Grupo Aeroportuario del Pacífico Announces Issuance of Bond Certificates in Mexico for Ps. 6.0 Billion

GUADALAJARA, Mexico, Feb. 04, 2025 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Grupo Aeroportuario del Pacífico, S.A.B. de C.V., (NYSE:PAC; BMV: GAP) ("the Company" or "GAP") announces that today it successfully completed the issuance of 60 million long-term bond certificates in Mexico (Certificados Bursátiles) for a total amount of Ps. 6.0 billion (six billion Pesos 00/100 M.N.). The issuance was carried through two tranches. The issuance amount was up to Ps. 5.0 billion with a greenshoe option of up to 20%, which was exercised upon closing of the issuance. The order book reached an over-subscription of 3.4x over the Ps. 5.0 billion.

The bond certificates were issued in accordance with the following terms:

- Issuance of 30 million debt certificates with ticker symbol "GAP 25," with a nominal value of Ps. 100 (one hundred Pesos 00/100) each, for a total amount of Ps. 3.0 billion (three billion Pesos 00/100 M.N.). Interest payable every 28 days at a variable rate of TIE funding plus 50 basis points; principal payment due at maturity on February 1, 2028, with an option for early amortization.
- Issuance of 30 million debt certificates for a total amount of Ps. 3.0 billion (three billion Pesos 00/100 M.N.). This issuance corresponds to the first reopening of the long-term debt certificates issuance "GAP22-2," originally issued on March 17, 2022, with the same characteristics as the original issuance. Interest is payable every 182 days at a fixed rate of 9.67%; principal payment due at maturity on March 4, 2032, with an option for early amortization. The placement price was Ps. 101.026277 (one hundred one Pesos 026277/1000000 M.N.) each. This price was calculated considering that the additional debt certificates will receive the corresponding interest for the entire ongoing interest period of the original debt certificates and in accordance with the applicable spread for the additional debt certificates.

The issuances obtained the highest credit ratings in Mexico: "Aaa.mx" by Moody's and "mxAAA" by S&P, both on a national scale with a stable outlook.

The proceeds from these issuances will be used to pay off the principal of the debt certificates with ticker symbol "GAP 20," issued on February 13, 2020, and maturing on February 6, 2025, for an amount of Ps. 3.0 billion, as well as "GAP 21," issued on May 7, 2021, and maturing on May 2, 2025, for an amount of Ps. 2.5 billion. The remaining funds will be used to fulfill committed investments under the Master Development Program for the 2025 fiscal year in Mexico and for commercial investments.
