings, plans (including but not limited to business, marketing and strategic plans), personnel or other business files, computer hardware, software, or access codes, door and file keys, identification, credit cards, computer equipment and phones, and any and all other physical, intellectual, or personal property of any nature that he received, prepared, helped prepare, or directed preparation of in connection with his employment with Company.

10. Inventions. Within seven (7) days of the Retirement Date, Employee agrees to communicate to Company all inventions, ideas, and improvements (including those in the formative stages) which Employee conceived, made or discovered (whether alone or in conjunction with others) during the period of Employee's employment by Company that may relate in any way to the business, processes, manufacturing operations, products, research, product development, engineering, machinery, or plans of Company (collectively, "Inventions"). Such Inventions will be Company's exclusive property without any obligation on Company's part to make any payment to Employee in addition to the compensation described in this Agreement. At Company's request, Employee will sign documents relating to such Inventions and take any other requested reasonable actions to maintain and protect such Inventions. In addition, all other terms regarding the assignment of inventions as set forth in the Employment Documents continues to apply to the extent set forth therein.
11. Non-compete, non-solicitation and confidentiality. In consideration of the benefits provided by Section 4, Employee agrees to the non-compete, non-solicitation and confidentiality provisions set forth in Appendix A.
12. Non-Disparagement. Subject to the exceptions set out in Section 3 of Appendix A, Employee agrees that Employee will not defame Company or any of the Released Parties or make any disparaging remarks or negative comments or statements about such entities or individuals to any other person or entity, including but not limited to any competitor of Company or any of the Released Parties. It will not be a violation of Employee's obligations under this section for Employee to make truthful statements, under oath, as required by law or formal legal process. Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, Employee may provide any truthful and accurate information to, and cooperate with, any federal, state, local or foreign governmental agency or entity. Company agrees that neither it nor its directors and officers will defame Employee or make any disparaging remarks or negative comments or statements about him.
13. Effect of Employment Termination. If Employee's employment ends prior to the Retirement Date for any reason other than Employee's commission of a wrongful, dishonest, or fraudulent act that brings the Company into disrepute, this Agreement shall nonetheless continue in force and effect through and following the Retirement Date as if Employee's employment had not terminated.
14. Governing Law, Venue, and Jurisdiction. The provisions of this Agreement will be construed in accordance with the laws of the state in which Employee provided services to Company (i.e., Illinois)

(the "Employee State"). The exclusive venue for any legal action arising from this Agreement will be the federal and state courts within the Employee State. Employee stipulates and consents to Employee State courts' personal jurisdiction over Employee and waives any right to object to Employee State court's jurisdiction.
15. Enforceability. If any provision of this Agreement is determined to be partially contrary to governing law or otherwise partially unenforceable, such provision and this Agreement will be enforced to the maximum extent permitted by law. If any provision of this Agreement is determined to be totally contrary to governing law or otherwise totally unenforceable, such provision will be severed and disregarded and the remainder of this Agreement will be enforced to the maximum extent permitted by law. Employee understands and agrees that Company will be entitled to immediate injunctive relief for any violation of Sections 8, 9, 10, 11, 12 or any provisions of Appendix A of this Agreement.
16. Application of Clawback Policy. Employee acknowledges and agrees that the Company's clawback policy, as in effect on the date hereof and as it may be amended from time to time, will continue to apply to Employee following the Retirement Date.
17. No Trading without Board Consent. Employee agrees that he will not trade in the Company's securities until 90 days after the Resignation Date without the express written permission of the Board, which shall not be unreasonably withheld. Employee acknowledges that he will remain subject to the terms of the Company's Insider Trading Policy through the Retirement Date and any period thereafter during which he is in possession of material non-public information about the Company.
18. Agreement to Comply with Code Section 409A. The compensation and benefits payable under this Agreement or referenced in this Agreement are intended to comply with the requirements of Code Section 409A, to the extent applicable, or an exemption thereunder, and compensation and benefits payable under this Agreement or referenced in this Agreement will be interpreted and administered to avoid any penalty sanctions under Code Section 409A. Accordingly, all provisions herein, or incorporated by reference, shall be administered, construed, and interpreted to comply with Code Section 409A or an exemption thereunder and, if necessary, any such provision shall be deemed amended to comply with Code Section 409A. For purposes of Code Section 409A, each payment made or referenced under this Agreement shall be treated as a separate payment and any right to a series of installment payments shall be treated as the right to a series of separate payments. To the maximum extent permitted under Code Section 409A, any severance benefits payable under this Agreement are intended to comply with the "short term deferral exception" under Treas. Reg. §1.409A-1(b)(4), and any remaining amount is intended to comply with the "separation pay exception" under Treas. Reg. §1.409A-1(b)(9)(iii). If Employee is a "specified employee" (as that term is used in Code Section 409A) on the date of Employee's "separation from service", any severance benefits payable under this Agreement that constitute non-qualified deferred compensation subject to Code Section 409A of the Code shall be delayed until the earlier of (i) the first business day following the six-month anniversary of the date of Employee's "separation from service", or (ii) the date of Executive's death.

19. Miscellaneous. If there is any conflict between this Agreement and any non-compete or confidentiality agreements Employee may previously have entered, this Agreement controls. The headings of the sections of this Agreement are for convenience only and do not control or affect the meaning or construction of any provision of this Agreement. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which will be considered an original but all of which together will constitute one and the same agreement. This Agreement may not be modified, waived, or terminated unless such modification, waiver, or termination is agreed to in a writing signed by Employee and Company. Company's failure to enforce any provision of this Agreement or to act promptly after a breach will not be deemed a waiver of any of Company's rights.

20. Employee Acknowledgements. Employee further affirms and acknowledges that Employee (i) has read this Agreement in its entirety, (ii) has had sufficient time to consider the terms of this Agreement, (iii) understands that the terms of this Agreement are legally enforceable, (iv) fully appreciates the meaning of the terms of this Agreement and their effect, (v) has had the opportunity to negotiate with Company regarding any objectionable items, (vi) has conferred with Employee's counsel for assistance and advice, (vii) has not received from Company any representations or inducements except those stated in this Agreement, and (viii) enters into this Agreement freely and voluntarily. Employee further affirms and acknowledges that the compensation and benefits described in Section 4 hereof are in exchange for a release of all claims that Employee has against the Released Parties and for Employee's other promises and obligations described in this Agreement, including those set forth in Exhibit A.

Appendix A

Restrictive Covenants Agreement

1. Defined Terms. All capitalized terms used, but not defined, herein have the meanings given under the Transition And Release Agreement to which this Appendix is attached.
2. Employee Acknowledgements. Employee acknowledges and agrees that (a) the restrictions set forth herein are necessary to protect the Company's legitimate business interests; (b) the restrictions set forth herein are no broader than necessary to protect the Company's Confidential Information, trade secrets and goodwill, which cannot be adequately protected through an alternative restrictive covenant; (c) Employee's obligations hereunder are supported by good and valuable consideration; and (d) the geographic restrictions set forth herein are reasonable and aligned with the geographic area in which Employee provided services to the Company, in which Employee had a material presence or influence within the Company, or in which Employee created customer contacts and goodwill.

3. Confidential Information. Employees agrees to comply with the terms of Section 21 (Confidential Information) of the Offer Letter, which is incorporated herein in its entirety (including all defined terms used therein), except as modified below.

Employee agrees to extend the confidentiality obligations of the Offer Letter to the following types of information: (A) information belonging to others who have entrusted such information to the Company; and (B) information that would not have been known to the Company's competitors or the public generally if Employee had not breached his obligations of confidentiality under the Offer Letter or this Appendix A.

Nothing in the Offer Letter or this Appendix A shall restrict Employee's rights to make a protected disclosure under the specific protected disclosure any laws applicable to Employee. Specifically, and without limiting the foregoing, nothing herein (i) interferes with Employee's right and responsibility to give truthful testimony under oath, as required by law or formal legal process; (ii) precludes Employee from participating in an investigation, filing a charge, or otherwise communicating with or reporting good faith allegations of unlawful employment practices to the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, the Illinois Department of Human Rights, the Chicago Commission on Human Relations, or the National Labor Relations Board; or (iii) restricts Employee's right to report any good faith allegation of criminal conduct to appropriate law enforcement officials; or (iv) is intended to discourage or restrict Employee from reporting any theft of Trade Secrets pursuant to the Defend Trade Secrets Act of 2016 (the "DTSA") or other applicable state or federal law; or (v) precludes Employee from disclosing information to the extent expressly permitted by the Australian Fair Work Act 2009. The DTSA prohibits retaliation against an employee because of whistleblower activity in connection with the disclosure of Trade Secrets, so long as any such disclosure is made either (A) in confidence to an attorney or a federal, state, or local government official and solely to report or investigate a suspected violation of the law, or (B) under seal in a complaint or other document filed in a lawsuit or other proceeding.

4. Restrictions. Unless waived by the Company at Employee's request, such waiver not to be unreasonably withheld, the provisions of Section 28 (Restrictions) of the Offer Letter, as well as all defined terms included therein, are incorporated herein in their entirety. The Company is directing the Employee to, and the Employees agrees to, abide by the restrictions set forth in Section 28 of the Offer Letter. The Employee hereby agrees that the definition of "Restraint Period" in the Offer

Letter is amended as follows: "Restraint Period" means (i) the period of 12 months starting on the Retirement Date; or if held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be unenforceable, (ii) the period of 9 months starting on the Retirement Date; or if held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be unenforceable, (iii) the period of 6 months starting on the Retirement Date.

5. Reformation. Sections 3 and 4 of this Appendix are intended to comply with the Illinois Freedom to Work Act, as such may be amended from time to time, 820 ILCS 90 (2021) (the "Act"), and in the event it is determined not to comply with the Act, a court or arbitrator is hereby empowered to reform, reclassify, blue-pencil, or substitute any provision in Section 3 or 4 to cause such provisions to comply with the Act. Furthermore, if, at the time of enforcement of any provision of Section 3 or 4, a court or arbitrator holds that the restrictions stated therein are unreasonable or unenforceable under circumstances then existing, Employee agrees that the court or arbitrator is authorized to modify this Appendix. Employee further agrees that the arbitrator or court shall be permitted to substitute the maximum period, scope, or geographical area (or otherwise modify including by deleting any part of the relevant wording) as may be reasonable or permissible under such circumstances for the stated period, scope, or area.

Mr. Peter Konieczny

RE: Interim Chief Executive Officer

Dear Peter,

On behalf of Amcor plc (the "Company"), I am pleased to provide this letter memorializing your promotion from Chief Commercial Officer to the position of Interim Chief Executive Officer of the Company ("Interim CEO").

1. Position. As Interim CEO, you will have responsibilities as determined by the Board of Directors of the Company (the "Board"). Your duties and responsibilities are subject to change depending on the needs of the Company.
2. Compensation. While serving as Interim CEO:
 - a. Your annualized base salary will be CHF 1,580,190.
 - b. With respect to the Management Incentive Plan (the "MIP") you will become subject to the same terms and conditions as currently apply to the Chief Executive Officer position, including the same target percentage of 120% of your base salary, the same minimum and maximum range from 0% to 180% of your base salary, and the same performance goals as have been established for such position for the current fiscal year. Following completion of the fiscal year, your actual MIP payout will be separately determined for the period that you served as the Chief Commercial Officer of the Company (based on your salary, target percentage and goals as in effect for that position) and as the Interim CEO (based on your salary, target percentage and goals as in effect for this position), and the payout amount will be pro-rated to reflect the period of time that you served in each role, provided you meet all other requirements to receive the payout. If you remain employed as the Interim CEO following the end of the current fiscal year, the Board will determine your MIP target and goals in the normal course.
 - c. The number of shares subject to the LTIP grant made to you each year will be based on a grant date fair value equal to 200% of your base salary.

In all other respects, your compensation and benefits while employed as set forth in your Employment Agreement dated 17 September 2009, as amended (the "Employment Agreement") remain in full force and effect.

3. Termination Without Cause or as a Good Leaver. If the Company terminates your employment pursuant to Section 10(2) of your Employment Agreement (a termination without "cause") while you are serving as the Interim CEO, then any notice period you are otherwise required to satisfy pursuant to your Employment Agreement is waived, and in addition to the payment of 12 months of base salary as described therein (with base salary being determined pursuant to paragraph 2.a. above), the Company will also provide the following compensation:

- a. If the termination occurs after the completion of a performance period under the MIP but prior to the date the amount due thereunder has been paid, then assuming a payment has been earned based on the achievement of the performance goals for the period, the Company will pay you the entire amount earned under the MIP (including any portion due under the Equity Management Incentive Plan ("EMIP")) at the same time as other executives receive their MIP payments, but any portion earned under the EMIP will also be paid in cash;
- b. With respect to the MIP performance period in which your termination occurs, the Company will pay you the MIP payment earned, if any, based on the achievement of the performance goals, at the same time as other executives receive their MIP payments, but your entire amount earned under the MIP (including any portion due under the EMIP) will be pro-rated to reflect the number of completed months during the performance period that you were actively employed, and such amount will be paid in cash;
- c. Your outstanding restricted stock units ("RSUs") granted under the EMIP will become vested in full within 30 days after your employment termination date;
- d. Any other equity awards for which you have completed one-half of the performance period as of the date you cease to be actively employed, will continue to vest according to their terms as if you had continued in active employment, except that upon the vesting date, the amount vested will be pro-rated to reflect the number of completed months of employment during the performance period that you were actively employed. In addition, any stock options that become vested after you cease active employment may be exercised for ninety (90) days following the vesting date for such stock options. Except as described herein, the terms and conditions of any equity award will continue to apply without change.

If you terminate your employment as a Good Leaver (as defined below), then the Company will make the same payments, and will treat your equity awards in the same manner, as if you had been terminated by the Company without “cause”, as described in this paragraph 3. For purposes hereof, you will have the right to terminate as a “Good Leaver” if (i) you are ultimately not offered the position of the “permanent” CEO of the Company, or (ii) while serving as the Interim CEO, you experience either a material reduction to your total compensation (including the amount of base salary, MIP target bonus and long-term incentive grant date value) or there is a material negative change to your duties or authority (any of the foregoing, a “Good Leaver Event”). In order to terminate as a Good Leaver, your termination must occur within sixty (60) days following the Good Leaver Event, and any notice period you are otherwise required to satisfy pursuant to your Employment Agreement is waived.

4. RSU Grant. Upon your start date as the Interim CEO, the Company will grant you 170,000 RSUs with a vesting period that continues through to February 2026. If you become entitled to the severance compensation and other benefits described in paragraph 3 above upon your cessation of active employment, then the RSU grant described in this paragraph 4 will become fully vested within 30 days following cessation of active employment.

5. Extension of Restriction Period. Section 18 of your Employment Agreement continues to apply, except the definition of “Restraint Period” is amended to read “Restraint Period” means 12 months.

Except as set forth above, all of the terms of your Employment Agreement will continue to apply while you serve as the Interim CEO, including but not limited to the confidentiality obligations contained therein. Please sign below to indicate your acceptance of the terms described in this letter, including the amendments made to your Employment Agreement.

Congratulations on your promotion!
